3 and he sees the sword coming upon the land, and shall blow the ram’s horn and shall warn the people,

4 then whoever shall hear the sound of the ram’s horn and shall not take warning, if the sword comes and takes him away, his blood is on his own head.

5 ‘He heard the sound of the ram’s horn, but he did not take warning, his blood is on himself. But he who takes warning shall deliver his being.

6 ‘But if the watchman sees the sword coming and shall not blow the ram’s horn, and the people shall not be warned, and the sword comes and takes any being from among them, he is taken away in his crookedness, and his blood I require at the watchman’s hand.’

7 “And you, son of man, I have made you a watchman for the house of Yisra’ĕl. And you shall hear a word from My mouth and you shall warn them for Me.

8 “When I say to the wrong, ‘O wrong one, you shall certainly die!’ and you have not spoken to warn the wrong from his way, that wrong one shall die in his crookedness, and his blood I require at your hand.
9 “But when you have warned the wrong to turn from his way, and he has not turned from his way, he shall die in his crookedness, but you have delivered your being.
10 “And you, O son of man, say to the house of Yisra’ël, ‘This is what you have said, “If our transgressions and our sins lie upon us, and we pine away in them, how then shall we live?” ’”
11 “Say to them, ‘As I live,’ declares the Master HWHY, ‘I have no pleasure in the death of the wrong, but that the wrong turn from his way and live. Turn back, turn back from your evil ways! For why should you die, O house of Yisra’ël?’
12 “And you, O son of man, say to the children of your people, ‘The righteousness of the righteous man shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression. And as for the wrongness of the wrong, he shall not stumble because of it in the day that he turns from his wrong. And the righteous shall not be able to live because of his righteousness in the day that he sins.’
13 “When I say to the righteous that he shall live, and he has trusted in his righteousness, and shall do unrighteousness, none of his righteousness shall be remembered, but because of his unrighteousness that he has done, he shall die.
14 “Again, when I say to the wrong, ‘You shall certainly die,’ if he turns from his sin and does right and righteousness,
15 if the wrong restores the pledge, gives back what he has stolen, and walks in the laws of life without doing crookedness, he shall certainly live; he shall not die.
16 “None of his sins which he has committed shall be remembered against him – he has done right and righteousness; he shall certainly live.
17 “And the children of your people have said, ‘The way of HWHY is not fair.’ But it is their way which is not fair!
18 “When the righteous turns from his righteousness and does unrighteousness, he shall die because of it.

“As for you, son of man, the children of your people are talking about you beside the walls and in the doors of the houses. And they speak to each other, each saying to his brother, ‘Please come and hear what the word is that comes from יהוה.’

And they come to you as people do, and they sit before you as My people, and they hear your words, but they do not do them. For with their mouth they show much love – their hearts pursue their greedy gain.

And see, you are to them as a very lovely song of one who has a pleasant voice and playing well on an instrument. And they hear your words, but they do not do them.

And when it comes – see, it shall come – then they shall know that a prophet has been in their midst.”

And the word of יהוה came to me, saying,

“Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of ישראל, prophesy and say to them, ‘Thus said the Master יהוה to the shepherds, “Woe to the shepherds who have been feeding themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the flock? You eat the fat and you put on the wool. You slaughter the fatlings – you do not feed the flock.

“You have not strengthened the weak, nor have you healed the sick, nor bound up the broken, nor brought back the straying, nor sought what was lost; but you have ruled them with might and harshness.

And they were scattered because there was no shepherd. And they became food for all the beasts of the field when they were scattered.

“My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and on every high hill. And My sheep were scattered over all the face of the earth, and no one was seeking or searching for them.”

Therefore, you shepherds, hear the word of יהוה:

“As I live,” declares the Master יהוה, “because My flock became a prey, and My flock became food for every beast of the field, from not having a shepherd, and My shepherds did not search for My flock, but the shepherds fed themselves and did not feed My flock.”

Therefore, O shepherds, hear the word of יהוה!

Thus said the Master יהוה, “See, I am against the shepherds, and shall require My flock at their hand, and shall make them cease feeding the sheep, and the shepherds shall feed themselves no more. And I shall deliver My flock from their mouths, and they shall no longer be food for them.”

For thus said the Master יהוה, “See, I Myself shall search for My sheep and seek them out.

As a shepherd seeks out his flock on the day he is among his scattered sheep, so I shall seek out My sheep and deliver them from all the places where they were scattered in a day of cloud and thick darkness.

And I shall bring them out from the peoples and gather them from the lands, and shall bring them to their own land. And I shall feed them on the mountains of ישראל, in the valleys, and in all the dwellings of the land.

In good pasture I shall feed them, and their fold shall be on the high mountains of ישראל. They shall lie there in a good fold and feed in rich pasture on the mountains of ישראל.

I shall feed My flock and make them lie down,” declares the Master יהוה.

“I shall seek out the lost and bring back the strayed. And I shall bind up the broken and strengthen what was sick, but the fat and the strong I shall destroy. I shall feed them with right-ruling.”

And as for you, O My flock, thus said the Master יהוה, “See, I am judging between sheep and sheep, between rams and goats.

Is it not enough for you to have eaten up the good pasture, and the rest of your pasture you trample with your feet. Or that you should drink of the clear waters, and the rest you muddy with your feet?
19 “And as for My flock, they eat what you have trampled with your feet, and they drink what you have muddied with your feet.”
20 Therefore thus said the Master יהוה to them, “See, I Myself shall judge between fat and lean sheep.
21 “Because you have pushed with flank and shoulder, and thrust at all the weak ones with your horns, and scattered them abroad,
therefore I shall save My flock, and let them no longer be a prey. And I shall judge between sheep and sheep.
22 “And I shall raise up over them one shepherd, My servant Dawid, and he shall feed them. He shall feed them and be their shepherd.
23 “And I, יהוה, shall be their Elohim, and
My servant Dawid a prince in their midst.
I, יהוה, have spoken.
24 “And I shall make a covenant of peace with them, and make evil beasts cease from the land. And they shall dwell safely in the wilderness and sleep in the forest.
25 “And I shall make the trees of the field yield their fruit and the earth yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land. And they shall know that I am יהוה, when I have broken the bars of their yoke. And I shall deliver them from the hand of those who enslaved them, and they shall no longer be a prey for the gentiles, and the beast of the earth shall not devour them. And they shall dwell safely, with no one to make them afraid.
26 “And I shall raise up for them a planting place of name, and they shall no longer be consumed by hunger in the land, nor bear the shame of the gentiles any more.
27 “And they shall know that I, יהוה, their Elohim, am with them, and that they, the house of Yisra’el, are My people,” declares the Master יהוה.”
31 “And you, My flock, the flock of My pasture, are men, and I am your Elohim,” declares the Master יהוה.
35 And the word of יהוה came to me, saying,
2 “Son of man, set your face against
Mount Sê’ir and prophesy against it,
3 and you shall say to it, ‘Thus said the Master יהוה, “See, O Mount Sê’ir, I am against you, and shall stretch out My hand against you, and shall make you a ruin and a waste.
4 “Your cities I destroy, and let you be a ruin. And you shall know that I am יהוה.
5 “Because you have had a continuous enmity, and handed the children of Yisra’el over to the power of the sword at the time of their calamity, at the time of the crookedness of the end.
6 “Therefore, as I live,” declares the Master יהוה, “I shall appoint you for blood, and let blood pursue you. Since you did not hate blood, therefore blood shall pursue you.
7 “And I shall make Mount Sê’ir a ruin and a waste, and cut off from it the one who leaves and the one who returns, 8 and shall fill its mountains with the slain, those slain by the sword falling on your hills and in your valleys and in all your ravines.
9 “I shall make you an everlasting ruin, and your cities uninhabited. And you shall know that I am יהוה.
10 “Because you have said, ‘These two nations and these two lands are mine, and we shall possess them,’ although יהוה was there,
11 therefore, as I live,” declares the Master יהוה, “I shall do according to your displeasure and according to your envy which you showed in your hatred against them. And I shall make Myself known among them when I judge you.
12 “And you shall know that I am יהוה. I have heard all your scorns which you have spoken against the mountains of Yisra’el, saying, ‘They are laid waste, they were given to us for food.’
13 “And with your mouth you have boasted against Me and increased your words against Me – I Myself have heard.”

14 ‘Thus said the Master יהוה, “As all the earth is rejoicing I shall make you a ruin.

15 ‘As you rejoiced because the inheritance of the house of Yisra’el was laid waste, so I do to you: be a ruin, O Mount Se’ir, as well as all of Edom, all of it! And they shall know that I am יהוה.’ ”

36 “And you, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Yisra’el, and you shall say, ‘O mountains of Yisra’el, hear the word of יהוה!

2 ‘Thus said the Master יהוה, “Because the enemy has said of you, ‘Aha! The heights of old have become our possession,’ ”

3 therefore prophesy, and you shall say, ‘Thus said the Master יהוה, “Because they laid you waste and swallowed you up on every side, so that you became the possession of the rest of the gentiles, and you are taken up by the lips of talkers and slandered by the people,”’

4 therefore, O mountains of Yisra’el, hear the word of the Master יהוה! Thus said the Master יהוה to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, and to the deserted ruins, and to the cities that have been forsaken, which became a prey and a mocking to the rest of the gentiles all around;

5 therefore thus said the Master יהוה, “Have I not spoken in My burning jealousy against the rest of the gentiles and against all Edom, who gave My land to themselves as a possession, with all joy of heart, with scorn in their being, to drive it out for a prey?”

6 “Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Yisra’el, and you shall say to mountains, and to hills, to rivers, and to valleys, ‘Thus said the Master יהוה, “See, I have spoken in My jealousy and My wrath, because you have borne the shame of the gentiles.”’

7 ‘Therefore thus said the Master יהוה, “I have lifted My hand in an oath that the gentiles that are around you shall bear their own shame.

8 “But you, O mountains of Yisra’el, put forth your branches and bear your fruit to My people Yisra’el, for they are about to come!

9 ‘For look, I am for you, and I shall turn to you, and you shall be tilled and sown.

10 ‘And I shall increase men upon you, all the house of Yisra’el, all of it. And the cities shall be inhabited and the ruins rebuilt.

11 ‘And I shall increase upon you man and beast, and they shall increase and bear young. And I shall make you inhabited as of old, and do better for you than at your beginnings. And you shall know that I am יהוה.

12 ‘And I shall let men, My people Yisra’el, walk upon you, and let them possess you, and you shall be their inheritance, and no longer let you add to their bereavement.”

13 ‘Thus said the Master יהוה, “Because they say to you, ‘You devour men and have bereaved your nation,’ 14 therefore you shall no longer devour men, and no longer bereave your nation,” declares the Master יהוה.

15 “And no longer shall I let you hear the insults of the gentiles. And the reproach of the peoples you shall bear no more, and no longer cause your nations to stumble,” declares the Master יהוה.’ ”

16 And the word of יהוה came to me, saying,

17 “Son of man, when the house of Yisra’el dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their own ways and deeds. To Me their way was like the uncleanness of a woman in her monthly period.

18 “So I poured out My wrath on them for the blood they had shed on the land, and for their idols they defiled it.

19 And I scattered them among the gentiles, and they were dispersed throughout the lands. I have judged them according to their ways and their deeds.

20 “And when they came to the gentiles, wherever they went, they profaned My set-apart Name for it was said of them, ‘These are the people of יהוה, and yet they have gone out of His land.’
“But I had compassion on My set-apart Name, which the house of Yisra’êl had profaned among the gentiles wherever they went.

Therefore say to the house of Yisra’êl, ‘Thus said the Master הוהי, “I do not do this for your sake, O house of Yisra’êl, but for My set-apart Name’s sake, which you have profaned among the gentiles wherever you went.

And I shall set apart My great Name, which has been profaned among the gentiles, which you have profaned in their midst. And the gentiles shall know that I am הוהי;” declares the Master הוהי, “when I am set-apart in you before their eyes.

And I shall take you from among the gentiles, and I shall gather you out of all lands, and I shall bring you into your own land.

And I shall sprinkle clean water on you, and you shall be clean – from all your filthiness and from all your idols I cleanse you.

And I shall give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you. And I shall take the heart of stone out of your flesh, and put My Spirit within you. And I shall cause you to walk in My laws and guard My right-rulings and shall do them.

And you shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers. And you shall be My people, and I shall be your Elohim.

And I shall save you from all your uncleannesses. And I shall call for the grain and increase it, and I shall bring no scarcity of food upon you.

And I shall increase the fruit of your trees and the increase of your fields, so that you need never again bear the reproach of scarcity of food among the gentiles.

And you shall remember your evil ways and your deeds that were not good. And you shall loathe yourselves in your own eyes, for your crookednesses and your abominations.

Not for your sake am I acting,” declares the Master הוהי, “let it be known to you. Be ashamed and blush for your ways, O house of Yisra’êl!’”

Thus said the Master הוהי, “On the day that I cleanse you from all your crookednesses, I shall cause the cities to be inhabited, and the ruined places shall be rebuilt, and the land that was laid waste tilled instead of being a ruin before the eyes of all who pass by.

And they shall say, ‘This land that was laid waste has become like the garden of Eden. And the wasted, the deserted, and the destroyed cities are now walled and inhabited.’

Then the gentiles which are left all around you shall know that I, הוהי, have rebuilt the destroyed places and planted what was laid waste. I, הוהי, have spoken it, and I shall do it.”

Thus said the Master הוהי, “Once again I shall let the house of Yisra’êl inquire of Me to do for them: I shall increase their men like a flock.

As a set-apart flock, as the flock at Yerushalayim at her appointed times, so shall the wasted cities be filled with flocks of men. And they shall know that I am הוהי.”’ ”

The hand of הוהי was upon me and took me out by the Spirit of הוהי, and set me down in the midst of the valley. And it was filled with bones.

And He made me pass among them, all around, and see, there were very many on the surface of the valley, and see, they were very dry.

And He said to me, “Son of man, would these bones live?” And I said, “O Master הוהי, You know.”

Again He said to me, “Prophesy to these bones, and you shall say to them, ‘O dry bones, hear the word of הוהי!'

Thus said the Master הוהי to these bones, “See, I am bringing into you a spirit, and you shall live.

And I shall put sinews on you and bring flesh upon you, and cover you with..."
skin and put a spirit in you, and you shall live. And you shall know that I am HWHY.

7 And I prophesied as I was commanded. And as I prophesied, there was a noise, and there was a rattling. And the bones came together, bone to bone.

8 And I looked and saw sinews and flesh came upon them, and skin covered them, but there was no spirit in them.

9 He then said to me, “Prophesy to the spirit, prophesy, son of man, and you shall say to the spirit, ‘Thus said the Master HWHY, “Come from the four winds, O spirit, and breathe on these slain, so that they live.”’

10 And I prophesied as He commanded me, and the spirit came into them, and they lived, and stood upon their feet, a very great army.

11 And He said to me, “Son of man, these bones are all the house of Yisra’ēl. See, they say, ‘Our bones are dry, our expectancy has perished, and we ourselves have been cut off!’

12 Therefore prophesy, and you shall say to them, ‘Thus said the Master HWHY, “See, O My people, I am opening your graves, and shall bring you up from your graves, and shall bring you into the land of Yisra’ēl.

13 And you shall know that I am HWHY, when I open your graves, O My people, and bring you up from your graves.

14 And I shall put My Spirit in you, and you shall live, and I shall settle you in your own land. And you shall know that I HWHY have spoken, and I have done it,” declares HWHY.

15 And the word of HWHY came to me, saying,

16 “And you, son of man, take a stick for yourself and write on it, ‘For YehuÅah and for the children of Yisra’ēl, his companions.’ Then take another stick and write on it, ‘For Yosèph, the stick of Ephrayim, and for all the house of Yisra’ēl, his companions.’

17 Then bring them together for yourself into one stick, and they shall become one in your hand.

18 “And when the children of your people speak to you, saying, ‘Won’t you show us what you mean by these?’

19 say to them, ‘Thus said the Master HWHY, “See, I am taking the stick of Yosèph, which is in the hand of Ephrayim, and the tribes of Yisra’ēl, his companions. And I shall give them unto him, with the stick of YehuÅah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in My hand.”’

20 “And the sticks on which you write shall be in your hand before their eyes.

21 “And speak to them, ‘Thus said the Master HWHY, “See, I am taking the children of Yisra’ēl from among the gentiles, wherever they have gone, and shall gather them from all around, and I shall bring them into their land.

22 “And I shall make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Yisra’ēl. And one sovereign shall be sovereign over them all, and let them no longer be two nations, and let them no longer be divided into two reigns.

23 “And they shall no longer defile themselves with their idols, nor with their disgusting matters, nor with any of their transgressions. And I shall save them from all their dwelling places in which they have sinned, and I shall cleanse them. And they shall be My people, and I be their Elohim, 24 while DawiÅ My servant is sovereign over them. And they shall all have one shepherd and walk in My right-rulings and guard My laws, and shall do them.

25 “And they shall dwell in the land that I have given to YaÈaqoÄ My servant, where your fathers dwelt. And they shall dwell in it, they and their children and their children’s children, forever, and My servant DawiÅ be their prince forever.

26 “And I shall make a covenant of peace with them – an everlasting covenant it is with them. And I shall place them and increase them, and shall place My set-apart place in their midst, forever.

27 “And My Dwelling Place shall be over them. And I shall be their Elohim, and they shall be My people.

28 “And the gentiles shall know that I,
38 And the word of YHWH came to me, saying,

2“Son of man, set your face against Goī, of the land of Maīoī, the prince of Rosh, Mesheχ, and Tuϕal, and prophesy against him.

3“And you shall say, ‘Thus says the Master YHWH, “See, I am against you, O Goī, the prince of Rosh, Mesheχ, and Tuϕal.

4“And I shall turn you around, and I shall put hooks into your jaws, and shall lead you out, with all your army, horses and horsemen, clad perfectly, a great assembly with armour and shields, all of them handling swords.

5“Persia, Kush, and Put are with them, all of them with shield and helmet, 6“Gomer and all its bands, the house of Toγarmah from the far north and all its bands, many peoples with you.

7“Be ready, prepare yourself, you and all your assemblies that are assembled unto you. And you shall be a guard for them.

8“After many days you shall be called up. In the latter years you shall come into the land of those brought back from the sword and gathered from many people on the mountains of Yisra’el, which had been a continual waste. But they were brought out of the gentiles, and all of them shall dwell safely.

9“And you shall go up, coming like a storm, covering the land like a cloud, you and all your bands and many peoples with you.”

10‘Thus said the Master YHWH, “And it shall be in that day that words arise in your heart, and you shall devise an evil plan:

11“And you shall say, ‘Let me go up against a land of unwalled villages, let me go to those at rest who dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates,’

12“to take plunder and to take booty, to stretch out your hand against the waste places that are again inhabited, and against a people gathered from the gentiles, acquiring livestock and goods, who dwell in the middle of the land.

13“Sheba, and Deϕan, and the merchants of Tarshish, and all their young lions shall say to you, ‘Have you come to take plunder? Have you gathered your army to take booty, to bear away silver and gold, to take away livestock and goods, to take great plunder?’ ”

14“Therefore, son of man, prophesy, and you shall say to Goī, ‘Thus said the Master YHWH, “In that day when My people Yisra’el dwell safely, would you not know?

15“And you shall come from your place out of the far north, you and many peoples with you, all of them riding on horses, a great assembly and a mighty army.

16“And you shall come up against My people Yisra’el like a cloud, to cover the land – in the latter days it shall be. And I shall bring you against My land, in order that the gentiles know Me, when I am set apart in you, O Goī, before their eyes.”

17‘Thus said the Master YHWH, “Are you the one I spoke of in former days by My servants the prophets of Yisra’el, who prophesied for years in those days, to bring you against them?

18“And it shall be on that day, on the day when Goī comes against the land of Yisra’el,” declares the Master YHWH, “that My wrath shall come up in My face.

19“For in My jealousy and in the fire of My wrath I have spoken, ‘On that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Yisra’el, 20“so that the fish of the sea, and the birds of the heavens, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping creatures that creep on the earth, and all men who are on the face of the earth shall shake at My presence. And the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall fall to the ground.’

21“And I shall call for a sword against Goī on all My mountains,” declares the Master YHWH, “the sword of each one being against his brother.

22“And I shall judge him with pestilence and blood, and rain down flooding rain and hailstones, fire and sulphur, on him and on his bands and on the many peoples who are with him.

23 “And I shall exalt Myself and set Myself apart, and I shall be known in the eyes of many nations. And they shall know that I am יהוה.”

39 “And you, son of man, prophesy against Goğ, and you shall say, ‘Thus said the Master יהוה, “See, I am against you, O Goğ, the prince of Rosh, Mesheḵ, and Tuḇal, 2and shall turn you around and lead you on, and bring you up from the uttermost parts of the north, and bring you against the mountains of Yisra’el, 3and shall smite the bow out of your left hand, and make the arrows fall from your right hand.

4“On the mountains of Yisra’el you shall fall, you and all your bands and the peoples who are with you. To the birds of prey of every sort and to the beasts of the field I shall give you for food.

5“On the face of the field you shall fall, for I have spoken,” declares the Master יהוה.

6“And I shall send fire upon Maḵoḏ and on those who live undisturbed in the coastslands. And they shall know that I am יהוה.

7“And I shall make My set-apart Name known in the midst of My people Yisra’el, and not let My set-apart Name be profaned any more. And the gentiles shall know that I am יהוה, the Set-apart One in Yisra’el.

8“See, it shall come, and it shall be done,” declares the Master יהוה. “This is the day of which I have spoken.

9“And those who inhabit the cities of Yisra’el shall go out and set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and armour, the bows and arrows, the clubs and spears. And they shall make fires with them for seven years, 10and take no wood from the field nor cut down any from the forests, for with the weapons they make fire. And they shall plunder those who plundered them, and loot those who looted them,” declares the Master יהוה.

11“And it shall be on that day that I give Goğ a burial site there in Yisra’el, the valley of those passing by east of the sea, and stopping those passing by, because there they shall bury Goğ and all his crowd, and shall call it the Valley of Hamon Goğ.

12“And the house of Yisra’el shall bury them for seven months, in order to cleanse the land.

13“And all the people of the land shall bury them, and it shall be for a name to them on the day that I am esteemed,” declares the Master יהוה.

14“And they shall separate men who continually pass through the land, burying those who were passing through, those left on the surface of the ground, in order to cleanse it. At the end of seven months they shall search, 15and those passing through shall pass through the land, and when anyone sees a man’s bone, he shall set up a sign beside it, till the buriers have buried it in the Valley of Hamon Goğ.

16“And also a city named Hamonah shall be there. So they shall cleanse the land.”

17“And you, son of man, thus said the Master יהוה, ‘Speak to every sort of bird and to every beast of the field, “Assemble yourselves and come, gather from all around to My offering which I am slaughtering for you, a great offering on the mountains of Yisra’el, and you shall eat flesh and drink blood.

18“Eat the flesh of the mighty, drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams and lambs, of goats and bulls, all of them fatlings of Bashan.

19“And you shall eat fat till you are filled, and drink blood till you are drunk, at My offering which I am slaughtering for you.

20“And you shall be satisfied at My table with horses and riders, with mighty men and with all the men of battle,” declares the Master יהוה.

21“And I shall set My esteem among the gentiles. And all gentiles shall see My judgment which I have executed, and My hand which I have laid on them.

22“And the house of Yisra’el shall know that I am יהוה their Elohim from that day onward.

23“And the gentiles shall know that the house of Yisra’el went into exile for their crookedness, because they have trespassed against Me, so that I hid My face from them, and I gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they all fell by the sword.

24“According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions I have dealt with them, and hidden My face from them.”

25“Therefore thus said the Master יהוה, ‘Now I am going to bring back the captives of YaÈaqoÄ. And I shall have compassion on all the house of Yisra’el, and shall be jealous for My set-apart Name.

26 ‘And they shall have borne their shame, and all their trespass they committed against Me, when they dwell safely in their own land, with none to make them afraid, 27when I have brought them back from the peoples and gathered them out of the lands of their enemies. And I shall be set apart in them before the eyes of many gentiles.

28‘And they shall know that I am יהוה their Elohim, who sent them into exile among the gentiles, and then gathered them back to their own land, and left none of them behind.

29‘And no longer do I hide My face from them, for I shall have poured out My Spirit on the house of Yisra’el,’ declares the Master יהוה.”

40 In the twenty-fifth year of our exile, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth of the month, in the fourteenth year after the city was smitten, on that same day the hand of יהוה came upon me and He brought me there.

2In visions of Elohim He brought me into the land of Yisra’el and set me on a very high mountain, and upon it toward the south was as the structure of a city.

3So He brought me there, and look, a man whose appearance was like the appearance of bronze, and a line of flax and a measuring rod in his hand, and he stood in the gateway.

4And the man said to me, “Son of man, see with your eyes and hear with your ears, and set your heart on all that I am showing you, for you were brought here in order to show them to you. Declare to the house of Yisra’el all that you are seeing.”

5And look: a wall all around the outside of the House, and in the man’s hand a measuring rod six cubits long, each being a cubit and a handbreadth. And he measured the width of the wall structure, one rod, and the height one rod.

6Then he came to the gate facing east. And he went up its stairs and measured the threshold of the gate, one rod wide, and the other threshold, one rod wide, 7and the little room one rod long and one rod wide, and between the little rooms a space of five cubits. And the threshold of the gate inwards from the porch of the gate was one rod.

8Then he measured the porch of the inside gate, one rod.

9And he measured the porch of the gate, eight cubits, and its posts two cubits. And the porch of the gate was on the inside.

10And the little rooms of the east gate three on one side and three on the other, all three of the same size. And posts were of the same size on this side and that side.

11And he measured the width of the entrance of the gate, ten cubits, and the length of the gate thirteen cubits.

12And the border in front of the little rooms, one cubit on this side and one cubit on that side. And the gate room was six cubits on this side and six cubits on that side.

13And he measured the gate from the roof of one little room to the roof of the other, the width was twenty-five cubits, door to door.

14And he measured the posts, sixty cubits high, even to the post of the courtyard all around the gate.

15And from the front of the entrance gate to the front of the porch of the inner gate was fifty cubits.

16And there were narrowed window frames in the little rooms and to their posts at the inside of the gate all around, and for the porches too. And there were windows all around on the inside. And on each post were palm trees.

17 And he brought me into the outer courtyard, and look, rooms and a pavement made all around the courtyard, thirty rooms on the pavement.

18 And the pavement was by the side of the gates, equal to the length of the gates — the lower pavement.

19 And he measured the width from the front of the lower gate to the front of the inner courtyard on the outside, one hundred cubits toward the east and the north.

20 And the gate of the outer courtyard facing north he measured its length and its width.

21 And its little rooms, three on this side and three on that side, its posts and its porches, had the same measurements as the first gate, its length was fifty cubits and its width twenty-five cubits.

22 And its windows and its porches, and its palm trees, had the same measurements as the gate facing east. And they went up to it by seven steps, and its porch was in front of it.

23 And the gate of the inner courtyard was opposite the northern gate, and at the eastern gate. And he measured from gate to gate, one hundred cubits.

24 And he took me toward the south, and look, a gate toward the south. And he measured its posts and porches according to these measurements.

25 And windows were in it and in its porches all around like those windows, its length was fifty cubits and its width twenty-five cubits.

26 And seven steps led up to it, and its porch was in front of them. And it had palm trees on its posts, one on this side and one on that side.

27 And the inner courtyard had a gate toward the south. And he measured from gate to gate toward the south, one hundred cubits.

28 And he brought me to the inner courtyard through the south gate, and he measured the southern gate according to these measurements.

29 And its little rooms, and its posts, and its porches were according to these measurements. And windows were in it and in its porches all around — fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

30 And there were porches all around, twenty-five cubits long and five cubits wide.

31 And its porches were toward the outer courtyard, and palm trees were on its posts, and eight steps led up to it.

32 And he brought me into the inner courtyard toward the east, and he measured the gate according to these measurements.

33 And its little rooms, and its posts, and its porches were according to these measurements. And windows were in it and in its porches all around — fifty cubits long and twenty-five cubits wide.

34 And its porches were toward the outer courtyard, and palm trees were on its posts on this side and on that side, and eight steps led up to it.

35 And he brought me to the north gate, and he measured it according to these measurements, 36 its little rooms, its posts, and its porches. And it had windows all around, its length was fifty cubits and its width twenty-five cubits.

37 And its posts were toward the outer courtyard, and palm trees were on its posts on this side and on that side, and eight steps led up to it.

38 And there was a room with its entrance by the posts of the gate, where they washed the burnt offering.

39 And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side and two tables on that side, on which to slaughter the burnt offering, and the sin offering, and the guilt offering.

40 And on the outer side, as one went up to the entrance of the north gate, were two tables. And on the other side of the porch of the gate were two tables.

41 Four tables were on this side and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate, eight tables on which they slaughtered.

42 And there were four tables of hewn stone for the burnt offering, one cubit and a half long, one cubit and a half wide, and one cubit high. On these they placed the instruments with which they slaughtered the burnt offering and the offering.

43 And the double hooks, a handbreadth wide, were fastened all around. And on the tables was the flesh of the offerings.

44 And on the outside of the inner gate were the rooms for the singers in the inner courtyard, one at the side of the north gate and facing south, and the other at the side of the south gate facing north.

45 And he said to me, “This room facing south is for the priests who guard the duty of the House.

46 “And the room facing north is for the priests who guard the duty of the altar, they are the sons of Tsadoq, from the sons of Lëwi, who come near HWHY to serve Him.”

47 And he measured the courtyard, one hundred cubits long and one hundred cubits wide, a square. And the altar was in front of the House.

48 And he brought me to the porch of the House and measured the doorposts of the porch, five cubits on this side and five cubits on that side. And the width of the gate was three cubits on this side and three cubits on that side.

49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the width eleven cubits. And by the steps which led up to it there were columns by the doorposts, one on this side and one on that side.

51 And he brought me into the Hëkal, and he measured the doorposts, six cubits wide on one side and six cubits wide on the other side, the width of the Tent.

2 And the entrance was ten cubits wide, and the side walls of the entrance were five cubits on this side and five cubits on the other side. And he measured its length, forty cubits, and twenty cubits wide.

3 And he went inside and measured the doorposts, two cubits, and the entrance six cubits high, and the width of the entrance seven cubits.

4 And he measured the length, twenty cubits, and the width twenty cubits, to the front of the Hëkal. And he said to me, “This is the Most Set-apart Place.”

5 And he measured the wall of the House, six cubits, and the width of each side room all around the House was four cubits on every side.

6 And the side rooms were on three levels, one above the other, thirty rooms on each level, they rested on ledges which were for the side rooms all around, to be supported, but not fastened to the wall of the House.

7 And there was a broadening and a winding upwards for the side rooms, for the winding around the House went up like steps. And the width of the structure increased as one went up from the lowest level to the highest by way of the middle one.

8 And I saw the height all around the House: the foundation of the side rooms, a rod’s length of six cubits.

9 The thickness of the outer wall of the side rooms was five cubits, and that which was left between the side rooms of the House

10 and the rooms was a width of twenty cubits all around the House on every side.

11 And the door of the side room was toward the open space, one door toward the north and another toward the south. And the width of the place of the open space was five cubits all around.

12 And the building that was in front of the separate place at the side toward the west was seventy cubits wide, and the wall of the building was five cubits thick all around, and its length ninety cubits.

13 Then he measured the House, one hundred cubits long. And the separate place with the building and its walls, were one hundred cubits long,

14 and the width of the front of the House, and of the separate place eastward, was one hundred cubits.

15 And he measured the length of the building to the front of the separate place behind it, and its galleries on the one side and on the other side, one hundred cubits, as well as the inner Hëkal and the porches of the courtyard.
The doorposts and the narrowed window frames, and the galleries all around, their three levels opposite the threshold, were panelled with wood. From the ground to the windows, and the windows were covered, from the space above the door, even to the inner house, as well as outside, and on every wall all around, inside and outside, by measure.

And it was made with keruḇîm and palm trees, and a palm tree between keruḇ and keruḇ. A keruḇ had two faces, so that the face of a man was toward a palm tree on one side, and the face of a young lion toward a palm tree on the other side – made on all the House all around.

From the floor to the space above the door, and on the wall of the Hêḵal, keruḇîm and palm trees were carved.

The doorposts of the Hêḵal were square, and the front of the set-apart place, the appearance of one was like the appearance of the other.

The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and its length two cubits. And its corners, and its length, and its sides were of wood. And he said to me, “This is the table that is before HWHY.”

And the Hêḵal and the set-apart place had two doors.

And each of the doors had two panels, two folding panels, two panels for one door and two panels for the other door.

And keruḇîm and palm trees were carved on the doors of the Hêḵal, like those carved on the walls. And thick wood was on the front of the porch outside.

And narrowed window frames and palm trees were on one side and on the other, on the sides of the porch, and on the side rooms of the House, and thick wood.

And he brought me out into the outer courtyard, the way toward the north. And he brought me into the room which was opposite the separate place, and which was opposite the building to the north.

Along the length which was one hundred cubits, was the north door, the width was fifty cubits.

Opposite the inner courtyard of twenty cubits, and opposite the pavement of the outer courtyard, gallery against gallery in three levels.

And before the rooms, toward the inside, was a walk ten cubits wide, a way of one cubit. And their doors were to the north.

And the upper rooms were shorter, because the galleries took away space from them more than from the lower and middle levels of the building.

For they were in three levels and had no columns like the columns of the courtyards, so the upper level was set back more than the lower and middle levels from the ground up.

As for the outer wall by the side of the rooms, toward the outer courtyard facing the rooms, its length was fifty cubits.

For the length of the rooms toward the outer courtyard was fifty cubits, and that facing the Hêḵal was one hundred cubits.

And below these rooms was the entrance on the east side, as one enters them from the outer courtyard.

In the thickness of the wall of the courtyard toward the east, opposite the separate place and opposite the building, were rooms.

And the way in front of them was like the appearance of the rooms which were toward the north, as long and as wide as the others, and all their exits and entrances were according to plan.

And according to the doors of the rooms that were toward the south, there was a door in front of the way, the way in front of the wall toward the east, as one enters them.

And he said to me, “The north rooms and the south rooms, which are opposite the separate place, are the set-apart rooms where the priests who approach HWHY eat the most set-apart offerings. There they place the most set-apart items, and the grain offering, and the sin offering, and the guilt offering, for the place is set-apart.

“When the priests enter, they are not to go out of the set-apart room into the outer... courtyard, but leave their garments in which they attend there, for they are set-apart, and shall put on other garments and shall draw near to that which is for the people.”

15 And when he had ended measuring the inner House, he brought me out through the gate that faces east, and measured it all around.

16 He measured the east side with the measuring rod, five hundred rods by the measuring rod all around.

17 He measured the north side, five hundred rods by the measuring rod all around.

18 He measured the south side, five hundred rods by the measuring rod.

19 He turned round to the west side and measured five hundred rods by the measuring rod.

20 On the four sides he measured it. It had a wall all around, five hundred cubits long and five hundred wide, to separate the set-apart places from the common.

43 And he led me to the gate, the gate facing east.

2 And see, the esteem of the Elohim of Yisra’ēl came from the way of the east. And His voice was like the sound of many waters, and the earth shone from His esteem.

3 And it was like the appearance of the vision which I saw, like the vision which I saw when He came to destroy the city. And the visions were like the vision which I saw by the River Keār, and I fell on my face.

4 And the esteem of יוהא came into the House by way of the gate facing east.

5 And the Spirit took me up and brought me into the inner courtyard. And see, the esteem of יוהא filled the House.

6 And I heard someone speaking to me from the House, while a man stood beside me.

7 And He said to me, “Son of man, this is the place of My throne and the place of the soles of My feet, when I dwell in the midst of the children of Yisra’ēl forever, and the house of Yisra’ēl shall no longer defile My set-apart Name, they nor their sovereigns, by their whoring and by the corpses of their sovereigns on their high places.

8 “When they placed their threshold by My threshold, and their doorpost by My doorpost, with a wall between them and Me, they defiled My set-apart Name by the abominations which they have done. So I consumed them in My displeasure.

9 “Now let them put their whoring and the corpses of their sovereigns far away from Me, and I shall dwell in their midst forever.

10 “Son of man, explain the House to the house of Yisra’ēl, and when they are ashamed of all that they did, make known to them the design of the House and its structure, and its exits and its entrances, its entire design and all its laws, and all its forms and all its Torah. And write it down before their eyes, so that they observe its entire design and all its laws, and shall do them.

11 “This is the Torah of the House: Upon the mountaintop, all the boundary of it, all around, is most set-apart. See, this is the Torah of the House.

12 “And these are the measurements of the altar in cubits, that cubit being one cubit and a handbreadth, and the base one cubit high and one cubit wide, with a rim all around its edge of one span. And this is the upper part of the altar.

13 “And from the base on the ground to the lower ledge, two cubits, and the width of the ledge one cubit, and from the smaller ledge to the larger ledge four cubits, and the width of the ledge one cubit.

14 “And the altar hearth is four cubits high, and four horns extending upward from the hearth.

15 “And the altar hearth is twelve cubits long, and twelve wide, square at its four corners.

16 “And the altar hearth is fourteen long and fourteen wide on its four sides, with a rim of half a cubit around it, and its base one cubit all around, and its steps face east.”

18 And He said to me, “Son of man, thus..."
said the Master יהוה,  ‘These are the laws for the altar on the day when it is made, for offering burnt offerings on it, and for sprinkling blood on it.

19‘And you shall give a young bull for a sin offering to the priests, the Levites, who are of the seed of Tsadoq, who approach unto Me,’ declares the Master יהוה.

20‘And you shall take some of its blood and put it on the four horns of the altar, on the four corners of the ledge, and on the rim around it, and shall cleanse it and make atonement for it.

21‘And you shall take the bull of the sin offering, and shall burn it in the appointed place of the House, outside the set-apart place.

22‘And on the second day you bring a male goat, a perfect one, for a sin offering. And they shall cleanse the altar, as they cleansed it with the bull.

23‘When you have ended cleansing it, bring a young bull, a perfect one, and a ram from the flock, a perfect one.

24‘And you shall bring them before יהוה, and the priests shall throw salt on them and offer them up as a burnt offering to יהוה.

25‘Prepare a goat for a sin offering daily for seven days, and prepare a young bull and a ram from the flock, perfect ones.

26‘For seven days they shall make atonement for the altar and cleanse it, and ordain it.

27‘And when these days are completed it shall be, on the eighth day and thereafter, that the priests make your burnt offerings and your peace offerings on the altar, and I shall accept you,’ declares the Master יהוה.”

4And He brought me back to the outer gate of the set-apart place which faces east, and it was shut.

2And יהוה said to me, “This gate is shut, it is not opened, and no one enters it, because יהוה Elohim of Yisra’el has entered by it, and it shall be shut.

3“The prince, as prince, he sits in it to eat bread before יהוה, coming in by way of the porch of the gate, and going out the same way.”

4And He brought me by way of the north gate to the front of the House. And I looked and saw the esteem of יהוה filled the House of יהוה, and I fell on my face.

5And יהוה said to me, “Son of man, set your heart and see with your eyes and hear with your ears, all that I say to you concerning all the laws of the House of יהוה and all its Torah. And you shall set your heart to the entrance of the house, with all the exits of the set-apart place, 6and shall say to the rebellious, to the house of Yisra’el,  ‘Thus said the Master יהוה, “O house of Yisra’el, enough of all these abominations of yours, 7that you brought in sons of a foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in My set-apart place to profane it, My house! That you brought near My food, the fat and the blood, and you broke My covenant because of all your abominations.

8“And you did not guard the charge of that which is set-apart to Me, but you have set others to guard the charge of My set-apart place for you.”

9‘Thus said the Master יהוה, “No son of a foreigner, uncircumcised in heart or uncircumcised in flesh, comes into My set-apart place, even any son of a foreigner who is among the children of Yisra’el.

10“And the Levites who went far from Me, when Yisra’el went astray, who strayed away from Me after their idols, they shall bear their crookedness.

11“And they were attendants in My set-apart place, as gatekeepers of the house and attendants of the house, slaughtering the burnt offering and the offering for the people, and standing before them to attend to them.

12“Because they attended to them before their idols and became a stumbling-block of crookedness to the house of Yisra’el, therefore I have lifted My hand in an oath against them,” declares the Master יהוה, “that they shall bear their crookedness, 13and not come near Me to serve as My priest, nor come near any of that which is set-apart to Me, nor into the Most Set-apart Place. And they shall bear their shame and their abominations which they have done.

14 "Yet I shall make them those who guard the duty of the House, for all its work, and for all that has to be done in it.
15 "But the priests, the Léwites, the sons of Tsadoq, who guarded the duty of My set-apart place when the children of Yisra’él went astray from Me, they shall draw near to Me to serve Me, and shall stand before Me to bring to Me the fat and the blood,” declares the Master הוהי.
16 "They shall enter My set-apart place, and they shall draw near to My table to serve Me, and they shall guard My charge.
17 "And it shall be, when they enter the gates of the inner courtyard, that they put on linen garments, and no wool shall come upon them while they attend within the gates of the inner courtyard or within the house.
18 "They shall have linen turbans on their heads and linen trousers on their bodies, they shall not gird themselves with sweat.
19 "And when they go out to the outer courtyard, to the outer courtyard to the people, they shall take off their garments in which they have attended, and shall leave them in the set-apart rooms, and shall put on other garments. And they shall set apart the people in their set-apart garments.
20 "And their heads they shall not shave, nor shall they let their hair grow long – they shall keep their hair well trimmed.
21 "And no priest is to drink wine when he comes into the inner court.
22 "And they do not take as wife a widow or a divorced woman, but take maidens of the seed of the house of Yisra’él, or widows of priests.
23 "And they are to teach My people the difference between the set-apart and the profane, and make them know what is unclean and clean.
24 "And they are to stand as judges in a dispute, and judge it according to My right-rulings. And they are to guard My Torah and My laws in all My appointed festivals, and set apart My Sabbaths.
25 "And they are not to defile themselves by coming near a dead man. Only for a father or mother, for a son or daughter, for a brother or unmarried sister they defile themselves.
26 "And after his cleansing, they count seven days for him,
27 "and on the day that he comes into the inner court of the set-apart place to attend in the set-apart place, he brings his sin offering,” declares the Master הוהי.
28 "And it shall be to them for an inheritance, I am their inheritance. And you give them no possession in Yisra’él – I am their possession.
29 "The grain offering, and the sin offering, and the guilt offering they are to eat, and all that is dedicated in Yisra’él is theirs.
30 "And the first of all the first-fruits of all, and every contribution of all, of all your contributions, belong to the priests. And the first of your ground meal you give to the priest, so that a blessing rests on your house.
31 "The priests are not to eat any bird or beast found dead or torn to pieces.

45 "And when you divide the land by lot into inheritance, offer a contribution to הוהי, a set-apart portion of the land, in length twenty-five thousand cubits long, and in width ten thousand, this being set-apart throughout its border all around.
3 "Of this a square plot is to be for the set-apart place, five hundred by five hundred, with fifty cubits around it for an open space.
3 "And from this measure you are to measure: twenty-five thousand cubits long and ten thousand wide. And in it is to be the set-apart place, the Most Set-apart Place.
4 "This is to be a set-apart portion of the land, belonging to the priests, the attendants of the set-apart place, who draw near to serve הוהי. And it shall be a place for their houses and set-apart ground for the set-apart place.
5 "And twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in width is for the Léwites, the attendants of the House, for them for a possession, twenty rooms.
6 "And give the city as possession: five thousand cubits wide and twenty-five thousand long, beside the contribution of the set-apart portion – it belongs to all the house of Yisra’êl.

7“And the prince is to have a portion on one side and the other of the set-apart contribution and of the possession of the city. And bordering on the set-apart contribution and the possession of the city, on the west side westward and on the east side eastward, and the length alongside one of the portions, from the west border to the east border.

8“Of the land this is his possession in Yisra’êl, and My princes shall no longer oppress My people. And they shall give the land to the house of Yisra’êl, according to their tribes.”

9‘Thus said the Master יְהֹוָה, “Enough, you princes of Yisra’êl! Put away violence and plundering, and do right-ruling and righteousness, and stop your evictions of My people,” declares the Master יְהֹוָה.

10“Have right scales, and a right āphah, and a right bath.

11“Let the āphah and the bath be of the same measure, so that the bath contains one-sixth of an āomer, and the āphah one-tenth of a ħomer. Let their measure be according to the ħomer.

12“And the sheqel is twenty gêrah. Your mina is twenty sheqels, twenty-five sheqels, fifteen sheqels.

13“This is the contribution which you present: you shall give one-sixth of an ēphah from a ħomer of wheat, and one-sixth of an ēphah from a ħomer of barley.

14“And the law concerning oil, the bath of oil, is one-tenth of a bath from a kor. A kor is a ħomer or ten baths, for ten baths are a ħomer.

15“And one lamb from a flock, from two hundred, from the watered pastures of Yisra’êl, for grain offerings, and for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make atonement for them,” declares the Master יְהֹוָה.

16“All the people of the land are to give this contribution to the prince in Yisra’êl.

17“And on the prince are the burnt offerings, and the grain offerings, and drink offerings, at the festival, the New Moons, the Sabbaths – in all the appointed times of the house of Yisra’êl. He is to prepare the sin offering, and the grain offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings to make atonement for the house of Yisra’êl.”

18“Thus said the Master יְהֹוָה, “In the first month, on the first of the month, you are to take a young bull, a perfect one, and shall cleanse the set-apart place.

19“And the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering and put it on the doorposts of the House, on the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and on the posts of the gate of the inner courtyard.

20“And do the same on the seventh of the month for anyone who makes a mistake or is foolish. And you shall make atonement for the House.

21“In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, you have the Passover, a festival of seven days, unleavened bread is eaten.

22“And on that day the prince shall prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bull for a sin offering.

23“And during the seven days of the festival he prepares a burnt offering to יְהֹוָה, seven bulls and seven rams, perfect ones, daily for seven days, and a male goat daily for a sin offering.

24“And he prepares a grain offering of one ēphah for each bull and one ēphah for each ram, together with a hin of oil for each ēphah.

25“In the seventh month, on the fifteenth day of the month, at the festival, he prepares like these seven days, as the sin offering, as the burnt offering, as the grain offering, and as the oil.”

46 ‘Thus said the Master יְהֹוָה, “The gate of the inner courtyard facing east is shut the six days of work, but on the Sabbath it is opened, and on the day of the New Moon it is opened.

2“And the prince shall enter by way of the porch of that gate from the outside, and he shall stand by the post. And the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings. And he shall bow himself at the threshold of the gate, and shall go out, but the gate is not shut until evening.

3“And the people of the land shall also bow themselves at the entrance to this gate before יהוה, on the Sabbaths and on the New Moons.

4“And the burnt offering which the prince brings to יהוה on the Sabbath day is six lambs, perfect ones, and a ram, a perfect one.

5“And the grain offering is one אפָה for a ram, and the grain offering for the lambs, a gift of his hand, and a hin of oil for an אפָה.

6“And on the day of the New Moon: a young bull, a perfect one, six lambs, and a ram, they should be perfect.

7“And he prepares a grain offering of an אפָה for a bull, and an אפָה for a ram, and for the lambs as his hand attains, and a hin of oil for an אפָה.

8“And when the prince enters, he comes in by way of the porch of that gate, and goes out the same way.

9“And when the people of the land enter before יהוה at the appointed times, whoever shall enter by way of the north gate to bow himself, goes out by way of the south gate. And whoever enters by way of the south gate, goes out by way of the north gate, he shall not return by way of the gate through which he came, but goes out through the opposite one.

10“And the prince is to be in their midst, entering when they enter, and going out when they go out.

11“And in the festivals and in the appointed times the grain offering is an אפָה for a bull, and an אפָה for a ram, and for the lambs the gift of his hand, and a hin of oil for an אפָה.

12“And when the prince makes a spontaneous burnt offering or spontaneous peace offerings to יהוה, the gate facing east shall be opened for him. And he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings as he did on the Sabbath day. And he shall go out, and after he goes out the gate shall be shut.

13“And make a daily burnt offering to יהוה of a lamb a year old, a perfect one, preparing it morning by morning.

14“And prepare a grain offering with it morning by morning, a sixth of an אפָה, and a third of a hin of oil to moisten the fine flour, a grain offering to יהוה – continual everlasting laws.

15“And prepare the lamb, and the grain offering, and the oil, morning by morning, a continual burnt offering.”

16“Thus said the Master יהוה, “When the prince gives a gift of some of his inheritance to any of his sons, it belongs to his sons, it is their possession by inheritance.

17“And when he gives a gift of some of his inheritance to one of his servants, then it shall be his till the year of release, then it shall return to the prince. Only the inheritance of his sons is theirs.

18“And the prince does not take any of the people’s inheritance by evicting them from their possession. He is to give his sons their inheritance from his own possession, so that none of My people are separated from his possession.”’”

19And he brought me through the entrance, which was at the side of the gate, into the set-apart rooms of the priests facing north. And look, there was a place at the extreme rear toward the west.

20And he said to me, “This is the place where the priests cook the guilt offering and the sin offering, where they bake the grain offering, so as not to bring them out into the outer courtyard to set the people apart.”

21And he brought me out into the outer courtyard and made me pass along to the four corners of the courtyard. And look, in every corner of the courtyard was another courtyard.

22In the four corners of the courtyard were courtyards covered over, forty cubits long and thirty wide, these four corners having one measure, 23and a row of building stones all around in them, all around the four of them, and places for fire were made under the rows, all around.

24And he said to me, “These are the kitchens where the attendants of the House cook the slaughterings of the people.”
And he turned me back to the door of the House. And look, water was flowing from under the threshold of the House toward the east, for the House faced east, and the water was flowing from under the right side of the House, from the south of the altar.

And he led me out by way of the north gate, and took me round on the outside to the outer gate facing east. And look, water trickling out on the right side.

As the man went out to the east with the line in his hand, he measured one thousand cubits, and he made me pass over into water, water to the ankles.

And he measured one thousand and made me pass over into water, water to the knees. And he measured one thousand and made me pass over, water to the loins.

And he measured one thousand, a stream that I was unable to pass over, for the water had risen, water to swim, a stream that is not passed over.

And he said to me, “Son of man, have you seen this?” And he led me and brought me back to the bank of the stream.

When I returned, then look, along the bank of the stream were very many trees on one side and the other.

And he said to me, “These waters are flowing toward the eastern country, and go down into the Araphah, and enter the sea, being made to flow into the sea, and the waters shall be healed.

And it shall be that every swarming creature, wherever the stream goes, shall live. And there shall be very many fish, for these waters shall go there, and they are healed. And wherever the stream flows all shall live.

And it shall be that fishermen stand along it, from En Gedi to En Eglayim, being places for spreading their nets. Their fish is to be of the same kind as the fish of the Great Sea, very many.

Its swamps and marshes shall not be healed, they shall be given over to salt.

And by the bank of the stream, on both sides, grow all kinds of trees used for food, whose leaves do not wither and fruit do not fail. They bear fruit every month, because their water flows from the set-apart place. And their fruit shall be for food, and their leaves for healing.”

Thus said the Master, “This is the border by which you inherit the land, according to the twelve tribes of Yisra’el, two portions for Yosèph.

“And you shall inherit it, each one the same as his brother. For I lifted My hand in an oath to give it to your fathers, and this land shall fall to you as your inheritance.

“And this is the border of the land on the north: from the Great Sea, the way of Ḥēthlon, as one goes to Tseḏaq, Ḥamath, Berothah, Sipurayim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Ḥamath, Ḥatsar Ḥattikôn, which is on the border of Ḥawran.

“And the border shall be from the Sea to Ḥatsar Ēnân, the border of Damascus, and on the north toward the north is the border of Ḥamath. This is the north side.

“And the east side is from between Ḥawran, and Damascus, and Gil’ad, and the land of Yisra’el; the Yarden, from the border to the eastern side of the sea you are to measure. This is the east side.

“And the south side toward the South is from Tamar to the waters of Meribah by Qadesh, along the Wadi to the Great Sea. This is the south side toward the South.

“And the west side is the Great Sea, from the border to the point opposite Ḥamath. This is the west side.

“And you shall divide this land among yourselves according to the tribes of Yisra’el.

“And it shall be that you divide it by lot as an inheritance for yourselves, and for the strangers who sojourn in your midst and who bear children among you. And they shall be to you as native-born among the children of Yisra’el – with you they have an inheritance in the midst of the tribes of Yisra’el.

“And it shall be that in whatever tribe the stranger sojourns, there you give him his inheritance,” declares the Master אֵלָהוֹ.

48 "And these are the names of the tribes: From the north end along the way to Êthlon at the entrance of Hamath, to Ḥatsar Énan, the border of Damascus northward by the side of Ḥamath, from its east to its west side, Dan: one.

2 "And by the border of Dan, from the east side to the west, Ashêr: one.

3 "And by the border of Ashêr, from the east side to the west, Naphtali: one.

4 "And by the border of Naphtali, from the east side to the west, Menashsheh: one.

5 "And by the border of Menashsheh, from the east side to the west, Ephrayim: one.

6 "And by the border of Ephrayim, from the east side to the west, Re’üḇên: one.

7 "And by the border of Re’üḇên, from the east side to the west, Yehuḏah: one.

8 "And by the border of Yehuḏah, from the east side to the west, is the contribution which you offer up, twenty-five thousand cubits in width, and in length the same as one of the portions, from the east side to the west, with the set-apart place in its midst.

9 "The contribution that you offer up to יהוה is twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in width.

10 "And of these is the set-apart contribution for the priests: on the north twenty-five thousand cubits, and on the west ten thousand in width, and on the east ten thousand in width, and on the south twenty-five thousand in length. And the set-apart place of יהוה shall be in its midst –

11 for the priests of the sons of Tsâðeq, who are set-apart, who did guard My Charge, who did not go astray when the children of Yisra’el went astray, as the Lĕwites went astray.

12 "So this contribution shall be to them, from the contribution of the land, a most set-apart place by the border of the Lĕwites.

13 "And alongside the border of the priests, the Lĕwites have twenty-five thousand cubits in length and ten thousand in width, its entire length is twenty-five thousand and its width ten thousand.

14 "And they do not sell any of it, nor exchange it, nor transfer this best part of the land, for it is set-apart to יהוה.

15 "And the five thousand cubits in width that is left, facing the twenty-five thousand, is for common use by the city, for dwellings and open land. And the city shall be in its midst.

16 "And these are its measurements: the north side four thousand five hundred cubits, and the south side four thousand five hundred, and the east side four thousand five hundred, and the west side four thousand five hundred.

17 "And the open land of the city shall be: to the north two hundred and fifty cubits, and to the south two hundred and fifty, and to the east two hundred and fifty, and to the west two hundred and fifty.

18 "And the rest of the length, alongside the contribution of the set-apart portion, is ten thousand cubits to the east and ten thousand to the west. And it shall be alongside the contribution of the set-apart portion, and its increase shall be food for the workers of the city.

19 "And the workers of the city, from all the tribes of Yisra’el, shall till it.

20 "The entire contribution is twenty-five thousand cubits by twenty-five thousand cubits, foursquare. You are to offer up the set-apart contribution with the possession of the city.

21 "And the rest is for the prince, on one side and on the other of the set-apart contribution and of the possession of the city, facing the twenty-five thousand cubits of the set-apart contribution as far as the eastern border, and westward facing the twenty-five thousand as far as the western border, alongside the portions of the prince. And the set-apart contribution, and the set-apart place of the House shall be in its midst.

22 "So the possession of the Lĕwites and the possession of the city are in the midst of what belongs to the prince – between the border of Yehuḏah and the border of Binyamin, it belongs to the prince.
“As for the rest of the tribes, from the east side to the west side, Binyamin: one.

And by the border of Binyamin, from the east side to the west side, Shim‘on: one.

And by the border of Shim‘on, from the east side to the west side, Yissasqar: one.

And by the border of Yissasqar, from the east side to the west side, Ze‘ulun: one.

And by the border of Ze‘ulun, from the east side to the west side, Gaḏ: one.

And by the border of Gaḏ, on the south side toward the South, the border shall be from Tamar to the waters of Mēribah by Qāḏēsh, along the Wadi to the Great Sea.

This is the land which you divide by lot as an inheritance among the tribes of Yisra‘ēl, and these are their portions,” declares the Master יהוה.

And these are the exits of the city, the gates of the city according to the names of the tribes of Yisra‘ēl: m On the north side, measuring four thousand five hundred cubits, the three gates northward: one gate for Re‘uḇēn, one gate for Yehuḏah, one gate for Lēwi.

And on the east side, four thousand five hundred cubits, three gates: one gate for Yosēph, one gate for Binyamin, one gate for Dan.

And on the south side, measuring four thousand five hundred cubits, three gates: one gate for Shim‘on, one gate for Yissasqar, one gate for Ze‘ulun.

And on the west side, four thousand five hundred cubits with their three gates: one gate for Gaḏ, one gate for Ashēr, one gate for Naphtali.

All around: eighteen thousand cubits.

And the name of the city from that day is: יהוה is there!” n m See 47:22-23, Rev. 21:12. n In Hebrew: יהוה Shammah! See also 43:7 & 9.

1 In the third year of the reign of Yehoyaqim, sovereign of Yehuḏah, Nebuḵaḏneṭṣar, sovereign of Babel came to Yerushalayim and besieged it.

2 And YHWH gave Yehoyaqim sovereign of Yehuḏah into his hand, with some of the utensils of the House of Elohim, which he brought to the land of Shinār to the house of his mighty one. And he brought the utensils into the treasure house of his mighty one.

3 And the sovereign said to Ashpenaz, the chief of his eunuchs, to bring some of the children of Yisra’ēl and some of the sovereign’s descendants and some of the nobles,

4 young men in whom there was no blemish, but good-looking, having insight in all wisdom, having knowledge and understanding learning, capable to stand in the sovereign’s palace, and to teach them the writing and speech of the Chaldeans.

5 And the sovereign appointed for them a daily ration of the sovereign’s food and of the wine which he drank, and three years of training for them, so that at the end thereof they should stand before the sovereign.

6 Now among them were from the sons of Yehuḏah: Daniʾēl, Ḥananyah, Mishaʾēl, and Azaryah.

7 And the chief of the eunuchs gave them names. For he called Daniʾēl, Bēlteshatsar; and Ḥananyah, Shaḏrak; and Mishaʾēl, Mēyšak; and Azaryah, Aḇēḏ-Neḡō.

8 But Daniʾēl laid it upon his heart that he would not defile himself with the portion of the sovereign’s food, nor with the wine which he drank. So he asked permission from the chief of the eunuchs not to defile himself.

9 And Elohim granted Daniʾēl kindness and compassion from the chief of the eunuchs,

10 but the chief of the eunuchs said to Daniʾēl, “I fear my master the sovereign, who has appointed your food and drink. For why should he see your faces looking worse than the young men who are your age? Then you would make my head guilty before the sovereign!”

11 And Daniʾēl said to the overseer whom the chief of the eunuchs had set over Daniʾēl, Ḥananyah, Mishaʾēl, and Azaryah, 12 “Please try your servants for ten days, and let them give us vegetables to eat and water to drink.

13 “Then let our appearances be examined before you, and the appearances of the young men who eat the portion of the sovereign’s food. And do with your servants as you see fit.”

14 And he listened to them in this matter, and tried them ten days.

15 And at the end of ten days their appearances looked better and fatter in flesh than all the young men who ate the portion of the sovereign’s food.

16 And it came to be that the overseer took away their portion of food and the wine they were to drink, and gave them vegetables.

17 As for these four young men, Elohim gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom. And Daniʾēl had understanding in all visions and dreams.

18 And at the end of the days, when the sovereign had said that they should be brought in, the chief of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuḵaḏneṭṣar.

19 And the sovereign spoke with them, and none among them all were found like Daniʾēl, Ḥananyah, Mishaʾēl, and Azaryah, so they stood before the sovereign.

20 And in any word of wisdom and understanding about which the sovereign examined them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians, the astrologers, who were in all his reign.

21 And Daniʾēl continued until the first year of Sovereign Koresh.
And in the second year of the reign of Nebukadnezzar, Nebukadnezzar had dreams. And his spirit was so troubled that his sleep left him.

And the sovereign gave orders to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the practisers of witchcraft, and the Chaldeans to declare to the sovereign his dreams. So they came and stood before the sovereign.

And the sovereign said to them, “I have had a dream, and my spirit is troubled to know the dream.”

And the Chaldeans spoke to the sovereign in Aramaic, “O sovereign, live forever! Relate the dream to your servants, and we shall reveal the interpretation.”

The sovereign answered and said to the Chaldeans, “My decision is firm: if you do not make known the dream and its interpretation to me, your limbs shall be taken from you, and your houses made dunghills.

But if you reveal the dream and its interpretation, you shall receive gifts, and rewards, and great esteem from me. So reveal to me the dream and its interpretation.”

They answered again and said, “Let the sovereign relate to his servants the dream, and we shall reveal its interpretation.”

The sovereign answered and said, “I know for certain that you would gain time, because you see that my decision is firm:

If you do not make known the dream to me, there is only one decree for you! For you have agreed to speak lying and corrupt words before me till the time has changed. So relate the dream to me, then I shall know that you shall reveal its interpretation for me.”

The Chaldeans answered the sovereign, and said, “There is no one on earth who is able to reveal the matter of the sovereign. Because no sovereign, master, or ruler has ever asked a matter like this of any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean.

And the matter that the sovereign is asking is difficult, and there is no other who is able to reveal it to the sovereign except the elahin, whose dwelling is not with flesh.”

Because of this the sovereign was enraged and very wroth, and gave orders to destroy all the wise ones of Babel.

So the decree went out, and they began killing the wise ones. And they sought Dani’el and his companions, to kill them.

Then with counsel and wisdom Dani’el answered Aryoḵ, the chief of the sovereign’s guard, who had gone out to kill the wise ones of Babel –

he answered and said to Aryok the sovereign’s officer, “Why is the decree from the sovereign so urgent?” So Aryok made the decision known to Dani’el.

And Dani’el went in and asked the sovereign to give him time, and he would show the sovereign the interpretation.

Then Dani’el went to his house, and made the decision known to Hananyah, Misha’el, and Azaryah, his companions, to seek compassion from the Elah of the heavens concerning this secret, so that Dani’el and his companions should not perish with the rest of the wise ones of Babel.

Then the secret was revealed to Dani’el in a night vision, and Dani’el blessed the Elah of the heavens.

Dani’el responded and said, “Blessed be the Name of Elah forever and ever, for wisdom and might are His.

And He changes the times and the seasons. He removes sovereigns and raises up sovereigns. He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who possess understanding.

He reveals deep and secret matters. He knows what is in the darkness, and light dwells with Him.

“I thank You and praise You, O Elah of my fathers. You have given me wisdom and might, and have now made known to me what we asked of You, for You have made known to us the sovereign’s matter.”

So Dani’el went to Aryoḵ, whom the sovereign had appointed to destroy the wise ones of Babel. He went and said this to him, “Do not destroy the wise ones of Babel. Bring me in before the sovereign, and I shall show the interpretation to the sovereign.”

Then Aryoḵ brought Dani’el in a hurry before the sovereign, and said thus to him,
"I have found a man among the sons of the exile of Yehudah, who does make known to the sovereign the interpretation."

26 The sovereign answered and said to Dani’êl, whose name was Bêlteshatstsar, "Are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and its interpretation?"

27 Dani’êl answered before the sovereign, and said, "The secret which the sovereign is asking – the wise ones, the astrologers, the magicians, and the diviners are unable to show it to the sovereign.

28 "But there is an Elah in the heavens who reveals secrets, and He has made known to Sovereign Nebûkaďnetstsar what is to be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head upon your bed, were these:

29 "As for you, O sovereign, on your bed your thoughts came up: What is going to take place after this. And He who reveals secrets has made known to you what shall be after this.

30 "As for me, this secret has not been revealed to me because I have more wisdom than anyone living, but for our sakes who make known the interpretation to the sovereign, and that you should know the thoughts of your heart.

31 "You, O sovereign, were looking on, and saw a great image! This great image, and its brightness excellent, was standing before you, and its form was awesome.

32 "This image’s head was of fine gold, its chest and arms of silver, its belly and thighs of bronze, 33 its legs of iron, its feet partly of iron and partly of clay.

34 "You were looking on, until a stone was cut out without hands, and it smote the image on its feet of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces.

35 "Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold were crushed together, and became like chaff from the summer threshing-floors. And the wind took them away so that no trace of them was found. And the stone that smote the image became a great mountain and filled all the earth.

36 "This is the dream, and its interpretation we declare before the sovereign.

37 "You, O sovereign, are a sovereign of sovereigns. For the Elah of the heavens has given you a reign, power, and strength, and preciousness, 38 and wherever the children of men dwell, or the beasts of the field and the birds of the heavens, He has given them into your hand, and has made you ruler over them all. You are the head of gold.

39 "And after you rises up another reign lower than yours, and another third reign of bronze that rules over all the earth.

40 "And the fourth reign is as strong as iron, because iron crushes and shatters all. So, like iron that breaks in pieces, it crushes and breaks all these.

41 "Yet, as you saw the feet and toes, partly of potter’s clay and partly of iron, the reign is to be divided. But some of the strength of the iron is to be in it, because you saw the iron mixed with muddy clay.

42 "And as the toes of the feet were partly of iron and partly of clay, so the reign is partly strong and partly brittle.

43 "And as you saw iron mixed with muddy clay, they are mixing themselves with the seed of men, but they are not clinging to each other, even as iron does not mix with clay.

44 "And in the days of these sovereigns the Elah of the heavens shall set up a reign which shall never be destroyed, nor the reign pass on to other people – it crushes and puts to an end all these reigns, and it shall stand forever.

45 "Because you saw that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it crushed the iron, the bronze, the clay, the silver, and the gold, the great Elah has made known to the sovereign what shall be after this. And the dream is true, and its interpretation is trustworthy."

46 Then Sovereign Nebûkaďnetstsar fell on his face, and did obeisance before Dani’êl, and gave orders to present to him an offering and incense.

The sovereign answered Dani‘êl, and said, “Truly your Elah is the Elah of elahin, the Master of sovereigns, and a revealer of secrets, since you were able to reveal this secret.”

Then the sovereign made Dani‘êl great and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over all the province of Babel, and chief of the nobles, over all the wise ones of Babel.

And Dani‘êl asked of the sovereign, and he set ShaÔra¿, Mêysha¿, and AÔbêd-NeÔgo over the work of the province of Babel, and Dani‘êl in the gate of the sovereign.

NeÔbuÊkaÊdnettsar the sovereign made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits and its width six cubits. He set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babel.

And Sovereign NeÔbuÊkaÊdnettsar sent word to gather together the viceroys, the nobles, and the governors, the counsellors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Sovereign NeÔbuÊkaÊdnettsar had set up.

Then the viceroys, the nobles, and the governors, the counsellors, the treasurers, the judges, the magistrates, and all the officials of the provinces gathered together for the dedication of the image that Sovereign NeÔbuÊkaÊdnettsar had set up. And they stood before the image that NeÔbuÊkaÊdnettsar had set up.

Then a herald loudly proclaimed, “To you it is commanded, O peoples, nations, and languages, that as soon as you hear the sound of the horn, the flute, the zither, the lyre, the harp, the pipes, and all kinds of instruments, you shall fall down and do obeisance to the gold image that Sovereign NeÔbuÊkaÊdnettsar has set up.

And whoever does not fall down and do obeisance is immediately thrown into the midst of a burning furnace of fire.”

So as soon as all the people heard the sound of the horn, the flute, the zither, the lyre, the harp, all kinds of instruments, all the people, nations, and languages fell down and did obeisance to the gold image that Sovereign NeÔbuÊkaÊdnettsar had set up.

Thereupon, at that time, certain Chal-deans came forward and accused the YehuÊdim.

They spoke and said to Sovereign NeÔbuÊkaÊdnettsar, “O sovereign, live forever!

“You, O sovereign, have made a decree that everyone who hears the sound of the horn, the flute, the zither, the lyre, the harp, the pipes, and all kinds of instruments, shall fall down and do obeisance to the gold image, and whoever does not fall down and do obeisance is thrown into the midst of a burning furnace of fire.

“There are certain YehuÊdim whom you have set over the work of the province of Babel: ShaÔra¿, Mêysha¿, and AÔbêd-NeÔgo. These men, O sovereign, pay no heed to you. They do not serve your elahin, and they are not doing obeisance to the gold image which you have set up.”

Then NeÔbuÊkaÊdnettsar, in rage and wrath, gave orders to bring ShaÔra¿, Mêysha¿, and AÔbêd-NeÔgo. Then they brought these men before the sovereign.

NeÔbuÊkaÊdnettsar spoke and said to them, “Is it true, ShaÔra¿, Mêysha¿, and AÔbêd-NeÔgo, that you do not serve my elahin, and you do not do obeisance to the gold image which I have set up?

Now if you are ready when you hear the sound of the horn, the flute, the zither, the lyre, the harp, the pipes, and all kinds of instruments, and you fall down and do obeisance to the image which I have made, good! But if you do not do obeisance, you are immediately thrown into the midst of a burning furnace of fire. And who is the elah who does deliver you from my hands?”

ShaÔra¿, Mêysha¿, and AÔbêd-NeÔgo answered and said to the sovereign, “O NeÔbuÊkaÊdnettsar, we have no need to answer you in this matter.

“For if so, our Elah whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning furnace of fire and from your hand, O sovereign – He does deliver!
“But if not, let it be known to you, O sovereign, that we do not serve your elahin, nor do we do obeisance to the gold image which you have set up.”

Then Nebuchadnezzar was filled with wrath, and the expression on his face changed toward Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He responded and gave orders that they heat the furnace seven times more than it was usual to heat it.

And he commanded some of the strongest men of his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and throw them into the burning furnace of fire.

So these men were bound in their coats, their trousers, and their turbans, and their other garments, and were thrown into the midst of the burning furnace of fire.

Thereupon, because the sovereign’s order was urgent, and the furnace exceedingly hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego.

These three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning furnace of fire.

Then Sovereign Nebuchadnezzar was amazed, and stood up in haste and spoke and said to his counsellors, “Did we not throw three men bound into the midst of the fire?” They answered and said to the sovereign, “Certainly, O sovereign.”

He answered and said, “Look! I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire. And they are not hurt, and the form of the fourth is like the Son of Elah.”

Then Nebuchadnezzar went near the mouth of the burning furnace of fire. He spoke and said, “Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, servants of the Most High Elah, come out, and come here.” Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came from the midst of the fire.

And the viceroys, the nobles, and the governors, and the sovereign’s counsellors gathered together, seeing these men on whose bodies the fire had no power, and the hair of their head was not singed nor were their garments changed, nor did the smell of fire come on them.

Nebuchadnezzar responded and said, “Blessed be the Elah of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who sent His Messenger and delivered His servants who trusted in Him, and changed the sovereign’s order, and gave up their bodies, that they should not serve nor do obeisance to any elah except their own Elah!

“Therefore I make a decree that whoever of any people, nation, or language who speaks any wrong against the Elah of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, his limbs shall be taken, and his house made a dunghill, because there is no other Elah who is able to deliver like this.”

Then the sovereign promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the province of Babylonia.
difficult for you, explain to me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and its interpretation.

10 "Now the visions of my head on my bed were these: I looked, and saw a tree in the midst of the earth, and its height great.

11 "The tree became great and strong, and its height reached to the heavens, and it was visible to the ends of all the earth.

12 "Its leaves were lovely, and its fruit plenty, and in it was food for all. The beasts of the field found shade under it, and the birds of the heavens dwelt in its branches, and all flesh was fed from it.

13 "In the visions of my head on my bed, I looked and saw a Watcher, even a set-apart one, coming down from the heavens.

14 "He cried aloud and said this, ‘Hew down the tree and cut off its branches, strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit. Let the beasts flee from under it, and the birds from its branches.

15 "But leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and bronze, in the tender grass of the field. And let it be wet with the dew of the heavens, and let his portion be with the beasts on the grass of the earth.

16 "Let his heart be changed from man’s, let him be given the heart of a beast, and seven times pass over him.

17 "This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the command by the word of the set-apart ones, so that the living know that the Most High is ruler in the reign of men, and gives it to whomever He wishes, and sets over it the lowest of men.’

18 "This dream have I seen, I, Sovereign Nebušaḏnetstsar. And you, Bēlteshatstsar, reveal its interpretation, since all the wise ones of my reign are unable to make known to me the interpretation. But you are able, for the Spirit of the Set-apart Elah is in you.”

19 Then Dani’ël, whose name was Bēlteshatstsar, was stunned for a short time, and his thoughts alarmed him. The sovereign responded and said, “Bēlteshatstsar, do not let the dream or its interpretation alarm you.” Bēlteshatstsar answered and said, “My master, the dream is to those who hate you, and its interpretation to your enemies!

20 "The tree you saw, which became great and strong, whose height reached to the heavens and was visible to all the earth,

21 whose leaves were lovely and its fruit plenty, and in it was food for all, under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and on whose branches the birds of the heavens sat –

22 it is you, O sovereign, for you have become great and strong. And your greatness has grown, and has reached to the heavens and your rulership to the end of the earth.

23 "And as the sovereign saw a Watcher, even a set-apart one, coming down from the heavens, and he said, ‘Hew down the tree and destroy it, but leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and bronze in the tender grass of the field. And let it be wet with the dew of the heavens, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him’ –

24 this is the interpretation, O sovereign, and this is the decree of the Most High, which has come upon my master the sovereign:

25 "That you are going to be driven away from men, and your dwelling be with the beasts of the field, and you be given grass to eat like oxen, and you be wetted with the dew of the heavens, and seven times pass over you, till you know that the Most High is ruler in the reign of men, and that He gives it to whomever He wishes.

26 "And they that gave the command to leave the stump of its roots of the tree: your reign remains yours, from the time you come to know that the heavens are ruling.

27 "Therefore, O sovereign, let my counsel be acceptable to you, and break off your sins by righteousness, and your crookednesses by showing favour to the poor – your prosperity might be extended.”

28 All this came upon Sovereign Nebušaḏnetstsar.

29 At the end of the twelve months he was walking about the palace of the reign of
The sovereign spoke and said, “Is not this great Babel, which I myself have built, for the house of the reign, by the might of my power and for the esteem of my splendour?”

31 The word was still in the sovereign’s mouth, when a voice fell from the heavens, “Sovereign Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken: the reign has been taken away from you,

32 and you are driven away from men, and your dwelling is to be with the beasts of the field. You are given grass to eat like oxen, and seven seasons shall pass over you, until you know that the Most High is ruler in the reign of men, and He gives it to whomever He wishes.”

33 In that hour the word was executed on Nebuchadnezzar, and he was driven from men and he ate grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the heavens till his hair had grown like eagles’ feathers and his nails like birds’ claws.

34 And at the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted my eyes to the heavens, and my understanding returned to me. And I blessed the Most High and praised and made Him great who lives for ever, whose rule is an everlasting rule, and His reign is from generation to generation.

35 And all the inhabitants of the earth are of no account, and He does as He wishes with the host of the heavens and among the inhabitants of the earth. And there is none to strike against His hand or say to Him, “What have You done?”

36 At the same time my understanding returned to me, and for the preciousness of my reign, my esteem and splendour were returning to me. And my counsellors and nobles sought me out, and I was re-established to my reign, and excellent greatness was added to me.

37 Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, am praising and exalting and esteeming the Sovereign of the heavens, for all His works are truth, and His ways right. And those who walk in pride He is able to humble.

5 Belshatstsar the sovereign made a great feast for a thousand of his great men, and drank wine in the presence of the thousand.

2 While tasting the wine, Belshatstsar gave orders to bring the gold and silver vessels which his father Nebukadnetstsar had taken from the Hekal which had been in Yerushalayim, that the sovereign and his great men, his wives, and his concubines could drink from them.

3 Then they brought the gold vessels that had been taken from the Hekal of the House of Elah which had been in Yerushalayim. And the sovereign and his great men, his wives, and his concubines drank out of them.

4 They drank wine, and praised the elahin of gold, and of silver, of bronze, of iron, of wood and of stone.

5 At that moment the fingers of a man’s hand appeared and wrote opposite the lampstand on the plaster of the wall of the sovereign’s palace. And the sovereign saw the part of the hand that wrote.

6 Then the sovereign’s colour changed, and his thoughts alarmed him, so that the joints of his hips were loosened and his knees knocked against each other.

7 The sovereign called loudly to bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the diviners. The sovereign spoke and said to the wise ones of Babel, “Whoever reads this writing, and shows me its interpretation, is robed in purple and has a chain of gold around his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the reign.”

8 So all the sovereign’s wise ones came, but they were unable to read the writing, or to make known its interpretation to the sovereign.

9 Then Sovereign Belshatstsar was greatly alarmed, and his colour changed, and his great men were puzzled.

10 The sovereigness, because of the words of the sovereign and his great men, came to the banquet hall. And the sovereigness spoke and said, “O sovereign, live forever! Do not let your thoughts alarm you, nor let your colour change.

11 “There is a man in your reign in whom is the Spirit of the Set-apart Elah. And in the days of your father, light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the elahin, were found in him. And Sovereign Nebucaadnetstsar your father, your father the sovereign, made him chief of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and diviners, 12because an excellent spirit, knowledge and understanding, interpreting dreams, and explaining riddles, and solving difficult problems were found in this Dani’êl, whom the sovereign named Bêlteshatstsar. Now let Dani’êl be called, and let him show the interpretation.”

13So Dani’êl was brought in before the sovereign. The sovereign spoke and said to Dani’êl, “Are you that Dani’êl who is one of the sons of the exile from YehuÅah, whom my father the sovereign brought from YehuÅah?

14“I have heard of you, that the Spirit of Elah is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in you.

15“And the wise ones, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing and make known to me its interpretation, but they were unable to show the interpretation of the word.

16“And I myself have heard of you, that you are able to give interpretations and to solve difficult problems. Now if you are able to read the writing and make known its interpretation to me, you are to be robed in purple and have a chain of gold around your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the reign.”

17Then Dani’êl answered and said before the sovereign, “Let your gifts be for yourself, and give your rewards to another. Yet I shall read the writing to the sovereign, and make known the interpretation to him.

18“So sovereign, the Most High Elah gave Nebucaadnetstsar your father a reign and greatness, and preciousness and esteem.

19“And because of the greatness which He gave him, all peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him. Whomever he wished he executed, and whomever he wished he kept alive, and whomever he wished he raised up, and whomever he wished he made low.

20“But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was so strong as to act proudly, he was put down from his throne of reign, and they took his preciousness from him.

21“Then he was driven from the sons of men, and his heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys. He was given grass to eat like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of the heavens, till he knew that the Most High Elah is ruler in the reign of men, and He sets up over it whomever He wishes.

22“And you his son, Bêlshatstsar, have not humbled your heart, although you knew all this.

23“And you have lifted yourself up against the Master of the heavens. And they brought before you the vessels of His house, and you and your great men, your wives and your concubines, have been drinking wine from them. And you have praised the elahin of silver, and of gold, of bronze, of iron, of wood, and of stone, which neither see nor hear nor know. But the Elah who holds your breath in His hand and owns all your ways, you have not made great.

24“Then the part of the hand was sent from Him, and this writing was inscribed.

25“And this is the writing that was inscribed: MENÊ, MENÊ, TEQÊL, UPHARSIN.

26“This is the interpretation of each word: MENÊ – Elah has numbered your reign, and put an end to it.

27“TEQÊL – You have been weighed on the scales, and found lacking.

28“PERES – Your reign has been divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.”

29Then Bêlshatstsar gave orders, and they robed Dani’êl in purple and put a chain of gold around his neck, and they proclaimed concerning him that he is the third ruler in the reign.

30In that night Bêlshatstsar, sovereign of the Chaldeans, was slain.

31And Dareyawesh the Mede took over the reign, being about sixty-two years old.

6 It pleased Dareyawesh to appoint over the reign one hundred and twenty viceroys, to be over all the reign,

2 and over them three governors, of whom Dani’èl was one, so that these viceroys should give account to them, and the sovereign suffer no loss.

3 Then this Dani’èl distinguished himself above the governors and viceroys, because an excellent spirit was in him. And the sovereign planned to appoint him over all the reign.

4 Then the governors and viceroys sought to find occasion against Dani’èl concerning the reign. But they were unable to find occasion or corruption, because he was steadfast, and no negligence or corruption was found in him.

5 Then these men said, “We shall not find any occasion against this Dani’èl unless we find it against him concerning the law of his Elah.”

6 Then these governors and viceroys tumultuously gathered before the sovereign, and said this to him, “Sovereign Dareyawesh, live forever!

7 “All the governors of the reign, the nobles and viceroys, the counsellors and advisors, have consulted together to establish a royal decree and to make a strong interdict, that whoever petitions any elah or man within thirty days, except you, O sovereign, is thrown into the den of lions.”

8 “Now, O sovereign, establish the interdict and sign the writing, so that it is not to be changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which does not pass away.”

9 So Sovereign Dareyawesh signed the written interdict.

10 And Dani’èl, when he knew that the writing was signed, went home and in his upper room with his windows open toward Yerushalayim he knelt down on his knees three times a day, and prayed and gave thanks before his Elah, as he had done before.

11 Then these men tumultuously gathered and found Dani’èl praying and entreating before his Elah.

12 Then they approached the sovereign, and spoke concerning the sovereign’s interdict, “Have you not signed a interdict that every man who petitions any elah or man within thirty days, except you, O sovereign, is thrown into the den of lions?” The sovereign answered and said, “The word is certain, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which does not pass away.”

13 Then they answered and said before the sovereign, “Dani’èl, who is one of the sons of the exile from Yehuďah, pays no heed to you, O sovereign, nor for the interdict that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day.”

14 Then the sovereign, when he heard these words, was greatly displeased with himself, and set his heart on Dani’èl to deliver him. And he laboured till the going down of the sun to deliver him.

15 Then these men tumultuously gathered before the sovereign, and said to the sovereign, “Know, O sovereign, that it is the law of the Medes and Persians that any interdict or decree which the sovereign establishes is not to be changed.”

16 Then the sovereign gave orders, and they brought Dani’èl and threw him into the den of lions. But the sovereign spoke and said to Dani’èl, “Your Elah, whom you serve continually, He Himself delivers you.”

17 And a stone was brought and laid on the mouth of the den, and the sovereign sealed it with his own signet and with the signets of his great men, that the situation concerning Dani’èl might not be changed.

18 And the sovereign went to his palace and spent the night fasting. And no entertainment was brought before him, and his sleep fled from him.

19 Then the sovereign rose up very early in the morning and hurried to the den of lions.

20 And when he came to the den, he called with a grieved voice to Dani’èl. The sovereign spoke and said to Dani’èl, “Dani’èl, servant of the living Elah, has your Elah, whom you serve continually, been able to deliver you from the lions?"
21 Then Dani’êl said to the sovereign, “O sovereign, live forever!
22 “My Elah has sent His messenger and has shut the lions’ mouths, and they did not harm me, because I was found innocent before Him. And also before you, O sovereign, I have done no harm.”
23 Then the sovereign was very glad and gave orders that Dani’êl be taken up out of the den. And Dani’êl was taken up out of the den, and no harm was found on him, because he trusted in his Elah.
24 And the sovereign gave orders and they brought those men who had accused Dani’êl, and they threw them, their children, and their wives into the den of lions. And the lions overpowered them, and broke all their bones in pieces before they reached the floor of the den.
25 Then Sovereign Dareyawesh wrote to all peoples, nations, and languages that dwell in all the earth: “Peace be increased to you.
26 “From before me is made a decree that throughout every rule of my reign men are to tremble and fear before the Elah of Dani’êl, for He is the living Elah, and steadfast forever. And His reign is one which is not destroyed, and His rule is unto the end.
27 “He delivers and rescues, and He works signs and wonders in the heavens and on earth, for He has delivered Dani’êl from the power of the lions.”
28 And this Dani’êl prospered in the reign of Dareyawesh and in the reign of Koresh the Persian.

7 In the first year of Bêlshatstsar sovereign of BaÄel, Dani’êl had a dream and visions of his head on his bed. Then he wrote down the dream, giving a summary of the matters.
2 Dani’êl spoke and said, “I was looking in my vision by night and saw the four winds of the heavens stirring up the Great Sea.
3 “And four great beasts came up from the sea, different from one another.
4 “The first was like a lion, and had eagle’s wings. I was looking until its wings were plucked off, and it was lifted up from the earth and made to stand on two feet like a man, and it was given a man’s heart.
5 “And see, another beast, a second, like a bear. And it was raised up on one side, and had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. And they said this to it, ‘Arise, devour much flesh’!
6 “After this I looked and saw another, like a leopard, which had on its back four wings of a bird. The beast also had four heads, and rule was given to it.
7 “After this I looked in the night visions and saw a fourth beast, fearsome and burly, exceedingly strong. And it had great iron teeth. It devoured and crushed, and trampled down the rest with its feet. And it was different from all the beasts that were before it, and it had ten horns.
8 “I was thinking about the horns, then saw another horn, a little one, coming up among them, and three of the first horns were plucked out by the roots before it. And see, eyes like the eyes of a man were in this horn, and a mouth speaking great words.
9 “I was looking until thrones were set up, and the Ancient of Days was seated. His garment was white as snow, and the hair of His head was like clean wool, His throne was flames of fire, its wheels burning fire.
10 “A stream of fire was flowing and coming forth from His presence, and a thousand thousands served Him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before Him, the Judge was seated, and the books were opened.
11 “I was looking. Then, because of the sound of the great words which the horn was speaking, I was looking until the beast was slain, and its body destroyed and given to the burning fire, 12 and the rest of the beasts had their rule taken away. But a lengthening of life was given to them, for a season and a time.
13 “I was looking in the night visions and saw One like the Son of Enosh, b coming with the clouds of the heavens! And He came to the Ancient of Days, and they brought Him near before Him.

14“And to Him was given rulership and preciousness and a reign, that all peoples, nations, and languages should serve Him. His rule is an everlasting rule which shall not pass away, and His reign that which shall not be destroyed.

15“As for me, Dani’èl, my spirit was pierced within my body, and the visions of my head alarmed me.

16“I drew near to one of those who stood by, and asked him the certainty of all this. And he spoke to me and made known to me the interpretation of the matters:

17“These great beasts, which are four, are four sovereigns which rise up from the earth.

18“Then the set-apart ones of the Most High shall receive the reign, and possess the reign forever, even forever and ever.’

19“Then I desired for certainty concerning the fourth beast, which was different from all the others, very fearsome, with its teeth of iron and its nails of bronze, which devoured, crushed, and trampled down the rest with its feet, 20and concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and of the other horn that came up, before which three fell – this horn which had eyes and a mouth which spoke great words, whose appearance was greater than his fellows.

21“I was looking, and this horn was fighting against the set-apart ones, and was prevailing against them, 22until the Ancient of Days came, and right-ruling was given to the set-apart ones of the Most High, and the time came and the set-apart ones took possession of the reign.

23“This is what he said, ‘The fourth beast is the fourth reign on earth, which is different from all other reigns, and it devours all the earth, tramples it down and crushes it.

24“And the ten horns are ten sovereigns from this reign. They shall rise, and another shall rise after them, and it is different from the first ones, and it humbles three sovereigns, 25and it speaks words against the Most High, and it wears out the set-apart ones of the Most High, and it intends to change appointed times  and law,  and they are given into its hand for a time and times and half a time.

26“But the Judgement shall sit, and they shall take away its rule, to cut off and to destroy, until the end.

27“And the reign, and the rulership, and the greatness of the reigns under all the heavens, shall be given to the people, the set-apart ones of the Most High. His reign is an everlasting reign, and all rulerships shall serve and obey Him.’

28“This is the end of the matter. As for me, Dani’èl, my thoughts greatly alarmed me, and my colour changed. And I kept the matter in my heart.”

8In the third year of the reign of Bêlotsstat sar the sovereign, a vision appeared to me, Dani’èl, after the one that appeared to me the first time.

2And I looked in the vision, and it came to be while I was looking, that I was in the citadel of Shushan, which is in the province of Êyłam. And I looked in the vision, and I was by the River Ulai.

3And I lifted my eyes and looked and saw a ram standing beside the river, and it had two horns, and the two horns were high. And the one was higher than the other, and the higher one came up last.

4I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward, so that no beast could stand before him, and there was no one to deliver from his hand, while he did as he pleased and became great.

5And I was observing and saw a male goat came from the west, over the surface

\[b\] Son of Enosh - This Aramaic term is similar to the Hebrew 'Ben Aدام,' but not the exact equivalent of it. However, this Aramaic term indicates the same One!
\[c\] This is another word for festivals.
\[d\] Changing the law amounts to lawlessness. Read in 2 Thess. 2:3-12 about “the lawless one” and the “lawlessness” which would take over (indeed, it has already taken over!) in the set-apart place, and also about Messiah’s judgment upon the lawless “prophets” in Mt. 7:23, and the lawless “believers” in Mt. 13:41!
of all the earth, without touching the ground. And the goat had a conspicuous horn between his eyes.

6 And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing beside the river, and ran at him in the rage of his power.

7 And I saw him come close to the ram, and he became embittered against him, and smote the ram, and broke his two horns. And there was no power in the ram to withstand him, but he threw him down to the ground and trampled on him. And there was no one to deliver the ram from his hand.

8 And the male goat became very great. But when he was strong, the large horn was broken, and in place of it four conspicuous ones came up toward the four winds of the heavens.

9 And from one of them came a little horn which became exceedingly great toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the Splendid Land.

10 And it became great, up to the host of the heavens. And it caused some of the host and some of the stars to fall to the earth, and trampled them down.

11 It even exalted itself as high as the Prince of the host. And it took that which is continual away from Him, and threw down the foundation of His set-apart place.

12 And because of transgression, an army was given over to the horn to oppose that which is continual. And it threw the truth down to the ground, and it acted and prospered.

13 Then I heard a certain set-apart one speaking. And another set-apart one said to that certain one who was speaking, “Till when is the vision, concerning that which is continual, and the transgression that lays waste, to make both the set-apart place and the host to be trampled under foot?”

14 And he said to me, “For two thousand three hundred days, then that which is set-apart shall be made right.”

15 And it came to be, when I, Dani’êl, had seen the vision, that I sought understanding, and see, before me stood one having the appearance of a mighty man.

16 And I heard a man’s voice between the banks of Ulai, who called, and said, “Gabri’êl, make this man understand the vision.”

17 He then came near where I stood. And when he came I feared and I fell on my face, but he said to me, “Understand, son of man, for the vision is for the time of the end.”

18 And, as he was speaking with me, I fell stunned upon my face to the ground, but he touched me, and made me stand up straight, 19 and said, “Look, I am making known to you what shall take place in the latter time of the wrath, for at the appointed time shall be the end.

20 “The ram which you saw, having two horns, are the sovereigns of Media and Persia.

21 “And the male goat is the sovereign of Greece, and the large horn between its eyes is the first sovereign.

22 “And that it was broken and four stood up in its place: are four rulerships arising out of that nation, but not in its power.

23 “And in the latter time of their rule, when the transgressors have filled up their measure, a sovereign, fierce of face and skilled at intrigues, shall stand up.

24 “And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power, and he shall destroy incredibly, and shall prosper and thrive, and destroy mighty men, and the set-apart people.

25 “And through his skill he shall make deceit prosper in his hand, and hold himself to be great in his heart, and destroy many who are at ease, and even stand against the Prince of princes – yet without hand he shall be broken.

26 “And what was said in the vision of the evenings and mornings is truth. And hide the vision, for it is after many days.”

27 And I, Dani’êl, was stricken and became sick for days. Then I rose up and went about the sovereign’s work. And I was amazed at the vision, but there was no understanding.

9 In the first year of Dareyawesh the son of Ahashwerosh, of the seed of the Medes, who was set up as sovereign over the reign of the Chaldeans —

2 in the first year of his reign I, Dani'el, observed from the Scriptures the number of the years, according to the word of ה' given to Yirmeyah the prophet, for the completion of the wastes of Yerushalayim would be seventy years.

3 So I set my face toward ה' the Elohim to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes.

4 And I prayed to ה' my Elohim, and made confession, and said, “O ה', great and awesome Elohim, guarding the covenant and the kindness to those who love Him, and to those who guard His commands.

5 “We have sinned and did crookedness, and did wrong and rebelled, to turn aside from Your commands and from Your right-rulings.

6 “And we have not listened to Your servants the prophets, who spoke in Your Name to our sovereigns, our heads, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.

7 “O ה', to You is the righteousness, and to us the shame of face, as it is this day — to the men of Yehudah, to the inhabitants of Yerushalayim and all Yisra'el, those near and those far off in all the lands to which You have driven them, because of their trespass which they have trespassed against You.

8 “O Master, to us is the shame of face, to our sovereigns, to our heads, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against You.

9 “To ה' our Elohim are the compassions and forgivenesses, for we have rebelled against Him.

10 “And we have not obeyed the voice of ה' our Elohim, to walk in His Torot, which He set before us through His servants the prophets.

11 “And all Yisra'el have transgressed Your Torah, and turned aside, so as not to obey Your voice. So the curse and the oath written in the Torah of Mosheh the servant of Elohim have been poured out on us, for we have sinned against Him.

12 “And He has confirmed His words, which He spoke against us and against our rulers who judged us, by bringing upon us great evil. For under all the heavens there has not been done like what was done to Yerushalayim.

13 “As it is written in the Torah of Mosheh, all this evil has come upon us, and we have not entreated the face of ה' our Elohim, to turn back from our crookednesses, and to study Your truth.

14 “Hence ה' has watched over the evil and has brought it upon us. For ה' our Elohim is righteous in all the works which He has done, but we have not obeyed His voice.

15 “And now, O ה', our Elohim, who brought Your people out of the land of Mitsrayim with a strong hand, and made Yourself a Name, as it is this day — we have sinned, we have done wrong!

16 “O ה', according to all Your righteousness, I pray, let Your displeasure and Your wrath be turned away from Your city Yerushalayim, Your set-apart mountain. For, because of our sins, and because of the crookednesses of our fathers, Yerushalayim and Your people have become a reproach to all those around us.

17 “And now, our Elohim, hear the prayer of Your servant, and his supplications, and for the sake of ה' cause Your face to shine on Your set-apart place, which is laid waste.

18 “O my Elohim, incline Your ear and hear. Open Your eyes and see our wastes, and the city which is called by Your Name. For we do not present our supplications before You because of our righteous deeds, but because of Your great compassions.

19 “O ה', hear! O ה', forgive! O ה', listen and act! Do not delay for Your own sake, my Elohim, for Your city and Your people are called by Your Name.”

20 And while I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Yisra'el, and presenting my supplication before יְהוָה my Elohim for the set-apart mountain of my Elohim, 21 while I was still speaking in prayer, the man גָּבוֹר, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, came close to me, in swift flight about the time of the evening offering.
22 And he made me understand, and talked with me, and said, “O Dani’êl, I have now come forth to make you wise concerning understanding.
23 “At the beginning of your supplications a word went out, and I have come to make it known, for you are greatly appreciated. So consider the word and understand the vision:
24 “Seventy weeks are decreed for your people and for your set-apart city, to put an end to the transgression, and to seal up sins, and to cover crookedness, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up vision and prophet, and to anoint the Most Set-apart.
25 “Know, then, and understand: from the going forth of the command to restore and build יֵרُועַד יִשְׂרָאֵל Yerushalayim until Messiah the Prince is seven weeks and sixty-two weeks. It shall be built again, with streets and a trench, but in times of affliction.
26 “And after the sixty-two weeks Messiah shall be cut off and have naught. And the people of a coming prince shall destroy the city and the set-apart place. And the end of it is with a flood. And wastes are decreed, and fighting until the end.
27 “And he shall confirm a covenant with many for one week. And in the middle of the week he shall put an end to slaughtering and meal offering. And on the wing of abominations he shall lay waste, even until the complete end and that which is decreed is poured out on the one who lays waste.”

In the third year of Koresh sovereign of Persia a word was revealed to Dani’êl, whose name was called בְּלֶתֶשׁ-חַצְוָצָאר Bêteshatstsar. And the word was true, and the conflict great. And he understood the word, and had understanding of the vision.

2In those days I, Dani’êl, was mourning three weeks of days.
3 I did not eat desirable food, and meat and wine did not come into my mouth, and I did not anoint myself at all, till the completion of three weeks of days.
4 And on the twenty-fourth day of the first month, while I was by the side of the great river, that is Hiddeqel,
5 then I lifted my eyes and looked and saw a certain man dressed in linen, whose loins were girded with gold of Uphaz!
6 And his body was like beryl, and his face like the appearance of lightning, and his eyes like torches of fire, and his arms and feet like polished bronze in appearance, and the sound of his words like the sound of a crowd.
7 And I, Dani’êl, alone saw the vision, for the men who were with me did not see the vision, but a great trembling fell upon them, and they ran away to hide themselves.
8 So I was left alone when I saw this great vision, and no strength remained in me, for my comeliness was destroyed in me, and I retained no strength.
9 But I heard the sound of his words. And while I heard the sound of his words I was stunned lying with my face to the ground.
10 And see, a hand touched me, and set me trembling on my knees and on the palms of my hands.
11 And he said to me, “O Dani’êl, man greatly appreciated, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright, for I have now been sent to you.” And while he was speaking this word to me, I stood trembling.
12 And he said to me, “Do not fear, Dani’êl, for from the first day that you set your heart to understand and to humble yourself before your Elohim, your words were heard, and I have come because of your words.
13 “But the head of the rule of Persia withstood me twenty-one days. And see, Miḵa’êl, one of the chief heads, came to help me, for I had been left alone there with the sovereigns of Persia.

g Mt. 24:15.
“And I have come to make you understand what is to befall your people in the latter days. For the vision is yet for days to come.”

And when he had spoken such words to me, I turned my face toward the ground and kept silent.

And see, one who looked like the sons of men touched my lips, and I opened my mouth and spoke and said to him who stood before me, “My master, because of the vision I have been seized with pains, and I have retained no strength.

So how was this servant of my master able to speak with you, my master? As for me, no strength remains in me now, nor is any breath left in me.”

And again the one who looked like a man touched me and strengthened me.

And he said, “Do not fear, O man greatly appreciated! Peace be to you, be strong now, be strong!” So when he spoke to me I was strengthened, and said, “Let my master speak, for you have strengthened me.”

And he said, “Do you know why I have come to you? And now I return to fight with the head of Persia. And when I have left, see, the head of Greece shall come.

But let me declare to you what is written in the Scripture of Truth, and there is no one supporting me against these, except Miâ’ãl your head.

And in the first year of Dareyawesh the Mede, I myself stood up to support and protect him.

And now I declare the truth to you: See, three more sovereigns are to arise in Persia, and the fourth is to become far richer than them all. And by his power, through his riches, he stirs up all against the rulership of Greece.

And a mighty sovereign shall arise, and he shall rule with great authority, and do as he pleases.

But when he has arisen, his rule shall be broken up and divided toward the four winds of the heavens, but not among his descendants nor according to his authority with which he ruled, because his rule shall be uprooted, even for others besides these.

And a sovereign of the South shall become strong, along with one of his princes who gains power over him and shall rule – his rule being a great rule.

And at the end of years they shall join themselves together, and a daughter of the sovereign of the South shall come to the sovereign of the North to make an alliance. But she shall not retain the strength of her power, nor would he or his power stand. And she shall be given up, with those who brought her, and he who brought her forth, and he who supported her in those times.

But from a branch of her roots one shall arise in his place, and he shall come into the defence and come into a stronghold of the sovereign of the North, and shall act against them, and shall prevail, and also their mighty ones, with their princes and their precious utensils of silver and gold he shall seize and bring to Mitsrayim. And he shall stand more years than the sovereign of the North.

Then he shall enter the reign of the sovereign of the South, but shall return to his own land.

But his sons shall stir themselves up, and assemble a great army. And he shall certainly come and overflow and pass through, then return to his stronghold, and be stirred up.

Then the sovereign of the South shall be enraged and go out to fight with him, with the sovereign of the North, who shall raise a large army. But the army shall be given into the hand of his enemy, and he shall capture the army, his heart being exalted. And he shall cause tens of thousands to fall, but not prevail.

And the sovereign of the North shall return and raise an army greater than the former, and certainly come at the end of some years with a great army and much supplies.

And in those times many shall rise up against the sovereign of the South, while some violent ones among your people exalt themselves to establish the vision, but they shall stumble.

Then the sovereign of the North shall come in and build a siege mound, and capture a city of strongholds. And the arms of the South shall not stand, nor his choice people, for there is no strength to stand.

16“So his opponent shall do as he pleases – with no one standing against him – and stand in the Splendid Land with destruction in his hand.

17“And he shall set his face to enter with the strength of his entire rule, and make an alliance with him. And he shall do so, and give him the daughter of women to corrupt her. But she shall not stand, neither be for him.

18“Then he shall turn his face to the coastlands and capture many. But a ruler shall bring the reproach against them to an end. And with the reproach removed, he shall turn back on him.

19“Then he shall turn his face toward the strongholds of his own land, but shall stumble and fall, and not be found.

20“And in his place one shall stand up who imposes taxes on the adorned city of the rule, but within a few days he is destroyed, but not in wrath or in battle.

21“And in his place shall arise a despised one, to whom they shall not give the excellency of the rule. But he shall come in peaceably, and seize the rule by flatteries.

22“And the arms of the flood shall be swept away from before him and be broken, and also the prince of the covenant.

23“And after they joined him, he shall work deceit, and shall come up and become strong with a small nation.

24“He shall enter peaceably, even into the richest places of the province, and do what his fathers have not done, nor his forefathers: distribute among them plunder and spoil and supplies, and devise his plots against the strongholds, but only for a time.

25“And he shall stir up his power and his heart against the sovereign of the South with a great army, and the sovereign of the South shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army, but not stand, for they shall devise plots against him.

26“And those who have been eating his food shall destroy him, and his army be swept away, and many fall down slain.

27“And both these sovereigns’ hearts are to do evil, and speak lies at the same table, but not prosper, for the end is still for an appointed time.

28“Then he shall return to his land with much supplies, and his heart be against the set-apart covenant. And he shall act, and shall return to his land.

29“At the appointed time he shall return and go toward the south, but it shall not be like the former or the latter.

30“For ships from Kittim shall come against him, and he shall lose heart, and shall return in rage against the set-apart covenant, and shall act, and shall return and consider those who forsake the set-apart covenant.

31“And strong ones shall arise from him and profane the set-apart place, the stronghold, and shall take away that which is continual, and set up the abomination that lays waste. h

32“And by flatteries he shall profane those who do wrong against the covenant, but the people who know their Elohim shall be strong, and shall act.

33“And those of the people who have insight shall give understanding to many. And they shall stumble by sword and flame, by captivity and plundering, for days.

34“And when they stumble, they shall be helped, a little help, but many shall join them, by flatteries.

35“And some of those who have insight shall stumble, to refine them, and to cleanse them, and to make them white, until the time of the end, for it is still for an appointed time.

36“And the sovereign shall do as he pleases, and exalt himself and show himself to be great above every mighty one, and speak incredible matters against the Âl of mighty ones, and shall prosper until the wrath has been accomplished – for what has been decreed shall be done –

37 and have no regard for the mighty ones of his fathers nor for the desire of women, nor have regard for any mighty one, but h See 8:13, 9:27, Mt. 24:15.

exalt himself above them all.

38“But in his place he shall give esteem to a mighty one of strongholds. And to a mighty one which his fathers did not know he shall give esteem with gold and silver, with precious stones and costly gifts.

39“And he shall act against the strongest strongholds with a foreign mighty one, which he shall acknowledge. He shall increase in esteem and cause them to rule over many, and divide the land for gain.

40“At the time of the end the sovereign of the South shall push at him, and the sovereign of the North rush against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships. And he shall enter the lands, and shall overflow and pass over,

41 and shall enter the Splendid Land, and many shall stumble, but these escape from his hand: Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the sons of Ammon.

42“And he shall stretch out his hand against the lands, and the land of Mitsrayim shall not escape.

43“And he shall rule over the treasures of gold and silver, and over all the riches of Mitsrayim, and Libyans and Kushites shall be at his steps.

44“Then reports from the east and the north shall disturb him, and he shall go out with great wrath to destroy and put many under the ban,

45 and he shall pitch the tents of his palace between the seas and the splendid set-apart mountain, but shall come to his end with none to help him.

12 “Now at that time Miqa’el shall stand up, the great head who is standing over the sons of your people. And there shall be a time of distress, such as never was since there was a nation, until that time. And at that time your people shall be delivered, every one who is found written in the book,

2 and many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth wake up, some to everlasting life, and some to reproaches, everlasting abhorrence.

3“And those who have insight shall shine like the brightness of the expanse, and those who lead many to righteousness like the stars forever and ever.

4“But you, Dani’el, hide the words, and seal the book until the time of the end. i Many shall diligently search and knowledge shall increase.”

5Then I, Dani’el, looked and saw two others standing, one on this bank of the river and the other on that bank.

6And one said to the man dressed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, “How long until the end of these wonders?”

7And I heard the man dressed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, and he held up his right hand and his left hand to the heavens, and swore by Him who lives forever, that it would be for a time, times, and half a time. And when they have ended scattering the power of the set-apart people, then all these shall be completed.

8And I heard, but I did not understand, so I said, “My master, what is the latter end of these matters?”

9And he said, “Go, Dani’el, for the words are hidden and sealed till the time of the end. j 10“Many shall be cleansed and made white, and refined. But the wrong shall do wrong – and none of the wrong shall understand, but those who have insight shall understand.

11“And from the time that which is continual is taken away, and the abomination that lays waste is set up, is one thousand two hundred and ninety days.

12“And from the time that which is continual is taken away, and the abomination that lays waste is set up, is one thousand two hundred and ninety days.

13“But you, go your way till the end. And rest, and arise to your lot at the end of the days.”

i See v. 9.  j See v. 4.
The word of יהוה that came to Ḥoshēa son of Beʾēri, in the days of Uzziyah, Yotham, Ahaz, and Ḥizqiyah, sovereigns of Yehudah, and in the days of Yarobʾam son of Yoʾash, sovereign of Yisraʾēl.

1 The beginning of the word of יהוה with Ḥoshēa. And יהוה said to Ḥoshēa, “Go, take yourself a woman of whoring and children of whoring, for the land has utterly whored away from יהוה.”

2 So he went and took Gomer, daughter of Diʾelayim, and she conceived and bore him a son.

3 And יהוה said to him, “Call his name Yizreʾēl, for in a little while I shall revenge the bloodshed of Yizreʾēl on the house of Yahu, and put an end to the reign of the house of Yisraʾēl.

4 “And it shall be in that day that I shall break the bow of Yisraʾēl in the Valley of Yizreʾēl.”

5 And she conceived again and bore a daughter. And He said to him, “Call her name Lo-Ruḥamah, for no longer do I have compassion on the house of Yisraʾēl so as to forgive them at all.

6 “But I shall have compassion on the house of Yehudah and save them by יהוה their Elohim, and not save them by bow or by sword or battle, by horses or horsemen.”

7 And she weaned Lo-Ruḥamah, and conceived and bore a son,

8 “Yet the number of the children of Yisraʾēl shall be as the sand of the sea, which is not measured nor counted. And it shall be in the place where it was said to them, ‘You are not My people,’ they shall be called, ‘You are the sons of the living Elohim.’

9 “And the children of Yehudah and the children of Yisraʾēl shall be gathered together, and appoint for themselves one head, and shall come up out of the earth, for great is the day of Yizreʾēl!”

2 “Say to your brothers, ‘O my people,’ and to your sisters, ‘O, compassioned one.’

2 “Strive with your mother, strive, for she is not My wife, nor am I her Husband! Let her put away her whorings from her face, and her adulteries from between her breasts,

3 lest I strip her naked, and shall set her up as on the day she was born, and shall make her like a wilderness, and shall set her like a dry land, and shall put her to death with thirst.

4 “And I shall not have compassion on her children, for they are the children of whorings.

5 “For their mother has whored, she who conceived them has acted shamelessly. For she said, ‘I go after my lovers, who give me my bread and my water, my wool and my linen, my oil and my drink.’

6 “Therefore, see, I am hedging up your way with thorns, and I shall wall her in, so that she does not find her paths.

7 “And she shall pursue her lovers but not overtake them, and shall seek them but not find them. Then she shall say, ‘Let me go and return to my first husband, for then it was better for me than now.’

8 “And she did not acknowledge that I gave her grain, and new wine, and oil, and increased her silver and gold which they prepared for Baʾal.

9 “Therefore I shall turn back and shall take my grain in its time and My new wine in its season, and I shall take away My wool and My linen covering her nakedness.

10 “And now I shall uncover her shame before the eyes of her lovers, and no one shall deliver her from My hand.

11 “And I shall cause all her rejoicing, her festivals, her New Moons, and her Sabbaths, even all her appointed times, to cease,

12 and lay waste her vines and her fig
trees, of which she has said, ‘these are my rewards that my lovers have given me.’ And I shall make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.

13 “And I shall punish her for the days of the Ba’als to which she burned incense and adorned herself with her rings and jewelry, and went after her lovers, and forgot Me,” declares YHWH.

14 “Therefore, see, I am alluring her, and shall lead her into the wilderness, and shall speak to her heart,

15 and give to her vineyards from there, and the Valley of Akor as a door of expectation. And there she shall respond as in the days of her youth, as in the day when she came up from the land of Mitsrayim.

16 “And it shall be, in that day,” declares YHWH, “that you call Me ‘My Husband,’ and no longer call Me ‘My Ba’al.’

17 “And I shall remove the names of the Ba’als from her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name.

18 “And in that day I shall make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the birds of the heavens, and with the creeping creatures of the ground, when bow, and sword, and battle I break from the earth. And I shall make them lie down in safety.

19 “And I shall take you as a bride unto Me forever, and take you as a bride unto Me in righteousness, and in right-ruling, and kindness and compassion.

20 “And I shall take you as a bride unto Me in trustworthiness, and you shall know YHWH.

21 “And it shall be in that day that I answer,” declares YHWH, “that I answer the heavens, and they answer the earth, 22 and the earth answer the grain and the new wine and the oil, and they answer Yizre’ël.

23 “And I shall sow her for Myself in the earth, and I shall have compassion on her who had not obtained compassion. And I shall say to those who were not My people, ‘You are My people,’ while they say, ‘My Elohim!’ ”

3 Then YHWH said to me, “Go again, love a woman loved by a friend, and an adulteress, according to the love of YHWH for the children of Yisra’ël, though they are turning to other mighty ones and love their raisin cakes.”

2 So I bought her for myself for fifteen pieces of silver, and one and one-half homers of barley.

3 And I said to her, “You are to remain with me many days, you are not to whore, nor become any man’s, and so I shall also be towards you.”

4 For many days the children of Yisra’ël are to remain without sovereign and without prince, and without slaughtering, and without pillar, and without shoulder garment or house idols.

5 Afterward the children of Yisra’ël shall return, and seek YHWH their Elohim, and Dawid their sovereign, and fear YHWH and His goodness, in the latter days.

4 Hear the word of YHWH, you children of Yisra’ël, for YHWH has a case against the inhabitants of the land: “For there is no truth or kindness or knowledge of Elohim in the land.

2 “Swearing, and lying, and murdering, and stealing, and committing adultery have increased. And bloodshed follows bloodshed.

3 “Therefore the land mourns, and every one living there languishes, with the beasts of the field and the birds of the heavens. And the fish of the sea are taken away.

4 “However, let no one strive or reprove another, for your people are like those striving with a priest.

5 “And you shall stumble in the day, and the prophet shall also stumble with you in the night. And I shall make your mother perish.

6 “My people have perished for lack of knowledge. Because you have rejected knowledge, I reject you from being priest for Me. Since you have forgotten the Torah of your Elohim, I also forget your children.

7 “As they were increased, so they sinned against Me. My esteem they have changed into shame.
8“They eat the sin of My people, and lift up their desire to their crookedness.
9“And it shall be: like people, like priest. And I shall punish them for their ways, and reward them for their deeds.
10“And they shall eat but not be satisfied, they shall whore but not increase, for they have stopped obeying יהוה.
11“They eat the sin of My people, and lift up their desire to their crookedness. And it shall be: like people, like priest. And I shall punish them for their ways, and reward them for their deeds.
12“My people ask from their Wood, and their Staff declares to them. For a spirit of whorings has led them astray, and they went whoring from under their Elohim.
13“They slaughter on the mountaintops, and burn incense on the hills, under oak and poplars and terebinth, because its shade is good. Therefore your daughters commit whoring, and your brides commit adultery.
14“I would not punish your daughters when they commit whoring, nor your brides when they commit adultery, for the men themselves go aside with whores, and offer with cult prostitutes – a people that do not understand are thrust down!
15“Though you are a whore, Yisra’ĕl, let not יהוה become guilty. Do not come up to Gilgal, nor go up to Bĕyth Awen, nor swear an oath, saying, ‘As יהוה lives!’
16“For Yisra’ĕl is stubborn, like a stubborn calf. Would יהוה now feed them like a lamb in a broad place?
17“Ephrayim is joined to idols, let him alone.
18“Their drink is sour, they have whored continually. Her rulers wildly loved shame.
19“A wind has bound her up in its wings, and they are ashamed because of their slaughterings.

5“Hear this, O priests! And listen, O house of Yisra’ĕl! Give ear, O house of the sovereign! For the judgment is for you, for you have been a snare to Mitspah and a net spread on Tabor.
2“And they have made deep the pit of Shittim, so I reprove them all.
3“I have known Ephrayim, and Yisra’ĕl has not been hidden from Me. For now, O Ephrayim, you have whored, Yisra’ĕl is defiled.
4“Their deeds do not allow them to turn back to their Elohim, for the spirit of whorings is among them, and they do not know יהוה.
5“And the Excellency of Yisra’ĕl shall witness to his face, and Yisra’ĕl and Ephrayim stumble in their crookedness. יהוה shall also stumble with them.
6“With their flocks and herds they go to seek יהוה, but do not find Him – He has withdrawn from them.
7“They have acted treacherously against יהוה, for they have brought forth strange children. Now a new moon shall devour them with their portions.
8“Blow the ram’s horn in Gib’ah, the trumpet in Ramah! Shout, O Bĕyth Awen! Behind you, O Binyamin!
9“Ephrayim is laid waste in the day of rebuke. Among the tribes of Yisra’ĕl I shall make known what is certain.
10“The chiefs of יהוה shall be like those who remove a border – on them I pour out my wrath like water.
11“Ephrayim is oppressed, crushed in judgment, because it pleased him to walk after Tsaw. a 12“So I am to Ephrayim like a moth, and to the house of יהוה like rottenness.
13“When Ephrayim saw his sickness, and יהוה saw his wound, then Ephrayim went to Ashshur and sent to Sovereign Yarĕb. But he is unable to heal you, or to remove the wound from you.
14“For I am like a lion to Ephrayim, and like a young lion to the house of יהוה. I Myself tear them and go, I take them away, and there is no one to deliver.
15“I shall go, I shall return to My place, until they confess their guilt and seek My face, in their distress diligently search for Me, and say, 6“Come, and let us turn back to יהוה. For He has torn but He does heal us, He has stricken but He binds us up.

2 ‘After two days He shall revive us, on the third day He shall raise us up, so that we live before Him.
3 ‘So let us know, let us pursue to know HWHY. His going forth is as certain as the morning. And He comes to us like the rain, like the latter rain watering the earth.’
4 ‘Ephrayim, what would I do with you?
Yehuḏah, what would I do with you? For your trustworthiness is like a morning cloud, and like the early dew it goes away.
5 ‘Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets, I have slain them by the words of My mouth. And my right-rulings break forth as the light.
6 ‘For I delight in kindness and not slaughtering, and in the knowledge of Elohim more than burnt offerings.
7 ‘But like Aḏām they transgressed the covenant. There they acted treacherously against Me.
8 ‘Gil’ad is a city of workers of wickedness – tracked up with blood.
9 ‘And as bands of robbers lie in wait for a man, so the company of priests murder on the way to Sheḵem, for they have done wickedness.
10 ‘I have seen a horrible matter in the house of Yisra’ĕl: the whoring of Ephrayim is there, Yisra’ĕl is defiled.
11 ‘Also, a harvest is appointed for you, O Yehuḏah, when I turn back the captivity of My people.

7 ‘Whenever I would heal Yisra’ĕl, then the crookedness of Ephrayim is uncovered, and the evil deeds of Shomeron. For they have wrought falsehood, and a thief comes in, a band of robbers raids outside.
2 ‘And they do not say to their hearts that I remember all their evil. Now their own deeds have surrounded them, they have been before Me.
3 ‘With their evil they make a sovereign glad, and rulers with their lies.
4 ‘All of them are adulterers, as an oven heated by a baker, who ceases stirring the fire after kneading the dough, until it is leavened.
5 ‘In the day of our sovereign rulers became sick, inflamed with wine. He extended his hand with scoffers.
6 ‘For they have drawn near, their heart is like an oven. While they lie in wait all the night their baker sleeps. In the morning it burns like a flaming fire.
7 ‘All of them are as hot as an oven, and they consumed their rulers. All their sovereigns have fallen – not one among them calls on Me.
8 ‘Ephrayim mixes himself among the peoples, Ephrayim has become a cake unturned.
9 ‘Strangers have devoured his strength, but he does not know it. Grey hairs are also sprinkled on him, and he does not know it.
10 ‘And the Excellency of Yisra’ĕl did witness to his face, but they did not return to HWHY their Elohim, nor did they seek Him for all this.
11 ‘And Ephrayim has become a simple dove without heart, they have called on Mitsrayim, they have gone to Ashšur.
12 ‘When they go I spread My net over them, I bring them down like the birds of the heavens, I chastise them as their congregation has heard.
13 ‘Woe to them, for they have strayed from Me! Destruction to them, because they have transgressed against Me! And I Myself have ransomed them, yet they speak falsehoods against Me, 14 and did not cry out to Me with their heart when they wailed upon their beds.
For grain and new wine they assemble themselves; they turn away from Me.
15 ‘And I instructed, I strengthened their arms, but they plot evil against Me.
16 ‘They return, but not to the Most High.
They have been like a slack bow. Their rulers fall by the sword for the cursings of their tongue. This is their scorn in the land of Mitsrayim.

8 ‘Put the ram’s horn to your mouth, like an eagle against the House of HWHY, because they have transgressed My covenant, and they have rebelled against My Torah.
2 ‘They cry out to Me, ‘My Elohim – we,
Yisra’ĕl, know You!’
3 "Yisra’el has rejected what is good, an enemy pursues him.

4 "They have made sovereigns, but not from Me. They have made rulers, but I have not known. From their silver and gold they made idols for themselves, so that they are cut off.

5 "O Shomeron, your calf has been cast off! My wrath has burned against them. How long shall they be incapable of innocence?

6 "For from Yisra’el is even this: a workman made it, and it is not Elohim! For the calf of Shomeron is splinters!

7 "For they sow the wind, and reap the whirlwind. The stalk has no bud, it yields no grain. If it does yield, strangers swallow it up.

8 "Yisra’el has been swallowed up. They have now become among the nations as a vessel in which is no pleasure.

9 "For they themselves have gone up to Ashshur. A wild donkey alone by itself is Ephrayim, they have hired lovers.

10 "Also, although they sold themselves among the nations, this time I shall gather them, when they have suffered for a while from the burden of a sovereign, of rulers.

11 "Since Ephrayim has made many altars for sin, they have been altars for sinning to him.

12 "I have written for him numerous matters of My Torah – they were regarded as strange.

13 "As for My offerings: they slaughter flesh and they eat. HWHY shall not accept them. Now does He remember their crookedness and punish their sins. Let them return to Mitsrayim!

14 "For Yisra’el has forgotten his Maker, and has built palaces. And Yehudah has increased walled cities. But I shall send fire upon his cities, and it shall devour his strongholds.”

9 O Yisra’el, do not rejoice with exultation like the peoples, for you have whored from your Elohim. You have loved a love-fee at all threshing-floors.

2 Threshing floor and winepress shall not feed them, and new wine shall fail in her.

3 They shall not dwell in the land of Mitsrayim, but Ephrayim shall return to Mitsrayim, and eat unclean food in Ashshur.

4 They do not pour wine offerings to HWHY, nor are their offerings pleasing to Him – it being like bread of mourners to them, all who eat it are defiled. For their bread is for their life, it does not come into the House of HWHY.

5 What do you do for the appointed meeting, and in the day of the festival of HWHY?

6 "For look, they shall go because of destruction – Mitsrayim gathers them up, Moph buries them, nettles possess their valuables of silver, thorns are in their tents.

7 "The days of punishment have come, the days of retribution have come. Yisra’el knows! The prophet is a fool, the ‘man of the Spirit’ is mad, because of the greatness of your crookedness, and great is the enmity.

8 Elohim’s watchman over you, Ephrayim, is the prophet, but a trapper’s snare is in all his ways. Enmity is in the House of his Elohim.

9 "They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gib’ah. He remembers their crookedness, He punishes their sins.

10 "I found Yisra’el like grapes in the wilderness. I saw your fathers as the first-fruits on the fig tree in its beginning. They themselves have gone to Ba’al Pe’or, and separated themselves to shame, and became as abominable as that which they loved.

11 "Ephrayim is like a bird, their esteem has flown away – no birth, and none with child, and no conception!

12 "Though they bring up their children, I shall make them childless, without man. For it is woe to them when I turn away from them!

13 "I have seen Ephrayim, like Tsor, planted in a pleasant place. But Ephrayim shall bring out his children to the murderer.”

14 "Give them, O HWHY – give what? Give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

15 "All their evil is in Gilgal, for there I have hated them. Because of the evil of their deeds I drive them from My house, no more do I love them. All their rulers are rebels.

16 “Ephrayim has been smitten, their root has dried up, they yield no fruit. Even if they bear children, I shall put to death the precious ones of their womb.”

17 My Elohim rejects them, because they have not obeyed Him, so that they become wanderers among the gentiles!

10 Yisra’êl is a degenerate vine, he brings forth fruit for himself. As his fruit increased, he increased the altars. And the better his land, the better they made the pillars.

2 Their heart has been slippery, now they are guilty. He breaks down their altars, He destroys their pillars.

3 For now they say, “We have no sovereign, because we did not fear יهوֹה. What would the sovereign do for us?”

4 They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant. Therefore judgment shall spring up like poisonous weeds in the furrows of the field.

5 The inhabitants of Shomeron fear because of the calf of Bêyth Awen. For its people shall mourn for it, as well as its priests who used to rejoice over it, because of its esteem that has departed from it.

6 It is also brought to Ashshur as a present for Sovereign Yarêb. Ephrayim does receive shame, and Yisra’êl is put to shame through his counsel.

7 Shomeron is cut off, her sovereign is like a twig on the surface of the water.

8 And the high places of Awen, the sin of Yisra’êl, shall be destroyed, thorn and thistle come up on their altars. And they shall say to the mountains, “Cover us!” and to the hills, “Fall on us!”

9 “O Yisra’êl, you have sinned from the days of Gib’ah. There they stood! The battle in Gib’ah against the children of perversity did not overtake them.

10 “When I desire, then I bind them. And peoples shall be gathered against them when I bind them for their double guilt.

11 “And Ephrayim is a trained heifer, loving to thresh grain. But I Myself shall pass over her comely neck – I put Ephrayim to the yoke, Yehuḏah ploughs, Ya’aqoḇ harrows for him.”

12 Sow for yourselves righteousness, reap according to kindness, break up your tillable ground, it is time to seek יهوֹה, till He comes and rains righteousness on you.

13 You have ploughed wrongness, you have reaped unrighteousness, you have eaten the fruit of lying, because you trusted in your own way, in your many mighty men.

14 And uproar shall arise among your people, and all your strongholds shall be ravaged as Shalman ravaged Bêyth Arbêl in the day of battle – a mother dashed in pieces on her children.

15 Thus it shall be done to you, O Bêyth Él, because of the evil of your wickedness. At dawn the sovereign of Yisra’êl is completely cut off!

11 “When Yisra’êl was a child, I loved him, and out of Mitsrayim I called My son.

2 “They called to them, so they went from their face. They slaughtered to the Ba’als, and burned incense to carved images.

3 “And I taught Ephrayim to walk, taking them by their arms, but they did not know that I healed them.

4 “I drew them with ropes of man, with cords of love, and I was to them as those who take the yoke from their neck. And I bent down, fed them.

5 “No, let him return to the land of Mitsrayim, and let Ashshur be his sovereign, because they refused to repent!

6 “And the sword shall whirl in his cities, and it shall demolish his gate bars, and consume, because of their own counsels.

7 “My people are bent towards backsliding from Me. Though they call to the Most High, He lifts none of them up.

8 “How could I give you up, Ephrayim? How could I hand you over, Yisra’êl? How could I make you like Aḏmah? How could

1 Refer Deḇ. 28:36.
2 The figurative meaning of “rain” is “to teach.”
I set you like Tseḥoyim? My heart turns within Me, all My compassion is kindled.

9“I shall not let the heat of My wrath burn, I shall not turn to destroy Ephrayim. For I am Ŭl, and not man, the Set-apart One in your midst, and I shall not come in enmity.

10“Let them follow יהוה. Like a lion He roars. When He roars, then sons shall tremble from the west.

11“They shall tremble like a bird from Mitsrayim, and like a dove from the land of Ashshur. And I shall let them dwell in their own houses,” declares יהוה.

12“Ephrayim has surrounded Me with lying, and the house of Yisra’el with deceit. But Yehuḏah is still wandering with Ŭl, and is true to the Set-apart One.”

12 Ephrayim is feeding on wind, and pursuing an east wind. All the day he increases falsehood and ruin. And they make a covenant with Ashshur, and oil is sent to Mitsrayim.

2 And יהוה has a controversy with Yehuḏah, to punish Yaqoḇ according to his ways, and repay him according to his deeds.

3 He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and in his strength he strove with Elohim.

4 He strove with the Messenger and overcame, he wept and sought His favour. He found Him in Běyth Ŭl, and there He spoke to us —

5 even יהוה Elohim of hosts, יהוה is His remembrance.

6 Therefore, return to your Elohim. Guard kindness and right-ruling, and wait on your Elohim continually.

7 A merchant! In his hand are scales of deceit, he loved to oppress.

8 And Ephrayim says, “Indeed, I have become rich, I have found wealth for myself. In all my labours they shall find in me no crookedness that is sin.”

9“But I am יהוה your Elohim since the land of Mitsrayim, again I shall make you dwell in tents as in the days of the appoint-
10“Where is your sovereign now to save you in all your cities, and your rulers of whom you said, 'Give me a sovereign and rulers’?

11“I gave you a sovereign in My displeasure, but I took him away in My wrath.

12“The crookedness of Ephrayim is bound up, his sin is hidden.

13“Pains of a woman in labour shall come upon him. He is not a wise son, for it is not the time that he should delay at the breaking forth of children.

14“From the power of the grave I ransom them, from death I redeem them. Where is your plague, O Death? Where is your destruction, O Grave? Repentance is hidden from My eyes.

15“Though he bears fruit among his brothers, an east wind comes, a wind from הוהי comes up from the wilderness, and it dries up his fountain, and his spring becomes dry – it plunders a treasure of all desirable objects.

16“Shomeron is held guilty, for she has rebelled against her Elohim – they fall by the sword, their infants are dashed in pieces, and their pregnant women ripped open.”

14 O Yisra’ël, return to הוהי your Elohim, for you have stumbled by your crookedness.

2Take words with you, and return to הוהי. Say to Him, “Take away all crookedness, and accept what is good, and we render the bulls of our lips.”

3“Ashshur does not save us. We do not ride on horses, nor ever again do we say to the work of our hands, ‘Our mighty ones.’ For the fatherless finds compassion in You.”

4“I shall heal their backsliding, I shall love them spontaneously, for My displeasure has turned away from him.

5“I shall be like the dew to Yisra’ël. He shall blossom like the lily, and cast out his roots like Lebanon.

6“His branches shall spread, and his splendour shall be like an olive tree, and his fragrance like Lebanon.

7“Those who dwell under his shadow shall return. They shall revive like grain, and blossom like the vine, and become as fragrant as the wine of Lebanon.

8“What more has Ephrayim to do with idols? It is I who answer and look after him. I am like a green cypress tree, your fruit comes from Me.”

9Who is wise and understands these words, discerning and knows them? For the ways of הוהי are straight, and the righteous walk in them, but the transgressors stumble in them.

e Heb. 13:15 - bulls, referring to offerings
1 The word of \( H\) that came to Yo’ël son of Pethu’ël.
2 Hear this, you elders, and give ear, all you inhabitants of the land! Has this ever been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers?
3 Relate it to your children, and your children to their children, and their children to the generation after them.
4 What the gnawing locust left the swarming locust has eaten, and what the swarming locust left the crawling locust has eaten, and what the crawling locust left the consuming locust has eaten.
5 Wake up, you drunkards, and weep. And wail, all you drinkers of wine, on account of the new wine, for it has been cut off from your mouth.
6 For a nation has come up against My land, strong, and innumerable. Its teeth are the teeth of a lion, and it has the fangs of a lionness.
7 It has laid waste My vine and splintered My fig tree. It has made it entirely bare and cast it away, its branches became white.
8 Wail like a maiden girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.
9 The grain offering and the drink offering have been cut off from the House of \( H\). The priests, servants of \( H\), have mourned.
10 The field is ravaged, the ground has mourned, for the grain is ruined, the new wine has dried up, the oil fails.
11 The farmers are ashamed, the vine-dressers wail over the wheat and over the barley, for the harvest of the field is destroyed.
12 The vine has dried up, and the fig tree droops, pomegranate, also palm, and apple tree, all the trees of the field are dried up, because joy has dried up among the sons of men.
13 Gird yourselves and lament, you priests. Wail, you attendants of the altar. Come, lie all night in sackcloth, you attendants of my Elohim. For the grain offering and the drink offering are withheld from the house of your Elohim.
14 Set apart a fast. Call an assembly, gather the elders, all the inhabitants of the land, into the House of \( H\) your Elohim, and cry out to \( H\).
15 Alas for the day! For the day of \( H\) is near, and it comes as destruction from the Almighty.
16 Is not the food cut off before our eyes, joy and gladness from the House of our Elohim?
17 The seed has rotted under their clods, storehouses are laid waste, granaries are broken down, for the grain has withered.
18 How the beasts moan! The herds of cattle are restless, because they have no pasture. The flocks of sheep also perish.
19 I cry to You \( H\), for fire has consumed the pastures of the wilderness, and a flame has set on fire all the trees of the field.
20 Even the beasts of the field cry out to you, for the water streams are dried up, and fire has consumed the pastures of the wilderness.

2 Blow a ram’s horn in Tsiyon, and sound an alarm in My set-apart mountain! Let all the inhabitants of the earth tremble, for the day of \( H\) is coming, for it is near:
2 a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness, like the morning clouds spread over the mountains – a people many and strong, the like of whom has never been, nor shall there ever be again after them, to the years of many generations.
3 Ahead of them a fire has consumed, and behind them a flame burns. Before them the land is like the Garden of Eden, and behind them a desert waste. And from them there is no escape.

4 Their appearance is like the appearance of horses, and they run like steeds.

5 As the noise of chariots they leap over mountaintops, as the noise of a flaming fire consuming stubble, as a mighty people set in battle array.

6 Before them peoples are in anguish, all faces become flushed.

7 They run like mighty men, they climb the wall like men of battle, every one goes on his way, and they do not break ranks.

8 And they do not press one another, every one goes in his path. They fall among the weapons, but they do not stop.

9 They rush on the city, they run on the wall. They climb into the houses, they enter at the windows like a thief.

10 The earth shall tremble before them, the heavens shall shake. Sun and moon shall be darkened, and the stars withdraw their brightness.

11 And יָהָ֥וה֙ shall give forth His voice before His army, for His camp is very great, for mighty is the doer of His word. For the day of יָהָ֥וה֙ is great and very awesome, and who does bear it?

12 “Yet even now,” declares יָהָ֥וה֙, “turn to Me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning.”

13 And tear your heart and not your garments, and turn back to יָהָ֥וה֙ your Elohim, for He shows favour and is compassionate, patient, and of great kindness, and He shall relent concerning the evil.

14 Who knows – He might turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind Him, a grain offering and a drink offering for יָהָ֥וה֙ your Elohim?

15 Blow a ram’s horn in Tsiyon, set apart a fast, call an assembly.

16 Gather the people, set the assembly apart, assemble the elders, gather the children and nursing babes. Let a bridegroom come out from his room, and a bride from her dressing room.

17 Let the priests, servants of יָהָ֥וה֙, weep between the porch and the altar. And let them say, “Spare Your people, O יָהָ֥וה֙, and do not give Your inheritance to reproach, for the gentiles to rule over them. Why should they say among the peoples, ‘Where is their Elohim?’ ”

18 And let יָהָ֥וה֙ be jealous for His land, and spare His people.

19 And let יָהָ֥וה֙ answer and say to His people, “See, I am sending you the grain and the new wine and the oil, and you shall be satisfied by them. And no longer do I make you a reproach among the gentiles.

20 “And the Northerner I shall remove far from you, and drive him away into a dry and deserted land, with his face toward the eastern sea and his rear toward the western sea. And his stench shall come up and his smell rise, for he has done greatly.”

21 Do not fear, O soil, be glad and rejoice, for יָהָ֥וה֙ has done greatly!

22 Do not fear, you beasts of the field, for the pastures of the wilderness shall spring forth, and the tree shall bear its fruit, the fig tree and the vine shall yield their strength.

23 And you children of Tsiyon, be glad and rejoice in יָהָ֥וה֙ your Elohim, for He shall give you the Teacher of Righteousness, and cause the rain to come down for you, the former rain and the latter rain, as before.

24 And the threshing-floors shall be filled with grain, and the vats shall overflow with new wine and oil.

25 “Then I shall repay you the years that the swarming locust has eaten, the crawling locust, and the consuming locust, My great army which I sent among you.

26 “Then you shall eat – eat and be satisfied – and shall praise the Name of יָהָ֥וה֙ your Elohim, who has done with you so wondrously. And My people shall never be put to shame.

27 “And you shall know that I am in the midst of Yisra’ãl, and that I am יָהָ֥וה֙ your Elohim and there is no one else. And My people shall never be put to shame.

28 “And after this it shall be that I pour out My Spirit on all flesh. And your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men dream dreams, your young men see visions.

$^{a}$ See footnote Yesh. 24:23.
And also on the male servants and on the female servants I shall pour out My Spirit in those days. And I shall give signs in the heavens and upon the earth: blood and fire and columns of smoke, the sun is turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the coming of the great and awesome day of ḤWHY.

And it shall be that everyone who calls on the Name of ḤWHY shall be delivered. For on Mount Tsiyon and in Yerushalayim there shall be an escape as ḤWHY has said, and among the survivors whom ḤWHY calls.

For look, in those days and at that time, when I turn back the captivity of YehuÅah and Yerushalayim, then I shall gather all gentiles, and bring them down to the Valley of Yehoshaphat. And I shall enter into judgment with them there for My people, My inheritance Yisra'Ãl, whom they have scattered among the gentiles, and they have divided up My land.

And they have cast lots for My people, and have given a young man for a whore, and sold a girl for wine, and drank it.

And also, what are you to Me, O Tsor and TsiÅon, and all the coasts of Philistia? Are you repaying Me? And if you are repaying Me, I would swiftly and speedily return your reward on your own head.

For you have taken My silver and My gold, and brought My treasures into your temples, and the people of Yehudah and the people of Yerushalayim you have sold to the sons of Yawan, to remove them far from their borders.

See, I am stirring them up out of the place to which you have sold them, and I shall return on your own head what you have done, and shall sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the people of Yehudah, and they shall sell them to the SheÄaites, to a nation far off. For ḤWHY has spoken.”

Proclaim this among the gentiles, “Prepare for battle! Wake up the mighty men, let all the men of battle draw near, let them come up.

Beat your ploughshares into swords and your pruning-hooks into spears, let the weak say, ‘I am strong.’ ”

Hasten and come, all you gentiles, and gather together all around. O ḤWHY, let Your mighty men come down here.

Let the gentiles be aroused, and come up to the Valley of Yehoshaphat. For there I shall sit to judge all the gentiles on every side.

Put in the sickle, for the harvest has grown ripe. Come, go down, for the wine-press is filled, the vats overflow, for their evil is great.”

Crowds, crowds in the valley of decision! For the day of ḤWHY is near in the valley of decision.

Sun and moon shall become dark, and stars shall withdraw their brightness.

And ḤWHY shall roar from Tsiyon, and give forth His voice from Yerushalayim. And the heavens and earth shall shake, but ḤWHY shall be a refuge for His people, and a stronghold for the children of Yisra’èl.

Then you shall know that I am ḤWHY your Elohim, dwelling in Tsiyon, My set-apart mountain. And Yerushalayim shall be set-apart, and foreigners shall not pass through her again.

And it shall be in that day that the mountains drip with new wine, and the hills flow with milk. And all the streams of YehuÅah shall be flooded with water, and a fountain flow from the House of ḤWHY and water the wadi Shittim.

Mitsrayim shall become a ruin, and Edom a ruin, a wilderness, because of violence done to the people of YehuÅah, whose innocent blood they shed in their land.

But YehuÅah shall dwell forever, and Yerushalayim to all generations.

And I shall avenge their blood, which I have not avenged. And ḤWHY shall be dwelling in Tsiyon!”

The words of Amos, who was among the herdsmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Yisra’el in the days of Uzziah sovereign of Yehudah, and in the days of Yaro’aam son of Yo’ash, sovereign of Yisra’el, two years before the earthquake.

And he said, “HWHY roars from Tsiyon, and gives forth His voice from Yerushalayim. And the pastures of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Karmel shall wither.”

Thus said HWHY, “For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I do not turn it back, because they threshed Gil’ad with threshing implements of iron.

“But I shall send fire upon the house of Hazar’el, and it shall consume the palaces of Ben-Haḏaq.

“And I shall break the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the Valley of Aven, and the one who holds the sceptre from Bēyth Edēn. And the people of Aram shall go exiled to Qir,” said HWHY.

Thus said HWHY, “For three transgressions of Azzah, and for four, I do not turn it back, because they took into exile an entire exile, to surrender it to Edom.

“But I shall send fire upon the wall of Azzah, and it shall consume its palaces.

“And I shall cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and the one who holds the sceptre from Ashqelon. And I shall turn My hand against Eqrōn, and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish,” said the Master HWHY.

Thus said HWHY, “For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, and for four, I do not turn it back, because they ripped open the pregnant women in Gil’ad, to enlarge their border.

“And their sovereign shall go into exile, he and his heads together,” said HWHY.

Thus said HWHY, “For three transgressions of Mo’ab, and for four, I do not turn it back, because he burned the bones of the sovereign of Edom to lime.

“But I shall send fire upon Mo’ab, and it shall consume the palaces of Qeriyyoth. And Mo’ab shall die amid uproar, with a cry and with the sound of a ram’s horn.

“And I shall cut off the judge from its midst, and slay all its heads with him,” said HWHY.

Thus said HWHY, “For three transgressions of Yehudah, and for four, I do not turn it back, because they have rejected the Torah of HWHY, and did not guard His laws. And their lies after which their fathers walked lead them astray.

“But I shall send fire upon Yehudah, and it shall consume the palaces of Yerushalayim.”

Thus said HWHY, “For three transgressions of Yisra’el, and for four, I do not turn it back, because they sell the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of sandals, who crush the head of the poor ones in the dust of the earth, and turn aside the way of the meek. And a man and his father go in to the same girl, to defile My set-apart Name.

8“And they lie down by every altar on garments taken in pledge, and in the house of their mighty one they drink the wine of those who have been fined.

9“Yet I destroyed the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars. And he was as strong as the oaks, yet I destroyed his fruit from above and his roots from beneath.

10“And I brought you up from the land of Mitsrayim, and led you forty years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite.

11“And I raised up some of your sons as prophets, and some of your young men as Nazirites. Not so? O you children of Yisra’el?” declares HWHY.

12“But you made the Nazirites drink wine, and commanded the prophets saying, ‘Do not prophesy!’

13“See, I am weighed down by you, as a wagon is weighed down when filled with sheaves.

14“And a place to flee shall perish from the swift, and the strong not strengthen his power, and the mighty not save his life,

15and he who handles the bow not stand, and the swift of foot not save, nor he who rides a horse save his life, 16and the bravest among the mighty flee naked, in that day,” declares HWHY.

3 Hear this word that HWHY has spoken against you, O children of Yisra’el, against the entire clan which I brought up from the land of Mitsrayim, saying,

2“You alone have I known of all the clans of the earth, therefore I punish you for all your crookednesses.”

3 Would two walk together, without having met?

4Does a lion roar in the forest, when he has no prey? Does a young lion give forth his voice out of his den unless he has caught?

5Does a bird fall into a snare on the earth, where there is no trap for it? Does a snare spring up from the earth, if it has not captured prey?

6If a ram’s horn is blown in a city, do the people not tremble? If there is calamity in a city, shall not HWHY have done it?

7For the Master HWHY does no matter unless He reveals His secret to His servants the prophets.

8A lion has roared! Who is not afraid? The Master HWHY has spoken! Who would not prophesy?

9“Cry out at the palaces in Ashdod, and at the palaces in the land of Mitsrayim, and say, ‘Gather on the mountains of Shomeron, and see the many unrests in her midst, and the oppressed ones within her.

10‘But they do not know to do what is right,’ declares HWHY, ‘these who store up plunder and loot in their palaces.’ ”

11 Therefore thus said the Master HWHY, “An enemy, even all around the land! And he shall bring down your strength from you, and your palaces shall be plundered.”

12 Thus said HWHY, “As a shepherd rescues from the mouth of a lion two legs or a piece of an ear, so are the children of Yisra’el who dwell in Shomeron to be rescued – in the corner of a bed and on the edge of a couch!

13“Hear and witness against the house of Ya’aqoḇ,” declares the Master HWHY, the Elohim of hosts.

14“For in the day I visit Yisra’el for their transgressions, I shall also punish concerning the altars of Bēyth Ėl. And the horns of the altar shall be broken, and they shall fall to the ground.

15“And I shall smite the winter house along with the summer house. And the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall be swept away,” declares HWHY.

4 Hear this word, you cows of Bashan, who are on the mountain of Shomeron, who are oppressing the poor, who are crushing the needy, who are saying to their masters, “Bring wine, let us drink!”

2The Master HWHY has sworn by His set-apartness, “See, days are coming upon you when He shall take you away with hooks, and your descendants with fish-hooks, 3and let you go out at the breaches, each woman before her, and you shall be cast out toward Harmon,” declares HWHY.

4"Come to Bêyth Êl and transgress, to Gilgal, increase transgression. And bring your slaughterings every morning, your tithes every three days.

5"And burn an offering of thanksgiving with leaven, proclaim voluntary offerings, loudly. For you have loved this, you children of Yisra’êl!" declares the Master הוהי.

6"And I also gave you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and lack of bread in all your places. But you did not turn back to Me," declares הוהי.

7"And I also withheld rain from you, three months before the harvest. Then I would send rain on one city, and on another city I would not send rain. One part was rained upon, and where it did not rain the part would dry up.

8"Then two or three cities would wander to another city to drink water, but they were not satisfied. But you did not turn back to Me," declares הוהי.

9"I have smitten you with blight and with mildew. The creeping locust devoured your many gardens, and your vineyards, and your fig trees, and your olive trees. But you did not turn back to Me," declares הוהי.

10"I have sent among you a plague in the way of Mitsrayim. I have slain your young men with a sword, along with your captured horses. And I made the stench of your camps come up into your nostrils. But you did not turn back to Me," declares הוהי.

11"I have overthrown some of you, as Elohim overthrew Seđom and Amorah, and you were like a burning stick plucked from the burning. But you did not turn back to Me," declares הוהי.

12"Therefore I am doing this to you, O Yisra’êl. And because I do this to you, prepare to meet your Elohim, O Yisra’êl!"

13For look, He who forms mountains, and creates the wind, and who declares to man what His thought is, and makes the morning darkness, and who treads the high places of the earth, הוהי Elohim of hosts is His Name.

5Hear this word which I take up against you, this lamentation, O house of Yisra’êl:

2The maiden of Yisra’êl has fallen, not to rise again. She lies forsaken on her land, with no one to lift her up.

3For thus said the Master הוהי, "The city that goes out by a thousand has a hundred left, and that which goes out by a hundred has ten left to the house of Yisra’êl."

4For thus said הוהי to the house of Yisra’êl, "Seek Me and live, 5but do not seek Bêyth Êl, nor enter Gilgal, nor pass over to Be’êrsheba. For Gilgal shall certainly go into exile, and Bêyth Êl become a non-entity.

6"Seek הוהי and live, lest He break out like fire upon the house of Yosêph, and shall consume it, with no one to quench it in Bêyth Êl.

7"O you who are turning right-ruling to wormwood, and have cast down righteousness to the earth!"

8He who made Kimah and Kesil, and who turns the shadow of death into morning and darkened day into night, who is calling for the waters of the sea and pours them out on the face of the earth – הוהי is His Name –

9who is flashing forth destruction upon the strong, so that destruction comes upon the stronghold.

10They hated the one who reproves in the gate, and they despise the one who speaks the truth.

11Therefore, because you trample on the poor and take grain taxes from him – you have built houses of hewn stone but you are not going to dwell in them, you have planted pleasant vineyards but not drink wine from them.

12For I know your transgressions are many and your sins are great, afflicting the righteous and accepting bribes, and turning aside the poor at the gate.

13Therefore the wise keep silent at that time, for it is an evil time.

14Seek good and not evil, so that you live. And let הוהי Elohim of hosts be with you, as you have spoken.
15 Hate evil and love good, and set up right-ruling in the gate. It might be that Elohim of hosts shows favour to the remnant of Yosèph.
16 Therefore Elohim of hosts, said this, “There is wailing in all open squares, and in all the streets they say, ‘Alas! Alas!’ and shall call the farmer to mourning, and skilled lamenters to wailing.
17 “And in all vineyards there is wailing, for I pass through your midst,” said Elohim of hosts.
18 Woe to you who are longing for the day of Elohim! What does the day of Elohim mean to you? It is darkness, and not light, 19 as when a man flees from a lion, and a bear shall meet him; or entered his house, rested his hand on the wall, and a serpent shall bite him.
20 Is not the day of Elohim darkness, and not light? Is it not very dark, with no brightness in it?
21 “I have hated, I have despised your festivals, and I am not pleased with your assemblies.
22 “Though you offer Me burnt offerings and your grain offerings, I do not accept them, nor do I look on your fattened peace offerings.
23 “Take away from Me the noise of your songs, for I do not hear the sound of your stringed instruments.
24 “And let right-ruling roll on like water, and righteousness like a mighty stream.
25 “You brought Me slaughterings and meal offerings in the wilderness for forty years, O house of Yisra’èl, 26 but you took up Sikkuth your sovereign and Kiyyun, your idols, your astral mighty ones, which you made for yourselves!
27 “Therefore I shall send you into exile beyond Damascus,” said Elohim of hosts – His Name.

6 Woe to those at ease in Tsiyon, and those trusting in Mount Shomeron, the distinguished ones among the chief of the nations, to whom the house of Yisra’èl comes!
2 Pass over to Kalneh and see, and from there go to Ḥamath the great. Then go down to Gath of the Philistines. Are you better than these reigns, or is their border greater than your border?
3 You who are putting off the day of evil, yet bring near the seat of violence,
4 who are lying on beds of ivory, and are stretched out on your couches, and are eating lambs from the flock and calves from the midst of the stall,
5 who are singing to the sound of the harp, having composed songs for themselves like Dawièd,
6 who are drinking wine from bowls, and anoint with the finest ointments, yet they have not been pained over the breach of Yosèph!
7 Therefore they shall now go into exile, with the first of the exiles, and the feasting of the stretched-out ones shall cease!
8 The Master has sworn by Himself, Elohim of hosts declares, “I am loathing the pride of Ya’aqob, and I have hated his palaces. Therefore I shall deliver up the city and all that is in it.”
9 And it shall be, that if ten men remain in one house, they shall die.
10 And if a relative, or his undertaker, brings the remains out of the house, he shall say to one inside the house, “Is anyone with you?” and he says, “No,” then he shall say, “Hush!” For we have not remembered the Name of Elohim!
11 For look, Elohim is commanding, and He shall smite the great house with breaches, and the little house with clefts.
12 Do horses run on a rock? Does one plough it with oxen? For you have turned right-ruling into poison, and the fruit of righteousness into wormwood, 13 you who are rejoicing over a matter of naught, who say, “Have we not taken horns for ourselves by our own strength?”
14 “For look, I am raising up a nation against you, O house of Yisra’èl,” declares Elohim of hosts, “and they shall oppress you from the entrance of Ḥamath to the wadi Arabah.”

7 This is what the Master showed me, and see, He was forming locust swarms at the beginning of the late crop. And see, it was the late crop after the mowings of the sovereign.

2 And it came to be, when they had finished eating the grass of the land, that I said, “O Master, forgive, I pray! How does Ya’aqoḇ survive, for he is small?”

3 The Master relented concerning this. “It shall not be,” said the Master.

4 This is what the Master showed me, and see, the Master was calling to contend by fire, and it consumed the great deep and did consume the portion,

5 and I said, “O Master, please stop! How does Ya’aqoḇ survive, for he is small?”

6 The Master relented concerning this. “This shall not be either,” said the Master.

7 This is what He showed me, and see, the Master stood on a wall made with a plumb-line, with a plumb-line in His hand,

8 and the Master said to me, “Amos, what do you see?” And I said, “A plumb-line.” And the Master said, “See, I am setting a plumb-line in the midst of My people Yisra’ĕl, no longer do I pardon them.

9 “And the high places of Yitsâaq shall be laid waste, and the set-apart places of Yisra’ĕl shall be destroyed. And I shall rise with the sword against the house of Yaroḇ’am.”

10 Then Amatsyah the priest of Beth El sent to Yaroḇ’am sovereign of Yisra’ĕl, saying, “Amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Yisra’ĕl. The land is not able to endure all his words, 11 for this is what Amos said, ‘Yaroḇ’am shall die by the sword, and Yisra’ĕl certainly be exiled from their own land.’ ”

12 And Amatsyah said to Amos, “Go, you seer! Flee to the land of Yehudah, and eat bread and prophesy there, 13 but do not prophesy any more at Beth El, for it is the sovereign’s set-apart place and it is the house of the reign.”

14 And Amos answered and said to Amatsyah, “I am not a prophet, nor am I a son of a prophet, for I am a herdsman and a grower of sycamore figs.

15 “But the Master took me from behind the flock, and said to me, ‘Go, prophesy to My people Yisra’ĕl.’

16 “And now, hear the word of the Master. You are saying, ‘Do not prophesy against Yisra’ĕl, and do not drop words against the house of Yitsḥaq.’

17 “Therefore thus said the Master, ‘Your wife shall become a whore in the city, and your sons and daughters fall by the sword, and your land be divided by a measuring line, and you die in a defiled land, and Yisra’ĕl shall certainly be exiled from its land.’ ”

8 This is what the Master showed me, and see, a basket of summer fruit.

2 And He said, “Amos, what do you see?” And I said, “A basket of summer fruit.” And the Master said to me, “The end has come upon my people Yisra’ĕl, no longer do I pardon them.

3 “And the songs of the hĕkal shall be wailing in that day,” declares the Master, “many dead bodies everywhere, thrown into any place – hush!”

4 Hear this, you who are swallowing up the needy, to do away with the poor of the land,

5 saying, “When does the New Moon pass so that we sell grain, and the Sabbath so that we trade our wheat, to make the êphah small and the sheqel large, and to falsify the scales by deceit,

6 to buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of sandals, and sell the chaff of the wheat?”

7 The Master has sworn by the Excellency of Ya’aqoḇ, “I shall never forget any of their works.

8 “Shall the land not tremble for this, and everyone mourn who dwells in it? And all of it shall swell like the River, heave and subside like the River of Mitsrayim.

9 “And it shall be in that day,” declares the Master, “that I shall cause the sun to go down at noon, and shall darken the earth on a day of brightness,

10 and shall turn your festivals into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation, and bring sackcloth on all loins, and baldness on every head, and shall make it like mourning for an only son, and its end like a day of bitterness.

11 “See, days are coming,” declares the Master יהוה, “that I shall send a hunger in the land, not a hunger for bread, nor a thirst for water, but for hearing the Words of יהוה.

12 “And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from north to east – they shall diligently search, seeking the Word of יהוה, but they shall not find it. c

13 “In that day the pretty maidens and strong young men shall faint from thirst, 14 those swearing by the guilt of Shomer-on, who say, ‘As your mighty one lives, O Dan!’ and, ‘As the way of Be’ĕrsheḇa lives!’ And they shall fall and never rise again.”

9 I saw יהוה standing by the altar, and He said, “Smite the column head, so that the thresholds shake, and break them off by the head, all of them. And the last of them I slay with the sword. Not one of them fleeing gets away, and not one fugitive of them escapes.

2 “If they dig into the grave, from there my hand does take them; and if they climb up to the heavens, from there I shall bring them down.

3 “And if they hide themselves on top of Karmel, from there I shall search, and take them. And if they hide from before My eyes at the bottom of the sea, from there I shall command the serpent, and it shall bite them.

4 “And if they go into captivity before their enemies, from there I shall command the sword, and it shall slay them. And I shall set My eyes on them for evil and not for good.”

5 And the Master יהוה of hosts is He who touches the earth so that it melts, and all who dwell in it mourn, and all of it come up like the River, and subside like the River of Mitsrayim –

6 who is building His upper room in the heavens, and has founded His firmament on the earth, who is calling for the waters of the sea, and pours them out on the face of the earth – יהוה is His Name.

7 “Are you not like the people of Kush to Me, O children of Yisra’èl?” declares יהוה. “Did I not bring up Yisra’èl from the land of Mitsrayim, and the Philistines from Kaphtor, and Aram from Qir?

8 “Look, the eyes of the Master יהוה are on the sinful reign, d and I shall destroy it from the face of the earth, except that, I do not completely destroy the house of Ya’aqoḇ,” declares יהוה.

9 “For look, I am commanding, and I shall sift e the house of Yisra’èl among all the gentiles, as one sifts e with a sieve, yet not a grain falls to the ground.

10 “All the sinners of My people are going to die by the sword, those who are saying, ‘Evil does not overtake us nor meet us.’

11 “In that day I shall raise up the booth of Dawid which has fallen down. And I shall repair its breaches and raise up its ruins. And I shall build it as in the days of old, 12 so that they possess the remnant of Edom, f and all the gentiles on whom My Name is called,” g declares יהוה who does this.

13 “Look, the days are coming,” declares יהוה, “that the ploughman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him who sows seed. And the mountains shall drip new wine, and all the hills melt.

14 “And I shall turn back the captivity of My people Yisra’èl. And they shall build the waste cities and inhabit them. And they shall plant vineyards and drink wine from them, and shall make gardens and eat their fruit.

15 “And I shall plant them on their own soil, and not uproot them any more from their own soil I have given them,” said יהוה your Elohim!

1 The vision of Obadiah: This is what the Master said concerning Edom. We have heard a report from Edom, and a messenger has been sent among the nations, saying, “Arise, and let us rise up against her for battle!”

2 “See, I have made you small among the nations, you are greatly despised.

3 “The pride of your heart has deceived you, you who dwell in the clefts of the rock, whose dwelling is high, who say in your heart, ‘Who shall bring me down to the ground?’

4 “Though you rise high as the eagle, and though you set your nest among the stars, from there I shall bring you down,” declares the Lord.

5 “If thieves came to you, if robbers by night, how ruined you would have been! Would they not steal till they had enough? If grape-gatherers had come to you, would they not leave gleanings?

6 “How shall be searched out! His hidden treasures shall be sought out!

7 “All your allies shall send you forth to the border, your friends shall deceive you and overpower you. They make your bread a snare under you, without you discerning it!

8 “In that day,” declares the Lord, “I shall destroy the wise men from Edom, and discernment from the mountains of Edom!

9 “And your mighty men shall be discouraged, O Teman, so that everyone from the mountains of Edom is cut off by slaughter.

10 “Because of your violence against your brother Yaqoḇ, let shame cover you. And you shall be cut off forever.

11 “In the day that you stood on the other side, in the day that strangers took captive his wealth, when foreigners entered his gates and cast lots for Jerusalem, you also were like one of them!

12 “And you should not have looked on your brother’s day in the day of his estrangement, nor rejoiced over the children of Yehuḏah in the day of their destruction, nor made your mouth great in the day of distress,

13 nor have entered the gate of My people in the day of their calamity, nor looked down on their evil in the day of their calamity, nor have seized their wealth in the day of their calamity,

14 nor have stood at the parting of the way to cut off his fugitives, nor handed over his survivors in the day of distress.

15 “For the day of the Lord is near upon all the gentiles. As you have done, it shall be done to you, your reward shall come back on your own head.

16 “For as you have drunk on my set-apart mountain, so do all the gentiles drink continually. And they shall drink and shall swallow, and they shall be as though they had never been.

17 “But on Mount Tsiyon there shall be an escape, and they shall be set-apart. And the house of Yaʿaqoḇ shall possess their possessions.

18 “And the house of Yaʿaqoḇ shall be a fire, and the house of Yosĕph a flame, but the house of Edom for stubble. And they shall burn among them and they shall consume them, so that no survivor is left of the house of Edom.” For the Lord has spoken.

19 And they shall possess the South with the mountains of Edom, and low country with the Philistines. And they shall possess the fields of Ephraim and the fields of Shomeron, and Binyamin with Gilʿad, 20 and the exiles of this host of the children of Yisra’ĕl possess that of the Kenaanites as far as Tsarephath, and the exiles of Yerushalayim who are in Sepharad possess the cities of the South.

21 And saviours shall come to Mount Tsiyon to judge the mountains of Edom. And the reign shall belong to the Lord.”

And the word of יִרְמַיָּה came to Yonah son of Amittai, saying,

“Arise, go to Nineweh, the great city, and cry out against it, for their evils have come up before Me.”

But Yonah rose up to flee to Tarshish from the presence of יִרְמַיָּה, and went down to Yapho, and found a ship going to Tarshish. And he paid the fare, and went down into it, to go with them to Tarshish from the presence of יִרְמַיָּה.

And יִרְמַיָּה sent out a great wind on the sea, and there was a great storm on the sea, so that the ship was thought to be broken up.

And the seamen were afraid, and each one cried out to his mighty one, and threw the cargo which was in the ship going to the sea, to lighten the load. But Yonah had gone down into the lowest parts of the ship, and he lay down, and was fast asleep.

And the captain came to him, and said to him, “What do you mean, sleeper? Arise, cry out to your Elohim, if so be that Elohim shall think about us, so that we do not perish.”

They said to each other, “Come, and let us cast lots, so that we know for whose sake this evil has come upon us.” So they cast lots, and the lot fell on Yonah.

And they said to him, “Please explain to us! For whose sake is this evil upon us? What is your occupation? And where do you come from? What is your country? And from what people are you?”

And he said to them, “I am a Hebrew. And I am fearing יִרְמַיָּה, the Elohim of the heavens, who made the sea and the dry land.”

And the men were exceedingly afraid, and said to him, “Why have you done this?” For the men knew that he fled from the presence of יִרְמַיָּה, for he had informed them.

And they said to him, “What are we to do to you to make the sea calm for us?”

For the sea was growing more stormy.

And he said to them, “Take me and throw me into the sea, so that the sea becomes calm for you. For I know that this great storm is because of me.”

However, the men rowed hard to bring the ship to land, but were unable, for the sea continued to grow more stormy against them.

And they cried out to יִרְמַיָּה and said, “We pray, O יִרְמַיָּה, please, let us not perish for this man’s life, and do not lay on us innocent blood. For You, O יִרְמַיָּה, have done as it pleased You.”

Then they took Yonah and threw him into the sea, and the sea stopped raging.

And the men feared יִרְמַיָּה exceedingly, and brought an offering to יִרְמַיָּה and made vows.

But יִרְמַיָּה appointed a great fish to swallow Yonah. And Yonah was in the stomach of the fish three days and three nights.

And Yonah prayed to יִרְמַיָּה his Elohim from the stomach of the fish.

And he said, “I called to יִרְמַיָּה because of my distress, and He answered me. From the stomach of the grave I cried, and You heard my voice.

“For You threw me into the deep, into the heart of the seas, and the floods surrounded me. All Your breakers and Your waves passed over me.

“So I said, ‘I have been driven away from Your eyes. Would I ever look again toward Your set-apart Hêkal?’

“Waters encompassed me, unto life, the deep closed around me, weeds were wrapped around my head.

“I went down to the base of the mountains, the earth with its bars were behind me forever. But You brought up my life from the pit, O יִרְמַיָּה, my Elohim.

“When my life fainted within me, I remembered יִרְמַיָּה. And my prayer went up to You, into Your set-apart Hêkal.
8 “Those observing false worthlessnesses forsake their own kindness.
9 “But I offer to You with the voice of thanksgiving, I pay what I have vowed.
Deliverance is of HWHY.”
10 Then HWHY spoke to the fish, and it vomited Yonah on the dry land.

3 And the word of HWHY came to Yonah
the second time, saying,
2 “Arise, go to Ninewêh, that great city, and proclaim to it the message that I am speaking to you.”
3 And Yonah arose and went to Ninewêh, according to the word of HWHY. Now Ninewêh was a great city before Elohim, of three day’s journey.
4 And Yonah began to go in to the city on the first day’s walk. And he cried out and said, “Yet forty days, and Ninewêh shall be overthrown!”
5 And the men of Ninewêh believed in Elohim, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest to the least of them.
6 And the word reached the sovereign of Ninewêh, so he arose from his throne and took off his robe, and covered himself with sackcloth and sat in ashes.
7 And he proclaimed and said throughout Ninewêh, “By decree of the sovereign and his nobles: No man or beast, herd or flock, shall taste whatever – let them not eat, let them not even drink water.
8 “But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and call mightily to Elohim.
And let each one turn from his evil way and from the violence that is in his hands.
9 “Who knows whether Elohim does turn and relent, and shall turn away from the heat of His displeasure, so that we do not perish?”
10 And Elohim saw their works, that they turned from their evil way. And Elohim relented from the evil which He had said
He would do to them, and He did not do it.

4 But it greatly displeased Yonah, and he was grieved.
2 And he prayed to HWHY, and he said,
“Please, HWHY, was this not what I said while I was in my own land? This is why I went ahead and fled to Tarshish. For I know that You are an Él showing favour, and compassionate, patient and of great kindness, and relenting from doing evil.
3 “And now, O HWHY, please take my life from me, for it is better for me to die than to live!”
4 And HWHY said, “Are you right to be displeased?”
5 Then Yonah went out of the city and sat on the east side of the city, and made himself a shelter there, and sat under it in the shade, to see what would become of the city.
6 And HWHY Elohim appointed a plant and made it come up over Yonah, to be a shade for his head to deliver him from his discomfort. And Yonah greatly rejoiced over the plant.
7 But as morning dawned the next day
Elohim appointed a worm which attacked the plant so that it withered.
8 And it came to be when the sun came up, that Elohim appointed a scorching east wind, and the sun smote on Yonah’s head, so that he grew faint, and asked for his life to die, and said, “It is better for me to die than to live.”
9 And Elohim said to Yonah, “Have you rightly become displeased over the plant?”
And he said, “I have rightly become displeased, even to death!”
10 And HWHY said, “You felt sorry for the plant for which you have not laboured, nor made it grow, which came up in a night and perished in a night.
11 “And should I not pardon Ninewêh, that great city, in which are more than one hundred and twenty thousand beings who have not known their right hand from their left, and much cattle?”
The word of הוהי that came to מיכה of מושרשeth in the days of יתומות, אָֽחז, הִצְּבִיָּה, sovereigns of יְהוּדָה, which he saw concerning שומרון and יֵרְשָׁלָּיִם.

2Hear, all you peoples! Listen, O earth, and all who are in it! And let the Master הוהי be a witness against you – הוהי from His set-apart הֵיכָל.

3For look, הוהי is coming out of His place, a and He shall come down and shall tread on the high places of the earth.

4And the mountains shall melt under Him, b and the valleys be cleft as wax before the fire, as waters poured down a steep place.

5All this is for the transgression of יָאָשׁוֹר and for the sins of the house of יִשְׂרָאֵל. What is the transgression of יָאָשׁוֹר? Is it not שומרון? And what are the high places of יְהוּדָה? Are they not יֵרְשָׁלָּיִם?

6“And I shall make שומרון a heap in the field, places for planting a vineyard. And I shall pour down her stones into the valley, and uncover her foundations.

7“And all her carved images shall be beaten in pieces, and all her gifts be burned with the fire. And all her idols I shall lay waste, for she gathered it from the hire of a whore, and they shall return to the hire of a whore.”

8Because of this I lament and howl. I go stripped and naked. I make a lamentation like jackals, and a mourning like ostriches.

9For her wounds are incurable. For it has come to יְהוּדָה, it has come to the gate of My people, to יֵרְשָׁלָּיִם.

10Do not declare it in גת, weep not at all in בֵּית אפְּרָה, roll yourself in the dust.

11Pass by in nakedness and shame, you inhabitant of שַפִּיר. The inhabitant of תָּשָׁן has not gone out. The lamentation of בֵּית אֶֽצְסֶל takes from you its standing place.

12Though the inhabitants of מארות waited for good, yet evil came down from הוהי to the gate of יֵרְשָׁלָּיִם.

13O inhabitant of לָכַש, harness the chariot to the horse – she was the beginning of sin to the daughter of תּסיון – for the transgressions of יִשְׂרָאֵל were found in you.

14Therefore you shall give parting gifts to מושרשeth גת, the houses of אֹקֶן becoming a deception to the sovereigns of יִשְׂרָאֵל.

15Again I shall bring a dispossessor to you, O inhabitant of מָרְשָׁה. The esteem of יִשְׂרָאֵל shall come to אדילם.

16Make yourself bald and cut off your hair for the children of your delight. Enlarge your baldness like an eagle, for they shall be exiled from you.

Woe to those plotting wickedness, and working out evil upon their beds! In the light of the morning they practise it, because it is in the might of their hand.

And they coveted fields and seized them, also houses, and took them away. And they oppressed a man and his house, a man and his inheritance.

Therefore thus said הוהי, “See, against this clan I am planning evil, from which you do not remove your necks, nor walk proudly, for this is a time of evil.

“In that day one shall lift up a proverb against you, and he shall lament with a bitter lamentation, and shall say, ‘We have been utterly ravaged! He changes the inheritance of my people. How He removes it from me! He apportions our fields to the backslider.’ ”
5“Therefore you shall have no one in the assembly of יָהּ to divide the land by lot.
6“You do not preach, they preach. They do not preach to these, reproaches are not turned back.
7“Are you called ‘House of Ya’aqob’? Has the Spirit of יָהּ been limited? Are these His doings? Do not My words do good to the one walking uprightly?
8“And lately My people have risen up as an enemy. You strip off the robe with the garment from those who trust you, as they pass by – those returning from battle.
9“You have driven the women of My people from their pleasant houses. You have taken away My splendour from their children forever.
10“Arise and go, for this is not your rest, because uncleanness destroys, and the destruction is grievous.
11“If a man walking after wind and falsehood has lied: ‘I preach to you of wine and of strong drink,’ he shall be the ‘preacher’ of this people!
12“I shall certainly gather all of you, O Ya’aqob, I shall bring together the remnant of Yisra’el, put them together like sheep of the fold, like a flock in the midst of their pasture, they being noisy because of men.
13“The breach-maker shall go up before them. They shall break out, and pass through the gate, and go out by it, and their sovereign pass before them, with יָהּ at their head!”

3Then I said, “Hear now, O heads of Ya’aqob, and you rulers of the house of Yisra’el: Should you not know right-ruling, 2you who are hating good and loving evil, tearing away the skin from My people, and the flesh from their bones,
3and who have eaten the flesh of My people, and stripped off their skin, and have broken their bones, and have cut it up as into a pot, like flesh in the cooking pot?”
4Therefore, when they cry to יָהּ He does not answer them, and hides His face from them at that time, as they have made their deeds evil.
5Thus said יָהּ concerning the prophets who lead my people astray, who are biting with their teeth and have called out, “Peace!” They even set apart a battle against him who does not give for their mouths.
6Therefore it shall be night to you without vision, and darkness to you without divination. The sun shall go down on the prophets, and the day shall be dark for them.
7And the seers shall be ashamed, and the diviners embarrassed. And they shall all cover their lips, for there is no answer, O Elohim.

8But truly I am filled with power, with the Spirit of יָהּ, and with right-ruling and with might, to declare to Ya’aqob his transgression and to Yisra’el his sin. "
9Hear this, please, you heads of the house of Ya’aqob and you rulers of the house of Yisra’el, who despise right-ruling and distort all that is straight, 10those building up Tsiyon with bloodshed and Yerushalayim with unrighteousness.
11Her heads judge for a bribe, her priests teach for pay, and her prophets divine for a price. Yet they lean on יָהּ, and say, “Is not יָהּ in our midst? Evil does not come upon us.”
12Therefore, because of you, Tsiyon is ploughed like a field, and Yerushalayim becomes heaps, and the mountain of the House like a wooded height.

4And in the latter days it shall be that the mountain of the House of יָהּ is established on the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills. And peoples shall flow to it.
2And many nations shall come and say, “Come, and let us go up to the mountain of יָהּ, to the House of the Elohim of Ya’aqob, and let Him teach us His ways, and let us walk in His paths. For out of Tsiyon comes forth the Torah, and the c 2 Dibre 24:20, Yn. 16:8. d Yn. 10:12.

word of יהוה from ירושלים.”

3 And He shall judge among many peoples, and reprove strong nations afar off. They shall beat their swords into ploughshares, and their spears into pruning hooks — nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither teach battle any more.

4 But each one shall sit under his vine and under his fig tree, with no one to make them afraid, for the mouth of יהוה of hosts has spoken.

5 For all the peoples walk, each one in the name of his mighty one, but we walk in the Name of יהוה our Elohim forever and ever.

6 “In that day,” declares יהוה, “I gather the lame, and I bring together the outcast and those whom I have afflicted.

7 “And I shall make the lame a remnant, and the outcast a strong nation. And יהוה shall reign over them in Mount ציון, from now on and forever.

8 “And you, O tower of the flock, stronghold of the daughter of ציון, it shall come to you, the former rule shall come, the reign of the daughter of ירושלים.”

9 Now why do you cry aloud? Is there no sovereign in you? Has your counsellor perished? For pain has gripped you like a woman in labour.

10 Be in pain, and deliver, O daughter of ציון, like a woman in labour. For now you are to leave the city, and you shall dwell in the field. And you shall go to בabel, there you shall be delivered, there יהוה shall redeem you from the hand of your enemies.

11 And now, many gentiles shall be gathered against you, who are saying, “Let her be defiled, and let our eyes look upon ציון!”

12 But they do not know the thoughts of יהוה, nor do they understand His counsel. For He has gathered them like sheaves to the threshing-floor.

13 “Arise and thresh, O daughter of ציון, for I make your horn iron and your hooves bronze. And you shall beat many peoples into pieces, and I shall seclude their gain to יהוה, and their wealth to the Master of all the earth.”

5 Now you are raided, O daughter of raiders, a siege has been laid against us. They strike the Judge of יסראֵל with a rod on the cheek.

2 “But you, בְּיֵת לְהֵם אֶפְרָתָה, you who are little among the clans of יְהוּדָה, out of you shall come forth to Me the One to become Ruler in יסראֵל. And His comings forth ה are of old, from everlasting.”

3 Therefore He shall give them up, until the time that she who is in labour has given birth, and the remnant of His brothers return to the children of יסראֵל.

4 And He shall stand and shepherd in the strength of יהוה, in the excellency of the Name of יהוה His Elohim. And they shall dwell, for at that time He shall be great, to the ends of the earth.

5 And this shall be peace. When Ashshur comes into our land, and when he treads in our palaces, we shall raise against him seven shepherds and eight leaders of men.

6 And they shall shepherd the land of Ashshur with the sword, and the land of נִמְרוֹד at its entrances. And He shall deliver us from Ashshur, when he comes into our land and when he treads within our borders.

7 And the remnant of יאֲקֹב shall be in the midst of many peoples, as dew from יהוה, as showers on the grass, which do not wait for man nor delay for the sons of men.

8 And the remnant of יאֲקֹב shall be among the gentiles, in the midst of many peoples, like a lion among the beasts of a forest, like a young lion among flocks of sheep, who, if he passes through, shall both tread down and shall tear, and there is no one to deliver.

9 Let your hand be lifted up against your adversaries, and all your enemies be cut off.

10 “And it shall be in that day,” declares יהוה, “that I shall cut off your horses out of your midst, and I shall destroy your chariots.

11 “And I shall cut off the cities of your land, and I shall pull down all your strongholds.

12 “And I shall cut off witchcrafts out of your hand, and let you have no magicians.

13 “And I shall cut off your carved images, and your pillars from your midst, so that you no longer bow down to the work of your hands.

14 “And I shall pluck your Ashãrim out of your midst, and I shall destroy your cities.

15 “And I shall take vengeance in wrath and rage on the gentiles who did not obey.”

6 Hear now what יהוה is saying, “Arise,

2 strive with the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice.

2 “Hear, O you mountains, the controversy of יהוה, and you everlasting foundations of the earth! For יהוה has a controversy with His people and He shall reprove Yisra’ãl.

3 “My people, what have I done to you? And how have I wearied you? Answer Me, for I brought you up from the land of Mitsrayim, and I ransomed you from the house of bondage. And I sent Mosheh, Aharon, and Miryam before you.

5 “My people, remember, please, what Balaq sovereign of Mo’aä counselled, and what BilÈam son of BeÈor answered him, from Shittim to Gilgal, in order to know the righteousness of יהוה.”

6 With what shall I come before יהוה, bow myself before the high Elohim? Shall I come before Him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old?

7 Is יהוה pleased with thousands of rams or ten thousand rivers of oil? Shall I give my first-born for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my being?

8 He has declared to you, O man, what is good. And what does יהוה require of you but to do right, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your Elohim?

9 The voice of יהוה cries to the city – and let sound wisdom see Your Name! “Hear the Rod and Him who appointed it!

10 “Are there still treasures of wrongness in the house of the wrong, and the short measure that is an abomination?”

11 Would I be innocent with wrong scales, and with a bag of false weights?

12 “For her rich men are filled with cruel unrighteousness, and her inhabitants have spoken falsehood, and their tongue is deceit in their mouth.

13 “So I also, I shall smite you with a grievous wound, to lay you waste because of your sins:

14 “You shall eat but not be satisfied, and your inside be empty. And you shall store up but not save, and what you save I shall give to the sword.

15 “You shall sow but not reap, you shall tread the olives but not anoint yourselves with oil, and make sweet wine but not drink wine.

16 “For the laws of Omri are strictly observed, and all the works of the house of Aḥab, and you walk in their counsels. Therefore I give you for a ruin, and your inhabitants for a hissing, and let you bear the reproach of My people.”

7 Woe to me! For I am as gatherings of summer fruit, as gleanings of the grape harvest. There is no cluster to eat. My being has desired the first-ripe fruit.

2 The kind one has perished from the earth, and there is no one straight among men. All of them lie in wait for blood, everyone hunts his brother with a net.

3 Both hands are on the evil, to do it well. The prince asks for gifts, the judge seeks a bribe, and the great man speaks the desire of his being. And they weave it together.

4 The best of them is like a prickly plant, the most straight is sharper than a thorn hedge. The day of your watchman and your punishment has come, now is their confusion.

5 Trust no friend, rely on no companion, guard the doors of your mouth from her who lies in your bosom.

6 For son is despising father, daughter rises up against her mother, daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law, the enemies of a man are the men of his own house.

7 As for me, I look to יהוה, I wait for the Elohim of my deliverance, my Elohim does hear me.

8 Do not rejoice over me, O my enemy. When I have fallen I have risen, when I sit in darkness יְיִלּוֹדָה is a light to me.

9 I bear the displeasure of יְיִלּוֹדָה, for I have sinned against Him, until He pleads my case, and shall execute right-ruling for me, until He brings me out into the light and I look on His righteousness.

10 And let my enemy see it, and let shame cover her who said to me, “Where is יְיִלּוֹדָה your Elohim?” Let my eyes look on her: now she is trampled down like mud in the streets.

11 The day for building your walls! Let the decree go far and wide in that day –

12 that day when they come to you from Ashshur and the besieged cities of Mitsrayim, and from the siege יָבֵא to the River, and from sea to sea, and mountain to mountain.

13 But the earth shall become a waste because of those who dwell in it, and for the fruit of their deeds.

14 Shepherd Your people with Your rod, the flock of Your inheritance, who dwell alone in a forest, in the midst of Karmel. Let them feed in Bashan and Gil’ad, as in days of old.

15 “As in the days when you came out of the land of Mitsrayim, I shall let him see wonders.”

16 Let the gentiles see and be ashamed of all their might, let them put their hand over their mouth, let their ears be deaf.

17 Let them lick the dust like a serpent, let them come trembling from their strongholds like snakes of the earth, let them be afraid of יְיִלּוֹדָה our Elohim and fear because of You.

18 Who is an Ėl like You – taking away crookedness and passing over the transgression of the remnant of His inheritance? He shall not retain His wrath forever, for He Himself delights in kindness.

19 He shall turn back, He shall have compassion on us, He shall trample upon our crookednesses! And You throw all our sins into the depths of the sea!

20 You give truth to Ya’aqob, kindness to Abraham, which You swore to our fathers from the days of old!

/ “Siege” in this verse could be another name for Mitsrayim.
The message concerning Ninewēh.
The book of the vision of Naḥum the Elqoshite.

1 The message concerning Ninewēh.
The book of the vision of Naḥum the Elqoshite.

2 יְהוָה is a jealous and revenging Ėl, יְהוָה is a revenger and a possessor of wrath. יְהוָה takes vengeance on His adversaries, and He watches for His enemies.

3 יְהוָה is patient and great in power, but by no means leaves unpunished. יְהוָה has His way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of His feet.

4 He is rebuking the sea and dries it up. And all the floods He has made dry, Bashan and Karmel are withering, and the flower of Lebanon is languishing.

5 Mountains have shaken before Him, and the hills have melted. And the earth is lifted up at His presence, and the world and all who dwell in it.

6 Who does stand before His rage? And who rises up in the heat of His displeasure? His wrath is poured out like fire, and the rocks have been broken by Him.

7 יְהוָה is good, as a stronghold in the day of distress. And He knows those who take refuge in Him.

8 But with an overwhelming flood He makes a complete end of the place of Ninewēh, and darkness does pursue His enemies.

9 What do you plot against יְהוָה? He makes a complete end of it. Distress does not rise up a second time.

10 Though they are as entangled thorns, and as drunkards with their drink, they shall be consumed like stubble thoroughly dried.

11 From you came forth one who plots evil against יְהוָה, a counsellor of Beliya‘al.

12 Thus said יְהוָה, “Though they are strong and many, even so, they shall be cut off and pass away. Though I have afflicted you, I afflict you no more.

13 “So now I break his yoke from you, and tear off your shackles.”

14 And יְהוָה has commanded concerning you, “Your name shall no longer be sown. From the house of your mighty ones I shall cut off the carved image and the moulded image. I shall appoint your grave, for you have been of no account.”

15 See, on the mountains the feet of him who brings good news, who proclaims peace! O Yehuḏah, observe your festivals, perform your vows. For Beliya‘al shall no more pass through you. He has been cut off completely.

2 He who breaks in pieces has come up before your face. Guard the ramparts! Watch the way! Strengthen your loins! Strengthen your power greatly.

2 For יְהוָה shall turn back the splendour of Ya‘aqōb like the splendour of Yisra‘ēl, for the emptiers have emptied them out and ruined their vine branches.

3 The shields of his mighty men have become red, the men of battle are in scarlet. The chariots are like flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the cypresses shall be shaken.

4 The chariots dash about in the streets, they rush one another in the broad ways. They look like flaming torches, they run like lightning.

5 He remembers his noble ones, they stumble in their walk, they hurry to her walls, and the defence is prepared.

6 The river gates have been opened, and the palace is melted.

7 And it is established: she shall be exiled, she shall be led away. And her female servants are moaning as with the voice of doves, beating on their breasts.

8 And Ninewēh of old was like a pool of water, now they flee away. “Stop! Stop!” they cry, but no one turns back.

9 Plunder the silver! Plunder the gold! There is no limit to the treasure – a wealth of all precious objects.

10 She is empty, even emptiness and waste! And the heart has melted, and the knees have knocked together, and much pain is in all loins, and all their faces have become flushed.

11 Where is the den of the lions, and the feeding place of the young lions, where the lion, the lioness and the lion’s cub walked, with no one to disturb them?

12 The lion tore in pieces enough for his cubs, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his caves with prey, and his dens with torn prey.

13 “See, I am against you,” declares the Lord of hosts, “and I shall burn your chariots in smoke, and the sword devour your young lions. And I shall cut off your prey from the earth, and no longer is the voice of your messengers heard.”

3 Woe to the city of blood! All of it is a lie, filled with plunder, the prey is not lacking.

2 The sound of a whip and the sound of rattling wheels, of galloping horses, of jolting chariots,

3 mounted horsemen with bright sword and glittering spear, and many wounded, and a mass of dead bodies, and no end of corpses, they stumble over the corpses —

4 because of the many whorings of the well-favoured whore, the mistress of sorceries, who sells nations by her whorings, and clans by her sorceries.

5 “See, I am against you,” declares the Lord of hosts, “and shall lift up your skirts over your face, and shall show nations your nakedness, and reigns your shame.

6 “And I shall cast abominations upon you, and treat you as foolish, and make a spectacle of you.

7 “And it shall be that all who see you flee from you, and say, ‘Nineveh is laid waste! Who does mourn for her?’ Where do I seek comforters for you?”

8 Are you better than No Amon, who dwelt by the Nile-streams, with waters around her, whose rampart was like the sea, whose wall was like the sea?

9 Kush and Mitsrayim were her strength, even unlimited. Put and Luṣim were your helpers.

10 Yet she was exiled, she went into captivity. At the head of every street her young children were dashed to pieces. Lots were cast for her esteemed men, and all her great men were bound in chains.

11 You too are to become drunk, you are to go into hiding. You too are to seek refuge from the enemy.

12 All your strongholds are fig trees with ripened figs, when shaken they shall fall into the mouth of the eater.

13 See, your people in your midst are women! The gates of your land shall be opened wide to your enemies. Fire shall consume your gate bars.

14 Draw for yourself water for the siege! Strengthen your defences! Go into the clay and tread the mortar, lay hold of the brick mould!

15 There a fire shall consume you, a sword cut you off, eat you up like a locust. Make yourself many like the locust, make yourself many like the swarming locust!

16 You have increased your merchants more than the stars of the heavens. The locust shall strip off and fly away.

17 Your officials are like the locusts, and your marshals are like the great grasshoppers, which settle in the hedges on a cold day — when the sun rises they flee away, and the place where they are is unknown.

18 Your shepherds have slumbered, O sovereign of Ashshur, your nobles lie down to rest. Your people are scattered on the mountains, and no one gathers them.

19 Your injury has no healing, your wound is grievous. All who hear news of you shall clap their hands over you. For over whom did your evil not pass continually?
1 The message which the prophet Ḥabaqqūq saw.
3 Why do You show me wickedness, and cause me to see perversity? For ruin and violence are before me. And there is strife, and contention arises.
4 Therefore the Torah ceases, and right-ruling never goes forth. For the wrong hem in the righteous, so that right-ruling comes out twisted.
5 “Look among the nations and see, and be amazed, be amazed! For a work is being wrought in your days which you would not believe if it were told.
6 “See, I am raising up the Chaldeans, a bitter and hasty nation, who is going through the breadth of the earth, to possess dwelling places that are not theirs.
7 “They are frightening and fearsome, their right-ruling and their exaltation proceed from themselves.
8 “Their horses shall be swifter than leopards, and more fierce than evening wolves. And their horsemen shall charge ahead, and their horsemen come from afar. They fly as the eagle, rushing to eat.
9 “All of them come for violence, the direction of their faces is like the east wind, and they gather captives like sand.
10 “And they scoff at sovereigns, and princes are a laughing matter to them. They laugh at every stronghold, for they pile up earth and seize it.
11 “Then shall he pass on as a wind, and transgress and be guilty, and ascribe this power to his mighty one.”
12 Are You not from everlasting, O YHWH my Elohim, my Set-apart One? You do not die! O YHWH, You have appointed them for right-ruling, O Rock, You have established them for reproof.
13 You, whose eyes are too clean to see evil, You are not able to look on wrong.

Why do You look on those who act treacherously – keep silent when the wrong devours one more righteous than he?
14 And would You make men like fish of the sea, like creeping creatures that have no ruler over them?
15 The wicked foe has pulled all of them up with a hook, caught them in his net, and gathers them in his dragnet. Therefore he rejoices and exults.
16 Therefore he offers to his net, and burns incense to his dragnet, for by them is his portion fat and his food is rich.
17 Is he therefore to keep on emptying his net, and slaying nations without sparing?

2 I stand at my watch, and station myself on the watch-tower, and wait to see what He says to me, and what to answer when I am reproved.
2 And YHWH answered me and said, “Write the vision and inscribe it on tablets, so that he who reads it runs.
3 “For the vision is yet for an appointed time, and it speaks of the end, and does not lie. If it lingers, wait for it, for it shall certainly come, it shall not delay.
4 “See, he whose being is not upright in him is puffed up. But the righteous one lives by his steadfastness.
5 “And also, because wine betrays him, a man is proud, and he does not stay at home. Because he enlarges his appetite as the grave, and he is like death, and is not satisfied, and gathers to himself all nations and heaps up for himself all peoples.
6 “Shall not all these lift up a proverb against him, and a mocking riddle against him, and say, ‘Woe to him who increases what is not his! Till when is he to load on himself many pledges’?
7 “Do not your creditors rise up suddenly? And those who make you tremble wake up and you be plunder for them?
8 “Because you have plundered many nations, all the remnant of the people shall 42 plunder you, because of men’s blood, and doing violence to the land, to the city, and to all who dwell in it.

9 “Woe to him who is getting evil gain for his house, in order to set his nest on high, to escape the clutches of evil!

10 “You have counselled shame for your house, to cut off many peoples, and your being is sinning.

11 “For a stone from the wall cries out, and a beam from the timbers answers it.

12 “Woe to him who builds a town by blood, and establishes a city by unrighteousness!

13 “See, it is not from הוהי of hosts that peoples labour only for fire, and nations weary themselves for naught, 14 for the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the esteem of הוהי, as the waters cover the sea!

15 “Woe to him who gives drink to his neighbour, pouring out your wineskin, and also making him drunk – in order to look on their nakedness!

16 “You shall be filled with shame instead of esteem. Drink, you too, and be exposed as uncircumcised! The cup of the right hand of הוהי shall come around to you, and great shame upon your esteem.

17 “For the violence done to Lebanon is to overwhelm you – and the ravaging of beasts by which you made them afraid – because of men’s blood and the violence to the land, to the city and of all who dwell in it.

18 “Of what use shall a carved image be? For its maker has carved it: a moulded image and teacher of falsehood! For the maker trusts what he has made: to make dumb idols!

19 “Woe to him who says to wood, ‘Awake!’ to silent stone, ‘Arise!’ Is it a teacher? See, it is overlaid with gold and silver, and there is no spirit at all inside it.

20 “But הוהי is in His set-apart הֵֽכָּל. Let all the earth be silent before Him.”

3 A prayer of Ḥabaqquq the prophet, on Shigionoth.

2 O הוהי, I have heard your report, I was afraid.

O הוהי, renew Your work in the midst of the years!

Make it known in the midst of the years.

In wrath remember compassion.

3 Eloah comes from Têman,
And the Set-apart One from Mount Paran. Selah.

His splendour shall cover the heavens,
And His praise shall fill the earth.

4 And the brightness is as the light,
He has rays from His hand,
And there His power is hidden.

5 Before Him goes pestilence,
And a burning flame goes forth at His feet.

6 He shall stand and measure the earth. He shall look and shake the nations. And the ancient mountains are shattered,
The age-old hills shall bow. His ways are everlasting.

7 I saw the tents of Kushan under sorrow,
The curtains of the land of Midyan tremble.

8 Shall הוהי burn against the rivers?
Is Your displeasure against the rivers,
Is Your wrath against the sea,
That You ride on Your horses, Your chariots of deliverance?

9 You uncover Your bow,
The oaths of the rod of the Word. Selah.

You cut through the earth with rivers.

10 The mountains shall see You, they tremble.
The storm of water shall pass over. The deep shall give forth its voice, It shall lift up its hands.

11 Sun, moon shall stand still in their places.
Like light Your arrows fly, Like lightning is Your glittering spear.

12 You step through the earth in rage, You thresh the gentiles in wrath.

13 You shall go forth to save Your people,
To save Your Anointed.
You shall smite the Head from the house of the wrong,
By laying bare from foundation to neck. Selah.

14 You shall pierce with his own arrows
The head of his leaders.
They stormed along to scatter me,
Rejoicing as if to devour the poor in secret.

15 You shall tread the sea with Your horses,
The foaming of many waters.

16 I heard, and my body trembled,
My lips quivered at the sound,
Rottenness came into my bones.
And I trembled within myself,
That I might rest for the day of distress,
To come upon the people who would attack us.

17 Though the fig tree does not blossom,
And there is no fruit on the vine,
The yield of the olive has failed,
And the fields brought forth no food,
The flock has been cut off from the fold,
And there is no herd in the stalls,

18 Yet I exult in יהוה,
I rejoice in the Elohim of my deliverance.

19 יהוה the Master is my strength.
And He makes my feet like those of deer,
And makes me walk on my high places.

To the chief singer with my stringed instruments.
1 The word of הוהי which came to tsephanyah son of kushi, son of gedalyah, son of amaryah, son of hizqiyyah, in the days of yoshiyahu son of amon, sovereign of yehudah.
2 “I shall snatch away all from the face of the earth,” declares הוהי –
3 “I snatch away man and beast, I snatch away the birds of the heavens, and the fish of the sea, and the stumbling-blocks, with the wrong, when I shall cut off man from the face of the earth,” declares הוהי.
4 “And I shall stretch out My hand against yehudah, and against all the inhabitants of yerushalayim, and cut off every trace of baal from this place, the names of the idolatrous priests, with the priests,
5 and those bowing down to the host of the heavens on the house-tops, and those bowing themselves, swearing by הוהי and swearing by malkam;
6 and those who turn away from following הוהי, and who have not sought והי or inquired of Him.”
7 Hush! in the presence of the Master והי. For the day of הוהי is near, for הוהי has prepared a slaughter, He has set apart
His invited ones.
8 “And it shall be, in the day of the slaughter of הוהי, that I shall punish the rulers and the sons of the sovereign, and all such as are clad in foreign garments.
9 “And I shall punish on that day all who leap over the threshold, who fill their masters’ houses with violence and deceit.
10 “And on that day there shall be,” declares הוהי, “the sound of a cry from the Fish Gate, and of a howling from the Second Quarter, and of a great crashing from the hills.
11 “Howl, you inhabitants of maktesh, for all the merchant people shall be silenced, all those weighing out silver shall be cut off.
12 “And at that time it shall be, that I search yerushalayim with lamps and punish the men who are settled on their dregs, who say in their heart, ‘והי does no good, nor does He evil.’
13 “And their wealth shall become plunder, and their houses laid waste. And they shall build houses but not inhabit them, and they shall plant vineyards but not drink their wine.”
14 Near is the great day of הוהי, near and hurrying greatly, the noise of the day of והי. Let the mighty man then bitterly cry out!
15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of distress and trouble, a day of waste and ruin, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, 16 a day of ram’s horn and alarm – against the walled cities and against the corner towers.
17 “And I shall bring distress on men, and they shall walk like blind men – because they have sinned against הוהי, and their blood shall be poured out like dust and their flesh like dung.”
18 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of הוהי. And by the fire of His jealousy all the earth shall be consumed, for He makes a sudden end of all those who dwell in the earth.

2 Gather together, gather together, O nation without shame,
2 before the decree is born – the day shall pass on like chaff – before the burning wrath of הוהי comes upon you, before the day of wrath of הוהי comes upon you!
3 Seek הוהי, all you meek ones of the earth, who have done His right-ruling.
Seek righteousness, seek meekness, if so be that you are hidden in the day of wrath of הוהי.
4 For azzah is abandoned and ashqelon laid waste, Ashdod is driven out at noonday and Ekron is uprooted.
5 Woe to the inhabitants of the seacoast, the nation of the Kerethites! The word of HWHY is against you, O Kena’an, land of the Philistines, “And I shall destroy you, so that there is no inhabitant.”
6 And the seacoast shall be pastures, shepherds’ meadows and enclosures for flocks.
7 And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Yehuah. They shall feed their flocks on it, at evening they lie down in the houses of Ashqelon. For HWHY their Elohim shall visit them and turn back their captivity.
8“I have heard the reproach of Mo’aḇ, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, with which they have reproached
My people, and exalted themselves against their borders.
9 “Therefore, as I live,” declares HWHY of hosts, the Elohim of Yisra’ēl, “Mo’aḇ shall be like Sēqom, and the children of Ammon like Amorah – a possession for weeds and a pit of salt, and a waste forever, the remnant of My people plunder them, and the rest of My nation possess them.”
10 This is what they get for their pride, because they have reproached and exalted themselves against the people of HWHY of hosts.
11 HWHY shall be awesome to them, for He shall make all the mighty ones of the earth to shrivel, while all the coastlands of the nations bow down to Him, each one from his place.
12 “You too, O Kushites, are to be slain by My sword.”
13 And He shall stretch out His hand against the north, and destroy Ashshur, and make Ninewāh a waste, as dry as a wilderness.
14 And droves shall lie down in her midst, every beast of the nation, both pelican and bittern lodge in the tops of her columns, a voice singing at the window, ruin be at the threshold, for the cedar work is exposed.
15 This is the exultant city that is dwelling in safety, that said in her heart, “I am it, and there is none but me.” How has she become a waste, a place for beasts to lie down! Everyone who passes by her whistles and shakes his fist.

3 Woe to her who is rebellious and defiled, the oppressing city!
2 She did not obey the voice, she did not accept instruction, she did not trust in HWHY, she did not draw near to her Elohim.
3 Her rulers in her midst are roaring lions, her judges are evening wolves, they shall leave no bone until morning.
4 Her prophets are reckless, treacherous men. Her priests have profaned the set-apart place, they have done violence to the Torah. a 5 HWHY is righteous in her midst, He does no unrighteousness. Morning by morning
He brings His right-ruling to light, it has not been lacking, yet the unrighteous one knows no shame.
6 “I have cut off nations, their corner towers are in ruins. I have made their streets deserted, with no one passing by.
Their cities are destroyed, without man, without inhabitant.
7 “I have said, ‘Only fear Me, accept instruction.’ And her dwelling would not be cut off, all that I have appointed for her.
But they rose up early, they corrupted all their deeds.
8 “Therefore wait for Me,” declares HWHY, “until the day I rise up for plunder. For My judgment is to gather nations, to assemble reigns, to pour out on them My rage, all my burning wrath. For by the fire of My jealousy all the earth shall be consumed.
9 “For then I shall turn unto the peoples a clean lip, b so that they all call on the Name of HWHY, to serve Him with one shoulder.
10 “From beyond the rivers of Kush my worshippers, the daughter of My dispersed ones, shall bring My offering.
11 “In that day you shall not be put to shame for any of your deeds in which you have transgressed against Me, for then I shall remove from your midst your proud exulting ones, and you shall no more be haughty in My set-apart mountain.

12“But I shall leave in your midst an oppressed and poor people, and they shall trust in the Name of יְהֹוָה.

13“The remnant of Yisra’ēl shall do no unrighteousness and speak no falsehood, and is a tongue of deceit found in their mouth. For they shall feed their flocks and lie down, with none to frighten them.”

14Shout for joy, O daughter of Tsiyon! Shout, O Yisra’ēl! Be glad and rejoice with all your heart, O daughter of Yerusha-layim!

15יְהֹוָה has turned aside your judgments. He has faced your enemy. The Sovereign of Yisra’ēl, יְהֹוָה, is in your midst. d No longer need you fear evil.

16In that day it shall be said to Yerushalayim, “Do not fear, Tsiyon, do not let your hands be weak.

17“your Elohim in your midst, is mighty to save. He rejoices over you with joy, He is silent in His love, He rejoices over you with singing.”

18“I shall gather those who grieve about the appointed place, who are among you, to whom its reproach is a burden.

19“See, I am dealing with all those afflicting you at that time. And I shall save the lame, and gather those who were cast out. And I shall give them for a praise and for a name in all the earth where they were put to shame.

20“At that time I shall bring you in, even at the time I gather you, for I shall give you for a name, and for a praise, among all the peoples of the earth, when I turn back your captivity before your eyes,” said יְהֹוָה.

In the second year of Dareyawesh the sovereign, in the sixth month, on the first day of the month, the word of אֲגַגַי came by Ḥaggai the prophet to Zerubbabel son of She’alti’êl, governor of Yehûdah, and to Yehoshua son of Yehotsa’daq, the high priest, saying,

2 “Thus spoke אֲגַגַי of hosts, saying, ‘This people have said, “The time has not come, the time the House of אֲגַגַי is to be built.” ’ ”

3 Then the word of אֲגַגַי came by Ḥaggai the prophet, saying,

4 “Is it time for you yourselves to dwell in your panelled houses, and this House be in ruins?”

5 And now, thus said אֲגַגַי of hosts, “Consider your ways!

6 “You have sown much, but brought in little; eat, but do not have enough; drink, but you are not filled with drink; clothe yourselves, but no one is warm; and he who earns wages, earns wages to put into a bag with holes.”

7 Thus said אֲגַגַי of hosts, “Consider your ways!

8 Go up to the mountain, and you shall bring wood and build the House. And I will be pleased with it, and let Me be esteemed,” said אֲגַגַי.

9 “When you looked for much, then see, it came to little. And when you brought it home, I would blow on it. Why?” declares אֲגַגַי of hosts. “Because of My House which lies in ruins, while each of you runs to his own house.

10 “Therefore the heavens above you have withheld the dew, and the earth has withheld its fruit.

11 “And I called for a drought on the land, and on the mountains, and on the grain, and on the new wine, and on the oil, and on whatever the ground brings forth, and on man, and on livestock, and on all the labour of the hands.”

12 Then Zerubbabel son of She’alti’êl, and Yehoshua son of Yehotsa’daq, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of אֲגַגַי their Elohim, and the words of Ḥaggai the prophet, as אֲגַגַי their Elohim had sent him. And the people feared the presence of אֲגַגַי.

13 And Ḥaggai, the messenger of אֲגַגַי, spoke the message of אֲגַגַי to the people, saying, “I am with you, declares אֲגַגַי.”

14 And אֲגַגַי stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel son of She’alti’êl, governor of Yehûdah, and the spirit of Yehoshua son of Yehotsa’daq, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people. And they came and worked on the House of אֲגַגַי of hosts, their Elohim, 15 on the twenty-fourth day of the sixth month, in the second year of Dareyawesh the sovereign.

In the seventh month, on the twenty-first of the month, the word of אֲגַגַי came by Ḥaggai the prophet, saying,

2 “Speak, please, to Zerubbabel son of She’alti’êl, governor of Yehûdah, and to Yehoshua son of Yehotsa’daq, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying,

3 ‘Who is there left among you who saw this House in its former esteem? And how do you see it now? Is it not in your eyes as naught when compared to it?

4 ‘And now, be strong, Zerubbabel,’ declares אֲגַגַי. ‘And be strong, Yehoshua, son of Yehotsa’daq, the high priest. And be strong, all you people of the land,’ declares אֲגַגַי, ‘and work. For I am with you,’ declares אֲגַגַי of hosts –

5 the Word that I covenanted with you when you came out of Mitsrayim, and My Spirit a is remaining in your midst, do not fear!’

a His Word and His Spirit work together, they are in unity.
“For thus said הוהי of hosts, ‘Once more, in a little while, and I am shaking the heavens and earth, the sea and dry land.

7 ‘And I shall shake all the nations, and they shall come to the Delight of all the nations, and I shall fill this House with esteem,’ said הוהי of hosts.

8 ‘The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine,’ declares הוהי of hosts.

9 ‘Let the esteem of this latter House be greater than the former,’ said הוהי of hosts. ‘And in this place I give peace,’ declares הוהי of hosts.”

10 On the twenty-fourth of the ninth month, in the second year of Dareyawesh, the word of הוהי came unto Ḥaggai the prophet, saying,

11 “Thus said הוהי of hosts, ‘Now, ask the priests concerning the Torah, saying,

12 ‘If one bears set-apart meat in the fold of his garment, and with the edge he touches bread or stew, or wine or oil, or any food, is it set-apart?’ ‘And the priests answered and said, “No.”

13 And Ḥaggai said, ‘If someone defiled by a dead body touches any of these, is it defiled?’ And the priests answered and said, “It is defiled.”

14 And Ḥaggai answered and said, “‘So is this people, and so is this nation before Me,’ declares הוהי, ‘and so is every work of their hands. And whatever they bring near there is defiled.

15 ‘But now, please consider, from this day onward: Before a stone was laid on a stone in the Hékhal of הוהי,

16 since those days – one came to a heap of twenty ḫiphlahs, and there were ten; one came to the winepress to draw out fifty baths from the press, and there were twenty –

17 ‘I smote you with blight and mildew and hail in all the labours of your hands, and their was none of you with Me,’ declares הוהי.

18 ‘Consider now from this day forward, from the twenty-fourth day of the ninth month, from the day that the foundation of the Hékhal of הוהי was laid, consider it:

19 ‘Is the seed yet in the storehouse? And until now the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree have not yielded fruit! From this day on I shall bless you!’ ”

20 And a second time the word of הוהי came to Ḥaggai on the twenty-fourth day of the month, saying,

21 “Speak to Zerubbaḇel, the governor of Yehuḏah, saying, ‘I am shaking the heavens and earth.

22 ‘And I shall overturn the throne of reigns. And I shall destroy the might of the gentile reigns, b and overturn the chariots and their riders. And the horses and their riders shall come down, each by the sword of his brother.

23 ‘In that day,’ declares הוהי of hosts, ‘I shall take you, Zerubbaḇel My servant, son of She’alti’el,’ declares הוהי, ‘and shall make you as a signet, for I have chosen you,’ declares מָלֵא הוהי of hosts.”

b See footnote at Dan. 2:44.
1 In the eighth month of the second year of Dareyawesh, the word of הוהי came to Zeḵaryah son of Bereḵyah, son of Iddo the prophet, saying,

2“ֵיהי was very wroth with your fathers.

3“And you shall say to them, ‘Thus said הוהי of hosts, “Turn back to Me,” declares הוהי of hosts, “and I shall turn back to you,” declares הוהי of hosts.

4“Do not be like your fathers, to whom the former prophets proclaimed, saying, ‘Thus said הוהי of hosts, “Turn back now from your evil ways and your evil deeds.” But they did not obey or give heed to Me,” declares הוהי.

5“Your fathers, where are they? And the prophets, do they live forever?

6“But My words and My laws, which I commanded My servants the prophets, did they not overtake your fathers?” “Then they turned back and said, ‘As הוהי of hosts planned to do to us, according to our ways and according to our deeds, so He has done with us.’ ”

7On the twenty-fourth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Dareyawesh, the word of הוהי came to Zeḵaryah son of Bereḵyah, son of Iddo the prophet, saying,

8“I looked at night and saw a man riding on a red horse, and he was standing among the myrtle trees in the shade. And behind him were horses: red, sorrel, and white.”

9And I said, “My master, what are these?” And the messenger who was speaking to me said to me, “Let me show you what they are.”

10And the man who stood among the myrtle trees answered and said, “They are the ones הוהי has sent to go throughout the earth.”

11And they answered the messenger of הוהי, who stood among the myrtle trees, and said, “We have gone throughout the earth, and see, all the earth is at peace and rest.”

12And the messenger of הוהי answered and said, “O הוהי of hosts, how long would You have no compassion on Yerushalayim and on the cities of Yehudah, against which You were enraged these seventy years?”

13And הוהי answered the messenger who talked to me, good words, comforting words.

14And the messenger who spoke with me said to me, “Proclaim, saying, ‘Thus said הוהי of hosts, “I have been jealous for Yerushalayim and for Tsiyon with great jealousy.

15“And I am very wroth with the nations who are at ease, for when I was a little wroth, they furthered the evil!”

16“Therefore thus said הוהי, “I shall return to Yerushalayim with compassion. My house shall be built in it,” declares הוהי of hosts, “and a surveyor’s line be stretched out over Yerushalayim.” ”

17“Again proclaim, saying, ‘Thus said הוהי of hosts, “Again My cities shall overflow with goodness. And הוהי shall again comfort Tsiyon, and shall again choose a Yerushalayim.” ”

18And I lifted up my eyes and looked, and saw four horns.

19And I said to the messenger who was speaking to me that was speaking to me, “What are these?” And he said to me, “These are the ones that have scattered Yehudah, Yisra’el, and Yerushalayim.”

20And הוהי showed me four craftsmen.

21And I said, “What are these coming to do?” And he spoke saying, “These are the horns that scattered Yehudah, so that no one lifted up his head. But these come to trouble them, to throw down the horns of the gentiles that lifted up their horn against the land of YehuÅah to scatter it.”

\[^{a}\text{ See 2:12, and footnote at Yesh. 14:1.}\]

2 And I lifted up my eyes and looked, and saw a man with a measuring line in his hand.

2 And I said, “Where are you going?” And he said to me, “To measure Yerushalayim, to see what is its width and what is its length.”

3 And see, the messenger who was speaking to me was going out. And another messenger was coming out to meet him,

4 and he said to him, “Run, speak to this young man, saying, ‘Yerushalayim is to remain unwalled, because of the many men and livestock in it.

5 ‘For I Myself am to her,’ declares HWHY, ‘a wall of fire all around, and for esteem I am in her midst.’ ”

6 “Oh, Oh! And flee from the land of the north,” declares HWHY, “for I have scattered you like the four winds of the heavens,”

7 “Oh, Tsiyon! Escape, you who dwell with the daughter of BaÄel.”

8 For thus said HWHY of hosts (for the sake of esteem He sent me to the gentiles which plunder you): “For he who touches you touches the apple of My eye. b

9 “For look, I am waving My hand against them, and they shall become spoil for their servants. And you shall know that HWHY of hosts has sent Me.

10 “Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Tsiyon! For look, I am coming, and shall dwell in your midst,” declares HWHY.

11 “And many gentiles shall be joined to HWHY in that day, d and they shall become My people. And I shall dwell in your midst. And you shall know that HWHY of hosts has sent Me to you.

12 “And HWHY shall inherit YehuÅah, His portion in the Set-apart Land. And He shall again choose Yerushalayim. e

13 “Hush, all flesh, before HWHY, for He has roused Himself out of His set-apart dwelling!”

3 And he showed me Yehoshua the high priest standing before the messenger of HWHY, and Satan standing at his right hand to be an adversary to him.

2 And HWHY said to Satan, “HWHY rebuke you, Satan! HWHY who has chosen Yerushalayim rebuke you! Is this not a brand plucked from the fire?”

3 And Yehoshua was dressed in filthy garments, and was standing before the messenger.

4 And He answered and spoke to those who stood before Him, saying, “Remove the filthy garments from him.” And to him He said, “See, I have removed your guilt from you, and shall put costly robes on you.”

5 And I said, “Let them put a clean turban on his head.” Then they put a clean turban on his head, and they put garments on him. And the messenger of HWHY stood by.

6 And the messenger of HWHY witnessed to Yehoshua, saying,

7 “Thus said HWHY of hosts, ‘If you walk in My ways, and if you guard My duty, then you shall also rule My house, and also guard My courts. And I shall give you access among these standing here.

8 “Now listen, Yehoshua the high priest, you and your companions who sit before you, for they are men of symbol. For look, I am bringing forth My Servant – the Branch. f 9 “See the stone which I have put before Yehoshua: on one stone are seven eyes. See, I am engraving its inscription,’ declares HWHY of hosts, ‘and I shall remove the guilt of that land in one day.

10 “In that day,’ declares HWHY of hosts, ‘you shall invite one another, under the vine and under the fig tree.’ ”

4 And the messenger who was speaking to me came back and woke me up as a man is awakened from sleep.

2 And he said to me, “What do you see?”

So I said, “I have looked, and see: a lamp-stand all of gold with a bowl on top of it, and and on the stand seven lamps with seven spouts to the seven lamps.

3 “And two olive trees are by it, one at the right of the bowl and the other at its left.”

4 Then I responded and spoke to the messenger who was speaking to me, saying,

“What are these, my master?”

5 And the messenger who was speaking to me answered and said to me, “Do you not know what these are?” And I said,

“No, my master.”

6 And he answered and said to me, “This is the word of  יהוה of hosts, ‘Not by might nor by power, but by My Spirit,’ said

יהוה of hosts.

7 ‘Who are you, great mountain, before

Zerubbabel? A plain! And he shall bring forth the capstone with shouts of “Favour, favour to it!”’ ”

8 And the word of  יהוה came to me, saying,

9 “The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this House, and his hands shall complete it. And you shall know that יהוה of hosts has sent Me to you.

10 “For who has despised the day of small beginnings? They shall rejoice when they see the plumb-line in the hand of Zerubbabel. These seven are the eyes of יהוה, which diligently search throughout all the earth.”

11 Then I responded and said to him,

“What are these two olive trees, one at the right of the lampstand and the other at its left?”

12 And I responded a second time and said to him, “What are these two olive branches which empty golden oil from themselves

by means of the two gold pipes?”

13 And he answered me and said, “Do you not know what these are?” And I said,

“No, my master.”

14 And he said, “These are the two anointed ones, who stand beside the Master of all the earth.”

5 And I lifted up my eyes again, and looked and saw a flying scroll.

2 And he said to me, “What do you see?”

And I answered, “I see a flying scroll, twenty cubits long and ten cubits wide.”

3 And he said to me, “This is the curse that goes forth over the face of all the earth: ‘everyone who is stealing shall go unpunished,’ on the one side, according to it, and, ‘everyone who has sworn falsely shall go unpunished,’ on the other side,

according to it.”

4 “I shall send it out,” declares  יהוה of hosts, “and it shall come into the house of the thief and the house of the one who shall swear falsely by My Name. And it shall remain in the midst of his house and shall consume it, both its timber and stones.”

5 And the messenger who was speaking with me came out and said to me, “Lift up your eyes now, and see what this is that is going forth.”

6 And I said, “What is it?” And he said,

“It is an אפיח measure that is going forth.” Again he said, “This is their appearance throughout the earth:

7 “And see, a lead cover lifted up, and this: a woman sitting inside the אפיח-measure!”

8 And he said, “This is Wrongness!” And he threw her down into the אפיח-measure, and threw the lead weight over its mouth.

9 And I lifted up my eyes, and looked and saw two women, coming with the wind in their wings. And they had wings like the wings of a stork, and they lifted up the אפיח-measure between earth and the heavens.

10 Then I said to the messenger who was speaking to me, “Where are they taking the אפיח-measure?”

11 And he said to me, “To build a house for it in the land of Shin‘ar. And it shall be established and set there on its own base.”

See vv. 3 & 11, also Mt. 17:3-4, Rev. 11:3-10.
from between two mountains, and the mountains were mountains of bronze.

2 With the first chariot were red horses, and with the second chariot black horses,

3 and with the third chariot white horses, and with the fourth chariot strong speckled horses.

4 So I responded and said to the messenger who was speaking to me, “What are these, my master?”

5 And the messenger answered and said to me, “These are four spirits of the heavens, coming forth from presenting themselves before the Master of all the earth.

6 “The one with the black horses is going out to the land of the north, and the white ones have gone out after them, and the speckled ones have gone out to the land of the south.”

7 And the strong ones went out, eager to go, to walk to and fro in the earth. And He said, “Go, walk to and fro in the earth.” So they walked to and fro in the earth.

8 And He called to me, and spoke to me, saying, “See, those who go toward the land of the north have given rest to My Spirit in the land of the north.”

9 And the word of יהוה came to me, saying,

10 “Receive the gift from the exiles, from HOLDAI, TOBIYAH, and YEĐAYAH, who have come from BABEL. Then you shall go the same day and enter the house of YOSHIYAH son of TSEPHANYAH.

11 “And you shall take the silver and gold, make a crown, and set it on the head of YEHOSHAUA the son of YEHOTSADAQ, the high priest, 12 and shall speak to him, saying, ‘Thus said יהוה of hosts, saying, “See, the Man whose name is the Branch! h And from His place He shall branch out, and He shall build the Hĕḵal of יהוה.’

13 “It is He who is going to build the Hĕḵal of יהוה. It is He who is going to bear the splendour. And He shall sit and rule on His throne, and shall be a priest on His throne, and the counsel of peace shall be between Them both.’”

14 while the crown is for a remembrance in the Hĕḵal of יהוה to ḤELEM, and to TOBIYAH, and to YEĐAYAH, and to HEN son of TSEPHANYAH.

15 “And those who are far away shall come and build the Hĕḵal of יהוה. And you shall know that יהוה of hosts has sent Me to you. And this shall be, if you diligently obey the voice of יהוה your Elohim.”

7 And in the fourth year of Sovereign Dareywesh it came to be that the word of יהוה came to Zeḵaryah, on the fourth of the ninth month, Kislev.

2 Now BETH EL had sent SHAR’ETSER, with REĞEM-MELEḵ and his men, to pray before יהוה,

3 speaking to the priests who belonged to the House of יהוה of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, “Should I weep in the fifth month and fast as I have done for so many years?”

4 Then the word of יהוה of hosts came to me, saying,

5 “Speak to all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, ‘When you fasted and lamented in the fifth and seventh months all these seventy years, did you truly fast for Me – for Me?

6 And when you ate and when you drank, was it not for those eating and for those drinking?

7 “Are these not the words which יהוה proclaimed through the former prophets when Yerushalayim and the cities around it were inhabited and in safety, and the South and the low country were inhabited?” ”

8 And the word of יהוה came to Zeḵaryah, saying,

9 “Thus said יהוה of hosts, ‘Execute true right-ruling, show kindness and compassion everyone to his brother.

10 “Do not oppress the widow or the fatherless, the stranger or the poor. And do not plot evil in your hearts against one another.’

11 “But they refused to listen, and they h See 3:8.

shrugged their shoulders, and stopped their ears from hearing.

12“And they made their hearts like flint against hearing the Torah, and the words, which יהוה of hosts had sent by His Spirit through the former prophets. Therefore great wrath came from יהוה of hosts.

13“And it came to be: as He called and they did not hear, so let them call, but I shall not hear,” said יהוה of hosts.

14“And I scattered them with a storm wind among all the gentiles which they had not known. And the land was laid waste behind them, no one passing through or returning, for they made the pleasant land a waste.”

8 And the word of יהוה of hosts came, saying,

2“Thus said יהוה of hosts, ‘I shall be jealous for Tsiyon with great jealousy, with great wrath I shall be jealous for her.’

3“Thus said יהוה, ‘I shall return to Tsiyon, and I shall dwell in the midst of ירושלים. And ירושלים shall be called: City of the Truth, and the Mountain of יהוה of hosts, the Set-apart Mountain.’

4“Thus said יהוה of hosts, ‘Again old men and old women shall dwell in the streets of ירושלים, each one with his staff in his hand because of great age,

5and the streets of the city shall be filled with boys and girls playing in its streets.’

6“Thus said יהוה of hosts, ‘If it is marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvellous in My eyes?’ declares יהוה of hosts.

7“Thus said יהוה of hosts, ‘See, I am saving My people from the land of the sun-rise and from the land of the sunset.

8‘And I shall bring them back, and they shall dwell in the midst of ירושלים. And they shall be My people, and I shall be their Elohim, in truth and in righteousness.’

9“Thus said יהוה of hosts, ‘Let your hands be strong, you who are listening in these days to these words, from the mouth of the prophets, of the day the foundation was laid for the House of יהוה of hosts, the הֵכָל that was to be rebuilt.

10“For before these days there was not a wage for a man, nor a hire for beast, and there was no peace for him who went out or came in, because of his enemies, and I set all men one against another.

11‘But now I am not as in the former days to the remnant of this people,’ declares יהוה of hosts.

12“Because of the sowing of peace the vine does give its fruit, the ground does give her increase, and the heavens do give their dew. And I shall cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these.

13“And it shall be, as you were a curse among the gentiles, O house of יהועד and house of ישראל, so I shall save you, and you shall be a blessing. Do not fear, let your hands be strong.’

14“For thus said יהוה of hosts, ‘As I purposed to do evil to you when your fathers provoked Me,’ declares יהוה of hosts, ‘and I did not relent, 15so again in these days I have purposed to do good to ירושלים and to the house of יהועד. Do not fear!

16“These are the words you should do: speak the truth to one another, judge with truth and right-ruling for peace in your gates.

17‘And do not plot evil in your heart against another, and do not love a false oath. For all these I hate,’ declares יהוה.

18And the word of יהוה of hosts came to me, saying,

19“Thus said יהוה of hosts, ‘The fast of the fourth, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth months, are to be joy and gladness, and pleasant appointed times for the house of יהועד – and they shall love the truth and the peace.’

20“Thus said יהוה of hosts, ‘Peoples shall yet come, inhabitants of many cities, and the inhabitants of the one go to another, saying, “Let us earnestly go and pray before יהוה, and seek יהוה of hosts. I myself am going.”

22 ‘And many peoples and strong nations shall come to seek הוהי of hosts in Yerushalayim, and to pray before הוהי.’

23 ‘Thus said הוהי of hosts, ‘In those days ten men from all languages of the nations take hold, yea, they shall take hold of the edge of the garment of a man, a Yehuḏite, saying, “Let us go with you, for we have heard that Elohim is with you.”’

9 The message of the word of הוהי against the land of Ḥaḏraḵ, and Damascus its resting place – when the eye of man and all the tribes of Yisra’āl are on הוהי –

2 and Ḥamath also borders on it, Tsor and Ḳişôn, though they are very wise.

3 For Tsor built herself a tower, heaped up silver like the dust, and gold like the mud of the streets.

4 See, הוהי shall dispossess her, and He shall destroy her power in the sea, and she shall be consumed by fire.

5 Ashqelon sees it and fears, Azzah too, writhing in anguish, and Eqron, for her expectation has dried up. And the sovereign shall perish from Azzah, and Ashqelon shall not be inhabited.

6 “And a half-breed shall settle in Ashdoḵ. So I shall cut off the pride of the Philistines,

7 and shall take away his blood from his mouth, and the abominations from between his teeth. And he shall remain, even he, to our Elohim, and he shall be like a leader in Yehuḏah, and Eqron like a Yeḇusite.

8 And I shall encamp around My house, against an army, against him who passes by and him who returns, so that no oppressor passes through them again, for now I have seen with My eyes.

9 “Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Tsiyon! Shout, O daughter of Yerushalayim! See, your Sovereign is coming to you, He is righteous and endowed with deliverance, humble and riding on a donkey, a colt, the

foal of a donkey. k

10 “And I shall cut off the chariot from Ephrayim and the horse from Yerushalayim. And the battle bow shall be cut off. And He shall speak peace to the nations, and His rule is from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

11 “Also you, because of the blood of your covenant, I shall send your prisoners out of the pit.

12 “Return to the stronghold, you prisoners of the expectation. Even today I declare that I return double to you.

13 “For I shall bend Yehuḏah for Me, I shall fill the bow with Ephrayim, and I shall stir up your sons, O Tsiyon, against your sons, O Greece, and I shall make you like the sword of a mighty man.”

14 And הוהי shall appear for them, and His arrow go forth like lightning, and the Master הוהי sound the ram’s horn. And He shall go with whirlwinds from the south, 15 הוהי of hosts shall shield them. And they shall devour and trample on sling stones. And they shall drink, roar as if with wine, and they shall be filled like basins, like the corners of the altar.

16 And הוהי their Elohim shall save them in that day, as the flock of His people, for the stones of a diadem, sparkling over His land.

17 For what goodness is His, and what comeliness is His. Grain make the young men thrive, and new wine the maidens!

10 Ask הוהי for rain in the time of the latter rain, הוהי who makes storm clouds. And He gives them showers of rain, the plants in the field to everyone.

2 For the household idols spoke emptiness, the diviners saw falsehood, and relate dreams of deceit, they comfort in vain. Therefore they have wandered about like sheep. They are afflicted, for there is no shepherd. l

3 “My wrath burns against the shepherds, and I lay a charge against the leaders. For הוהי of hosts shall visit His flock, the house of Yehuđah, and make them like His splendid horse in battle.

4"From him comes the corner-stone, from him the tent peg, from him the battle bow, from him every ruler, together.

5"And they shall be like mighty men, who trample down the mud of the streets in the battle. And they shall fight because הַיָּהָּ is with them, and the riders on horses shall be put to shame.

6"And I shall make the house of Yehuđah mighty, and save the house of Yosêph. And I shall bring them back, because I have compassion on them. And they shall be as though I had not pushed them aside. For I am הַיָּהָּ their Elohim, and I answer them.

7"And Ephrayim shall be as a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as if with wine. And their children shall see and rejoice, their heart exulting in הַיָּהָּ.

8"I shall whistle for them and gather them, for I shall ransom them. And they shall increase as they once increased.

9"Though I sow them among peoples, they shall remember Me in places far away. And they shall live, together with their children, and they shall return.

10"And I shall bring them back from the land of Mitsrayim, and gather them from Ashshur, and bring them into the land of Gilעא and Leآنון, until no more room is found for them.

11"And He shall pass through the sea of distress, and strike the waves of the sea, and all the depths of the River shall dry up. And the pride of Ashshur shall be brought down, and the sceptre of Mitsrayim be taken away.

12"And I shall make them mighty in הַיָּהָּ, so that they walk up and down in His Name,” declares הַיָּהָּ.

11 Open your doors, O Leآنון, and let fire devour your cedars.

2Howl, O cypress, for the cedar has fallen, because the mighty are ravaged. Howl, O oaks of Bashan, for the dense forest has come down.

3Listen! The howling of shepherds, for their splendour is ravaged. Listen! The roaring of lions, for the pride of the Yardên is ravaged.

4Thus said יָהָּ my Elohim, “Feed the flock for slaughter, 5whose owners slaughter them and feel no guilt, and their sellers say, ‘Blessed be יָהָּ, for I have become rich.’ And their own shepherds do not spare them.

6“For I shall no longer spare the inhabitants of the land,” declares יָהָּ. “But see, I am delivering up mankind, each one into his neighbour’s hand and into the hand of his sovereign. And they shall crush the earth, but I do not deliver from their hand.”

7So I shepherded the flock meant for slaughter, the truly poor of the flock. And I took for myself two staffs, the one I called Pleasantness, and the other I called Unity, and I shepherded the flock.

8Then I sent off the three shepherds in one month, for my being despised them, and their being also loathed me.

9So I said, “I am not shepherding you. Let the dying die, and the straying stray, and let those who are left eat each other’s flesh.”

10And I took my staff, Pleasantness, and cut it in two, to break the covenant which I had made with all the peoples.

11And I said to them, “If it is good in your eyes, give me my wages. And if not, refrain.” So they weighed out for my wages thirty pieces of silver.

12And יָהָּ said to me, “Take again the implements of a foolish shepherd.

13And יָהָּ said to me, “Throw it to the potter,” the splendid price at which I was valued by them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver and threw them into the House of יָהָּ for the potter.

14Then I cut in two my other staff, Unity, to break the brotherhood between Yehuđah and Yisra’el.

15And יָהָּ said to me, “Take again the implements of a foolish shepherd.

16“For look, I am raising up a shepherd in the land who does not visit those straying, nor seek the young, nor heal those that are broken, nor feed those that still stand. But he does eat the flesh of the fat and tear off
17 “Woe to the worthless shepherd forsaking the flock! Let a sword be upon his arm and upon his right eye! His arm shall wither and his right eye shall be dimmed.”

12 The message of the word of יהוה against יִשְׂרָאֵל. יהוה, stretching out the heavens, and laying the foundation of the earth, and forming the spirit of man within him, declares,

2 “See, I am making יְרוּשָׁלָיָם a cup of reeling to all the people all around, and also against יהוה it is in the siege against יְרוּשָׁלָיָם.

3 And in that day it shall be that I make יְרוּשָׁלָיָם a very heavy stone for all peoples – all lifting it are severely injured. And all the nations of the earth shall be gathered against it.

4 In that day,” declares יהוה, “I smite every horse with bewilderment and its rider with madness. And on the house of יהוה I open My eyes, but every horse of the peoples I smite with blindness.

5 And the leaders of יהוה shall say in their heart, ‘The inhabitants of יְרוּשָׁלָיָם are a strength to me, through יהוה of hosts, their Elohim.’

6 In that day I make the leaders of יהוה like a fire pot among trees, and like a torch of fire in the sheaves. And they shall consume all the peoples all around, on the right and on the left. And יְרוּשָׁלָיָם shall dwell again in her own place, in יְרוּשָׁלָיָם.

7 And יהוה shall save the tents of יהוה first, so that the comeliness of the house of Dawi and the comeliness of the inhabitants of יְרוּשָׁלָיָם would not become greater than that of יהוה.

8 In that day יהוה shall shield the inhabitants of יְרוּשָׁלָיָם. And the feeble among them in that day shall be like Dawi, and the house of Dawi like Elohim, like the Messenger of יהוה before them!

9 And it shall be in that day that I seek to destroy all the gentiles that come against יְרוּשָׁלָיָם.

10 “And I shall pour on the house of Dawi and on the inhabitants of יְרוּשָׁלָיָם a spirit of favour and prayers. And they shall look on Me whom they pierced, and they shall mourn for Him as one mourns for his only son. And they shall be in bitterness over Him as a bitterness over the first-born.

11 “In that day the mourning in יְרוּשָׁלָיָם is going to be great, like the mourning at הַדַּד רֵימְם in the valley ofMegiddo.

12 “And the land shall mourn, every clan by itself: the clan of the house of Dawi by itself, and their women by themselves; the clan of the house of Nathan by itself, and their women by themselves;

13 the clan of the house of לֶウェי by itself, and their women by themselves; the clan of Shim’i by itself, and their women by themselves;

14 all the rest of the clans, every clan by itself, and their women by themselves.

13 “In that day a fountain shall be opened for the house of Dawi and for the inhabitants of יְרוּשָׁלָיָם, for sin and for uncleanness.

2 “And it shall be in that day,” declares יהוה of hosts, “that I cut off the names of the idols from the earth, and they shall be remembered no more, and I shall also remove the prophets and the unclean spirit from the earth.

3 “And it shall be, when one prophesies again, then his father and mother who brought him forth shall say to him, ‘You shall not live, because you have spoken falsehood in the Name of יהוה.’ And his father and mother who brought him forth shall pierce him through when he prophesies.

4 “And it shall be in that day that the prophets shall be ashamed, everyone of his vision when he prophesies, and not put a hairy robe on in order to deceive,

5 but shall say, ‘I am no prophet, I am a farmer, for a man sold me as a slave in my youth.’

6"And one shall say to him, 'What are these wounds in your hands?' And he shall say, 'Because I was wounded at home by those who love me.'

7"O sword, awake against My Shepherd, against the Man who is My Companion," declares לֹוָה יְהֹוָה of hosts. "Smite the Shepherd, and let the sheep be scattered. But I shall turn My hand upon the little ones.

8And it shall be throughout all the soil," declares לֹוָה יְהֹוָה, "that two thirds therein are cut off and die, and one third is left therein.

9"And I shall bring the third into fire, and refine them as silver is refined, and try them as gold is tried. They shall call on My Name, and I shall answer them. I shall say, 'This is My people,' while they say, 'לֹוָה יְהֹוָה is my Elohim.' "

14See, a day shall come for לֹוָה יְהֹוָה, and your spoil shall be divided in your midst.

2And I shall gather all the gentiles to battle against Yerushalayim. o And the city shall be taken, the houses plundered, and the women ravished. Half of the city shall go into exile, but the remnant of the people shall not be cut off from the city.

3And לֹוָה יְהֹוָה shall go forth, and He shall fight against those gentiles, as He fights in the day of battle.

4And in that day His feet shall stand upon the Mount of Olives, which faces Yerushalayim on the east. And the Mount of Olives shall be split in two, from east to west, a very great valley, and half of the mountain shall move toward the north and half of it toward the south.

5And you shall flee to the valley of My mountain – for the valley of the mountains reaches to Atsal. And you shall flee as you fled from the earthquake in the days of Uzziyah sovereign of YehuÅah. And לֹוָה יְהֹוָה my Elohim shall come – all the set-apart ones with You.

6And in that day it shall be: there is no light, it is dark.

7And it shall be one day which is known to לֹוָה יְהֹוָה, neither day nor night, but at evening time there shall be light.

8And in that day it shall be that living waters flow from Yerushalayim, p half of them toward the eastern sea and half of them toward the western sea, in summer as well as in winter.

9And לֹוָה יְהֹוָה shall be Sovereign over all the earth. q In that day there shall be one לֹוָה יְהֹוָה, and His Name one.

10All the land shall be changed into a desert plain from Geḇa to Rimmon south of Yerushalayim, and she shall be raised up and inhabited in her place from Binyamin’s Gate to the place of the First Gate and the Corner Gate, and from the Tower of Êanan’ël to the winepresses of the sovereign.

11And they shall dwell in her, and there shall be no more utter destruction, r but Yerushalayim shall be safely inhabited.

12And this is the plague with which לֹוָה יְהֹוָה plagues all the people who fought against Yerushalayim: their flesh shall decay while they stand on their feet, and their eyes decay in their sockets, and their tongues decay in their mouths.

13And it shall be in that day that a great confusion from לֹוָה יְהֹוָה is among them, and everyone of them shall seize the hand of his neighbour, and his hand rise up against his neighbour’s hand.

14And YehuÅah shall fight at Yerushalayim as well. And the wealth of all the gentiles round about shall be gathered together: gold, and silver, and garments in great quantities.

15So also is the plague on the horse and the mule, on the camel and the donkey, and on all the cattle that are in those camps – as this plague.

16And it shall be that all who are left from all the gentiles which came up against Yerushalayim, shall go up from year to year to bow themselves to the Sovereign, לֹוָה יְהֹוָה of hosts, and to observe the Festival of Booths.

17 And it shall be, that if anyone of the clans of the earth does not come up to Yerushalayim to bow himself to the Sovereign, הוהי of hosts, on them there is to be no rain.

18 And if the clan of Mitsrayim does not come up and enter in, then there is no rain. On them is the plague with which הוהי plagues the gentiles who do not come up to observe the Festival of Booths.

19 This is the punishment of Mitsrayim and the punishment of all the gentiles that do not come up to observe the Festival of Booths.

20 In that day “SET-APART TO הוהי” shall be engraved on the bells of the horses. And the pots in the House of הוהי shall be like the bowls before the altar.

21 And every pot in Yerushalayim and Yehuḏah shall be set-apart to הוהי of hosts. And all those who slaughter shall come and take them and cook in them. And there shall no longer be a merchant in the House of הוהי of hosts, in that day.
1 The message of the word of הוהי to יسرائيل by מלאכי.

2 “I have loved you,” said הוהי. “But you asked, ‘In what way have You loved us?’ “Was not אֶשֶׂא יאֲקֹב’s brother?” declares הוהי. “And I loveYa’aqob,

3 but I have hated אֶשֶׂא, and have laid waste his mountains and his inheritance for the jackals of the wilderness.”

4 If Èdom says, “We have been beaten down, let us return and build the ruins,” הוהי of hosts said thus: “Let them build, but I tear down. And they shall be called ‘Border of Wrongness’, and the people against whom הוהי is enraged forever.

5 And your eyes shall see, and you shall say, ‘Great is הוהי beyond the border of יسرائيل!’

6 “A son esteems his father, and a servant his master. And if I am the Father, where is My esteem? And if I am a Master, where is My fear? said הוהי of hosts to you priests who despise My Name. But you asked, ‘In what way have we despised Your Name?’

7 “You are presenting defiled food on My altar. But you asked, ‘In what way have we defiled You?’ Because you say, ‘The table of הוהי is despicable.’

8 “And when you present the blind as a slaughtering, is it not evil? And when you present the lame and sick, is it not evil? Bring it then to your governor! Would he be pleased with you? Would he accept you favourably?” said הוהי of hosts.

9 “And now, entreat the face of אלהים to show favour to us. This has been done by your hands. Would He show favour to you?” said הוהי of hosts.

10 “Who among you who would shut the doors, so that you would not kindle fire on My altar for naught? I have no pleasure in you,” said הוהי of hosts, “Nor do I accept an offering from your hands.

11 “For from the rising of the sun, even to its going down, My Name is great among nations. And in every place incense is presented to My Name, and a clean offering. For My Name is great among nations,” said הוהי of hosts.

12 “But you are profaning Me, in that you say, ‘The table of הוהי is defiled, and its fruit, its food, is despicable.’

13 “And you said, ‘Oh, what weariness!’ and you sneered at it,” said הוהי of hosts. “And you brought in plunder, and the lame, and the sick – thus you have brought in the offering! Should I accept this from your hand?” said הוהי.

14 “But cursed be the deceiver who has a male in his flock, and makes a vow, but is slaughtering to הוהי what is blemished. For I am a great Sovereign,” said הוהי of hosts, “and My Name is feared among nations.

2 “And now, O priests, this command is for you.

2 “If you do not hear, and if you do not take it to heart, to give esteem to My Name,” said הוהי of hosts, “I shall send a curse upon you, and I shall curse your blessings. And indeed, I have cursed them, because you do not take it to heart.

3 “See, I shall rebuke your seed, and scatter dung before your faces, the dung of your festivals. And you shall be taken away with it.

4 “And you shall know that I have sent this command to you, as being My covenant with לְוִי,” said הוהי of hosts.

5 “My covenant with him was life and peace, and I gave them to him, to fear. And he feared Me, and stood in awe of My Name.

6 “The Torah of truth a was in his mouth, and unrighteousness was not found on his lips. He walked with Me in peace and straightness, and turned many away from crookedness.

7 “For the lips of a priest should guard knowledge, and they seek the Torah from his mouth, for he is the messenger of אָתִיק of hosts.

8 “But you, you have turned from the way, you have caused many to stumble in the Torah. You have corrupted the covenant of לֵוִי,” said אָתִיק of hosts.

9 “And I also, I shall make you despised and low before all the people, because you are not guarding My ways, and are showing partiality in the Torah.”

10 Have we not all one Father? Did not one אֵל create us? Why do we act treacherously against one another, to profane the covenant of the fathers?

11 Yehuַדְּה has acted treacherously, and an abomination has been done in יִשְׂרָאֵל and in יֶרְוָשָׁלְיָם, for Yehuַדְּה has profaned what is set-apart to אָתִיק – which He had loved – and has married the daughter of a foreign mighty one.

12 Let מָלְאָכֵי cut off from the tents of יאָהָב the man who does this – stirring up or answering, and bringing an offering to אָתִיק of hosts!

13 And this you have done a second time: you cover the altar of אָתִיק with tears, with weeping and crying, because He no longer regards the offering, nor receives it with pleasure from your hands.

14 And you said, “Why?” Because אָתִיק has been witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have acted treacherously, though she is your companion and the wife of your covenant.

15 And did He not make one? And He had the remnant of the Spirit? And what is the one alone? He seeks a seed of Elohim. So you shall guard your spirit, and let none act treacherously against the wife of his youth.

16 “For I hate divorce,” said אָתִיק Elohim of יִשְׂרָאֵל, “and the one who covers his garment with cruelty,” said אָתִיק of hosts. “So you shall guard your spirit, and do not act treacherously.”

17 You have wearied אָתִיק with your words, and you have said, “In what way have we wearied Him?” In that you say, “Everyone who does evil is good in the eyes of אָתִיק, and He is delighting in them,” or, “Where is the Elohim of right-ruling?”

3 “See, I am sending My messenger, מָלְאָכֶת and he shall prepare the way before Me. Then suddenly the Master you are seeking comes to His הָלְכָל, even the Messenger c of the covenant, in whom you delight. See, He is coming,” said אָתִיק of hosts.

2 “And who is able to bear the day of His coming, and who is able to stand when He appears? For He is like the fire of a refiner, and like the soap of a launderer.

3 “And He shall sit as a refiner and a cleanser of silver. And He shall cleanse the sons of לֵוִי, and refine them as gold and silver, and they shall belong to אָתִיק, bringing near an offering in righteousness.

4 “Then shall the offering of Yehuַדְּה and יֶרְוָשָׁלְיָם be pleasant to אָתִיק, as in the days of old, as in former years.

5 “And I shall draw near to you for right-ruling. And I shall be a swift witness against the practisers of witchcraft, and against adulterers, and against them that swear to falsehood, and against those who oppress the wage earner in his wages and widows and the fatherless, and those who turn away a sojourner and do not fear Me,” said אָתִיק of hosts.

6 “For I am אָתִיק, I shall not change, d and you, O sons of יאָהָב, shall not come to an end.

7 “From the days of your fathers you have turned aside from My laws and did not guard them. Turn back to Me, and I shall turn back to you,” said אָתִיק of hosts. “But you said, ‘In what shall we turn back?’

8 “Would a man rob Elohim? Yet you are robbing Me! But you said, ‘In what have we robbed You?’ In the tithe and the offering!

b Generally interpreted as Yoֹחָנָן the Immerser. c The Messiah, obviously. d יאָהָב 1:17.
9 “You have cursed Me with a curse, for you are robbing Me, this nation, all of it!
10 “Bring all the tithes into the storehouse, and let there be food in My house. And please prove Me in this,” said יהוה of hosts, “whether I do not open for you the windows of the heavens, and shall pour out for you boundless blessing!
11 “And I shall rebuke the devourer for you, so that it does not destroy the fruit of your ground, nor does the vine fail to bear fruit for you in the field,” said יהוה of hosts.
12 “And all nations shall call you blessed, for you shall be a land of delight,” said יהוה of hosts.
13 “Your words have been harsh against Me,” said יהוה, “but you have said, ‘What have we spoken against You?’
14 “You have said, ‘It is worthless to serve Elohim. And what did we gain when we guarded His Charge, and when we walked as mourners before יהוה of hosts?
15 ‘And now we are calling the proud blessed – not only are the doers of wrongness built up, but they also try Elohim and escape.’ ”
16 Then shall those who fear יהוה speak to one another, and יהוה listen and hear, and a book of remembrance be written before Him, of those who fear יהוה, and those who think upon His Name.
17 “And they shall be Mine,” said יהוה of hosts, “on the day that I prepare a treasured possession. And I shall spare them as a man spares his own son who serves him.
18 “Then you shall again see the difference between the righteous and the wrong, between one who serves Elohim and one who does not serve Him.

4 “For look, the day shall come, burning like a furnace, and all the proud, and every wrongdoer shall be stubble. And the day that shall come shall burn them up,” said יהוה of hosts, “which leaves to them neither root nor branch.
2 “But to you who fear My Name the Sun of Righteousness shall arise with healing in His wings. And you shall go out and leap for joy like calves from the stall.
3 “And you shall trample the wrongdoers, for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet on the day that I do this,” said יהוה of hosts.
4 “Remember the Torah of Mosheh, My servant, which I commanded him in בְּנֵי יִשְׂרָאֵל – laws and right-rulings.
5 “See, I am sending you יְהוָה הַמֶּלֶךְ the prophet before the coming of the great and awesome day of יהוה.
6 “And he shall turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the hearts of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with utter destruction.”

This prophecy has a double reference – to 요ֹהָנָן who came in the spirit and in the power of Elias (Lk. 1:17), but also refers to the days prior to the Great Day of יהוה. /ZEK. 14:11.
1 Blessed is the man who shall not walk in the counsel of the wrong,
And shall not stand in the path of sinners,
And shall not sit in the seat of scoffers,
But his delight is in the Torah of הוהי,
And he meditates in His Torah day and night.
For he shall be as a tree
Planted by the rivers of water,
That yields its fruit in its season,
And whose leaf does not wither,
And whatever he does prospers.

2 The wrong are not so,
But are like the chaff which the wind blows away.
Therefore the wrong shall not rise in the judgment,
Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
For הוהי knows the way of the
righteous,
But the way of the wrong comes to naught.

3 Why do the gentiles rage,
And the peoples meditate emptiness?
The sovereigns of the earth take their stand,
And the rulers take counsel together,
Against הוהי and against His Messiah,
and say,
Let us tear apart Their bonds,
And throw away Their ropes from us."
He who is sitting in the heavens laughs,
mocks at them.
Then He speaks to them in His wrath,
And troubles them in His rage, saying,

4“But I, I have set My Sovereign on Tsiyon,
My set-apart mountain.”
7“I inscribe for a law:
הוהי has said to Me, ‘You are My Son,
Today I have brought You forth.
8 ‘Ask of Me, and I make the gentiles
Your inheritance,
And the ends of the earth
Your possession.
9 ‘Break them with a rod of iron,
Dash them to pieces like a potter’s vessel.’ ”

10 And now, be wise, O sovereigns;
Be instructed, you rulers of the earth.
Serve הוהי with fear,
And rejoice with trembling.
Kiss the Son, lest He be enraged,
And you perish in the way,
For soon His wrath is to be kindled.
Blessed are all those taking refuge in Him.

3 O הוהי, how my adversaries have increased!
Many rising up against me.
Many are saying of me,
“There is no deliverance for him in Elohim.” Selah.
But You, O הוהי, are a shield for me,
My esteem, and the One lifting up my head.
I cried to הוהי with my voice,
And He heard me from His set-apart mountain. Selah.
I, I laid down and slept;
I awoke, for הוהי sustained me.
I am not afraid of ten thousands of people
Who have set themselves against me all around.

7 Arise, O יהוה;
Save me, O my Elohim!
Because You have smitten all my enemies on the cheek;
You have broken the teeth of the wrong.

8 Deliverance belongs to יהוה.
Your blessing is on Your people. Selah.

4 Answer me when I call,
O Elohim of my righteousness!
You gave relief to me when I was in distress;
Show favour to me, and hear my prayer.

2 Till when, O you sons of men,
Would you turn my esteem to shame,
Would you love emptiness, seek falsehood? Selah.

3 But know that יהוה has separated a kind one for Himself;
יהוה hears when I call to Him.

4 Tremble, and do not sin.
Speak within your heart on your bed,
and be still. Selah.

5 Offer slaughterings of righteousness,
And trust in יהוה.

6 Many are saying, “Who would show us good?”
יהוה, lift up the light of Your face upon us.

7 You have put more gladness in my heart,
Than in the season that their grain and wine increased.

8 I lie down in peace altogether, and sleep;
For You alone, O יהוה, make me dwell in safety.

5 Give ear to my words, O יהוה,
Consider my meditation.

2 Attend to the voice of my cry,
My Sovereign and my Elohim,
For unto You I pray.

3 O יהוה, in the morning You hear my voice;
I present myself to You in the morning,
And I look up.

4 For You are not an Ėl taking delight in wrong,

Nor does evil dwell with You.

5 The boasters do not stand before Your eyes;
You hate all workers of wickedness.

6 You destroy those speaking falsehood;
יהוה loathes a man of blood and deceit.

7 But I, I enter Your house
In the greatness of Your kindness;
I bow myself toward Your set-apart
Hĕkāl in Your fear.

8 O יהוה, lead me in Your righteousness because of those watching me;
Make Your way straight before my face.

9 For there is no stability in their mouth;
Their inward part is destruction;
Their throat is an open grave;
They flatter with their tongue.

10 Declare them guilty, O Elohim!
Let them fall by their own counsels;
Thrust them away for their many transgressions,
Because they have rebelled against
You.

11 But let all who take refuge in You rejoice;
Let them ever shout for joy, because
You shelter them;
And let those who love Your Name exult in You.

12 For You bless the righteous, O יהוה;
You surround him with favour as with a shield.

6 O יהוה, do not rebuke me in Your displeasure,
Nor discipline me in Your wrath.

2 Show favour to me, O יהוה, for I am fading away;
O יהוה, heal me, for my bones have been troubled.

3 And my being has been greatly troubled;
And You, O יהוה – till when?

4 Return, O יהוה, rescue my life!
Oh, save me for Your kindness’ sake!

5 For in death there is no remembrance of You;
Who gives You thanks in the grave?

6 I have grown weary with my groaning;
Every night I flood my bed;
I drench my couch with my tears.
7 My eye has grown dim because of grief;
It grows old because of all my adversaries.
8 Depart from me, all you workers of wickedness;
For יהוה has heard the voice of my weeping.
9 יהוה has heard my pleading;
יהוה receives my prayer.
10 Let all my enemies be ashamed and greatly troubled;
They turn back suddenly, ashamed.

7 O יהוה my Elohim, in You I have taken refuge;
Save me from all my pursuers;
And deliver me,
2 Lest they tear at my throat like a lion,
Rending in pieces, with no one to deliver.
3 O יהוה my Elohim, if I have done this:
If there is unrighteousness in my hands,
4 If I have done evil to him who was at peace with me,
Or have plundered my enemy without cause,
5 Let the enemy pursue me and overtake my being,
And trample my life to the ground,
And lay my esteem in the dust. Selah.
6 Arise, O יהוה, in Your displeasure;
Lift Yourself up against the rage of my adversaries,
And awake for me!
You shall command judgment!
7 And let the congregation of the peoples gather about You;
And over them return on high.
8 יהוה judges the peoples;
Judge me, O יהוה, according to my righteousness,
And according to my integrity within me.
9 Please let the evil of the wrong be ended,
And establish the righteous;
For the righteous Elohim is a trier of hearts and kidneys.
10 My shield is upon Elohim,
Who saves the upright in heart.
11 Elohim is a righteous judge.
And El is enraged every day,
12 If one does not repent!
He sharpens His sword,
He bends His bow and makes it ready,
13 And He has prepared for Himself instruments of death,
He makes His arrows hot for pursuers.
14 See, he who is bound with wickedness,
And has conceived trouble and brought forth falsehood, 15 He has made a pit and dug it out,
And falls into the ditch he made!
16 His trouble turns back upon his own head,
And his wrongdoing comes down on the top of his head.
17 I give thanks to יהוה according to His righteousness,
And praise the Name of יהוה Most High.

8 O יהוה, our Master, how excellent is Your Name in all the earth,
You who set Your splendour above the heavens!
2 Out of the mouth of babes and infants You have founded strength,
Because of Your adversaries,
To put an end to enemy and avenger.
3 For I see Your heavens, the work of Your fingers,
The moon and the stars, which You have established.
4 What is man that You remember him?
And the son of man that You visit him?
5 Yet You have made him a little less than Elohim,
And have crowned him with esteem and splendour.
6 You made him rule over the works of Your hands;
You have put all under his feet,
7 All sheep and oxen,
And also the beasts of the field,
8 The birds of the heavens,
And the fish of the sea,
Passing through the paths of the seas.
O יְהֹウェָה, our Master,
How excellent is Your Name in all the earth!

I praise You, O יְהֹウェָה, with all my heart;
I declare all Your wonders.
I rejoice and exult in You;
I sing praise to Your Name,
O Most High.

When my enemies turn back,
They stumble and perish before You.
For You executed my right and my cause,
You sat on the throne judging in righteousness.
You have rebuked the gentiles,
You have destroyed the wrong,
You have wiped out their name forever and ever.
The enemy is no more – ruins everlasting!
And You have uprooted the cities;
Even their remembrance has perished.
But יְהֹウェָה abides forever,
He is preparing His throne for judgment.
And He judges the world in righteousness,
He judges the peoples in straightness.
And יְהֹウェָה is a refuge for the crushed one,
A refuge in times of distress.
And those who know Your Name trust in You,
For You have not forsaken those who seek You, O יְהֹウェָה.
Sing praises to יְהֹウェָה, who dwells in Tsiyon!
Declare His deeds among the peoples.
For He remembers the seekers of bloodshed,
He does not forget the cry of the afflicted.
Show favour to me, O יְהֹウェָה!
See my affliction by those who hate me,
You who lift me up from the gates of death,
So that I declare all Your praise
In the gates of the daughter of Tsiyon.
I rejoice in Your deliverance.
The gentiles have sunk down in the pit which they made;
In the net which they hid, their own foot is caught.
יְהֹウェָה has made Himself known,
He has done right-ruling;
The wrong is snared in the work of his own hands.
Meditation. Selah.
The wrong return to the grave,
All the gentiles that forget Elohim.
For the needy is not always forgotten;
Neither the expectancy of the poor lost forever.
Arise, O יְהֹウェָה,
Do not let man prevail;
Let the gentiles be judged before Your face.
Put them in fear, O יְהֹウェָה,
Let the gentiles know they are but men. Selah.

Why do You stand afar off, O יְהֹウェָה, hiding in times of distress?
In arrogance the wrongdoer hotly pursues the poor;
They are caught by the schemes which they devised.
For the wrongdoer boasted of his cravings;
And the greedy one cursed and despised יְהֹウェָה.
In the pride of his face
The wrongdoer does not seek Him,
In all his thoughts there is no Elohim!
His ways are always prosperous!
Your right-rulings are on high, out of his sight!
He snorts at all his adversaries!
He has said in his heart,
“I shall not be moved;
From generation to generation, never be in evil!”
His mouth is filled with cursing and deceit and oppression;
Under his tongue is trouble and wickedness.
He sits in the hiding places of the villages;
In the secret places he murders the innocent;
His eyes are on the lookout for the helpless.
9 He lies in wait in a secret place,
as a lion in his den;
He lies in wait to catch the poor;
He catches the poor, drawing him into his net.
10 And he crouches, he lies low,
And the helpless fall under his strength.
11 He has said in his heart,
"El has forgotten,
He has hidden His face,
He shall never see."
12 Arise, O El! O El, lift up Your hand!
Do not forget the lowly ones.
13 Why do the wrong scorn Elohim?
He has said in his heart,
"It is not required."
14 You have seen it, for You observe trouble and grief,
To repay with Your hand.
The poor commits himself to You;
You are the helper of the fatherless.
15 Break the arm of the wrong one and the evil one;
Search out his wrongness that would not be found out.
16 El is Sovereign forever and ever;
The gentiles shall perish from His land.
17 El, You have heard the desire of the lowly ones;
You prepare their heart;
You incline Your ear,
18 To defend the fatherless and the downtrodden;
So that man who is of the earth no longer oppresses!

In El I have taken refuge;
Why do you say to me,
"Flee to your mountain like a bird"?
2 For look! The wrong bend a bow,
They set their arrow on the string,
To shoot in darkness at the upright in heart.
3 When the foundations are destroyed,
What shall the righteous do?

4 El is in His set-apart Hekal,
The throne of El is in the heavens.
His eyes see, His eyelids examine the sons of men.
5 El tries the righteous,
But His being shall hate the wrong
And the one who loves violence.
6 Upon the wrong He rains snares,
Fire and sulphur and a scorching wind
Are the portion of their cup.
7 For El is righteous,
He has loved righteousness;
The upright shall see His face.

12 Save, El, for the kind one is no more!
For the trustworthy have ceased from among the sons of men.
2 They speak falsehood with each other;
They speak with flattering lips,
a double heart.
3 El does cut off all flattering lips,
A tongue that speaks swelling words,
4 Who have said, "With our tongue we do mightily;
Our lips are our own;
Who is master over us?"
5 "Because of the oppression of the poor, because of the sighing of the needy,
I now arise," says El, "I set in safety—he pants for it."
6 The Words of El are clean Words,
Silver tried in a furnace of earth,
Refined seven times. b
7 You guard them, O El,
You preserve them from this generation forever.
8 The wrong walk around on every side,
When worthlessness is exalted among the sons of men.

13 How long would You forget me,
O El? Forever?
How long would You hide Your face from me?
2 How long would I take counsel in my being,
Grief in my heart day by day?
How long would my enemy be exalted b Teh. 18:30, Teh. 119:140, Mish. 30:4.

3 Look! Answer me, O ḤWHY my Elohim; Enlighten my eyes, Lest I sleep in death;
4 Lest my enemy say, “I have prevailed against him,”
Lest my adversaries rejoice when I am moved.
5 But I have trusted in Your kindness; My heart rejoices in Your deliverance.
6 I sing to ḤWHY, Because He has been good to me.

14 The fool has said in his heart, “There is no ḤWHY.” They have done corruptly, They have done an abominable deed, There is no one who does good.
2 ḤWHY looked down from the heavens on the sons of mankind, To see if there is a wise one, seeking ḤWHY.
3 They have all turned aside, They have together become filthy; No one is doing good, not even one.
4 Have all the workers of wickedness no knowledge, Who eat up my people as they eat bread, And do not call on ḤWHY?
5 There they are in great fear, For ḤWHY is with the generation of the righteous.
6 You would put to shame the counsel of the poor, But ḤWHY is his refuge.
7 O that the deliverance of Yisra’ël Would be given out of Tsiyon! When ḤWHY turns back the captivity of His people, Let YaÈaqoÄ rejoice, let Yisra’ël be glad.

15 ḤWHY, who does sojourn in Your Tent? Who does dwell in Your set-apart mountain?
2 He who walks blamelessly, And does righteousness, And speaks the truth in his heart.
3 He has not slandered with his tongue, He has not done evil to his neighbour, Nor lifted up a reproach against his friend;
4 In whose eyes a reprobate one is despised, But he esteems those who fear ḤWHY; He who swears to his own hurt and does not change;
5 He has not put out his silver at interest, And has not taken a bribe against the innocent. He who does these is never moved.

16 Guard me, O Ėl, for I have taken refuge in You.
2 I have said to ḤWHY, “You are ḤWHY, I have no good beside You.”
3 As for the set-apart ones who are on the earth, They are the excellent ones, in whom is all my delight.
4 The sorrows of those who run after another one are increased; I would not pour out their drink offerings of blood, Nor take up their names on my lips.
5 ḤWHY is the portion of my inheritance and my cup; You uphold my lot.
6 Boundary lines have fallen to me in pleasant places; Indeed, a good inheritance is mine.
7 I bless ḤWHY who has given me counsel; My kidneys also instruct me in the nights.
8 I have set ḤWHY always before me; Because He is at my right hand I am not shaken.
9 Therefore my heart was glad, and my esteem rejoices; My flesh also dwells in safety.
10 For You do not leave my being in the grave, Neither let Your Kind One see corruption.
11 You show me the path of life; In Your presence is joy to satisfaction; At Your right hand are pleasures forever.
Hear righteousness,
Listen to my cry;
Give ear to my prayer,
From lips without deceit.

Let my right-ruling go out from Your presence;
Let Your eyes see what is straight.
You have examined my heart;
You have visited me in the night;
You have tried me –
You find I have not schemed;
My mouth would not transgress.
As for the deeds of men –
By the word of Your lips,
I have kept myself from the paths of the destroyer.

My steps have held fast to Your paths,
My feet have not slipped.
I have called upon You, for You answer me, O El;
Incline Your ear to me, hear my speech.

Let Your kindness be distinguished,
You who save by Your right hand those who take refuge
From those who rise up.
Guard me as the apple of Your eye.
Hide me under the shadow of Your wings,
From the face of the wrong who ravage me,
From my deadly enemies who surround me.

They are enclosed in their own fat,
They speak proudly with their mouths,
They have now surrounded us in our steps,
They set their eyes to cast us to the ground,
Like a lion who is eager to tear his prey,
And as a young lion crouching in cover.

Arise, O El,
Confront him, cause him to bend;
Deliver my being from the wrong by Your sword,

From men by Your hand, O El,
From men of the world whose portion is in this life,
And You fill their bellies with Your treasure,
They are satisfied with children,
And shall leave their riches to their babes.

As for me, let Me see Your face in righteousness;
I am satisfied to see Your appearance when I awake.

I love You, O El,
My strength.
El is my rock and my stronghold and my deliverer;
My El is my rock, I take refuge in Him;
My shield and the horn of my deliverance, my high tower.
I call upon El, the One to be praised,
And I am saved from my enemies.
The cords of death surrounded me,
And the floods of Beliya’al made me afraid.
The cords of the grave were all around me;
The snares of death were before me.
In my distress I called upon El,
And to my Elohim I cried;
He heard my voice from His Hekal,
And my cry went before Him, into His ears.
And the earth shook and trembled;
Even the foundations of the mountains were troubled
And they shook, because He was wroth.

Smoke went up from His nostrils,
And consuming fire from His mouth;
Coals were kindled by it.
And He bowed the heavens and came down,
And thick darkness was under His feet.
And He rode upon a kerub, and flew;
He flew upon the wings of the wind.
He made darkness His covering;
Around Him His booth, Darkness of waters, thick clouds of the skies.

From the brightness before Him,
His thick clouds passed, hail and coals of fire.
And El thundered in the heavens,
And the Most High sent forth His voice,
    Hail and coals of fire.
14 And He sent out His arrows and scattered them,
    And much lightning, and confused them.
15 And the channels of waters were seen,
    And the foundations of the world were uncovered
At Your rebuke, O HWHY,
    At the blast of the breath of Your nostrils.
16 He sent from above, He took me;
    He drew me out of many waters.
17 He delivered me from my strong enemy,
    And from those hating me,
For they were stronger than I.
18 They confronted me in the day of my calamity,
    But HWHY was my support.
19 And He brought me out into a large place;
    He delivered me for He delighted in me.
20 HWHY rewarded me according to my righteousness;
    According to the cleanness of my hands He repaid me.
21 For I have guarded the ways of HWHY,
    And have not acted wrongly against my Elohim.
22 For all His right-rulings are before me,
    And I did not turn from His laws.
23 And I am perfect before Him,
    And I guard myself from my crookedness.
24 And HWHY repays me according to my righteousness,
    According to the cleanness of my hands before His eyes.
25 With the kind You show Yourself kind;
    With the perfect one You show Yourself perfect;
26 With the clean You show Yourself clean;
    And with the crooked You show Yourself twisted.
27 For You save the afflicted people,
    But bring down those whose eyes are haughty.
28 For You Yourself light my lamp;
    HWHY my Elohim makes my darkness light.
29 For with You I run against a band,
    And with my Elohim I leap over a wall.
30 The El – His way is perfect;
    The Word of HWHY is proven; c
    He is a shield to all who take refuge in Him.
31 For who is Eloah, besides HWHY?
    And who is a rock, except our Elohim?
32 It is El who girds me with strength,
    And makes my way perfect,
33 Making my feet like the feet of deer,
    And sets me on my high places,
34 Teaching my hands for battle,
    So that my arms shall bend a bow of bronze.
35 And You give me the shield of Your deliverance;
    And Your right hand supports me,
    And Your lowliness makes me great.
36 You enlarge my step under me;
    And my feet shall not slip.
37 I pursue my enemies and overtake them;
    And do not turn back till they are destroyed.
38 I crush them, and they are unable to rise;
    They fall under my feet.
39 And You gird me with strength for battle;
    Cause my adversaries to bow under me.
40 And You have made my enemies turn their backs,
    As for those hating me, I cut them off.
41 They cry – but no one is there to save,
    To HWHY – but He answers them not.
42 And I beat them as dust before the wind;
    I empty them out like dirt in the streets.
43 You deliver me from the strivings of the people,
You set me at the head of the nations; A people I have not known serve me.
As soon as they hear of me they obey me; The foreigners submit to me.
The foreigners fade away, And come frightened from their strong-holds.
\[\text{אַלּוֹת לָיְךָ לֵוַיְשָׁעַר} \text{!} \] And blessed is my Rock!
And exalted is the Elohim of my deliverance,
The El who avenges me, And He humbles the peoples under me;
My deliverer from my enemies.
You lift me up above those who rise against me;
You deliver me from a man of violence.
Therefore I give thanks to You, O HWHY, among nations,
And I sing praise to Your Name,
Making great the deliverance of His sovereign,
And showing kindness to His anointed, To Dawiël and his seed, forever.

19 The heavens are proclaiming the esteem of El;
And the expanse is declaring the work of His hand.
Day to day pours forth speech,
And night to night reveals knowledge.
There is no speech, and there are no words,
Their voice is not heard.
Their line has gone out through all the earth,
And their words to the end of the world.
In them He set up a tent for the sun,
And it is like a bridegroom coming out of his room,
It rejoices like a strong man to run the path.
Its rising is from one end of the heavens,
And its circuit to the other end;
And naught is hidden from its heat.
The Torah of HWHY is perfect, bringing back the being;
The witness of HWHY is trustworthy, making wise the simple;
The orders of HWHY are straight, rejoicing the heart;
The command of HWHY is clear, enlightening the eyes;
The fear of HWHY is clean, standing forever;
The right-rulings of HWHY are true, They are righteous altogether,
More desirable than gold, Than much fine gold;
And sweeter than honey and the honeycomb.
Also, Your servant is warned by them, In guarding them there is great reward.
Who discerns mistakes? Declare me innocent from those that are secret,
Also keep Your servant back from presumptuous ones, Do not let them rule over me.
Then shall I be perfect, and innocent of great transgression.
Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart Be pleasing before You, O HWHY, my rock and my redeemer.

20 HWHY does answer you in the day of distress!
The Name of the Elohim of Ya’aqob does set you on high!
He does send you help from the set-apart place,
And does uphold you from Tsiyon!
He does remember all your offerings,
And does accept your burnt offering! Selah.
He does give you according to your heart,
And fills all your plans!
We sing of Your deliverance,
And in the Name of our Elohim we set up a banner!
HWHY does fill all your requests!
Now I know that HWHY shall save His Anointed;
\[\text{דְּרוּ אַלּוֹת לָיְשָׁעַר} \text{!} \] Runs parallel with/is synonymous with “guarding His commands/teachings” (see Shem. 20:20).
He answers him from His set-apart heavens
With the saving might of His right hand.
7 Some trust in chariots, and some in horses,
But we remember the Name of our Elohim.
8 They, they have bowed down and fallen;
But we have risen and are established.
9 Save, יְהֹוָה!
Let the Sovereign answer us in the day we call.

21 The sovereign rejoices in Your strength, O יְהֹוָה;
And how greatly he exults in Your deliverance!
2 You have given him the desire of his heart,
And You have not withheld the request of his lips. Selah.
3 For You put before him the blessings of goodness;
You set a crown of fine gold on his head.
4 He asked life from You, and You gave it to him –
Length of days forever and ever.
5 Through Your deliverance his esteem is great;
You have laid excellency and splendour on him.
6 For You have made him most blessed forever;
You have made him glad with the joy of Your presence.
7 For the sovereign is trusting in יְהֹוָה,
And through the kindness of the Most High he is not moved.
8 Your hand reaches all Your enemies;
Your right hand reaches those who hate You.
9 You make them as a furnace of fire in the time of Your presence;
יְהֹוָה does swallow them up in His wrath,
And fire does consume them.
10 You destroy their fruit from the earth,
And their seed from among the sons of men.
11 For they held out evil against You;
They devised a plot; they do not prevail.
12 For You make them turn their back,
When You aim with Your bowstring toward their faces.
13 Be exalted, O יְהֹוָה, in Your strength!
We sing and we praise Your might.

22 My Îl, My Îl, why have You forsaken Me –
Far from saving Me, far from the words of My groaning?
2 O My Elohim, I call by day, but You do not answer;
And by night, but I find no rest.
3 Yet You are set-apart,
Enthroned on the praises of Yisra’èl.
4 Our fathers trusted in You;
They trusted, and You delivered them.
5 They cried to You, and were delivered;
They trusted in You, and were not ashamed.
6 But I am a worm, and no man;
A reproach of men, and despised by the people.
7 All those who see Me mock Me;
They shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,
8 “He trusted in יְהֹוָה, let Him rescue Him;
Let Him deliver Him, seeing He has delighted in Him!”
9 For You are the One who took Me out of the womb;
Causing Me to trust while on My mother’s breasts.
10 I was cast upon You from birth.
From My mother’s belly You have been My Îl.
11 Do not be far from Me,
For distress is near;
For there is none to help.
12 Many bulls have surrounded Me;
Strong ones of Bashan have encircled Me.
13 They have opened their mouths against Me,
As a raging and roaring lion.
14 I have been poured out like water,
And all My bones have been spread apart;
My heart has become like wax;
It has melted in the midst of My inward parts.

15 My strength is dried like a potsherd,
And My tongue is cleaving to My jaws;
And to the dust of death You are appointing Me.

16 For dogs have surrounded Me;
A crowd of evil ones have encircled Me,
Piercing My hands and My feet;
I count all My bones.
They look, they stare at Me.

18 They divide My garments among them,
And for My raiment they cast lots.
Deliver My life from the sword,
My only life from the power of the dog.

21 Save Me from the mouth of the lion,
And from the horns of the wild beasts!
You have answered Me.

22 I make known Your Name to My brothers;
In the midst of the assembly I praise You.

23 You who fear יָהָי, praise Him!
All you seed of Ya‘aqob, esteem Him,
And fear Him, all you seed of Yisra’el!

24 For He has not despised
Nor hated the affliction of the afflicted;
Nor has He hidden His face from Him;
But when He cried to Him, He heard.

25 From You is My praise in the great assembly;
I pay My vows before those who fear Him.

26 The meek ones do eat and are satisfied;
Let those who seek Him praise יָהָי.
Let your heart live forever!

27 Let all the ends of the earth
Remember and turn to יָהָי,
And all clans of the nations
Bow themselves before You.

28 For the reign belongs to יָהָי,
And He is ruling over the nations.

29 All the fat ones of the earth
Shall eat and bow themselves;
All who go down to the dust bow before Him,
Even he who did not keep alive his own life.

30 A seed shall serve Him.
It is declared of יָהָי to the coming generation.

31 They shall come and declare His righteousness
To a people yet to be born,
For He shall do it!

23 יָהָי is my shepherd;
I do not lack.

2 He makes me to lie down in green pastures;
He leads me beside still waters.

3 He turns back my being;
He leads me in paths of righteousness
For His Name’s sake.

4 When I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I fear no evil.
For You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.

5 You spread before me a table in the face of my enemies;
You have anointed my head with oil;
My cup runs over.

6 Only goodness and kindness follow me
All the days of my life;
And I shall dwell in the House of יָהָי,
To the length of days!

24 The earth belongs to יָהָי,
And all that fills it —
The world and those who dwell in it.

2 For He has founded it upon the seas,
And upon the waters He does establish it.

3 Who does go up into the mountain of יָהָי?
And who does stand in His set-apart

f Or He converts.
4 He who has innocent hands and a clean heart, Who did not bring his life to naught, And did not swear deceivingly.
5 He receives a blessing from הוהי, And righteousness from the Elohim of his deliverance.
6 This is the generation of those who seek Him; Ya’aqob, who seek Your face. Selah.
7 Lift up your heads, O you gates! And be lifted up, you everlasting doors! And let the Sovereign of esteem come in.
8 Who is this Sovereign of esteem? הוהי strong and mighty, חזק mighty in battle.
9 Lift up your heads, O you gates! Even lift up, you everlasting doors! And let the Sovereign of esteem come in.
10 Who is this Sovereign of esteem? הוהי of hosts, He is the Sovereign of esteem! Selah.

25 To You, O הוהי, I lift up my being.
2 O my Elohim, in You I have put my trust; Let me not be ashamed; Let not my enemies exult over me.
3 Indeed, let no one who waits on You be ashamed; Let those who are treacherous without cause be ashamed.
4 Show me Your ways, O הוהי; Teach me Your paths.
5 Lead me in Your truth and teach me, For You are the Elohim of my deliverance; On You I wait all the day.
6 Remember, O הוהי, Your compassion and Your kindesses, For they are from everlasting.
7 Do not remember the sins of my youth, and my transgressions; According to Your kindness remember me, For Your goodness’ sake, O הוהי.
8 Good and straight is הוהי; Therefore He teaches sinners in the way.
9 He guides the meek ones in right-ruling, And He teaches the meek ones His way.
10 All the paths of הוהי are kindness and truth, To those who guard His covenant and His witnesses.
11 For Your Name’s sake, O הוהי, You shall pardon my crookedness, though it is great.
12 Who, then, is the man that fears הוהי? He teaches him in the way he should choose.
13 His life dwells in good, And his seed inherits the earth.
14 The secret of הוהי is with those who fear him, And He makes His covenant known to them.
15 My eyes are ever toward הוהי, For He brings my feet out of the net.
16 Turn Your face to me, and show me favour, For I am lonely and afflicted.
17 The distresses of my heart have enlarged; Oh, bring me out of my distresses!
18 Look on my affliction and my toil, And forgive all my sins.
19 See how many my enemies have become; And they hate me with a violent hatred.
20 Oh, guard my life, and deliver me; Let me not be ashamed, for I have taken refuge in You.
21 Let integrity and straightness guard me, For I have waited for You.
22 Redeem Yisra’el, O Elohim, Out of all his distresses!

26 Rule me rightly, O הוהי, For I have walked in my integrity.

g Runs parallel with/is synonymous with “guarding His commands/teachings” (see Shem. 20:20).
And I have trusted in יְהֹוָה, without wavering.

2 Examine me, O יְהֹוָה, and prove me; Try my kidneys and my heart.

3 For Your kindness is before my eyes, And I have walked in Your truth.

4 I have not sat with men of falsehood, Nor do I enter with pretenders.

5 I have hated the assembly of evil-doers, And I do not sit with the wrong.

6 I wash my hands in innocence; And I walk around Your altar, O יְהֹוָה,

7 To raise a voice of thanksgiving, And to declare all Your wonders.

8 יְהֹוָה, I have loved the abode of Your house, And the place where Your esteem dwells.

9 Do not gather my being together with sinners, Nor my life with bloodthirsty men,

10 In whose hands is a plot, And their right hand is filled with bribes.

11 But as for me, I walk in my integrity; Redeem me and show me favour.

12 My foot shall stand on a level place; In the assemblies I bless יְהֹוָה.

27 יְהֹוָה is my light and my deliverance; Whom should I fear? יְהֹוָה is the refuge of my life; Whom should I dread?

28 When evil-doers come against me To eat up my flesh, My adversaries and my enemies, They shall stumble and fall.

3 Though an army encamps against me, My heart does not fear; Though battle comes up against me, Even then I would be trusting.

4 One matter I asked of יְהֹוָה – this I seek: To dwell in the House of יְהֹוָה All the days of my life, To see the pleasantness of יְהֹוָה, And to inquire in His Hékal.

5 For in the day of evil He hides me in His booth;

In the covering of His Tent He hides me;
On a rock He raises me up.

6 And now my head is lifted up above my enemies all around me; And I offer in His Tent with shouts of joy;

I sing, yea, I sing praises to יְהֹוָה.

7 Hear, O יְהֹוָה, when I cry with my voice! And show me favour, and answer me.

8 To my heart You have said, “Seek My face.” Your face, יְהֹוָה, I seek.

9 Do not hide Your face from me; Do not turn Your servant away in displeasure; You have been my help; Do not leave me nor forsake me, O Elohim of my deliverance.

10 When my father and my mother have forsaken me, Then יְהֹוָה does take me in.

11 Teach me Your way, O יְהֹוָה, And lead me in a smooth path, because of my enemies.

12 Do not give me over To the desire of my adversaries; For false witnesses have risen against me, And they breathe out cruelty to me.

13 What if I had not believed To see the goodness of יְהֹוָה In the land of the living!

14 Wait on יְהֹוָה, be strong, And let Him strengthen your heart! Wait, I say, on יְהֹוָה!

I cry to You, O יְהֹוָה my Rock: Do not be deaf to me! For if You are silent to me, I shall be like those who go down to the pit.

2 Hear the voice of my prayers when I cry to You, When I lift up my hands Toward Your Set-apart Speaking Place.

3 Do not draw me away with the wrong And with the workers of wickedness, Who speak peace to their neighbours, But evil is in their hearts.
4 Give to them according to their deeds,
And according to the evil of their practices;
Give to them according to the work of their hands;
Bring back to them what they deserve.
5 Because they do not heed the works of יהוה,
Nor the works of His hands, He throws them down,
And does not build them up.
6 Blessed be יהוה, Because He has heard the voice of my prayers!
7 יהוה is my strength, and my shield;
My heart has trusted in Him, and I have been helped;
Therefore my heart exults,
And with my song I thank Him.
8 יהוה is the strength of His people,
And He is the stronghold of deliverance of His anointed.
9 Save Your people, and bless Your inheritance;
And be their Shepherd, and bear them up forever.

29 Ascribe to יהוה, O you sons of the mighty,
Ascribe to יהוה esteem and strength.
2 Ascribe to יהוה the esteem of His Name;
Bow yourselves to יהוה in the splendour of set-apartness.
3 The voice of יהוה is over the waters;
Thetraîn of esteem thunders;
יהוה is over many waters.
4 The voice of יהוה is with power,
The voice of יהוה is with greatness.
5 The voice of יהוה is breaking the cedars,
יהוה is breaking the cedars of Lebanon in pieces.
6 And He makes them skip like a calf,
Lebanon and Siryon like a young wild ox.
7 The voice of יהוה cuts through the flames of fire.
8 The voice of יהוה shakes the wilderness;
יהוה shakes the Wilderness of Qâdês.
9 The voice of יהוה makes the deer give birth,
And strips the forests bare;
And in His Hêḵal everyone says, “Esteem!”
10 יהוה sat enthroned at the Flood,
And יהוה sits as Sovereign forever.
11 יהוה gives strength to His people;
יהוה blesses His people with peace.

30 I exalt You, O יהוה, for You have drawn me up,
And have not let my enemies rejoice over me.
2 יהוה my Elohim, I have cried to You,
And You have healed me.
3 יהוה, You brought me up from the grave;
You have kept me alive, from going down into the pit.
4 Sing praise to יהוה,
You kind ones of His,
And give thanks at the remembrance of His Set-apartness.
5 For His displeasure is for a moment,
His delight is for life;
Weeping might last for the night,
But joy comes in the morning.
6 As for me, I have said in my ease, “Never would I be shaken!”
7 יהוה, in Your good pleasure
You have made my mountain to stand strong;
You hid Your face, and I was troubled.
8 I cried out to You, O יהוה;
And to יהוה I prayed:
9 “What gain is there in my blood,
When I go down to the pit?
Would dust praise You?
Would it declare Your truth?
10 “Hear, O יהוה, and show me favour; יהוה, be my helper!”
11 You have turned my mourning into dancing for me;
You have torn off my sackcloth and girded me with gladness,
12 So that esteem might praise You and not be silent.
O יהוה my Elohim, I thank You forever.
In You, O יְהֹוָה, I have taken refuge; Let me never be ashamed; Deliver me in Your righteousness.

Incline Your ear to me, Deliver me speedily; Be a rock of refuge to me, A house of defence to save me.

For You are my rock and my stronghold; For Your Name’s sake lead me and guide me.

Bring me out of the net which they have hidden for me, For You are my stronghold.

Into Your hand I commit my spirit; You have redeemed me, O יְהֹוָה, Ἠλ of truth.

I have hated those who observe lying vanities; But I trust in יְهֹוָה.

I exult and rejoice in Your kindness, For You have seen my affliction; You have known the distresses of my life,

And You have not shut me up into the hand of the enemy. You have set my feet in a large place.

Show me favour, O יְהֹוָה, for I am in distress; My eye, my being and my body have become old with grief!

For my life is consumed in sorrow, And my years in sighing; My strength fails because of my crookedness, And my bones have become old.

I am a reproach among all my adversaries, But most of all among my neighbours, And a dread to my friends; Those who see me outside flee from me.

I have been forgotten like someone dead from the heart; I have been like a missing vessel.

For I hear the evil report of many; Fear is from all around; When they take counsel together against me, They plot to take away my life.

But I, I have put my trust in You, O יְהֹוָה; I have said, “You are my Elohim.”

My times are in Your hand; Deliver me from the hand of my enemies, And from those who pursue me.

Make Your face shine upon Your servant; Save me in Your kindness.

Do not let me be ashamed, O יְהֹוָה, For I have called upon You; Let the wrong be ashamed; Let them be silenced in the grave.

Let lips of falsehood be stilled, Which speak recklessly against the righteous, With pride and scorn.

How great is Your goodness, Which You have laid up for those fearing You, Which You have prepared for those taking refuge in You In the sight of the sons of men!

In the secrecy of Your presence You shall hide them from the plots of man; You shelter them in a booth from the strife of tongues.

Blessed be יְהֹוָה, For He has made marvellous His kindness to me in a strong city!

And I, I have said in my haste, “I am cut off from before Your eyes,” Yet You heard the voice of my prayers When I cried out to You.

Love יְהֹוָה, all you His kind ones! For יְהֹוָה guards the trustworthy ones, And exceedingly repays the doer of pride.

Be strong, and let Him strengthen your heart, All you who are waiting for יְהֹוָה.

Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, Whose sin is covered.

Blessed is the man to whom יְהֹוָה imputes no crookedness, And in whose spirit there is no deceit.

When I kept silent, my bones became old.
old
Through my groaning all the day.
4 For day and night Your hand was heavy upon me;
My sap was turned into the droughts of summer. Selah.
5 I acknowledged my sin to You,
And my crookedness I did not hide.
I have said, “I confess my transgressions to ḤWHY,”
And You forgave the crookedness of my sin. Selah.
6 Therefore, let every kind one pray to
You
While You might be found;
Even in a flood of great waters
They would not reach him.
7 You are my hiding place;
You preserve me from distress;
You surround me with songs of deliverance. Selah.
8 “Let Me instruct you and teach you in the way you should go;
Let Me counsel, My eye be on you.
9 Do not be like the horse, like the mule,
With no understanding, with bit and bridle,
Else they do not come near you.”
10 Many are the sorrows of the wrong;
But as for the one trusting in ḤWHY,
Kindness surrounds him.
11 Be glad in ḤWHY and exult,
you righteous;
And shout for joy, all you upright in heart!

33 Shout for joy in ḤWHY, you
righteous!
Praise is fitting for the straight!
2 Praise ḤWHY with the lyre;
Sing to Him with an instrument of ten strings.
3 Sing to Him a new song;
Play sweetly with a shout of joy.
4 For the Word of ḤWHY is straight,
And all His works are in truth,
5 Loving righteousness and right-ruling;
The earth is filled with the kindness of ḤWHY.

6 By the Word of ḤWHY the heavens were made,
And all their host by the Spirit $^h$ of His mouth,
7 Gathering the waters of the sea
together as a heap;
Laying up the deep in storehouses.
8 Let all the earth fear ḤWHY;
Let all the inhabitants of the world
stand in awe of Him.
9 For He spoke, and it came to be;
He commanded, and it stood fast.
10 ḤWHY brings the counsel of the nations to naught;
He thwarts the plans of the peoples.
11 The counsel of ḤWHY stands forever,
The plans of His heart to all generations.
12 Blessed is the nation whose Elohim is ḤWHY,
The people whom He has chosen as
His own inheritance.
13 ḤWHY has looked from the heavens;
He has seen all the sons of men.
14 He looked from His dwelling place
On all the inhabitants of the earth –
15 He who fashions the hearts of them all,
He who understands all their works.
16 The sovereign is not saved by the multitude of an army;
A mighty man is not delivered by great strength.
17 A horse is a vain means of safety;
Neither does it rescue any by its great power.
18 See, the eye of ḤWHY is on those fearing Him,
On those waiting for His kindness,
19 To deliver their being from death,
And to keep them alive during scarcity of food.
20 Our being has longed for ḤWHY;
Our help and our shield is He.
21 For our heart does rejoice in Him,
For we have put our trust in His set-apart Name.
22 Let Your kindness, O ḤWHY, be upon us,
Even as we wait for You.

$h$ “The Word” and “the Spirit” are unanimous, with one accord.
I bless יהוה at all times; His praise is continually in my mouth.
My being makes its boast in יהוה; Let the humble hear and be glad.
Oh, make יהוה great with me, And let us exalt His Name together.
I sought יהוה, and He answered me, And delivered me from all my fears.
They looked to Him and were lightened, And their faces were not ashamed.
This poor one cried out and יהוה heard him, And saved him out of all his distresses.
The messenger of יהוה encamps all around those who fear Him, And rescues them.
Oh, taste and see that יהוה is good; Blessed is the man that takes refuge in Him!
Fear יהוה, you His set-apart ones, For there is no lack to them who fear Him!
Young lions have lacked and been hungry; But those who seek יהוה lack not any good matter.
Come, you children, listen to me; Let me teach you the fear of יהוה.
Who is the man who desires life, Who loves many days, in order to see good?
Keep your tongue from evil, And your lips from speaking deceit.
Turn away from evil and do good; Seek peace, and pursue it.
The eyes of יהוה are on the righteous, And His ears unto their cry.
The face of יהוה is against evil-doers, To cut off their remembrance from the earth.
The righteous cried out, and יהוה heard, And delivered them out of all their distresses.
 יהוה is near to the broken-hearted, And saves those whose spirit is crushed.
bereaving my life.

13 But I, when they were sick,
I put on sackcloth;
I humbled my being with fastings;
And my prayer would return to my own bosom.

14 I walked about as though he were my friend or brother;
I bowed down mourning, as one mourning for a mother.

15 But they rejoiced at my stumbling
And gathered together;
The smiters gathered against me,
And I did not know it;
They tore in pieces without ceasing,
16 With unclean ones, mockers at feasts,
Gnashing at me with their teeth.

17ַ Why, how long would You look on?
Rescue my being from their destructions,
My only life from the lions.

18 I give You thanks in the great assembly;
I praise You among a mighty people.

19 Let not my lying enemies rejoice over
me;
Or those who hate me without cause
wink their eyes.

20 For they do not speak peace,
But they devise words of deceit
Against the peaceable ones of the land.

21 And they open their mouth wide
against me,
They said, “Aha, aha! Our eyes have seen it.”

22 This You have seen, O יְהֹוָהּ;
Do not be silent.
O יְהֹוָהּ, do not be far from me.

23 Stir up Yourself and awake to my right-ruling –
To my cause, my Elohim and my Master.

24 Rule me rightly, O יְהֹוָהּ, my Elohim,
According to Your righteousness;
And let them not rejoice over me.

25 Let them not say in their hearts,
“Aha, our desire!”
Let them not say, “We have swallowed him up.”

26 Let those who are rejoicing at my evil
Be ashamed and abashed altogether;
Let those who are exalting themselves
over me
Be clad in shame and humiliation.

27 Let those who delight in my righteous cause
Shout for joy and be glad,
And let them always say,
“Let יְהֹוָהּ be made great,
Who is desiring the peace of His servant.”

28 And my tongue shall speak of
Your righteousness, Your praise,
All day long.

36 Transgression speaks to the wrong
within his heart;
Fear of Elohim is not before his eyes.

2 For he flatters himself in his own eyes,
To find his crookedness to be hated.

3 The words of his mouth are wickedness and deceit;
He has ceased to be wise, to do good.

4 He plots wickedness on his bed;
He sets himself in a way that is not good;
He does not despise evil.

5 O יְהֹוָהּ, Your kindness is in the heavens,
And Your trustworthiness reaches to the clouds.

6 Your righteousness is like the mighty mountains;
Your right-rulings are a great deep;
O יְהֹוָהּ, You save man and beast.

7 How precious is Your kindness,
O Elohim!
And the sons of men take refuge in the shadow of Your wings.

8 They are filled from the fatness of
Your house,
And You give them drink from the river of Your pleasures.

9 For with You is the fountain of life;
In Your light we see light.

10 Draw out Your kindness to those who know You,
And Your righteousness to the upright in heart.

11 Let not the foot of pride come against
me,
And the hand of the wrong drive me
12 There the workers of wickedness have fallen; They have been overthrown And have been unable to rise.

37 Do not fret because of evil-doers, Do not be envious of the workers of unrighteousness. For they soon wither like grass, And fade like green plants. Trust in יהוה, and do good; Dwell in the earth, and feed on steadfastness. And delight yourself in יהוה, And let Him give you the desires of your heart. Commit your way to יהוה, And trust in Him, and He does it. And He shall bring forth your righteousness as the light, And your right-ruling as midday. Rest in יהוה, and wait patiently for Him; Do not fret because of him who prospers in his way, Because of the man doing wicked devices. Abstain from displeasure, and forsake wrath; Do not fret, also to do evil. For evil-doers are cut off; But those who wait on יהוה, They shall inherit the earth. Yet a little while and the wrong is no more; And you shall look on his place, But it is not. But the meek ones shall inherit the earth, And delight themselves in plenty of peace. The wrong plots against the righteous, And gnashes his teeth at him. יהוה laughs at him, For He sees that his day is coming. The wrong have drawn the sword And have bent their bow, To cause the poor and needy to fall, To slay those who walk straightly. Their sword does enter into their own heart, And their bows are broken. Better is the little of the righteous one, Than the riches of many wrongdoers. For the arms of the wrongdoers are broken, But יהוה sustains the days of the perfect. יהוה knows the days of the perfect, And their inheritance is forever. They are not ashamed in a time of evil, And in the days of scarcity of food they are satisfied. But the wrongdoers shall perish; And the enemies of יהוה, Like the splendour of the meadows they vanish, Like smoke they vanish away. The wrongdoer is borrowing and does not repay, But the righteous one shows favour and gives. For His blessed ones inherit the earth, But those cursed by Him are cut off. The steps of a man are ordered by יהוה, And He delights in his way. Though he falls, he is not cast down, For יהוה is supporting his hand. I have been young, and now I am old; Yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken, Or his seed begging bread. All day long he is showing favour and lending; And his seed is for a blessing. Turn away from evil, and do good; And dwell forever. For יהוה loves right-ruling, And does not forsake His kind ones; They shall be guarded forever, But the seed of the wrongdoers is cut off. The righteous shall inherit the earth, And dwell in it forever. The mouth of the righteous speaks wisdom, And his tongue talks of right-ruling.

/ This truth, which is repeated in vv. 11, 22, 29 & 34, was again repeated by Messiah in Mt. 5:5
31 The Torah of his Elohim is in his heart;
His steps do not slide.
32 The wrong one is watching for the righteous,
And is seeking to slay him.
33 תֹּאֶר does not leave him in his hand,
Or let him be declared wrong when he is judged.
34 Wait on יהוה and guard His way,
And He shall exalt you to inherit the earth –
When the wrongdoers are cut off, you shall see it.
35 I have seen the wrongdoer in great power,
And spreading himself like a native green tree.
36 Yet he passed away, and see, he was not;
And I sought him, but he was not found.
37 Watch the perfect, and observe the straight;
For the latter end of each is peace.
38 But the transgressors shall be destroyed together;
The latter end of the wrong shall be cut off.
39 But the deliverance of the righteous is from יהוה,
Their strength in time of distress.
40 And יהוה does help them and deliver them;
He delivers them from the wrongdoers and saves them,
Because they took refuge in Him.

38 O יהוה, do not rebuke me in Your wrath,
Nor chastise me in Your hot displeasure!
2 For Your arrows have pierced me,
And Your hand comes down on me.
3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of Your rage,
Nor peace in my bones because of my sin.
4 For my crookednesses have passed over my head;

Like a heavy burden, too heavy for me.
5 My wounds have become stinky, festering
Because of my folly.
6 I have been bent down;
I have been bowed down very much;
All day long I have gone mourning.
7 For my loins have become filled with burning,
And there is no soundness in my flesh.
8 I have become weak and greatly crushed;
I howled from the groaning of my heart.
9 יהוה, all my desire is before You;
And my sighing has not been hid from You.
10 My heart is throbbing, my strength has forsaken me;
And the light of my eyes also is not with me.
11 My loved ones and my friends stand back from my plague,
And my neighbours stand far away.
12 And those seeking my life lay a snare;
And those seeking my evil have spoken of destruction,
And utter deceit all day long.
13 But I, as one deaf, do not hear;
And as a dumb one who does not open his mouth.
14 I am like a man who does not hear,
And who has no rebukes in his mouth.
15 For on You, O יהוה, I have waited;
You do answer, O יהוה my Elohim.
16 For I said, “Otherwise they would rejoice over me,
When my foot slips they would exalt themselves over me.”
17 For I am ready to fall,
And my pain is always with me.
18 For I confess my crookedness;
I am sorry over my sin.
19 But my enemies are alive;
They have become strong;
And those hating me falsely are many.
20 And those who repay evil for good,
They oppose me, because I follow what is good.

k Deḇ. 6:6, Teh. 40:8, Teh. 119:11, Yesh. 51:7.
21 Do not forsake me, O יהוה; O my Elohim, be not far from me!
22 Hasten to help me, O יהוה, my deliverance!

39 I have said, “Let me guard my ways Against sinning with my tongue; Let me guard my mouth with a muzzle, While the wrongdoer is before me.”
2 I became dumb, keeping still; I was silent, from good; And my pain was stirred.
3 My heart was hot within me; While I was meditating, the fire burned. Then I spoke with my tongue:
4 יהוה, let me know my end, And the measure of my days, what it is, Let me know how short-lived I am.
5 “See, You have made my days as handbreadths, And my lifetime is as non-existence before You; Only, all men standing, are all breath. Selah.
6 “As but a shadow each one walks; They busy themselves, only in vain; He heaps up wealth, But knows not who gathers them.
7 “And now, יהוה, what do I wait for? My expectancy is in You.
8 “Deliver me from all my transgressions; Do not make me the reproach of the foolish.
9 “I was dumb, I did not open my mouth, Because it was You who did it.
10 “Turn aside Your stroke from me; I am overcome by the blow of Your hand.
11 “When You chastise man for crookedness with reproofs, You consume what he loves, like a moth; All men are but a breath. Selah.
12 “Hear my prayer, O יהוה, And give ear to my cry; Do not be silent at my tears; For I am a stranger with You, A sojourner, as all my fathers were.

13 “Look away from me, That I might brighten up, Before I go away and am no more.”

40 I waited, waited for יהוה; And He inclined to me, and heard my cry.
2 And He drew me Out of the pit of destruction, Out of the muddy clay, And He set my feet upon a rock, He is establishing my steps.
3 Then He put a new song in my mouth; Praise to our Elohim; Many do see it and fear, And trust in יהוה.
4 Blessed is that man who has made יהוה his trust, And has not turned to the proud, And those turning aside to falsehood.
5 O יהוה my Elohim, many are the wonders Which You have done, and Your purposes toward us; There is no one to compare with You; I declare and speak: They are too many to be numbered.
6 Slaughtering 2 and meal offering You did not desire; You have opened my ears; Burnt offering and sin offering You did not ask for.
7 Then I said, “See, I have come; In the scroll of the Book it is prescribed for me.
8 I have delighted to do Your pleasure, O my Elohim, And Your Torah is within my heart.”
9 I have proclaimed the good news of righteousness, In the great assembly; See, I do not restrain my lips, O יהוה, You know.
10 I did not conceal Your righteousness within my heart; I have declared Your trustworthiness and Your deliverance; I did not hide Your kindness and Your truth.

From the great assembly.

11 Do not withhold Your compassion from me, O יהוה;
Let Your kindness and Your truth always watch over me.

12 For evils without number have surrounded me;
My crookednesses have overtaken me,
And I have been unable to see;
They became more than the hairs of my head;
And my heart has failed me.

13 Be pleased, O יהוה, to deliver me;
O יהוה, hasten to help me!

14 Let those who seek to destroy my life be ashamed and abashed altogether;
Let those who are desiring my evil be driven back and put to shame.

15 Let those who say to me, “Aha, aha!”
Be appalled at their own shame.

16 Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in You;
Let those who love Your deliverance always say, “יהוה be exalted!”

17 But I am poor and needy;
Let יהוה think upon me.
You are my help and my deliverer;
O my Elohim, do not delay!

41 Blessed is he who considers the poor;
יהוה does deliver him in a day of evil.

2יהוה does guard him and keep him alive;
He is blessed on the earth,
And You do not hand him over to the desire of his enemies.

3יהוה sustains him on his sickbed;
In his weakness on his bed You bring a change.

4 As for me, I said, “O יהוה, show me favour;
Heal me, for I have sinned against You.”

5 My enemies speak evil of me,
“When he dies his name shall perish.”

6 And when one comes to visit, he speaks falsely;
His heart gathers wickedness to itself;
He goes out, he speaks of it.

7 All who hate me whisper together against me;
They plot evil to me, saying, “A matter of Beliya’al is poured out on him,
That when he lies down, he would not rise again.”

8 Even my own friend in whom I trusted, who ate my bread,
Has lifted up his heel against me.

9 But You, יהוה, show me favour and raise me up,
And let me repay them.

10 By this I know that You did delight in me,
Because my enemy does not shout for joy over me.

11 And I, You uphold me in my integrity,
And set me before Your face forever.

12 Blessed be יהוה Elohim of Yisra’ãl From everlasting to everlasting!
Am֔ên and Am֔ên.

42 As a deer longs for the water streams,
So my being longs for You, O Elohim.

2 My being thirsts for Elohim, for the living Êl.
When shall I enter in to appear before Elohim?

3 My tears have been my food day and night,
While they say to me all day, “Where is your Elohim?”

4 These I remember, and pour out my being within me.
For I used to pass along with the throng;
I went with them to the House of Elohim,
With the voice of joy and praise, A multitude keeping a festival!

5 Why are you depressed, O my being? And why are you restless within me? Wait for Elohim: for I shall yet thank Him,
For the deliverance of His face!

6 O my Elohim, my being is depressed within me;
Therefore I remember You from the land of the Yardên,
And from the heights of Hermon,
From Mount Mits‘ar.
7 Deep calls to deep at the sound of Your waterfalls;
All Your waves and breakers passed
over me.
8 By day הוהי commands His kindness,
And by night His song is with me;
A prayer to the אל of my life.
9 I say to El my Rock, “Why have You forgotten me?
Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?”
10 My enemies have reproached me,
Like a crushing of my bones,
While they say to me all day long,
“Where is your Elohim?”
11 Why are you depressed, O my being?
And why are you restless within me?
Wait for Elohim: for I shall yet thank
Him, the deliverance of my face,
And my Elohim.

43 Rule me rightly, O Elohim,
And plead my cause
against a nation without kindness.
Oh, deliver me from a man of deceit and unrighteousness!
2 For You are the Elohim of my strength.
Why have You rejected me?
Why do I go mourning because of the
oppression of the enemy?
3 Send forth Your light and Your truth!
Let them lead me,
Let them bring me to Your set-apart mountain
And to Your dwelling places.
4 That I might come to the altar of
Elohim,
To El, the joy of my delight,
And praise You with the lyre,
O Elohim, my Elohim.
5 Why are you depressed, O my being?
And why are you restless within me?
Wait for Elohim: for I shall yet thank
Him, the deliverance of my face,
And my Elohim.

44 O Elohim, we have heard with our ears,
Our fathers have related to us,
The work You did in their days,
In the days of old.
2 You drove out the nations with Your hand,
But them You planted.
You afflicted peoples, and sent them
out.
3 For not by their own sword did they possess the land,
Neither did their own arm save them;
But it was Your right hand and Your arm,
And the light of Your face,
Because You delighted in them.
4 You Yourself are my Sovereign,
O Elohim;
Command deliverances for Ya‘aqob.
5 Through You we push our enemies;
Through Your Name we tread down
those who rise up against us.
6 For I do not trust in my bow,
And my sword does not save me.
7 For You have saved us from our enemies,
And have put to shame those who hated us.
8 In Elohim we shall boast all day long,
And praise Your Name forever. Selah.
9 Yet You have rejected us and put us to shame,
And You do not go with our armies.
10 You make us turn back from the adversary,
And those who hate us have plundered
us.
11 You do give us as sheep to be eaten,
And You have scattered us among the gentiles.
12 You sell Your people for no value,
And have set no high price on them.
13 You make us a reproach to our neighbours,
A scorn and a mockery to those round about us.
14 You make us a proverb among the nations,
A shaking of the head among the peoples.
15 My reproach is always before me,
And the shame of my face has covered
me,
16 Because of the voice of the slanderer and blasphemer,
    Because of the enemy and avenger.
17 All this has come upon us;
    But we have not forgotten You,
    Neither have we been false to Your covenant.
18 Our heart has not turned back,
    Neither has our step swerved from Your way,
19 Yet You have crushed us in the place of jackals,
    And covered us with the shadow of death.
20 If we have forgotten the Name of our Elohim,
    Or stretched out our hands to a foreign mighty one,
21 Would Elohim not search this out?
    For He knows the secrets of the heart.
22 But for Your sake we are killed all day long;
    Reckoned as sheep for the slaughter.
23 Awake! Why do You sleep, O HWHY?
    Arise! Do not reject us forever.
24 Why do You hide Your face,
    Ignoring our affliction and our oppression?
25 For our being is bowed down to the dust;
    Our body cleaves to the earth.
26 Arise, be our help,
    And redeem us for Your kindness’ sake.

45 My heart is overflowing with a goodly word;
    I address my works to the Sovereign;
    My tongue is the pen of a speedy writer.
2 You are more handsome than the sons of men;
    Favour has been poured upon Your lips;
    Therefore Elohim has blessed You forever.
3 Gird Your sword upon Your thigh,
    O Mighty One,
    Your excellency and Your splendour.
4 And ride prosperously in Your splendour,
    On the matter of truth and humility, righteousness;
    And let Your right hand lead You to awesome matters.
5 Your arrows are sharp
    In the heart of the Sovereign’s enemies –
    Peoples fall under You.
6 Your throne, O Elohim, is forever and ever;
    The sceptre of Your reign
    Is a sceptre of straightness.
7 You have loved righteousness and hated wrongness;
   Therefore Elohim, Your Elohim, has anointed You
    With the oil of gladness more than Your companions.
8 All Your garments are myrrh and aloes, cressia;
    Out of the palaces of ivory, stringed instruments have made You glad.
9 Daughters of sovereigns are among Your precious ones;
    At Your right hand stands the sovereignty in gold from Ophir.
10 Listen, O daughter, and see,
    And incline your ear,
    And forget your own people and your father’s house;
11 And let the Sovereign delight in your loveliness;
    Because He is your Master – bow yourself to Him.
12 And the daughter of Tsor with a gift,
    The rich among the people seek your favour.
13 The daughter of the Sovereign Is all esteemed within the palace;
    Her dress is embroidered with gold.
14 She is brought to the Sovereign in embroidered work;
    Maidens, her companions following

\[m\] This is quoted in Heb. 1:8-9 (יהיה witnessing of His Son), where the Greek text has lawlessness instead of wrongness.
Oh, clap your hands, all you peoples!
Shout to Elohim with a voice of singing!

For Most High is awesome;
A great Sovereign over all the earth.
He subdues peoples under us,
And nations under our feet.
He chooses our inheritance for us,
The excellence of Ya’aqob whom He loves. Selah.

Elohim shall go up with a shout, with the sound of a ram’s horn.
Sing praises to Elohim, sing praises!
Sing praises to our Sovereign, sing praises!

For Elohim is Sovereign of all the earth;
Sing praises with understanding.
Elohim shall reign over the nations;
Elohim shall sit on His set-apart throne.

Nobles of peoples shall be gathered together,
The people of the Elohim of Abraham.
For the shields of the earth belong to Elohim;
He shall be greatly exalted.

Great is Elohim, and greatly to be praised
In the city of our Elohim,
His set-apart mountain.
Pretty on high,
The joy of all the earth,
Is Mount Tsiyon on the sides of the north,
The city of the great Sovereign.
Elohim is in her citadels;
He is known as her refuge.
For look, the sovereigns met,
They passed by together.
They saw, so they marvelled;
They were alarmed, they hastened away.
Trembling took hold of them there,
Pain, as of a woman in labour,
With an east wind You break the ships of Tarshish.
As we have heard, so we have seen
In the city of hosts,
In the city of our Elohim,
Elohim establishes her forever.
Selah.

9 We have thought, O Elohim, of Your kindness,
In the midst of Your Hĕkal.
10 According to Your Name, O Elohim,
So is Your praise to the ends of the earth;
Your right hand is filled with righteousness.
11 Let Mount Tsiyon rejoice,
Let the daughters of YehuÅah exult,
Because of Your right-rulings.
12 Walk about Tsiyon,
And go all around her.
Count her towers;
13 Set your heart upon her rampart;
Go through her citadels;
So that you report it to the coming generation.
14 For this Elohim is our Elohim,
Forever and ever;
He Himself leads us,
Even to death.

49 Hear this, all you peoples;
Give ear, all you inhabitants of the world,
2 Both sons of mankind and sons of man, Rich and poor together.
3 My mouth speaks wisdom, And the meditation of my heart brings understanding.
4 I incline my ear to a parable; I expound my riddle on the lyre.
5 Why should I fear in the days of evil, When the crookedness of my supplanters surrounds me?
6 Those who are trusting in their riches And who are boasting in their great wealth?
7 A brother does not redeem anyone at all, Neither give to Elohim a ransom for him;
8 For the redemption of their lives is costly, And it shall cease forever;
9 That he should still live forever, And not see the Pit.

10 For he sees wise men die, The foolish and the ignorant both perish, And shall leave their wealth to others.
11 Their graves are their houses, forever; Their dwelling places, to all generations; They call their lands after their own names.
12 But man does not remain in esteem, He is like the beasts that perish.
13 This way of theirs is folly to them, Yet their followers are pleased with their words. Selah.
14 Like sheep they shall be laid in the grave; Death shall shepherd them; And the upright rule over them in the morning; And their form is consumed in the grave, Far from their dwelling.
15 But Elohim does redeem my being From the power of the grave, For He does receive me. Selah.
16 Do not be afraid when a man becomes rich, When the wealth of his house increases;
17 For when he dies he takes none of it; His wealth does not go down after him.
18 Though while he lived he blessed himself, And though they praise you when you do well for yourself, 19 He has to go to the generation of his fathers; They never see the light.
20 Man, who is rich, Yet does not understand, Shall be like the beasts, They shall perish.

50 Êl Elohim ḤWHY shall speak, And He shall call the earth From the rising of the sun to its going down.
2 From Tsiyon, the perfection of loveliness, Elohim shall shine forth.
3 Our Elohim comes, and is not silent –
A fire consumes before Him,
And it shall be very stormy all around Him.
4 He calls to the heavens from above,
And to the earth, to rightly rule His people:
5 “Gather My kind ones together to Me,
Those who have made a covenant with Me by slaughtering.”
6 Then the heavens declared His righteousness,
For Elohim Himself is Judge. Selah.
7 “Hear, O My people, and I speak,
O Yisra’ěl, and I witness against you:
I am Elohim, your Elohim!
8 “I do not reprove you for your slaughtering,
And your burnt offerings are continually before Me.
9 “I do not take a bull from your house,
Nor goats out of your pens.
10 “For every beast of the forest is Mine,
The cattle on a thousand hills.
11 “I know all the birds of the mountains,
And all moving in My field are Mine.
12 “If I were hungry,
I would not speak to you;
For the world is Mine,
and all that fills it.
13 “Do I eat the flesh of bulls,
Or drink the blood of goats?
14 “Offer thanksgiving to Elohim,
And pay your vows to the Most High.
15 “And call upon Me in the day of distress –
Let Me rescue you,
and you esteem Me.”
16 But to the wrong Elohim said,
“What right have you to recite My laws,
Or take My covenant in your mouth,
17 “While you hated instruction
And cast My Words behind you?
18 “When you saw a thief,
you were pleased with him,
And you take part with adulterers.
19 “You let your mouth loose to evil,
And your tongue frames deceit.
20 “You sit, speak against your brother;
You slander your own mother’s son.
21 “You have done this, and I kept silent;
You have thought that I was altogether like you –
I rebuke you, and set it in order before your eyes.
22 “Understand this please, you who forget Eloah,
Lest I tear you in pieces,
With no one to deliver:
23 “Whoever offers praise esteems Me;
And to him who prepares a way,
I show the deliverance of Elohim.”

51 Show me favour, O Elohim,
According to Your kindness;
According to the greatness of Your compassion,
Blot out my transgressions.
2 Wash me completely from my guilt,
And cleanse me from my sin.
3 For I know my transgressions,
And my sin is ever before me.
4 Against You, You alone, have I sinned,
And done evil in Your eyes;
That You might be proven right in Your words;
Be clear when You judge.
5 See, I was brought forth in crookedness,
And in sin my mother conceived me.
6 See, You have desired truth in the inward parts,
And in the hidden part You make me know wisdom.
7 Cleanse me with hyssop, and I am clean;
Wash me, and I am whiter than snow.
8 Let me hear joy and gladness,
Let the bones You have crushed rejoice.
9 Hide Your face from my sins,
And blot out all my crookednesses.
10 Create in me a clean heart, O Elohim,
And renew a steadfast spirit within me.
11 Do not cast me away from Your presence,
And do not take Your Set-apart Spirit from me.
12 Restore to me the joy of Your deliverance,
And uphold me, Noble Spirit!
13 Let me teach transgressors Your ways,
So that sinners turn back to You.
14 Deliver me from blood-guilt,
   O Elohim,
   Elohim of my deliverance,
Let my tongue sing aloud of Your righteousness.
15 O Él, open my lips,
And that my mouth declare Your praise.
16 For You do not desire slaughtering, or I would give it;
   You do not delight in burnt offering.
17 The slaughtering of Elohim are a broken spirit,
   A heart broken and crushed,
   O Elohim,
   These You do not despise.
18 Do good in Your good pleasure to Tsiyon;
   Build the walls of Yerushalayim.
19 Then You would delight in slaughtering of righteousness,
   In burnt offering and complete burnt offering;
   Then young bulls would be offered on Your altar.

52 Why do you boast in evil, O mighty man?
The kindness of Él is all day long!
2 Your tongue devises destruction,
   Like a sharp razor, working deceit.
3 You loved evil more than good,
   Lying more than speaking righteousness. Selah.
4 You loved all devouring words,
   O tongue of deceit.
5 Let Él also break you down forever,
   Take you and pluck you out of your tent.
   And He shall uproot you
From the land of the living. Selah.
6 And let the righteous see and fear,
   And laugh at him, saying,
“See the man who did not make Elohim his strength,
   But trusted in his many riches,
   Being strong in his destruction.”
8 But I am like a green olive tree
In the House of Elohim,
I have trusted in the kindness of Elohim
Forever and ever.
9 I thank You forever,
Because You have done it;
And in the presence of Your kind ones I wait on Your Name, for it is good.

53 The fool has said in his heart,
   “There is no Elohim.”
   They have done corruptly,
And they have done abominable unrighteousness;
No one does good.
2 Elohim looked down from the heavens on the children of men,
   To see if there is a wise one, seeking Elohim.
3 They have all turned aside;
   They have together become filthy;
   No one is doing good, not even one.
4 Have the workers of wickedness no knowledge,
   Who eat up my people as they eat bread,
   And do not call on Elohim?
5 There they are in great fear,
   Where no fear was,
   For Elohim shall scatter the bones of him who encamps against you.
   You shall put them to shame,
   For Elohim has rejected them.
6 O that the deliverance of Yisra’ēl
   Would be given out of Tsiyon!
   When Elohim turns back the captivity of His people,
   Let Ya’aqoḇ rejoice, let Yisra’ēl be glad.

54 O Elohim, save me by Your Name,
   And rightly rule me by Your might.
2 Hear my prayer, O Elohim;
   Give ear to the words of my mouth.
3 For strangers have risen up against me,
   And cruel men have sought after my life;
   They have not set Elohim before them.
Selah.
4 See, Elohim is my helper;
   “I will not be moved” is with those who sustain my life.
5 He repays evil to my enemies.
   Cut them off in Your truth.
6 Voluntarily I slaughter to You;
I praise Your Name, O יהוה, for it is good.
7 For He has delivered me out of all
distress;
And my eye has looked upon my enemies.

55 Give ear to my prayer, O Elohim,
And do not hide Yourself from my plea.
2 Give heed to me, and answer me;
I wander and moan in my complaint,
3 Because of the noise of the enemy,
Because of the outcry of the wrong;
For they bring down wickedness upon me,
And in wrath they hate me.
4 My heart is pained within me,
And the frights of death have fallen upon me,
5 Fear and trembling have come upon me,
And shuddering covers me.
6 And I said, “Who would give me wings like a dove!
I would fly away and be at rest.
7 “See, I would wander far off,
I would lodge in the wilderness. Selah.
8 “I would hasten my escape
From the raging wind and storm.”
9 Confuse, O יהוה, divide their tongues,
For I saw violence and strife in the city.
10 Day and night they go around it on its walls;
Wickedness and trouble are also in the midst of it.
11 Covetings are in its midst;
Oppression and deceit do not vanish from its streets.
12 It is not an enemy who reproaches me –
That I could bear;
Nor one who hates me who is making himself great against me –
Then I could hide from him.
13 But it was you, a man my equal,
My companion and my friend.
14 We took sweet counsel together,
We walked to the House of Elohim in the throng.

15 Let death come upon them;
Let them go down into the grave alive,
For evil is in their dwellings, in their midst.
16 I, I call upon Elohim,
And יהוה saves me.
17 Evening and morning and at noon
I complain and moan,
And He hears my voice.
18 He has redeemed my life in peace
From the battle against me,
For there were many against me.
19 El, even He who sits enthroned from of old,
Does hear and afflict them – Selah –
Those with whom there are no changes,
Those who do not fear Elohim.
20 He has put forth his hands against those Who were at peace with him;
He has broken his covenant.
21 His mouth was smoother than curds,
Yet in his heart is fighting;
His words were softer than oil,
But they are drawn swords.
22 Cast your burden on יהוה,
And let Him sustain you;
He never allows the righteous to be shaken.
23 For You, O Elohim, do bring them down
To the pit of destruction;
Men of blood and deceit do not reach half their days;
But I, I trust in You.

56 Show me favour, O Elohim,
For man would swallow me up;
Fighting all day long, he oppresses me.
2 My enemies would swallow me up all day long,
For many are fighting against me,
O Most High.
3 In the day I am afraid, I trust in You.
4 In Elohim, whose Word I praise,
In Elohim I have trusted;
I do not fear;
What could flesh do to me?
5 All day long they twist my words;
All their thoughts are against me for
They stir up strife, they hide,
They watch my steps,
As they lie in wait for my life.
Because of wickedness, cast them out.
Put down the peoples in displeasure,
O Elohim!
You have counted my wanderings;
You put my tears into Your bottle;
Are they not in Your book?
My enemies turn back in the day I call;
This I know, because Elohim is for me.
In Elohim, whose Word I praise,
In יְהוָה, whose Word I praise,
In Elohim I have trusted;
I do not fear;
What could man do to me?
On me, O Elohim, are Your vows;
I render praises to You,
For You have delivered my life from death,
My feet from stumbling,
That I might walk before Elohim,
In the light of the living!
Show me favour, O Elohim, show me favour!
For in You my being is taking refuge;
And in the shadow of Your wings
I take refuge,
Until destruction passes by.
I cry out to the Most High Elohim,
To Él who is perfecting all matters for me.
He sends from the heavens and saves me;
He reproaches the one who would swallow me up. Selah.
Elohim sends forth His kindness and His truth.
My being is in the midst of lions;
I lie among those who breathe fire,
Whose teeth are spears and arrows,
And their tongue is a sharp sword.
Be exalted, O Elohim, above the heavens;
Let Your esteem be above all the earth.
They have prepared a net for my footsteps;
My being was bowed down;
They have dug a pit before me;
They fell into the midst of it! Selah.
My heart is firm, O Elohim,
My heart is firm;
I sing and praise.
Awake, my esteem!
Awake, harp and lyre!
I awake the dawn.
I praise You among the peoples,
O יְהוָה;
I sing to You among the nations.
For Your kindness is great up to the heavens,
And Your truth unto the clouds.
Be exalted above the heavens,
O Elohim;
Let Your esteem be above all the earth.
Would you indeed speak righteousness, in silence?
Do you judge straightly, you sons of men?
No, in heart you work unrighteousness;
On earth you weigh out the violence of your hands.
The wrong have been estranged from the womb;
These who speak lies go astray from birth.
Their poison is like the poison of a snake;
Like a deaf cobra that stops its ear,
So as not to hear the voice of whisperers,
Or a skilled caster of spells.
O Elohim, break their teeth in their mouth!
Break out the fangs of the young lions, O יְהוָה!
Let them melt, let them vanish as water;
Let Him aim His arrows that they be cut down;
Like a snail which melts away as it moves,
Like a woman’s stillbirth,
Let them not see the sun!
Before your pots feel the thorns, Whether green or ablaze,
He sweeps them away.
The righteous rejoices when he has seen the vengeance,
He washes his feet in the blood of the wrong,

And man says,

"Truly, the righteous are rewarded;
Truly, there is an Elohim judging in the earth."

59 Deliver me from my enemies,
O my Elohim;
Set me on high from those who rise up against me.

Deliver me from the workers of wickedness,
And save me from men of blood.

For look, they have lain in wait for my life;
Mighty men assemble against me,
For no transgression or sin of mine,
O Elohim of hosts,
O Elohim of Yisra’el,
Awake to punish all the gentiles;
Show no favour to any wicked traitors.

Selah.

60 O Elohim, You have rejected us;
You have broken us;
You have been displeased;
Turn back to us!

You have made the earth tremble;
You have broken it;
Heal its breaches, for it is shaken.

You have let Your people see hardship;
You have made us drink the wine of trembling.

You have given a banner to those who fear You,
That it might be lifted up
Because of the truth. Selah.

That those You love might be rescued,
Save with Your right hand and answer me.

Elohim has spoken in His set-apart-ness,
“I exult, I portion out Shekem
And measure out the Valley of Sukkoth.

“Gil’ad is Mine and Menashsheh is Mine,
And Ephrayim is the defence of My head,
YehuÅah is My lawgiver.

“Mo’ah is My wash-pot,
Over EÅom I cast My shoe,
Shout loud, O Philistia,
because of Me.”

Who would bring me to the strong
city?
Who shall lead me to Edom?

10 Have not You, O Elohim, rejected us?
And You do not go out, O Elohim,
With our armies!
11 Give us help from distress,
For the help of man is naught.
12 In Elohim we do mightily,
And He treads down our adversaries!

61 Hear my cry, O Elohim,
Listen to my prayer.

1 From the end of the earth I call unto You,
When my heart is faint;
Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.
2 For You have been my refuge,
A strong tower in the face of the enemy.
3 Let me dwell in Your Tent forever,
Let me take refuge in the shelter of Your wings. Selah.
4 For You, O Elohim, have heard my vows;
You have given me the inheritance of those who fear Your Name.
5 You add days to the days of the sovereign,
His years as many generations.
6 Let him dwell forever before Elohim.
Prepare kindness and truth to preserve him!
7 So I sing praise to Your Name forever,
When I pay my vows day by day.

62 My being finds rest in Elohim alone;
From Him is my deliverance.
2 He alone is my rock and my deliverance, my strong tower;
I am not greatly shaken.
3 How long would you assail a man?
You crush him, all of you,
Like a leaning wall, a tottering fence.
4 They plotted to topple him from his high position;
They delight in lies;
They bless with their mouth,
But in their heart they curse. Selah.
5 My being, find rest in Elohim alone,
Because my expectation is from Him.
6 He alone is my rock and my deliverance, my strong tower;
I am not shaken.
7 My deliverance and my esteem depend on Elohim;
The rock of my strength, my refuge is in Elohim.
8 Trust in Him at all times, you people;
Pour out your heart before Him;
Elohim is a refuge for us. Selah.
9 Sons of Adam are but a breath,
Sons of men are a lie;
If weighed in the scales,
They are altogether lighter than breath.
10 Do not trust in oppression.
And do not become vain in robbery;
If riches increase,
Do not set your heart on them.
11 Elohim has spoken once,
Twice I have heard this:
That strength belongs to Elohim.
12 And kindness is Yours, O יהוה;
For You reward each one according to his work.

63 O Elohim, You are my אל;
I earnestly seek You;
My being has thirsted for You;
My flesh has longed for You
In a dry and thirsty land without water.
2 Therefore I have had a vision of You
In the set-apart place,
To see Your power and Your esteem.
3 Because Your kindness is better than life,
My lips do praise You.
4 Therefore I bless You while I live;
In Your Name I lift up my hands.
5 My being is satisfied as with marrow and fat,
And my mouth praises You with singing lips.
6 When I remember You on my bed,
I meditate on You in the night watches.
7 For You have been my help,
And in the shadow of Your wings I sing.
8 My being has closely followed You;
Your right hand did uphold me.
9 But those who seek to destroy my life,
Go into the lower parts of the earth.
They are handed over
To the power of the sword;
They become a portion for jackals.
But let the sovereign rejoice in Elohim;
Let everyone who swears by Him
exult;
For the mouth of those speaking lies are stopped.

Hear my voice, O Elohim,
in my meditation;
Guard my life from the threats of the enemy.

Hide me from the secret plans of the evil-doers,
From the tumult of the workers of
wickedness,

Who sharpen their tongue like a sword,
And aim their arrows, a bitter word,
To shoot in ambush at someone blameless,
They shoot at him suddenly and do not fear.

They arm themselves with an evil
word;
They talk of hiding snares;
They have said, “Who sees them?”

They search out unrighteousnesses, “We have perfected a well searched out plan.”
For the inward part of man, and heart, are deep.

But Elohim does shoot at them with an arrow;
Their wounds shall be sudden.

And they cause one to stumble,
Their own tongue is against them;
All who see them flee away.
And all men fear,
And declare the work of Elohim.
And they shall wisely consider
What He has done.

The righteous rejoice in יִהְיֶה,
And shall take refuge in Him,
And all the upright in heart praise Him.

To You, stillness, praise,
in Tsiyon, O Elohim;
And to You a vow is paid.
To You who hears all prayer,
Through the greatness of Your power
Your enemies pretend obedience to You.

4“All the earth bow to You,
They sing praises to You,
They praise Your Name.” Selah.

5Come and see the works of Elohim,
Awesome acts toward the sons of men.

6He has turned the sea into dry land,
They went through the river on foot.
There we rejoiced in Him,

7Who rules by His power forever;
His eyes keeping watch on the gentiles;
Let the rebellious not exalt themselves.
Selah.

8Bless our Elohim, you peoples!
And sound His praise abroad,

9Who keeps us in life,
And does not allow our feet to be moved.

10For You, O Elohim, have proved us;
You have refined us as silver is refined.

11You brought us into the net;
You laid affliction on our loins.

12You have let men ride at our head;
We went through fire and through water;
But You brought us out to plenty.

13I enter Your house with burnt offerings;
I complete my vows to You,

14That which my lips have uttered
And my mouth spoke in my distress.

15Burnt offerings of fatlings I offer to You,
With the incense of rams;
I offer bulls with goats. Selah.

16Come, hear, all you who fear Elohim,
And I relate what He has done for my being.

17I called to Him with my mouth,
And praise was in my tongue.

18If I have seen wickedness in my heart,
Elohim would not hear.

19Truly, Elohim has heard me;
He has given heed to the voice of my prayer.

20Blessed be Elohim,
Who has not turned away my prayer,
Nor His kindness from me!

67 Elohim does favour us and bless us,
Cause His face to shine upon us.
Selah.

2For Your way to be known on earth,
Your deliverance among all nations.

3Let the peoples praise You, O Elohim,
Let all the peoples praise You.

4Let the nations be glad and sing for joy!
For You judge the peoples uprightly,
And lead the nations on earth. Selah.

5Let the peoples praise You, O Elohim;
Let all the peoples praise You.

6The earth shall give her increase;
Elohim, our own Elohim, blesses us!

7Elohim blesses us!
And all the ends of the earth fear Him!

68 Elohim arises,
His enemies are scattered.
And those who hate Him flee before Him!

2As smoke is driven away,
You drive them away;
As wax melts before the fire,
The wrong perish before Elohim.

3But the righteous are glad,
They exult before Elohim.
And they rejoice with gladness.

4Sing to Elohim, sing praises to His Name.
Raise up a highway for Him
Who rides through the deserts,
By His Name Yah,
And exult before Him.

5Father of the fatherless,
And Right-ruler of widows,
Is Elohim in His set-apart dwelling.

6Elohim makes a home for the lonely;
He brings out into prosperity
Those who are bound with chains;
Only the rebellious shall dwell in a dry land.

7O Elohim, when You went out before Your people,
When You stepped through the wilderness, Selah.

8The earth shook and the heavens dropped before Elohim,
This Sinai, shook before Elohim, the Elohim of Yisra’el.
9 You, O Elohim, sent a shower of plenty,
You confirmed Your inheritance,
When it was weary.
10 Your flock dwelt in it;
You provided from Your goodness for the poor, O Elohim.
11 gave the word;
The women who proclaimed it was a great company:
12 "Sovereigns of armies flee in haste!
And she who remains at home divides the spoil."
13 If you lie down among the sheepfolds,
The wings of a dove are covered with silver,
And her feathers with yellow gold.
14 When the Almighty scattered sovereigns in it,
It did snow in Tsalon.
15 A mountain of Elohim is the mountain of Bashan;
A mountain of peaks is the mountain of Bashan.
16 O mountain of peaks, why do you gaze in envy
At the mountain which Elohim desired to dwell in;
even dwells there forever.
17 The chariots of Elohim are twenty thousand,
Thousands of thousands;
came from Sinai
Into the Set-apart Place.
18 You have ascended on high,
You have led captivity captive,
You have received gifts among men, And even the rebellious,
That Yah Elohim might dwell there.
19 Blessed be
, Day by day He bears our burden,
The Él of our deliverance! Selah.
20 Our Él is the Él of deliverance;
And to , the Master, belong escapes from death.
21 Indeed, Elohim smites the head of His enemies,
The hairy scalp of him who walks about in His guilt.
22 said, "I bring back from Bashan,
I bring back from the depths of the sea,
23 "So that you plunge your foot in blood;
That the tongues of your dogs Have their portion from the enemies."
24 They have seen Your goings,
O Elohim,
The goings of my Él, my Sovereign, Into the set-apart place.
25 The singers went in front,
The players on instruments after them; Among them were the maidens playing tambourines.
26 Bless Elohim in the assemblies, from the fountain of Yisra'ēl.
27 There is Binyamin, the smallest, their ruler,
The leaders of Yehudah, their company,
The leader of Zebûlun, the leader of Naḥalēti.
28 Your Elohim has commanded your strength, be strong!
O Elohim, this You have worked out for us!
29 Because of Your Hēkal at Yerushalayim,
Sovereigns bring presents to You.
30 Rebuke the wild beasts of the reeds,
The herd of bulls, with the calves of the peoples,
Each one humbling himself with pieces of silver.
Scatter the peoples who delight in conflicts!
31 Ambassadors come out of Mitsrayim;
Kush stretches out her hands to Elohim.
32 Sing to Elohim, you reigns of the earth,
Praises to , Selah.
33 To Him who rides on the ancient highest heavens!
See, He sends out His voice, a mighty voice.
34 Ascribe strength to Elohim;
His excellence is over Yisra'ēl,
And His strength is in the clouds.
35 O Elohim, awesome from Your set-apart places,
The Él of Yisra'ēl is He
Who gives strength and power to His people.
Blessed be Elohim!
Save me, O Elohim!
For waters have come up to my neck.
1 I have sunk in deep mud,
And there is no place to stand;
I have come into deep waters,
And the floods overflow me.
2 I am worn out from my crying;
My throat is dry;
My eyes grow dim
As I wait for my Elohim.
3 Those who hate me without a cause
Are more than the hairs of my head;
They are mighty who would destroy me,
My lying enemies;
What I did not steal, I restored.
4 O Elohim, You Yourself know my foolishness;
And my guilt has not been hidden from You.
5 Let not those who wait for You,
O Master of hosts,
Be ashamed because of me;
Let not those who seek You
Be humbled because of me,
O Elohim of Yisra’ël.
6 Because I have borne reproach for Your sake;
Shame has covered my face.
7 I have become a stranger to my brothers,
And a foreigner to my mother’s children;
Because ardour for Your house has eaten me up,
And the reproaches of those who reproach You have fallen on me.
8 And I wept in my being with fasting,
And it became my reproach.
9 And when I put on sackcloth,
I became a proverb to them.
10 They who sit in the gate talk about me,
And I am the song of the drunkards.
11 But as for me, my prayer is to You,
O Elohim,
At an acceptable time, O Elohim.
12 Rescue me out of the mire,
And let me not sink.
13 Let me be rescued from those who hate me,
And out of the deep waters.
14 Let not a flood of waters overflow me,
Nor let the deep swallow me up,
Nor let the pit shut its mouth on me.
15 Answer me, O Elohim, for Your kindness is good.
According to the greatness of Your compassion, turn to me.
16 And do not hide Your face from Your servant,
For I am in distress;
Answer me speedily.
17 Draw near to my being, redeem it;
Ransom me because of my enemies.
18 You Yourself know my reproach,
And my shame and my confusion;
My adversaries are all before You.
19 Reproach has broken my heart and I am sick;
I looked for sympathy, but there was none;
And for comforters, but I found none.
20 And they gave me gall for my food,
And for my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.
21 Let their table before them become a snare,
And a trap to those at ease.
22 Let their eyes be darkened, so as not to see;
And make their loins shake continually.
23 Pour out Your wrath upon them,
And let Your burning displeasure overtake them.
24 Let their encampments be deserted;
Let no one dwell in their tents.
25 For they persecute him whom You have smitten,
And talk about the pain of those You have wounded.
26 Add crookedness to their crookedness,
And let them not enter into Your righteousness.
27 Let them be blotted out of the book of the living,
And not be written with the righteous.
28 But I am poor and in pain;
Let Your deliverance, O Elohim, set me up on high.
I praise the Name of Elohim with a song,
And I make Him great with thanksgiving.
And this pleases more than an ox,
A bull with horns and hooves.
The humble shall see, they rejoice,
You who seek Elohim, and your hearts live.
For hears the poor,
And He shall not despise His captives.
Let the heavens and earth praise Him,
The seas and all that moves in them.
For Elohim shall save Tsiyon
And build the cities of YehuÅah.
And they shall dwell there and possess it,
And the seed of His servants inherit it,
And those who love His Name dwell in it.

O Elohim, deliver me!
Hasten to my help, O !
Let those who seek my life be ashamed and abashed,
Let those who are desiring my evil be turned back and humiliated.
Let those who say, “Aha, aha!” be turned back because of their shame.
Let all those who seek You rejoice and be glad in You;
And let those who love Your deliverance always say,
“Let Elohim be made great!”
But I am poor and needy;
Hasten to me, O Elohim!
You are my help and my deliverer;
O , do not delay.

In You, O , I have taken refuge;
Let me never be ashamed.
In Your righteousness deliver and rescue me;
Incline Your ear to me, and save me.
Be to me a rock to dwell in,
To go into continually.

You have given the command to save me,
For You are my rock and my stronghold.
Rescue me, O my Elohim,
Out of the hand of the wrong,
Out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel.
For You are my expectation,
Master , my Trust from my youth.
Upon You I have leaned from my birth;
You took me out of my mother’s womb.
My praise is continually of You.
I have become as a wonder to many,
But You are my strong refuge.
My mouth is filled with Your praise,
Your splendour, all the day.
Do not cast me off in the time of old age,
When my strength fails, do not forsake me.
For my enemies have spoken against me.
And those who watch for my life have taken counsel together,
Saying, “Elohim has forsaken him;
Pursue and take him, for there is no one to deliver.”
O Elohim, do not be far from me;
My Elohim, hasten to my help!
Let those who are adversaries of my life be ashamed, consumed,
Let those who seek my evil be covered with reproach and confusion.
But I continually wait,
And shall praise You more and more.
My mouth recounts Your righteousness,
Your deliverance all the day,
Though I do not know their numbers.
I come in the might of the Master ;
I make mention of Your righteousness, Yours alone.
Elohim, You have taught me from my youth;
And to this day I declare Your wonders.

18 And also when I am old and grey,
O Elohim, do not forsake me,
Until I declare Your strength to a generation,
Your might to all those who are to come.
19 For Your righteousness, O Elohim, is most high,
You who have done great deeds.
O Elohim, who is like You?
20 You who have shown me great and evil distresses,
Revive me again and bring me up again
From the depths of the earth.
21 You increase my greatness,
And comfort me on every side.
22 Also with the lyre I praise You
For Your trustworthiness, O my Elohim!
I sing to You with the lyre,
O Set-apart One of Yisra’ël.
23 My lips shout for joy when I sing to You,
Even my being, which You have redeemed.
24 My tongue, too, utters Your righteousness all day long;
For those who have been seeking my evil
Have been put to shame,
Have become abashed.

72 O Elohim, give the sovereign Your right-rulings,
And Your righteousness to the Son of a sovereign.
2 Let Him rule Your people with righteousness,
And Your poor with right-ruling.
3 Let the mountains bring peace to the people,
And the hills, by righteousness.
4 Let Him rightly rule the poor of the people,
Save the children of the needy,
And crush the oppressor.
5 Let them fear You with the sun, shining
And before the moon, in all generations.
6 Let Him come down like rain upon the mown grass,
Like showers, watering the earth.
7 Let the righteous flourish in His days,
With plenty of peace,
Till the moon is no more.
8 And let Him rule from sea to sea,
And from the River to the ends of the earth.
9 Let those dwelling in the desert bow before Him,
And His enemies lick the dust.
10 Let the sovereigns of Tarshish and of the isles bring presents;
The sovereigns of Sheḇa and Seḇa offer gifts.
11 And let all sovereigns bow down before Him,
All nations serve Him.
12 For He delivers the needy when he cries,
And the poor, who has no helper.
13 He spares the poor and needy,
And He saves the lives of the needy.
14 He redeems their life from oppression and from violence;
And their blood is precious in His eyes.
15 And He shall live,
And the gold of Sheḇa be given to Him,
And prayer be made for Him continually;
Let Him be blessed all day long.
16 Let there be plenty of grain in the earth,
On the top of the mountains,
Let its fruit wave like Leबanon,
And those of the city flourish like grass of the earth.
17 Let His Name be forever,
His Name continue before the sun;
And let them bless themselves in Him;
Let all nations call Him blessed.
18 Blessed be Elohim,
Elohim of Yisra’ël,
He alone is doing wonders!
19 And blessed be His esteemed Name forever!
And let all the earth
Be filled with His esteem.
Amén and Amén.
20 The prayers of Dawiḏ the son of Yishai are ended.
Elohim is truly good to Yisra'ĕl,
To those whose heart is clean.
2But as for me, my feet had almost stumbled,
My steps had nearly slipped.
3For I was envious of the boasters,
When I saw the peace of the wrong-doers.
4For death has no pangs for them,
And their strength is firm.
5They are not in trouble as other men,
And they are not plagued like other men.
6So pride is their necklace,
The garment of violence covers them.
7Their eyes bulge from fatness;
Their heart overflows with imaginations.
8They mock and speak in the evil of oppression;
They speak loftily.
9They have set their mouth against the heavens,
And their tongue walks through the earth, saying:
10“Therefore His people return here,
And waters of a filled cup are drained by them!”
11And they have said, “How could Ŵâl know?
And is there knowledge in the Most High?”
12See, these are the wrong,
And always at ease,
They have amassed wealth!
13Indeed, in vain have I cleansed my heart,
And washed my hands in innocence.
14For I am plagued all day long,
And my reproof is every morning.
15If I had said, “Let me speak thus,”
See, I would have deceived
A generation of Your children.
16Yet, when I tried to understand this,
It was labour to my eyes –
17Until I went into the set-apart place of Ŵâl;
Then I perceived their end.
18Indeed, You set them in slippery places;
You make them fall to ruins.
19How suddenly they are ruined!
Completely swept away through destructions.
20When You awake You despise their image,
As one does a dream after waking.
21For my heart was in a ferment,
And I was pierced in my kidneys.
22I was stupid and ignorant,
I was like a beast toward You.
23Yet I am always with You,
You took hold of my right hand.
24You lead me by Your counsel,
And afterward receive me unto esteem.
25Whom do I have in the heavens?
And I have desired no one besides You on earth.
26My flesh and my heart shall waste away,
But Elohim is the rock of my heart
And my portion forever.
27For look, those who are far from You perish;
You shall cut off all those Who go whoring away from You.
28But as for me, it is good to be near Elohim.
I have made my refuge in the Master Hôwhâ,
To declare all Your works.

O Elohim, why do You forever reject us?
Why does Your displeasure smoke Against the sheep of Your pasture?
2Remember Your congregation.
You did purchase of old,
The tribe of Your inheritance.
You did redeem,
This Mount Tsiyon where You have dwelt.
3Lift up Your steps to the endless ruins;
The enemy has done all evil in the set-apart place.
4Your adversaries have roared In the midst of Your meeting places;
They have set up their own signs as signs.

5 It seems as if one had lifted up
Axes among the thick trees.
6 And now all its carved work,
They have broken down with axe and hammer.
7 They have set fire to Your set-apart place,
They have profaned the dwelling place of Your Name to the ground.
8 They said in their hearts, “Let us suppress them altogether.”
They burned all the meeting places of El in the land.
9 We do not see our signs,
There is no longer a prophet,
Nor any among us who knows how long.
10 O Elohim, how long would the adversary reproach?
Would the enemy despise Your Name forever?
11 Why do You hold back Your hand, even Your right hand?
From the midst of Your bosom – end
it!
12 For Elohim is my Sovereign from of
old,
Working deliverance in the midst of
the earth.
13 You divided the sea by Your might;
You broke the heads of the sea serpents in the waters.
14 You broke the heads of Liwiathan in pieces,
You made him food for the people
Living in the wilderness.
15 You did cleave open the fountain and the flood,
You did dry up mighty rivers.
16 The day is Yours, the night is Yours too,
You have established the light and the sun.
17 You have set all the borders of the earth,
You have made summer and winter.
18 Remember this: the enemy has reproached the Name.
And a foolish people has despised Your Name.
19 Do not give the being of Your turtledove to the wild beast!
Do not forget the life of Your afflicted ones forever.
20 Look to the covenant,
For the dark places of the earth are filled
With haunts of violence.
21 Let not the crushed one return ashamed!
Let the poor and needy praise Your Name.
22 Arise, O Elohim, plead Your own
cause,
Remember how the foolish man
reproaches You daily.
23 Do not forget the voice of Your enemies,
The uproar of those rising up against
You increases continually.

75 We shall give thanks to You,
O Elohim, we shall give thanks!
And Your Name is near!
Your wonders shall be declared!
2 “When I seize the appointed time,
It is I who judge in uprightness.
3 “The earth and all its inhabitants are melted;
It is I who set its columns firm. Selah.
4 “I said to the boasters, ‘Do not boast,’
And to the wrong, ‘Do not lift up the horn.
5 “Do not lift up your horn on high
(You speak with a stiff neck).”
6 For exaltations are neither from the east,
Nor from the west nor from the wilderness.
7 But Elohim is the Judge – He puts down one,
And exalts another.
8 For a cup is in the hand of the wine shall foam;
And He pours it out.
All the wrong of the earth drink,
Draining it to the dregs.

q See v. 18. r Even religious leaders are despising the Name of Elohim!
9 But I, I declare forever,
I sing praises to the Elohim of Ya’aqoḇ.
10 “And all the horns of the wrong I cut down;
The horns of the righteous are lifted up.”

76 In Yehuḏah Elohim is known;
His Name is great in Yisra’ēl.
2 And His booth is in Shalām, s
And His dwelling place in Tsiyon.
3 There He broke the arrows of the bow,
The shield and the sword and the battle-axe. Selah.
4 You are resplendent,
More excellent than mountains of prey.
5 The stout-hearted have been stripped;
They slept their sleep;
And none of the mighty men have found their hands.
6 At Your rebuke, O Elohim of Ya’aqoḇ,
Both the rider and horse lay stunned.
7 You, You are to be feared;
And who would stand in Your presence
When You are displeased?
8 From heaven You shall cause judgment to be heard;
The earth shall fear, and shall be still,
9 When Elohim arises to right-ruling,
To save all the meek of the earth.
Selah.
10 For the wrath of mankind praises You,
With the remainder of wrath You gird
Yourself!
11 Make vows to יהוה your Elohim, and pay them.
Let all who are around Him bring presents
To the One to be feared.
12 He cuts off the spirit of leaders,
He is awesome to the sovereigns of
the earth!

77 My voice is to Elohim, and I cry;
My voice is to Elohim, and He listened to me.
2 In the day of my distress I sought יהוה;
My hand was stretched out in the night
And it did not cease,
My being refused to be comforted.
3 I remembered Elohim, and groaned;
I complained, and my spirit grew faint.
Selah.
4 You ceased the watches of my eyes,
I was too troubled to speak.
5 I have thought about the days of old,
The years long past.
6 I remember my song in the night,
I meditate within my heart,
And my spirit searches diligently.
7 Would יהוה reject forever,
And never again be pleased?
8 Has His kindness ceased forever,
Has the promise failed for all
generations?
9 Has Ėl forgotten to show favour?
Has He shut up His compassions in displeasure? Selah.
10 And I said, “This is my grief:
That the right hand of the Most High has changed.”
11 I remember the deeds of Yah,
For I remember Your wonders of old.
12 And I shall meditate on all Your work,
And talk of Your deeds.
13 Your way, O Elohim, is in Set-apart-ness; t
Who is a great Ėl like Elohim?
14 You are the Ėl who does wonders;
You have made known Your strength
among the peoples.
15 By Your arm You have redeemed
Your people,
The sons of Ya’aqoḇ and Yosēph.
Selah.
16 The waters saw You, O Elohim;
The waters saw You, they were afraid;
The depths also trembled.
17 The clouds poured out water;
The heavens rumbled;
Also, Your arrows flashed back and forth.
18 The voice of Your thunder rolled along;
Lightnings lit up the world;
The earth trembled and shook.
19 Your way was in the sea,
And Your path in the great waters,

s The old name of Yerushalayim. t Yesh. 35:8.
And Your footsteps were not known.
You did lead Your people like a flock
By the hand of Mosheh and Aharon.

My people, give ear to my Torah,
Incline your ears to the words of my mouth.
I open my mouth in a parable;
I utter riddles of old,
Which we have heard and known,
For our fathers have related them to us.
We do not hide them from their children,
Relating to the generation to come the praises of אְלֹהִים,
And His strength and His wonders which He has done.
For He raised a witness in Yaʕaqoブ,
And set a Torah in Yisra’ël,
Which He commanded our fathers,
To teach them to their children;
That it might be known to a generation to come,
To children who would be born,
To rise up and relate them to their children,
And place their trust in Elohim,
And not forget the works of El,
But watch over His commands,
And not be like their fathers,
A stubborn and rebellious generation,
A generation which did not prepare its heart,
Whose spirit was not steadfast to El.
The children of Ephrayim, armed bowmen,
Turned back in the day of battle.
They did not guard the covenant of Elohim,
And they refused to walk in His Torah,
And they forgot His deeds And His wonders which He had shown them.
He did wonders in the sight of their fathers,
In the land of Mitsrayim, in the field of Tsו’an.

He split the sea and caused them to pass through,
And He made the waters stand up like a heap,
And led them with the cloud by day,
And all the night with a light of fire.
He split the rocks in the wilderness,
And made them drink, as from the great depths,
And brought forth streams from the rock,
And caused waters to come down as rivers.
Yet they sinned still more against Him
To rebel against the Most High in the desert.
And they tried El in their heart
By asking food according to their desire.
And they spoke against Elohim.
They said, “Is El able to set a table in the wilderness?
“Look, He struck the rock, So that the waters gushed out,
And the streams overflowed.
Is He able to give bread also? Would He provide meat for His people?”
Therefore אְלֹהִים heard, and He was wroth;
So a fire was kindled against Yaʕaqoブ,
And displeasure also came up against Yisra’ël,
Because they did not believe in Elohim,
Neither did they trust in His deliverance.
Yet He had commanded the clouds above,
And opened the doors of the heavens,
And He rained down manna on them to eat,
And He gave them the grain of the heavens.
Men ate bread of the mighty;
He sent them provisions to satisfaction.
He made an east wind blow in the а In vv. 1-11 the words “teaching, words, witness, commands, covenant,” are used interchangeably, as parallels, almost synonymously. We find the same in Teh. 119.

heavens;
And by His power He brought in the south wind.
27 And He rained meat on them like the dust,
And winged birds like the sand of the seas,
28 And let them fall in the midst of His camp,
All around His Dwelling Place.
29 So they ate and were completely satisfied,
For He brought them what they desired.
30 They had not turned away from their desire,
Their food was still in their mouths,
31 When the wrath of Elohim came against them,
And He slew among their fat ones,
And He struck down the choice ones of Yisra’él.
32 In spite of all this they still sinned,
And did not believe in His wonders.
33 So He ended their days in a breath,
And their years in trouble.
34 When He slew them, then they sought
Him,
And they returned and did earnestly seek Ėl.
35 And they remembered that Elohim was their rock,
And the Most High Ėl their redeemer.
36 But they flattered Him with their
mouth,
And they lied to Him with their tongue,
37 For their heart was not steadfast with Him,
And they were not true to His covenant.
38 But He, the Compassionate One,
Pardoned crookedness,
And did not destroy them.
And many a time He turned His displeasure away,
And did not stir up all His wrath.
39 For He remembered that they were but flesh,
A passing breath that does not return.
40 How often they rebelled against Him in the wilderness,
And grieved Him in the desert!
41 And again and again they tried Ėl,
And provoked the Set-apart One of Yisra’él.
42 They did not remember His hand,
The day when He redeemed them from the adversary,
43 How He worked His signs in
Mitsrayim,
And His wonders in the field of Tso’an.
44 He turned their rivers into blood,
And they could not drink their streams.
45 He sent among them swarms of flies which devoured them,
And frogs which destroyed them,
46 And gave their crops to the caterpillar,
And their labour to the locust.
47 He destroyed their vines with hail,
And their sycamore trees with frost,
48 And gave their beasts over to the hail,
And their livestock to bolts of fire.
49 He sent on them the burning of His displeasure,
Wrath, and rage, and distress,
A deputation of messengers of evils.
50 He made a path for His displeasure;
He did not spare their being from death,
But gave their life over to the plague.
51 And He smote all the first-born in Mitsrayim,
The first-fruits of strength in the tents
of Àam,
52 Then made His own people go forth like sheep,
And led them in the wilderness like a flock.
53 And He led them on safely,
And they did not fear,
But the sea covered their enemies.
54 And He brought them to the border of His set-apart place,
This mountain which His right hand had gained,
55 And drove out nations before them,
And allotted them a measured inheritance,
And made the tribes of Yisra’él dwell in their tents.
56 Yet they tried and rebelled
Against the Most High Elohim,
And did not guard His witnesses,

57 But they turned back
And acted treacherously like their fathers;
They twisted like a treacherous bow.

58 For they enraged Him with their high places,
And moved Him to jealousy with their carved images.

59 When Elohim heard this, He was wroth,
And greatly despised Yisra’êl,
60 And He left the Dwelling Place of Shiloh,
The Tent which He had set up among men.

61 And He gave His strength \(^v\) into captivity,
And His comeliness into the hand of the adversary.

62 And He gave His people over to the sword,
And He was wroth with His inheritance.

63 His young men were consumed by fire,
And His maidens were not praised.

64 His priests fell by the sword,
And their widows could not weep.

65 Then HWHY awoke as one asleep,
As a mighty man who shouts because of wine.

66 And He smote His adversaries backward,
He put them to an everlasting reproach.

67 Then He rejected the tent of Yosèph,
And did not choose the tribe of Ephrayim,
68 But chose the tribe of Yehuḏah,
Mount Tsiyôn, which He loved.

69 And He built His set-apart place like the heights,
Like the earth He founded it forever.

70 And He chose Dawîd His servant,
And took him from the sheepfolds;
71 He brought him in from tending the ewes,
To shepherd Ya’aqôb His people,
And Yisra’êl His inheritance.

72 And he shepherded them
According to the integrity of his heart,
And led them by the skill of his hands.

79 O Elohim, the gentiles \(^w\) have come into Your inheritance;
They have defiled Your set-apart Hêkal;
They turned Yerushalayim into ruins.
2 They have given the dead bodies of Your servants
As food for the birds of the heavens,
The flesh of Your kind ones to the wild beast of the earth.
3 They have poured out their blood Like water all around Yerushalayim,
With no one to bury them.
4 We have become a reproach to our neighbours,
A scorn and a mockery to those who are around us.

5 How long, O HWHY,
Would You be enraged forever?
Would Your jealousy burn like fire?
6 Pour out Your wrath on the gentiles Who have not known You,
And on reigns that have not called on Your Name.
7 For they have devoured Ya’aqôb,
And laid waste his pasture.
8 Do not remember against us The crookednesses of the fathers!
Let Your compassion speedily meet us,
For we have been greatly weakened.
9 Help us, O Elohim of our deliverance,
For the sake of the esteem of Your Name.
And deliver us, and cover over our sins,
For Your Name’s sake!
10 Why should the gentiles say,
“Where is their Elohim?”
Let the vengeance of the outpoured blood of Your servants

Be known among the gentiles,
Before our eyes.
11 Let the groaning of the prisoner come before You.
According to the greatness of Your arm
Preserve those appointed to death.
12 And repay to our neighbours sevenfold
Their reproach, into their bosom,
With which they have reproached You,
O הוהי.
13 And we, Your people and the sheep of Your pasture,
We give thanks to You forever;
From generation to generation we show forth Your praise.

80 Give ear, O Shepherd of Yisra‘èl,
Who lead Yosèph like a flock;
Who dwell between the kerubim, shine forth!
2 Before Ephrayìm, Binyamin, and Menashsheh,
Stir up Your might,
And come and save us!
3 Cause us to turn back, O Elohim,
And cause Your face to shine,
That we might be saved!
4 הוהי Elohim of hosts,
How long shall You be wroth
Against the prayer of Your people?
5 You have caused them to eat the bread of tears,
And have caused them to drink
With tears, a third time.
6 You have made us a strife to our neighbours,
And our enemies laugh among themselves.
7 Turn us back, O Elohim of hosts,
And cause Your face to shine,
That we might be saved!
8 You brought a vine out of Mitsrayim;
You drove out the nations,
and planted it.
9 You cleared a place for it,
And caused it to take deep root,
And it filled the land.
10 Hills were covered with its shadow,
And the mighty cedars with its twigs.
11 She spread her branches to the Sea,
And her shoots to the River.
12 Why have You broken down her hedges,
So that every passer-by plucked her fruit?
13 The boar out of the forest ravages it,
And the wild beast of the field devours
it.
14 Return, we beg You, O Elohim of
hosts;
Look down from heaven, and see,
And visit this vine,
15 And the stock which Your right hand has planted,
And the Son whom You made strong for Yourself.
16 It is burned with fire, it is cut down;
They perish at the rebuke of Your face.
17 Let Your hand be upon the One at Your right hand,
Upon the Son of Aḏam whom You made strong for Yourself,
18 And we shall not backslide from You.
Revive us, and let us call upon Your Name.
19 Turn us back, O הוהי Elohim of hosts,
And cause Your face to shine,
That we might be saved!

81 Shout for joy to Elohim our
strength;
Raise a shout to the Elohim of Ya’aqòb.
2 Lift up a song and beat the tambourine,
The pleasant lyre and with the harp.
3 Blow the ram’s horn at the time of the New Moon,
At the full moon, on our festival day.
4 For this is a law for Yisra‘èl,
And a right-ruling of the Elohim of Ya’aqòb.
5 He appointed it in Yehosèph for a witness,
When He went throughout the land of Mitsrayim;
I heard a language that I did not know.
6 He says, “I removed his shoulder from the burden;
His hands were freed from the baskets.
7 “You called in distress, and I rescued
you;
I answered you in the covering of thunder;
I proved you at the waters of Meribah.
Selah.

8 “Hear, O My people, and let Me warn you,
O Yisra’el, if you would listen to Me!
9 “Let there be no strange mighty one among you,
And do not bow down to a foreign mighty one.
10 “I am יהוה your Elohim,
Who brought you out of the land of Mitsrayim;
Open your mouth wide, and I fill it.
11 “But My people did not listen to My voice,
And Yisra’el would not submit to Me.
12 “So I gave them over to their own stubborn heart,
To walk in their own counsels.
13 “O, if My people had listened to Me,
Yisra’el would walk in My ways,
14 “I would subdue their enemies at once,
And turn My hand against their adversaries!
15 “Those who hate יהוה would cringe before Him;
And their time of punishment be forever.
16 “He would feed them with the finest of wheat;
And with honey from the rock I would satisfy you.”

Elohim stands in the congregation of Elohim;
He judges in the midst of the elohim.
2 How long would you judge perversely,
And show partiality to the wrong?
Selah.
3 Give right-ruling to the poor and fatherless,
Do right to the afflicted and needy.
4 Rescue the poor and needy;
Deliver them from the hand of the wrong.
5 They do not know, nor do they understand,
They walk about in darkness.
All the foundations of the earth are shaken.

6 I, I said, “You are elohim,
And all of you are sons of the Most High.
7 “But as men you die,
And fall as one of the heads.”
8 Arise, O Elohim, judge the earth,
For You shall possess all the nations.

O Elohim, do not remain silent!
Do not be speechless,
And do not be still, O El!
2 For look, Your enemies make an uproar,
And those hating You have lifted up their head.
3 They craftily plot against Your people,
And conspire against Your treasured ones.
4 They have said, “Come,
And let us wipe them out as a nation,
And let the name of Yisra’el be remembered no more.”
5 For they have conspired together with one heart;
They have made a covenant against You –
6 The tents of Edom and the Yishmaelites,
Mo’ab and the Hagarites,
7 Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalék,
Philistia with the inhabitants of Tsor,
8 Ashshur also has joined with them,
They have helped the children of Lot.
Selah.

9 Do to them as to Midyan,
As to Sisera,
As to Ya’in at the wadi Qishon,
10 Who perished at Endor,
Who became as dung for the ground.
11 Make their nobles like Orëb and like Ze’eḇ,
And all their princes like Zeḇaḥ
and Tsalmunnah,
12 Who have said, “Let us take possession of the pastures of Elohim
For ourselves.”
13 O my Elohim, make them as whirling dust,
As stubble before the wind!
14 As a fire consumes a forest,
And as a flame sets mountains on fire,
15 So pursue them with Your whirlwind,
And frighten them with Your storm.
16 Fill their faces with shame,
And let them seek Your Name,
O HWHY.
17 Let them be ashamed and alarmed forever;
And let them become abashed and perish,
18 And let them know that You,
Whose Name is HWHY,
You alone are the Most High over all the earth.

84 How lovely are Your dwelling places,
O HWHY of hosts!
2 My being has longed, and even fainted,
For the courts of HWHY;
My heart and my flesh cry out for the living Él.
3 Even the sparrow has found a home,
And the swallow a nest for herself,
Where she has put her young ones – Your altars, O HWHY of hosts,
My Sovereign and my Elohim.
4 Blessed are those who dwell in Your house,
They are ever praising You. Selah.
5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in You,
Your Highways are in their heart.
6 Passing through the valley of weeping,
They make it a fountain;
The Teacher also covers it with blessings.
7 They go from strength to strength,
Appearing before Elohim in Tsiyon.
8 O HWHY of hosts, hear my prayer;
Give ear, O Elohim of Ya’aqoḇ! Selah.
9 O Elohim, see our shield,
And look upon the face of Your anointed.
10 For a day in Your courts
Is better than a thousand days.
I have chosen rather to be a doorkeeper
In the House of my Elohim,
Than to dwell in the tents of the wrong.

11 For HWHY Elohim is a sun and a shield;
HWHY gives favour and esteem;
He withholds no good matter
From those who walk blamelessly.
12 O HWHY of hosts,
Blessed is the man who trusts in You!

85 HWHY, You shall take pleasure in Your land;
You shall turn back the captivity of Ya’aqoḇ.
2 You shall take away the crookedness of Your people;
You shall cover all their sin. Selah.
3 You shall withdraw all Your wrath;
You shall turn from Your fierce displeasure.
4 Turn back to us, O Elohim of our deliverance,
And cause Your vexation toward us to cease.
5 Would You be enraged with us forever?
Would You draw out Your displeasure From generation to generation?
6 Would You not revive us again,
For Your people to rejoice in You?
7 Show us Your kindness, O HWHY,
And give us Your deliverance.
8 Let me hear what Él HWHY speaks,
For He speaks peace to His people
And to His kind ones;
And let them not turn again to folly.
9 Truly, His deliverance is near to those who fear Him,
For esteem to dwell in our land.
10 Kindness and truth shall meet,
Righteousness and peace shall kiss.
11 Truth sprouts forth from the earth,
And righteousness looks down from heaven,
12 Indeed, HWHY gives what is good,
And our land yields its increase.
13 Righteousness goes before Him,
And prepares a way for His footsteps.

86 Incline Your ear, O HWHY,
Answer me, for I am poor and needy.

2 Guard my being, for I am dedicated;
    You are my Elohim;
    Save Your servant who is trusting in You!
3 Show favour to me, O יהוה,
    For I cry to You all day long.
4 Bring joy to the being of Your servant,
    For to You, O יהוה, I lift up my being.
5 For You, יהוה, are good, and ready to forgive,
    And great in kindness to all those who call upon You.
6 Give ear, O יהוה, to my prayer;
    And listen to the voice of my pleadings.
7 In the day of my distress I call upon
    You,
    For You answer me.
8 There is none like You among the mighty ones, O יהוה;
    And like Your works there are none.
9 Let all nations You have made
    Come and bow themselves before You,
    O יהוה,
    And give esteem to Your Name.
10 For You are great, and are doing wonders;
    You are Elohim, You alone.
11 Teach me Your way, O יהוה;
    Let me walk in Your truth;
    Unite my heart to fear Your Name.
12 I praise You, O יהוה my Elohim,
    with all my heart,
    And I esteem Your Name forever.
13 For Your kindness is great toward me,
    And You have delivered my being
    From the depths of the grave.
14 O Elohim, the proud have risen
    against me,
    And a band of dreaded men have sought my life,
    And have not set You before them.
15 But You, O יהוה,
    Are a compassionate Él and showing favour,
    Patient and great in kindness and truth.
16 Turn to me, and show favour to me!
    Give Your strength to Your servant,
    And save the son of Your female
    servant.
17 Show me a sign for good,
to them;
I am shut in and do not go out;
9 My eye grows dim because of affliction.

יהוה, I have called upon You, all day long;
I have stretched out my hands to You.
10 Would You work wonders for the dead?
Would the dead rise to praise You?
Selah.

11 Is Your kindness declared in the grave?
Your trustworthiness in the place of destruction?
12 Are Your wonders known in the dark?
And Your righteousness in the land of no remembrance?

13 But I, unto You I have cried, O יהוה, And in the morning my prayer comes before You.
14 יהוה, why do You reject me?
Why do You hide Your face from me?
15 I am afflicted and dying from childhood;
I have borne frightening matters from You;
I am in despair.

16 Your fierce wrath has gone over me;
Your onslaughts have cut me off.
17 They surrounded me like water all day long;
They close in upon me altogether.
18 You have put loved one and companion far from me,
Darkness is my close friend!

89 I sing of the kindnesses of יהוה forever;
With my mouth I make known Your trustworthiness
To all generations.

2 For I said, “Kindness is built up forever;
You establish Your trustworthiness in the heavens.”
3 You said, “I have made a covenant with My chosen,
I have sworn to My servant Dawiḏ:
4 ‘I establish your seed forever,
And shall build up your throne to all generations.’ ” Selah.

5 And the heavens praise Your wonders,
O יהוה, Your trustworthiness, too,
In the assembly of the set-apart ones.
6 For who in the heavens is comparable to יהוה?
Who among the sons of the mighty is like יהוה?
7 El is greatly feared
In the company of the set-apart ones,
And awesome above all those around Him.
8 O יהוה Elohim of hosts,
Who is mighty like You, O Yah?
And Your trustworthiness is all around You.

9 You rule the swelling of the sea;
When its waves rise, You still them.
10 You have broken Rahab in pieces,
as one who is slain;
You have scattered Your enemies
With the arm of Your strength.
11 The heavens are Yours,
The earth also is Yours;
The world and all that fills it.
You have founded them.
12 North and south –
You have created them;
Taḇor and Ḥermon rejoice in Your Name.
13 You have a mighty arm,
Your hand is strong,
Your right hand exalted.
14 Righteousness and right-ruling
Are the foundation of Your throne;
Kindness and truth go before Your face.
15 Blessed are the people
Who know the festal trumpet-call!
They walk, O יהוה, in the light of Your face.
16 In Your Name they rejoice all day long,
And they are exalted in Your righteousness.
17 For You are the comeliness of their strength,
And by Your good pleasure our horn is exalted.
18 For יהוה is our shield,
And the Set-apart One of Yisra’el is our Sovereign.
Then You spoke in a vision to Your kind one,
And You said, “I have given help to one who is mighty,
I have exalted one chosen from the people.

I have found My servant Dawid;
With My set-apart oil I anointed him,
With whom My hand is established;
My arm also strengthens him.

No enemy subjects him to tribute,
And no son of wickedness afflicts him.

And I shall beat down
His adversaries before his face,
And plague those who hate him.

But My trustworthiness
And My kindness are with him,
And in My Name his horn is exalted.

I shall set his hand on the sea,
And his right hand on the rivers.

He calls out to Me, ‘You are my Father,
My Él, and the rock of my deliverance.’

I also appoint him first-born,
Highest of the sovereigns of the earth.

I guard My kindness for him forever,
And My covenant is steadfast with him.

And I shall establish his seed forever,
And his throne as the days of the heavens.

If his sons forsake My Torah
And do not walk in My right-rulings,
If they profane My laws
And do not guard My commands,
Then I shall visit their transgression with the rod,
And their crookedness with flogging.

But My kindness I do not take away from him,
Nor be false to My trustworthiness.

I shall not profane My covenant,
Neither would I change what has gone out from My lips.

Once I have sworn by My set-apart-ness,
I do not lie to Dawid:
His seed shall be forever,
And his throne as the sun before Me;

“Like the moon, it is established forever,
And the witness in the heaven is steadfast.” Selah.

Yet You have rejected and spurned,
You have been wroth with Your anointed.
You have disowned the covenant of Your servant,
You have defiled his diadem in the dust.
You have broken down all his hedges,
You have brought his strongholds to ruin.
All who pass by the way plunder him;
He is a reproach to his neighbours.
You have exalted the right hand of his adversaries,
You have made all his enemies rejoice.
Moreover You have turned back the edge of his sword,
And have not made him stand in battle.
You have brought an end to his splendour,
And have hurled his throne to the ground.
You have shortened the days of his youth,
You have covered him with shame.

How long, O יהוה, would You be hidden?
Would Your wrath burn like fire forever?
Please remember how short my time is;
Why should you have created all the sons of men for naught?

What man would live and not see death?
Who rescues his life from the power of the grave? Selah.

יהוה, where are Your former kindnesses,
Which You swore to Dawid in Your trustworthiness?
Remember the reproach of Your servants,
That I have borne in my bosom – Of all the many peoples,
With which Your enemies have reproached, O יהוה,
With which they have reproached the footsteps of Your anointed.

52 Blessed be יהוה forever!
Amën and Amën.

90 יהוה, You have been our refuge in all generations.

2 Before the mountains were born, Or You had brought forth the earth and the world, Even from everlasting to everlasting You are אלהים.

3 You turn man back to dust, And say, “Return, O children of men.”

4 For a thousand years in Your eyes Are like yesterday that has past, Or like a watch in the night.

5 You have swept them away, They are as a sleep, Like grass that springs up in the morning.

6 In the morning it flourishes and springs up, At evening it is cut down and withered.

7 For we have been consumed by Your displeasure, And by Your wrath we are alarmed.

8 You have set our crookednesses before You, Our secret סin in the light of Your face.

9 For all our days have passed away in Your wrath, We spend our years like a whisper.

10 The days of our lives are seventy years; Or if due to strength, eighty years, Yet the best of them is but toil and exertion; For it is soon cut off, and we fly away.

11 Who knows the power of Your displeasure? And your wrath, according to the fear of You?

12 Teach us to number our days, And let us bring the heart to wisdom.

13 Return, O יהוה! How long? And be sorry for Your servants.

14 Satisfy us in the morning with Your kindness, And let us sing for joy all our days!

15 Give us joy according to The days You have afflicted us, The years we have seen evil.

16 Reveal Your work to Your servants, And Your splendour to their children.

17 And let the pleasantness Of יהוה our Elohim be upon us, And confirm the work of our hands for us; O confirm the work of our hands!

91 He who dwells in the secret place of the Most High, Who abides under the shadow of the Almighty,

2 He is saying of יהוה, “My refuge and my stronghold, My Elohim, in whom I trust!”

3 For He delivers you from the snare of a trapper, From the destructive pestilence.

4 He covers you with His feathers, And under His wings you take refuge; His truth is a shield and armour.

5 You are not afraid of the dread by night, Of the arrow that flies by day,

6 Of the pestilence that walks in darkness, Of destruction that ravages at midday.

7 A thousand fall at your side, And ten thousand at your right hand; But it does not come near you.

8 Only with your eyes you look on, And see the reward of the wrong ones.

9 Because you have made יהוה – My refuge, the Most High – your dwelling place,

10 No evil befalls you, And a plague does not come near your tent;

11 For He commands His messengers concerning you, To guard you in all your ways.

12 They bear you up in their hands, Lest you dash your foot against a stone.

13 You tread upon lion and cobra, Young lion and serpent you trample under foot.

14 “Because he cleaves to Me in love, Therefore I deliver him;
I set him on high,
Because he has known My Name.

"When he calls on Me, I answer him;
I am with him in distress;
I deliver him and esteem him.

"With long life I satisfy him,
And show him My deliverance."

92 It is good to give thanks to יהוה,
And to sing praises to Your Name,
O Most High;
To declare Your kindness in the morning,
And Your trustworthiness each night,
On ten strings, and on the harp,
To the sounding chords of the lyre.
For You have made me rejoice with Your work, O יהוה,
I shout for joy at the works of Your hands.

O יהוה, how great are Your works!
Your thoughts are very deep!
A senseless man does not know,
And a fool does not understand this.
When the wrong spring up like grass,
And all the workers of wickedness
blossom,
It is for them to be destroyed forever.
But You, יהוה, are on high forever.
For look, Your enemies, O יהוה,
For look, Your enemies do perish;
All the workers of wickedness are scattered.
But You lift up my horn like a wild ox;
I have been anointed with fresh oil.
And my eye looks upon my enemies;
My ears hear the evil-doers
Who rise up against me.
The righteous one flourishes like a palm tree,
He grows like a cedar in Lebanon.
Those who are planted in the House
of יהוה
Flourish in the courts of our Elohim.
They still bear fruit in old age;
They are fresh and green,
To declare that יהוה is straight,
My rock, and in Him is no unrighteousness.

93 יהוה shall reign,
He shall put on excellency;
יהוה shall put on strength;
He shall gird Himself.
Indeed, the world is established,
immovable.

2 Your throne is established from of old;
You are from everlasting.
Rivers shall lift up, O יהוה,
Rivers shall lift up their voice;
Rivers lift up their breakers.
יהוה on high is mightier
Than the noise of many waters,
The mighty breakers of the sea.
Your witnesses have been very trustworthy.
Set-apartness befits Your house, O יהוה, forever.

94 O יהוה, El of vengeance;
O El of vengeance, shine forth!
Raise Yourself up, O Judge of the earth;
Render punishment to the proud.
יהוה, how long are the wrong,
How long are the wrong going to exult?
They pour forth words,
They speak arrogantly;
All the workers of wickedness boast in themselves.
They crush Your people, O יהוה,
And they afflict Your inheritance.
They slay the widow and the stranger,
And murder the fatherless.
Yet they say, “Yah does not see,
And the Elohim of Ya’aqob pays no heed.”
Take heed, you senseless among the people;
And you fools, when would you become wise?
He who planted the ear, does He not hear?
He who formed the eye, does He not see?
He who disciplines the nations,
Does He not reprove –
The One teaching man knowledge?
 יהוה knows the thoughts of man,
That they are but a breath.
Blessed is the man You discipline,
O Yah,
And instruct out of Your Torah,
To give him rest from the days of evil,
Until the pit is dug for the wrong.
For יהוה does not leave His people,
Nor does He forsake His inheritance.
For right-ruling returns man to righteousness,
And all the upright in heart follow it.
Who would rise up for me against evil-doers?
Who would stand up for me against workers of wickedness?
If יהוה had not been my help,
My being would soon have settled in silence.
When I said, “My foot has slipped,”
Your kindness, O יהוה, supported me.
When anxiety was great within me,
Your comforts delighted my being.
Would a throne of destruction,
Which devises trouble by decree,
Be joined with You?
They band together against the life of the righteous,
And declare innocent blood wrong.
But יהוה is my defence,
And my Elohim the rock of my refuge,
And brings back on them their own wickedness,
And cuts them off in their own wrongdoing;
יהוה our Elohim does cut them off.

Come, let us sing to יהוה!
Let us raise a shout to the Rock of our deliverance.
Let us come before His face with thanksgiving;
Let us raise a shout to Him in song.
For יהוה is a great Elohim,
And a great Sovereign above all mighty ones.
In whose hand are the depths of the earth;
The mountain peaks are His also.
His is the sea, for He made it;
And His hands formed the dry land.
Come, let us bow down and bend low,
Let us kneel before יהוה our Maker.

For He is our Elohim,
And we are the people of His pasture,
And the sheep of His hand.
Today, if you would hear His voice:
“Do not harden your hearts as in Meribah,
And as in the day of Massah in the wilderness,
“When your fathers tried Me,
Have proved Me, though they saw My work.
“For forty years I was grieved with that generation,
And said, ‘They are a people who go astray in their hearts,
And they do not know My ways.’
“As I swore in My wrath, ‘If they enter into My rest...’ ”

Sing to יהוה a new song,
Sing to יהוה, all the earth!
Sing to יהוה, bless His Name,
Proclaim His deliverance from day to day.
Declare His esteem among the nations,
His wonders among all peoples.
For great is יהוה and greatly to be praised,
He is to be feared above all mighty ones.
For all the mighty ones of the peoples are matters of naught,
But יהוה made the heavens.
Excellency and splendour are before Him,
Strength and comeliness are in His set-apart place.
Ascribe to יהוה, O clans of the peoples,
Ascribe to יהוה esteem and strength.
Ascribe to יהוה the esteem of His Name;
Bring an offering, and come into His courts.
Bow yourselves to יהוה,
In the splendour of set-apartness!
Tremble before Him, all the earth.
Say among nations, “יהוה shall reign.
The world also is established, immovable.
He judges the peoples in straightness.”
11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad; Let the sea roar, and all that fills it; Let the field exult, and all that is in it. Let all the trees of the forest then shout for joy, 12 At the presence of יהוה.

For He shall come, For He shall come to judge the earth. He judges the world in righteousness, 9 And the peoples with His truth.

97 יהוה shall reign. The earth rejoices. Many isles are glad! 2 Clouds and darkness all around Him, Righteousness and right-ruling are the foundation of His throne. 3 Fire goes before Him, And burns up His adversaries round about. 4 His lightnings shall light the world, The earth shall see and tremble. 5 The mountains shall melt like wax before the face of יהוה, Before the face of the Master of all the earth. 6 The heavens shall declare His righteousness, And all the peoples shall see His esteem. 7 All are put to shame who serve carved images, Those boasting of matters of naught. Bow yourselves to Him, all you mighty ones. 8 Tsiyon shall hear and be glad, And the daughters of Ŷehuḏah rejoice Because of Your right-rulings, O יהוה. 9 For You, יהוה, are the Most High over all the earth, You shall be greatly exalted, over all mighty ones. 10 You who love יהוה, hate evil! He guards the lives of His kind ones, He delivers them out of the hand of the wrong. 11 Light is sown for the righteous, And gladness for the upright in heart.

12 Rejoice in יהוה, you righteous, And give thanks at the remembrance of His Set-apartness.

98 Sing to יהוה a new song! For He has done wonders; His right hand and His set-apart arm Have brought Him deliverance. יהוה has made known His deliverance; His righteousness He has openly shown Before the eyes of the nations. He has remembered His kindness And His trustworthiness to the house of Yisra’el; All the ends of the earth have seen The deliverance of our Elohim. Raise a shout to יהוה, all the earth; Break forth in song, rejoice, and sing praises. Sing to יהוה with the lyre, With the lyre and the voice of a song, With trumpets and the sound of a horn; Raise a shout before יהוה, the Sovereign. Let the sea roar, and all that fills it, The world and those who dwell in it. Let the rivers clap their hands, Let the mountains sing together for joy before יהוה, 9 For He shall come to judge the earth. He judges the world in righteousness, And the people in straightness.

99 יהוה shall reign; Peoples tremble! He is enthroned on the keruḇim; The earth shakes! יהוה is great in Tsiyon, And He is high above all the peoples. They praise Your Name, great and awesome, It is set-apart. And the strength of the Sovereign Shall love right-ruling; You Yourself shall establish straightness; You shall execute right-ruling And righteousness in Ya’aqoḇ.

Exalt ה华尔 ‘our Elohim,
And bow yourselves at His footstool,
He is set-apart.

Mosheh and Aharon were among His priests,
And Shemu’el was among those calling upon His Name.
They called upon ה华尔, and He answered them.

He spoke to them in the column of cloud;
They guarded His witnesses
And the law He gave them.

You answered them,
O ה华尔 our Elohim.
You were a forgiving El to them,
Though You took vengeance on their deeds.

Exalt ה华尔 ‘our Elohim,
And bow down towards His set-apart mountain;
For ה华尔 our Elohim is set-apart.

Raise a shout for ה华尔,
All the earth!
Serve ה华尔 with gladness;
Come before His presence with singing.

Know that ה华尔, He is Elohim;
He has made us, and we are His –
His people and the sheep of His pasture.

Enter into His gates with thanksgiving,
And into His courts with praise.
Give thanks to Him; bless His Name.

For ה华尔 is good;
His kindness is everlasting,
And His truth, to all generations.

I sing of kindness and right-ruling;
To You, O ה华尔, I sing praises.
I act wisely in a perfect way.
When do You come to me?
I walk in the midst of my house with a perfect heart.

I hate the work of those who fall away;
It does not cleave to me.

A perverse heart turns away from me;
I do not know evil.

Him who secretly slanders his neighbour I cut off;
I do not tolerate one
Who has a haughty look and a proud heart.

My eyes are on the trustworthy of the land,
To dwell with me;
He who walks in a perfect way,
He serves me.

He who practises deceit
Does not dwell in my house;
He who speaks lies
Does not stand in my presence.

Each morning I uproot all the wrong of the land,
To cut off all the workers of wickedness
From the city of ה华尔.

O ה华尔, hear my prayer,
And let my cry come to You.

Do not hide Your face from me
In the day of my distress;
Incline Your ear to me;
In the day I call, answer me speedily.

For my days are consumed like smoke,
And my bones are burned like a hearth.
My heart is stricken and withered like grass,
For I have forgotten to eat my bread.
Because of the sound of my sighing
My bones have cleaved to my flesh.
I have been like a pelican of the wilderness,
I have been like an owl of the desert.
As a bird alone on the house-top.
My enemies reproached me all day long,
Those who rave against me have sworn against me.
For I have eaten ashes like bread,
And mixed my drink with tears,

Not only they called on the Name of ה华尔, but Abrahahm, Yitsḥaq and Yaʿaqoḇ did so too, as we repeatedly read in Bereshith.
Because of Your displeasure and Your wrath;
For You have lifted me up and thrown me down.
My days are like a shadow that lengthens,
And I wither away like grass.
But You, O LORD, shall be enthroned forever,
And the remembrance of You be to all generations.
You Yourself shall arise and have compassion on Tsiyon,
For the time to favour her, the appointed time, has come.
For Your servants have been pleased with her stones,
And they favour her dust.
And the nations shall fear the Name of the LORD,
And all the sovereigns of the earth Your esteem,
For You are the same, and Your years have no end.
The sons of Your servants continue, and their seed is established before You.

Bless the LORD, O my being, and all that is within me,
Bless His set-apart Name!
Bless the LORD, O my being, and do not forget all His dealings,
Who forgives all your crookednesses, who heals all your diseases,
Who redeems your life from destruction,
Who crowns you with kindness and compassion,
Who satisfies your desire with the good,
Your youth is renewed like the eagle’s.
The LORD is doing righteousness and right-ruling for all the oppressed.
He made known His ways to Mosheh, His acts to the children of Yisra’el.
The LORD is compassionate and showing favour, patient, and great in kindness.
He does not always strive, nor maintain it forever.
He has not done to us according to our sins,
Nor rewarded us according to our crookednesses.
For as the heavens are high above the earth,
So great is His kindness toward those who fear Him;
As far as east is from west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us.
As a father has compassion for his children,
So יְהֹוָה has compassion for those who fear Him.
14 For He knows how we are made; He remembers that we are dust.
15 A man’s days are like grass; As a flower of the field, so he flourishes.
16 For the wind blows over it, and it is no more, And its place no longer remembers it.
17 But the kindness of יְהֹוָה Is from everlasting to everlasting Upon those who fear Him, And His righteousness to children’s children, 18 To those who guard His covenant, And to those who remember His orders to do them.
19 יְהֹוָה has established His throne in the heavens, And His reign shall rule over all.
20 Bless יְהֹוָה, you His messengers, Mighty in power, who do His Word, Listening to the voice of His Word.
21 Bless יְהֹוָה, all you His hosts, You His servants, who do His pleasure.
22 Bless יְהֹוָה, all His works, In all places of His rule.
Bless יְהֹוָה, O my being!

104 Bless יְהֹוָה, O my being! O יְהֹוָה my Elohim,
You have been very great:
You have put on excellency and splendour,
2 Covering Yourself with light as with a garment,
Stretching out the heavens like a curtain,
3 Who is laying the beams of His upper rooms in the waters,
Who is making thick clouds His chariot,
Who is walking on the wings of the wind,
4 Making His messengers the winds, His servants a flame of fire.
5 He established the earth on its foundations,
So that it would not totter forever,
6 You covered it with the deep as with a garment;
The waters stood above the mountains.
7 At Your rebuke they flee;
At the voice of Your thunder they hurry away.
8 They go up the mountains; They go down the valleys,
To the place which You founded for them.
9 You did set a boundary, they do not pass over,
They do not return to cover the earth.
10 Who is sending the springs into the valleys,
They flow among the hills.
11 They give drink to every beast of the field;
Wild donkeys break their thirst.
12 The birds of the heavens dwell beside them;
They sing from between the branches.
13 Watering the hills from His upper rooms;
The earth is satisfied with the fruit of Your works.
14 Causing the grass to grow for the cattle,
And plants for the service of mankind, To bring forth food from the earth,
15 And wine that makes glad the heart of man,
Oil to make the face shine,
Bread which sustains man’s heart.
16 The trees of יְהֹוָה are satisfied,
The cedars of Lebanon which He planted,
17 Where the birds do make nests; The stork has her home in the fir trees.
18 The high hills are for wild goats; Rocks a refuge for rock badgers.
19 He made the moon for appointed times; The sun knows its going down.
20 You put darkness, and it is night, In it all the beasts of the forest creep.
21 The young lions are roaring for prey, And seeking their food from Él.
22 The sun arises – they withdraw And lie down in their dens.
23 Man goes out to his work, And to his labour, till evening.
24 How many have been Your works!
You have made all of them in wisdom.
The earth is filled with Your possessions.
25 There is the sea, great and wide,
In which are innumerable swarms,
Living creatures, small with great.
26 There do ships go;
That Liwiathan which You made, to play there.
27 All of them wait for You,
To give their food in due season.
28 You give to them, they gather in;
You open Your hand, they are satisfied with good.
29 You hide Your face, they are alarmed;
You take away their breath, they die and return to their dust;
30 You send forth Your Spirit, they are created;
And You renew the face of the earth.
31 The esteem of Yah is forever,
Yah rejoices in His works,
32 Who looks on the earth,
and it trembles;
He touches the mountains, and they smoke.
33 I sing to Yah as long as I live,
I sing praise to my Elohim while I exist.
34 My meditation on Him is sweet;
I rejoice in Yah.
35 Let sinners be consumed from the earth,
And let the wrong be no more.
Bless Yah, O my being!
Praise Yah!

5 Remember His wonders which He has done,
His miracles, and the right-rulings of His mouth,
6 O seed of Abraham His servant,
Children of Ya’aqob, His chosen ones!
7 He is Yah our Elohim;
His right-rulings are in all the earth.
8 He has remembered His covenant forever,
The Word He commanded, for a thousand generations,
9 The covenant He made with Abraham,
And His oath to Yitshaq,
10 And established it to Ya’aqob for a law,
To Yisra’el – an everlasting covenant,
11 Saying, “To you I give the land of Kena’an,
The portion of your inheritance.”
12 When they were few in number,
Few indeed, and sojourners in it,
13 And they went about from one nation to another,
From one reign to another people,
14 He allowed no one to oppress them,
And He reproved sovereigns for their sakes,
15 Saying, “Do not touch My anointed ones,
And do My prophets no evil.”
16 And He called for a scarcity of food in the land;
He cut off all the supply of bread.
17 He sent ahead of them a man,
Yosheph, sold as a slave.
18 They afflicted his feet with shackles,
His neck was put in irons.
19 Until the time that His Word came,
The Word of Yah tried him.
20 The sovereign sent and released him,
The ruler of the people let him loose.
21 He made him master of his house,
And ruler over all his possessions,
22 To bind his chiefs at his pleasure,
And to teach his elders wisdom.
23 Then Yisra’el came to Mitsrayim,
And Ya’aqob sojourned in the land of Ham.
24 And He increased His people greatly,
And made them stronger than their enemies.
25 He turned their heart to hate His people,
   To conspire against His servants.
26 He sent Mosheh His servant,
   Aharon whom He had chosen.
27 They set among them the matters of His signs,
   And wonders in the land of Ham.
28 He sent darkness, and made it dark;
   And they did not rebel against His word.
29 He turned their waters into blood,
   And killed their fish.
30 Their land teemed with frogs,
   In the rooms of their sovereigns.
31 He spoke, and swarms of flies came,
   Gnats in all their borders.
32 He gave them hail for rain,
   A flaming fire in their land.
33 He smote their vines and their fig trees,
   And broke the trees of their borders.
34 He spoke, and locusts came,
   And larvae, innumerable,
35 And they devoured all the plants in their land,
   And they devoured the fruit of their ground.
36 Then He smote all the first-born in their land,
   The first-fruit of all their strength,
37 And brought them out with silver and gold,
   And among His tribes no one faltered.
38 Mitsrayim was glad when they left,
   For the fear of them had fallen upon them.
39 He spread a cloud for a covering,
   And fire to give light in the night.
40 They asked, and He brought quail,
   And satisfied them with the bread of heaven.
41 He opened the rock, and water gushed out;
   It ran in the dry places, a river.
42 For He remembered His set-apart word,
   To Abraham His servant.
43 So He brought out His people with joy,
   His chosen ones with singing.
44 And He gave to them the lands of the gentiles,
   And they inherited the labour of peoples,
45 In order that they might guard His laws,
   And watch over His Torot. ¹ Praise Yah!

106 Praise Yah!
   Oh, give thanks to יהוה, For He is good!
   For His kindness is everlasting.
2 Who does relate the mighty acts of יהוה?
   Or declare all His praise?
3 Blessed are those who guard right-ruling,
   Who do righteousness at all times!
4 Remember me, O יהוה, in the acceptance of Your people;
   Visit me with Your deliverance,
5 To see the good of Your chosen ones,
   To rejoice in the gladness of Your nation,
   To make my boast with Your inheritance.
6 We have sinned with our fathers,
   We have acted perversely,
   We have done wrong.
7 Our fathers in Mitsrayim did not understand Your wonders;
   They did not remember Your many kindnesses,
   But rebelled by the sea, the Sea of Reeds.
8 But He saved them for His Name’s sake,
   To make known His might.
9 And He rebuked the Sea of Reeds, and it dried up;
   And He led them through the depths,
   Through a wilderness.
10 And He saved them from the hand of the hater,
   And redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.
11 And waters covered their adversaries;
   Not one of them was left.

¹ Torot - plural of Torah - teaching
12 Then they believed His words;
They sang His praise.
13 They soon forgot His works;
They did not wait for His counsel,
14 But greedily lusted in the wilderness,
And tried El in the desert.
15 And He gave them their request,
But sent leanness within their being.
16 And they were jealous of Mosheh in the camp,
Of Aharon, the set-apart one of HWHY,
17 Then the earth opened up and swallowed Dathan,
And covered the company of Abiram.
18 And a fire burned in their company;
A flame consumed the wrong.
19 They made a calf in Horëb,
And bowed down to a moulded image.
20 Thus they changed My esteem
Into the form of an ox that eats grass.
21 They forgot El their Saviour,
The Doer of great deeds in Mitsrayim,
22 Of wonders in the land of Ham,
Of awesome deeds by the Sea of Reeds.
23 Then He said that He would destroy
them,
Had not Mosheh His chosen one stood before Him in the breach,
To turn away His wrath from destroying them.
24 They then despised the pleasant land;
They did not believe His word,
25 And they grumbled in their tents,
They did not listen to the voice of HWHY.
26 So He lifted up His hand in an oath
against them,
To make them fall in the wilderness, 27 And to make their seed fall among the gentiles,
And to scatter them in the lands.
28 And they joined themselves to Ba’al
Pe’or,
And ate slaughterings made to the dead.
29 Thus they provoked Him with their deeds,
And the plague broke out among them.
30 Then Pinehas stood up and intervened,
And the plague was stopped.
31 And that was reckoned to him for righteousness
To all generations forever.
32 And they provoked wrath at the waters of Meribah,
And Mosheh suffered on account of
them;
33 Because they embittered his spirit,
And he spoke rashly with his lips.
34 They did not destroy the peoples,
As HWHY had commanded them,
35 But mixed with the gentiles
And learned their works,
36 And served their idols,
And they became a snare to them.
37 And they slaughtered their sons
And their daughters to demons,
38 And they shed innocent blood,
The blood of their sons and daughters,
Whom they offered to the idols of Kena’an;
And the land was defiled with blood.
39 So they became unclean by their own works,
And went whoring by their own deeds.
40 And the wrath of HWHY burned against His people,
And He loathed His own inheritance.
41 Then He gave them into the hand of the gentiles,
And those who hated them ruled over
them.
42 And their enemies oppressed them,
And they were humbled under their
hand.
43 Many times He delivered them;
But they rebelled in their plans,
So they were brought low for their crookedness.
44 But He would look on their distress,
When He heard their cry,
45 And remember His covenant for their sake,
And relent according to the greatness of His kindness.
46 And He would let them find compassion,
Before all those holding them captive.
47 Save us, O HWHY our Elohim,
And gather us from among the gentiles,
To give thanks to Your set-apart Name,
To exult in Your praise.

48 Blessed be יהוה Elohim of Yisra’el From everlasting to everlasting!
And all the people shall say, “Amën!”
Praise Yah!

107 Give thanks to יהוה! For He is good,
For His kindness is everlasting.
1 Let the redeemed of יהוה say so,
Whom He has redeemed from the hand of the adversary,
2 And gathered out of the lands,
From east and from west,
From north and from south.
3 They wandered in a wilderness,
in a desert way;
They found no city to dwell in.
4 Hungry and thirsty,
Their being in them grew faint.
5 Then they cried out to יהוה in their distress,
He delivered them out of their troubles.
6 And He guided them by the right way,
To go to a city to settle.
7 Let them give thanks to יהוה for His kindness,
And His wonders to the children of men!
8 For He has satisfied a longing being,
And has filled the hungry being with goodness.
9 Some sat in darkness and in the shadow of death,
Bound in affliction and irons,
10 Because they rebelled against the words of El,
And despised the counsel of the Most High.
11 And He humbled their heart by toil;
They stumbled, and there was no one to help.
12 And they cried out to יהוה in their distress,
And He saved them out of their troubles.
13 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death,
And He broke their chains in pieces.
14 Let them give thanks to יהוה for His kindness,
And His wonders to the children of men!
15 For He has broken the gates of bronze,
And He cut the bars of iron in two.
16 Fools, because of their transgression,
And because of their crookednesses, were afflicted.
17 Their being loathed all food,
And they drew near to the gates of death,
18 And cried out to יהוה in their distress,
He saved them out of their troubles.
19 He sent His word and healed them,
And delivered them from their destructions.
20 Let them give thanks to יהוה for His kindness,
And His wonders to the children of men!
21 For He commands and raises the stormy wind,
Which lifts up the waves of the sea.
22 They go up to the heavens,
They go down to the depths;
Their being is melted because of evil.
23 Those who go down to the sea in ships,
Doing work in many waters,
24 They see the works of יהוה,
And His wonders in the deep.
25 For He gives a song to the sea;
And a thanksgiving to the noise of the waves.
26 They show His wonders to the children of men!
27 And let them bring slaughterings of thanksgiving,
And relate His works with rejoicing.
28 Those who go down to the sea in ships,
Doing work in many waters,
29 He caused the storm to be still,
And its waves were stilled.
30 And they cry out to יהוה in their distress,
And He brings them out of their troubles.
31 He caused the storm to be still,
And its waves were stilled.
32 And they rejoice because they are hushed;
And He leads them to the haven of their delight.
33 Let them give thanks to יהוה for His kindness,
And His wonders to the children of men!
34 And let them exalt Him in the assembly of the people,
And praise Him in the seat of the elders.

33 He makes rivers become a wilderness, And the fountains of water become a dry ground;

34 A land of fruit becomes a salty desert, For the evil of those who dwell in it.

35 He makes a wilderness become a pool of water, And dry land become fountains of waters.

36 And He causes the hungry to dwell there, And they build a city to settle in, And they sow fields and plant vineyards, And they make fruits of increase.

38 And He blesses them, And they increase greatly; And He lets not their cattle diminish.

39 But when they are diminished and brought low Through oppression, evil and sorrow,

40 He pours scorn on nobles, And causes them to wander in a pathless waste;

41 But He raises the poor up from affliction, And makes their clans like a flock.

42 The straight ones see, and rejoice, And all unrighteousness shuts its mouth.

43 Who is wise? Then let him observe these matters! Let them understand the kindnesses of Elohim.

108 O Elohim, my heart is steadfast; I sing and give praise – even my esteem.

2 Awake, harp and lyre! I awake the dawn.

3 I praise You, O Elohim, among peoples, And I sing praises to You among the nations.

4 For Your kindness is great above the heavens, And Your truth reaches to the clouds.

5 Exalt Yourself above the heavens, O Elohim, And Your esteem above all the earth;

6 In order that those You love Might be delivered. Save with Your right hand, And answer me.

7 Elohim has spoken in His set-apartness, “I exult, I portion out Shekem, And I measure out the Valley of Sukkoth.

8 “Gil’ad is Mine, Menasheh is Mine, And Ephrayim is My chief defence, Yehudah is My lawgiver.

9 “Mo’ab is My wash-pot, Over Edom I cast My shoe, Over Philistia I raise a shout.”

10 Who would bring me into the strong city? Who shall lead me to Edom?

11 Have You not rejected us, O Elohim? And You do not go out with our armies, O Elohim!

12 Give us help from distress, For the help of man is naught.

13 In Elohim we do mightily, For it is He who treads down our adversaries.

109 Do not be silent, O Elohim of my praise!

2 For the mouth of the wrong And the mouth of the deceiver Have opened against me; They have spoken against me with a false tongue.

3 They have surrounded me with words of hatred, And they attack me without a cause.

4 In return for my love they accuse me, While I am in prayer.

5 And they repay me evil for good, And hatred for my love.

6 Appoint over him one who is wrong, And let an accuser stand at his right hand.

7 When he is judged, let him be found wrong, And let his prayer become sin.

8 Let his days be few, Let another take his office.

9 Let his children be fatherless, And his wife a widow.
10 And let his children always wander and beg, And seek food out of their ruins.
11 Let the creditor lay a snare for all that he has, And let strangers plunder his labour.
12 Let him have no one to extend kindness, Nor any to show favour to his fatherless children.
13 Let his descendants be cut off. Their name be blotted out in the next generation.
14 Let the crookedness of his fathers Be remembered before יהוה, And let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.
15 Let them always be before יהוה, And let Him cut off their remembrance from the earth;
16 Because he did not remember to show kindness, But persecuted the poor and needy man; And the broken-hearted, to put to death.
17 He also loved cursing, so let it come to him; And he did not delight in blessing, so let it be far from him.
18 And he put cursing on as with his garment, So let it enter his inward parts like water, Into his bones and like oil.
19 Let it be to him like a cloak he wraps around him, And as a girdle that he always girds on.
20 This is the reward of my accusers from יהוה, And to those speaking evil against my being.
21 But You, O יהוה, Master, Deal with me for Your Name’s sake; Because Your kindness is good, deliver me.
22 For I am poor and needy, And my heart is pierced within me.
23 I have gone like a lengthening shadow, I have been driven away like a locust.
24 My knees are weak through fasting, And my flesh grows lean from fatness.
25 And I, I have become a reproach to them; They see me, they shake their heads.
26 Help me, O יהוה my Elohim! Save me according to Your kindness, And let them know that this is Your hand.
You, יהוה, You have done it!
28 Let them curse, but You bless. They shall arise, but be ashamed, And let Your servant rejoice.
29 Let my accusers put on shame, And be wrapped in their own confusion as in a cloak.
30 I greatly thank יהוה with my mouth, And I praise Him in the midst of the throng.
31 For He stands at the right hand of the poor, To save from those judging his being.
110 יהוה said to my Master, “Sit at My right hand, Until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet.”
2 יהוה sends Your mighty sceptre out of Tsiyon. Rule in the midst of Your enemies!
3 Your people volunteer in the day of Your might, In the splendours of set-apartness! From the womb, from the morning, You have the dew of Your youth!
4 יהוה has sworn and does not relent, “You are a priest forever According to the order of Malkitesdeque.”
5 יהוה at Your right hand Shall smite sovereigns in the day of His wrath.
6 He judges among the nations, He shall fill the nations with dead bodies, He shall crush the Head over the mighty earth!
7 He drinks of the stream by the wayside, Therefore He does lift up the head!
Praise Yah! I thank הוהי with all my heart,
In the company of the straight,
and of the congregation.
2 Great are the works of הוהי,
Searched for by all who delight in them.
3 Splendour and greatness are His work,
And His righteousness stands forever.
4 He has made His wonders to be remembered;
והי shows favour and is compassionate.
5 He has given food to those who fear Him;
He remembers His covenant forever.
6 He has shown His people the power of His works,
To give to them the inheritance of the gentiles.
7 The works of His hands are truth and right-ruling,
All His orders are trustworthy,
8 They are upheld forever and ever,
Performed in truth and straightness.
9 He sent redemption to His people,
He has commanded His covenant forever.
Set-apart and awesome is His Name.
10 The fear of הוהי is the beginning of wisdom,
All those doing them have a good understanding.
His praise is standing forever.

Praise Yah!
Blessed is the man,
Who fears הוהי,
Who has greatly delighted in His commands.
2 Mighty in the earth shall be his seed,
The generation of the straight ones shall be blessed.
3 Wealth and riches are in his house,
And his righteousness is standing forever.
4 Light has risen in the darkness to the straight ones,
Those showing favour,
The compassionate,
And the righteous.
5 Good is a man showing favour and lending,
He sustains his matters in right-ruling.
6 For he is never shaken;
The righteous is remembered forever.
7 He is not afraid of an evil report.
His heart is steadfast, trusting in הוהי.
8 His heart is upheld, he is not afraid,
While he looks on his adversaries.
9 He scattered abroad,
He gave to the poor,
His righteousness is standing forever.
His horn is exalted with esteem.
10 The wrong one sees it and shall be vexed;
He gnashes his teeth and shall melt.
The desire of the wrong ones does perish.

Praise Yah!
Praise, O servants of הוהי,
Praise the Name of הוהי!
2 Blessed be the Name of הוהי,
Now and forever!
3 From the rising of the sun to its going down,
The Name of הוהי is praised.
4 הוהי is high above all nations,
His esteem above the heavens.
5 Who is like הוהי our Elohim,
Who is enthroned on high?
6 He looks down on the heavens and in the earth;
7 He raises the poor out of the dust,
Lifts the needy from a dunghill,
8 To make him sit with the nobles,
With the nobles of His people,
9 Causing the barren woman to dwell in a house,
A rejoicing mother of children.
Praise Yah!

When Yisra’el went out of Mitsrayim,
The house of Ya’aqoḇ from a people of strange language,
2 Yehudah became His set-apart place,
And Yisra’ĕl His rule.

3 The sea saw it and fled;
The Yardĕn turned back.

4 The mountains skipped like rams,
The little hills like lambs.

5 Why was it, O sea, that you fled?
O Yardĕn, that you turned back?

6 O mountains, that you skipped like rams?
O little hills, like lambs?

7 Tremble, O earth,
from the face of the Master,
From the face of the Eloah of Ya’aqoḇ,

8 Who turned the rock into a pool of water,
The flint into a fountain of water.

115 Not to us, O יהוה, not to us,
But to Your Name give esteem,
For Your kindness,
For Your truth.

2 Why should the gentiles say,
“Where now is their Elohim?”

3 But our Elohim is in the heavens;
Whatever pleased Him, He has done.

4 Their idols are silver and gold,
The work of men’s hands.

5 They have mouths, but they do not speak;
They have eyes, but they do not see;

6 They have ears, but they do not hear;
They have noses, but they do not smell;

7 They have hands, but they do not handle;
They have feet, but they do not walk;
They make no sound through their throat.

8 The ones who make them, shall become like them—
All who trust in them.

9 O Yisra’ĕl, trust in יהוה;
He is their help and their shield.

10 O house of Aharon, trust in יהוה;
He is their help and their shield.

11 You who fear יהוה, trust in יהוה;
He is their help and their shield.

12 יהוה has remembered us;
He blesses us;
He blesses the house of Yisra’ĕl;
He blesses the house of Aharon.

13 He blesses those who fear יהוה,
The small and the great.

14 יהוה give you increase more and more,
You and your children.

15 You are blessed by יהוה,
Who made the heavens and earth.

16 The heavens are the heavens of יהוה;
But He has given the earth to the children of men.

17 The dead do not praise Yah,
Nor any going down to silence.

18 But we, we bless Yah
Now and forever.
Praise Yah!

116 I love יהוה, because He has heard my voice, my pleas.

2 Because He has inclined His ear to me,
And I shall call throughout my days.

3 The cords of death were around me,
And the pains of the grave came upon me;
I found distress and sorrow.

4 Then I called upon the Name of יהוה, “O יהוה, I pray to You, deliver my being!”

5 יהוה shows favour and is righteous;
And our Elohim is compassionate.

6 יהוה guards the simple;
I was brought low, but He saved me.

7 Return to your rest, O my being,
For יהוה has treated you well.

8 For You have delivered my being from death,
My eyes from tears,
My feet from falling.

9 I shall walk before יהוה in the land of the living.

10 I have believed, for I speak;
I have been greatly afflicted.

11 I said in my haste, “All men are liars.”

12 What shall I return to יהוה?
All His bounties are upon me.

13 I lift up the cup of deliverance,
And call upon the Name of יהוה.

14 I pay my vows to יהוה
Now in the presence of all His people.

15 Precious in the eyes of יהוה
Is the death of His kind ones.

16 O יהוה, I am truly Your servant,
I am Your servant, the son of Your female servant;
You have loosed my bonds.
17 I bring You a slaughtering of thanksgiving,
And call upon the Name of יהוה.
18 I pay my vows to יהוה
In the presence of all His people,
19 In the courts of the House of יהוה,
In your midst, O Yerushalayim.
Praise Yah!

117 Praise יהוה, all you nations!
Extol Him, all you peoples!
2 For His kindness is mighty over us,
And the truth of יהוה is everlasting.
Praise Yah!

118 Oh, give thanks to יהוה, for He is good!
Because His kindness is everlasting.
2 Let Yisra’el now say,
“He is good!”
3 Let the house of Aharon now say,
“He is good!”
4 Let those who fear יהוה now say,
“He is good!”
5 I called on Yah in distress;
Yah answered me in a broad place.
6 יהוה is on my side;
I do not fear what man does to me!
7 יהוה is for me among those helping
me;
Therefore I look on those hating me.
8 It is better to take refuge in יהוה
Than to trust in man.
9 It is better to take refuge in יהוה
Than to trust in princes.
10 All the gentiles surrounded me,
In the Name of יהוה I shall cut them
off.
11 They surrounded me,
Yea, they surrounded me;
In the Name of יהוה shall I cut them
off.
12 They surrounded me like bees;
They were extinguished like burning thorns;
In the Name of יהוה I shall cut them
off.
13 Pushing, the enemy pushed me to fall,
But יהוה helped me.
14 Yah is my strength and song,
And He has become my deliverance.
15 The voice of rejoicing and deliverance
Is in the tents of the righteous;
The right hand of יהוה is doing mightily.
16 The right hand of יהוה is exalted,
The right hand of יהוה acts mightily.
17 Let me not die, but live,
And declare the works of Yah.
18 Yah has punished me severely,
But did not give me over to death.
19 Open to me the gates of righteousness;
I enter through them, I thank Yah.
20 This is the gate of יהוה,
The righteous enter through it.
21 I thank You,
For You have answered me,
And have become my deliverance.
22 The stone which the builders rejected
Has become the chief corner-stone.
23 This was from יהוה,
It is marvellous in our eyes.
24 This is the day יהוה has made,
Let us rejoice and be glad in it.
25 I pray, O יהוה, please save;
I pray, O יהוה, please send prosperity.
26 Blessed is He who is coming in the Name of יהוה!
We shall bless you from the House of יהוה.
27 יהוה is El, and He gave us light;
Bind the festal offering
With cords to the horns of the altar.
28 You are my El, and I praise You;
You are my Elohim, I exalt You.
29 Give thanks to יהוה, for He is good!
For His kindness is everlasting.

119 Blessed are the perfect in the way,
Who walk in the teaching of HWHY!

2 Blessed are those who observe His witnesses,
Who seek Him with all the heart!
3 Yea, they shall do no unrighteousness;
They shall walk in His ways.
4 You have commanded us To guard Your orders diligently.
5 Oh, that my ways were established To guard Your laws!
6 Then I would not be ashamed, When I look into all Your commands.
7 I thank You with uprightness of heart, When I learn the right-rulings of Your righteousness.
8 I guard Your laws; Oh, do not leave me entirely!
9 How would a young man cleanse his path.
To guard it according to Your word?
10 I have sought You with all my heart; Let me not stray from Your commands!
11 I have treasured up Your word in my heart, That I might not sin against You.
12 Blessed are You, O HWHY! Teach me Your laws.
13 With my lips I have recounted All the right-rulings of Your mouth.
14 I have rejoiced in the way of Your witnesses, As over all riches.
15 I meditate on Your orders, And regard Your ways.
16 I delight myself in Your laws; I do not forget Your word.
17 Do good to Your servant, Let me live and I guard Your word.
18 Open my eyes, that I might see Wonders from Your Torah.
19 I am a sojourner in the earth; Do not hide Your commands from me.
20 My being is crushed with longing For Your right-rulings at all times.
21 You rebuked the proud, cursed ones, Who are straying from Your commands.
22 Remove from me reproach and scorn, For I have observed Your commands.
23 Though princes sat, speaking against me, Your servant meditates on Your laws.
24 Your witnesses also are my delight, My counsellors.
25 My being has been clinging to the dust; Revive me according to Your word.
26 I have recounted my ways and You answered me; Teach me Your laws.
27 Make me understand the way of Your orders; That I might meditate on Your wonders.
28 My being has wept from grief; Strengthen me according to Your word.
29 Remove from me the way of falsehood, And favour me with Your Torah.
30 I have chosen the way of truth; Your right-rulings I have held level.
31 I have clung to Your truth; O HWHY, do not put me to shame!
32 I run the way of Your commands, For You enlarge my heart.
33 Teach me, O HWHY, the way of Your laws, And I observe it to the end.
34 Make me understand, that I might observe Your Torah, And guard it with all my heart.
35 Make me walk in the path of Your commands, For I have delighted in it.
36 Incline my heart to Your witnesses, And not to own gain.
37 Turn away my eyes from looking at falsehood, And revive me in Your way.
38 Establish Your word to Your servant, Which leads to the fear of You.
39 Turn away my reproach which I dread,
For Your right-rulings are good.
40 See, I have longed for Your orders;
Revive me in Your righteousness.
41 And let Your kindnesses come to me,
O הוהי;
Your deliverance, according to
Your word,
42 So that I answer my reprover,
For I have trusted in Your word.
43 And do not take away from my mouth
The word of truth entirely,
For I have waited for
Your right-rulings;
44 That I might guard Your Torah continually,
Forever and ever;
45 That I might walk in a broad place,
For I have sought Your orders;
46 That I might speak of Your witnesses before sovereigns,
And not be ashamed;
47 That I might delight myself in
Your commands,
Which I have loved;
48 That I might lift up my hands to
Your commands,
Which I have loved;
While I meditate on Your laws.
49 Remember the word to Your servant,
On which You have caused me to wait.
50 This is my comfort in my affliction,
For Your word has given me life.
51 The proud have utterly scorned me,
I did not turn aside from
Your Torah.
52 I remembered Your right-rulings of old, O הוהי,
And I comfort myself.
53 Rage has seized me because of the wrong
Who forsake Your Torah.
54 Your laws have been my songs
In the place of my sojournings.
55 I have remembered Your Name in the night, O הוהי,
And I guard Your Torah.
56 This has become mine,
Because I have observed Your orders.
57 You are my portion, O הוהי;
I have promised to guard Your words.
58 I have sought Your face with all my heart;
Show me favour according to
Your word.
59 I have thought upon my ways,
And turned my feet to Your witnesses.
60 I have hurried, and did not delay
To guard Your commands.
61 The cords of the wrong have surrounded me,
Your Torah I have not forgotten.
62 At midnight I rise to give thanks to You,
For Your righteous right-rulings.
63 I am a companion of all who fear You,
And of those guarding Your orders.
64 O הוהי, Your kindness has filled
the earth;
Teach me Your laws.
65 You have done good to Your servant,
O הוהי;
According to Your word.
66 Teach me good sense and knowledge,
For I have trusted in Your words.
67 Before I was afflicted I myself was going astray,
But now I have guarded Your word.
68 You are good, and do good;
Teach me Your laws.
69 The proud have forged a lie
against me,
With all my heart I observe
Your orders.
70 Their heart has become like fat,
Without feeling;
I have delighted in Your Torah.
71 It was good for me that I was afflicted,
That I might learn Your laws.
72 The Torah of Your mouth is better to me
Than thousands of gold and silver pieces.
73 Your hands have made me and formed
me;
Make me understand, that I might learn
Your commands.
74 Those who fear You see me and rejoice,
For I have waited for Your Word.
75 I know, O הוהי,
That Your right-rulings are righteous,
And in trustworthiness You have afflicted me.

76 Please let Your kindness be for my comfort,
According to Your word to Your servant.

77 Let Your compassions come to me,
That I might live,
For Your Torah is my delight.

78 Let the proud be put to shame,
For with lies they perverted me;
But I study Your orders.

79 Let those who fear You turn to me,
And those who know Your witnesses.

80 Let my heart be perfect in Your laws,
So that I am not put to shame.

81 For Your deliverance my being has pined away,
For I have waited for Your word.

82 My eyes have pined away for Your word,
Saying, “When would it comfort me?”

83 For I have become like a wineskin in the smoke,
Your laws I have not forgotten.

84 How many are the days of Your servant?
When do You execute right-ruling On those who persecute me?

85 The proud have dug pits for me,
Which is not according to Your Torah.

86 All Your commands are trustworthy;
They have persecuted me with lies;
Help me!

87 They almost made an end of me on earth,
But I, I did not forsake Your orders.

88 Revive me according to Your kindness,
That I might guard the witness of Your mouth.

89 Forever, O יְהֹוָה, Your word stands firm in the heavens.

90 Your trustworthiness is to all generations;
You established the earth, and it stands.

91 According to Your right-rulings They have stood to this day,
For all are Your servants.

92 If Your Torah had not been my delight,
I would have perished in my affliction.

93 Let me never forget Your orders,
For by them You have given me life.

94 I am Yours, save me;
For I have sought Your orders.

95 The wrong have waited for me to destroy me;
I understand Your witnesses.

96 I have seen an end of all perfection;
Your command is exceedingly broad.

97 O how I love Your Torah!
It is my study all day long.

98 Your commands make me wiser than my enemies;
For it is ever before me.

99 I have more understanding than all my teachers,
For Your witnesses are my study.

100 I understand more than the aged,
For I have observed Your orders.

101 I have restrained my feet from every evil way,
That I mightguard Your word.

102 I have not turned aside from Your right-rulings,
For You Yourself have taught me.

103 How sweet to my taste has Your word been,
More than honey to my mouth!

104 From Your orders I get understanding;
Therefore I have hated every false way.

105 Your word is a lamp to my feet
And a light to my path.

106 I have sworn, and I confirm,
To guard Your righteous right-rulings.

107 I have been afflicted very much;
O יְהֹוָה, revive me according to Your word.

108 Please accept the voluntary offerings Of my mouth, O יְהֹוָה,
And teach me Your right-rulings.

109 My life is in my hand continually,
And Your Torah I have not forgotten.

110 The wrong have laid a snare for me,
But I have not strayed from Your orders.

111 Your witnesses are my inheritance forever,

h See also vv. 113, 119, 127, 163, 165, 167.
For they are the joy of my heart.

112 I have inclined my heart to do Your laws Forever, to the end.

113 I have hated doubting thoughts, But I have loved Your Torah.

114 You are my hiding place and my shield; I have waited for Your word.

115 Turn away from me, you evil-doers, For I observe the commands of my Elohim!

116 Support me according to Your word, That I might live; And put me not to shame Because of my expectation.

117 Sustain me, that I might be saved, And always look to Your laws.

118 You have made light of all those Who stray from Your laws, For falsehood is their deceit.

119 You have made to cease All the wrong of the earth, like dross; Therefore I have loved Your witnesses.

120 My flesh has trembled for fear of You, And I am in awe of Your right-rulings.

121 I have done right-ruling and righteousness; Leave me not to my oppressors.

122 Guarantee Your servant’s well-being; Let not the proud oppress me.

123 My eyes have pined away for Your deliverance, And for the word of Your righteousness.

124 Do with Your servant according to Your kindness, And teach me Your laws.

125 I am Your servant – make me understand, That I might know Your witnesses.

126 It is time for הוהי to act! For they have broken Your Torah.

127 Therefore I have loved Your commands More than gold, even fine gold!

128 Therefore all Your orders I count as right; I have hated every false way.

129 Your witnesses are wonders; So my being observes them.

130 The opening up of Your words gives light, Giving understanding to the simple.

131 I have opened my mouth and panted, For I have longed for Your commands.

132 Turn to me and show me favour, According to Your right-ruling, toward those who love Your Name.

133 Establish my footsteps by Your word, And let no wickedness have rule over me.

134 Redeem me from the oppression of man, That I might guard Your orders.

135 Make Your face shine upon Your servant, And teach me Your laws.

136 Streams of water have run down from my eyes, Because they did not guard Your Torah.

137 Righteous are You, O הוהי, And Your right-rulings are straight.

138 You have commanded Your witnesses In righteousness and truth, exceedingly.

139 My ardour has consumed me, For my adversaries have forgotten Your words.

140 Your word is tried, exceedingly; And Your servant has loved it.

141 I am small and despised; I have not forgotten Your orders.

142 Your righteousness is righteousness forever, And Your Torah is truth.

143 Distress and anguish have found me; Your commands are my delight.

144 The righteousness of Your witnesses is forever; Make me understand, that I might live.

145 I have called with all my heart; Answer me, O הוהי! I observe Your laws.

146 I have called upon You; Save me, that I might guard Your witnesses.

147 I rise before dawn, and cry for help; I have waited for Your word.

148 My eyes have gone before the night watches,
To study Your word.
149Hear my voice according to Your kindness;
O יְהֹוָה, revive me according to Your right-ruling.
150Those who pursue mischief have drawn near;
They have been far from Your Torah.
151You are near, O יְהֹוָה,
And all Your commands are truth.
152Of old I have known Your witnesses,
That You have founded them forever.
153See my affliction and deliver me,
For I have not forgotten Your Torah.
154Plead my cause and redeem me;
Revive me according to Your word.
155Deliverance is far from the wrong ones,
For they have not sought Your laws.
156Your compassions are many, O יְהֹוָה;
Revive me according to Your right-rulings.
157My persecutors and adversaries are many;
I have not turned aside from Your witnesses.
158I saw traitors and was grieved,
Because they did not guard Your word.
159See how I have loved Your orders, יְהֹוָה,
revive me according to Your kindness.
160The sum of Your word is truth,
And all Your righteous right-rulings are forever.
161Rulers have persecuted me without a cause,
But at Your word my heart stood in awe.
162I rejoice at Your word
As one who finds great treasure.
163I have hated falsehood and loathe it,
Your Torah I have loved.
164I have praised You seven times a day,
Because of Your righteous right-rulings.
165Great peace have those loving Your Torah,
And for them there is no stumbling-block.
166יְהֹוָה, I have waited for Your deliverance,
And I have done Your commands.
167My being has guarded Your witnesses,
And I love them exceedingly.
168I have guarded Your orders and Your witnesses,
For all my ways are before You.
169My cry comes before You, O יְהֹוָה;
Make me understand according to Your word.
170Let my prayer come before You;
Deliver me according to Your word.
171My lips pour forth praise,
For You teach me Your laws.
172My tongue sings of Your word,
For all Your commands are righteousness.
173Your hand is a help to me,
For I have chosen Your orders.
174I have longed for Your deliverance, יְהֹוָה,
And Your Torah is my delight.
175My being lives, and it praises You;
And Your right-rulings help me.
176I have strayed like a lost sheep;
Seek Your servant,
For I have not forgotten Your commands.
120 In my distress I cried to יְהֹוָה,
And He answered me.
2יְהֹוָה, deliver my being from false lips,
From a treacherous tongue.
3What would one give to you,
Or what would one do to you, O treacherous tongue?
4Sharp arrows of a mighty man,
With coals of the broom-wood!
5Woe to me for I have sojourned in Mesheḵ,
I have dwelt among the tents of Qēḏar!
6My being has dwelt too long
With him who hates peace.
7I am for peace;
But when I speak, they are for fighting.
121 I lift up my eyes to the hills;
Where does my help come from?
2My help comes from יְהֹוָה,
Maker of the heavens and earth.
3 He does not allow your foot to be moved; He who watches over you does not slumber.
4 See, He who is guarding Yisra’el Neither slumbers nor sleeps.
5 לא א is your guard; יְהֹוָה is your shade at your right hand.
6 The sun does not strike you by day, Nor the moon by night.
7 יְהֹוָה guards you from all evil; He guards your being.
8 יְהֹוָה guards your going out and your coming in Now and forever.

122 I was glad when they said to me, “Let us go into the House of יְהֹוָה.”
2 Our feet have been standing Within your gates, O Yerushalayim!
3 Yerushalayim is built As a city that is bound together,
4 Where the tribes have come up, The tribes of Yah, A witness to Yisra’el, To give thanks to the Name of יְהֹוָה.
5 For there the thrones of right-ruling were set, The thrones of the house of DawiÅ.
6 Pray for the peace of Yerushalayim, Let those who love You be at rest.
7 Peace be within your walls, Rest in your citadels.
8 For the sake of my brothers and companions, I say, “Peace be within you.”
9 For the sake of the House of יְהֹוָה our Elohim I seek your good.

123 I shall lift up my eyes Unto You who dwell in the heavens.
2 See, as the eyes of servants Are toward the hand of their masters, As the eyes of a female servant Are toward the hand of her mistress, So are our eyes toward יְהֹוָה our Elohim, Until He shows favour to us.
3 Show favour to us, O יְהֹוָה, show favour to us! For we are exceedingly filled with mockery.
4 Our being is exceedingly filled With the scoffing of those who are at ease, With the mockery of the proud.

124 “If it had not been יְהֹוָה who was on our side,”
2 “If it had not been יְהֹוָה who was on our side,
3 “Then they would have swallowed us alive, In their burning rage against us;
4 “Then the waters would have overwhelmed us, The stream would have gone over our being;
5 “Then the proud waters Would have gone over our being.”
6 Blessed be יְהֹוָה, Who did not give us as prey to their teeth.
7 Our being has escaped like a bird From the snare of the trappers; The snare was broken, and we have escaped.
8 Our help is in the Name of יְהֹוָה, Maker of the heavens and earth.

125 Those who trust in יְהֹוָה Are like Mount Tsiyon – It is not shaken, it remains forever.
2 As the mountains surround Yerushalayim, So יְהֹוָה surrounds His people, Now and forever.
3 For the sceptre of wrongness shall not rest On the land allotted to the righteous, Lest the righteous stretch forth their hands to unrighteousness.
4 Do good, O יְהֹוָה, to those who are good, And to those who are upright in their hearts.
5 But those who turn aside to their crooked ways,
shall lead them away
With the workers of wickedness.
Peace be upon Yisraʾēl!

126 When YHWH turns back the captivity of Tiṣyon,
We shall be like dreamers.
Then our mouth shall be filled with
laughter,
And our tongue with singing,
Then shall they say among the gentiles,
“He has done great deeds for them.”
shall do great deeds for us,
We shall be glad.
Then our mouth shall be filled with
laughter,
And our tongue with singing,
Then shall they say among the gentiles,
“HWHY has done great deeds for them.”
shall do great deeds for us,
We shall be glad.

127 If YHWH does not build the house,
Its builders have laboured
in vain.
If YHWH does not guard the city,
The watchman has stayed awake in vain.
In vain do you rise up early,
To sit up late, to eat the bread of toil;
So He gives His beloved sleep.
Look, children are an inheritance from
YHWH,
The fruit of the womb is the reward.
As arrows in the hand of a mighty man,
So are the children of one’s youth.
Blessed is the man
Who has filled his quiver with them.
They are not ashamed,
When they speak with their enemies in the gate.

128 Blessed are all who fear YHWH,
Who walk in His ways.
You shall eat the labour of your hands.
Be blessed, and let it be well with you.
Let your wife be
As a fruit-bearing vine within your house,
Your sons like olive plants all around your table.
Look, so shall the man be blessed
Who fears YHWH.
shall bless you out of Tiṣyon,
And let you see the good of Yerushalayim
All the days of your life,
And let you see your children’s children!
Peace be upon Yisraʾēl!

129 “Often they have distressed me from my youth.”
Let Yisraʾēl now say, “Often they have distressed me from my youth,
But they have not overcome me.
The ploughers ploughed on my back,
They made their furrows long.”
YHWH is righteous,
He has cut the cords of the wrong in two.
Let all those who hate Tiṣyon
Be put to shame and turned back.
Let them be as the grass on the house-
tops,
Which withers before it grows up,
That shall not fill the reaper’s hand,
Nor the sheaves fill the binder’s bosom.
And those who pass by shall not say,
“The blessing of YHWH be upon you;
We have blessed you in the Name of
YHWH!”

130 Out of the depths I have cried to You, O YHWH.
Hear my voice!
Let Your ears be attentive
To the voice of my prayers.
O Yah, if You should watch
crookednesses,
Who would stand?
But with You there is forgiveness,
That You might be feared.
I looked to YHWH,
My being has looked,
And for His word I have waited.
My being looks to YHWH
More than those watching for morning, watching for morning.

7 O Yisra’el, wait for יהוה;
For with יהוה there is kindness.
And with Him is much redemption,
8 For He shall redeem Yisra’el
From all his crookednesses.

131 O יהוה, my heart has not been proud,
Nor have my eyes been haughty.
Neither have I concerned myself with great matters,
Nor with those too wondrous for me.
2 Have I not calmed, and kept my being silent,
Like one weaned by its mother?
My being is like one weaned.

3 O Yisra’el, wait for יהוה,
Now and forever.

132 O יהוה, remember Dawiël,
All his afflictions;
2 How he swore to יהוה,
Vowed to the Mighty One of Ya’aqob:
3 “Not to enter into my dwelling-house,
Not to get into my bed,
4 “Not to give sleep to my eyes,
Or slumber to my eyelids,
5 “Until I find a place for יהוה,
A dwelling place for the Mighty One of Ya’aqob.”

6 See, we heard of it in Ephrathah;
We found it in the fields of the forest.
7 Let us go into His dwelling places;
Let us bow ourselves at His footstool.
8 Arise, O יהוה, to Your place of rest,
You and the ark of Your strength.
9 Let Your priests put on righteousness,
And Your kind ones shout for joy.
10 For the sake of Your servant Dawiël,
Do not turn away the face of Your Anointed One.
11 יהוה has sworn in truth to Dawiël;
He does not turn from it,
“Of the fruit of your body I set upon your throne.
12 “If your sons guard My covenant
And My witnesses that I teach them,
Their sons shall sit upon your throne forever.”

13 For יהוה has chosen Tsiyon,
He has desired it for His dwelling:
14 “This is My place of rest forever;
Here I dwell, for I have desired it.
15 “I greatly bless her provision,
I satisfy her poor with bread.
16 “And I put deliverance on her priests,
And her kind ones sing for joy.
17 “There I make the horn of Dawiël grow;
I shall set up a lamp for My Anointed One.
18 “I put shame on his enemies,
While on Him His diadem shall shine.”

133 See how good and how pleasant it is for brothers to dwell together in unity—
2 Like the precious oil on the head,
Running down on the beard,
The beard of Aharon,
Running down on the collar of his robes—
3 Like the dew of Hermon,
That comes down on the mountains of Tsiyon.
For there יהוה commanded the blessing,
Life forever!

134 Come, bless יהוה,
All you servants of יהוה,
Who are standing in the House of יהוה by night!
2 Lift up your hands in the set-apart place,
And bless יהוה.
3 יהוה, Maker of the heavens and earth,
Does bless you from Tsiyon!

135 Praise Yah!
Praise the Name of יהוה;
Praise you servants of יהוה,
Who are standing in the House of יהוה,
In the courts of the House of our Elohim,
3 Praise Yah, for יהוה is good;
Sing praises to His Name, for it is pleasant.
4 For Yah has chosen Ya’aqob for Himself,
Yisra’el for His treasured possession.
5 For I know that יהוה is great,
And our Master is above all mighty ones.
6 יהוה has done whatever pleased Him,
In the heavens and in earth,
In the seas and in all the depths,
7 Causing vapours to go up
From the ends of the earth;
He made lightning for the rain,
Bringing forth wind from His treasuries;
8 Who smote the first-born of Mitsrayim,
From man to beast.
9 He sent signs and wonders
Into your midst, O Mitsrayim,
On Pharaoh and on all his servants;
10 Who smote many nations,
And slew mighty sovereigns,
11 Even Siḥon sovereign of the Amorites,
And Oğ sovereign of Bashan,
And all the reigns of Kena’an.
12 And He gave their land as an
inheritance,
An inheritance to Yisra’el His people.
13 O יהוה, Your Name is forever,
O יהוה, Your remembrance to all
generations,
14 For יהוה rightly rules His people,
And has compassion on His servants.
15 The idols of the gentiles are silver and gold,
The work of men’s hands.
16 They have mouths, but they do not speak;
They have eyes, but they do not see;
17 They have ears, but they do not hear;
Also there is no breath in their mouth.
18 Those making them become like them,
Everyone who is trusting in them.
19 Bless יהוה, O house of Yisra’el!
Bless יהוה, O house of Aharon!
20 Bless יהוה, O house of Lĕwi!
You who fear יהוה, bless יהוה!
21 Blessed from Tsion, יהוה be,
Who dwells in Yerushalayim!
Praise Yah.

136 Give thanks to יהוה, for He is good!
For His kindness is everlasting.

2 Give thanks to the Elohim of mighty
ones!
For His kindness is everlasting.
3 Give thanks to the Master of masters!
For His kindness is everlasting:
4 To Him who alone does great wonders,
For His kindness is everlasting;
5 To Him who by wisdom made the heavens,
For His kindness is everlasting;
6 To Him who spread the earth on the waters,
For His kindness is everlasting;
7 To Him who made great lights,
For His kindness is everlasting;
8 The sun to rule by day,
For His kindness is everlasting;
9 The moon and stars to rule by night,
For His kindness is everlasting.
10 To Him who smote Mitsrayim in their first-born,
For His kindness is everlasting;
11 And brought out Yisra’el from their midst,
For His kindness is everlasting;
12 With a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm,
For His kindness is everlasting;
13 To Him who split apart the Sea of Reeds,
For His kindness is everlasting;
14 And made Yisra’el pass through the midst of it,
For His kindness is everlasting;
15 But shook off Pharaoh and his army in the Sea of Reeds,
For His kindness is everlasting;
16 To Him who led His people through the wilderness,
For His kindness is everlasting;
17 To Him who smote great sovereigns,
For His kindness is everlasting;
18 And slew mighty sovereigns,
For His kindness is everlasting;
19 Even Siḥon sovereign of the Amorites,
For His kindness is everlasting;
20 And Oğ sovereign of Bashan,
For His kindness is everlasting;
21 And gave their land as an inheritance,
For His kindness is everlasting;
22 An inheritance to Yisra’el His servant,
For His kindness is everlasting.
23 Who remembered us in our humiliation,
For His kindness is everlasting;
24 And rescued us from our adversaries,
For His kindness is everlasting;
25 Who gives food to all flesh,
For His kindness is everlasting.
26 Give thanks to the El of the heavens!
For His kindness is everlasting.

137 By the rivers of Baâlê,
There we sat down and we wept
As we remembered Tsiyôn.
2 We hung our lyres
Upon the willows in the midst of it.
3 For there our captors
Asked us for the words of a song,
And our plunderers for rejoicing,
saying,
“Sing to us a song of Tsiyôn!”
4 How could we sing the song of HWHY
On foreign soil?
5 If I forget you, O Yerushalayim,
Let my right hand forget.
6 Let my tongue cleave to my palate,
If I do not remember you,
If I do not exalt Yerushalayim
Above my chief joy.
7 Remember, O HWHY,
Against the sons of Edom
The day of Yerushalayim,
Who said, “Lay it bare, lay it bare,
To its foundation!”
8 O daughter of Baâlê, who are to be destroyed,
Blessed is he who repays you your deed,
What you did to us!
9 Blessed is he who shall take
And dash your little ones against the rock.

138 I give You thanks
with all my heart;
Before the mighty ones
I sing praises to You.
2 I bow myself toward Your set-apart Hêkal,
And give thanks to Your Name
For Your kindness and for Your truth;
For You have made great Your Word,
Your Name, above all.
3 On the day I called You did answer me,
You made me bold with strength in my being.
4 Let all the sovereigns of the earth
Give thanks to You, O HWHY,
When they shall hear the words of Your mouth.
5 And let them sing of the ways of HWHY,
For great is the esteem of HWHY.
6 Though HWHY is exalted,
He looks on the humble;
But the proud He perceives from a distance.
7 Though I walk in the midst of distress,
You revive me;
You stretch out Your hand
Against the wrath of my enemies,
And Your right hand saves me.
8 HWHY does perfect for me.
O HWHY, Your kindness is everlasting.
Do not forsake the works of Your hands.

139 O HWHY, You have searched me
And know me.
2 You know my sitting down and my rising up;
You understand my thought from afar.
3 You sift my path and my lying down,
And know well all my ways.
4 For there is not a word on my tongue,
But see, O HWHY, You know it all!
5 You have closed me in,
behind and before,
And laid Your hand upon me –
6 Knowledge too wondrous for me,
It is high, I am unable to reach it.
7 Where would I go from Your Spirit?
Or where would I flee from Your face?
8 If I go up into the heavens, You are there;
If I make my bed in the grave, see,
You are there.
9 I take the wings of the morning,
I dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea,
10 There, too, Your hand would lead me,
And Your right hand hold me.
11 If I say, “Darkness shall cover me,”
Then night would be light to me;
12 Even darkness is not dark for You,
    But night shines as the day —
    As is darkness, so is light.
13 For You, You possessed my kidneys,
    You have covered me in my mother’s womb.
14 I give thanks to You,
    For I am awesomely and wondrously made!
    Wondrous are Your works,
    And my being knows it well.
15 My bones was not concealed from You,
    When I was shaped in a hidden place,
    Knit together in the depths of the earth.
16 Your eyes saw my unformed body,
    And in Your book all of them were written,
    The days they were formed,
    While none was among them.
17 And how precious are Your thoughts to me, O Eloah!
    How great has been the sum of them!
18 If I should count them,
    They would be more than the sand;
    When I wake up, I am still with You.
19 Oh, that You would slay the wrong,
    O Eloah!
    Depart from me, therefore,
    men of bloodshed!
20 They speak against You wickedly.
    Bring Your enemies to naught!
21 O Eloah, do I not hate them, who hate You?
    And do I not loathe those who rise up against You?
22 With a complete hatred I hate them;
    They have become my enemies.
23 Search me, O Eloah, and know my heart;
    Try me, and know my thoughts;
24 And see if an idolatrous way is in me,
    And lead me in the way everlasting.

140 Rescue me, O Eloah,
    from men of evil;
    Preserve me from men of violence,
2 Who have devised evils in their hearts;
    They stir up conflicts all day long.
3 They sharpen their tongues like a snake;
    The poison of cobras is under their lips. Selah.
4 Guard me, O Eloah, from the hands of the wrong;
    Guard me from a man of violence,
    Who have schemed to trip up my steps.
5 The proud have hidden a trap for me,
    and cords;
    They have spread a net by the wayside;
    They have set snares for me. Selah.
6 I said to Eloah, “You are my Eloah;
    Hear the voice of my prayers, O Eloah.”
7 “O Master Eloah, my saving strength,
    You have screened my head in the day of battle.
8 “Do not grant the desires of the wrong,
    O Eloah;
    Do not promote his scheme. Selah.
9 “Those who surround me lift up their head;
    The trouble of their lips cover them;
10 “Let burning coals fall on them;
    Let them be made to fall into the fire,
    Into deep pits, let them not rise again.
11 “Let not a slanderer be established in the earth;
    Let evil hunt the man of violence speedily.”
12 I have known that Eloah maintains
    The cause of the afflicted,
    The right-ruling of the poor.
13 Only, let the righteous give thanks to Your Name,
    Let the straight ones dwell in Your presence.

141 Eloah, I have cried out to You;
    Hasten to me!
    Give ear to my voice when I cry out to You.
2 Let my prayer be prepared before You as incense,
    The lifting up of my hands as the evening offering.
3 O Eloah, set a guard for my mouth;
    Watch over the door of my lips.
4 Let not my heart be inclined to evil,
    To practise deeds of wrongness
    With men working wickedness,
    And let me not eat of their delicacies.
5 Let the righteous one smite me
    Or reprove me in kindness —
It is oil on my head.
Let my head not refuse it.
My prayer is still against their evil deeds.
Their judges have been thrown down
By the sides of the rock,
But they have heard my words,
For they have been pleasant.
Our bones are scattered at the mouth of the grave,
As when one ploughs and breaks up the earth.
But my eyes are upon You,
O Master יהוה.
In You I take refuge;
Do not pour out my life.
Guard me from the clutches
Of the trap they have laid for me,
And from the snares
Of the workers of wickedness.
Let the wrong fall into their own nets,
While I pass by.

I cry out to יהוה with my voice;
I pray to יהוה with my voice.
I pour out my complaint before Him;
I declare before Him my distress.
When my spirit grew faint within me,
Then You know my path.
In the way in which I walk
They have hidden a trap for me.
Look to the right hand and see,
And no one is concerned for me;
No refuge remains to me;
No one inquires after my being.
I cried out to You, O יהוה:
I said, “You are my refuge,
My portion in the land of the living.
“Listen to my cry,
For I am brought very low;
Deliver me from my persecutors,
For they are too strong for me.
“Bring my being out of prison,
To give thanks to Your Name.
Let the righteous gather around me,
Because You deal kindly with me.”

Hear my prayer, O יהוה,
Give ear to my pleadings
In Your trustworthiness.
Answer me in Your righteousness.

And do not enter into right-ruling with Your servant,
For before You no one living is in the right.
For the enemy has pursued my being;
He has crushed my life to the ground;
He has made me dwell in dark places,
Like the dead of old.
Therefore my spirit grew faint within me,
My heart within me is stunned.
I remembered the days of old;
I meditated on all Your works;
I ponder on the work of Your hands.
I have spread out my hands to You;
My being is like a thirsty land for You.
Selah.
Hasten, answer me, O יהוה;
My spirit fails! Do not hide Your face from me,
Lest I be like those going down into the pit.
Let me hear Your kindness in the morning,
For in You I have put my trust;
Let me know the way in which I should walk,
For I have lifted up my being to You.
Deliver me from my enemies, O יהוה;
I take refuge in You.
Teach me to do Your good pleasure,
For You are my Elohim.
Let Your good Spirit lead me
In the land of straightness.
For the sake of Your Name, יהוה, revive me!
In Your righteousness,
Bring my being out of distress.
And in Your kindness,
Cut off my enemies.
And destroy all the adversaries of my life,
For I am Your servant!

Blessed be יהוה my Rock,
Who is teaching my hands for fighting,
My fingers for battle;
My kindness and my stronghold,
My tower and my deliverer,
My shield, and in whom I take refuge,
Who is subduing peoples under me.
3 What is man, that You should know him?
Son of man, that You should think of him?
4 Man is like a breath,
His days like a passing shadow.
5 Incline Your heavens, O HWHY, and come down;
Touch the mountains that they smoke.
6 Send forth lightning and scatter them,
Send forth Your arrows and confuse them.
7 Send forth Your hand from above;
Rescue me and deliver me out of great waters,
From the hand of foreigners,
Whose mouth has spoken falsehood,
And whose right hand is a right hand of lies.
8 O Elohim, a new song I sing to You;
On a harp of ten strings I sing praises to You,
Who gives deliverance to sovereigns,
Who rescues DawiÅ His servant From the evil sword.
11 Rescue me and deliver me from the hand of foreigners,
Whose mouth has spoken falsehood,
And whose right hand is a right hand of lies;
12 Because our sons are like plants Grown up in their youth;
Our daughters like hewn stones,
Polished, like a palace building;
13 Let our storehouses be filled,
Supplying all kinds;
Let our sheep bring forth thousands And ten thousands in our fields;
14 Our cattle well-laden;
No breaking in, no going out;
And no crying in our streets.
15 Blessed are the people who have it so;
Blessed are the people whose Elohim is הוהי!

I exalt You, my Elohim, O Sovereign;
And bless Your Name forever and ever.
3 Great is הוהי, and greatly to be praised;
And His greatness is unsearchable.
4 Generation after generation praise Your works,
And they declare Your mighty acts.
5 I declare the esteemed splendour of Your excellency,
And the matters of Your wondrous works.
6 And they speak of the might of Your awesome acts,
And I recount Your greatness.
7 They send forth the remembrance of Your great goodness,
And they sing of Your righteousness.
8 הוהי shows favour and is compassionate,
Patient and great in kindness.
9 הוהי is good to all,
And He has compassion on all His works.
10 All Your works give thanks to You, O הוהי,
And Your kind ones bless You.
11 They speak of the esteem of Your reign,
And talk of Your might,
To make known to the sons of men His mighty acts,
And the esteemed splendour of His reign.
13 Your reign is an everlasting reign,
And Your rule is throughout all generations.
14 הוהי is supporting all who are falling,
And raising up all who are bowed down.
15 The eyes of all look to You expectantly,
And You are giving them their food in its season,
Opening Your hand and satisfying The desire of all that live.
17 הוהי is righteous in all His ways,
And kind in all His works.
18 הוהי is near to all who call upon Him,
To all who call upon Him in truth.
19 He does the desire of those who fear
Him;
And He hears their cry and saves them.

preserves all those loving Him,
But all the wrong ones He destroys.

My mouth speaks the praise of ,
And let all flesh bless
His set-apart Name,
Forever and ever.

Praise Yah!
Praise , O my being!
While I live I praise ;
I sing praises to my Elohim while I exist.

Do not put your trust in princes,
In a son of man, in whom is no deliverance.

His spirit goes out, he returns to his earth;
In that day his plans perish.

Blessed is he who has the of Ya‘aqob for his help,
Whose expectancy is in his Elohim,
Maker of the heavens and earth,
The sea and all that is in them,
Who is guarding truth forever,
Doing right-ruling for the oppressed,
Giving bread to the hungry.

releases those who are bound,
Opens the eyes of the blind,
Raises those who are bowed down,
Loves the righteous.

guards the strangers,
He lifts up the fatherless and widow,
But the way of the wrong ones
He turns upside down.

reigns forever, O Tsiyon,
Your Elohim to all generations.
Praise Yah!

Praise Yah!
For it is good to sing praises to our Elohim.
For it is pleasant – praise is fitting.
Builds up Yerushalayim,
He gathers the outcasts of Yisra’el –
He binds up their wounds.
He appoints the number of the stars,
He gives names to all of them.
Great is our Master and mighty in power,
There is no limit to His understanding.
lifts up the meek ones,
He throws the wrong ones down to the ground.
Respond to with thanksgiving;
Sing praises on a lyre to our Elohim,
Who covers the heavens with clouds,
Who prepares rain for the earth,
Who makes grass to sprout on the mountains,
Giving to the beast its food,
To the young ravens that cry.
He does not delight in the strength of the horse,
He takes no pleasure in the legs of a man.
 takes pleasure in those who fear Him,
In those who wait for His kindness.
Extol , O Yerushalayim!
Praise your Elohim, O Tsiyon!
For He has strengthened the bars of your gates,
He has blessed your children in your midst,
Who makes peace in your borders,
He satisfies you with the finest wheat;
Who sends out His command to the earth,
His word runs very speedily;
Who gives snow like wool,
He scatters the frost like ashes;
Throwing out His hail like pieces;
Who does stand before His cold?
He sends out His word and melts them,
He causes His wind to blow – the waters flow;
Declaring His Word to Ya‘aqob,
His laws and His right-rulings to Yisra’el,
He has not done so with any nation;
And they have not known His right-rulings!
Praise Yah!

These two verses (19 & 20) are confirmed in Rom. 2:20, Rom. 3:2, and Rom. 9:4.
148 Praise Yah!
   Praise הוהי from the heavens,
Praise Him in the heights!
2 Praise Him, all His messengers;
Praise Him, all His hosts!
3 Praise Him, sun and moon;
Praise Him, all you stars of light!
4 Praise Him, heavens of heavens,
And you waters above the heavens!
5 Let them praise the Name of הוהי,
For He commanded and they were created.
6 And He established them forever and ever,
He gave a law and they pass not beyond.
7 Praise הוהי from the earth,
You great sea creatures and all the depths,
8 Fire and hail, snow and clouds,
Stormy wind that does His word,
9 The mountains and all hills,
Fruit tree and all cedars,
10 Wild beasts and all cattle,
Creeping creatures and flying birds,
11 Sovereigns of the earth and all peoples,
Rulers and all judges of the earth,
12 Both young men and maidens,
Old men and children.
13 Let them praise the Name of הוהי,
For His Name alone is exalted,
His splendour is above the earth and heavens.
14 He also lifts up the horn of His people,
The praise of all His kind ones;
Of the children of Yisra’el,
A people near to Him. Praise Yah!

149 Praise Yah!
Sing to הוהי a new song,
His praise in an assembly of kind ones.
2 Let Yisra’el rejoice in their Maker;
Let the children of Tsiyon exult in their Sovereign.
3 Let them praise His Name in a dance;
Let them sing praises to Him with the tambourine and lyre.
4 For הוהי takes pleasure in His people;
He embellishes the meek ones with deliverance.
5 Let the kind ones exult in esteem;
Let them sing aloud on their beds.
6 Let the exaltation of אל be in their mouth,
And a two-edged sword in their hand,
7 To execute vengeance on the gentiles,
Punishments on the peoples;
8 To bind their sovereigns with chains,
And their nobles with iron bands;
9 To execute on them the written right-ruling;
A splendour it is for all His kind ones.
Praise Yah!

150 Praise Yah!
Praise אל in His set-apart place;
Praise Him in His mighty expanse!
2 Praise Him for His mighty acts;
Praise Him according to His excellent greatness!
3 Praise Him with the blowing of the ram’s horn;
Praise Him with the harp and lyre!
4 Praise Him with tambourine and dance;
Praise Him with stringed instruments and flutes!
5 Praise Him with sounding cymbals;
Praise Him with resounding cymbals!
6 Let all that have breath praise Yah.
Praise Yah!
1 The proverbs of Shelomoh son of Dawiď, sovereign of Yisra'ël:
2 For knowing wisdom and discipline,
   For understanding the words of understanding,
3 For receiving the discipline of wisdom,
   Righteousness, right-ruling, and straightness;
4 For giving insight to the simple,
   Knowledge and discretion to the young.
5 The wise one hears and increases learning,
   And the understanding one gets wise counsel,
6 For understanding a proverb and a figure,
   The words of the wise and their riddles.
7 The fear of HWHY is the beginning of knowledge;
   Fools despise wisdom and discipline.
8 My son, heed the discipline of your father,
   And do not forsake the Torah of your mother;
9 For they are a fair wreath on your head,
   And chains about your neck.
10 My son, if sinners entice you, do not give in.
11 If they say, “Come with us, let us lie in wait for blood,
   Let us ambush the innocent without cause.
12 “Let us swallow them alive like the grave,
   And entirely, like those going down to the pit.
13 “Let us find all precious goods,
   Let us fill our houses with spoil.
14 “Cast in your lot among us,
   Let us all have one purse,”
15 My son, do not walk in the way with them,
   Keep your foot from their path;
16 For their feet run to evil,
   And they hurry to shed blood.
17 For in vain the net is spread
   In the sight of any bird.
18 But they lie in wait for their own blood,
   They ambush their own lives.
19 Such are the ways of everyone greedy for gain;
   It takes away the life of its owners.
20 Wisdom calls aloud outside;
   She raises her voice in the broad places.
21 At the head of the noisy streets she cries out,
   At the openings of the gates,
   In the city she speaks her words:
22 “How long, you simple ones,
   Would you love simplicity,
   And shall scoffers delight in their scoffing,
   And fools hate knowledge?
23 “Turn at my reproof.
   See, I pour out my spirit on you,
   I make my words known to you.
24 “Because I called and you refused,
   I have stretched out my hand and no one inclined,
25 “And you spurned all my counsel,
   And would not yield to my reproof,
26 “Let me also laugh at your calamity,
   Mock when your dread comes,
27 “When your dread comes like a storm,
   And your calamity comes like a whirlwind,
   When distress and anguish come upon you.
28 “Let them then call on me, but I answer not;

a See also 9:10, Teh. 111:10.
b See footnote, Teh. 33:6.
Let them seek me, but not find me.
29 "Because they hated knowledge
And did not choose the fear of הוהי,
30 "They did not accept my counsel,
They despised all my reproof,
31 "Therefore let them eat the fruit of their own way,
And be filled with their own counsels.
32 "For the turning away of the simple slays them,
And the complacency of fools destroys them.
33 "But whoever listens to me dwells safely,
And is at ease from the dread of evil."

2 My son, if you accept my words,
And treasure up my commands with you,
2 So that you make your ear attend to wisdom,
Incline your heart to understanding;
3 For if you cry for discernment,
Lift up your voice for understanding,
4 If you seek her as silver,
And search for her as hidden treasures,
5 Then you would understand the fear of הוהי,
And find the knowledge of Elohim.
6 For הוהי gives wisdom;
Out of His mouth come knowledge and understanding.
7 And He treasures up stability for the straight,
A shield to those walking blamelessly,
8 To watch over the paths of right-ruling,
And the way of His kind ones He guards.
9 Then you would understand righteousness
And right-ruling, and straightness –
Every good path.
10 For wisdom would enter your heart,
And knowledge be pleasant to your being.
11 Discretion would guard you;
Understanding would watch over you,
12 To deliver you from the evil way,
From the man who speaks perversities,
13 Those who leave the paths of straightness
To walk in the ways of darkness;
14 Who rejoice to do evil;
They delight in the perversities of evil;
15 Whose paths are crooked,
And they are perverted in their ways;
16 To deliver you from the strange woman,
From the foreigner who flatters with her words,
17 Who forsakes the companion of her youth,
And has forgotten the covenant of her Elohim.
18 For her house has sunk down to death,
And her paths to the dead;
19 None going in to her does return,
Nor do they reach the paths of life –
20 So walk in the way of goodness,
And guard the paths of righteousness.
21 For the straight shall dwell in the earth,
And the perfect be left in it;
22 But the wrong shall be cut off from the earth,
And the treacherous ones plucked out of it.

3 My son, do not forget my Torah,
And let your heart watch over my commands;
2 For length of days and long life
And peace they add to you.
3 Let not kindness and truth forsake you –
Bind them around your neck,
Write them on the tablet of your heart,
4 Thus finding favour and good insight
In the eyes of Elohim and man.
5 Trust in הוהי with all your heart,
And lean not on your own understanding;
6 Know Him in all your ways,
And He makes all your paths straight.
7 Do not be wise in your own eyes;
Fear הוהי and turn away from evil.  d
8 It is healing to your navel,
And moistening to your bones.
9 Esteem הוהי with your goods,

And with the first-fruits of all your increase;

Then your storehouses shall be filled with plenty,
And your vats overflow with new wine.

My son, do not despise the discipline of ה' א,
And do not loathe His reproof;
For whom ה' א loves He reproves,
As a father the son whom he delights in. יא

Blessed is the man who has found wisdom,
And the man who gets understanding; יב
For the gain from it is better Than gain from silver,
And its increase than fine gold. יג
She is more precious than rubies,
And all your delights are not comparable to her. יד

Length of days is in her right hand,
Riches and esteem in her left hand. יז
Her ways are pleasant ways,
And all her paths are peace. יח
She is a tree of life to those taking hold of her,
And blessed are all who retain her. יי

H' founded the earth by wisdom;
He established the heavens by understanding; יא
By His knowledge the depths were broken up,
And clouds drop down dew. יא
My son, let them not depart from your eyes;
Watch over sound wisdom and discretion; יב
Then they become life to your being
And an adorning to your neck. יג
Then you would walk safely in your way,
And your foot would not stumble. יד
When you lie down, you need not be afraid.
And you shall lie down and your sleep shall be sweet. יח
Do not be afraid of sudden dread,
Nor of the ruin of the wrong when it comes; יא
For ה' א is at your side,
And He shall guard your foot from being caught. יא
Do not withhold good from those who deserve it,
When it is in the power of your hand to do so. יא
Do not say to your neighbour, “Go, and come back, and tomorrow I give it,” יא
When you have it with you. יא
Do not plan evil against your neighbour,
Seeing he dwells safely beside you. יא
Do not strive with a man without cause,
If he has done you no evil. יא
Do not envy a cruel man,
And choose none of his ways; יא
For the perverse one is an abomination to ה' א,
And His secret counsel is with the straight. יא
The curse of ה' א is on the house of the wrong,
But He blesses the home of the righteous. יא
He certainly scoffs the scoffers,
But gives favour to the humble. יא
The wise do inherit esteem,
But fools are bearing away shame!

Children, listen to the discipline of a father,
And give attention to know understanding; יא
For I gave you good instruction:
Do not forsake my Torah. יא
For I was my father’s son,
Tender and the only one in the eyes of my mother, יא
Then he taught me and said to me, “Let your heart hold fast my words; Guard my commands, and live. יא “Get wisdom! Get understanding! Do not forget, and do not turn away From the words of my mouth. יא
“Do not leave her, and let her guard

Verses 11-12 are quoted in Heb. 12:5-6.
Love her, and let her watch over you.
7 "The beginning of wisdom is:
   Get wisdom!
   And with all your getting,
   get understanding.
8 “Exalt her, and let her uplift you;
   She brings you esteem when you embrace her.
9 “She gives your head a fair wreath,
   She shields you with an adorning crown.”
10 Hear, my son, and accept my words,
   And let the years of your life be many.
11 I have taught you in the way of wisdom,
   I have led you in straight paths.
12 When you walk your steps shall not be hindered,
   And if you run you shall not stumble.
13 Hold fast to discipline, do not let go;
   Watch over her, for she is your life.
14 Do not enter the path of the wrong,
   And do not walk in the way of
   evil-doers.
15 Avoid it, do not pass by it;
   Turn away from it and pass on.
16 For they do not sleep unless they have done evil.
   And their sleep is taken away unless they make someone fall.
17 For they have eaten the bread of wrongdoing,
   And they drink the wine of violence.
18 But the path of the righteous is like the light of dawn,
   That shines ever brighter unto the perfect day.
19 The way of the wrong is like darkness;
   They do not know at what they stumble.
20 My son, listen to my words;
   Incline your ear to my sayings.
21 Let them not depart from your eyes;
   Guard them in the midst of your heart;
22 For they are life to those who find
   them,
   And healing to all their flesh.
23 Watch over your heart with all diligence,
   For out of it are the sources of life.
24 Turn away from you a crooked mouth,
   And put perverse lips far from you.
25 Let your eyes look forward,
   And your eyelids look straight before
   you.
26 Consider the path of your feet,
   And all your ways are established.
27 Do not turn to the right or the left;
   Turn your foot away from evil.

5 My son, listen to my wisdom;
   Incline your ear to my understanding,
   So as to watch over discretion,
   And your lips guard knowledge.
3 For the lips of a strange woman drip honey,
   And her mouth is smoother than oil;
4 But in the end she is bitter as wormwood,
   Sharp as a two-edged sword.
5 Her feet go down to death,
   Her steps lay hold of the grave.
6 She does not consider the path of life;
   Her ways are unstable – you do not know it.
7 So now, listen to me, you children,
   And do not turn away from the words of my mouth.
8 Keep your way far from her,
   And do not come near the door of her
   house,
9 Lest you give your splendour to others,
   And your years to one who is cruel;
10 Lest strangers be filled with your
   strength,
   And your labours go to the house of a foreigner.
11 Then you shall howl in your latter end,
   When your flesh and your body are consumed,
12 And shall say,
   “How I have hated discipline,
   And my heart has despised reproof!
13 “And I have not heeded the voice of my teachers,
   And I have not inclined my ear to those who instructed me!

\[f\] Our Spiritual lives ought to grow, increasingly, as we also read in Rev. 22:11.
14 “In a little while I was in all evil,
    In the midst of an assembly and a congregation.”
15 Drink water from your own cistern,
    And running water from your own well.
16 Should your springs be scattered abroad,
    Rivers of water in the streets?
17 Let them be only your own,
    And not for strangers with you.
18 Let your fountain be blessed,
    And rejoice with the wife of your youth –
19 A loving deer and a pleasant doe!
    Let her breasts satisfy you at all times.
    And be captivated by her love always.
20 For why should you, my son,
    Be captivated by a strange woman,
    And embrace the bosom of a foreigner?
21 For the ways of man
    Are before the eyes of יהוה,
    And He considers all his paths.
22 The wrong one is entrapped
    In his own crookednesses,
    And he is caught in the cords of his sin.
23 He dies for lack of discipline,
    And in the greatness of his folly
    He goes astray.

6 My son, if you:
    Have become guarantor for your friend,
    Have shaken hands in pledge for a stranger,
2 Have been snared by the words of your own mouth,
    Have been caught by the words of your mouth –
3 Do this at once, my son, and deliver
    yourself,
    For you have come into the hand of your friend:
    Go, humble yourself, and urge your friend.
4 Give no sleep to your eyes,
    Nor slumber to your eyelids.
5 Deliver yourself like a gazelle from the hunter’s hand,
    And like a bird from the hand of the trapper.
6 Go to the ant, you lazy one!
    See her ways and be wise,
7 Which, having no commander,
    overseer or ruler,
8 Provides her supplies in the summer,
    Gathers her food in the harvest.
9 How long would you lie down,
    O lazy one?
    When do you arise from your sleep?
10 A little sleep, a little slumber,
    A little folding of the hands to lie
    down;
11 And your poverty shall come like a prowler,
    And your need as an armed man.
12 A man of Beliya‘al, a wicked man,
    Walks with a perverse mouth,
13 Winks with his eyes, shuffles his feet,
    Points with his fingers;
14 Perverseness is in his heart,
    Plotting evil at all times,
    He sends out strife.
15 Therefore his calamity comes suddenly;
    Instantly he is broken,
    And there is no healing.
16 These six matters יהוה hates,
    And seven are an abomination to Him:
17 A proud look,
    A lying tongue,
    And hands shedding innocent blood,
18 A heart devising wicked schemes,
    Feet quick to run to evil,
19 A false witness breathing out lies,
    And one who causes strife among brothers.
20 My son, watch over your father’s command,
    And do not forsake the Torah of your mother.
21 Bind them on your heart always;
    Tie them around your neck.
22 When you are walking about, it leads
    you;
    When you lie down, it guards you.
    And when you have woken up,
    It talks to you.

g Teh. 119:105.
23 For the command is a lamp,
And the Torah a light,
And reproofs of discipline a way of life,
24 To guard you against an evil woman,
From the flattering tongue of a strange woman.
25 Do not desire her prettiness in your heart,
Neither let her captivate you with her eyelids.
26 For because of a whore
One is brought to a crust of bread.
And an adulteress hunts a precious life.
27 Would a man take fire to his bosom,
And his garments not be burned?
28 Would a man walk on hot coals,
And his feet not be scorched?
29 So is he who goes in to his neighbour’s wife;
None who touches her goes unpunished.
30 They do not despise a thief
If he steals to satisfy his appetite when he is starving.
31 Yet if he is caught he repays sevenfold;
He gives all the wealth of his house.
32 He who commits adultery with a woman lacks heart;
He who does it destroys his own life.
33 He finds smiting and shame,
And his reproach is not wiped away.
34 For jealousy enrages a man,
And he does not spare in the day of vengeance.
35 He does not regard any ransom,
Nor accept your bribe, however great!

6 For at the window of my house
I looked through my lattice,
7 And I saw among the simple,
I perceived among the youths,
A young man lacking heart,
8 Passing through the street near her corner;
And he went the way to her house
9 In the twilight, in the evening,
In the black and dark night.
10 And look, a woman met him,
Dressed like a whore,
With a hidden heart.
11 She was boisterous and stubborn,
Her feet did not stay at her own house.
12 Now in the street,
Now in the square,
And at every corner she lurks.
13 And she took hold of him and kissed him;
She hardened her face and said to him:
14 “Peace offerings are with me;
Today I have paid my vows.
15 “Therefore I came out to meet you,
To earnestly seek your face, and I found you.
16 “I have spread my bed with coverings,
Coloured linens of Mitsrayim.
17 “I have sprinkled my bed with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
18 “Come, let us take our fill of love until morning;
Let us delight ourselves with love.
19 “For my husband is not at home;
He has gone on a long journey;
20 “He took a bag of silver with him;
He comes home on the day of the new moon.”

21 With her many words she leads him astray,
With her smooth lips she seduces him.
22 He goes after her immediately,
Like an ox he goes to the slaughter,
And as in chains, a fool to the punishment,
23 Till an arrow strikes through his liver;
Like a bird rushing into a snare,
And did not know it would take his life.
24 And now, listen to me, you children;
Pay attention to the words of my
Do not let your heart turn aside to her ways,
Do not go astray in her paths.
For many are the wounded she has caused to fall,
And numerous all her slain ones.
Her house is the way to the grave,
Going down to the rooms of death.

Does not wisdom call,
And understanding lift up her voice?
On the top of the heights along the way,
Between the paths she has taken her stand.
Beside the gates, leading to the city,
At the entrances, she shouts:
“O men, I call, to you,
And my voice is to the sons of men.
You simple ones, understand insight,
And you fools, be of an understanding heart.
Listen, for I speak noble words,
And the opening of my lips is about straightness;
For my mouth speaks truth;
And wrongness is an abomination to my lips.
All the words of my mouth are in righteousness,
None of them twisted or crooked,
All of them plain to him who understands,
And straight to those who find knowledge.
Accept my discipline, and not silver,
And knowledge rather than choice gold;
Wisdom is better than rubies,
And all delights are not comparable to her.
I, wisdom, have dwelt with insight,
And I find knowledge, foresight.
The fear of the Lord is to hate evil.
I have hated pride and arrogance,
And the evil way,
And the perverse mouth.
Counsel is mine, and sound wisdom;
I am understanding, mightiness is mine.
32 “And now, listen to me, you children,
For blessed are they who guard my ways.
33 “Listen to discipline and become wise,
And do not refuse it.
34 “Blessed is the man who listens to me,
Watching daily at my gates,
Waiting at the posts of my doors.
35 “For whoever finds me shall find life,
And obtain favour from יְהוָה
36 “But he who sins against me injures himself;
All who hate me love death!”

9 Wisdom has built her house,
She has hewn out its seven columns,
2 She has slaughtered her meat,
She has mixed her wine,
She has also prepared her table.
3 She has sent out her young women,
She cries out from the highest places of the city:
4 “Who is simple? Let him turn in here!”
As for him who lacks heart, she says to him,
5 “Come, eat of my bread and drink of the wine I have mixed.”
6 Leave the simple ones and live,
And walk in the way of understanding.
7 He who reproves a scoffer gets shame for himself,
And he who rebukes a wrong one gets himself a blemish.
8 Do not reprove a scoffer, lest he hate you;
Reprove a wise one, and he loves you.
9 Give instruction to a wise one, and he is wiser still;
Teach a righteous one, and he increases in learning.
10 The fear of יְהוָה is the beginning of wisdom,
And the knowledge of the Set-apart One is understanding. h 11 For by me your days become many,
And years of life are added to you.
12 If you have become wise,
You have become wise for yourself,
And if you have scoffed,
You alone bear it.
13 A foolish woman is loud,
Simple, and without knowledge.
14 For she has seated herself
At the door of her house,
On a seat by the highest places of the city,
15 To call to those who pass by,
Who go straight on their way:
16 “Who is simple? Let him turn in here.”
And as for him who lacks heart, she says to him,
17 “Stolen waters are sweet,
And bread eaten in secret is pleasant.”
18 But he does not know that the dead are there,
Her guests are in the depths of the grave.

10 Proverbs of Shelomoh:
A wise son makes a father rejoice,
But a foolish son is his mother’s sorrow.
2 Treasures of wrongness are of no value,
But righteousness delivers from death.
3 יְהוָה does not let the being of the righteous go hungry,
But He thrusts away the desire of the wrong.
4 Poor is he who works with a lazy hand,
But the hand of the hard worker makes rich.
5 He who gathers in summer is a wise son,
He who sleeps in harvest is a son who causes shame.
6 Blessings are on the head of the righteous,
But violence covers the mouth of the wrong.
7 The remembrance of the righteous is blessed,
But the name of the wrong ones rot.
8 The wise in heart accepts commands, i
But one with foolish lips falls.
9 He who walks in integrity walks safely,
But he who perverts his ways becomes known.
10 He who winks with the eye causes sorrow,

And one with foolish lips falls.
11 The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life,
But violence covers the mouth of the wrong.
12 Hatred stirs up strife,
But love covers all transgressions.
13 Wisdom is found on the lips of him who has understanding,
But a rod is for the back of him who lacks heart.
14 The wise treasure up knowledge,
But the mouth of a fool is near ruin.
15 The rich man’s wealth is his strong city;
The ruin of the poor is their poverty.
16 The wage of the righteous is for life,
The increase of the wrong is for sin.
17 He who heeds discipline is in the way of life,
But he who refuses reproof goes astray.
18 He who hides hatred has lying lips,
And he who sends out a slander is a fool.
19 When words are many,
Transgression is not absent,
But he who restrains his lips is wise.
20 The tongue of the righteous is choice silver;
The heart of the wrong is of little value.
21 The lips of the righteous shepherd many,
But fools die for lack of heart.
22 The blessing of makes one rich,
And He adds no pain with it.
23 To work out wicked schemes
Is like sport to a fool,
But wisdom is for a man of understanding.
24 What the wrong one fears comes upon him,
But the desire of the righteous is granted.
25 As the whirlwind passes by,
The wrong one is no more,
But the righteous has an everlasting foundation.
26 As vinegar to the teeth and smoke to the eyes,
So is the lazy one to those who send him.
27 The fear of prolongs days,
But the years of the wrong ones are shortened.
28 The righteous look forward to joy,
But the expectancy of the wrong ones perish.
29 The way of is a stronghold for the perfect,
But ruin to the workers of wickedness.
30 The righteous is never shaken,
While the wrong shall not dwell in the earth.
31 The mouth of the righteous brings forth wisdom,
But the tongue of perverseness is cut out.
32 The lips of the righteous know what is pleasing,
But the mouth of the wrong speaks perverseness.

11 A false scale is an abomination to ,
But a perfect weight is His delight.
2 Pride comes, then comes shame;
But with the humble is wisdom.
3 The integrity of the straight ones guides them,
But the slipperiness of the treacherous destroys them.
4 Riches do not profit in the day of wrath,
But righteousness delivers from death.
5 The righteousness of the perfect makes his way straight,
But by his own wrongness the wrong one falls.
6 The righteousness of the straight ones delivers them,
But the treacherous are caught by greed.
7 When a wrong man dies, expectancy perishes,
And the ambition of the wicked shall be lost.
8 The righteous is delivered from distress,
And the wrong one takes his place.
9 The defiled one destroys his neighbour with his mouth,
But the righteous is delivered by knowledge.
10 When the righteous prosper, the city rejoices.
And when the wrong perish, there is shouting.
11 By the blessing of the straight the city is exalted,
But by the mouth of the wrong it is overthrown.
12 He who lacks heart despises his neighbour,
But a man of understanding keeps silence.
13 A slanderer is a revealer of secrets,
But one with a trustworthy spirit conceals a matter.
14 Without guidance the people fall,
But in a great counsellor there is safety.
15 He who is guarantor for a stranger suffers harm,
But one who hates shaking hands in pledge is safe.
16 A woman showing favour obtains esteem,
But ruthless men obtain riches.
17 A kind man is rewarding his being,
But he who is cruel troubles his own flesh.
18 The wrong one earns false wages,
But the one sowing righteousness, a true reward.
19 Thus righteousness leads to life,
And one pursuing evil, to his own death.
20 The perverse of heart are an abomination to יִתְנָה,
But the perfect in the Way are His delight.
21 Hand to hand, the evil one does not go unpunished,
But the seed of the righteous shall escape.
22 Like a ring of gold in a pig’s snout,
Is a lovely woman who lacks good sense.
23 The desire of the righteous is only good,
The expectancy of the wrong is wrath.
24 There is one who scatters, yet increases more.
And one who withholds more than is right,
But it comes to poverty.
25 The generous being is enriched,
And he who waters is also watered himself.
26 The people curse him who withholds grain,
But blessing is on the head of him who sells it.
27 He who earnestly seeks good,
Seeks what is pleasing;
But to him who seeks evil,
It comes to him.
28 He who trusts in his riches falls,
But the righteous flourish like a leaf.
29 He who troubles his own house inherits wind,
And the fool is servant to the wise of heart.
30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life,
And he who is winning lives is wise.
31 See, the righteous in the earth shall be rewarded,
How much more the wrong and the sinner!

12 Whoever loves discipline loves knowledge,
But he who hates reproof is stupid.
2 The good obtains favour from יִתְנָה,
But the man of wicked devices He declares wrong.
3 A man is not established by wrongness,
But the root of the righteous shall not be moved.
4 A capable wife is the crown of her husband,
But one causing shame is like rottenness in his bones.
5 The thoughts of the righteous are right-ruling,
The counsels of the wrong are deceit.
6 The words of the wrong are,
“Lie in wait for blood,”
But the mouth of the straight delivers them.
7 The wrong are overthrown,
And are no more,
But the house of the righteous stands.
8 A man is praised according to his wisdom,
But the perverted of heart becomes despised.
9 Better to be lightly esteemed and have a servant,
Than the highly esteemed who lacks bread.
10 The righteous regards the life of his beast,
But the compassion of the wrong is cruelty.
11 He who tills his land is satisfied with bread,
But he who pursues vanities is lacking heart.
12 The wrong shall covet the catch of evil-doers,
But the root of the righteous yields fruit.
13 In the transgression of the lips is an evil snare,
But the righteous gets out of distress.
14 From the fruit of his mouth one is filled with good,
And the work of a man’s hands is given back to him.
15 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes,
But he who listens to advice is wise.
16 A fool’s wrath is known at once,
But a clever one covers shame.
17 He who speaks truth declares righteousness,
But a false witness, deceit.
18 Rash speaking is like piercings of a sword,
But the tongue of the wise is healing.
19 The lip of truth is established forever,
But a lying tongue is but for a moment.
20 Deceit is in the heart of those who plot evil,
But counsellors of peace have joy.
21 No harm befalls the righteous,
But the wrong shall be filled with evil.
22 Lying lips are an abomination to יהוה,
But those who deal truly are His delight.

23 A clever man is concealing knowledge,
But the heart of fools proclaims folly.
24 The hand of the hard worker rules,
But the lazy is put to compulsory labour.
25 Anxiety in the heart of man causes depression,
But a good word makes him glad.
26 The righteous is a guide to his neighbour,
But the way of the wrong leads them astray.
27 The lazy one has no game to roast,
But the hard worker prizes his possessions.
28 In the way of righteousness is life,
And in its pathway there is no death.

13 A wise son accepts his father’s discipline,
But a scoffer shall not listen to rebuke.
2 From the fruit of the mouth a man eats the good,
But the desire of the treacherous is for violence.
3 He who watches over his mouth guards his being,
But he who opens wide his lips comes to ruin.
4 The being of the lazy one craves,
but has not;
While the being of the hard workers are enriched.
5 A righteous one hates a lying word,
But a wrong man is loathsome and comes to shame.
6 Righteousness watches over him who is perfect in the way,
But wrongness overthrows the sinner.
7 There is one who makes himself rich,
Yet has none at all.
And one who makes himself poor,
Yet has great riches.
8 The ransom of a man’s life is his riches,
But the poor does not hear rebuke.
9 The light of the righteous rejoices,
But the lamp of the wrong is put out.
10 By pride comes only strife,
But wisdom is with those who take advice.
11 Wealth from vanity diminishes,
   But he who gathers by hand increases.
12 Expectancy drawn out makes the heart sick,
   But a longing come true is a tree of life.
13 He who despises the Word is destroyed,
   But he who fears the command is rewarded. j
14 The Torah of the wise is a fountain of life,
   Turning one away from the snares of death.
15 Good understanding gains favour,
   But the way of the treacherous is hard.
16 Every one with insight acts with knowledge,
   But a fool spreads folly.
17 A messenger that is wrong falls into evil,
   But a trustworthy envoy is a healing.
18 Poverty and shame are for him
   Who ignores discipline,
   But he who heeds reproof is esteemed.
19 A desire accomplished is sweet to the being,
   But to turn away from evil is an abomination to fools.
20 He who walks with the wise, shall be wise,
   But the companion of fools suffers evil.
21 Evil pursues sinners,
   But good is repaid to the righteous.
22 A good man leaves an inheritance to his children’s children,
   But the wealth of the sinner is stored up for the righteous.
23 Much food is in the tillable ground of the poor,
   But lack of right-ruling sweeps it away.
24 He who spares his rod hates his son,
   But he who loves him, seeks him with discipline.
25 The righteous eats to the satisfying of his being,
   But the stomach of the wrong is lacking.

j “Word” and “command” are used as synonyms.
k 16:25.
But the clever are crowned with knowledge.

19 The evil ones shall bow before the good,
And the wrong ones at the gates of the righteous.

20 The poor is hated even by his own neighbour,
But the rich has many friends.

21 He who despises his neighbour sins;
But he who shows favour to the poor,
O blessed is he.

22 Do not those who plan evil go astray?
But kindness and truth are to those who plan good.

23 In all labour there is profit,
But talk of the lips leads only to poverty.

24 The crown of the wise is their wealth,
The folly of fools is folly.

25 A true witness saves lives,
But he who breathes out lies is a betrayer.

26 In the fear of HWHY is strong trust,
And His children have a place of refuge.

27 The fear of HWHY is a fountain of life,
To turn away from the snares of death.

28 In a multitude of people
Is a sovereign’s splendour,
But in the lack of people
Is the ruin of a prince.

29 He who is patient has great understanding,
But he who is short of spirit exalts folly.

30 A healthy heart is life to the body,
But envy is rottenness to the bones.

31 He who oppresses the poor reproaches his Maker,
But he who esteems Him shows favour to the needy.

32 By his own evildoing the wrong is thrust down,
But the righteous has a refuge in his death.

33 Wisdom rests in the heart of him who has understanding,
And even among fools it becomes known.

34 Righteousness exalts a nation,
But sin is a reproach to peoples.

35 The sovereign’s delight is toward a wise servant,
But his wrath is towards him who causes shame.

15 A soft answer turns away wrath,
But a harsh word stirs up displeasure.

2 The tongue of the wise makes knowledge good,
But the mouth of fools pours out foolishness.

3 The eyes of HWHY are in every place,
Watching the evil and the good.

4 A healing tongue is a tree of life,
But perverseness in it crushes the spirit.

5 A fool despises his father’s discipline,
But he who heeds reproof is clever.

6 The household of the righteous is a great treasure,
But in the income of the wrong is trouble.

7 The lips of the wise scatter knowledge,
But the heart of fools is not so.

8 The slaughtering of the wrong ones
Is an abomination to HWHY,
But the prayer of the straight is His delight.

9 The way of the wrong one
Is an abomination to HWHY,
But He loves him who pursues righteousness.

10 Discipline is grievous to him who forsakes the way;
He who hates reproof dies.

11 The grave and destruction are before HWHY,
How much more the hearts of the sons of men.

12 A scoffer does not love his reprover,
Nor does he go to the wise.

13 A glad heart makes good a face,
But by sorrow of heart the spirit is stricken.

14 The heart of the understanding one seeks knowledge,
But the mouth of fools feeds on folly.

15 All the days of the afflicted are evil,
But gladness of heart is a continual feast.

16 Better is a little with the fear of יהוה, Than great treasure with trouble.

17 Better is a meal of vegetables where love is, Than a fatted calf with hatred.

18 A man of wrath stirs up strife, But he who is patient appeases strife.

19 The way of a lazy one is like a hedge of thorns, But the way of the straight is a highway.

20 A wise son makes a father glad, But a foolish man despises his mother.

21 Folly is joy to one lacking heart, But a man of understanding walks straight.

22 Without counsel, plans go wrong, But by great counsellors they are established.

23 A man has joy by the answer of his mouth, And how good is a word spoken in its season!

24 The path of life is upward for the wise, To turn away from the grave below.

25 יהוה tears down the house of the proud, And He sets up the boundary of the widow.

26 Evil thoughts are an abomination to יהוה, But pleasant words are clean.

27 He who is greedy for gain, troubles his own house, But he who hates bribes lives.

28 The heart of the righteous ponders how to answer, But the mouth of the wrong pours out evil.

29 יהוה is far from the wrong ones, But He hears the prayer of the righteous. 1 30 The light of the eyes rejoices the heart, A good report gives marrow to the bones.

31 An ear that hears the reproof of life Does dwell among the wise.

32 He who ignores discipline hates himself, But he who listens to reproof gets understanding.

33 The fear of יהוה is the discipline of wisdom, And before esteem is humility.

16 To man belongs the preparations of the heart, But from יהוה is the answer of the tongue.

2 All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes, But יהוה weighs the spirits.

3 Commit your works to יהוה, And your plans shall be established.

4 יהוה has made all for His purpose, And also the wrong for the day of evil.

5 Everyone proud in heart is an abomination to יהוה; Hand to hand: he goes not unpunished.

6 By kindness and truth crookedness is pardoned, And in the fear of יהוה one turns away from evil.

7 When a man’s ways please יהוה, He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.

8 Better is a little with righteousness, Than a large income without right-ruling.

9 A man’s heart plans his way, But יהוה establishes his steps.

10 An oath is on the lips of the sovereign, In right-ruling his mouth trespasses not.

11 A right scale and balances are of יהוה; All the weights in the bag are His work.

12 It is an abomination for sovereigns To commit wrongness, For a throne is established by righteousness.

13 Righteous lips are the delight of sovereigns, And they love him who speaks what is straight.

14 The sovereign’s wrath is a messenger of death,
But a wise man appeases it.
15 In the light of a sovereign’s face is life,
And his delight is like a cloud of the latter rain.
16 How much better it is to get wisdom than gold!
And to get understanding is preferable to silver.
17 The highway of the straight
Is to turn away from evil;
He who guards his life watches over
His way.
18 Before destruction comes pride,
And before a fall a haughty spirit!
19 Better to be lowly in spirit with the poor,
Than to divide the spoil with the proud.
20 He who acts wisely concerning the Word finds good,
And blessed is he who trusts in HWHY.
21 The wise-hearted is called discerning,
And sweetness of lips increases learning.
22 Understanding is a fountain of life to him who has it,
But the disciplining of fools is folly.
23 The heart of the wise gives discretion to his mouth,
And he increases learning to his lips.
24 Pleasant words are like a honeycomb, Sweet to the being, and healing to the bones.
25 There is a way that seems right to a man,
But its end is the way of death. m
26 He who labours, labours for himself,
For his mouth drives him on.
27 A man of Beliya’al plots evil,
And on his lips it is like a burning fire.
28 A perverse man sends forth strife,
And a whisperer separates intimate friends.
29 A ruthless man entices his neighbour,
And leads him in a way that is not good,
30 Winking with his eye to plot
perversity,
Moving his lips he shall bring about evil.
31 Grey hair is a crown of adorning,
It is found in the way of righteousness.
32 He who is patient is better than the mighty,
And he who rules over his spirit than he who takes a city.
33 The lot is cast into the lap,
But every decision by it is from HWHY.
17 Better is a dry piece of bread and rest with it,
Than a house filled with the offerings of strife.
2 A wise servant rules over a son who causes shame,
And shares an inheritance among the brothers.
3 A refining pot is for silver and a furnace for gold,
But HWHY tries the hearts.
4 An evil-doer gives heed to wicked lips;
A liar gives ear to a tongue of desire.
5 He who mocks the poor reproaches his Maker;
He who rejoices at calamity does not go unpunished.
6 Children’s children are the crown of old men,
And the adornment of children is their fathers.
7 Excellent speech is not fitting for a fool,
Much less lying lips for a noble.
8 A bribe is a stone of favour in the eyes of its owner;
Wherever he turns, he prospers.
9 He who covers a transgression seeks love,
But he who repeats a matter separates intimate friends.
10 Reproof enters deeper into a wise man
Than a hundred blows on a fool.
11 An evil one seeks only rebellion,
So a cruel messenger is sent against
him.
12 Let a bereaved bear meet a man,
Rather than a fool in his folly.
13 Whoever rewards evil for good,
Evil does not leave his house.

m 14:12.
14 The beginning of strife is like releasing water;
Therefore stop fighting before it breaks out.
15 He who declares the wrong right,
And he who condemns the righteous,
Both of them are an abomination to יהוה.
16 Why is this – a price in the hand
Of a fool to buy wisdom,
When there is no heart?
17 A friend loves at all times,
And a brother is born for adversity.
18 A man lacking heart shakes hands in a pledge,
He becomes a guarantor for his friend.
19 He who loves transgression loves strife,
He who exalts his door seeks destruction.
20 He who has a crooked heart finds no good,
And he who has a perverse tongue falls into evil.
21 He who brings forth a fool has sorrow for it,
And the father of a fool has no joy.
22 A rejoicing heart causes good healing,
But a stricken spirit dries the bones.
23 One who is wrong accepts a bribe behind the back
To pervert the paths of right-ruling.
24 Wisdom is before the face of the understanding one,
But the eyes of a fool are on the ends of the earth.
25 A foolish son is a grief to his father,
And bitterness to her who bore him.
26 It is also not good to punish the righteous one,
To smite noble ones for straightness.
27 He who has knowledge spares his words,
And a man of understanding is cool of spirit.
28 Even a fool keeping silence is regarded as wise,
As understanding, when he closes his lips.

18 The separatist seeks his own desire;
He breaks out against all sound wisdom.
2 A fool does not delight in understanding,
But in uncovering his own heart.
3 When a wrong one comes, scorn comes too.
And with shame comes reproach.
4 The words of a man’s mouth are deep waters;
The fountain of wisdom is a flowing stream.
5 It is not good to show partiality to the wrong,
Or to turn aside the righteous in right-ruling.
6 A fool’s lips enter into strife,
And his mouth calls for blows.
7 A fool’s mouth is his ruin,
And his lips are the snare of his life.
8 The words of a slanderer are like delicacies,
And they go down into the inner parts of the heart.
9 Also, he who is slack in his work
Is a brother of a master destroyer.
10 The Name of יהוה is a strong tower;
The righteous run into it and are safe.
11 The rich man’s wealth is his strong city,
And like a high wall in his own imagination.
12 Before destruction the heart of a man is haughty,
And before esteem is humility.
13 He who answers a matter before he hears it,
It is folly and shame to him.
14 The spirit of a man sustains him in sickness,
But who does bear a broken spirit?
15 The heart of the understanding one gets knowledge,
And the ear of the wise seeks knowledge.
16 A man’s gift makes room for him,
And brings him before great men.
17 The first to state his own case,
seems right,
Until another comes and examines him.

The lot settles disputes, and separates between the mighty.

A brother transgressed against is a strong city, and contentions are like the bars of a citadel.

A man’s stomach is satisfied from the fruit of his mouth; he is satisfied with the increase of his lips.

Death and life are in the power of the tongue, and those loving it eat its fruit.

He who has found a wife has found good, and receives favour from the Lord.

The poor speaks beseechingly, but the rich answers fiercely.

A man of many friends might come to ruin, but there is a Loving One who sticks closer than a brother!

Better is the poor walking in his integrity than one of perverse lips, who is a fool.

Also, desire without knowledge is not good; and he who hurries with his feet sins.

The foolishness of a man perverts his way, and his heart is wroth against the Lord.

Wealth adds many friends, but the poor is separated from his friend.

A false witness does not go unpunished, and he who breathes out lies does not escape.

Many entreat the favour of the noble, and all are friends to him who gives gifts.

All the brothers of the poor shall hate him; how much more shall his friends go far from him!

He pursues promises – they are gone!

He who gets heart loves his own life; he who guards understanding finds good.

A false witness does not go unpunished, and he who breathes out lies perishes.

Luxury is not fitting for a fool, much less for a servant to rule over princes.

A man’s discretion makes him patient, and his adorning is to pass over a transgression.

The sovereign’s wrath is like the roaring of a lion, but his delight is like dew on the grass.

A foolish son is a calamity to his father, and the contentions of a wife are a continual dripping.

Houses and riches are the inheritance from fathers, but an understanding wife is from the Lord.

Laziness makes one fall into a deep sleep, and an idle being suffers hunger.

He who guards the command guards his life, he who despises His ways dies. n

He who shows favour to the poor lends to the Lord, and He repays his deed.

Discipline your son because there is expectation, and do not set your being on his destruction.

One of great wrath bears punishment; for if you rescue him, you only have to do it again.

Listen to counsel and accept discipline, so that you are wise in your latter end.

Many are the plans in a man’s heart, but it is the counsel of the Lord that stands.

What is desirable in a man is his kindness, n This is an unchanging and central message throughout Scripture: Obedience to His commands (His voice) leads to life – disobedience leads to death!

And a poor man is better than a liar.

23 The fear of יְהֹוָה leads to life,
And he remains satisfied,
He is not visited by evil.

24 A lazy one buries his hand in a dish,
And does not bring it back to his mouth.

25 Beat a scoffer,
   and the simple is made wise;
And reprove one who has understanding,
And he discerns knowledge.

26 He who plunders a father,
Chases away his mother,
Is a son causing shame and bringing reproach.

27 Cease, my son, to hear discipline,
And you shall stray from the words of knowledge.

28 A witness of Beliya’al scorns right-ruling,
And the mouth of the wrong ones Devours wickedness.

29 Judgments are in store for scoffers,
And beatings for the backs of fools.

Wine is a scoffer, strong drink a brawler,
And whoever is led astray by it is not wise.

2 The dread of a sovereign is like the roaring of a lion;
Whoever provokes him sins against his own life.

3 For a man to cease from strife is esteem,
But every fool bursts out.

4 The lazy one does not plough after the autumn;
At harvest time he inquires – there is none!

5 Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water,
But a man of understanding draws it up.

6 Most men proclaim each his own kindness,
But who finds a trustworthy man?

7 The righteous man walks in his integrity;
His children are blessed after him.

8 A sovereign who sits on the throne of judgment
Is scattering all evil with his eyes.

9 Who says, “I have cleansed my heart,
I am purged of my sin”?

10 Differing weights and differing measures,
Both of them are an abomination to יְהֹוָה.

11 Even a child is known by his deeds,
Whether his work is clear and right.

12 The hearing ear and the seeing eye,
יְהֹוָה has made both of them.

13 Do not love sleep,
   lest you become poor;
Open your eyes,
   be satisfied with bread.

14 “Evil! Evil!” cries the buyer;
But when he has gone his way, then he boasts.

15 There is gold and a multitude of rubies,
But the lips of knowledge are a precious vessel.

16 Take the garment of one who is guarantor for a stranger,
And hold it as a pledge when it is for foreigners.

17 Bread gained by deceit might be sweet to a man,
But afterward his mouth is filled with gravel.

18 By counsel plans are established;
And by wise guidance wage a battle.

19 He who goes about as a slanderer reveals secrets;
Therefore do not associate with him
Who speaks smoothly with his lips.

20 Whoever curses his father or his mother,
His lamp is put out in deep darkness.

21 An inheritance obtained with greed at the beginning
Is not blessed at the end.

22 Do not say, “I repay evil.”
Wait for יְהֹוָה, and He saves you.

23 Differing weights are an abomination to יְהֹוָה,
And a false scale is not good.

24 The steps of a man are from יְהֹוָה;
What does a man know about his own way?
25 It is a snare for a man to say rashly,
   “It is set-apart,”
   And only later to reconsider his vows.
26 A wise sovereign winnows out the wrong,
   And turns the wheel over them.
27 The spirit of a man is the lamp of HWHY,
   Searching all his inmost parts.
28 Kindness and truth watch over the sovereign,
   And he shall support his throne by kindness.
29 The comeliness of young men is their strength,
   And the splendour of old men is their grey hair.
30 The blows that wound cleanse away evil,
   And strokes the inner parts of the heart.

21 The sovereign’s heart is as channels of water
   In the hand of HWHY;
   He turns it wherever He wishes.
2 All a man’s ways are right in his own eyes,
   But HWHY weighs the hearts.
3 To do righteousness and right-ruling is more acceptable to HWHY than a slaughtering.
4 A haughty look, a proud heart,
   The lamp of the wrong, are sin.
5 The plans of the hard worker lead only to plenty,
   But all rash haste only to poverty.
6 Gaining treasures by a lying tongue is a fleeting vapour, heading for death.
7 The spoil of the wrong catches them,
   Because they refused to do right-ruling.
8 The way of a guilty man is perverse;
   But as for the innocent,
   his work is right.
9 It is better to dwell in a corner of a roof,
   Than in a house shared with a contentious woman.
10 The desire of the wrong is set upon evil;
   His neighbour finds no favour in his eyes.
11 When the scoffer is punished,
   the simple is made wise;
   But when the wise is instructed, he receives knowledge.
12 The Righteous One observes the house of the wrong;
   He overthrows the wrong for their evil.
13 Whoever shuts his ears to the cry of the poor,
   Let him also cry and not be heard.
14 A gift in secret subdues displeasure,
   And a bribe in the bosom, strong wrath.
15 To do right-ruling is joy to the righteous,
   But ruin to the workers of wickedness.
16 A man who strays from the way of understanding,
   Rests in the assembly of the dead.
17 He who loves pleasure is a poor man;
   He who loves wine and oil does not become rich.
18 The wrong is a ransom for the righteous,
   And the treacherous for the straight.
19 It is better to dwell in the wilderness,
   Than with a contentious and vexed woman.
20 Desirable treasure and oil,
   Are in the dwelling of the wise,
   But a foolish man swallows it up.
21 He who pursues righteousness and kindness finds life, righteousness and esteem.
22 A wise one scales the city of the mighty,
   And brings down the trusted stronghold.
23 Whoever guards his mouth and tongue guards his life from distresses.
24 Proud, haughty, “Scoffer” is his name;
   He acts with arrogant pride.
25 The desire of the lazy man slays him,
   For his hands refused to work.
26 He covets greedily all day long,
   But the righteous gives and does not withhold.
27 The slaughtering of the wrong is an abomination;
   How much more when he brings it with wickedness!
28 A false witness perishes,
But the man who obeys speaks forever.
29 A wrong man hardens his face,
But as for the straight, he establishes his way.
30 There is no wisdom or understanding
Or counsel against הוהי.
31 The horse is prepared for the day of battle,
But the deliverance is of הוהי.

22 A good name is preferable to great riches.
Favour is better than silver and gold.
2 The rich and the poor meet together – הוהי is the Maker of them all.
3 A clever one foresees evil and hides himself,
But the simple go on and are punished.
4 The reward of humility is the fear of הוהי,
Riches, and esteem and life.
5 Thorns, snares are in the way of the perverse;
He who guards his life keeps far away from them.
6 Train up a child in the way he should go,
Even when he is old he turns not away from it.
7 The rich rules over the poor,
And the borrower is servant to the lender.
8 He who sows unrighteousness reaps trouble,
And the rod of his wrath perishes.
9 He who has a good eye is blessed,
For he gives of his bread to the poor.
10 Cast out the scoffer and strife goes out,
And contention and shame cease.
11 He who loves cleanness of heart,
Whose speech is pleasant,
A sovereign is his friend.
12 The eyes of הוהי shall watch over knowledge,
But He overthrows the words of the treacherous.
13 The lazy one says,
“There is a lion outside!
I am going to be killed in the streets!”

14 The mouth of a strange woman is a deep pit;
The one denounced by הוהי falls in there.
15 Folly is bound up in the heart of a child;
The rod of discipline drives it far from him.
16 One oppresses the poor to increase his wealth,
Another gives to the rich, only to come to poverty.
17 Incline your ear and hear the words of the wise,
And apply your heart to my knowledge;
18 For they are pleasant
If you guard them within you;
Let all of them be ready on your lips.
19 That your trust might be in הוהי,
I caused you to know today, even you:
20 Have I not previously written to you
Of counsels and knowledge,
21 To cause you to know
The certainty of the words of truth,
To return words of truth to those who send to you?
22 Do not rob the poor because he is poor,
And oppress not the afflicted at the gate.
23 For הוהי pleads their cause,
And shall plunder those who plunder them.
24 Make no friendship with one given to wrath,
And do not go with a man of rage,
25 Lest you learn his ways,
And find yourself ensnared.
26 Do not be one of those who shakes hands in a pledge,
One of those who are guarantors for debts.
27 If you do not have the means to pay,
Why should he take away your bed from under you?
28 Do not move the ancient boundary
Which your fathers have set.
29 Do you see a man who is skilled in his work?
He does stand before sovereigns,
He does not stand before obscure ones.
When you sit down to eat with a ruler,
Look well what is before you;
And put a knife to your throat
If you are a man given to appetite.
Do not desire his delicacies,
For that food is deceptive.
Do not labour to be rich.
Cease from your own understanding!
Do you set your eyes on that which is not?
For riches certainly make themselves wings;
They fly away like an eagle to the heavens.
Do not eat the bread of one having an evil eye,
Nor desire his delicacies;
For as he reckons in his life, so is he.
“Eat and drink!” he says to you,
But his heart is not with you.
You vomit the piece you have eaten,
And lose your sweet words.
Do not speak in the ears of a fool,
For he treads on the wisdom of your words.
Do not move the ancient boundary,
And do not enter the fields of the fatherless;
For their Redeemer is strong;
He shall plead their cause against you.
Bring your heart to discipline,
And your ears to words of knowledge.
Do not withhold discipline from a child;
If you beat him with a rod, he does not die.
Beat him with a rod
And deliver his being from the grave.
My son, if your heart shall be wise,
My heart rejoices, even I,
And my kidneys exult
When your lips speak what is straight.
Do not let your heart envy sinners,
But be in the fear of HWHY all day long;
For certain, there is a hereafter,
And let your expectancy not be cut off.
Hear, my son, and be wise,
And guide your heart in the way.
Be not among heavy drinkers of wine
Or with gluttonous eaters of meat;
For the drunkard and the glutton become poor,
And slumber puts rags on a man.
Listen to your father who brought you forth,
And do not despise your mother when she is old.
Buy the truth and do not sell it –
Wisdom and discipline and understanding.
The father of the righteous greatly rejoices,
And he who brings forth a wise one delights in him.
Let your father and your mother rejoice,
And let her who bore you exult.
My son, give me your heart,
And let your eyes watch my ways.
For a whore is a deep pit,
And a strange woman is a narrow well.
She too lies in wait as for a prey,
And increases the treacherous among men.
Who has woe?
Who has sorrow?
Who has contentions?
Who has complaints?
Who feels hurt without cause?
Who has redness of eyes?
Those staying long at the wine,
Those going in to search out mixed wine.
Do not look on the wine when it is red,
When it gives its colour in the cup,
As it flows smoothly;
In the end it bites like a snake,
And stings like an adder –
Your eyes look on strange women,
And your heart speaks perversities.
And you shall be as one
Lying down in the midst of the sea,
And as one lying at the top of the mast, saying,
“They smote me, I was not sick!
They beat me, I did not know!
When shall I wake up? Let me seek it again!”
2 For their heart plots to ravage,
And their lips talk of trouble.
3 By wisdom a house is built,
And by understanding it is established;
4 And by knowledge the rooms are filled
With all precious and pleasant riches.
5 Mighty is the wise in strength,
And a man of knowledge strengthens
power;
6 For by wise guidance you wage your own battle,
And delivery is by a great counsellor.
7 Wisdom is high for a fool;
He does not open his mouth in the gate.
8 He who plots to do evil
Is called a master of evil plots.
9 The purpose of folly is sin,
And the scoffer is an abomination to men.
10 If you falter in the day of distress,
Your strength is small!
11 Deliver those taken to death,
And hold back those stumbling to the slaughter,
12 If you say, “See, we did not know this,”
Would not He who weighs the hearts discern it?
He who watches over your life,
Would He not know it?
And shall He not repay man according to his work?
13 My son, eat honey, for it is good,
And the honeycomb, sweet to your taste;
14 Know that wisdom is thus to your being;
If you have found it, there is a future,
And your expectancy is not cut off.
15 Do not lie in wait, O wrong one,
Against the dwelling of the righteous;
Do not ravage his resting place;
16 For seven times a righteous man falls and rises,
But the wrong one stumbles into evil.
17 Do not exult when your enemy falls,
And let not your heart rejoice when he stumbles;
18 Lest  יהוה see and it be evil in His eyes,
And He turn away His wrath from him.
19 Do not fret because of evil-doers,
And do not envy the wrong;
20 For there is no future for the evil-doer;
The lamp of the wrongdoers is put out.
21 My son, fear יהוה and the sovereign;
Do not mingle with those who change;
22 For their calamity arises suddenly,
And who knows the ruin of both of
them?
23 These also are for the wise:
It is not good to show partiality in right-ruling.
24 He who says to the wrong,
“You are righteous” – peoples curse
him,
Nations despise him.
25 But those who rebuke the wrong,
It is pleasant, and a good blessing comes on them.
26 He who gives a right answer kisses the lips.
27 Prepare your outside work,
And make it fit for yourself in the field;
Then you shall build your house.
28 Do not witness against your neighbour without cause,
And do not deceive with your lips.
29 Do not say, “Let me do to him as he did to me;
I repay each according to his work.”
30 I passed by the field of the lazy,
And by the vineyard of the man
lacking heart;
31 And see, it was all overgrown with thorns;
Its surface was covered with nettles;
And its stone wall was broken down.
32 When I saw it, I set my heart on it;
I looked and received discipline:
33 A little sleep, a little slumber,
A little folding of the hands to rest;
34 And your poverty shall come,
a prowler,
And your need like an armed man.

25 These too are proverbs of Shelomoh which the men of Հիզիկիյա sovereign of Յեհուդա copied:
2 It is the esteem of Elohim to hide a matter,
And the esteem of sovereigns to search out a matter.
3The heavens for height and the earth
for depth,
But the heart of sovereigns is unsearchable.
4Take away the dross from silver,
And a vessel comes forth for the refiner.
5Take away the wrong from before the sovereign,
And his throne is established in righteousness.
6Do not exalt yourself before a
sovereign,
And do not stand in the place of great
men;
7For it is better for him to say to you,
“Come up here,”
Than that you should be put lower
Before a noble whom your eyes have seen.
8Do not go forth to strive in haste,
For what would you do in the end,
When your neighbour has put you to shame?
9Plead your case with your neighbour himself;
And do not disclose the secret of another;
10Lest he who hears it put you to shame,
And your evil report turn not back.
11A word spoken at the right time
Is like apples of gold in settings of silver.
12A ring of gold, and an ornament of fine
gold,
Is a wise one’s reproof to an ear that hears.
13Like the cold of snow in time of harvest
Is a trustworthy messenger to those who send him,
For he refreshes the life of his masters.
14He who boasts of his gifts falsely
Is like clouds and wind without rain.
15Through patience a ruler is persuaded,
And a soft tongue shatters a bone.
16Have you found honey?
Eat only as much as you need,
Lest you be satisfied with it and vomit.
17Make your foot rare in your neighbour’s house,
Lest he gets enough of you and hate
you.
18A man bearing false witness against his neighbour
Is like a club and a sword and a sharp arrow.
19Trust in a treacherous man in time of distress
Is like a broken tooth or a foot out of joint.
20One who takes away a garment in cold weather,
Is like vinegar on soda,
And a singer of songs on an evil heart.
21If your enemy is hungry give him bread to eat,
And if he is thirsty give him water to drink,
22For you are heaping coals of fire on his head,
And rewards you.
23The north wind brings rain,
And a secret tongue an enraged face.
24It is better to dwell in a corner of a roof,
Than in a house shared with a contentious woman.
25Like cold water to a parched throat,
Is good news from a distant land.
26A righteous man who gives way before the wrong,
Is like a muddied spring and a ruined fountain.
27It is not good to eat much honey.
Is it esteem to seek one’s own esteem?
28A man who has no control over his spirit
Is like a broken-down city without a wall.
26Like snow in summer,
and rain in harvest,
So esteem is not fitting for a fool.
2As a bird wanders,
as a swallow flies about,
So a curse without cause does not come.
3A whip for a horse, a bridle for a donkey,
And a rod for the fool's back.
4 Do not answer a fool according to his folly,
Lest you also become like him.
5 Answer a fool according to his folly,
Lest he become wise in his own eyes.
6 He who sends a message by the hand of a fool
Cuts off feet, drinks damage.
7 The legs of the lame hang limp
So is a proverb in the mouth of fools.
8 Like one binding a stone in a sling,
So is he who gives esteem to a fool.
9 A thorn goes into the hand of a drunkard
So is a proverb in the mouth of fools.
10 An archer who wounds anyone,
Is he who hires a fool or any passer-by.
11 As a dog returns to his own vomit,
So a fool repeats his folly.
12 Have you seen a man wise in his own eyes?
There is more expectancy for a fool than for him.
13 The lazy one says,
"There is a lion in the way!
A fierce lion is in the streets!"
14 As a door turns on its hinges,
So does the lazy one turn on his bed.
15 The lazy one buries his hand in a dish;
It tires him to bring it back to his mouth.
16 The lazy one is wiser in his own eyes
Than seven rendering advice.
17 A passer-by meddling in a strife not his own
Is like one who takes a dog by the ears.
18 Like a madman who throws sparks, arrows, and death,
So is a man who deceived his neighbour,
And says, “I was only joking!”
20 For lack of wood, the fire goes out.
And without a slanderer, strife ceases.
21 As charcoal is to burning coals, and wood to fire,
So is a contentious man to kindle strife.
22 The words of a slanderer are as dainty morsels,
Which go down into the inner parts of the heart.
23 Burning lips with an evil heart
Are like earthenware covered with silver dross.
24 He who hates, pretends with his lips,
And lays up deceit within him;
25 Though he speaks kindly,
do not believe him,
For there are seven abominations in his heart.
26 Hatred is covered by deceit.
His evil is disclosed in the assembly.
27 Whoever digs a pit falls into it,
And whoever rolls a stone, it turns back on him.
28 A lying tongue hates its bruised ones,
And a flattering mouth works ruin.

27 Do not boast of tomorrow,
For you do not know what a day brings forth.
2 Let another man praise you,
And not your own mouth –
A stranger, and not your own lips.
3 A stone is heavy and sand is weighty,
But a fool’s wrath is heavier than both.
4 Wrath is cruel and displeasure overwhelming,
But who is able to stand before jealousy?
5 Open reproof is better than hidden love.
6 The wounds of a friend are true,
But the kisses of an enemy are profuse.
7 One satisfied loathes the honeycomb,
But to a hungry one any bitter food is sweet.
8 Like a bird that wanders from its nest,
So is a man who wanders from his place.
9 Ointment and perfume gladden the heart,
So one’s counsel is sweet to his friend.
10 Do not forsake your own friend or your father’s friend,
And do not go into your brother’s house
In the day of your calamity –
Better is a neighbour nearby than a brother far away.
11 My son, be wise, and gladden my heart,
That I might have a word for him who reproaches me.

12 A clever man foresees calamity, hides himself;
The simple shall go on, they are punished.

13 Take the garment of him who is guarantor for a stranger,
And for a strange woman pledge it.

14 He who greets his friend loudly early in the morning,
Shall have it reckoned to him as a curse.

15 Drops that never cease on a very rainy day
And a contentious woman are alike;

16 Whoever represses her represses the wind,
And his right hand encounters oil.

17 Iron is sharpened by iron,
And a man sharpens the face of his friend.

18 He who tends the fig tree eats its fruit;
And he who guards his master is esteemed.

19 As in water face reflects face,
So a man’s heart reflects a man.

20 The grave and destruction are not satisfied;
So the eyes of man are not satisfied.

21 A refining pot is for silver and a furnace for gold,
So a man is tried by his praise.

22 Even if you pound a fool in a mortar with a pestle
Along with crushed grain,
His folly shall not leave him.

23 Know well the state of your flocks;
Set your heart to your herds;

24 For riches are not forever,
Nor a diadem to all generations.

25 Grass vanishes, and new grass appears,
And the vegetation of the mountains are gathered in.

26 The lambs are for your garments,
And the goats for the price of a field;

27 And goats’ milk enough for your food,
For the food of your household,

And sustenance for your girls.

28 The wrong shall flee though no one pursues,
But the righteous are as bold as a lion.

2 Because of transgression of a land,
Many are its rulers;
But by a man of understanding and knowledge,
Right is maintained.

3 A poor man who oppresses the poor
Is like a sweeping rain that leaves no food.

4 Those who forsake the Torah praise the wrong,
Those who guard the Torah strive with them.

5 Evil men do not understand right-ruling,
But those who seek HWHY understand all.

6 Better is the poor who walks in his integrity
Than one perverse in his ways, who is rich.

7 He who watches over the Torah is a discerning son,
But a companion of gluttons shames his father.

8 He who increases his possessions by interest and profit
Gathers it for him who shows favour to the poor.

9 He who turns away his ear from hearing the Torah,
Even his prayer is an abomination.

10 He who causes the straight to go astray
In an evil way,
Falls into his own pit;

11 A rich man is wise in his own eyes,
But the perfect inherit the good.

12 When the righteous exult, there is great comeliness;
But when the wrong arise, a man is searched for.

13 He who hides his transgressions does not prosper,

See also 15:29, Yesh. 59:1-2, Yn. 9:31, 1 Yn. 3:22.
But he who confesses and forsakes them finds compassion.

14 Blessed is the man who always fears Elohim,
But he who hardens his heart falls into evil.

15 A roaring lion and a charging bear
Is a wrongdoing ruler over poor people.

16 A leader who lacks understanding is a great oppressor,
But the hater of greed prolongs his days.

17 A man oppressed by blood-guilt flees into a pit;
Let no one help him.

18 He who walks blamelessly is saved,
But the perverted of ways falls at once.

19 He who tills his land is satisfied with bread,
But he who pursues vanities is filled with poverty.

20 A man of truth has many blessings,
But one in a hurry to be rich does not go unpunished.

21 To show partiality is not good,
Because for a piece of bread a man would transgress.

22 A man with an evil eye runs after wealth,
And does not know that poverty awaits him.

23 He who reproves a man finds more favour afterward
Than he who flatters with the tongue.

24 He who robs his father or his mother,
And says, “It is no transgression,”
He is a companion to a destroyer.

25 He who is greedy stirs up strife,
But he who trusts in Elohim prospers.

26 He who trusts in his own heart is a fool,
But he who walks wisely is delivered.

27 He who gives to the poor does not lack,
But he who hides his eyes does have many curses.

28 When the wrong rise up, men hide themselves;
But when they perish, the righteous increase.

29 One often reproved,
hardening his neck,
Is suddenly broken, and there is no healing.

2 When the righteous increase, the people rejoice;
But when a wrong one rules,
the people sigh.

3 He who loves wisdom gladdens his father,
But a companion of whores destroys wealth.

4 A sovereign establishes a land by right-ruling,
But one who receives bribes throws it down.

5 A man who flatters his neighbour
Spreads a net for his own feet.

6 An evil man is ensnared by transgression,
But the righteous sings and rejoices.

7 The righteous knows the plea of the poor,
The wrong does not understand such knowledge.

8 Scoffers ensnare a city,
But the wise turn away wrath.

9 When a wise man disputes with a foolish man,
Whether he rages or laughs,
there is no peace.

10 Bloodthirsty men hate the perfect,
And seek the life of the straight.

11 A fool lets out all his breath,
But the wise calms it down.

12 If a ruler listens to lying words,
All his servants become wrong.

13 The poor man and the oppressor have this in common:
Elohim gives light to the eyes of both.

14 The sovereign who rightly rules the poor with truth,
His throne is established forever.

15 A rod and reproof give wisdom,
But a child unrestrained brings shame to his mother.

16 When the wrong become many, transgression increases;
But the righteous look on their fall.

17 Discipline your son,
And he brings you rest and delight to your life.
18 Where there is no vision, the people are let loose,
But blessed is he who guards the Torah.
19 A servant is not disciplined by words;
Though he understands, he does not respond.
20 Have you seen a man hasty in his words?
There is more expectancy for a fool than for him.
21 He who deals tenderly
With his servant from youth,
Has him as a son in the end.
22 A man of displeasure stirs up strife,
And a master of rage has many a transgression.
23 The pride of man brings him low,
But the humble in spirit obtains esteem.
24 He who shares with a thief hates his own life;
He hears an oath, but does not report.
25 The fear of man brings a snare,
But whoever trusts in יהוה is set on high.
26 Many seek the face of a ruler,
But right-ruling for man comes from יהוה.
27 An unrighteous man
Is an abomination to the righteous,
And he who is straight in the way
Is an abomination to the wrong.

30 The words of Aָגֶר son of Yaqeh, a message.
This man declared to Ithi’ēl,
to Ithi’ēl and Uḵal:
2 For I am more stupid than anyone,
And do not have the understanding of a man.
3 And I have not learned wisdom
That I should know the knowledge of the Set-apart One.
4 Who has gone up to the heavens and come down?
Who has gathered the wind in His fists?
Who has bound the waters in a garment?
Who established all the ends of the earth?
What is His Name,
And what is His Son’s Name, p
If you know it?
5 Every Word of Eloah is tried; q
He is a shield to those taking refuge in Him.
6 Do not add to His Words, r
Lest He reprove you,
and you be found a liar.
7 Two matters I have asked of You –
Deny them not to me before I die:
8 Remove falsehood and a lying word far from me;
Give me neither poverty nor riches;
Feed me my portion of bread;
9 Lest I become satisfied and deny You,
And say, “Who is יהוה?”
And lest I be poor, and steal,
And seize the Name of my Elohim.
10 Do not slander a servant to his master,
Lest he curse you,
And you be found guilty.
11 There is a generation that curses its father,
And does not bless its mother –
12 There is a generation, clean in its own eyes,
But not washed from its own filth.
13 There is a generation;
Oh, how haughty are their eyes!
And their eyelids are lifted up.
14 There is a generation whose teeth are swords,
And whose jaw-teeth are knives,
To devour the poor from off the earth,
And the needy from among men.
15 The leech has two daughters:
“Give! Give!”
Three are not satisfied,
Four that never say, “Enough”:
16 The grave, and the barren womb,
Soil not satisfied with water,
And fire which never says, “Enough.”

p A reproof, an invitation, a call to seek these two Names which have been suppressed!
An eye that mocks his father,
And scorns to obey his mother —
Ravens of the wadi dig it out,
And young eagles eat it!

Three matters are too marvellous for me,
And four which I do not understand:
The way of an eagle in the heavens,
The way of a snake on a rock,
The way of a ship in the heart of the sea,
And the way of a man with a girl.

This is the way of an adulterous woman:
She shall eat and wipe her mouth,
and say,
“I have not done wickedness.”

Under three matters the earth trembles,
And under four, it is unable to bear:
Under a servant when he reigns,
And a fool when he is satisfied with food,

Under a hated woman who marries,
And a female servant who supplants her mistress.

There are four matters
Which are little on the earth,
But they are exceedingly wise:

The ants are a people not strong,
Yet they prepare their food in the summer;

The rock badgers are a weak folk,
Yet they make their homes in the crags;

The locusts have no sovereign,
Yet they all go out in formation;

A spider takes hold with two hands,
And is in sovereigns’ palaces.

There are three matters
That are going well,
And four are good in walking:

A lion, which is mighty among beasts
And does not turn away from facing all;

A greyhound, and a male goat,
And a sovereign whose army is with him.

If you have been foolish in lifting up yourself,
Or if you have plotted evil,
Put your hand on your mouth.

For as milk under pressure brings forth curds,
And as a nose under pressure brings forth blood,
So wrath under pressure brings forth strife.

The words of Sovereign Lemuel,
a message which his mother taught him:
What, my son?
And what, son of my womb?
And what, son of my vows?

Do not give your strength to women,
Nor your ways to wiping away sovereigns.

Not for sovereigns, O Lemuel,
Not for sovereigns to drink wine,
Nor for princes to desire strong drink;

Lest they drink and forget the law,
And pervert the right of all the afflicted.

Give strong drink to him who is perishing,
And wine to those embittered in being.

Let him drink and forget his poverty,
And remember his trouble no more.

Open your mouth for the dumb,
In the cause of all the sons of the departed.

Open your mouth, judge righteously,
And plead the cause of the poor and needy.

Who does find a capable wife?
For she is worth far more than rubies.

The heart of her husband shall trust her,
And he has no lack of gain.

She shall do him good, and not evil,
All the days of her life.

She shall seek wool and flax,
And with delight she works with her hands.

She shall be as the ships of Tarshish,
She brings in her food from afar.

She also rises while it is still night,
And provides food for her household,
And a portion for her girls.

She shall consider a field and buy it;
From her profits she shall plant a vineyard.

She shall gird herself with strength,
And strengthen her arms.
18 She shall taste when her gain is good;
   Her lamp does not go out by night.
19 She shall stretch out her hands to the distaff,
   And her hand shall hold the spindle.
20 She shall extend her hand to the poor,
   And she shall reach out her hands to the needy.
21 She is not afraid of snow for her household,
   For all her household is dressed in scarlet.
22 She shall make tapestry for herself;
   She is dressed in fine linen and purple.
23 Her husband is known in the gates,
   When he sits among the elders of the land.
24 She shall make fine linen and sell
them,
   And shall give girdles for the merchants.
25 Strength and splendour are her garments,
   And she rejoices in time to come.
26 She shall open her mouth with wisdom,
   And on her tongue is the Torah of kindness.
27 She watches over the ways of her
household,
   And does not eat the bread of idleness.
28 Her children shall rise up and call her blessed;
   Her husband too, and he praises her:
29 “Many daughters have done nobly,
   But you have risen over them all.”
30 Loveliness is deceptive
   And prettiness is vain,
   A woman who fears הוהי is to be praised.
31 Give her of the fruit of her hands,
   And let her works praise her in the gates.
1 There was a man in the land of Uts, whose name was Iyoë. And that man was perfect and straight, and one who feared Elohim and turned aside from evil.
2 And seven sons and three daughters were born to him.
3 And his possessions were seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred female donkeys, and a very large body of servants, so that this man was the greatest of all the people of the East.
4 And his sons went and had a feast in the house of each on his day, and sent and invited their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.
5 And it came to be, when the days of feasting had gone round, that Iyoë would send and set them apart, and he would rise early in the morning and offer burnt offerings – the number of them all – for Iyoë said, “It might be that my sons have sinned and cursed Elohim in their hearts.” This Iyoë always did.
6 And the day came to be that the sons of Elohim came to present themselves before HWHY, and Satan also came among them.
7 And HWHY said to Satan, “From where do you come?” And Satan answered HWHY and said, “From diligently searching in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.”
8 And HWHY said to Satan, “Have you considered My servant Iyoë, that there is none like him on the earth, a perfect and straight man, one who fears Elohim and turns aside from evil?”
9 And Satan answered HWHY and said, “Is Iyoë fearing Elohim for naught?
10 “Have You not made a hedge around him, and around his household, and around all that he has on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his possessions have increased in the land.
11 But stretch out Your hand, please, and strike all that he has – if he would not curse You to Your face!”
12 And HWHY said to Satan, “See, all that he has is in your hand. Only do not lay a hand on himself.” And Satan went out from the presence of HWHY.
13 And the day came to be when his sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in the house of their brother, the first-born.
14 And a messenger came to Iyoë and said, “The oxen were ploughing and the donkeys feeding alongside them, 15 when Sheäa fell upon them and took them away, and they smote the servants with the edge of the sword. And I alone have escaped to inform you!”
16 While he was still speaking, another also came and said, “The fire of Elohim fell from the heavens and burned up the sheep and the servants, and consumed them. And I alone have escaped to inform you!”
17 While he was still speaking, another also came and said, “The Chaldeans formed three bands, and made a raid on the camels and took them away, and they smote the servants with the edge of the sword. And I alone have escaped to inform you!”
18 While he was still speaking, another also came and said, “Your sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine in the house of their brother, the first-born, 19 and see, a great wind came from the wilderness and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young men, and they are dead. And I alone have escaped to inform you!”
20 Then Iyoë rose up and tore his robe, and shaved his head, and he fell to the ground and did obeisance.
21 And he said, “Naked I came from my mother’s womb, and naked I return there. HWHY has given, and HWHY has taken away. Blessed be the Name of HWHY.”
22 In all this Iyoë did not sin nor ascribe wrong-doing unto Elohim.
Again the day came to be that the sons of Elohim came to present themselves before אֱלֹהִים, and Satan also came among them to present himself before אֱלֹהִים.

And אֱלֹהִים said to Satan, “From where do you come?” And Satan answered אֱלֹהִים and said, “From diligently searching in the earth, and from walking up and down in it.”

And אֱלֹהִים said to Satan, “Have you considered My servant יֹוָב, that there is none like him on the earth, a perfect and straight man, one who fears Elohim and turns aside from evil? And still he holds fast to his integrity, although you incited Me against him, to destroy him without cause.”

And Satan answered אֱלֹהִים and said, “Skin for skin, and all that a man has he would give for his life!

But stretch out Your hand, please, and strike his bone and his flesh – if he would not curse You to Your face!”

And אֱלֹהִים said to Satan, “See, he is in your hand, only spare his life.”

And Satan went out from the presence of אֱלֹהִים, and smote יֹוָב with loathsome sores from the sole of his foot to the crown of his head.

And he took a potsherd with which to scrape himself while he sat in the midst of the ashes.

And his wife said to him, “Do you still hold fast to your integrity? Curse Elohim and die!”

But he said to her, “You speak as one of the foolish women speaks. Indeed, should we accept only good from Elohim, and not accept evil?” In all this יֹוָב did not sin with his lips.

And three of the friends of יֹוָב heard of all this evil that came on him, and each one came from his own place – Eliphaz the Tִּםָנִי, and BildaÅ the שֻׁהֵי, and Tsophar the נָעָמָתִי – and they met together to come to sympathise with him and to comfort him.

And they lifted up their eyes from a distance, and did not recognise him, and they lifted their voices and wept. And each one tore his robe and sprinkled dust on his head toward the heavens.

Then they sat down with him on the ground seven days and seven nights, and no one spoke a word to him, for they saw that the pain was very great.

After this יֹוָב opened his mouth and cursed the day of his birth.

And יֹוָב spoke, and said,

“Let the day perish on which I was born, and the night it was said, ‘A male child has been conceived.’

Let that day be darkness. Let not Eloah from above seek for it, nor let light shine upon it.

Let darkness and the shadow of death buy it back, let a cloud dwell on it, let all that blackens the day frighten it.

That night – let darkness seize it. Let it not be included among the days of the year, let it not come into the number of the months.

Look, let that night be silent! Let no singing come into it!

Let those curse it who curse the day, who are ready to stir up Liwiaţhan.

Let the stars of its twilight be dark. Let it wait for light, but have none. And let it not see the eyelashes of the dawn.

For it did not shut up the doors of my mother’s womb, nor hide trouble from my eyes.

Why did I not die from the womb, come forth from the belly and expire?

Why were there knees to receive me? Or breasts for me to suck?

For now I would have been lying in peace. I would have slept – then I would have been at rest, with sovereigns and counsellors of the earth, who built ruins for themselves, or with rulers who had gold, who filled their houses with silver, or as a hidden untimely birth, as infants who never saw light?

There the wrong cease raging, and there the weary are at rest, the prisoners rest together, they do not hear the voice of the oppressor.

The small and great are there, and the servant is free from his master.

Why does He give light to the sufferer, and life to the bitter of being,
21 who are waiting for death, but it does not come, and search for it more than treasures;
22 who rejoice exceedingly, they are glad when they find the grave?
23 Why does He give light to a man whose way has been hidden, and whom Eloah has hedged in?
24 For my sighing comes before I eat, and my groanings pour out like water.
25 For that which I greatly feared has come upon me, and that which I dreaded has overtaken me.
26 I have not been at ease, nor have I been undisturbed, nor been at rest, yet trouble comes!”

4 And Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,
2 “If one tries a word with you, would you become impatient? But who is able to withhold himself from speaking?
3 See, you have instructed many, and you have made weak hands strong.
4 Your words have raised up him who was stumbling, and you have strengthened the weak knees.
5 But now it has come to you, and you are impatient; it strikes you, and you are troubled.
6 Is not your reverence your trust, the integrity of ways your expectancy?
7 Remember, please: Who, being innocent, has ever perished? And where have the straight ones ever been cut off?
8 According to what I have seen, those who plough wickedness and sow suffering reap the same.
9 Through the breath of Eloah they perish, and through the Spirit of His nostrils they are consumed.
10 The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, but the teeth of the young lions shall be broken.
11 An old lion perishes for lack of prey, and the cubs of the lioness are scattered.
12 And unto me a word was secretly brought, and my ear received a little of it.
13 Amid thoughts from visions of the night, when deep sleep falls on men, 14 fear came upon me, and trembling, causing my bones to shake greatly.
15 Then a spirit passed before my face, the hair on my body stood up.
16 It stood still, but I could not discern its appearance. A form was before my eyes – silence, then a voice I heard, 17 ‘Is mortal man more righteous than Eloah? Is man more clean than his Maker?
18 ‘Look, He puts no trust in His servants, and He charges His messengers with straying.
19 ‘How much more those who dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, who are crushed like a moth?
20 ‘From morning till evening they are beaten down, they perish forever, with no one regarding.
21 ‘Are not the cords of their tents pulled up? They die, without wisdom!’

5 “Call out, please, is there anyone to answer you? And to which of the set-apart ones would you turn?
2 For wrath kills the fool, and envy slays the simple.
3 I myself have seen the fool taking root, but suddenly his home was cursed.
4 His sons are far from safety, they are crushed in the gate, with no one to deliver.
5 The hungry eat up his harvest, taking it even from the thorns, and the snare snaps up their wealth.
6 For evil does not come from the dust, nor does trouble spring from the ground;
7 for man is born for trouble, and the sparks fly upward.
8 But as for me, I would seek Âl, and I would submit my case to Elohim, 9 who is doing great and unsearchable deeds, innumerable wonders,
10 who is giving rain on the earth’s face, and is sending waters on the field’s face;
11 to set the lowly on high, and those who mourn shall be lifted to safety, 12 thwarting the schemes of the crafty, so that their hands do not work effectively;
13 catching the wise in their own craftiness, and the counsel of schemers are swept away.
14 By day they encounter darkness, and at noon they grope as in the night.
15 But He saves the needy from the sword of their mouth, from the clutches of the strong.
16 Thus the poor have expectancy, and unrighteousness shuts her mouth.
17 Look, blessed is the man whom Eloah does reprove, so do not despise the discipline a of the Almighty.
18 For He bruises, but He binds up; He smites, but His hands heal. b
19 In six distresses He delivers you, and in seven no evil strikes you.
20 In scarcity of food He shall redeem you from death, and in battle from the power of the sword.
21 When the tongue scourges you are shielded, and you have no fear when destruction comes.
22 At destruction and at starvation you laugh, and you have no fear of the beasts of the earth.
23 For your covenant is with the stones of the field, and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with you.
24 And you shall know that your tent is in peace, and shall visit your tent and not sin,
25 and shall know that your seed are many, and your offspring like the grass of the earth.
26 You shall come to the grave in ripe old age, like the stacking of grain in its season.
27 Look, this we have searched out, it is so. Hear it, and know for yourself.”

6 And IyoÄ answered and said,
2 “Oh, that my grief were thoroughly weighed, and my calamity be placed on the scales!
3 For it would outweigh the sand of the sea, therefore my words have been rash.
4 For the arrows of the Almighty are within me, my spirit drinks in their poison, the onslaughts of Eloah are arrayed against me.
5 Does the wild donkey bray when it has grass, or does the ox bellow over its fodder?
6 Is tasteless food eaten without salt? Is there any flavour in the juice of mallows?
7 I refuse to touch it, they are like food when I am sick.
8 Oh that I might have my desire, that Eloah would grant me what I long for!
9 That it would please Eloah to crush me, loose His hand and cut me off!
10 Then I would still have comfort, and I would rejoice in pain, though not spared, for I have not hidden the words of the Set-apart One.
11 What strength do I have, that I should wait? And what is my end, that I should prolong my life?
12 Is my strength the strength of stones? Is my flesh of bronze?
13 Is my help not within me? And is ability driven from me?
14 To a despiser of friends: shame! For he is forsaking the fear of the Almighty.
15 My brothers are as undependable as a wadi, as a bed on which streams once ran,
16 which are dark because of the ice, in which the snow is hidden.
17 When it is warm, they cease to flow; when it is hot, they vanish from their place.
18 The paths of their way turn aside, they enter wastes and perish.
19 Passengers of TÄma looked expectantly, travellers of SheÄa waited for them.
20 They were ashamed because they had trusted, they came there and were disappointed.
21 Indeed, you have now become the same! You see my downfall and are afraid.
22 Did I ever say, ‘Give to me’? or, ‘Offer a bribe for me from your wealth’?
23 or, ‘Rescue me from the hand of the enemy?’ or, ‘ Redeem me from the hand of oppressors’?
24 Teach me, and I shall be silent. And show me where I have gone astray.
25 Words of uprightness are harsh! But what does your reproving reprove?
26 Do you reckon to reprove my words, and the sayings of one in despair, which are as wind?
27 You would cast lots over the fatherless, and make merchandise of your friend!
28 But now, please look at me – whether I would lie to your face.

Relent, please, let there be no unrighteousness. Relent! My righteousness is still in it.
Is there unrighteousness on my tongue? Does my taste not discern what is perverse?

7 “Does not man have to struggle on earth? For his days are like the days of a hired man.
Like a servant who sighs for the shade, and like a hireling longing for his wages, so am I allotted months of futility. And nights of trouble have been appointed to me.
When I lie down, I say, ‘When am I going to rise, and the night be ended?’ For I have had my fill of tossing till dawn.
My body is covered with worms and dirt, my skin is cracked and it festers.
My days are swifter than a weaver’s shuttle, and are spent without expectancy.
Remember that my life is a breath! My eye is never again to see good.
The eye of him who sees me sees me no longer. Your eyes are upon me, and I am no more.
The cloud fades and vanishes away, so he who goes down to the grave does not come up.
He returns no more to his house, nor does his place know him any more.
I also, I do not hold my mouth, I speak in the distress of my spirit, I complain in the bitterness of my being.
Am I the sea, or a sea monster, that You set a guard over me?
When I say, ‘My bed does comfort me, my couch does ease my complaint,’ then You frighten me with dreams and make me afraid with visions, so that my being chooses strangling, death rather than my bones.
I have wasted away, I would not live forever. Leave me alone, for my days are a breath.
What is man, that You should make him great, that You should set Your heart on him, that You should visit him every morning, trying him every moment?

How long do You not look away from me, nor leave me alone till I swallow my saliva?
Have I sinned? What have I done to You, O Watcher of men? Why have You set me as Your target, so that I am a burden to You?
And why do You not pardon my transgression, and take away my crookedness? For now I lie down in the dust, and You shall seek me, but I am not.”

8 And Bildaš the Shušîte answered and said,
“How long are you going to speak like this, since the words of your mouth are a strong wind?
Does Él twist right-ruling? Or does the Almighty twist what is right?
If your sons have sinned against Him, and He delivers them into the hand of their transgression, if you diligently seek Él and plead with the Almighty, if you were clear and straight, then indeed He would awake for you, and shall bless your righteous dwelling place.
Though your beginning was small, yet your latter end would greatly increase.
Indeed, please ask the former generation, and prepare for the research of their fathers, for we are but of yesterday, and know not, because our days on earth are as a shadow.
Do they not teach you, speak to you, and bring forth words from their heart?
Does papyrus grow without a marsh, a reed thrive without water?
While it is yet green, not cut down, it dries out before any plant.
So are the paths of all who forget Él, and the expectancy of a defiled one does perish, whose refuge is cut off, and whose trust is a spider’s web.
He leans on his house, but it does not stand. He holds it fast, but it does not last.
He is moist before the sun, and his branches spread out in his garden.
17 His roots wrap around a heap, and look for a place in the stones.
18 If he is destroyed from his place, then it shall deny him: ‘I have not seen you.’
19 See, this is the joy of His way, and out of the dust others grow.
20 See, El does not cast away the perfect, neither hold the hand of evil-doers.
21 While He fills your mouth with laughter, and your lips with rejoicing, 22 those hating you put on shame, and the tent of the wrong is no more.”

9 And Iyob answered and said,
2 “Truly I know it is so. But how is man right with Elohim?
3 If one wished to dispute with Him, he would not answer Him one time out of a thousand.
4 Wise in heart and mighty in strength – who has hardened himself against Him and is at peace?
5 He who removes mountains, and they do not know it, when He overturns them in His displeasure;
6 who shakes the earth out of its place, and its columns tremble;
7 who commands the sun, and it does not rise; and He seals up the stars,
8 stretching out the heavens by Himself, and treading upon the waves of the sea;
9 who made Ash, Kesil, and Kimah, and the rooms of the south;
10 who performs great and unsearchable deeds, and innumerable wonders.
11 Look, He goes by me, and I do not see; and He moves past, but I do not discern Him.
12 Look, He snatches away, who brings it back? Who says to Him, ‘What are You doing?’
13 Eloah does not turn back His displeasure, the helpers of pride stoop under Him.
14 How much less would I answer Him, choose my words with Him?
15 For though I were righteous, I would not answer Him. I pray to Him for my right-ruling.
16 Though I had called and He answered me, I would not believe that He was listen-17 ing to my voice.
18 For He crushes me with a storm, and has multiplied my wounds for no cause.
19 He does not allow me to recover my breath, but fills me with bitterness.
20 If I speak of power? Look, He is mighty. And if of right-ruling? Who sets me a time?
21 If I am righteous? My mouth would declare me wrong. Am I perfect? It would declare me perverse.
22 Am I perfect? Do I not know my own being? I despise my life!
23 If the scourge slays suddenly, He laughs at the trial of the innocent.
24 Earth has been given into the hand of the wrong. He covers the faces of its judges. If it is not He, then who is it?
25 My days have become swifter than a runner – they have fled, they have not seen good.
26 They have passed by like swift ships, like an eagle swooping on its prey.
27 If I say, ‘Let me forget my complaint, let me put off my sad face, and let me smile,’ 28 I shall be afraid of all my sufferings. I know that You do not hold me innocent.
29 If I am wrong, why should I labour in vain?
30 If I washed myself with snow water, and cleansed my hands with soap, 31 then You would plunge me into a ditch, and my garments shall abhor me.
32 For He is not a man as I am that I answer Him, and we come together into right-ruling.
33 There is no mediator between us, to lay his hand upon us both.
34 Let Him take His rod away from me, and let His dread frighten me.
35 Then I would speak and not fear Him, for I am not so within myself.

10 “My being has grown weary of life. I let loose my complaint, I speak in the bitterness of my being.
2 I say to Eloah, ‘Do not declare me wrong, show me why You strive with me.
Is it good to You that You should crush, that You should despise the work of Your hands, and shine on the counsel of the wrong?

Do You have eyes of flesh? Do You see as man sees?

Are Your days like the days of a mortal man? Are Your years like the days of a mighty man, that You should seek for my crookedness and search out my sin?

For You know that I am not wrong, and there is no one to deliver from Your hand.

Your hands have made me and shaped me, together all around, yet You destroy me.

Remember, please, that You have made me like clay. And would You turn me into dust again?

Did You not pour me out like milk, and curdle me like cheese?

Skin and flesh you put on me, and wove me with bones and sinews.

Life and kindness You have bestowed on me, and Your visitation has preserved my spirit.

And these You have laid up in Your heart, I know that this was with You:

If I sin, then You watch me, and let no crookedness of mine go unpunished.

If I am wrong, woe to me! And if I am righteous, I would not lift up my head – filled with shame and seeing my grief!

If I lift it up high, you hunt me as a lion, and again You would show Yourself marvelous against me.

You renew Your witnesses against me, and increase Your vexation toward me; changes and a host are with me.

So why have You brought me forth from the womb? Oh, that I had perished and no eye had seen me!

I should have been as though I had not been – brought from the womb to the grave.

Are not my days few? Then cease! Leave me alone, so that I brighten up a little,

Before I go, and not return, to the land of darkness and the shadow of death, a land as dark as darkness itself, as the shadow of death, without any order, whose light is as darkness.”

And Tsophar the Na’amathite answered and said,

Should a multitude of words go unanswered? And should a man of lips be declared right?

Should your babblings silence men? And should you mock, and no one make you ashamed?

Since you have said, ‘My discourse is flawless, and I have been clean in Your eyes.’

But if only Eloah would speak, and open His lips against you, and show you the secrets of wisdom, doubling your ability. Know then that Eloah forgets some of your crookedness for you.

Would you find out Eloah by searching, or search out the end of the Almighty?

It is higher than the heavens – what would you do? Deeper than the grave – what would you know?

Their measure is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.

If He passes through and shuts up, and gathers, then who does reverse it?

For He knows false men. When He sees wickedness does He not consider it?

But a senseless man takes heart when a wild donkey’s colt is born a man!

If you would prepare your heart, and stretch out your hands toward Him;

if wickedness were in your hand, put it far away and do not let perverseness dwell in your tents;

then indeed you shall lift up your face without spot; and you shall stand firm, and not be afraid, because you would forget sorrow, and remember it as waters that have passed away, and your life would be brighter than noon. You would soar upward, you would be like the morning.

And you shall trust, because there is expectancy. And when you have searched you shall lie down in safety.

And you shall rest, and no one would make you afraid, and many shall seek your favour.

20 But the eyes of the wrong are consumed, and they shall not escape, and their expectancy is the breathing out of life!”

12 And Iyob answered and said,

2 “Truly you are the people, and wisdom would die with you!

3 But I, like you, have a heart too; I am not less than you. And who does not know such as these?

4 I have become a laughing-stock to my friends – one who has called on Eloah and He answered him! A laughing-stock is the righteous, the perfect one!

5 A lamp is despised in the thought of one who is at ease – prepared for those whose feet slip.

6 The tents of robbers are at peace, and those who provoke Âl are complacent, to him who brings Eloah into his hand!

7 But now ask the beasts, and they teach you; and the birds of the heavens, and they declare it to you;

8 or speak to the earth, and it teaches you; and the fish of the sea inform you.

9 Who among all these does not know that the hand of HWHY has done this,

10 in whose hand is the life of all that live, and the breath of all mankind?

11 Does the ear not try words? And the mouth taste food for itself?

12 With the aged is wisdom, and understanding with length of days.

13 With Him are wisdom and might, He has counsel and understanding.

14 Look, He breaks down, and it is not rebuilt. If He imprisons a man, there is no release.

15 Look, He withholds the waters, and they dry up. And He sends them out, and they overwhelm the earth.

16 With Him are strength and ability. The misled and the misleader are His.

17 He leads counsellors away stripped, and makes judges go mad.

18 He loosens the bonds of sovereigns, and binds a girdle on their loins;

19 who leads away priests as a spoil, and overthrows the mighty;

20 turning aside the lip of the trusted ones, and takes away the discernment of the elders;

21 pouring scorn on nobles, and loosens the girdle of the strong;

22 revealing deep matters out of darkness, and He brings the shadow of death to light;

23 making nations great, and He destroys them; spreading out the nations, and He leads them out.

24 turning aside the heart of the chiefs of the people of the earth, and He makes them wander in a pathless waste.

25 They grope in darkness, having no light, and He makes them stagger like a drunkard.

13 “Look, my eye has seen it all, my ear has heard and understood it.

2 What you know, I know too; I am not less than you.

3 But I would speak to the Almighty, and I delight to reason with Âl.

4 But you smear with falsehood, worthless healers, all of you!

5 If you would only be silent, then it would be your wisdom!

6 Please hear my reasoning, and listen to the pleadings of my lips.

7 Would you speak perversely for Âl, and speak deceit for Him?

8 Would you be partial towards Him? Would you plead for Âl?

9 Would it be well when He searches you out? Or could you deceive Him as one deceives a man?

10 He would certainly reprove you if you secretly show partiality.

11 Should not His excellence make you afraid, and the dread of Him fall upon you?

12 Your weighty sayings are proverbs of ashes, your shields are shields of clay.

13 Be silent before me, and let me speak, and let whatever come upon me!

14 Why do I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in my hands?

15 Though, He does slay me – I wait! But I show my ways to be right before Him.

16 He also is my deliverance, for a defiled one does not come before Him.

17 Listen closely to my words, and with your ears to what I say.
18 Look, please, I have prepared my case, I know that I am in the right.
19 Who is he who would strive with me? For then I would keep silent and die.
20 Only two matters do not do to me, then I am not hidden from Your face:
21 Withdraw Your hand far from me, and let not dread of You make me afraid.
22 Then call, and let me answer; or let me speak, and You reply to me.
23 How many are my crookednesses and sins? Let me know my transgression and my sin.
24 Why do You hide Your face, and reckon me as Your enemy?
25 Would You frighten a leaf driven to and fro? And would You pursue dry stubble?
26 For You write bitter charges against me, and make me inherit the crookednesses of my youth, 27 and put my feet in the stocks, and look closely to all my paths. You set a limit for the soles of my feet.
28 And he, like that which is rotten, wastes away, as a garment that is moth-eaten.

14 “Man born of woman is of few days and turmoil-filled.
2 He comes forth like a flower and withers. He flees like a shadow and does not continue.
3 Yet on such a one You open Your eyes, and bring me to right-ruling with Yourself!
4 Who brings the clean out of the unclean? No one!
5 Since his days are decided, the number of his months is with You, You have appointed his bounds which he does not pass over.
6 Look away from him and let him rest, till like a hired man he enjoys his day.
7 For there is expectancy for a tree, if it is cut down, that it does sprout again, and that its tender branch does not cease.
8 Though its root grows old in the earth, and its stump dies in the ground,
9 at the scent of water it buds and brings forth foliage like a plant.
10 But man dies and is powerless, and man expires, and where is he?
11 Water disappears from the sea, and a river dries up and is parched, 12 and man shall lie down and not rise. Till the heavens are no more, they awake not, nor are aroused from their sleep.
13 If only You would hide me in the grave, conceal me until Your wrath turns away. Set me a time, and remember me!
14 If a man dies, would he live again? All the days of my struggle I wait, till my change comes.
15 You would call, and I would answer You. You have yearned for the work of Your hands.
16 For now You count my steps – do You not watch over my sin?
17 My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and You cover over my crookedness.
18 But a falling mountain crumbles away, and a rock is moved from its place,
19 as water wears away stones, its outpouring washes away the soil of the earth – so You have destroyed the expectancy of man.
20 You overpower him, forever, and he is gone – his face changes and You send him away.
21 His sons come to esteem, and he does not know it. And they are brought low, and he does not perceive it.
22 He feels only the pain of his flesh, and he mourns over himself.”

15 And Eliphaz the Têmanite answered and said,
2 “Would a wise man answer with vain knowledge, or fill his belly with the east wind?
3 Would he reason with useless talk, or by speeches with which do not profit?
4 Indeed, you do away with reverence, and withhold prayer before Él.
5 For your crookedness teaches your mouth what to say, and you choose the tongue of the crafty.
6 Not I, but your own mouth condemns you. And your own lips witness against you.
7 Were you the first one born? Or were you made before the hills?
8 Have you heard the secret counsel of Eloah? And do you limit wisdom to yourself?

9 What do you know that we do not know—understand, that is not within us?
10 Both the grey-haired and the aged are among us, much older than your father.
11 Are the comforts of El not enough for you—and a word that deals gently with you?
12 What have you taken to heart? And why do your eyes flash?
13 That you should turn your spirit against El, and let such words go out of your mouth?
14 What is man, that he should be clean? And one born of a woman, that he should be righteous?
15 Look, He puts no trust in His set-apart ones, and the heavens are not clean in His eyes, 16 how much less one who is loathsome and corrupt, drinking unrighteousness like water!
17 Let me show you—hear me—and this I have seen and declare,
18 which the wise declare, and have not hidden from their fathers,
19 to them alone the land was given, and no stranger passed over into their midst:
20 All the days of the wrong one he is paining himself, and few years have been stored up for the ruthless.
21 A frightening sound is in his ears; in peace a destroyer comes to him.
22 He believes not to return from darkness, and he is reserved for the sword.
23 He wanders about for food—where is it? He knows that a day of darkness is prepared for him.
24 Distress and pain frighten him—they overwhelm him, like a sovereign ready for the attack.
25 Because he has stretched out his hand against El, and acts mightily against the Almighty.
26 He runs against Him defiantly, with thick-bossed shields.
27 For he has covered his face with his fatness, and he has put layers of fat on his loins.
28 But he dwells in ruined cities, in houses which no one lives in, which have been ready to become heaps.
29 He shall not be rich, and his wealth shall not rise, and his possessions shall not overspread the earth.
30 He does not turn away from darkness. The flame dries up his branches, and he turns aside by the breath of His mouth.
31 Let him not trust in falsehood, deceiving himself, for falsehood is his reward.
32 Before his day it is accomplished, and his branch shall not be green.
33 He shakes off his unripe grape like a vine, and throws off his blossom like an olive tree.
34 For the company of the defiled ones is barren, and fire consumes the tents of bribery.
35 They conceive trouble and bring forth wickedness, even their womb prepares deception.”

16 And Iyoḇ answered and said,

2 “I have heard many matters like these; all of you are comforters of trouble!
3 Is there an end to words of wind? Or what provokes you that you answer?
4 I might also speak like you, if you were in my place. I might heap up words against you, and shake my head at you.
5 I might strengthen you with my mouth, and my moving lips might bring relief.
6 If I speak, my pain is not relieved; and if I refrain, does it leave me?
7 But now He has wearied me. You have stunned all my company.
8 And You have plucked me, and it is a witness. And my failure rises up against me, it bears witness to my face.
9 He has torn in His wrath, and He hates me. He has gnashed at me with His teeth; my adversary sharpens His eyes upon me.
10 They open wide their mouths at me, in scorn they have smitten my cheeks, they mass themselves together against me.
11 El has handed me over to the perverse, and cast me into the hands of the wrong.
12 I was at ease, but He broke me. And He took me by my neck and shattered me, and He has set me up for His target.
13 His archers surround me, He splits my kidneys in two and does not spare, He pours out my bile on the ground.

14 He made a breach in me, breach upon breach. He runs upon me like a mighty man.

15 I sewed sackcloth over my skin, and laid my horn in the dust.

16 My face is reddened from weeping, and on my eyelids is the shadow of death;

17 though no violence was on my hand, and my prayer sincere.

18 O earth, do not cover my blood, and let my cry have no resting place!

19 See, even now my witness is in the heavens, and my defender is on high.

20 My friends are they that scorn me; my eyes pour out tears to Eloah.

21 O that one might plead for a man with Eloah, as a man with his neighbour!

22 When a few years are past, then I shall go the way of no return.

17 “My spirit has been broken, my days have been extinguished, graves are for me.

2 Truly, mockeries are with me, and my eye rests on their insults!

3 Please lay down a pledge for me with Yourself. Who would strike hands with me?

4 For You have hidden their heart from understanding, therefore You do not exalt them.

5 He who denounces friends for a share, even the eyes of his children shall fail.

6 But He has made me a byword of the people, whereas in former times I was as a drum.

7 And from sorrow my eye has grown dim, and all my members are like shadows.

8 Upright ones are astonished at this, and the innocent stirs himself up against the defiled one.

9 And the righteous holds to his way, and he who has clean hands becomes stronger and stronger.

10 But please, come back again, all of you, for I do not find a wise one among you.

11 My days have passed by, my plans have been broken off – the desires of my heart.

12 They would turn night into day, saying that light is near, in the presence of darkness!

13 If I wait – the grave is my house, I shall make my bed in darkness,

14 I shall say to corruption, ‘You are my father,’ – to the worm, ‘You are my mother and my sister.’

15 Where then is my expectancy? As for my expectancy, who would see it?

16 Would it sink down into the grave? Would we together go down into the dust?”

18 And Bildaå the ShuÅite answered and said,

2 “When do you put an end to words? Understand, and let us then talk.

3 Why should we be reckoned as beasts, as stupid in your eyes?

4 You who tear yourself to pieces in displeasure – would the earth be forsaken for your sake? Or the rock move from its place?

5 Indeed, the light of the wrong goes out, and the flame of his fire does not shine.

6 The light shall be dark in his tent, and his lamp beside him is put out.

7 The steps of his strength are impeded, and his own counsel overthrows him.

8 For he is sent into a net by his own feet, and he walks on a pit-fall.

9 The net seizes his heel, a snare prevails over him.

10 A noose is hidden on the ground for him, and a trap for him in the path.

11 Alarms frighten him on all sides, and chase him at his heels.

12 His strength is starved, and calamity is ready at his side.

13 It devours parts of his skin, the first-born of death devours his parts.

14 He is torn from the shelter of his tent, and they parade him before the sovereign of alarms.

15 In his tent dwells that which is none of his; brimstone is scattered on his house.

16 His roots below dry up, and his branch is cut off above.

17 Remembrance of him perishes from the earth, and he has no name on the street.

18 They thrust him from light into darkness, and chase him out of the world.
19 He leaves no offspring or descendant among his people, nor any survivor in his dwellings.
20 Those in the west are astonished at his day, as those in the east are frightened.
21 Indeed, such are the dwellings of the perverse, and this is the place of him who does not know El.”

19 And Iyob answered and said, 24“How long would you grieve my life, and crush me with words?
3 These ten times you have insulted me, shamelessly you attack me.
4 Even if I have truly gone astray, my straying remains with me.
5 If indeed you would exalt yourselves above me, and plead against me my reproach,
6 know then that Eloah has overthrown me, and has surrounded me with His net.
7 See, I cry, ‘Violence!’ but I am not heard. I cry aloud, but there is no right-ruling.
8 He has fenced up my way, and I pass not over. And He has placed darkness in my paths.
9 He has stripped me of my esteem, and taken the crown from my head.
10 He breaks me down on every side, and I am gone; and uproots my expectancy like a tree.
11 And He kindled His wrath against me, and He counts me as one of His enemies.
12 His companies come together, and they cast up their way against me, and encamp all around my tent.
13 He has removed my brothers far away from me, and my friends are completely estranged from me.
14 My near ones have fallen away, and my close friends have forgotten me.
15 The guests in my house, and my female servants, reckon me for a stranger – I am a foreigner in their eyes.
16 I have called my servant, but he gives no answer – I have to beg him with my mouth.
17 My spirit is strange to my wife, and my kindness to the children of my own body.
18 Even young children have scorned me.
19 I rise, and they speak against me.
20 All my intimate friends loathe me, and those whom I love have turned against me.
21 My bone clings to my skin and to my flesh, and I have escaped by the skin of my teeth.
22 Show favour to me, show favour to me, O you my friends, for the hand of Eloah has struck me!
23 Why do you persecute me like El does, and are not satisfied with my flesh?
24 engraved on a rock with an iron pen and lead, forever!
25 For I know that my Redeemer lives, and as the Last shall rise over the dust;
26 and after my skin has been struck off, then in my flesh I shall see Eloah, 27 whom I myself shall see on my side, and not a stranger. My kidneys have failed within me!
28 If you say, ‘Why do we persecute him?’ Seeing the root of the matter has been found in me,
29 fear the sword yourselves, for wrath brings the punishment of the sword, so that you know there is a judgment.”

20 Then Tsophar the Na’amathite answered and said,
24“Truly, my thoughts make me respond, even because of my haste within me.
3 I have listened to the reproof which insults me, and the spirit of my understanding makes me answer.
4 You have known this of old, since man was placed on earth,
5 that the singing of the wrong is short-lived, and the joy of the defiled one is but for a moment?
6 Although his pride mounts up to the heavens, and his head does reach to the clouds, 7 he perishes forever like his own dung. Those who have seen him say, ‘Where is he?’
8 He flies away like a dream, and is not found. And he is driven away like a vision of the night.
9 Eyes that saw him do so no more, nor does his place see him any more.
10 His sons seek the favour of the poor, and his hands give back his wealth.
11 His bones shall be filled with his youth,
but it lies down with him in the dust.
12 Though evil is sweet in his mouth, he hides it under his tongue, though he fondles it and does not forsake it, but still keeps it in his mouth, his food is turned in his stomach, the bitterness of cobras is in him.
15 He has swallowed down riches, then vomits them up – El drives it out of his stomach.
16 He sucks the poison of cobras; the tongue of the poisonous snake slays him.
17 He looks not on streams, the rivers flowing with honey and cream.
18 He is giving back what he laboured for,
and does not eat it – like wealth from his trade, but he does not enjoy.
19 For he has oppressed, he has forsaken the poor, he has seized a house which he did not build.
20 For he shall not know ease in his inner-most, neither save what he desires.
21 There is no left-over after he has eaten, therefore his good does not last.
22 With all his plenty he is in distress; the hand of every labourer comes against him.
23 It shall be, at the filling of his stomach, that He casts on him His burning wrath, and rains it down on him while he is eating.
24 He shall flee from the iron weapon, a bronze bow pierce him through.
25 It is drawn, and comes out of the body, and the gleaming point comes out of his gall. Fears come upon him.
26 All darkness waits for his treasures. A fire not blown consumes him, it destroys what remains in his tent.
27 The heavens reveal his crookedness, and the earth rises up against him.
28 The increase of his house departs, flowing away in the day of His wrath.
29 This is the portion from Elohim for a wrong man, and the heritage El has decreed for him.”

21 And Iyoob answered and said,
2 “Listen closely to my word, and let this be your comfort.
3 Bear with me and let me speak, and after I have spoken, keep mocking.
4 As for me, is my complaint against man? And why should I not be impatient?
5 Look at me and be appalled, then put your hand on your mouth.
6 And when I consider it I am frightened, and my body shudders.
7 Why do the wrong live, become old, and become mighty in power? c
8 Their seed is established with them before their face, and their offspring before their eyes.
9 Their houses are peace without fear, neither is the rod of Eloah upon them.
10 Their bull breeds and does not fail, their cow calves without miscarriage.
11 They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.
12 They sing to the tambourine and lyre,
and rejoice to the sound of the flute.
13 They spend their days in goodness, and in a moment go down to the grave.
14 And they say to El, ‘Turn aside from us, for we have no desire to know Your ways.
15 Who is the Almighty, that we should serve Him? And what profit do we have if we pray to Him?’
16 See, is their good not in their own hand? (The counsel of the wrong has been far from me).
17 How often is the lamp of the wrong put out, and does come upon them their calamity, sorrows He allots in His displeasure?
18 They are like straw before the wind, and like chaff that a storm steals away.
19 You say, ‘Eloah stores up one’s wickedness for his children.’ Let Him repay him, so that he knows it.
20 Let his eyes see his destruction, and let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.
21 For what is his delight in his house after him, when the number of his months is cut off?
22 Does anyone teach El knowledge, since

c Teh. 73: 3 & 17, Yirm. 12:1-2 – the answer to this question is given in Teh. 73: 17.
He judges those that are exalted?
23 One dies in his perfect strength, completely at ease and satisfied;
24 His pails are filled with milk, and his bones are juicy with marrow.
25 Another one dies in the bitterness of his being, and never eats with pleasure.
26 Together they lie down in the dust, and worms cover them.
27 Look, I know your thoughts, and the plots with which you would wrong me.
28 For you say, ‘Where is the house of the noble one? And where is the tent, the dwelling place of the wrong ones?’
29 Have you not asked those passing by the way? And do you not know their signs?
30 That the wicked is kept for the day of calamity. They are brought to the day of wrath.
31 Who declares his way to his face? And who repays him for what he has done?
32 As for him, he is brought to the grave, and a watch is kept over the tomb.
33 The clods of the wadi shall be sweet to him, and all men follow him, innumerable are those before him.
34 How then do you comfort me in vain, seeing that perverseness remains in your answers?”

22 And Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,
“Would a strong man be of use to El? Even he who is wise be of use to Him?
3 Is it a delight to the Almighty that you are righteous? Or gain, that you make your ways perfect?
4 Is it because of your fear of Him that He reproves you, or enters into right-ruling with you?
5 Is not your evil great? And is there no end to your crookednesses?
6 For you take pledges from your brother for naught, and strip the naked of their garments.
7 You do not give the weary water to drink, and you have withheld bread from the hungry.
8 But the man of strength, he has the earth, and the highly respected man dwells in it.
9 You have sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless are crushed.
10 Therefore snares are all around you, and sudden fear alarms you, 11 or darkness, so that you do not see, and a flood of water covers you.
12 Is not Eloah in the height of heaven? And see the highest stars, how lofty they are!
13 And you have said, ‘What does El know? Would He judge through the dark cloud?’
14 ‘Clouds screen Him, so that He does not see, and He moves about the circuit of the heavens.’
15 Do you observe the old way which wicked men have trod,
16 who were cut down before their time, whose foundations were swept away by a flood?
17 They said to Eloah, ‘Turn aside from us!’ And what did the Almighty do to them?
18 Yet He filled their houses with the good! (But the counsel of the wrong has been far from me).
19 The righteous see it and are glad, and the innocent mock at them and say,
20 ‘Truly, our adversaries are cut off, and fire has consumed their excess.’
21 Be of service to Him, and be at peace; thereby blessing shall come to you.
22 Please accept the Torah from His mouth, and lay up His words in your heart.
23 If you return to the Almighty, you are built up. If you remove unrighteousness far from your tents, 24 and lay your gold in the dust, and the gold of Ophir among the stones of the wadis,
25 then the Almighty shall be your gold and your silver, strength to you.
26 Then you shall certainly delight in the Almighty, and lift up your face to Eloah, 27 make your prayer to Him. And He shall hear you, and you shall pay your vows.
28 And whatever you decide on shall be established for you, and light shine on your ways.
29 For they have made low, and you say, ‘Up!’ And He saves the lowly of eyes.
30 Would He deliver one who is not inno-
23 And Job answered and said, “Even today my complaint is bitter; my hand is heavy on account of my groaning. 2 If only I knew where to find Him, I would come to His dwelling-place! 3 I would present my case before Him, and fill my mouth with proofs. 4 I would know the words which He would answer me, and understand what He would say to me. 5 Would He contend with me in great power? No! But He would pay attention to me. 6 There the upright might reason with Him, and I would go safe forever from my Judge. 7 See, I go forward, but He is not; and backward, but I do not perceive Him; 8 to the left where He is working, but I do not see; He turns to the right, but I do not see. 9 For He knows the way that I take. When He has tried me, I would come forth as gold. 10 My foot has held fast to His steps. I have guarded His way, and did not turn aside. 11 I have not strayed from the command of His lips. I have treasured the words of His mouth more than my daily portion. 12 But He is One, and who does turn Him? And He does whatever His being has desired. 13 For He completes my portion, and many like these are with Him. 14 Therefore I am troubled at His presence; I consider, and I am afraid of Him. 15 For El has made me faint-hearted, and the Almighty has alarmed me; 16 because I was not cut off before darkness, and from my face He has covered the thick darkness. 24 “Times are not hidden from the Almighty, and why have not those who know Him seen His days? 2 They remove landmarks; they rob and feed on flocks; 3 they drive away the donkey of the fatherless; they take the widow’s ox as a pledge; 4 they turn the needy out of the way; the poor of the earth have hidden together. 5 See, as wild donkeys in the wilderness they go about their tasks, eager seekers for prey; the desert gives his bread, for the children. 6 They reap his fodder in a field and they glean the vineyard of the wrong. 7 They spend the night naked, without a garment, and without covering in the cold. 8 They are wet with the showers of the hills, and have embraced a rock for lack of shelter. 9 They snatch away the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge from the poor; 10 naked, they shall go about without a garment; and hungry, they shall take away sheaves. 11 They press out oil within their walls; winepresses they shall tread, yet suffer thirst. 12 Men groan in the city, and the beings of the wounded cry out, and Eloah does not regard it as foolish. 13 They have become rebels against the light; they have not known His ways nor remained in His paths. 14 The murderer rises at daylight, he slays the poor and needy, and in the night he is as a thief. 15 And the eye of the adulterer watches for dusk, saying, ‘No eye sees me.’ And he puts a covering on the face. 16 In the dark he has broken into houses; by day they shut themselves up; they have not known light. 17 For all of them morning is the same as the shadow of death, when he discerns the extreme fears of the shadow of death. 18 He is swift on the face of the waters; their portion is cursed in the earth; he does not turn into the way of vineyards. 19 Drought and heat snatch away snow waters – the grave those who have sinned. 20 The womb forgets him, the worm feeds sweetly on him; he is remembered no more, and wickedness is broken like a tree;
21 treating evil the barren who does not bear, and does no good for the widow.
22 But He draws the mighty away with His power – He rises up, and no one is certain of life.
23 He gives him safety, and he leans on it; yet His eyes are on their ways.
24 They are lifted up for a little while, then they are gone, then they shall be brought low. Like all else they are gathered up, and they are cut off like the heads of grain.
25 And if it is not so, who does prove me a liar, and make my word worthless?”

And Bildaš the ShuĀite answered and said,
2 “Rule and fear belong to Him, making peace in His high places.
3 Is there any number to His armies? And on whom does His light not rise?
4 So how could man be righteous before Él? Or how could he be flawless who is born of a woman?
5 See, even the moon does not shine, and the stars have not been flawless in His eyes,
6 how much less man, a maggot, and a son of man, a worm?”

And Iyoē answered and said,
2 “How have you helped the powerless, saved an arm not strong?
3 How have you given counsel to the unwise, or declared sound advice to many?
4 With whom have you spoken words? And whose spirit came from you?
5 The dead wait – those under the waters and those inhabiting them.
6 The grave is naked before Him, and destruction has no covering.
7 He it was who stretched out the north over emptiness, hanging the earth upon space,
8 binding up waters in His thick clouds, and the cloud is not torn under them,
9 covering the surface of His throne, spreading His cloud over it.
10 He drew a limit on the surface of the waters, at the boundary of light and darkness.
11 The columns of the heavens tremble, and are stunned at His reproof.

12 By His power He has calmed the sea, and by His understanding He struck down Rahab.
13 By His Spirit He adorned the heavens. His hand whirled the fleeing serpent.
14 See, these are the fringes of His ways, and how little a matter is heard of Him! And who understands the thunder of His power?”

And Iyoē again took up his discourse, and said,
2 “As Él lives, who has turned aside my right-ruling, and the Almighty, who has made my life bitter,
3 as long as my breath is in me, and the spirit of Eloah in my nostrils,
4 my lips do not speak unrighteousness, nor my tongue utter deceit.
5 Far be it from me that I grant that you are right. Until I die I would not turn aside my integrity from me.
6 My righteousness I hold fast, and I do not let it go. My heart does not reproach me as long as I live.
7 Let my enemy be like the wrongdoer, and he who rises up against me like the unrighteous.
8 For what is the expectancy of the defiled one, when He does cut off, when Eloah takes away his life?
9 Would Él hear his cry when distress comes upon him?
10 Would he delight himself in the Almighty – call on Eloah at all times?
11 Let me teach you by the hand of Âl, that which is with the Almighty I do not hide.
12 See, all of you have seen it. Why then are you altogether vain?
13 This is the portion of a wrong man with Él, and the inheritance of cruel ones, which they receive from the Almighty:
14 If his children are increased, it is for the sword; and his offspring shall not have enough to eat.
15 Those who remain of him are buried in death, and their widows do not weep.
16 Though he heaps up silver like dust, and lays up garments like clay –
17 he lays up, but the righteous puts it on, and the innocent divides the silver.
18 He built his house like a moth, like a booth which a watchman made.
19 He lies down, a rich man, but he is not gathered. When he opens his eyes, it is no more!
20 Alarms overtake him like a flood; a storm wind shall steal him away in the night.
21 The east wind takes him away, and he is gone; for it sweeps him from his place.
22 And it hurls itself against him and does not spare; he swiftly flees from its power.
23 It claps its hands at him, and it hisses him out of his place.

28 “Indeed, there is a mine for silver, and a place where gold is refined.
2 Iron is taken from the earth, and copper is smelted from ore.
3 An end to darkness he has set, and to every limit he is searching, to rocks in deepest darkness.
4 He opens a shaft far away from people; they are forgotten by feet; they hang far away from men; they swing to and fro.
5 Earth, out of which grows food, is turned underneath as by fire;
6 its stones are the place of sapphires, and it has dust of gold.
7 No bird of prey knows the path, nor has the hawk’s eye seen it.
8 The proud beasts have not trodden it, nor has the fierce lion passed over it.
9 He puts his hand on the flint; he shall overturn the mountains at the roots.
10 He cuts out channels in the rocks, and his eye sees every precious gem.
11 He dams up the sources of the rivers; and he brings to light what is hidden.
12 And wisdom – where is it found? And where is the place of understanding?
13 Man does not know its value, and it is not found in the land of the living.
14 The deep has said, ‘It is not in me,’ and the sea has said, ‘It is not with me.’
15 Gold is not given for it, nor is silver weighed out as its price.
16 It is not valued in the gold of Ophir, in precious shoham or sapphire.

17 Gold or crystal are not to be compared with it, nor is it exchanged for a vessel of fine gold.
18 No mention is made of coral or crystal, for the price of wisdom is above rubies.
19 The topaz of Kush is not to be compared with it, nor is it valued in clean gold.
20 And wisdom – from where does it come? And where is the place of understanding? d
21 It has been hidden from the eyes of all living, and concealed from the birds of the heavens.
22 Destruction and death have said, ‘With our ears we have heard a report of it.’
23 Elohim has understood its way, and He has known its place.
24 For He looks to the ends of the earth, sees under all the heavens, 25 making a weight for the wind, and measuring out the waters by measure.
26 When He made a law for the rain, and a way for the lightning of thunder, 27 then He saw wisdom and declared it; He prepared it and also searched it out.
28 And He said to man, ‘See, the fear of יהוה, that is wisdom, and to turn from evil is understanding.’ ”

29 And Yôb again took up his discourse, and said,
2 “Oh, that I were as in months past, as in the days when Eloah protected me;
3 when His lamp shone on my head, when I walked in the dark by His light;
4 as I was in the days of my autumn, when the intimacy of Eloah was on my tent;
5 when the Almighty was still with me, when my children were around me;
6 when my steps were bathed with cream, and the rock poured out rivers of oil for me.
7 When I went out to the gate by the city, to take my seat in the open square,
8 the young men saw me and hid, and the aged rose up, they stood;
9 rulers held back their words, and laid a hand on their mouth;

d The answer to the question raised in verses 12 & 20 is given in verse 28.
10 the voice of leaders was hushed, and their tongue clung to the roof of their mouth.
11 For when the ear heard, it blessed me, and when the eye saw, it gave witness of me; because I rescued the poor who cried out, and the fatherless who had no helper.
12 The blessing of the perishing one would come upon me, and I made the widow’s heart sing for joy.
13 I put on righteousness, and it robed me; right-ruling was my cloak and turban.
14 I was eyes to the blind, and I was feet to the lame.
15 I was a father to the poor, and I investigated the case which I did not know.
16 And I broke the jaws of the perverse, and snatched the prey from his teeth.
17 Then I thought I would die in my nest, and increase my days as the sand, 18 my root reaching out to the waters, and dew lying all night on my branch, 19 my esteem fresh within me, and my bow renewed in my hand.
20 To me they listened, and they waited, and kept silence at my counsel.
21 After my words they did not speak again, and my speech settled on them.
22 And they waited for me like the rain, and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain.
23 I smiled at those who did not believe, and the light of my face they did not dim.
24 I chose the way for them, and sat as chief, and I dwelt like a sovereign in the army, like one who comforts mourners.

30 “But now they laugh at me, those younger than I, whose fathers I would have refused to put with my sheep dogs.
2 Of what use to me is the strength of their hands, since their manhood power has perished?
3 They are dried up from lack and hunger, they flee to a parched land, formerly a waste and ruin.
4 They pluck salt herbs by the bushes, and broom tree roots for their food.
5 They were driven out from among men, they shouted at them as at a thief,
6 to dwell in the gullies of wadis, holes of the ground and clefts.
7 Among the bushes they cry out, under the nettles they huddled together –
8 sons of fools, even sons without a name, they have been whipped out of the land.
9 And now I have become their song, and I am a byword to them.
10 They have loathed me, they have kept far from me, and did not refrain from spitting in my face.
11 Because He has loosed my bowstring and afflicted me, they have thrown off restraint in my presence.
12 At my right hand a brood rises; they pushed away my feet, and they raise up against me their destructive ways.
13 They have broken up my path, they gain by my ruin; no one restrains them.
14 They come as through a wide breach; rushing on me under the ruins.
15 Destructions are turned upon me; they pursue my life as the wind, and my welfare has passed like a cloud.
16 And now my life pours itself out; days of affliction seize me.
17 My bones have been pierced in me at night, and my gnawings never lie down.
18 By great exertion is my garment changed – it girds me as the collar of my coat, 19 throwing me into the mud, and I have become like dust and ashes.
20 I cry out to You, but You do not answer me; I stand up, but You only look at me.
21 You have become cruel to me; with the power of Your hand You oppose me.
22 You lift me up to the wind, making me to ride it; and You melt me in a storm.
23 For I have known that You bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.
24 Yet does not one in a heap of ruins stretch out his hand, or in calamity cry out for help?
25 Did I not weep for him who was in trouble? Was my being not grieved for the poor?
26 When I looked for good, then evil came to me. And when I waited for light, darkness came.
27 My inward parts boiled and did not rest; days of affliction went before me.
28 I went about blackened, but not by the sun; I stood up in the assembly, I cried for help.
29 I became a brother of jackals, and a companion of ostriches.
30 My skin became black upon me, and my bones burned with heat.
31 So my lyre becomes mourning, and my flute the sound of weeping.

31 “I have made a covenant with my eyes. How then could I gaze at a maiden?

2 For what is the portion of Eloah from above, and the inheritance of the Almighty from on high?
3 Is it not calamity to the perverse, and strangeness to the workers of wickedness?
4 Does He not see my ways, and number all my steps?
5 If I have walked with falsehood, or if my foot has hurried to deceit,
6 let Him weigh me in a right scale, and let Eloah know my integrity.
7 If my step does turn from the way, or my heart has gone after my eyes, or if any spot has clung to my hands,
8 let me sow, and another eat; and let my harvest be rooted out.
9 If my heart has been enticed by a woman, or if I have lurked at my neighbour’s door,
10 let my wife grind for another, and let others bow down over her.
11 For that would be a wicked scheme, and a punishable crookedness.
12 For that would be a fire that burns to destruction, and take root among all my increase.
13 If I have refused the plea of my male servant or my female servant when they complained against me, 14 then what should I do when Èl rises up? And when He punishes, what should I answer Him?

15 Did not He who made me in the womb make him? And did not One fashion us in the womb?
16 If I have withheld the poor from pleasure, or caused the widow’s eyes to fail, 17 or eaten my piece of bread by myself, and the fatherless did not eat of it—
18 but from my youth he grew up with me as with a father, and from my mother’s womb I guided her—19 if I have seen anyone perish for lack of garments, or a poor one without covering;
20 if his loins have not blessed me, and he warmed himself with the fleece of my sheep;
21 if I have raised my hand against the fatherless, when I saw I had help in the gate;
22 let my arm fall from my shoulder, and my arm be broken from the bone.
23 For I am in dread of destruction from Èl, and from His excellence I could not escape.
24 If I have put my trust in gold, or called fine gold my refuge;
25 if I have rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because my hand had gained much;
26 if I have looked at the sun when it shines, or the moon moving in brightness, 27 so that my heart has been secretly enticed, and my mouth has kissed my hand—
28 that too is a punishable crookedness, for I would have denied Èl above.

29 If I have rejoiced when he who hated me was ruined, or lifted myself up when evil found him—
30 also I have not allowed my mouth to sin by asking for a curse on his life—
31 if the men of my tent did not say, ‘Who is there that has not been satisfied with his meat?’
32 The stranger did not have to spend the night in the street, for I have opened my doors to the way.
33 If I have covered my transgressions like AAdam, by hiding my crookedness in my bosom, \[e\] This is how the gentiles (those who do not know HWHY) naturally become worshippers of the sun, moon and stars – the host of heaven.

34 then let me fear the great crowd, and dread the scorn of clans, then I would be silent, and go out of the door!
35 Who would give me a hearing? See, my signature, let the Almighty answer me, and let my accuser write a bill!
36 Would I not take it up on my shoulder, bind it on me for a crown?
37 I would declare to Him the number of my steps – I would approach Him like a prince.
38 If my land cries out against me, or its furrows weep together;
39 if I have eaten its fruit without payment, or caused its owners to die;
40 let thistles grow instead of wheat, and useless weed instead of barley.” The words of Iyoël are ended.

32 Then these three men ceased to answer Iyoël, because he was righteous in his own eyes.
2 And the wrath of Elihu, son of Baraḵ’el the Buzite, of the clan of Ram, burned against Iyoël. His wrath burned because he declared himself right rather than Elohim.
3 And against his three friends his wrath burned, because they had found no answer, and pronounced Elohim wrong.
4 And because they were years older than he, Elihu had waited to speak to Iyoël.
5 And when Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath burned.
6 And Elihu, son of Baraḵ’el the Buzite, responded and said, “I am young in years, and you are aged. Therefore I was afraid to let you know my opinion.
7 I said, ‘Days should speak, and many years should teach wisdom.’
8 But truly it is the spirit in man and the breath of the Almighty that gives him understanding.
9 The multitude are not wise, nor do the aged understand right-ruling.
10 Therefore I have said, ‘Listen to me, let me also make my opinion known to you.’
11 Look, I waited for your words, I listened to your reasonings, while you searched out what to say.
12 And I paid close attention to you. But look, not one of you proved Iyoël wrong, nor answered his words.
13 Lest you say, ‘We have found wisdom’ – it is Él that drives him away, not man.
14 Now he has not ordered words against me, so I would not answer him with your words.
15 They have broken down; they have not answered again; words have departed from them.
16 And I have waited, but they do not speak, because they have stood still, they answered no more.
17 Let me answer on my part, let me also make my opinion known.
18 For I am filled with words; the spirit within me presses me.
19 See, within me it is like wine not opened; it shall burst like new wineskins.
20 Let me speak, so that I find relief; let me open my lips and answer.
21 Please, let me not show partiality to anyone, nor let me flatter any man.
22 For I do not know how to flatter, lest my Maker should soon take me away!

33 “And yet, O Iyoël, please hear my speech and listen to all my words.
2 See, please! I shall open my mouth, my tongue shall speak in my mouth.
3 My words are from the uprightness of my heart, my lips shall speak knowledge clearly.
4 The Spirit of Él has made me, and the breath of the Almighty gives me life.
5 If you are able, answer me, set yourself in order before me, take your stand.
6 See, I am like you before Él, I too have been formed out of clay.
7 See, no fear of me should alarm you, nor should pressure by me be heavy on you.
8 But you have spoken in my hearing, and the sound of words I hear, saying,
9 ‘I am clear, without transgression; I am innocent, and I have no crookedness.’
10 See, He finds occasions against me, He counts me as His enemy;
11 He puts my feet in the stocks, He watches all my paths.’
12 See, in this you have not been righteous. Let me answer you: Eloah is greater than man!

13 Why have you complained against Him? Because He does not answer all His matters?

14 For El does speak once, or twice — though one does not notice it —
15 in a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls upon men, while slumbering on a bed, 16 then He opens the ears of men, and seals their instruction,
17 to turn man from his deed, and conceal pride from man.

18 He keeps back his being from the Pit, and his life from passing away by the sword.

19 And he is reproved with pain on his bed, and with unceasing distress in his bones, 20 so that his life loathes bread, and his being desirable food.

21 His flesh wastes away, and his bones which were not seen stick out.
22 And his being draws near the Pit, and his life to the destroyers.

23 If there is a messenger for him, a mediator, one among a thousand, to show man His straightness, 24 then He shows favour to him, and says, ‘Release him from going down to the Pit, I have found an atonement.
25 ‘Let his flesh become fresher than a child’s, let him return to the days of his youth.’

26 He prays to Eloah, and He accepts him. And he sees His face with joy, and He restores to man his righteousness.

27 He sings to men and says, ‘I have sinned, and I have perverted what was right, and it did not profit me.’

28 He has redeemed my being from going down to the Pit, and my life sees the light.

29 See, El does all these — twice, three times with a man,
30 to bring back his being from the Pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living.

31 Pay attention, Iyoḇ, listen to me, keep silent, and let me speak.

32 If there are words, answer me; speak, for I desire to declare you right.

33 If not, listen to me, keep silent, and let me teach you wisdom.”

34 Then Elihu responded and said,

2 “Hear my words, you wise men; give ear to me, you who have knowledge.

3 For the ear tries words as the palate tastes food.

4 Let us choose what is right for us; let us know among us what is good.

5 For Iyoḇ has said, ‘I am righteous, but El has taken away my right.

6 Would I lie concerning my right? My wound is incurable — without transgression.’

7 What man is like Iyoḇ, who drinks mocking like water,
8 who goes in company with the workers of wickedness, and walks with men of wrongness?

9 For he has said, ‘It does not profit a man that he takes delight in Elohim.’

10 Therefore, listen to me, you men of heart: far be it from Eloah to do wrong, and from the Almighty to commit unrighteousness.

11 For He repays man’s work to him, and makes man to find a reward according to his path.

12 The truth is, El does not do wrong, and the Almighty does not twist right-ruling.

13 Who has assigned to Him the earth? And who has laid out all the world?

14 If He sets His heart on him, should He gather to Himself his spirit and his breath, 15 all flesh would expire together and man return to dust.

16 If you have understanding, hear this! Give ear to the sound of my words:

17 Should the one who hates right-ruling govern? Or would you declare a most righteous one wrong?

18 Who shall say to a sovereign: ‘Beliya’al,’ to nobles: ‘Wrong one’? —

19 who is not partial to princes, nor regards the rich more than the poor? For they are all the work of His hands.

20 In a moment they die, in the middle of the night; the people are shaken and pass away; and the mighty are taken away without a hand.
21 For His eyes are on the ways of man, and He sees all his steps.
22 There is no darkness nor shadow of death where the workers of wickedness hide themselves.
23 For He sets a man no stated time to appear before El in right-ruling.
24 He breaks in pieces the mighty, without inquiry, and puts others in their place.
25 Truly, He knows their works, and He shall overthower in the night, and they are crushed.
26 As wrong ones He slaps them in the presence of onlookers,
27 because they turned from following Him, and they regarded not all His ways,
28 so as to cause the cry of the poor to come to Him; for He hears the cry of the afflicted.
29 And when He is silent, who would then condemn? And when He hides His face, who then sees Him, whether it is against a nation or a man alone?
30 So that a defiled one should not reign, lest the people be ensnared.
31 For has anyone said to El, ‘I have taken away, I do not act corruptly. I have taken away, I do not act corruptly.
32 ‘Teach me what I do not see. If I have done unrighteousness, I shall not do so again’? Should He repay you because you have refused? For you choose, and not I, therefore speak what you know.
33 Let men of heart say to me, and a wise man who listens to me:
34 ‘Iyoḇ does not speak with knowledge, and his words are without wisdom.’ Would that Iyoḇ be tried to the end, since his answers are like those of wicked men!
35 For he adds rebellion to his sin – he claps his hands among us, and multiplies his words against El.”

35 And Elihu responded and said,
2 “Do you think this is right? Do you say, ‘My righteousness is more than that of El’?
3 For you say, ‘Of what use is it to you? What do I gain more than if I had sinned?’ Let me answer you and your friends with you.
5 Look to the heavens, and see. And consider the clouds which are higher than you.
6 If you sin, what would you do against Him? If your transgressions are increased, what would you do to Him?
7 If you are righteous, what do you give Him? Or what does He receive from your hand?
8 Your wrong is for a man like yourself, and your righteousness for a son of man.
9 Because of the multitude of oppressions they cry out; they cry out for help because of the arm of the many.
10 And no one says, ‘Where is Eloah my Maker, who gives songs in the night,
11 teaching us more than the beasts of the earth, and makes us wiser than the birds of the heavens?’
12 There they cry, but He answers not, because of the pride of evil ones.
13 Only, it is false that El does not hear, and that the Almighty pays no attention to it.
14 Although you say you do not see Him, yet right-ruling is before Him, and you wait for Him.
15 And now, is it for naught that His displeasure has come? Yet He has not taken note of extreme arrogance, 16 so Iyoḇ opens his mouth in vain, he increases words without knowledge.”

36 Then Elihu continued and said,
2 “Bear with me a little, and let me show you there is still more to say for Elohim.
3 I bring my knowledge from afar and ascribe righteousness to my Maker.
4 For truly my words are not false; the One perfect in knowledge is with you.
5 See, El is mighty, but rejects no one – mighty in power and heart.
6 He does not keep the wrongdoer alive, but He gives right-ruling to the oppressed ones.
7 He does not withdraw His eyes from the righteous, and sovereigns on the throne, and seats them forever, and they are exalted.
8 And if they are bound in shackles, caught in the cords of affliction,
9 then He reveals to them their work, and their transgressions, that they behaved proudly.
10 And He opens their ear for discipline, and commands that they turn back from wickedness.
11 If they obey and serve, they complete their days in blessedness, and their years in pleasantness.
12 But if they do not obey, they perish by the sword, and die without knowledge.
13 But the defiled ones in heart become enraged – let them not cry for help when He binds them.
14 Their being dies in youth, and their life among the male prostitutes.
15 He rescues the afflicted one in his affliction, and opens their ears in oppression.
16 And He also would have brought you out of distress, into a broad place where there is no restraint. And what is set on your table would be filled with rich food.
17 But you are filled with the judgment of the wrong, judgment and right-ruling take hold of you.
18 Beware, that rage does not entice you to scoffing. And do not let a large bribe turn you aside.
19 Would He value your riches? No, not precious ore, nor all your strength!
20 Do not long for the night, when people go up in their place.
21 Beware, do not turn to wickedness, for you have chosen this rather than affliction.
22 See, Él is exalted by His power; who is a Teacher like Him?
23 Who has appointed Him His way, or who has said, ‘You have worked unrighteousness’?
24 Remember to extol His work, of which men have sung.
25 All men have seen it, man looks on it from afar.
26 See, Él is great, beyond our understanding, and we do not know the number of His years.
27 For He draws up drops of water, which distil as rain from the mist, 28 which the clouds drop down – pour down in showers on man.
29 Also, who understands the spreading of clouds, the crashing from His booth?
30 See, He has spread his light upon it, and He has covered the depths of the sea.
31 For by these He judges the peoples; He gives plenty of food.
32 He has covered His hands with lightning, and commands it to strike.
33 Its noise declares concerning Him, also the cattle, as to what is coming up.

37 “At this too my heart trembles, and leaps from its place.
2 Listen, listen to the trembling of His voice, and the sound that comes from His mouth.
3 He lets it loose under all the heavens, and His lightning to the ends of the earth.
4 After it a voice roars. He thunders with the voice of His excellency, and He does not hold them back when His voice is heard.
5 Él thunders wondrously with His voice; doing great deeds, which we do not understand.
6 For He says to the snow, ‘Be on the earth,’ also to the gentle rain and the heavy rain of His strength.
7 He seals up the hand of every man, for all men to know His work.
8 Then the beast goes into its lair, and they stay in their dens.
9 From the room of the south comes the whirlwind, and cold from the scattering winds of the north.
10 By the breath of Él ice is given, and the expanse of water becomes solid.
11 He also loads the thick clouds with moisture; He scatters His bright clouds.
12 And they swirl about, being turned by His guidance, to do whatever He commands them on the face of the earthly world.
13 He causes it to come, whether as a rod, or for His land, or for kindness.
14 Listen to this, O Iyob, stand still and consider the wonders of Él.
15 Do you know when Eloah placed them, and caused the lightning of His cloud to shine?
16 Do you know the balancing of the clouds, the wonders of the One perfect in knowledge?
17 Why are your garments hot, when the earth is stilled from the south?
18 Did you, with Him, spread out the clouds, strong as a hard mirror?
19 Teach us what we should say to Him; we do not set in order because of darkness.
20 Should He be told that I would speak? Would any man ask to be swallowed up?
21 And now, they shall not look on the light that is bright behind the clouds, when the wind has passed and cleared them.
22 From the golden north it comes – with Eloah is awesome excellency.
23 The Almighty, we have not found Him out, He is exalted in power and right-ruling and great in righteousness – He does not oppress.
24 Therefore men fear Him. He does not regard any who are wise of heart.”

38 Then answered Iyôb out of the whirlwind, and said,
2 “Who is this who darkens counsel by words without knowledge?
3 Now gird up your loins like a man, and I ask you, and you answer Me.
4 Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth? Declare, if you have understanding.
5 Who set its measurements, if you know? Or who stretched the line upon it?
6 Upon what were its foundations sunk? Or who laid its corner-stone,
7 when the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of Elohim shouted for joy?
8 Or who enclosed the sea with doors, when it burst forth and came from the womb;
9 when I made the clouds its garment, and thick darkness its swaddling band;
10 and assigned for it My law, and set bars and doors;
11 and said, ‘This far you have come, but no farther, and here your proud waves stop’
12 Have you ever commanded the morning, and caused the dawn to know its place, 13 to take hold of the ends of the earth, and the wrong be shaken out of it?
14 It is changed like clay under a seal, and they stand out like a garment.
15 And their light is withheld from the wrong, and the arm lifted up is broken.
16 Have you come to the sources of the sea? Or have you walked about in the recesses of the deep?
17 Were the gates of death revealed to you? Or have you seen the gates of the shadow of death?
18 Have you understood the breadth of the earth? Declare, if you know it all.
19 Where is the way to the dwelling of light? And darkness, where is its place, 20 that you should take it to its boundary, and know the paths to its home?
21 Do you know? For you would have been born then, and the number of your days been many!
22 Have you entered into the storehouses of snow, or have you seen the storehouses of hail,
23 which I have kept for the time of distress, for the day of fighting and battle?
24 Where is the way that light is divided, or the east wind scattered over the earth?
25 Who has cleft a channel for the overflowing water, or a way for the thunder-claps,
26 to make rain fall on land where no one is, a wilderness in which there is no man;
27 to satisfy the wild and waste places, and to make the seeds of grass to sprout?
28 Does the rain have a father? Or who has brought forth the drops of dew?
29 From whose belly comes the ice? And who gave birth to the frost of the heavens?
30 The waters harden like stone, and the surface of the deep is frozen.
31 Do you bind the bands of Kimah, or loosen the cords of Kesil?
32 Do you bring out the constellations in its season? Or do you lead the Bear with its sons?
33 Do you know the laws of the heavens? Or do you set their rule over the earth?
34 Do you lift up your voice to the clouds, so that floods of water cover you?
35 Do you send out lightnings, and they go and say to you, ‘Here we are!’?
Who has put wisdom in the inward parts? Or who has given understanding to the heart?

Who has wisdom to count the clouds, or to tip over the bottles of the heavens, when the dust hardens in clumps, and the clods cling together?

Do you hunt the prey for the lion, or satisfy the appetite of the young lions, when they crouch in dens, sit in the cover of their hiding place?

Who provides food for the raven, when its young ones cry to El, and wander about without food?

Do you know the time when the wild mountain goats bear young? Or do you observe when the deer gives birth?

Do you number the months they complete? Or do you know the time when they bear young?

They bow down, they bring forth their young, their labour pains are ended.

Their young ones are thriving, they grow up in the field. They shall leave and shall not return to them.

Who set the wild donkey free? Who loosed the bonds of the wild donkey, whose home I have made the desert, and the salt land his dwelling?

He laughs at the commotion of the city; he does not hear the shouts of the driver.

The range of the mountains is his pasture, and he searches for all that is green.

Would the wild ox be pleased to serve you? Or spend the night by your feeding trough?

If you bind the wild ox in the furrow with ropes, would he plough the valleys behind you?

Would you rely on his great strength? Or would you leave your labour to him?

Would you trust him to bring home your grain, and gather it to your threshing-floor?

The wings of the ostrich flap joyously, but they are not the pinions and plumage of kindness!

She leaves her eggs on the ground, and warms them in the dust; and she forgets that a foot might crush them, or a wild beast tread on them.

She treats her young harshly, as if not hers; her toil is in vain, without fear, because Eloah has made her forget wisdom, and did not endow her with understanding.

When she lifts herself on high, she laughs at the horse and its rider.

Have you given the horse strength? Have you covered his neck with a mane?

Would you make him leap like a locust? His splendid snorting is frightening.

He paws in the valley, and rejoices in strength. He gallops into the clash of arms.

He laughs at fear, and is not frightened; nor does he turn back from the sword.

The quiver rattles against him, the glittering spear and lance.

He eats up the ground with fierceness and rage, and he does not stand still when the ram’s horn sounds.

At the blast of the ram’s horn he says, ‘Aha!’ And from afar he smells the battle, the thunder of commanders and shouting.

Does the hawk fly by your wisdom, spreading its wings toward the south?

Does the eagle mount up at your command, and make its nest on high?

It dwells on the rock, and lodges on the crag of the rock and the stronghold.

From there it searches out the prey, its eyes see it from afar.

And its young ones suck up blood. And where the slain are, there it is!”

And answered Iyōḇ, and said,

“Should a reprover contend with the Almighty? Let him who reproves Eloah answer it.”

And Iyōḇ answered and said,

“See, I am insignificant, what would I answer You? I lay my hand over my mouth.

Once I have spoken, but I have no answer – and twice, but I say no more.”

Then answered Iyōḇ out of the whirlwind, and said,

“Now gird up your loins like a man;
I ask you, and you answer Me.

8 Would you also set aside My judgment? Would you pronounce Me wrong, and you be declared righteous?

9 Or do you have an arm like El? Or do you thunder with a voice like His?

10 Deck yourself, please, with excellency and grandeur, and put on esteem and splendour.

11 Scatter abroad the rage of your wrath, and look on everyone who is proud and bring him low.

12 Look on everyone who is proud, humble him. And tread down the wrongdoers in their place.

13 Hide them in the dust together, bind their faces in obscurity.

14 Then even I would confess to you that your own right hand does save you.

15 See now, Behemoth, which I made along with you – he eats grass like an ox.

16 See now, his strength is in his loins, and his power is in his stomach muscles.

17 He bends his tail like a cedar; the sinews of his thighs are knit together.

18 His bones are like tubes of bronze, his ribs like bars of iron.

19 He is the beginning of the ways of El. His Maker brings near His sword.

20 For the mountains yield food for him, and all the beasts of the field play there.

21 He lies under the slender trees, under cover of reed and swamp.

22 The slender trees cover him with their shade; the willows by the stream surround him.

23 See, if a river rages, he is not alarmed; he feels safe, even if the Yardén gushes into his mouth, 24 Before his eyes, shall he be caught, with snares? Or his nose pierced?

5 Would you play with him as with a bird? Or leash him for your young girls?

6 Would trading partners bargain over him? Would they divide him among the merchants?

7 Fill his skin with harpoons? Or his head with fishing spears?

8 Put your hand on him – think of the struggle! Do not do it again!

9 See, any expectation of him is disappointed – he is laid low even at the sight of him!

10 No one is so foolhardy to wake him up. Who then is able to stand against Me?

11 Who has given to Me first, that I should repay him – under all the heavens that is Mine?

12 I would not keep silent concerning his limbs, or his mighty power, or his fair frame.

13 Who shall take off the surface of his skin? Who approaches him with a double bridle?

14 Who shall open the doors of his face, with his frightening teeth all around?

15 Rows of scales are his pride – closed up, a binding seal.

16 One to the other they fit closely, not even a breath enters between them.

17 They are joined one to another, they stick together and are not separated.

18 His sneezings flash forth light, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.

19 Out of his mouth go firebrands – sparks of fire shoot out.

20 Out of his nostrils comes smoke, like a boiling pot or kettle.

21 His breath sets coals on fire, and a flame goes out of his mouth.

22 Strength dwells in his neck, and fear leaps before him.

23 The folds of his flesh cleave together. They are firm on him, immovable.

24 His heart is as hard as stone, even as hard as the lower millstone.

25 When he raises himself up, the mighty are afraid. Because of his crashings they are bewildered.

26 No sword that reaches him does prevail, neither spear, dart, or lance.

27 He reckons iron as straw, bronze as rotten wood.

28. The arrow does not make him flee, slings-stones become like stubble to him.
29. Clubs are reckoned as straw, he laughs at the rattle of a lance.
30. His undersides are like sharp potsherds.
He sprawls on the mud like a threshing-sledge.
31. He makes the deep boil like a pot, he makes the sea like a pot of ointment.
32. He leaves a shining path behind him.
One would think the deep to be grey-haired.
33. No one on earth is like him – one made without fear.
34. He sees all that is haughty. He is sovereign over all the sons of pride.”

42. And Iyoḇ answered  יהוה  and said,
2 “You know that You are able to do all, and that no purpose is withheld from You.
3 Who is this that hides counsel without knowledge? Therefore I declared but I did not understand, matters too marvellous for me, which I did not know.
4 Listen, please, and let me speak. I ask You, then would You make it known to
me?”
5 I have heard of You by the hearing of the ear, but now my eye sees You.
6 Therefore I despise myself, and repent in dust and ashes.”
7 And it came to be, after יהוה had spoken these words to Iyoḇ, that יהוה said to Eliphaz the Tēmanite, “My wrath has burned against you and your two friends, for you have not spoken of Me what is right, as did My servant Iyoḇ.
8 And now, take seven bulls and seven rams, and go to My servant Iyoḇ, and offer up a burnt offering for yourselves. And let My servant Iyoḇ pray for you – for I accept him – lest I punish you; because you have not spoken of Me what is right, as did My servant Iyoḇ.”
9 So Eliphaz the Tēmanite and Bildaḏ the Shuḥite, Tsophar the Na’amathite went and did as יהוה commanded them. And יהוה accepted the face of Iyoḇ.
10 And יהוה turned the captivity of Iyoḇ when he prayed for his friends. And יהוה gave Iyoḇ twice as much as he had before.
11 And all his brothers, and all his sisters, and all those who had been his friends before, came to him and ate food with him in his house. And they sympathised with him and comforted him for all the evil that יהוה had brought upon him. And they each gave him a piece of silver and each one a ring of gold.
12 And יהוה blessed the latter days of Iyoḇ more than his beginning; for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and one thousand yoke of oxen, and one thousand female donkeys.
13 And he had seven sons and three daughters.
14 And he called the name of the first Yemimah, and the name of the second
Qetsi’āh, and the name of the third Qeren-Happuḵ.
15 And in all the land were found no women so pretty as the daughters of Iyoḇ.
And their father gave them an inheritance
among their brothers.
16 And after this Iyoḇ lived one hundred and forty years, and saw his children and grandchildren for four generations.
17 And Iyoḇ died, old and satisfied with days.
The song of songs, which is Shelomoh’s.
2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth,
For your loves are better than wine.
3 For fragrance your oils are good.
      Your name is oil poured forth, a
      Therefore the maidens love you.
4 Draw me! We run after you.
      The sovereign has brought me into his inner rooms.
      We exult and rejoice in you.
      We praise your loves more than wine.
      Rightly do they love you.
5 I am dark, but lovely,
      O daughters of Yerushalayim,
      Like the tents of Qeđar,
      Like the curtains of Shelomoh.
6 Do not look upon me,
      because I am dark,
      Because the sun has tanned me.
      My mother’s sons were displeased with me.
      They made me the keeper of the vineyards,
      My own vineyard I have not kept.
7 Make known to me,
      O you whom my being loves,
      Where you feed your flock,
      Where you make it rest at noon.
      For why should I be as one who is veiled
      Beside the flocks of your companions?
8 If you do not know, O fairest among women,
      Go in the footsteps of the flock,
      And feed your little goats beside the shepherds’ dwellings.
9 I have compared you, my love,
      To my filly among Pharaoh’s chariots.
10 Your cheeks are pretty with ornaments,
      Your neck with strings of beads.
11 Let us make you ornaments of gold with studs of silver.
12 While the sovereign is at his table,
      My nard shall give its fragrance.
13 My beloved is a bundle of myrrh to me,
      Lying between my breasts.
14 My beloved is to me a cluster of henna blooms
      In the vineyards of En Geḏi.
15 See, you are fair, my love!
      See, you are fair!
      Your eyes are as doves.
16 See, you are handsome, my beloved!
      Yea, pleasant! Also our bed is green.
17 The beams of our houses are cedar,
      our rafters are of fir.

1 I am the rose of Sharon,
      The lily of the valleys.
2 Like a lily among thorns,
      So is my love among the daughters.
3 Like an apple tree among the trees of the forest,
      So is my beloved among the sons.
      I delighted in his shade and sat down,
      And his fruit was sweet to my taste.
4 He brought me to the house of wine,
      And his banner over me was love.
5 “Strengthen me with raisin cakes,
      Refresh me with apples, for I am faint with love.”
6 His left hand is under my head,
      And his right hand embraces me.
7 I have put you under oath,
      O daughters of Yerushalayim,
      By the gazelles or by the does of the field,
      Do not stir up nor awaken love until it pleases.
8 The voice of my beloved!
      See, he is coming,
      Leaping on the mountains, skipping on the hills.

a See also Qoheleth 7:1
9My beloved is like a gazelle or like a young stag.
See, he is standing behind our wall,
Looking through the windows,
Peering through the lattice.
10My beloved responded and said to me,
"Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away.
11"For look, the winter is past,
the rain is over, gone.
12"The flowers have appeared in the earth;
The time of singing has come,
And the voice of the turtledove has been heard in our land.
13"The fig tree has ripened her figs,
And the vines with the tender grapes have given a good fragrance.
Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away!
14"O my dove, in the clefts of the rock,
In the covering of the cliff,
Let me see your appearance,
Let me hear your voice;
For your voice is sweet,
And your appearance is lovely."
15Catch the foxes for us,
The little foxes that spoil the vines,
And our vines are all blossom.
16My beloved is mine, and I am his.
He feeds his flock among the lilies.
17Until the day breaks and the shadows have fled,
Turn, my beloved,
And be like a gazelle or a young stag
On the mountains of Bether.

3On my bed at night I sought the beloved of my being;
I sought him, but I did not find him.
2"Come, let me arise,
and go about the city,
In the streets and in the broad places
I seek the beloved of my being."
I sought him, but I did not find him.
3The watchmen who go about the city found me, to whom I said,
"Have you seen the beloved of my being?"
4Scarcely had I passed by them,
When I found the beloved of my being.

I held him and would not let him go,
Until I had brought him to the house of my mother,
And into the room of her who conceived me.
5I have put you under oath,
O daughters of Yerushalayim,
By the gazelles or by the does of the field,
Do not stir up nor awaken love until it pleases.
6Who is this coming out of the wilderness
Like columns of smoke,
Perfumed with myrrh and frankincense,
From all the merchant’s fragrant powders?
7See, it is Shelomoh’s couch –
Sixty mighty men are around it,
Of the mighty men of Yisra’el,
8All of them holding swords,
Skilled in battle,
Each one has his sword on his thigh
Because of fear in the night.
9Sovereign Shelomoh made himself a litter of the wood of Lebanon;
10He made its posts of silver,
Its support of gold, its seat of purple,
Within it was decked with love
By the daughters of Yerushalayim.
11Go forth, O daughters of Tsiyon,
And see Sovereign Shelomoh with the crown
With which his mother crowned him on the day of his wedding,
And on the day of his gladness of heart.

4See, you are fair, my love!
See, you are fair!
Your eyes are as doves behind your veil.
Your hair is like a flock of goats,
Going down from Mount Gil’ad.
2Your teeth are like a flock of shorn sheep
Which have come up from the washing,
All of them bear twins, and not one loses her young.
Your lips are like a cord of scarlet,
And your speech is lovely.
Your cheeks behind your veil are like a piece of pomegranate.
Your neck is like the tower of Dawid,
Built for an armoury,
On which hang a thousand shields,
All the armour of mighty men.
Your two breasts are like two fawns,
Twins of a gazelle,
pasturing among the lilies.
Until the day breaks and the shadows have fled,
I shall go my way to the mountain of
myrrh,
And to the hill of frankincense.
You are all fair, my love,
and not a blemish is on you.
Come with me from Lebanon,
My bride, with me from Lebanon.
Look from the top of Amana,
From the top of Shenir and Hermon,
From the dens of lions,
From the mountains of the leopards.
You have put heart into me,
My sister, my bride;
You have put heart into me
With one glance of your eyes,
With one bead of your necklace.
How sweet have been your loves,
My sister, my bride!
How much better than wine are your loves,
And the fragrance of your perfumes than all spices!
Your lips, O my bride,
drip as the honeycomb;
Honey and milk are under your tongue.
And the fragrance of your garments
Is like the fragrance of Lebanon.
A garden locked is my sister, my bride,
A fountain locked, a spring sealed up.
Your plants are an orchard of pomegranates with pleasant fruits,
With henna, nard,
Nard and saffron,
Calamus and cinnamon,
With all trees of frankincense,
Myrrh and aloes,
With all the chief spices;
A garden spring,
A well of living waters,
And streams from Lebanon.
Awake, O north wind, and come,
O south!
Blow upon my garden, let its spices flow out.
Let my beloved come to his garden
And eat its pleasant fruits.
I have come to my garden,
My sister, my bride;
I have plucked my myrrh
with my spice;
I have eaten my honeycomb
with my honey;
I have drunk my wine
with my milk.
Eat, O friends!
Drink, and drink deeply,
O beloved ones!
I was sleeping,
But my heart was awake – the voice of my beloved!
He knocks, “Open for me, my sister,
My love, my dove, my perfect one;
For my head is drenched with dew,
My locks with the drops of the night.”
I have taken off my robe, should I put it on?
I have washed my feet, should I dirty
them?
My beloved put his hand by the latch,
And my feelings were deeply moved for him.
I rose to open for my beloved,
And my hands dripped with myrrh,
My fingers with flowing myrrh,
On the handles of the lock.
I opened for my beloved,
But my beloved had turned away,
had gone.
My being went out when he spoke.
I sought him, but I could not find him;
I called him,
but he gave me no answer.
The watchmen who went about the city found me.
They struck me, they bruised me;
The keepers of the walls lifted my veil from me.
I have put you under oath,
O daughters of Yerushalayim,
If you find my beloved,
That you inform him that I am faint with love!

9 What kind of a beloved is your beloved,
O fairest among women?
What kind of a beloved is your
beloved,
That you have put us under oath?

10 My beloved is dazzling and ruddy,
Chief among ten thousand.

11 His head is refined gold;
His locks are wavy,
black as a raven.

12 His eyes are like doves by streams of waters,
Washed with milk, and fitly set.

13 His cheeks are like a bed of spices,
Raised bed of scented plants.
His lips are lilies, dripping flowing
myrrh.

14 His hands are rods of gold set with beryl.
His body is carved ivory, covered with sapphires.

15 His legs are columns of marble
Founded on sockets of fine gold.
His appearance is like Lebanon,
Choice as the cedars.

16 His mouth is most sweet,
And he is altogether lovely.
This is my beloved,
and this is my friend,
O daughters of Yerushalayim!

6 “Where has your beloved gone,
O fairest among women?
Where has your beloved turned aside?
Let us seek him with you.”

2 My beloved went down to his garden,
To the beds of spices,
To feed his flock in the gardens,
And to gather lilies.

3 I am my beloved’s, and my beloved is mine.
He feeds his flock among the lilies.

4 O my love, you are as fair as Tirtsah,
Lovely as Yerushalayim,
Awesome as an army with banners!

5 Turn your eyes away from me,
Because they overcome me.
Your hair is like a flock of goats
That have hopped down from Gil’ad.

6 Your teeth are like a flock of sheep
That have come up from the washing;
All of them bear twins,
And not one among them has lost her young.

7 Your cheeks behind your veil are like a piece of pomegranate.

8 There are sixty sovereignesses and eighty concubines,
And innumerable maidens.

9 My dove, my perfect one,
Is the only one, the only one of her mother,
The choice of the one who bore her.
The daughters saw, and called her blessed,
Sovereignesses and concubines,
And they praised her.

10 Who is she who shines forth as the morning,
Fair as the moon, clear as the sun,
Awesome as an army with banners?

11 I went down to the garden of nuts
To see the budding of the wadi,
To see whether the vine had budded and the pomegranates had bloomed.

12 I did not know, my desire made me as the chariots of my noble people.

13 Return, return, O Shulammith; Return, return,
and let us look upon you!
Why should you look upon the Shulammith,
As it were the dance of two armies?

7 How fair are your feet in sandals,
O daughter of a noble!
The curves of your thighs are like ornaments,
The work of a craftsman’s hands.

2 Your navel is a rounded bowl
Let it not lack mixed wine.
Your body is a heap of wheat,
Hedged about with lilies.

3 Your two breasts are like two fawns,
twins of a gazelle.

4 Your neck is like an ivory tower,
Your eyes pools in Ḥeshbon
By the gate of Bath Rabbim.
Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon looking to Damascus.
5 Your head upon you is like Mount Karmel,
And the hair of your head like purple;
The sovereign is held captive by the ringlets.
6 How fair and how pleasant you are, O love, in delights!
7 This stature of yours compares to a
palm tree,
And your breasts to clusters.
8 I said, “Let me go up to the palm tree,
Let me take hold of its tips.”
And please, let your breasts be like clusters of the vine,
And the fragrance of your breath like apples,
9 And your palate like the best wine,
Going down smoothly for my beloved,
Flowing gently, slumbering lips.
10 I am my beloved’s, and his desire is toward me.
11 Come, my beloved, let us go forth to the field;
Let us stay in the villages.
12 Let us get up early to the vineyards;
Let us see whether the vine has budded,
The grape blossoms have opened,
The pomegranates have bloomed.
There I give you my loves.
13 The love-apples have given fragrance,
And at our gates are all pleasant fruit,
New and old, which I have laid up for you, my beloved.

Who would make you a brother to me,
Who nursed at my mother’s breasts!
Should I find you outside,
I would kiss you;
I would not be despised.
2 I would lead you,
I would bring you into the house of my mother,
She who has taught me.
I would give you spiced wine to drink,
Of the juice of my pomegranate.
3 His left hand is under my head,
And his right hand embraces me.

I have put you under oath,
O daughters of Yerushalayim,
Do not stir up or awake love until it pleases.
5 Who is this coming up from the wilderness,
Leaning upon her beloved?
Under the apple tree I awakened you.
There your mother was in labour with
you;
There she was in labour,
gave birth to you.
6 Set me as a seal upon your heart,
As a seal upon your arm;
For love is as strong as death,
Jealousy as cruel as the grave;
Its flames are flames of fire,
a flame of Yah!
7 Many waters are unable to extinguish
love,
And floods do not wash it away.
If one would give all the wealth of his house for love,
It would be utterly scorned.
8 We have a little sister, and she has no breasts.
What do we do for our sister in the day when she is spoken for?
9 If she is a wall, we build upon her a battlement of silver.
And if she is a door, we would enclose her with boards of cedar.
10 I am a wall, and my breasts like towers;
So I became in his eyes as one who found peace.
11 Shelomoh had a vineyard in Ba’al
Hamon;
He let out the vineyard to keepers;
Each one was to bring for its fruit a thousand pieces of silver.
12 My own vineyard is before me.
O Shelomoh, a thousand belongs to
you,
And two hundred to those who keep its fruit.
13 You who sit in the gardens,
The companions listen for your voice;
Let me hear it!
14 Hurry, my beloved,
And be like a gazelle or a young stag
On the mountains of spices.
And it came to be, in the days when the rulers ruled, that there was a scarcity of food in the land. And a man from Bêyth Leḩem, Yehuḏah, went to sojourn in the fields of Mo’āḇ, he and his wife and his two sons.

And the name of the man was Elimeleḵ, and the name of his wife was Na’omi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlôn and Kilyon – Ephrathites of Bêyth Leḩem, Yehuḏah. And they went to the fields of Mo’āḇ and came to be there.

And Elimeleḵ, husband of Na’omi, died. And she was left with her two sons.

And they took wives of the women of Mo’āḇ, the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the other Ruth. And they dwelt there about ten years.

And Mahlôn and Kilyon also died, both of them, so the woman was bereaved of her two sons and of her husband.

And she rose up, with her daughters-in-law, and returned from the fields of Mo’āḇ, for she had heard in the fields of Mo’āḇ that HWHY had visited His people in giving them bread.

And she left the place where she was, and her two daughters-in-law with her. And they went on the way to return to the land of Yehuḏah.

And Na’omi said to her two daughters-in-law, “Go, return each to her mother’s house. HWHY show kindness to you, as you have shown to the dead and to me.

“HWHY grant that you find rest, each in the house of her husband.” Then she kissed them, and they lifted up their voices and wept.

And they said to her, “No, we shall go back with you to your people.”

But Na’omi said, “Go back, my daughters, why go with me? Have I still sons in my womb, that they should become your husbands?

“Go back, my daughters, go your way, for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say I have expectancy, even if I should have a husband tonight and should also bear sons, would you wait for them till they were grown? Would you shut yourselves up, not to have a husband? No, my daughters, for it is much more bitter for me than for you, because the hand of HWHY has gone out against me!”

And they lifted up their voices and wept again. And Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her.

And she said, “Look, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her mighty ones. Go back, follow your sister-in-law.”

But Ruth said, “Do not urge me to leave you, or to go back from following after you. For wherever you go, I go; and wherever you stop over, I stop over. Your people is my people, and your Elohim is my Elohim.

Where you die, I die, and there I shall be buried. HWHY do so to me, and more also – for death itself parts you and me.”

And when she saw that she was strengthening herself to go with her, she ceased to speak to her.

And both of them went until they came to Bêyth Leḩem. And it came to be, when they had come to Bêyth Leḩem, that all the city was moved because of them, and they said, “Is this Na’omi?”

And she said to them, “Do not call me Na’omi, call me Mara, for the Almighty has dealt very bitterly with me.

“I went out filled, and HWHY has brought me back empty. Why do you call me Na’omi, since HWHY has witnessed against me, and the Almighty has done evil to a An example of how a gentile is “grafted in” among the Chosen People. Ruth, this ex-Mo’ābite, later on became the great-grandmother of Dawid!

22 Thus Na’omi returned, and Ruth the Mo’abitess her daughter-in-law with her, who returned from the fields of Mo’ab, and they came to Bêyth Lehem at the beginning of barley harvest.

2 And Na’omi had a relative on her husband’s side, a man of great wealth, of the clan of Elimelek, and his name was Bo’az.

3 And Ruth, the Mo’abitess, said to Na’omi, “Please let me go to the field, and glean heads of grain after him in whose eyes I find favour.” So she said to her, “Go, my daughter.”

4 And she left, and went and gleaned in the field after the reapers. As it turned out, she came to the part of the field belonging to Bo’az, the near relative of Elimelek.

5 And see, Bo’az had come from Bêyth Lehem, and said to the reapers, “HWHY be with you!” And they answered him, “HWHY bless you!”

6 So the servant who was appointed over the reapers answered and said, “It is the young Mo’abit woman who came back with Na’omi from the fields of Mo’ab, and she said, ‘Please let me glean, and gather among the sheaves behind the reapers.’ And she came and has remained from morning until now – she sat a little in the house.”

7 And Bo’az said to his servant who was appointed over the reapers, “Whose young woman is this?”

8 And Bo’az said to Ruth, “You have heard, have you not, my daughter? Do not go to glean in another field, nor go from here, but stay close to my young women.

9 “Let your eyes be on the field which they reap, and you shall go after them. Have I not commanded the young men not to touch you? And when you are thirsty, go to the vessels and drink from what the young men have drawn.”

10 And she fell on her face, bowed down to the ground, and said to him, “Why have I found favour in your eyes, that you should take notice of me, seeing I am a foreigner?”

11 And Bo’az answered and said to her, “I have been told all that you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband, and how you have left your father and your mother and the land of your birth, and have come to a people whom you did not know before.

12 “HWHY repay your work, and your reward is complete from HWHY Elohim of Yisra’el, under whose wings you have come to seek refuge.”

13 And she said, “Let me find favour in your eyes, my master, because you have comforted me, and have spoken to the heart of your female servant, though I am not like one of your female servants.”

14 And Bo’az said to her, “Come here at mealtime. Then you shall eat of the bread and dip your piece of bread in the vinegar.” And she sat beside the reapers, and he passed roasted grain to her. And she ate and was satisfied, and had left over.

15 And she rose up to glean, and Bo’az commanded his young men, saying, “Let her glean even among the sheaves, and do not embarrass her.

16 “Rather, draw out from the bundles for her, and let it for her to glean, and do not restrain her.”

17 And she gleaned in the field until evening, and beat out that which she had gleaned, and it was about an ephah of barley.

18 And she took it up and went into the city, and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned. And she brought out and gave to her what she had left over after she was satisfied.

19 Then her mother-in-law asked her, “Where have you gleaned today? And where did you work? Blessed be the one who took notice of you.” And she told her mother-in-law with whom she had worked, and said, “The name of the man I worked today with is Bo’az.”

20 And Na’omi said to her daughter-in-law, “Blessed be he of HWHY, who has not
And Na'omi said to her, “The man is a relative of ours, one of our redeemers.”

And Ruth the Mo'abitess said, “He also said to me, ‘Stay close to my young people until they have completed all my harvest.’ ”

And Na'omi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, “It is good, my daughter, that you go out with his young women, and that they do not meet you in any other field.”

And she stayed close by the young women of Bo'az to glean, till the completion of barley harvest and wheat harvest, but she dwelt with her mother-in-law.

And Na'omi her mother-in-law said to her, “My daughter, should I not seek rest for you, so that it is well with you?

And now, is not Bo'az, with whose young women you have been, our relative? See, he is winnowing barley tonight at the threshing-floor.

And, you shall bathe and anoint yourself, and put your garments on and go down to the threshing-floor. Do not make yourself known to the man until he has finished eating and drinking.

And it shall be, when he lies down, that you shall notice the place where he lies, and shall go in and uncover his feet, and lie down. And let him make known to you what you should do.”

And she said to her, “All that you say to me, I do.”

And she went down to the threshing-floor and did according to all that her mother-in-law instructed her.

And Bo'az ate and drank, and his heart was glad, and he went to lie down at the end of the heap of grain. And she came softly and uncovered his feet, and lay down.

And it came to be at midnight that the man was startled, and turned himself, and saw a woman lying at his feet!

And he said, “Who are you?” And she answered, “I am Ruth, your female servant. Now you shall spread your covering over your female servant – for you are a redeemer.”

And he said, “Blessed are you of YHWH, my daughter! For you have shown more kindness at the end than at the beginning, not to go after young men, whether poor or rich.

And now, my daughter, do not fear. All that you say I do for you, for all the people of my town know that you are a capable woman.

“And now, it is true that I am your redeemer. However, there is a redeemer nearer than I.

Stop over tonight, and in the morning it shall be that if he does redeem you, good – let him do it. But if he is not pleased to redeem you, then I shall redeem you, as YHWH lives! Lie down until morning.”

And she lay at his feet until morning, and she arose before one could recognise another. And he said, “Let it not be known that the woman came to the threshing-floor.”

And he said, “Bring the shawl that is on you and hold it.” So she held it and he measured six measures of barley, and laid it on her. And she went into the city.

And when she came to her mother-in-law, she said, “Is that you, my daughter?” And she explained to her all that the man had done for her.

And she said, “He gave me these six measures of barley, for he said to me, ‘Do not go empty-handed to your mother-in-law.’ ”

And she said, “Wait, my daughter, until you know how the matter falls, for the man is not going to rest until he has completed the matter this day.”

And Bo'az went up to the gate and sat down there. And see, the redeemer of whom Bo'az had spoken came by. And Bo'az said, “Turn aside, So-and-so, sit down here.” And he turned aside and sat down.

And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, “Sit down here.” So they sat down.

He then said to the redeemer, “Na’omi, who has come back from the fields of Mo’ab, sold the piece of land which belonged to our brother Elimelek.
4“And I thought that I should disclose it to you, saying, ‘Buy it back in the presence of the inhabitants and the elders of my people. If you do redeem it, redeem it. But if you do not redeem it, inform me, so that I know. For there is no one but you to redeem it, and I am next after you.’” And he said, “I redeem it.”

5 And Bo’az said, “On the day you buy the field from the hand of Na’omi, you shall also acquire Ruth the Mo’abitess, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead on his inheritance.”

6 And the redeemer said, “I am not able to redeem it for myself, lest I ruin my own inheritance. Redeem my right of redemption for yourself, for I am not able to redeem it.”

7 And this was formerly done in Yisra’el concerning redeeming and exchanging, to confirm every word: one man took off his sandal and gave it to the other, and this was a witness in Yisra’el.

8 So the redeemer said to Bo’az, “Buy it for yourself.” Then he took off his sandal.

9 And Bo’az said to the elders and to all the people, “You are witnesses this day that I have bought all that was Elimelekh’s, and all that was Kilyon’s and Mahlon’s, from the hand of Na’omi.

10“And also, Ruth the Mo’abitess, the wife of Mahlon, I have acquired as my wife, to raise up the name of the dead on his inheritance, so that the name of the dead should not be cut off from among his brothers and from the gate of his place. You are witnesses today.”

11 And all the people who were at the gate, and the elders, said, “Witnesses! make the woman who is coming to your house as Raḥel and as Lē’ah, the two who built the house of Yisra’el. And prove your worth in Ephrathah and proclaim the Name in Beyth Leḥem.

12“And let your house be like the house of Perets, whom Tamar bore to Yehuḏah, of the seed which 𐤆𐤃𐤆 does give you from this young woman.”

13 And Bo’az took Ruth and she became his wife. And he went in to her, and 𐤆𐤃𐤆 granted her conception, and she bore a son.

14 And the women said to Na’omi, “Blessed be 𐤆𐤃𐤆, who has not left you this day without a redeemer. And let his Name be proclaimed in Yisra’el!

15“And he shall be to you a restorer of life and a sustainer of your old age. For your daughter-in-law, who loves you, who is better to you than seven sons, has borne him.”

16 And Na’omi took the child and laid him on her bosom, and became a nurse to him.

17 And the women, her neighbours, gave him a name, saying, “There is a son born to Na’omi.” And they called his name Oḇeḏ. He was the father of Yishai, the father of Dawiḏ.

18 And this is the genealogy of Perets: Perets brought forth Ḥetsron.

19 And Ḥetsron brought forth Ram, and Ram brought forth Amminaḏaḇ.

20 And Amminaḏaḇ brought forth Naḥshon, and Naḥshon brought forth Salmon.

21 And Salmon brought forth Bo’az, and Bo’az brought forth Oḇeḏ.

22 And Oḇeḏ brought forth Yishai, and Yishai brought forth Dawiḏ.
1 How alone she sits,
The city once great with people!
Like a widow she has become,
One great among the nations!
A princess among provinces has become a slave!

2 She weeps bitterly at night,
And her tears are upon her cheeks.
Among all her lovers there is no comforter for her.
All her friends have betrayed her,
They have become her enemies.

3 Yehuđah has gone into exile,
Because of affliction and because of harsh labour.
She has dwelt among gentiles,
She has found no rest.
All her pursuers have overtaken her between narrow places.

4 The ways to Tsiyon mourn
For no one comes to the appointed times.
All her gates are deserted,
Her priests sigh, her maidens are afflicted,
And she has bitterness.

5 Her adversaries have become chief,
Her enemies have become at ease.
For יהוה has afflicted her
Because of her many transgressions.
Her children have gone into captivity before the enemy.

6 And all the splendour has departed
From the daughter of Tsiyon.
Her rulers have become like buck,
They have found no pasture,
And they go powerless before the pursuer.

7 In the days of her affliction and wandering,
Yerushalayim remembered all her precious matters
She had in the days of old.

When her people fell into the hand of the enemy,
With no one to help her,
The adversaries saw her,
They mocked at her Sabbaths.
Yerushalayim has sinned greatly,
Therefore she has become defiled.
All who esteemed her despised her
Because they have seen her nakedness.
She herself has sighed and turned away.

9 Her uncleanness is in her skirts.
She did not keep in mind her latter end,
And has gone down appallingly,
There was no one to comfort her.
“See, O יהוה, my affliction,
For the enemy has made himself great!”

10 The adversary has spread his hand
Over all her precious matters;
Indeed, she has seen:
The gentiles have entered her set-apart place,
Those whom You commanded not to enter Your assembly.

11 All her people are sighing, seeking bread.
They have given their precious matters
For food, to bring back life.
“See, O יהוה, and look,
For I have become despised.”

12 “Is it naught to you,
All you who pass by?
Look and see if there is any pain like my pain,
Which has been brought on me,
Which יהוה has inflicted on me
In the day of His burning displeasure.
13 “From above He has sent fire into my bones,
And it overpowered them;
He has spread a net for my feet and turned me back;

He has laid me waste and faint all the day.

14“The yoke of my transgressions has been bound by His hand, Woven together and thrust upon my neck. He has made my strength stumble, Has given me into hands Which I am unable to withstand. 15“ has trodden down all my strong men in my midst, He has called an appointed time Against me to crush my young men. has trodden down as in a wine-press The maiden daughter of Yehuđah. 16“This is why I weep. My eye, my eye is running down with water, Because the comforter, Who could bring back my life, Has been far from me. My children are stunned, For the enemy has prevailed.”

17Tsiyon spreads out her hands, There is no comforter for her. has commanded concerning Ya’aqoḇ, His neighbours are his adversaries. Yerushalayim has become an uncleanness among them. 18 is righteous, for I rebelled against His mouth. Hear now, all peoples, and see my pain. My maidens and my young men have gone into captivity. 19I called for my lovers, but they deceived me. My priests and my elders breathed their last in the city, While they sought food to bring back their life. 20“See, O , that I am in distress. My inward parts are boiling up, My heart is overturned within me, For I have been very rebellious. From without the sword has bereaved, At home it is like death. 21“They have heard that I sighed, With no one to comfort me. All my enemies have heard of my calamity, They have rejoiced that You have done it. You shall bring on the day that You have announced, So let them become like me. 22“Let all their evil come before You, And do to them as You have done to me For all my transgressions. For my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.”

2 How in His displeasure Has covered the daughter of Tsiyon with a cloud! He has cast down from the heavens to the earth The comeliness of Yisra’el, And has not remembered His footstool in the day of His displeasure. has swallowed up, without compassion, All the pastures of Ya’aqoḇ. In His wrath He has thrown down The strongholds of the daughter of Yehuđah. He has brought them down to the ground. He has profaned the reign and its rulers.

3 In the heat of displeasure He has cut off every horn of Yisra’el. He has withdrawn His right hand from before the enemy. And He burns against Ya’aqoḇ Like a flaming fire, consuming all around. 4He has bent His bow like an enemy. He has set His right hand like an adversary. And He slays all who delighted the eye. In the tent of the daughter of Tsiyon, He has poured out His wrath like fire. has been like an enemy. He has swallowed up Yisra’el, He has swallowed up all her palaces, He has destroyed her strongholds. And He increases mourning and lamentation
In the daughter of Yehudah.

6 He has demolished His booth like a garden,
He has destroyed His place of meeting.

7 HWHY has made the appointed times and Sabbaths
To be forgotten in Tsiyon,
And despises sovereign and priest
In His raging displeasure.

8 HWHY has cast off His altar,
He has rejected His set-apart place,
He has delivered the walls of her palaces
Into the hand of the enemy.

9 They have made a noise in the House of HWHY
As on the day of an appointed time.

10 HWHY has planned to destroy
The wall of the daughter of Tsiyon.
He has stretched out a line.
He has not turned back His hand from destroying.
And He has made the rampart and wall to lament;
Together they have languished.

11 Her gates have sunk into the ground.
He has destroyed and broken her bars.
Her sovereign and her rulers are among the gentiles.
The Torah is no more,
And her prophets have found no vision from HWHY.

12 The elders of the daughter of Tsiyon
Sit on the ground, are silent.
They have thrown dust on their heads,
They have girded themselves with sackcloth.
The maidens of Yerushalayim
Have let their heads hang to the ground.

13 How shall I admonish you,
To what shall I compare you,
O daughter of Yerushalayim?
To what shall I liken you to comfort you,
O maiden daughter of Tsiyon?
For your breach is as great as the sea.
Who shall heal you?

14 Your prophets have seen falsehood and folly for you,
And have not shown you your crookedness,
To turn back your captivity.
But their visions for you
Are false and misleading messages.

15 All who pass by have clapped their hands at you.
They have whistled,
And they shake their heads at the daughter of Yerushalayim,
"Is this the city that is called 'The perfection of loveliness,
The joy of all the earth'?"

16 All your enemies have opened their mouth against you;
They have whistled and they gnash their teeth.
They say, "We have swallowed her up!
This is certainly the day we waited for;
We have found it, we have seen it."

17 HWHY has done what He planned,
He has filled His word which He commanded in days of old.
He has torn down, without compassion,
And He has let your enemy rejoice over you.

18 Their heart cried out to HWHY,
"O wall of the daughter of Tsiyon,
Let tears run down like a river day and night.
Give yourself no numbness,
"Where is grain and wine?"
As they languish like the wounded
In the streets of the city,
As their life is poured out in their mothers’ bosom.
Let your eyes have no rest.

19 “Arise, cry out in the night,
At the beginning of the watches,
Pour out your heart like water
Before the face of the Lord.
Lift your hands toward Him
For the life of your young children,
Who languish from hunger
At the head of every street.

20 “See, O Lord, and look attentively
To whom have You done thus.
Should the women eat their offspring,
Infants of a hand breadth?
Should the priest and prophet be slain
In the set-apart place of the Lord?”

21 “Young and old lie on the ground in the streets.
My maidens and my young men have fallen by the sword.
You have slain them in the day of Your displeasure,
You have slaughtered without compassion.

22 “Would You proclaim, as in a day of appointed time,
The fears that surround me?
And no one escaped or survived
In the day of the displeasure of the Lord.
Those whom I have nursed and brought up
My enemy has destroyed.”

3 I am the man who has seen affliction
By the rod of His wrath.

2 He has led me and made me walk
In darkness and not light.

3 Indeed, He has turned back,
He has turned His hand against me all the day.

4 He has worn out my flesh and my skin,
He has broken my bones.

5 He has piled up against me,
And surrounded me with bitterness and hardship.

6 He has made me dwell in dark places
Like the dead of old.

7 He has hedged me in and I do not go out,
He has made my chain heavy.

8 Also, when I cry and shout,
He shuts out my prayer.

9 He has blocked my ways with hewn stone,
He has made my paths crooked.
10 He is to me like a bear lying in wait,
A lion in hiding.

11 He has turned aside my ways
And torn me in pieces,
He has laid me waste.

12 He has bent His bow
And set me up as a target for the arrow.

13 He made the arrows of His quiver pierce my kidneys.
14 I have been a mockery to all my people,
Their mocking song all the day.

15 He has filled me with bitterness,
He drenched me with wormwood.

16 And He has broken my teeth with gravel,
He has covered me with ashes.

17 And You have removed my being far from peace,
I have forgotten goodness.

18 And I said, “My strength and my expectancy
Have perished from the Lord.”

19 Remember my affliction and my anguish,
The wormwood and the gall.

20 Your being indeed remembers
And bows down upon me.

21 This I recall to my mind, therefore I wait:

22 The kindnesses of the Lord!
For we have not been consumed,
For His compassions have not ended.

23 They are new every morning,
Great is Your trustworthiness.

24 “The Lord is my Portion,” says my being,
“Therefore I wait for Him!”

25 The Lord is good to those waiting for Him,
To the being who seeks Him.

26 It is good – both to wait and to be silent,
For the deliverance of the Lord.

27 It is good for a man to bear a yoke in his youth.

28 Let him sit alone and be silent,
Because He has laid it on him.

29 Let him put his mouth in the dust,
There might yet be expectancy.
30 Let him give his cheek
   To the one who smites him —
   He is filled with reproach.
31 For יָדִי does not cast off forever.
32 For though He afflicted,
   Yet He shall show compassion
   According to the greatness of His kindnesses.
33 For He has not afflicted from His heart, Nor does He grieve the children of men.
34 To crush under His feet
   All the prisoners of the earth,
35 To turn aside the right-ruling of man
   Before the face of the Most High,
36 Or wrong a man in his cause —
   This יָדִי does not approve.
37 Who was it that spoke,
   And it came to be!
   Has יָדִי not commanded it?
38 Do not the evils and the good
   Come out of the mouth of the Most High?
39 What? Should mankind complain,
   A living man, because of his sins?
40 Let us search and examine our ways,
   And turn back to יָדִי.
41 Let us lift our hearts and hands
   To אֵל in the heavens
   and say:
42 We, we have transgressed and rebelled.
   You, You have not forgiven.
43 You have wrapped Yourself
   With displeasure and pursued us.
   You have slain,
   You have not shown compassion.
44 You have wrapped Yourself
   With a cloud, so that prayer does not pass through.
45 You make us as scum and refuse
   In the midst of the peoples.
46 All our enemies have opened their mouth against us.
47 Fear and a snare have come upon us,
   Shame and ruin.
48 Streams of water run down my eye
   For the ruin of the daughter of my people.
49 My eye flows out and does not cease,
   Without stopping,
50 Until יָדִי looks down and sees from the heavens.

51 My eye pains my being
   Because of all the daughters of my city.
52 My enemies hunted me down
   Like a bird, without cause.
53 They have cut off my life in the pit,
   And they threw stones at me.
54 Waters flowed over my head;
   I said, “I am cut off!”
55 I called on Your Name,
   יָדִי, from the lowest pit.
56 You have heard my voice,
   Do not hide Your ear from my groaning,
   From my outcry!
57 You drew near on the day I called on
   You;
   You said, “Do not fear!”
58 יָדִי, You did plead the case for my being;
   You have redeemed my life.
59 יָדִי, You have seen my oppression;
   Judge my case.
60 You have seen all their vengeance,
   All their plans against me.
61 You have heard their reproach,
   יָדִי, all their plans against me,
62 The lips of those rising against me,
   And their scheming against me all the day.
63 Look at their sitting down and their rising up;
   I am their song.
64 Repay them, יָדִי,
   According to the work of their hands.
65 Give them a veiled heart,
   Your curse upon them!
66 Pursue and destroy them in
   displeasure,
   From under the heavens of יָדִי.

4 How dim the gold has become,
   The fine gold changed!
   The stones of the set-apart place
   Are scattered at the head of every street.
2 The precious sons of Tsiyon
   Who were weighed against fine gold,
   How they have been reckoned as clay pots,
   The work of the hands of the potter!
3 Even jackals have presented their breasts,
They have nursed their young.
The daughter of my people has become as cruel,
As ostriches in the wilderness.
4 The tongue of the infant has clung
To the roof of its mouth for thirst;
Children asked for bread,
No one breaks it for them.
5 Those who ate delicacies
Have been laid waste in the streets;
Those who were brought up in scarlet
Have embraced dunghills.
6 And the crookedness of the daughter of my people
Is greater than the punishment of the sin of Seōm,
Which was overthrown in a moment,
And no hands were wrung over her!
7 Her Nazirites were brighter than snow
And whiter than milk;
More ruddy in body than rubies,
Their cut like sapphire.
8 Their appearance has become blacker than soot;
They have become unrecognised in the streets;
Their skin has shrivelled on their bones,
It has become dry, it has become as wood.
9 Better off were those pierced by the sword
Than those pierced by hunger;
For these pine away,
Pierced through for lack of the fruits of the field.
10 The hands of the compassionate women
Have boiled their own children;
They became food for them
In the destruction of the daughter of my people.
11 HWHY has completed His wrath,
He has poured out His burning displeasure.
And He kindled a fire in Tsiyon,
And it consumed her foundations.
12 The sovereigns of the earth did not believe,
Nor any of the inhabitants of the world,
That an adversary and enemy
Would enter the gates of Yerushalayim.
13 It was because of the sins of her prophets,
The crookednesses of her priests,
Who shed in her midst the blood of the righteous.
14 They staggered, blind, in the streets;
They have defiled themselves with blood,
So that no one was able to touch their garments.
15 They shouted at them, “Away! Unclean! Away! Away!
Touch not!”
When they fled and staggered,
They said, among the gentiles,
“They shall stay no longer.”
16 The face of HWHY scattered them.
He no longer regards them.
They showed no respect for the priests
Nor favour to the elders.
17 While we exist, our eyes are consumed,
Watching vainly for our help.
In our watch-tower we watched for a nation
That could not save.
18 They have hunted our steps
From going in our streets.
Our end was near,
Our days were completed,
For our end had come.
19 Our pursuers were swifter
Than the eagles of the heavens.
They came hotly after us on the mountains
And lay in wait for us in the wilderness.
20 The breath of our nostrils,
The anointed of HWHY,
Was caught in their pits,
In whose shadow we had thought to live among the gentiles.
21 Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom,
You who dwell in the land of Uz!
The cup is to pass over to you too,
So that you become drunk and make yourself naked.
22 Your crookedness has been completed,
O daughter of Tsiyon.
He no longer prolongs your exile.
He shall punish your crookedness,
O daughter of Edom,
He shall uncover your sins!

Remember, O הוהי, what has come upon us.
Look, and see our reproach!
Our inheritance has been turned over to strangers,
And our houses to foreigners.
We have become orphans, fatherless,
Our mothers are like widows.
We had to pay for our drinking water,
And our wood comes at a price.
We have been pursued close onto our neck,
We have laboured and had no rest.
To Mitsrayim we have given a hand;
To Ashshur, to be satisfied with bread.
Our fathers sinned, they are no more.
We have borne their crookednesses.
Servants have ruled over us;
There is no one to deliver from their hand.
With our lives we bring in our bread,
Because of the sword of the wilderness.
Our skin has become as hot as an oven,
Because of the burning heat of scarcity of food.

They have humbled the women in Tsiyon,
The maidens in the cities of Yehuḏah.
Rulers were hung up by their hands,
And elders were not respected.
They have taken young men to grind,
And youths stumbled under loads of wood.
Elders have ceased from the gate,
Young men from their song.
The joy of our heart has ceased,
Our dancing has turned into mourning.
The crown has fallen from our head.
Woe to us, for we have sinned!
Because of this our heart has been sick,
Because of these our eyes have become dim,
Because of Mount Tsiyon which is laid waste;
Foxes have gone roaming in it.
You, O הוהי, remain forever,
Your throne from generation to generation.
Why do You forget us forever,
Forsake us for length of days?
Turn us back to You, O הוהי,
And let us turn back,
Renew our days as of old.
For have You completely rejected us?
You have been wroth with us, exceedingly!
The words of Qoheleth, a son of Dawid, sovereign in Yerushalayim.

“Futility! Futility!” says Qoheleth. “Futility, futility, all is futile!”

What does man gain from all his labour in which he toils under the sun?

A generation passes away, and a generation comes, but the earth stands forever.

The sun also rises, and the sun sets, and hurries back to the place where it arose.

Going to the south, and turning round to the north, turning, turning, and on its rounds the wind returns.

All the rivers run into the sea, yet the sea never overflows. To the place from which the rivers come, there they return again.

All matters are wearisome, no one is able to speak of it. The eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.

What has been is what shall be, what has been done is what shall be done, and there is no new matter under the sun.

I, Qoheleth, was sovereign over Yisra’el in Yerushalayim.

And I set my heart to seek and search out by wisdom concerning all that has been done under the heavens; this evil task Elohim has given to the sons of man, to be humbled by it.

I have seen all the works that are done under the sun. And see, all was futile and feeding on wind.

The crooked could not be straightened, and what is lacking could not be counted.

So I spoke to my heart, saying, “See, I have attained greatness, and have gained more wisdom than all who were before me in Yerushalayim. And my heart has seen much wisdom and knowledge.”

And I set my heart to know wisdom – and to know madness and folly. I know that this too is feeding on wind.

For in much wisdom is much grief, and he who increases knowledge increases suffering.

I said in my heart, “Come now, let me try you with rejoicing and find out what is good.” But see, that too was futile.

I said of laughter, “It is madness,” and of rejoicing, “What does it do?”

I searched in my heart how to stimulate my body with wine, while guiding my heart with wisdom, and how to lay hold on folly, until I could see what was good for the sons of men to do under the heavens all the days of their lives.

I made my works great, I built myself houses, I planted vineyards for myself.

I made gardens and parks for myself, and I planted all kinds of fruit trees in them.

I made pools of water for myself, to water from them a plantation of growing trees.

I bought male and female servants, and I came to have sons of the household. Also, I had greater possessions of herds and flocks than all who were before me in Yerushalayim.

I also gathered for myself silver and gold and the treasures of sovereigns and of the provinces. I provided male and female singers for myself, and the pleasures of men – a woman and women.

Thus I became great and increased a This Hebrew word means Assembler or Convener, an appellative. The author could have been Shelomoh, or else some post-exilic writer.

more than all who were before me in Yerushalayim. Also my wisdom remained with me.
10 And all that my eyes desired I did not keep from them. I did not withhold my heart from any pleasure, for my heart rejoiced in all my labour. And this was my portion from all my labour.
11 But when I looked on all the works that my hands had done and on the labour in which I had toiled, see, all was futile and feeding on wind, and there was no gain under the sun.
12 And I turned myself to look at wisdom, and madness, and folly. For what would the man do who comes after the sovereign except what already has been done?
13 Then I saw that wisdom is better than folly, as light is better than darkness.
14 The wise one’s eyes are in his head, but the fool walks in darkness. And I also knew that one event befalls them all.
15 And I said in my heart, “As the event of the fool, even so it befalls me, and why was I then more wise?” Then I said in my heart, “This also is futile.”
16 For there is no more lasting remembrance of the wise than of the fool, since in the days to come all is forgotten. And how does a wise man die? With the fool!
17 And I hated life because the work that was done under the sun was evil on me, for all is futile and feeding on wind.
18 And I hated all my labour in which I had toiled under the sun, because I leave it to a man who would come after me.
19 And who knows whether he is wise or foolish? Yet he shall rule over all my labour in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. That too is futile.
20 So I turned my heart and despairs of all the labour in which I had toiled under the sun.
21 For a man might labour with wisdom, knowledge, and skill; yet he leaves his heritage to a man who has not laboured for it. That too is futile and a great evil.
22 For what does a man get for all his labour and strain of his heart with which he has toiled under the sun?

23 For all his days are sufferings, and his work grievous; even in the night his heart takes no rest. That too is futile.
24 A man could do no better but to eat and drink, and enjoy himself in his labour! That too, I saw, was from the hand of Elohim.
25 For who eats or who finds enjoyment without Him?
26 For He gives wisdom and knowledge and joy to a man who is good in His eyes. But to the sinner He gives the task of gathering and collecting, to give to him who is good before Elohim. That too is futile and feeding on wind.

3 For every matter there is an appointed time, even a time for every pursuit under the heavens:
2 A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to uproot;
3 a time to slay, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;
4 a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
5 a time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
6 a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to throw away;
7 a time to tear, and a time to sew; a time to be silent, and a time to speak;
8 a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for battle, and a time for peace.
9 What does the worker gain from his toil?
10 I have seen the task Elohim has given to the sons of men to be humbled by it.
11 He has made it all, pretty in its time. Even the ages He has put in their hearts, except that no one finds out the work that Elohim does from beginning to end.
12 I know that there is no good for them but to rejoice, and to do good in their lives, and also that every man should eat and drink and enjoy the good of all his labour, it is a gift of Elohim.
13 I know that whatever Elohim does is forever. There is no adding to it, and there is no taking from it. Elohim does it, that men should fear before Him.
15 Whatever is has already been, and what shall be has been before. But Elohim seeks out what has been pursued.

16 Then again I saw under the sun: In the place of right-ruling, wrongness was there. And in the place of righteousness, wrongness was there.

17 I said in my heart, “Elohim judges the righteous and the wrong, for there is a time for every matter and for every work.”

18 I said in my heart, “Concerning the matter of the sons of men, Elohim selects them, so as to see that they themselves are beasts.”

19 For the event of the sons of men is also the event of beasts – one event befalls them: as one dies, so dies the other. Indeed, they all have one breath – man has no advantage over beasts. For all is futile.

20 All are going to one place – all came from the dust, and all return to dust.

21 Who knows the spirit of the sons of men, which goes upward, and the spirit of the beast, which goes down to the earth?

22 So I saw that man could do no better but to rejoice in his own works, for that is his portion. For who would bring him to see what shall be after him?

4 Then I looked again at all the oppression that is done under the sun: And see! The tears of the oppressed, but they have no comforter; and power on the side of their oppressors, but they have no comforter.

2 Therefore I commended the dead who were already dead, more than the living who are still alive.

3 And better than both is he who has never existed, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.

4 And I saw that all the toil and skill of the work bring envy between man and his neighbour. That too is futile and feeding on wind.

5 The fool folds his hands and consumes his own flesh.

6 Better is a hand filled with rest than both hands filled with toil and feeding on wind.

7 Then I looked again at futility under the sun:

8 There is one, without a second, who has neither son nor brother. And there is no end to all his labours. His eye also is not satisfied with riches. “And for whom am I toiling and depriving myself of good?” That too is futility, and an evil task.

9 Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their labour.

10 For if they fall, one lifts his companion up. But woe to him who is alone when he falls, for he has no one to help him up.

11 Also, if two lie down together, they keep warm; but how does one keep warm by himself?

12 Although one might be overpowered, two withstand him. And a threefold cord is not readily broken.

13 A poor and wise youth is better than an old and foolish sovereign who no longer knows how to take warning.

14 For he comes out of prison to be sovereign, although in his reign he was born poor.

15 I have seen all the living who walk under the sun; they were with the second youth who stands in his place.

16 There was no end of all the people; all of whom he headed. But the ones who come afterward do not rejoice in him. For that too is futile and feeding on wind.

5 Guard your steps when you go to the House of Elohim. And draw near to listen rather than to give the slaughtering of fools, for they do not know that they do evil.

2 Do not be hasty with your mouth, and let not your heart hurry to bring forth a word before Elohim. For Elohim is in the heavens, and you on earth, therefore let your words be few.

3 For a dream comes through the greatness of the task, and a fool’s voice is known by his many words.

4 When you make a vow to Elohim, do not delay to pay it, for He takes no pleasure in fools. Pay that which you have vowed.

5 It is better not to vow than to vow and not pay.
6 Do not allow your mouth to cause your flesh to sin, nor say before the messenger of Elohim that it was a mistake. Why should Elohim be wroth at your voice and destroy the work of your hands?

7 For in much dreaming and many words there is futility. But fear Elohim.

8 If you see the oppression of the poor, and denial of right-ruling and righteousness in a province, do not be astonished at the matter. For a higher than the high is guarding, and there are higher ones over them.

9 And the increase of the land is for all. The sovereign himself is served from the field.

10 He who loves silver is not satisfied with silver; nor he who loves wealth, and increase. That too is futile.

11 With the increase of goods, there is an increase of those consuming them. What advantage then is there to their owners, but to look on?

12 Sweet is the sleep of a labourer whether he eats little or much, but the plenty of the rich does not let him sleep.

13 There is a sickly evil I have seen under the sun: riches kept for their owner, for his evil.

14 But those riches perish through evil use. And he brings forth a son, and there is naught in his hand.

15 As he came naked from his mother’s womb, so he returns, to go as he came. And from his labour which goes into his hand he takes none whatsoever.

16 And this too is a grievous evil – exactly as he came, so he goes. And what gain has he since he toiled for the wind?

17 All his days he also eats in darkness, and with much sorrow and sickness and wrath.

18 See what I have seen: It is good and pleasant for one to eat and drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour in which he toils under the sun all the days of his life which Elohim gives him, for it is his portion.

19 Further, when Elohim has given any man riches and wealth, and permitted him to enjoy them, and to receive his portion and rejoice in his labour, this is a gift of Elohim.

20 Though it not be much, let him remember the days of his life, because Elohim bears witness by the gladness of his heart.

6 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is great among men:

2 A man to whom Elohim has given riches and wealth and esteem, so that his being lacks none at all of what he desires, but Elohim does not permit him to eat of it, and a foreigner consumes it. This is futile, and it is an evil disease.

3 If a man brings forth a hundred children and lives many years, so that the days of his years are many, but his being is not satisfied with goodness, or indeed he has no burial, I say that a premature birth is better than he,

4 for it comes in futility and goes away in darkness, and in darkness its name is covered;

5 even the sun it has not seen – it has more rest than that man.

6 And though he lives a thousand years twice over, yet he shall not see goodness. Do not all go to one place?

7 All the labour of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not satisfied.

8 For what advantage has the wise over the fool? What advantage does the poor have who knows how to walk before the living?

9 What the eyes see is better than what the desire goes after. That too is futile and feeding on wind.

10 Whatever shall be, has already been named, and it is known that he is son of AAdam. And he is unable to contend with Him who is mightier than he.

11 The more words, the more futility – what is to man the advantage?

12 For who knows what is good for man in life, all the days of his futile life, which he passes like a shadow? For who declares to man what shall be after him, under the sun?
A good name is better than precious oil, and the day of death than the day of one’s birth.

It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting, for that is the end of all men. And the living take it to heart.

Sorrow is better than laughter, for by the sadness of the face the heart becomes better.

The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning, but the heart of fools is in the house of rejoicing.

It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise than for man to hear the song of fools.

For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of a fool. That too is futile.

For oppression makes a wise one mad, and a bribe destroys the heart.

The end of a matter is better than its beginning. The patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.

Do not be hasty in your spirit to be vexed, for vexation rests in the bosom of fools.

Do not say, “Why were the former days better than these?” For it is not wise of you to have asked about this.

Wisdom is good with an inheritance, and an advantage to those who see the sun.

For wisdom protects as silver protects, but the advantage of knowledge is that wisdom gives life to those who have it.

See the work of Elohim: For who is able to make straight what He has made crooked?

Be glad in the day of prosperity, but in the evil day take note that Elohim has also appointed the one as well as the other, so that man should not uncover whatever shall be after him.

I have seen it all in my days of futility: There is a righteous one perishing in his righteousness, and there is a wrong one living long in his evil.

Do not be overrighteous, neither be overwise – why destroy yourself?

Do not be wrong overmuch, and do not be a fool – why die before your time?

It is good that you should take hold of this, and also not withhold your hand from the other. For he who fears Elohim comes forth with all of them.

Wisdom makes the wise strong, more than ten rulers that are in the city.

For there is not a righteous man on earth who does good and does not sin.

Also do not take to heart all the words they speak, lest you hear your servant cursing you.

For you know in your heart that many times you have cursed others.

All this I have proved by wisdom. I said, “I am wise,” but it was far from me.

That which is, is far off and exceedingly deep – who does find it?

I have turned round, even my heart, to know and to search, and to seek out wisdom and a conclusion, to know the wrongness of folly, even of foolishness and madness.

And I found more bitter than death, the woman whose heart is snares and nets, whose hands are shackles. He who pleases Elohim escapes from her, but the sinner is captured by her.

“See, this I have found,” says Qoheleth, “Counting one by one, to find a conclusion, which my being still seeks but have not found: I have found one man among a thousand, but a woman among all these I have not found.

Truly, this only I have found: that Elohim made man straight, but they have sought out many devices.”

Who is like a wise one? And who knows the meaning of a matter? A man’s wisdom makes his face shine, and the hardness of his face is changed.

I say, “Guard the sovereign’s command because of the oath before Elohim.

Do not be in a hurry to go from his presence. Do not take a stand in an evil matter, for he does whatever he pleases.”

Where the word of a sovereign is, there is power. And who says to him, “What are you doing?”

He who guards the command knows no evil matter. And the heart of the wise discerns both time and right-ruling,

6 Because for every matter there is a time and right-ruling, though the trouble of man is heavy upon him.

7 For he does not know what shall be; so who declares to him when it shall be?

8 No one has power over the spirit to retain the spirit, and no one has power in the day of death. There is no discharge in battle, and wrongness does not release those who are given to it.

9 All this I have seen; I applied my heart to every work that is done under the sun: There is a time in which a man rules over a man for his evil.

10 And so I saw the wrong ones buried, and they came and went from the place of set-apartness, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done. That too is futile.

11 Because the sentence against an evil deed is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is filled in them to do evil.

12 Although a sinner is doing evil a hundred times, and his life is prolonged, yet I know that there is good to those who fear Elohim, who fear before Him.

13 But it shall not be well with the wrong one, nor would he prolong his days as a shadow, because he does not fear before Elohim.

14 There is a futility which has been done on earth, that there are righteous ones who get according to the deeds of the wrong. And there are wrong ones who get according to the deeds of the righteous. I said that this too is futile.

15 Therefore I praised enjoyment, because there is no good to man except to eat, and to drink, and to rejoice – and it remains with him in his labour for the days of his life which Elohim has given him under the sun.

16 When I gave my heart to know wisdom and to see the task which has been done on earth, even though one sees no sleep day or night, 17 then I saw all the work of Elohim, that man is unable to find out the work that has been done under the sun. For though a man labours to seek, yet he does not find it. And even though a wise one claims to know, he is unable to find it.

9 For all this I took to heart, even to search out all this: that the righteous and the wise and their deeds are in the hand of Elohim. No man knows whether love or hatred awaits him.

2 It is the same for all: One event to the righteous and to the wrong; to the good, and to the clean, and to the unclean; and to the one slaughtering and to the one not slaughtering. As is the good one, so is the sinner; the one swearing as the one fearing an oath.

3 This is an evil in all that is done under the sun: there is one event to all. Truly the hearts of the sons of men are filled with evil, and madness is in their hearts while they live, and then – to the dead!

4 But for him who is joined to all the living there is trust, for a living dog is better than a dead lion.

5 For the living know that they shall die, but the dead know naught, nor do they have any more reward, for their remembrance is forgotten.

6 Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy have now perished; and they no longer have a share in all that is done under the sun.

7 Go, eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a glad heart; for Elohim has already approved your works.

8 Let your garments be white at all times, and let your head lack no oil.

9 See life with the wife whom you love all the days of your futile life which He has given you under the sun, all your days of futility. For that is your share in life, and in your toil which you have laboured under the sun.

10 All that your hand finds to do, do it with your might; for there is no work or planning or knowledge or wisdom in the grave where you are going.

11 I again saw under the sun that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the mighty, nor even bread to the wise, nor even riches to men of understanding, nor even favour to men of knowledge – for time and chance meets with them all.
12 For even man does not know his time.
Like fish taken in an evil net, and like birds captured in a snare, so the sons of men are snared in an evil time, when it come down on them suddenly.
13 Also this I saw as wisdom under the sun, and it is great to me:
14 A little city, and few men in it, and a great sovereign came against it, and besieged it, and built huge siege-works against it.
15 And there was found in it a poor wise man, and by his wisdom he delivered the city, yet no one remembered that poor man.
16 And I said, “Wisdom is better than might. But the wisdom of the poor man is despised, and his words are not heard.”
17 The words of the wise, spoken calmly, should be heard rather than the shout of a ruler of fools.
18 Wisdom is better than weapons of confusion, but one sinner destroys much good.

10 Dead flies make the perfumer’s ointment stink, ferment; a little folly outweighs wisdom, esteem.
2 A wise man’s heart is at his right hand, but a fool’s heart at his left.
3 And also, when a fool walks along the way, his heart fails, and he shows everyone that he is a fool.
4 If the spirit of the ruler rises against you, do not leave your post, for calmness lays to rest great faults.
5 There is an evil I have seen under the sun, as a mistake coming from the ruler:
6 Folly is set in many high positions, while the rich sit in a humble place.
7 I have seen servants on horses – and rulers walking on the ground like servants.
8 He who digs a pit falls into it, and whoever breaks through a wall is bitten by a snake.
9 He who quarries stones is hurt by them.
He who splits wood is endangered by it.
10 If an iron tool is blunt, and one does not sharpen the edge, then he needs more strength, and wisdom is advantageous to make right.
11 If the snake bites without enchantment, then ‘the master of the tongue’ is no better!
12 Words of a wise man’s mouth show favour, but the lips of a fool swallow him up; 13 the beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness, and the end of his talk is wicked madness.
14 And a fool increases words; a man knows not what shall come to be; and who declares to him what shall be after him?
15 The labour of fools wearies them, because not one knows how to go to the city!
11 Woe to you, O land, when your sovereign is a youth, and your rulers feast in the morning!
16 Blessed are you, O land, when your sovereign is the son of nobles, and your rulers feast in due season – for strength and not for drunkenness!
17 Because of laziness the framework tumbles, and through idleness of hands the house leaks.
18 A feast is made for laughter, and wine gladdens life; and the silver answers all.
19 Do not curse the sovereign, even in your thought; do not curse the rich, even in your bedroom; for a bird of the heavens conveys the voice, and a bird in flight makes the matter known.
11 Send out your bread on the face of the waters, for after many days you shall find it.
3 Give a portion to seven, and also to eight, for you do not know what evil might be on the earth.
3 If the clouds are filled with rain, they empty themselves upon the earth. And if a tree falls to the south or the north, in the place where the tree falls, there it is.
4 He who watches the wind does not sow, and he who looks at the clouds does not reap.
5 As you do not know what is the way of the wind, or how the bones grow in the womb of her who is with child, so you do not know the works of Elohim who makes all.
6 Sow your seed in the morning, and until evening do not let your hand rest; since you do not know which prosper, this or that, or whether both alike are good.

7Sweet also is the light, and good for the eyes to see the sun;

8But if a man lives many years, let him rejoice in them all. But let him remember the days of darkness, for they are many.
All that is coming is futility.

9Rejoice, O young man, in your youth, and let your heart gladden you in the days of your youth. And walk in the ways of your heart, and in the sight of your eyes, but know that for all these Elohim brings you into right-ruling.

10Therefore remove vexation from your heart, and put away evil from your flesh, for youth and dawn of life are futility.

12 Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come, and the years draw near when you say, “I have no pleasure in them”:

2Before the sun and the light, the moon and the stars, are darkened, and the clouds return after the rain;

3in the day when the guards of the house tremble, and the strong men shall bow down; when the grinders shall cease because they are few, and those that look through the windows shall become dim;

4and the doors shall be shut in the streets, and the sound of grinding is low;
and one rises up at the sound of a bird, and all the daughters of song are bowed down;

5furthermore, they are afraid of what is high, and of low places in the way; and the almond tree blossoms, and the grasshopper becomes a burden, and desire perishes. For man is going to his everlasting home, and the mourners shall go about the streets.

6 Remember Him before the silver cord is loosed, or the golden bowl is broken, or the jar shattered at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the well,

7and the dust returns to the earth as it was, and the spirit returns to Elohim who gave it.

8“Futility! Futility!” said the Qoheleth,
“All is futile.”

9And besides being wise, Qoheleth also taught the people knowledge, and he listened and sought out – set in order many proverbs.

10Qoheleth sought to find out words of delight, and words of truth, rightly written.

11The words of the wise are like goads, and as nails driven by the masters of collections – they were given by one Shepherd.

12And besides these, my son, be warned – the making of many books has no end, and much study is a wearying of the flesh.

13Let us hear the conclusion of the entire matter: Fear Elohim and guard His commands, for this applies to all mankind!

14For Elohim shall bring every work into right-ruling, including all that is hidden, whether good or whether evil.
And it came to be in the days of Aḥashwērosh – he is the Aḥashwērosh who reigned from India to Kush, a hundred and twenty-seven provinces – in those days, when Sovereign Aḥashwērosh sat on the throne of his reign, which was in the citadel of Shushan, that in the third year of his reign he made a feast for all his officials and servants. The power of Persia and Media, the nobles and the princes of the provinces were before him, when he showed the riches of his esteemed reign and the splendour of his excellent greatness for many days, a hundred and eighty days.

And when these days were completed, the sovereign made a feast lasting seven days for all the people who were present in the citadel of Shushan, from great to small, in the courtyard of the garden of the sovereign’s palace.

White and blue tapestries were fastened with cords of fine linen and purple on silver rods and marble columns – the couches were of gold and silver on a mosaic pavement of porphyry, marble, mother-of-pearl, and black marble.

And they served drinks in golden vessels, the vessels being different from one another, with much royal wine, according to the hand of the sovereign.

And drinking was according to the law, no one was compelled, for so the sovereign had ordered all the officers of his house, that they should do according to each one’s pleasure.

Sovereigness Vashti also made a feast for the women in the royal palace which Sovereign Aḥashwērosh owned.

On the seventh day, when the heart of the sovereign was glad with wine, he ordered Mehuman, Biztha, Ḥarbona, Bigtha, and Aḇaqtha, Zēthar, and Karkas, the seven eunuchs who were in attendance in the presence of Sovereign Aḥashwērosh, to bring Sovereigness Vashti before the sovereign, with her royal crown, in order to show her loveliness to the people and the officials, for she was lovely to look upon.

But Sovereigness Vashti refused to come at the sovereign’s command brought by his eunuchs. And the sovereign was very wroth, and his rage burned within him.

So the sovereign said to the wise men who understood the times (for in this way the sovereign’s matter came before all who knew law and right-ruling, and who were close to him: Karshena, Shēṭhar, Aḏmatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, Meµukan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, who saw the sovereign’s face, who sat first in the reign):

“According to law, what is to be done to Sovereigness Vashti, because she did not perform the command of Sovereign Aḥashwērosh, through the eunuchs?”

And Memuḵan answered before the sovereign and the princes, “Sovereigness Vashti has misbehaved not only toward the sovereign, but also toward all the princes, and all the people who are in all the provinces of Sovereign Aḥashwērosh.

“For the matter of the sovereigness shall go forth to all women, to make their husbands despised in their eyes, when they say, ‘Sovereign Aḥashwērosh commanded Sovereigness Vashti to be brought in before him, but she did not come.’

“And this day the princesses of Persia and Media shall say to all the sovereign’s officials that they have heard of the matter of the sovereignty – with plenty of scorn and wrath.

“If it pleases the sovereign, let a royal decree go out from him, and let it be recorded in the laws of the Persians and the Medes, so that it does not pass away, that Vashti shall come no more before Sovereign Aḥashwērosh. And let the sovereign give her royal position to another who is better than she.

20 “And the sovereign’s decree which he makes shall be proclaimed throughout all his rule, great as it is, and all the wives give esteem to their husbands, both great and small.”

21 And the word was good in the eyes of the sovereign and the princes, and the sovereign did according to the word of Memukan.

22 So he sent letters to all the sovereign’s provinces, to each province in its own writing, and to every people in their own language, that each man should be master in his own house and speak in the language of his people.

2 After these events, when the wrath of Sovereign Aḥashwērosh had ceased, he remembered Vashti, what she had done, and what had been decreed against her.

2 Then the sovereign’s servants who attended him said, “Let lovely young maidens be sought for the sovereign,

3 and let the sovereign appoint officers in all the provinces of his reign, and let them gather all the lovely young maidens to the citadel of Shushan, into the women’s quarters, under the hand of Hēgai the sovereign’s eunuch, guardian of the women, to give their preparations.

4 “And let the young woman who pleases the sovereign be sovereigness instead of Vashti.” And the word pleased the sovereign, and he did so.

5 In the citadel of Shushan there was a certain man, a Yehuḏite whose name was Mordeḵai son of Ya’ir, son of Shim‘i, son of Qish, a Binyamite,

6 who had been exiled from Yerusḥalayim with the captives who had been exiled with Yeḵonyah sovereign of Yehuḏah, whom Neḇuḵadneṭṣar the sovereign of Babel had exiled.

7 And it came to be that he was raising Haḏassah, that is Estèr, his uncle’s daughter, for she had neither father nor mother. The young woman was lovely and of good appearance. And when her father and mother died, Mordeḵai took her as his own daughter.

8 And it came to be, when the sovereign’s command and decree were heard, and when many young women were gathered at the citadel of Shushan, into the hand of Hēgai, that Estèr, too, was taken to the sovereign’s palace, into the hand of Hēgai, guardian of the women.

9 And the young woman pleased him, and she received kindness from him. So he hastened to give her preparations and her portions, and gave her seven choice female servants from the sovereign’s palace. And he moved her and her female servants to the best place in the house of the women.

10 Estèr had not made known her people or her relatives, for Mordeḵai had commanded her not to make it known.

11 And every day Mordeḵai walked about in front of the courtyard of the women’s quarters, to learn of Estèr’s welfare and what is done to her.

12 Now when the turn of each young woman came to go in to Sovereign Aḥashwērosh after she had completed twelve months according to the regulations for the women – for the days of their preparation were completed as follows: six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with perfumes and with the preparations of women –

13 thus prepared, the young woman went to the sovereign, and whatever she asked for was given to take with her from the house of the women to the sovereign’s palace.

14 In the evening she went, and in the morning she returned to the second house of the women, into the hand of Sha’ashgaz, the sovereign’s eunuch, guardian of the concubines. She would not come in to the sovereign again unless the sovereign delighted in her and called for her by name.

15 And when the turn came for Estèr, the daughter of Abiha’yil the uncle of Mordeḵai, who had taken her as his daughter, to come in to the sovereign, she sought no matter but what Hēgai the sovereign’s eunuch, guardian of the women, advised. And Estèr found favour in the eyes of all who saw her.
16 And Estēr was taken to Sovereign Aḥashwērosh, into his royal palace, in the tenth month, which is the month of Tēḇēth, in the seventh year of his reign.
17 And the sovereign loved Estēr more than all the women, and she found favour and kindness in his eyes more than all the maidens. And he set the royal crown upon her head and made her sovereignty instead of Vashti.
18 And the sovereign made a great feast, the Feast of Estēr, for all his officials and servants. And he proclaimed a release in the provinces and gave gifts according to the means of a sovereign.
19 And when maidens were assembled a second time, Mordeḵai sat within the sovereign’s gate.
20 Estēr had not made known her relatives and her people yet, as Mordeḵai commanded her, for Estēr obeyed the command of Mordeḵai as when she was being raised by him.
21 In those days, while Mordeḵai sat within the sovereign’s gate, two of the sovereign’s eunuchs, Bīṭhan and Teresh, doorkeepers, were wroth and sought to lay hands on Sovereign Aḥashwērosh.
22 And the matter became known to Mordeḵai, who informed Sovereigness Estēr, and Estēr spoke to the sovereign in Mordeḵai’s name.
23 And when the matter was searched into, it was confirmed, and both were impaled on a stake. And it was written in the book of the annals in the presence of the sovereign.

3 After these events Sovereign Aḥashwērosh promoted Haman, son of Hammeḏatha the Aḵāmite, and exalted him and seated him higher than all the princes with him.
2 And all the sovereign’s servants who were in the sovereign’s gate bowed and did obeisance to Haman, for so the sovereign had commanded concerning him. But Mordeḵai would not bow or do obeisance.
3 And the sovereign’s servants who were in the sovereign’s gate said to Mordeḵai, “Why do you disobey the sovereign’s command?”
4 And it came to be, when they spoke to him daily and he would not listen to them, that they told Haman, to see whether the words of Mordeḵai would stand – for he had told them that he was a Yehudite.
5 And when Haman saw that Mordeḵai did not bow or do obeisance, Haman was filled with wrath.
6 But it was despicable in his eyes to lay hands on Mordeḵai alone, for they had informed him of the people of Mordeḵai. Therefore Haman sought to destroy all the Yehudim who were throughout all the reign of Aḥashwērosh, the people of Mordeḵai.
7 In the first month, which is the month of Nisan, in the twelfth year of Sovereign Aḥashwērosh, someone cast Pur – that is, the lot – before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, until it fell on the twelfth month, which is the month of Aḏar.
8 Haman then told Sovereign Aḥashwērosh, “There is a certain people scattered and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of your reign, whose laws are different from all people, and they do not do the sovereign’s laws. Therefore it is not in the sovereign’s interest to let them remain.
9 “If it pleases the sovereign, let a decree be written to destroy them, and let me pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who do the work, to bring it into the sovereign’s treasuries.”
10 And the sovereign took his signet ring from his hand and gave it to Haman, son of Hammeḏatha the Aḵāmite, the enemy of the Yehudim.
11 And the sovereign said to Haman, “The silver and the people are given to you, to do with them as seems good to you.”
12 And the sovereign’s scribes were called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and a decree was written according to all that Haman commanded – to the viceroys of the sovereign, and to the governors who were over each province, and to the officials of all people, to every province according to its writing, and to every people in their language. It was written in the name of Sovereign Aḥashšerōsh, and sealed with the sovereign’s signet ring.

13 And the letters were sent by the runners into all the sovereign’s provinces, to cut off, to slay, and to destroy all the Yehuḏīm, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month of Aḏar, and to plunder their possessions.

14 A copy of the writing, to be made law in every province, was published for all people, to be ready for that day.

15 The runners went out, hastened by the sovereign’s command, and the decree was given out in the citadel of Shushan. The sovereign and Haman then sat down to drink, but the city of Shushan was in confusion.

4 And Mordeḵai learned of all that had been done, and Mordeḵai tore his garments and put on sackcloth and ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried out with a loud and bitter cry.

2 And he went up to the front of the sovereign’s gate, for no one might enter the sovereign’s gate wearing sackcloth.

3 And in every province where the sovereign’s command and decree came, there was great mourning among the Yehuḏīm, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing. And many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

4 And Estĕr’s young women and eunuchs came and told her, and the sovereigness was deeply pained, and sent garments to Mordeḵai to wear, and to take away his sackcloth from him, but he refused.

5 And Estĕr called Ḥaṭaḵ, one of the sovereign’s eunuchs whom he had appointed to attend her, and she gave him a command concerning Mordeḵai, to learn what and why this was.

6 And Ḥaṭaḵ went out to Mordeḵai, to an open space of the city, in front of the sovereign’s gate.

7 And Mordeḵai told him all that befell him, and all about the silver that Haman promised to pay into the sovereign’s treasuries to destroy the Yehuḏīm.

8 And he gave him a copy of the written decree to destroy them, which was given at Shushan, to show it to Estĕr and explain it to her, and to command her to go in to the sovereign to make supplication to him, and plead before him for her people.

9 And Ḥaṭaḵ came and told Estĕr the words of Mordeḵai.

10 And Estĕr spoke to Ḥaṭaḵ, and gave him a command for Mordeḵai,

11 “All the sovereign’s servants and the people of the sovereign’s provinces know that any man or woman who goes into the inner court to the sovereign, who has not been called, he has but one law: to be put to death, except the one to whom the sovereign holds out the golden sceptre, who then shall live. But I have not been called to come in to the sovereign these thirty days.”

12 And they declared to Mordeḵai the words of Estĕr.

13 And Mordeḵai commanded them to answer Estĕr, “Do not think within yourself to escape in the sovereign’s palace any more than all the other Yehuḏīm.

14 “For if you keep entirely silent at this time, relief and deliverance shall arise for the Yehuḏīm from another place, while you and your father’s house perish. And who knows whether you have come to the reign for such a time as this?”

15 And Estĕr commanded to reply to Mordeḵai,

16 “Go, gather all the Yehuḏīm who are present in Shushan, and fast for me, and do not eat or drink for three days, night or day. I too, and my young women shall fast in the same way, then I shall go to the sovereign, which is against the law. And if I shall perish, I shall perish!”

17 Mordeḵai then went away and did according to all that Estĕr commanded him.

5 And it came to be on the third day that Estĕr put on royal apparel and stood in the inner court of the sovereign’s palace, in front of the sovereign’s house, while the sovereign sat on his royal throne in the royal house, opposite the entrance of the house.

2 And it came to be, when the sovereign saw Sovereigness Estèr standing in the court, that she found favour in his eyes, and the sovereign held out to Estèr the golden sceptre which was in his hand. And Estèr went near and touched the top of the sceptre.

3 And the sovereign said to her, “What is it, Sovereigness Estèr, and what is your request? Up to half my reign, and it is given to you!”

4 And Estèr answered, “If it pleases the sovereign, let the sovereign and Haman come today to the feast which I have prepared for him.”

5 And the sovereign said, “Get Haman at once, to do as Estèr has said.” Then the sovereign and Haman went to the feast which Estèr had prepared.

6 And the sovereign said to Estèr at the feast of wine, “What is your petition? And it is given you. And what is your request? Up to half my reign, and it is done!”

7 And Estèr answered and said, “My petition and request is this:

8 “If I have found favour in the eyes of the sovereign, and if it pleases the sovereign to give my petition and perform my request, then let the sovereign and Haman come to the feast which I make for them, and tomorrow I shall do according to the word of the sovereign.”

9 And Haman went out that day rejoicing and with a glad heart. But when Haman saw Mordekhai in the sovereign’s gate, and that he did not stand or tremble before him, he was filled with wrath against Mordekhai.

10 But Haman held himself in, and came to his house, and he sent and called for his friends and Zeresh his wife.

11 And Haman recounted to them the esteem of his wealth, and his many sons, and all in which the sovereign had promoted him, and how he had exalted him above the officials and servants of the sovereign.

12 And Haman said, “Besides, Estèr the sovereignty let no one but me come in with the sovereign to the feast which she prepared. And tomorrow too I am invited by her, along with the sovereign.

I see Mordekhai the Yehuḏite sitting at the sovereign’s gate.”

14 So his wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, “Let a stake be made, fifty cubits high, and in the morning speak to the sovereign that Mordekhai be impaled on it. And go with the sovereign to the feast, rejoicing.” And the word pleased Haman, and he had the stake made.

6 On that night the sleep of the sovereign fled, and he commanded to bring the book of the records of the annals. And they were read before the sovereign.

2 And it was found written that Mordekhai had told of Bīthana and Teresh, two of the sovereign’s eunuchs, the doorkeepers who had sought to lay hands on Sovereign Aḥashwĕrosh.

3 Then the sovereign said, “What has been done in value or in greatness to Mordekhai for this?” And the sovereign’s servants who attended him said, “Naught has been done for him.”

4 And the sovereign said, “Who is in the court?” Now Haman had come into the outer court of the sovereign’s palace to speak to the sovereign to impale Mordekhai on the stake that he had prepared for him.

5 And the sovereign’s servants said to him, “Look, Haman is standing in the court.” And the sovereign said, “Let him come in.”

6 And when Haman came in, the sovereign asked him, “What is to be done for the man whom the sovereign delights to value?” Now Haman thought in his heart, “Whom would the sovereign delight to value more than me?”

7 And Haman answered the sovereign, “For the man whom the sovereign delights to value,

8 let a royal robe be brought which the sovereign has worn, and a horse on which the sovereign has ridden, one with a royal crest placed on its head.

9 “And let this robe and horse be given into the hand of one of the sovereign’s most noble princes. Let them dress the man whom the sovereign delights to value. And make him ride on horseback through the city square, and proclaim before him, ‘Thus it is done to the man whom the sovereign delights to value!’”

10 And the sovereign said to Haman, “Hurry, take the robe and the horse, as you have spoken, and do so for Mordeḵai the Yehuḏite who sits in the sovereign’s gate. Let no word fail of all that you have spoken.”

11 And Haman took the robe and the horse, and robed Mordeḵai and led him on horseback through the city square, and proclaimed before him, “Thus it is done to the man the sovereign delights to value.”

12 Then Mordeḵai went back to the sovereign’s gate. But Haman hurried to his house, mourning and with covered head.

13 And when Haman related to his wife Zeresh and all his friends all that had befallen him, his wise men and his wife Zeresh said to him, “If Mordeḵai, before whom you have begun to fall, is from the seed of the Yehuḏim, you are not going to prevail against him but certainly fall before him.”

14 While they were still speaking with him, the sovereign’s eunuchs came, and hurried to bring Haman to the feast which Estephānōs had prepared.

7 And the sovereign and Haman came in, to drink with Sovereigness Estephānōs.

2 And again on the second day, at the feast of wine, the sovereign said to Estephānōs, “What is your petition, Sovereigness Estephānōs? And it is given to you. And what is your request? Up to half my reign, and it is done!”

3 And Sovereigness Estephānōs answered and said, “If I have found favour in your eyes, O sovereign, and if it pleases the sovereign, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request.

4 “For we have been sold, my people and I, to be cut off, to be slain, and to be destroyed. And if we had been sold as male and female slaves, I would have kept silent, although the adversary could not make up for the sovereign’s loss.”

5 Then Sovereign Aḥašwērōš asked Sovereigness Estephānōs, “Who is he, and where is he, whose heart is set to do so?”

6 And Estephānōs said, “The adversary and enemy is this evil Haman!” Then Haman was afraid before the sovereign and sovereignty.

7 And the sovereign, arising in his wrath from the feast of wine, went into the palace garden. And Haman remained before Sovereigness Estephānōs, pleading for his life, for he saw that evil had been decided against him by the sovereign.

8 And when the sovereign returned from the palace garden to the place of the feast of wine, Haman was falling on the couch where Estephānōs was. Then the sovereign said, “Also to ravish the sovereignty while I am in the house?” As the word left the sovereign’s mouth, they covered Haman’s face.

9 And Ġarānōḵah, one of the eunuchs, said to the sovereign, “Also, see the stake, fifty cubits high, which Haman made for Mordeḵai, who spoke good on behalf of the sovereign, you are not going to prevail against him but certainly fall before him.”

14 While they were still speaking with him, the sovereign’s eunuchs came, and hurried to bring Haman to the feast which Estephānōs had prepared.
who are in all the sovereign’s provinces.

6 “For how could I bear to see the evil coming to my people? Or how could I bear to see the destruction of my relatives?”

7 And Sovereign Ahâshwêrôsh said to Sovereigness Estêr and Morde¿ai the Yêhuáite, “Look, I have given Estêr the house of Haman, and they have impaled him on the stake because he laid his hand on the Yêhuáim.

8 “Now you write on behalf of the Yêhuáim, as it pleases you, in the sovereign’s name, and seal it with the sovereign’s signet ring. For a letter which is written in the sovereign’s name and sealed with the sovereign’s signet ring no one turns back.”

9 So the sovereign’s scribes were called at that time, in the third month, which is the month of Siwan, on the twenty-third day. And it was written, according to all that Morde¿ai commanded to the Yêhuáim, and to the viceroy, and the governors, and the princes of the provinces from India to Kush, a hundred and twenty-seven provinces, to every province in its own writing, to every people in their own language, and to the Yêhuáim in their own writing, and in their own language.

10 And he wrote in the name of Sovereign Ahâshwêrôsh, and sealed it with the sovereign’s signet ring, and sent letters by runners on horseback, riding on royal horses bred from speedy mares:

11 That the sovereign has granted to the Yêhuáim who were in every city to be assembled and stand for their lives – to cut off, to slay, and to destroy all the power of the people or province that would distress them, little children and women, and to plunder their possessions,

12 on one day in all the provinces of Sovereign Ahâshwêrôsh, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month of Aåar.

13 The copy of the writing to be made law in every province was announced to all the peoples, so that the Yêhuáim would be ready on that day to be avenged on their enemies.

14 The runners, riding on royal horses, went out, hastened and pressed on by the sovereign’s command. And the decree was given out in the citadel of Shushan.

15 And Morde¿ai went out from the presence of the sovereign wearing royal garments of blue and white, with a great crown of gold and a garment of fine linen and purple. And the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad.

16 For the Yêhuáim there was light and gladness and joy and value.

17 And in every province and in every city where the sovereign’s command and decree came, the Yêhuáim had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land were becoming Yêhuáim, for the fear of the Yêhuáim had fallen upon them.

9 And in the twelfth month, that is, the month of Aåar, on the thirteenth day, when the sovereign’s command and his decree came to be done, on the day that the enemies of the Yêhuáim had waited to overpower them, it turned around, so that the Yêhuáim overpowered those who hated them.

2 The Yêhuáim assembled in their cities, throughout all the provinces of Sovereign Ahâshwêrôsh to lay hands on those who sought their evil. And no one stood against them, because fear of them fell upon all people.

3 And all the officials of the provinces, and the viceroy, and the governors, and all those doing the sovereign’s work, helped the Yêhuáim, because the fear of Morde¿ai fell upon them.

4 For Morde¿ai was great in the palace of the sovereign, and his report spread into all the provinces, for this man Morde¿ai became greater and greater.

5 And the Yêhuáim smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, with slaughter and destruction, and did what they pleased to those who hated them.

6 And in the citadel of Shushan the Yêhuáim slew and destroyed five hundred men.

7 And they slew Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha,

8 and Poratha, and Aêalya, and Ariâtha,

9 and Parmashta, and Arisai, and Ariâdai, and Wayezatha,
the ten sons of Haman son of Hammeṭatha, the enemy of the Yehuḏim. But they did not lay a hand on the plunder.

11 On that day the number of those who were slain in the citadel of Shushan came before the sovereign.

12 And the sovereign said to Sovereigness Estēr, “The Yehuḏim have slain and destroyed five hundred men in the citadel of Shushan, and the ten sons of Haman. What have they done in the rest of the sovereign’s provinces? And what is your petition? And it is given to you. And what is your further request? And it is done.”

13 And Estēr said, “If it pleases the sovereign, let it be given to the Yehuḏim who are in Shushan to do again tomorrow according to today’s decree, and let Haman’s ten sons be impaled on the stake.”

14 And the sovereign commanded this to be done. And the decree was given in Shushan, and they impaled Haman’s ten sons.

15 And the Yehuḏim who were in Shushan also assembled on the fourteenth day of the month of Aḏar and they slew three hundred men at Shushan. But they did not lay a hand on the plunder.

16 And the rest of the Yehuḏim in the sovereign’s provinces assembled and stood for their lives, and to get rest from their enemies, and to slay seventy-five thousand of their enemies. But they did not lay a hand on the plunder.

17 That was on the thirteenth day of the month of Aḏar, and on the fourteenth day of the month they rested and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

18 But the Yehuḏim who were at Shushan assembled on the thirteenth day, as well as on the fourteenth day. And on the fifteenth day of the month they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.

19 Therefore the Yehuḏim of the villages who dwelt in the unwalled towns were making the fourteenth day of the month of Aḏar a good day of gladness and feasting, and for sending portions to one another.

20 And Mordeḵai wrote these matters and sent letters to all the Yehuḏim who were in all the provinces of Sovereign Aḥašśwĕrōsh, both near and far,

21 to establish among them, to observe the fourteenth and fifteenth days of the month of Aḏar, yearly,

22 as the days on which the Yehuḏim had rest from their enemies, as the month which was turned from sorrow to joy for them, and from mourning to a good day, that they should make them days of feasting and joy, of sending portions to one another and gifts to the poor.

23 And the Yehuḏim undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordeḵai had written to them,

24 because Haman, son of Hammeṭatha the Aḡaṭite, the adversary of all the Yehuḏim, had plotted against the Yehuḏim to destroy them, and had cast Pur – that is, the lot – to crush them and to destroy them.

25 But when she came before the sovereign, he commanded by letter that his evil plot which Haman had plotted against the Yehuḏim should return on his own head, and that he and his sons should be impaled on the stake.

26 Therefore they called these days Purim, after the name Pur. Therefore, because of all the words of this letter, what they had seen concerning this matter, and what had come upon them,

27 the Yehuḏim established and imposed it upon themselves and upon their seed and all who should join them, that without fail they should observe these two days every year, according to their writing and at their appointed time,

28 and that these days should be remembered and observed throughout every generation, every clan, every province, and every city, and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Yehuḏim, and that the remembrance of them should not cease from their seed.

29 And Sovereigness Estēr, the daughter of Aḇiḥayil, with Mordeḵai the Yehuḏite, wrote with all authority to confirm this second letter about Purim.

30 And Mordeḵai sent letters to all the Yehuḏim, to the hundred and twenty-seven provinces of the reign of Aḥašśwĕrōsh, words of peace and truth,

31 to establish these days of Purim at their appointed times, as Mordekaï the Yehudi and Sovereignness Estèr had established for them, and as they had established for themselves and their seed concerning matters of their fastings and lamenting.

32 And the decree of Estèr established these matters of Purim, and it was written in the book.

10 And Sovereign Ahashwèrosh laid compulsory labour on the land and the islands of the sea.

2 And all the acts of his power and his might, and the exact account of the greatness of Mordekaï, with which the sovereign made him great, are they not written in the book of the annals of the sovereigns of Media and Persia?

3 For Mordekaï the Yehudi was second to Sovereign Ahashwèrosh, and great among the Yehudiim and pleasing to his many brothers, seeking the good of his people and speaking peace to all his seed.
And in the first year of Koresh sovereign of Persia, that the word of יהוה by the mouth of ירמיה might be accomplished, יהוה stirred up the spirit of Koresh sovereign of Persia, to proclaim throughout all his reign, and also in writing, saying,

2 “Thus said Koresh sovereign of Persia, יהוה Elohim of the heavens has given me all the reigns of the earth. And He has commanded me to build Him a house in יְרוּשָׁלָיָם which is in יְהֻדָּה.

3 Who is among you of all His people? His Elohim be with him! And let him go up to יְרוּשָׁלָיָם, which is in יְהֻדָּה, and build the House of יהוה Elohim of יִשְׂרָאֵל – He is Elohim – which is in יְרוּשָׁלָיָם.

And whoever is left from all the places where he sojourns, let the men of his place help him with silver and gold, with goods and livestock, besides the voluntary offerings for the House of Elohim which is in יְרוּשָׁלָיָם.

5 And the heads of the fathers’ houses of יְהוּדָה and בִּנְיָמִין, and the priests and the לֵוִיטִים, with all those whose spirits Elohim had stirred, rose up to go up and build the House of יהוה which is in יְרוּשָׁלָיָם.

6 And all those round about them strengthened their hands with objects of silver and gold, with goods and livestock, and with valuables, besides all that was voluntarily offered.

7 And Sovereign Koresh brought out the utensils of the House of יהוה, which נבּוקדָנֶטֶסָר had taken from יְרוּשָׁלָיָם and put in the house of his mighty ones,

8 and Koresh sovereign of Persia brought them out by the hand of מיתרְדָט the treasurer, and counted them out to שְׁשֶׁבֶתסָר the leader of יְהוּדָה.

9 And this was their number: thirty gold dishes, one thousand silver dishes, twenty-nine knives,

10 thirty gold basins, next, four hundred and ten silver basins, one thousand other utensils.

11 All the utensils of gold and silver were five thousand four hundred. Shׁשֶּבֶתסָר took all of them with the exiles who were brought from בָּבֶל to יְרוּשָׁלָיָם.

2 And these are the sons of the province who came back from the captivity of the exiles, whom נבּוקדָנֶטֶסָר the sovereign of בָּבֶל had exiled to בָּבֶל, and who returned to יְרוּשָׁלָיָם and יְהוּדָה, each to his own city,

2 who came with זֶרְעְבָבֶאל: יִשְׁוָע, נְהֶמְיָה, סֶרָיָה, רְעֶלְיָה, מְרוֹדֶקְיָא, בִּלְשָׁן, מִסְּפָר, בִּזְגֵי, רְעָם, בַּאֲנָה.

The number of the men of the people of יִשְׂרָאֵל:

3 sons of פָּרֹש, two thousand one hundred and seventy-two;
4 sons of שֶפַּתְיָה, three hundred and seventy-two;
5 sons of אֲרָ, seven hundred and seventy-five;
6 sons of פַּתְח-מוֹאָ, of the sons of יֵשֶׁューָה and يוֹאָ, two thousand eight hundred and twelve;
7 sons of יֵלָמ, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four;
8 sons of זַטַּט, nine hundred and forty-five;
9 sons of זָקָא, seven hundred and sixty;
10 sons of בָּנִי, six hundred and forty-two;
11 sons of בָּבָי, six hundred and twenty-three;
12 sons of צָגוֹד, one thousand two hundred and twenty-two;
13 sons of אַדּונְיָאָמ, six hundred and sixty-six;
14 sons of בִּזְגֵי, two thousand and fifty-six;
15 sons of אַדִּין, four hundred and fifty-four;
16 sons of Atèr, of Ḥızqiyyah, ninety-eight;
17 sons of Bêtsai, three hundred and twenty-three;
18 sons of Yorah, one hundred and twelve;
19 sons of Ḥashum, two hundred and twenty-three;
20 sons of Gibbar, ninety-five;
21 sons of Bêth Leḥem, one hundred and twenty-three;
22 men of Netophah, fifty-six;
23 men of Anathoth, one hundred and twenty-eight;
24 sons of Azmaweth, forty-two;
25 sons of Qiryath Arim, Kephirah, and Be’ēroth, seven hundred and forty-three;
26 sons of Ramah and Geḇa, six hundred and twenty-one;
27 men of Miḵmas, one hundred and twenty-two;
28 men of Bêth Ėl and Ai, two hundred and twenty-three;
29 sons of Neḇo, fifty-two;
30 sons of Maḡbish, one hundred and fifty-six;
31 sons of the other Ėylam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four;
32 sons of Ḥarim, three hundred and twenty;
33 sons of Loḏ, Ḥaḏid, and Ono, seven hundred and twenty-five;
34 sons of Yeriḥo, three hundred and forty-five;
35 sons of Sena’ah, three thousand six hundred and thirty.
36 The priests: sons of Yeḏayyah, of the house of Yeḏhua, nine hundred and seventy-three;
37 sons of Immēr, one thousand and fifty-two;
38 sons of Pashhur, one thousand two hundred and forty-seven;
39 sons of Ḥarim, one thousand and seventeen.
40 The Lēwites: sons of Yēshua and Qadmi’êl, of the sons of Hoḏawyah, seventy-four.
41 The singers: sons of Asaph, one hundred and twenty-eight.
42 Sons of the gatekeepers: sons of Shallum, sons of Atèr, sons of Talmon, sons of Aqqub, sons of Ḥatita, sons of Shōḥai, one hundred and thirty-nine in all.
43 The Nethinim: sons of Tsiḥa, sons of Ḥasupha, sons of Tabba’oth, 44 sons of Qĕros, sons of Si’aḥa, sons of Padoḵ,
45 sons of Leḇanah, sons of Ḥaḡäbah, sons of Aqqub,
46 sons of Ḥaḡaḇ, sons of Shamlai, sons of Ḥanan,
47 sons of Giddĕl, sons of Gaḥar, sons of Re’ayah,
48 sons of Retsin, sons of Neqoḏa, sons of Gazzam,
49 sons of Uzza, sons of Pasēḥa, sons of Bēsai,
50 sons of Asnah, sons of Me’unim, sons of Nephusim,
51 sons of Baqbuq, sons of Ḥaqupha, sons of Ḥarḥur,
52 sons of Batsluth, sons of Meḥiḏa, sons of Ḥarsha,
53 sons of Barqos, sons of Sisera, sons of Tēmaḥ,
54 sons of Netsiyah, sons of Ḥatipha.
55 Sons of Shelomoh’s servants: sons of Sotai, sons of Sophœrath, sons of PeRuḏa, 56 sons of Ya’ala, sons of Darqon, sons of Giddĕl, 57 sons of Shephatyah, sons of Ḥattil, sons of Piskeřeth of Tseba’yim, sons of Ami.
58 All the Nethinim and the children of Shelomoh’s servants were three hundred and ninety-two.
59 And these were those who came up from Tèl Meḥa, Tèl Ḥarsha, Kerub, Addan, Imměr; but they were unable to show their father’s house, and their seed, whether they were of Yisra’ēl:
60 sons of Dēlaw, sons of Toḇiyah, sons of Neqoḏa, six hundred and fifty-two;
61 and of the sons of the priests: sons of Ḫaḇayah, sons of Qoṭs, sons of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gil’aḏite, and was called by their name.
62 These sought their register among those who were counted by genealogy, but they were not found, so they were barred from the priesthood as defiled.
63 And the governor said to them that they should not eat of the most set-apart gifts until there stood up a priest with the Urim and Tummim.

64The entire assembly was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty,
65besides their male and female servants—these were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven. They also had two hundred men and women singers.
66Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules two hundred and forty-five, 67their camels four hundred and thirty-five, donkeys six thousand seven hundred and twenty.
68And some of the heads of the fathers’ houses, when they came to the House of 69which is in Yerushalayim, offered voluntarily for the House of Elohim, to establish it in its place.
70They gave according to their ability to the treasury for the work sixty-one thousand gold drachmas, and five thousand minas of silver, and one hundred priestly garments.
71And the priests and the Léwites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the Nethinim, dwelt in their cities, and all Yisra’el in their cities.

3 Now when the seventh month came,
2and the children of Yisra’el were in the cities, the people gathered as one man to Yerushalayim.
3And Yêshua son of YotsaÅaq and his brothers the priests, and Zerubbabel son of She’alti’êl and his brothers, arose and built the altar of the Elohim of Yisra’el, to offer burnt offerings on it, as it is written in the Torah of Mosheh, the man of Elohim.
4So they set the altar on its stands, being afraid of the peoples of the lands. And they offered burnt offerings on it to Elohim, both the morning and evening burnt offerings.
5And they performed the Festival of Booths, as it is written, and the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the right-ruling for each day, 6and afterward the continual burnt offering, and those for New Moons and for all the appointed times of Elohim that were set-apart, also for everyone who volunteered a voluntary offering to Elohim.
7From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer burnt offerings to Elohim. But the foundation of the Hekal of Elohim had not been laid.
8And they gave silver to the stonemasons and the carpenters, and food, and drink, and oil to the people of Tsídôn and Tsor to bring cedar logs from Lébannon to the sea at Yapho, according to the permission which they had from Koresh sovereign of Persia.
9And in the second month of the second year of their coming to the House of Elohim, to Yerushalayim, Zerubbabel son of She’alti’êl, and Yêshua son of YotsaÅaq, and the rest of their brothers the priests and the Léwites, and all those who had come out of the captivity to Yerushalayim, began, and they appointed the Léwites from twenty years old and above to oversee the work of the House of Elohim.
10And Yêshua stood up, his sons and his brothers, Qadmi’êl with his sons, the sons of YehuÅah together, to oversee those working on the House of Elohim: the sons of Henádâd with their sons and their brothers the Léwites.
11And when the builders laid the foundation of the Hekal of Elohim, they appointed the priests in their robes, with trumpets, and the Léwites, the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise Elohim, after the order of Dawîd sovereign of Yisra’el.
12And they responded by praising and giving thanks to Elohim, “For He is good, for His kindness towards Yisra’el is forever.” And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised Elohim, because the foundation of the House of Elohim was laid.
13And many of the priests and Léwites and heads of the fathers’ houses, the old men who had seen the first House, wept with a loud voice when the foundation of this House was laid before their eyes, and many shouted aloud for joy, shouted with a loud shout, and the sound was heard far away.

4 And when the adversaries of Yehuḏah and Binyamin heard that the sons of the exile were building the Hĕḵal of Elohim of Yisra’ĕl,

2 they came to Zerubbāḵel and the heads of the fathers’ houses and said to them, “Let us build with you, for we seek your Elohim as you do. And we have slaughtered to Him since the days of Âsarādôn sovereign of Ashshur, who brought us here.”

3 But Zerubbāḵel and Yĕshua and the rest of the heads of the fathers’ houses of Yisra’ĕl said to them, “It is not for you and for us to build a house for our Elohim, but we alone build to Elohim of Yisra’ĕl, as Sovereign Koresh the sovereign of Persia has commanded us.”

4 And it came to be that the people of the land were weakening the hands of the people of Yehuḏah and troubling them in their building,

5 and hiring counsellors against them to thwart their plans all the days of Koresh sovereign of Persia, even until the reign of Dareyawesh sovereign of Persia.

6 And in the reign of Aḥashwĕrosh, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Yehuḏah and Yerushalayim.

7 And in the days of Artaḥshashta, Bishlam, Mithreḵath, Taḇe’ĕl, and the rest of their companions wrote to Artaḥshashta sovereign of Persia. And the letter was written in Aramaic, and translated from Aramaic.

8 Reḵum the governor and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Yerushalayim to Sovereign Artaḥshashta, thus:

9 Reḵum the governor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions – the judges, and the emissaries, the consuls, the officials, the people of Ereḵ and of Babel and of Shushan, the Dehawites, the Ḥylmites,

10 and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnapper took into exile and settled in the cities of Shomeron and the rest beyond the River. And now,

11 this is a copy of the letter that they sent him, to Sovereign Artaḥshashta from your servants the men beyond the River. And now, 12 let it be known to the sovereign that the Yehuḏim who came up from you have come to us at Yerushalayim, and are building the rebellious and evil city, and are completing its walls and repairing the foundations.

13 Now let it now be known to the sovereign that, if this city is built and the walls completed, they are not going to pay tax, excise, or toll, and cause the revenue of the sovereign to suffer loss.

14 Now, because we have eaten salt from the palace, it was not fitting for us to see the sovereign’s shame. Therefore we have sent and informed the sovereign, 15 so that search be made in the book of the records of your fathers, and you find in the book of the records, and know, that this city is a rebellious city, and causing loss to sovereigns and provinces. And revolt was stirred up in it since days of old, for which cause this city was destroyed.

16 We inform the sovereign that if this city is rebuilt and its walls are completed, then you have no portion beyond the River.

17 The sovereign sent a message: To Reḵum the governor, and Shimshai the scribe, to the rest of their companions who dwell in Shomeron, and the rest beyond the River: Peace! And now, 18 the letter you sent to us has been plainly read before me.

19 And I made the decree, and a search has been made, and it was found that this city in days of old has lifted up itself against sovereigns, and that rebellion and revolt have been made in it.

20 And mighty sovereigns have been over Yerushalayim, who have ruled over all beyond the River. And tax, excise, and toll were paid to them.

21 Now, make a decree to make these men cease, and that this city be not built until the command is given by me.

22 And beware of negligence to do this. Why should damage increase to the hurt of the sovereigns?

23 Now when the copy of the letter of Sovereign Artasheshta was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in a hurry to Yerushalayim against the Yehudim, and made them cease by might and power.

24 Then the work of the House of Elah which is at Yerushalayim ceased, and it ceased until the second year of the reign of Dareyawesh sovereign of Persia.

Then the prophets, Haggai the prophet and Zechariah son of Iddo, prophesied to the Yehudim who were in Yehudah and Yerushalayim, in the Name of the Elah of Yisrael upon them.

2 Then Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Yehuda son of Yotsadaq rose up and began to build the House of Elah which is in Yerushalayim. And the prophets of Elah were with them, helping them.

3 At that time Tattenai the governor beyond the River and Shethar-Bozenai and their companions came to them and said this to them, “Who has made you a decree to build this House and to complete these walls?”

4 Then we told them what the names were of the men who were building this building.

5 And the eye of their Elah was upon the elders of the Yehudim, so that they could not make them cease until the matter went to Dareyawesh. And then they sent back a letter concerning this.

6 This is a copy of the letter that Tattenai, governor beyond the River and Shethar-Bozenai and their companions came to them and said this to them, “Who has made you a decree to build this House and to complete this wall?”

7 Then we told them what the names were of the men who were building this building.

8 And the eye of their Elah was upon the elders of the Yehudim, so that they could not make them cease until the matter went to Dareyawesh. And then they sent back a letter concerning this.

9 Then we asked those elders, saying this to them, “Who made you a decree to build this House and to complete these walls?”

10 And we also asked them their names, in order to inform you, so we could write the names of the men at their head.

11 And this is the answer they gave us, saying, “We are the servants of the Elah of heaven and earth, and we are rebuilding the House that was built many years ago, which a great sovereign of Yisrael built and completed.

12 “But because our fathers provoked the Elah of heaven, He gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar sovereign of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this House and exiled the people to Babylonia.

13 “But in the first year of Koresh sovereign of Babylonia, Koresh the sovereign made a decree to build this House of Babylonia.

14 “And also, the gold and silver utensils of the House of Elah, which Nebuchadnezzar had taken from the Hal that was in Yerushalayim and brought to the Hal of Babylonia, those Sovereign Koresh took from the Hal of Babylonia and they were given to one named Sheshbattsar, whom he had made governor,

15 and said to him, ‘Take these utensils, go, deposit them in the Hal in Yerushalayim, and let the House of Elah be built on its place.’

16 “Then the same Sheshbattsar came, laid the foundation of the House of Elah which is in Yerushalayim, and since that time even until now it has been in building, and it is not completed.”

17 And now, if it seems good to the sovereign, let a search be made in the sovereign’s treasure-house, which is there in Babylonia, whether it is so that a decree was made by Sovereign Koresh to build this House of Elah at Yerushalayim, and let the sovereign send us his decision concerning this.

Then Dareyawesh the sovereign made a decree, and a search was made in the house of the books wherein also the treasures of Babylonia were kept.

2 And at Aemetha, in the palace which is in the province of Media, a scroll was
The first year of Sovereign Koresh, Sovereign Koresh made a decree concerning the House of Elah at Yerushalayim, “Let the house be built in the place where they brought offerings, and its foundations strongly laid, its height sixty cubits, its width sixty cubits, three rows of heavy stones and one row of new timber. Let the expenses be paid from the sovereign’s house.

“Let the gold and silver utensils of the House of Elah, which Nebukadnèsttsar took from the Hèkal which is in Yerushalayim and brought to Baël, be returned and go to the Hèkal which is in Yerushalayim, to its place, and deposit them in the House of Elah,”

Now, Tattenai, governor beyond the River, and Shethar-Bozenai, and your companions the officials beyond the River, stay away from there. Leave the work of this House of Elah alone. Let the governor of the YehuÅim and the elders of the YehuÅim build this House of Elah on its place.

And I make a decree as to what you should do for the elders of these YehuÅim, for the building of this House of Elah: Let the exact expense be paid to these men from the sovereign’s resources, out of the taxes beyond the River, so that they are not stopped.

And whatever they need – both young bulls and rams, and lambs for the burnt offerings of the Elah of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the request of the priests who are in Yerushalayim – let it be given them day by day without fail, so that they bring pleasing offerings to the Elah of heaven, and pray for the life of the sovereign and his sons.

And I make a decree that whoever changes this word, let a timber be pulled from his house, and let him be impaled, hanged on it. And let his house be made a dunghill because of this.

And Elah, who has caused His Name to dwell there does overthrow any sovereign or people who put their hand to change, to destroy this House of Elah which is in Yerushalayim! I Dareyawesh make the decree – let it be done promptly.

Then Tattenai, governor beyond the River, Shethar-Bozenai, and their companions promptly did according to what Dareyawesh the sovereign had sent.

And the elders of the Yehuḏim were building, and they were blessed through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zeḵaryah son of Iddo. And they built and finished it, according to the decree of the Elah of Yisra’ël, and according to the decree of Koresh, and Dareyawesh, and Artahšashta sovereign of Persia.

And this House was completed on the third day of the month of Aḏar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Sovereign Dareyawesh.

Then the children of Yisra’ël, the priests and the Lèwites and the rest of the sons of the exile, did the dedication of this House of Elah with joy, and offered at the dedication of this House of Elah one hundred bulls, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs, and as a sin offering for all Yisra’ël twelve male goats, according to the number of the tribes of Yisra’ël.

And they appointed the priests to their divisions and the Lèwites to their divisions, over the service of Elah in Yerushalayim, as it is written in the Book of Mosheh.

And the sons of the exile performed the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month, for the priests and the Lèwites had cleansed themselves – all of them were clean. And they slaughtered the Passover for all the sons of the exile, and for their brothers the priests, and for themselves.

And the children of Yisra’ël who had returned from the exile ate together with all who had separated themselves from the uncleanness of the gentiles of the land in order to seek Elohim of Yisra’ël.

And they performed the Festival of Unleavened Bread seven days with joy, for Elohim caused them to rejoice, and turned the heart of the sovereign of Ashshur toward them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the House of Elohim, the Elohim of Yisra’el.

7 And after these events, in the reign of Artaḥshashta sovereign of Persia, Ezra son of Serayah, son of Azaryah, son of Hilqiyyah, son of Shallum, son of Tsādqōq, son of Aḥituḇ, son of Amaryah, son of Azaryah, son of Merayoth, son of Zeraḥyah, son of Uzzi, son of Buqqi, son of Abishua, son of Phineḥas, son of El’azar, son of Aharon the chief priest – this Ezra came up from Babēl. And he was a scribe, skilled in the Torah of Mosheh, which יהוה Elohim of Yisra’el had given. And the sovereign gave him all he asked, according to the hand of יהוה his Elohim upon him.

7 And some of the children of Yisra’el, and the priests, and the Lēwites, and the singers, and the gatekeepers, and the Nethinim came up to Yerushalayim in the seventh year of Sovereign Artaḥshashta.
8 And he came to Yerushalayim in the fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the sovereign.
9 For on the first day of the first month he began to go up from Babēl, and on the first day of the fifth month he came to Yerushalayim, according to the good hand of his Elohim upon him.

10 For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the Torah of יהוה, and to do it, and to teach laws and right-rulings in Yisra’el.
11 And this is the copy of the letter that Sovereign Artaḥshashta gave Ezra the priest, a perfect scribe of the law of the Elah of heaven.
12 Artaḥshashta, sovereign of sovereigns, to Ezra the priest, a perfect scribe of the law of the Elah of heaven. And now, 13 I make a decree that all those of the people of Yisra’el and the priests and Lēwites in my reign, who volunteer to go up to Yerushalayim, go with you.
14 Since you are being sent by the sovereign and his seven counsellors to inquire about Yehuḏah and Yerushalayim, with regard to the law of your Elah which is in your hand;
15 and to bring the silver and gold which the sovereign and his counsellors have voluntarily given to the Elah of Yisra’el, whose dwelling is in Yerushalayim,
16 and all the silver and gold that you find in all the province of Babēl, along with the gift of the people and the priests, voluntarily given for the House of their Elah in Yerushalayim,
17 therefore, with this silver promptly buy bulls, rams, lambs, with their grain offerings and their drink offerings, and offer them on the altar of the House of your Elah in Yerushalayim.
18 And whatever seems good to you and your brothers to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, do it according to the desire of your Elah.
19 And the utensils that are given to you for the service of the House of your Elah, put back before the Elah of Yerushalayim.
20 And the rest of the needs for the House of your Elah, which falls to you to give, give from the sovereign’s treasure-house.
21 And I, I Artaḥshashta the sovereign, do make a decree to all the treasurers who are beyond the River, that whatever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the Elah of heaven, does ask of you, let it be done promptly,
22 up to one hundred talents of silver, and up to one hundred kors of wheat, and up to one hundred baths of wine, and up to one hundred baths of oil, and salt without reckoning.
23 Whatever is commanded by the Elah of heaven, let it be diligently done for the House of the Elah of heaven. For why should there be wrath against the reign of the sovereign and his sons?
24 We further inform you that there is no authority to impose tax, excise, or toll on any of the priests and Lēwites, singers, gatekeepers, Nethinim, and servants of this House of Elah.
25 And you, Ezra, according to the wisdom of your Elah that is in your hand, appoint magistrates and judges to judge all the people who are beyond the River, all such as know the laws of your Elah. And teach those who do not know them.

26 And whoever does not do the law of your Elah and the law of the sovereign, let judgment be promptly executed on him, whether it be death, or banishment, or confiscation of goods, or imprisonment.

27 Blessed be יהוה Elohim of our fathers, who has put this in the sovereign’s heart, to embellish the House of יהוה which is in ירושלים, and has extended kindness to me before the sovereign and his counsellors, and before all the sovereign’s mighty princes. So I was strengthened, as the hand of יהוה my Elohim was upon me. And I gathered heads from יישrael to go up with me.

8 These are the heads of their fathers’ houses, and this is the genealogy of those who went up with me from בabel, in the reign of Sovereign אֲרַתְשֶׁהְשָׁשָׁתָה:

2 of the sons of פיניאס, גֵּרֶשׁום; of the sons of Ithamår, דָּנִי’ֵל; of the sons of דָּוִד, חַתְתָּשׁוּ;

3 of the sons of שֵׁכָנְיָהוּ, of the sons of פָּרֹשׁ, זֶכָרְיָהוּ, and registered with him were one hundred and fifty males;

4 of the sons of פָּתָח-מֹאָב, אֵלְיוֹהוֹ-יִפְטָנֵי son of Zeraיא, and with him two hundred males;

5 of the sons of שֶׁכָנְיָהוּ, the son of יָהָזִי’ֵל, and with him three hundred males;

6 and of the sons of אֲדִין, אֶבֶד son of יְהוֹנָתָן, and with him fifty males;

7 and of the sons of אֵיָלָם, יֶשֶׁתָּי בְּנֵי son of אֵתַי, and with him seventy males;

8 and of the sons of שְׁפָתָי, זוֹכָד-יָהוּ son of מִיקָא’ֵל, and with him eighty males;

9 of the sons of יוֹעָב, עוֹבָדְיָהוּ son of יְהֵי-י’ֵל, and with him two hundred and eighteen males;

10 and of the sons of שלומית, the son of יוסֵפִּי, and with him one hundred and sixty males;

11 and of the sons of בֶּבַי, זוֹכָד-יָהוּ son of בֶּבַי, and with him twenty-eight males;

12 and of the sons of אָזְגָד, יֹוָנָן בָּנָי of Haqqatan, and with him one hundred and ten males;

13 and of the last sons of אַדְוְנִיָכָם, whose names are these; אֶלֶיפֶהֶל, יֶעְי-י’ֵל, and שֶׁמֶה-יָהוּ, and with them sixty males;

14 and of the sons of בָּגָוֶי, עוֹתָי and זָבָבּו, and with them seventy males.

15 And I assembled them at the river that flows to Ahawa, and we camped there three days. And I looked among the people and the priests, and did not find any of the sons of לְוִי there.

16 Then I sent for אל’זר, for אַרְי-ל, for שֶׁמֶה-יָהוּ, and for יֵרָנ, and for מֵאֲלָה, and for מֶסְעָנָה, and for יְוָי-רָנ, and for נְתָא-ל, men of understanding.

17 And I gave them a command for אֵדְדָא the chief man at the place Kasiphya, and put in their mouth words to speak to אֵדְדָא and his brothers the Nethinim at the place Kasiphya, to bring us servants for the House of our Elohim.

18 Then, by the good hand of our Elohim upon us, they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of מַלְי son of לְוִי, son of יִשְרָאֵל, and שִׁר-יְהוּ, with his sons and brothers, eighteen;

19 and חָשֶׁב-יְהוּ, and with him יֶשֶׁת-יְהוּ, son of מֶרָר, his brothers and their sons, twenty;

20 and of the Nethinim, whom דָּוִד and the leaders had appointed for the service of the לְוִי, two hundred and twenty Nethinim, all of them designated by name.

21 I then proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahawa, to humble ourselves before our Elohim, to seek from Him the right way for us and our little ones and all our possessions,

22 for I was ashamed to ask of the sovereign a group of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy on the way, because we had spoken to the sovereign, saying, “The hand of our Elohim is upon all those for good who seek Him, but His power and His wrath are against all those who forsake Him.”

23 So we fasted and prayed to our Elohim for this, and He answered our prayer.
And I separated twelve of the leaders of the priests: Shĕrēḇyah, Ḥashabyah, and ten of their brothers with them;
and weighed out to them the silver, and the gold, and the utensils, the contribution for the House of our Elohim which the sovereign and his counsellors and his heads, and all Yisra’ĕl who were there, had presented.

Thus I weighed into their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver objects of one hundred talents, one hundred talents of gold, and twenty gold basins of a thousand drachmas, and two utensils of fine polished bronze, precious as gold.

And I said to them, “You are set-apart to יהוה, and the objects are set-apart. And the silver and the gold are a voluntary offering to יהוה Elohim of your fathers.
“Watch and guard them until you weigh them before the leaders of the priests and the Lĕwites and heads of the fathers’ houses of Yisra’ĕl in Yerushalayim, in the rooms of the House of יהוה.”

So the priests and the Lĕwites took the weight of the silver and the gold and the utensils, to bring them to Yerushalayim to the House of our Elohim.

Then we set out from the Ahawa River on the twelfth of the first month, to go to Yerushalayim. And the hand of our Elohim was upon us, and He delivered us from the hand of the enemy and from ambush along the way.
And when we came to Yerushalayim, we dwelt there three days.

And on the fourth day the silver and the gold and the utensils were weighed in the House of our Elohim by the hand of Merēmoth son of Uriyah the priest, and with him was El’azar son of Phineḥas. And with them were the Lĕwites, Yozabaḏ son of Yĕshua and No’aḏyah son of Binnui, with the number and weight of all. And all the weight was written down at that time.

The sons of the exile, who had come from the captivity, brought burnt offerings to the Elohim of Yisra’ĕl: twelve bulls for all Yisra’ĕl, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and twelve male goats as a sin offering – all as a burnt offering to יהוה.

And they gave the sovereign’s orders to the sovereign’s viceroys and the governors beyond the River. And they lifted up the people and the House of Elohim.

And when these matters had been done, the leaders came to me, saying, “The people of Yisra’ĕl and the priests and the Lĕwites have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, as to their abominations, those of the Kena’anites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Yeḇusites, the Ammonites, the Mo’aḇites, the Mitsrites, and the Amorites, for they have taken some of their daughters as wives for themselves and their sons, so that the set-apart seed is intermingled with the peoples of those lands. And the hand of the leaders and rulers has been foremost in this trespass.”

And when I heard this word, I tore my garment and my robe, and plucked out some of the hair of my head and beard, and sat down astonished.

Then all those who trembled at the words of the Elohim of Yisra’ĕl gathered to me, because of the trespass of the exiles, and I sat astonished until the evening offering.

And at the evening offering I rose from my affliction. And having torn my garment and my robe, I fell on my knees and spread out my hands to יהוה my Elohim, and said, “O my Elohim, I am too ashamed and wounded to lift up my face to You, my Elohim, for our crookednesses have risen higher than our heads, and our guilt has grown up to the heavens.
Since the days of our fathers to this day we have been very guilty, and for our crookednesses we, our sovereigns, and our priests have been given into the hand of the sovereigns of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to plunder, and to shame of faces, as it is this day.
“Since the days of our fathers to this day we have been very guilty, and for our crookednesses we, our sovereigns, and our priests have been given into the hand of the sovereigns of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to plunder, and to shame of faces, as it is this day.
“But now, for a short while, favour has been shown from יהוה our Elohim, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a peg in His set-apart place, that our Elohim might enlighten our eyes and give us a little reviving in our bondage.

9 “For we were slaves, but in our bondage our Elohim did not forsake us, and extended kindness to us in the presence of the sovereigns of Persia, to revive us, to raise up the House of our Elohim, to restore its ruins, and to give us a wall in Yehuḏah and Yerushalayim.

10 “And now, O our Elohim, what do we say after this? For we have forsaken Your commands, 11 which You have commanded by Your servants the prophets, saying, ‘The land which you are going in to possess is a land unclean through the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, by their abominations with which they have filled it, from one end to another, by their uncleanness.

12 ‘And now, do not give your daughters as wives for their sons, nor take their daughters to your sons. And do not seek their peace or wealth ever, so that you are strong, and shall eat the good of the land, and leave it as an inheritance to your children forever.’

13 “And after all that has come upon us for our evil deeds and for our great guilt, since You our Elohim have held back the rod upon our crookednesses, and have given us such deliverance as this,

14 should we turn back, to break Your commands, and join in marriage with the people of these abominations? Would You not be enraged with us until You had consumed us, so that there would be no remnant or survivor?

15 “O יהוה Elohim of Yisra’el, You are righteous, for we are left as a remnant, as it is this day. See, we are before You, in our guilt, for there is no one to stand before You concerning this!”

10 And while Ezra was praying, and while he was confessing, weeping, and bowing down before the House of Elohim, a very large assembly – men and women and children – gathered unto him from Yisra’el, for the people wept very bitterly.

2 And Sheḵanyah son of Yeḥi’el, one of the sons of Olam, spoke up and said to Ezra, “We have trespassed against our Elohim, and have taken foreign women from the peoples of the land. And now there is expectancy in Yisra’el concerning this.

3 “Now then, let us make a covenant with our Elohim to put away all these wives and those who have been born to them, according to the counsel of יהוה and of those who tremble at the command of our Elohim. And let it be done according to the Torah.

4 “Arise, for the matter is upon you, but we are with you. Be strong and act.”

5 And Ezra rose, and made the leaders of the priests, the Lâwites, and all Yisra’el, to swear to do according to this word. And they swore.

6 Then Ezra rose up from before the House of Elohim, and went into the room of YehoÁanan son of ElyashiÄ. And he went there – he ate no bread and drank no water for he mourned because of the trespass of the exiles.

7 And they passed a call throughout Yehuḏah and Yerushalayim to all the sons of the exile, to gather at Yerushalayim, and that whoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the leaders and elders, all his goods would be put under a ban, and himself separated from the assembly of the exiles.

8 Then all the men of Yehuḏah and Binyamin gathered at Yerushalayim within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth of the month. And all the people sat in the open space of the House of Elohim, trembling because of the matter and because of showers of rain.

9 And Ezra the priest stood up and said to them, “You, you have trespassed and have taken foreign women, adding to the guilt of Yisra’el.

10 “And now, make confession to יהוה Elohim of your fathers, and do His desire, and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land, and from the foreign women.”

11 “And all the assembly answered and said with a loud voice, “Right! It is upon us to do according to your word.
13 "But the people are many, and it is the season of showers of rain, and we are not able to stand outside. And the work not of one or two days, for we have greatly transgressed in this matter.

14 "Please, let the leaders of all the assembly stand. And let all those in our cities who have taken foreign women come at appointed times, together with the elders and judges of their cities, until the burning wrath of our Elohim is turned away from us in this matter."

15 Only Yonathan son of Asah’êl and Yahzeyyah son of Tiqwah opposed this, and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Léwite gave them support.

16 Then the sons of the exile did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain heads of the fathers’ houses, were separated by the fathers’ houses, each of them by name. And they sat down on the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter.

17 And they finished with all the men who had taken foreign women by the first day of the second month.

18 And among the sons of the priests who had taken foreign women were found of the sons of Yâshua son of YotsaÅaq, and his brothers: MaÈasÃyah, and EliÈezer, and YariÄ, and GeÅalyah.

19 And they gave their hand in pledge to put away their wives. And being guilty, they presented a ram of the flock for their guilt.

20 And of the sons of Immêr: Hânani and Zeªadyah;

21 and of the sons of Harím: Ma´asêyah, and Eliyyah, and Shemayah, and YeÊi’êl, and Uzziyah;

22 and of the sons of Pashhur: Eliyo’êynai, Ma´asêyah, Yishma’êl, Nethanê’l, Yoza-bâd, and El’asah.

23 And of the Léwites: Yozâbaêd, Shim’i, Qêlayah – he is Qelita – Pethahiyah, Yehu-dah, and Eli’ezer.

24 And of the singers: Elyashiêb. And of the gatekeepers: Shallum, and Telem, and Uri.

25 And of Yisra’êl of the sons of Parosh: Ramyâh, and Yizziyâh, and Malkiyyah, and Miyamin, and El’azar, and Malkiyyah, and Benayâh;

26 and of the sons of Éylam: Mattanyâh, Zekâryâh, and Yehi’êl, and Abdi, and Yerêmoth, and Éliyah;

27 and of the sons of Zattu: Eliyo’êynai, Elyashiêb, Mattanyâh, and Yerêmoth, and Zaêbaêd, and Aziza;

28 and of the sons of Bêbï: Yeho’êhanan, Hananyâh, Zabbâi, and Athlai;

29 and of the sons of Bani: Meshullam, Mallûk, and A’dâyah, Yashuêb, and She’al, Ramoth;

30 and of the sons of Pa’hath-Mo’ab: A’dna, and Kelal, Benayâh, Ma’asêyah, Mattanyâh, Betsal’êl, and Bînnui, and Menashsheh;

31 and of the sons of Harim: Eli’ezer, Yishshiyâh, Malkiyyah, Shemayah, Shim’ôn, 32 Binyamin, Mallûk, and Shemaryâh;

33 of the sons of Hashum: Mattenai, Mattattah, Zabaêd, Eliphelet, Yerêmaï, Menashsheh, and Shim’i;

34 of the sons of Bani: Ma’adai, Amram, and U’êl,

35 Benayâh, Bêdeyâh, Keluhu,

36 Wanyâh, Merêmoth, Elyashiêb,

37 Mattanayâh, Mattenai, and Ya’asu,

38 and Bani, and Bînnui, Shim’i,

39 and Shelemyâh, and Nathan, and A’dâyah,

40 Ma’knaêebai, Shashai, Sharai,

41 Azar’êl, and Shelemyahu, Shemaryâh,

42 Shallum, Amaryâh, and Yosêph;

43 of the sons of Nebo: Ye’i’êl, Mattitiyâh, Zaêbaêd, Zeˆbina, Yaddu, and Yo’êl, Benayâh.

44 All these had taken foreign women, and some of them had women who had borne children.
NEHEMAH

NEHEMIAH

1 The words of Neḥemyah son of Ḥaḵalyah. And it came to be in the month of Kislev, in the twentieth year, as I was in the citadel of Shushan,

2 that Ḥanani, one of my brothers, came with men from Yehuḏah. And I asked them concerning the Yehuḏim who had escaped, who had survived the captivity, and concerning Yerushalayim.

3 And they said to me, “The remnant who are left of the captivity in the province are there in great evil and reproach. And the wall of Yerushalayim is broken down, and its gates are burned with fire.”

4 And it came to be, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned for many days. And I was fasting and praying before the Elohim of the heavens,

5 and I said, “I pray, YHWH Elohim of the heavens, O great and awesome El, guarding the covenant and kindness with those who love You, and with those guarding Your commands,

6 please let Your ear be attentive and Your eyes open, to hear the prayer of Your servant which I am praying before You now, day and night, for the children of Yisra’el Your servants, and confess the sins of the children of Yisra’el which we have sinned against You. Both my father’s house and I have sinned.

7 “We have acted very corruptly against You, and have not guarded the commands, nor the laws, nor the right-rulings which You commanded Your servant Mosheh.

8 “Please remember the word that You commanded Your servant Mosheh, saying, ‘If you trespass, I shall scatter you among the peoples,

9 but if you shall turn back to Me, and guard My commands and do them, though you were cast out to the end of the heavens, I shall gather them from there, and bring them to the place which I have chosen, to make My Name dwell there.’

10 “And they are Your servants and Your people, whom You have redeemed by Your great power, and by Your strong hand.

11 “O YHWH, I pray, please let Your ear be attentive to the prayer of Your servant, and to the prayer of Your servants who delight to fear Your Name. And let Your servant prosper this day, I pray, and grant him compassion in the presence of this man.”

For I was cupbearer to the sovereign.

2 And it came to be in the month of Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artāshšāta the sovereign, when wine was before him, that I took the wine and gave it to the sovereign. And I had never been sad in his presence.

2 And the sovereign said to me, “Why is your face sad, since you are not sick? This is none else but sorrow of heart.” Then I was very much afraid,

3 and said to the sovereign, “Let the sovereign live forever! Why should my face not be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers’ tombs, lies waste, and its gates are burned with fire?”

4 And the sovereign said to me, “What are you asking for?” Then I prayed to the Elohim of the heavens,

5 and said to the sovereign, “If it seems good to the sovereign, let letters be given to me for the governors beyond the River, that they should let me to pass through till I come to Yehudah,

8 and a letter to Asaph the keeper of the sovereign’s forest, that he should give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace that belongs to the House, and for the city wall, and for the house I would enter.” And the sovereign gave them to me according to the good hand of my Elohim upon me.

9 Then I came to the governors beyond the River, and gave to them the letters of the sovereign. Now the sovereign had sent commanders of the army and horsemen with me.

10 And Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiyah the Ammonite official heard of it, and to them it was evil, a great evil that a man had come to seek good for the children of Yisra’el.

11 Then I came to Yerushalayim and was there three days.

12 And I rose up in the night, I and a few men with me, but informed no one what my Elohim had put in my heart to do at Yerushalayim, nor was there any beast with me, except the beast on which I rode.

13 And I went out by night through the Valley Gate to the Jackals’ Fountain and the Dung Gate, and examined the walls of Yerushalayim which were broken down and its gates which were burned with fire.

14 And I went on to the Fountain Gate and to the Sovereign’s Pool, but there was no room for the beast that was under me to pass.

15 And I went up in the night by the wadi, and examined the wall, and turned back, and entered by the Valley Gate, and returned.

16 And the deputy rulers did not know where I had gone nor what I had done. Nor had I yet informed the Yehudim, or the priests, or the nobles, or the deputy rulers, or the others who did the work.

17 Then I said to them, “You see the evil which we are in, how Yerushalayim lies waste, and its gates are burned with fire.
Come and let us build the wall of Yerushalayim, and let us no longer be a reproach.”

18 And I informed them of the hand of my Elohim which had been good upon me, and also of the sovereign’s words he had spoken to me. And they said, “Let us rise up and we shall build.” So they made their hands strong for good.

19 But when Sanballat the Horonite heard, and Tobiyah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arab, they mocked us and despised us, and said, “What is this you are doing? Are you rebelling against the sovereign?”

20 And I answered them, and said to them,
“The Elohim of the heavens, He shall bless us and let us, His servants, rise and build, but you have no portion or right or remembrance in Yerushalayim.”

3 And Elyashib the high priest rose up with his brothers the priests and built the Sheep Gate. They set it apart and set up its doors, even as far as the Tower of Hanan’el they set it apart, as far as the Tower of Hanane’el.

2 And next to him the men of Yeriho built. And next to them Zakkur son of Imri built.

3 And the sons of Hassena’ah built the Fish Gate, who laid its beams and set up its doors, its bolts and bars.

4 And next to them Meremoth son of Uriyah, son of Qots, made repairs. And next to them Meshullam son of Bereka’yah, son of Meshéyaza’el, made repairs. And next to them Tsaqoq son of Ba’ana made repairs.

5 And next to them the Teqowites made repairs, but their nobles did not put their shoulders to the work of their Master.

6 And Yehoya’dah son of Pas’éah and Meshullam son of Besodeyahu repaired the Old Gate. They laid its beams and set up its doors, and its bolts and bars.

7 And next to them Melatyah the Gib’onite, and Yadon the Méronothite, the men of Gib’on and Mitspah, repaired the official seat of the governor beyond the River.

8 Next to him Uzzi’el son of Harhayah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs. And next to him Hananyah, one of the perfumers, made repairs. And they restored Yerushalayim as far as the Broad Wall.

9 And next to them Rephayah son of Hur, ruler of half the district of Yerushalayim, made repairs.

10 And next to them Yeদayah son of Harumaph made repairs, even opposite his house. And next to him Ḥattush son of Ḥashabneyah made repairs.

11 Malkiyah son of Ḥarim and Ḥashshub son of Paḥath-Moʿab repaired another section, and the Tower of the Ovens.

12 And next to him Shallum son of Halloḥesh ruler of half the district of Yerushalayim made repairs, he and his daughters.

13 Ḥanun and the people of Zanowah repaired the Valley Gate. They built it, and set up its doors, its bolts and bars – and a thousand cubits of the wall as far as the Dung Gate.

14 And the Dung Gate was repaired by Malkiyah son of Rēḵaḇ, ruler of the district of Bēyth Hakkerem. He built it and set up its doors, its bolts and bars.

15 And the Fountain Gate was repaired by Shallun son of Kol-Ḥozeh, ruler of the district of Mitspah. He built it and covered it, and set up its doors, its bolts and bars – also the wall of the Pool of Shelaḥ by the Sovereign’s Garden, as far as the stairs going down from the City of Dawiḏ.

16 After him Neḥemayah son of Azbuq, ruler of half the district of Bēyth Tsur, made repairs as far as opposite the tombs of Dawiḏ, and to the man-made pool, and as far as the house of the mighty men.

17 After him the Lēwites, Reḥum son of Bani, made repairs. Next to him repaired Ḥashabonyah, ruler of half the district of Qeʿṭlah, for his district.

18 After their brothers, Bawwai son of Ḥenaḏaḏ, ruler of the other half of the district of Qeʿṭlah, made repairs.

19 And next to him Ezer son of Yēshua, the ruler of Mitspah, repaired another section before the going up to the armoury at the corner.

20 After him Baruḵ son of Zabbai eagerly repaired the other section, from the buttress to the door of the house of Elyashiḇ the high priest.

21 After him Merêmoṯ son of Uriyah, son of Qots, repaired another section, from the door of the house of Elyashiḇ to the end of the house of Elyashiḇ.

22 And after him the priests, the men of the neighbourhood, made repairs.

23 After him Binyamin and Ḥashshuḇ made repairs opposite their house. After them Azaryah son of Maʿaseyāyah, son of Ananyah, made repairs near his house.

24 After him Binnui son of Ḥenaḏaḏ repaired another section, from the house of Azaryah to the angle, even as far as the corner.

25 Palal son of Uzai made repairs opposite the corner, and on the tower which projects from the sovereign’s upper house that was by the courtyard of the prison. After him Pēdayah son of Parosh.

26 Now the Nethinim dwelt in Ophel as far as opposite the Water Gate toward the east, and on the projecting tower.

27 After him the Teqowites repaired another section, opposite the great projecting tower, and as far as the wall of Ophel.

28 Beyond the Horse Gate the priests made repairs, each opposite his own house.

29 After them Tsaḏqōq son of Immēr made repairs opposite his own house. After him Shemayah son of Sheḵanyah, keeper of the East Gate, made repairs.

30 After him Ḥananyah son of Shelemyah, and Ḥanun, the sixth son of Tsalaph, repaired another section. After him Meshullam son of Bereḵyah made repairs opposite his room.

31 After him Malkiyah, one of the goldsmiths, made repairs as far as the house of the Nethinim and of the merchants, opposite the Miphqaḏ Gate, and as far as the going up of the corner.

32 And between the going up of the corner to the Sheep Gate, the goldsmiths and the merchants made repairs.

4 And it came to be, when Sanballat heard that we were rebuilding the wall, that he was wroth and highly offended, and mocked the Yehuḏîm.

2 And he spoke before his brothers and the army of Shomeron, and said, “What are these feeble Yehudim doing? Are they going to restore, slaughter, complete it in a day? Are they going to bring to life the stones from the heaps of rubbish which are burned?”

3 And Tobiyah the Ammonite was beside him, and he said, “Whatever they build, if a fox should climb on it, he shall break down their stone wall.”

4 “Hear, O our Elohim, for we have become despised. And turn back their reproach on their own heads, and give them as a prey in a land of captivity!

5 “And do not cover over their crookedness, and do not let their sin be blotted out from before You, for they have provoked You before the builders.”

6 So we built the wall, and the entire wall was joined together up to the half of it, for the people had a heart to work.

7 And it came to be, when Sanballat and Tobiyah, and the Arabs, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdorites heard that the walls of Yerushalayim were being repaired and the broken places began to be filled, that they became very wroth,

8 and all of them conspired together to come to fight against Yerushalayim and to do harm to it.

9 But we prayed to our Elohim, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them.

10 And Yehudah said, “The strength of the burden bearers is weakening, and there is so much rubbish that we are unable to build the wall.”

11 And our adversaries said, “Let them not know or see it until we come into their midst and shall slay them, and cause the work to cease.”

12 And it came to be, when the Yehudim who dwelt near them came, that they said to us ten times, “From whatever place you turn, they are against us.”

13 So I set men behind the lower parts of the wall, at the openings – I set the people according to their clans, with their swords, their spears, and their bows.

14 And I looked, and rose up and said to the nobles, and to the deputy rulers, and to the rest of the people, “Do not be afraid of them. Remember the great and awesome, Elohim, and fight for your brothers, your sons and your daughters, your wives and your houses.”

15 And it came to be, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and that Elohim had brought their counsel to naught, that all of us returned to the wall, everyone to his work.

16 And it came to be, from that time on, that half of my servants were working in the work, while the other half were holding the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the breastplates. And the rulers were behind all the house of Yehudah,

17 who were building on the wall, and those bearing burdens, those loading, working with one hand in the work, and with the other holding a weapon.

18 As for the builders, each one had his sword girded at his side as he built. And the one who sounded the ram’s horn was beside me.

19 And I said to the nobles, and to the deputy rulers, and to the rest of the people, “The work is great and large, and we are separated far from one another on the wall.

20 In whatever place you hear the sound of the ram’s horn, join us there. Our Elohim fights for us.”

21 So we laboured in the work, and half of them held the spears from the break of day until the stars appeared.

22 At that time I also said to the people, “Let each man and his servant spend the night in Yerushalayim, and they shall be our guard by night, and for the work by day.”

23 So neither I, nor my brothers, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us took off our garments, each one his weapon even at the water.

5 And there was a great outcry of the people and their wives against their brothers, the Yehudim.

2 And there were some who were saying, “We, our sons, and our daughters are many. Let us get grain for them, and eat, and live.”

3 And there were some who were saying, “We have mortgaged our lands and vineyards and houses. Let us buy grain because of the scarcity of food.”

4 And there were those who were saying, “We have borrowed silver for the sovereign’s tax on our lands and vineyards.

5 “And now our flesh is like the flesh of our brothers, our children like their children. And see, we are subjecting our sons and our daughters to be slaves, and some of our daughters have already been subjected, and there is no power in our hands, for other men have our lands and vineyards.”

6 And it was very displeasing to me when I heard their outcry and these words.

7 And my heart ruled over me, and I strove with the nobles and with the deputy rulers, and said to them, “You are exacting interest, each one from his brother.” And I called a great assembly against them,

8 and said to them, “According to our ability we have redeemed our brothers, the YehuÅim, who were sold to the gentiles. And you even sell your brothers! Or should they be sold to us?” And they were silent and found not a word to say.

9 I also said, “What you are doing is not good. Should you not walk in the fear of our Elohim because of the reproach of the gentiles, our enemies?

10 “And also, I, my brothers and my servants, am lending them silver and grain. Please, let us leave off this interest!

11 “Please, give back to them, even today, their lands, their vineyards, their olive-trees, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the silver and of the grain, and of the new wine, and of the oil, that you have taken from them.”

12 And they said, “Let us give it back, and ask no more from them, we do as you say.” Then I called the priests, and made them swear to do according to this word.

13 I also shook out the fold of my garment and said, “Let Elohim in this way shake out each man from his house, and from his property, who does not do this word, even to be thus shaken out and emptied.” And all the assembly said, “Amën!” and praised יהוה. And the people did according to this word.

14 Also, from the day I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Yehuḏah, from the twentieth year until the thirty-second year of Sovereign Artaḥšashṭa, twelve years, neither I nor my brothers ate the governor’s food.

15 But the former governors who were before me laid burdens on the people, and took from them bread and wine, besides forty sheqels of silver. Their servants also oppressed the people, but I did not do so, because of the fear of Elohim.

16 And I also applied myself to the work on this wall. We did not buy any land. And all my servants were gathered there for the work.

17 And at my table were one hundred and fifty of the Yehuḏim and deputy rulers, besides those who came to us from the nations around us.

18 And that which was prepared for me daily was one ox and six choice sheep, and birds were prepared for me, and once every ten days plenty of all kinds of wine. And in spite of this I did not seek the governor’s food, because the bondage was heavy on this people.

19 O my Elohim, remember me for the good – all that I have done for this people.

6 And it came to be when Sanballat, and Tobiyah, and Geshem the Arab, and the rest of our enemies heard that I had rebuilt the wall, and that there were no breaks left in it – though at that time I had not set up the doors in the gates –

2 that Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, “Come, let us meet together in the villages in the plain of Ono.” But they were planning to do evil to me.

3 So I sent messengers to them, saying, “I am doing a great work, and I am unable to come down. Why should the work cease while I leave it and come down to you?”

4 However, they sent me the same word four times, and I answered them the same word.
Then Sanballat sent his servant to me with an open letter in his hand, the same word, the fifth time.

In it was written: Among the nations it has been heard, and Gashmu is saying, that you and the Yehudim are planning to rebel, therefore you are rebuilding the wall, and you are to be their sovereign – according to these words.

And you have also appointed prophets to proclaim concerning you at Yerushalayim, saying, ‘A sovereign is in YehuÅah!’ And now these words are heard by the sovereign. Therefore come now, and let us take counsel together.

Then I sent to him, saying, “There are no such matters done as you are saying, but you are inventing them in your own heart.”

For all of them were making us afraid, saying, “Let their hands slacken for the work, and it not be done.” But now, make my hands strong.

And when I came to the house of Shemayah son of Delayah, son of Meḥetab’ēl, who was restrained, he said, “Let us meet together in the House of Elohim, inside the Hÿal, and let us close the doors of the Hĕkal, for they are coming to slay you – by night they are coming to slay you.”

And I said, “Should a man like me flee? And who is there like me who would go into the Hĕkal to save his life? I do not go in!”

And see, I perceived that Elohim had not sent him, but that he spoke this prophecy against me because Toḇiyah and Sanballat had hired him – because he was a hireling – that I should be afraid, and do so, and shall sin, and so they could give me an evil name, to reproach me.

My Elohim, remember Toḇiyah and Sanballat, according to these works of theirs, and the prophetess No’adyah and the rest of the prophets who would have made me afraid.

And the wall was completed on the twenty-fifth of the month of Elul, in fifty-two days.

And it came to be, when all our enemies heard, and all the nations around us saw, that they fell greatly in their own eyes, and knew that this work was done by our Elohim.

In those days the nobles of YehuÅah also sent many letters to Toḇiyah, while those of Toḇiyah came to them.

For many in YehuÅah were sworn to him, because he was the son-in-law of Sheḵanyah son of Araĥ, and his son Yehoḥanan had married the daughter of Meshullam son of Bereḵyah.

They were also speaking about his good deeds before me, and reported my words to him. Toḇiyah sent letters to frighten me.
Bišwai, Nehum, Ba’anah. The number of the men of the people of Yisra’el:

8 sons of Parosh, two thousand one hundred and seventy-two;
9 sons of Shephatyah, three hundred and seventy-two;
10 sons of Araź, six hundred and fifty-two;
11 sons of Paḥath-Mo’ab, of the sons of Yêshua and Yo’ab, two thousand eight hundred and eighteen;
12 sons of Êylam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four;
13 sons of Zattu, eight hundred and forty-five;
14 sons of Zakkai, seven hundred and sixty;
15 sons of Binnui, six hundred and forty-eight;
16 sons of Bêšai, six hundred and twenty-eight;
17 sons of Azgaḏ, two thousand three hundred and twenty-two;
18 sons of Aḏoniqam, six hundred and sixty-seven;
19 sons of Bigwai, two thousand and sixty-seven;
20 sons of Aḏin, six hundred and fifty-five;
21 sons of Atër of Ḥizqiyah, ninety-eight;
22 sons of Ḥashum, three hundred and twenty-eight;
23 sons of Bêtsai, three hundred and twenty-four;
24 sons of Ḥariph, one hundred and twelve;
25 sons of Gib’on, ninety-five;
26 men of Bêyth Lehem and Netophah, one hundred and eighty-eight;
27 men of Anathoth, one hundred and twenty-eight;
28 men of Bêyth Azmaweth, forty-two;
29 men of Qiryath Ye’arim, Kephirah, and Be’eroth, seven hundred and forty-three;
30 men of Ramah and Geḇa, six hundred and twenty-one;
31 men of Miḵmas, one hundred and twenty-two;
32 men of Bêyth Ėl and Ai, one hundred and twenty-three;
33 men of the other Neḇo, fifty-two;
34 sons of the other Êylam, one thousand two hundred and fifty-four;
35 sons of Ḥarim, three hundred and twenty;
36 sons of Yeriḥo, three hundred and forty-five;
37 sons of Lod, Ḥaḏiq, and Ono, seven hundred and twenty-one;
38 sons of Sena’āh, three thousand nine hundred and thirty.
39 The priests: sons of Yeḏayahu, of the house of Yêshua, nine hundred and seventy-three;
40 sons of Immēr, one thousand and fifty-two;
41 sons of Pashhur, one thousand two hundred and forty-seven;
42 sons of Ḥarim, one thousand and seventeen.
43 The Lēwites: sons of Yêshua, of Qaḏmi’ēl, of the sons of Hoḏewah, seventy-four.
44 The singers: sons of Asaph, one hundred and forty-eight.
45 The gatekeepers: sons of Shalum, sons of Atër, sons of Talmon, sons of Aqquḵ, sons of Ḥatita, sons of Shōbāi, one hundred and thirty-eight.
46 The Nethinim: sons of Tsiḥa, sons of Ḥasupha, sons of Tabba’oth,
47 sons of Qēyros, sons of Si’a, sons of Padoḵ,
48 sons of Lēḇanah, sons of Ḫaḡaḇa, sons of Salmai,
49 sons of Ḥanan, sons of Giddēl, sons of Gaḡar,
50 sons of Re’ayah, sons of Retsin, sons of Neqoḏa,
51 sons of Gazzam, sons of Uzza, sons of Pasēḵaḥ,
52 sons of Bēṣai, sons of Me’unim, sons of Nephishesim,
53 sons of Baqbuq, sons of Ḥaqupha, sons of Ḥarḥur,
54 sons of Batslith, sons of Meḥiḏa, sons of Ḥarsha,
55 sons of Barqos, sons of Siserah, sons of Temaḵ,
56 sons of Netsiyah, and sons of Ḥatipha.
57 The sons of Shelomoh’s servants: sons of Sotai, sons of Sophereuth, sons of Periḏa, 58 sons of Ya’ala, sons of Darqon, sons of Giddel, 59 sons of Shephatyah, sons of Ḥattil, sons of Pkoreth of Tsebayim, sons of Amon.
60 All the Nethinim, and the sons of Shelomoh’s servants, were three hundred and ninety-two.
61 And these were the ones who came up from Tél Melah, Tél Ḥarsha, Kerûb, Addon, and Immēr, but they were unable to show their father’s house, and their seed, whether they were of Yisra’el:
62 sons of Delayah, sons of Tobiyah, sons of NeqoÅa, six hundred and forty-two.
63 And of the priests: sons of ÀaÅayah, sons of Qots, sons of Barzillai, who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gil’adite, and was called by their name.
64 These sought their register among those who were counted by genealogy, but it was not found, so they were barred from the priesthood as defiled.
65 And the governor said to them that they should not eat of the most set-apart gifts until a priest stood up with the Urim and Tummim.
66 All the assembly together was forty-two thousand three hundred and sixty,
67 besides their male and female servants, these were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven. And they had two hundred and forty-five men and women singers.
68 Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six, their mules two hundred and forty-five,
69 camels four hundred and thirty-five, donkeys six thousand seven hundred and twenty.
70 And some of the heads of the fathers’ houses contributed to the work. The governor gave to the treasury one thousand gold drachmas, fifty basins, and five hundred and thirty priestly garments.
71 Some of the heads of the fathers’ houses gave to the treasury of the work twenty thousand gold drachmas, and two thousand two hundred silver minas.
72 And the rest of the people gave twenty thousand gold drachmas, two thousand silver minas, and sixty-seven priestly garments.
73 So the priests, and the Lēwites, and the gatekeepers, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinim, and all Yisra’el dwelt in their cities.

8 And when the seventh month came, the children of Yisra’el were in their cities. And all the people gathered together as one man in the open space that was in front of the Water Gate. And they spoke to Ezra the scribe to bring the Book of the Torah of Mosheh, which הוהי had commanded Yisra’el.
2 And Ezra the priest brought the Torah before the assembly of both men and women and all who could hear with understanding, on the first day of the seventh month.
3 And he read from it in the open space in front of the Water Gate from morning until midday, before the men and women and those who could understand. And the ears of all the people listened to the Book of the Torah.
4 And Ezra the scribe stood on a platform of wood which they had made for the purpose. And beside him on his right stood Mattithyah, and Shema, and Anayah, and Uriyah, and Hîlqiyah, and Ma’as’éyah. And on his left stood Pe’dayah, and Misha’el, and Malkiyah, and Hashum, and Hashbaddanah, Ze’karyah, Meshullam.
5 And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people, for he was above all the people. And when he opened it, all the people stood up.
6 And Ezra blessed יהוה, the great Elohim. Then all the people answered, “Amēn, Amēn!” while lifting up their hands. And they bowed their heads and worshipped יהוה with faces to the ground.
7 And Yēshuah, and Bani, and Shērēbyah, Yamin, Aqqub, Shabhethai, Hodiyah, Ma’as’éyah, Qelita, Azarya’yah, Yozab’ad, Hanan, Pelayah, and the Lēwites, caused the people to understand the Torah while the people were in their place.
8 And they read in the Book of the Torah of Elohim, translating to give the sense, and caused them to understand the reading.
9 And Nehemiah, who was the governor, and Ezra the priest, the scribe, and the Levites who taught the people said to all the people, “This day is set-apart to your Elohim. Do not mourn or weep.” For all the people wept when they heard the words of the Torah.

10 Then he said to them, “Go, eat the fat, drink the sweet, and send portions to those for whom none is prepared. For this day is set-apart to our Elohim. Do not be sad, for the joy of Elohim is your strength.”

11 And the Levites were silencing all the people, saying, “Hush, for the day is set-apart, do not be sad.”

12 And all the people went to eat and to drink, and to send portions and make a great rejoicing, because they understood the words that were made known to them.

13 And on the second day the heads of the fathers’ houses of all the people, with the priests and Levites, were gathered to Ezra the scribe, in order to study the words of the Torah.

14 And they found written in the Torah, which Elohim had commanded by Mosheh, that the children of Yisra’el should dwell in booths in the festival of the seventh month,

15 and that they should announce and proclaim in all their cities and in Yerushalayim, saying, “Go out to the mountain, and bring olive branches, branches of oil trees, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of leafy trees, to make booths, as it is written.”

16 So the people went out and brought them and made themselves booths, each one on the roof of his house, and in their courtyards and in the courtyards of the House of Elohim, and in the open space of the Water Gate and in the open space of the Gate of Ephrayim.

17 And the entire assembly of those who had come back from the captivity made booths and sat under the booths, for since the days of Yeshua son of Nun until that day the children of Yisra’el had not done so. And there was very great rejoicing.

18 And day by day, from the first day until the last day, he read from the Book of the Torah of Elohim. And they performed the festival seven days. And on the eighth day there was an assembly, according to the right-ruling.

9 And on the twenty-fourth day of this month the children of Yisra’el were assembled with fasting, and in sackcloth, and with earth on them.

2 And the descendants of Yisra’el separated themselves from all foreigners, and stood and confessed their sins, and the crookednesses of their fathers,

3 and they stood up in their place and read from the Book of the Torah of Elohim a fourth part of the day, and a fourth part they were confessing and worshipping Elohim.

4 Then Yeshua and Bani, Qadmi’eł, Shebanyah, Bunni, Sherebyah, Bani, Kenani stood on the stairs of the Levites and cried out with a loud voice to Elohim.

5 Then the Levites, Yeshua and Qadmi’eł, Bani, Hashaøneyah, Sherebyah, Hoqiyah, Shebanyah, Pethahiyah, said, “Rise, bless Elohim forever and ever! And let them bless Your esteemed Name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise!

6 “You are Elohim, You alone. You have made the heavens, the heavens of the heavens, with all their host, the earth and all that are on it, the seas and all that are in them, and You give life to them all. And the host of the heavens are bowing themselves to You.

7 “You are Elohim, the Elohim who chose Abram, and brought him out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gave him the name of Abraham,

8 and found his heart trustworthy before You, and made a covenant with him to give the land of the Kena’anites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Yebusites, and the Girgashites – to give it to his seed. And You have established Your words, for You are righteous,

9 and saw the affliction of our fathers in Mitsrayim, and heard their cry by the Sea of Reeds,
10 And gave signs and wonders against Pharaoh, and against all his servants, and against all the people of his land. For You knew that they acted proudly against them. And You made a Name for Yourself, as it is this day.

11 "And You split the sea before them, and they passed over into the midst of the sea on the dry land. And their pursuers You threw into the deep as a stone into the mighty waters.

12 "And You led them by day with a cloudy column, and by night with a column of fire, to give them light in the way they were to go.

13 "And You came down on Mount Sinai, and spoke with them from the heavens, and gave them straight right-rulings and Torah of truth, a good laws and commands.

14 "And You made known to them Your set-apart Sabbath, and You commanded them commands and laws and Torot b by the hand of Mosheh Your servant.

15 "And You gave them bread from the heavens for their hunger, and brought them water out of the rock for their thirst, and said to them to go in to possess the land which You had sworn to give them.

16 "But they and our fathers acted proudly, and hardened their necks, and did not obey Your commands.

17 "And they refused to obey, and they remembered not Your wonders that You did among them, and hardened their necks, and in their rebellion they appointed a leader to return to their bondage. But You are a forgiving Eloah, showing favour, and compassionate, patient, and of great kindness, and did not forsake them.

18 "Even when they made a moulded calf for themselves, and said, 'This is your mighty one that brought you up out of Mitsrayim,' and worked great blasphemies, 19 yet You, in Your great compassion did not forsake them in the wilderness. The column of the cloud did not turn away from them by day to lead them on the way, nor the column of fire by night to give them light in the way they were to go.

20 “You also gave Your good Spirit to instruct b them, and did not withhold Your manna from their mouth, and gave them water for their thirst.

21 “And for forty years You sustained them in the wilderness – they lacked not. Their garments did not wear out and their feet did not swell.

22 “And You gave them reigns and peoples, and apportioned them their lot. So they took possession of the land of Sïlon, and the land of the sovereign of Êeshbon, and the land of Og sovereign of Bashan.

23 “And You increased their children as the stars of the heavens, and brought them into the land which You had said to their fathers to go in and possess.

24 “So the sons went in and possessed the land, and You humbled before them the people of the land, the Kena‘anites, and gave them into their hands, with their sovereigns and the people of the land, to do with them as they desired.

25 “And they captured walled cities and a rich land, and possessed houses filled with all good, cisterns already dug, vineyards, and olive-trees, and fruit trees, in plenty. So they ate and were satisfied and grew fat, and delighted themselves in Your great goodness.

26 “But they became disobedient and rebelled against You, and cast Your Torah behind their backs. And they slew Your prophets who had warned them, to bring them back to Yourself. And they worked great blasphemies.

27 “Therefore You gave them into the hand of their enemies, who distressed them. And in the time of their distress, when they cried to You, You heard from the heavens. And according to Your great compassion You gave them saviours who saved them from the hand of their enemies.

28 “But after they had rest, they turned back to do evil before You. Then You left them in the hand of their enemies, so that they ruled over them. But when they turned back and cried out to You, You heard from the heavens, and delivered them according to Your compassion, many times, 29 and warned them, to bring them back to Your Torah. But they acted proudly, and did not obey Your commands, and sinned against Your right-rulings, ‘which if a man does, he shall live by them.’ And they gave the rebellious shoulder and hardened their necks, and would not hear.

30 “And You had patience with them for many years, and did warn them by Your Spirit, by the hand of Your prophets, yet they would not give ear. Therefore You gave them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.

31 “But in Your great compassion You did not make an end of them nor forsake them, for You are an El of favour and compassion.

32 “And now, our Elohim, the great, the mighty, and awesome El, guarding the covenant and the kindness, let not all the trouble that has come upon us, our sovereigns and our heads, our priests and our prophets, our fathers and on all Your people, from the days of the sovereigns of Ashshur until this day, seem little before You.

33 “And in all that has come upon us You are righteous, for You have done truth, but we have done wrong.

34 “And our sovereigns, our rulers, our priests, and our fathers, have not done Your Torah, nor heeded Your commands and Your witnesses, with which You witnessed against them.

35 “For they have not served You in their reign, or in Your great goodness that You gave them, or in the large and rich land which You set before them – neither turned back from their evil deeds.

36 “See, we are servants today! And the land that You gave to our fathers, to eat its fruit and the good of it, see, we are servants in it!

37 “And its rich yield goes to the sovereigns You have set over us, because of our sins. And they rule over our bodies and our livestock at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.

38 “And because of all this, we are making a trustworthy pledge, and write it. And our rulers, our Léwites, our priests set their seal on it.”

10 And those who set their seal were:

NeÁemyah the governor, son of Ḥaκalyah, and Ṭsiḏqiyyah,
Serayah, Azaryah, Yirmeyah,
Pashhur, Amaryah, Malkiyah,
Ḥattush, Sheḇanyah, Malluḵ,
Ḥarim, Merĕmoth, Ohadyah,
Dani’èl, Ginnetteth, Baruḵ,
Meshullam, Abiyah, Miyamin,
Ma’azyah, Bilgai, and Shemayah.
These were the priests.

And the Léwites: both Yêshua son of Atsanyah, Binnui of the sons of Ḥenaḏad, Qaḏmi’èl.

And their brothers: Sheḇanyah, Ḥodi-yah, Qelita, Pelayah, Ḥanan, Miḱa, Reḥoḥ, Ḥashbabahy,
Zakkur, Shērēbyah, Sheḇanyah,
Ḥodiyyah, Bani, and Beniu.

The leaders of the people: Parosh, Paḥath-Mo’ab, Éylam, Zattu, Bani, Bunni, Azgaḏ, Bê vai,
Aḏoniyah, Bigwai, Aḏin,
Atër, Ḥiẓqiyyah, Azzur,
Ḥodiyyah, Ḥushum, Bêtsai,
Ḥariph, Anathoth, Nêbai,
Maḏpi’ash, Meshullam, Ḥezir,
Meshēyazab’èl, Tsadoq, Yaddua,
Pelatyah, Ḥanan, Anayah,
Hoshēa, Ḥananah, Ḧashshub,
Ḥallhoḵesh, Pilha, Shôḇèq,
Reḥum, Ḥašhaḇnah, Ma’asêyah,
Aḥiyah, Ḥanan, Anan,
Malluḵ, Ḥarim, Ba’anah.

And the rest of the people, the priests, the Léwites, the gatekeepers, the singers, the Nethinim, and all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands unto the Torah of Elohim, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, all —Way. 18:5, Mt. 19:17, Lk. 10:28 & Yn. 12:50.

who had knowledge and understanding, 29 were joining with their brothers, their nobles, and were entering into a curse and into an oath to walk in the Torah of Elohim, which was given by Mosheh the servant of Elohim, and to guard and do all the commands of הוהי our Master, and His right-rulings and His laws, 30 and that we would not give our daughters as wives to the peoples of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons, 31 and that if the peoples of the land bring wares or any grain to sell on the Sabbath day, we would not buy it from them on the Sabbath, or on a set-apart day, and we would forego the seventh year and the interest of every hand.
32 And we imposed commands on ourselves, to give from ourselves yearly one-third of a sheqel for the service of the House of our Elohim:
33 for the showbread, and for the continual grain offering, and for the continual burnt offering of the Sabbaths, of the New Moons, for the appointed times, and for the set-apart offerings, and for the sin offerings to make atonement for Yisra’el, and all the work of the House of our Elohim.
34 And we cast lots among the priests, and the Lěwites, and the people, for bringing the wood offering into the House of our Elohim, according to our fathers’ houses, at the appointed times year by year, to burn on the altar of הוהי our Elohim as it is written in the Torah,
35 and to bring the first-fruits of our soil and the first-fruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, to the House of הוהי;
36 also to bring the first-born of our sons and our livestock, as it is written in the Torah, and the firstlings of our herds and our flocks, to the House of our Elohim, to the priests attending in the House of our Elohim.
37 And that we should bring the first-fruits of our dough, and our contributions, and the fruit from all kinds of trees, of new wine and of oil, to the priests, to the storerooms of the House of our Elohim; and the tithes of our land to the Lěwites; for the Lěwites should receive the tithes in all our rural towns.
38 And the priest, son of Aharon, shall be with the Lěwites when the Lěwites receive tithes, and the Lěwites bring up a tenth of the tithes to the House of our Elohim, to the rooms of the storehouse.
39 For the children of Yisra’el and the children of Lěwi bring the offering of the grain, of the new wine and the oil, to the storerooms where the vessels of the set-apart place are, where the priests who attend and the gatekeepers and the singers are, and we should not neglect the House of our Elohim.

11 Now the rulers of the people dwelt at Yerushalayim, and the rest of the people cast lots to bring one out of ten dwell in Yerushalayim, the set-apart city, and nine-tenths were to dwell in other cities.
2 And the people blessed all the men who volunteered to dwell at Yerushalayim.
3 And these are the heads of the province who dwelt in Yerushalayim, but in the cities of YehuÅah everyone dwelt in his own possession in their cities – Yisra’el the priests, and the Lěwites, and the Nethinim, and the sons of Shelomoh’s servants.
4 And in Yerushalayim dwelt certain of the children of YehuÅah and of the children of Binyamin. Of the children of YehuÅah: Athayah son of Uzziyah, son of Ze¿aryah, son of Amaryah, son of Shephatyah, son of Mahalal’Ãl, of the children of Perets;
5 and MaÈasÃyah son of Baru¿, son of Kol-Àozeh, son of Àazayah, son of AÅayah, son of YoyariÄ, son of Ze¿aryah, son of Shiloni.
6 All the sons of Perets who dwelt at Yerushalayim were four hundred and sixty-eight brave men.
7 And these are the sons of Binyamin:
Sallu son of Meshullam, son of YowÈÃÅ, son of Zeñaryah, son of Amaryah, son of Shephatyah, son of Mahalal’Ãl, of the children of Perets;
8 and Ma’asèyah son of Baruñ, son of Kol-Àozeh, son of Òazayah, son of Àadjah, son of Yoyariñ, son of Zeñaryah,
son of Shiloni.
6 All the sons of Perets who dwelt at Yerushalayim were four hundred and sixty-eight brave men.
7 And these are the sons of Binyamin:
Sallu son of Meshullam, son of YowÈÃÅ, son of Peñaryah, son of Qolayah, son of Ma’asèyah, son of Ithi’Ãl, son of Yeshayah;
8 and after him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred and twenty-eight.
9 And Yo’Ãl son of Zikri was their overseer, and Yehudah son of Senuah was second over the city.

10 Of the priests: Ye'ayah son of Yoyarih, Yakin,
11 Serayah son of Hilqiyah, son of Meshullam, son of Tsadq, son of Merayoth, son of Ahitub, was the leader of the House of Elohim.

12 And his brothers who did the work of the House were eight hundred and twenty-two; and Adayah son of Yeroham, son of Pelayah, son of Amsi, son of Ze'karyah, son of Pashhur, son of Malkiyah, 13 and his brothers, mighty brave ones, were one hundred and twenty-eight. And their overseer was Zabdi'el, son of the great ones.

15 Also of the Lwites: Shemayah son of Hashshu'el, son of Azriqam, son of Hashabyah, son of Bunni; and Shabbethai and Yoza'ad, of the heads of the Lwites, over the outside work of the House of Elohim;
16 and Mattanyah son of Mi'ka, son of Zabdi, son of Asaph, who was the leader who began the thanksgiving with prayer, and Baqbuqyah the second among his brothers, and A'ada son of Shammua, son of Galal, son of Ye'uduthun.

18 All the Lwites in the set-apart city were two hundred and eighty-four.

19 And the gatekeepers, Aqqu'el, Talmon, and their brothers keeping guard at the gates, were one hundred and seventy-two. And the rest of Yisra'el, of the priests, Lwites, were in all the cities of Yehudah, each one in his inheritance.

21 But the Nethinim dwell in Ophel. And Tsi'ha and Gishpa were over the Nethinim.

22 And the overseer of the Lwites at Yerushalayim was Uzzi son of Bani, son of Hashabyah, son of Mattanyah, son of Mi'ka. Of the sons of Asaph, the singers were over the work of the House of Elohim, 23 for the sovereign’s command was upon them – and support for the singers, a matter day by day.

24 And Pethalhyah son of Mesheyzab'el, of the children of Zera'h son of Yehudah, was the sovereign’s deputy in all matters concerning the people.

25 And at the villages with their fields, some of the children of Yehudah dwelt in Qiryath Arba and its villages, and in Di'ron and its villages, and in Yeqatse'el and its villages,
26 and in Yeshua, and in Moladah, and in B'eth Pelet,
27 and in Hatsar Shu'al, and in Be'ersheba and its villages,
28 and in Tsiquaq, and in Me'konah and its villages,
29 and in En Rimmon, and in Tsor, and in Yarmuth,
30 Zanowah, A'dullam, and their villages; in Lakish and its fields; in Azeqah and its villages. So they dwelt from Be'ersheba to the Valley of Hinnom.

31 And the children of Binyamin: from Ge'ba, Mi'kmash, and Ayyah, and B'ith El, and their villages;
32 Anathoth, No'el, Ananyah;
33 Hatsor, Ramah, Gittayim;
34 Ha'diq, Tshebo'im, Neballat;
35 Lod, and Ono, and the Valley of Craftsman.

36 And of the Lwites, the divisions of Yehudah were for Binyamin.

12 And these were the priests and the Lwites who came up with Zerubbabel son of She'alti'el, and Yeshua: Serayah, Yirmeyah, Ezra,
2 Amaryah, Malluk, Hattush,
3 Shekanyah, Rehum, Meremoth,
4 Iddo, Ginmethoi, Abiyah,
5 Miyamin, Ma'a'dyah, Bilgah,
6 Shemayah, and Yoyarih, Ye'ayah,
7 Sallu, Amoq, Hilqiyyah, and Ye'ayah.

These were the heads of the priests and their brothers in the days of Yeshua.
8 And the Lwites: Yeshua, Binnui, Qadm'imel, Sherebyah, Yehudah, Mattanyah over the thanksgiving, he and his brothers.
9 And Baqbuqyah and Unni, their brothers, were opposite them for guard duties.
10 And Yeshua brought forth Yoyaqim, and Yoyaqim brought forth Elyashiḇ, and Elyashiḇ brought forth Yoyaḏa,
11 and Yoyaḏa brought forth Yonathan, and Yonathan brought forth Yaddua.
12 And in the days of Yoyaqim, the priests, the heads of the fathers’ houses were: of Serayah, Merayah; of Yirmeyah, Hananyah;
13 of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amaryah,
Yehoḏanah;
14 of Meliku, Yonathan; of Sheḇanyah,
Yosēph;
15 of Ḥarim, Aḏna; of Merayoṯ, Ḥelqai;
16 of Iddo, Zeḵaryah; of Ginnethon,
Meshullam;
17 of Abiyaḏ, Ziḵri, son of Minyamin; of Mo’adyaḏ, Piltai;
18 of Bilgah, Shammua; of Shemayah,
Yehonathan;
19 of Yoyariḏ, Mattenai; of Yeḏayah,
Uzzi;
20 of Sallai, Qallai; of Amoq, Eḇer;
21 of Hilqiyaḥ, Ḥašaḇyāḥ. And of Yeḏayah, Nethan’ĕl.
22 The Lēwites and priests in the days of Elyashiḇ, Yoyaḏa, Yohanan, and Yaddua, were recorded heads of their fathers’ houses, also the priests in the reign of Dareyawesh the Persian.
23 The sons of Lēwi, the heads of the fathers’ houses until the days of Yohanan son of Elyashiḇ, were written in the book of the annals.
24 And the heads of the Lēwites were Hashabyah, Shērēbyah, and Yēshua son of Qāmi’ĕl, with their brothers opposite them, to praise, to give thanks, watch opposite watch, according to the command of Dawiḏ the man of Elohim.
25 Mattanyah, and Baqbuqyah, Oḇaḏyah, Meshullam, Talmun, Aqquḇ were gatekeepers guarding at the storerooms of the gates.
26 These were in the days of Yoyaqim son of Yēshua, son of Yotsadaq, and in the days of Neḥemyah the governor, and of Ezra the priest, the scribe.
27 And at the dedication of the wall of Yerushalayim they sought out the Lēwites in all their places, to bring them to Yerushalayim to perform the dedication with gladness, and with thanksgivings, and with singing, cymbals, harps and lyres.
28 And the sons of the singers gathered together from the countryside around Yerushalayim, from the villages of the Netophathites,
29 and from the house of Gilgal, and from the fields of Geḇa and Azmaweth – for the singers had built themselves villages all around Yerushalayim.
30 And the priests and Lēwites cleansed themselves, and they cleansed the people, and the gates, and the wall.
31 And I brought the rulers of Yehuḏah up on the wall, and appointed two large thanksgiving choirs, to go to the right on the wall toward the Dung Gate, 32 and after them went Hoshayyah and half of the rulers of Yehuḏah,
33 then Azaryaḥ, Ezra, and Meshullam, Yehuḏah, and Binyamin, and Shema-yah, and Yirmeyah,
34 and of the sons of the priests with trumpets: Zeḵaryah son of Yonathan, son of Shemayah, son of Mattanyah, son of Miḵayah, son of Zakkur, son of Asaph,
35 and his brothers Shemayah and Azar’ĕl, Milalai, Gilalai, Ma’ai, Nethan’ĕl, and Yehuḏah, Ḥanani with instruments of songs of Dawiḏ the man of Elohim, with Ezra the scribe before them.
36 And at the Fountain Gate and straight ahead of them, they went up the stairs of the City of Dawiḏ, on the stairway of the wall, beyond the house of Dawiḏ, as far as the Water Gate eastward.
37 And the other thanksgiving choir went over against them, and I behind them with half of the people on the wall, going past the Tower of the Ovens as far as the Broad
Wall,
38 and above the Gate of Ephrayim, and above the Old Gate, and above the Fish
Gate, and the Tower of Ḥanan’ĕl, and the
Tower of the Hundred, as far as the Sheep
Gate. And they stood still at the Gate of the Prison.
39 and above the Gate of Ephrayim, and above the Old Gate, and above the Fish
Gate, and the Tower of Ḥanan’ĕl, and the
Tower of the Hundred, as far as the Sheep
Gate. And they stood still at the Gate of the Prison.
40 Then the two thanksgiving choirs took their stand in the House of Elohim, and I and half of the deputy rulers with me,
41 and the priests, Elyaqim, Ma’asēyah,
Minyamin, Mikayah, Elyo‘ynai, Zeqaryah, and Hananyah, with trumpets, 42 and Ma‘asəyəh, and Shemayah, and El‘azar, and Uzzi, and Yehoḥanan, and Malkiyah, and Eylaym, and Ezer. And the singers sang aloud, with Yizraḥyəh in charge.
43 And on that day they brought great offerings and rejoiced, for Elohim had made them rejoice with great joy. And the women and the children also rejoiced, so that the joy of Yerushalayim was heard far away.
44 And on that day some were appointed over the rooms for the stores, for the contributions, for the first-fruits, and for tithes, to gather into them from the fields of the cities the portions required by the Torah for the priests and for the Ləwites. For Yehuḏah rejoiced over the priests and the Ləwites who stood up.
45 Both the singers and the gatekeepers guarded the charge of their Elohim and the charge of the cleansing, according to the command of Dawiḏ and Shelomoh his son.
46 For in the days of Dawiḏ and Asaph of old there were chiefs of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to Elohim.
47 And in the days of Zerubbaḇel and in the days of Neḥemyah all Yisra‘el gave the portions for the singers and the gatekeepers, a portion for each day. And they set apart what was for the Ləwites and the Ləwites set apart what was for the children of Aharon.
13 On that day was read from the Book of Mosheh in the hearing of the people, and in it was found written that an Ammonite and Mo‘abite should not come into the assembly of Elohim forever,
2 because they had not met the children of Yisra‘el with bread and water, and hired Bil‘am against them to curse them, although our Elohim turned the curse into a blessing.
3 And it came to be, when they had heard the Torah, that they separated all the mixed multitude from Yisra‘el.
4 And before this, Elyashiḇ the priest, having authority over the storerooms of the House of our Elohim, was a relative of Tobiyah,
5 and he had prepared for him a large room, where previously they had stored the grain offerings, the frankincense, and the utensils, and the tithes of grain, the new wine and the oil, which were commanded to be given to the Ləwites and the singers and the gatekeepers, and the contributions for the priests.
6 But in all this I was not in Yerushalayim, for in the thirty-second year of Artahshashta sovereign of Baḇel I came to the sovereign. And after some days I asked leave from the sovereign to return,
7 and I came to Yerushalayim and learned of the evil which Elyashiḇ had done for Tobiyah, in preparing a room for him in the courts of the House of Elohim.
8 And it was very displeasing to me. Therefore I threw all the household goods of Tobiyah out of the room,
9 and I commanded them to cleanse the rooms. And I put back into them the utensils of the House of Elohim, with the grain offering and the frankincense.
10 And I learned that the portions for the Ləwites had not been given them, for each of the Ləwites and the singers who did the work had gone back to his field.
11 Then I contended with the deputy rulers, and said, “Why is the House of Elohim forsaken?” And I gathered them together and set them in their place.
12 And all Yehuḏah brought the tithe of the grain and the new wine and the oil to the storehouse.
13 And I appointed as treasurers over the storehouse Shelemyah the priest and Tsaqoq the scribe, and Peḏayyah of the Ləwites. And next to them was Ḥanan son of Zakkur, son of Mattanyah. For they were reckoned trustworthy, and it was on them to distribute to their brothers.
14 Remember me, O my Elohim, concerning this, and do not wipe out my kind deeds that I have done for the House of my Elohim, and for its charges!
15 In those days I saw in Yehuḏah those treading wine presses on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and loading donkeys with wine, grapes, and figs, and all kinds of burdens, which they brought into Yerushalayim on the Sabbath day. So I warned them on the day they sold food.

16 And men of Tsor dwelt there, bringing in fish and all kinds of goods, and sold them on the Sabbath to the children of Yehudah, and in Yerushalayim.

17 Then I contended with the nobles of Yehuđah, and said to them, “What evil matter is this that you are doing, profaning the Sabbath day?

18 “Did not your fathers do the same so that our Elohim brought all this evil on us and on this city? Yet you bring added wrath on Yisra’el by profaning the Sabbath.”

19 And it came to be, at the gates of Yerushalayim, as it began to be dark before the Sabbath, that I commanded the gates to be shut, and commanded that they should not be opened till after the Sabbath. And I stationed some of my servants at the gates, so that no burdens would be brought in on the Sabbath day.

20 And the merchants and sellers of all kinds of wares spent the night outside Yerushalayim once or twice,

21 and I warned them, and said to them, “Why do you spend the night around the wall? If you do so again, I lay hands on you!” From that time on they came no more on the Sabbath.

22 And I commanded the Lēwites that they should cleanse themselves, and they should come, guarding the gates, to set apart the Sabbath day. Remember me, O my Elohim, concerning this also, and pardon me according to the greatness of Your kindness!

23 In those days I also saw Yehuđim who had married women of Ashdoּd, Ammon, Moʻāb.

24 And half of their children spoke the language of Ashdoּd, and could not speak the language of Yehuđah, but spoke according to the language of one or the other people.

25 Then I contended with them and cursed them, and smote some of them and pulled out their hair, and made them swear by Elohim, saying, “You do not give your daughters as wives to their sons, nor take their daughters for your sons or yourselves.

26 “Did not Shelomoh sovereign of Yisra’el sin because of them? Among the many nations there was no sovereign like him, who was beloved of his Elohim, and Elohim made him sovereign over all Yisra’el. Even him foreign women caused to sin.

27 “Should we then hear of your doing all this great evil, trespassing against our Elohim by marrying foreign wives?”

28 And one of the sons of Yoyaֵa, son of Elyashib the high priest, was a son-in-law of Sanballat the Hōronite. And I drove him from me.

29 Remember them, O my Elohim, because they have defiled the priesthood and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Lēwites.

30 Thus I cleansed them from all that is foreign. And I appointed duties to the priests and the Lēwites, each in his task, 31 and for the wood offering and the first-fruits at appointed times. Remember me, O my Elohim, for good!

1 AÅam, ShÃth, Enosh,
2 QÃnan, Mahalal’êl, YereÇ,
3 Àano¿, MethushelaÁ, LemeÇ,
4 NoaÁ, ShÃm, Êam, and Yepheth.
5 The sons of Yepheth: Gomer, and MaÍoÍ, and MaÅai, and Yawan, and TuÄal, and MesheÇ, and Tiras.
6 And the sons of Gomer: Ashkenaz, and Diphath, and ToÄarmah.
7 And the sons of Yawan: Elishah and

17 The sons of ShÃm: Êylam, and Asshur, and ArpaÄkshaÁd, and LuÇ, and Aram, and Uts, Hul, and Gether, and MesheÇ.
18 And ArpaÄkshaÁd brought forth ShelaÁ, and ShelaÁh brought forth Êber.
19 To Êber were born two sons: the name of one was PeleÇ, for in his days the earth was divided, and his brother’s name was Yoqtan.
20 And Yoqtan brought forth AlmoÇaÇd, and Sheleph, and Êatsarmaweth, and YeraÁh,
21 and HaÄdoram, and Uzal, and Diqlah,
22 and Êybal, and AÄimaÇél, and ShebaÇ,
23 and Êphir, and Êawilah, and YoÄbaÇ.
All these were the sons of Yoqtan.
24 ShÃm, ArpaÄkshaÁd, ShelaÁh,
25 Êber, PeleÇ, ReÇu,
26 SeruÇ, NaÄhor, TeraÁh,
27 and Abram, that is Abraham.
28 The sons of Abraham: Yitsåaq and YishmaÇél.
29 These are their genealogies: The first-born of YishmaÇél was ÊebayoÁth, and QÇøÁr, and AÄbêÇél, and MiÁsam,
30 Mishma, and Dumah, and Massa,
HadaÁd, and Téma,
31 Yetur, Naphish, and QÇdémah. These were the sons of YishmaÇél.
32 And the sons born to Qeturah,
Abraham’s concubine: Zimran, and Yoqshan, and MeÁdan, and Midyan, and YishbaÁq, and ShuwaÁ. The sons of Yoqshan: ShebaÇ and DeÇdan.
33 And the sons of Midyan: Éphah, and Èpher, and Êanok, and AÄïÇaÇ, and EldaÁâ. All these were the children of Qeturah.
34 And Abraham brought forth Yitsåaq.
The sons of Yitsåaq: Êisaw and YisraÇél.
35 The sons of Êisaw: Eliphaz, ReÇuÁwÇél, and YeÇush, and YaÊlam, and QoraÁ.
36 And the sons of Eliphaz: Téman, and Omar, Tsephi, and Gatam, and Qenaz, and Timna, and Amaleq.
37 The sons of ReÇuÁwÇél: NaÄhath, ZeraÁh,
Shammah, and Mizzah.
38 And the sons of SëíÇ: Lotan, and ShoÁbal, and TsibÁon, and Anah, and Dishon, and Étser, and Dishan.
39 And the sons of Lotan: Êori and Homam; Lotan’s sister was Timna.
40 The sons of ShoÁbal: AÄyan, and ManaÄâath, and Êybal, Shephi, and Onam.
The sons of TsibÁon: Ayah and Anah.
41 The son of Anah was Dishon. The sons of Dishon: Êämran, and Eshban, and Yithran, and Keran.
42 The sons of Étser: Bilhan, and Za’awan, and Ya’aqan. The sons of Dishan: Uts and Aran.
43 And these were the sovereigns who reigned in the land of Edom before any sovereign reigned over the children of Yisra’êl: Bela son of Be’or, and the name of his city was Dinhaâh.
44 And when Bela died, Yoâḇ son of Zeraḥ of Botsrah reigned in his place.
45 And Yoâḇ died, and Àusham of the land of the Têmanites reigned in his place.
46 And when Àusham died, HaåaÅ son of BeÅaÅ, who smote MiÅyan in the field of Mo’aḇ, reigned in his place. The name of his city was Awith.
47 And HaåaÅ died, and Samlah of Masrêqah reigned in his place.
48 And Samlah died, and Sha’ul of Rehoboth-by-the-River reigned in his place.
49 And Sha’ul died, and Samlah of Masrêqah reigned in his place.
50 And Samlah died, and Sha’ul of Masrêqah reigned in his place.
51 And Samlah died. And the chiefs of Edom were Chief Timnah, Chief Alyah, Chief Yethâth, 52 Chief Oholiâamah, Chief Àlah, Chief Pinon, 53 Chief Qenaz, Chief Têman, Chief Miâtsar,
54 Chief Maídi’ãl, and Chief Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom.

2 These were the sons of Yisra’êl: Re’úḇên, Shim’ôn, Lêwi and Yehuðah, Yissasêkar and Zeôbulun,
2 Dan, Yoséph and Binyamin, Naphtali, Gàq and Ashêr.
3 The sons of Yehuðah: Êr, and Onan, and Shêlah, the three born to him by the daughter of Shuwa, the Kena’anitess. And Êr, the first-born of Yehuðah, was evil in the eyes of HWHY, and He slew him.
4 And Tamar, his daughter-in-law, bore him Perets and Zeraḥ. All the sons of Yehuðah were five.
5 The sons of Perets: Êtsron and Ê.hamul.
6 And the sons of Zeraḥ: Zimri, and Ê.ythan, and Hêman, and Kalkol, and Dara, five of them in all.
7 And the son of Karmi was Àkar, the troubler of Yisra’êl, who trespassed in that which was under the ban.
8 And the son of Ê.ythan was Azaryah.
9 And the sons of Êtsron who were born to him: Yeraḥme’êl, and Ram, and Keluḇai.
10 Ram brought forth Amminaḏâḇ, and Amminaḏâḇ brought forth Naḥshon, leader of the children of Yehuðah;
11 Naḥshon brought forth Salma, and Salma brought forth Bo’az;
12 Bo’az brought forth Oḇed, and Oḇed brought forth Yishai;
13 Yîshai brought forth forth Eliyâḇ his first-born, and Aḇînâḏâḇ the second, and Shim’a the third,
14 Netânê’l the fourth, Raddai the fifth,
15 Otsem the sixth, Dawîḏ the seventh.
16 And their sisters: Tseruyâh and Abîgayîl. And the sons of Tseruyâh: Abîshai, and Yo’âḇ, and Asah’êl, three.
17 And Abîgayîl bore Amasa. And the father of Amasa was Yether the Yish-ma’ëlite.
18 And Kâlêḇ son of Êtsron brought forth children by Azubâh, his wife, and by Yeriyoth. Now these were her sons: Yêsher, and Shôḇâb, and Ardon.
19 And Azûbâh died, and Kâlêḇ took Ephrath as his wife, who bore him Hûr.
20 And Hûr brought forth Uri, and Uri brought forth Betsal’êl.
21 And afterward Êtsron went in to the daughter of Maḵîr the father of Gil’âd, whom he took when he was sixty years old. And she bore him Sêgûb.
22 And Sêgûb brought forth Ya’ir, who had twenty-three cities in the land of Gil’âd.
23 And he took from them Geshur and Aram, with the towns of Ya’ir, with Qenath and its towns, sixty towns. All these belonged to the sons of Maḵîr the father of Gil’âd.
24 And after the death of Êtsron in Kâlêḇ
Ephrathah, Hetsron’s wife Abiyah bore him Ashhur the father of Téqowa.

25 And the sons of Yeraḥme’él the first-born of Hetsron were: Ram the first-born, and Bunah, and Oren, and Otsem, and Abiyah.

26 And Yeraḥme’él had another wife, whose name was Atarah; she was the mother of Onam.

27 And the sons of Ram, the first-born of Yeraḥme’él, were Ma’ats, and Yamin, and Ḑeqer.

28 And the sons of Onam were Shammai and Yada. And the sons of Shammai: Naḏab and Abishur.

29 And the name of the wife of Abishur was Abihayil, and she bore him Aḥban and Molid.

30 And the sons of Naḏab: Seleḏ and Appayim, and Seleḏ died without children.

31 And the son of Appayim was Yishi, and the son of Yishi was Sheshan, and the son of Sheshan was Aḥlai.

32 And the sons of Yada, the brother of Shammai: Yether and Yoḥan, and Yether died without children.

33 And the sons of Yoḥan: Peleth and Zaza. These were the sons of Yeraḥme’él.

34 And Sheshan had no sons, only daughters. And Sheshan had a Mitsrite servant whose name was Yarha.

35 And Sheshan gave his daughter to Yarha his servant as wife, and she bore him Attai.

36 And Attai brought forth Nathan, and Nathan brought forth Zabad, and Zabad brought forth Ephlal, and Ephlal brought forth Obed, and Obed brought forth Yehu, and Yehu brought forth Azaryah, and Azaryah brought forth Ḥelets, and Ḥelets brought forth El’asah, and El’asah brought forth Sismai, and Sismai brought forth Shalum, and Shalum brought forth Yeqamyah, and Yeqamyah brought forth Elishama.

37 And the sons of Kalėb the brother of Yeraḥme’él: Meysha his first-born, who was the father of Ziph, and the sons of Marēshah the father of Ḥebron.

38 And the sons of Ḥebron: Qoraḥ, and Tappuwaḥ, and Reqem, and Shema.

39 And Shema brought forth Raham the father of Yorqe’am, and Reqem brought forth Shammai.

40 And the son of Shammai was Ma’on, and Ma’on was the father of Bėyth Tsur.

41 And Ḑephah, Kalėb’s concubine, bore Ḥaran, and Motsa, and Gazez. And Ḥaran brought forth Gazez.

42 And the sons of Yahdai: Re’egem, and Yotham, and Geyshan, and Pelet, and Ḑephah, and Sha’aph.

43 Ma’akah, Kalėb’s concubine, bore Sheber and Tirhanah.

44 And she bore Sha’aph the father of Maḏmannah, Shewa the father of Maḵbena and the father of Giḇ’a. And the daughter of Kalėb was Aḵsah.

45 These were the descendants of Kalėb: The sons of Ḥur, the first-born of Ephrathah: Shoḥal the father of Qiryath Ye’aram, 46 Salma the father of Bėyth Leḥem, Ḥarēph the father of Bėyth Gaḏer.

47 And Shoḥal the father of Qiryath Ye’aram had descendants: Haro’eh, half of the Menuḥothites.

48 And the clans of Qiryath Ye’aram: the Yithrites, and the Puthites, and the Shumathites, and the Mishraites. From these came the Tsor’athites and the Eshta’olites.

49 The sons of Salma: Bėyth Leḥem, the Netophathites, Atroth Bėyth Yo’aḇ, and half of the Menaḥtites, and the Tsor’ites.

50 And the clans of the scribes who dwelt at Yaḇets: the Tirathites, the Shim’aṭhites, the Ṣuḵathites. These were the Qēynites who came from Ḥammath, the father of the house of Rėkāḇ.

And these were the sons of Daviḏ who were born to him in Ḥebron: The first-born was Ammon, by Aḥino’am the Yizre’elitess; the second, Dani’el, by Aḇigayil the Karmelitess;

2 the third, Aḇshalom son of Ma’akah, the daughter of Talmai, sovereign of Geshur; the fourth, Adoniyah son of Haggith;

3 the fifth, Shephatyah, by Aḇital; the sixth, Yithre’am, by his wife Eglah.
Six were born to him in Hebron. And he reigned there seven years and six months, and in Yerushalayim he reigned thirty-three years.

And these were born to him in Yerushalayim: Shim’a, and Shoḇab, and Nathan, and Shelomoh – four by Bathshua the daughter of Ammi’ēl.

Yīḇyar also, and Elis’hama, and Eliph-heel,

7 and Nogah, and Nepheḵ, and Yaphiya,

8 and Elis’hama, and Eyaḏa, and Eliph-heel, nine,

9 all the sons of Dawiḏ, besides the sons of the concubines, and Tamar their sister.

10 And Shelomoh’s son was Reḇaḇam, Aḇiyah his son, Asa his son, Yehoshaphat his son,

11 Yoram his son, Ḥazaẏahu his son, Yo’ash his son,

12 Amatsyahu his son, Azaryahu his son, Yoṯham his son,

13 Ḥaẓ his son, Ḥizqiyahu his son, Menashsheh his son,

14 Amon his son, Yoshiyah his son.

15 And the sons of Yoshiyahu: Yoḥanan the first-born, the second Yehoyaqim, the third Tsǐḏqiyyahu, the fourth Shallum.

16 And the sons of Yehoyaqim: Yeḵonyah his son and Tsǐḏqiyyahu his son.

17 And the sons of Yeḵonyah the captive: She’alī’tēl his son,

18 and Malkirah, and Peḏayahu, and Shenatssar, Yeqamyahu, Hoshama, and Neḏayah.

19 And the sons of Peḏayahu: Zerubbaḇel and Shim’i. The sons of Zerubbaḇel: Meshullam, and Ḥananyah, and Shelomith their sister, 20 and Ḥashuḇah, and Ohel, and Bereḵ-yah, and Ḥasadyahu, Yushah-Hesed, five.

21 And the sons of Ḥananyah: Pelatyahu and Yeshayahu, the sons of Řephayahu, the sons of Arnan, the sons of Oḇadyahu, the sons of Sheḵanyahu.

22 And the son of Sheḵanyahu: Shemayah. The sons of Shemayah: Ḥattush, and Yiḇ’al, and Bariyahu, and Ne’aryahu, and Shaphat, six.

23 And the sons of Ne’aryahu: Elyo’ėynai, and Ḥizqiyahu, and Azriqam, three.

24 And the sons of Elyo’ėynai: Hoḏawyah, and Elyashib, and Pelayah, and Aqquḇ, and Yoḥanan, and Delayah, and Anani, seven.

4 The sons of Yehuḏaḥ: Perets, Ḥetsron, and Karmi, and Ḥur, and Shoḇal.

2 And Re’ayahu son of Shoḇal brought forth Yaḥath, and Yaḥath brought forth Aḥumai and Laḥaḏ. These were the clans of the Tsör’athites.

3 And these were of the father of Ḫetam: Yizrē’ēl, and Yishma, and Yīḇbash. And the name of their sister was Hatselelponi;

4 and Penu’ēl was the father of Geqōr, and Ėzer was the father of Ḥushah. These were the sons of Ḥur, the first-born of Ephrathahu the father of Bēyth Leḥem.

5 And Ashšur the father of Teqowa had two wives, Ḥelah and Na’arāh.

6 And Na’arāh bore him Ahuzzam, and Hēpher, and Tēmeni, and Ḥa’aḥashtari. These were the sons of Na’arāh.

7 And the sons of Ḥelah: Tsereth, and Tsoḥar, and Ethan;

8 and Qots brought forth forth Anūḇ, and Tsoḇēḇah, and the clans of Aḥarṭehel son of Harum.

9 And Yaḇēts was more esteemed than his brothers, and his mother called his name Yaḇēts, saying, “Because I bore him in pain.”

10 And Yaḇēts called on the Elohim of Yisra’ēl saying, “Oh, that You would bless me indeed, and enlarge my border, and that Your hand would be with me, and that You would keep me from evil, not to be my pain!” And Elohim gave him what he asked.

11 And Keluḇ the brother of Shuḥah brought forth Meḥir, who was the father of Eshton.

12 And Eshton brought forth forth Bēyth-Rapha, and Pasēḇah, and Tēḥinnah the father of Ir-Naḥāsh. These were the men of Rēḵah.

13 And the sons of Qenaz: Othni’ēl and Serayahu. And sons of Othni’ēl: Ḥathath, 14 and Me’onothai, who brought forth Ophrah. And Serayahu brought forth Yo’aḇ the father of Gē-Ḥarashim, for they were craftsmen.

15 And the sons of Kalèb the son of Yephunneh: Iru, Êlah, and Na’am. And the son of Êlah was Qenaz.
16 And the sons of Yehallel’èl: Ziph, and Ziphah, Tireya, and Asar’èl.
17 And the sons of Ezrah: Yether, and Mereç, and Êpher, and Yalon. And she bore Miryam, and Shammai, and Yishbah the father of Eshtemoa.
18 And his wife Yehudiyyah bore Yereç the father of GeÔor, and Êheber the father of Soôko, and Yequthi’èl the father of Zanowá. And these were the sons of Bithyah the daughter of Pharaoh, whom Mereç took.
19 And the sons of Hoôiyah’s wife, the sister of Na’âm, were the fathers of QeÈilah the Garmite and of Eshtemoa the MaÈa¿athite.
20 And the sons of Shimon: Amnon, and Rinnah, Ben-Êanan, and Tulon. And the sons of Yishi: ZoÁÃth and Ben-ZoÁÃth.
21 The sons of ShÔlah the son of YehuÅah: Âr the father of Lÿah, and LaÈdah the father of MarÃshah, and the clans of the house of the linen workers of the house of AshbÈa;
22 and Yoqim, and the men of Kozèba, and Yo’ash, and Saraph who ruled in Mo’âb, and Yashuá-Hi-Lehém. But the records were ancient.
23 These were the potters and those who dwell at Neta’im and GeÅor; there they dwelt with the sovereign for his work.
24 The sons of Shim’on: Nemu’èl, and Yamin, Yariô, Zeraô, Sha’ul, 25 Shallum his son, MiÔsam his son, Mishma his son.
26 And the sons of Mishma: HaÔammu’èl his son, Zakkur his son, Shim’i his son.
27 And Shim’i had sixteen sons and six daughters, but his brothers did not have many children, nor did any of their clans increase as much as the children of YehuÁdah.
28 And they dwelt at Be’êrsheba, and MolaÔag, and Ôatsar Shu’âl,
29 and at Billhah, and at Etsem, and at TolaÔ, 30 and at Bethu’èl, and at Ôormah, and at TsiqlaÔ, 31 and at Bêyth MarkaÔboth, and at HaÔtsar Susim, and at Bêyth Bir’i, and at Sha’arayim. These were their cities until the reign of Dawid.
32 And their villages were Èytam, and Ayin, and Rimmon, and ToÔen, and Ashan, five cities, 33 and all the villages that were around these cities as far as Ba’al. These were their dwelling places, and they kept their genealogy.
34 And MesoÔab, and Yamlèk, and YoshaÔ son of Amatsyah;
35 and Yo’èl, and Yêhu son of Yoshiyyah, son of Serayah, son of Asîèl;
36 and Elyo’èynai, and Ya’aqôbah, and Yeshôñayah, and Asayah, and Adi’èl, and Yesimi’èl, and Benayah;
37 and Ziza son of Shiphi, son of Allon, son of Yeqayah, son of Shimri, son of Shamayah.
38 These mentioned by name were leaders in their clans, and their father’s house increased greatly.
39 And they went to the entrance of GeÔor, as far as the east side of the valley, to look for pasture for their flocks, 40 and they found rich, good pasture, and the land was broad, undisturbed and safe, for some Àamites had dwelt there formerly.
41 And these written by name came in the days of Àizqiyahu sovereign of YehuÅah, and smote their tents, and the homes that were found there, and put them under the ban, as it is to this day, and dwelt in their place, because there was pasture for their flocks there.
42 And some of them, five hundred men of the sons of Shim’on, went to Mount SÈir, having as their chiefs Pelatyah, and NeÈaryah, and Rephayah, and Uzzi’èl, the sons of Yishi.
43 And they smote the rest of the Amalèqites who had escaped, and dwelt there to this day.

5 As for the sons of Re’ûbên the first-born of Yisra’èl – he was the first-born, but because he profaned his father’s bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Yosèph, son of Yisra’èl, so that the genealogy is not listed according to the birthright,

2 for Yehuèdah prevailed over his brothers, and from him came a ruler, although the birthright was Yosèph’s –

3 the sons of Re’ùbèn the first-born of Yisra’èl: Ḥanoḵ and Pallu, Ḥetsron and Karmi.

4 The sons of Yo’èl: Shemayah his son, Goğ his son, Shim’i his son,

5 Mïkah his son, Re’ayah his son, Ba’al his son,

6 and Be’èrah his son, whom Tiglath-Pileser sovereign of Ashshur took into exile. He was leader of the Re’ùbènites.

7 And his brothers by their clans, when the genealogy of their generations was registered: the chief, Ye’ì’èl, and Zeḵaryahu,

8 and Bela son of Azaz, son of Shema, son of Yo’èl, who dwelt in Aro’èr, as far as Neḇo and Ba’al Me’on.

9 And he dwelt eastward as far as the entrance of the wilderness from the River Euphrates, because their livestock had increased in the land of Gil’àḏ.

10 And in the days of Sha’ul they fought against the HaÍrites, who fell by their hand. And they dwelt in their tents over all the eastern part of Gil’àḏ.

11 And the children of GaÅ dwelt next to them in the land of Bashan as far as Sal¿ah:

12 Yo’èl was the chief, Shapham the next, then Ya’anai and Shaphat in Bashan;

13 and their brothers of their father’s house: Mìka’èl, and Meshullam, and Sheḇa, and Yoraì, and Yakan, and Ziya, and Èber, seven.

14 These were the children of Abihayîl son of Huri, son of Yarowâḥ, son of Gil’àḏ, son of Mìka’èl, son of Yeshishai, son of Yaḥdo, son of Buz;

15 Aḥì son of Abdi’èl, son of Guni, was chief of their father’s house.

16 And they dwelt in Gil’àḏ, in Bashan and in its villages, and in all the open lands of Sharon within their borders.

17 All these were registered by genealogies in the days of Yotham sovereign of Yehuèdah, and in the days of Yaroḇ’am sovereign of Yisra’èl.

18 The sons of Re’ùbèn, and the Gaḏîtes, and half the tribe of Menashsheh had forty-four thousand seven hundred and sixty brave men, men able to bear shield and sword, to shoot with the bow, and skilled in battle, going out to the army.

19 And they fought against the Hagrites, and Yetur, and Naphish, and Noḏab.

20 And they were helped against them, and the Hagrites were given into their hand, and all who were with them. For they cried out to Elohim in the battle, and He answered their prayer, because they put their trust in Him.

21 And they took away their livestock: fifty thousand of their camels, and two hundred and fifty thousand of their sheep, and two thousand of their donkeys, also one hundred thousand of their men,

22 for many fell dead, because the battle was of Elohim. And they dwelt in their place until the exile.

23 And the children of the half-tribe of Menashsheh dwelt in the land. They increased from Bashan to Ba’al Ḫermon, that is, to Senir, or Mount Ḫermon.

24 And these were the heads of their fathers’ houses: Èpher, and Yishi, and Eli’èl, and Azri’èl, and Yirmeyah, Hoḏawayah, and Yahdi’èl – mighty brave men, men of name, and heads of their fathers’ houses.

25 But they trespassed against the Elohim of their fathers, and whored after the mighty ones of the peoples of the land, whom Elohim had destroyed before them.

26 So the Elohim of Yisra’èl stirred up the spirit of Pul sovereign of Ashshur, even the spirit of Tiglath-Pileser sovereign of Ashshur. And he took the Re’ùbènites, and the Gaḏîtes, and the half-tribe of Menashsheh into exile, and brought them to Ḥalaḥ, and Ḥabor, and Hara, and the river of Gozan, unto this day.

6 The sons of Lëwi: Gèreshom, Qehath, and Merari.

2 And the sons of Qehath: Amram, Yîtshar, and Ḫebron, and Uzzi’èl.
3 And the children of Amram: Aharon, and Mosheh, and Miryam. And the sons of Aharon: Naḍaḥ and Aḇiḥu, El’azar and Ithamar.

4 El’azar brought forth Pineḥas, Pineḥas brought forth Abishua;

5 and Aḇishua brought forth Buqqi, and Buqqi brought forth Üzzi;

6 and Uzzi brought forth Zeraḥyah, and Zeraḥyah brought forth Merayoth;

7 Merayoth brought forth Amaryah, and Amaryah brought forth Aḥituḥ;

8 and Aḥituḥ brought forth Tsaḏoq, and Tsaḏoq brought forth Aḥima’ats;

9 and Aḥima’ats brought forth Azaryah, and Azaryah brought forth Yoḥanan;

10 and Yoḥanan brought forth Azaryah – it was he who served as priest in the House that Shelomoh built in Yerushalayim;

11 and Azaryah brought forth Amaryah, and Amaryah brought forth Aḥituḥ;

12 and Aḥituḥ brought forth Tsaḏoq, and Tsaḏoq brought forth Shallum;

13 and Shallum brought forth Hilqiyyah, and Hilqiyyah brought forth Azaryah;

14 and Azaryah brought forth Serayah, and Serayah brought forth Yehotsaḏaq.

15 And Yehotsaḏaq went away when HWHY sent Yehuḏah and Yerushalayim into exile by the hand of Nebuḵadneṣsar.

16 The sons of Lēwi: Gēreshom, Qehath, and Merari.

17 And these are the names of the sons of Gēreshom: Liḥni and Shim’i.

18 And the sons of Qehath: Amram, and Yitshar, and Ḥebron, and Uzzi’ēl.

19 The sons of Merari: Maḥli and Mushi. And these are the clans of the Lēwites according to their fathers:

20 Of Gēreshom were Liḥni his son, Yaḥath his son, Zimmah his son, 21 Yo’aḥ his son, Iddo his son, Zeraḥ his son, Ye’atherai his son.

22 The sons of Qehath: Amminaḍaḥ his son, Qoraḥ his son, Assir his son,

23 Elqanah his son, Ebyasaph his son, Assir his son,

24 Taḥath his son, Uri’ēl his son, Uzziyyah his son, and Sha’ul his son.

25 And the sons of Elqanah: Amasai and Aḥimoth.

26 Elqanah – the sons of Elqanah: Tsophai his son, and Nahath his son, 27 Eliyaḥ his son, Yeroḥam his son, Elqanah his son.

28 And the sons of Shemu’ēl: Yo’ēl the first-born, and Abiyah the second.

29 The sons of Merari: Maḥli, Lībni his son, Shim’i his son, Uzzah his son, 30 Shim’a his son, Ḥaggioyih his son, and Assayah his son.

31 And these are the men whom Dawi appointed over the service of song in the House of HWHY, after the ark came to rest.

32 And they were rendering service in song before the dwelling place of the Tent of Meeting, until Shelomoh had built the House of HWHY in Yerushalayim, and they performed their duties according to their ruling.

33 And these are the ones who stood with their sons: Of the sons of the Qehathites were Ḥēman the singer, son of Yo’ēl, son of Shemu’ēl,

34 son of Elqanah, son of Yeroḥam, son of Eli’ēl, son of Tōwaḥ,

35 son of Tsuph, son of Elqanah, son of Maḥath, son of Amasai,

36 son of Elqanah, son of Yo’ēl, son of Azaryah, son of Tsephanyah, 37 son of Taḥath, son of Assir, son of Ebyasaph, son of Qoraḥ, 38 son of Yitshar, son of Qehath, son of Lēwi, son of Yisra’ēl.

39 And his brother Asaph, who stood at his right hand, was Asaph son of Bereḵyahu, son of Shim’a,

40 son of Miḳa’ēl, son of Ba’asēyah, son of Malkiyah,

41 son of Ethni, son of Zeraḥ, son of Aḏayah,

42 son of Ėythan, son of Zimmah, son of Shim’i,

43 son of Yaḥath, son of Gēreshom, son of Lēwi.

44 And their brothers, the sons of Merari, on the left hand, were Ėythan son of Qishi, son of Aḇdi, son of Malluḵ,

45 son of Ḥashabyah, son of Amatsyah, son of Hilqiyyah,

46 son of Aṃtsi, son of Bani, son of Shemer,
47 son of Maḥli, son of Mushi, son of Merari, son of Lēwi.
48 And their brothers, the Lěwites, were appointed to every kind of service of the Dwelling Place of the House of Elohim.
49 But Aharon and his sons offered on the altar of burnt offering and on the altar of incense, for all the work of the Most Set-apart Place, and to make atonement for Yisra’ēl, according to all that Mosheh the servant of Elohim had commanded.
50 And these are the sons of Aharon: El‘azar his son, Pīneḥas his son, Aḇishua his son, 51 Buqqi his son, Uzzi his son, Zeraḥyah his son,
52 Merayoth his son, Amaryah his son, Aḥitub his son,
53 Tsādoq his son, Aḥima‘ats his son.
54 And these were their dwelling places throughout their settlements within their borders, of the sons of Aharon, of the clan of the Qehathites, for the lot was theirs.
55 And they gave them Hēbron in the land of Yehuḏah, with its surrounding open lands.
56 But the fields of the city and its villages they gave to Kālĕb son of Yephunneh.
57 And to the sons of Aharon they gave the cities of refuge: Hēbron, and Liḇnah with its open lands, and Yattir, and Eshtemoa with its open lands,
58 and Hīlēn with its open lands, Deḇir with its open lands,
59 and Ashan with its open lands, and Bēyth Shemesh with its open lands.
60 And from the tribe of Binyamin: Geḇa with its open lands, and Alemeth with its open lands, and Anathoth with its open lands. All their cities among their clans were thirteen.
61 And to the rest of the clan of the tribe of the Qehathites by lot ten cities from half the tribe of Menashsheh.
62 And to the sons of Gēreshom, throughout their clans, thirteen cities from the tribe of Yissasḵar, and from the tribe of Ashēr, and from the tribe of Naphtali, and from the tribe of Menashsheh in Bashan.
63 To the sons of Merari, throughout their clans, by lot twelve cities from the tribe of Re’ūḇēn, and from the tribe of Gaḏ, and from the tribe of Zebulūn.
64 So the children of Yisra’ēl gave cities with their open lands to the Lěwites.
65 And they gave by lot from the tribe of the children of Yehuḏah, and from the tribe of the children of Shir‘on, and from the tribe of the children of Binyamin these cities which are mentioned by name.
66 And some of the clans of the sons of Qehath had cities of their borders from the tribe of Ephrayim.
67 And they gave them the cities of refuge: Sheḵem with its open lands, in the mountains of Ephrayim, and Gezer with its open lands,
68 and Yoqme‘am with its open lands, and Bēyth Hōron with its open lands, 69 and Ayalon with its open lands, and Gath Rimmon with its open lands.
70 And from the half-tribe of Menashsheh: Anēr with its open lands, and Bil‘am with its open lands, for the rest of the clan of the sons of Qehath.
71 From the clan of the half-tribe of Menashsheh the sons of Gēreshom: Golan in Bashan with its open lands and Ashtaroth with its open lands.
72 And from the tribe of Yissasḵar: Qeḏesh with its open lands, Daḇerath with its open lands, 73 Ramoth with its open lands, and Anēm with its open lands.
74 And from the tribe of Ashēr: Mashal with its open lands, and Aḇdon with its open lands, 75 and Ḥuqqoq with its open lands, and Reḇoḥ with its open lands.
76 And from the tribe of Naphtali: Qeḏesh in Galil with its open lands, and Ḥammōn with its open lands, and Qiryathayim with its open lands.
77 From the tribe of Zeḇulūn the rest of the children of Merari: Rimmon with its open lands and Tabor with its open lands.
78 And from beyond the Yardën of Yeriḥo, on the east side of the Yardën, from the tribe of Re’ūḇēn: Betser in the wilderness with its open lands, and Yaḥtsah with its open lands, 79 Qeḏemoth with its open lands, and Mêpha’ath with its open lands.
80 And from the tribe of Gad: Ramoth in Gil’ad with its open lands, and Maḥanayim with its open lands, 81 and Ḥeshbon with its open lands, and Ya’zêr with its open lands.

7 And the sons of Yissas̄kar: Tola, and Pu’ah, Yashuā, and Shimron, four.
2 And the sons of Tola: Uzzi, and Rephayah, and Yeri‘el, and Yaḥmai, and Yîbsam, and Shemu’ēl, heads of their father’s house. Of Tola there were great men of might in their generations; their number in the days of Dawiḏ was twenty-two thousand six hundred.
3 And the son of Uzzi: Yizraēyah, and the sons of Yizraēyah: Miqâ’ēl, and Obaḏyah, and Yo’ēl, Yishshiyah. All five of them were heads.
4 And with them, by their generations, according to their fathers’ houses, were thirty-six thousand, bands of the army for battle, for they had many wives and sons.
5 And their brothers among all the clans of Yissas̄kar were mighty brave men, listed by their genealogies, eighty-seven thousand in all.

6 Of Binyamin: Bela, and Beḵer, and Yediya’ēl, three.
7 And the sons of Bela: Etsbon, and Uzzi, and Uzzi’ēl, and Yerimoth, and Iri, five—heads of their fathers’ houses, and they were listed by their genealogies, twenty-two thousand and thirty-four mighty brave men.
8 And the sons of Beḵer: Zemirah, and Yo’ash, and Eli’ezer, and Elyo’ēynai, and Omri, and Yerimoth, and Ābīyah, and Anathoth, and Alemeth. All these were the sons of Beḵer.
9 With their genealogy according to their generations, heads of their fathers’ houses, twenty thousand two hundred mighty brave men.
10 And the son of Yediya’ēl: Bilhan, and the sons of Bilhan: Ye’uš, and Binyamin, and Ėhūḏ, and Kena’ānah, and Zēthan, and Tarshish, and Aḥishāḥar.
11 All these sons of Yediya’ēl were heads of their fathers’ houses, seventeen thousand two hundred mighty brave men going out to the army for battle.
12 And Shuppim and Ḥuppim were the sons of Ir, and Ḥushim was the son of Aḥêr.
13 The sons of Naphtali: Yaḥtsi’ēl, and Guni, and Yētser, and Shallum, sons of Bilhah.
14 The sons of Menas̄heh: his Aramean concubine bore him Maḵir the father of Gil’ad, the father of Asri’ēl.
15 And Maḵir took wives for Ḥuppim and Shuppim; and the name of one was Ma’akāh, and the name of the second was Tselophhāḏ. And Tselophhāḏ had daughters.
16 But Ma’akāh the wife of Maḵir bore a son, and she called his name Peresh. And the name of his brother was Sheresh, and his sons were Ulam and Raqem.
17 And the son of Ulam: Beḏan. These were the sons of Gil’ad, son of Maḵir, son of Menas̄heh.
18 And his sister Hammôleḵet bore Ishhod, and Ābī’ezer, and Maḥlāh.
19 And the sons of Shemiḏā: Ahyan, and Sheḵem, and Liḏi, and Aniym.
20 And the sons of Ephrayim: Shuthelah, and Bereḵ his son, and Taḥath his son, and Elaḏah his son, and Taḥath his son, 21 and Zaḇḏq his son, and Shuthelah his son, and Ezer and El’ad. But the men of Gath who were born in that land slew them because they came down to take their livestock.
22 And Ephrayim their father mourned many days, and his brothers came to comfort him.
23 And when he went in to his wife, she conceived and bore a son. And he called his name Beri’ah, because evil had come upon his house.
24 And his daughter was She’erah, who built Lower and Upper Bêyth Ḥoron and Uzzen She’erah.
25 And Rephah was his son, as well as Resheph, and Taḥl his son, and Taḥan his son, 26 La’dan his son, Ammihud his son, Elishama his son,
27 Nun his son, Yehoshua his son.
28 And their possessions and dwelling places were Bêyth Ėl and its towns: to the east Na’aran, and to the west Gezer and its towns, and Sheḵem and its towns, as far as Ayyah and its towns.
29 And by the borders of the children of Menashsheh were Bêyth She’ān and its towns, Ta’anāk and its towns, Megiddo and its towns, Dor and its towns. In these dwelt the children of Yosèph, son of Yisra’ēl.
30 The sons of Ashēr: Yimmah, and Yishwah, and Yishwi, and Beri’āh, and their sister Seraḥ.
31 And the sons of Beri’āh: Ḫeber and Malki’ēl, who was the father of Birzoth.
32 And Ḫeber brought forth Yaphlēt, and Shomēr, and Ḫotham, and their sister Shuwa.
33 And the sons of Yaphlēt: Pasāk, and Bimhal, and Ashwath. These were the children of Yaphlēt.
34 And the sons of Shemer: Aḥi, and Rohagah, Yeḥubbah, and Aram.
35 And the sons of his brother Ḫelem: Tsophah, and Yimma, and Shelesh, and Amal.
36 The sons of Tsophah: Suwah, and Ḥarnepher, and Shu’āl, and Bēri, and Yimmrah, 37 Betser, and Hoḏ, and Shamma, and Shilshah, and Yithran, and Be’ēra.
38 And the sons of Yether: Yephunneh, and Pispah, and Ara.
39 And the sons of Ulla: Araḥ, and Ḥannī’ēl, and Ritsya.
40 All these were the children of Ashēr, heads of their fathers’ houses, chosen ones, mighty brave men, chief leaders. And when they registered by genealogy for the army, for battle, their number was twenty-six thousand.

8 And Binyamin brought forth Bela his first-born, Ashbēl the second, Aḥraḥ the third,
2 Noḥah the fourth, and Rapha the fifth.
3 And the sons of Bela: Addar, and Gēra, and Abihuḏ,
4 and Abishua, and Na’āman, and Aḥowāḥ,
5 and Gēra, and Shephuphan, and Huram.
6 And these are the sons of Ėhuḏ. They were the heads of the fathers’ houses of the inhabitants of Geba, and they were exiled to Manahath.
7 And Na’āman, and Aḥiyah, and Gēra – he exiled them. And Ėhuḏ brought forth Uzza and Aḥihuḏ.
8 And Shaḥarayim brought forth children in the field of Mo’āḥ, after he had sent away Ḥushim and Ba’ara his wives.
9 And by Ḥoḏesh his wife he brought forth Yoḇaḥ, and Tsibya, and Mēysha, and Malkam, 10 and Ye’uts, and Shobbyah, and Mīrmah. These were his sons, heads of their fathers’ houses.
11 And by Ḥushim he brought forth Abiṭuḏ and Elpa’āl.
12 And the sons of Elpa’āl: Ėber, and Mish’am, and Shemer, who built Ono and Loḏ with its towns;
13 and Beri’āh and Shema, who were heads of their fathers’ houses of the inhabitants of Ayalon, who drove out the inhabitants of Gath.
14 and Ahyo, Shashaq, and Yerēmoth,
15 and Zeḇaḏyah, and Araḏ, and Ėder,
16 and Mika’ēl, and Yispah, and Yoḥa were the sons of Beri’āh.
17 And Zeḇaḏyah, and Meshullam, and Hizqî, and Ḫeber,
18 and Yishmerai, and Yizli’āh, and Yoḇaḥ were the sons of Elpa’āl.
19 And Yaqim, and Ziḵri, and Zaḇdi,
20 and Eli’ēynai, and Tsililethai, and Eli’ēl,
21 and Adayah, and Berayah, and Shimrath were the sons of Shim’î.
22 And Yishpan, and Ėber, and Eli’ēl,
23 and Abdôn, and Zikri, and Ḥanan,
24 and Ḥananyah, and Ėlam, and Antothiyah,
25 and Yiphdeyah, and Penu’ēl were the sons of Shashaq.
26 And Shamscherai, and Sheḥaryah, and Athalyah,
27 and Ya’areshyah, and Eliyah, and Zikri were the sons of Yeroham.
28 These were heads of the fathers’ houses by their generations, heads. These dwelt in
And the father of Gib‘on, whose wife’s name was Ma‘akhah, dwelt at Gib‘on.

And his first-born son was Abdon, then Tsur, and Qish, and Ba‘al, and Na‘adam.

And Geedor, and Ahyo, and Zecker, and Mikloth, who brought forth Shim‘ah. And they also dwelt alongside their relatives in Yerushalayim, with their brothers.

And Nêr brought forth Qish, and Qish brought forth Sha‘ul, and Sha‘ul brought forth Yehonathan, and Malkishua, and Abina‘adab, and Esh-Ba‘al.

And the son of Yehonathan was Merib-Ba‘al, and Merib-Ba‘al brought forth Mikhah.

And the sons of Mikhah: Pithon, and Melek, and Ta‘arēa, and Ahaz.

And Ahaz brought forth Yeho‘addah, and Yeho‘addah brought forth Alemeth, and Azmaweth, and Zimri. And Zimri brought forth Motsa.

And Motsa brought forth Bin‘a, Raphah his son, El‘asah his son, Atsel his son.

And Atsel had six sons whose names were these: Azriqam, Bo‘keru, and Yishma‘el, and She‘aryah, and Obadyah, and Hanan. All these were the sons of Atsel.

And the sons of Mīkah: Piton, and Melek, and Ta‘arēa, and Ahaz.

And the sons of Mīkah: Piton, and Melek, and Ta‘arēa, and Ahaz.

And the first inhabitants who were in their possessions in their cities of Yisra‘ēl, were the priests, the Lēwites, and the Nethinim.

And in Yerushalayim dwelt some of the children of Yehuđah, and some of the children of Binyamin, and some of the children of Ephrayim and Menashsheh:

Uthai son of Ammihud, son of Omri, son of Imri, son of Bani, of the sons of Perets, the son of Yehuđah.

And of the Shilonites: Assayah the first-born and his sons.

And of the sons of Zerah: Ye‘u‘el, and their brothers, six hundred and ninety.

And of the sons of Binyamin: Sallu son of Meshullam, son of Ho‘đawayah, son of Hasenu‘ah;

And Yībneyah son of Yeroḥam; and Èlah son of Uzzi, son of Mīkri; and Meshullam son of Shephatyah, son of Re‘u‘w‘el, son of Yibniyah; and their brothers, according to their generations, nine hundred and fifty-six. All these men were heads of a father’s house in their fathers’ houses.

And of the priests: Yeḏayyah, and Yehoyariḇ, and Yakin;

And of the Levites: Asaḏiyah, son of Hilkīyah, son of Meshullam, son of Tsadqōq, son of Merayoḥ, son of Aḥitūḇ, the officer over the House of Elohim;

And Aḏayyah son of Yeroḥam, son of Pashḥur, son of Malkīyah; and Ma‘asai son of Aḏi‘el, son of Yāḥazērah, son of Meshullam, son of Meshīlēmīth, son of Immēr;

and their brothers, heads of their fathers’ houses, one thousand seven hundred and sixty, able men for the work of the service of the House of Elohim.

And of the Lēwites: Shemayyah son of Ḥashshuḇ, son of Azriqam, son of Ḥashbūyah, of the sons of Merari;

And Baqbaqqar, Ḥeresh, and Galal, and Mattanyah son of Miḵa, son of Zīḵri, son of Asaph;

And Obadyah son of Shemayyah, son of Galal, son of Yeḏuthun; and Bereḵyah son of Asa, son of Elqanah, who dwelt in the villages of the Netophathites.

And the gatekeepers: Shallum, and Aqqqōḇ, and Talmōn, and Aḥīman, and their brothers – Shallum the chief.

And up till then they were gatekeepers for the camps of the children of Lēwi at the Sovereign’s Gate on the east.

And Shalūm son of Qorē, son of Ḫyasaḥ, son of Qoraḥ, and his brothers, from his father’s house, the Qorḥites, were over the work of the service, guards of the thresholds of the Tent. And their fathers had been guards of the entrance to the camp of הַנִּחֲזָה.
20 And Pīneḥas son of El’azar was leader over them in time past. הַנִּחֲזָה was with him.
21 Zeḵaryah son of Meshelemyah was gatekeeper at the entrance of the Tent of Meeting.
22 All those chosen as gatekeepers at the thresholds were two hundred and twelve. They were registered by genealogy, in their villages. Dawiḏ and Shemu’ēl the seer had appointed them to their office of trust.
23 So they and their sons were over the gates of the House of הַנִּחֲזָה, the House of the Tent, by watches.
24 The gatekeepers were on the four sides: the east, west, north, and south.
25 And their brothers in their villages had to come with them from time to time for seven days.
26 For the four chief gatekeepers were in an office of trust. They were Lĕwites, and they were over the rooms and treasuries of the House of Elohim.
27 And they spent the night all around the House of Elohim because they had the duty, and they were to open it morning by morning.
28 And some of them were over the vessels of service, for they brought them in and took them out by count.
29 And some of them were appointed over the vessels, even over all the vessels of the set-apart place, and over the fine flour and the wine and the oil and the incense and the spices.
30 And some of the sons of the priests blended the compound of spices.
31 And Mattithyah of the Lĕwites, the first-born of Shallum the Qorḥite, was entrusted with the making of the flat cakes.
32 And some of their brothers of the sons of the Qehathites were over the show-bread, to prepare every Sabbath.
33 And these were the singers, heads of the fathers’ houses of the Lĕwites, in the rooms, and were exempted from other duties, for they were employed in that work day and night.
34 These heads of the fathers’ houses of the Lĕwites were heads throughout their generations. They dwelt at Yerushalayim.
35 And Ye’ī’ēl the father of Gib’ōn, whose wife’s name was Ma’ākah, dwelt at Gib’ōn.
36 And his first-born son was Aḇdon, then Tsur, and Qish, and Ba’al, and Nēr, and Naḏāḇ, 37 and Geḏor, and Aḥyo, and Zeḵaryah, and Miqloth.
38 And Miqloth brought forth Shim’ām. And they too dwelt alongside their relatives in Yerushalayim, with their brothers.
39 And Nēr brought forth Qish, and Qish brought forth Shā’ul, and Sha’ul brought forth Yehonathan, and Malkishua, and Aḇinaḏāḇ, and Esh-Ba’al.
40 And the son of Yehonathan was Meriḇ-Ba’al, and Meriḇ-Ba’al brought forth Miḵāh.
41 And the sons of Miḵāh: Pithon, and Melek, and Taḥrēa, 42 and Aḥaz, who brought forth Yarah; and Yarah brought forth Alemeth, and Azmaweth, and Zimri. And Zimri brought forth Motsa;
43 and Motsa brought forth Bin’ā, and Rephayah was his son, El’asah his son, Atsēl his son.
44 And Atsēl had six sons whose names were these: Azriqam, Boḵeru, and Yishma’ēl, and She’aryah, and Obadyah, and Ḥanan. These were the sons of Atsēl.

10 And the Philistines fought against Yisra’ēl. And the men of Yisra’ēl fled from before the Philistines, and fell slain on Mount Gilboa.
2 And the Philistines pursued Sha’ul and his sons, and the Philistines smote Yona- than, and Aḇinaḏāḇ, and Malkishua, sons of Sha’ul.
3 And the battle was heavy on Sha’ul. And the archers hit him, and he was wounded by the archers.
4 And Sha’ul said to his armour-bearer, “Draw your sword, and thrust me through with it, lest these uncircumcised ones come and abuse me.” But his armour-bearer would not, for he was much afraid, so Sha’ul took a sword and fell on it.

5 And when his armour-bearer saw that Sha’ul was dead, he also fell on his sword and died.

6 Thus Sha’ul and his three sons died, and all his house – they died together.

7 And when all the men of Yisra’el who were in the valley saw that they had fled and that Sha’ul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities and fled, and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8 And the next day it came to be, when the Philistines came to strip the slain, that they found Sha’ul and his sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

9 And they stripped him and took his head and his armour, and sent word throughout the land of the Philistines to proclaim the news among their idols and among the people,

10 and put his armour in the house of their mighty ones, and fastened his head in the house of Daín.

11 And all Yaḥš GilÈaÅ heard of all that the Philistines had done to Sha’ul, 12 and all the brave men arose and took the body of Sha’ul and the bodies of his sons. And they brought them to Yaḥš, and buried their bones under the tamarisk tree at Yaḥš, and fasted seven days.

13 Thus Sha’ul died for his trespass which he had trespassed against Elohim, because he did not guard the Word of Elohim, and also for asking a medium for to make inquiry, 14 and did not inquire of Elohim. So He put him to death, and turned the reign over to Dawiḏ son of Yishai.

11 And all Yisra’el came together to Dawiḏ at Ḥebron, saying, “See, we are your bone and your flesh.

2 “Also, in time past, even when Sha’ul was sovereign, you were the one who led Yisra’el out and brought them in. And Elohim your Elohim said to you, ‘Shepherd My people Yisra’el, and be ruler over My people Yisra’el.’ ”

3 So all the elders of Yisra’el came to the sovereign at Ḥebron, and Dawiḏ made a covenant with them at Ḥebron before Elohim. And they anointed Dawiḏ sovereign over Yisra’el, according to the word of Elohim by Shemu’el.

4 And Dawiḏ and all Yisra’el went to Yerushalayim, which is Yeḇus, where the Yeḇusites were, the inhabitants of the land.

5 And the inhabitants of Yeḇus said to Dawiḏ, “You do not come in here.” But Dawiḏ captured the stronghold of Tsıyon, the City of Dawiḏ.

6 And Dawiḏ said, “Whoever smites the Yeḇusites first becomes chief and commander.” And Yo’āḇ son of Tseruyah went up first, and became chief.

7 And Dawiḏ dwelt in the stronghold, so they called it the City of Dawiḏ.

8 And he built the city around it, from Millo round about, and Yo’āḇ revived the rest of the city.

9 And Dawiḏ went on and became great, and the hosts of men whom Dawiḏ had, who strengthened themselves with him in his reign, with all Yisra’el, to set him up to reign over Yisraël, according to the word of Elohim.

10 And this is the number of the mighty men whom Dawiḏ had: YashoÈam son of a Àa¿monite, chief of the thirty. He had lifted up his spear against three hundred, slain at one time.

12 And after him was ElÈazar son of Doṿo, the AÁoÁite, who was one of the three mighty men.

13 He was with Dawiḏ at Pasdammim, and the Philistines were gathered there for battle, and a portion of the field was filled with barley, and the people had fled before the Philistines.

14 But they took their stand in the midst of that field, and delivered it, and smote the Philistines. Thus Elohim saved them by a great deliverance.

15 And three of the thirty chiefs went down to the rock to Dawiḏ, into the cave of Aḏullam, while the army of the Philistines encamped in the Valley of Repha’im.

16 And Dawiḏ was then in the stronghold, and the watch-post of the Philistines was then in Bëyth Leḥem.

17 And Dawiḏ longed and said, “Oh, that... someone would give me a drink of water from the well of Bëyth Leḥem, which is by the gate!"

18 And the three broke through the camp of the Philistines, and drew water from the well of Bëyth Leḥem that was by the gate, and took it and brought it to Dawiḡ. But Dawiḡ would not drink it, but poured it out to HWHY.

19 And he said, “Far be it from me, O my Elohim, that I should do this! Should I drink the blood of these men who have risked their lives? For at the risk of their lives they brought it.” And he would not drink it. This is what the three mighty men did.

20 And Aḇishai the brother of Yo’aḇ was chief of another three. And he had lifted up his spear against three hundred men, who were slain, and won a name among the three.

21 Of the three he was more esteemed than the other two men, so he became their head. However he did not come to the first three.

22 Benayahu was the son of Yehoyāḏa, the son of a brave man from Qaḇtse’ēl, who had done many deeds. He smote two lion-like Mo’aḇites. He also went down and smote a lion in the midst of a pit on a snowy day.

23 And he smote a Mitsrite, a man of great height, five cubits tall. And in the Mitsrite’s hand was a spear like a weaver’s beam, and he went down to him with a staff and wrenched the spear out of the Mitsrite’s hand, and slew him with his own spear.

24 This is what Benayahu son of Yehoyāḏa did, and won a name among the three mighty men.

25 See, he was more esteemed than the thirty, but he did not come to the first three. And Dawiḡ set him over his court.

26 And the mighty men of the armies were Asah’ēl the brother of Yo’aḇ, Elḥanan son of Doḵo of Bëyth Leḥem,

27 Šammoth the Ḥarorite, Ḥelets the Pelonite,

28 Ira son of Iqqash the Teqowite, Aḇi’ezer the Anathothite,

29 Sibbeḵai the Ḥushathite, Ilai the Aḥohite,

30 Maharaḵi the Netophathite, Ḥeled son of Ba’anah the Netophathite, 31 Ithai son of Rīḇaṭ of Giḇ’ah, of the children of Binyamin, Benayahu the Pirathonite,

32 Ḥurai of the wadis of Ga’ash, Aḇi’ēl the Arbathite,

33 Azmaweth the Baḥarumite, Elyāḥba the Sha’albonite,

34 the sons of Hashēm the Gizonite, Yo’ānathan son of Shaqeḏ the Hararite, 35 Aḥyam son of Sākhar the Hararite, Eliphal son of Ur,

36 Ḥepher the Mekērathite, Ahiyahu the Pelonite,

37 Ḥetsro the Karmelite, Na’ra’ay son of Ezbaḵi,

38 Yo’ēl the brother of Nathan, Miḇhar son of Haḡri,

39 Tsēleq the Ammonite, Naharaḵi the Bērothite (the armour-bearer of Yo’aḇ son of Tseruyaḵ),

40 Ira the Yithrite, Gařeḵ the Yithrite,

41 Uriyahu the Ḥittite, Zaḇaḏ son of Aḥlaḵi,

42 Aḏina son of Shiza the Re’uḇēnites, the head of the Re’uḇēnites, and thirty with him,

43 Ḫanan son of Ma’aḵah, and Yoshaphat the Mithnite,

44 Uzziya the Ashterathite, Shama and Ye’iʾēl the sons of Ḥotham the Aroʾērīte, 45 Yeḏiyaʾēl son of Šimri, and Yoḥa his brother, the Titsite,

46 Eliʾel the Mahawite, and Yeriḇai and Yoshawyah the sons of Elnaʾam, Yithmah the Mo’aḇite, 47 Eliʾel, and Oḇeḏ, and Yaʾašiʾēl of Metsoḇaḥayah.

12 Now these are they who came to Dawiḡ at Ts iqlaḵ while he was still in hiding from Sha’ul son of Qiş. And they were among the mighty men, helping the battle,

2 armed with bows, using both the right hand and the left, with stones, and with arrows, with bows, of the brothers of Sha’ul, of Binyamin.

3 The chief was Aḇi’ezer and Yo’ash, the sons of Shema'ah the Gibeonite; and Yezaw'el and Pelet, the sons of Azmaweth; and Berakah, and Yehu the Anathothite;

4 and Yishmayah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty; and Yirmeyah, and Ya'azi'el, and Yohanan, and Yoza'ba the Gederahitite;

5 Eluzai, and Yerimoth, and Be'alyyah, and Shemaryahu, and Shephatyahu the Haruphitite;

6 Elqanah, and Yishshiyahu, and Azar'eel, and Yow'ezr, and Yasho'am the Qorites;

7 and Yo'elah and Zeboiyah, the sons of Yeroam of Geor.

8 And some Gadites separated themselves to Dawid at the stronghold in the wilderness, mighty brave men, men trained for battle, who could handle shield and spear, whose faces were like the faces of lions, and were as swift as gazelles on the mountains:

9 Äzer the chief, Obadyah the second, Eliyahu the third,

10 Mishmannah the fourth, Yirmeyah the fifth,

11 Attai the sixth, Eli'eel the seventh,

12 Yo'hanan the eighth, Elza'bath the ninth,

13 Yirmeyahu the tenth, Ma'abannai the eleventh.

14 These were from the sons of Ga'd, chiefs of the army. The least was over a hundred, and the greatest was over a thousand.

15 These were the ones who passed over the Yardén in the first month, when it was overflowing all its banks, and put to flight all those in the valleys, to the east and to the west.

16 And some of the children of Binyamin and Yehudah came to Dawid at the stronghold.

17 And Dawid went out to face them, and answered and said to them, “If you have come peaceably to me to help me, my heart shall be united with you; but if to betray me to my enemies – there is no violence in my hands – let the Elohim of our fathers see and reprove.”

18 Then the Spirit came upon Amasai, chief of the officers, “Yours, O Dawid! And with you, O son of Yishai! Peace, peace to you, and peace to your helpers! For your Elohim shall help you.” And Dawid received them, and put them among the chiefs of the raiding band.

19 And some from Menashsheh went over to Dawid when he was going with the Philistines to battle against Sha'ul. But they did not help them, for the princes of the Philistines took advice and sent him away, saying, “He might go over to his master Sha'ul with our heads!”

20 When he went to Tsiqulah, those of Menashsheh who went over to him were Aqnah, and Yoza'ba, and Ye'diya'el, and Mi'ka'el, and Yoza'ba'd, and Elihu, and Tsillethai, chiefs of the thousands who were from Menashsheh.

21 And they helped Dawid against the raiding bands, for they were all mighty brave men, and they were commanders in the army.

22 For at that time they came to Dawid day by day to help him, until it was a great army, like an army of Elohim.

23 And these were the numbers of the chiefs of those that were armed for battle, and came to Dawid at Hebron to turn over the reign of Sha'ul to him, according to the word of HWH by:

24 Of the children of Yehudah bearing shield and spear, six thousand eight hundred armed for battle;

25 of the children of Shim'on, mighty brave men for the army, seven thousand one hundred;

26 of the children of Léwi four thousand six hundred;

27 and Yeho'yada, the leader of the Aharonites, and with him three thousand seven hundred;

28 and Tsaqoq, a young man, a mighty brave man, and from his father’s house twenty-two commanders;

29 and the children of Binyamin, relatives of Sha'ul, three thousand – until then the greatest part of them guarded the charge of the house of Sha'ul;

30 and the children of Ephrayim twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty brave ones, men of name throughout their father’s house;

31 and the half-tribe of Menashsheh eighteen thousand, who were designated by name to come and set up Dawiḏ to reign;

32 and the children of Yissasḵar who had understanding of the times, to know what Yisra’āl should do, their chiefs were two hundred. And all their brothers were at their command;

33 of Zebūlun there were fifty thousand going out to the army, arranging battle with all weapons of battle, giving support with undivided heart;

34 and of Naphtali one thousand commanders, and with them thirty-seven thousand with shield and spear;

35 and of the Danites, arranging battle, twenty-eight thousand six hundred;

36 and of Ashēr, going out to the army, arranging battle, forty thousand;

37 and of the Re’ūḇēni ṯes and the Gaḏites and the half-tribe of Menasḵe ṭes, from beyond the Yardēn, one hundred and twenty thousand armed for battle with every kind of weapon of battle.

38 All these men of battle, keeping rank, came to Ḥēḇron with a perfect heart, to set up Dawiḏ to reign over all Yisra’āl. And all the rest of Yisra’āl were of one heart to set up Dawiḏ to reign.

39 And they were there with Dawiḏ three days, eating and drinking, for their brothers had prepared for them.

40 And also those who were near to them, from as far away as Yissasḵar and Zebūlun and Naphtali, were bringing food on donkeys and camels, on mules and cattle – food of flour and cakes of figs and cakes of raisins, wine and oil and cattle and sheep in great quantities, for there was joy in Yisra’āl.

13 And Dawiḏ consulted with the commanders of thousands and hundreds, and with every leader.

2 And Dawiḏ said to all the assembly of Yisra’āl, “If it seems good to you, and if it is of our Elohim, let us send out to our brothers everywhere who are left in all the land of Yisra’āl, and with them to the priests and Lēwites who are in their cities of their open lands, and let them be gathered to us;

3 and let us bring the ark of our Elohim back to us, for we sought Him not since the days of Sha’ul.”

4 And all the assembly agreed to do so, for the matter was right in the eyes of all the people.

5 So Dawiḏ assembled all Yisra’āl, from Shiḥor in Mitsrayim to as far as the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of Elohim from Qiryath Ye’arim.

6 And Dawiḏ and all Yisra’āl went up to Ba’alah, to Qiryath Ye’arim of Yehudah, to bring up from there the ark of Elohim,  הַנַּחַל , who dwells between the keruḵim, where the Name is called on.

7 And they placed the ark of Elohim on a new wagon from the house of Aḇināḏāḇ, and Uzza and Aḥyo were leading the wagon.

8 And Dawiḏ and all Yisra’āl were playing before Elohim with all their might, and with songs, and with lyres, and with harps, and with tambourines, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.

9 And when they came to the threshing-floor of Kiḏōn, Uzza put out his hand to hold the ark, for the oxen stumbled.

10 Then the wrath of Elohim burned against Uzza, and He smote him because he put his hand to the ark. And he died there before Elohim.

11 And Dawiḏ was displeased because Elohim had broken out against Uzza, and He smote him because he put his hand to the ark. And he died there before Elohim.

12 And Dawiḏ was afraid of Elohim that day, saying, “How shall I bring the ark of Elohim to me?”

13 So Dawiḏ did not take the ark with him into the City of Dawiḏ, but took it aside into the house of Oḇēḏ-Eḏom the Gittite.

14 And the ark of Elohim remained with the household of Oḇēḏ-Eḏom in his house three months. And Elohim blessed the house of Oḇēḏ-Eḏom and all that he had.

14 And Hiram sovereign of Tsor sent messengers to Dawiḏ, and cedar trees, with stonemasons and carpenters, to build him a house.

And Dawiḏ knew that יהוה had established him as sovereign over Yisra’êl, for his reign was highly exalted for the sake of His people Yisra’êl.

And Dawiḏ took more wives in Yerushalayim, and Dawiḏ brought forth more sons and daughters.

And these are the names of his children whom he had in Yerushalayim: Shammua and Shoḇaḇ, Nathan and Shelomoh, and Yiḇḥar, and Elishua, and Elpelet, and Noḡah, and Nepheḵ, and Yaphiya, and Elishama, and Be’elyaḏa, and Elipelet.

And when the Philistines heard that Dawiḏ had been anointed sovereign over all Yisra’êl, all the Philistines went up to seek Dawiḏ. And Dawiḏ heard and went out against them.

And the Philistines came and made a raid on the Valley of Repha’im.

And Dawiḏ inquired of Elohim, saying, “Do I go up against the Philistines? And shall You give them into my hand?” And יהוה said to him, “Go up, and I shall give them into your hand.”

And they went up to Ba’al Peratsim, and Dawiḏ smote them there. Then Dawiḏ said, “Elohim has broken through my enemies by my hand like a breakthrough of water.” So they called the name of that place Ba’al Peratsim.

And they left their mighty ones there, so Dawiḏ commanded, and they were burned with fire.

And the Philistines once again made a raid on the valley.

And Dawiḏ again inquired of Elohim, and Elohim said to him, “Do not go up after them. Go around them, and come upon them in front of the mulberry trees.

And it shall be, when you hear a sound of stepping in the tops of the mulberry trees, then go out to battle, for Elohim shall go out before you to smite the camp of the Philistines.”

And Dawiḏ did as Elohim commanded him, and they drove back the army of the Philistines from Giḇ’ôn as far as Gezer.

And the name of Dawiḏ went out into all lands, and יהוה put the dread of him upon all nations.

And he built houses for himself in the City of Dawiḏ. And he prepared a place for the ark of Elohim, and pitched a tent for it.

Then Dawiḏ said, “No one is to lift the ark of Elohim but the Lëwites, for יהוה has chosen them to lift the ark of Elohim and to serve Him forever.”

And Dawiḏ assembled all Yisra’êl at Yerushalayim, to bring up the ark of יהוה to its place, which he had prepared for it.

And Dawiḏ gathered the children of Aharon and the Lëwites; of the sons of Qehath: Uri’êl the chief, and one hundred and twenty of his brothers;

of the sons of Merari: Asayah the chief, and two hundred and twenty of his brothers;

of the sons of Gëreshom: Yo’âl the chief, and one hundred and thirty of his brothers;

of the sons of Elitsaphan: Shemayah the chief, and two hundred of his brothers;

of the sons of Heb’ôn: Eli’êl the chief, and eighty of his brothers; of the sons of Uzzi’êl: Amminaḏâb the chief, and one hundred and twelve of his brothers.

And Dawiḏ called for Tsaḏoq and Ebyathar the priests, and for the Lëwites, for Uri’êl, Asayah, and Yo’êl, Shemayah, and Eli’êl, and Amminaḏâb, and said to them, “You are the heads of the fathers’ houses of the Lëwites. Set yourselves apart, you and your brothers, then you shall bring up the ark of יהוה Elohim of Yisra’êl to the place I have prepared for it.

Because you did not do it the first time, יהוה our Elohim broke out against us, because we did not ask Him about the right-ruling.”

So the priests and the Lëwites set themselves apart, to bring up the ark of יהוה Elohim of Yisra’êl.

And the children of the Lëwites bore the ark of Elohim on their shoulders, by its poles, as Mosheh had commanded according to the word of הוהי.

16 And Dawiḏ spoke to the leaders of the Lëwites to appoint their brothers the singers with instruments of song, harps, and lyres, and cymbals, to lift up the voice with joy.

17 And the Lëwites appointed Hêman son of Yoʾel, and of his brothers, Asaph son of Bereḵyahu; and of their brothers, the sons of Merari, Èythan son of Qushayahu;

18 and with them their brothers of the second rank: Zeḵaryahu, Bên, and Yaʾaziʾel, and Shemiramoṯ, and Yeḥiʾel, and Unni, Eliyaḇ, and Benayahu, and Maʾasēyahu, and Mattithyahu, and Eliphelėhʉ, and Miqnēyahu, and Oḇeḏ-Eḏom, and Yeʾiʾel, the gatekeepers;

19 and the singers Hêman, Asaph, and Èythan, were to sound the cymbals of bronze;

20 and Zeḵaryah, and Aziʾel, and Shemiramoṯ, and Yeḥiʾel, and Unni, and Eliyaḇ, and Maʾasēyahu, and Benayahu, with harps according to Alamoth;

21 and Mattithyahu, and Eliphelėhʉ, and Miqnēyahu, and Oḇeḏ-Eḏom, and Yeʾiʾel, and Azazayahu, to lead with lyres on the Sheminith;

22 and Kenanyahu, leader of the Lëwites, in the song, because he was skilled;

23 and Bereḵyahu and Elqanaḥ were doorkeepers for the ark;

24 and Sheḇanyahu, and Yoshaphat, and Nethaneʾl, and Amasai, and Zeḵaryahu, and Benayahu, and Eliʾezer, the priests, were to blow the trumpets before the ark of Elohim. And Oḇeḏ-Eḏom and Yeḥiyah, were doorkeepers for the ark.

25 And it was Dawiḏ and the elders of Yisraʾel, and the commanders over thousands, who went to bring up the ark of the covenant of הוהי from the house of Oḇeḏ-Eḏom with joy.

26 And it came to be, when Elohim helped the Lëwites who bore the ark of the covenant of הוהי, that they offered seven bulls and seven rams.

27 And Dawiḏ was dressed in a robe of fine linen, as were all the Lëwites who bore the ark, the singers, and Kenanyah the leader of the service with the singers. And Dawiḏ wore a linen shoulder garment.

28 So all Yisraʾel brought up the ark of the covenant of הוהי with shouting and with the sound of the horn, with trumpets and with cymbals, sounding with harps and lyres.

29 And it came to be, as the ark of the covenant of הוהי came to the City of Dawiḏ, that Mikal the daughter of Shaʿul, looking through a window, saw Sovereign Dawiḏ dancing and playing. And she despised him in her heart.

16 And they brought the ark of Elohim, and set it in the midst of the Tent that Dawiḏ had pitched for it. And they brought burnt offerings and peace offerings before Elohim.

2 And when Dawiḏ had made an end of offering the burnt offerings and the peace offerings, he blessed the people in the Name of הוהי,

3 and gave a portion to everyone of Yisraʾel, both man and woman, to everyone a loaf of bread, a measure, and a cake of raisins.

4 And he appointed some of the Lëwites to serve before the ark of הוהי, to bring to remembrance, and to thank, and to praise Elohim of Yisraʾel:

5 Asaph the chief, and his second Zeḵaryah, Yeʾiʾel, and Shemiramoṯ, and Yeḥiʾel, and Mattithyahu, and Eliyaḇ, and Benayahu, and Oḇeḏ-Eḏom, and Yeʾiʾel, with harps and lyres, but Asaph was sounding with cymbals;

6 and Benayahu and Yaḥaziʾel the priests continually blew the trumpets before the ark of the covenant of Elohim.

7 And on that day Dawiḏ first gave thanks to הוהי by the hand of Asaph and his brothers:

8 Give thanks to הוהי, call upon His Name, Make known His deeds among the peoples!

9 Sing to Him, sing praise to Him, Speak of all His wonders!

10 Boast in His set-apart Name, Let the hearts of those seeking הוהי
rejoice!
11 Seek יהוה and His strength,
Seek His face continually!
12 Remember His wonders which He has done,
His signs and the right-rulings of His mouth,
13 O seed of יسرائيل, His servant;
O children of יعقوב, His chosen ones!
14 He is יהוה our Elohim,
His right-rulings are in all the earth.
15 Remember His covenant forever,
The Word He commanded for a thousand generations,
16 Which He made with אברהם, And His oath to ישע,” 17 And He established it to יعقوב for a law,
To יسرائيل as an everlasting covenant,
18 Saying, “To you I give the land of קנה’an,
The portion of your inheritance,”
19 When you were but few in number,
Few indeed, and sojourners in it.
20 And they went up and down,
From one nation to another,
And from one reign to another people.
21 He allowed no one to oppress them,
And He reproved sovereigns for their sakes, saying:
22 “Do not touch My anointed ones,
And do My prophets no evil.”
23 Sing to יהוה, all the earth;
Proclaim His deliverance from day to day.
24 Declare His esteem among the nations,
His wonders among all peoples.
25 For great is יהוה and greatly to be praised;
And He is to be feared above all mighty ones.
26 For all the mighty ones of the peoples are matters of naught,
But יהוה made the heavens.
27 Excellency and splendour are before Him,
Strength and gladness are in His place.
28 Ascribe to יהוה, O clans of the peoples,
Ascribe to יהוה esteem and strength.
29 Ascribe to יהוה the esteem of His Name;
Bring an offering, and come before Him;
Bow yourself to יהוה In the splendour of set-apartness!
30 Tremble before Him, all the earth.
The world also is firmly established, immovable.
31 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
And let them say among the nations, “יהוה shall reign.”
32 Let the sea roar, and all that fills it;
Let the field rejoice, and all that is in it.
33 Let the trees of the forest then sing before יהוה,
For He shall come to judge the earth.
34 Give thanks to יהוה, for He is good,
For His kindness is everlasting!
35 And say, “Save us, O Elohim of our deliverance;
And gather us together,
And deliver us from the gentiles,
To give thanks to Your set-apart Name,
And boast in Your praise.”
36 Blessed be יהוה Elohim of יسرائيل
From everlasting to everlasting!
And all the people said, “Amën!” and praised יהוה.
37 So he left Asaph and his brothers there before the ark of the covenant of יהוה to perform regular service before the ark, as each day required;
38 also, Oḇêḏ-Edom with his sixty-eight brothers, including Oḇêḏ-Edom son of י:<?, and Ḥosah, to be gatekeepers;
39 and Tsaḏq the priest and his brothers the priests, before the Dwelling Place of יהוה that was at Gib’on,
40 to offer burnt offerings to יהוה on the altar of burnt offering regularly morning and evening, and to do according to all that is written in the Torah of יהוה which He commanded יسرائيل;
41 and with them Ḥêman and Yeḏuthun and the rest who were chosen, who were designated by name, to give thanks to because His kindness is everlasting;

and with them Hêman and Yequthun, to sound aloud with trumpets and cymbals and instruments for the songs of Elohim, and the sons of Yequthun for the gate.
And all the people went, each one to his house, and Dawiḏ returned to bless his	house.

And it came to be, when Dawiḏ was dwelling in his house, that Dawiḏ said to Nathan the prophet, “See, I am dwelling in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of HWHY is under curtains.”
And Nathan said to Dawiḏ, “Do all that is in your heart, for Elohim is with you.”
And it came to be that night that the word of Elohim came to Nathan, saying, “Go, and you shall say to My servant
Dawiḏ, ‘Thus said HWHY, “You do not build Me a house to dwell in.
“Wherever I have moved about with all Yisra’el, have I ever spoken a word to any of the rulers of Yisra’el, whom I commanded to shepherd My people, saying, ‘Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?’ ”’
“For I have not dwelt in a house since the time that I brought up Yisra’el, even to this day, but have gone from tent to tent, and from one Dwelling Place to another.
“Wherever I have moved about with all Yisra’el, have I ever spoken a word to any of the rulers of Yisra’el, whom I commanded to shepherd My people, saying, ‘Why have you not built Me a house of cedar?’ ”’
And now, say this to My servant
Dawiḏ, ‘Thus said HWHY of hosts, “I took you from the sheepfold, from following the sheep, to be ruler over My people Yisra’el.
“And I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you, and have made you a name like the name of the great men who are on the earth.
“And I shall prepare a place for My people Yisra’el and plant them, and they shall dwell in a place of their own and move no more, nor shall the sons of wickedness oppress them any more, as at the first,
since the time that I commanded rulers to be over My people Yisra’el, and I have humbled all your enemies. And I declared to you that HWHY does build you a house.
“And it shall be, when your days are filled to go to be with your fathers, that I shall raise up your seed after you, who is of your sons. And I shall establish his reign.
“He does build Me a house, and I shall establish his throne forever.
“I am to be his Father, and he is to be My son. And My kindness I do not turn away from him, as I took it from him who was before you.
“And I shall establish him in My house and in My reign forever, and let his throne be established forever.”’
According to all these words and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak to Dawiḏ.
And Sovereign Dawiḏ came in and sat before HWHY, and said, “Who am I, O HWHY Elohim? And what is my house, that You have brought me this far?
And this was a small matter in Your eyes, O Elohim, but You have spoken of Your servant’s house for a great while to come, and have looked upon me as though
I were an exalted man, O HWHY Elohim.
“What more could Dawiḏ add to You for the esteem of Your servant? For You know Your servant.
“O HWHY, for Your servant’s sake, and according to Your own heart, You have done all this greatness, in making known all these great matters.
“O HWHY, there is none like You, nor is there any Elohim besides You, according to all that we have heard with our ears.
“And who is like Your people Yisra’el, the one nation on the earth whom Elohim went to redeem for Himself as a people; to make for Yourself a great and awesome
Name, by driving out nations from before
Your people whom You redeemed from Mitsrayim?
“For You appointed Your people
Yisra’el to be Your own people forever.
And You, HWHY, have become their Elohim.
“And now, O HWHY, the word which You have spoken concerning Your servant and concerning his house, let it stand fast forever, and do as You have said.

24“So let it stand fast, and Your Name be great forever, saying, ‘Elohim of hosts, Elohim of Yisra’el, is Elohim to Yisra’el. And let the house of Your servant Dawiḏ be established before You.’

25“For You, O my Elohim, have revealed to Your servant to build a house for him. Therefore Your servant has found courage to pray before You.

26“And now, YHWH, You are Elohim, and have promised this goodness to Your servant.

27“And now, You have been pleased to bless the house of Your servant to be before You forever. For You have blessed it, O YHWH, and it is blessed forever.”

18 And after this it came to be that Dawiḏ smote the Philistines, and humbled them, and took Gath and its towns from the hand of the Philistines.

2And he smote the Mo’aḇites, and the Mo’aḇites became Dawiḏ’s servants, and brought presents.

3And Dawiḏ smote Haḏaḏezer sovereign of Tsobah as far as Ḥamath, as he went to establish his power by the River Euphrates.

4And Dawiḏ took from him one thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand foot soldiers. And Dawiḏ also hamstrung all the chariot horses, but left of them for one hundred chariots.

5And when Aram of Damascus came to help Haḏaḏezer sovereign of Tsobah as far as Ḥamath, he sent Haḏoram his son to Sovereign Dawiḏ, to ask peace of him and bless him, because he had fought against Haḏaḏezer and smote him – because Haḏaḏezer had been fighting against To’u – with all kinds of objects of gold, and silver, and bronze.

6And Dawiḏ also set these apart to YHWH, along with the silver and gold that he had brought from all these nations, from Edom, and from Mo’aḇ, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalēq.

7And Dawiḏ took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Haḏaḏezer, and brought them to Yerushalayim.

8And from Tiḥāṭh and from Kun, cities of Haḏaḏezer, Dawiḏ brought a large amount of bronze, with which Shelomoh made the bronze Sea, and the columns, and the vessels of bronze.

9And when To’u sovereign of Ḥamath heard that Dawiḏ had smitten all the army of Haḏaḏezer sovereign of Tsobah, 10he sent Haḏoram his son to Sovereign Dawiḏ, to ask peace of him and bless him, because he had fought against Haḏaḏezer and smote him – because Haḏaḏezer had been fighting against To’u – with all kinds of objects of gold, and silver, and bronze.

11Sovereign Dawiḏ also set these apart to YHWH, along with the silver and gold that he had brought from all these nations, from Edom, and from Mo’aḇ, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalēq.

12And Abishai son of Tseruyah smote eighteen thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt, 13and he put watch-posts in Edom, and all the Edomites became Dawiḏ’s servants. And YHWH saved Dawiḏ wherever he went.

14So Dawiḏ reigned over all Yisra’el, and he was doing right-ruling and righteous-ness to all his people.

15And Yo’aḇ son of Tseruyah was over the army, and Yehoshaphat son of Aḥiluḏ was recorder, 16and Tsāḏq son of Aḥituḏ and Aḇimeleḵ son of Eḇyathar were the priests, and Shawsha was the scribe, 17and Benayahu son of Yehoyaḏa was over the Kerēthites and the Pelēthites. And the sons of Dawiḏ were chiefs at the sovereign’s side.

19And after this it came to be that Naḥash the sovereign of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his place.

2And Dawiḏ said, “Let me show kindness to Ḥanun son of Naḥash, because his father showed kindness to me.” So Dawiḏ sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. And the servants of Dawiḏ came to Ḥanun in the land of the children of Ammon to comfort him.

3And the chiefs of the children of Ammon said to Ḥanun, “Is Dawiḏ esteeming your father, in your eyes, because he has sent comforters to you? Have his servants not come to you to search and to overthrow and to spy out the land?”

4 So Ḥanūn took Dawiḏ’s servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the middle, at their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 And when some went and informed Dawiḏ about the men, he sent to meet them, because the men were greatly ashamed. And the sovereign said, “Remain at Yeriḥo until your beards have grown, then return.”

6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves a stench to Dawiḏ, Ḥanūn and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire chariots and horsemen from Aram-Naharayim, and from Amram-Maʿaḵāḵah, and from Tsóbah.

7 So they hired for themselves thirty-two thousand chariots, with the sovereign of Maʿaḵāḵah and his people, who came and encamped before Mēḏeḇa. And the children of Ammon had gathered from their cities, and came to battle.

8 And when Dawiḏ heard, he sent Yo’aḇ and the entire army of the mighty men,

9 and the children of Ammon came out and put themselves in battle array before the gate of the city, and the sovereigns who had come were by themselves in the field.

10 And when Yo’aḇ saw that the battle had been set against him before and behind, he chose some of the choice ones of Yisra’ĕl, and put them in battle array to meet Aram.

11 And the rest of the people he put under the command of Aḇišaḥ his brother, and they set themselves in battle array to meet the children of Ammon.

12 And he said, “If Aram is too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the children of Ammon are too strong for you, then I shall help you.

13 “Be strong, and let us show strength for our people and for the cities of our Elohim, and let ננניק do what is good in His eyes.”

14 And Yo’aḇ drew near, and the people with him, to battle against Aram, and they fled before him.

15 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Arameans were fleeing, they also fled before Aḇišaḥ his brother, and went into the city. And Yo’aḇ came to Yerušalayim.

16 And when Aram saw that they had been smitten before Yisra’ĕl, they sent messengers and brought the Arameans who were beyond the River, and Shophaḵ the commander of Haḏ’aḡezer’s army went before them.

17 And it was reported to Dawiḏ, and he gathered all Yisra’ĕl, and passed over the Yardĕn and came upon them, and set up in battle array against them. And Dawiḏ set up in battle array against Aram, and they fought with him.

18 And Aram fled before Yisra’ĕl, and Dawiḏ slew seven thousand charioteers and forty thousand foot soldiers of the Arameans, and smote Shophaḵ the commander of the army.

19 And the servants of Haḏ’aḡezer saw that they were smitten by Yisra’ĕl, and they made peace with Dawiḏ and became his servants. And the Arameans would not help the children of Ammon any more.

20 And it came to be at the turn of the year, at the time sovereigns go out to battle, that Yo’aḇ led out the power of the army and destroyed the land of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But Dawiḏ remained at Yerushalayim. And Yo’aḇ smote Rabbah and overthrew it.

2 And Dawiḏ took their sovereign’s crown from his head, and found it weighed a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it. And it was set on Dawiḏ’s head. And he also brought out the spoil of the city, a very great amount.

3 And he brought out the people who were in it, and put them to work with saws, and with iron picks, and with axes. And thus Dawiḏ did to all the cities of the children of Ammon. Then Dawiḏ and all the people returned to Yerushalayim.

4 And afterward it came to be that fighting broke out at Gezer with the Philistines. Then Sibbeḵai the Ḥushathite smote Sippai of the sons of the giant, and they were humbled.

5 And there was fighting again with the Philistines, and El'hanan son of Ya'ir smote Lahmi the brother of Golyath the Gittite, the shaft of whose spear was like a weaver’s beam.

And there was fighting again at Gath, where there was a man of great size, with twenty-four fingers and toes, six and six. And he too was born to the giant.

And he reproached Yisra'él, and Yehonathan son of Shim'á, Dawi'ís brother, smote him.

These were born to the giant in Gath, and they fell by the hand of Dawi'ís and by the hand of his servants.

21 And Satan stood up against Yisra'él, and moved Dawi'ís to number Yisra'él.

And Dawi'ís said to Yo'ağ and to the rulers of the people, “Go, number Yisra'él from Be'ér'sheba to Dan, and bring the number of them to me so that I know it.”

And Yo'ağ answered, “HWHY does add to His people a hundred times more than they are. But, my master the sovereign, are they not all my master’s servants? Why does my master seek to do this? Why should he be a cause of guilt in Yisra'él?”

But the sovereign’s word prevailed against Yo'ağ. And Yo'ağ left and went throughout all Yisra'él and came to Yerushalayím.

And Yo'ağ gave the sum of the number of the people to Dawi'ís. And all Yisra'él had one million one hundred thousand men who drew the sword, and Yehuḏah had four hundred and seventy thousand men who drew the sword.

But he did not number Lēwi and Binyamin among them, for the sovereign’s word was loathsome to Yo'ağ.

And it was evil in the eyes of Elohim, concerning this matter, and He smote Yisra'él.

Then Dawi'ís said to Elohim, “I have sinned greatly, because I have done this matter. But now, I pray, take away the crookedness of Your servant, for I have done very foolishly.”

And Yehuḏa spoke to Gaḏ, Dawi'ís seer, saying, “Go, and you shall speak to Dawi'ís, saying, ‘Thus said Yehuḏa, ‘I hold three options before you – choose one of them for yourself, and I do it to you.’ ’ ”

So Gaḏ came to Dawi'ís and said to him, “Thus said Yehuḏa, ‘Choose for yourself either three years of scarcity of food, or three months to be defeated by your foes with the sword of your enemies overtaking you, or else for three days the sword of Yehuḏa, even the plague in the land, with the messenger of Yehuḏa destroying throughout all the borders of Yisra'él.’ And now consider what answer I am to return to Him who sent me.”

And Dawi'ís said to Gaḏ, “I am in great trouble. Please let me fall into the hand of His compassion is very great, but do not let me fall into the hand of man.”

And Yehuḏa sent a plague upon Yisra'él, and seventy thousand men of Yisra'él fell.

And Elohim sent a messenger to Yerushalayím to destroy it. And as he was destroying, Yehuḏa saw, and relented about the evil, and said to the messenger who was destroying, “Enough! Now stop your hand.” And the messenger of Yehuḏa was standing by the threshing-floor of Ornan the Yeḇusiite.

And Dawi'ís lifted his eyes and saw the messenger of Yehuḏa standing between earth and the heavens, having in his hand a drawn sword stretched out over Yerushalayím. And Dawi'ís and the elders, wrapped in sackcloth, fell on their faces.

And Dawi'ís said to Elohim, “Was it not I who commanded the people to be numbered? I am the one who has sinned and done evil indeed. But these, the sheep, what have they done? Let Your hand, I pray, O Elohim my Elohim, be against me and my father’s house, but not against Your people, to be plagued.”

And the messenger of Yehuḏa commanded Gaḏ to say to Dawi'ís that Dawi'ís should go up to raise an altar to Yehuḏa on the threshing-floor of Ornan the Yeḇusiite.

So Dawi'ís went up at the word of Gaḏ, which he had spoken in the Name of Yehuḏa.

And Ornan turned and saw the messenger. And his four sons with him hid themselves, and Ornan was threshing wheat.

21 And Dawiḏ came to Ornan, and Ornan looked and saw Dawiḏ, and he went out from the threshing-floor, and bowed down to Dawiḏ with his face to the ground.

22 And Dawiḏ said to Ornan, “Give me the site of the threshing-floor, so that I build an altar to הוהי on it. Give it to me at the complete price, so that the plague is restrained from the people.”

23 And Ornan said to Dawiḏ, “Take it for yourself, and let my master the sovereign do what is good in his eyes. See, I shall give you the cattle for burnt offerings, the threshing implements for wood, and the wheat for the grain offering. I give it all.”

24 And Sovereign Dawiḏ said to Ornan, “No, but I shall certainly buy it at the complete price, for I do not take what is yours for הוהי, nor offer a burnt offering without cost.”

25 And Dawiḏ gave Ornan six hundred sheqels of gold by weight for the place.

26 And Dawiḏ built there an altar to הוהי, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings, and called on הוהי. And He answered him from the heavens by fire on the altar of burnt offering.

27 Then הוהי commanded the messenger, and he returned his sword to its sheath.

28 At that time, when Dawiḏ saw that הוהי had answered him on the threshing-floor of Ornan the Yeḇusite, he slaughtered there, 29 for the Dwelling Place of הוהי and the altar of the burnt offering, which Mosheh had made in the wilderness, were at that time at the high place in Gib'on.

30 But Dawiḏ was unable to go before it to inquire of Elohim, for he was afraid of the sword of the messenger of הוהי.

22 Dawiḏ then said, “This is the House of הוהי Elohim, and this is the altar of burnt offering for Yisra'æl.”

2 And Dawiḏ commanded to gather the foreigners who were in the land of Yisra'æl. And he appointed stonemasons to cut hewn stones to build the House of Elohim.

3 And Dawiḏ prepared large quantities of iron for the nails of the doors of the gates and for the clamps, and more bronze than could be weighed,

4 and cedar trees beyond number, for the Tsiḏônians and those from Tsor brought much cedar wood to Dawiḏ.

5 And Dawiḏ said, “Shelomoh my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be built for הוהי is to be exceedingly great, for a splendid Name, to all the lands. Please, let me make preparation for it.” So Dawiḏ made extensive preparations before his death.

6 He also called for his son Shelomoh, and commanded him to build a house for הוהי Elohim of Yisra'æl.

7 And Dawiḏ said to Shelomoh, “My son, as for me, it has been in my heart to build a house to the Name of הוהי my Elohim,

8 but the word of הוהי came to me, saying, ‘You have shed much blood and have fought great battles. You do not build a house for My Name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in My presence.

9 ‘See, a son is to be born to you, who is a man of rest. And I shall give him rest from all his enemies all around, for Shelomoh is his name, and peace and rest I give to Yisra'æl in his days.

10 ‘He does build a house for My Name, and he is to be My son, and I am to be his Father. And I shall establish the throne of his reign over Yisra'æl forever.’

11 “Now, my son, הוהי be with you, then you shall prosper and build the House of הוהי your Elohim, as He has said to you.

12 “Only, let הוהי give you wisdom and understanding, and command you concerning Yisra'æl, so that you guard the Torah of הוהי your Elohim, 13 then you shall prosper, if you guard to do the laws and right-rulings with which הוהי commanded Mosheh concerning Yisra'æl. Be strong and brave, do not fear nor be discouraged.

14 “See, in my affliction I have prepared for the House of הוהי one hundred thousand talents of gold and one million talents of silver, and bronze and iron beyond mea-

For by the last words of Dawiḏ the Lēwites were numbered from twenty years old and above, because their duty was to help the sons of Aharon in the service of the House of יהוה, in the courtyards and in the rooms, in the cleansing of all that was set-apart, and the work of the service of the House of Elohim, both with the showbread and the fine flour for the grain offering, and with the unleavened cakes and what is baked on the griddle, and with what is mixed and with all kinds of measures and sizes; and to stand every morning to thank and praise יהוה, and so at evening; and for all the burnt offerings to יהוה on the Sabbaths and on the New Moons and on the appointed times, by number according to the right-ruling upon them, continually before יהוה; and that they should guard the duty of the Tent of Meeting, the duty of the set-apart place, and the duty of the sons of Aharon their brothers in the service of the House of יהוה.

And the divisions of the sons of Aharon: The sons of Aharon were Naḏāb and Abihu, El’azar and Ithamar. But Naḏāb and Abihu died before their father, and had no children, so El’azar and Ithamar served as priests. And Dawiḏ, with Tsādqōq the sons of the sons of Eli’azar, and Ahimelek of the sons of Ithamar, divided them according to their offices in their service.

And there were more leaders found of the sons of Eli’azar than of the sons of Ithamar. So they divided the sons of Eli’azar into sixteen heads of their fathers’ houses, and the sons of Ithamar into eight heads of their fathers’ houses. And they were divided by lot, one group as another, for there were officials of the set-apart place and officials of Elohim, from the sons of El’azar and from the sons of Ithamar.

And the scribe, Shemayah son of Nethané’l, one of the Lēwites, wrote them down before the sovereign, and the rulers, and Tsādqōq the priest, and Ahimelek son of Ebyathar, and the heads of the fathers’ houses of the priests and Lēwites, one father’s house taken for El’azar and one for Ithamar. And the first lot came forth to Yeḥoyariḇ, the second to Yeḏayyah, the third to Ḥarim, the fourth to Se’ōrim, the fifth to Malkiyah, the sixth to Miymān, the seventh to Haqqōts, the eighth to Abiyah, the ninth to Yešhua, the tenth to Yeḵanyahu, the eleventh to Eliyashib, the twelfth to Yaqim, the thirteenth to Ḥuppah, the fourteenth to Yešeḇ’aḇ, the fifteenth to Bilgah, the sixteenth to Immēr, the seventeenth to Ḥezir, the eighteenth to Happitstsēts, the nineteenth to Pethaḥyahu, the twentieth to Yeheqzēl, the twenty-first to Yākin, the twenty-second to Yaḵyahu, the twenty-third to Delayahu, the twenty-fourth to Ma’azyahu. These were their offices in their service for coming into the House of יהוה according to their right-ruling by the hand of Aharon their father, as יהוה Elohim of Yisra’ēl had commanded him. And the rest of the sons of Lēwi: of the sons of Amram, Shuḇa’ēl; of the sons of Shuḇa’ēl, Yeḏe’ēl; of the sons of Yeḏe’ēl, Yishshiyahu.

Concerning Reḥabyyahu, of the sons of Reḥabyyahu, the head was Yishshiyahu. Of the Yitsharites, Shelomoth; of the sons of Shelomoth, Yaḥath. Of the sons of Eliyahu, Amram, the head, and Yaqim’s son, Shelomoth, the second; and Yeḥzeyahu’s son, Yahath.

Of the sons of Yeḵron, Yeriyahu was the head, Amramahu the second, Yaḥazi’el the third, and Yeqam’am the fourth. Of the sons of Uzzi’el, Miḵah; of the sons of Miḵah, Shamir. The brother of Miḵah, Yishshiyahu; of the sons of Yishshiyahu, Yeḵaryahu.

Of the sons of Yeḵron, Yeriyahu was the head, Amramahu the second, Yaḥazi’el the third, and Yeqam’am the fourth. Of the sons of Uzzi’el, Miḵah; of the sons of Miḵah, Shamir. The brother of Miḵah, Yishshiyahu; of the sons of Yishshiyahu, Yeḵaryahu.

Of the sons of Yeḵron, Yeriyahu was the head, Amramahu the second, Yaḥazi’el the third, and Yeqam’am the fourth. Of the sons of Uzzi’el, Miḵah; of the sons of Miḵah, Shamir. The brother of Miḵah, Yishshiyahu; of the sons of Yishshiyahu, Yeḵaryahu.

Concerning the sons of Yeḵron, Yeriyahu was the head, Amramahu the second, Yaḥazi’el the third, and Yeqam’am the fourth. Of the sons of Uzzi’el, Miḵah; of the sons of Miḵah, Shamir. The brother of Miḵah, Yishshiyahu; of the sons of Yishshiyahu, Yeḵaryahu.

The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi; the sons of Yā’aziyyahu, Beno. The sons of Merari by Ya’aziyyahu:
Beno, and Shoham, and Zakkur, and Icli.

28 Of MaHli: El’azar, who had no sons.

29 Of Qish: the son of Qish, Yerahme’el.

30 And the sons of Mushli: MaHli, Edor, and Yerimoth. These were the sons of the Lëwites according to their fathers’ houses.

31 These also cast lots, they too, as their brothers the sons of Aharon, in the presence of Sovereign Dawid, and Tsadoq, and A’himelek, and the heads of the fathers’ houses of the priests and Lëwites – the head of the fathers, as well as his younger brothers.

25 And Dawid and the commanders of the army separated for the service some of the sons of Asaph, and of Hëman, and of YeHuthun, who should prophesy with lyres, with harps, and with cymbals. And the number of the workmen according to their service was:

2 Of the sons of Asaph: Zakkur, and YosÃph, and Nethanyah, and Ashar’elah, the sons of Asaph at the hands of Asaph, who prophesied at the hands of the sovereign.

3 Of YeHuthun, the sons of YeHuthun: Gedalyahu, and Tseri, and Yeshayahu, Hashabyahu, and Mattityahu, six, under the hands of their father YeHuthun, who prophesied with a lyre to give thanks and to praise HWHY.

4 Of Hëman, the sons of Hëman: Buqqiyahu, Mattanyahu, Uzzi’el, Shebu’el, and Yerimoth, Hananyah, Hanani, Eliyathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-Ezer, Yoshbeqashah, Mallothi, Hothir, Mahaziyoth.

5 All these were the sons of Hëman the sovereign’s seer in the words of Elohim, to exalt his horn. For Elohim gave Hëman fourteen sons and three daughters.

6 All these were at the hands of their father for song in the House of HWHY, with cymbals, harps and lyres, for the service of the House of Elohim: Asaph, YeHuthun, and Hëman, at the hands of the sovereign.

7 And the number of them, with their brothers who were taught in the songs of HWHY, all who were skilled, was two hundred and eighty-eight.

8 And they cast lots for their duty, the small as well as the great, the teacher with the student.

9 And the first lot for Asaph came forth for Yosèph; Gedalyahu the second, he, and his brothers and sons, twelve;

10 the third Zakkur, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

11 the fourth Yitsri, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

12 the fifth Nethanyahu, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

13 the sixth Buqqiyahu, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

14 the seventh Yesar’elah, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

15 the eighth Yeshayahu, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

16 the ninth Mattanyahu, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

17 the tenth Shim’i, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

18 the eleventh Azar’el, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

19 the twelfth Hashabyah, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

20 the thirteenth Shuba’el, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

21 the fourteenth Mattityahu, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

22 the fifteenth Yeremoth, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

23 the sixteenth Hananyahu, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

24 the seventeenth Yoshbeqashah, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

25 the eighteenth Hanani, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

26 the nineteenth Mallothi, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

27 the twentieth Eliyathah, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

28 the twenty-first Hothir, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

29 the twenty-second Giddalti, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

30 the twenty-third Mahaziyyoth, his sons and his brothers, twelve;

31 the twenty-fourth Romamti-Ezer, his sons and his brothers, twelve.
26 For the divisions of the gatekeepers: Of the Qoráites, Meshelemyahu son of Qorê, of the sons of Asaph.

2 And the sons of Meshelemyahu: Zeḳaryahu the first-born, Yedîya'êl the second, Zeḇadyahu the third, Yathni'êl the fourth,

3 Éy lam the fifth, Yehohan an the sixth, Elyô'ēynai the seventh.

4 And the sons of Oḇèd-Edôm: Shema-yah the first-born, Yehozabaḏ the second, Yo'âḥ the third, Saḵar the fourth, Nethanê’l the fifth,

5 Ammi’êl the sixth, Yiṣṣakar the seventh, Pe’üllethai the eighth, for Elohim blessed him.

6 Also to Shemayah his son were sons born who ruled their fathers’ houses, because they were able mighty men.

7 The sons of Shemayah: Othni, and Repha’êl, and Oḇèd, Elzaḇaḏ, whose brothers Elihu and Semakyaḥu were able men.

8 All these were of the sons of Oḇèd-Edôm, they and their sons and their brothers, able men with strength for the work: sixty-two of Oḇèd-Edôm.

9 And Meshelemyahu had sons and brothers, eighteen able men.

10 Also Ḥosah, of the children of Merari, had sons: Shimri the head (although he was not the first-born, his father made him the head), 11 Ḥilqiyaḥu the second, Teḇaliyaḥu the third, Zeḳaryahu the fourth. All the sons and brothers of Ḥosah were thirteen.

12 These divisions of the gatekeepers, among the chief men, had duties like their brothers, to serve in the House of HWHY.

13 And they cast lots for each gate, the small as well as the great, according to their father’s house.

14 And the lot to the east fell to Shelemyahu. Then they cast lots for his son Zeḳaryahu, a wise counsellor, and his lot came out to the north;

15 to Oḇèd-Edôm to the south, and to his sons the storehouse;

16 to Shuppim and Ḥosah to the west, with the Shalleḵeth Gate on the ascending highway; guard corresponding with guard.

17 On the east were six Lëwites, on the north four each day, on the south four each day, and for the storehouse two by two.

18 As for the Parbar on the west, there were four on the highway and two at the Parbar.

19 These were the divisions of the gatekeepers among the sons of Qoraḥ and among the sons of Merari.

20 And of the Lëwites, Aḥiyah was over the treasuries of the House of Elohim and over the treasuries of the set-apart gifts.

21 The sons of La’dan, the sons of the Gêreshonites of La’dan, heads of their fathers’ houses, of La’dan the Gêreshonite: Yeḥi’êli.

22 The sons of Yeḥi’êli, Zetham and Yo’êl his brother, were over the treasuries of the House of ？” ？”.

23 Of the Amramites, the Yiṯsharites, the Hebronites, and the Uzzi’êlites, 24 even Sheḇu’êl son of Gêreshom, son of Mosheḥ, was overseer of the treasuries.

25 And his brothers by Eli’ezer were Reḥavyahu his son, and Yeshayahu his son, and Yoram his son, and Ziḵri his son, and Shelomoth his son.

26 This Shelomoth and his brothers were over all the treasuries of the set-apart gifts which Sovereign Dawiḏ and the heads of fathers’ houses, the commanders over thousands and hundreds, and the commanders of the army, had set apart.

27 Some of the booty won in battles they set apart to maintain the House of ？” ？”.

28 And all that Shemu’ēl the seer, and Sha’ul son of Qish, and Aḇner son of Ṯér, and Yo’âb son of Tseruyah had set apart, all who were setting apart, were under the hand of Shelomith and his brothers.

29 Of the Yiṯsharites, Kenanyahu and his sons were for the outward duties as officials and judges over Yisra’êl.

30 Of the Hebronites, Ḥashabyahu and his brothers, one thousand seven hundred able men, had the oversight of Yisra’êl beyond the Yardên westward, for all the work of ？” ？”; and in the service of the sovereign.

31 Of the Hebronites, Yiṣriyah was head of the Hebronites according to his genealogy... of the fathers. In the fortieth year of the reign of Dawiḏ they were sought, and there were found among them able men at Yaʿzêr of Gilʿad.

32 And his brothers were two thousand seven hundred able men, heads of fathers’ houses, whom Sovereign Dawiḏ made officials over the Reʿuḇênites, and the Gadiites, and the half-tribe of Menashsheh, in all matters of Elohim and matters of the sovereign.

27 And the children of Yisraʾel, according to their number, the heads of fathers’ houses, and the commanders of thousands and hundreds and their officers, served the sovereign in all matters of the divisions which came in and went out month by month throughout all the months of the year, each division having twenty-four thousand.

2 Over the first division for the first month was Yashoḥam son of Zaḥdiʾel, and in his division were twenty-four thousand;
3 of the sons of Perets, and the chief of all the commanders of the army for the first month.

4 And over the division of the second month was Doʾqai an Aḥôšite, and of his division Miqloth also was the leader, and in his division were twenty-four thousand.
5 The third commander of the army for the third month was Benayahu, son of Yehoyaḏa the priest, who was chief, and in his division were twenty-four thousand.
6 This was the Benayahu who was mighty among the thirty, and was over the thirty, and in his division was Ammizaḥaḏ his son.

7 The fourth for the fourth month was Asahʾel the brother of Yoʿaḇ, and Zebadyah his son after him, and in his division were twenty-four thousand.
8 The fifth for the fifth month was Shamhuth the Yizraḥite, and in his division were twenty-four thousand.
9 The sixth for the sixth month was Ira son of Iqqĕsh the Teqowite, and in his division were twenty-four thousand.
10 The seventh for the seventh month was Hêlets the Pelonite, of the children of Ephrayim, and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

11 The eighth for the eighth month was Sibbeḵai the Ḥushathite, of the Zarḥites, and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

12 The ninth for the ninth month was Aḇiʾezer the Anathothite, of the Binyamites, and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

13 The tenth for the tenth month was Maharai the Netophathite, of the Zarḥites, and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

14 The eleventh for the eleventh month was Benayah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephrayim, and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

15 The twelfth for the twelfth month was Ḥeldai the Netophathite, of Othniʾel, and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

16 And over the tribes of Yisraʾel: the chief officer over Reʿuḇên: Eliʾezer son of Ziḏri; over Shimʿon: Shephatyahu son of Maʿakah;

17 Lĕwi: Ḥashabyah son of Qemuʾel; over
Aharon: Tsadqoq;

18 Yehuḏah: Elihu, one of Dawiḏ’s brothers; Yissasḵar: Omri son of Miḵaʾel;

19 Zeḇulun: Yishmayahu son of Oḇadyahu; Naphtali: Yerimoth son of Azriʾel;

20 the children of Ephrayim: Hoshěa son of Azazyahu; the half-tribe of Menash-sheh: Yoʿel son of Peḏayahu;

21 the half-tribe of Menashsheh in Gilʾad:
Iddo son of Zeḵaryahu; Binyamin:
Yaʿasiʾel son of Abnĕr;

22 Dan: Azarʾel son of Yeroḥam. These were the rulers of the tribes of Yisraʾel.

23 But Dawiḏ did not take the number of those twenty years old and under, because יהוה had said He would increase Yisraʾel like the stars of the heavens.

24 Yoʿaḇ son of Tseruyah began a census, but he did not finish, for wrath came upon Yisraʾel because of this census; nor was the number recorded in the account of the annals of Sovereign Dawiḏ.

25 And Azmaweth son of Adiʾel was over the sovereign’s treasuries. And Yehonathan son of Uzziyah was over the store-

26 And Ezri son of Keluḇ was over those who did the work of the field for tilling the ground.
27 And Shim’i the Ramathite was over the vineyards, and Zaḇdi the ShipHEME was over the increase of the vineyards for the wine cellars.
28 And Ba’al-Hanan the Gedērē was over the olive trees and the sycamore trees that were in the low country, and Yo’ash was over the oil-stores.
29 And Shiṭrāi the Sharonite was over the herds that fed in Sharon, and Shaphat son of Aḏlai was over the herds that were in the valleys.
30 And Oḇil the Yishma’ēlite was over the camels, and Yehʿdeyahu the Mēronothite was over the donkeys, 31 and Yāziz the Haṯrite was over the flocks. All of these were heads over the property of Sovereign Dawiḏ.
32 Also Yehonathan, Dawiḏ’s uncle, was a counsellor, a wise man and a scribe. And Yehi’el son of Ḥaḵmoni was with the sovereign’s sons.
33 And Aḥithophel was the sovereign’s counsellor, and Ḥushai the Arkite was the sovereign’s companion.
34 And after Aḥithophel was Yehoyada son of Benayahu, then Ebyathar. And the chief of the sovereign’s army was Yo’āḇ.

28 And Dawiḏ assembled at Yerushalayim all the rulers of Yisra’ēl: the rulers of the tribes and the commanders of the divisions who served the sovereign, the commanders over thousands and commanders over hundreds, and the heads over all the property and possessions of the sovereign and of his sons, with the officials, the mighty men, and all the mighty brave men.

2Then Sovereign Dawiḏ rose to his feet and said, “Hear me, my brothers and my people: I had it in my heart to build a house for My Name, because you have been a man of battle and have shed blood.’

4“Yet Elohim of Yisra’ēl chose me above all the house of my father to be sovereign over Yisra’ēl forever, for He has chosen Yehuḏah to be the ruler. And of the house of Yehuḏah, the house of my father, and among the sons of my father, He was pleased with me to make me reign over all Yisra’ēl.

5“And of all my sons – for Elohim has given me many sons – He has chosen my son Shelomoh to sit on the throne of the reign of Yehuḏah over Yisra’ēl, 6and said to me, ‘Shelomoh your son is the one to build My house and My courtyards, for I have chosen him to be My son, and I Myself am a Father to him.

7‘And I shall establish his reign forever, if he is strong to do My commands and My right-rulings, as it is this day.’

8“And now, before the eyes of all Yisra’ēl, the assembly of Elohim, and in the hearing of our Elohim, guard and seek all the commands of Elohim your Elohim, so that you possess this good land, and leave it as an inheritance for your children after you forever.

9“As for you, my son Shelomoh, know the Elohim of your father, and serve Him with a perfect heart and with a pleasing life, for Elohim searches all hearts and understands all the intent of the thoughts. If you do seek Him, He is found by you; but if you forsake Him, He rejects you forever.

10“See, now, for Elohim has chosen you to build a house for the set-apart place. Be strong, and do it.”

11And Dawiḏ gave his son Shelomoh the plans for the porch, and its houses, and its treasuries, and its inner rooms, and the place of atonement;

12and the plans for all that he had by the Spirit, of the courtyards of the House of Elohim, and of all the rooms all around, and of the treasuries of the House of Elohim, and of the treasuries for the set-apart gifis;

13and for the divisions of the priests and the Lĕwites, and for all the work of the service of the House of Elohim, and for all the vessels of service in the House of יְהֹוָה;
14 even gold by weight for utensils of gold, for all utensils used in every kind of service; for silver for all utensils of silver by weight, for all utensils used in every kind of service;
15 and by weight for the lampstands of gold, and their lamps of gold, by weight for each lampstand and its lamps; and for the lampstands of silver by weight, for the lampstand and its lamps, according to the use of each lampstand;
16 and by weight gold for the tables of the showbread, for each table, and silver for the tables of silver;
17 and clean gold for the forks, and the basins, and the jars of clean gold, and the golden bowls, by weight for every bowl; and for the silver bowls, silver by weight for every bowl;
18 and refined gold by weight for the altar of incense, and for the pattern of the chariot of the gold keruÁim, spreading out their wings and covering over the ark of the covenant of יְהֹוָה.
19 “יְהֹוָה made me understand all this in writing, by His hand upon me, all the works of these plans.”
20 And DawiÅ the sovereign said to his son Shelomoh, “Be strong and courageous, and do it. Do not fear nor be afraid, for יְהֹוָה Elohim, my Elohim, is with you. He shall not leave you nor forsake you, until you have completed all the work for the service of the House of יְהֹוָה.
21 “And see, the divisions of the priests and the Lָוָּהites for all the service of the House of Elohim, and every volunteer of any skill is with you in all work, for every kind of service. And the rulers and all the people are entirely at your command.”
29 And DawiÅ the sovereign said to all the assembly, “My son Shelomoh, the one whom Elohim has chosen, is young and tender. And the work is great, because the palace is not for man but for יְהֹוָה Elohim.
22 “And with all my power I have prepared for the House of my Elohim: the gold for the gold, and the silver for the sil- ver, and the bronze for the bronze, the iron for the iron, and the wood for the wood, shoham stones, and settings, and fair stones of various colours, and all kinds of precious stones, and marble slabs – in large quantities.

3“And also, because I delighted in the House of my Elohim, I have treasure of gold and silver; I give for the House of my Elohim even more than all that I have prepared for the Set-apart House:
4 three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses;
5 the gold for the gold and the silver for the silver, and for all kinds of work to be done by the hands of craftsmen. Who then is moved to fill his hand today for יְהֹוָה?”
6 And the leaders of the fathers’ houses, and the leaders of the tribes of יִשְׂרָאֵל, and the commanders of thousands and of hundreds, with the heads over the sovereign’s work, volunteered
7 and gave for the work of the House of Elohim five thousand talents and ten thousand darics of gold, and ten thousand talents of silver, and eighteen thousand talents of bronze, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.
8 And those with whom were found precious stones gave them to the treasury of the House of יְהֹוָה, into the hand of יְהֹוָה the Gָרֵשׁוֹנִי.
9 And the people rejoiced, for they had given voluntarily, because with a perfect heart they had given voluntarily to יְהֹוָה. And DawiÅ the sovereign also rejoiced greatly.
10 And DawiÅ blessed יְהֹוָה before all the assembly. And DawiÅ said, “Blessed are You, יְהֹוָה Elohim of Yisra’ël, our Father, forever and ever.
11 “Yours, O יְהֹוָה, is the greatness, the power and the comeliness, the pre-emminence and the excellency, because of all that is in the heavens and in the earth. Yours is the reign, O יְהֹוָה, and You are exalted as head above all.
12 “And the riches and the esteem come from Your presence, and You rule over all.
And in Your hand is power and might, and in Your hand to make great and to give strength to all.

13"And now, our Elohim, we thank You and praise Your comely Name.

14"But who am I, and who are my people, that we should be able to give so voluntarily as this? For all comes from You, and we have given to You out of Your hand.

15"For we are sojourners and pilgrims before You, as were all our fathers; our days on earth are as a shadow, and without permanence.

16"O אֱלֹהִים our Elohim, all this store that we have prepared to build You a house for Your set-apart Name is from Your hand, and all is of You.

17"And I know, my Elohim, that You are trying the heart and desire uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have voluntarily given all these. And now with joy I have seen Your people, who are present here to give voluntarily to You.

18"O אֱלֹהִים Elohim of Abrahām, Yitsḥaq, and Yisraʿēl, our fathers, guard this forever in the intent of the thoughts of the heart of Your people, and prepare their heart toward You.

19"And give my son Shelomoh a perfect heart to guard Your commands and Your witnesses and Your laws, to do all, and to build the palace for which I have prepared."

20And Dawiḏ said to all the assembly, “Now bless יהוה your Elohim.” And all the assembly blessed יהוה Elohim of their fathers, and bowed their heads and did obeisance to יהוה and the sovereign.

21And they made offerings to יהוה and offered burnt offerings to יהוה on the next day: a thousand bulls, a thousand rams, a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and slaughterings in large numbers for all Yisraʾēl.

22And they ate and drank before יהוה with great joy on that day. And they set up Shelomoh son of Dawiḏ to reign the second time, and anointed him before יהוה to be leader, and Tsadok to be priest.

23And Shelomoh sat on the throne of יהוה as sovereign instead of Dawiḏ his father, and prospered; and all Yisraʾēl obeyed him.

24And all the rulers and the mighty men, and also all the sons of Sovereign Dawiḏ, submitted themselves to Shelomoh the sovereign.

25And יהוה exalted Shelomoh exceedingly in the eyes of all Yisraʾēl, and put upon him such royal splendour as had not been on any sovereign before him in Yisraʾēl.

26Thus Dawiḏ son of Yishai reigned over all Yisraʾēl.

27And the days that he reigned over Yisraʾēl was forty years. He reigned seven years in Ḥebron, and he reigned thirty-three years in Yerushalayim.

28And he died in a good old age, satisfied with days, riches and esteem. And Shelomoh his son reigned in his place.

29And the acts of Sovereign Dawiḏ, first and last, see, they are written in the book of Shemuʿēl the seer, in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the book of Gaḏ the seer, 30with all his reign and his might, and the times that passed over him, and over Yisraʾēl, and over all the reigns of the lands.

1 And Shelomoh son of Dawiå strengthened himself over his reign, and הוהי his Elohim was with him and made him exceedingly great.

2 And Shelomoh spoke to all Yisra'ël, to the commanders of the thousands and of the hundreds, to the judges, and to every leader in all Yisra'ël, the heads of the fathers' houses.

3 And Shelomoh, and all the assembly with him, went to the high place that was at Giḇ'on, for Elohim’s Tent of Meeting was there, which Mosheh the servant of הוהי had made in the wilderness.

4 However, Dawiå had brought up the ark of Elohim from Qiryath Ye'arim to the place Dawiå had prepared for it, for he had pitched a tent for it in Yerushalayim.

5 And the bronze altar that Betsal'el son of Uri son of Àur had made, he put before the Dwelling Place of הוהי. And Shelomoh and the assembly sought it.

6 And Shelomoh went up there to the bronze altar before הוהי, which was at the Tent of Meeting, and offered a thousand burnt offerings on it.

7 That night Elohim appeared to Shelomoh, and said to him, “Ask what should I give you!”

8 And Shelomoh said to Elohim, “You have shown great kindness to Dawiå my father, and have made me sovereign in his place.

9 Now, הוהי, let Your promise to Dawiå my father stand fast, for You have set me up to reign over a people as numerous as the dust of the earth.

10 Give me wisdom and knowledge, so that I go out and come in before this people. For who is able to rightly rule My people over whom I have set you up to reign,

12 wisdom and knowledge are given to you. And riches and wealth and esteem I also give you, such as none of the sovereigns have had who have been before you, nor any after you have.”

13 And Shelomoh went up to Yerushalayim from the high place that was at Giḇ'on, from before the Tent of Meeting, and reigned over Yisra’el.

14 And Shelomoh gathered chariots and horsemen, and he had one thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen, whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the sovereign in Yerushalayim.

15 And the sovereign made silver and gold to be as stones in Yerushalayim, and he made cedars to be as plenty as the sycamores which are in the low country.

16 And Shelomoh had horses imported from Mitsrayim and from Qù – the sovereign’s merchants bought them in Qù at a price.

17 And they came up and brought from Mitsrayim a chariot for six hundred pieces of silver, and a horse for one hundred and fifty. And so, for all the sovereigns of the Òittites and the sovereigns of Aram, they brought them out by their hand.

2 And Shelomoh gave word to build a House for the Name of הוהי, and a house for his reign.

2 Then Shelomoh enrolled seventy thousand men to bear burdens, eighty thousand hewing stone in the mountains, and three thousand six hundred to oversee them.

3 And Shelomoh sent to Àuram sovereign of Tsor, saying, “As you did for my father Dawiå, and sent him cedars to build himself a house to dwell in –
4 see, I am building a House for the Name of my Elohim, to set it apart to Him, to burn before Him sweet incense, and for the continual showbread, and for the burnt offerings morning and evening, on the Sabbaths, and on the New Moons, and on the appointed times of our Elohim. This is for Yisra’êl forever.

5“And the House which I build is great, for our Elohim is greater than all mighty ones.

6“But who is able to build Him a House, since the heavens and the heavens of the heavens are unable to contain Him? Who am I then, that I should build Him a House, except to offer before Him?

7“And now, send me at once a man who knows to work in gold, and in silver, and in bronze, and in iron, and in purple and crimson and blue, and knowing to engrave with the skilled men who are with me in Yehuâah and Yerushalayim, whom Dawiê my father has prepared.

8“And send me cedar, cypress and algum logs from Lebanon, for I know that your servants know to cut timber in Lebanon. And see, my servants are with your servants, 9 even to prepare plenty of timber for me, for the House that I am building is great and marvellous.

10“And see, I have given servants to you, the hewers who cut timber, twenty thousand kors of ground wheat, and twenty thousand kors of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.”

11 Then Ḥuram the sovereign of Tsor answered in writing, which he sent to Shelomoh, “Because loves His people, He has made you sovereign over them.”

12 And Ḥuram said, “Blessed be Elohim of Yisra’êl, who made the heavens and earth, for He has given Sovereign Dawiê a wise son, knowing wisdom and understanding, to build a House for and a house for his reign!

13“And now I have sent a skilled man having understanding, Ḥuram-abi,

14 the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tsor, who knows to work in gold, and in silver, in bronze, in iron, in stone, and in wood, purple and blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson, and to make any engraving and to accomplish any plan that is given to him, with your skilled men and with the skilled men of my master Dawiê your father.

15“And now, the wheat and the barley, the oil and the wine which my master has spoken of, let him send to his servants.

16“And let us cut wood from Lebanon, as much as you need, and bring it to you in rafts by sea to Yapho, and you take it up to Yerushalayim.”

17 And Shelomoh numbered all the men, the strangers who were in the land of Yisra’êl, according to the census in which Dawiê his father had numbered them, and they were found to be one hundred and fifty-three thousand six hundred.

18 And he made seventy thousand of them to bear burdens, and eighty thousand hewers of stone in the mountain, and three thousand six hundred overseers to make the people work.

3 And Shelomoh began to build the House of Elohim at Yerushalayim on Mount Moriyah, where He appeared to his father Dawiê, at the place that Dawiê had prepared on the threshing-floor of Ornan the Yeûusite.

2 And he began to build on the second day of the second month in the fourth year of his reign.

3 And these are the foundations which Shelomoh laid for building the House of Elohim: The length by cubits according to the former measure were sixty cubits, and the width twenty cubits.

4 And the porch that was in front was twenty cubits long according to the breadth of the house, and the height was one hundred and twenty. And he overlaid the inside with clean gold.

5 And the great house he panelled with cypress which he overlaid with fine gold, and he carved palm trees and chainwork on it.

6 And he covered the house with precious stones for comeliness, and the gold was gold from Parwayim.
7 And he overlaid the house, the beams, the doorposts, and its walls, and its doors with gold, and carved keru‘im on the walls.
8 And he made the House of the Most Set-apart. Its length was according to the width of the house, twenty cubits, and its width twenty cubits. And he overlaid it with fine gold, six hundred talents.
9 And the weight of the nails was fifty sheqels of gold. And he overlaid the upper rooms with gold.
10 In the Most Set-apart House he made two keru‘im of sculptured work, and overlaid them with gold.
11 And the wings of the keru‘im: their total length was twenty cubits, one wing was five cubits, touching the wall of the room, and the other wing was five cubits, touching the wing of the other keru‘im.
12 And the wing of the other keru‘im was five cubits, touching the wall of the room, and the other wing also was five cubits, touching the wing of the other keru‘im.
13 The wings of these keru‘im spread out twenty cubits, and they stood on their feet, and they faced inward.
14 And he made the veil of blue and purple and crimson and fine linen, and worked keru‘im on it.
15 And at the front of the House he made two columns thirty-five cubits high, and the capital that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.
16 And he made wreaths of chainwork, as in the Speaking Place, and put them on top of the columns. And he made one hundred pomegranates, and put them on the wreaths of chainwork.
17 And he set up the columns before the Hĕkal, one on the right and the other on the left, and called the name of the one on the right Ya‘azin, and the name of the one on the left Bo‘az.

4 And he made an altar of bronze, twenty cubits long, and twenty cubits wide, and ten cubits high.
2 And he made the Sea of cast metal, ten cubits from one rim to the other, round all about. And its height was five cubits, and a line of thirty cubits measured around it.
3 And figures like oxen were under it, all around it, ten to a cubit, all the way around the Sea. Two rows of oxen were cast when it was cast.
4 It stood on twelve oxen, three facing north, and three facing west, and three facing south, and three facing east. And the Sea was set upon them, and all their back parts were inward.
5 And it was a handbreadth thick, and its rim was shaped like the rim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It held three thousand baths.
6 And he made ten basins, and put five on the right side and five on the left, to wash in them. In them they rinsed off what pertains to the burnt offering, but the Sea was for the priests to wash in.
7 And he made ten lampstands of gold according to their ruling, and set them in the Hĕkal, five on the right side and five on the left.
8 And he made ten tables, and placed them in the Hĕkal, five on the right side and five on the left. And he made one hundred bowls of gold.
9 And he made the courtyard of the priests, and the great court and doors for the court. And he overlaid these doors with bronze.
10 And he placed the Sea on the right side, eastward over against the south.
11 And Ḥuram made the pots and the shovels and the bowls. So Ḥuram completed doing the work that he was to do for Sovereign Shelomoh for the House of Elohim:
12 the two columns and the bowl-shaped capitals that were on top of the two columns, and the two networks to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals which were on top of the columns;
13 and four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowl-shaped capitals that were on the columns.
14 And he made stands and the basins on the stands,
15 one Sea and twelve oxen under it;
16 and the pots, and the shovels, and the forks. And all their vessels Ḫuram his master craftsman made of polished bronze for Sovereign Shelomoh for the House of 17 On the plain of Yardën the sovereign had them cast in clay moulds, between Sukkoth and Tseredathah.

18 And Shelomoh made so large a number of all these vessels that the weight of the bronze was not searched out.

19 And Shelomoh had all the furnishings made for the House of Elohim, and the altar of gold and the tables on which was the showbread,

20 and the lampstands with their lamps of refined gold, to burn according to right-ruling in front of the Speaking Place,

21 and the blossoms and the lamps and the snuffers of gold, of perfect gold,

22 and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the ladles, and the fire holders of refined gold. And the entrance to the House, its inner doors to the Most Set-apart Place, and the doors of the ḥekal of the House, were of gold.

5 And all the work that Shelomoh had done for the House of ḪWY was completed. And Shelomoh brought in the set-apart items of his father Dawiḏ: the silver and the gold and all the utensils. And he put them in the treasuries of the House of Elohim.

2 And Shelomoh assembled the elders of Yisra’el and all the heads of the tribes, the chief fathers of the children of Yisra’el, in Yerushalayim, to bring up the ark of the covenant of ḪWY from the City of Dawiḏ, which is Tsiyon.

3 And all the men of Yisra’el assembled to the sovereign at the festival, which was in the seventh month.

4 And all the elders of Yisra’el came, and the Lëwites took up the ark,

5 and they brought up the ark, the Tent of Meeting, and all the set-apart utensils that were in the Tent. The Lëwite priests brought them up.

6 And Sovereign Shelomoh, and all the congregation of Yisra’el who were assembled to him before the ark, were slaughtering so many sheep and cattle that could not be counted or numbered.

7 And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of ḪWY to its place, into the Speaking Place of the House, to the Most Set-apart Place, under the wings of the kerûbîm.

8 For the kerûbîm spread their wings over the place of the ark, and the kerûbîm covered over the ark and its poles.

9 And the poles were so long that the ends of the poles of the ark were seen from the set-apart place, in front of the Speaking Place, but they were not seen from outside. And they are there to this day.

10 There was naught in the ark but the two tablets which Mosheh put there at Ḥôrêb, when ḪWY made a covenant with the children of Yisra’el, when they came out of Mitsrayim.

11 And it came to be when the priests came out of the Most Set-apart Place – for all the priests who were present had set themselves apart, there was none to watch by division –

12 and the Lëwite singers, all those of Asaph and Hêman and Yeḏuthun, with their sons and their brothers, stood at the east end of the altar, dressed in white linen, having cymbals and harps and lyres, and with them one hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets.

13 Then it came to be, as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking ḪWY, and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets, and with cymbals, and with instruments of song, and giving praise to ḪWY, “For He is good, for His kindness is everlasting,” that the house, the House of ḪWY, was filled with a cloud,

14 and the priests were unable to stand and perform the service because of the cloud, for the esteem of ḪWY filled the House of Elohim.

6 Then Shelomoh said, “ḤWY has said He would dwell in the dark cloud.

2 “But I have built You an exalted house, and a place for You to dwell in forever.”

3 And the sovereign turned around and blessed all the assembly of Yisra’êl, while all the assembly of Yisra’êl stood.

4 And he said, “Blessed be הוהי Elohim of Yisra’êl, who has filled with His hands what He spoke with His mouth to my father Dawiê, saying,

5 ‘From the day that I brought My people out of the land of Mitsrayim, I have chosen no city from any tribe of Yisra’êl in which to build a house for My Name to be there, nor did I choose any man to be a leader over My people Yisra’êl.

6 ‘But I have chosen Yerushalayim, for My Name to be there. And I have chosen Dawiê to be over My people Yisra’êl.’

7 ‘And it was in the heart of my father Dawiê to build a House for the Name of הוהי Elohim of Yisra’êl.

8 ‘But הוהי said to my father Dawiê, ‘Because it was in your heart to build a House for My Name, you did well in that it was in your heart.

9 ‘But you do not build the house, for your son who comes forth from your loins, he does build the House for My Name.’

10 ‘Now הוהי has established His word which He spoke, and I have been raised up instead of my father Dawiê, and sit on the throne of Yisra’êl, as הוהי promised. And I have built the House for the Name of הוהי Elohim of Yisra’êl.

11 ‘And there I have placed the ark, in which is the covenant of הוהי which He made with the children of Yisra’êl.’

12 And he stood before the altar of הוהי in front of all the assembly of Yisra’êl, and spread out his hands –

13 for Shelomoh had made a bronze platform five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had put it in the midst of the court. And he stood on it, and knelt down on his knees before all the assembly of Yisra’êl, and spread out his hands toward the heavens –

14 and said, ‘והי Elohim of Yisra’êl, there is no Elohim in the heavens or on earth like You, guarding the covenant and kindness with Your servants who walk before You with all their heart,

15 who has guarded what You promised Your servant Dawiê my father. Indeed, You have both spoken with Your mouth and have filled it with Your hand, as it is this day.

16 ‘And now, הוהי Elohim of Yisra’êl, guard what You promised Your servant Dawiê my father, saying, ‘There is not to cease a man of yours before Me, sitting on the throne of Yisra’êl – only, if your sons guard their way, to walk in My Torah as you have walked before Me.’

17 ‘And now, O הוהי Elohim of Yisra’êl, let Your word come true which You have spoken to Your servant Dawiê.

18 ‘For is it true: Elohim dwells with men on the earth! See, the heavens and the heavens of the heavens are unable to contain You, how much less this House which I have built!

19 ‘Yet, shall You turn to the prayer of Your servant and his supplication, O הוהי my Elohim, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which Your servant is praying before You?

20 ‘For Your eyes to be open toward this House day and night, toward the place You have said to put Your Name there, to listen to the prayer which Your servant prays toward this place.

21 ‘And shall You give heed to the supplications of Your servant and of Your people Yisra’êl, when they pray toward this place, and hear from Your dwelling place, in the heavens, and shall hear and forgive?

22 ‘If anyone sins against his neighbour, and he has lifted up an oath on him, to cause him to swear, and comes and swears before Your altar in this House,

23 then hear in the heavens, and act, and rightly rule Your servants, repaying the wrong by bringing his way on his own head, and declare right the righteous by giving him according to his righteousness.

24 ‘And if Your people Yisra’êl are smitten before an enemy because they have sinned against You, and they shall turn back and confess Your Name, and pray and make supplication before You in this House,

25 then hear in the heavens and forgive the sin of Your people Yisra’êl, and bring them back to the land which You gave to them
26 “When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because they have sinned against You, and they shall pray toward this place and confess Your Name, and turn from their sin because You afflict them,
27 then hear in the heavens, and forgive the sin of Your servants, Your people Yisra’èl – for You teach them the good way in which they should walk – and shall send rain on Your land which You have given to Your people as an inheritance.
28 “When there is scarcity of food in the land; when there is pestilence or blight or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers; when their enemies distress them in the land of their cities; any plague or any sickness;
29 whatever prayer, whatever supplication is made by anyone, or by all Your people Yisra’èl, when each one knows his own plague and his own grief, and spreads out his hands to this house,
30 then hear from the heavens Your dwelling place, and forgive, and give to everyone according to all his ways, whose heart You know – for You alone know the hearts of the sons of men –
31 so that they fear You, to walk in Your ways as long as they live in the land which You gave to our fathers.
32 “Also, concerning a foreigner, who is not of Your people Yisra’èl, but who comes from a far land for the sake of Your great Name and Your strong hand and Your outstretched arm, when they come and pray in this House,
33 then hear from the heavens Your dwelling place, and forgive, and give to everyone according to all his ways, whose heart You know – for You alone know the hearts of the sons of men –
34 “When Your people go out to battle against their enemies, in the way that You send them, and they shall pray to You toward this city which You have chosen and toward the House which I have built for Your Name,
35 then shall You hear from the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.
36 “When they sin against You – for there is no one who does not sin – and You become enraged with them and give them to the enemy, and they take them captive to a land far or near,
37 and they shall turn back unto their heart, in the land where they have been taken captive, and shall pray toward their land which You gave to their fathers, and the city which You have chosen, and toward the House which I have built for Your Name,
38 then shall You hear from the heavens, Your dwelling place, their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their cause, and forgive Your people who have sinned against You?
39 then shall You hear from the heavens, Your dwelling place, their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their cause, and forgive Your people who have sinned against You?
40 “Now, my Elohim, I pray, let Your eyes be open and let Your ears be attentive to the prayer of this place.
41 “And now, arise, O יהוה Elohim, to Your resting place, You and the ark of Your strength. Let Your priests, O יהוה Elohim, be robed with deliverance, and let Your kind ones rejoice in goodness.
42 “O יהוה Elohim, do not turn away the face of Your anointed; remember the kind acts of Your servant DawiÅ.”

7 And when Shelomoh had ended praying, fire came down from the heavens and consumed the burnt offering and the slaughterings. And the esteem of יהוה filled the House.
2 And the priests were unable to enter the House of יהוה, because the esteem of יהוה had filled the House of יהוה.
3 And all the children of Yisra’èl saw how the fire came down, and the esteem of יהוה on the House, and they bowed their faces to the ground on the pavement, and did obeisance and gave thanks to יהוה, saying, “For He is good, for His kindness is everlasting.”

4 And the sovereign and all the people were making offerings before הוהי.

5 And Sovereign Shelomoh made an offering of twenty-two thousand bulls and one hundred and twenty thousand sheep. Thus the sovereign and all the people dedicated the House of Elohim.

6 And the priests were standing over their duties, and the Lèwites with instruments of the song to הוהי, which Sovereign Dawiḏ had made to give thanks to הוהי, saying, “For His kindness is everlasting,” whenever Dawiḏ praised by their hand. And the priests were blowing trumpets before them, and all Yisra’ël were standing.

7 And Shelomoh set apart the middle of the courtyard that was in front of the House of הוהי, for there he made burnt offerings and the fat of the peace offerings, because the bronze altar which Shelomoh had made was not able to contain the burnt offerings and the grain offerings and the fat.

8 And Shelomoh at that time observed the Festival seven days, and all Yisra’ël with him, a very great assembly from the entrance of ¶amath to the wadi of Mitsrayim.

9 And on the eighth day they held an assembly, for they performed the dedication of the altar seven days, and the festival seven days.

10 And on the twenty-third day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their tents, rejoicing and glad of heart for the goodness that הוהי had done for Dawiḏ, and for Shelomoh, and for His people Yisra’ël.

11 Thus Shelomoh finished the House of הוהי and the sovereign’s house. And all that came into the heart of Shelomoh to do in the House of הוהי and in his own house, he prosperously executed.

12 And הוהי appeared to Shelomoh by night, and said to him, “I have heard your prayer, and have chosen this place for Myself as a house of slaughtering.

13 “If I shut up the heavens and there is no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among My people,

14 and My people upon whom My Name is called, shall humble themselves, and pray and seek My face, and turn from their evil ways, then I shall hear from the heavens, and forgive their sin and heal their land.

15 “Now, My eyes are open and My ears attentive to the prayer of this place.

16 “And now, I have chosen and set this house apart for My Name to be there forever. And My eyes and My heart shall always be there.

17 “And you, if you walk before Me as your father Dawiḏ walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you, and if you guard My laws and My right-rulings,

18 then I shall establish the throne of your reign, as I covenanted with Dawiḏ your father, saying, ‘There is not to cease a man of yours as ruler in Yisra’ël.’

19 “But if you turn away and forsake My laws and My commands which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other mighty ones, and bow yourself to them,

20 then I shall pluck them from My land, which I have given them, and this house which I have set apart for My Name I shall cast out of My sight and make it to be a proverb and a mockery among all peoples.

21 “And this house, which has been exalted, everyone who passes by it is shall be astonished and say, ‘Why has הוהי done thus to this land and this house?’

22 “Then they shall say, ‘Because they forsook הוהי Elohim of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Mitsrayim, and embraced other mighty ones, and bowed themselves to them and served them, therefore He has brought all this evil on them.’ ”

8 And it came to be at the end of twenty years, that Shelomoh had built the House of הוהי, and his own house.
3 And Shelomoh went to Ḥamath Tsoḇah and seized it.
4 And he built Taḏmor in the wilderness, and all the storage cities which he built in Ḥamath.
5 And he built Upper Bêyth Ḥoron and Lower Bêyth Ḥoron, cities of defence, with walls, gates, and bars,
6 also Baʿalath and all the storage cities that Shelomoh had, and all the chariot cities and the cities of the cavalry, and all that Shelomoh desired to build in Yerushalayim, and in Leḇanon, and in all the land of his rule.
7 All the people who were left of the Hit- tites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hiwwites, and the Yeḇusites, who were not of Yisraʿěl –
8 their descendants who were left in the land after them, whom the children of Yisraʿěl did not destroy – from these Shelomoh raised compulsory labour, as it is to this day.
9 And Shelomoh did not make slaves of the children of Yisraʿěl for his work, but they were men of battle, and chiefs of his officers, and commanders of his chariots, and his cavalry.
10 And these were the chiefs of the officials of Sovereign Shelomoh: two hundred and fifty, who ruled over the people.
11 And Shelomoh brought the daughter of Pharaoh up from the City of Dawiḏ to the house he had built for her, for he said, “My wife does not dwell in the house of Dawiḏ the man of Elohim.
12 Then Shelomoh offered burnt offerings to ʼĕḇĕr on the altar of ʼĕḇĕr which he had built before the porch,
13 even as the duty of every day required, offering according to the command of Mosheh, for the Sabbaths, and for the New Moons, and for the appointed times three times a year: the Festival of Unleavened Bread, and the Festival of Weeks, and the Festival of Booths.
14 And according to the ruling of Dawiḏ his father, he appointed the divisions of the priests for their service, the Lēwites for their duties, to praise and serve before the priests, as the duty of each day required, and the gatekeepers by their divisions at each gate, for so was the command of Dawiḏ the man of Elohim.
15 And they did not turn aside from the command of the sovereign to the priests and Lēwites concerning any matter or concerning the treasuries.
16 And all the work of Shelomoh was prepared from the day of the foundation of the House of ʼĕḇĕr until it was completed. And the House of ʼĕḇĕr was perfected.
17 Then Shelomoh went to Etsyon Geḇer and Ḥyloth on the seacoast, in the land of Edom.
18 And Huram sent him ships by the hand of his servants, and servants who knew the sea. And they went with the servants of Shelomoh to Ophir, and took four hundred and fifty talents of gold from there, and brought it to Sovereign Shelomoh.
9 And the sovereignty of Sheḇa heard of the report of Shelomoh, and came to Yerushalayim to try Shelomoh with hard questions, with a very great company, and camels bearing spices, and much gold, and precious stones. And she came to Shelomoh, and she spoke with him about all that was in her heart.
2 And Shelomoh answered all her questions. And there was no matter hidden for Shelomoh which he did not make known to her.
3 And the sovereignty of Sheḇa saw the wisdom of Shelomoh, and the house that he had built, and the food on his table, and the seating of his servants, and the service of his waiters and their attire, and his cupbearers and their attire, and his burnt offerings that he offered up in the House of ʼĕḇĕr, and there was no more spirit in her.
5 Then she said to the sovereign, “True was the word I heard in my own land about your words and your wisdom.
6 “But I did not believe their words until I came and saw with my own eyes. And see, I have not been told the half of the greatness of your wisdom! You exceed the report which I heard.
7“Blessed are your men and blessed are these your servants, who stand continually before you and hear your wisdom!
8“Blessed be יָהָּוָה your Elohim, who delighted in you, to put you on His throne to be sovereign for יָהָּוָה your Elohim! Because your Elohim has loved Yisra’âl, to establish them forever, therefore He made you sovereign over them, to do right-ruling and righteousness.”

9And she gave the sovereign one hundred and twenty talents of gold, and very many spices, and precious stones. And there has not been any spices such as those the sovereignness of Sheba gave to Sovereign Shelomoh.
10And also, the servants of Huram and the servants of Shelomoh, who brought gold from Ophir, brought algum wood and precious stones.
11And the sovereign made stairs of the algum wood for the House of יָהָּוָה and for the sovereign’s house, also lyres and harps for singers. And there was never seen the like of them before in the land of Yehudah.
12And Sovereign Shelomoh gave to the sovereignness of Sheba all she desired, whatever she asked, besides that which she had brought to the sovereign. And she turned and went to her own land, she and her servants.
13And the weight of gold that came to Shelomoh yearly was six hundred and sixty-six talents of gold, 14besides that which the merchants and traders brought. And all the sovereigns of Arabia and governors of the land were bringing gold and silver to Shelomoh.
15And Sovereign Shelomoh made two hundred large shields of beaten gold – six hundred pieces of beaten gold went into each shield, 16and three hundred shields of beaten gold – three hundred pieces of gold went into each shield. And the sovereign put them in the House of the Forest of Lebanon.
17And the sovereign made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with clean gold, 18and six steps led to the throne, with a footstool of gold, which were fastened to the throne; and there were armrests on either side of the place of the seat, and two lions stood beside the armrests.
19And twelve lions were standing there, one on each side of the six steps. The like of it was not in any reign.
20And all the drinking vessels of Sovereign Shelomoh were of gold, and all the vessels of the House of the Forest of Lebanon were of refined gold – silver was reckoned of little value in the days of Shelomoh.
21For the sovereign’s ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Huram. Once in three years the ships of Tarshish came, bringing gold, and silver, ivory, apes, and baboons.
22And Sovereign Shelomoh became greater than all the sovereigns of the earth in riches and wisdom.
23And all the sovereigns of the earth sought the presence of Shelomoh to hear his wisdom, which Elohim had put in his heart.
24And each man brought his present: objects of silver, and objects of gold, and garments, and armour, and spices, horses and mules, the matter of a year by year.
25And Shelomoh had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen whom he stationed in the chariot cities and with the sovereign at Yerushalayim.
26And he ruled over all the sovereigns from the River to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Mitsrayim.
27And the sovereign made silver in Yerushalayim as the stones, and he made cedar trees as plenty as the sycamores which are in the low country.
28And they were bringing horses to Shelomoh from Mitsrayim and from all lands.
29And the rest of the acts of Shelomoh, first and last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahiyah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Yaro‘am son of Nebat?
And Shelomoh reigned in Yerushalayim over all Yisra’el forty years.

So Shelomoh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the City of Dawiḏ his father. And Reḥaḇ’am his son reigned in his place.

And Reḥaḇ’am went to Sheḵem, for all Yisra’el had gone to Sheḵem to set him up to reign.

And it came to be, when Yaroḇ’am son of Neḥat heard it – he was in Mitsrayim where he had fled from the presence of Shelomoh the sovereign – that Yaroḇ’am returned from Mitsrayim.

So they sent for him and called him. And Yaroḇ’am and all Yisra’el came and spoke to Reḥaḇ’am, saying,

“Your father made our yoke hard, and now, lighten the hard service of your father and his heavy yoke which he put on us, then we shall serve you.”

And he said to them, “Come back to me after three days.” And the people went.

Then Sovereign Reḥaḇ’am consulted the elders who stood before his father Shelomoh while he still lived, saying, “What do you advise me to answer these people?”

And they spoke to him, saying, “If you are good to these people, and shall please them, and speak good words to them, they shall be your servants all the days.”

But he ignored the advice the elders gave him, and consulted the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him.

And he said to them, “What advice do you give? How should we answer this people?”

And the young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, “Say this to the people who have spoken to you, saying, ‘Your father made our yoke heavy, but you make it lighter on us.’ Say this to them, ‘My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist!

‘And now, my father put a heavy yoke on you, but I, I add to your yoke; my father chastised you with whips, but I with scourges!’ ”

So Yaroḇ’am and all the people came to Reḥaḇ’am on the third day, as the sovereign commanded, saying, “Come back to me the third day.”

And the sovereign answered them harshly. Thus Sovereign Reḥaḇ’am ignored the advice of the elders, and spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, “My father made your yoke heavy, but I, I add to it; my father chastised you with whips, but I with scourges!”

So the sovereign did not listen to the people, for the turn of events was from Elohim, in order for HWHY to establish His word, which He had spoken by the hand of Aḥiyahu the Shilonite to Yaroḇ’am son of Neḥat.

And when all Yisra’el saw that the sovereign did not listen to them, the people answered the sovereign, saying, “What portion have we in Dawiḏ? And we have no inheritance in the son of Yishai. Every man to your mighty ones, O Yisra’el! Now see to your own house, O Dawiḏ!” So all Yisra’el went to their tents.

But as for the children of Yisra’el who dwelt in the cities of Yehuḏah, Reḥaḇ’am reigned over them.

Then Sovereign Reḥaḇ’am sent Haḏo-ram, who was over the compulsory labour, and the children of Yisra’el stoned him with stones, and he died. And Sovereign Reḥaḇ’am hastily mounted his chariot to flee to Yerushalayim.

Thus Yisra’el revolted against the house of Dawiḏ to this day.

And when Reḥaḇ’am came to Yerushalayim, he assembled from the house of Yehuḏah and Binyamin one hundred and eighty thousand chosen brave men to fight against Yisra’el, to bring back the reign to Reḥaḇ’am.

But the word of HWHY came to Shema’yahu the man of Elohim, saying,

“Speak to Reḥaḇ’am son of Shelomoh, sovereign of Yehuḏah, and to all Yisra’el in Yehuḏah and Binyamin, saying,

‘Thus said HWHY, “Do not go up or fight against your brothers! Let every man return to his house, for this matter is from Me.”’ So they obeyed the words of יהוה, and turned back from going against יaroאֹבִּים.

5And רֶחַבאָם dwelt in ירושלים, and built cities for a defence in יهوּדָה.

6And he built בֵּית לֹהֵם, and בֵּית תִּפְגּוֹה, גְּת, מַרְשָׁה, and צֶיפֶּה, 7and בֵּית צוּר, and סֹכוֹ, and אַדָּלָם, גַּת, מַרְשָׁה, and צֶיפֶּה, 8and אֶדְוָרֵיימ, and לָקִיש, and אֹזְכָּה, and צָוַרְאָה, and יָאוּלָם, גַּת, מַרְשָׁה, and צֶיפֶּה, 9which are in יهوּדָה and בִּנְיָמִין, cities of defence.

11And he strengthened the strongholds, and put commanders in them, and stores of food, and oil, and wine, shields and spears in every city, and made them very strong. Thus יهوּדָה and בִּנְיָמִין were his.

13And from all their borders the priests and the לֶוִיתים who were in all יסֶרֶא’ל took their stand with him.

14For the לֶוִיתים left their open lands and their possessions and came to יهوּדָה and ירושלים, for יaroאֹבִּים and his sons had rejected them from serving as priests unto יהוה, as he appointed for himself priests for the high places, and for goats, and the calf idols which he had made.

16And after the לֶוִיתים left, those from all the tribes of יסֶרֶא’ל, such as set their heart to seek יהוה אֱלֹהִים of יסֶרֶא’ל, came to ירושלים to offer to יהוה אֱלֹהִים of their fathers.

17And they strengthened the reign of יهوּדָה, and made רֶחַבאָם son of ילֹם strong for three years, for they walked in the way of דָּוִד and ילֹם for three years.

18And רֶחַבאָם took for himself as wife מַהְלָלָת the daughter of ירִימֹה son of דָּוִד, and of אֶבֶיחַייל the daughter of יִלְיָי son of יִשַׁי.

19And she bore him sons: יֵוּשֵׁש, and שֶמָּרַי, and זָחָם.

20And after her he took מַא’ָכָה the granddaughter of אַשְּבָלום more than all his wives and his concubines. For he had taken eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and brought forth twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.

21And רֶחַבאָם appointed אִבְיָי son of מַא’ָכָה as chief, to be leader among his brothers, in order to make him reign.

22And רֶחַבאָם appointed אִבְיָי son of מַא’ָכָה as chief, to be leader among his brothers, in order to make him reign.

23And he had understanding, and dispersed some of his sons throughout all the lands of יهوּדָה and בִּנְיָמִין, to all the cities of defence, and gave them ample provision. And he sought many wives for them.

12And it came to be, when רֶחַבאָם had established the reign and had strengthened himself, that he forsook the闱 of יהוה, and all יסֶרֶא’ל with him.

2And it came to be, in the fifth year of Sovereign רֶחַבאָם, that שׁישָק sovereign of מִדְּרָיIMAL came up against ירושלים – because they had trespassed against יהוה.

3with twelve hundred chariots, and sixty thousand horsemen, and innumerable people who came with him out of מִדְּרָיIMAL: the לועים, the סוקְקִיתים and the קושִיתים.

4And he took the cities of defence of יهوּדָה and came to ירושלים.

5And שֶמֶיה the prophet came to רֶחַבאָם and the rulers of יهوּדָה, who had been gathered in ירושלים because of שׁישָק, and said to them, “Thus said יהוה, ‘You have forsaken Me, and therefore I also have left you in the hand of Shishaq.’”

6Then the rulers of יסֶרֶא’ל and the sovereign humbled themselves, and they said, “ יהוה is righteous.”

7And when יהוה saw that they humbled themselves, the word of יהוה came to שֶמֶיה, saying, “They have humbled themselves. I do not destroy them, but I shall give to them some deliverance, and not pour out My wrath on ירושלים by the hand of Shishaq,” 8but they are to become his servants, so that they know My service and the service of the reigns of the lands.”

9 And Shishaq sovereign of Mitsrayim came up against Yerushalayim, and took away the treasures of the House of יהוה and the treasures of the sovereign’s house. He took all, he also took the gold shields which Shelomoh had made.

10 And Sovereign ReÁaÄÈam made bronze shields to replace them and committed them into the hands of the chiefs of the guard, who guarded the entrance of the sovereign’s house.

11 And it came to be, whenever the sovereign went into the House of יהוה, the guard would go and bring them out, then they would take them back into the guardroom.

12 And when he humbled himself, the wrath of יהוה turned from him, so as not to destroy him completely. And matters also went well in YehuÅah.

13 So Sovereign ReÁaÄÈam strengthened himself in Yerushalayim and reigned. For ReÁaÄÈam was forty-one years old when he became sovereign, and he reigned seventeen years in Yerushalayim, the city which יהוה had chosen out of all the tribes of Yisra’Ãl, to put His Name there. And his mother’s name was Na’amah, the Ammonitess.

14 And he did evil, because he did not prepare his heart to seek יהוה.

15 And the acts of ReÁaÄÈam, the first and the last, are they not written in the book of Shemayah the prophet, and of Iddo the seer concerning genealogies? And there was fighting between ReÁaÄÈam and YaroÄÈam all the days.

16 So Reha orderByäam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the City of Dawiå. And Abiyah his son reigned in his place.

13 In the eighteenth year of Sovereign YaroÄÈam, Abiyah began to reign over YehuÅah.

2 He reigned three years in Yerushala-yim. And his mother’s name was Mi¿a-iyahu the daughter of Uri’Ãl of GiÄÈah. And there was fighting between Abiyah and YaroÄÈam.

3 And Abiyah joined battle with an army of mighty men of battle, four hundred thousand choice men. And YaroÄÈam drew up in battle formation against him with eight hundred thousand choice men, mighty brave men.

4 And Abiyah stood on Mount Tsema-rayim, which is in the mountains of Ephrayim, and said, “Hear me, YaroÄÈam and all Yisra’el:

5“Do you not know that יהוה Elohim of Yisra’ël has given the reign over Yisra’el to Dawiå forever, to him and his sons, by a covenant of salt?

6“Yet YaroÄÈam son of Nebat, the servant of Shelomoh son of Dawiå, rose up and rebelled against his master.

7“And vain men gathered to him, sons of Beliya’al, and strengthened themselves against RehaorderByäam son of Shelomoh, when RehaorderByäam was young and tender of heart and could not stand against them.

8“And now you think to stand against the reign of יהוה, which is in the hand of the sons of Dawiå. And you are a large crowd, and with you are the gold calves which YaroÄÈam made for you as mighty ones.

9“Have you not thrown out the priests of יהוה, the sons of Aharon, and the LÃwites, and made for yourselves priests, like the peoples of the lands, so that whoever comes to ordain himself with a young bull and seven rams then becomes a priest of what are not mighty ones?

10“But as for us, יהוה is our Elohim, and we have not forsaken Him, and priests are serving יהוה, the sons of Aharon and the LÃwites, in the work,

11 and are burning to יהוה every morning and every evening burnt offerings and sweet incense, and the showbread is set on the clean table, and the lampstand of gold with its lamps to burn every evening, for we are guarding the Charge of יהוה our Elohim. But you have forsaken Him.

12“And see, with us as Head is Elohim Himself, and His priests with sounding trumpets to sound the alarm against you. O children of Yisra’el, do not fight against יהוה Elohim of your fathers, for you are not going to prosper!”
13 But Yaroḇ’ām sent round an ambush to go behind them, so they were in front of Yehuḏah, and the ambush was behind them.

14 And Yehuḏah turned and saw the battle was both in front and behind them. Then they cried out to יהוה, and the priests sounded the trumpets.

15 And the men of Yehuḏah gave a shout. And it came to be, as the men of Yehuḏah shouted, that Elohim smote Yaroḇ’ām and all Yisra’ēl before Abiḏaḥ and Yehuḏah.

16 And the children of Yisra’ēl fled before Yehuḏah, and Elohim gave them into their hand.

17 And Abiḏaḥ and his people smote them with a great slaughter, and five hundred thousand choice men of Yisra’ēl fell slain.

18 And the children of Yisra’ēl were humbled at that time, while the children of Yehuḏah prevailed, because they relied on יהוה Elohim of their fathers.

19 And Abiḏaḥ pursued Yaroḇ’ām and captured cities from him: Bēyth Ṣēl with its villages, and Yeshanah with its villages, and Ephron with its villages.

20 And Yaroḇ’ām did not regain power again in the days of Abiḏaḥ. And יהוה smote him, and he died.

21 But Abiḏaḥ grew strong, and took fourteen wives, and brought forth twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.

22 And the rest of the acts of Abiḏaḥ, and his ways, and his words are written in the commentary of the prophet Iddo.

14 So Abiḏaḥ slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of Dawiḏ. And Asa his son reigned in his place. In his days the land rested ten years.

2 And Asa did what was good and what was right in the eyes of יהוה his Elohim,

3 and removed the altars of the stranger, and the high places, and broke down the pillars and cut down the Ashĕrim,

4 and commanded Yehuḏah to seek יהוה Elohim of their fathers, and to do the Torah and the command.

5 And he removed the high places and the sun-pillars from all the cities of Yehuḏah, and the reign rested under him.

6 And he built cities of defence in Yehuḏah, since the land had rest and he had no fighting in those years, because יהוה had given him rest.

7 And he said to Yehuḏah, “Let us build these cities and make walls around them, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is yet before us, because we have sought יהוה our Elohim. We have sought, and He has given us rest all around.” So they built and prospered.

8 And Asa had an army of three hundred thousand men from Yehuḏah bearing shields and spears, and from Binyamin two hundred and eighty thousand men bearing shields and drew bows. All of them were mighty brave men.

9 And Zeraḥ the Kushite came out against them with an army of a million men and three hundred chariots, and he came to Marēšah.

10 And Asa went out against him, and they set battle in array in the Valley of Tsĕphathah at Marēšah.

11 And Asa called to יהוה his Elohim, and said, “יהוה, there is no one but You to help between the mighty and the powerless. Help us, O יהוה our Elohim, for we rest on You, and in Your Name we go against this crowd. O יהוה, You are our Elohim, do not let man prevail against You!”

12 So יהוה smote the Kushites before Asa and Yehuḏah, and the Kushites fled.

13 And Asa and the people who were with him pursued them to Gerar. And the Cushites fell, until none was left alive for them, for they were broken before יהוה and His army. And they took very much spoil, 14 and smote all the cities around Gerar, for the fear of יהוה came upon them. And they plundered all the cities, for there was exceedingly much spoil in them.

15 And they also smote the camps of the herdsmen, and captured many sheep and camels, and returned to Yerushalayim.

15 And the Spirit of Elohim came upon Azaryahu son of Oḏēḏ.

2 And he went out to face Asa, and said to him, “Hear me, Asa, and all Yehuḏah and Binyamin. יְהוָהִ֑ו is with you while you are with Him. And if you seek Him, He is found by you, but if you forsake Him, He forsakes you.

3“And for many days Yisra’el has been without the true Elohim, and without a Torah priest, and without Torah.

4“But in their distress they turned to יְהוָהִ֑ו Elohim of Yisra’el, and they sought Him, and He was found by them.

5“And in those days there was no peace to the one who went out, nor to the one who came in, for great disturbances were on all the inhabitants of the lands, 6and they were beaten down, nation by nation, and city by city, for Elohim troubled them with every distress.

7“But you, be strong and do not let your hands be feeble, for there is a reward for your work!”

8And when Asa heard these words and the prophecy of Ové the prophet, he took courage, and removed the abominations from all the land of YehuÅah and Binyamin and from the cities which he had taken in the mountains of Ephrayim, and restored the altar of יְהוָהִ֑ו that was before the porch of יְהוָהִ֑ו, 9and gathered all YehuÅah and Binyamin, and those who sojourned with them from Ephrayim, and Menashsheh, and Shim’on, for they came over to him in great numbers from Yisra’el when they saw that יְהוָהִ֑ו his Elohim was with him.

10And they gathered together at Yerushalayim in the third month, in the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa, 11and offered to יְהוָהִ֑ו on that day seven hundred bulls and seven thousand sheep from the spoil which they had brought.

12And they entered into a covenant to seek יְהוָהִ֑ו Elohim of their fathers with all their heart and with all their being;

13and whoever would not seek יְהוָהִ֑ו Elohim of Yisra’el would be put to death, from small to great, from man to woman.

14And they swore to יְהוָהִ֑ו with a loud voice, with shouting and with trumpets and with rams’ horns.

15And all YehuÅah rejoiced concerning the oath, for they had sworn with all their heart and sought Him with all their being. And He was found by them, and יְהוָהִ֑ו gave them rest all around.

16And he also removed Ma’akâkah, the mother of Asa the sovereign, from being sovereignty mother, because she had made an abominable image of Ashêrah. And Asa cut down her abominable image, and crushed it, and burned it by the wadi Qidron.

17Yet the high places were not removed from Yisra’el. However, the heart of Asa was perfect all his days.

18And he brought into the House of Elohim the set-apart items of his father and his own set-apart items: silver and gold and utensils.

19And there was no more fighting until the thirty-fifth year of the reign of Asa.

16In the thirty-sixth year of the reign of Asa, Ba’asha the sovereign of Yisra’el came up against YehuÅah and built Ramah, to prevent anyone going out or coming in to Asa, sovereign of YehuÅah.

2And Asa brought silver and gold from the treasuries of the House of יְהוָהִ֑ו and of the sovereign’s house, and sent to Ben-Ha’dâd sovereign of Aram, who dwelt in Damascus, saying,

3“Let there be a covenant between you and me, as there was between my father and your father. See, I have sent you silver and gold. Come, break your covenant with Ba’asha sovereign of Yisra’el, so that he withdraws from me.”

4And Ben-Ha’dâd listened to Sovereign Asa and sent the commanders of his armies against the cities of Yisra’el, and they smote Iyon, and Dan, and Aḇĕl Mayim, and all the storage cities of Naphtali.

5And it came to be, when Ba’asha heard it, that he stopped building Ramah and ceased his work.

6Then Asa the sovereign brought all YehuÅah, and they took away the stones and timber of Ramah, which Ba’asha had used for building. And with them he built Geba and Mitspah.

7And at that time Ḩanani the seer came to Asa sovereign of YehuÅah, and said to him, “Because you have relied on the sovereign of Aram, and have not relied on your Elohim, therefore the army of the sovereign of Aram has escaped from your hand.

8“Were the Kushites and the Lubim not a mighty army with very many chariots and horsemen? And because you relied on them, He gave them into your hand.

9“For the eyes of HWHY diligently search throughout all the earth, to show Himself strong on behalf of those whose heart is perfect to Him. You have acted foolishly in this, so from now on you shall have battles.”

10 And Asa was wroth with the seer, and put him in prison, for he was enraged at him because of this. And Asa oppressed some of the people at that time.

11 And look, the acts of Asa, the first and the last, see, they are written in the book of the sovereigns of YehuÅah and Yisra’Ãl.

12 And in the thirty-ninth year of his reign, Asa became diseased in his feet, and his disease was severe. Yet even in his disease he did not seek HWHY, but the physicians.

13 So Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the forty-first year of his reign.

14 And they buried him in his own tomb, which he had made for himself in the City of DawiÅ. And they laid him in the bed which was filled with spices and various kinds of ointments mixed by the perfumer’s skill. And they made a very great burning for him.

17 And Yehoshaphat his son reigned in his place, and strengthened himself against Yisra’€l, 2and placed an army in all the walled cities of YehuÅah, and set watch-posts in the land of YehuÅah and in the cities of Ephrayim which Asa his father had taken.

3And HWHY was with Yehoshaphat, for he walked in the former ways of his father DawiÅ, and did not seek the BaÈals, 4but sought the Elohim of his father, and walked in His commands and not according to the deeds of Yisra’€l.

5So HWHY established the reign in his hand. And all YehuÅah gave presents to Yehoshaphat, and he had great riches and esteem.

6And his heart was exalted in the ways of HWHY, and he again removed the high places and the AshÈrim from Yehudah.

7And in the third year of his reign he sent his leaders, Ben-Äayil, and OÄaÅyah, and ZeÄrayah, and NethanÈl, and MiÄa-yahu, to teach in the cities of YehuÅah.

8And with them he sent LÈwites: Shemayahu, and Nethanyahu, and ZeÄdyahu, and AsahÈl, and Shemiramoth, and Yehonathan, and Àdoniyahu, and ToÄi-yahu, and ToÄaniyahu, the LÈwites, and with them Elishama and Yehoram, the priests.

9And they taught in YehuÅah, and with them was the Book of the Torah of HWHY. And they went around into all the cities of YehuÅah and taught the people.

10And the fear of HWHY fell on all the reigns of the lands that were around YehuÅah, and they did not fight against Yehoshaphat.

11And some of the Philistines brought Yehoshaphat gifts and a load of silver. And the AraÄians brought him flocks, seven thousand seven hundred rams and seven thousand seven hundred male goats.

12And Yehoshaphat became increasingly great, and he built palaces and storage cities in YehuÅah.

13And he had much work in the cities of YehuÅah. And the men of battle, mighty brave men, were in Yerushalayim.

14And these were their numbers, according to their fathers’ houses: Of YehuÅah, the commanders of thousands: AÅnah the commander, and with him three hundred thousand mighty brave men;

15and next to him was YehoÁanan the commander, and with him two hundred thousand mighty brave men;

16and next to him was Amasyah son of ZiÄri, who volunteered himself to HWHY, and with him two hundred thousand mighty brave men.

17And of Binyamin: ElyaÅa, a mighty brave one, and with him two hundred thousand men armed with bow and shield;
18 And next to him was Yehozaḏaḏ, and with him one hundred and eighty thousand prepared for battle.

19 These were the ones serving the sovereign, besides those whom the sovereign put in the walled cities throughout all Yehuḏah.

And Yehoshaphat had great riches and esteem, and allied himself with Aḥaḇ by marriage.

2 And some years later he went down to visit Aḥaḇ in Shomeron. And Aḥaḇ slaughtered many sheep and cattle for him and the people with him, and incited him to go up with him to Ramoth Gil’ad.

3 And Aḥaḇ sovereign of Yisra’ēl said to Yehoshaphat sovereign of Yehuḏah, “Do you go with me against Ramoth Gil’ad?” And he answered him, “I am as you are, and my people as your people, even with you in battle.”

4 And Yehoshaphat said to the sovereign of Yisra’ēl, “Please inquire for the word of HWHY today.”

5 And the sovereign of Yisra’ēl gathered the prophets together, four hundred men, and said to them, “Do we go against Ramoth Gil’ad or do I refrain?” And they said, “Go up, for Elohim does give it into the sovereign’s hand.”

6 But Yehoshaphat said, “Is there not still a prophet of Elohim here, so that we inquire of him?”

7 And the sovereign of Yisra’ēl gathered the prophets together, four hundred men, and said to them, “Do we go against Ramoth Gil’ad or do I refrain?” And they said, “Go up, for Elohim does give it into the sovereign’s hand.”

8 So the sovereign of Yisra’ēl called one of his officers and said, “Bring Miḵahu son of Yimla at once!”

9 And the sovereign of Yisra’ēl and Yehoshaphat the sovereign of Yehuḏah, dressed in their robes, sat each on his throne. And they sat at a threshing-floor at the entrance of the gate of Shomeron. And all the prophets were prophesying before them.

10 And Tsḏqiyahu son of Kena’anah had made horns of iron for himself, and said, “Thus said HWHY, ‘With these you push the Arameans until they are destroyed.’ ”

11 And all the prophets were prophesying so, saying, “Go up to Ramoth Gil’ad and prosper, and HWHY shall give it into the hand of the sovereign.”

12 And the messenger who had gone to call Miḵayehu spoke to him, saying, “See, the words of the prophets with one mouth are good towards the sovereign. So please let your word be like the word of one of them, and you shall speak good.”

13 And Miḵayehu said, “As HWHY lives, whatever my Elohim says, that I speak.”

14 And he came to the sovereign. And the sovereign said to him, “Miḵah, do we go against Ramoth Gil’ad to battle or do I refrain?” And he said, “Go and prosper, and they are given into your hand!”

15 And the sovereign said to him, “How many times have I made you swear that you do not speak to me, except the truth, in the Name of HWHY?”

16 So he said, “I saw all Yisra’ēl scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. And HWHY said, ‘These have no master. Let each return to his house in peace.’ ”

17 And the sovereign of Yisra’ēl said to Yehoshaphat, “Did I not say to you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?”

18 Then he said, “Therefore hear the word of HWHY: I saw HWHY sitting on His throne, and all the host of the heavens standing on His right and on His left.

19 “And HWHY said, ‘Who shall entice Aḥaḇ sovereign of Yisra’ēl to go up and fall at Ramoth Gil’ad?’ And one said this, and another said that.

20 “And a spirit came forward and stood before HWHY, and said, ‘Let me entice him.’ HWHY said to him, ‘In what way?’

21 “And he said, ‘I shall go out and be a spirit of falsehood in the mouth of all his prophets.’ And He said, ‘Entice him, and also prevail. Go out and do so.’

22 “And now, see, HWHY has put a spirit of falsehood in the mouth of these prophets of yours, and יהוה has spoken evil concerning you.”

23 And Tsīqiyahu son of Kena’anah came near and smote Mi‘ayehu on the cheek, and said, “Which way did the spirit of יהוה pass over from me to speak to you?”

24 And Mi‘ayehu said, “Look, you shall see on that day when you go into an inner room to hide!”

25 Then the sovereign of Yisra‘ĕl said, “Take Mi‘ayehu, and return him to Amon the governor of the city and to Yo‘ash the sovereign’s son,

26 and say, ‘Thus said the sovereign, “Put this one in prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and water of affliction until I return in peace.”’ ”

27 And Mi‘ayehu said, “If you return at all in peace, יהוה has not spoken by me.” And he said, “Hear, all you people!”

28 Then the sovereign of Yisra‘ĕl and Yehoshaphat the sovereign of Yehuḏah went up to Ramoth Gil‘ad.

29 And the sovereign of Yisra‘ĕl said to Yehoshaphat, “Let me disguise myself and go into battle, but you put on your robes.” And the sovereign of Yisra‘ĕl disguised himself, and they went into battle.

30 And the sovereign of Aram had commanded the commanders of the chariots who were with him, saying, “Fight with no one small or great, but only with the sovereign of Yisra‘ĕl.”

31 And it came to be, when the commanders of the chariots saw Yehoshaphat, that they said, “It is the sovereign of Yisra‘ĕl!” So they turned around to fight against him, and Yehoshaphat cried out, and יהוה helped him, and Elohim moved them to turn away from him.

32 And it came to be, when the commanders of the chariots saw that it was not the sovereign of Yisra‘ĕl, that they turned back from pursuing him.

33 And a man drew a bow in his simplicity, and smote the sovereign of Yisra‘ĕl between the joints of his armour. And he said to the driver of his chariot, “Turn around and take me out of the battle, for I am wounded.”

34 But the battle increased that day, and the sovereign of Yisra‘ĕl was propped up in his chariot facing the Arameans until evening, and he died at the time of the going down of the sun.

19 And Yehoshaphat the sovereign of Yehuḏah returned to his house in peace in Yerushalayim.

2 And Yêhu son of Àanani the seer went out to face him, and said to Sovereign Yehoshaphat, “Do you help the wrong and love those who hate יהוה? Therefore the wrath of יהוה is upon you.

3 “But good matters are found in you, in that you have removed the Ashêroth from the land, and have prepared your heart to seek Elohim.”

4 So Yehoshaphat dwelt in Yerushalayim, and he went out again among the people from Be’ëršheba to the hill country of Ephrayim, and brought them back to יהוה Elohim of their fathers.

5 And he appointed judges in the land in all the walled cities of Yehuḏah, city by city,

6 and said to the judges, “Watch what you are doing, for you do not judge for man, but for יהוה who is with you in the matter of right-ruling.

7 “And now, let the fear of יהוה be upon you. Guard and do it, for there is no unrighteousness with יהוה our Elohim, nor partiality, nor taking of bribes.”

8 And in Yerushalayim Yehoshaphat also appointed some of the Lěwites and priests, and some of the chief fathers of Yisra‘ĕl, for the right-ruling of יהוה and for dispute. Then they returned to Yerushalayim.

9 And he commanded them, saying, “Do this in the fear of יהוה, trustworthily and with a perfect heart:

10 “When any dispute comes to you from your brothers who dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between Torah and command, laws and right-rulings, then you shall warn them, lest they trespass against הוהי and wrath come upon you and your brothers. Do this, and you shall not be guilty.

\[a\] 2 Thess. 2:11.

11 “And look, Amaryahu the chief priest is over you in all matters of הוהי. And Zebadyahu son of Yishma‘el, the ruler of the house of Yehuḏah, for all the matters of the sovereign, and the Léwites are officials before you. Be strong and do, and הוהי is with the good.”

20 And after this it came to be that the children of Mo‘ab and the children of Ammon came in, and with them some of the peoples, against Yehoshaphat to battle.

2 And they came and spoke to Yehoshaphat, saying, “A great army is coming against you from beyond the sea, from Aram. And see, they are in Ḥatsatson Tamar,” which is Ḥeḏi.

3 And Yehoshaphat was afraid, and set his face to seek הוהי, and proclaimed a fast throughout all Yehuḏah.

4 And Yehuḏah gathered to inquire of הוהי, even from all the cities of Yehuḏah they came to seek הוהי.

5 And Yehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Yehuḏah and Yerushalayim, in the House of הוהי, in front of the new courtyard,

6 and said, “O הוהי Elohim of our fathers, are You not Elohim in the heavens, and do You not rule over all the reigns of the nations, and in Your hand is there not power and might, so that no one is able to stand against You?

7 “Are You not our Elohim? You have driven out the inhabitants of this land before Your people Yisra‘el, and gave it to the seed of Araham Your friend forever.

8 “And they dwell in it, and have built You a set-apart place in it for Your Name, saying,

9 ‘If evil does come upon us, such as the sword, judgment, or pestilence, or scarcity of food, we shall stand before this House and in Your presence – for Your Name is in this House – and cry out to You in our distress, and You do hear and save.’

10 “And now, see, the children of Ammon and Mo‘ab, and Mount Sè‘ir, whom You would not let Yisra‘el invade when they came out of the land of Mitsrayim, for they turned from them and did not destroy them,

11 and see, they are repaying us by coming in to drive us out of Your possession which You have given us to inherit.

12 “O our Elohim, would You not judge them? For we are powerless against this great army that is coming against us. And we do not know what to do, but our eyes are upon You.”

13 And all Yehuḏah, with their little ones, their wives, and their children, stood before הוהי.

14 And the Spirit of הוהי came upon Ya‘azı‘el son of Zeqaryahu, son of Benayah, son of Ye‘i‘el, son of Mattanyah, a Léwite of the sons of Asaph, in the midst of the assembly, 15 and he said, “Listen, all Yehuḏah, and you inhabitants of Yerushalayim, and Sovereign Yehoshaphat! Thus said הוהי to you, ‘Do not fear, nor be afraid of the face of this great army, for the battle is not yours, but Elohim’s.

16 ‘Go down against them tomorrow. See, they are coming up by the ascent of Tsits, and you shall find them at the end of the wadi before the Wilderness of Yeru‘el.

17 ‘It is not for you to fight in this. Position yourselves, stand still and see the deliverance of הוהי with you, O Yehuḏah and Yerushalayim!’ Do not be afraid nor fear, go out against them tomorrow, for הוהי is with you.”

18 And Yehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground, and all Yehuḏah and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim fell down before הוהי, to bow themselves before הוהי.

19 And the Léwites, of the children of the Qehathites and of the children of the Qorḥites stood up to praise הוהי Elohim of Yisra‘el with exceedingly loud voice.

20 And they rose early in the morning and went out into the Wilderness of Teqowa. And as they went out, Yehoshaphat stood and said, “Hear me, O Yehuḏah and you inhabitants of Yerushalayim: Trust in הוהי.
your Elohim and be steadfast, trust His prophets and prosper.”
21 And after consulting with the people, he appointed those who should sing to יהוה", and who should praise the splendour of set-apartness, as they went out before the army and were saying, “Give thanks to יהוה", for His kindness is everlasting.”
22 And when they began singing and praising, יהוה set ambushes against the children of Ammon, Mo’αḇ, and Mount Se’ir, who had come against Yehuḏah, and they were smitten.
23 Then the children of Ammon and Mo’αḇ stood up against the inhabitants of Mount Se’ir to destroy and annihilate them. And when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Se’ir, they helped to destroy one another.
24 And when Yehuḏah came at the lookout in the wilderness, they looked toward the army and saw their dead bodies, lying on the ground, and none had escaped.
25 And Yehoshaphat and his people came to take away their spoil, and they found among them a great amount of valuables on the dead bodies, and precious jewelry, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could take away. And they were three days plundering the spoil, for it was much.
26 And on the fourth day they assembled in the Valley of Beraḵah, for there they blessed יהוה. Therefore the name of that place was called The Valley of Beraḵah to this day.
27 Then they returned, every man of Yehuḏah and Yerushalayim, with Yehoshaphat in front of them, to go back to Yerushalayim with joy, for יהוה had made them rejoice over their enemies.
28 And they came to Yerushalayim, with harps and lyres and trumpets, to the House
of יהוה.
29 And the fear of Elohim was on all the reigns of the lands when they heard that יהוה had fought against the enemies of Yisra’ėl.
30 Then the reign of Yehoshaphat was at peace, for his Elohim gave him rest on all sides.
31 Thus Yehoshaphat reigned over Yehuḏah – thirty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-five years in Yerushalayim. And his mother’s name was Azubah the daughter of Shilhi.
32 And he walked in the way of his father
Asa and did not turn aside from it, doing what was right in the eyes of יהוה.
33 Only, the high places were not taken away, for as yet the people had not prepared their hearts for the Elohim of their fathers.
34 And the rest of the acts of Yehoshaphat, the first and the last, see, they are written in the book of Yehu son of Hanani, which is mentioned in the book of the sovereigns of Yisra’ėl.
35 And after this Yehoshaphat sovereign of Yehuḏah joined himself with Aḥazyah sovereign of Yisra’ėl. He did wrong in doing so.
36 And he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish, and they made the ships in Etsyon Geḇer.
37 Then Eli’ezer son of Doᾱwahu of Marēshah prophesied against Yehoshaphat, saying, “Because you have joined yourself with Aḥazyahu, יהוה shall break up your work.” And the ships were wrecked, so that they were unable to go to Tarshish.
21 And Yehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the City of Dawiḏ. And Yehoram his son reigned in his place.
2 And he had brothers, the sons of Yehoshaphat: Azaryahu, and Yeḥi’ėl, and Zeḵaryahu, and Azaryahu, and Miḵa’ėl, and Shephatyahu. All these were sons of Yehoshaphat sovereign of Yisra’ėl.
3 And their father gave them many gifts of silver and gold and precious items, with walled cities in Yehuḏah, but he had given the reign to Yehoram because he was the first-born.
4 And when Yehoram had risen up over the reign of his father and made himself strong, he slew all his brothers with the sword, and also others of the heads of Yisra’ėl.
5 Yehoram was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Yerushalayim.

6 And he walked in the way of the sovereigns of Yisra’el, as the house of Aḥaḇ had done, for he had the daughter of Aḥaḇ as a wife. And he did evil in the eyes of יהוה.

7 However, יהוה would not destroy the house of Dawiḏ, because of the covenant He had made with Dawiḏ, and since He had promised to give a lamp to him and to his sons, all the days.

8 In his days the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Yehuḏah, and appointed a sovereign over themselves.

9 Then Yehoram went out with his officers, and all his chariots with him. And it came to be that he rose by night and smote the Edomites who had surrounded him and the commanders of the chariots.

10 Thus the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Yehuḏah to this day. Then Libnah revolted from under his hand, because he had forsaken יהוה Elohim of his fathers.

11 He had also made high places in the mountains of Yehuḏah, and caused the inhabitants of Yerushalayim to commit whoring, and led Yehuḏah astray.

12 And a letter came to him from Ėliyahu the prophet, saying, Thus said יהוה Elohim of your father Dawiḏ, “Because you have not walked in the ways of Yehoshaphat your father, or in the ways of Asa sovereign of Yehuḏah,

13 but have walked in the way of the sovereigns of Yisra’el, and have made Yehuḏah and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim to commit whoring like the whorings of the house of Aḥaḇ, and also have slain your brothers, those of your father’s household, who were better than yourself,

14 see, יהוה is going to strike with a great blow among your people, your children, your wives, and all your possessions,

15 and you, with many sicknesses, with disease of your intestines, until your intestines come out because of the sickness, day by day.”

16 And יהוה stirred up the spirit of the Philistines against Yehoram, and of the Arabians who were near the Kushites.

17 And they came up into Yehuḏah and broke into it, and captured all the possessions that were found in the sovereign’s house, and also his sons and his wives, so that there was not a son left to him except Yeho’ahaz, the youngest of his sons.

18 And after all this יהוה plagued him in his intestines with a disease for which there was no healing.

19 And it came to be in the course of time, at the end of two years, that his intestines came out because of his sickness, and he died in great pain. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning for his fathers.

20 He was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Yerushalayim, to no one’s regret, and passed away. And they buried him in the City of Dawiḏ, but not in the tombs of the sovereigns.

22 And the inhabitants of Yerushalayim set up Aḥaẓyahu his youngest son to reign in his place, for the raiding band that came with the Arabians into the camp had slain all the older sons. So Aḥaẓyahu son of Yehoram, sovereign of Yehuḏah, reigned.

Aḥaẓyahu was forty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Yerushalayim one year. And his mother’s name was Athalyahu the granddaughter of Omri.

3 He too walked in the ways of the house of Aḥaḇ, for his mother counselled him to do wrong.

4 And he did evil in the eyes of יהוה, like the house of Aḥaḇ, for they were his counsellors after the death of his father, to his destruction.

5 He also walked in their counsel, and went with Yehoram son of Aḥaḇ sovereign of Yisra’el to fight against Haza’el sovereign of Aram at Ramoth Gil’ad. And the Arameans smote Yoram,

6 and he returned to Yizre’el to recover from the wounds which he had received at Ramah, when he fought against Ḥaza’el sovereign of Aram. And Azaryahu son of Yehoram, sovereign of Yehuḏah, went down to see Yehoram son of Aḥaḇ in Yizre’ēl, for he was sick.

7 But from Elohim came the downfall of Aḥazyahu, through his coming to Yoram. For when he came he went out with Yehoram against Yahu son of Nimshi, whom יהוה had anointed to cut off the house of Aḥaḇ.

8 And it came to be, when Yēhu was executing judgment on the house of Aḥaḇ, that he found the rulers of Yehuḏah and the sons of Aḥazyahu’s brothers who served Aḥazyahu, and slew them.

9 So he searched for Aḥazyahu, and they caught him while he was hiding in Shomeron, and brought him to Yēhu, and put him to death, then buried him, for they said, “He is the son of Yehoshaphat, who sought יהוה with all his heart.” And there was none in the house of Aḥazyahu strong enough to reign.

10 And when Athalyahu the mother of Aḥazyahu saw that her son was dead, she rose up and destroyed all the offspring of the reign of the house of Yehuḏah.

11 But Yehoshab’ath, the daughter of the sovereign, took Yo’ash son of Aḥazyahu, and stole him away from among the sovereign’s sons who were slain, and put him and his nurse in a bedroom. So Yehoshab’ath, the daughter of Sovereign Yehoḵram, the wife of Yehoyāḏa the priest, because she was the sister of Aḥazyahu, hid him from Athalyahu so that she could not put him to death.

12 And he was hidden with them in the House of Elohim for six years, while Athalyah was reigning over the land.

23 And in the seventh year Yehoyāḏa strengthened himself, and made a covenant with the commanders of hundreds: Azaryahu son of Yerohām, and Yishma’ēl son of Yehoḥanān, and Azaryahu son of Oḇēḏ, and Ma’asēyahu son of Aḏayahu, and Elishaphat son of Zikri.

3 And all the assembly made a covenant with the sovereign in the House of Elohim. And he said to them, “See, the son of the sovereign is to reign, as וַיְהֵם has said of the sons of Dawiḏ.

4 “This is what you do: One-third of you entering on the Sabbath, of the priests and the Lēwites, gatekeepers of the thresholds; 5 and one-third are at the sovereign’s house, and one-third at the Gate of the Foundation, while all the people are in the courtyards of the House of יהוה.

6 “And let no one come into the House of יהוה except the priests and those of the Lēwites who serve – they go in, for they are set-apart. But all the people are to guard the Charge of יהוה.

7 “And the Lēwites shall surround the sovereign on all sides, every man with his weapons in his hand. And whoever comes into the house, let him be put to death. And be with the sovereign when he comes in and when he goes out.”

8 And the Lēwites and all Yehuḏah did according to all that Yehoyaḏa the priest commanded. And each man took his men who were to come in on the Sabbath, with those going out on the Sabbath, for Yehoyaḏa the priest did not dismiss the divisions.

9 And Yehoyaḏa the priest gave to the commanders of hundreds the spears and the large and small shields which had been Sovereign Dawiḏ’s, that were in the House of Elohim.

10 And he set all the people, every man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the House to the left side of the House, along by the altar and by the House, all around the sovereign.

11 And they brought out the son of the sovereign and put on him the diadem and the Witness, and set him up to reign. Then Yehoyāḏa and his sons anointed him, and said, “Let the sovereign live!”

12 And Athalyahu heard the noise of the people running and praising the sovereign, and she came to the people in the House of יהוה, 13 and looked and saw the sovereign standing by his column at the entrance.

And the chiefs and the trumpeters were beside the sovereign, and all the people of the land rejoicing and blowing trumpets, also the singers with instruments of song, and those who led in praise. Then Athalyahu tore her garments and said, “Treason! Treason!”

14 And Yehoyaḏa the priest brought out the commanders of hundreds who were set over the army, and said to them, “Take her outside the ranks, and slay with the sword whoever follows her.” For the priest said, “Do not kill her in the House of יהוה.”

15 So they laid hands on her, and she went by way of the entrance of the Horse Gate into the sovereign’s house, and they put her to death there.

16 Yehoyaḏa then made a covenant – between himself and the people and the sovereign – to be the people of יהוה.

17 And all the people went to the house of Baʿal, and broke it down. They completely broke up its altars and images, and slew Mattan the priest of Baʿal before the altars.

18 And Yehoyaḏa put the offices of the House of יהוה into the hand of the priests, the Lěwites, whom Dawiḏ had assigned in the House of יהוה, to offer the burnt offerings of יהוה, as it is written in the Torah of Mosheh, with rejoicing and with singing, by the hands of Dawiḏ.

19 And he set the gatekeepers at the gates of the House of יהוה, so that no one who was in any way unclean should enter.

20 And he took the commanders of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought the sovereign down from the House of יהוה. And they went through the Upper Gate to the sovereign’s house, and set the sovereign on the throne of the reign.

21 And all the people of the land rejoiced. And the city had rest, for they had slain Athalyahu with the sword.

24 Yoʿash was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Yerushalayim. And the name of his mother was Tsibiyah of Beʿeršeḇa.

And Yoʿash did what was right in the eyes of יהוה all the days of Yehoyaḏa the priest.

3 And Yehoyaḏa took for him two wives, and he brought forth sons and daughters.

4 And after this it came to be that Yoʿash set his heart on restoring the House of יהוה.

5 And he gathered the priests and the Lěwites, and said to them, “Go out to the cities of Yehuḏah, and gather from all Yisraʿel silver to repair the House of your Elohim from year to year, and see that you hurry the matter.” But the Lěwites did not hurry it.

6 And the sovereign called Yehoyaḏa the chief, and said to him, “Why have you not required the Lěwites to bring in from Yehuḏah and from Yerushalayim the levy of Mosheh the servant of יהוה and of the assembly of Yisraʿel, for the Tent of the Witness?”

7 For the sons of Athalyahu, that wrong woman, had broken into the House of Elohim, and had also prepared all the set-apart vessels of the House of יהוה to the Baʿals.

8 So the sovereign commanded and they made a chest, and set it outside at the gate of the House of יהוה, and made it known in Yehuḏah and in Yerushalayim to bring to יהוה the levy that Mosheh the servant of Elohim had imposed on Yisraʿel in the wilderness.

9 And it came to be, at that time, when the chest was brought to the sovereign’s official by the hand of the Lěwites, and when they saw that there was much silver, that the sovereign’s scribe and the high priest’s officer came and emptied the chest, and took it and returned it to its place. So they did day by day, and gathered a large amount of silver.

10 And the sovereign and Yehoyaḏa gave it to those who did the work of the service of the House of יהוה. And they hired stonemasons and carpenters to restore the House of יהוה, and also those who worked in iron and bronze to repair the House of יהוה.

11 And the workmen laboured, and the work of restoration progressed in their hands, and they established the House of Elohim to its proper form and strengthened it.

14 And when they had finished, they brought the rest of the silver before the sovereign and Yehoyada, and they made utensils from it for the House of Elohim, utensils for serving and offering, ladies and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt offerings in the House of Elohim continually all the days of Yehoyada.

15 And Yehoyada was old and satisfied with days, and died, one hundred and thirty years old when he died.

16 And they buried him in the City of Daviḏ among the sovereigns, for he had done good in Yisra’el, both toward Elohim and His house.

17 And after the death of Yehoyada the rulers of Yehuḏah came and bowed themselves to the sovereign. And the sovereign listened to them,

18 and they forsook the House of Elohim of their fathers, and served the Ashērim and the idols. And wrath came upon Yehuḏah and Yerushalayim because of their trespass.

19 And He sent prophets to them, to bring them back to Elohim. And they witnessed against them, but they did not listen.

20 Then the Spirit of Elohim came upon Zeḵaryah son of Yehoyada the priest, who stood above the people, and said to them, “Thus said Elohim, ‘Why are you transgressing the commands of Elohim, b and do not prosper? Because you have forsaken Elohim, He has forsaken you.’ ”

21 And they conspired against him, and at the command of the sovereign they stoned him with stones in the courtyard of the House of Elohim.

22 Thus Yo’ash the sovereign did not remember the kindness which Yehoyada his father had done to him, and slew his son. And as he died, he said, “Yehuḏah does see, and repay!”

23 And it came to be, at the turn of the year, that the army of Aram came up against him. And they came into Yehuḏah and Yerushalayim, and destroyed all the rulers of the people from among the people, and sent all their spoil to the sovereign of Damascus.

24 For the army of Aram came with few men, but Elohim gave a very great army into their hand, because they had forsaken Elohim of their fathers. So they executed judgment against Yo’ash.

25 And when they had withdrawn from him – for they left him very sick – his own servants conspired against him because of the blood of the sons of Yehoyada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died. And they buried him in the City of Daviḏ, but they did not bury him in the tombs of the sovereigns.

26 And these are the ones who conspired against him: Zabaḏ the son of Shim’ath the Ammonitess, and Yehozaḇaḏ the son of Shimrith the Mo’aḇitess.

27 As to his sons, and the many words about him, and the rebuilding of the House of Elohim, see, they are written in the commentary of the book of the sovereigns. And Amatsyahu his son reigned in his place.

25 Amatsyahu was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Yerushalayim. And the name of his mother was Yehoaddan of Yerushalayim.

2 And he did what was right in the eyes of Elohim, but not with a perfect heart.

3 And it came to be, when the reign was established for him, that he slew his servants who had smitten his father the sovereign.

4 But he did not put their children to death, but did as it is written in the Torah in the Book of Mosheh, where Elohim commanded, saying, “Fathers are not put to death for their children, and children are not put to death for their fathers, but each one has to die for his own sin.”

5 And Amatsyahu gathered Yehuḏah and set over them commanders of thousands b The Spirit of Elohim has been doing this all along, up to this day, e.g. Miḵ. 3:8, Yn. 16:8!

and commanders of hundreds, according to the fathers’ houses, for all Yehuḏah and Binyamin. And he registered them from twenty years old and above, and found them to be three hundred thousand choice men going out to the army, handling spear and shield.

6 And he hired one hundred thousand mighty brave ones from Yisra’el for one hundred talents of silver.

7 But a man of Elohim came to him, saying, “O sovereign, do not let the army of Yisra’el go with you, for HWHY is not with Yisra’el, with all the children of Ephrayim.

8 “But if you are going, do it! Be strong in battle, else Elohim would make you fall before the enemy, for Elohim has power to help and to overthrow.”

9 And Amatsyahu said to the man of Elohim, “But what do we do about the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Yisra’el?” And the man of Elohim answered, “HWHY has more to give you than this.”

10 So Amatsyahu dismissed the army that had come to him from Ephrayim, to go back home. And they were greatly enraged against Yehuḏah, and they returned home in a rage.

11 And Amatsyahu strengthened himself, and led his people, and went to the Valley of Salt and smote ten thousand of the sons of Sā’ir.

12 And the sons of Yehuḏah took captive another ten thousand alive, and they brought them to the top of the rock, and threw them down from the top of the rock, and all of them were dashed to pieces.

13 And the soldiers of the army which Amatsyahu had sent back from going with him to battle, they raided the cities of Yehuḏah from Shomeron to Bēḇêṯ Ḥoron, and smote three thousand in them, and took much spoil.

14 And it came to be, after Amatsyahu came from smiting the Eḏomites, that he brought the mighty ones of the people of Sā’ir, and set them up to be his mighty ones, and bowed down before them and burned incense to them.

15 Therefore the displeasure of HWHY burned against Amatsyahu, and He sent him a prophet who said to him, “Why have you sought the mighty ones of the people, which did not deliver their own people from your hand?”

16 And it came to be, as he talked with him, that the sovereign said to him, “Have we appointed you counsellor to the sovereign? Stop! Why should they smile you?” Then the prophet stopped and said, “I know that Elohim has counselled to destroy you, because you have done this and have not listened to my counsel.”

17 And Amatsyahu sovereign of Yehuḏah took counsel and sent to Yo’ash son of Yeho’aḥaz, son of Yēhu, sovereign of Yisra’el, saying, “Come, let us look each other in the face!”

18 And Yo’ash sovereign of Yisra’el sent to Amatsyahu sovereign of Yehuḏah, saying, “The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, ‘Give your daughter to my son as wife.’ And a wild beast that was in Lebanon passed by and trampled the thistle.

19 “You have said, ‘See, I have smitten Eḏom,’ and your heart has lifted you up to boast. Now stay at home, why should you stir up yourself to evil, that you should fall – you and Yehuḏah with you?”

20 But Amatsyahu did not listen, for it came from Elohim, in order to give them into the hand of their enemies, because they had sought the mighty ones of Eḏom.

21 So Yo’ash sovereign of Yisra’el went out. And he and Amatsyahu sovereign of Yehuḏah faced one another at Bēbeth Shemesh, which belongs to Yehuḏah.

22 And Yehuḏah was smitten before Yisra’el, and they each fled to his tent.

23 And Yo’ash the sovereign of Yisra’el caught Amatsyahu sovereign of Yehuḏah, son of Yo’ash, son of Yeho’aḥaz, at Bēbeth Shemesh, and brought him to Yerusha-layim, and broke down the wall of Yerushalayim from the Gate of Ephrayim to the Corner Gate, four hundred cubits,

24 and took all the gold and the silver, and all the utensils that were found in the House of Elohim with Oḇeḏ-Eḏom, and the treasures of the sovereign’s house, and hostages, and returned to Shomeron.
25 And Amatsyahu son of Yo’ash, sovereign of YehuÅah, lived fifteen years after the death of Yo’ash son of Yeho’añaz, sovereign of Yisra’êl.
26 And the rest of the acts of Amatsyahu, from the first to the last, see, are they not written in the book of the sovereigns of YehuÅah and Yisra’êl?
27 And from the time that Amatsyahu turned away from following הוהי, they made a conspiracy against him in Yerushalayim, and he fled to La¿ish. And they sent after him to La¿ish and killed him there, 28 and they brought him on horses and buried him with his fathers in the City of YehuÅah.
26 And all the people of YehuÅah took Uzziyahu, who was sixteen years old, and set him up to reign instead of his father Amatsyahu.
2 He built Âyloth and restored it to YehuÅah, after the sovereign slept with his fathers.
3 Uzziyahu was sixteen years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-two years in Yerushalayim. And his mother’s name was Ye¿olyah of Yerushalayim.
4 And he did what was right in the eyes of הוהי, according to all that his father Amatsyahu did.
5 And he sought Elohim in the days of Ze¿aryahu, who had understanding in the visions of Elohim. And while he sought הוהי, Elohim made him prosper.
6 And he went out and fought against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath, and the wall of YaÑeh, and the wall of AshdoÅ, and built cities around AshdoÅ and among the Philistines.
7 And Elohim helped him against the Philistines, and against the AraÑians who lived in Gur Ba’al, and the MeÈunites.
8 And the Ammonites gave gifts to Uzziyahu. And his name spread as far as the entrance of Mitsrayim, for he strengthened himself greatly.
9 And Uzziyahu built towers in Yerushalayim at the Corner Gate, and at the Valley Gate, and at the corner buttress, and strengthened them.
10 And he built towers in the wilderness, and dug many wells, for he had much live- stock, both in the low country and in the plain, farmers and vinedressers in the mountains and in Karmel, for he loved the soil.
11 And Uzziyahu had an army of fighting men who went out to battle by divisions, according to the number on their roll as prepared by Ye’i’êl the scribe and Ma’asèyahu the officer, under the hand of Hananyahu, one of the sovereign’s commanders.
12 The total number of the clan chiefs of the mighty brave ones was two thousand six hundred.
13 And under their hand was an army of three hundred and seven thousand five hundred that fought with mighty power, to help the sovereign against the enemy.
14 And Uzziyahu prepared for them, for the entire army, shields, and spears, and helmets, and body armour, and bows, and sling stones.
15 And he made machines in Yerushalayim, devised by skilled men, to be on the towers and the corners, to shoot arrows and large stones. And his name spread far and wide, for he was marvellously helped till he became strong.
16 But when he became strong his heart was lifted up, to his destruction, for he trespassed against הוהי his Elohim by entering the הֵּֽהָּ֝קָל of הוהי to burn incense on the altar of incense.
17 And Azaryahu the priest went in after him, and with him were eighty priests of הוהי, who were brave men.
18 And they stood up against Sovereign Uzziyahu, and said to him, “It is not for you, Uzziyahu, to burn incense to הוהי, but for the priests, the sons of Aharon, who are set-apart to burn incense. Get out of the set-apart place, for you have trespassed, and there is no esteem to you from הוהי Elohim.”
19 And Uzziyahu was wroth. And he had a censer in his hand to burn incense. And while he was wroth with the priests, leprosy broke out on his forehead, before the priests in the House of הִיטִיָּה, beside the incense altar.

20 And Azaryahu the chief priest and all the priests looked at him, and saw that he was leprous on his forehead. And they hurried him from there. And he also hurried to get out, because הִיטִיָּה had struck him.

21 And Sovereign Uzziyahu was a leper until the day of his death, and dwelt in a separate house, because he was a leper, for he was cut off from the House of הִיטִיָּה. And Yotham his son was over the sovereign’s house, ruling the people of the land.

22 And the rest of the acts of Uzziyahu, from the first to the last, the prophet Yeshayahu the son of Amots wrote.

23 So Uzziyahu slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial which belonged to the sovereigns, for they said, “He is a leper.” And Yotham his son reigned in his place.

27 Yotham was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Yerushalayim. And his mother’s name was Yerushah the daughter of Tsaåq.

2 And he did what was right in the eyes of הָיוָה, according to all that his father Uzziyahu had done. Only, he did not come into the הֵיכָל of הָיוָה. And the people continued to act corruptly.

3 He built the Upper Gate of the House of הָיוָה, and he built much on the wall of Ophel.

4 And he built cities in the hill country of Yehudâh, and in the forests he built palaces and towers.

5 And he fought with the sovereign of the Ammonites and prevailed over them. And the children of Ammon gave him in that year one hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand kors of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. This is what the children of Ammon paid him, also in the second and third years.

6 And Yotham strengthened himself, for he prepared his ways before הָיוָה his Elohim.

7 And the rest of the acts of Yotham, and all his battles and his ways, see, they are written in the book of the sovereigns of Yisra’él and Yehudâh.

8 He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Yerushalayim.

9 So Yotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the City of Dawiḏ. And his son Aḥaz reigned in his place.

28 Aḥaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Yerushalayim. And he did not do what was right in the eyes of הָיוָה, as his father Dawiḏ had done,

2 and walked in the ways of the sovereigns of Yisra’él, and made moulded images for the Ba’als.

3 And he himself burned incense in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, and burned his children in the fire, according to the abominations of the gentiles whom הָיוָה dispossessed from before the children of Yisra’él,

4 and slaughtered and burned incense on the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

5 Therefore הָיוָה his Elohim gave him into the hand of the sovereign of Aram, and they smote him, and took many of them away as captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also given into the hand of the sovereign of Yisra’él, who smote him with a great slaughter.

6 And Peqḥ son of Remalyahu slew one hundred and twenty thousand in YehuÅah in one day, all brave men, because they had forsaken הָיוָה Elohim of their fathers.

7 And Zi¿ri, a mighty man of Ephrayim, slew Ma’asëyahu son of the sovereign, and Azriqam the officer over the house, and Elqanah who was second to the sovereign.

8 And the children of Yisra’él took captive from their brothers two hundred thousand women, sons and daughters. And they also seized from them much spoil, and they brought the spoil to Shomerôn.

9 But a prophet of הָיוָה was there, whose name was Oḏèḏ. And he went out before the army that came to Shomerôn, and said to them, “See, because הָיוָה Elohim of your fathers was displeased with Yehuḏah, He has given them into your hand, and you have slain them in a rage that reaches up to the heavens.

10 “And now you are planning to make the children of Yehuḏah and Yerushalayim your male and female slaves, but are you not also guilty before יהוה your Elohim?

11 “Now therefore, listen to me, and return the captives whom you have taken captive from your brothers, for the heat of the wrath of יהוה is upon you.”

12 And some of the heads of the children of Ephrayim: Azaryahu son of Yehoḥanan, Bereḵyahu son of Meshillĕmoth, and Yehizqiyahu son of Shallum, and Amasa son of Ḥaḏlai, stood up against those who came from the army,

13 and said to them, “Do not bring the captives here, to bring on us guilt before יהוה. Are you planning to add to our sins and to our guilt? For our guilt is great, and burning is the wrath on Yisra’ĕl.”

14 And the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the leaders and all the assembly.

15 And the men who were designated by name rose up and took the captives, and from the spoil they put on all the naked among them, dressed them and gave them sandals, and gave them food and drink, and anointed them, and let all the weak ones ride on donkeys, and brought them to their brothers at Yeriĥo, the city of palm trees, then returned to Shomeron.

16 At that time Sovereign Aḥaz sent to the sovereigns of Ashshur to help him.

17 For the Edomites had come again, and smote Yehuḏah, and took away captives.

18 And the Philistines invaded the cities of the low country and of the South of Yehuḏah, and captured Bëyth Shemesh, and Ayalon, and Ḡeḏerōth, and Soko with its villages, and Timnah with its villages, and Gimzo with its villages, and dwelt there.

19 For יהוה had brought Yehuḏah low because of Aḥaz sovereign of Yisra’ĕl, for he brought about a lack of restraint in Yehuḏah and trespassed against יהוה.

20 And Tīglath-Pileser the sovereign of Ashshur came against him and distressed him, and did not help him, 21 though Aḥaz had taken some of the treasures from the House of יהוה, from the house of the sovereign, and from the leaders, and he gave it to the sovereign of Ashshur, but he did not help him.

22 And in the time of his distress Sovereign Aḥaz trespassed even more against יהוה – this Sovereign Aḥaz –

23 and he slaughtered to the mighty ones of Damascus, those smiting him, saying, “Because the mighty ones of the sovereigns of Aram help them, I offer to them and they help me.” But they were to cause him and all Yisra’ĕl to stumble.

24 And Aḥaz gathered the utensils of the House of Elohim, and cut in pieces the utensils of the House of Elohim, and shut the doors of the House of יהוה, and made for himself altars in every corner of Yerushalayim.

25 And in every city, even the cities of Yehuḏah, he made high places to burn incense to other mighty ones, and provoked יהוה Elohim of his fathers.

26 And the rest of his acts and all his ways, from first to last, see, they are written in the book of the sovereigns of Yehuḏah and Yisra’ĕl.

27 So Aḥaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Yerushalayim, but they did not bring him into the tombs of the sovereigns of Yisra’ĕl. And Ḥizqiyahu his son reigned in his place.

29 Ḥizqiyahu began to reign when he was twenty-five years old, and he reigned twenty-nine years in Yerushalayim. And his mother’s name was Abiyah the daughter of Zeḵaryahu.

2 And he did what was right in the eyes of יהוה, according to all that his father Dawiḏ did.

3 In the first year of his reign, in the first month, he opened the doors of the House of יהוה and repaired them,

4 and brought in the priests and the Lĕwites, and gathered them in the open place to the east.

5 And he said to them, “Listen to me, O
Lévites! Now set yourselves apart, set apart the House of הֵיכָל Elohim of your fathers, and remove the uncleanness from the set-apart place.

6“For our fathers have trespassed and have done evil in the eyes of הֵיכָל our Elohim, and have forsaken Him, and have turned their faces away from the Dwelling Place of הֵיכָל, and have given their backs.

7“And they have shut the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and they have not burned incense or offered burnt offerings in the set-apart place to the Elohim of Yisra’âl.

8“Therefore the wrath of הֵיכָל fell upon Yehuâdah and Yerushalayim, and He has given them up for a trembling, for an astonishment, and for a hissing, as you see with your eyes.

9“And see, because of this our fathers have fallen by the sword. And our sons, and our daughters, and our wives are in captivity for this.

10“Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with הֵיכָל Elohim of Yisra’âl, so that the heat of His wrath turns away from us.

11“My sons, do not be slack, for הֵיכָל has chosen you to stand before Him, to serve Him, and to be attendants for Him and burn incense.”

12And the Lévites rose up: Maâath son of Amasai and Yo’ãl son of Azaryahu, of the sons of the Qehathites; and of the sons of Merari, Qish son of Aädi and Azaryahu son of Yehallel’ãl; and of the Gëreshonites, Yo’aã son of Zimmah and Èden son of Yo’ãh;

13and of the sons of Elitsaphan, Shimri and Ye’i’ãl; and of the sons of Asaph, Zekaryahu and Mattanyahu;

14and of the sons of Hëman, Yehi’ãl and Shim’i; and of the sons of Yeḏuthun, Shemayah and Uzzi’ãl.

15And they gathered their brothers, and set themselves apart, and went according to the command of the sovereign, at the words of הֵיכָל, to cleanse the House of הֵיכָל.

16And the priests came into the inner part of the House of הֵיכָל to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness they found in the Hëkal of הֵיכָל to the courtyard of the House of הֵיכָל. Then the Lévites received it to take it outside to the wadi Qi’dron.

17And they began to set apart on the first day of the first month, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the porch of הֵיכָל. And they set apart the House of הֵיכָל in eight days, and on the sixteenth day of the first month they had finished.

18Then they came in to Sovereign Hîzqiyyahu and said, “We have cleansed all the House of הֵיכָל, and the altar of burnt offerings with all its utensils, and the table of the showbread with all its utensils.

19“And all the utensils which Sovereign Aâaz in his reign had pushed aside, when he trespassed, we have prepared and set apart. And see, they are before the altar of הֵיכָל.”

20And Sovereign Hîzqiyyahu rose up early, and gathered the heads of the city, and went up to the House of הֵיכָל.

21And they brought seven bulls, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven male goats for a sin offering for the reign, for the set-apart place, and for Yehuâdah. And he said to the priests, the sons of Aharon, to offer them on the altar of הֵיכָל.

22So they slaughtered the bulls, and the priests received the blood and sprinkled it on the altar. And they slaughtered the rams and sprinkled the blood on the altar. And they slaughtered the lambs and sprinkled the blood on the altar.

23And they brought out the male goats of the sin offering before the sovereign and the assembly, and they laid their hands on them,

24and the priests slaughtered them, and with their blood made a sin offering on the altar, to make an atonement for all Yisra’âl, for the sovereign said that the burnt offering and the sin offering is for all Yisra’âl.

25And he appointed the Lévites in the House of הֵיכָל with cymbals, with harps, and with lyres, according to the command of Dawîq, and of Ga’d, seer of the sovereign, and of Nathan the prophet, for the command was by the hand of הֵיכָל, by the hand of His prophets.
And the Lëwites stood with the instruments of Dawi\d, and the priests with the trumpets.

And ÊHziqiyahu gave the order to offer the burnt offering on the altar. And when the burnt offering began, the singing unto \waw began, with the trumpets and with the instruments of Dawi\d sovereign of Yisra'\el.

And all the assembly were bowing, and the singers singing, and the trumpeters blowing – all this until the burnt offering was completed.

And at the completion of the offering, the sovereign and all who were present with him bowed and worshipped.

And Sovereign ÊHziqiyahu and the rulers ordered the Lëwites to sing praise to \waw with the words of Dawi\d and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.

And ÊHziqiyahu responded and said, "Now that you have ordained yourselves to \waw, come near, and bring slaughterings and thank offerings into the House of \waw." And the assembly brought in slaughterings and thank offerings, and all those whose hearts were so moved brought burnt offerings.

And the number of the burnt offerings which the assembly brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, two hundred lambs – all these for a burnt offering to \waw.

And the set-apart gifts were six hundred bulls and three thousand sheep.

Only, the priests were too few, and were unable to skin all the burnt offerings, so their brothers the Lëwites helped them until the work was completed and until the other priests had set themselves apart, for the Lëwites were more upright of heart to set themselves apart, than the priests.

And there were also many burnt offerings, with the fat of the peace offerings and with the drink offerings for every burnt offering. Thus the service of the House of \waw was re-established.

And ÊHziqiyahu and all the people rejoiced that Elohim had prepared the people, because the matter came about so suddenly.

And ÊHziqiyahu sent to all Yisra’\el and Yehu\dah, and he also wrote letters to Ephrayim and Menashsheh, to come to the House of \waw at Yerushalayim, to perform the Passover to \waw Elohim of Yisra’\el.

But the sovereign and his leaders and all the assembly in Yerushalayim had taken counsel to perform the Passover in the second month.

For they were unable to perform it at its time, because not enough priests had set themselves apart, and the people had not gathered at Yerushalayim.

And the matter was right in the eyes of the sovereign and in the eyes of all the assembly.

And they settled the matter, to send a call to all Yisra’\el, from Be’ërše\ba to Dan, to come to perform a Passover to \waw Elohim of Yisra’\el at Yerushalayim, since they had not done it for a long time, as it is written.

And the runners went to all Yisra’\el and Yehu\dah with the letters from the sovereign and his leaders, and spoke according to the command of the sovereign, “Children of Yisra’\el, turn back to \waw Elohim of A\braham, Yits\q and Yisra’\el, so that He returns to the remnant of you who have escaped from the hand of the sovereigns of Ashshur.

And do not be like your fathers and like your brothers, who trespassed against \waw Elohim of their fathers, so that He gave them up to ruin, as you see.

Now do not stiffen your neck, like your fathers, stretch forth the hand to \waw, and come to His set-apart place, which He has set apart forever, and serve \waw your Elohim, so that His burning wrath turns away from you.

For if you turn back to \waw, your brothers and your children shall be shown compassion by their captors, even to return to this land. For \waw your Elohim shows favour and compassion, and does not turn His face from you if you turn back to
And the runners passed from city to city throughout the land of Ephrayim and Menashsheh, as far as Zeḇulun. But they were laughing at them and mocking them.

Some from Ashêr and Menashsheh and from Zeḇulun, however, humbled themselves and came to Yerushalayim.

Also the hand of Elohim was on YehuÅah to give them one heart to do the command of the sovereign and the rulers, at the word of ה'.

And many people, a very great assembly, gathered at Yerushalayim to perform the Festival of Unleavened Bread in the second month.

And they rose up and removed the altars that were in Yerushalayim, and they removed all the incense altars and threw them into the wadi QiÅron.

Then they slaughtered the Passover on the fourteenth day of the second month. And the priests and the LÃwites were ashamed, and set themselves apart, and brought the burnt offerings to the House of ה'.

the camp of הוהי.

3 And the sovereign appointed a portion of his possessions for the burnt offerings, for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths and for the New Moons and for the appointed times, as it is written in the Torah of הוהי.

4 And he said to the people, those who dwelt in Yerushalayim, to give the portion for the priests and the Lévites, so that they are strengthened in the Torah of הוהי.

5 And as the word spread, the children of Yisra'ēl brought large quantities of the first-fruits of grain and wine, and oil and honey, and of all the increase of the field. And they brought in the tithe of all, a large amount.

6 And the children of Yisra'ēl and Yehuḏah, those who dwelt in the cities of Yehuḏah, brought the tithe of cattle and sheep. Even the tithe of set-apart gifts which were set apart to הוהי their Elohim were brought in, and they gave heaps, heaps.

7 In the third month they began to pile up the heaps, and they finished in the seventh month.

8 And Àizqiyahu and the leaders came and saw the heaps, and they blessed הוהי and His people Yisra'ēl.

9 And Àizqiyahu asked the priests and the Lévites about the heaps.

10 And Azaryahu the chief priest, from the house of Tsaåq, answered him and said, “Since they began to bring the offerings into the House of הוהי, we have had enough to eat and have plenty left, for הוהי has blessed His people. And this great amount is left over.”

11 And Hizqiyahu ordered them to prepare rooms in the House of הוהי, and they prepared them.

12 Then they brought in the contribution, and the tithes, and the set-apart gifts, trustworthily. And Konanyahu the Léwite was leader over them, and Shim'i his brother was the next.

13 And Yeḥi'ēl, and Azazyahu, and Naḥath, and Asah'ēl, and Yerimoth, and Yozabaḏ, and Eli'ēl, and Yismakyahu, and Maḥath, and Benayahu were overseers under the hand of Konanyahu and Shim'i his brother, by order of Hizqiyahu the sovereign and Azaryahu the ruler of the House of Elohim.

14 And Qorē son of Yimnah the Léwite, the keeper of the East Gate, was over the voluntary offerings to Elohim, to distribute the offerings of הוהי and the most set-apart gifts.

15 And under his hand were Ėḏen, and Minyamin, and Yēshua, and Shemayahu, Amaryahu, and Sheḵanyahu, in the cities of the priests, to distribute trustworthily to their brothers by divisions, to the great as well as the small.

16 Besides those males from three years old and up who were written in the genealogy, they distributed to everyone who entered the House of הוהי his daily portion for the work of his service, by his division, and to the priests who were written in the genealogy according to their father’s house, and to the Lévites from twenty years old upward, by their duties in their divisions,

18 and to all listed in the genealogy, their little ones and their wives, their sons and daughters, all the company of them. For in their trustworthiness they set themselves apart in set-apartness.

19 And for the sons of Aharon the priests, who were in the fields of the open land of their cities, in each and every city, there were men who were called by name to distribute portions to all the males among the priests and to all who were listed by genealogies among the Lévites.

20 And Hizqiyahu did this in all Yehuḏah, and he did what was good and what was right and what was true before הוהי his Elohim.

21 And in every work that he began in the service of the House of Elohim, in the Torah and in the command, to seek his Elohim, with all his heart, he did and prospered.

32 After these matters and this trustworthiness, Sanḥerib sovereign of Ashshur came. And he entered Yehuḏah and encamped against the cities of defence, and said to break them open to himself.

2 And Hizqiyahu saw that Sanhêriḇ had come, and his face set to fight against Yerushalayim,

3 and he took counsel with his rulers and mighty men to stop the water from the springs which were outside the city. And they helped him.

4 And many people were gathered, and they stopped all the springs and the stream that ran through the land, saying, “Why should the sovereigns of Ashshur come and find much water?”

5 And he strengthened himself, and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised it up to the towers, and outside of it another wall, and strengthened Millo, the City of Dawiḏ, and made large numbers of weapons and shields.

6 And he appointed battle officers over the people, and gathered them to him in the open space at the city gate, and spoke to their heart, saying,

7 “Be strong and courageous, do not be afraid nor be cast down before the sovereign of Ashshur, nor before all the army that is with him. For with us there are more than with him.

8 “With him is an arm of flesh, but with us is HWHY our Elohim, to help us and to fight our battles.” And the people leaned on the words of Hizqiyahu sovereign of Yehuḏah.

9 After this Sanhêriḇ the sovereign of Ashshur sent his servants to Yerushalayim – but he himself, and all his power with him against Lakish – to Hizqiyahu sovereign of Yehuḏah, and to all Yehuḏah who were in Yerushalayim, saying,

10 “Thus said Sanhêriḇ the sovereign of Ashshur, ‘On what are you trusting, that you remain in Yerushalayim under siege?

11 ‘Is Hizqiyahu not persuading you to give yourselves over to die by scarcity of food and by thirst, saying, “HWHY our Elohim shall deliver us from the hand of the sovereign of Ashshur”?’

12 ‘Has not Hizqiyahu himself taken away His high places and His altars, and ordered Yehuḏah and Yerushalayim, saying, “Bow yourselves before one altar and burn incense on it”?’

13 ‘Do you not know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of other lands? Were the mighty ones of the nations of those lands in any way able to deliver their lands out of my hand?

14 ‘Who was there among all the mighty ones of those nations that my fathers put under the ban that could deliver his people from my hand, that your Elohim should be able to deliver you from my hand?’

15 ‘And now, do not let Hizqiyahu deceive you or persuade you like this, and do not believe him; for no mighty one of any nation or reign was able to deliver his people from my hand or the hand of my fathers – much less your Elohim, to deliver you from my hand!’ ”

16 And his servants spoke even more against HWHY Elohim and against His servant Hizqiyahu.

17 And he wrote letters to reproach HWHY Elohim of Yisra’ēl, and to speak against Him, saying, “As the mighty ones of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people from my hand, so the Elohim of Hizqiyahu shall not deliver His people from my hand.”

18 Then they called out with a loud voice in the language of Yehuḏah to the people of Yerushalayim who were on the wall, to frighten them and to trouble them, in order to capture the city.

19 And they spoke against the Elohim of Yerushalayim, as against the mighty ones of the people of the earth, the work of men’s hands.

20 And Sovereign Hizqiyahu and the prophet Yeshayahu, son of Amots, prayed about this, and cried out to the heavens.

21 And sent a messenger who cut down every mighty brave one, both the leader and the commander in the camp of the sovereign of Ashshur, and he returned shamefaced to his own land, and went into the house of his mighty one, and there some of his own offspring caused him to fall by the sword.

22 Thus saved Hizqiyahu and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim from the hand of Sanherib the sovereign of Ashshur, and from the hand of all others, and guided them on every side.

23 And many brought gifts to יהוה at Yerushalayim, and presents to חיזקיahu sovereign of Yehudah, and he was exalted in the eyes of all nations thereafter.

24 In those days חיזקיahu was sick and near death, and he prayed to יהוה. And He spoke to him and appointed a sign for him. However, חיזקיahu did not repay according to the good done to him, for his heart was lifted up, therefore wrath came upon him and upon Yehudah and Yerushalayim.

25 Then חיזקיahu humbled himself for the pride of his heart, he and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim, so that the wrath of יהוה did not come upon them in the days of חיזקיahu.

26 And חיזקיahu had much riches and esteem. And he made himself treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all desirable utensils;

27 and storehouses for the harvest of grain, and wine, and oil, and stalls for all kinds of livestock, and folds for flocks.

28 And he made cities for himself, and possessions of great numbers of flocks and herds, for Elohim gave him much property.

29 And he made his sons pass through the fire in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, and practised magic, and used divination and witchcraft, and consulted mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the eyes of יהוה, to provoke Him.

30 And he placed a carved image of the idol which he had made, in the House of Elohim, of which Elohim had said, “In Yerushalayim is My Name, forever.”

31 Thus Menashsheh led Yehudah and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim astray, to do more evil than the gentiles whom יהוה had destroyed before the children of Yisra’el.

32 And the rest of the acts of חיזקיahu, and his kindness, see, they are written in the vision of Yeshayahu the prophet, son of Amots, in the book of the sovereigns of Yehudah and Yisra’el.

33 So חיזקיahu slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the upper tombs of the sons of Dawid. And all Yehudah and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim esteemed him at his death. And Menashsheh his son reigned in his place.

33 Menashsheh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty-five years in Yerushalayim.

2 But he did evil in the eyes of יהוה, according to the abominations of the gentiles whom יהוה dispossessed from before the children of Yisra’el.

3 For again he rebuilt the high places which חיזקיahu his father had broken down, and raised up altars for the Ba’als, and made Ashêrim, and bowed himself to all the host of the heavens and served them.

4 And he built altars in the House of יהוה, of which יהוה had said, “In Yerushalayim is My Name, forever.”

5 And he built altars for all the host of the heavens in the two courtyards of the House of יהוה.

6 And he made his sons pass through the fire in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom, and practised magic, and used divination and witchcraft, and consulted mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the eyes of יהוה, to provoke Him.

7 And he placed a carved image of the idol which he had made, in the House of Elohim, of which Elohim had said to Dawid and to Shelomoh his son, “In this house and in Yerushalayim, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Yisra’el, I put My Name forever,

8 and no more shall I remove the foot of Yisra’el from the soil which I have appointed for your fathers – only if they guard to do all that I have commanded them, according to all the Torah and the laws and the right-rulings by the hand of Mosheh.”

9 Thus Menashsheh led Yehudah and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim astray, to do more evil than the gentiles whom יהוה had destroyed before the children of Yisra’el.

10 And יהוה spoke to Menashsheh and to his people, but they did not listen.

11 Therefore יהוה brought upon them the commanders of the army of the sovereign of Ashshur, who captured Menashsheh with hooks, bound him with bronze shackles, and made him go to Baḇel.

12 And when he was in distress, he sought the face of ḤWHY his Elohim, and humbled himself greatly before the Elohim of his fathers, 13 and prayed to Him. And He was moved by his entreaty and heard his supplication, and brought him back to Yerushalayim into his reign. And Menashsheh knew that ḤWHY was Elohim.

14 And after this he built a wall outside the City of Dawiḏ on the west of Giḇon, in the wadi, and as far as the entrance of the Fish Gate, and it went round Ophel, and he made it exceedingly high. And he put army commanders in all the walled cities of Yehuḏah.

15 And he removed the foreign mighty ones and the idol from the House of ḤWHY, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the House of ḤWHY and in Yerushalayim, and he threw them out of the city.

16 And he built the altar of ḤWHY, and brought peace offerings and thank offerings on it, and ordered Yehuḏah to serve ḤWHY Elohim of Yisra'ël.

17 But the people were still offering on the high places, though only to ḤWHY their Elohim.

18 And the rest of the acts of Menashsheh, his prayer to his Elohim, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the Name of ḤWHY Elohim of Yisra'ël, see, they are written in the book of the sovereigns of Yisra'ël.

19 And his prayer, and his entreaty, and all his sin, and his trespass, and the places where he built high places and set up the Ashĕrim and the carved images, before he was humbled, see, they are written among the words of the seers.

20 So Menashsheh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house. And his son Amon reigned in his place.

21 Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned two years in Yerushalayim.

22 But he did evil in the eyes of ḤWHY, as his father Menashsheh had done. And Amon offered to all the carved images which his father Menashsheh had made, and served them.

23 And he did not humble himself before ḤWHY, as his father Menashsheh had humbled himself, for Amon trespassed more and more.

24 And his servants conspired against him, and killed him in his own house.

25 But the people of the land smote all those who had conspired against Sovereign Amon, and the people of the land set up his son Yoshiyahu to reign in his place.

34 Yoshiyahu was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned thirty-one years in Yerushalayim.

2 And he did what was right in the eyes of ḤWHY, and walked in the ways of his father Dawiḏ, and did not turn aside, right or left.

3 And in the eighth year of his reign, while he was still young, he began to seek the Elohim of his father Dawiḏ. And in the twelfth year he began to cleanse Yehuḏah and Yerushalayim from the high places, and the Ashĕrim, and the carved images, and the moulded images.

4 And they broke down the altars of the Ba’als in his presence, and the sun-pillars which were above them he cut down. And the Ashĕrim, and the carved images, and the moulded images he smashed, and ground them up and strewed it on the graves of those who had offered to them.

5 And he burned the bones of the priests on their altars, and cleansed Yehuḏah and Yerushalayim,

6 and in the cities of Menashsheh, and Ephrayim, and Shim’on, as far as Naphtali, in their ruins all around.

7 And he broke down the altars and the Ashĕrim, and ground the carved images into dust, and cut down all the sun-pillars throughout all the land of Yisra’ĕl, and returned to Yerushalayim.

8 And in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had cleansed the land and the House, he sent Shaphan son of Atsalyahu, and Ma’asĕyahu the head of the city, and Yo’ah son of Yo’ahaz the recorder, to repair the House of ḤWHY his Elohim.
And they went to Ḥilqiyyahu the high priest, and they gave the silver that was brought into the House of Elohim, which the Lĕwites who kept the doors had gathered from the hand of Menashsheh and Ephrayîm, and from all the remnant of Yisra’ēl, and from all Yehuḏah and Binyamin, and which they had brought back to Yerushalayim, and they gave it in the hand of the workmen, those appointed over the House of HWHY. And they gave it to the workmen who worked in the House of HWHY, to repair and strengthen the house.

And they gave it to the craftsmen and to the builders, to buy hewn stone and timber for couplings and for beams for the houses which the sovereigns of Yehuḏah had destroyed.

And the men did the work trustworthily. And over them were appointed Yāhath and Oḇaqyahu the Lĕwites, of the sons of Merari, and Zekaryahu and Meshullam, of the sons of the Qehathites, to oversee; and of the Lĕwites, all of whom were skilled in instruments of song, and over the burden bearers, and overseers of all who did work in any kind of service. And of the Lĕwites were scribes, and officers, and gatekeepers.

And when they brought out the silver that was brought into the House of Ḥĕḇel, Ḥilqiyyahu the priest found the Book of the Torah of HWHY given by Mosheh.

Then Ḥilqiyyahu responded and said to Shaphan the scribe, “I have found the Book of the Torah in the House of Ḥĕḇel.” And Ḥilqiyyahu gave the book to Shaphan.

And Shaphan brought the book to the sovereign, and brought the sovereign word, saying, “All that has been given into the hand of your servants, they are doing.

And they have poured out the silver that was found in the House of Ḥĕḇel, and have given it into the hand of those appointed and the workmen.”

And Shaphan the scribe informed the sovereign, saying, “Ḥilqiyyahu the priest has given me a book.” And Shaphan read it before the sovereign.

And it came to be, when the sovereign heard the words of the Torah, that he tore his garments.

And the sovereign commanded Ḥilqiyyahu, Aḥiqam son of Shaphan, and Abdoḏ son of Miḵah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asayahu a servant of the sovereign, saying,

“Go, inquire of Ḥĕḇel for me, and for him who is left in Yisra’ēl and in Yehuḏah, concerning the words of the book that is found. For great is the wrath of Ḥĕḇel that is poured out on us, because our fathers have not guarded the Word of Ḥĕḇel, to do according to all that is written in this book.”

Then Ḥilqiyyahu and those of the sovereign went to Ḥuldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum son of Toqhat, son of Ḥasrah, keeper of the wardrobe, who was dwelling in Yerushalayim in the Second Quarter. And they spoke to her about this.

And she said to them, “Thus said HWHY Elohim of Yisra’ēl, ‘Say to the man who sent you to Me,

‘Thus said HWHY, ‘See, I am bringing evil on this place and on its inhabitants, all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the sovereign of Yehuḏah, because they have forsaken Me and burned incense to other mighty ones, to provoke Me with all the works of their hands. Therefore My wrath is poured out on this place, and is not quenched.’ ’ ”

“And to the sovereign of Yehuḏah, who sent you to inquire of Ḥĕḇel, say this to him, ‘Thus said Ḥĕḇel Elohim of Yisra’ēl, whose words you have heard, Because your heart was tender, and you humbled yourself before Elohim when you heard His words against this place and against its inhabitants, and you humbled yourself before Me, and you tore your garments and wept before Me, I also have heard,” declares Ḥĕḇel.

“See, I am gathering you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, so that your eyes would not see all the evil that I am bringing on this place and its inhabitants.” ’ ” So they brought back word to the sovereign.

And the sovereign sent and gathered all the elders of Yehudah and Yerushalayim.

30 And the sovereign went up to the House of HWHY with all the men of Yehudah and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim, and the priests and the Lwites, and all the people, both great and small. And he read in their hearing all the words of the Book of the Covenant which had been found in the House of HWHY.

31 And the sovereign stood in his place and made a covenant before HWHY, to follow HWHY and to guard His commands and His laws, with all his heart and all his being, to do the words of the covenant that were written in this book.

32 And he made stand all who were present in Yerushalayim and Binyamin. And the inhabitants of Yerushalayim did according to the covenant of Elohim, the Elohim of their fathers.

33 And Yoshiyahu removed all the abominations from all the lands that belonged to the children of Yisra’el, and made all who were present in Yisra’el diligently serve HWHY their Elohim. All his days they did not turn away from following HWHY Elohim of their fathers.

35 And Yoshiyahu performed a Passover to HWHY in Yerushalayim, and they slaughtered the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.

2 And he set the priests in their duties and strengthened them for the service of the House of HWHY, and said to the Lwites who were teaching all Yisra’el, who were set-apart to HWHY, “Put the set-apart ark in the house which Shelomoh son of Dawiḏ, sovereign of Yisra’el, built. It is no longer to be a burden on your shoulders. Now serve HWHY your Elohim and His people Yisra’el, and prepare by the fathers’ houses, according to your divisions, by the writing of Dawiḏ sovereign of Yisra’el and by the writing of Shelomoh his son.

5“And stand in the set-apart place by the divisions of the fathers’ houses of your brothers the lay people, and the portion of the father’s house of the Lwites.

6“And slaughter the Passover, and set yourselves apart, and prepare for your brothers, to do according to the word of HWHY by the hand of Mosheh.”

7And Yoshiyahu gave the lay people lambs and young goats from the flock, all for Passover offerings for everyone present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand cattle – these were from the sovereign’s possessions.

8And his leaders contributed a voluntary offering to the people, to the priests, and to the Lwites. Ḥilqiyyah, and Zeḵaryahu, and Yehi’el, leaders of the House of Elohim, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings two thousand six hundred, and three hundred cattle;

9and Konanyahu, his brothers Shemayahu and Nethane’el, and Ḥashabyyahu and Ye’erel and Yozaḏaq, chiefs of the Lwites, gave to the Lwites for Passover offerings five thousand, and five hundred cattle.

10And the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their places, and the Lwites in their divisions, according to the command of the sovereign, 11and they slaughtered the Passover. And the priests sprinkled out of their hands, while the Lwites were skinning.

12And they removed the burnt offerings, to give them to the divisions of the fathers’ houses of the lay people, to bring to HWHY, as it is written in the Book of Mosheh, and the same with the cattle.

13So they roasted the Passover offerings with fire according to the right-ruling, and they boiled the set-apart offerings in pots, and in cauldrons, and in bowls, and brought them speedily to all the lay people.

14And afterward they prepared for themselves and for the priests, because the priests, the sons of Aharon, were offering burnt offerings and fat until night. So the Lwites prepared for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aharon.

15And the singers, the sons of Asaph, were in their places, according to the command of Dawiḏ, and Asaph, and Hēman, and Yeḏuthun the seer of the sovereign. And the gatekeepers at each gate did not have to leave their position, because their brothers the Lĕwites prepared for them.

16 And all the service of יהוה was prepared that day, to perform the Passover and to offer burnt offerings on the altar of יהוה, according to the command of Sovereign Yoshiyahu.

17 And the children of Yisra’ãl who were present performed the Passover at that time, and the Festival of Unleavened Bread for seven days.

18 There had not been a Passover performed in Yisra’ãl like it since the days of Shemu’ãl the prophet. And none of the sovereigns of Yisra’ãl had performed such a Passover as Yoshiyahu, with the priests and the Lĕwites, and all YehuÅah and Yisra’ãl who were present, and the inhabitants of Yerushalayim.

19 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Yoshiyahu this Passover was performed.

20 After all this, when Yoshiyahu had prepared the House, Ne¿o sovereign of Mitsrayim came up to fight against Kar-kemish by the Euphrates. And Yoshiyahu went out against him.

21 And he sent messengers to him, saying, “What have I to do with you, sovereign of YehuÅah? I am not coming against you this day, but against the house with which I am fighting, for Elohim commanded me to make haste. Leave Elohim alone, who is with me, lest He destroy you.”

22 However, Yoshiyahu would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself to fight against him, and did not listen to the words of Neko from the mouth of Elohim, and came to fight in the Valley of MeÍiddo.

23 And the archers shot at Sovereign Yoshiyahu. And the sovereign said to his servants, “Take me away, for I am severely wounded.”

24 And his servants took him out of that chariot and put him in the second chariot that he had, and they brought him to Yerushalayim. And he died, and was buried in one of the tombs of his fathers. And all YehuÅah and Yerushalayim were mourning for Yoshiyahu.

25 And Yirmeyahu lamented for Yoshiyahu. And to this day all the singing men and the singing women speak of Yoshiyahu in their lamentations, and made it a law in Yisra’ãl. And see, they are written in the Laments.

26 And the rest of the acts of Yoshiyahu and his kindness, according to what was written in the Torah of יהוה, 27 and his acts from the first to the last, see, they are written in the book of the sovereigns of Yisra’ãl and Yehudah.

36 And the people of the land took Yeho’aÁaz son of Yoshiyahu, and set him up to reign in his father’s place in Yerushalayim.

2 Yeho’aÁaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign, and he reigned three months in Yerushalayim.

3 And the sovereign of Mitsrayim turned him aside in Yerushalayim, and imposed on the land a levy of one hundred talents of silver and a talent of gold.

4 And the sovereign of Mitsrayim made his brother Elyaqim sovereign over YehuÅah and Yerushalayim, and changed his name to Yehoyaqim. And Ne¿o took Yeho’aÁaz his brother and brought him to Mitsrayim.

5 Yehoyaqim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Yerushalayim. And he did evil in the eyes of יהוה his Elohim.

6 NeÄu¿aÅnetstsar sovereign of BaÄel came up against him, and bound him in bronze shackles to take him away to BaÄel. And Ne¿o took Yeho’aÁaz his brother and brought him to Mitsrayim.

7 Yehoya¿in his son reigned in his place.

9 Yehoya¿in was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Yerushalayim. And he did evil in the eyes of יהוה.

10 And at the turn of the year Sovereign Ne¿u kañetsætstær sent and brought him to Babel, with the valuable utensils from the House of הוהי, and made צדיקיהו, Yehoyaqim’s brother, sovereign over Yehudah and Yerushalayim.

11 צדיקיהו was twenty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eleven years in Yerushalayim.

12 And he did evil in the eyes of הוהי his Elohim. He did not humble himself before Yirmeyahu the prophet, who spoke from the mouth of הוהי.

13 And he also rebelled against Sovereign נבוכדנצר, who had made him swear by Elohim, but he stiffened his neck and hardened his heart against turning to הוהי Elohim of Yisra’el.

14 Also, all the heads of the priests and the people trespassed more and more, according to all the abominations of the gentiles, and they defiled the House of הוהי which He had set apart in Yerushalayim.

15 And הוהי Elohim of their fathers sent to them, by His messengers, rising up early and sending them, for He had compassion on His people and on His dwelling place.

16 But they were mocking the messengers of Elohim and despising His words and scoffing at His prophets, until the wrath of הוהי arose against His people, until there was no healing.

17 Therefore He brought against them the sovereign of the Chaldeans, and he slew their young men with the sword in the House of their set-apart place, and had no compassion on young man or maiden, on the aged or the weak – He gave all into his hand.

18 And all the utensils from the House of Elohim, great and small, and the treasures of the House of הוהי, and the treasures of the sovereign and of his leaders, all these he brought to בابل.

19 And they burned the House of Elohim, and broke down the wall of Yerushalayim, and burned all its palaces with fire, and destroyed all its valuable utensils.

20 And those who escaped from the sword he exiled to בابل, where they became servants to him and his sons until the reign of the reign of Persia,

21 in order to fill the word of הוהי by the mouth of Yirmeyahu, until the land had enjoyed her Sabbaths. As long as she lay waste she kept Sabbath, until seventy years were completed.

22 And in the first year of Koresh sovereign of Persia, in order to accomplish the word of הוהי by the mouth of Yirmeyahu, הוהי stirred up the spirit of Koresh sovereign of Persia, so that he called out in all his reign, and also put it in writing, saying,

23 “Thus said Koresh sovereign of Persia, הוהי Elohim of the heavens has given me all the reigns of the earth. And He has commanded me to build Him a house in Yerushalayim, which is in Yehudah. Whoever is among you of all His people, הוהי his Elohim be with him, and let him go up!”

MESSIANIC

SCRIPTURES
The book of the genealogy of מֶשֶׁךְ הַשֵּׁמֶשׁ Messiah, Son of Dawiḏ, Son of Abrahaḵ:

Abrahaḵ brought forth Yitsḥaq, and Yitsḥaq brought forth Yaʿaqoḇ, and Yaʿaqoḇ brought forth Yehuḏaḥ and his brothers.

And Yehuḏaḥ brought forth Perets and Zeraḵ by Tamar, and Perets brought forth Ḥetsron, and Ḥetsron brought forth Ram.

And Ram brought forth Amminaḏaḵ, and Amminaḏaḵ brought forth Naḥshon, and Naḥshon brought forth Salmon.

And Salmon brought forth Boʿaz by Rahab, and Boʿaz brought forth Oḇeḏ by Ruth, and Oḇeḏ brought forth Yishaḵ.

And Yishaḵ brought forth Dawiḏ the sovereign, and Dawiḏ the sovereign brought forth Shelomoh by Uriyaḥ’s wife.

And Shelomoh brought forth Reḥaḇ’am, and Reḥaḇ’am brought forth Abiyaḥ, and Abiyaḥ brought forth Asa.

And Asa brought forth Yehoshaphat, and Yehoshaphat brought forth Yoram, and Yoram brought forth Uzziaḥ.

And Uzziaḥ brought forth Yotham, and Yotham brought forth Aḥaz, and Aḥaz brought forth Ḥizqiyaḥu.

And Ḥizqiyaḥu brought forth Menashsheh, and Menashsheh brought forth Amon, and Amon brought forth Yoshiyaḥu.

And Yoshiyaḥu brought forth Yekon-yaḥ and his brothers at the time of the exile to Babylon.

And after the exile to Babylon, Yekonyah brought forth Sheʾaltiʾel, and Sheʾaltiʾel brought forth Zerubbabel.

And Zerubbabel brought forth Aḥiwaḏ, and Aḥiwaḏ brought forth Elyaqim, and Elyaqim brought forth Azor.

And Azor brought forth Tsadoq, and Tsadoq brought forth Aqim, and Aqim brought forth Elihuḏ.

And Elihuḏ brought forth Elʿazar, and Elʿazar brought forth Mattan, and Mattan brought forth Yaʿaqoḇ.

And Yaʿaqoḇ brought forth Yosēph the husband of Miryaḥ, of whom was born מֶשֶׁך הַשֵּׁמֶש Messiah, who is called Messiah.

So all the generations from Abrahaḵ to Dawiḏ were fourteen generations, and from Dawiḏ until the exile to Babylon were fourteen generations, and from the exile to Babylon until the Messiah were fourteen generations.

But the birth of מֶשֶׁך הַשֵּׁמֶש Messiah was as follows: After His mother Miryaḥ was engaged to Yosēph, before they came together, she was found to be pregnant from the Set-apart Spirit.

And Yosēph her husband, being righteous, and not wishing to make a show of her, had in mind to put her away secretly.

But while he thought about this, see, a messenger of הוהי appeared to him in a dream, saying, “Yosēph, son of Dawiḏ, do not be afraid to take Miryaḥ as your wife, for that which is in her was brought forth from the Set-apart Spirit.

And she shall give birth to a Son, and you shall call His Name מֶשֶׁך הַשֵּׁמֶש for He shall save a His people from their sins.”

And all this came to be in order to fill what was spoken by הוהי through the prophet, saying,

“See, a maiden shall conceive, and she shall give birth to a Son, and they shall call His Name Immanuʾel,” which translated, means, “El with us.”

And Yosēph, awaking from his sleep, did as the messenger of הוהי commanded him and took his wife, but knew her not until she gave birth to her Son, the first-born. And he called His

2 And having been born in Bêyth Leḥem of Yehuḏah in the days of Herodes the sovereign, see, Magi from the East came to Yerushalayim, saying, “Where is He who has been born Sovereign of the Yehuḏim? For we saw His star in the East and have come to do reverence to Him.”

And Herodes the sovereign, having heard, was troubled, and all Yerushalayim with him.

And having gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he asked them where the Messiah was to be born.

And they said to him, “In Bêyth Leḥem of Yehuḏah, for thus it has been written by the prophet,

“But you, Bêyth Leḥem, in the land of Yehuḏah, you are by no means least among the rulers of Yehuḏah, for out of you shall come a Ruler who shall shepherd My people Yisra’ēl.’”

Then Herodes, having called the Magi secretly, learned exactly from them what time the star appeared.

And having sent them to Bêyth Leḥem, he said, “Go and search diligently for the Child, and when you have found Him, bring back word to me, so that I too might go and do reverence to Him.”

And having heard the sovereign, they went. And see, the star which they had seen in the East went before them, until it came and stood over where the Child was.

And seeing the star, they rejoiced with exceedingly great joy.

And coming into the house, they saw the Child with Miryam His mother, and fell down and did reverence to Him, and opening their treasures, they presented to Him gifts of gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

And having been warned in a dream that they should not return to Herodes, they departed for their own country by another way.

the heavens has come near!"

3 For this is he who was spoken of by the prophet Yeshayahu, saying, ‘A voice of one crying in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way of YHWH, make His paths straight.’”

4 And YoÁanan had a garment of camel’s hair, and a leather girdle around his waist. And his food was locusts and wild honey.

5 Then Yerushalayim, and all YehuÅah, and all the country around the YardÃn went out to him,

6 and they were immersed by him in the Yarden, confessing their sins.

7 And seeing many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his immersion, he said to them, “Brood of adders! Who has warned you to flee from the coming wrath?

8 “Bear, therefore, fruits worthy of repentance,

9 and do not think to say to yourselves, ‘We have AÄraham as father.’ e For I say to you that Elohim is able to raise up children to AÄraham from these stones.

10 “And the axe is already laid to the root of the trees. Every tree, then, which does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

11 “I indeed immerse you in water unto repentance, but He who is coming after me is mightier than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to bear. He shall immerse you in the Set-apart Spirit and fire.

12 “His winnowing fork is in His hand, and He shall thoroughly cleanse His threshing-floor, and gather His wheat into the storehouse, but the chaff He shall burn with unquenchable fire.”

13 Then Yôshúa came from Galil to YoÁanan at the Yarden to be immersed by him.

14 But YoÁanan was hindering Him, saying, “I need to be immersed by You, and You come to me?”

15 But Yôshúa answering, said to him, “Permit it now, for thus it is fitting for us to fill all righteousness.” Then he permitted Him.

16 And having been immersed, Yôshúa went up immediately from the water, and see, the heavens were opened, and He saw the Spirit of Elohim descending like a dove and coming upon Him,

17 and see, a voice out of the heavens, saying, “This is My Son, the Beloved, in whom I did delight.”

4 Then Yôshúa was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tried by the devil.

2 And after having fasted forty days and forty nights, He was hungry.

3 And the trier came and said to Him, “If You are the Son of Elohim, command that these stones become bread.”

4 But He answering, said, “It has been written, ‘Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of YHWH.’”

5 Then the devil took Him up into the set-apart city, set Him on the edge of the Set-apart Place,

6 and said to Him, “If You are the Son of Elohim, throw Yourself down. For it has been written, ‘He shall command His messengers concerning you,’ and, ‘In their hands they shall bear you up, so that you do not dash your foot against a stone.’”

7 Yôshúa said to him, “It has also been written, ‘You shall not try YHWH your Elohim.’”

8 Again, the devil took Him up on a very high mountain, and showed Him all the reigns of the world, and their esteem,

9 and said to Him, “All these I shall give You if You fall down and worship me.”

10 Then Yôshúa said to him, “Go, Satan! For it has been written, ‘You shall worship YHWH your Elohim, and Him alone you shall serve.’”

11 Then the devil left Him, and see, messengers came and attended Him.

12 And Yôshúa, having heard that YoÁanan

15“Land of Zeḇulun and land of Naphtali, the way of the sea, beyond the Yardën, Galil of the gentiles – 16the people who sat in darkness saw a great light, and upon those who sat in the land and shadow of death, light arose to them.”

17From that time יישוע began to proclaim and to say, “Repent, for the reign of the heavens has drawn near.”
18And יישוע, walking by the Sea of Galil, saw two brothers, Shimʿon called Kêpha, and Andri his brother, casting a net into the sea, for they were fishermen.
19And He said to them, “Follow Me, and I shall make you fishers of men.”
20And immediately they left their nets and followed Him.
21And going on from there, He saw two other brothers, Yaʿaqob the son of Zabda, and Yoḥanan his brother, in the boat with Zabda their father, mending their nets. And He called them, 22and immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed Him.
23And יישוע went about all Galil, teaching in their congregations, and proclaiming the Good News of the reign, and healing every disease and every bodily weakness among the people.
24And news about Him went out into all Syria. And they brought to Him all who were sick, afflicted with various diseases and pains, and those who were demon-possessed, and epileptics, and paralytics. And He healed them.
25And large crowds – from Galil, and Dekapolis, and Yerushalayim, and Yehudah, and beyond the Yardên – followed Him.

5 But when He saw the crowds, He went up on a mountain. And when He was seated His taught ones came to Him.
2And having opened His mouth, He was teaching them, saying,
3“Blessed are the poor in spirit, because theirs is the reign of the heavens.
4“Blessed are those who mourn, because they shall be comforted.
5“Blessed are the meek, because they shall inherit the earth.
6“Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, because they shall be filled.
7“Blessed are the compassionate, because they shall obtain compassion.
8“Blessed are the clean in heart, because they shall see Elohim.
9“Blessed are the peacemakers, because they shall be called sons of Elohim.
10“Blessed are those persecuted for righteousness’ sake, because theirs is the reign of the heavens.
11“Blessed are you when they reproach and persecute you, and falsely say every wicked word against you, for My sake.
12“Rejoice and be glad, because your reward in the heavens is great. For in this way they persecuted the prophets who were before you.
13“You are the salt of the earth, but if the salt becomes tasteless, how shall it be seasoned? For it is no longer of any use but to be thrown out and to be trodden down by men.
14“You are the light of the world. It is impossible for a city to be hidden on a mountain.
15“Nor do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it shines to all those in the house.
16“Let your light so shine before men, so that they see your good works and praise your Father who is in the heavens.
17“Do not think that I came to destroy the Torah or the Prophets. I did not come to destroy but to complete.

18 “For truly, I say to you, till the heaven and the earth pass away, one jot or one tittle shall by no means pass from the Torah till all be done.

19 “Whoever, then, breaks one of the least of these commands, and teaches men so, shall be called least in the reign of the heavens; but whoever does and teaches them, he shall be called great in the reign of the heavens.

20 “For I say to you, that unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees,
you shall by no means enter into the reign of the heavens.

21 “You heard that it was said to those of old, ‘You shall not murder,’ and whoever murders shall be liable to judgment.

22 “But I say to you that whoever is wroth with his brother without a cause shall be liable to judgment. And whoever says to his brother, ‘Raka!’ shall be liable to the Sanhedrin. But whoever says, ‘You fool!’
shall be liable to fire of Gehenna.

23 “If, then, you bring your gift to the altar, and there remember that your brother holds whatever against you, 24 leave your gift there before the altar, and go, first make peace with your brother,
and then come and offer your gift.

25 “Be well-minded with your opponent, promptly, while you are on the way with him, lest your opponent deliver you to the judge, and the judge to the officer, and you be thrown into prison.

26 “Truly, I say to you, you shall by no means get out of there till you have paid the last penny.

27 “You heard that it was said to those of old, ‘You shall not commit adultery.’

28 “But I say to you that everyone looking at a woman to lust for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart.

29 “And if your right eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw it away from you. For it is better for you that one of your members perish, than for your entire body to be thrown into Gehenna.

30 “And if your right hand causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you. For it is better for you that one of your members perish, than for your entire body to be thrown into Gehenna.

31 “And it has been said, ‘Whoever puts away his wife, let him give her a certificate of divorce.’

32 “But I say to you that whoever puts away his wife, except for the matter of whoring,
s makes her commit adultery.
And whoever marries a woman who has been put away commits adultery.

33 “Again, you heard that it was said to those of old, ‘You shall not swear falsely, but shall perform your oaths to YHWH.’

34 “But I say to you, do not swear at all, neither by the heaven, because it is 35 nor by the earth, for it is His footstool; nor by Yerushalayim, for it is the city of your ‘No’ be ‘No.’ And what goes beyond these is from the wicked one.

38 “You heard that it was said, ‘An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth,’

39 but I say to you, do not resist the wicked. But whoever slaps you on your right cheek, turn the other to him also.

take away your inner garment, let him have your outer garment as well.

41 “And whoever compels you to go one mile, go with him two.

from him who wishes to borrow from you, do not turn away.

p Lk. 16:17.  q Our Messiah Himself sets the supreme example for us, for He ‘does and teaches them’ in a mighty way!  r Contrary to what is commonly preached, the scribes and the Pharisees were called ‘lawless’ by Messiah (Mt. 23:28). See also Mt. 15:3-9, Mk. 7:7-13, Yn. 7:19, Acts 7:53, Rom. 2:23-27, Gal. 6:13.  s See also Mt. 19:9
and Deut. 24:1, where this is explained.  t This was the principle for the judges to follow, while ἐλεήμονας speaks in the next verse of our personal conduct.
But I say to you, love your enemies, bless those cursing you, do good to those hating you, and pray for those insulting you and persecuting you, so that you become sons of your Father in the heavens. Because He makes His sun rise on the wicked and on the good, and sends rain on the righteous and on the unrighteous.

For if you love those loving you, what reward have you? Are the tax collectors not doing the same too?

And if you greet your brothers only, what do you do more than others? Are the tax collectors not doing so too?

Therefore, be perfect, as your Father in the heavens is perfect.

Beware of doing your kind deeds before men, in order to be seen by them. Otherwise you have no reward from your Father in the heavens.

Thus, when you do a kind deed, do not sound a trumpet before you as the hypocrites do, in the congregations and in the streets, to be praised by men. Truly, I say to you, they have their reward.

But when you do a kind deed, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, so that your kind deed shall be in secret. And your Father who sees in secret shall Himself reward you openly.

And when you pray, you shall not be like the hypocrites. For they love to pray standing in the congregations and on the corners of the streets, to be seen by men. Truly, I say to you, they have their reward.

But you, when you pray, go into your room, and having shut your door, pray to your Father who is in the secret place. And your Father who sees in secret shall reward you openly.

And when praying, do not keep on babbling like the gentiles. For they think that they shall be heard for their many words.

Therefore do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask Him.

This, then, is the way you should pray: ‘Our Father who is in the heavens, let Your Name be set-apart, let Your reign come, let Your desire be done on earth as it is in heaven.

‘Give us today our daily bread.

‘And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

‘And do not lead us into trial, but deliver us from the wicked one – because Yours is the reign and the power and the esteem, forever. Amén.’

For if you forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father shall also forgive you.

But if you do not forgive men their trespasses, neither shall your Father forgive your trespasses.

And when you fast, do not be sad-faced like the hypocrites. For they disfigure their faces so that they appear to be fasting to men. Truly, I say to you, they have their reward.

But you, when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, so that you do not appear to men to be fasting, but to your Father who is in the secret place. And your Father who sees in secret shall reward you openly.

Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal, but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal.

For where your treasure is, there your heart shall be also.

The lamp of the body is the eye. If therefore your eye is good, all your body shall be enlightened.

But if your eye is evil, all your body shall be darkened. If, then, the light that is within you is darkness, how great is that darkness!

Hate your enemy was “said,” not “written.” On a few occasions Elohim did use His people to punish some gentile nation for sinning in the extreme, or when they maltreated Yisra’el, but sadly, many of the Yisra’elites made a standing rule of hating the enemy.

Lk. 6:35, Acts 14:16-17.

Ber. 17:1, Teh. 119:1, 1 Yn. 2:5, Heb. 6:1.

See 26:41. This is a Hebrew idiom – a good eye means to be generous, while an evil eye means to be stingy.
24“No one is able to serve two masters, for either he shall hate the one and love the other, or else he shall cleave to the one and despise the other. You are not able to serve Elohim and mammon.
25“Because of this I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you shall eat or drink, or about your body, what you shall put on. Is not life more than the food and the body more than the clothing?

26“Look at the birds of the heaven, for they neither sow nor reap nor gather into storehouses, yet your heavenly Father does feed them. Are you not worth more than they?
27“And which of you by worrying is able to add one cubit to his life’s span?
28“So why do you worry about clothing? Note well the lilies of the field, how they grow. They neither toil nor spin, and I say to you that even Shelomoh in all his esteem was not dressed like one of these.
29“But if Elohim so clothes the grass of the field, which exists today, and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, how much more you, O you of little belief?
30“Do not worry then, saying, ‘What shall we eat?’ or ‘What shall we drink?’ or ‘What shall we wear?’
31“For all the gentiles seek for. And your heavenly Father knows that you need all these.
32“But seek first the reign of Elohim, and His righteousness, and all these matters shall be added to you.
33“Do not, then, worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow shall have its own worries. Each day has enough evil of itself.

7“Do not judge, lest you be judged.
2“For with what judgment you judge, you shall be judged. And with the same measure you use, it shall be measured to you.
3“And why do you look at the splinter in your brother’s eye, but do not notice the plank in your own eye?
4“Or how is it that you say to your brother, ‘Let me remove the splinter out of your eye,’ and see, a plank is in your own eye?
5“Hypocrite! First remove the plank from your own eye, and then you shall see clearly to remove the splinter out of your brother’s eye.
6“Do not give what is set-apart to the dogs, nor throw your pearls before the pigs, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn and tear you in pieces.
7“Ask and it shall be given to you, seek and you shall find, knock and it shall be opened to you.
8“For everyone who asks receives, and he who seeks finds, and to him who knocks it shall be opened.
9“Or is there a man among you who, if his son asks for bread, shall give him a stone?
10“Or if he asks for a fish, shall he give him a snake?
11“If you then, being wicked, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more shall your Father who is in the heavens give what is good to those who ask Him!
12“Therefore, whatever you wish men to do to you, do also to them, for this is the Torah and the Prophets.
13“Enter in through the narrow gate! Because the gate is wide – and the way is broad – that leads to destruction, and there are many who enter in through it.
14“Because the gate is narrow and the way is hard pressed which leads to life, and there are few who find it.
15“But beware of the false prophets, who come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are savage wolves.
16“By their fruits you shall know them. Are grapes gathered from thornbushes or figs from thistles?
17“So every good tree yields good fruit, but a rotten tree yields wicked fruit.
18“A good tree is unable to yield wicked fruit.

z Personification of wealth.  a After finding the reign of Elohim by entering through the Door (יְשִׁפְתָּה), one should seek His righteousness as well.  b Or the way is afflicted.

fruit, and a rotten tree to yield good fruit.

19 “Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

20 “So then, by their fruits you shall know them –

21 “Not everyone who says to Me, ‘Master, Master,’ shall enter into the reign of the heavens, but he who is doing the desire of My Father in the heavens.

22 “Many shall say to Me in that day, ‘Master, Master, have we not prophesied in Your Name, and cast out demons in Your Name, and done many mighty works in Your Name?’

23 “And then I shall declare to them, ‘I never knew you, depart from Me, you who work lawlessness!’

24 “Therefore everyone who hears these words of Mine, and does them, shall be like a wise man who built his house on the rock,

25 and the rain came down, and the floods came, and the winds blew and beat on that house, and it did not fall, for it was founded on the rock.

26 “And everyone who hears these words of Mine, and does not do them, shall be like a foolish man who built his house on the sand, 27 and the rain came down, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and they beat on that house, and it fell, and great was its fall.”

28 And it came to be, when יֵשׁוֹעַ had ended these words, that the people were astonished at His teaching, 29 for He was teaching them as one possessing authority, and not as the scribes.

8 And when He came down from the mountain, large crowds followed Him.

2 And see, a leper came, and bowed before Him, saying, “Master, if You desire, You are able to make me clean.”

3 And stretching out His hand יֵשׁוֹעַ touched him, saying, “I desire it. Be cleansed!” And immediately his leprosy was cleansed.

4 And יֵשׁוֹעַ said to him, “See, mention it to no one. But go your way, show yourself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moshe commanded, as a witness to them.”

5 And when יֵשׁוֹעַ had entered Kephar Naḥum, a captain came to Him, appealing to Him,

6 saying, “Master, my servant is lying in the house paralysed, grievously tortured.”

7 And יֵשׁוֹעַ said to him, “I shall come and heal him.”

8 And the captain answering, said, “Master, I am not worthy that You should come under my roof. But only say a word, and my servant shall be healed.

9 “For I too am a man under authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to this one, ‘Go,’ and he goes, and to another, ‘Come,’ and he comes, and to my servant, ‘Do this,’ and he does it.”

10 And when יֵשׁוֹעַ heard, He marvelled, and said to those who followed, “Truly, I say to you, not even in Yisra’el have I found such great belief!

11 “And I say to you that many shall come from east and west, and sit down with Aḇraham, and Yitsḥaq, and Ya’aqōb in the reign of the heavens, 12 but the sons of the reign shall be cast out into outer darkness – there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.”

13 And יֵשׁוֹעַ said to the captain, “Go, and as you have believed, so let it be done for you.” And his servant was healed that hour.

14 And when יֵשׁוֹעַ had come into the house of Kēpha, He saw his wife’s mother lying sick with inflammation.

15 And He touched her hand, and the inflammation left her. And she arose and served them.

16 And when evening had come, they brought to Him many who were demon possessed. And He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick, that it might be filled what was spoken by Yeshayahu the prophet, saying, “He Himself took our weaknesses and bore our sicknesses.”

And when רוח מים saw large crowds about Him, He gave a command to go off to the other side.

And a certain scribe, having come near, said to Him, “Teacher, I shall follow You wherever You go.”

And רוח מים said to him, “The foxes have holes and the birds of the heaven nests, but the Son of AAdam has nowhere to lay His head.”

And another of His taught ones said to Him, “Master, first let me go and bury my father.”

But רוח מים said to him, “Follow Me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead.”

And when He entered into a boat, His taught ones followed Him.

And see, a great gale arose on the sea, so that the boat was covered by the waves. But He was sleeping.

And His taught ones came to Him and woke Him up, saying, “Master, save us! We are perishing!”

And He said to them, “Why are you afraid, O you of little belief?” Then, having risen, He rebuked the winds and the sea. And there was a great calm.

And the men marvelled, saying, “What is this, that even the winds and the sea obey Him?”

And when He came to the other side, to the country of the Girgashites, two demon-possessed ones met Him, coming out of the tombs, very fierce, so that no one was able to pass that way.

And see, they cried out, saying, “What have we to do with You, רוח מים, Son of Elohim? Have You come here to torture us, before the appointed time?”

And at a distance from them there was a herd of many pigs feeding.

And the demons begged Him, saying, “If You cast us out, send us into the herd of pigs.”

And He said to them, “Go.” And they, coming out, went into the herd of pigs. And see, the entire herd of pigs rushed down the steep place into the sea, and died in the water.

And the herdsmen fled, and went away into the city and reported all this, and about those possessed by demons.

And see, all the city came out to meet רוח מים. And when they saw Him, they begged Him to leave their borders.

And entering into a boat, He passed over, and came to His own city.

And see, they were bringing to Him a paralytic lying on a bed. And רוח מים, seeing their belief, said to the paralytic, “Take courage, son, your sins have been forgiven.”

And see, some of the scribes said to themselves, “This One blasphemes!”

And רוח מים, knowing their thoughts, said, “Why do you think wicked thoughts in your hearts?

“For which is easier, to say, ‘Your sins have been forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Arise and walk’?

“But in order for you to know that the Son of AAdam possesses authority on earth to forgive sins...” He then said to the paralytic, “Rise, take up your bed, and go to your house.”

And he rose and went to his house.

And when the crowds saw it, they marvelled and praised Elohim who had given such authority to men.

And as רוח מים passed on from there, He saw a man called Mattithyahu sitting at the tax office. And He said to him, “Follow Me.” And he rose and followed Him.

And it came to be, as רוח מים sat at the table in the house, that see, many tax collectors and sinners came and sat down with Him and His taught ones.

And when the Pharisees saw it, they said to His taught ones, “Why does your Teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

And as רוח מים hearing this, said to them, “Those who are strong have no need of a physician, but those who are sick.

“But go and learn what this means, ‘I desire compassion and not offering.’ For I did not come to call the righteous to repentance, but sinners.’

14 Then the taught ones of Yohanan came to Him, saying, “Why do we and the Pharisees fast often, but Your taught ones do not fast?”

15 And יהושע said to them, “Are the friends of the bridegroom able to mourn as long as the bridegroom is with them? But the days shall come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then they shall fast.

16 “And no one puts a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, for the patch pulls away from the garment, and the tear is made worse.

17 “Neither do they put new wine into old wineskins, or else the wineskins burst, and the wine is spilled, and the wineskins are ruined. But they put new wine into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved.”

18 While He was saying all this to them, see, a ruler came and bowed down to Him, saying, “My daughter is dead by now, but come and lay Your hand on her and she shall live.”

19 And יהושע rose and followed him, His taught ones too.

20 And see, a woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years came from behind and touched the tzitzit 1 of His garment.

21 For she said to herself, “If I only touch His garment, I shall be healed.”

22 But יהושע turned, and when He saw her He said, “Take courage, daughter, your belief has healed you.” And the woman was healed from that hour.

23 And when יהושע came into the ruler’s house, and saw the flute players and the crowd making a noise, 24 He said to them, “Go back, for the girl is not dead, but sleeping.” And they laughed at Him.

25 But when the crowd was put outside, He went in and took her by the hand, and the girl arose.

26 And this report went out into all that land.

27 And as יהושע passed on from there, two blind men followed Him, crying out and saying, “Son of Dawiḏ, have compassion on us!”

28 And when He came into the house, the blind men came to Him. And יהושע said to them, “Do you believe that I am able to do this?” They said to Him, “Yea, Master.”

29 Then He touched their eyes, saying, “According to your belief let it be to you.”

30 And their eyes were opened. And יהושע strictly ordered them, saying, “See, let no one know.”

31 But when they went out, they made Him known in all that land.

32 And as they were going out, see, they brought to Him a man, dumb and demon-possessed.

33 And when the demon was cast out, the dumb one spoke. And the crowds marvelled, saying, “It was never seen like this in Yisra’ël!”

34 But the Pharisees said, “He casts out demons by the ruler of the demons.”

35 And יהושע went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their congregations, and proclaiming the Good News of the reign, and healing every disease and every bodily weakness among the people.

36 And having seen the crowds, He was moved with compassion for them, because they were weary and scattered, as sheep having no shepherd.

37 Then He said to His taught ones, “The harvest truly is great, but the workers are few.

38 “Pray then that the Master of the harvest would send out workers to His harvest.”

10 And having called His twelve taught ones near, He gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal every disease and every bodily weakness.

2 And these are the names of the twelve emissaries: first, Shim'on, who is called Kèpha, and Andri his brother; Ya’aqo the son of Za'adai, and Yo'ahanan his brother;

3 Philip and Bartholomai; T'oma and Mattithyahu the tax collector; Ya'aqob the son of Alphai, and La'abi whose last name was Taddai;

4 Shim'on the Kena'ani, and Yehudah from Qerieth, who did also deliver Him up.

5 sent these twelve out, having commanded them, saying, “Do not go into the way of the gentiles, and do not enter a city of the Shomeronites,

6 but rather go to the lost sheep of the house of Yisra'êl.

7 “And as you go, proclaim, saying, ‘The reign of the heavens has drawn near.’

8 “Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, cast out demons. You have received without paying, give without being paid.

9 “Do not acquire gold or silver or copper for your moneybelts,

10 or a bag for the journey, or two undergarments, or sandals, or staffs, for the worker is worthy of his food.

11 “And into whatever city or village you enter, ask who is worthy in it, and stay there until you leave.

12 “And as you enter into a house, greet it.

13 “And if the house is worthy, let your peace come upon it. But if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you.

14 “And whoever does not receive you nor hear your words, when you leave that house or city, shake off the dust from your feet.

15 “Truly, I say to you, it shall be more bearable for the land of Se'ôm and Amorah in the day of judgment than for that city!

16 “See, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves. Therefore be wise as serpents and innocent as doves.

17 “But beware of men, for they shall deliver you up to sanhedrins and flog you in their congregations.

18 “And you shall be brought before governors and sovereigns for My sake, as a witness to them and to the gentiles.

19 “But when they deliver you up, do not worry about how or what you should speak. For it shall be given to you in that hour what you shall speak, 20 for it is not you who speak, but the Spirit of your Father speaking in you.

21 “And brother shall deliver up brother to death, and a father his child. And children shall rise up against parents and shall put them to death.

22 “And you shall be hated by all for My Name’s sake. But he who shall have endured to the end shall be saved.

23 “And when they persecute you in this city, flee to another. For truly, I say to you, you shall by no means have gone through the cities of Yisra'êl before the Son of Adam comes.

24 “A taught one is not above his teacher, nor a servant above his master.

25 “It is enough for the taught one to become like his teacher, and a servant like his master. If they have called the master of the house Be'êlzebul, how much more those of his household!

26 “Therefore do not fear them. For whatever is covered shall be revealed, and whatever is hidden shall be made known.

27 “What I say to you in the dark, speak in the light. And what you hear in the ear, proclaim on the house-tops.

28 “And do not fear those who kill the body but are unable to kill the being. But rather fear Him who is able to destroy both being and body in Gehenna.

29 “Are not two sparrows sold for a copper coin? And not one of them falls to the ground without your Father.

30 “And even the hairs of your head are all numbered.

31 “So do not fear, you are worth more than many sparrows.

32 “Everyone, therefore, who shall confess Me before men, him I shall also confess before My Father who is in the heavens.

33 “But whoever shall deny Me before men, him I shall also deny before My Father who is in the heavens.

34 “Do not think that I have come to bring peace on earth. I did not come to bring peace but a sword, \(h\) and a man’s enemies are those of his own household. \(i\)

“He who has found his life shall lose it, and he that has lost his life for My sake shall find it.

“He who receives you receives Me, and he who receives Me receives Him who sent Me.

“He who receives a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet’s reward. And he who receives a righteous one in the name of a righteous one shall receive a righteous one’s reward.

“And whoever gives one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a taught one, truly, I say to you, he shall by no means lose his reward.”

And it came to be, when died instructing His twelve taught ones, that He set out from there to teach and to proclaim in their cities. \n
And when He had heard in the prison of the works of Messiah, he sent two of his taught ones and said to Him, “Are You the Coming One, or do we look for another?”

And answering, said to them, “Go, report to You what you hear and see:

“Blind receive sight and lame walk, lepers are cleansed and deaf hear, dead are raised up and poor are brought the Good News.

“And blessed is he who does not stumble in Me.”

7And as these were going, began to say to the crowds concerning Yoḥanan, “What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?

“But what did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft garments? Look, those wearing soft garments are in the houses of sovereigns.

“But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yea, I say to you, and more than a prophet.

“For this is he of whom it was written, ‘See, I send My messenger before Your face, who shall prepare Your way before You.’

“Truly, I say to you, among those born of women there has not risen one greater than Yoḥanan the Immerser, yet the least one in the reign of the heavens is greater than he.

“And from the days of Yoḥanan the Immerser till now the reign of the heavens is violated, and the violent seize it. \(k\)

“For all the prophets and the Torah prophesied till Yoḥanan.

“And if you wish to accept it, he is Šî‘ālu who was about to come.

“He who has ears to hear, let him hear!

“And to what shall I compare this generation? It is like children sitting in the market-places and calling to their companions, and saying, ‘We played the flute for you, and you did not dance; we lamented to you, and you did not beat the breast.’

“For Yoḥanan came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, ‘He has a demon.’

“The Son of Aḏām came eating and drinking, and they say, ‘See, a man, a glutton and a winedrinker, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’ And wisdom was declared right by her works.”

Then He began to reproach the cities in which most of His miracles had been done, because they did not repent:

“Woe to you, Korazin! Woe to you, Bēyth Tsaiḏa! Because if the miracles which were done in you had been done in \(h\) In Lk. 12:51 the word “division” is used, while “sword” has the same meaning here. \(i\) Lk. 12:53, Miḵ. 7:6.

Tsor and Tsiôn, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes.

22“But I say to you, it shall be more bearable for Tsor and Tsiôn in the day of judgment than for you.

23“And you, Kephar Nahum, who were exalted to the heaven, shall be brought down to the grave! Because if the miracles which were done in you had been done in Sêdom, it would have remained until this day.

24“But I say to you that it shall be more bearable for the land of Sêdom in the day of judgment than for you.”

25At that time יְשׁוֹעַ response, said, “I thank You, Father, Master of the heavens and earth, because You have hidden these matters from clever and learned ones and have revealed them to babes.

26“Yea, Father, because so it was well-pleasing in Your sight.

27“All have been handed over to Me by My Father, and no one knows the Son except the Father. Nor does anyone know the Father except the Son, and he to whom the Son wishes to reveal Him.

28“Come to Me, all you who labour and are burdened, and I shall give you rest.

29“Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am meek and humble in heart, and you shall find rest for your beings.

30“For My yoke is gentle and My burden is light.”

12 At that time יְשׁוֹעַ went through the grain fields on the Sabbath. And His taught ones were hungry, and began to pluck heads of grain, to eat.

2And when the Pharisees saw it, they said to Him, “Look, Your taught ones are doing what is not right to do on the Sabbath!”

3But He said to them, “Have you not read what Dawid did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him:

4how he went into the House of Elohim and ate the showbread which was not right for him to eat, nor for those who were with him, but only for the priests?

5“Or did you not read in the Torah that on the Sabbath the priests in the Set-apart Place profane the Sabbath, and are blameless?

6“But I say to you that in this place there is One greater than the Set-apart Place.

7“And if you had known what this means, ‘I desire compassion and not offering,’ you would not have condemned the blameless.

8“For the Son of Aâm is Master of the Sabbath.”

9And having left there, He went into their congregation.

10And see, there was a man having a withered hand. And they asked Him, saying, “Is it right to heal on the Sabbath?” – so as to accuse Him.

11And He said to them, “What man is there among you who has one sheep, and if it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, shall not take hold of it and lift it out?

12“How much more worth is a man than a sheep! So it is right to do good on the Sabbath.”

13Then He said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” And he stretched it out, and it was restored, as healthy as the other.

14But the Pharisees went out and took counsel against Him, so as to destroy Him.

15But יְשׁוֹעַ, knowing it, withdrew from there. And large crowds followed Him, and He healed them all,

16and warned them not to make Him known,

17in order that what was spoken by Yeshayahu the prophet, might be filled, saying,

18“See, My Servant whom I have chosen, My Beloved in whom My being did delight. I shall put My Spirit upon Him, and He shall declare right-ruling to the nations.

19“He shall not strive nor cry out, nor shall anyone hear His voice in the streets.

20“A crushed reed He shall not break, and smoking flax He shall not quench, till He brings forth right-ruling forever.

21“And the nations shall trust in His Name.”

22Then they brought to Him one who was demon-possessed, blind and dumb. And He healed him, so that the blind and dumb man both spoke and saw.

23And all the crowds were amazed and said, “Is this the Son of Dawid?”

24But when the Pharisees heard it they said, “This one does not cast out demons except by Be’elzebul, the ruler of the demons.”

25And הושע knew their thoughts, and said to them, “Every reign divided against itself is laid waste, and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand.

26“And if Satan casts out Satan, he is divided against himself. How then does his reign stand?

27“And if I, by Be’elzebul, do cast out demons, by whom do your sons cast them out? Because of this they shall be your judges.

28“But if I cast out demons by the Spirit of Elohim, then the reign of Elohim has come upon you.

29“How is one able to enter a strong man’s house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man? And then he shall plunder his house.

30“He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters abroad.

31“Because of this I say to you, all sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven men, but the blasphemy against the Spirit shall not be forgiven men.

32“And whoever speaks a word against the Son of Adam, it shall be forgiven him, but whoever speaks against the Set-apart Spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, either in this age or in the age to come.

33“Either make the tree good and its fruit good, or else make the tree rotten and its fruit rotten, for a tree is known by its fruit.

34“Brood of adders! How are you able to speak what is good – being wicked? For the mouth speaks from the overflow of the heart.

35“The good man brings forth what is good from the good treasures of his heart, and the wicked man brings forth what is wicked from the wicked treasure.

36“And I say to you that for every idle word men speak, they shall give an account of it in the day of judgment.

37“For by your words you shall be declared righteous, and by your words you shall be declared unrighteous.”

38Then some of the scribes and Pharisees answered, saying, “Teacher, we wish to see a sign from You.”

39But He answering, said to them, “A wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and no sign shall be given to it except the sign of the prophet Yonah.

40“For as Yonah was three days and three nights in the stomach of the great fish, so shall the Son of Adam be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

41“Men of Nineweh shall stand up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, because they repented at the preaching of Yonah, and look, a greater than Yonah is here.

42“The sovereigness of the South shall rise up in the judgment with this generation and shall condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Shelomoh, and look, a greater than Shelomoh is here.

43“Now when the unclean spirit goes out of a man, he goes through dry places, seeking rest, and finds none.

44“Then it says, ‘I shall return to my house from which I came.’ And when it comes, it finds it empty, swept, and decorated.

45“Then it goes and takes with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they enter and dwell there. And the last of that man is worse than the first. So shall it also be with this wicked generation.”

46And while He was still talking to the crowds, see, His mother and brothers stood outside, seeking to speak with Him.

47 And one said to Him, “See, Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, seeking to speak with You.”

48 But He answering, said to the one who spoke to Him, “Who is My mother and who are My brothers?”

49 And having stretched out His hand toward His taught ones, He said, “See My mother and My brothers!

50 “For whoever does the desire of My Father who is in the heavens is My brother and sister and mother.”

13 And on that day יְשֵׁיָהוּ went out of the house and sat by the sea.

2 And large crowds were gathered together to Him, so that He went into a boat and sat down. And all the crowd stood on the beach.

3 And He spoke to them much in parables,

4 “And as he sowed, some indeed fell by the wayside, and the birds came and devoured them.

5 “And others fell on rocky places, where they did not have much soil, and immediately they sprang up, because they had no depth of soil.

6 “But when the sun was up they were scorched, and because they had no root they withered.

7 “And others fell among thorns, and the thorns came up and choked them.

8 “And others fell on good soil and yielded a crop, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.

9 “He who has ears to hear, let him hear!”

10 And the taught ones came and said to Him, “Why do You speak to them in parables?”

11 And He answering, said to them, “Because it has been given to you to know the secrets of the reign of the heavens, but to them it has not been given.

12 “For whoever possesses, to him more shall be given, and he shall have overflowingly; but whoever does not possess, even what he possesses shall be taken away from him.

13 “Because of this I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand.

14 “And in them the prophecy of Yesha-yahu is completely filled, which says, ‘Hearing you shall hear and by no means understand, and seeing you shall see and by no means perceive,

15 for the heart of this people has become thickened, and their ears are hard of hearing, and their eyes they have closed, lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears, lest they should understand with their heart, and turn back, and I heal them.’

16 “And blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears because they hear,

17 for truly I say to you, that many prophets and righteous ones longed to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.

18 “You, then, hear the parable of the sower:

19 “When anyone hears the word of the reign, and does not understand it, then the wicked one comes and snatches away what was sown in his heart. This is that sown by the wayside.

20 “And that sown on rocky places, this is... he who hears the word and immediately receives it with joy, yet he has no root in himself, but is short-lived, and when pressure or persecution arises because of the word, immediately he stumbles.

"And that sown among the thorns is he who hears the word, and the worry of this age and the deceit of riches choke the word, and it becomes fruitless."

And that sown on the good soil is he who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields – some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty."

Another parable He put before them, saying, “The reign of the heavens has become like a man who sowed good seed in his field, but while men slept, his enemy came and sowed darnel among the wheat and went away.

And when the blade sprouted and bore fruit, then the darnel also appeared.

And the servants of the master of the house came and said to him, ‘Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? From where then does it have the darnel?’

And he said to them, ‘A man, an enemy did this.’ And the servants said to him, ‘Do you wish then, that we go and gather them up?’

But he said, ‘No, lest while you gather up the darnel you also uproot the wheat with them.

Let both grow together until the harvest, and at the time of harvest I shall say to the reapers, “First gather the darnel and bind them in bundles to burn them, but gather the wheat into my granary.” ’

Another parable He put before them, saying, “The reign of the heavens is like a mustard seed, which a man took and sowed in his field, which indeed is less than all the seeds, but when it is grown it is greater than the plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds of the heaven come and dwell in its branches.”

Another parable He spoke to them, “The reign of the heavens is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal until all was leavened.”

said all this to the crowds in parables, and He did not speak to them without a parable, so that what was spoken by the prophet might be filled, saying, “I shall open My mouth in parables, I shall pour forth what has been hidden from the foundation of the world.”

Then, having sent the crowds away, went into the house. And His taught ones came to Him, saying, “Explain to us the parable of the darnel of the field.”

And He answering, said to them, “He who is sowing the good seed is the Son of Adam, and the field is the world. And the good seed, these are the sons of the reign, but the darnel are the sons of the wicked one, and the enemy who sowed them is the devil. And the harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are the messengers.

As the darnel, then, is gathered and burned in the fire, so it shall be at the end of this age.

The Son of Adam shall send out His messengers, and they shall gather out of His reign all the stumbling-blocks, and those doing lawlessness, and shall throw them into the furnace of fire – there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

Then the righteous shall shine forth as the sun in the reign of their Father. He who has ears to hear, let him hear!

Again, the reign of the heavens is like treasure hidden in a field, which a man having found it, hid, and for joy over it he goes and sells all that he has and buys that field.

Lk. 21:34, 2 Tim. 3:4. Representing the wicked one – they who snatch away the Word sown by Messiah. See also Rev. 18:2. Note: “out of His reign,” not out of the world! Or all the causes of sinning.

Lawlessness is the darnel which the devil sowed, and sprouts and takes shape in the form of lawless “believers.”

Many commentators believe that this “man” refers to מַשְׁל.
Again, the reign of the heavens is like a man, a merchant, seeking fine pearls, who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went and sold all that he had and bought it.

Again, the reign of the heavens is like a dragnet that was thrown into the sea and gathered some of every kind, which, when it was filled, they drew to shore. And they sat down and gathered the good into containers, but threw the rotten away.

Thus shall it be at the end of the age: the messengers shall come forth, and separate the wicked out of the midst of the righteous, and shall throw them into the furnace of fire – there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.”

And it came to be, when Ḥonan had ended these parables, that He left there.

And He said to them, “Therefore every scholar of Scripture taught in the reign of the heavens is like a householder who brings out of his treasure matters, renewed, and old.”

And it came to be, when Ḥonan had ended these parables, that He left there.

And when He had come to His own country, He taught them in their congregation, so that they were astonished and said, “Where did this One get this wisdom and miracles?”

Is this not the son of the carpenter? Is not His mother called Miryam? And His brothers Ya’aqob and Yosèph and Shim’on and Yehudah?

And His sisters, are they not all with us? Where then did this One get all this?”

And they stumbled at Him. But Ḥonan said to them, “A prophet is not unappreciated except in his own country and in his own house.”

And He did not do many miracles there because of their unbelief.

At that time Herodes the district ruler heard the report about Ḥonan, and said to his servants, “This is Ḥonan the Immerser. He has risen from the dead, and that is why these mighty powers are at work in him.”

For Herodes had arrested Ḥonan, bound him and put him in prison because of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife, for Ḥonan had said to him, “It is not right for you to have her.”

And wishing to kill him, he feared the crowd, because they held him as a prophet.

But as Herodes’ birthday was being held, the daughter of Herodias danced before them and pleased Herodes, so he promised with an oath to give her whatever she asked.

And she, being urged on by her mother, said, “Give me here the head of Ḥonan the Immerser on a dish.”

And the sovereign was sad, but because of the oaths and the guests he commanded it to be given, and sent and beheaded Ḥonan in prison.

And his head was brought on a dish and given to the girl, and she brought it to her mother.

And his taught ones came and took away the body and buried it, and went and reported to Ḥonan.

Now when Ḥonan heard it, He withdrew from there by boat to a deserted place, by Himself. And when the crowds heard it, they followed Him on foot from the cities.

And when Ḥonan came out, He saw a large crowd and was moved with compassion for them, and healed their sick.

And when evening came, His taught ones came to Him, saying, “This is a deserted place, and the hour is already late. Dismiss the crowds, so that they might go into the villages and buy food for themselves.”

But Ḥonan said to them, “They do not need to go away, give them to eat yourselves.”

And they said to Him, “We have here only five loaves and two fish.”

And He said, “Bring them here to Me.”

Old truths contained in the Scriptures, since the beginning.
And commanding the crowds to sit down on the grass, and taking the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to the heaven, He blessed and broke and gave the loaves to the taught ones. And the taught ones gave to the crowds, and all ate and were satisfied. And they picked up the pieces left over – twelve baskets, filled.

And those who ate were about five thousand men, besides women and children.

And immediately פֶּלְפֶל made His taught ones enter into the boat and go before Him to the other side, while He dismissed the crowds.

And having dismissed the crowds, He went up to the mountain by Himself to pray. And when evening had come, He was alone there.

But the boat was now in the middle of the sea, agitated by the waves, for the wind was against it.

And in the fourth watch of the night פֶּלְפֶל went to them, walking on the sea.

And when the taught ones saw Him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, “It is a phantom!” And from fear they cried.

But immediately פֶּלְפֶל spoke to them, saying, “Take courage, it is I, do not be afraid.”

And Kêpha answered Him and said, “Master, if it is You, command me to come to You on the water.”

And He said, “Come.” And when Kêpha had come down out of the boat, he walked on the water to go to פֶּלְפֶל.

But when he saw that the wind was strong, he was afraid. And beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, “Master, save me!”

And immediately פֶּלְפֶל stretched out His hand and took hold of him, and said to him, “O you of little belief, why did you doubt?”

And when they came into the boat, the wind ceased.

And those in the boat came and did bow to Him, saying, “Truly You are the Son of Elohim.”

And having passed over, they came to the land of Gennêsar.

And when the men of that place recognised Him, they sent out into all that surrounding country, and brought to Him all who were sick, and begged Him to let them only touch the tzitzit יֶשֶׁר of His garment. And as many as touched it were completely healed.

Then there came to פֶּלְפֶל scribes and Pharisees from Yerushalayim, saying,

“Why do Your taught ones transgress the tradition of the elders? For they do not wash their hands when they eat bread.”

But He answering, said to them, “Why do you also transgress the command of Elohim because of your tradition?

“For Elohim has commanded, saying, ‘Respect your father and your mother,’ and, ‘He who curses father or mother, let him be put to death.’

“But you say, ‘Whoever says to his father or mother, ‘Whatever profit you might have received from me has been dedicated,’ is certainly released from respecting his father or mother.’ So you have nullified the command of Elohim by your tradition.

“Hypocrites! Yeshayahu rightly prophesied about you, saying,

‘This people draw near to Me with their mouth, and respect Me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me.

But in vain do they worship Me, teaching as teachings the commands of men.’”

And calling the crowd near, He said to them, “Hear and understand:

“Not that which goes into the mouth defiles the man, but that which comes out of the mouth, this defiles the man.”

Then His taught ones came and said to Him, “Do You know that the Pharisees stumbled when they heard this word?”

But He answering, said, “Every plant which My heavenly Father has not planted shall be uprooted.

14 “Leave them alone. They are blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind leads the blind, both shall fall into a ditch.”

15 And Képha answering, said to Him, “Explain this parable to us.”

16 And Ἰησοῦς said, “Are you also still without understanding?

17 “Do you not understand that whatever enters into the mouth goes into the stomach, and is cast out in the sewer?

18 “But what comes out of the mouth comes from the heart, and these defile the man.

19 “For out of the heart come forth wicked reasonings, murders, adulteries, whorings, thefts, false witnessings, slanders.

20 “These defile the man, but to eat with unwashed hands does not defile the man.”

21 And Ἰησοῦς went out from there and withdrew to the parts of Tsor and Tsiḏon.

22 And see, a woman of Kena’an came from those borders and cried out to Him, saying, “Have compassion on me, O Master, Son of Dawi’d! My daughter is badly demon-possessed.”

23 But He did not answer her a word. And His taught ones came and asked Him, saying, “Send her away, because she cries after us.”

24 And He answering, said, “I was not sent except to the lost sheep of the house of Yisra’ěl.”

25 But she came and was bowing to Him, saying, “Master, help me!”

26 And He answering, said, “It is not good to take the children’s bread and throw it to the little dogs.”

27 But she said, “Yea Master, for even the little dogs eat the crumbs which fall from their masters’ table.”

28 And Ἰησοῦς answering, said to her, “O woman, your belief is great! Let it be to you as you desire.” And her daughter was healed from that hour.

29 And moving from there, Ἰησοῦς came toward the Sea of Galil, and going up on the mountain, He was sitting there.

30 And large crowds came to Him, having with them those who were lame, blind, dumb, crippled, and many others. And they laid them down at the feet of Ἰησοῦς, and He healed them, 31 so that the crowd marvelled when they saw the dumb speaking, the crippled well, the lame walking, and the blind seeing. And they praised the Elohim of Yisra’ēl.

32 And Ἰησοῦς, having called His taught ones near, said, “I have compassion on the crowd, because they have now continued with Me three days and do not have whatever to eat. And I do not wish to send them away hungry, lest they faint on the way.”

33 And His taught ones said to Him, “Where are we to get enough bread in the desert to satisfy such a large crowd?”

34 And Ἰησοῦς said to them, “How many loaves do you have?” And they said, “Seven, and a few little fish.”

35 And He commanded the crowd to sit down on the ground,

36 and taking the seven loaves and the fish, giving thanks, He broke them and gave to His taught ones, and the taught ones to the crowd.

37 And all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up what was left over of the broken pieces – seven large baskets, filled.

38 And those who ate were four thousand men, besides women and children.

39 And dismissing the crowd, He went into the boat, and came to the borders of Maḏdala.

And the Pharisees and Sadducees came, and trying Him asked that He would show them a sign from heaven.

2 And He answering, said to them, “When it is evening you say, ‘Fair weather, for the heaven is red,’”

3 and in the morning, ‘Stormy weather today, for the heaven is red and overcast.’ You know how to discern the face of the heaven, but you are unable to discern the signs of the times!

4 “A wicked and adulterous generation seeks after a sign, and no sign shall be given to it except the sign of the prophet Yonah.” And He left them and went away.

5 And His taught ones came to the other side, and had forgotten to take bread.

6 And עליוה said to them, “Mind! And beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and the Sadducees.”

7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, “Because we brought no bread!”

8 But עליוה, aware of this, said to them, “O you of little belief, why do you reason among yourselves because you brought no bread?

9 “Do you still not understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand and how many baskets you picked up?

10 “Or the seven loaves of the four thousand and how many large baskets you picked up?

11 “How is it that you do not understand that I did not speak to you concerning bread, but to beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and Sadducees?”

12 Then they understood that He did not say to beware of the leaven of bread, but of the teaching of the Pharisees and the Sadducees.

13 Now when עליוה came into the parts of Caesarea Philippi, He asked His taught ones, saying, “Who do men say the Son of AÅam is?”

14 And they said, “Some say Yohanan the Immerser, and others Éliyahu, and others Yirmeyahu or one of the prophets.”

15 He said to them, “And you, who do you say I am?”

16 And Shim’on Kêpha answering, said, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living Elohim.”

17 And עליוה answering, said to him, “Blessed are you, Shim’on Bar-Yonah, for flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but My Father in the heavens.

18 “And I also say to you that you are Kêpha, and on this rock I shall build My assembly, and the gates of the grave shall not overcome it.

19 “And I shall give you the keys of the reign of the heavens, and whatever you bind on earth shall be having been bound in the heavens, and whatever you loosen on earth shall be having been loosened in the heavens.”

20 Then He warned His taught ones that they should say to no one that He is עליוה the Messiah.

21 From that time עליוה began to show to His taught ones that it was necessary for Him to go to Yerushalayim, and to suffer much from the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and to be raised again the third day.

22 And Kêpha took Him aside and began to rebuke Him, saying, “Be kind to Yourself, Master, this shall not be to You!”

23 But He turned and said to Kêpha, “Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling-block to Me, for your thoughts are not those of Elohim, but those of men.”

24 Then עליוה said to His taught ones, “If anyone wishes to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his stake, and follow Me.

25 “For whoever wishes to save his life shall lose it, and whoever loses his life for My sake shall find it.

26 “For what is a man profited if he gains all the world, and loses his own life? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his life?

27 “For the Son of AÅam is going to come in the esteem of His Father with His messengers, and then He shall reward each according to his works.

28 “Truly, I say to you, there are some standing here who shall not taste death at all until they see the Son of AÅam coming in His reign.”

j Binding and loosening is Hebrew idiom for exercising authority (to prohibit and permit).

k See 21:44.

l See 21:44.

m See 17:2-5.
And after six days ἀρχαὶ took Kêpha, and Yaʿaqob, and Yohanan his brother, and brought them up on a high mountain by themselves,

2 and He was transformed before them, and His face shone like the sun, and His garments became as white as the light.

3 And see, Mosheh and Eliyahu appeared to them, talking with Him.

4 And Kêpha answering, said to ἀρχαὶ, “Master, it is good for us to be here. If You wish, let us make here three booths: one for You, one for Mosheh, and one for Eliyahu.”

5 While he was still speaking, see, a bright cloud overshadowed them. And see, a voice came out of the cloud, saying, “This is My Son, the Beloved, in whom I did delight. Hear Him!”

6 And when the taught ones heard, they fell on their faces and were much afraid.

7 But ἀρχαὶ came near and touched them and said, “Rise, and do not be afraid.”

8 And having lifted up their eyes, they saw no one but ἀρχαὶ only.

9 And as they were coming down from the mountain, ἀρχαὶ commanded them, saying, “Do not mention the vision to anyone until the Son of Aḏâm is raised from the dead.”

10 And His taught ones asked Him, saying, “Why then do the scribes say that Eliyahu has to come first?”

11 And ἀρχαὶ answering, said to them, “Eliyahu is indeed coming first, and shall restore all matters.

12“But I say to you that Eliyahu has already come, and they did not recognise him but did to him whatever they wished. In this way the Son of Aḏâm is also about to suffer by them.”

13 Then the taught ones understood that He had spoken to them about Yoḥanan the Immerser.

14 And when they came to the crowd, a man came up to Him, kneeling down to Him and saying,

15“Master, have compassion on my son, for he is an epileptic and suffers badly, for he often falls into the fire and often into the water.

16“And I brought him to Your taught ones, but they were unable to heal him.”

17 And ἀρχαὶ answering, said, “O generation, unbelieving and perverted, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him here to Me.”

18 And ἀρχαὶ rebuked the demon, and he came out of him. And the child was healed from that hour.

19 Then the taught ones came to ἀρχαὶ by Himself and said, “Why were we unable to cast him out?”

20 And ἀρχαὶ said to them, “Because of your unbelief, for truly, I say to you, if you have belief as a mustard seed, you shall say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it shall move. And no matter shall be impossible for you.

21“But this kind does not go out except through prayer and fasting.”

22 And while they were staying in Galil, ἀρχαὶ said to them, “The Son of Aḏâm is about to be delivered up into the hands of men, 23 and they shall kill Him, and the third day He shall be raised up.” And they were deeply grieved.

24 And when they came into Kephar Naḥum, those who received the tax came to Kêpha and said, “Does your Teacher not pay the tax?”

25 He said, “Yea.” And when he came into the house, ἀρχαὶ spoke to him first, saying, “What do you think, Shim’on? From whom do the sovereigns of the earth take toll or tax, from their own sons or from the strangers?”

26 Kêpha then said to Him, “From the strangers.” ἀρχαὶ said to him, “Then the sons are exempt.

27“But, lest we cause them to stumble, go to the sea, cast in a hook, and take the fish that comes up first. And when you have opened its mouth, you shall find a piece of money. Take that and give it to them for Me and you.”

n See footnote Mark 9:4. o See Mk. 9:12, and Acts 3:21 in particular.
18 At that time the taught ones came to ἄπαντές μοι, saying, “Who, then, is greatest in the reign of the heavens?”

2 And ἄπαντές μοι called a little child to Him, set him in their midst,

3 and said, “Truly, I say to you, unless you turn and become as little children, you shall by no means enter into the reign of the heavens.

4 “Whoever then humbles himself as this little child is the greatest in the reign of the heavens.

5 “And whoever receives one little child like this in My Name receives Me.

6 “But whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to stumble, it is better for him that a millstone be hung around his neck, and that he be drowned in the depth of the sea.

7 “Woe to the world because of stumbling-blocks! For it is necessary that stumbling-blocks come, but woe to that man by whom the stumbling-block comes!

8 “And if your hand or foot causes you to stumble, cut it off and throw it away from you. It is better for you to enter into life lame or crippled, rather than having two hands or two feet, to be thrown into the everlasting fire.

9 “And if your eye causes you to stumble, pluck it out and throw it away from you. It is better for you to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes, to be thrown into the fire of Gehenna.

10 “See that you do not despise one of these little ones, for I say to you that in the heavens their messengers always see the face of My Father who is in the heavens.

11 “For the Son of AÅam has come to save what was lost.

12 “What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them goes astray, would he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains, going to seek the one that is straying?

13 “And if he should find it, truly, I say to you, he rejoices more over that sheep than over the ninety-nine that did not go astray.

14 “Thus it is not the desire of your Father who is in the heavens that one of these little ones should be lost.

15 “And if your brother sins against you, go and reprove him, between you and him alone. If he hears you, you have gained your brother.

16 “But if he does not hear, take with you one or two more, that ‘by the mouth of two or three witnesses every word might be established.’

17 “And if he refuses to hear them, say it to the assembly. And if he refuses even to hear the assembly, let him be to you like a gentile and a tax collector.

18 “Truly, I say to you, whatever you bind on earth shall be having been bound in heaven, and whatever you loosen on earth shall be having been loosened in heaven. p

19 “Again I say to you that if two of you agree on earth concerning any matter that they ask, it shall be done for them by My Father in the heavens.

20 “For where two or three are gathered together in My Name, there I am in their midst.”

21 Then Kêpha came to Him and said, “Master, how often shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? Up to seven times?”

22 ἄπαντές said to him, “I do not say to you, up to seven times, but up to seventy times seven.

23 “Because of this the reign of the heavens is like a certain man, a sovereign who wished to settle accounts with his servants.

24 “And when he had begun to settle, one was brought to him who owed him ten thousand talents,

25 but as he was unable to pay, his master commanded that he be sold, with his wife and children and all that he had, and payment to be made.

26 “Then the servant fell down before him, saying, ‘Master, have patience with me, and I shall pay you all.’

27 “And the master of that servant was moved with compassion, released him, and forgave him the debt.

28 “And that servant went out and found p See footnote 16:19.

one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred pieces of money. And he laid hands on him and took him by the throat, saying, ‘Pay me what you owe!’

29 “Then his fellow servant fell down at his feet and begged him, saying, ‘Have patience with me, and I shall pay you all.’

30 “But he would not, and went and threw him into prison till he should pay the debt.

31 “And when his fellow servants saw what had been done, they were deeply grieved, and came and reported to their master all that had taken place.

32 “Then his master called him and said to him, ‘Wicked servant! I forgave you all that debt seeing you begged me.

33 ‘Should you not also have had compassion on your fellow servant, as I also had compassion on you?’

34 “And his master was wroth, and delivered him to the torturers until he should pay all that was due to him.

35 “So also My heavenly Father shall do to you if each of you, from his heart, does not forgive his brother his trespasses.”

And it came to be, when יהושע had ended these words, that He left Galil and came to the borders of יهوּד beyond the Yardên.

2 And large crowds followed Him, and He healed them there.

3 And the Pharisees came to Him, trying Him, and saying to Him, “Is it right for a man to put away his wife for every reason?”

4 And He answering, said to them, “Did you not read that He who made them at the beginning made them male and female,

5 and said, ‘For this cause a man shall leave his father and mother and cleave to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh’?

6 “So that they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what Elohim has joined together, let man not separate.”

7 They said to Him, “Why then did Mosheh command to give a certificate of divorce, and to put her away?”

8 He said to them, “Because of the hardness of your hearts, Mosheh allowed you to put away your wives, but from the beginning it was not so.

9 “And I say to you, whoever puts away his wife, except on the ground of whoring, and marries another, commits adultery. And whoever marries her who has been put away commits adultery.” q

10 His taught ones said to Him, “If such is the case of the man with his wife, it is good not to marry.”

11 And He said to them, “Not all receive this word, but only those to whom it has been given,

12 for there are eunuchs who were so born from their mother’s womb, and there are eunuchs who were made eunuchs by men, and there are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the reign of the heavens. He who is able to receive it, let him receive it.”

13 Then young children were brought to Him to lay His hands on them and pray, and the taught ones rebuked them.

14 But יהושע said, “Allow the young children to come to Me, for of such is the reign of the heavens.”

15 And having laid hands on them He went from there.

16 And see, one came and said to Him, “Good Teacher, what good shall I do to have everlasting life?”

17 And He said to him, “Why do you call Me good? No one is good except One – Elohim. But if you wish to enter into life, guard the commands.” r

18 He said to Him, “Which?” And יהושע said, “‘You shall not murder,’ ‘You shall not commit adultery,’ ‘You shall not steal,’ ‘You shall not bear false witness,’

19 ‘Respect your father and your mother,’ and ‘You shall love your neighbour as yourself.’ ”

q See footnote 5:32. r The ultimate proof of our love towards Elohim is this: Whether we obey יהושע as He commands us to keep the Father’s commands! See also Lk. 10:28, Yn. 12:50, Rev. 22:14. This is the same as the command He twice gave: Go and sin no more!
The young man said to Him, “All these I have watched over from my youth, what do I still lack?”

SWHY said to him, “If you wish to be perfect, go, sell what you have and give to the poor, and you shall have treasure in heaven. And come, follow Me.”

And when the young man heard the word, he went away sad, because he had many possessions.

And SWHY said to His taught ones, “Truly, I say to you that it is hard for a rich man to enter into the reign of the heavens.

And again I say to you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the reign of Elohim.”

And when His taught ones heard it, they were very astonished, saying, “Who then is able to be saved?”

And looking intently SWHY said to them, “With men this is impossible, but with Elohim all is possible.”

Then Kêpha answering, said to Him, “See, we have left all and followed You. What then shall we have?”

And SWHY said to them, “Truly I say to you, when the Son of AÅam sits on the throne of His esteem, you who have followed Me in the rebirth, shall also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Yisra’ël.

And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or lands, for My Name’s sake, shall receive a hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life.

But many who are first shall be last, and the first last.

“For the reign of the heavens is like a man, a householder who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard.

And when he had agreed with the workers for a silver piece a day, he sent them into his vineyard.

And he went out about the third hour and saw others standing idle in the market-place, and said to them, ‘You too go into the vineyard, and whatever is right I shall give you.’ And they went.

“Having gone out again about the sixth and the ninth hour, he did likewise.

And about the eleventh hour, having gone out, he found others standing idle, and said to them, ‘Why do you stand here idle all day?’

They said to him, ‘Because no one hired us.’ He said to them, ‘You too go into the vineyard, and whatever is right you shall receive.’

And when evening came, the master of the vineyard said to his manager, ‘Call the workers and pay them their wages, beginning with the last to the first.’

And when those came who were hired about the eleventh hour, they each received a silver piece.

And when the first came, they thought they would receive more. But they too received each a silver piece.

But they grumbled against the householder, saying, ‘These last have worked only one hour, and you made them equal to us who have borne the burden and the heat of the day.’

But he answering, said to one of them, ‘Friend, I do you no wrong. Did you not agree with me for a silver piece?

Take yours and go. But I wish to give to this last man as also to you.

Is it not right for me to do what I wish with my own? Or is your eye evil because I am good?’

Thus the last shall be first, and the first last. For many are called, but few chosen.”

And SWHY, going up to Yerushalayim, took the twelve taught ones aside on the way and said to them, “See, we are going up to Yerushalayim, and the Son of AÅam shall be delivered up to the chief priests and to the scribes. And they shall condemn Him to death, and deliver Him to the gentiles to mock and to flog and to impale. And the third day He shall be raised.”

Then the mother of the sons of Zabdaí came to Him with her sons, bowing down and making a request of Him.

And He said to her, “What do you wish?” She said to Him, “Command that these two sons of mine might sit, one on Your right hand and the other on the left, in Your reign.”

But ḥe answered, saying, “You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink the cup that I am about to drink, and to be immersed with the immersion that I am immersed with?” They said to Him, “We are able.”

And He said to them, “You shall indeed drink My cup, and you shall be immersed with the immersion that I am immersed with.” But to sit on My right hand and on My left is not Mine to give, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared by My Father.”

And when the ten heard it, they were displeased at the two brothers.

But ḥe called them near and said, “You know that the rulers of the gentiles are masters over them, and those who are great exercise authority over them.”

“But it shall not be so among you, but whoever wishes to become great among you, let him be your servant.

“And whoever wishes to be first among you, let him be your servant, even as the Son of Aḏâm did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life as a ransom for many.”

And as they were leaving Yeriḥo, a large crowd followed Him.

And see, two blind men sitting by the way, having heard that ḥe was passing by, cried out, saying, “Have compassion on us, O Master, Son of Dawiḏ!”

And the crowd rebuked them that they should be silent, but they cried out all the more, saying, “Have compassion on us, O Master, Son of Dawiḏ!”

And ḥe stopped and called them, and said, “What do you wish Me to do for you?”

They said to Him, “Master, that our eyes be opened.”

And having been moved with compassion, ḥe touched their eyes. And immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed Him.

And when they came near to Yerushalayim, and came to Bêyth Phâgi, at the Mount of Olives, then ḥe sent two taught ones, saying to them, “Go into the village opposite you, and straightaway you shall find a donkey tied, and a colt with her, loosen them, and bring them to Me.

“And if anyone says whatever to you, you shall say, ‘The Master needs them,’ and immediately he shall send them.”

And all this took place that it might be filled what was spoken by the prophet, saying,

“Say to the daughter of Tsiyon, ‘See, your Sovereign is coming to you, meek, and sitting on a donkey, even a colt, the foal of a donkey.’ ”

And the taught ones went, and having done as ḥe ordered them, they brought the donkey and the colt, and laid their garments on them, and He sat on them.

And most of the crowd spread their garments on the way, while others cut down branches from the trees and spread them on the way.

And the crowds who went before and those who followed cried out, saying, “Hoshia-na to the Son of Dawiḏ! Blessed is He who is coming in the Name of HWH!

Hoshia-na in the highest!”

And as He entered into Yerushalayim, all the city was stirred, saying, “Who is this?”

And the crowds said, “This is ḥe, the prophet from Natsareth of Galîl.”

And ḥe went into the Set-apart Place of Elohim and drove out all those buying and selling in the Set-apart Place, and overturned the tables of the money-

This is generally called “the immersion of suffering.” See also Mk. 10:39, Lk. 12:50. ḥe went into the Set-apart Place of Elohim and drove out all those buying and selling in the Set-apart Place, and overturned the tables of the money-

Mk. 10:45, Yesh. 49:1-7.
changers and the seats of those who sold doves.
13 And He said to them, “It has been written, ‘My House shall be called a house of prayer,’ but you have made it a ‘den of robbers.’”
14 And blind and lame ones came to Him in the Set-apart Place, and He healed them.
15 But when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonders which He did, and the children crying out in the Set-apart Place and saying, “Hoshia-na to the Son of Dawid!” they were greatly displeased,
16 and said to Him, “Do You hear what these say?” And He answering said to them, “Yea, have you never read, ‘Out of the mouth of babes and nurslings You have perfected praise’?”
17 And having left them He went out of the city to Bêyth Anyah, and spent the night there.
18 And returning to the city early in the morning, He became hungry.
19 And seeing a single fig tree by the way, He came to it and found naught on it but leaves, and said to it, “Let no fruit grow on you ever again.” And immediately the fig tree withered.
20 And the taught ones, seeing it, marvelled, saying, “How did the fig tree wither so soon?”
21 And answering, said to them, “Truly, I say to you, if you have belief and do not doubt, you shall not only do what was done to the fig tree, but even if you say to this mountain, ‘Be removed and be thrown into the sea,’ it shall be done.
22 “And whatever you ask in prayer, believing, you shall receive.”
23 And when He had come into the Set-apart Place, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to Him as He was teaching, and said, “By what authority are You doing these? And who gave You this authority?”
24 And answering, said to them, “I shall ask you one question too, which if you answer Me, I also shall say to you by what authority I do these:
25 “The immersion of YoÁanan, where did it come from? From heaven or from men?” So they reasoned among themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He shall say to us, ‘Then why did you not believe him?’
26 “But if we say, ‘From men,’ we fear the crowd, for all hold YoÁanan as a prophet.”
27 And they answered and said, “We do not know.” And He said to them, “Neither do I say to you by what authority I do these.
28 “But what do you think? A man had two sons, and he came to the first and said, ‘Son, go, work today in my vineyard.’
29 “And he answering, said, ‘I do not wish to,’ but afterwards he repented and went.
30 “And having come to the second, he said similarly. And he answering, said, ‘I go, master,’ but he did not go.
31 “Which of the two did the desire of the father?” They said to Him, “The first.”
32 for YoÁanan came to you in the way of righteousness, and you did not believe him, but tax collectors and whores believed him. And when you saw it, you did not repent afterwards, to believe him.
33 “Hear another parable: There was a certain man, a householder who planted a vineyard and placed a hedge around it, and dug a winepress in it and built a watchtower. And he leased it to farmers and went abroad.
34 “And when the season of the fruits drew near, he sent his servants to the farmers, to receive its fruit.
35 “And the farmers took his servants and beat one, and they killed one, and they stoned another.
36 “Again he sent other servants, more than the first, and they did likewise to them.
37 “And at last he sent his son to them, saying, ‘They shall respect my son.’
38 “But when the farmers saw the son, they said among themselves, ‘This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and let us possess his inheritance.’
39 “And they took him, and threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.
40“Therefore, when the master of the vineyard comes, what shall he do to those farmers?”
41They said to Him, “Evil ones! He shall bring them to evil destruction, and lease the vineyard to other farmers who shall give to him the fruits in their seasons.”
42said to them, “Did you never read in the Scriptures, ‘The stone which the builders rejected has become the chief corner-stone. This was from יהוה, and it is marvellous in our eyes’?
43“Because of this I say to you: the reign of Elohim shall be taken from you and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits of it.
44“And he who falls on this stone shall be broken, but on whomever it falls, he shall be pulverised.”
45And the chief priests and Pharisees, having heard His parables, knew that He was speaking of them.
46And seeking to lay hands on Him, they feared the crowds, seeing they held Him to be a prophet.

22And יהוה responded and spoke to them again by parables and said,
2“The reign of the heavens is like a man, a sovereign, who made a wedding feast for his son, 3and sent out his servants to call those who were invited to the wedding feast. But they would not come.
4“Again he sent out other servants, saying, ‘Say to those who are invited, “See, I have prepared my dinner. My oxen and fat-tended cattle are slaughtered, and all is ready. Come to the wedding feast.” ’
5“But they disregarded it and went their way – this one to his field, that one to his trade.
6“And the rest, having seized his servants, insulted and killed them.
7“But when the sovereign heard, he was wroth, and sent out his soldiers, destroyed those murderers, and set their city on fire.
8“Then he said to his servants, ‘The wedding feast, indeed, is ready, but those who were invited were not worthy.
9“Therefore go into the street corners, and as many as you find, invite to the wedding feast.’
10“And those servants went out into the street corners and gathered all whom they found, both wicked and good. And the wedding hall was filled with guests.
11“And when the sovereign came in to view the guests, he saw there a man who had not put on a wedding garment, 12and he said to him, ‘Friend, how did you come in here not having a wedding garment?’ And he was speechless.
13“Then the sovereign said to the servants, ‘Bind him hand and foot, take him away, and throw him out into the outer darkness – there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.’
14“For many are called, but few are chosen.”
15Then the Pharisees went and plotted how to trap Him in His words.
16And they sent to Him their taught ones with the Herodians, saying, “Teacher, we know that You are true, and teach the way of Elohim in truth, and it does not concern You about anyone, for You are not partial to any man.
17“Then say to us, what do You think? Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?”
18But knowing their wickedness, יהוה said, “Why do you try Me, you hypocrites?
19“Show Me the coin of the tax.” And they brought Him a silver piece.
20And He said to them, “Whose likeness and inscription is this?”
21They said to Him, “Caesar’s.” And He said to them, “Then give to Caesar what is Caesar’s, and to Elohim what is Elohim’s.”
22And having heard, they marvelled, and left Him and went away.
23On that day Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Him and asked Him, 24saying, “Teacher, Mosheh said that if anyone should die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife and raise offspring for his brother.

v Rom. 8:10 & 13, Col. 3:5. w See 20:16.
25“And there were with us seven brothers, and the first died after he had married, and having no children, left his wife to his brother.
26“In the same way the second also, and the third, unto the seventh.
27“And last of all the woman died too.
28“At the resurrection, then, whose wife of the seven shall she be – for all had her?”
29And answering, said to them, “You go astray, not knowing the Scriptures x nor the power of Elohim.
30“For in the resurrection they do not marry, nor are they given in marriage, but are as messengers of Elohim in heaven.
31“And concerning the resurrection of the dead, have you not read what was spoken to you by Elohim, saying,
32‘I am the Elohim of Abraham, and the Elohim of Yitsḥaq, and the Elohim of Ya‘aqob’? Elohim is not the Elohim of the dead, but of the living.”
33And when the crowds heard, they were astonished at His teaching.
34But the Pharisees, having heard that He had silenced the Sadducees, were gathered together, 35and one of them, one learned in the Torah, did question, trying Him, and saying,
36“Teacher, which is the great command in the Torah?”
37And said to him, “‘You shall love your Elohim with all your heart, and with all your being, and with all your mind.’
38“This is the first and great command.
39“And the second is like it, ‘You shall love your neighbour as yourself.’
40“These two commands hang all the Torah and the Prophets.”
41And when the Pharisees were gathered together, said to them, 42saying, “What do you think concerning the Messiah? Whose Son is He?” They said to Him, “The Son of Dawiḏ.”
43He said to them, “Then how does Dawiḏ in the Spirit call Him ‘Master,’ say-44‘HWHY said to my Master, “Sit at My right hand, until I make Your enemies a footstool of Your feet’”?
45“If then Dawiḏ calls Him ‘Master,’ how is He his Son?”
46And no one was able to answer Him a word, and from that day on no one was bold enough to ask Him any more ques-23Then spoke to the crowds and to His taught ones,
2 saying, “The scribes and the Pharisees sit on the seat of Mosheh.
3“Therefore, whatever they say to you to guard, guard and do. But do not do accord-
4“For they bind heavy burdens, hard to bear, and lay them on men’s shoulders, but with their finger they do not wish to move them.
5“And they do all their works to be seen by men, and they make their t’fillen wide and lengthen the tzitziyot 1 of their garments, 6and they love the best place at feasts, and the best seats in the congregations, 7and the greetings in the market-places, and to be called by men, ‘Rabbi, Rabbi.’
8“But you, do not be called ‘Rabbi,’ for One is your Teacher, the Messiah, and you are all brothers.
9“And do not call anyone on earth your father, for One is your Father, He who is in the heavens.
10“Neither be called leaders, for One is your Leader, the Messiah.
11“But the greatest among you shall be your servant.
12“And whoever exalts himself shall be humbled, and whoever humbles himself shall be exalted.
13“But woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you shut up the reign of the heavens before men, for you do not go in, nor do you allow those who are entering to go in.

14 “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you eat up widows’ houses, and for a show make long prayers. Because of this you shall receive greater judgment.

15 “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you go about the land and the sea to win one convert, and when he is won, you make him a son of Gehenna twofold more than yourselves.

16 “Woe to you, blind guides, who say, ‘Whoever swears by the Dwelling Place, it does not matter, but whoever swears by the gold of the Dwelling Place, is bound by oath.’

17 “Fools and blind! For which is greater, the gold or the Dwelling Place that sets the gold apart?

18 “And, ‘Whoever swears by the altar, it does not matter, but whoever swears by the gift that is on it, is bound by oath.’

19 “Fools and blind! For which is greater, the gift or the altar that sets the gift apart?

20 “He, then, who swears by the altar, swears by it and by all that is upon it.

21 “And he who swears by the Dwelling Place, swears by it and by Him who is dwelling in it.

22 “And he who swears by the heaven, swears by the throne of Elohim and by Him who is sitting upon it.

23 “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you tithe the mint and the anise and the cumin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the Torah: the right-ruling and the compassion and the belief. These need to have been done, without neglecting the others.

24 “Blind guides – straining out a gnat and swallowing a camel!

25 “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you clean the outside of the cup and dish, but inside they are filled with plunder and unrighteousness.

26 “Blind Pharisee, first clean the inside of the cup and dish, so that the outside of them becomes clean too.

27 “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you are like whitewashed tombs which outwardly indeed look well, but inside are filled with dead men’s bones and all uncleanness.

28 “So you too outwardly indeed appear righteous to men, but inside you are filled with hypocrisy and lawlessness.

29 “Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! Because you build the tombs of the prophets and decorate the monuments of the righteous,

30 and say, ‘If we had lived in the days of our fathers, we would not have taken part with them in the blood of the prophets.’

31 “Thus you bear witness against yourselves that you are sons of those who did murder the prophets –

32 and you fill up the measure of your fathers!

33 “Serpents, brood of adders! How would you escape the judgment of Gehenna?

34 “Because of this, see, I send you prophets, and wise men, and scholars of Scripture. Some of them you shall kill and impale, and some of them you shall fling in your congregations and persecute from city to city, 35 so that on you should come all the righteous blood shed on the earth, from the blood of righteous He Äel to the blood of Ze Äaryah, son of Bere Äyah, whom you murdered between the Dwelling Place and the altar.

36 “Truly, I say to you, all this shall come upon this generation.

37 “Yerushalayim, Yerushalayim, killing the prophets and stoning those who are sent to her! How often I wished to gather your children together, the way a hen gathers her chickens under her wings, but you would not!

38 “See! Your house is left to you laid waste, 39 for I say to you, from now on you shall by no means see Me, until you say, ‘Blessed is He who is coming in the Name of YWHY!’ ”

y The wording in Lk. 11:42 is somewhat different. z See footnote 5:20. a See 13:52.

b See footnote Teh. 118:26. YWHY shall not return until His followers believe what He said here, and do it!
And going out, went away from the Set-apart Place, and His taught ones came near to point out to Him the buildings of the Set-apart Place.

And said to them, “Do you not see all these? Truly, I say to you, not one stone shall be left here upon another, at all, which shall not be thrown down.”

And as He sat on the Mount of Olives, the taught ones came to Him separately, saying, “Say to us, when shall this be, and what is the sign of Your coming, and of the end of the age?”

And answering, said to them, “Take heed that no one leads you astray. For many shall come in My Name, saying, ‘I am the Messiah,’ and they shall lead many astray.

And you shall begin to hear of fightings and reports of fightings. See that you are not troubled, for these have to take place, but the end is not yet.

For nation shall rise against nation, and reign against reign. And there shall be scarcities of food, and deadly diseases, and earthquakes in places.

And all these are the beginning of birth pains.

Then they shall deliver you up to affliction and kill you, and you shall be hated by all nations for My Name’s sake.

And then many shall stumble, and they shall deliver up one another, and shall hate one another.

And many false prophets shall rise up and lead many astray.

And because of the increase in lawlessness, the love of many shall become cold.

But he who shall have endured to the end shall be saved.

And this Good News of the reign shall be proclaimed in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end shall come.

So when you see the ‘abomination that lays waste,’ spoken of by Dan’el the prophet, set up in the set-apart place” – he who reads, let him understand – then let those who are in Yehuḏah flee to the mountains.

Let him who is on the house-top not come down to take whatever out of his house.

And let him who is in the field not turn back to get his garments.

And woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing children in those days!

And pray that your flight does not take place in winter or on the Sabbath.

For then there shall be great distress, such as has not been since the beginning of the world until this time, no, nor ever shall be.

And if those days were not shortened, no flesh would be saved, but for the sake of the chosen ones those days shall be shortened.

If anyone then says to you, ‘Look, here is the Messiah!’ or ‘There!’ do not believe.

For false messiahs and false prophets shall arise, and they shall show great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones.

See, I have forewarned you.

So if they say to you, ‘Look, He is in the desert!’ do not go out; or ‘Look, He is in the inner rooms!’ do not believe.

For as the lightning comes from the east and shines to the west, so also shall the coming of the Son of Aḏam be.

For wherever the dead body is, there the eagles shall be gathered together.

And immediately after the distress of those days the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give its light, and the stars shall fall from the heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken.

And then the sign of the Son of Aḏam shall appear in the heaven, and then all the tribes of the earth shall mourn, and they shall see the Son of Aḏam coming on the

They asked Him three questions, and He answers them, some of His answers having a double reference. However, the latter part of His reply pertains to the end-time. See 10:22. clouds of the heaven with power and much esteem.
31“And He shall send His messengers with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together His chosen ones from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other.
32“And learn this parable from the fig tree: When its branch has already become tender and puts forth leaves, you know that the summer is near.
33“So you also, when you see all these, know that He is near, at the doors.
34“Truly, I say to you, this generation shall by no means pass away until all this takes place.
35“The heaven and the earth shall pass away, but My words shall by no means pass away.
36“But concerning that day and the hour no one knows, not even the messengers of the heavens, but My Father only. i 37“And as the days of Noaḥ, so also shall the coming of the Son of AĤam be.
38“For as they were in the days before the flood, eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noaḥ entered into the ark, 39 and they did not know until the flood came and took them all away, so also shall the coming of the Son of AĤam be.
40“Then two shall be in the field, the one is taken and the one is left.
41“Two shall be grinding at the mill, one is taken and one is left.
42“Watch therefore, for you do not know what hour your Master is coming.
43“And know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched and not allowed his house to be broken into.
44“Because of this, be ready too, for the Son of AĤam is coming at an hour when you do not expect Him.
45“Who then is a trustworthy and wise servant, whom his master set over his household, to give them food in season?
46“Blessed is that servant whom his master, having come, shall find so doing.
47“Truly, I say to you that he shall set him over all his possessions.
48“But if that evil servant says in his heart, ‘My master is delaying his coming,’ 49 and begins to beat his fellow servants, and to eat and drink with the drunkards,
50 the master of that servant shall come on a day when he does not expect it, and at an hour he does not know,
51 and shall cut him in two and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites – there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

25 Then the reign of the heavens shall be compared to ten maidens who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom.
2“And five of them were wise, and five foolish.
3“Those who were foolish, having taken their lamps, took no oil with them,
4 but the wise took oil in their containers with their lamps.
5“Now while the bridegroom took time, they all slumbered and slept.
6“And at midnight a cry was heard, ‘See, the bridegroom is coming, go out to meet him!’
7“Then all those maidens rose up and trimmed their lamps.
8“And the foolish said to the wise, ‘Give us of your oil, because our lamps are going out.’
9“But the wise answered, saying, ‘No, indeed, there would not be enough for us and you. Instead, go to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.’
10“And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding feast, and the door was shut.
11“And later the other maidens also came, saying, ‘Master, Master, open up for us!’
12“But he answering, said, ‘Truly, I say to you, I do not know you.’
13“Watch therefore, because you do not know the day nor the hour in which the Son of AĤam is coming.

i Mk. 13:32.
for it is like a man going from home, who called his own servants and delivered his possessions to them.

And to one he gave five talents, and to another two, and to another one, to each according to his own ability, and went from home.

And he who had received the five talents went and worked with them, and made another five talents.

In the same way, he with the two also, he gained two more.

But he who had received the one went away and dug in the ground, and hid the silver of his master.

And after a long time the master of those servants came and settled accounts with them.

And he who had received five talents came and brought five other talents, saying, 'Master, you delivered to me five talents. See, I have gained five more talents besides them.'

And his master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy servant. You were trustworthy over a little, I shall set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.'

Then he who had received two talents came and said, 'Master, you delivered to me two talents. See, I have gained two more talents besides them.'

His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy servant. You were trustworthy over a little, I shall set you over much. Enter into the joy of your master.'

Then he who had received the one talent also came and said, 'Master, I knew you to be a hard man, reaping where you have not sown, and gathering where you have not scattered seed, and being afraid, I went and hid your talent in the ground. See, you have what is yours.'

And his master answering, said to him, 'You wicked and lazy servant, you knew that I reap where I have not sown, and gather where I have not scattered seed.

Then you should have put my silver with the bankers, and at my coming I would have received back my own with interest.

Therefore take away the talent from him, and give it to him who possesses ten talents.

For to everyone who possesses, more shall be given, and he shall have overflowingly; but from him who does not possess, even what he possesses shall be taken away. /

And throw the worthless servant out into the outer darkness – there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

And when the Son of Adam comes in His esteem, and all the set-apart messengers with Him, then He shall sit on the throne of His esteem.

And all the nations shall be gathered before Him, and He shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd separates his sheep from the goats.

And He shall set the sheep on His right hand, but the goats on the left.

Then the Sovereign shall say to those on His right hand, 'Come, you blessed of My Father, inherit the reign prepared for you from the foundation of the world – for I was hungry and you gave Me food, I was thirsty and you gave Me drink, I was a stranger and you took Me in,

was naked and you clothed Me, I was sick and you visited Me, I was in prison and you came to Me.'

Then the righteous shall answer Him, saying, 'Master, when did we see You hungry and we fed You, or thirsty and gave You to drink?

And when did we see You a stranger and took You in, or naked and clothed You?

And when did we see You sick, or in prison, and we came to You?’

And the Sovereign shall answer and say to them, ‘Truly, I say to you, in so far as you did it to one of the least of these My brothers, you did it to Me.’

He shall then also say to those on the left hand, ‘Go away from Me, accursed ones, into the everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his messengers –
42 for I was hungry and you gave Me no food, I was thirsty and you gave Me no
drink,
43 ‘I was a stranger and you did not take Me in, was naked and you did not clothe
Me, sick and in prison and you did not visit
Me.’
44 Then they also shall answer Him, saying, ‘Master, when did we see You hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and did not serve You?’
45 Then He shall answer them, saying,
‘Truly, I say to you, in so far as you did not do it to one of the least of these, you did not do it to Me.’
46 And these shall go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into everlasting life.”

And it came to be, when ἀρχηγός ended all these words, He said to
His taught ones,
2 “You know that after two days the Passover takes place, and the Son of AÅam is to be delivered up to be impaled.”
3 Then the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people came together at the court of the high priest, who was called Qayapha,
4 and plotted to seize ἀρχηγός by trickery and kill Him.
5 But they said, “Not at the festival lest there be an uproar among the people.”
6 And when ἀρχηγός was in BÃyth Anyah at the house of ShimÈon the leper, 7 a woman came to Him, having an alabaster flask of costly perfume, and she poured it on His head as He sat at the table.
8 And when His taught ones saw it, they were much displeased saying, “To what purpose is this waste?
9 “For this perfume could have been sold for much and given to the poor.”
10 However, when ἀρχηγός noticed it, He said to them, “Why do you trouble the woman? For she has done a good work ward Me.
11 “For you always have the poor with you, but Me you do not have always.
12 “For in pouring this perfume on My body, she did it for My burial.
13 “Truly, I say to you, wherever this Good News is proclaimed in all the world, what this woman has done shall be spoken of also, to her remembrance.”
14 Then one of the twelve, called Yehudah from Qerioth, went to the chief priests, 15 and said, “What would you give me to deliver Him to you?” And they counted out to him thirty pieces of silver.
16 And from then on he was seeking an occasion to deliver Him up.
17 And on the first day of Unleavened Bread the taught ones came to ἀρχηγός, saying to Him, “Where do You wish us to prepare for You to eat the Passover?”
18 And He said, “Go into the city to a certain man, and say to him, ‘The Teacher says, “My time is near. I am to observe the Passover at your house with My taught ones.” ’ ”
19 And the taught ones did as ἀρχηγός had ordered them, and prepared the Passover.
20 And when evening came, He sat down with the twelve.
21 And while they were eating, He said, “Truly, I say to you, one of you shall deliver Me up.”
22 And they were deeply grieved, and began to say to Him, each of them,
“Master, is it I?”
23 And He answering, said, “He who has dipped his hand with Me in the dish, he shall deliver Me up.
24 “Indeed, the Son of AÅam goes as it has been written concerning Him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of AÅam is delivered up! It would have been good for that man if he had not been born.”
25 And YehuÅah – he who delivered Him up – answering, said, “Rabbi, is it I?” He said to him, “You have said it.”
26 And as they were eating, ἀρχηγός took bread, and having blessed, broke and gave it to the taught ones and said, “Take, eat, this is My body.”
27 And taking the cup, and giving thanks,
He gave it to them, saying, “Drink from it,
all of you.
28 “For this is My blood, that of the renewed covenant, which is shed for many for the forgiveness of sins.

29“But I say to you, I shall certainly not drink of this fruit of the vine from now on till that day when I drink it anew with you in the reign of My Father.”

30And having sung a song, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

31Then ἦσον said to them, “All of you shall stumble in Me this night, for it has been written, ‘I shall strike the Shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall be scattered.’”

32“But after I have been raised, I shall go before you into Galil.”

33And Kêpha answering, said to Him, “Even if all stumble in You, I shall never stumble.”

34.Slfi said to him, “Truly, I say to you that this night, before the cock crows, you shall deny Me three times.”

35Kêpha said to Him, “Even if I have to die with You, I shall not deny You!” All the taught ones said the same too.

36Then ἦσον came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and said to the taught ones, “Sit here while I go over there and pray.”

37And He took with Him Kêpha and the two sons of Zaḇdai, and He began to be grieved and deeply distressed.

38Then He said to them, “My being is exceedingly grieved, even to death. Stay here and watch with Me.”

39And going forward a little, He fell on His face, and prayed, saying, “O My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from Me. Yet not as I desire, but as You desire.”

40And He came to the taught ones and found them asleep, and said to Kêpha, “So, were you not able to watch with Me one hour?”

41“Watch and pray, lest you enter into trial. The spirit indeed is eager, but the flesh is weak.”

42Again He went away, a second time, and prayed, saying, “O My Father, if it is impossible for this to pass unless I drink it, let Your desire be done.”

43And He came and found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy.

44And He left them, went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words.

45Then He came to His taught ones and said to them, “Still sleeping and taking rest? See, the hour has come near, and the Son of Aḏâm is delivered up into the hands of sinners.

46“Rise, let us go. See, he who delivers Me up has come near.”

47And while He was still speaking, see, Yehudah, one of the twelve, with a large crowd with swords and clubs, came from the chief priests and elders of the people.

48And he who was delivering Him up gave them a sign, saying, “Whomever I kiss, it is He, seize Him.”

49And going straight up to ἦσον he said, “Greetings, Rabbi!” and kissed Him.

50And ἦσον said to him, “Friend, why have you come?” Then they came and laid hands on ἦσον and seized Him.

51And look, one of those with ἦσον put out his hand and drew his sword, and striking the servant of the high priest he cut off his ear.

52Then ἦσον said to him, “Return your sword to its place, for all who take the sword shall die by the sword.

53“How then would the Scriptures be filled that it has to be this way?”

55In that hour ἦσον said to the crowds, “Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to arrest Me? Daily I sat with you, teaching in the Set-apart Place, and you did not seize Me.

56“But all this came to be, so that the Scriptures of the prophets might be filled.” Then all the taught ones left Him and fled.

57And those who had seized ἦσον led Him away to Qayapha the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were gathered together.

But Kêpha followed Him at a distance to the courtyard of the high priest, and he went in and sat with the servants to see the end.

And the chief priests, and the elders, and all the council were seeking false witness against יְהוָה to put Him to death, but found none. Although many false witnesses came forward, they found none. But at last two false witnesses came forward, and said, “This one said, ‘I am able to destroy the Dwelling Place of Elohim and to build it in three days.’ ”

And the high priest stood up and said to Him, “Have You no answer to make? What do these witness against You?”

But יְהוָה remained silent. So the high priest said to Him, “I put You to oath, by the living Elohim that You say to us if You are the Messiah, the Son of Elohim.”

But he denied it before them all, saying, “I do not know the Man.”

And as he was going out into the porch, another girl saw him and said to those there, “And this one was with יְהוָה of Galil.”

But he denied it before them all, saying, “I do not know the Man!”

And after a while those who stood by came to him and said to Kêpha, “Truly you are one of them too, for even your speech gives you away.”

Then he began to curse and to swear, saying, “I do not know the Man!” And immediately a cock crowed.

And Kêpha remembered the word of יְהוָה who had said to him, “Before a cock crows, you shall deny Me three times.” And going out, he wept bitterly.

And morning having come, all the chief priests and elders of the people took counsel against יְהוָה, so as to put Him to death.

And having bound Him, they led Him away and delivered Him to Pontius Pilate the governor.

Then יְהוָה – he who delivered Him up – having seen that He had been condemned, repented, returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and to the elders, saying, “I have sinned in delivering up innocent blood.” And they said, “What is that to us? You see to it!”

And throwing down the pieces of silver in the Dwelling Place he left, and went and hanged himself.

And the chief priests took the silver pieces and said, “It is not right to put them into the treasury, seeing they are the price of blood.”

So they took counsel and bought with them the potter’s field, for the burial of strangers.

Therefore that field has been called the Field of Blood, until today.

Then was filled what was spoken by יְרמיהו the prophet, saying, “And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of Him who was pierced, on whom they of the children of יִשְׂרָאֵל set a price, and gave them for the potter’s field, as יְהוָה had ordered me.”

And יְהוָה stood before the governor, and the governor asked Him, saying, “Are You the Sovereign of the יְהוּדִים?” And יְהוָה said to him, “You say it.”

And as He was accused by the chief priests and the elders, He answered not.
word, so that the governor wondered much.
15 And at the festival the governor used to release to the crowd one prisoner whom they wished.
16 And they had then a well-known prisoner called Barabba.

17 So when they were assembled, Pilate said to them, “Whom do you wish I release to you? Barabba, or "Messiah" who is called Messiah?”

18 For he knew that because of envy they had delivered Him up.
19 And as he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent to him, saying, “Have none at all to do with that righteous Man, for I have suffered much today in a dream because of Him.”

20 But the chief priests and elders persuaded the crowds that they should ask for Barabba and to destroy Messiah.

21 And the governor answering, said to them, “Which of the two do you wish I release to you?” They said, “Barabba!”
22 Pilate said to them, “What then shall I do with Messiah?” They all said to him, “Let Him be impaled!”
23 And the governor said, “Indeed, what evil has He done?” And they were crying out all the more, saying, “Let Him be impaled!”
24 And when Pilate saw that he was getting nowhere, but rather an uproar was starting, he took water and washed his hands before the crowd, saying, “I am innocent of the blood of this Righteous One. You shall see to it.”
25 And all the people answering, said, “His blood be on us and on our children.”
26 Then he released Barabba to them, but having whipped, he delivered Him over to be impaled.

27 Then the soldiers of the governor took Messiah into the court and gathered the entire company of soldiers around Him.

28 And having stripped Him, they put a scarlet robe on Him.
29 And plaiting a crown of thorns, they put it on His head, and a reed in His right hand. And they kneeled down before Him and mocked Him, saying, “Greetings, Sovereign of the Yehudim!”
30 And spitting on Him they took the reed and struck Him on the head.
31 And when they had mocked Him, they took the robe off Him, then put His own garments on Him, and led Him away to be impaled.
32 And as they were going out, they found a man of Cyrene, Shim’on by name – they compelled him to bear His stake.
33 And when they came to a place called Golgotha, that is to say, Place of a Skull, 34 they gave Him wine mixed with bile to drink. And after tasting, He would not drink it.
35 And having impaled Him, they divided His garments, casting lots, that it might be filled what was spoken by the prophet, “They divided My garments among them, and for My clothing they cast lots.”
36 And sitting down, they guarded Him there.
37 And they put up over His head the written charge against Him: THIS IS "MESSIAH", THE SOVEREIGN OF THE YEHUDIM.
38 Then two robbers were impaled with Him, one on the right and another on the left.
39 And those passing by were blaspheming Him, shaking their heads,
40 And saying, “You who destroy the Dwelling Place and build it in three days, save Yourself! If You are the Son of Elohim, come down from the stake.”
41 And likewise the chief priests, with the scribes and elders, mocking, said, 42 “He saved others – He is unable to save Himself. If He is the Sovereign of Yisra’ël, let Him now come down from the stake, and we shall believe Him.
43 “He trusted in Elohim, let Him rescue Him now if He desires Him, for He said, ‘I am the Son of Elohim.’ ”
44 And also the robbers who were impaled with Him reviled Him, saying the same.
45 And from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land, until the ninth hour.
46 And about the ninth hour Messiah cried out with a loud voice, saying, “Èli, Èli, lemah shebaqtani?” that is, “My Êl, My Êl, why have You forsaken Me?”

47 Some of those standing there, having heard, said, “This One calls Éliyahu!”

48 And immediately one of them ran and took a sponge, and filled it with sour wine and put it on a reed, and gave it to Him to drink.

49 But the rest said, “Leave it, let us see if Éliyahu comes to save Him.”

50 And יוהו cried out again with a loud voice, and gave up His spirit.

51 And see, the veil of the Dwelling Place was torn in two from top to bottom, and the earth was shaken, and the rocks were split,

52 and the tombs were opened, and many bodies of the set-apart ones who had fallen asleep were raised,

53 and coming out of the tombs after His resurrection, they went into the set-apart city and appeared to many.

54 And when the captain and those with him, who were guarding יוהו, saw the earthquake and all that took place, they feared exceedingly, saying, “Truly this was the Son of Elohim!”

55 And many women who followed יוהו from Galil, attending Him, were there, watching from a distance, 56 among whom were Miryam from Maídala, and Miryam the mother of Yaaqoḇ and Yosèph, and the mother of Zabdi’a’s sons.

57 And when evening came, there came a rich man from Ramathayim, named Yosèph, who himself had also become a taught one of יוהו.

58 He went to Pilate and asked for the body of יוהו. Then Pilate commanded the body to be given.

59 And having taken the body, Yosèph wrapped it in clean linen,

60 and laid it in his new tomb which he had hewn out of the rock. And he rolled a large stone against the door of the tomb, and went away.

61 And Miryam from Maídala was there, and the other Miryam, sitting opposite the tomb.

62 On the next day, which was after the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees gathered together to Pilate,

63 saying, “Master, we remember, while He was still alive, how that deceiver said, ‘After three days I am raised.’

64 “Command, then, that the tomb be safeguarded until the third day, lest His taught ones come by night and steal Him away, and should say to the people, ‘He was raised from the dead.’ And the last deception shall be worse than the first.”

65 So Pilate said to them, “You have a watch, go, safeguard it as you know how.”

66 And they went and safeguarded the tomb, sealing the stone and setting the watch.

28 Now after the Sabbath, toward dawn on the first day of the week 1, Miryam from Maídala and the other Miryam came to see the tomb.

2 And see, there was a great earthquake, for a messenger of יוהו came down out of heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat on it.

3 And his appearance was like lightning, and his garments as white as snow.

4 And the guards trembled for fear of him, and became like dead men.

5 And the messenger responding, said to the women, “Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek יוהו who was impaled.

6 “He is not here, for He was raised, as He said. Come, see the place where the Master lay.

7 “And go quickly, say to His taught ones that He was raised from the dead, and see, He is going before you to Galil. There you shall see Him. See, I have told you.”

8 And they left the tomb quickly, with fear and great joy, and ran to report to His taught ones.

9 And as they were going to report to His taught ones, see, יוהו met them, saying, “Greetings!” And they came and held Him by the feet and did bow to Him.

10 Then יוהו said to them, “Do not be afraid. Go, report to My brothers, to go to Galil, and they shall see Me there.”

11 And while they were going, see, some of the watch having gone into the city, reported to the chief priests all that took place.

12 And when they came together with the elders and taken counsel, they gave enough silver to the soldiers, 13 saying, “Say that His taught ones came at night and stole Him away while we slept.

14 “And if this should be reported to the governor, we shall win him over and keep you out of trouble.”

15 And having taken the silver they did as they were instructed. And this account was widely spread among the Yehuḏim, to this day.

16 And the eleven taught ones went away into Galil, to the mountain which יהושע had appointed for them.

17 And when they saw Him, they bowed to Him, but some doubted.

18 And יהושע came up and spoke to them, saying, “All authority has been given to Me in heaven and on earth.

19 “Therefore, go and make taught ones of all the nations, immersing them in the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Set-apart Spirit, 20 teaching them to guard all that I have commanded you. And see, I am with you always, until the end of the age.” ἀμήν.

1 All the taught ones coming from all nations, not only from the Yehuḏim, are to be taught to observe all that יהושע had commanded.
The beginning of the Good News of Messiah, the Son of Elohim.

As it has been written in the Prophets, “See, I send My messenger before Your face, who shall prepare Your way before You.”

A voice of one crying in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way of יהוה, make His paths straight.’

Yoḥanan came immersing in the wilderness and proclaiming an immersion of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.

And all the country of Yehudah, and those of Yerushalayim, went out to him and were all immersed by him in the Yardên River, confessing their sins.

And Yoḥanan was clothed with camel’s hair and a leather girdle around his waist, and eating locusts and wild honey.

And he proclaimed, saying, “After me comes One who is mightier than I, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to stoop down and loosen.

“I indeed did immerse you in water, but He shall immerse you in the Set-apart Spirit.”

And it came to be in those days that came from Natsareth of Galil, and was immersed by Yoḥanan in the Yardên.

And immediately, coming up from the water, He saw the heavens being torn open and the Spirit coming down on Him like a dove.

And a voice came out of the heavens, “You are My Son, the Beloved, in whom I did delight.”

And immediately the Spirit drove Him into the wilderness.

And He was there in the wilderness forty days, tried by Satan, and was with the wild beasts. And the messengers attended Him.

And after Yoḥanan was delivered up, came to Galil, proclaiming the Good News of the reign of Elohim, and saying, “The time has been filled, and the reign of Elohim has come near. Repent, and believe in the Good News.”

And walking by the Sea of Galil, He saw Shim’on, and Andri his brother, casting a net into the sea, for they were fishers.

And said to them, “Come, follow Me, and I shall make you become fishers of men.”

And immediately they left their nets and followed Him.

And having gone on a little from there, He saw Ya’aqob the son of Zaḥdai, and Yoḥanan his brother, and they were in the boat mending their nets.

And immediately He called them, and leaving their father Zaḥdai in the boat with the hired servants, they went after Him.

And they went into Kephar Naḥum, and immediately on the Sabbath He went into the congregation and taught.

And they were astonished at His teaching, for He was teaching them as possessing authority, and not as the scribes.

And there was a man in their congregation with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, saying, “Ha! What have we to do with You, יהוה of Natsareth? Did You come to destroy us? I know who You are: the Set-apart One of Elohim!”

And rebuked him, saying, “Be silenced, and come out of him!”

And throwing him into convulsions, the unclean spirit called out with a loud voice, and came out of him.

And they were all so amazed, as to reason among themselves, saying, “What is this, a fresh teaching? With authority He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey Him!”

And news about Him immediately spread into all the country around Galil.

And coming out of the congregation, they went straight to the house of Shim’on and Andri, with Ya’aqoḇ and Yoḥanan.

30 And the mother-in-law of Shim’on lay sick with inflammation, and immediately they spoke to Him about her.

31 And having come, He took her by the hand and lifted her up, and immediately the inflammation left her, and she served them.

32 And when evening came, when the sun had set, they brought to Him all who were sick and those who were demon-possessed.

33 And the entire city had gathered at the door.

34 And He healed many who were sick with various diseases, and cast out many demons, and was not allowing the demons to speak, because they knew Him.

35 And having risen very early in the morning, while still dark, He went out, and went away to a lonely place, and there He prayed.

36 And Shim’on and those who were with Him searched for Him,

37 and when they found Him, they said to Him, “All are seeking You.”

38 And He said to them, “Let us go into the neighbouring towns, so that I proclaim there also, because for this I have come forth.”

39 And He was proclaiming in their congregations, in all Galil, and casting out demons.

40 And a leper came to Him, calling upon Him, kneeling down to Him and saying to Him, “If You desire, You are able to make me clean.”

41 And Ḥaḇaššaḇ, moved with compassion, stretched out His hand and touched him, and said to him, “I desire it. Be cleansed.”

42 And immediately the leprosy left him, and he was cleansed.

43 And having strictly warned him, He immediately sent him away,

44 and said to him, “See, say none at all to anyone, but go show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing what Mosheh ordered, as a witness to them.”

45 But he went out and began to publish it so much, and to spread the word, that Ḥaḇaššaḇ was no longer able to openly enter the city, but was outside in lonely places. Yet they came to Him from all directions.

2 And some days later He again entered into Kephar Naḥum, and it was heard that He was in the house.

2 And so many gathered together, that there was no more room, not even at the door. And He spoke the Word to them.

3 And they came to Him, bringing a paralytic, carried by four.

4 And not being able to come near Him because of the crowd, they uncovered the roof where He was. And when they had broken through, they let down the bed on which the paralytic was lying.

5 And when Ḥaḇaššaḇ saw their belief, He said to the paralytic, “Son, your sins are forgiven you.”

6 Now some of the scribes were sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

7 “Why does this One talk like this? He is blaspheming! Who is able to forgive sins but Elohim alone?”

8 And immediately Ḥaḇaššaḇ, knowing in His spirit that they were reasoning that way within themselves, said to them, “Why do you reason about all this in your hearts?

9 “Which is easier, to say to the paralytic, ‘Your sins are forgiven,’ or to say, ‘Rise, take up your bed and walk’?

10 “But in order for you to know that the Son of Aḏām possesses authority on earth to forgive sins...” He said to the paralytic,

11 “I say to you, rise, take up your bed, and go to your house.”

12 And he rose straightaway, and took up the bed, and went out before all, so that all were amazed and praised Elohim, saying, “We have never seen the like of it!”

13 And He went out again by the sea, and all the crowd was coming to Him, and He taught them.

14 And passing by, He saw Lēwi the son of Alphai sitting at the tax office, and said to him, “Follow Me.” And having risen he followed Him.

15 And it came to be, as He sat at the table at his house, that many tax collectors and sinners also sat with Ḥaḇaššaḇ and His taught ones, for there were many, and they followed Him.

16 And when the scribes and Pharisees saw Him eating with the tax collectors and sinners, they said to His taught ones, “Why does He eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?”

17 And hearing this, יeshua said to them, “Those who are strong have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. I did not come to call the righteous to repentance, but sinners.”

18 And the taught ones of Yoḥanan and of the Pharisees were fasting. And they came and said to Him, “Why do the taught ones of Yoḥanan and of the Pharisees fast, but Your taught ones do not fast?”

19 And יeshua said to them, “Are the friends of the bridegroom able to fast while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them they are not able to fast.

20 “But the days shall come when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then they shall fast in those days.

21 “And no one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, otherwise the renewed piece pulls away from the old, and the tear is made worse.

22 “And no one puts new wine into old wineskins, otherwise the new wine bursts the wineskins, and the wine runs out, and the wineskins are ruined. But new wine is to be put into fresh wineskins.”

23 And it came to be that He went through the grainfields on the Sabbath. And as they went His taught ones began to pluck heads of grain,

24 and the Pharisees said to Him, “Look, why do they do what is not right on the Sabbath?”

25 And He said to them, “Have you never read what Dawiḏ did when he had need and was hungry, he and those with him?

26 “How he went into the House of Elohim, while Ebyathar was high priest, and ate the showbread, which is not right to eat, except for the priests, and he gave it also to those who were with him?”

27 And He said to them, “The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath.

28 “So the Son of Aḏam is also Master of the Sabbath.”

3 And He went into the congregation again, and a man who had a withered hand was there.

2 And they were watching Him, whether He would heal him on the Sabbath, so as to accuse Him.

3 And He said to the man who had the withered hand, “Get up to the middle.”

4 And He said to them, “Is it right to do good on the Sabbath, or to do evil, to save life or to kill?” But they remained silent.

5 And having looked around on them with displeasure, being grieved at the hardness of their hearts, He said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored as healthy as the other.

6 And the Pharisees went out and immediately plotted with the Herodians against Him, how to destroy Him.

7 But יeshua withdrew with His taught ones to the sea. And a great crowd from Galil followed Him, and from Yehuḏah.

8 Even from Yerushalayim, and from Eḏom and beyond the Yardĕn, and those around Tsor and Tsiḏon, a large crowd came to Him when they heard how much He was doing.

9 And He spoke to His taught ones, that a small boat should be kept ready for Him because of the crowd, lest they should press upon Him.

10 For He healed many, so that as many as had afflictions fell upon Him to touch Him.

11 And the unclean spirits, whenever they saw Him, fell down before Him and cried out, saying, “You are the Son of Elohim.”

12 But He warned them many times that they should not make Him known.

13 And He went up on the mountain and called to Him whom He wished, and they came to Him.

See footnote Mt. 12:8.
14 And He appointed twelve to be with Him, and to be sent out to proclaim,
15 and to possess authority to heal sicknesses and to cast out demons.
16 And He appointed the twelve: Shim’on, to whom He added the name Kêpha;
17 and Ya’aqôb the son of Zabdai, and Yoḥanan the brother of Ya’aqôb, to whom He added the name Beni-Re’es, that is, “Sons of Thunder,”
18 and Andri, and Philip, and Bartholomi, and Mattithyahu, and T’oma, and Ya’aqôb son of Alphai, and Taddai, and Shim’on the Kena’anîte;
19 and YehuÅah from Qeriøth, who did also deliver Him up. And they went into a house, 20 and again the crowd came together, so that they were unable even to eat bread.
21 And when His relatives heard about this, they went out to seize Him, for they said, “He is out of His mind.”
22 And the scribes who came down from Yerushalayim said, “He has BeÈelzebul,” and, “He casts out demons by the ruler of the demons.”
23 And calling them near He said to them in parables, “How is Satan able to cast out Satan?
24 “And if a reign is divided against itself, that reign is unable to stand.
25 “And if a house is divided against itself, that house is unable to stand.
26 “And if Satan has risen up against himself, and is divided, he is unable to stand, but has an end.
27 “No one is able to enter a strong man’s house and plunder his goods, unless he first binds the strong man, and then he shall plunder his house.
28 “Truly, I say to you, all the sins shall be forgiven the sons of men, and whatever blasphemies they speak, 29 but he who blasphemes against the Set-apart Spirit has no forgiveness forever, but is subject to everlasting judgment,” 30 because they said, “He has an unclean spirit.”
31 And His brothers and His mother came, and standing outside they sent to Him, calling Him.
32 And a crowd was sitting around Him, calling Him.
33 But He answered them, saying, “Who is My mother, or My brothers?”
34 And looking about on those sitting round Him, He said, “See My mother and My brothers!
35 “For whoever does the desire of Elohim is My brother and My sister and mother.”

4 And He began to teach again by the sea, and a large crowd was gathered to Him, so that He entered into a boat, to sit in the sea. And all the crowd was on the land facing the sea.
2 And He taught them much in parables, and said to them in His teaching:
3 “Listen! See, a sower went out to sow. e
4 “And it came to be, as he sowed, some fell by the wayside, and the birds of the heaven came and devoured it.
5 “And other fell on rocky places, where it had not much soil. And immediately it sprang up because it had no depth of soil.
6 “But when the sun was up it was scorched, and because it had no root it withered away.
7 “And other fell among thorns. And the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no crop.
8 “And other fell on good soil and yielded a crop that came up, grew and yielded a crop, some thirtyfold, and some sixty, and some a hundred.”
9 And He said to them, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear!”
10 And when He was alone, those about Him, with the twelve, asked Him about the parable.
11 And He said to them, “To you it has been given to know the secret of the reign of Elohim, but to those who are outside, all are done in parables, 12 so that ‘seeing they see but do not perceive, and hearing they hear but do not understand, lest they should turn and their sins be forgiven them.’”

13 And He said to them, “Do you not understand this parable? How then shall you understand all the parables?

14 “The sower sows the word.

15 “These, then, are the ones by the wayside where the word is sown. And when they hear, Satan comes immediately and takes away the word that was sown in their hearts.

16 “And likewise these are the ones sown on rocky places, who, when they hear the word, immediately receive it with joy, 17 and they have no root in themselves, but are short-lived. Then when pressure or persecution arises because of the word, immediately they stumble.

18 “And others are those sown among thorns, these are they who hear the word, 19 and the worries of this age, and the deceit of riches, and the desires for other matters, entering in, choke the word, and it becomes fruitless.

20 “And those sown on good soil, are those who hear the word, and accept it, and bear fruit, some thirtyfold, and some sixty, and some a hundred.”

21 And He said to them, “Would a lamp be brought to be put under a basket or under a bed? Is it not to be put on a lampstand?

22 “For whatever is hidden shall be revealed, and whatever has been kept secret, shall come to light.

23 “If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear.”

24 And He said to them, “Take heed what you hear. With the same measure you use, it shall be measured to you, and more shall be added to you who hear.

25 “For whoever possesses, to him more shall be given; but whoever does not possess, even what he possesses shall be taken away from him.”

26 And He said, “The reign of Elohim is as when a man scatters seed on the ground, 27 then sleeps by night and rises by day, while the seed sprouts and grows, he himself does not know how.

28 “For the soil yields crops by itself: first the blade, then the head, after that the completed grain in the head.

29 “And when the crop is ready, immediately he puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come.”

30 And He said, “To what shall we compare the reign of Elohim? Or with what parable shall we present it?

31 “Like a mustard seed, which, when it is sown on the ground, is smaller than all the seeds on earth, 32 and when it is sown, it grows up and becomes greater than all plants, and forms large branches, so that the birds of the heaven are able to nest under its shade.”

33 And with many such parables He was speaking to them the word as they were able to hear, 34 “and He was not speaking to them without parables. And when they were alone, He explained all to His taught ones.

35 And on the same day, when evening had come, He said to them, “Let us pass over to the other side.”

36 And having left the crowd, they took Him along in the boat, as He was. And other little boats were also with Him.

37 And there came a great windstorm, and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was already being filled.

38 And He was in the stern, asleep on a cushion. And they woke Him up and said to Him, “Teacher, is it no concern to You that we perish?”

39 And having been awakened He rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Peace, be still!” And the wind ceased and there was a great calm.

40 And He said to them, “Why are you so afraid? Have you not yet belief?”

41 And they feared exceedingly, and asked each other, “Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey Him!”

5 And they came to the other side of the sea, to the country of the GaÅarenes.

And when He came out of the boat, immediately there met Him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,

3 who had his dwelling among the tombs. And no one was able to bind him, not even with chains,
4 because he had often been bound with shackles and chains but the chains had been pulled apart by him, and the shackles broken in pieces, and no one was able to tame him.
5 And continually, night and day, he was in the mountains and in the tombs, crying out and cutting himself with stones.
6 And seeing \textit{עַלְמָנוּן} from a distance, he ran and bowed down to Him,
7 and having called out with a loud voice, said, “What have I to do with You, \textit{עַלְמָנוּן}, Son of the Most High El? Swear to Elohim not to torture me.”
8 For He had said to him, “Come out of the man, unclean spirit!”
9 And He was asking him, “What is your name?” And he answered, saying, “My name is Legion, because we are many.”
10 And he begged Him very much that He would not send them out of the country.
11 Now a great herd of pigs was there, feeding near the mountains.
12 And all the demons begged Him, saying, “Send us to the pigs, so that we enter into them.”
13 And He gave them permission. And the unclean spirits came out and entered into the pigs – they were about two thousand – and the herd rushed down the steep place into the sea, and drowned in the sea.
14 And those who fed the pigs fled, and reported it in the city and in the country. And they went out to see what had taken place.
15 So they came to \textit{עַלְמָנוּן}, and saw the demon-possessed one, him who had the legion, sitting, and dressed, and in his right mind. And they were afraid.
16 And those who saw it related to them what was done to the demon-possessed one, and about the pigs.
17 And they began to plead with Him to leave their borders.
18 And as He was entering into the boat, he who had been demon-possessed begged Him that he might be with Him.
19 And \textit{עַלְמָנוּן} did not allow him, but said to him, “Go home to your friends, and report to them what the Master has done for you, and how He had compassion on you.”
20 And he left and began to proclaim in Dekapolis all that \textit{עַלְמָנוּן} had done for him, and all marvelled.
21 And when \textit{עַלְמָנוּן} had passed over again by boat to the other side, a large crowd assembled to Him, and He was by the sea.
22 And see, one of the rulers of the congregation came, Ya’ir by name. And when he saw Him, he fell at His feet,
23 and begged Him strongly, saying, “My little daughter lies at the point of death. Come, lay Your hands on her to heal her, and she shall live.”
24 And He went with him. And a large crowd was following Him, and they were thronging Him.
25 And a certain woman had a flow of blood for twelve years,
26 and had suffered much from many physicians, and spent all that she had and was no better, but rather became worse.
27 Having heard about \textit{עַלְמָנוּן}, she came behind Him in the crowd and touched His garment,
28 for she said, “If I only touch His garments, I shall be made well.”
29 And immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of the affliction.
30 And immediately \textit{עַלְמָנוּן}, knowing in Himself that power had gone out of Him, turned around in the crowd and said, “Who touched My garments?”
31 And His taught ones said to Him, “You see the crowd is thronging You, and You say, ‘Who touched Me?’”
32 And He was looking around to see her who did this.
33 And the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what was done to her, came and fell down before Him and spoke to Him all the truth.
34 And He said to her, “Daughter, your belief has healed you. Go in peace, and be relieved from your affliction.”
35 As He was speaking, they came from the ruler of the congregation’s house, saying to him, “Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the Teacher any further?”

But having heard the word that was spoken, γὰρ said to the ruler of the congregation, “Do not be afraid – only believe.”

And He allowed no one to follow Him except Kêpha, and Ya’aqôb, and Yo’hânân the brother of Ya’aqôb.

So they came to the house of the ruler of the congregation, and saw a commotion, and much weeping and lamenting.

And coming in He said to them, “Why make this commotion and weep? The child has not died, but is sleeping.”

And they were laughing at Him. And when He had put them all out, He took the father and the mother of the child, and those who were with Him, and went in where the child was lying.

And taking the child by the hand He said to her, “Talitha, qumi,” which is translated, “Little girl, I say to you, arise.”

And immediately the girl rose up and was walking, for she was twelve years old. And they were completely astonished.

But He ordered them many times that no one should know it, and said that she should be given food to eat.

And He went away from there and came to His own country, and His taught ones followed Him.

And Sabbath having come, He began to teach in the congregation. And many who heard Him were astonished, saying, “Where did He get all this? And what wisdom is this which is given to Him, that such miracles are done through His hands?”

“Is this not the carpenter, the Son of Miryam, and brother of Ya’aqôb, and Yo’sèph, and Yehu’dah, and Shim’ôn? And are not His sisters here with us?” And they stumbled in Him.

And γὰρ said to them, “A prophet is not unappreciated except in his own country, and among his own relatives, and in his own house.”

And He was unable to do any miracle there, except that He laid His hands on a few sick ones and healed them.

And He marvelled because of their unbelief. And He was going around among the villages, teaching.

And He called the twelve near, and began to send them out two by two, and gave them authority over unclean spirits.

And He instructed them to take none at all for the journey except a staff – no bag, no bread, no copper in their money belts, but to wear sandals, and not to wear two undergarments.

And He said to them, “Wherever you enter into a house, stay there until you leave that place.

“And any place that does not receive you or listen to you, when you leave there, shake off the dust under your feet as a witness against them. Truly, I say to you, it shall be more bearable for Sêdom and Amorah in the day of judgment than for that city!”

And they went out and proclaimed that men should repent.

And they were casting out many demons, and they were anointing with oil many who were sick, and they were healing them.

And Sovereign Herodes heard, for His Name had become well-known. And he said, “Yo’hânân the Immerser has been raised from the dead, and because of this these powers are at work in him.”

Others said, “He is Éliyahu.” And others said, “He is a prophet – like one of the prophets.”

But when Herodes heard, he said, “This one is Yo’hânân whom I beheaded, he has been raised from the dead!”

For Herodes himself had sent and seized Yo’hânân, and bound him in prison because of Herodias, his brother Philip’s wife, because he had married her, for Yo’hânân had said to Herodes, “It is not right for you to have your brother’s wife.”

So Herodias held a grudge against him and wished to kill him, but was unable, for Herodes feared Yo’hânan, knowing that he was a righteous and set-apart man, and he protected him. And when he heard him, he was much perplexed, yet heard him gladly.

21 And a suitable day came when Herodes on his birthday gave a feast for his great men, and the high officers, and the chief men of Galil.

22 And when the daughter of Herodias herself came in and danced, and pleased Herodes and those who sat with him, the sovereign said to the girl, “Ask me whatever you wish, and I shall give it to you.”

23 And he swore to her, “Whatever you ask me, I shall give you, up to half of my reign.”

24 And she went out and said to her mother, “What shall I ask?” And she said, “The head of Yohanan the Immerser!”

25 And coming in immediately with haste to the sovereign she asked, saying, “I wish that you give me at once the head of Yohanan the Immerser on a dish.”

26 And the sovereign, becoming deeply grieved, because of the oaths, and because of those who sat with him, did not wish to refuse her.

27 And the sovereign straightaway sent an executioner and commanded his head to be brought. And he went and beheaded him in prison, 28 and brought his head on a dish, and gave it to the girl. And the girl gave it to her mother.

29 And when his taught ones heard of it, they came and took away his dead body and laid it in a tomb.

30 And the emissaries gathered to and reported to Him all, both what they had done and what they had taught.

31 And He said to them, “Come aside by yourselves to a lonely place and rest a little” – for there were many coming and going, and they did not even have time to eat.

32 And they went away to a lonely place in the boat by themselves.

33 But they saw them going, and many recognised Him and ran there on foot from all the cities, and came before them and came together to Him.

34 And having gone out, saw a large crowd and was moved with compassion for them because they were like sheep not having a shepherd. And He began to teach them many matters.

35 And as the hour grew late, His taught ones came to Him and said, “This is a lonely place, and now the hour is late.

36 “Send them away, so that they go into the surrounding country and villages and buy themselves bread, since they have no food to eat.”

37 But He answering, said to them, “You give them to eat.” And they said to Him, “Should we go and buy two hundred silver pieces worth of bread and give them to eat?”

38 Then He said to them, “How many loaves do you have? Go and see.” And when they found out they said, “Five, and two fishes.”

39 And He ordered them to make them all sit down in groups on the green grass.

40 And they sat down in groups, in hundreds and in fifties.

41 And taking the five loaves and the two fishes, looking up to the heaven, He blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to His taught ones to set before them. And the two fishes He divided among them all.

42 And all ate and were satisfied.

43 And they picked up twelve baskets, filled with pieces, also from the fishes.

44 Now those who ate the loaves were about five thousand men.

45 And immediately He made His taught ones enter into the boat, and to go before Him to the other side, to Beyth Tsaiđa, while He was dismissing the crowd.

46 And having sent them away, He went away to the mountain to pray.

47 And when evening came, the boat was in the middle of the sea. And He was alone on the land.

48 And seeing them straining at rowing – for the wind was against them – at about the fourth watch of the night, He came to them walking on the sea, and He wished to pass them by.

49 And when they saw Him walking on the sea, they thought it was a phantom, and cried out,
50 for they all saw Him and were troubled. And immediately He spoke to them and said to them, “Take courage, it is I. Do not be afraid.”
51 And He went up to them, into the boat, and the wind ceased. And they were exceedingly amazed in themselves, and marvelled.
52 For they did not understand about the loaves, because their heart was hardened.
53 And having passed over, they came to the land of Gennesar and drew to shore.
54 And when they came out of the boat, He was immediately recognised, 55 and all that neighbourhood ran about, and began to carry about on beds those who were sick to wherever they heard He was.
56 And wherever He went, into villages, or cities, or the country, they were laying the sick in the market-places, and begged Him to let them touch if only the tzitzit / of His garment. And as many as touched Him were healed.

7 And the Pharisees and some of the scribes assembled to Him, having come from Yerushalayim.
2 And seeing some of His taught ones eat bread with defiled, that is, with unwashed hands, they found fault.
3 For the Pharisees, and all the YehuÅim, do not eat unless they wash their hands thoroughly, holding fast the tradition of the elders,

4 and coming from the market-place, they do not eat unless they wash. And there are many other traditions which they have received and hold fast – the washing of cups and utensils and copper vessels and couches.

5 Then the Pharisees and scribes asked Him, “Why do Your taught ones not walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands?”
6 And He answering, said to them, “Well did Yeshayahu prophesy concerning you hypocrites, as it has been written, ‘This people respect Me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me.
7 And in vain do they worship Me, teaching as teachings the commands of men.’ /

8 “Forsaking the command of Elohim, you hold fast the tradition of men.”
9 And He said to them, “Well do you set aside the command of Elohim, in order to guard your tradition.
10 “For Mosheh said, ‘Respect your father and your mother,’ and, ‘He who curses father or mother, let him be put to death.’
11 “But you say, ‘If a man says to his father or mother, ‘Whatever profit you might have received from me, is Qorban (that is, a gift),’

12 you no longer let him do any matter at all for his father or his mother, 13 nullifying the Word of Elohim through your tradition which you have handed down. And many such traditions you do.”
14 And calling the crowd to Him, He said to them, “Hear Me, everyone, and understand:
15 “There is no matter that enters a man from outside which is able to defile him, but it is what comes out of him that defiles the man.
16 “If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear!”
17 And when He went from the crowd into a house, His taught ones asked Him concerning the parable.
18 And He said to them, “Are you also without understanding? Do you not perceive that whatever enters a man from outside is unable to defile him, 19 because it does not enter his heart but his stomach, and is eliminated, thus purging all the foods?” /
20 And He said, “What comes out of a man, that defiles a man.
21 “For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil reasonings, adulteries, whorings, murders,
22 thefts, greedy desires, wickednesses, deceit, indecency, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness.
23 “All these wicked matters come from within and defile a man.”
24 And rising up from there He went to the borders of Tsor and Tsiôn. And entering into a house He wished no one to know it, but it was impossible to be hidden.
25 For a woman whose young daughter had an unclean spirit heard about Him, and she came and fell at His feet.
26 Now the woman was a Greek, a Syro-Phoenician by birth, and she kept asking Him to cast the demon out of her daughter.
27 And said to her, “Let the children be satisfied first, for it is not good to take the children’s bread and throw it to the little dogs.”
28 But she answering, said to Him, “Yea, Master, for even the little dogs under the table eat from the children’s crumbs.”
29 And He said to her, “Because of this word go, the demon has gone out of your daughter.”
30 And having come into her house, she found the demon gone out, and her daughter lying on the bed.
31 And again, going out from the borders of Tsor and Tsiôn, He came to the Sea of Galil, through the midst of the borders of Dekapolis.
32 And they brought to Him one who was deaf and spoke with difficulty, and they begged Him to lay His hand upon him.
33 And taking him away from the crowd, He put His fingers in his ears, and having spit, He touched his tongue.
34 And looking up to the heaven, He sighed, and said to him, “Ephphatha,” that is, “Be opened.”
35 And immediately his ears were opened, and the binding of his tongue was loosed, and he was speaking plainly.
36 And He ordered them, that they should say it to no one, but the more He ordered them, the more they published it.
37 And they were immeasurably astonished, saying, “He has done all well. He makes even the deaf to hear and the dumb to speak.”

8 In those days, the crowd being very great and not having any to eat, עשתה, called His taught ones near and said to them,
2“I have compassion on the crowd, for they have now been with Me three days and do not have food to eat.
3“And if I dismiss them unfed to their home, they shall faint on the way, for some of them have come from far.”
4 And His taught ones answered Him, “How shall anyone be able to feed these people with bread here in the desert?”
5 And He asked them, “How many loaves do you have?” And they said, “Seven.”
6 And He commanded the crowd to sit down on the ground. And taking the seven loaves, giving thanks, He broke them and gave them to His taught ones to set before them. And they set them before the crowd.
7 And they had a few small fishes. And having blessed, He said to set them also before them.
8 And they ate and were satisfied, and they picked up seven large baskets of broken pieces.
9 And those eating were about four thousand, and He dismissed them.
10 And immediately entering into the boat with His taught ones, He came to the parts of Dalmanutha.
11 And the Pharisees came out and began to dispute with Him, seeking from Him a sign from heaven, trying Him.
12 And sighing deeply in His spirit He said, “Why does this generation seek a sign? Truly, I say to you, no sign shall be given to this generation.”
13 And leaving them, again entering into the boat, He went away to the other side.
14 And they had forgotten to take bread, and they did not have more than one loaf with them in the boat.
15 And He was warning them, saying, “Mind! Beware of the leaven of the k See footnote at Mt. 15:27.

Pharisees and of the leaven of Herodes.”

16 And they were reasoning with one another, saying, “Because we have no bread.”

17 And being aware of it, said to them, “Why do you reason because you have no bread? Do you not yet perceive nor understand? Is your heart still hardened?

18 “Having eyes, do you not see? And having ears, do you not hear? And do you not remember?

19 “When I broke the five loaves for the five thousand, how many baskets filled with broken pieces did you pick up?” They said to Him, “Twelve.”

20 “And when I broke the seven for the four thousand, how many large baskets filled with broken pieces did you pick up?” And they said, “Seven.”

21 And He said to them, “How do you not understand?”

22 And He came to Bethsaida, and they brought a blind man to Him, and begged Him to touch him.

23 And taking the blind man by the hand He led him out of the village. And having spit on his eyes, laying hands on him, He asked him, “Do you see at all?”

24 And he looked up and said, “I see men like trees, walking.”

25 Then He placed His hands on his eyes again and made him look up. And he was restored, and saw all clearly.

26 And He sent him away to his home, saying, “Do not go into the village.”

27 And His taught ones went out to the villages of Caesarea Philippi. And on the way He asked His taught ones, saying to them, “Who do men say I am?”

28 And they said to Him, “Yoḥanan the Immerser, and others, Âliyahu, but others, one of the prophets.”

29 And He asked them, “And you, who do you say I am?” And Kêpha answering, said to Him, “You are the Messiah.”

30 And He warned them that they should speak to no one about Him.

31 And He began to teach them that the Son of Aḏām has to suffer much, and be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and after three days to rise again.

32 And He was speaking about this openly. Then Kêpha, taking Him aside, began to rebuke Him.

33 And turning around and seeing His taught ones, He rebuked Kêpha, saying, “Get behind Me, Satan! For your thoughts are not those of Elohim, but those of men.”

34 And calling near the crowd with His taught ones, He said to them, “Whoever desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his stake, and follow Me.

35 “For whoever desires to save his life shall lose it, but whoever loses his life for the sake of Me and the Good News, he shall save it.

36 “For what shall it profit a man if he gains all the world, and loses his own life?

37 “Or what shall a man give in exchange for his life?

38 “For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words in this adulterous and sinning generation, of him the Son of Aḏām also shall be ashamed when He comes in the esteem of His Father with the set-apart messengers.”

9 And He said to them, “Truly, I say to you that there are some standing here who shall not taste of death at all until they see the reign of Elohim having come in power:”

2 And after six days took Kêpha, and Ya’aqob, and Yoḥanan, and led them up on a high mountain alone by themselves. And He was transformed before them.

3 And His garments became glittering, exceedingly white, like snow, such as no launderer on earth is able to whiten.

4 And there appeared to them Ėliyahu

1 Ėliyahu often has to touch our eyes a second time before we clearly see all the vital teachings of the Messianic Worship!

m Then they saw it in vv. 2-7!  n See Mt. 17:2-9, Lk. 9:28-35, Lk. 16:31, Yn. 5:47, Mal. 4:4-5. A possible explanation: Mosheh represents the Law and Eliyahu represents the Prophets, which is a term used for the pre-Messianic Scriptures. So these two stand beside, all three speaking in unity.
with Mosheh, " and they were talking with יִרְשָׁהוּ.

5 And Kêpha responding, said to יִרְשָׁהוּ, “Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. And let us make three booths, one for You, and one for Mosheh, and one for Ėliyahu,” 6because he did not know what to say, for they were exceedingly afraid.

7 And there came a cloud overshadowing them, and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, “This is My Son, the Beloved. Hear Him!”

8 And suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone with them, but only יִרְשָׁהוּ.

9 And as they were coming down from the mountain, He ordered them not to relate to anyone what they saw, till the Son of Aḏām had risen from the dead.

10 And they kept this matter to themselves, debating what the rising from the dead meant.

11 And they asked Him, saying, “Why do the scribes say that Ėliyahu has to come first?”

12 And He said to them, “Ēliyahu indeed, having come first, restores all matters. ° And how has it been written concerning the Son of Aḏām, that He is to suffer much and be despised?

13 “But I say to you that even Ėliyahu has come, and they did to him whatever they wished, as it has been written of him.”

14 And coming to the taught ones, He saw a large crowd around them, and scribes disputing with them.

15 And immediately, when all the crowd saw Him, they were greatly astonished, and running near, greeted Him.

16 And He asked the scribes, “What are you disputing with them?”

17 And one of the crowd answering, said, “Teacher, I brought You my son, who has a dumb spirit.

18 “And wherever he seizes him, he throws him down, and he foams at the mouth, and gnashes his teeth, and he wastes away. And I spoke to Your taught ones, that they should cast him out, but they were not able.”

19 And He answered him and said, “O unbelieving generation, how long shall I be with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him to Me.”

20 So they brought him to Him. And when he saw Him, immediately the spirit threw him into convulsions. And falling on the ground, he rolled about, foaming at the mouth.

21 And He asked his father, “How long has he been like this?” And he said, “From childhood, 22 and often he has thrown him both into the fire and into the water to destroy him. But if it is at all possible for You, have compassion on us and help us.”

23 And יִרְשָׁהוּ said to him, “If you are able to believe, all is possible to him who believes.”

24 And immediately the father of the child cried out and said with tears, “I believe Master, help my unbelief!”

25 And when יִרְשָׁהוּ saw that a crowd came running together, He rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to him, “You deaf and dumb spirit, I order you, come out of him, and never again enter into him!”

26 And crying out, and convulsing him much, it came out of him. And he became as one dead, so that many said that he was dead.

27 But יִרְשָׁהוּ, taking him by the hand, lifted him up, and he arose.

28 And when He came into a house, His taught ones asked Him separately, “Why were we unable to cast him out?”

29 And He said to them, “It is impossible for this kind to come out except through prayer and fasting.”

30 And going from there they passed through Galil. And He did not wish anyone to know,

31 for He was teaching His taught ones and said to them, “The Son of Aḏām is being delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill Him. And having been killed, He shall rise the third day.”

32 But they did not understand the word, and they were afraid to ask Him.

And they came to Kephar Naḥum, and having come in the house He asked them, “What was it you disputed among yourselves on the way?”

And they were silent, for on the way they had disputed with one another who was the greatest.

And sitting down, He called the twelve and said to them, “If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be last of all and servant of all.”

And He took a little child and set him in their midst, and taking him in His arms, He said to them,

“Whoever receives one of such little children in My Name receives Me. And whoever receives Me, receives not Me, but the One who sent Me.”

And Yoḥanan said to Him, “Teacher, we saw someone, who does not follow us, casting out demons in Your Name, and we forbade him because he does not follow us.”

“What did Mosheh command you?”

And they said, “Mosheh allowed a man to write a certificate of divorce, and to put her away.”

And He answering, said to them, “According to the hardness of your heart he wrote you this command.

“However, from the beginning of the creation, Elohim ‘made them male and female.’

“For this cause a man shall leave his father and mother and cleave to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh, so that they are no longer two, but one flesh.

“Therefore what Elohim has joined together, let man not separate.”

And in the house His taught ones asked Him about this again.

And He said to them, “Whoever puts away his wife and marries another commits adultery against her.

“And if a woman puts away her husband and marries another, she commits adultery.”

Which means: to cause him/her to sin.
13 And they were bringing little children for Him to touch them, but the taught ones were rebuking those who were bringing them.

14 And when ἤγγισεν saw it, He was much displeased and said to them, “Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them, for of such is the reign of Elohim.

15 “Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the reign of Elohim as a little child, shall certainly not enter into it.”

16 And taking them up in His arms, laying His hands on them, He blessed them.

17 And as He was setting out on the way, one came running, and knelt before Him, and asked Him, “Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit everlasting life?”

18 And ἤγγισεν said to him, “Why do you call Me good? No one is good except One – Elohim.

19 “You know the commands, ‘Do not commit adultery,’ ‘Do not murder,’ ‘Do not steal,’ ‘Do not bear false witness,’ ‘Do not rob,’ ‘Respect your father and your mother.’ ”

20 And he answering, said to Him, “Teacher, all these I have watched over from my youth.”

21 And ἤγγισεν, looking at him, loved him, and said to him, “One matter you lack: Go, sell all you possess and give to the poor, and you shall have treasure in heaven. And come, follow Me, taking up the stake.”

22 But he, being sad at this word, went away grieved, for he had many possessions.

23 And ἤγγισεν, looking around, said to His taught ones, “How hard it is for those who have riches to enter into the reign of Elohim!”

24 And the taught ones were astonished at His words. And ἤγγισεν responding, said to them again, “Children, how hard it is for those who trust in riches to enter into the reign of Elohim!

25 “It is easier for a camel to enter through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter into the reign of Elohim.”

26 And they were immeasurably astonished, saying among themselves, “Who then is able to be saved?”

27 And looking at them, ἤγγισεν said, “With men it is impossible, but not with Elohim, for with Elohim all is possible.”

28 And Kēpha began to say to Him, “See, we have left all and we have followed You.”

29 ἤγγισεν said, “Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or lands, for the sake of Me and the Good News, 30 who shall not receive a hundredfold now in this time, houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions, and in the age to come, everlasting life.

31 “But many who are first shall be last, and the last first.”

32 And they were on the way, going up to Yerushalayim, and ἤγγισεν was going before them. And they were astonished, and those who followed were afraid. And again He took the twelve aside and began to say to them what was about to befall Him:

33 “See, we are going up to Yerushalayim, and the Son of AÅam shall be delivered to the chief priests and to the scribes, and they shall condemn Him to death and shall deliver Him to the gentiles, 34 and they shall mock Him, and flog Him, and spit on Him, and kill Him. And the third day He shall rise again.”

35 And YaÈaqoÄ and YoÁanan, the sons of ZaÄdai, came up to Him, saying, “Teacher, we wish that You would do for us whatever we ask.”

36 And He said to them, “What do you wish Me to do for you?”

37 And they said to Him, “Grant us to be seated in Your esteem, one on Your right hand and the other on Your left.”

38 But ἤγγισεν said to them, “You do not know what you ask. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, and be immersed with the immersion that I am immersed with?”

39 And they said to Him, “We are able.”

See footnote Mt. 5:32.
And ἀνῶν ὑμῖν said to them, “You shall indeed drink the cup that I drink, and with the immersion I am immersed with you shall be immersed.

but to sit on My right hand and on My left is not Mine to give, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared.”

And when the ten heard it, they began to be sorely displeased with Ya‘aqob and Yohanan.

And ἀνῶν, calling them near, said to them, “You know that those who think to rule the gentiles are masters over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them.

“But it is not so among you, but whoever wishes to become great among you shall be your servant.

“Whoever wishes to be first among you, shall be servant of all.

“For even the Son of Aḏâm did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many.”

And they came to Yeriḏo. And as He was leaving Yeriḏo with His taught ones and a large crowd, blind Bartimai, the son of Timai, was sitting by the way begging.

And ἀνῶν ὑμῖν said, “You know that those who think to rule the gentiles are masters over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them.

And ἀνῶν, calling them near, said to them, “You know that those who think to rule the gentiles are masters over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them.

“But it is not so among you, but whoever wishes to become great among you shall be your servant.

“Whoever wishes to be first among you, shall be servant of all.

“For even the Son of Aḏâm did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many.”

And they came to Yeriḏo. And as He was leaving Yeriḏo with His taught ones and a large crowd, blind Bartimai, the son of Timai, was sitting by the way begging.

And ἀνῶν, calling them near, said to them, “You know that those who think to rule the gentiles are masters over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them.

“Whoever wishes to be first among you, shall be servant of all.

“For even the Son of Aḏâm did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give His life a ransom for many.”

And they said to them, as ἀνῶν ὑμῖν had said. So they let them go.

And they brought the colt to ἀνῶν ὑμῖν and threw their garments on it, and He sat on it.

And many spread their garments on the way, and others were cutting down branches from the trees and were spreading them on the way.

And those going before and those following cried out, saying, “Hoshia-na! ‘Blessed is He who is coming in the Name of Ἡωθή!’

Blessed is the coming reign of our father Dawid – in the Name of Ἡωθή! Hoshia-na in the highest!”

And they went into Yerushalayim and into the Set-apart Place. And having looked around on all, He went out to Bêyth Anyah with the twelve, as the hour was already late.

And on the next day, when they had come out from Bêyth Anyah, He was hungry.

And seeing at a distance a fig tree having leaves, He went to see whether He would find any fruit on it. And when He came to it, He found none but leaves, for it was not the season for figs.

And ἀνῶν, responding, said to it, “Let no one eat fruit from you ever again.” And His taught ones heard it.

And they came to Yerushalayim.
entering into the Set-apart Place, began to drive out those who bought and sold in the Set-apart Place, and overturned the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those selling doves.
16 And He did not allow anyone to carry a vessel through the Set-apart Place.
17 And He was teaching, saying to them,
"Has it not been written, ‘My House shall be called a house of prayer for all nations’?
But you have made it a ‘den of robbers.’"
18 And the scribes and the chief priests heard it and they were seeking how to destroy Him, for they feared Him, because all the crowd was astonished at His teaching.
19 And when evening came, He went out of the city.
20 And in the morning, passing by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the roots.
21 Then Kêpha, remembering, said to Him, “Rabbi, look! The fig tree which You cursed has withered.”
22 And answering, said to them,
“Have belief in Elohim.
23 “For truly, I say to you, whoever says to this mountain, ‘Be removed and be thrown into the sea,’ and does not doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says, shall be done, he shall have whatever he says.
24 “Because of this I say to you, whatever you ask when you pray, believe that you receive them, and you shall have them.
25 “And whenever you stand praying, if you hold whatever against anyone, forgive, so that your Father in the heavens shall also forgive you your trespasses.
26 “But if you do not forgive, neither shall your Father in the heavens forgive your trespasses.”
27 And they came again to Yerushalayim.
And as He was walking in the Set-apart
Place, the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders came to Him,
28 and they said to Him, “By what authority are You doing these? And who gave You this authority to do these?”
29 And answering, said to them, “I shall ask you one question, and answer Me, and I shall say to you by what authority I do these:
30 "The immersion of Yoḥanan – was it from heaven or from men? Answer Me."
31 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He shall say, ‘Then why did you not believe him?’ 32 “But if we say, ‘From men’ – they feared the people, for all held that Yoḥanan was a prophet indeed.
33 And answering they said to Ṭehô, "We do not know.” And Ṭehô answering, said to them, “Neither do I say to you by what authority I do these.”

12 And He began to speak to them in parables, “A man planted a vineyard and put a hedge around it, and dug a vat for the winepress and built a watchtower, and let it out to farmers and went away.
2 "And at harvest time he sent a servant to the farmers, to receive some of the fruit of the vineyard from the farmers.
3 “And they seized him and beat him and sent him away empty-handed.
4 “And again he sent them another servant, and throwing stones at him, they wounded him in the head, and sent him away, having insulted him.
5 “And again he sent another, and they killed him; and many others, beating some and killing some.
6 “He had one more son, his beloved. He sent him last of all, saying, ‘They shall respect my son.’
7 “But those farmers said among themselves, ‘This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.’
8 “So they took him and killed him and threw him out of the vineyard.
9 “What then shall the owner of the vineyard do? He shall come and destroy the farmers, and give the vineyard to others.
10 “Have you not read this Scripture, ‘The stone which the builders rejected has become the chief corner-stone.
11 ‘This was from ḤWHY, and it is marvellous in our eyes’?”
12 And they were seeking to seize Him, but feared the crowd, for they knew He had spoken the parable against them. And leaving Him, they went away.
13 And they sent to Him some of the Pharisees and the Herodians, to catch Him in a word.

14 And when they came, they said to Him, “Teacher, we know that You are true, and it does not concern You about anyone, for You are not partial to any, but teach the way of Elohim in truth. Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"

15 “Should we pay, or should we not pay?” And He, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, “Why do you try Me? Bring Me a silver piece to look at.”

16 And they brought it, and He said to them, “Whose likeness and inscription is this?” And they said to Him, “Caesar’s.”

17 So aSWHY said to them, “Give to Caesar what is Caesar’s, and to Elohim what is Elohim’s.” And they marvelled at Him.

18 And Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection, came to Him. And they asked Him, saying, 19 “Teacher, Mosheh wrote to us that if a brother of anyone dies, and leaves his wife behind, and leaves no children, his brother should take his wife and raise up offspring for his brother.

20 “There were seven brothers, and the first took a wife, and died, leaving no offspring.

21 “And the second took her, and he died, leaving behind no offspring. And the third likewise.

22 “And the seven left no offspring. Last of all the woman died too.

23 “In the resurrection then, when they rise, whose wife shall she be? For seven had her as wife.”

24 And יְהֹוָה answering, said to them, “Is this not why you go astray, because you do not know the Scriptures s nor the power of Elohim?

25 “For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are as messengers in the heavens.

26 “And concerning the dead, that they rise – have you not read in the book of Mosheh, at the bush, how Elohim spoke to him, saying, ‘I am the Elohim of Abraham, and the Elohim of Yitsḥaq, and the Elohim of Ya’aqob’?

27 “He is not the Elohim of the dead, but Elohim of the living. You, then, go greatly astray.”

28 And one of the scribes coming near, hearing them reasoning together, knowing that He had answered them well, asked Him, “Which is the first command of all?”

29 And יְהֹוָה answered him, “The first of all the commands is, ‘Hear, O Yisra’ël, our Elohim, יהוה, is one.

30 “And you shall love יהוה your Elohim with all your heart, and with all your being, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.’ This is the first command.

31 “And the second, like it, is this, ‘You shall love your neighbour as yourself.’ There is no other command greater than these.”

32 And the scribe said to Him, “Well said, Teacher. You have spoken the truth, for there is one Elohim, and there is no other besides Him.

33 “And to love Him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the being, and to love one’s neighbour as oneself, is more than all the burnt offerings and offerings.”

34 And when יְהֹוָה saw that he answered wisely, He said to him, “You are not far from the reign of Elohim.” And after that no one was bold enough to question Him.

35 And aSWHY responding, said, while teaching in the Set-apart Place, “How is it that the scribes say that the Messiah is the Son of Dawiḏ?

36 “Dawiḏ himself said by the Set-apart Spirit, יהוה said to my Master, ‘Sit at My right hand, until I make Your enemies a footstool of Your feet.’ ”

37 “Dawiḏ himself calls Him ‘Master.’ In what way then is He his Son?” And the large crowd heard Him gladly.

38 And in His teaching He was saying to them, “Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and like greetings in the market-places,

39 and the best seats in the congregations, and the best places at feasts,

40who are devouring widows’ houses, and for a show make long prayers. These shall receive greater judgment.”

41And sitting opposite the treasury He saw how the people put copper into the treasury. And many rich ones put in much.

42And a poor widow came and threw in two small copper coins, which amount to a cent.

43And calling near His taught ones He said to them, “Truly, I say to you that this poor widow has put in more than all those putting into the treasury,

44for they all put in out of their excess, but she out of her poverty put in all that she had, her entire livelihood.”

13 And as He went out of the Set-apart Place, one of His taught ones said to Him, “Teacher, see what stones!
And what buildings!”

2And answering, said to him,
“Do you see these great buildings? Not one stone shall be left upon another at all, which shall not be thrown down.”

3And as He sat on the Mount of Olives opposite the Set-apart Place, Kêpha, and YaÈaqoÄ, and YoÁanan, and Andri asked Him separately,

4“Say to us, when shall these events be?
And what shall be the sign when all this is going to be accomplished?”

5And began to say to them, “Take heed that no one leads you astray,

6for many shall come in My Name, saying, ‘I am He,’ and they shall lead many astray.

7“And when you hear of fightings and reports of fightings, do not be troubled – it has to take place, but the end is not yet.

8“For nation shall rise against nation, and reign against reign. And there shall be earthquakes in various places, and there shall be scarcities of food, and disturbances. These are the beginnings of birth-pains.

9“But take heed to yourselves, for they shall deliver you up to councils and to congregations. You shall be beaten, and you shall be brought before rulers and sovereigns for My sake, for a witness to them.

10“‘And the Good News has to be proclaimed first to all the nations.

11“‘And when they lead you away and deliver you up, do not worry beforehand what you are to say. But whatever is given you in that hour, speak that, for it is not you who are speaking, but the Set-apart Spirit.

12“‘And brother shall deliver up brother to death, and a father his child. And children shall rise up against parents and shall put them to death.

13“‘And you shall be hated by all because of My Name. But he who shall have endured to the end, he shall be saved. u

14“‘And when you see the ‘abomination that lays waste,’ v spoken of by Dani’êl the prophet, set up where it should not be” – he who reads, let him understand – “then let those who are in YehuÅah flee to the mountains.

15“‘And he who is on the house-top, let him not go down into the house, nor come in to take whatever out of his house.

16“‘And he who is in the field, let him not go back to get his cloak.

17“‘And woe to those who are pregnant and to those nursing children in those days!

18“‘And pray that your flight does not take place in winter.

19“‘For in those days there shall be distress, such as has not been from the begining of creation which Elohim created until this time, nor ever shall be.

20“‘And if the Master had not shortened those days, no flesh would have been saved; but because of the chosen ones, whom He chose, He shortened the days.

21“‘And if anyone then says to you, ‘Look, here is the Messiah!’ or, ‘Look, there!’ do not believe it.

22“‘For false messiahs and false prophets shall rise and show signs and wonders to lead astray, if possible, even the chosen ones.

23 "And you, take heed. See, I have forewarned you of it all.

24 "But in those days, after that distress, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give its light,

25 and the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers in the heavens shall be shaken.

26 "And then they shall see the Son of Adam coming in the clouds with much power and esteem.

27 "And then He shall send His messengers, and assemble His chosen ones from the four winds, from the farthest part of earth to the farthest part of heaven.

28 "And learn this parable from the fig tree: When its branch has already become tender, and puts forth leaves, you know that the summer is near.

29 "So you also, when you see these taking place, know that it is near, at the door.

30 "Truly, I say to you, this generation shall by no means pass away till all this takes place.

31 "The heaven and the earth shall pass away, but My words shall by no means pass away.

32 "But concerning that day and the hour no one knows, not even the messengers in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father.

33 "Take heed, watch and pray, for you do not know when the time is –

34 as a man going abroad, having left his house and given authority to his servants, and to each his work, and commanded the doorkeeper to watch.

35 "Watch therefore, for you do not know when the master of the house is coming – in the evening or at midnight, or at the crowing of the cock, or in the morning, 36 lest, coming suddenly, he should find you sleeping.

37 "And what I say to you, I say to all: Watch!"

14 Now the Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread was after two days. And the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how to take Him through treachery and put Him to death.

2 And they said, “Not at the festival, lest there shall be an uproar of the people.”

3 And while He was in Bêyth Anyah in the house of Shim‘on the leper, and sitting at the table, a woman came having an alabaster flask of perfume, genuine nard, very costly. And breaking the flask she poured it on His head.

4 But there were some who were much displeased among themselves, and said, “Why was this perfume wasted?

5 “For it could have been sold for more than three hundred pieces of silver and given to the poor.” And they were scolding her.

6 But יהוה said, “Leave her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a good work for Me.

7 “For you have the poor with you always, and you are able do good to them, whenever you wish. But you do not always have Me.

8 “What she had, she used. She took it beforehand to anoint My body for the burial.

9 “Truly, I say to you, wherever this Good News is proclaimed in all the world, what this woman did shall also be spoken of, to her remembrance.”

10 And Yehudah from Qerioth, one of the twelve, went to the chief priests to deliver Him up to them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him silver. And he was seeking how to deliver Him up, conveniently.

12 And on the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they were slaughtering the Passover lamb, His taught ones said to Him, “Where do You wish us to go and prepare, for You to eat the Passover?”

13 And He sent out two of His taught ones and said to them, “Go into the city, and there a man bearing a jar of water shall meet you, follow him.

14 “And wherever he enters, say to the master of the house, ‘The Teacher says, “Where is the guest room in which I am to eat the Passover with My taught ones?”’

15 “And he shall show you a large upper room, furnished, ready. Prepare for us there.”
And His taught ones went out and came into the city, and found it as He said to them, and they prepared the Passover. And evening having come, He came with the twelve. And as they sat and ate, said, “Truly, I say to you, one of you who is eating with Me shall deliver Me up.” And they began to be grieved, and to say to Him one by one, “Is it I?” And another, “Is it I?” And He answering, said to them, “It is one of the twelve, he who is dipping with Me in the dish. The Son of Adam is indeed going, as it has been written of Him, but woe to that man by whom the Son of Adam is delivered up! It would have been good for that man if he had not been born.” And as they were eating, took bread, having blessed, broke it, gave it to them and said, “Take, eat, this is My body.” And taking the cup, giving thanks, He gave it to them, and they all drank from it. And He said to them, “This is My blood, that of the renewed covenant, which is shed for many. Truly, I say to you, I shall certainly no more drink of the fruit of the vine till that day when I drink it anew in the reign of Elohim.” And having sung a song, they went out to the Mount of Olives. And said to them, “All of you shall stumble in Me this night, for it has been written, ‘I shall strike the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.’ But after I am raised, I shall go before you to Galil.” And Kêpha said to Him, “Even if all shall stumble, yet not I.” And said to him, “Truly, I say to you that today, this night, before the cock shall crow twice, you shall deny Me three times.” But he spoke more strongly, “If I have to die with You, I shall not deny You!” And they all said the same. And they came to a place called Gethsemane. And He said to His taught ones, “Sit here while I pray.” And He took with Him Kêpha, and Ya’aqôb, and Yoḥanan, and He began to be greatly amazed, and to be deeply distressed. And He said to them, “My being is exceedingly grieved, even to death. Stay here and watch.” And He went on a little, and fell on the ground, and was praying that if it were possible, the hour might pass from Him. And He said, “Abba, Father, all is possible for You. Make this cup pass from Me. Yet not what I desire, but what You desire.” And He came and found them sleeping, and said to Kêpha, “Shim‘on, are you sleeping? You were not able to watch one hour! Watch and pray, lest you enter into trial. The spirit indeed is eager, but the flesh is weak.” And again He went away and prayed, and spoke the same words. And having returned, He found them asleep again, for their eyes were heavy. And they did not know what to answer Him. And He came the third time and said to them, “Are you still sleeping and resting? It is enough! The hour has come. See, the Son of Adam is being delivered up into the hands of the sinners. Rise up, let us go. See, he who is delivering Me up has drawn near.” And immediately, while He was still speaking, Yehuḏah, one of the twelve, with a large crowd with swords and clubs, came from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders. And the one who was delivering Him up had given them a signal, saying, “Whomever I kiss, it is He – seize Him and lead Him away safely.” And coming, going straight up to Him, he said to Him, “Rabbi, Rabbi!” and kissed Him. And they laid their hands on Him and seized Him. And one of those standing by drew his sword and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear. And answering, said to them,
“Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs, to take Me?
49“Daily I was with you in the Set-apart Place teaching, and you did not seize Me. But let the Scriptures be filled.”
50And they all left Him and fled.
51And a certain young man was following Him, having a linen cloth thrown around his naked body. And when they seized him, 52he left the linen cloth and fled from them naked.
53And they led Ἰησοῦ away to the high priest. And all the chief priests, and the elders, and the scribes came together to Him.
54And Kêpha followed Him at a distance, even into the courtyard of the high priest. And he was sitting with the officers and warming himself at the fire.
55And the chief priests and all the council were seeking witness against Ἰησοῦ to put Him to death, and they were finding none.
56For many bore false witness against Him, but their evidences did not agree.
57And some rose up and bore false witness against Him, saying,
58“We heard Him saying, ‘I shall destroy this Dwelling Place that is made with hands, and within three days I shall build another made without hands.’ ”
59And not even then did their witness agree.
60Then the high priest stood up in the centre and asked Ἰησοῦ, saying, “Have You no answer to make? What do these witness against You?”
61But He remained silent and gave no answer. Again the high priest asked Him, saying to Him, “Are You the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed?”
62And Ἰησοῦ said, “I am, and you shall see the Son of Aḏām sitting at the right hand of the Power, and coming with the clouds of the heaven.”
63And tearing his garments, the high priest said, “What further need do we have of witnesses?
64“You have heard the blasphemy! What do you think?” And they all condemned Him to be liable to death.
65And some began to spit on Him, and to blindfold Him, and to beat Him, and to say to Him, “Prophesy!” And the officers struck Him with the palms of their hands.
66And as Kêpha was below in the courtyard, one of the servant girls of the high priest came,
67and seeing Kêpha warming himself, she looked at him and said, “And you were with Ἰησοῦ of Natsareth.”
68But he denied it, saying, “I do not know nor understand what you are saying.” And he went out onto the porch, and a cock crowed.
69And the servant girl saw him again, and began to say to those who stood by, “This is one of them.”
70And again he was denying it. And after a little while those who stood by again said to Kêpha, “Truly you are one of them, for you are a Galilean too, and your speech is alike.”
71And he began to curse and swear, “I do not know this Man of whom you speak!”
72And a second time the cock crowed. And Kêpha remembered the word that Ἰησοῦ had said to him, “Before the cock crows twice, you shall deny Me three times.” And thinking on it, he wept.

15 And immediately, in the morning, the chief priests had a council meeting with the elders and scribes and all the council. Having bound Ἰησοῦ, they led Him away, and delivered Him to Pilate.
2And Pilate asked Him, “Are You the Sovereign of the Yehuḏîm?” And He answering, said to him, “You say it.”
3And the chief priests accused Him of much, but He made no answer.
4And Pilate again asked Him, saying, “Have You no answer? See how much they witness against You!”
5But Ἰησοῦ still gave no answer, so that Pilate marvelled.
6And at a festival he released to them one prisoner, whomever they were asking.
7And there was one called Barabba, chained with his fellow rebels, who had committed murder in the uprising.
8And the crowd, crying aloud, began to ask, as he had always done for them.

9 But Pilate answered them, saying, “Do you wish me to release for you the Sovereign of the Yehuḏim?”

10 For he knew that the chief priests had handed Him over because of envy.

11 And the chief priests stirred up the crowd, that he should rather release Barabbā to them.

12 And Pilate answered and again said to them, “What then do you wish me to do to Him whom you call the Sovereign of the Yehuḏim?”

13 And again they cried out, “Impale Him!”

14 And Pilate said to them, “Why, what evil has He done?” And they vehemently cried out, “Impale Him!”

15 And Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, released Barabbā to them, and having whipped Him over to be impaled.

16 And the soldiers led Him away into the court, which is the palace, and they called together the entire company of soldiers,

17 and decked Him with purple. And they plaited a crown of thorns, put it on Him, and began to call out to Him, “Greetings, Sovereign of the Yehuḏim!”

18 And they kept beating Him on the head with a reed and were spitting on Him. And bending the knee, they were bowing down to Him.

19 And when they had mocked Him, they took the purple off Him, and put His own garments on Him, and led Him out to impale Him.

20 And they compelled a passer-by, Shim‘on, a Cyrenian, coming from a field, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear His stake.

21 And they brought Him to the place Golgotha, which is translated, Place of a Skull. And they were giving Him wine mixed with myrrh to drink, but He did not take it.

22 And when they impaled Him, they divided His garments, casting lots for them, what each one should take.

23 And it was the third hour, and they impaled Him.

24 And the inscription of His accusation was written above: THE SOVEREIGN OF THE YEHUĐIM.

25 And with Him they impaled two robbers, one on His right and the other on His left.

26 And the Scripture was filled which says, “And He was reckoned with the lawless.”

27 And those passing by were blaspheming Him, shaking their heads and saying, “Ah! You who destroy the Dwelling Place and build it in three days, save Yourself, and come down from the stake!”

28 And likewise the chief priests and the scribes, mocking to one another said, “He saved others, He is unable to save Himself.

29 “The Messiah? The Sovereign of Yisra’āl? Come down now from the stake, so that we see and believe.” And those who were impaled with Him were reproaching Him.

30 And when the sixth hour came, darkness came over all the land until the ninth hour.

31 And some of those standing by, when they heard it, said, “See, He is calling for Īliyahu!”

32 And someone ran and filled a sponge with sour wine, and put it on a reed, and offered it to Him to drink, saying, “Leave Him, let us see if Īliyahu does come to take Him down.”

33 And Īli, Īli, lamah aza’tani? which is translated, “My Īl, My Īl, why have You forsaken Me?”

34 And and the captain, who was standing opposite Him, saw that He cried out like this and breathed His last, he said, “Truly this Man was the Son of Elohim!”

35 And some of those standing by, when they heard it, said, “See, He is calling for Īliyahu!”

36 And someone ran and filled a sponge with sour wine, and put it on a reed, and offered it to Him to drink, saying, “Leave Him, let us see if Īliyahu does come to take Him down.”

37 And Īli, Īli, lamah aza’tani? which is translated, “My Īl, why have You forsaken Me?”

38 And the veil of the Dwelling Place was torn in two from top to bottom.

39 And and the captain, who was standing opposite Him, saw that He cried out like this and breathed His last, he said, “Truly this Man was the Son of Elohim!”

40 And there were also women watching from a distance, among whom was also Miryam from Maḏgala, and Miryam the mother of Ya’aqob the Less and of Yosèph, and Shelomah, who also followed Him and attended Him when He was in Galil, and many other women who came up with Him to Yerushalayim.

And when evening had come, because it was the Preparation Day, that is, the day before the Sabbath, Yosèph of Ramathayim, a prominent council member, who was himself waiting for the reign of Elohim, came, boldly went in to Pilate and asked for the body of Natsareth.

But Pilate wondered whether He was already dead, so summoning the captain, he asked him if He was already dead.

And when he learned this from the captain, he gave the body to Yosèph.

And he, having bought fine linen, took Him down, and wrapped Him in the linen. And he laid Him in a tomb which had been hewn out of the rock, and rolled a stone against the entrance of the tomb.

And Miryam from Ma’dala, and Miryam the mother of Yosèph, saw where He was laid.

And when the Sabbath was past, Miryam from Ma’dala, and Miryam the mother of Ya’aqob, and Shelomah bought spices, to go and anoint Him.

And very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen.

And they said among themselves, “Who shall roll away the stone from the entrance of the tomb for us?”

And looking up, they saw that the stone had been rolled away, for it was extremely large.

And having entered into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right, wearing a white robe, and they were greatly astonished.

And he said to them, “Do not be much astonished. You seek Yishayahu of Natsareth, who was impaled. He was raised – He is not here! See the place where they laid Him.

“And go, say to His taught ones, and Kèpha, that He is going before you into Galil. You shall see Him there as He said to you.”

And they went out and fled from the tomb, and were trembling and bewildered. And they spoke to no one, for they were afraid.

And having risen early on the first day of the week, He appeared first to Miryam from Ma’gdala, from whom He had cast out seven demons.

She went and reported to those who had been with Him, mourning and weeping.

And when they heard that He was alive and had been seen by her, they did not believe.

And after this He appeared in another form to two of them as they walked and went into a field.

And they went and reported it to the rest, but they did not believe them either.

Later He appeared to the eleven as they sat at the table. And He reproached their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they did not believe those who had seen Him after He was raised.

And He said to them, “Go into all the world and proclaim the Good News to every creature.

“He who has believed and has been immersed, shall be saved, but he who has not believed shall be condemned.

“And these signs shall accompany the ones who believe: In My Name they shall cast out demons, they shall speak with renewed tongues, they shall take up snakes, and if they drink any deadly drink it shall by no means hurt them, they shall lay hands on the sick and they shall get well.”

Then indeed, after the Master had spoken to them, He was received up into the heaven, and sat down at the right hand of Elohim.

And they went out and proclaimed it everywhere, while the Master worked with them, and confirmed the word through the accompanying signs. Amèn.
1 Since many have indeed taken in hand to set in order an account of the matters completely confirmed among us, as those who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and servants of the word delivered them to us, it seemed good to me as well, having followed up all these matters exactly from the beginning, to write to you an orderly account, most excellent Theophilos, that you might know the certainty of the words which you were taught.

2 There was in the days of Herodes, the sovereign of Yehuḏah, a certain priest named Zeḵaryah, of the division of Abiyah. And his wife was of the daughters of Aharon, and her name was Elisheḇa.

3 And they were both righteous before Elohim, blamelessly walking in all the commands and righteousnesses of HWHY. And they had no child, because Elisheḇa was barren, and both were advanced in years.

4 And it came to be, that while he was serving as priest before Elohim in the order of his division, according to the institute of the priesthood, he was chosen by lot to burn incense when he went into the Dwelling Place of HWHY. And the entire crowd of people was praying outside at the hour of incense.

5 And a messenger of HWHY appeared to him, standing on the right side of the altar of incense. And when Zeḵaryah saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him. But the messenger said to him, “Do not be afraid, Zeḵaryah, for your prayer is heard. And your wife Elisheḇa shall bear you a son, and you shall call his name Yohanan. And he shall be filled with the Set-apart Spirit, even from his mother’s womb.

6 “And he shall turn many of the children of Yisra’el to HWHY their Elohim.

7 “And he shall go before Him in the spirit and power of Elijahu, ‘to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,’ and the disobedient to the insight of the righteous, to make ready a people prepared for HWHY.”

8 And Zeḵaryah said to the messenger, “By what shall I know this? For I am old, and my wife advanced in years.”

9 And the messenger answering, said to him, “I am Gaḇri’el, who stands in the presence of Elohim, and was sent to speak to you and announce to you this good news. But see, you shall be silent and unable to speak until the day this takes place, because you did not believe my words which shall be filled in their appointed time.”

10 And the people waited for Zeḵaryah, and marvelled at his delay in the Dwelling Place. And when he came out, he was unable to speak to them. And they recognised that he had seen a vision in the Dwelling Place, for he was beckoning to them and remained dumb.

11 And it came to be, as soon as the days of his service were completed, he went away to his house. And after those days his wife Elisheḇa conceived. And she hid herself five months, saying,

12 “HWHY has done this for me, in the days when He looked upon me, to take away my reproach among men.” And in the sixth month the messenger Gaḇri’el was sent by Elohim to a city of Galil named Natsareth, to a maiden engaged to a man whose name was Yosēph, of the house of Dawiḏ; And the maiden’s name was Miryam.
28 And the messenger, coming to her, said, “Greetings, favoured one, the Master is with you. Blessed are you among women!”
29 But she was greatly disturbed at his word, and wondered what kind of greeting this was.
30 And the messenger said to her, “Do not be afraid, Miryam, for you have found favour with Elohim.
31 “And see, you shall conceive in your womb, and shall give birth to a Son, and call His Name ישוע. a 32 “He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Most High. And Elohim shall give Him the throne of His father DawiÅ.
33 “And He shall reign over the house of YaÈaqoÄ forever, and there shall be no end to His reign.” b
34 And Miryam said to the messenger, “How shall this be, since I do not know a man?”
35 And the messenger answering, said to her, “The Set-apart Spirit shall come upon you, and the power of the Most High shall overshadow you. And for that reason the Set-apart One born of you shall be called: Son of Elohim.
36 “And see, ElisheÄa your relative, she has also conceived a son in her old age. And this is now the sixth month to her who was called barren,
37 “because with Elohim no matter shall be impossible.”
38 And Miryam said, “See the female servant of HWHY! Let it be to me according to your word.” And the messenger went away from her.
39 And Miryam arose in those days and went into the hill country with haste, to a city of YehuÅah, 40 and entered into the house of Ze¿aryah and greeted Elisheba.
41 And it came to be, when Elisheba heard the greeting of Miryam, that the baby leaped in her womb. And Elisheba was filled with the Set-apart Spirit, 42 and called out with a loud voice and said, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!
43 “And who am I, that the mother of my Master should come to me?
44 “For look, when the sound of your greeting came to my ears, the baby in my womb leaped for joy.
45 “Blessed is she who believed, for that which הוהי has said to her shall be accomplished!”
46 And Miryam said, “My being makes הוהי great,
47 and my spirit has rejoiced in Elohim my Saviour.
48 “Because He looked on the humiliation of His female servant. For look, from now on all generations shall call me blessed.
49 “For He who is mighty has done wonders for me, and set-apart is His Name.
50 “And His compassion is from generation to generation, to those who fear Him.
51 “He did mightily with His arm, He scattered the proud in the thought of their hearts.
52 “He brought down rulers from their thrones, and exalted the lowly.
53 “He has filled the hungry with good items, and the rich He has sent away empty.
54 “He sustained Yisra'Ãl, His servant, in remembrance of His compassion, 55 as He spoke to our fathers, to AÄraham and to his seed, forever.”
56 And Miryam stayed with her about three months, and returned to her home.
57 And the time was filled for ElisheÄa to give birth, and she bore a son.
58 And her neighbours and relatives heard how הוהי had shown great compassion to her, and they rejoiced with her.
59 And it came to be, on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child. And they were calling him by the name of his father, Ze¿aryah.
60 And his mother answering, said, “Not so, but he shall be called YoÁanan.”
61 And they said to her, “There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name.”

62 Then they motioned to his father, what he would like him to be called.
63 And having asked for a writing tablet, he wrote, saying, “Yoḥanan is his name.” And they all marvelled.
64 And at once his mouth was opened and his tongue loosed, and he was speaking, praising Elohim.
65 And fear came on all those dwelling around them, and all these matters were spoken of in all the hill country of Yehuḏah.
66 And all who heard them kept them in their hearts, saying, “What then shall this child be?” And the hand of יהוה was with him.

67 And Zeḵaryah, his father, was filled with the Set-apart Spirit, and prophesied, saying,
68 “Blessed be יהוה Elohim of Yisra’ĕl, for He did look upon and worked redemption for His people,
69 and has raised up a horn of deliverance for us in the house of His servant Dawiḏ, 70 as He spoke by the mouth of His set-apart prophets, from of old—71 delivery from our enemies and from the hand of all those hating us, 72 to show compassion toward our fathers and to remember His set-apart covenant,
73 an oath which He swore to our father Abraham:
74 to give to us, being delivered from the hand of our enemies, to serve Him without fear,
75 in set-apartness and righteousness before Him all the days of our life.
76 “And you, child, shall be called prophet of the Most High, for you shall go before the face of יהוה to prepare His ways,
77 to give knowledge of deliverance to His people, by the forgiveness of their sins,
78 through the tender compassion of our Elohim, with which the daybreak from on high has looked upon us,
79 to give light to those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.”
80 And the child grew and became strong in spirit, and was in the deserts until the day of showing Himself openly to Yisra’ĕl.

2 And it came to be in those days that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus for all the world to be registered.
2 This took place as a first registration while Quirinius was governing Syria.
3 And all were going to be registered, each one to his own city.
4 And Yosĕph also went up from Galil, out of the city of Natsareth to Yehuḏah, to the city of Dawiḏ, which is called Bĕyth Leḥem, because he was of the house and lineage of Dawiḏ,
5 to be registered with Miryam, who was engaged to him – being pregnant.
6 And it came to be, that while they were there, the days were filled for her to give birth.
7 And she gave birth to her first-born Son, and wrapped Him up, and laid Him down in a feeding trough.
8 And in the same country there were shepherds living out in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night.
9 And look, a messenger of יהוה stood before them, and the esteem of יהוה shone around them, and they were greatly afraid.
10 And the messenger said to them, “Do not be afraid, for look, I bring you good news of great joy which shall be to all people.
11 “Because there was born to you today in the city of Dawiḏ a Saviour, who is Messiah, the Master.
12 “And this is the sign to you: You shall find a baby wrapped up, lying in a feeding trough.”
13 And suddenly there was with the messenger a crowd of the heavenly host praising Elohim and saying,
14 “Esteem to Elohim in the highest, and on earth peace among men with whom He is pleased!”
15 And it came to be, when the messengers had gone away from them into the heaven, that the shepherds said to each other, “Indeed, let us go to Bĕyth Leḥem and see this matter that has taken place, which the Master has made known to us.”
16 And they came in haste and found Miryam and Yoséph, and the baby lying in a feeding trough.
17 And having seen, they made known the matter which was spoken to them concerning the child.
18 And all those who heard marvelled at what the shepherds said to them.
19 But Miryam kept all these matters, considering them in her heart.
20 And the shepherds returned, boasting and praising Elohim for all they had heard and seen, as it was spoken to them.
21 And when eight days were completed for Him to be circumcised, His Name was called Ḥessed, the Name given by the messenger before He was conceived in the womb.
22 And when the days of her cleansing according to the Torah of Mosheh were completed, they brought Him to Yerushalayim to present Him to HaShem –
23 as it has been written in the Torah of HaShem, “Every male who opens the womb shall be called set-apart to HaShem” –
24 and to give an offering according to what is said in the Torah of HaShem, “A pair of turtledoves or two young pigeons.”
25 And see, there was a man in Yerushalayim whose name was Shim’on, and this man was righteous and dedicated, looking for the comforting of Yisra’èl. And the Set-apart Spirit was upon him.
26 And it had been revealed to him by the Set-apart Spirit that he would not see death before he sees the Messiah of HaShem.
27 And he came in the Spirit into the Set-apart Place. And as the parents brought in the Child Ḥessed to present Him to HaShem –
28 then he took Him up in his arms and blessed Elohim and said,
29 “Now let Your servant go in peace, O Master, according to Your word, 30 for my eyes have seen Your deliverance,
31 which You have prepared before the face of all the peoples, 32 a light for the unveiling of the gentiles, and the esteem of Your people Yisra’èl.”
33 And Yoséph and His mother were marveling at what was said about Him.
34 And Shim’on blessed them, and said to Miryam His mother, “See, this One is set for a fall and rising of many in Yisra’èl, and for a sign spoken against – 35 and a sword shall pierce through your own being also – so as to reveal the thoughts of many hearts.”
36 And there was Ḥannah, a prophetess, a daughter of Penu’èl, of the tribe of Ashèr. She was advanced in years, and had lived with a husband seven years from her maidenhood, 37 and she was a widow of about eighty-four years, who did not leave the Set-apart Place, but served Elohim with fastings and prayers night and day.
38 And she, coming in at that moment, gave thanks to Ḥammōdah, and spoke of Him to all who were waiting for redemption in Yerushalayim.
39 And when they had accomplished all matters according to the Torah of Ḥammōdah, they returned to Galil, to their city Natsareth.
40 And the Child grew and became strong in spirit, being filled with wisdom. And the favour of Elohim was upon Him.
41 And His parents went to Yerushalayim every year at the Festival of the Passover.
42 And when He was twelve years old, they went up to Yerushalayim according to the practice of the festival.
43 When they had accomplished the days, as they returned, the Child Ḥessed stayed behind in Yerushalayim. And His parents did not know it, 44 but thinking He was in the company, they went a day’s journey, and were seeking Him among the relatives and friends.
45 And not having found Him, they returned to Yerushalayim, seeking Him.
46 And it came to be, after three days, that they found Him in the Set-apart Place, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both listening to them and asking them questions.
47 And all who heard Him were astonished at His understanding and answers.
48 And having seen Him, they were amazed. And His mother said to Him, “Son, why have You done this to us? See,
Your father and I have been anxiously seeking You.”

49 And He said to them, “Why were you seeking Me? Did you not know that I had to be in the matters of My Father?”

50 But they did not understand the word which He spoke to them.

51 And He went down with them and came to Natsareoth, and was subject to them, but His mother kept all these matters in her heart.

52 And יי increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with Elohim and men.

And in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Yehudah, and Herodes district ruler of Galil, and his brother Philip district ruler of Yetur and the country of Trachonitis, and Lusanias district ruler of AÄilene,

2 Ḥanan and Qayapha being high priests, the word of Elohim came to YoÁanan the son of Ze¿aryah in the wilderness.

3 And he went into all the neighbourhood of the Yardên, proclaiming an immersion of repentance for the forgiveness of sins,

4 as it has been written in the book of the words of Yeshayahu the prophet, c saying,

“A voice of one crying in the wilderness, ‘Prepare the way of יי, make His paths straight.

5 ‘Every valley shall be filled and every mountain and hill shall be made low, and the crooked shall become straight, and the rough become smooth ways,

6 and all flesh shall see the deliverance of Elohim.’ ”

7 He said therefore to the crowds that came out to be immersed by him, “Brood of adders, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 “Therefore bear fruit worthy of repentance, and do not begin to say to yourselves, ‘We have Abraham as our father.’ For I say to you that Elohim is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones.

9 “And even now the axe is laid to the root of the trees. Therefore every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.”

10 And the crowds asked him, saying, “What, then, shall we do?”

11 And answering He said to them, “Let him who has two undergarments share with him who has none, and let him who has food do likewise.”

12 And tax collectors also came to be immersed, and said to him, “Teacher, what shall we do?”

13 And he said to them, “Collect no more than what is appointed for you.”

14 And soldiers also asked him, saying, “And what shall we do?” And he said to them, “Do not intimidate anyone or accuse falsely, and be satisfied with your pay.”

15 But as the people were in expectation, and all were reasoning in their hearts about YoÁanan, whether he was the Messiah or not,

16 YoÁanan answered, saying to them all, “I indeed immerse you in water, but One mightier than I is coming, whose sandal straps I am not worthy to loosen. He shall immerse you in the Set-apart Spirit and fire.

17 “His winnowing fork is in His hand, and He shall thoroughly cleanse His threshing-floor, and gather the wheat into His storehouse, but the chaff He shall burn with unquenchable fire.”

18 And urging with many other words, he brought the Good News to the people.

19 And Herodes the district ruler, being reproved by him concerning Herodias his brother Philip’s wife, and for all the wicked deeds which Herodes did,

20 added this also to them all – he locked up YoÁanan in prison.

21 And it came to be, when all the people were immersed, יי also being immersed, and praying, the heaven was opened,

22 and the Set-apart Spirit descended in bodily form like a dove upon Him, and a voice came from heaven saying, “You are My Son, the Beloved, in You I did

And being filled with the Set-apart Spirit, returned from the Yardên and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, being tried for forty days by the devil. And in those days He did not eat at all, and afterward, when they had ended, He was hungry.
And the devil said to Him, “If You are the Son of Elohim, command this stone to become bread.”
But answered him, saying, “It has been written, ‘Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of Elohim.’ ”

And the devil, taking Him up on a high mountain, showed Him all the reigns of the world in a moment of time.
And the devil said to Him, “All this authority I shall give You, and their esteem, for it has been delivered to me, and I give it to whomever I wish.
“If, then, You worship before me, all shall be Yours.”

And answering him, said, “Get behind Me, Satan! For it has been written, ‘You shall worship your Elohim, and Him only you shall serve.’ ”
And he brought Him to Yerushalayim, set Him on the edge of the Set-apart Place, and said to Him, “If You are the Son of Elohim, throw Yourself down from here, for it has been written, ‘He shall command His messengers concerning You, to guard over You,’ and, ‘In their hands they shall bear You up, lest You dash Your foot against a stone.’ ”
And answering, said to him, “It has been said, ‘You shall not try your Elohim.’ ”
And when the devil had ended every trial, he went away from Him until a convenient time.
And returned in the power of the Spirit to Galil, and news of Him went out through all the surrounding country.
And He was teaching in their congregations, being praised by all.
And He came to Natsareth, where He had been brought up. And according to His practice, He went into the congregation on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read.
And the scroll of the prophet Yesha-yahu was handed to Him. And having unrolled the scroll, He found the place where it was written:

“The Spirit of is upon Me, because He has anointed Me to bring the Good News to the poor. He has sent Me to heal the broken-hearted, to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to send away crushed ones with a release, 19 to proclaim the acceptable year of HWHY.

20 And having rolled up the scroll, He gave it back to the attendant and sat down. And the eyes of all in the congregation were fixed upon Him.

21 And He began to say to them, “Today this Scripture has been filled in your hearing.”

22 And all were bearing witness to Him, and marvelled at the pleasant words that came out of His mouth. And they said, “Is this not the son of Yosèph?”

23 And He said to them, “No doubt, you shall say this proverb to Me, ‘Physician, heal yourself! Whatever we have heard being done in Kephar Naḥum, do also here in Your country.’ ”

24 And He said, “Truly, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own country.

25 “But truly I say to you, many widows were in Yisra’èl in the days of Èliyahu, when the heaven was shut up for three years and six months, and there was a great scarcity of food in all the land,

26 and Èliyahu was sent to none of them, but to Tsarephath of TsiÅon, to a woman, a widow.

27 “And many lepers were in Yisra’èl in the time of Elisha the prophet, and none of them was cleansed except Na’aman the Aramean.”

28 And all those in the congregation, when they heard this, were filled with wrath.

29 And rising up they drove Him out of the city, and brought Him to the brow of the hill on which their city was built, in order to throw Him down.

30 But He, passing through the midst of them, went away.

31 And He came down to Kephar Naḥum, a city of Galil, and was teaching them on the Sabbaths.

32 And they were astonished at His teaching, for His word was with authority.

33 And in the congregation was a man having a spirit of an unclean demon. And he cried out with a loud voice,

34 saying, “Ha! What have we to do with You, יושב of Natsareth? Did You come to destroy us? I know You, who You are, the Set-apart One of Elohim!”

35 And rebuked him, saying, “Be silenced, and come out of him!” And when the demon had thrown him in their midst, it came out of him without hurting him.

36 And astonishment came on all, and they spoke to each other, saying, “What is this word, that with authority and power He commands the unclean spirits, and they come out?”

37 And the report about Him went out into every place of the neighbourhood.

38 And rising up from the congregation He went into the house of Shim’ôn. But the mother-in-law of Shim’on was sick with a severe inflammation, and they asked Him concerning her.

39 And standing over her He rebuked the inflammation, and it left her, and instantly rising up she served them.

40 And when the sun was setting, all who had any who were sick with various diseases brought them to Him. And He laid His hands on each one of them and healed them.

41 And also demons were coming out of many, crying out and saying, “You are the Messiah, the Son of Elohim!” And rebuking them, He did not allow them to speak, for they knew that He was the Messiah.

42 And when day came, He went out and proceeded to a lonely place, but the crowds were seeking Him and came to Him, and tried to keep Him from leaving them.

43 And He said to them, “To the other cities I also have to bring the Good News: the reign of Elohim, because for this I have been sent.”

44 And He was proclaiming in the congregations of Galil.

5 And it came to be, while the crowd was pressing upon Him to hear the word of Elohim, that He stood by the Lake of Gennesar, and He saw two boats standing by the lake, but the fishermen had gone from them and were washing their nets.

And entering into one of the boats, which belonged to Shim'on, He asked him to pull away a little from the land. And He sat down and was teaching the crowds from the boat.

And when He ceased speaking, He said to Shim'on, “Pull out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch.”

And Shim'on answering, said to Him, “Master, we have toiled all night and caught none, but at Your word I shall let down the net.”

And when they did so, they caught a great number of fish, and their net was breaking, and they motioned to their partners in the other boat to come and help them. And they came and filled both the boats, so that they were sinking.

And when Shim'on Kêpha saw it, he fell down at the knees of יהוה, saying, “Depart from me, for I am a man, a sinner, O Master!”

For astonishment had seized him and all those with him, at the catch of fish which they took, so too were Ya'aqob and YoÁanan, the sons of ZaÄdai, who were partners with Shim'on. Then יהוה said to Shim'on, “Do not fear, from now on you shall catch men.”

And having brought the boats to land, they left all and followed Him.

And it came to be when He was in a certain city, that see, a man covered with leprosy saw יהוה. And he fell on his face and begged Him, saying, “Master, if You desire, You are able to cleanse me.”

And He stretched out His hand and touched him, saying, “I desire it. Be cleansed.” And immediately the leprosy left him.

And He ordered him to say it to no one, “But go and show yourself to the priest, and make an offering for your cleansing, as a witness to them, as Mosheh commanded.”

And the news about Him was spreading even more. And large crowds were coming together to hear, and to be healed by Him of their sicknesses.

But He was often withdrawing Himself to lonely places and praying.

And on a certain day it came to be, as He was teaching, that there were Pharisees and teachers of the Torah sitting by, who had come out of every village of Galil, Yehudah, and Yerushalayim. And the power of יהוה was there to heal them.

And see, men brought on a bed a man who was paralysed. And they were seeking to bring him in and lay him before Him.

But having found no way to bring him in because of the crowd, they went up on the house-top and let him down with his bed through the tiles into the midst before יהוה.

And having seen their belief, He said to him, “Man, your sins are forgiven you.”

And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, “Who is this who speaks blasphemies? Who is able to forgive sins except Elohim alone?”

And יהוה, knowing their thoughts, answering, said to them, “Why are you reasoning in your hearts?

Which is easier, to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven you,’ or to say, ‘Rise up and walk’?

“But in order for you to know that the Son of AÅam possesses authority on earth to forgive sins...” He said to the man who was paralysed, “I say to you, rise, take up your bed, and go to your house.”

And at once, having risen up before them, he took up what he had been lying on, and went away to his house, praising Elohim.

And astonishment seized them all, and they praised Elohim and were filled with fear, saying, “We have seen extra-ordinary feats today!”

And after this He went out and saw a tax collector named Lèwi, sitting at the tax office, and said to him, “Follow Me.”

And he, having left all, rose up and followed Him.

And Lèwi made a great feast for Him in his house. And there were a great number of tax collectors and others who sat down with them.

30 And the Pharisees and their scribes grumbled against His taught ones, saying, “Why do You eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?”

31 And answering, said to them, “Those who are well do not need a physician, but those who are sick.

32 “I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance.”

33 And they said to Him, “Why do the taught ones of Yoḥanan fast often and make prayers, and likewise those of the Pharisees, but Yours eat and drink?”

34 And He said to them, “Are you able to make the friends of the bridegroom fast while the bridegroom is with them?

35 “But days shall come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, then they shall fast in those days.”

36 And He also spoke a parable to them, “No one puts a piece from a fresh garment on an old one, otherwise the fresh one makes a tear, and also the piece that was taken out of the fresh one does not match the old.

37 “And no one puts new wine into old wineskins, otherwise the new wine shall burst the wineskins and run out, and the wineskins shall be ruined.

38 “But new wine is put into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved.

39 “And no one, having drunk old wine, immediately desires new wine, for he says, ‘The old is better.’

6 And it came to be on a Sabbath that He went through grainfields, and His taught ones were plucking the heads of grain and were eating, rubbing them in the hands.

2 And some of the Pharisees said to them, “Why are you doing what is not right to do on the Sabbath?”

3 And answering them, said, “Have you not read what Dawiḏ did when he was hungry, he and those who were with him,

4 how he went into the House of Elohim, took and ate the showbread, and also gave some to those with him, which is not right for any but the priests to eat?”

5 And He said to them, “The Son of Adam is Master of the Sabbath.”

6 And it also came to be on another Sabbath, that He entered into the congregation and taught, and there was a man whose right hand was withered.

7 And the scribes and Pharisees were watching Him closely, whether He would heal on the Sabbath, for them to find an accusation against Him.

8 And He knew their thoughts, and said to the man who had the withered hand, “Rise and stand in the midst.” And he rose up and stood.

9 Then said to them, “I ask you, is it right to do good on the Sabbath, or to do evil, to save life or to destroy it?”

10 And looking around at them all, He said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” And he did so, and his hand was restored sound as the other.

11 But they were filled with folly, and were speaking with one another what they should do to .

12 And in those days it came to be that He went out to the mountain to pray, and was spending the night in prayer to Elohim.

13 And when it became day, He called near His taught ones and chose from them twelve, whom He also named emissaries:

14 Shim’on whom He also named Kāpha, and his brother Andri, Ya’aqōb and Yoḥanan, Philip and Bartholomi, 15 Mattithyahu and T’oma, Ya’aqōb the son of Alphai and Shim’on, the one called the Ardent One,

16 YehuÅah the son of Ya’aqōb and YehuÅah from Qerioth who also became the betrayer.

17 And coming down with them He stood on a level place with a crowd of His taught ones and a great number of people from all YehuÅah and Yerushalayim, and from the coast country of Tsor and TsiÅon, who came to hear Him, and to be healed of their diseases,
and those who were troubled with unclean spirits – and they were healed.
And all the crowd were seeking to touch Him, for power went out from Him, and healing them all.
And He, lifting up His eyes toward His taught ones, said, “Blessed are the poor, because yours is the reign of Elohim.
“Blessed are you who hunger now, because you shall be satisfied. Blessed are you who weep now, because you shall laugh.
“Blessed are you when men shall hate you, and when they shall cut you off, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as wicked, for the sake of the Son of Adam.
Rejoice in that day and leap for joy, for look, your reward is great in the heaven, for that is how their fathers treated the prophets.
“But woe to you who are rich, because you are receiving your comfort.
“Woe to you who have been filled, because you shall hunger. Woe to you who are laughing now, because you shall mourn and weep.
“Woe to you when all men speak well of you, for thus their fathers did to the false prophets.
“But I say to you who are hearing: Love your enemies, do good to those hating you.
“Bless those cursing you, and pray for those insulting you.
“And to him who hits you on the one cheek, offer the other also. And from him who takes away your outer garment, do not withhold the inner garment either.
“And give to everyone who asks of you. And from him who takes away what is yours do not ask it back.
“And as you wish men should do to you, you also do to them in the same way.
“And if you love those loving you, what favour have you? For sinners, too, love those loving them.
“And if you do good to those doing good to you, what favour have you? For even sinners do the same.
“And if you lend to those from whom you expect to receive back, what favour have you? For even sinners lend to sinners to receive as much back.
“Rather, love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting none in return. And your reward shall be great, and you shall be sons of the Most High. Because He is kind to the thankless and wicked ones.
“Therefore be compassionate, as your Father also is compassionate.
“And do not judge, and you shall not be judged at all. Condemn not, and you shall not be condemned at all. Forgive, and you shall be forgiven.
“Give, and it shall be given to you. A good measure, pressed down and shaken together and running over shall be put into your lap. For with the same measure with which you measure, it shall be measured back to you.”
And He spoke a parable to them, “Is a blind able to lead a blind? Shall they not both fall into a pit?
“Or how are you able to say to your brother, ‘Brother, let me take out the splinter that is in your eye,’ not seeing the plank in your own eye? Hypocrite, first take the plank out of your own eye, and then you shall see clearly to take out the splinter that is in your brother’s eye.
“For a good tree does not yield rotten fruit, nor does a rotten tree yield good fruit.
“For each tree is known by its own fruit. For they do not gather figs from thorns, nor do they gather grapes from a bramble bush.
“The good man brings forth what is good out of the good treasure of his heart, and the wicked man brings forth what is wicked out of the wicked treasure of his heart. For out of the overflow of the heart his mouth speaks.

\[i\] Yesh. 11:4, Ya’aqob 2:5. \[j\] Mt. 5:45, Acts 14:16-17.

46 “But why do you call Me ‘Master, Master,’ and do not do what I say? k

47 “Everyone who is coming to Me, and is hearing My words and is doing them, I shall show you whom he is like:

48 “He is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid a foundation on the rock. And when a flood came, the stream burst against that house, but was unable to shake it, for it was founded on the rock.

49 “But the one hearing and not doing, is like a man who built a house on the earth without a foundation, against which the stream burst, and immediately it fell. And the ruin of that house was great.”

And when He completed all His words in the hearing of the people, He went into Kephar Naḥum.

2 And a certain captain’s servant, who was valuable to him, was sick and about to die.

3 And hearing about רומאש, he sent elders of the Yehuḏim to Him, asking Him to come and heal his servant.

4 And when they came to רומאש, they begged Him earnestly, saying, “He is worthy for You to grant this to him,

5 for he loves our nation, and has built the congregation for us.”

6 So רומאש went with them. However, He was not far from the house when the captain sent friends to Him, saying to Him, “Master, do not trouble Yourself, for I am not worthy that You should come under my roof.

7 “For this reason I did not even think myself worthy to come to You. But say a word, and my servant shall be healed.

8 “For I too am a man appointed under authority, having soldiers under me. And I say to one, ‘Go,’ and he goes, and to another, ‘Come,’ and he comes, and to my servant, ‘Do this,’ and he does it.”

9 And when רומאש heard this, He marvelled at him, and turned around and said to the crowd that followed Him, “I say to you, not even in Yisra’el have I found such great belief!”

10 And those who were sent, returning to the house, found the servant who had been sick in good health.

11 And it came to be the next day, that He went into a city called Na’im. And many of His taught ones went with Him, and a large crowd.

12 And see, as He came near the gate of the city a dead man was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And a large crowd from the city was with her.

13 And when the Master saw her, He had compassion on her and said to her, “Do not weep.”

14 And coming near He touched the bier, and those bearing it stood still. And He said, “Young man, I say to you, arise.”

15 And he who was dead sat up and began to speak, and He gave him to his mother.

16 And fear seized all, and they praised Elohim, saying, “A great prophet has been raised up among us,” and, “Elohim has visited His people.”

17 And this news about Him went out in all Yehuḏah and all the neighbourhood.

18 And the taught ones of Yoḥanan reported to him about all this.

19 And Yoḥanan, calling two of his taught ones near, sent to רומאש, saying, “Are You the Coming One, or should we look for another?”

20 And coming to Him, the men said, “Yoḥanan the Immerser has sent us to You, saying, ‘Are You the Coming One, or should we look for another?’ ”

21 And in the same hour He healed many of diseases, and afflictions, and wicked spirits. And He gave sight to many blind ones.

22 And רומאש answering, said to them, “Go, report to Yoḥanan what you have seen and heard: blind receive sight, lame do walk, lepers are cleansed, deaf do hear, dead are raised, the Good News is brought to the poor.

k Hearing, but not doing, is all in vain – see vv. 47-49, Mt. 7:24-28, Lk. 8:21, Yn. 3:36, Ya’aqob 2:17-24.
23“And blessed is he who shall not stumble in Me.”
24And when the messengers of Yohanan had left, He began to speak to the crowds concerning Yohanan, “What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?
25“But what did you go out to see? A man dressed in soft garments? Look, those who are splendidly dressed and living in luxury are in the houses of sovereigns.
26“But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yea, I say to you, and more than a prophet.
27“This is he concerning whom it has been written, ‘See, I send My messenger before Your face, who shall prepare Your way before You.’
28“For I say to you, among those born of women there is not a greater prophet than Yohanan the Immerser, but he who is least in the reign of Elohim is greater than he.”
29And all the people, even the tax collectors, when they heard, declared Elohim righteous, having been immersed with the immersion of Yohanan.
30But the Pharisees and those learned in the Torah rejected the counsel of Elohim for themselves, not having been immersed by him.
31And the Master said, “To what then shall I compare the men of this generation, and what are they like?
32“They are like children sitting in the market-place and calling to each other, saying, ‘We played the flute for you and you did not dance, we lamented for you and you did not weep.’
33“For Yohanan the Immerser came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, ‘He has a demon.’
34“The Son of Aadam has come eating and drinking, and you say, ‘Look, a man, a glutton and a winedrinker, a friend of tax collectors and sinners!’
35“And wisdom is declared right by all her children.”
36And one of the Pharisees asked Him to eat with him. And He went into the Pharisee’s house, and sat down to eat.
37And see, a woman in the city who was a sinner, when she knew that יושב sat at the table in the Pharisee’s house, brought an alabaster flask of perfume.
38And standing behind, at His feet, weeping, she began to wet His feet with her tears, and wiping them with the hair of her head, and was kissing His feet and anointing them with the perfume.
39And when the Pharisee who had invited Him saw this, he spoke to himself, saying, “This One, if He were a prophet, would know who and what kind of woman this is who is touching Him, for she is a sinner.”
40And יושב answering, said to him, “Shim’on, I have somewhat to say to you.” And he said, “Teacher, say it.”
41“A certain creditor had two debtors. The one owed five hundred pieces of silver, and the other fifty.
42“And when they were unable to repay, he forgave them both. Which of them, then, shall love him more?”
43And Shim’on answering, said, “I suppose the one whom he forgave more.” And He said to him, “You have rightly judged.”
44And turning to the woman He said to Shim’on, “Do you see this woman? I came into your house – you gave Me no water for My feet, but she has wetted My feet with her tears and wiped them with the hair of her head.
45“You gave Me no kiss, but she has not ceased to kiss My feet since the time I came in.
46“You did not anoint My head with oil, but she anointed My feet with perfume.
47“Therefore I say to you, her many sins have been forgiven, because she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, he loves little.”
48And He said to her, “Your sins have been forgiven.”
49And those who were sitting at the table with Him began to say among themselves, “Who is this who even forgives sins?”
50And He said to the woman, “Your belief has saved you. Go in peace.”
of the reign of Elohim, and the twelve were with Him, and certain women who were healed of wicked spirits and sicknesses: Miryam, called ‘from Maḏāla,’ out of whom had come seven demons, Yoḥanah the wife of Kuza, manager of Herodes, and Shoshannah, and many others who provided for Him from their resources.

And when a large crowd had gathered, and those who were coming to Him from every city, He spoke by a parable:

“A sower went out to sow his seed. And as he sowed, some indeed fell by the wayside. And it was trodden down, and the birds of the heaven devoured it.

And other fell on rock, and when it grew up, it withered because it had no moisture.

And other fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up with it and choked it.

And other fell on the good soil, and grew up, and yielded a crop a hundred-fold.” Having said this He cried, “He who has ears to hear, let him hear!”

And His taught ones were asking Him, saying, “What does this parable mean?”

To you it has been given to know the secrets of the reign of Elohim, but to the rest in parables, that ‘Seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not understand.’

This is the parable: The seed is the word of Elohim.

And those by the wayside are the ones who hear, then the devil comes and takes away the word from their hearts, lest having believed, they should be saved.

And those on the rock are those who, when they hear, receive the word with joy. And these have no root, who believe for a while and in time of trial fall away.

And that which fell among thorns are those who, when they have heard, go out and are choked with worries, and riches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to perfection.

And that on the good soil are those who, having heard the word with a noble and good heart, retain it, and bear fruit with endurance.

And no one having lit a lamp, covers it with a vessel or puts it under a bed, but he puts it on a lampstand, so that those coming in see the light.

For whatever is hidden shall be revealed, and whatever is secret shall be known and come to light.

Therefore take heed how you hear. For whoever possesses, to him more shall be given; and whoever does not possess, even what he thinks he possesses shall be taken from him.”

And His mother and brothers came to Him, and were unable to get to Him because of the crowd.

And it was reported to Him, saying, “Your mother and Your brothers are standing outside, wishing to see You.”

And He answering, said to them, “My mother and My brothers are those who are hearing the Word of Elohim and doing it.”

And on a certain day it came to be, that He entered into a boat with His taught ones, and He said to them, “Let us go over to the other side of the lake.” And they set out.

And as they were sailing He fell asleep. And a windstorm came down on the lake, and they were filling up, and were in danger.

And they came to Him and woke Him up, saying, “Master, Master, we are perishing!” And He awoke and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water. And they ceased, and there came a calm.

And He said to them, “Where is your belief?” And they were afraid, and marvelled, saying to one another, “Who then is this, that He even commands the winds and water, and they obey Him?”

And they sailed to the country of the Gaḏarenes, which is opposite Galil.\footnote{See Mt. 13 with its footnotes, and Mk. 4.} \footnote{In these last days יהוה is indeed revealing much unto those who obey Him!} \footnote{Unto those who hear and obey whatever truth יהוה brings to them, He brings more truth. However, those who do not hold on to whatever truth He brings, they lose it all, even that which they think they have.} \footnote{Mt. 12:50, Mk. 3:35.}
27 And as He went out onto the land, He was met by a certain man, from the city, who had demons for a long time. And he wore no garments, and he was not living in a house but in the tombs.

28 And when he saw יהושע, he cried out, fell down before Him, and with a loud voice said, “What have I to do with You, יהושע, Son of the Most High Elohim? I beg You, do not torture me!”

29 For He had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For it had seized him many times, and he was bound with chains and shackles, being guarded. And breaking the bonds, he was driven by the demon into the lonely places.

30 And יהושע asked him, saying, “What is your name?” And he said, “Legion,” because many demons had entered into him.

31 And they were begging Him that He would not command them to go out into the bottomless pit.

32 And a herd of many pigs was feeding there on the mountain. And they begged Him to allow them to go into them. And He allowed them.

33 And the demons, having gone out of the man, entered into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep place into the lake and drowned.

34 And when those feeding them saw what had taken place, they fled and reported it in the city and in the country.

35 So they came out to see what had taken place, and came to יהושע, and found the man from whom the demons had gone out, sitting at the feet of יהושע, dressed, and in his right mind. And they were afraid.

36 And those who had seen it reported to them how he who was possessed by demons was healed.

37 And all the crowd of the neighbourhood of the Gaḏařenees asked Him to leave them, for they were seized with great fear. And He entered into the boat and returned.

38 And the man from whom the demons had gone out was begging Him to be with Him. But יהושע sent him away, saying, 39 “Go back to your house, and relate what Elohim has done for you.” And he went away proclaiming through all the city what יהושע did for him.

40 And it came to be, when יהושע returned, that the crowd gladly received Him, for they were all looking for Him.

41 And see, there came a man whose name was Ya’ir, and he was a ruler of the congregation. And falling down at the feet of יהושע he was calling upon Him to come to his house, 42 because he had an only daughter about twelve years of age, and she was dying. And as He went, the crowds thronged upon Him.

43 And a woman, having a flow of blood for twelve years, who, having spent all her livelihood on physicians, was unable to be healed by any,

44 came from behind and touched the tzitzit of His garment. And immediately her flow of blood stopped.

45 And יהושע said, “Who touched Me?” And when all denied it, Kêpha and those with him said, “Master, the crowds throng You and press upon You, and You say, ‘Who touched Me?’ ”

46 But יהושע said, “Somebody did touch Me, for I knew power went out from Me.”

47 And the woman, seeing that she was not hidden, came trembling, and falling down before Him she declared to Him in the presence of all the people why she had touched Him and how she was healed immediately.

48 And He said to her, “Take courage, daughter, your belief has healed you. Go in peace.”

49 While He was still speaking, someone came from the ruler of the congregation’s house, saying to him, “Your daughter is dead. Do not trouble the Teacher any further.”

50 And יהושע, having heard, answered him, saying, “Do not be afraid, only believe, and she shall be healed.”

51 And coming into the house, He allowed no one to go in except Kêpha, and Ya’aqôb, and Yoḥanan, and the girl’s father and mother.

52 And they were all weeping and mourning for her, and He said, “Do not weep, she is not dead, but sleeps.”
And they were laughing at Him, knowing that she was dead.

But taking her by the hand He called, saying, “Child, arise.”

And her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately. And He directed that she be given food to eat.

And her parents were astonished, but He ordered them to say to no one what had taken place.

And having called His twelve taught ones together, He gave them power and authority over all demons, and to heal diseases.

And He sent them to proclaim the reign of Elohim and to heal the sick.

And He said to them, “Take no matter at all for the journey, neither staffs nor bag nor bread nor money – neither have two undergarments.

And whatever house you enter, stay there, and go out from there.

And as for those who do not receive you, when you go out of that city, shake off the dust from your feet as a witness against them.”

And going out they went through the villages, bringing the Good News and healing everywhere.

And Herodes the district ruler heard of all that was done by Him, and was perplexed, because it was said by some that YoÁanan had been raised from the dead, and by some that Éliyahu had appeared, and by others that one of the old prophets has risen up.

And Herodes said, “YoÁanan I have beheaded, but who is this of whom I hear such reports?” And he was seeking to see Him.

And the emissaries, when they had returned, related to Him all that they had done. And He took them and they withdrew by themselves to a city called Bûyth Tsaïåa.

And when the crowds knew it, they followed Him. And having received them, He was speaking to them about the reign of Elohim, and healed those who had need of healing.

And as the day began to decline, the twelve came and said to Him, “Send the crowd away, that going into the surrounding villages and country, they might lodge and get food, because here we are in a lonely place.”

But He said to them, “You give them to eat.” And they said, “We have no more than five loaves and two fishes, unless we go and buy food for all these people.”

For there were about five thousand men. And He said to His taught ones, “Make them sit down in groups of fifty.”

And they did so, and made them all sit down.

And taking the five loaves and the two fishes, having looked up to the heaven, He blessed and broke them, and gave them to the taught ones to set before the crowd.

So they all ate and were satisfied, and twelve baskets of the broken pieces were picked up by them.

And it came to be, as He was alone praying, the taught ones were with Him, and He asked them, saying, “Who do the crowds say that I am?”

And they answering, said, “YoÁanan the Immerser, but others Éliyahu, and others say that one of the old prophets has risen up.”

And He said to them, “And you, who do you say I am?” And Kêpha answering, said, “The Messiah of Elohim.”

And strictly warning them, He commanded them to say this to no one, saying, “The Son of AÅam has to suffer much, and to be rejected by the elders and chief priests and scribes, and to be killed, and to be raised the third day.”

And He said to them all, “If anyone wishes to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his stake daily, and follow Me.

For whoever wishes to save his life shall lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake shall save it.

For what is a man profited if he gains all the world, and is himself destroyed or lost?

“‘For whoever is ashamed of Me and My words, of him the Son of AÅam shall... be ashamed when He comes in His esteem, and in His Father’s, and of the set-apart messengers.

27“But truly I say to you, there are some standing here who shall not taste death at all till they see the reign of Elohim:”

28And it came to be, about eight days after these words, taking with Him Kêpha and Yoḥanan and Ya’aqoḇ, He went up to the mountain to pray.

29And it came to be, as He prayed, the appearance of His face changed, and His garment dazzling white.

30And see, two men were talking with Him, who were Mosheh and Éliyahu, p

31who having appeared in esteem, spoke of His death which He was about to complete at Yerushalayim.

32But Kêpha and those with him were heavy with sleep. And having awakened, they saw His esteem and the two men standing with Him.

33And it came to be, as they were parting from Him, Kêpha said to  Judaism Anchor - Mark 9:4

34And as he was saying this, a cloud came and overshadowed them. And they were afraid as they entered the cloud.

35And a voice came out of the cloud, saying, “This is My Son, the Beloved. Hear Him!”

36And when the voice had spoken,  Judaism Anchor - Matthew 17:5, was found alone. And they were silent, and reported to no one in those days any of what they had seen.

37And it came to be on the next day, when they came down from the mountain, that a large crowd met Him.

38And see, a man from the crowd cried out, saying, “Teacher, I beg You, look at my son, for he is my only child.

39“And see, a spirit seizes him, and he suddenly cries out, and it convulses him, with foaming, and scarcely leaves him, bruising him.

40“And I begged Your taught ones to cast it out, but they were unable.”

41And  Judaism Anchor - Matthew 17:19, answering, said, “O generation, unbelieving and perverse, how long shall I be with you and put up with you? Bring your son here.”

42And as he was still coming, the demon threw him down in convulsions. And  Judaism Anchor - Matthew 17:18, rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and gave him back to his father.

43And they were all amazed at the greatness of Elohim. And while all were marveling at all that  Judaism Anchor - Matthew 17:18, did, He said to His taught ones,

44“Lay up in your ears these words, for the Son of Aḏâm is about to be delivered into the hands of men.”

45But they did not understand this saying, and it was veiled from them so that they did not perceive it. And they were afraid to ask Him about this saying.

46And a reasoning arose among them, who might be the greater of them.

47And  Judaism Anchor - Matthew 17:17, having seen the reasoning of their heart, took a little child and placed him by His side, 48and said to them, “Whoever receives this little child in My Name receives Me. And whoever receives Me receives Him who sent Me. For he who is least among you all, he shall be great.”

49And Yoḥanan answering, said, “Master, we saw someone casting out demons in Your Name, and we forbade him because he does not follow with us.”

50But  Judaism Anchor - Matthew 17:20, said to him, “Do not forbid him, for he who is not against us is for us.”

51And it came to be, when the days of His taking up were being completed, even He set His face to go to Yerushalayim, 52and He sent messengers ahead of Him. And they went and entered into a village of the Shomeronites, to prepare for Him.

53And they did not receive Him, because His face was set for the journey to Yerushalayim.

54And His taught ones, Ya’aqoḇ and Yoḥanan, seeing it said, “Master, do You wish us to command fire to come down from the heaven and destroy them, as also "Elijah did?"

55 But having turned, He rebuked them and said, "You do not know of what spirit you are,

56 for the Son of Aḏām did not come to destroy men's lives but to save them." And they went on to another village.

57 And it came to be, as they journeyed on the way, that someone said to Him, "Master, I shall follow You wherever You go."

58 And ʿeḇēr  said to him, "The foxes have holes and the birds of the heaven nests, but the Son of Aḏām has nowhere to lay His head."

59 And He said to another, "Follow Me," but he said, "Master, let me first go and bury my father."

60 And ʿeḇēr  said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead, but you go and announce the reign of Elohim."

61 And another also said, "Master, I shall follow You, but let me first say good-bye to those in my house."

62 But ʿeḇēr  said to him, "No one, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the reign of Elohim." q

10 And after this the Master appointed seventy others, and sent them two by two ahead of Him into every city and place where He Himself was about to go.

2 Then He said to them, "The harvest indeed is great, but the workers are few, therefore pray the Master of the harvest to send out workers into His harvest.

3 "Go! See, I send you out as lambs into the midst of wolves.

4 "Do not take a purse, nor a bag, nor sandals. And greet no one along the way.

5 "And whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this house.'

6 "And if indeed a son of peace is there, your peace shall rest on it; and if not, it shall return to you.

7 "And stay in the same house, eating and drinking whatever with them, for the labourer is worthy of his wages. Do not move from house to house.

8 "And into whatever city you enter, and they receive you, eat whatever is placed before you,

9 "and heal the sick there, and say to them, 'The reign of Elohim has come near to you.'

10 "And into whatever city you enter, and they do not receive you, go out into its streets and say,

11 'Even the dust of your city which clings to us, we wipe off against you, but know this, that the reign of Elohim has come near to you.'

12 "And I say to you that it shall be more bearable for Seḏom in that Day, than for that city.

13 "Woe to you, Korazin! Woe to you, Bēth Tsaidā! For if the miracles which were done in you had been done in Tsur and Tsiḏon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

14 "But it shall be more bearable for Tsur and Tsiḏon at the judgment than for you.

15 "And you, Kephar Nahum, who are exalted to the heaven, shall be brought down to the grave.

16 "He who hears you hears Me, he who rejects you rejects Me, and he who rejects Me rejects Him who sent Me."

17 And the seventy returned with joy, saying, "Master, even the demons are subject to us in Your Name."

18 And He said to them, "I saw Satan falling out of the heaven as lightning.

19 "See, I give you the authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and none at all shall hurt you.

20 "But do not rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rather rejoice because your names have been written in the heavens."

21 In that hour ʿeḇēr  exulted in the Spirit and said, "I praise You, Father, Master of the heaven and of the earth, that You have hidden these matters from clever and learned ones, and did reveal them to babes. Yea, Father, because thus it was well-pleasing in Your sight.

22 “All has been delivered to Me by My Father, and no one knows who the Son is, except the Father, and who the Father is, except the Son, and he to whom the Son wishes to reveal Him.”

23 And turning to His taught ones He said, separately, “Blessed are the eyes that see what you see,

24 for I say to you that many prophets and sovereigns have wished to see what you see, and have not seen it, and to hear what you hear, and have not heard it.”

25 And see, a certain one learned in the Torah stood up, trying Him, and saying, “Teacher, what shall I do to inherit everlasting life?”

26 And He said to him, “What has been written in the Torah? How do you read it?”

27 And he answering, said, “ ‘You shall love יהוה your Elohim with all your heart, and with all your being, and with all your strength, and with all your mind,’ and ‘your neighbour as yourself.’ ”

28 And He said to him, “You have answered rightly. Do this and you shall live.”

29 But he, wishing to declare himself righteous, said to יהוה, “And who is my neighbour?”

30 And replying, יהוה said, “A certain man was going down from Yerushalayim to YeriÁo, and fell among robbers, who, both stripping and beating him, went away, leaving him half dead.

31 “And by a coincidence a certain priest was going down that way. And when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 “And likewise a LÃwite also, when he came to the place, and seeing, passed by on the other side.

33 “But a certain Shomeronite, journeying, came upon him. And when he saw him, he had compassion on him, 34 and he went to him and bandaged his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. And having placed him on his own beast, he brought him to an inn, and looked after him.

35 “And going out on the next day, he took out two pieces of silver, gave them to the innkeeper, and said to him, ‘Look after him, and whatever more you spend I shall repay you when I return.’

36 “Who, then, of these three, do you think, was neighbour to him who fell among the robbers?”

37 And he said, “He who showed compassion on him.” Then יהוה said to him, “Go and do likewise.”

38 And it came to be as they went that He entered into a certain village. And a certain woman named Martha received Him into her house.

39 And she had a sister called Miryam, who also sat at the feet of יהוה and heard His word.

40 But Martha was distracted with much serving, and coming up she said, “Master, are You not concerned that my sister has left me to serve alone? Speak to her then, to help me.”

41 And יהוה answering, said to her, “Martha, Martha, you are worried and troubled about many matters, 42 but one only is necessary, and Miryam has chosen the good portion, which shall not be taken away from her.”

11 And it came to be while He was praying in a certain place, as He ceased, one of His taught ones said to Him, “Master, teach us to pray, as YoÁanan also taught his taught ones.”

2 And He said to them, “When you pray, say: Our Father in the heavens, let Your Name be set-apart, let Your reign come, let Your desire be done on earth as it is in heaven.

3 “Give us day by day our daily bread.

4 “And forgive us our sins, for we also forgive everyone who is indebted to us. And do not lead us into trial, but rescue us from the wicked one.”

5 And He said to them, “Which of you shall have a friend, and go to him at midnight and say to him, ‘Friend, lend me three loaves,” r See footnote Mt. 19:17.  s “Neighbour” includes those of another race – see 17:18.

6 since a friend of mine has come to me on his journey, and I do not have food to set before him;

7 then the one inside answering, says, ‘Do not trouble me, the door is already locked, and my children with me are in bed. I am unable to get up and give to you’?

8 “I say to you, if he does not get up and give to him because he is his friend, he shall get up and give him as many as he needs because of his persistence.

9 “And I say to you: ask and it shall be given to you, seek and you shall find, knock and it shall be opened to you.

10 “For everyone asking receives, and he who is seeking finds, and to him who is knocking it shall be opened.

11 “And what father among you whose son asks for bread shall give him a stone, or if he asks for a fish shall give him a snake instead of a fish,

12 or if he asks for an egg shall give him a scorpion?

13 “If you then, being wicked, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more shall your Father from heaven give the Set-apart Spirit to those asking Him!”

14 And He was casting out a demon, and it was dumb. And it came to be, when the demon had gone out, that the dumb spoke. And the crowds marvelled.

15 But some of them said, “He casts out demons by Be’elzebul, the ruler of the demons,”

16 and others, trying Him, were seeking from Him a sign from heaven.

17 And He, knowing their thoughts, said to them, “Every reign divided against itself is laid waste, and a house divided against a house falls.

18 “So if Satan also is divided against himself, how shall his reign stand? Because you say I cast out demons by Be’elzebul.

19 “Now if I cast out demons by Be’elzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Because of this they shall be your judges.

20 “But if I cast out demons by the finger of Elohim, then the reign of Elohim has come upon you.

21 “When a strong man, having been well armed, watches over his own court, his possessions are in peace.

22 “But when a stronger than he comes upon him and overcomes him, he takes from him all his armour in which he trusted, and divides his booty.

23 “He who is not with Me is against Me, and he who does not gather with Me scatters.

24 “When the unclean spirit goes out of a man, he goes through dry places, seeking rest. And finding none, he says, ‘I shall return to my house from which I came.’

25 “And when he comes, he finds it swept and decorated,

26 then he goes and takes with him seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter and dwell there. And the last state of that man becomes worse than the first.”

27 And it came to be, as He was saying this, a certain woman from the crowd raised her voice and said to Him, “Blessed is the womb that bore You, and the breasts which You sucked!”

28 But He said, “Blessed rather are those hearing the Word of Elohim and watching over it!”

29 And while the crowds were thronging, He began to say, “This generation is wicked. It seeks a sign, and no sign shall be given to it except the sign of Yonah the prophet.

30 “For as Yonah became a sign to the Ninewites, so also the Son of A’dam shall be to this generation.

31 “The sovereignty of the South shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation and shall condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Shelomoh, and look, a greater than Shelomoh is here.

32 “The men of Ninewēh shall rise up in the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Yonah, and look, a greater than Yonah is here.

33 "And no one, when he has lit a lamp, puts it in a hidden place or under a basket, but on a lampstand, that those who come in shall see the light.

34 "The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore, when your eye is good, all your body also is enlightened. But when your eye is evil, your body also is darkened.

35 "See to it therefore that the light which is in you is not darkness.

36 "If then all your body is enlightened, having no part dark, all shall be enlightened, as when the bright shining of a lamp gives you light."

37 And as He spoke, a certain Pharisee asked Him to dine with him, so He went in and sat down to eat.

38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that He did not first wash before dinner.

39 And the Master said to him, "Now you Pharisees make the outside of the cup and dish clean, but your inward part is filled with greed and wickedness.

40 "Mindless ones! Did not He who made the outside make the inside also?

41 "But give in kindness of that which is within, and see, all are clean to you.

42 "But woe to you Pharisees, because you tithe the mint and the rue and every plant, and pass by the right-ruling and the love of Elohim. These you should have done, without leaving the others undone.

43 "Woe to you Pharisees, because you love the best seats in the congregations and the greetings in the market-places.

44 "Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites, because you are like the unseen tombs, and the men walking over them do not know."

45 And one of those learned in the Torah, answering, said to Him, "Teacher, when You say this You insult us too."

46 And He said, "Woe to you also, you learned in the Torah, because you load men with burdens hard to bear, and you yourselves do not touch the burdens with one of your fingers.

47 "Woe to you, because you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.

48 "So you bear witness that you approve of the works of your fathers, because they indeed killed them, and you build their tombs.

49 "And because of this the wisdom of Elohim said, 'I shall send them prophets and emissaries, and some of them they shall kill and persecute,'

50 so that the blood of all the prophets which was shed from the foundation of the world shall be required of this generation,

51 from the blood of He Ä el to the blood of Ze Ä aryah who perished between the altar and the Dwelling Place. Yea, I say to you, it shall be required of this generation.

52 "Woe to you learned in the Torah, because you took away the key of knowledge. You did not enter in yourselves, and those who were entering in you hindered."

53 And as He was saying this to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to oppose Him fiercely, and to draw Him out on many subjects, 54 watching Him, and seeking to catch Him out in whatever He says, so as to accuse Him.

12 Meanwhile, when an innumerable crowd of people had gathered together, so that they trampled one another, He began to say to His taught ones, first, "Beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy."

2 "And whatever is concealed shall be revealed, and whatever is hidden shall be known.

3 "So, whatever you have said in the dark shall be heard in the light, and what you have spoken in the ear in inner rooms shall be proclaimed on the house-tops.

4 "But I say to you, My friends, do not be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that are unable to do any more.

5 "But I shall show you whom you should fear: Fear the One who, after killing, possesses authority to cast into Gehenna. Yea, I say to you, fear Him!

6“Are not five sparrows sold for two copper coins? And not one of them is forgotten before Elohim.

7“But even the hairs of your head have all been numbered. Do not fear, you are worth more than many sparrows.

8“And I say to you, everyone who confesses Me before men, the Son of Adám shall also confess him before the messengers of Elohim.

9“But he that has denied Me before men shall be denied before the messengers of Elohim.

10“And everyone who shall speak a word against the Son of Adám, it shall be forgiven him, but to him who has blasphemed against the Set-apart Spirit, it shall not be forgiven.

11“And when they bring you to the congregations and rulers and authorities, do not worry about how or what you should answer, or what you should say, 12for the Set-apart Spirit shall teach you in that very hour what you should say.”

13And someone from the crowd said to Him, “Teacher, speak to my brother, to divide the inheritance with me.”

14But He said to him, “Man, who made Me a judge or divider over you?”

15And He said to them, “Mind, and beware of greed, because one’s life does not consist in the excess of his possessions.”

16He then spoke a parable to them, saying, “The land of a certain rich man yielded well.

17“And he was reasoning within himself, saying, ‘What shall I do, because I have no room to store my crops?’

18“And he said, ‘I am going to do this: pull down my storehouses and build greater, and store all my crops and my goods there,

19then say to myself, “Life, you have many goods laid up for many years, take your ease, eat, drink, rejoice.” ’

20“But Elohim said to him, ‘You mindless one! This night your life shall be demanded from you. And who shall own what you have prepared?’

21“So is he who is storing up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward Elohim.”

22And He said to His taught ones, “For this reason I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you shall eat; nor about the body, what you shall put on.

23“The life is more than the food, and the body is more than the clothing.

24“Look at the raven, for they neither sow nor reap, which have neither storehouse nor granary, and Elohim feeds them. How much more valuable are you than the birds?

25“And which of you by worrying is able to add one cubit to his life’s span?

26“If then you are unable to do the least, why do you worry about the rest?

27“Look at the lilies, how they grow. They neither toil nor spin, and I say to you, even Shelomoh in all his esteem was not dressed like one of these.

28“And if Elohim so clothes the grass, which today exists in the field and tomorrow is thrown into the furnace, how much more you, O you of little belief?

29“And do not seek what you shall eat or what you shall drink, and do not keep worrying.

30“For the gentiles of the world seek all these, and your Father knows that you need these.

31“But seek the reign of Elohim, and all these shall be added to you.

32“Do not fear, little flock, because your Father did delight to give you the reign.

33“Sell your possessions and give in kindness. Make yourselves purses which do not grow old, a treasure in the heavens that does not fail, where no thief does come near nor moth destroys.

34“For where your treasure is, there your heart shall be also.

35“Let your loins be girded and your lamps burning,

36and be like men waiting for their master, when he shall return from the wedding, that when he comes and knocks they open to him immediately.

37“Blessed are those servants whom the master, when he comes, shall find watching. Truly, I say to you that he shall gird himself and make them sit down to eat, and shall come and serve them.

38“And if he comes in the second watch, or in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

39“And know this, that if the master of the house had known what hour the thief comes, he would have watched and not allowed his house to be broken into.

40“And you, then, be ready, for the Son of Aḏām is coming at an hour you do not expect.”

41And Kêpha said to Him, “Master, do You speak this parable to us, or also to all?”

42And the Master said, “Who then is the trustworthy and wise manager, whom his master shall appoint over his household, to give the portion of food in due season?

43“Blessed is that servant whom his master shall find so doing when he comes.

44“Truly, I say to you that he shall appoint him over all his possessions.

45“But if that servant says in his heart, ‘My master is delaying his coming,’ and begins to beat the male servants and female servants, and to eat and drink and be drunk, 46the master of that servant shall come on a day when he does not expect him, and at an hour that he does not know, and shall cut him in two and appoint his portion with the unbelievers.

47“And that servant who knew his master’s desire, and did not prepare, nor did according to his desire, shall be beaten with many stripes.

48“But he who did not know, yet did what deserved flogging, shall be beaten with few. v And everyone to whom much is given, from him much shall be demanded. And to whom much has been entrusted, from him much more shall be asked.

49“I came to send fire on the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled!

50“But I have an immersion to be immersed with, and how distressed I am until it is accomplished!

51“Do you think that I came to give peace on earth? I say to you, no, but rather division.

52“For from now on five in one house shall be divided, three against two, and two against three –

53father shall be divided against son, and son against father, mother against daughter, and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.”

54And He also said to the crowds, “When you see a cloud rising out of the west, immediately you say, ‘A storm is coming,’ and so it is.

55“And when you see the south wind blow, you say, ‘There shall be hot weather,’ and it is.

56“Hypocrites! You know to discern the face of the heaven and of the earth, but how is it you do not discern this time?

57“And why, also, do you not judge for yourselves what is right?

58“For, as you go with your opponent to a ruler, try hard along the way to settle with him, lest he drag you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison.

59“I say to you, you shall certainly not leave there until you have paid even the last mite.”

13And some were present at that time, reporting to Him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their offerings.

2And Ḥaman answering, said to them, “Do you think that these Galileans were worse sinners than all other Galileans, because they have suffered like this?

3“I say to you, no! But unless you repent you shall all perish in the same way.

4“For, as you go with your opponent to a ruler, try hard along the way to settle with him, lest he drag you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison.

5“I say to you, no! But unless you repent you shall all perish in the same way.”

v The degree of punishment depends on whether we disobeyed, or transgressed, knowingly or ignorantly.
And He spoke this parable, “A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it and found none.

“And he said to the gardener, ‘Look, for three years I have come seeking fruit on this fig tree and find none. Cut it down, why does it even make the ground useless?’

“And he answering, said to him, ‘Master, leave it this year too, until I dig around it and throw manure.

‘And if indeed it bears fruit, good. But if not so, you shall cut it down.’ ”

And He was teaching in one of the congregations on the Sabbath, and see, there was a woman having a weakening spirit for eighteen years, and was bent over and was unable to straighten up at all.

And יֵשׁוֹא, seeing her, called her near and said to her, “Woman, you are loosened from your weakness.”

And He laid His hands on her, and immediately she was straightened up, and praised Elohim.

But the ruler of the congregation, responding, much displeased that יֵשׁוֹא had healed on the Sabbath, said to the crowd, “There are six days on which men should work, so come and be healed on them, and not on the Sabbath day.”

Then the Master answered him and said, “Hypocrite! Does not each one of you on the Sabbath loosen his ox or his donkey from the stall, and lead it away to water it?

“And this one, being a daughter of Abrahám, whom Satan has bound, look, for eighteen years, should she not be loosened from this bond on the Sabbath?”

And when He said this, all His opponents were put to shame. And all the crowd rejoiced for all the splendid works being done by Him.

Therefore He said, “What is the reign of Elohim like? And to what shall I compare it?

“It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and threw into his garden. And it grew and became a large tree, and the birds of the heavens nested in its branches.”

And again He said, “To what shall I compare the reign of Elohim?

“It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of flour until it was all leavened.”

And He was going through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying toward Yerushalayim, and someone said to Him, “Master, are there few who are being saved?” And He said to them, “Strive to enter through the narrow gate, because many, I say to you, shall seek to enter in and shall not be able.

“When once the Master of the house has risen up and shut the door, and you begin to stand outside and knock at the door, saying, ‘Master, Master, open for us,’ and He shall answer and say to you, ‘I do not know you, where you are from,’

then you shall begin to say, ‘We ate and drank in Your presence, and You taught in our streets.’ ”

“But He shall say, ‘I say to you I do not know you, where you are from. Depart from Me, all you workers of unrighteousness.’

“There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abrahám and YitsÁaq and YaÈaqoÄ and all the prophets in the reign of Elohim, and yourselves thrown outside.

“And they shall come from the east and the west, and from the north and the south, and sit down in the reign of Elohim.

“And see, there are last who shall be first, and there are first who shall be last.”

On the same day there came certain Pharisees, saying to Him, “Get out and go from here, for Herodes wishes to kill You.”

And He said to them, “Go, say to that fox, ‘See, I cast out demons and perform healings today and tomorrow, and the third day I shall be perfected.’ ”

“But I have to journey today, and w These three are in the reign of Elohim, as well as Mosheh and Ėliyahu (according to the transfiguration on the mount). Every sincere believer should ask himself: Do I believe, and do I obey, like they did?

tomorrow, and the day following, because it is not fitting for a prophet to perish outside of Yerushalayim.

34“Yerushalayim, Yerushalayim, killing the prophets and stoning those who are sent to her! How often I wished to gather your children together, the way a hen gathers her chickens under her wings, but you would not!

35“See, your House is left to you laid waste. And truly I say to you, you shall by no means see Me until the time comes when you say, ‘Blessed is He who is coming in the Name of יהוה!’”

14 And it came to be, as He went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees to eat bread on the Sabbath, that they were watching Him closely.

2 And see, there was a certain man before Him suffering from dropsy.

3 And responding, spoke to those learned in the Torah and the Pharisees, saying, “Is it right to heal on the Sabbath?”

4 But they were silent. So taking hold of him He healed him, and let him go.

5 And to them He said, “Which of you, having a donkey or an ox that has fallen into a pit, shall not immediately pull him out on the Sabbath day?”

6 And they were unable to answer Him regarding these matters.

7 And He spoke a parable to those who were invited, when He noted how they chose the best places, saying to them:

8“When you are invited by anyone to a wedding feast, do not sit down in the best place, lest one more distinguished than you be invited by him,

9and he who invited you and him come and say to you, ‘Give this one place,’ and then you begin with shame to take the last place.

10“Rather, when you are invited, go and sit down in the last place, so that when he who invited you comes he shall say to you, ‘Friend, come up higher.’ Then you shall have esteem in the presence of those who sit at the table with you.

11“For everyone who is exalting himself shall be humbled, and he who is humbling himself shall be exalted.”

12And He also said to him who invited Him, “When you give a dinner or a supper, do not ask your friends, nor your brothers, nor your relatives, nor your rich neighbours, lest they also invite you back, and you be repaid.

13“But when you give a feast, invite poor ones, crippled ones, lame ones, blind ones, 14and you shall be blessed, because they do not have to repay you. For you shall be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.”

15And when one of those who sat at the table with Him heard this, he said to Him, “Blessed is he who eats bread in the reign of Elohim!”

16But He said to him, “A certain man gave a great supper and invited many,

17and he sent his servant at supper time to say to those who were invited, ‘Come, for all is now ready.’

18“But one by one they all began making excuses. The first said to him, ‘I have bought a field, and I need to go and see it. I ask you to have me excused.’

19“And another said, ‘I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I am going to try them out. I ask you to have me excused.’

20“And another said, ‘I have married a wife, and because of this I am unable to come.’

21“And that servant came and reported this to his master. Then the master of the house, being wroth, said to his servant, ‘Hurry out into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in here the poor, and crippled, and lame, and blind.’

22“And the servant said, ‘Master, it is done as you commanded, and still there is room.’

23“And the master said to the servant, ‘Go out into the street corners and hedges, and compel them to come in, so that my house is filled.

24‘For I say to you that none of those men who were invited shall taste my supper.’”

25And large crowds were going with Him, and turning, He said to them,

26 “If anyone comes to Me and does not hate  his father and mother, and wife, and children, and brothers, and sisters, and his own life too, he is unable to be My taught one.

27 “And whoever does not bear his stake and come after Me is unable to be My taught one.

28 “For who of you, wishing to build a tower, does not sit down first and count the cost, whether he has enough to complete it?

29 “Otherwise, when he has laid the foundation, and is unable to finish it, all who see it begin to mock him,

30 saying, ‘This man began to build and was unable to finish.’

31 “Or what sovereign, going to fight against another sovereign, does not sit down first and take counsel whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand?

32 “And if not, while the other is still far away, he sends a delegation and asks conditions of peace.

33 “So, then, everyone of you who does not give up all that he has, is unable to be My taught one.

34 “The salt is good, but if the salt becomes tasteless, with what shall it be seasoned?

35 “It is not fit for land, nor for manure, they throw it out. He who has ears to hear, let him hear!”

15 Now all the tax collectors and the sinners were coming to Him to hear Him.

2 And the Pharisees and scribes grumbled, saying, “This One receives sinners and eats with them.”

3 And He spoke this parable to them, saying,

4 “What man among you, having a hundred sheep, and having lost one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness and go after the one which is lost until he finds it?

5 “And having found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 “And having come home, he calls together his friends and neighbours, saying to them, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost!’

7 “I say to you that in the same way there shall be more joy in the heaven over one sinner repenting, than over ninety-nine righteous ones who need no repentance.

8 “Or what woman, having ten silver coins, if she loses one coin, does not light a lamp and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she finds it?

9 “And having found it, she calls friends and neighbours together, saying, ‘Rejoice with me, for I have found the coin which I lost!’

10 “I say to you, in the same way there is joy in the presence of the messengers of Elohim over one sinner repenting.”

11 And He said, “A certain man had two sons,

12 and the younger of them said to his father, ‘Father, give me the portion of goods falling to me!’ And he divided his livelihood between them.

13 “And not many days after, the younger son, having gathered all together, went away to a distant country, and there wasted his goods with loose  living.

14 “And when he had spent all, there arose a severe scarcity of food throughout that land, and he began to be in need.

15 “And he went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him to his fields to feed pigs.

16 “And he was longing to fill his stomach with the pods which the pigs were eating, and no one gave to him.

17 “But having come to himself, he said, ‘How many of my father’s hired servants have bread enough and to spare, and I am perishing with hunger!

18 “Having risen, I shall go to my father and say to him, “Father, I have sinned against the heaven, and before you,

19 and I am no longer worthy to be called your son. Make me like one of your hired

\[\text{Meaning love less. He should be our first love.} \]

\[\text{See 9:62, Yn. 12:24-26, Phil. 3:7, Heb. 11:26.} \]

\[\text{Or unbridled.} \] servants.’ ”
20“And having risen, he went to his father. And while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was moved with compassion, and ran and fell on his neck and kissed him.
21“And the son said to him, ‘Father, I have sinned against the heaven, and before you, and I am no longer worthy to be called your son.’
22“But the father said to his servants, ‘Bring out the best robe and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand and sandals on his feet.
23“And bring the fattened calf here and slaughter it, and let us eat and rejoice, 24because this son of mine was dead and is alive again, and he was lost and is found.’ And they began to rejoice.
25“And his older son was in the field, and when he came and approached the house, he heard music and dancing.
26“And having called one of the servants he asked what this meant.
27“And he said to him, ‘Your brother has come, and your father has slaughtered the fattened calf because he received him back in health.’
28“And he was wroth and would not go in. So his father came out and pleaded with him.
29“And answering, he said to his father, ‘See, these many years I have been serving you, and I have never transgressed a command of yours, but to me you have never given a young goat, so I could rejoice with my friends.
30“But when this son of yours came, who has devoured your livelihood with whores, you slaughtered the fattened calf for him.’
31“And he said to him, ‘Son, you are always with me, and all I have is yours.
32“And we had to rejoice and be glad, for your brother was dead and is alive, and was lost and is found.’ ”

And He also said to His taught ones, “There was a certain rich man who had a manager and he was accused to him as wasting his possessions.
2“So having called him he said to him, ‘What is this I hear about you? Give an account of your management, for you are no longer able to be manager.’
3“And the manager said within himself, ‘What shall I do? For my master is taking the managership away from me. I am unable to dig, I am ashamed to beg.
4‘I know what I shall do, that, when I am removed from the managership, they might receive me into their houses.’
5“And calling every one of his master’s debtors to him, he said to the first, ‘How much do you owe my master?’
6“And he said, ‘A hundred measures of oil.’ And he said to him, ‘Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.’
7“And to another he said, ‘And how much do you owe?’ And he said, ‘A hundred measures of wheat.’ And he said to him, ‘Take your bill, and write eighty.’
8“And the master praised the unrighteous manager because he had acted shrewdly, because the sons of this age are more shrewd in their generation than the sons of light.
9“And would I say to you, make friends for yourselves by unrighteous mammon, b that when you fail, they shall receive you into everlasting dwellings?
10“He who is trustworthy in what is least, is trustworthy also in much. And he who is unrighteous in what is least is unrighteous also in much.
11“If, therefore, you have not been trustworthy in the unrighteous mammon, who shall entrust to you the true?
12“And if you have not been trustworthy in what is another man’s, who shall give you what is your own?
13“No servant is able to serve two masters, for either he shall hate the one and love the other, or else he shall cling to the one and despise the other. You are not able to serve Elohim and mammon.”
14“And the Pharisees, who loved silver, also heard all this, and were sneering at Him, b Personification of wealth.

15 so He said to them, “You are those who declare yourselves righteous before men, but Elohim knows your hearts, because what is highly thought of among men is an abomination in the sight of Elohim.
16“‘The Torah and the prophets are until YoÁanan. Since then the reign of Elohim is being announced, and everyone is doing violence upon it.
17“‘And it is easier for the heaven and the earth to pass away than for one tittle of the Torah to fall.
18“‘Everyone putting away his wife and marrying another commits adultery. And everyone marrying her who is put away from her husband commits adultery.
19“But there was a certain rich man who used to dress in purple and fine linen and lived luxuriously every day.
20“And there was a certain beggar named ElÈazar, being covered with sores, who was placed at his gate, 21and longing to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man’s table. Indeed, even the dogs came and licked his sores.
22“And it came to be that the beggar died, and was carried by the messengers to the bosom of AÄraham. And the rich man also died and was buried.
23“And while suffering tortures in the grave, having lifted up his eyes, he saw Abraham far away, and ElÈazar in his bosom.
24“And crying out he said, ‘Father AÄraham, have compassion on me, and send ElÈazar to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue, for I am suffering in this flame.’
25“But Abraham said, ‘Son, remember that in your life you received your good, and likewise ElÈazar the evil, but now he is comforted and you are suffering.
26‘And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm has been set, so that those who wish to pass from here to you are unable, nor do those from there pass to us.’
27“And he said, ‘Then I beg you, father, that you would send him to my father’s house,
28for I have five brothers, let him warn them, lest they also come to this place of torture.’
29“Abraham said to him, ‘They have Mosheh and the prophets, let them hear them.’
30“And he said, ‘No, father Abraham, but if someone from the dead goes to them, they shall repent.’
31“But he said to him, ‘If they do not hear Mosheh and the prophets, neither would they be persuaded even if one should rise from the dead.’ ”

17 And He said to the taught ones, “It is inevitable that stumbling-blocks should come, but woe to him through whom they come!
2“It would be better for him if a millstone is put around his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble.
3“Take heed to yourselves. If your brother sins against you, rebuke him, and if he repents, forgive him.
4“And if he sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times in a day comes back to you, saying, ‘I repent,’ you shall forgive him.”
5And the emissaries said to the Master, “Give us more belief.”
6And the Master said, “If you have belief as a mustard seed, you would say to this mulberry tree, ‘Be pulled up by the roots and be planted in the sea,’ and it would obey you.
7“But who of you, having a servant ploughing or shepherding, would say to him when he has come in from the field, ‘Come immediately and sit down to eat’?
8“But would he not rather say to him, ‘Prepare somewhat for my supper, and gird yourself and serve me while I eat and drink, and afterward you shall eat and drink’?

9 “Would he thank that servant because he did what he was commanded? I think not.
10 “So also you, when you have done all that you were commanded, say, ‘We are unworthy servants, we have done what was our duty to do.’ ”
11 And it came to be, as He went to Yerushalayim, that He passed through the midst of Shomeron and Galił.
12 And as He was entering into a certain village, He was met by ten leprous men, who stood at a distance.
13 And they lifted up their voices, saying, “€€œWhy, Master, have compassion on us!”
14 And having seen them, He said to them, “Go, show yourselves to the priests.” And it came to be, that as they were going, they were cleansed.
15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, returned, praising Elohim with a loud voice, 16 and he fell down upon his face at His feet, giving thanks to Him. And he was a Shomeronite.
17 And €€œWhy “ answering, said, “Were there not ten cleansed? But where are the nine?
18 “Was no one found to return to give praise to Elohim, except this foreigner?”
19 And He said to him, “Rise, go your way. Your belief has made you well.”
20 And having been asked by the Pharisees when the reign of Elohim would come, He answered them and said, “The reign of Elohim does not come with intent watching,
21 nor shall they say, ‘Look here!’ or ‘Look there!’ For look, the reign of Elohim is in your midst!”
22 And He said to the taught ones, “Days shall come when you shall long to see one of the days of the Son of AÂam, but you shall not see it.
23 “And they shall say to you, ‘Look here!’ or ‘Look there!’ Do not go after them, nor follow.
24 “For as the lightning that flashes out of one part under heaven shines to the other part under heaven, so also the Son of AÂam shall be in His day.
25 “But first He has to suffer much and be rejected by this generation.
26 “And as it came to be in the days of Noah, so also shall it be in the days of the Son of AÂam:
27 “They were eating, they were drinking, they were marrying, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah went into the ark, and the flood came and destroyed them all.
28 “And likewise, as it came to be in the days of Lot: They were eating, they were drinking, they were buying, they were selling, they were planting, they were building, 29 but on the day Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and sulphur from heaven and destroyed all.
30 “It shall be the same in the day the Son of AÂam is revealed.
31 “In that day, he who shall be on the house-top, and his goods in the house, let him not come down to take them away. And likewise the one who is in the field, let him not turn back.
32 “Remember the wife of Lot.
33 “Whoever seeks to save his life shall lose it, and whoever loses his life shall preserve it.
34 “I say to you, in that night there shall be two in one bed, the one shall be taken and the other shall be left.
35 “Two shall be grinding together, the one shall be taken and the other shall be left.
36 “Two shall be in the field, the one shall be taken and the other shall be left.”
37 And they answering, said to Him, “Where, Master?” And He said to them, “Where the body is, there also the eagles shall be gathered together.”
18 And He spoke a parable to them, that they should always pray and not lose heart,
2 saying, “In a certain city there was a certain judge, not fearing Elohim nor

\[g\] The Greek word referring to this Shomeronite is allogenes, which means “of another race.”

\[h\] €€œWhy “ is the embodiment of the Reign of Elohim, for He is the Sovereign of this Reign.
regarding man.

3“And a widow was in that city, and she came to him, saying, ‘Do right to me on my adversary.’

4“And he would not for a while, but afterward he said within himself, ‘Even if I do not fear Elohim nor regard man, yet because this widow troubles me I shall do right to her, lest by her continual coming she wears me out.’”

6And the Master said, “Hear what the unrighteous judge said.

7“And shall Elohim not do right by all means to His own chosen ones who are crying out day and night to Him, and being patient over them?

8“I say to you that He shall do right to them speedily. But when the Son of AÅam comes, shall He find the belief on the earth?”

9And He also spoke this parable to some who relied on themselves that they were righteous, and looking down on others:

10“Two men went up to the Set-apart Place to pray – the one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector.

11“The Pharisee stood and began to pray with himself this way, ‘Elohim, I thank You that I am not like the rest of men, swindlers, unrighteous, adulterers, or even as this tax collector.

12‘I fast twice a week, I give tithes of all that I possess.’

13“But the tax collector standing at a distance would not even raise his eyes to the heaven, but was beating his breast, saying, ‘Elohim, show favour unto me, a sinner!’

14“I say to you, this man went down to his house declared right, rather than the other. For everyone who is exalting himself shall be humbled, and he who is humbling himself shall be exalted.”

15And they also brought infants to Him to touch them, but His taught ones seeing it, rebuked them.

16But יְשׁוָבָה called them to Him and said, “Let the little children come to Me, and do not forbid them, for of such is the reign of Elohim.

17“Truly, I say to you, whoever does not receive the reign of Elohim as a little child, shall certainly not enter into it.”

18And a certain ruler asked Him, saying, “Good Teacher, what shall I do to inherit everlasting life?”

19So יְשׁוָבָה said to him, “Why do you call Me good? No one is good except One – Elohim.

20“You know the commands, ‘Do not commit adultery,’ ‘Do not murder,’ ‘Do not steal,’ ‘Do not bear false witness,’ ‘Respect your father and your mother.’”

21And he said, “All these I have watched over from my youth.”

22And hearing this, יְשׁוָבָה said to him, “Yet one you lack: Sell all that you have and distribute to the poor, and you shall have treasure in heaven. And come, follow Me.”

23But when he heard this, he became intensely sad, for he was extremely rich.

24And when יְשׁוָבָה saw that he became intensely sad, He said, “How hard it is for those who have riches to enter into the reign of Elohim!

25“For it is easier for a camel to enter through a needle’s eye than for a rich man to enter into the reign of Elohim.”

26And those who heard it said, “And who is able to be saved?”

27And He said, “What is impossible with men is possible with Elohim.”

28And כֶּפֶה said, “See, we have left all and followed You.”

29And He said to them, “Truly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or parents or brothers or wife or children, for the sake of the reign of Elohim, 30who shall not receive many times more in this present time, and in the age to come everlasting life.”

31And taking the twelve aside, He said to them, “See, we are going up to Yerushalayim, and all that have been written by the prophets about the Son of AÅam shall be accomplished.

32“For He shall be delivered up to the gentiles and shall be mocked and insulted

{i See Mt. 6:33, Mt. 19:29, Mk. 10:29.
33 and having flogged Him they shall kill Him. And on the third day He shall rise again.”

34 But they understood none of this, and this word was hidden from them, and they did not know what was being said.

35 And it came to be, that as He was coming near Yeriḥo, that a certain blind man was sitting by the way begging.

36 And hearing a crowd passing by, he asked what it meant.

37 And they reported to him that a SWHY of Natsareth was passing by.

38 And he cried out, saying, “SWHY, Son of Dawiḏ, have compassion on me!”

39 And those going before were rebuking him that he should be silent, but he was crying out much more, “Son of Dawiḏ, have compassion on me!”

40 And a SWHY stopped and commanded him to be brought to Him. And when he had come near, He asked him,

41 saying, “What do you wish Me to do for you?” And he said, “Master, to receive my sight.”

42 And a SWHY said to him, “Receive your sight! Your belief has saved you.”

43 And immediately he received his sight, and was following Him, praising Elohim. And all the people, seeing it, gave praise to Elohim.

19 And having entered, He was passing through Yeriḥo.

2 And see, a man called Zakkai! And he was a chief tax collector, and he was rich, and he was seeking to see who SWHY was, but was unable because of the crowd, for he was small in stature.

4 And having run ahead, he climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Him, because He was about to pass by.

5 And as SWHY came to the place, He looked up and saw him, and said to him, “Zakkai, hurry and come down, for I have to stay at your house today.”

6 And he hurried and came down, and received Him, rejoicing.

7 And seeing it, they all grumbled, saying, “He has gone in to stay with a man who is a sinner.”

8 But Zakkai stood up and said to the Master, “Look, Master, I give half of my possessions to the poor. And if I have taken whatever from anyone by false accusation, I repay fourfold.”

9 And SWHY said to him, “Today deliverance has come to this house – since he also is a son of Abrahaḵ.

10 “For the Son of Adam has come to seek and to save what was lost.”

11 And as they were hearing this, He spoke another parable, because He was near Yerushalayim and they thought the reign of Elohim was about to be manifested straightaway.

12 He therefore said, “A certain nobleman went to a distant country to receive for himself a reign and to return.

13 “And calling ten of his servants, He gave them ten minas, and said to them, ‘Trade until I come.’

14 “But his subjects were hating him, and sent a delegation after him, to say, ‘We do not wish this one to reign over us.’

15 “And it came to be, when he came back, having received the reign, that he sent for these servants to whom he had given the silver, in order to know what each had gained by trading.

16 “And the first came, saying, ‘Master, your mina has earned ten minas.’

17 “And he said to him, ‘Well done, good servant. Because you were trustworthy in a small matter, have authority over ten cities.’

18 “And the second came, saying, ‘Master, your mina has earned five minas.’

19 “And he said to him also, ‘And you – be over five cities.’

20 “And another came, saying, ‘Master, here is your mina, which I kept laid up in a handkerchief.

21 “For I was afraid of you, because you are a hard man. You take up what you did not lay down, and reap what you did not sow.’

22 “And he said to him, ‘Out of your own mouth I shall judge you, you wicked servant. You knew that I was a hard man, taking up what I did not lay down and reaping what I did not sow.’
23 ‘Why did you not put the silver in the bank, that when I come I could have collected it with interest?’
24 ‘Then he said to those who stood by, ‘Take the mina from him, and give it to him who possesses ten minas.’
25 ‘But they said to him, ‘Master, he already possesses ten minas.’
26 ‘For I say to you, that to everyone who possesses shall be given; and from him who does not possess, even what he possesses shall be taken away from him.
27 ‘But those enemies of mine who did not wish me to reign over them, bring them here and slay them before me.’

28 And having said this, He went on ahead, going up to Yerushalayim.
29 And it came to be, when He came near to Bêyth PhaÎi and Bêyth Anyah, at the mountain of Olives, that He sent two of His taught ones, 30 saying, “Go into the village opposite you, in which, as you enter, you shall find a colt tied, on which no one has ever sat. Loosen it and bring it here.
31 ‘And if anyone asks you, ‘Why do you loosen it?’ thus you shall say to him, ‘Because the Master has need of it.’ ”
32 And those who were sent went away and found it as He had said to them.
33 And as they were loosing the colt, the owners of it said to them, “Why do you loosen the colt?”
34 And they said, “The Master needs it.”
35 So they brought it to יִשְׂרָאֵל. And throwing their garments on the colt, they set יִשְׂרָאֵל on it.
36 And as He went, they were spreading their garments on the way.
37 And as He was coming near, already at the descent of the Mount of Olives, the entire crowd of the taught ones began to praise Elohim, rejoicing with a loud voice for all the miracles they had seen, 38 saying, “‘Blessed is the Sovereign who is coming in the Name of יִשְׂרָאֵל!’ Peace in heaven and esteem in the highest!”
39 And some of the Pharisees from the crowd, said to Him, “Teacher, rebuke Your taught ones.”
40 But He answering, said to them, “I say to you that if these shall be silent, the stones would cry out.”
41 And as He came near, He saw the city and wept over it, 42 saying, “If you only knew even today, the matters for your peace! But now they are hidden from your eyes.
43 “Because days shall come upon you when your enemies shall build a rampart around you, and surround you and press you on all sides, 44 and dash you to the ground, and your children within you. And they shall not leave in you one stone upon another, because you did not know the time of your visitation.”
45 And having entered into the Set-apart Place, He began to drive out those selling and buying in it,
46 saying to them, “It has been written, ‘My House is a house of prayer,’ but you have made it a ‘den of robbers.’ ”
47 And He was teaching daily in the Set-apart Place. But the chief priests, and the scribes, and the leaders of the people were seeking to destroy Him, 48 but they did not find what they might do, for all the people were hanging upon Him, listening.

20 And it came to be, on one of those days, as He was teaching the people in the Set-apart Place and bringing the Good News, that the chief priests and the scribes, together with the elders, came up
2 and spoke to Him, saying, “Say to us, by what authority are You doing these? Or who is he who gave You this authority?”
3 And He answering, said to them, “I shall ask you one question too, and answer Me:
4 “The immersion of YoÁanan – was it from heaven or from men?”
5 And they debated among themselves, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ He shall say, ‘Then why did you not believe him?’
6 “But if we say, ‘From men,’ all the people shall stone us, for they are persuaded that Yoḥanan was a prophet.”

7 And they answered that they did not know from where it was.

8 And יהוה said to them, “Neither do I say to you by what authority I do these.”

9 And He began to speak this parable to the people, “A certain man planted a vineyard, and leased it to farmers, and went away for a long time.

10“And at harvest time he sent a servant to the farmers, to give him some of the fruit of the vineyard. But the farmers beat him and sent him away empty-handed.

11“And again he sent another servant. And they beat him too and maltreated him, and sent him away empty-handed.

12“And again he sent a third. And they wounded him too and cast him out.

13“The owner of the vineyard said, ‘What shall I do? I shall send my son, the beloved. They might respect him when they see him.’

14“But when the farmers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, ‘This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, so that the inheritance becomes ours.’

15“And they cast him out of the vineyard and killed him. What, then, shall the owner of the vineyard do to them?

16“He shall come and destroy those farmers and give the vineyard to others.” And having heard, they said, “Let it not be!”

17“But He looked at them and said, “What then is this that has been written, ‘The stone which the builders rejected has become the chief corner stone’?

18“Everyone who falls on that stone shall be broken, but on whomever it falls, he shall be pulverised.”

19“And the chief priests and the scribes sought to lay hands on Him in the same hour, but they feared the people, for they knew that He had spoken this parable against them.

20 And keeping a close watch on Him, they sent spies who pretended to be righteous, to catch Him in a word, in order to deliver Him to the rule and to the authority of the governor.

21 So they asked Him, saying, “Teacher, we know that You say and teach rightly, and You are not partial to any, but teach the way of Elohim truly.

22“Is it right for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?”

23 But perceiving their craftiness, He said to them, “Why do you try Me?

24“Show Me a silver piece. Whose likeness and inscription does it have?” And they answering, said, “Caesar’s.”

25 And He said to them, “Then give to Caesar what is Caesar’s, and to Elohim what is Elohim’s.”

26 And they were unable to catch Him in a saying in the presence of the people, and marvelling at His answer, they were silent.

27And some of the Sadducees, who deny that there is a resurrection, came to Him and asked Him, 28 saying, “Teacher, Mosheh wrote to us that if a man’s brother dies, having a wife, and he dies childless, his brother should take his wife and raise up offspring for his brother.

29“Now, there were seven brothers, and the first took a wife, and died childless.

30“And the second took her as wife, and he died childless.

31“And the third took her, and in the same way the seven also. And they left no children, and died.

32“And last of all the woman died too.

33“At the resurrection, then, whose wife does she become? For the seven had her as wife.”

34 And יהוה answering, said to them, “The sons of this age marry and are given in marriage,

35 but those who are counted worthy of attaining that age, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are they given in marriage,

36for neither is it possible for them to die any more, because they are like messengers and are sons of Elohim, being sons of the resurrection.

37“But that the dead are raised, even Mosheh showed at the bush when he called יהוה ‘the Elohim of Abraham, and the Elohim of Yitsḥaq, and the Elohim of Ya’aqoḇ.’
Now He is not the Elohim of the dead, but of the living, for all live to Him.”

And some of the scribes answering, said, “Teacher, You have spoken well.”

And they were not bold enough to question Him any more.

And He said to them, “How do they say that the Messiah is the Son of Dawiḏ?

“Dawiḏ himself said in the Book of Psalms, ‘HWHY said to my Master, “sit at My right hand, until I make Your enemies a footstool of Your feet.”’

Dawiḏ then calls Him ‘Master,’ how is He then his Son?”

And in the hearing of all the people, He said to His taught ones,

“Beware of the scribes, who like to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the market-places, and the best seats in the congregations, and the best places at feasts, who devour widows’ houses, and for a show make long prayers. They shall receive greater judgment.”

And looking up He saw the rich putting their gifts into the treasury, and He saw a certain poor widow putting in two mites.

And He said, “Truly I say to you that this poor widow has put in more than all.

For all these out of their excess have put in offerings for Elohim, but she out of her poverty has put in all that she had to live on.”

And as some were speaking about the Set-apart Place, that it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, He said,

“These that you see – the days are coming in which not one stone shall be left upon another that shall not be thrown down.”

And they asked Him, saying, “Teacher, but when shall this be? And what is the sign when this is about to take place?”

And He said, “See that you are not led astray, for many shall come in My Name, saying, ‘I am,’ and, ‘The time is near.’ Then do not go after them.

“But when you hear of fightings and unrests, do not be alarmed, for these have to take place first, but the end is not immediately.”

Then He said to them, “Nation shall rise against nation, and reign against reign.

And there shall be great earthquakes in various places, and scarcities of food and deadly diseases. And there shall be horrors, and great signs from heaven.

“But before all this, they shall lay their hands on you and persecute you, delivering you up to the congregations and prisons, and be brought before sovereigns and rulers for My Name’s sake.

And it shall turn out to you for a witness.

Therefore, resolve in your hearts not to premeditate on what to answer.

For I shall give you a mouth and wisdom which all your adversaries shall not be able to refute or resist.

And you shall also be betrayed by parents and brothers and relatives and friends. And some of you shall be put to death.

And you shall be hated by all because of My Name.

But not a hair of your head shall be lost at all.

Possess your lives by your endurance!

And when you see Yerushalayim surrounded by armies, then know that its laying waste is near.

Then let those in YehuÅah flee to the mountains, and let those who are in the midst of her go out, and let not those who are in the fields enter her.

Because these are days of vengeance, to fill all that have been written.

And woe to those who are pregnant and to those who are nursing children in those days! For there shall be great distress in the earth and wrath upon this people.

And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and be led away captive into all nations. And Yerushalayim shall be trampled underfoot by the gentiles until the times of the gentiles are filled.

The Greek word for nation is ethnos which could also mean “ethnic group.”

This trampling down is not only literally, but figuratively too – see footnote at Teh. 79:1.
25“And there shall be signs in the sun, and moon, and stars, and on the earth anxiety of nations, in bewilderment at the roaring of the sea, and agitation, 26men fainting from fear and the expectation of what is coming on the earth, for the powers of the heavens shall be shaken.
27“And then they shall see the Son of Aḏām coming in a cloud with power and much esteem.
28“And when these matters begin to take place, look up and lift up your heads, because your redemption draws near.”
29And He spoke a parable to them, “Look at the fig tree, and all the trees.
30“When they have already budded, observing it, you shall know for yourselves that summer is now near.
31“So you also, when you see these matters take place, know that the reign of Elohim is near.
32“Truly, I say to you, this generation shall by no means pass away till all shall have taken place.
33“The heaven and the earth shall pass away, but My words shall by no means pass away.
34“And take heed to yourselves, lest your hearts be weighed down by gluttony, and drunkenness, and worries of this life, and that day come on you suddenly.
35“For it shall come as a snare on all those dwelling on the face of all the earth.
36“Watch then at all times, and pray that you be counted worthy to escape all this about to take place, and to stand before the Son of Aḏām.”
37And He was teaching in the Set-apart Place by day, but at night He went out and stayed on the mountain of Olives, 38and early in the morning all the people came to Him in the Set-apart Place to hear Him.

22 And the Festival of Unleavened Bread drew near, which is called Passover.
2And the chief priests and the scribes were seeking how to kill Him, for they feared the people.
3And Satan entered into Yehuḏah, who was called man from Qerioth, who was numbered among the twelve.
4And he went and spoke with the chief priests and captains, how he might deliver Him up to them.
5And they were glad, and agreed to give him silver.
6And he promised, and was seeking an occasion to deliver Him up to them, away from the crowd.
7And the Day of Unleavened Bread came when the Passover had to be slaughtered.
8And He sent Kēpha and Yoḥanan, saying, “Go and prepare the Passover for us to eat.”
9And they said to Him, “Where do You wish us to prepare?”
10And He said to them, “See, as you enter into the city, a man shall meet you carrying a jar of water. Follow him into the house he enters.
11“And you shall say to the master of the house, ‘The Teacher says to you, “Where is the guest room where I might eat the Passover with My taught ones?”’
12“And he shall show you a large, furnished upper room. Prepare it there.”
13And going they found it as He had said to them, and they prepared the Passover.
14And when the hour had come, He sat down, and the twelve emissaries with Him.
15And He said to them, “With desire I have desired to eat this Passover with you before My suffering, 16for I say to you, I shall certainly not eat of it again until it is filled in the reign of Elohim.”
17And taking the cup, giving thanks, He broke it and gave it to them, saying, “This is My body which is given for you, do this in remembrance of Me.”
18Likewise the cup also, after supper, saying, “This cup is the renewed covenant in My blood which is shed for you.
21“But see, the hand of him delivering Me up is with Me on the table.
22“For indeed the Son of Aḏām goes as it has been decreed, but woe to that man by whom He is delivered up!”
23And they began to ask among themselves, which of them it could be who was about to do this.
24And there also took place a dispute among them, as to which of them seemed to be greater.
25And He said to them, “The sovereigns of the gentiles rule over them, and those who control them are called ‘workers of good.’
26“But not so with you, but let him who is greatest among you be as the youngest, and the leader as one who serves.
27“For who is greater, the one who sits at the table, or the one who serves? Is it not the one who sits at the table? But I am in your midst as the One who serves.
28“But you are those who have remained with Me in My trials.
29“And I covenant for you, as My Father covenanted for Me, a reign, 30to eat and drink at My table, in My reign, and to sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Yisra’ēl.”
31And the Master said, “Shim‘on, Shim‘on! See, Satan has asked for you to sift you as wheat.
32“But I have prayed for you, that your belief should not fail. And when you have turned, strengthen your brothers.”
33And he said to Him, “Master, I am prepared to go with You, both to prison and to death.”
34And He said, “I say to you, Kēpha, the cock shall not crow at all today until you have denied three times that you know Me.”
35And He said to them, “When I sent you without purse and bag and sandals, did you lack any?” And they said, “None at all.”
36And He said to them, “But now, let him who has a purse take it, likewise also a bag. And let him who has no sword sell his garment and buy one.
37“For I say to you that what has been written has yet to be accomplished in Me, ‘And He was reckoned with lawless ones.’ For that which refers to Me has an end too.”
38And they said, “Master, look, here are two swords.” But He said to them, “That is enough!”
39And coming out, He went to the Mount of Olives, according to usage, and His taught ones also followed Him.
40And coming to the place, He said to them, “Pray that you do not enter into trial.”
41And He withdrew from them about a stone’s throw, and falling on His knees He was praying, 42saying, “Father, if it be Your counsel, remove this cup from Me. Yet not My desire, but let Yours be done.”
43And there appeared a messenger from heaven to Him, strengthening Him.
44And being in agony, He was praying more earnestly. And His sweat became like great drops of blood falling down to the ground.
45And rising up from prayer, and coming to His taught ones, He found them sleeping from grief.
46And He said to them, “Why do you sleep? Rise and pray, lest you enter into trial.”
47And while He was still speaking, see: a crowd! And he who was called Yehuḏah, one of the twelve, was going before them and came near to Yehuḏah to kiss Him.
48And Yehuḏah said to him, “Yehuḏah, do you deliver up the Son of Aḏām with a kiss?”
49And those around Him, seeing what was about to take place, said to Him, “Master, shall we strike with the sword?”
50And one of them struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear.
51But Yehuḏah answering, said, “Allow it this far.” And touching his ear He healed him.
52And Yehuḏah said to those who had come against Him, the chief priests and captains n Meaning: “Enough of this!”

of the Set-apart Place and the elders, “Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs?”

53 “While I was with you daily in the Set-apart Place, you did not lay hands on Me. But this is your hour and the authority of darkness.”

54 And having seized Him, they led Him and brought Him to the house of the high priest. And Kêpha was following at a distance.

55 And when they had lit a fire in the midst of the courtyard, and sat down together, Kêpha sat among them.

56 And a certain servant girl, seeing him as he sat by the fire, looked intently at him and said, “And this one was with Him.”

57 But he denied Him, saying, “Woman, I do not know Him.”

58 And after a little while another saw him and said, “You are one of them too.” But Kêpha said, “Man, I am not!”

59 And about an hour later, another insisted, saying, “Truly, this one was with Him too, for he is a Galilean too.”

60 But Kêpha said, “Man, I do not know what you are saying!” And immediately, while he was still speaking, a cock crowed.

61 And the Master turned and looked at Kêpha, and Kêpha remembered the word of the Master, how He had said to him, “Before a cock crows, you shall deny Me three times.”

62 And Kêpha went out and wept bitterly.

63 And the men who were holding יהושע were mocking Him, beating Him.

64 And having blindfolded Him, they were striking Him on the face and were asking Him, saying, “Prophesy! Who is it that struck You?”

65 And they said to Him much more, blaspheming.

66 And when it became day, the elders of the people, both chief priests and scribes, came together and they led Him into their council, saying,

67 “If You are the Messiah, say it to us.” And He said to them, “If I say to you, you would not believe it at all, 68 and if I asked you, you would not answer Me at all.

69 “From now on the Son of Aḏam shall sit on the right hand of the power of Elohim.”

70 And they all said, “Are You then the Son of Elohim?” And He said to them, “You say that I am.”

71 And they said, “Why do we need further witness? For we heard it ourselves from His mouth.”

23 And the entire assembly of them, having risen up, led Him to Pilate,

2 and began to accuse Him, saying, “We found this one perverting the nation, and forbidding to pay taxes to Caesar, saying that He Himself is Messiah, a Sovereign.”

3 And Pilate asked Him, saying, “Are You the Sovereign of the Yehuḏim?” And answering him He said, “You say it.”

4 And Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowd, “I find no guilt in this Man.”

5 But they were insisting, saying, “He stirs up the people, teaching through all Yehuḏah, beginning from Galil unto this place.”

6 And when Pilate heard of Galil, he asked if the Man were a Galilean.

7 And when he learned that He was under the authority of Herodes, he sent Him to Herodes, who was also in Yerushalayim in those days.

8 And seeing יהושע, Herodes rejoiced greatly, for a long time he had wished to see Him, because he had heard much about Him, and was anticipating to see some miracle done by Him, 9 and was questioning Him with many words, but He gave him no answer.

10 And the chief priests and the scribes stood, accusing Him intensely.

11 And Herodes, with his soldiers, made light of Him and mocked Him, dressing Him in a splendid robe, and sent Him back to Pilate.

12 And on that day Pilate and Herodes became friends with each other, for before that they had been at enmity with each other.

13 And Pilate, having called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,

14 said to them, “You brought this Man to me, as one who turns away the people. And look, I have examined Him in your presence and have found no guilt in this Man regarding the charges which you make against Him, 15and neither did Herodes, for I sent you back to him. And look, He has done none at all deserving death.

16“Having disciplined Him, then, I shall release Him” – for he had to release one to them at the festival.

18And they cried out, all together, saying, “Away with this One, and release to us Barabba”

19(who had been thrown into prison for a certain uprising made in the city, and for murder).

20Wishing to release יוחנן, then, Pilate appealed to them again.

21But they were calling out, saying, “Impale! Impale Him!”

22And he said to them the third time, “Why, what evil has He done? I have found no reason for death in Him. Having disciplined Him then, I shall release Him.”

23But with loud voices they insisted, asking for Him to be impaled. And the voices of these men and of the chief priests were prevailing.

24And Pilate pronounced sentence that what they asked should be done.

25And he released the one they asked for, who for uprising and murder had been thrown into prison, but he handed יוחנן over to their wishes.

26And as they led Him away, they laid hold of a certain man, Shim’on a Cyrenian, who was coming from the field, and they put the stake on him, to bear it behind יוחנן.

27And a great number of the people were following Him, and women who also were mourning and lamenting Him.

28But יוחנן, turning to them, said, “Daughters of Yerushalayim, do not weep for Me, but weep for yourselves and for your children.

29“For look, days are coming in which they shall say, ‘Blessed are the barren, and wombs that never bore, and the breasts which never nursed!’

30“Then they shall begin ‘to say to the mountains, “Fall on us!” and to the hills, “Cover us!” ’

31“Because if they do this to the green tree, what is going to be done to the dry tree?”

32And two others also, evil-doers, were led with Him to be put to death.

33And when they had come to the place called Golgotha, they impaled Him there, and the evil-doers, one on the right and the other on the left.

34And יוחנן said, “Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they do.” And they divided His garments and cast lots.

35And the people were standing, looking on, and the rulers also were sneering with them, saying, “He saved others, let Him save Himself if He is the Messiah, the chosen of Elohim.”

36And the soldiers were mocking Him too, coming and offering Him sour wine,

37and saying, “If You are the Sovereign of the Yehudim, save Yourself.”

38And there was also an inscription written over Him in letters of Greek, and Roman, and Hebrew: THIS IS THE SOVEREIGN OF THE YEHUĈIM.

39And one of the evil-doers who were hanged, was speaking evil of Him, saying, “If You are the Messiah, save Yourself and us.”

40But the other, responding, rebuked him, saying, “Do you not even fear Elohim, since you are under the same judgment?

41“And we, indeed, rightly so, for we receive the due reward of our deeds, but this One has done no wrong.”

42And he said to יוחנן, “Master, remember me when You come into Your reign.”

43And יוחנן said to him, “Truly, I say to you today, o you shall be with Me in Paradise.”

44And it was now about the sixth hour, and darkness came over all the land, until the ninth hour.

45 And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the Dwelling Place was torn in two.

46 And crying out with a loud voice, said, “Father, into Your hands I commit My spirit.” And having said this, He breathed His last.

47 And the captain, seeing what took place, praised Elohim, saying, “Truly, this Man was righteous!”

48 And when all the crowds who had gathered to that sight saw what took place, they beat their breasts and went away.

49 And all those who knew Him, and the women who followed Him from Galil, stood at a distance, watching this.

50 And see, a man named YosÃph, a council member, a good and righteous man – he was not agreeing with their counsel and deed – from Ramathayim, a city of the YehuÅim, who himself was also waiting for the reign of Elohim, 51 he, going to Pilate, asked for the body of .

52 And taking it down, he wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a tomb hewn out of the rock, where no one was yet laid.

53 And it was Preparation day, and the Sabbath was approaching.

54 And the women who had come with Him from Galil followed after, and saw the tomb and how His body was laid.

55 And having returned, they prepared spices and perfumes. And they rested on the Sabbath according to the command.

24 And on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared,

2 and they found the stone rolled away from the tomb.

3 And having entered, they did not find the body of the Master .

4 And it came to be, as they were perplexed about this, that see, two men stood by them in glittering garments.

5 And becoming frightened and bowing their faces to the earth, these said to them, “Why do you seek the living among the dead?”

6 “He is not here, but has been raised up! Remember how He spoke to you when He was still in Galil,

7 saying, ‘The Son of AÅam has to be delivered into the hands of sinners, and be impaled, and the third day rise again.’ ”

8 And they remembered His words.

9 And having returned from the tomb they reported all this to the eleven and to all the rest.

10 And it was Miryam from MaÏdala, and YoÁanah, and Miryam the mother of YaÈaqoÄ, and the rest with them, who told this to the emissaries.

11 And their words appeared to them to be nonsense, and they did not believe them.

12 But KÃpha arose and ran to the tomb. And stooping down, he saw the linen wrappings lying by themselves. And he went away home, marvelling at what took place.

13 And see, two of them were going that same day to a village called Amma’us, which was twelve kilometres from Jerushalayim.

14 And they were talking to each other of all this which had taken place.

15 And it came to be, as they were talking and reasoning, that Himself drew near and went with them.

16 But their eyes were restrained, so that they did not know Him.

17 And He said to them, “What are these words you are exchanging with each other as you are walking – and you are sad?”

18 And the one whose name was Qleophas answering, said to Him, “Are You the lone visitor in Jerushalayim who does not know what took place in it these days?”

19 And He said to them, “What?” And they said to Him, “Concerning of Natsareth, who was a Prophet mighty in deed and word before Elohim and all the people, 20 and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered Him to be condemned to death, and impaled Him.

21 “We, however, were expecting that it was He who was going to redeem Yisra’el. But besides all this, today is the third day since these matters took place.
22 "But certain women of ours, who arrived at the tomb early, also astonished us,
23 when they did not find His body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of messengers who said He was alive.
24 "And some of those with us went to the tomb and found it, as also the women had said, but they did not see Him."
25 And He said to them, “O thoughtless ones, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken!
26 “Was it not necessary for the Messiah to suffer these and to enter into His esteem?”
27 And beginning at Mosheh and all the Prophets, He was explaining to them in all the Scriptures the matters concerning Himself.
28 And they approached the village where they were going, and He seemed to be going on.
29 But they urged Him strongly, saying, “Stay with us, for it is toward evening, and the day has declined.” And He went in to stay with them.
30 And it came to be, when He sat at the table with them, having taken the bread, He blessed, and having broken, He was giving it to them.
31 And their eyes were opened and they recognised Him. And He disappeared from their sight.
32 And they said to each other, “Was not our heart burning within us as He was speaking to us on the way, and as He was opening the Scriptures to us?”
33 And rising up that same hour they returned to Yerushalayim, and found the eleven and those who were with them gathered together, 34 saying, “The Master was truly raised, and has appeared to Shim‘on!”
35 And they related what took place on the way, and how He was recognised by them in the breaking of the bread.
36 And as they were saying this, יהושע Himself stood in the midst of them, and said to them, “Peace to you.”
37 And being startled and frightened, they thought they had seen a spirit.
38 And He said to them, “Why are you troubled? And why do doubts arise in your hearts?
39 “See My hands and My feet, that it is I Myself. Handle Me and see, for a spirit does not have flesh and bones as you see I have.”
40 And saying this, He showed them His hands and His feet.
41 And while they were still not believing for joy, and marvelling, He said to them, “Have you any food here?”
42 And they gave Him a piece of a broiled fish and some honeycomb.
43 And taking it He ate in their presence.
44 And He said to them, “These are the words which I spoke to you while I was still with you, that all have to be filled that were written in the Torah of Mosheh and the Prophets and the Psalms concerning Me.”
45 Then He opened their minds to understand the Scriptures, p
46 and said to them, “Thus it has been written, and so it was necessary for the Messiah to suffer and to rise again from the dead the third day, 47 and that repentance and forgiveness of sins should be proclaimed in His Name to all nations, beginning at Yerushalayim.
48 “And you are witnesses of these matters.
49 “And see, I am sending the Promise of My Father upon you, but you are to remain in the city of Yerushalayim until you are clothed with power from on high.” q
50 And He led them out as far as Bêyth Anyah, and lifting up His hands He blessed them.
51 And it came to be, while He was blessing them, that He was parted from them and was taken up into the heaven.
52 And they, having bowed down to Him, returned to Yerushalayim with great joy, 53 and were continually in the Set-apart Place praising and blessing Elohim. Amên.

p יהושע is the One who truly opens our minds to understand the Scriptures! q Acts 1:4-8.
In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with Elohim, and the Word was Elohim.

He was in the beginning with Elohim.

All came to be through Him, and without Him not even one came to be that came to be.

In Him was life, and the life was the light of men.

And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it.

There was a man sent from Elohim, whose name was Yoḥanan.

This one came for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all might believe through him.

He was not that Light, but that he might bear witness of that Light.

He was the true Light, which enlightens every man, coming into the world.

He was in the world, and the world came to be through Him, and the world did not know Him.

He came to His own, and His own did not receive Him.

But as many as received Him, to them He gave the authority to become children of Elohim, to those believing in His Name, who were born, not of blood nor of the desire of flesh nor of the desire of man, but of Elohim.

And the Word became flesh and pitched His tent among us, and we saw His esteem, esteem as of an only brought-forth of a father, complete in favour and truth.

Yoḥanan bore witness of Him and cried out, saying, “This was He of whom I said, ‘He who comes after me has become before me, because He was before me.’ ”

And out of His completeness we all did receive, and favour upon favour, for the Torah was given through Mosheh – the favour and the truth came through Messiah.

No one has ever seen Elohim. The only brought-forth Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, He did declare.

Now this was the witness of Yoḥanan when the Yehuḏim sent from Yerushalayim priests and Lévites to ask him, “Who are you?”

And he confessed, and did not deny, but confessed, “I am not the Messiah.”

And they asked him, “What then, are you Éliyahu?” So he said, “I am not.” “Are you the Prophet?” And he answered, “No.”

Therefore they said to him, “Who are you, so that we give an answer to those who sent us? What do you say about yourself?”

He said, “I am a voice of one crying in the wilderness, ‘Make straight the way of the Lord,’ as the prophet Yeshayahu said.”

And those sent were of the Pharisees, and they asked him, saying, “Why then do you immerse if you are not the Messiah, nor Éliyahu, nor the Prophet?”

Yoḥanan answered them, saying, “I immerse in water, but in your midst stands One whom you do not know, the One coming after me, who has become before me, whose sandal strap I am not worthy to loosen.”

This took place in Bēyth Anyah beyond the Yardēn, where Yoḥanan was immersing.

On the next day Yoḥanan saw coming toward him, and said, “See, the Lamb of Elohim who takes away the sin of the world!”

“This is He of whom I said, ‘After me

\[a\] Eph. 3:9, Col. 1:16, Heb. 1:2, Heb. 11:3, 2 Kēpha 3:5, Teh. 33:6. \[b\] An indication that His birth was during the Festival of Booths. \[c\] 5:37, 6:46, 1 Yn. 4:12. \[d\] The pre-existent Son declared, and was the One who appeared to men. \[e\] Mt. 1:21, Titus 2:14, 1 Yn. 3:5 & 8.
comes a Man who has become before me, for He was before me.’

31 “And I did not know Him, but that He might be revealed to Yisra’êl, therefore I came immersing in water.”

32 And YoÁanan bore witness, saying, “I have seen the Spirit coming down from heaven like a dove and remain on Him.

33 “And I did not know Him, but He who sent me to immerse in water said to me, ‘Upon whom you see the Spirit coming down and remaining on Him, this is He who immerses in the Set-apart Spirit.’

34 “And I have seen and have witnessed that this is the Son of Elohim.”

35 Again the following day, YoÁanan was standing with two of his taught ones,

36 and looking at YoÁanan walking, he said, “See the Lamb of Elohim!”

37 And the two taught ones heard him speaking, and they followed YoÁanan.

38 And YoÁanan turning, and seeing them following, said to them, “What do you seek?” And they said to Him, “Rabbi” (which means Teacher), “where are You staying?”

39 He said to them, “Come and see.” They went and saw where He was staying, and remained with Him that day. Now it was about the tenth hour.

40 Andri, the brother of ShimÈon KÃpha, was one of the two who heard from YoÁanan, and followed Him.

41 First he found his own brother ShimÈon, and said to him, “We have found the Messiah” (which means the Anointed).

42 And he brought him to YoÁanan. And looking at him, YoÁanan said, “You are ShimÈon the son of Yonah, you shall be called KÃpha” (which means A Stone).

43 On the following day YoÁanan wished to go to Galil, and He found Philip and said to him, “Follow Me.”

44 And Philip was from Bëyth TsaiÅa, the city of Andri and Kêpha.

45 Philip found Nethanêl and said to him, “We have found Him whom Mosheh wrote of in the Torah, and the prophets: YoÁanan of Natsareth – the son of Yosèph.”

46 And Nethanêl said to him, “Is it possible for any good matter to come out of Natsareth?” Philip said to him, “Come and see.”

47 YoÁanan saw Nethanêl coming toward Him, and said of him, “See, truly a Yisra’êlèite, in whom is no deceit!”

48 Nethanêl said to Him, “From where do You know me?” YoÁanan answered and said to him, “Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you.”

49 Nethanêl answered and said to Him, “Rabbi, You are the Son of Elohim! You are the Sovereign of Yisra’êl!”

50 YoÁanan answered and said to him, “Because I said to you, ‘I saw you under the fig tree,’ do you believe? Greater than that you shall see.”

51 And He said to him, “Truly, truly, I say to you, from now on you shall see the heaven opened, and the messengers of Elohim ascending and descending upon the Son of AÅam.”

2 And on the third day there was a wedding in Qanah of Galil, and the mother of YoÁanan was there.

2 And both YoÁanan and His taught ones were invited to the wedding.

3 And when they were short of wine, the mother of YoÁanan said to Him, “They have no wine.”

4 YoÁanan said to her, “Woman, what is that to Me and to you? My hour has not yet come.”

5 His mother said to the servants, “Do whatever He says to you.”

6 And there were six stone water-jugs standing there, according to the mode of cleansing of the YehuÅim, each holding two or three measures.

7 YoÁanan said to them, “Fill the water-jugs with water.” And they filled them up to the brim.

8 And He said to them, “Now draw out and take it to the master of the feast.” So they took it.

9 But when the master of the feast had tasted the water that had become wine, and See v. 15.

did not know where it came from – though the servants who had drawn the water knew – the master of the feast called the bridegroom,

10 and said to him, “Every man at the beginning sets out the good wine, and when they have drunk, then that which is poorer. You have kept the good wine until now.”

11 This, the beginning of the signs, נציצית did in Qanah of Galil, and manifested His esteem. And His taught ones believed in Him.

12 After this He went down to Kephar Na¿hum, He and His mother, and His brothers, and His taught ones. And there they stayed not many days.

13 And the Passover of the YehuÅim was near, and נציצית went up to Yerushalayim.

14 And He found in the Set-apart Place those selling oxen and sheep and doves, and the moneychangers sitting.

15 And having made a whip of cords, He drove them all out of the Set-apart Place, with the sheep and the oxen, and poured out the moneychangers’ coins and overturned the tables.

16 And He said to those selling doves, “Take these away! Do not make the house of My Father a house of merchandise!”

17 And His taught ones remembered that it was written, “The ardour for Your house has eaten Me up.”

18 And when He was raised from the dead, His taught ones remembered that He said this to them. And they believed the Scripture and the word which נציצית had said.

23 And when He was in Yerushalayim at the Passover, at the festival, many believed in His Name when they saw the signs which He was doing.

24 But נציצית was not entrusting Himself to them, because He knew all men, 25 and had no need that anyone should witness of man, for He knew what was in man.

3 And there was a man of the Pharisees, Nakדימון was his name, a ruler of the Yehudiim.

2 This one came to נציצית by night and said to Him, “Rabbi, we know that You are a teacher come from Elohim, for no one is able to do these signs You do if Elohim is not with him.”

3 נציצית answered and said to him, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born from above, he is unable to see the reign of Elohim.”

4 Nakדימון said to Him, “How is a man able to be born when he is old? Is he able to enter into his mother’s womb a second time and be born?”

5 נציצית answered, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he is unable to enter into the reign of Elohim.

6 “That which has been born of the flesh is flesh, and that which has been born of the Spirit is spirit.

7 “Do not marvel that I said to you, ‘You have to be born from above.’

8 “The Spirit breathes where it wishes, and you hear the sound of it, but do not know where it comes from and where it goes. So is everyone who has been born of the Spirit.”

9 Nakדימון answered and said to Him, “How is it possible for this to take place?”

10 נציצית answered and said to him, “Are you the teacher of Yisra’el, and do not know this?

11 “Truly, truly, I say to you, We speak what We know and witness what We have seen, and you do not receive Our witness.

12 “If you do not believe when I spoke to you about earthly matters, how are you

\[g\] Or perceive.  \[h\] Or wind.
going to believe when I speak to you about the heavenly matters?

13 “And no one has gone up into the heaven except He who came down from the heaven – the Son of Aḏām.

14 “And as Mosheh lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so the Son of Aḏām has to be lifted up, 15 so that whoever is believing in Him should not perish but possess everlasting life.

16 “For Elohim so loved the world that He gave His only brought-forth Son, so that everyone who believes in Him should not perish but possess everlasting life.

17 “For Elohim did not send His Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world through Him might be saved.

18 “He who believes in Him is not judged, but he who does not believe is judged already, because he has not believed in the Name of the only brought-forth Son of Elohim.

19 “And this is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light, for their works were wicked.

20 “For everyone who is practising evil matters hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his works should be exposed.

21 “But the one doing the truth comes to the light, so that his works are clearly seen, that they have been wrought in Elohim.”

22 After this, יוחנן and His taught ones came into the land of Yehuḏah, and He remained there with them, and was immersing.

23 And Yojhanan was also immersing in Ayin near Salim, because there was plenty of water there. And they were coming and were being immersed, 24 for Yojhanan had not yet been put into prison.

25 Then a dispute arose between some of Yojhanan’s taught ones and the Yehudim about cleansing.

26 and they came to Yojhanan and said to him, “Rabbi, He who was with you beyond the Yardên, to whom you have witnessed, see, He is immersing, and all are coming to Him!”

27 Yojhanan answered and said, “No man is able to receive any matter unless it is given to him from the heaven.

28 “You yourselves are witnesses for me that I said, ‘I am not the Messiah but I am sent ahead of Him.’

29 “He that has the bride is the bridegroom, but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the voice of the bridegroom. So this joy of mine is complete.

30 “It is right for Him to increase, but me to decrease.

31 “He who comes from above is over all, he who is from the earth is of the earth and speaks of the earth. He who comes from the heaven is over all.

32 “And what He has seen and heard, that He witnesses. And no one receives His witness.

33 “He who receives His witness has set his seal that Elohim is true.

34 “For He whom Elohim has sent speaks the Words of Elohim, for Elohim does not give the Spirit by measure.

35 “The Father loves the Son, and has given all into His hand.

36 “He who believes in the Son possesses everlasting life, but he who does not obey the Son shall not see life, but the wrath of Elohim remains on him.”

4 So when the Master knew that the Pharisees had heard that יוחנן made and immersed more taught ones than Yojhanan –

2 although יוחנן Himself did not immerse, but His taught ones –

3 He left Yehuḏah and went away again to Galil.

4 And He had to pass through Shomeron.

5 So He came to a city of Shomeron, called Sheḵem, near the piece of land

---

\[i\] Word and Spirit work together, speak unanimously. \[j\] We are declared right through belief in the Son, but the final proof of our belief is whether we subsequently obey Him – or not! \[k\] So, according to the latest discoveries.
Ya’aqoḇ gave to his son Yosēph.

6 And Ya’aqoḇ’s fountain was there. So Ḥaḇašlān said to her, “Give Me to drink.”

7 A woman of Shomeron came to draw water. Ḥaḇašlān said to her, “Give Me to drink.”

8 For His taught ones had gone off into the city to buy food.

9 The woman of Shomeron therefore said to Him, “How is it that You, being a Yehuḏite, ask a drink from me, a woman of Shomeron?” For Yehuḏim do not associate with Shomeronites.

10 Ḥaḇašlān answered and said to her, “If you knew the gift of Elohim, and who it is who says to you, ‘Give Me to drink,’ you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water.”

11 The woman said to Him, “Master, You have no vessel, and the well is deep. From where, then, do You have living water?

12 “Are You greater than our father Ya’aqoḇ, who gave us the well, and drank from it himself, and his sons, and his cattle?”

13 Ḥaḇašlān answered and said to her, “Everyone drinking of this water shall thirst again, 14 but whoever drinks of the water I give him shall certainly never thirst. And the water that I give him shall become in him a fountain of water springing up into everlasting life.”

15 The woman said to Him, “Master, give me this water, so that I do not thirst, nor come here to draw.”

16 Ḥaḇašlān said to her, “Go, call your husband, and come here.”

17 The woman answered and said, “I have no husband.” Ḥaḇašlān said to her, “You have well said, ‘I have no husband,’

18 for you have had five husbands, and the one whom you now have is not your husband. What you have said is true.”

19 The woman said to Him, “Master, I see that You are a prophet.

20 “Our fathers worshipped on this mountain, but you people say that in Yerușalayim is the place where one needs to worship.”

21 Ḥaḇašlān said to her, “Woman, believe Me, the hour is coming when you shall neither on this mountain, nor in Yerușalayim, worship the Father.

22 “You worship what you do not know. We worship what we know, because the deliverance is of the Yehuḏim.”

23 “But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father also does seek such to worship Him.

24 “Elohim is Spirit, and those who worship Him need to worship in spirit and truth.”

25 The woman said to Him, “I know that Messiah is coming, the One who is called Anointed. When that One comes, He shall announce to us all.”

26 Ḥaḇašlān said to her, “I who am speaking to you am He.”

27 And upon this His taught ones came, and they were marvelling that He was speaking with a woman, however, no one said, “What do You seek?” or, “Why do You speak with her?”

28 The woman then left her water-jug, and went away to the city, and said to the men,

29 “Come, see a Man who told me all that I have done. Is this not the Messiah?”

30 They went out of the city and were coming to Him.

31 But in the meantime His taught ones were asking Him, saying, “Rabbi, eat.”

32 And He said to them, “I have food to eat of which you do not know.”

33 Then the taught ones said to each other, “Did anyone bring Him food to eat?”

34 Ḥaḇašlān said to them, “My food is to do the desire of Him who sent Me, and to accomplish His work.

35 “Do you not say, ‘There are still four months, and the harvest comes’? See, I say to you, lift up your eyes and see the fields, for they are white for harvest – already!
36 “He who is reaping receives a reward, and gathers fruit for everlasting life, so that both he who is sowing and he who is reaping rejoice together.
37 “For in this the word is true, ‘One sows and another reaps.’
38 “I sent you to reap that for which you have not laboured. Others have laboured, and you have entered into their labours.”
39 And many of the Shomeronites of that city believed in Him because of the word of the woman who witnessed, “He told me all that I have done.”
40 Therefore when the Shomeronites came to Him, they were asking Him to stay with them, and He stayed there two days.
41 And many more believed because of His word.
42 And they said to the woman, “We no longer believe because of what you said, for we ourselves have heard, and we know that this is truly the Messiah, the Saviour of the world.”
43 And after the two days He left there and went to Galil.
44 For Himself witnessed that a prophet is without appreciation in his own country.
45 Therefore when He came to Galil, the Galileans received Him, having seen all that He had done in Yerushalayim at the festival, for they also went to the festival.
46 Then came again to Qanah of Galil where He had made the water wine.
47 When he heard that had come from YehuÅah into Galil, he went to Him and was asking Him to come down and heal his son, for he was about to die.
48 then said to him, “If you people do not see signs and wonders, you do not believe at all.”
49 The nobleman said to Him, “Master, come down before my child dies!”
50 said to him, “Go, your son lives.” And the man believed the word that spoke to him, and went.
51 And while he was going down, his servants met him and reported, saying, “Your son lives!”
52 He then asked from them the hour in which he became better, and they said to him, “Yesterday at the seventh hour the inflammation left him.”
53 Then the father knew that it was at the same hour in which said to him, “Your son lives.” And he himself believed, and all his household.
54 Again this was the second sign did, when He had come from Yehuḏah into Galil.

5 After this there was a festival of the Yehuḏim, and went up to Yerushalayim.
2 And in Yerushalayim at the Sheep Gate there is a pool, which is called in Hebrew, Bëyth Zatha, having five porches.
3 In these were lying a great number of those who were sick, blind, crippled, paralysed, waiting for the stirring of the water.
4 For a messenger was going down at a certain time into the pool and was stirring the water. Whoever stepped in first, then, after the stirring of the water, became well of whatever disease he had.
5 And a certain man was there who had a sickness thirty-eight years.
6 When saw him lying there, and knowing that he already had been a long time, He said to him, “Do you wish to become well?”
7 The sick man answered Him, “Master, I have no man to put me into the pool when the water is stirred, but while I am coming, another steps down before me.”
8 said to him, “Rise, take up your bed and walk.”
9 And immediately the man became well, and he took up his bed and was walking. Now it was Sabbath on that day.
10 The Yehudim therefore said to him who had been healed, “It is the Sabbath, it is not right for you to take up the bed.”
11 He answered them, “He who made me well said to me, ‘Take up your bed and walk.’” 12 Therefore they asked him, “Who is the Man who said to you, ‘Take up your bed and walk’?”

13 But the one who was healed did not know who it was, for מְשַׁפְּרָה had moved away, a crowd being in that place.

14 Afterward מְשַׁפְּרָה found him in the Set-apart Place, and said to him, “See, you have been made well. Sin no more, o so that no worse matter befalls you.”

15 The man went away, and told the יֵהוָהַים that it was מְשַׁפְּרָה who made him well.

16 And because of this the יֵהוָהַים persecuted מְשַׁפְּרָה, and were seeking to kill Him, because He was doing these healings on the Sabbath.

17 But מְשַׁפְּרָה answered them, “My Father works until now, and I work.”

18 Because of this, then, the יֵהוָהַים were seeking all the more to kill Him, ‘because not only was He breaking the Sabbath, but He also called יהוה His own Father, making Himself equal with יהוה.’

19 Therefore מְשַׁפְּרָה responded and said to them, “ Truly, truly, I say to you, the Son is able to do none at all by Himself, but only that which He sees the Father doing, because whatever He does, the Son also likewise does.

20 “For the Father loves the Son, and shows Him all that He Himself does. And greater works than these He is going to show Him, in order that you marvel.

21 “For as the Father raises the dead and makes alive, even so the Son makes alive whom He wishes.

22 “For the Father judges no one, but has given all the judgment to the Son, 23 that all should value the Son even as they value the Father. He who does not value the Son does not value the Father who sent Him.

24 “Truly, truly, I say to you, he who hears My word and believes in Him who sent Me possesses everlasting life, and does not come into judgment, but has passed from death into life.

25 “Truly, truly, I say to you, the hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of יהוה. And those having heard shall live.

26 “For as the Father possesses life in Himself, so He gave also to the Son to possess life in Himself, 27 and He has given Him authority also to do judgment, because He is the Son of Adam.

28 “Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the tombs shall hear His voice,

29 and shall come forth – those who have done good, to the resurrection of life, and those who have practised evil matters, to a resurrection of judgment.

30 “Of Myself I am unable to do any matter. As I hear, I judge, and My judgment is righteous, because I do not seek My own desire, but the desire of the Father who sent Me.

31 “If I bear witness of Myself, My witness is not true.

32 “There is another who bears witness of Me, and I know that the witness which He witnesses of Me is true.

33 “You have sent to约瑟, and he bore witness to the truth.

34 “But I do not receive witness from man, but I say this in order that you might be saved.

35 “He was the burning and shining lamp, and for a while you wished to rejoice in his light.

36 “But I have a greater witness than that of约瑟, for the works that the Father gave Me to accomplish, the works that I do, bear witness of Me, that the Father has sent Me.

37 “And the Father who sent Me, He bore witness of Me. You have neither heard His voice at any time, nor seen His form.

38 “And you do not have His Word staying in you, because you do not believe Him whom He sent.

39 “You search the Scriptures, because you think you possess everlasting life in them. And these are the ones that bear witness of Me.

40 "But you do not desire to come to Me in order to possess life.

41 "I do not receive esteem from men, but I know you, that you do not have the love of Elohim in you.

42 "I have come in My Father’s Name and you do not receive Me, if another comes in his own name, him you would receive.

43 "How are you able to believe, when you are receiving esteem from one another, and the esteem that is from the only Elohim you do not seek?

44 "Do not think that I shall accuse you to the Father. There is one who accuses you: Mosheh, in whom you have set your expectation.

45 "For if you believed Mosheh, you would have believed Me, since he wrote about Me.

46 "But if you do not believe his writings, how shall you believe My words?"

6 After this Ḥošaná went away to the other side of the Sea of Galil, that is Lake Kinnereth.

2 And a large crowd was following Him, because they saw His signs which He did on those who were sick.

3 And Ḥošaná went up on a mountain, and there He sat down with His taught ones.

4 And the Passover was near, the festival of the Yehuḏim.

5 Then Ḥošaná, lifting up His eyes and seeing a large crowd coming toward Him, said to Philip, “Where shall we buy bread for them to eat?”

6 And this He said, trying him, for He Himself knew what He would do.

7 Philip answered Him, “Two hundred pieces of silver worth of bread is not sufficient for them, for every one of them to receive a little.”

8 One of His taught ones, Andri, the brother of Shim’on Kêpha, said to Him,

9 “Here is a boy who has five barley loaves and two fishes, but what are these for so many?”

10 And Ḥošaná said, “Make the people sit down.” Now there was much grass in the place, and the men, numbering about five thousand, sat down.

11 And Ḥošaná took the loaves, and having given thanks He distributed them to the taught ones, and the taught ones to those sitting down. And the same with the fish, as much as they wished.

12 And when they were filled, He said to His taught ones, “Gather the broken pieces that are left over, so that none gets wasted.”

13 So they gathered them and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces of the five barley loaves which were left over by those who had eaten.

14 Then the men, having seen the sign that Ḥošaná did, said, “This is truly the Prophet who is coming to the world.”

15 Then Ḥošaná, knowing that they were about to come and seize Him, that they might make Him sovereign, withdrew again to the mountain, alone by Himself.

16 And when evening came, His taught ones went down to the sea,

17 and entering into the boat, they were going over the sea toward Kephar Naḥum. And it had already become dark, and Ḥošaná had not yet come to them.

18 And the sea was rising because a great wind was blowing.

19 When they had rowed about five or six kilometres, they saw Ḥošaná walking on the sea and coming near the boat, and they were afraid.

20 And He said to them, “It is I, do not be afraid.”

21 They wished therefore to take Him into the boat, and at once the boat was at the land where they were going.

22 On the next day, the crowd that was standing on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there except that one into which His taught ones had entered, and that Ḥošaná had not entered.
the boat with His taught ones, but His taught ones went away alone—
23 but other boats came from Kinnereth, near the place where they ate bread after the Master had given thanks—
24 therefore when the crowd saw that Ḥayyim was not there, nor His taught ones, they themselves also entered into the boats and came to Kephār Naḥum, seeking Ḥayyim.
25 And having found Him on the other side of the sea, they asked Him, “Rabbi, when did You come here?”
26 Ḥayyim answered them and said, “Truly, truly, I say to you, you seek Me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate of the loaves and were satisfied.
27 “Do not labour for the food that is perishing, but for the food that is remaining to everlasting life, which the Son of Aḏâm shall give you, for the Father, Elohim, has set His seal on Him.”
28 So they said to Him, “What should we do to work the works of Elohim?”
29 Ḥayyim answered and said to them, “This is the work of Elohim, that you believe in Him whom He sent.”
30 So they said to Him, “What sign then would You do, so that we see and believe You? What would You do?
31 “Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, as it has been written, ‘He gave them bread out of the heaven to eat.’ ”
32 Therefore Ḥayyim said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, Mosheh did not give you the bread out of the heaven, but My Father gives you the true bread out of the heaven.
33 “For the bread of Elohim is He who comes down out of the heaven and gives life to the world.”
34 So they said to Him, “Master, give us this bread always.”
35 And Ḥayyim said to them, “I am the bread of life. He who comes to Me shall not get hungry at all, and he who believes in Me shall not get thirsty at all.
36 “But I said to you that you have seen Me, and still do not believe.

37 “All that the Father gives Me shall come to Me, and the one who comes to Me I shall by no means cast out.
38 “Because I have come down out of the heaven, not to do My own desire, but the desire of Him who sent Me.
39 “This is the desire of the Father who sent Me, that all He has given Me I should not lose of it, but should raise it in the last day.
40 “And this is the desire of Him who sent Me, that everyone who sees the Son and believes in Him should possess everlasting life. And I shall raise him up in the last day.”
41 Therefore the Yehuḏīm were grumbling against Him, because He said, “I am the bread which came down out of the heaven.”
42 And they said, “Is not this Ḥayyim, the son of Yosêph, whose father and mother we know? How is it then that He says, ‘I have come down out of the heaven’?”
43 Then Ḥayyim answered and said to them, “Do not grumble with one another.
44 “No one is able to come to Me unless the Father who sent Me draws him. And I shall raise him up in the last day.
45 “It has been written in the prophets, ‘And they shall all be taught by HWHY.’ Everyone, then, who has heard from the Father, and learned, comes to Me.
46 “Not that anyone has seen the Father, except He who is from Elohim – He has seen the Father.
47 “Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes in Me possesses everlasting life.
48 “I am the bread of life.
49 “Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness and they died.
50 “This is the bread which comes down out of the heaven, so that anyone might eat of it, and not die.
51 “I am the living bread which came down out of the heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he shall live forever. And indeed, the bread that I shall give is My flesh, which I shall give for the life of the world.”
52 The Yehuḏīm, therefore, were striving

† See vv. 35, 48, 51, 58, and Mt. 4:4.
with one another, saying, “How is this One able to give us His flesh to eat?”

53 יהושע therefore said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Aḏām and drink His blood, you possess no life in yourselves.

54 “He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood possesses everlasting life, and I shall raise him up in the last day.

55 “For My flesh is truly food, and My blood is truly drink.

56 “He who eats My flesh and drinks My blood stays in Me, and I in him.

57 “As the living Father sent Me, and I live because of the Father, so he who feeds on Me shall live because of Me.

58 “This is the bread which came down out of the heaven, not as your fathers ate the manna and died. He who eats this bread shall live forever.”

59 He said this in a congregation, teaching in Kephar Nahum.

60 Therefore many of His taught ones having heard, said, “This word is hard, who is able to hear it?”

61 But יהושע knowing within Himself that His taught ones were grumbling about this, said to them, “Does this make you stumble?

62 “What if you see the Son of Aḏām going up where He was before? u 63 “It is the Spirit that gives life, the flesh does not profit at all. The words that I speak to you are Spirit and are life.

64 “But there are some of you who do not believe.” For יהושע knew from the beginning who they were who did not believe, and who would deliver Him up.

65 And He said, “Because of this I have said to you that no one is able to come to Me unless it has been given to him by My Father.”

66 From then on many of His taught ones withdrew and were not walking with Him any more.

67 יהושע therefore said to the twelve, “Do you also wish to go away?”

68 Then Shim’on Kêpha answered Him, “Master, to whom shall we go? You possess words of everlasting life.

69 “And we have believed, and we know that You are the Messiah, the Son of the living Elohim.”

70 יהושע answered them, “Have I not chosen you, the twelve, and one of you is a devil?”

71 He was now speaking of Yehuḏāh from Qerioth, the son of Shim’on, for he, one of the twelve, was about to deliver Him up.

7 And after this יהושע was walking in Galil, for He did not wish to walk in Yehuḏah, because the Yehuḏim were seeking to kill Him.

2 And the festival of the Yehuḏim was near, the Festival of Booths.

3 So His brothers said to Him, ‘Get away from here and go into Yehuḏah, so that Your taught ones also see the works that You are doing.

4 “For no one acts in secret while he himself seeks to be known openly. If You do these works, show Yourself to the world.”

5 For even His brothers did not believe in Him.

6 יהושע therefore said to them, “My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready.

7 “It is impossible for the world to hate you, but it hates Me because I bear witness of it, that its works are wicked.

8 “You go up to this festival. I am not yet going up to this festival, for My time has not yet been filled.”

9 And having said this to them, He stayed in Galil.

10 But when His brothers had gone up to the festival, then He also went up, not openly, but as it were in secret.

11 The Yehuḏim, therefore, were seeking Him at the festival, and said, “Where is He?”

12 And there was much grumbling about Him among the crowd. Some were saying, “He is good,” but others were saying, “No, but He is leading the crowd astray.”

13 However, no one spoke openly of Him for fear of the Yehuḏim.

u More proof of His pre-existence. v See v. 68, and 1 Cor. 15:45. Word and Spirit are in unity.
14 And about the middle of the festival Ḥag Ha-Shavuot went up into the Set-apart Place, and He was teaching.
15 And the Yehuḏim were marveling, saying, “How does this Man know letters, not having learned?”
16 ḤSH answered them and said, “My teaching is not Mine, but His who sent Me.

17 “If anyone desires to do His desire, he shall know concerning the teaching, whether it is from Elohim, or whether I speak from Myself.
18 “He who speaks from himself is seeking his own esteem, but He who seeks the esteem of the One who sent Him is true, and no unrighteousness is in Him.
19 “Did not Mosheh give you the Torah? Yet not one of you does the Torah! Why do you seek to kill Me?”
20 The crowd answered and said, “You have a demon, who seeks to kill You?”
21 ḤSH answered and said to them, “I did one work, and you all marvel.
22 “Because of this Mosheh has given you the circumcision – though it is not from Mosheh, but from the fathers – and you circumcise a man on the Sabbath.
23 “If a man receives circumcision on the Sabbath, so that the Torah of Mosheh should not be broken, are you wroth with Me because I made a man entirely well on the Sabbath?
24 “Do not judge according to appearance, but judge with righteous judgment.”
25 Therefore some of them from Yerushalayim said, “Where is He about to go that we shall not find Him? Is He about to go to the Dispersion among the Greeks, and to teach the Greeks?
26 “What is this word which He said, ‘You shall seek Me and you shall not find Me, and where I am you are unable to come’?”
27 And on the last day, the great day of the festival, ḤSH stood and cried out, saying, “If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me, and let him who believes in Me drink.
28 ḤSH therefore cried out in the Set-apart Place, teaching and saying, “You both know Me, and you know where I am from. And I have not come of Myself, but He who sent Me is true, whom you do not know.
29 “But I know Him, because I am from Him, and He sent Me.”
30 So they were seeking to seize Him, but no one laid a hand on Him, because His hour had not yet come.
31 And many of the crowd believed in Him, and said, “When the Messiah comes, shall He do more signs than these which this One did?”
32 The Pharisees heard the crowd muttering these matters concerning Him, and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to seize Him.
33 Therefore ḤSH said to them, “Yet a little while I am with you, then I go to Him who sent Me.
34 “You shall seek Me and you shall not find Me, and where I am you are unable to come.”
35 The Yehuḏim, therefore, said to themselves, “Where is He about to go that we shall not find Him? Is He about to go to the Dispersion among the Greeks, and to teach the Greeks?
36 “What is this word which He said, ‘You shall seek Me and you shall not find Me, and where I am you are unable to come’?”
37 And the great day of the festival, ḤSH stood and cried out, saying, “If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me, and let him who believes in Me drink.
38 “As the Scripture said, out of His innermost shall flow rivers of living water.”
39 And this He said concerning the Spirit, which those believing in Him were about to receive, for the Set-apart Spirit was not yet given, because ḤSH was not yet esteemed.
40 Many from the crowd, when they heard the word, then said, “This truly is the Prophet.”
Others said, “This is the Messiah,” but others said, “Does the Messiah then come out of Galil?
“Did not the Scripture say that the Messiah comes from the seed of Dawiš and from the village of Bëyth Lehem, where Dawiš was?”
So a division came about among the people because of Him.
And some of them wished to take Him, but no one laid hands on Him.
The officers therefore came to the chief priests and Pharisees. And they said to them, “Why did you not bring Him?”
The officers answered, “Never has any man spoken like this Man!”
The Pharisees, therefore, answered them, “Have you also been led astray?
Has anyone of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed in Him?
But this crowd that does not know the Torah is accursed.”
Na¿dimon – he who came to by night, being one of them – said to them, “Does our Torah judge the man unless it hears first from him and knows what he is doing?”
They answered and said to him, “Are you also from Galil? Search and see that no prophet has arisen out of Galil.”
And each one went to his own house.

And went to the Mount of Olives.
And at dawn He came again into the Set-apart Place, and all the people were coming to Him. And having sat down, He was teaching them.
And the scribes and Pharisees brought to Him a woman caught in adultery. And having set her in the midst, they said to Him, “Teacher, this woman was caught in the act of adultery.
And in the Torah Mosheh commanded us that such should be stoned. What then do You say?”
And this they said, trying Him, so that they might accuse Him. But , bending down, wrote on the ground with the finger, as though He did not hear.
But as they kept on questioning Him, He straightened up and said to them, “He who is without sin among you, let him be the first to throw a stone at her.”
And bending down again, He wrote on the ground.
And when they heard it, being reproved by their conscience, went out one by one, beginning from the older ones until the last. And was left alone, and the woman standing in the middle.
, straightening up and seeing no one but the woman, said to her, “Woman, where are those accusers of yours? Did no one condemn you?”
And she said, “No one, Master.” And to her, “Neither do I condemn you. Go and sin no more.”
Therefore spoke to them again, saying, “I am the light of the world. He who follows Me shall by no means walk in darkness, but possess the light of life.”
The Pharisees, therefore, said to Him, “You bear witness about Yourself, Your witness is not true.”
answered and said to them, “Even if I witness concerning Myself, My witness is true, for I know where I came from and where I am going. But you do not know from where I come, or where I go.
“ ‘You judge according to the flesh, I judge no one.
‘But even if I do judge, My judgment is true, because I am not alone in it, but I and the Father who sent Me.
‘And in your Torah also, it has been written that the witness of two men is true.
‘I am One who witnesses concerning Myself, and the Father who sent Me witnesses concerning Me.’
Therefore they said to Him, “Where is Your Father?” answered, “You know neither Me nor My Father. If you knew Me, you would have known My Father also.”
These words spoke in the treat-sury, teaching in the Set-apart Place. And no one laid hands on Him, because His hour had not yet come.

21 Therefore יהושע said to them again, “I am going away, and you shall seek Me, and you shall die in your sin. Where I go you are unable to come.”

22 Then the יָהוּדים said, “Shall He kill Himself, because He says, “Where I go you are unable to come’?”

23 And He said to them, “You are from below, I am from above. You are of this world, I am not of this world.

24 “Therefore I said to you that you shall die in your sins. For if you do not believe that I am He, you shall die in your sins.”

25 Then they said to Him, “Who are You?” And יהושע said to them, “Altogether that which I even say to you!

26 “I have much to say and to judge concerning you. But He who sent Me is true, and what I heard from Him, these Words I speak to the world.”

27 They did not know that He spoke to them of the Father.

28 So יהושע said to them, “When you lift up the Son of Aḏām, then you shall know that I am He, and that I do none at all of Myself, but as My Father taught Me, these Words I speak to the world.”

29 They did not know that He spoke to them of the Father.

30 So יהושע said to them, “When you lift up the Son of Aḏām, then you shall know that I am He, and that I do none at all of Myself, but as My Father taught Me, these Words I speak.

31 As He was speaking these words, many believed in Him.

32 And He who sent Me is with Me. The Father has not left Me alone, for I always do what pleases Him.”

33 They answered and said to Him, “If you stay in My Word, you are truly My taught ones, 34 יהושע answered them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, everyone doing sin is a servant of sin. c 35 “And the servant does not stay in the house forever – a son stays forever.

36 “If, then, the Son makes you free, you shall be free indeed.

37 “I know that you are the seed of Aḇraham, but you seek to kill Me, because My word has no place in you.

38 “I speak what I have seen with My Father, and you do what you have heard from your father.”

39 They answered and said to Him, “Aḇraham is our father.” יהושע said to them, “If you were Aḇraham’s children, you would do the works of Aḇraham.

40 “But now you seek to kill Me, a Man who has spoken to you the truth which I heard from Elohim. Aḇraham did not do this.

41 “You do the works of your father.” Then they said to Him, “We were not born of whoring, we have one Father: Elohim.”

42 יהושע said to them, “If Elohim were your Father, you would love Me, for I came forth from Elohim, and am here. For I have not come of Myself, but He sent Me.

43 “Why do you not know what I say? Because you are unable to hear My Word.

44 “You are of your father the devil, and the desires of your father you wish to do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and has not stood in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks the lie, he speaks of his own, for he is a liar and the father of it.

45 “And because I speak the truth, you do not believe Me.

46 “Who of you proves Me wrong concerning sin? And if I speak the truth, why do you not believe Me?

47 “He who is of Elohim hears the Words of Elohim, therefore you do not hear because you are not of Elohim.”

48 The יָהוּדים answered and said to Him, “Do we not say well that You are a Shomeronite and have a demon?”

49 יהושע answered, “I do not have a demon, but I value My Father, and you do not value Me.

c יהושע came to set us free from sin, to deliver us from being in bondage to sin. This is the Good News, this is all that eventually matters! d See footnote Mt. 3:9, Rom. 9:8.
And I do not seek My own esteem, there is One who is seeking and is judging.

Truly, truly, I say to you, if anyone guards My Word he shall never see death at all.”

The YehuÄim said to Him, “Now we know that You have a demon! AbraÁham died, and the prophets. And You say, ‘If anyone guards My Word he shall never taste death at all.’

“Are You greater than our father AbraÁham, who died? And the prophets died. Whom do You make Yourself?”

aSWHY answered, “If I esteem Myself, My esteem is none at all. It is My Father who esteems Me, of whom you say that He is your Elohim.

And you have not known Him, but I know Him. And if I say, ‘I do not know Him,’ I shall be like you, a liar. But I do know Him and I guard His Word. e

Your father AbraÁham was glad that he should see My day, and he saw it and did rejoice.”

The YehuÄim, therefore, said to Him, “You are not yet fifty years old, and have You seen AbraÁham?”

aSWHY said to them, “Truly, truly, I say to you, before AbraÁham came to be, I am.” f

Therefore they picked up stones to throw at Him, but aSWHY was hidden and went out of the Set-apart Place, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

And passing by, He saw a man, blind from birth.

And His taught ones asked Him, saying, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he should be born blind?”

aSWHY answered, “Neither this man nor his parents sinned, but that the works of Elohim might be made manifest in him.

It is necessary for Me to work the works of Him who sent Me while it is day – night is coming, when no one is able to work.

While I am in the world, I am the light of the world.”

Having said this, He spat on the ground and made clay with the saliva, and applied the clay to the eyes of the blind man.

And He said to him, “Go, wash in the pool of Shiloa” (which means Sent). So he went and washed, and came seeing.

Therefore the neighbours and those who saw him before, that he was blind, said, “Is not this he who was sitting and begging?”

Others said, “This is he.” Others said, “He is like him.” He said, “I am.”

So they said to him, “How were your eyes opened?”

He answered and said, “A Man called aSWHY made clay and applied it to my eyes and said to me, ‘Go to the pool of Shiloa and wash.’ And I went and washed, and I received sight.”

And they said to him, “Where is He?” He said, “I do not know.”

They brought to the Pharisees the one who was once blind.

Now it was a Sabbath when aSWHY made the clay and opened his eyes.

Therefore the Pharisees also asked him again how he had received his sight. He said to them, “He put clay on my eyes, and I washed, and I see.”

Therefore some of the Pharisees said, “This Man is not from Elohim, because He does not guard the Sabbath.” Others said, “How is a man who is a sinner able to do such miracles?” And there was a division among them.

So they said to the blind one again, “What do you say about Him because He opened your eyes?” And he said, “He is a prophet.”

However, the YehuÄim did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind and received his sight, till they called the parents of him who had received his sight.

And they asked them, saying, “Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?”

His parents answered them and said, “We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind,

but how he now sees we do not know,
or who opened his eyes we do not know.
He is of age, ask him, he shall speak concerning himself.”

His parents said this because they were afraid of the Yehudim, for the Yehuḏim had already agreed that if anyone confessed that He was Messiah, he should be put out of the congregation.

Because of this his parents said, “He is of age, ask him.”

So for the second time they called the man who was blind, and said to him, “Give esteem to Elohim, we know that this Man is a sinner.”

Then he answered and said, “Whether He is a sinner, I do not know. I only know that I was blind, now I see.”

And they asked him once more, “What did He do to you? How did He open your eyes?”

He answered them, “I have told you already, and you did not hear. Why do you wish to hear it again? Do you wish to become His taught ones too?”

Then they abused him and said, “You are His taught one, but we are taught ones of Mosheh.

“We know that Elohim has spoken to Mosheh, but this One, we do not know where He is from.”

The man answered and said to them, “Why, this is a wonder! You do not know where He is from, yet He opened my eyes!

“And we know that Elohim does not hear sinners. But if anyone fears Elohim and does His desire, He hears Him.

“From of old it has never been heard that anyone opened the eyes of one who was born blind.

“If this One were not from Elohim, He could have done none at all.”

They answered and said to him, “You were completely born in sins – and are you teaching us?” And they cast him out.

Heard that they had cast him out, and when He had found him, He said to him, “Do you believe in the Son of Elohim?”

He answered and said, “Who is He, Master, that I might believe in Him?”

And said to him, “You have both seen Him and He who speaks with you is He.”

And he said, “Master, I believe,” and bowed before Him.

“For judgment I have come into this world, that those not seeing might see, and those seeing might become blind.”

And those of the Pharisees who were with Him heard these words, and said to Him, “Are we blind, too?”

“Truly, truly, I say to you, he who does not enter through the door into the sheepfold, but climbs up by another way, that one is a thief and a robber.

“But he who enters through the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

“The doorkeeper opens for him, and the sheep hear his voice. And he calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.

“And when he has brought out his own sheep, he goes before them. And the sheep follow him, because they know his voice.

“And they shall by no means follow a stranger, but shall flee from him, because they do not know the voice of strangers.”

used this figure of speech, but they did not know what He had been saying to them.

therefore said to them again, “Truly, truly, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep.

“All who came before Me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not hear them.

“I am the door. Whoever enters through Me, he shall be saved, and shall go in and shall go out and find pasture.

10 “The thief does not come except to steal, and to slaughter, and to destroy. I have come that they might possess life, and that they might possess it beyond measure.

11 “I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down His life for the sheep.

12 “But the hireling, and not being a shepherd, one who does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and flees. And the wolf snatches the sheep and scatters them.

13 “Now the hireling flees because he is a hireling and is not concerned about the sheep.

14 “I am the good shepherd. i And I know Mine, and Mine know Me, 15 even as the Father knows Me, and I know the Father. And I lay down My life for the sheep.

16 “And other sheep I have which are not of this fold – I have to bring them as well, and they shall hear My voice, and there shall be one flock, one shepherd.

17 “Because of this the Father loves Me, because I lay down My life, in order to receive it again.

18 “No one takes it from Me, but I lay it down of Myself. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to receive it again. This command I have received from My Father.”

19 Again there came a division among the Yehuḏim because of these words,

20 and many of them said, “He has a demon and is mad, why do you listen to Him?”

21 Others said, “These are not the words of one possessed by a demon. Is a demon able to open the eyes of the blind?”

22 At that time the Ḥanukkah came to be in Yerushalayim, and it was winter.

23 And Ḥanukkah was walking in the Set-apart Place, in the porch of Shelomoh.

24 So the Yehuḏim surrounded Him and said to Him, “How long do You keep us in suspense? If You are the Messiah, say to us plainly.”

25 Ḥanukkah answered them, “I have told you, and you do not believe. The works that I do in My Father’s Name, they bear witness concerning Me.

26 “But you do not believe, because you are not of My sheep, as I said to you.

27 “My sheep hear My voice, and I know them, and they follow Me. k

28 “And I give them everlasting life, and they shall by no means ever perish, and no one shall snatch them out of My hand.

29 “My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all. And no one is able to snatch them out of My Father’s hand.

30 “I and My Father are one.” l

31 Again the Yehuḏim picked up stones to stone Him.

32 Ḥanukkah answered them, “Many good works I have shown you from My Father. Because of which of these works do you stone Me?”

33 The Yehuḏim answered Him, saying, “We do not stone You for a good work, but for blasphemy, and because You, being a Man, make Yourself Elohim.”

34 Ḥanukkah answered them, “Is it not written in your own Torah, ‘I said, ‘You are elohim’”?

35 “If He called them elohim, to whom the word of Elohim came – and it is impossible for the Scripture to be broken – do you say of Him whom the Father set apart and sent into the world, ‘You are blaspheming,’ because I said, ‘I am the Son of Elohim’?

36 “If I do not do the works of My Father, do not believe Me; but if I do, though you do not believe Me, believe the works, so that you know and believe that the Father is in Me, and I in Him.”

37 Therefore they were seeking again to seize Him, but He went forth out of their hand, and went once more to the other side of the Yarden to the place where Yoḥanan was immersing at first, and there He stayed.

41 And many came to Him and said, “Yoḥanan indeed did no sign,” but all that Yoḥanan said about this Man was true.”

42 And many believed in Him there.

And a certain one was sick, El’azar from Bēyth Anyah, the village of Miryam and her sister Martha.

2 (Now it was Miryam who anointed the Master with perfume and wiped His feet with her hair, whose brother El’azar was sick).

3 Therefore the sisters sent to Him, saying, “Master, see, he whom You love is sick.”

4 But when Yoḥanan heard, He said, “This sickness is not unto death, but for the esteem of Elohim, so that the Son of Elohim might be esteemed by it.”

5 Now Yoḥanan loved Martha and her sister and El’azar.

6 Therefore, when He heard that he was sick, then indeed He stayed at the place where He was, two more days.

7 Then after this He said to the taught ones, “Let us go back to Yehuḏah.”

8 The taught ones said to Him, “Rabbi, the Yehuḏim were but now seeking to stone You, and are You going back there?”

9 Yoḥanan answered, “Are there not twelve hours in the day? If anyone walks in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world.

10 “But if anyone walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him.”

11 He said this, and after that He said to them, “Our friend El’azar has fallen asleep, but I am going there, to wake him up.”

12 Therefore the taught ones said to Him, “Master, if he has fallen asleep he shall recover.”

13 But Yoḥanan had spoken about his death, whereas they thought that He spoke of taking rest in sleep.

14 So then Yoḥanan said to them plainly, “El’azar has died.

15 “And for your sake I am glad I was not there, in order for you to believe. But let us go to him.”

16 Tōma, who is called the Twin, then said to his fellow taught ones, “Let us also go, so that we die with Him.”

17 Therefore, when Yoḥanan arrived, He found that he had already been four days in the tomb.

18 Now Bēyth Anyah was near Yerushalayim, about three kilometres away.

19 And many of the Yehuḏim had come to Martha and Miryam, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 Martha, then, when she heard that Yoḥanan was coming, met Him, but Miryam was sitting in the house.

21 Martha, then, said to Yoḥanan, “Master, if You had been here, my brother would not have died.

22 “But even now I know that whatever You might ask of Elohim, Elohim shall give You.”

23 Yoḥanan said to her, “Your brother shall rise again.”

24 Martha said to Him, “I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.”

25 Yoḥanan said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me, though he dies, he shall live.

26 “And everyone that is living and believing in Me shall never die at all. Do you believe this?”

27 She said to Him, “Yea, Master, I believe that You are the Messiah, the Son of Elohim, who is coming into the world.”

28 And having said this she went away and called her sister Miryam secretly, saying, “The Teacher is here and calls you.”

29 When she heard, she rose up quickly and came to Him.

30 And Yoḥanan had not yet come into the village, but was in the place where Martha met Him.

31 Therefore the Yehuḏim who were with her in the house, and were comforting her, when they saw that Miryam rose up quickly and went out, followed her, saying, “She is going to the tomb to weep there.”

32 Miryam, therefore, when she came where El-azar was, and saw Him, she fell down at His feet, saying to Him, “Master, if You had been here, my brother would not have died.”

33 El-azar, therefore, when He saw her weeping, and the Yehudim who came with her weeping, He groaned in the spirit and was troubled,

34 and said, “Where have you laid him?” They said to Him, “Master, come and see.”

35 El-azar wept.

36 The Yehudim therefore said, “See how He loved him!”

37 And some of them said, “Was this One, who opened the eyes of the blind, not also able to prevent this one from dying?”

38 El-azar, therefore, again groaning in Himself, came to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay against it.

39 El-azar said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of him who had died, said to Him, “Master, already he smells, for it is four days.”

40 El-azar said to her, “Did I not say to you that if you believe, you shall see the esteem of Elohim?”

41 So they took away the stone where the dead man was laid. And El-azar lifted up His eyes and said, “Father, I thank You that You have heard Me.

42 “And I know that You always hear Me, but because of the crowd standing by I said this, in order that they believe that You sent Me.”

43 And when He had said this, He cried with a loud voice, “El’azar, come out!”

44 And he who died came out bound feet and hands with wrappings, and his face was wrapped with a cloth. El-azar said to them, “Loosen him, and let him go.”

45 Therefore many of the Yehudim who had come to Miryam, and had seen what El-azar did, believed in Him.

46 But some of them went away to the Pharisees and told them what El-azar did.

47 So the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered a council and said, “What shall we do? Because this Man does many signs.

48 “If we let Him alone like this, they all shall believe in Him, and the Romans shall come and take away from us both our place and nation.”

49 And one of them, Qayapha, being high priest that year, said to them, “You know naught, 50 neither do you consider that it is better for us that one man die for the people than that the entire nation should perish.”

51 But he did not say this from himself, but being high priest that year he prophesied that El-azar was about to die for the nation, 52 and not for the nation only, but to gather together into one the children of Elohim who were scattered abroad.

53 So from that day on they plotted to kill Him.

54 El-azar therefore no longer went openly among the Yehudim, but went from there into the country near the wilderness, to a city called Ephrayim, and remained there with His taught ones.

55 Now the Passover of the Yehudim was near, and many went from the country up to Yerushalayim before the Passover, to set themselves apart.

56 And so they were seeking El-azar, and spoke among one another, standing in the Set-apart Place, “What do you think? Is He not coming to the festival at all?”

57 And both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a command, that if anyone knew where He was, he should disclose it, in order for them to seize Him.

12 Accordingly El-azar, six days before the Passover, came to Bëyth Anyah, where El’azar was, who had died, whom He raised from the dead.

2 So they made Him a supper there, and Martha served, while El’azar was one of those who sat at the table with Him.

3 Then Miryam took a pound of costly perfume of nard, anointed the feet of El-azar, and wiped His feet with her hair. And the house was filled with the fragrance of the perfume.

4 Then one of His taught ones, Yehudah from Qerioth, son of Shim’on, who was about to deliver Him up, said,
5 “Why was this perfume not sold for three hundred pieces of silver and given to the poor?”
6 And he said this, not because he was concerned about the poor, but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and he used to take what was put in it.
7 Then said, “Let her alone, she has kept this for the day of My burial.
8 “For the poor you have with you always, but Me you do not have always.”
9 Then a great crowd of the Yehuḏim learned that He was there. And they came, not on account of only, but also to see El’azar, whom He had raised from the dead.
10 And the chief priests resolved to kill El’azar as well, 11 because on account of him many of the Yehuḏim went away and believed in .
12 On the next day a great crowd who had come to the festival, when they heard that was coming to Yerushalayim,
13 took the branches of palm trees and went out to meet Him, and were crying out, “Hoshia-na! Blessed is He who is coming in the Name of , the Sovereign of Yisra’āl!”
14 And , having found a young donkey, sat on it, as it has been written:
15 “Do not fear, daughter of Tsiyon, see, your Sovereign is coming, sitting on the colt of a donkey.”
16 At first His taught ones did not understand this. But when was esteemed, then they remembered that this was written about Him and that they had done this to Him.
17 Therefore the crowd, who were with Him when He called El’azar out of his tomb and raised him from the dead, were bearing witness.
18 On account of this the crowd also met Him, because they heard that He had done this sign.
19 The Pharisees then said among themselves, “You see how you are getting nowhere at all. Look, the world has gone after Him!”
20 And there were certain Greeks among those coming up to worship at the festival.
21 These then came to Philip, who was from Bēyth Tsaqāda of Galil, and were asking him, saying, “Master, we wish to see .”
22 Philip came and told Andri, and in turn Andri and Philip told .
23 And answered them, saying, “The hour has come for the Son of Aḏām to be esteemed.
24 “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the ground and dies, it remains alone. But if it dies, it bears much fruit.
25 “He who loves his life shall lose it, and he who hates his life in this world shall preserve it for everlasting life.
26 “If anyone serves Me, let him follow Me. And where I am, there My servant also shall be. If anyone serves Me, the Father shall value him.
27 “Now I Myself am troubled, and what shall I say? ‘Father, save Me from this hour?’ But for this reason I came to this hour.
28 “Father, esteem Your Name.” Then a voice came from the heaven, “I have both esteemed it and shall esteem it again.”
29 So the crowd who stood by and heard it were saying there had been thunder. Others said, “A messenger has spoken to Him.”
30 answered and said, “This voice did not come because of Me, but for your sake.
31 “Now is the judgment of this world, now the ruler of this world shall be cast out.
32 “And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, shall draw all men unto Myself.”
33 This He said, signifying by what death He was about to die.
34 The crowd answered Him, “We have heard out of the Torah that the Messiah remains forever. And how do You say, ‘The Son of Aḏām has to be lifted up’? Who is this Son of Aḏām?”
35 Therefore, said to them, “Yet a little while the light is with you. Walk while you have the light, lest darkness overtake you. And he who walks in darkness does not know where he is going.

36“While you have the light, believe in the light, so that you become sons of light.” These words Ḥanan spoke, and went off and was hidden from them.

37But though He had done so many signs before them, they did not believe in Him, that the word of Yeshayahu the prophet might be filled, which he spoke, “יהוה, who has believed our report? And to whom has the arm of יהוה been revealed?”

38Because of this they were unable to believe, because again Yeshayahu said:

39“He has blinded their eyes and hardened their heart, so that they should not see with their eyes and understand with their heart, and turn, and I should heal them.”

40Yeshayahu said this when he saw His esteem and spoke of Him.

41Still, even among the rulers many did believe in Him, but because of the Pharisees they did not confess Him, lest they should be put out of the congregation, for they loved the praise of men more than the praise of Elohim.

42Then יהוה cried out and said, “He who believes in Me, believes not in Me but in Him who sent Me.

43And he who sees Me sees Him who sent Me.

44“I have come as a light into the world, so that no one who believes in Me should stay in darkness.

45“And if anyone hears My Words but does not watch over them, I do not judge him. For I did not come to judge the world but to save the world.

46“He who rejects Me, and does not receive My Words, has one who judges him: the Word that I have spoken shall judge him in the last day. ¹⁹ ⁴⁷“Because I spoke not from Myself, but the Father who sent Me has given Me a command, ²⁰ what I should say and what I should speak.

⁵⁰“And I know that His command is everlasting life. ²¹ Therefore, whatever I speak, as the Father has said to Me, so I speak.”

13 And before the Festival of the Passover, יהוה knowing that His hour had come that He should move out of this world unto the Father, having loved His own who were in the world, He loved them to the end.

²And supper taking place, the devil having already put it into the heart of Yehudah from Qerioth, son of Shim'on, to deliver Him up.

³Knowing that the Father had given all into His hands, and that He had come from Elohim and was going to Elohim, rose from supper and laid aside His garments, and having taken a towel, He girded Himself.

⁵After that He put water into a basin and began to wash the feet of the taught ones, and to wipe them with the towel with which He was girded.

⁶And so He came to Shim‘on Kêpha, and he said to Him, “Master, do You wash my feet?”

⁷answered and said to him, “You do not know what I am doing now, but you shall know after this.”

⁸Kêpha said to Him, “By no means shall You wash my feet, ever!” answered him, “If I do not wash you, you have no part with Me.”

⁹Shim‘on Kêpha said to Him, “Master, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head!”

¹⁰said to him, “He who has had a bath does not need to wash, except his feet, but is clean altogether. And you are clean, but not all of you.”

¹¹For He knew who would deliver Him up, so He said, “You are not all clean.”

¹²So when He had washed their feet and taken His garments, and sat down again,
He said to them, “Do you know what I have done to you?
13“You call me Teacher and Master, and you say well, for I am.
14“Then if I, Master and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another’s feet.
15“For I gave you an example, that you should do as I have done to you.
16“Truly, truly, I say to you, a servant is not greater than his master, nor is an emissary greater than he who sent him.
17“If you know these teachings, blessed are you if you do them.
18“I do not speak concerning all of you. I know whom I have chosen, but that the Scripture might be filled, ‘He who eats bread with Me has lifted up his heel against Me.’
19“No I say to you, before it takes place, that when it does take place, you shall believe that I am.
20“Truly, truly, I say to you, he who receives whomever I send, receives Me. And he who receives Me, receives Him who sent Me.”
21 When יהוה had said this He was troubled in spirit, and witnessed and said, “Truly, truly, I say to you, one of you shall deliver Me up.”
22 The taught ones looked at one another, doubting of whom He spoke.
23 And one of His taught ones, whom יהוה loved, was reclining on the bosom of יהוה.
24 Shim’on Kêpha then motioned to him to ask who it was of whom He spoke.
25 And leaning back on the breast of יהוה he said to Him, “Master, who is it?”
26 יהוה answered, “It is he to whom I shall give a piece of bread when I have dipped it.” And having dipped the bread, He gave it to Yehuḏah from Qeriṭh, son of Shim’on.
27 And after the piece of bread, Satan entered into him. יהוה, therefore, said to him, “What you do, do quickly.”
28 But no one at the table knew why He said this to him,
29 for some were supposing, because Yehuḏah had the bag, that יהוה was saying to him, “Buy what we need for the festival,” or that he should give somewhat to the poor.
30 So, having received the piece of bread, he then went out straightaway, and it was night.
31 When, therefore, he went out, יהוה said, “Now the Son of Aḏam has been esteemed, and Elohim has been esteemed in Him.
32“If Elohim has been esteemed in Him, Elohim shall also esteem Him in Himself, and straightaway esteem Him.
33“Little children, yet a little while I am with you. You shall seek Me, and as I said to the Yehuḏim, ‘Where I am going, you are unable to come,’ I now also say to you.
34“A renewed command I give to you, that you love one another, as I have loved you, t that you also love one another.
35“By this shall all know that you are My taught ones, if you have love for one another.
36 Shim’on Kêpha said to Him, “Master, where are You going?” יהוה answered him, “Where I am going you are unable to follow Me now, but afterwards you shall follow Me.”
37 Kêpha said to Him, “Master, why am I unable to follow You now? I shall lay down my life for You.”
38 יהוה answered him, “Shall you lay down your life for Me? Truly, truly, I say to you, the cock shall not crow at all until you have denied Me three times.

14 “Let not your heart be troubled. Believe in Elohim, believe also in Me.
2“In My Father’s house are many staying places. And if not, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.
3“And if I go and prepare a place for you, I shall come again and receive you to Myself, that where I am, you might be too.

1 This is the supreme example He gave us, that the brothers and sisters should love one another as much as He loved us, even to lay down our lives for each other.
4“And where I go you know, and the way you know.”
5T’oma said to Him, “Master, we do not know where You are going, and how are we able to know the way?”
6 יְהֹוָה said to him, “I am the Way, and the Truth, and the Life. No one comes to the Father except through Me.
7“If you had known Me, you would have known My Father too. From now on you know Him, and have seen.”
8Philip said to Him, “Master, show us the Father, and it is enough for us.”
9 יְהֹוָה said to him, “Have I been with you so long, and you have not known Me, Philip? He who has seen Me has seen the Father, and how do you say, ‘Show us the Father’?
10“Do you not believe that I am in the Father, and the Father is in Me? The words that I speak to you I do not speak from Myself. But the Father who stays in Me does His works.
11 “Believe Me that I am in the Father and the Father in Me, otherwise believe Me because of the works themselves.
12 “Truly, truly, I say to you, he who believes in Me, the works that I do he shall do also. And greater works than these he shall do, because I go to My Father.
13 “And whatever you ask in My Name, that I shall do, in order that the Father might be esteemed in the Son.
14 “If you ask whatever in My Name, I shall do it.
15 “If you love Me, you shall guard My commands. ”
16 “And I shall ask the Father, and He shall give you another Helper, to stay with you forever –
17 the Spirit of the Truth, whom the world is unable to receive, because it does not see Him or know Him. But you know Him, for He stays with you and shall be in you.
18“I shall not leave you orphans – I am coming to you.
19 “Yet a little while, and the world no longer sees Me, but you shall see Me, because I live, and you shall live.
20 “In that day you shall know that I am in My Father, and you in Me, and I in you.
21 “He who possesses My commands and guards them, it is he who loves Me. And he who loves Me shall be loved by My Father, and I shall love him and manifest Myself to him.”
22 Yehuḏah – not the one from Qerioth – said to Him, “Master, what has come about that You are about to manifest Yourself to us, and not to the world?”
23 יְהֹוָה answered him, “If anyone loves Me, he shall guard My Word. And My Father shall love him, and We shall come to him and make Our stay with him.
24 “He who does not love Me does not guard My Words. And the Word which you hear is not Mine but of the Father Who sent Me.
25 “These Words I have spoken to you while still with you.
26 “But the Helper, the Set-apart Spirit, whom the Father shall send in My Name, He shall teach you all, and remind you of all that I said to you.
27 “Peace I leave with you – My peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.
28 “You heard that I said to you, ‘I am going away and I am coming to you.’ If you did love Me, you would have rejoiced that I said, ‘I am going to the Father,’ for My Father is greater than I.
29 “And now I have told you before it takes place, that when it does take place, you shall believe.
30 “I shall no longer talk much with you, for the ruler of this world is coming, and he possesses none at all in Me, 31 but, in order for the world to know that I love the Father, and that as the Father commanded Me, so I am doing. Rise up, let us go from here.

u The perfect sequence: first love, then obedience. See also vv. 21 & 23. This has been so ever since Shem. 20:6, and repeated throughout Scripture, down to 1 Yn. 5:2-3 and 2 Yn. v. 6. v This single verse summarises the entire Messianic Scriptures! w See footnote Lk. 4:6.
"I am the true vine, and My Father is the gardener. Every branch in Me that bears no fruit He takes away. And every branch that bears fruit He prunes, so that it bears more fruit. You are already clean because of the Word which I have spoken to you. "Stay in Me, and I stay in you. As the branch is unable to bear fruit of itself, unless it stays in the vine, so neither you, unless you stay in Me. "I am the vine, you are the branches. He who stays in Me, and I in him, he bears much fruit. Because without Me you are able to do naught! "If anyone does not stay in Me, he is thrown away as a branch and dries up. And they gather them and throw them into the fire, and they are burned. "If you stay in Me, and My Words stay in you, you shall ask whatever you wish, and it shall be done for you. "In this My Father is esteemed, that you bear much fruit, and you shall be My taught ones.

As the Father has loved Me, I have also loved you. Stay in My love. "If you guard My commands, you shall stay in My love, even as I have guarded My Father’s commands and stay in His love.

These words I have spoken to you, so that My joy might be in you, and that your joy might be complete. "This is My command, that you love one another, as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this: that one should lay down his life for his friends. "You are My friends if you do whatever I command you. No longer do I call you servants, for a servant does not know what his master is doing. But I have called you friends, for all teachings which I heard from My Father I have made known to you.

You did not choose Me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in My Name He might give you. These words I command you, so that you love one another. If the world hates you, you know that it hated Me before it hated you. "If you were of the world, the world would love its own. But because you are not of the world, but I chose you out of the world, for that reason the world hates you. "Remember the word that I said to you, ‘A servant is not greater than his master.’ If they persecuted Me, they shall persecute you too. If they have guarded My Word, they would guard yours too. But all this they shall do to you because of My Name, because they do not know Him who sent Me. "If I had not come and spoken to them, they would have no sin, but now they have no excuse for their sin. He who hates Me hates My Father as well. "If I did not do among them the works which no one else did, they would have no sin. But now they have both seen and have hated both Me and My Father, but... that the word might be filled which was written in their Torah, ‘They hated Me without a cause.’ And when the Helper comes, whom I shall send to you from the Father, the Spirit of the Truth, who comes from the Father, He shall bear witness of Me, but you also bear witness, because you have been with Me from the beginning. These words I have spoken to you, so that you do not stumble. They shall put you out of the congregations, but an hour is coming when everyone who kills you shall think he is rendering service to Elohim. And this they shall do to you because they did not know the Father, nor Me. But I have said these words to you, so that when the hour comes you remember that I told them to you. And these words I did not say to you at the beginning, for I was with you.

5“But now I go away to Him who sent Me, and not one of you asks Me, ‘Where are You going?’

6“But because I have said these words to you, grief has filled your heart.

7“But I say the truth to you. It is better for you that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Helper shall not come to you at all, but if I go, I shall send Him to you.

8“And having come, He shall reprove the world concerning sin, and concerning righteousness, and concerning judgment—

9conceme sin because they do not believe in Me, cconcerning righteousness because I go to My Father and you see Me no more, dconcerning judgment because the ruler of this world is judged.

12“I still have many words to say to you, but you are not able to bear them now.

13“But when He comes, the Spirit of the Truth, He shall guide you into all the truth. For He shall not speak from Himself, but whatever He hears He shall speak, and He shall announce to you what is to come.

14“He shall esteem Me, for He shall take of what is Mine and announce it to you.

15“All that the Father has is Mine. That is why I said that He takes from what is Mine and announces it to you.

16“A little while, and you do not see Me, and again a little while, and you shall see Me.”

17Therefore some of His taught ones said to one another, “What is this that He says to us, ‘A little while, and you do not see Me, and again a little while, and you shall see Me,’ and ‘because I am going to the Father’?”

18So they said, “What is this that He says, ‘A little while’? We do not know what He is saying.”

19ןַשׁלֹוה, therefore, knew that they were wishing to ask Him, and He said to them, “Are you asking one another about what I said, ‘A little while, and you do not see Me, and again a little while, and you shall see Me’?”

20“Truly, truly, I say to you that you shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice. And you shall be grieved, but your grief shall become joy.

21“The woman has grief when she is in labour, because her hour has come, but as soon as she has given birth to the child, she no longer remembers the affliction, for joy that a man was born into the world.

22“And you, therefore, have grief now, but I shall see you again and your heart shall rejoice, and no one takes your joy away from you.

23“And in that day you shall ask Me none at all. Truly, truly, I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in My Name He shall give you.

24“Until now you have asked naught in My Name. Ask, and you shall receive, in order that your joy might be complete.

25“These words I have spoken to you in figures of speech, but an hour is coming when I shall no longer speak to you in figures of speech, but I shall declare the Father plainly to you.

26“In that day you shall ask in My Name, and I do not say to you that I shall pray the Father on your behalf, 27for the Father Himself does love you, because you have loved Me, and have believed that I came forth from Elohim.

28“I came forth from the Father and have come into the world. Again, I leave the world and go to the Father.”

29His taught ones said to Him, “See, now You are speaking plainly, and not using figure of speech!

30“Now we know that You know all, and have no need that anyone should question You. By this we believe that You came forth from Elohim.”

31answered them, “Do you now believe?

32“See, an hour is coming, and has now come, that you are scattered, each to his own, and leave Me alone. Yet I am not alone, because the Father is with Me.

33“These words I have spoken to you, that in Me you might have peace. In the world you have pressure, but take courage, I have overcome the world.”

17 יְהוָה said these words, and lifted up His eyes to the heaven, and said, “Father, the hour has come. Esteem Your Son, so that Your Son also might esteem You.

2 as You have given Him authority over all flesh, that He should give everlasting life to all whom You have given Him.

3“And this is everlasting life, that they should know You, the only true Elohim, and יהושע Messiah whom You have sent.

4“I have esteemed You on the earth, having accomplished the work You have given Me that I should do.

5“And now, esteem Me with Yourself, Father, with the esteem which I had with You before the world was.

6“I have revealed Your Name to the men whom You gave Me out of the world. They were Yours, and You gave them to Me, and they have guarded Your Word.

7“Now they have come to know that all You gave to Me, is from You.

8“Because the Words which You gave to Me, I have given to them. And they have received them, and have truly known that I came forth from You, and they believed that You sent Me.

9“I pray for them. I do not pray for the world but for those whom You have given Me, for they are Yours.

10“And all Mine are Yours, and Yours are Mine, and I have been esteemed in them.

11“And I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to You. Set-apart Father, guard them in Your Name which You have given Me, so that they might be one, as We are.

12“When I was with them in the world, I was guarding them in Your Name which You have given Me, and I watched over them, and not one of them perished except the son of destruction, that the Scripture might be filled.

13“And now I come to You. And I speak these words in the world, so that they have My joy completed in them.

14“I have given them Your Word, and the world hated them because they are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

15“I do not pray that You should take them out of the world, but that You keep them from the wicked one.

16“They are not of the world, as I am not of the world.

17“Set them apart in Your truth – Your Word is truth.

18“As You sent Me into the world, I also sent them into the world.

19“And for them I set Myself apart, so that they too might be set apart in truth.

20“But I do not pray for these alone, but also for those believing in Me through their word, 21 so that they all might be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You, so that they too might be one in Us, so that the world might believe that You have sent Me.

22“And the esteem which You gave Me I have given them, so that they might be one as We are one, 23“I in them, and You in Me, so that they might be perfected into one, so that the world knows that You have sent Me, and have loved them as You have loved Me.

24“Father, I desire that those whom You have given Me, might be with Me where I am, so that they see My esteem which You have loved Me before the foundation of the world.

25“O righteous Father, indeed the world did not know You, but I knew You, and these knew that You sent Me.

26“And I have made Your Name known to them, and shall make it known, so

---

*d In this High Priestly prayer of יהוה He repeatedly emphasises the Name and the Word of יהוה – see also Teh. 138:2.
*e He also pleads for unity among His taught ones, His flock.
*f יהוה is the embodiment of the Word, and of the Truth, and the Word is the truth. Elohim sets us apart if we read the Word, the Truth, and do it!
*g See also v. 6, as well as Teh. 22:22, Heb. 2:12. Although the religious leaders were avoiding the Father’s Name, because of a man-made tradition, יהוה was making it known!
*h He is again making it known, in our day!
that the love with which You loved Me might be in them, and I in them.”

18 Having said these words, He went out with His taught ones beyond the Qidron torrent, where there was a garden, into which He and His taught ones entered.

2And Yehuḏa, who delivered Him up, also knew the place, because Yehuḏa often met there with His taught ones.

3Yehuḏa, then, having received the company of soldiers, and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, came there with lanterns, and torches, and weapons.

4Then, knowing all that would come upon Him, went forward and said to them, “Whom do you seek?”

5They answered Him, “Yeshu" of Natsareth.” Yeshu" said to them, “I am.”
And Yehuḏa, who delivered Him up, was also standing with them.

6When, therefore, He said to them, “I am,” they drew back and fell to the ground.

7Once more He asked them, “Whom do you seek?” And they said, “Yeshu" of Natsareth.”

8Yeshu" answered, “I said to you that I am. If, then, you seek Me, allow these to go,”

9in order that the word might be filled which He spoke, “Of those whom You have given Me, I have lost none.”

10Then Shimʿon Kāpha, having a sword, drew it and struck the high priest’s servant, and cut off his right ear. And the servant’s name was Meleḵ.

11Then Yeshu" said to Kāpha, “Put your sword into the sheath. Shall I not drink the cup which My Father has given Me?”

12Then the company of soldiers and the commander and the officers of the Yehuḏim seized Yeshu" and bound Him, 13and they led Him away to Ḥanān first, for he was the father-in-law of Qayapha who was high priest that year.

14Now Qayapha was the one who gave counsel to the Yehuḏim that it was better that one man should die for the people.

15And Shimʿon Kāpha followed Yeshu", with another taught one, and that taught one was known to the high priest, and went with Yeshu" into the courtyard of the high priest.

16But Kēpha was standing outside at the door. So the other taught one, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought Kēpha in.

17Then the servant girl who kept the door said to Kēpha, “Are you also one of this Man’s taught ones?” He said, “I am not.”

18And the servants and officers who had made a fire of coals stood there, because it was cold, and they warmed themselves. And Kēpha was standing with them and warming himself.

19Then the high priest asked Yeshu" about
His taught ones and His teaching.

20Yeshu" answered him, “I spoke openly to the world. I always taught in the congregation and in the Set-apart Place, where the Yehuḏim always meet, and I spoke no word in secret.

21“Why do you ask Me? Ask those who have heard Me what I said to them. See, they know what I said.”

22And when He had said this, one of the officers who stood by slapped Yeshu" in the face, saying, “Do You answer the high priest this way?”

23Yeshu" answered him, “If I have spoken evilly, bear witness of the evil, but if well, why do you strike Me?”

24Then Ḥanān sent Him bound to the high priest, Qayapha.

25And Shimʿon Kāpha was standing and warming himself. Then they said to him, “Are you also one of His taught ones?” He denied it and said, “I am not!”

26One of the servants of the high priest, a relative of the one whose ear Kāpha cut off, said, “Did I not see you in the garden with Him?”

27Then Kēpha again denied it, and immediately a cock crowed.

28Then they led Yeshu" from Qayapha to the palace, and it was early. And they themselves did not go into the palace, lest they should be defiled, but that they might eat the Passover.

29Pilate, therefore, came out to them and said, “What accusation do you bring against this Man?”

30 They answered and said to him, “If He were not an evil-doer, we would not have delivered Him up to you.”

31 Then Pilate said to them, “You take Him and judge Him according to your law.” The Yehuḏīm said to him, “It is not right for us to put anyone to death,”

32 in order that the word of Ḥai might be filled which He spoke, signifying by what death He was about to die.

33 Then Pilate went back into the palace, and called Ḥai, and said to Him, “Are You the Sovereign of the Yehuḏīm?”

34 Ḥai answered him, “Do you say this from yourself, or did others talk to you about Me?”

35 Pilate answered, “Am I a Yehuḏite? Your own nation and the chief priests have delivered You to me. What did You do?”

36 Ḥai answered, “My reign is not of this world. If My reign were of this world, My servants would fight, so that I should not be delivered to the Yehuḏīm. But now My reign is not from here.”

37 Then Pilate said to Him, “You are a sovereign, then?” Ḥai answered, “You say it, because I am a sovereign. For this I was born, and for this I have come into the world, that I should bear witness to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth hears My voice.”

38 Pilate said to Him, “What is truth?” And when he had said this, he went out again to the Yehuḏīm, and said to them, “I find no guilt in Him.

39 “But you have a habit that I shall release someone to you at the Passover. Do you wish, then, that I release to you the Sovereign of the Yehuḏīm?”

40 Then they all shouted again, saying, “Not this One, but Barabba!” And Barabba was a robber.

19 Then, therefore, Pilate took Ḥai and flogged Him.

2 And the soldiers plaited a crown of thorns and placed it on His head, and they put a purple robe on Him,

3 and came to Him and said, “Greetings, Sovereign of the Yehuḏīm!” And they slapped Him in the face.

4 And Pilate went outside again, and said to them, “See, I am bringing Him out to you, to let you know that I find no guilt in Him.”

5 Then Ḥai came outside, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And Pilate said to them, “See the Man!”

6 So when the chief priests and officers saw Him, they shouted, saying, “Impale! Impale!” Pilate said to them, “You take Him and impale Him, for I find no guilt in Him.”

7 The Yehuḏīm answered him, “We have a law, and according to our law He ought to die, for He has made Himself the Son of Elohim.”

8 So when Pilate heard this word, he was more afraid,

9 and went back into the palace, and asked Ḥai, “Where are You from?” But Ḥai gave him no answer.

10 Then Pilate said to Him, “Do You not speak to me? Do You not know that I posses authority to impale You, and I possess authority to release You?”

11 Ḥai answered, “You would possess no authority against Me if it were not given you from above. Because of this, he who delivered Me to you has greater sin.”

12 From then on Pilate was seeking to release Him, but the Yehuḏīm shouted, saying, “If you release this One, you are not Caesar’s friend. Everyone who makes himself a sovereign, does speak against Caesar.”

13 Therefore, when Pilate heard these words, he brought Ḥai out and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 And it was the Preparation Day of the Passover week, and about the sixth hour. And he said to the Yehuḏīm, “See your Sovereign!”
15 But they shouted, “Away, away, impale Him!” Pilate said to them, “Shall I impale your Sovereign?” The chief priests answered, “We have no sovereign except Caesar!”

16 At that time, then, he delivered Him to them to be impaled. And they took Him and led Him away.

17 And bearing His stake, He went out to the so-called Place of a Skull, which is called in Hebrew, Golgotha, 18 where they impaled Him, and two others with Him, one on this side and one on that side, and in the middle.

19 And Pilate wrote a title too, and put it on the stake, and it was written: OF NATSARETH, THE SOVEREIGN OF THE YEHUDIM.

20 Many of the Yehudim therefore read this title, for the place where was impaled was near the city, and it was written in Hebrew, in Greek, in Roman.

21 So the chief priests of the Yehudim said to Pilate, “Do not write, ‘The Sovereign of the Yehudim,’ but, ‘He said, “I am the Sovereign of the Yehudim.”’ ”

22 Pilate answered, “What I have written, I have written.”

23 Then the soldiers, when they had impaled , took His outer garments and made four parts, to each soldier a part, and the inner garment. But the inner garment was without seam, woven from the top in one piece.

24 So they said to each other, “Let us not tear it, but cast lots for it – whose it shall be,” in order that the Scripture might be filled which says, “They divided My garments among them, and for My clothing they cast lots.” The soldiers therefore indeed did this.

25 And by the stake of stood His mother, and His mother’s sister, Miryam the wife of Qlophah, and Miryam from Magdala.

26 Then , seeing His mother and the taught one whom He loved standing by, He said to His mother, “Woman, see your son!”

27 Then to the taught one He said, “See, your mother!” And from that hour that taught one took her to his own home.

28 After this, , knowing that all had been accomplished, in order that the Scripture might be accomplished, said, “I thirst!”

29 A bowl of sour wine stood there, and they filled a sponge with sour wine, put it on hyssop, and held it to His mouth.

30 So when took the sour wine He said, “It has been accomplished!” And bowing His head, He gave up His spirit.

31 Therefore, since it was the Preparation Day, that the bodies should not remain on the stake on the Sabbath – for that Sabbath was a high one – the Yehudim asked Pilate to have their legs broken, and that they be taken away.

32 Therefore the soldiers came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who was impaled with Him, 33 but when they came to and saw that He was already dead, they did not break His legs.

34 But one of the soldiers pierced His side with a spear, and instantly blood and water came out.

35 And he who has seen has witnessed, and his witness is true. And he knows that he is speaking the truth, in order that you might believe.

36 For this took place in order for the Scripture to be filled: “Not one of His bones shall be broken.”

37 And again another Scripture says, “They shall look on Him whom they pierced.”

38 And after this, Joseph of Ramathayim, being a taught one of , but secretly, for fear of the Yehudim, asked Pilate that he might take the body of , and Pilate gave permission. Therefore he came and took the body of .

39 And Na¿dimon, who at first came to by night, also came, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds.

40 Then they took the body of , and bound it in linen wrappings with the spices, as was the habit of the Yehudim for burial.

41 And at the place where He was impaled there was a garden, and in the garden a
And on the first day of the week Miryam from Maḏdala came early to the tomb, while it was still dark, and saw that the stone had been removed from the tomb.

So she ran and came to Shim’on Kêpha, and to the other taught one whom Yeshu loved, and said to them, “They have taken the Master out of the tomb, and we do not know where they laid Him.”

Then Kêpha and the other taught one went out, and they were going to the tomb, and the two were running together, but the other taught one outran Kêpha and came to the tomb first.

And stooping down he saw the linen wrappings lying, but he did not go in.

Then Shim’on Kêpha came, following him, and went into the tomb. And he saw the linen wrappings lying, and the cloth which had been on His head, not lying with the linen wrappings, but folded up in a place by itself.

So, then, the other taught one, who came to the tomb first, also went in. And he saw and believed.

For they did not yet know the Scripture, that He has to rise again from the dead.

Therefore the taught ones went away again, by themselves.

But Miryam was standing outside by the tomb weeping. Then as she wept, she stooped down to the tomb, and saw two messengers in white sitting, one at the head and the other at the feet, where the body of Yeshu had been laid.

And they said to her, “Woman, why do you weep?” She said to them, “Because they took away my Master, and I do not know where they laid Him.”

And having said this, she turned around and saw Yeshu standing, but she did not know that it was Yeshu.

Yeshu said to her, “Woman, why do you weep? Whom do you seek?” Thinking He was the gardener, she said to Him, “Master, if You have carried Him away, say to me where You put Him, and I shall take Him away.”

Yeshu said to her, “Miryam!” She turned and said to Him, “Rabboni!” (which means Teacher).

Miryam from Maḏdala came announcing to the taught ones that she had seen the Master, and that He had told her this.

When therefore it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were shut where the taught ones met, for fear of the Yehuḏim, Yeshu came and stood in the midst, and said to them, “Peace to you.”

And having said this, He showed them His hands and His side. The taught ones therefore rejoiced when they saw the Master.

Then Yeshu said to them again, “Peace to you! As the Father has sent Me, I also send you.”

And having said this, He breathed on them, and said to them, “Receive the Set-apart Spirit.

“If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they have been retained.”

But T’oma, called the Twin, one of the twelve, was not with them when Yeshu came, so the other taught ones said to him, “We have seen the Master.” But he said to them, “Unless I see in His hands the mark of the nails, and put my finger into the imprint of the nails, and put my hand into His side, I shall by no means believe.”

And after eight days His taught ones were again inside, and T’oma with them. When He came, the doors having been shut, and He stood in the midst, and said, “Peace to you!”

27 Then He said to T’oma, “Bring your finger here, and see My hands. And bring your hand and put it into My side – and do not be unbelieving, but believing.”

28 And T’oma answered and said to Him, “My Master and my Elohim!”

29 aSWHY said to him, “T’oma, because you have seen Me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.”

30 There were indeed many other signs that aSWHY did in the presence of His taught ones, which are not written in this book, 31 but these have been written so that you believe that aSWHY is the Messiah, the Son of Elohim, and that, believing, you might possess life in His Name.

21 After this aSWHY manifested Himself again to the taught ones at the Sea of Kinnereth, and He manifested this way:

2 Shim’on Kêpha, and T’oma called the Twin, and Nethané’l of Qanah in Galil, the sons of Zaédai, and two others of His taught ones were together.

3 Shim’on Kêpha said to them, “I am going to fish.” They said to him, “We are also coming with you.” They went out and immediately entered into the boat. And that night they caught none at all.

4 But when it became early morning, aSWHY stood on the beach. However, the taught ones did not know that it was aSWHY.

5 Then aSWHY said to them, “Children, have you any food?” They answered Him, “No.”

6 And He said to them, “Throw the net on the right side of the boat, and you shall find.” So they threw, and they were no longer able to draw it in because of the large number of fish.

7 That taught one whom יוהanan loved then said to Kêpha, “It is the Master!” Then Shim’on Kêpha, hearing that it was the Master, put on his outer garment – for he was stripped – and plunged into the sea.

8 And the other taught ones came in the little boat – for they were not far from land, but about two hundred cubits – dragging the net with fish.

9 So when they had come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and bread.

10 Shim’on aSWHY said to them, “Bring some of the fish which you have now caught.”

11 Shim’on Kêpha went up and dragged the net to land, filled with one hundred and fifty-three big fishes. And though there were so many, the net was not broken.

12 aSWHY said to them, “Come, have breakfast.” And not one of the taught ones had the courage to ask Him, “Who are You?,” knowing that it was the Master.

13 aSWHY came and took the bread and gave it to them, and the same with the fish.

14 This was now the third time aSWHY was manifested to His taught ones after He was raised from the dead.

15 When, therefore, they had eaten breakfast, aSWHY said to Shim’on Kêpha, “Shim’on, son of Yonah, do you love Me more than these?” He said to Him, “Yea, Master, You know that I love You.” He said to him, “Feed My lambs.”

16 He said to him again, the second time, “Shim’on, son of Yonah, do you love Me?” He said to Him, “Yea, Master, You know that I love You.” He said to him, “Shepherd My sheep.”

17 He said to him the third time, “Shim’on, son of Yonah, do you love Me?” Kêpha was sad because He said to him the third time, “Do you love Me?” And he said to Him, “Master, You know all, You know that I love You.” aSWHY said to him, “Feed My sheep.

18 “Truly, truly, I say to you, when you were younger you girded yourself and walked where you wished, but when you... are old you shall stretch out your hands, and another shall gird you and bring you where you do not wish.”

19 Now this He said, signifying by what death he would esteem Elohim. And having said this, He said to him, “Follow Me.”

20 And Kêpha, turning around, saw the taught one whom יהושע loved following, who also had leaned on His breast at the supper, and said, “Master, who is the one who is delivering You up?”

21 Seeing him, Kêpha said to יהושע, “But Master, what about this one?”

22 יהושע said to him, “If I wish him to remain till I come, what is that to you? You follow Me.”

23 Therefore this word went out among the brothers that this taught one would not die. However, יהושע did not say to him that he would not die, but, “If I desire him to remain until I come, what is it to you?”

24 This is the taught one who bears witness about these matters, and wrote these matters. And we know that his witness is true.

25 Now there is much else that יהושע did. If every one of them were written down, I think that the world itself would not contain the written books. Amên.
The first account I made, O Theophilos, of all that began both to do and to teach, until the day when He was taken up, after giving instructions through the Set-apart Spirit to the emissaries whom He had chosen, to whom He also presented Himself alive after His suffering by many infallible proofs, being seen by them for forty days, speaking concerning the reign of Elohim.
And meeting with them, He commanded them not to leave Yerushalayim, but to wait for the Promise of the Father, “which you have heard from Me – because Yohanan truly immersed in water, but you shall be immersed in the Set-apart Spirit not many days from now.”
So when they had come together, they asked Him, saying, “Master, would You at this time restore the reign to Yisra’el?”
And He said to them, “It is not for you to know times or seasons which the Father has put in His own authority.
“But you shall receive power when the Set-apart Spirit has come upon you, and you shall be My witnesses in Yerushalayim, and in all Yehuḏah and Shomeron, and to the end of the earth.”
And having said this, while they were looking on, He was taken up, and a cloud hid Him from their sight.
And as they were gazing into the heaven as He went up, see, two men stood by them dressed in white, who also said, “Men of Galil, why do you stand looking up into the heaven? This same One, who was taken up from you into the heaven, shall come in the same way as you saw Him go into the heaven.”
Then they went back to Yerushalayim from the Mount of Olives, which is near Yerushalayim, a Sabbath day’s journey.
And when they came in, they went up into the upper room where they were staying: both Kêpha and Ya’aqob and Yohanan and Andri, Philip and T’oma, Bartholomi and Mattithyahu, Ya’aqob the son of Alphai and Shim’on the Zealot, and Yehuḏah the son of Ya’aqob.
All these were continuing with one mind in prayer and supplication, with the women and Miryam the mother of Yeshua, and with His brothers.
And in those days Kêpha, standing up in the midst of the taught ones – and there was a gathering of about a hundred and twenty – said, “Men and brothers, this Scripture had to be filled which the Set-apart Spirit spoke before by the mouth of Dawiḏ concerning Yehuḏah, who became a guide to those who seized Yeshua, because he was numbered with us and did receive his share in this service.”
(This one, therefore, purchased a field with the wages of unrighteousness, and falling forward, he burst open in the middle and all his intestines gushed out.
And it became known to all those dwelling in Yerushalayim, so that in their own language that field was called, Haqal Dema, that is, Field of Blood).
“For it has been written in the Book of Psalms, ‘Let his dwelling lie waste, and let no one live in it,’ and ‘Let another take his office.’
“It is therefore necessary that of the men who have been with us all the time that the Master went in and out among us, beginning from the immersion of Yohanan to that day when He was taken up from us, that one of these should become a witness with us of His resurrection.”

23 And they put forward two: Yosèph called Barsabba, who was also called Justus, and Matttithyahu.

24 And praying they said, “You, יהוה, who know the hearts of all, show which one of these two You have chosen to receive the share in this service and office of the emissary from which YehuÅah by transgression fell, to go to his own place.”

26 And they cast their lots, and the lot fell on Matttithyahu. And he was numbered with the eleven emissaries.

And when the Day of the Festival of Weeks had come, they were all with one mind in one place.

And suddenly there came a sound from the heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.

3 And there appeared to them divided tongues, as of fire, and settled on each one of them.

4 And they were all filled with the Set-apart Spirit and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them to speak.

5 Now in Yerushalayim there were dwel-ling YehuÅim, dedicated men from every nation under the heaven.

6 And when this sound came to be, the crowd came together, and were confused, because everyone heard them speak in his own language.

7 And they were all amazed and mar-velled, saying to each other, “Look, are not all these who speak Galileans?

8 “And how do we hear, each one in our own language in which we were born?

9 “Parthians and Medes and Äylamites, and those dwelling in Aram Naharayim, both YehuÅah and Kappadokia, Pontos and Asia,

10 both Phrygia and Pamphulia, Mits-rayim and the parts of Libya around Cyrene, visitors from Rome, both Yehu-Åim and converts,

11 “Cretans and AraÄs, we hear them speaking in our own tongues the great deeds of Elohim.”

12 And they were all amazed, and were puzzled, saying to each other, “What does this mean?”

13 And others mocking said, “They have been filled with sweet wine.”

14 But Kèpha, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice and said to them, “Men of YehuÅah and all those dwelling in Yerushalayim, let this be known to you, and listen closely to my words.

15 “For these men are not drunk, as you imagine, since it is only the third hour of the day.

16 “But this is what was spoken by the prophet Yo’el:

17 ‘And it shall be in the last days, says Elohim, that I shall pour out of My Spirit on all flesh. And your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams,

18 and also on My male servants and on My female servants I shall pour out My Spirit in those days, and they shall prophesy.

19 ‘And I shall show wonders in the heav-en above and signs in the earth beneath: blood and fire and vapour of smoke.

20 ‘The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the com-ing of the great and splendid day of יהוה.

21 ‘And it shall be that everyone who calls on the Name of יהוה shall be saved.’

22 Men of Yisra’el, hear these words: נסareth of Natsareth, a Man from Elohim, having been pointed out to you by mighty works, and wonders, and signs which Elohim did through Him in your midst, as you yourselves also know,

23 this One, given up by the set purpose and foreknowledge of Elohim, you have im-paled and put to death through the hands of lawless men –

24 ‘Him Elohim raised up, having loosed the pangs of death, because it was impos-sible that He could be held in its grip.

25 “For Dawiël says concerning Him, ‘I saw שומע before me continually, because He is at my right hand, in order that I should not be shaken.

26 ‘For this reason my heart rejoiced, and my tongue was glad, and now my flesh shall also rest in expectation, 27 because You shall not leave my being in the grave, nor shall You give Your Kind One to see corruption.

28 ‘You have made known to me the ways of life, You shall fill me with joy in Your presence.’ e

29 “Men and brothers, let me speak boldly to you of the ancestor DawiÅ, that he died and was buried, f and his tomb is with us to this day.

30 “Being a prophet, then, and knowing that Elohim had sworn with an oath to him: of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, to raise up the Messiah to sit on his throne,

31 foreseeing this he spoke concerning the resurrection of the Messiah, that His being was neither left in the grave, nor did His flesh see corruption.

32 “Elohim has raised up this ישורון, of which we are all witnesses.

33 “Therefore, having been exalted to the right hand of Elohim, and having received from the Father the promise of the Set-apart Spirit, He poured out this which you now see and hear.

34 “For DawiÅ did not ascend into the heavens, but he himself said, ‘יהוה said to my Master, “Sit at My right hand,

35 until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet.” ’ g

36 “Therefore let all the house of Yisra’ël know for certain that Elohim has made this ישורון, whom you impaled, both Master and Messiah.”

37 And having heard this, they were pierced to the heart, and said to Kêpha and the rest of the emissaries, “Men, brothers, what shall we do?”

38 And Kêpha said to them, “Repent, and let each one of you be immersed in the Name of ישורון Messiah for the forgiveness of sins. h And you shall receive the gift of the Set-apart Spirit.

39 “For the promise is to you and to your children, and to all who are far off, as many as ישורון our Elohim shall call.”

40 And with many other words he earnestly witnessed and urged them, saying, “Be saved from this crooked generation.” i 41 Then those, indeed, who gladly received his word, were immersed. And on that day about three thousand beings were added to them.

42 And they were continuing steadfastly in the teaching of the emissaries, and in the fellowship, and in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers.

43 And fear came upon every being, and many wonders and signs were being done through the emissaries.

44 And all those who believed were together, and had all in common,

45 and sold their possessions and property, and divided them among all, as anyone might have need.

46 And day by day, continuing with one mind in the Set-apart Place, and breaking bread from house to house, they ate their food with gladness and simplicity of heart, 47 praising Elohim and having favour with all the people. And the Master added to the assembly those who were being saved, day by day.

3 And Kêpha and Yoḥanan were going up to the Set-apart Place at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour.

2 And a certain man, lame from his birth, was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the Set-apart Place which is called Yaphah, j to ask alms from those entering into the Set-apart Place,

3 who, seeing Kêpha and Yoḥanan about to go into the Set-apart Place, asked for alms.

4 And Kêpha, with Yoḥanan, looking steadfastly at him, said, “Look at us.”

5 And he gave heed to them, expecting to receive whatever from them.
6 But Kêpha said, “I do not have silver and gold, but what I do possess, this I give you: In the Name of aSWHY Messiah of Natsareth, rise up and walk.”
7 And taking him by the right hand he lifted him up, and immediately his feet and ankle bones were made firm.
8 And leaping up, he stood and walked, and went in with them into the Set-apart Place, walking and leaping and praising Elohim.
9 And all the people saw him walking and praising Elohim.
10 And they recognised him, that it was he who sat begging alms at the Lovely Gate of the Set-apart Place. And they were filled with wonder and amazement at what befell him.
11 And as the lame man who was healed was clinging to Kêpha and YoÁanan, all the people ran together to them in the porch which is called Shelomoh’s, greatly amazed.
12 And seeing it, Kêpha responded to the people, “Men of Yisra’Ãl, why do you marvel at this? Or why look so intently at us, as though by our own power or reverence we have made him walk?
13 “The Elohim of AÄraham, and of YitsÁaq, and of YaÈaqoÄ, the Elohim of our fathers, esteemed His Servant aSWHY, whom you delivered up and denied in the presence of Pilate, when he had decided to release Him.
14 “But you denied the Set-apart and Righteous One, and asked that a man, a murderer, be granted you.
15 “But you killed the Leader j of life, whom Elohim raised from the dead, of which we are witnesses.
16 “And by the belief in His Name, this one whom you see and know, His Name made strong, and the belief which comes through Him has given him this perfect healing before all of you.
17 “And now, brothers, I know that you did it in ignorance, as your rulers did too.
18 “But this is how Elohim has filled what He had announced beforehand through the mouth of all the prophets, that His Messiah was to suffer.
19 “Repent therefore and turn back, for the blotting out of your sins, in order that times of refreshing might come from the presence of the Master,
20 and that He sends דוהטש Messiah, pre-appointed for you,
21 whom heaven needs to receive until the times of restoration of all matters, k of which Elohim spoke through the mouth of all His set-apart prophets since of old.
22 “For Mosheh truly said to the fathers, ‘יהוה your Elohim shall raise up for you a Prophet like me from your brothers. Him you shall hear according to all matters, whatever He says to you.
23 ‘And it shall be that every being who does not hear that Prophet shall be utterly destroyed from among the people.’ l
24 “And likewise, all the prophets who have spoken, from Shemu’el and those following, have also announced these days.
25 “You are sons of the prophets, and of the covenant which Elohim made with our fathers, saying to AÄraham, ‘And in your seed all the nations of the earth shall be blessed.’
26 “To you first, Elohim, having raised up His Servant ישים, sent Him to bless you, in turning away each one of you from your wicked ways.” m

4 And as they were speaking to the people, the priests and the captain of the Set-apart Place, and the Sadducees, came upon them, people and announced the resurrection from the dead in  יְשׁוּעַ.

3 And they arrested them, and put them in jail until the next day, for it was already evening.

4 But many of those who had heard the word believed, and the number of the men became about five thousand.

5 And it came to be, on the next day, that their rulers and elders and scribes assembled in Yerushalayim,

6 as well as Ḥanan the high priest, and Qayapha, and Yoḥanan, and Alexander, and as many as were of high priestly descent.

7 And having placed them in the middle, they asked, “By what power or in what Name did you do this?”

8 Then Kêpha, filled with the Set-apart Spirit, said to them, “Rulers of the people and elders of Yisra’êl:

9 “If today we are called to account for a good deed towards a sick man, by whom he has been healed,

10 let it be known to all of you, and to all the people of Yisra’êl, that in the Name of יְשׁוּעַ Messiah of Natsareth, whom you impaled, whom Elohim raised from the dead, by Him this one stands before you, healthy.

11 “This is ‘the stone which was rejected by you builders, which has become the chief cornerstone.’

12 “And there is no deliverance in anyone else, for there is no other Name under the heaven given among men by which we need to be saved.”

13 And seeing the boldness of Kêpha and Yoḥanan, and perceiving that they were unlearned and ordinary men, they mar-velled. And they recognised that they had been with יְשׁוּעַ.

14 And seeing the man who had been healed standing with them, they could not contradict it.

15 But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they consulted with one another,

16 saying, “What shall we do to these men? For, indeed, that an outstanding mir-cacle has been done through them is apparent to all those dwelling in Yerushalayim, and we are unable to deny it.

17 “But in order that it spreads no further among the people, let us strongly threaten them, to speak no more to anyone in this Name.”

18 And they called them and commanded them not to speak at all nor to teach in the Name of יְשׁוּעַ.

19 But Kêpha and Yoḥanan answering them, said, “Whether it is right in the sight of Elohim to listen to you more than to Elohim, " you judge.

20 “For it is impossible for us not to speak of what we saw and heard.”

21 And having threatened them further, they released them, finding no way of punishing them, because of the people, because they were all praising Elohim for what had been done.

22 For the man was over forty years old on whom this miracle of healing had been done.

23 And having been released, they went to their own people and reported all that the chief priests and elders said to them.

24 And having heard that, they lifted up their voice to Elohim with one mind and said, “ יְהוָה , You are Elohim, who made the heaven and the sea, and all that is in them,

25 who by the mouth of Your servant
Dawiê have said, ‘Why did the gentiles rage, and the people plot in vain?

26 ‘The sovereigns of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together against יְהוָה and against His Messiah.’ “

27 “For truly, in this city there were gathered together against יְהוָה , whom You anointed, both Herodes and Pontius Pilate, with the gentiles and the people of Yisra’êl

28 to do whatever Your hand and Your purpose decided before to be done.

29 “And now, יְהוָה , look on their threats, and give to Your servants all boldness to speak Your word,

by stretching out Your hand for healing, and signs, and wonders to take place through the Name of Your set-apart Servant יְשׁוּעַ ".

And when they had prayed, the place where they came together was shaken. And they were all filled with the Set-apart Spirit, and they spoke the word of Elohim with boldness.

And the group of those who believed were of one heart and one being. And no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own, but they had all in common.

And with great power the emissaries gave witness to the resurrection of the Master יְשׁוּעַ, and great favour was upon them all.

For there was not anyone needy among them, for all who were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of what was sold, and laid them at the feet of the emissaries, and they distributed to each as anyone had need.

And Yosãph, who was also called Barnabah by the emissaries (which means Son of Encouragement), a Lãwite, a native of Cyprus, having land, sold it, and brought the proceeds and laid it at the feet of the emissaries.

But a certain man named Hananyah, with Shappirah his wife, sold a possession.

And he kept back from the price, his wife also being aware of it, and brought a certain part and laid it at the feet of the emissaries.

But Kêpha said, “Hananyah, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Set-apart Spirit and keep back from the price of the land for yourself?

“While it remained, did it not remain your own? And after it was sold, was it not in your authority? Why have you conceived this deed in your heart? You have not lied to men but to Elohim.”

Then Hananyah, hearing these words, fell down and breathed his last. And great fear came upon all those who heard of this.

But the young men arose and wrapped him up, carried him out and buried him.

And it came to be, about three hours later, that his wife came in, not knowing what had taken place.

And Kêpha responded to her, “Say to me whether you sold the land for so much?” And she said, “Yes, for so much.”

So Kêpha said to her, “Why have you agreed to try the Spirit of יהוה? Look, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they shall carry you out.”

And immediately she fell down at his feet and breathed her last. And the young men came in and found her dead, and carrying her out, they buried her beside her husband.

And great fear came upon all the assembly and upon all who heard of this.

And through the hands of the emissaries many signs and wonders were done among the people. And they were all with one mind in Shelomoh’s Porch.

But of the rest no one had the courage to join them, however, the people made much of them.

And more believers were added to the Master, large numbers of both men and women, so that they brought the sick out into the streets and laid them on beds and couches, that at least the shadow of Kêpha, passing by, might fall on some of them.

A large number also gathered from the surrounding cities to Yerushalayim, bringing sick ones and those who were troubled by unclean spirits, and they were all healed.

But the high priest rose up, and all those with him, which is the sect of the Sadducees, and they were filled with jealousy, and seized the emissaries and put them in the public jail.

But a messenger of יהוה opened the prison doors at night and brought them out, and said,

“Go and stand in the Set-apart Place and speak to the people all the words of 21 Now when they heard, they went into the Set-apart Place early in the morning, and were teaching. But the high priest and those with him came and called the council together, with all the elders of the children of Yisra’êl, and sent to the prison for them to be brought.

22 But having come, the officers did not find them in the prison, and they went back and reported it,

23 saying, “We found the prison shut in all safety, and the watches standing outside before the doors. But having opened them, we found no one inside!”

24 And as the high priest and the captain of the Set-apart Place and the chief priests heard these words, they were puzzled and wondered what this might be.

25 But one came and reported to them, saying, “Look, the men whom you put in prison are standing in the Set-apart Place and teaching the people!”

26 Then the captain went with the officers and brought them, not with force, for they feared the people, lest they should be stoned.

27 And having brought them, they set them before the council and the high priest asked them,

28 saying, “Did we not strictly command you not to teach in this Name? And look, you have filled Yerushalayim with your teaching, and intend to bring the blood of this Man upon us!”

29 And Kêpha and the other emissaries answering, said, “We have to obey Elohim rather than men. p 30 “The Elohim of our fathers raised up whom you laid hands on, hanging Him on a timber.

31 “Him, a Prince and a Saviour, Elohim has exalted to His right hand, to give repentance to Yisra’êl and forgiveness of sins.

32 “And we are His witnesses to these matters, and so also is the Set-apart Spirit whom Elohim has given to those who obey Him.” q

33 And those hearing were cut to the heart, and took counsel to kill them.

34 But a certain one in the council stood up, a Pharisee named Gamli’êl, a teacher of the Torah, respected by all the people, and ordered them to put the emissaries outside for a little while,

35 and said to them, “Men of Yisra’êl, take heed to yourselves what you intend to do to these men.

36 “For before these days Toḏah rose up, claiming to be somebody. A number of men, about four hundred, did join him. He was slain, and all who obeyed him were dispersed, and came to naught.

37 “After him, Yehuḏah of Galil rose up in the days of the census, and drew away many people after him. He also perished, and all who obeyed him were scattered.

38 “And now I say to you, stay away from these men and leave them alone, because if this plan or this work is of men, it shall be overthrown, 39 but if it is of Elohim, you are unable to overthrow it, lest you even be found to fight against Elohim.”

40 And they heeded his advice, and having called for the emissaries, beating them, they commanded that they should not speak in the Name of aSWHY, and let them go.

41 Then indeed they went rejoicing from the presence of the council, because they were counted worthy to suffer shame for His Name.

42 And daily in the Set-apart Place, and in every house, they did not cease teaching and bringing the Good News: the Messiah!

p See 4:19. q See also 1 Yn. 3:24.
Therefore, brothers, seek out from among you seven men who are known to be filled with the Set-apart Spirit and wisdom, whom we shall appoint for this duty, but we shall give ourselves continually to prayer and to serving the Word.”

And the word pleased the entire group. And they chose Stephanos, a man filled with belief and the Set-apart Spirit, and Philip, and Prochoros, and Nikanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nikolaos, a convert from Antioch, whom they set before the emissaries. And when they had prayed, they laid hands on them.

And the Word of Elohim spread, and the number of the taught ones increased greatly in Yerushalayim, and a great many of the priests were obedient to the belief.

And Stephanos, filled with belief and power, did great wonders and signs among the people.

But some of those of the so-called Congregation of the Freedmen (Cyrenians, Alexandrians, and those from Kilikia and Asia), rose up, disputing with Stephanos, but they were unable to resist the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke.

Then they instigated men to say, “We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Mosheh and Elohim.”

And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, so they came upon him, seized him, and brought him to the council.

and they were brought over to Sheḵem and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a price of silver from the sons of Hamor, the father of Sheḵem.

“But as the time of the promise drew near which Elohim had sworn to Abraham, the people increased and multiplied in Mitsrayim until another sovereign arose who did not know Yosĕph.

“Having dealt treacherously with our race, this one mistreated our fathers, making them expose their babies, so that they should not live.

“At that time Mosheh was born, and he was well-pleasing to Elohim. And he was reared three months in the house of his father.

“But when he was exposed, the daughter of Pharaoh took him up and reared him as her own son.

“And Mosheh was instructed in all the wisdom of the Mitsrites, and was mighty in words and works.

“And when he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brothers, the children of Yisra’ĕl.

“And seeing one of them being wronged, he defended and revenged him who was oppressed, smiting the Mitsrite.

“And he thought that his brothers would have understood that Elohim would give deliverance to them by his hand, but they did not understand.

“And the next day he appeared to two of them as they were fighting, and urged them to peace, saying, ‘Men, you are brothers, why do you wrong one another?’

“But he who was wronging his neighbour pushed him away, saying, ‘Who made you a ruler and a judge over us?’

‘Do you wish to kill me as you killed the Mitsrite yesterday?’

“And at this saying, Mosheh fled and became a sojourner in the land of Midyan, where he fathered two sons.

“And after forty years were completed, a Messenger of Elohim appeared to him in a flame of fire in a bush, in the wilderness of Mount Sinai.

“And Mosheh, seeing it, marvelled at the sight, and coming near to look, the voice of Elohim came to him, “saying, ‘I am the Elohim of your fathers, the Elohim of Abraham and the Elohim of Yitsḥaq and the Elohim of Ya’aqoḇ.’ And Mosheh trembled and did not have the courage to look.

“But Elohim said to him, “Take your sandals off your feet, for the place where you stand is set-apart ground.

“I have certainly seen the evil treatment of my people who are in Mitsrayim, and I have heard their groaning and have come down to deliver them. And now come, let Me send you to Mitsrayim.”’

“This Mosheh whom they had refused, saying, ‘Who made you a ruler and a judge?’ – this one Elohim sent to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the Messenger who appeared to him in the bush.

“This one led them out, after he had done wonders and signs in the land of Mitsrayim, and in the Red Sea, and in the wilderness forty years.

“This is the Mosheh who said to the children of Yisra’ĕl, ‘Elohim shall raise up for you a Prophet like me from your brothers. Him you shall hear.’

“This is he who was in the assembly in the wilderness with the Messenger who spoke to him on Mount Sinai, and with our fathers, who received the living Words to give to us,

“unto whom our fathers would not become obedient, but thrust away, and in their hearts they turned back to Mitsrayim, saying to Aharon, ‘Make us mighty ones to go before us, for this Mosheh who led us out of the land of Mitsrayim, we do not know what has become of him.’

“And they made a calf in those days, and brought an offering to the idol, and were rejoicing in the works of their own hands.

“So Elohim turned and gave them up to worship the host of the heaven, as it has been written in the book of the Prophets, ‘Did you bring slaughtered beasts and offerings unto Me during forty years in the wilderness, O house of Yisra’âl? 43 ‘And you took up the tent of Molek, and the star of your mighty one Kiiyyun, images which you made to bow before them. Therefore I shall remove you beyond Babel.’

44 ‘The Tent of Witness was with our fathers in the wilderness, as He appointed, instructing Mosheh to make it according to the pattern that he had seen, 45 which our fathers, having received it in turn, also brought with Yehoshua into the land possessed by the gentiles, whom Elohim drove out before the face of our fathers until the days of DawiÅ, 46 who found favour before Elohim and asked to find a dwelling for the Elohim of YaÈaqoÄ, 47 but Shelomoh built Him a house.

48 ‘However, the Most High does not dwell in dwellings made with hands, as the prophet says: 49 ‘The heaven is My throne, and earth is My footstool. What house shall you build for Me? says יְהֹוָה, or what is the place of My rest? 50 ‘Has My hand not made all these?’ 51 ‘You stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears! You always resist the Set-apart Spirit, as your fathers did, you also do.

52 ‘Which of the prophets did your fathers not persecute? And they killed those who before announced the coming of the Righteous One, of whom you now have become the betrayers and murderers, 53 who received the Torah as it was ordained by messengers, but did not watch over it.’

54 And hearing this they were cut to the hearts and gnashed the teeth at him. 55 But he, being filled with the Set-apart Spirit, looked steadily into the heaven and saw the esteem of Elohim, and יְהֹוָה standing at the right hand of Elohim,

56 and he said, “Look! I see the heavens opened and the Son of AÅam standing at the right hand of Elohim!” 57 And crying out with a loud voice, they stopped their ears, and rushed upon him with one mind, 58 and threw him out of the city and stoned him. And the witnesses laid down their garments at the feet of a young man named Sha’ul.

59 And they were stoning Stephanos as he was calling and saying, “Master יְהֹוָה, receive my spirit.”

60 And kneeling down he cried out with a loud voice, “Master, do not hold this sin against them.” And having said this, he fell asleep.

8 And Sha’ul was giving approval to his death. And on that day there was a great persecution against the assembly which was at Yerushalayim, and they were all scattered throughout the countries of YehuÅah and Shomeron, except the emis-saries.

2 And dedicated men buried Stephanos, and made great lamentation over him.

3 But Sha’ul was ravaging the assembly, entering every house, and dragging off men and women, putting them in prison.

4 Then those who had been scattered went everywhere bringing the Good News: the Word!

5 And going down to the city of Shomeron Philip proclaimed Messiah to them.

6 And the crowds with one mind heeded what Philip said, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did.

7 For unclean spirits came out of many who were possessed, crying with a loud voice, and many who were paralysed and lame were healed.

8 And there came to be great joy in that city.

9 Now there was a certain man called Shim’on, who formerly was practising magic in the city and astonishing the people of Shomeron, claiming to be someone great, to whom they all were giving heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, “This one is the power of Elohim, which is great.”

11 And they were giving heed to him because for a long time he had amazed them with his magic.
12 And when they believed Philip as he brought the Good News about the reign of Elohim and the Name of Ḥa Shibān Messiah, both men and women were immersed.
13 And Shim’on himself also believed. And when he was immersed he continued with Philip, and was amazed, seeing the miracles and signs which took place.
14 And when the emissaries who were at Yerushalayim heard that Shomeron had received the Word of Elohim, they sent Kêpha and Yôhanan to them,
15 who, when they had come down, prayed for them to receive the Set-apart Spirit,
16 for He had not yet fallen on any of them, but they had only been immersed in the Name of the Master Ḥa Shibān.
17 Then they laid hands on them, and they received the Set-apart Spirit.
18 And Shim’on, seeing that through the laying on of the hands of the emissaries the Set-apart Spirit was given, he offered them money,
19 saying, “Give me this authority too, so that anyone I lay hands on shall receive the Set-apart Spirit.”
20 But Kêpha said to him, “Let your silver perish with you, because you thought to buy the gift of Elohim through money!
21 “You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart is not right before Elohim.
22 “Repent therefore of this evil of yours, and plead with Elohim to forgive you the intention of your heart.
23 “For I see that you are poisoned by bitterness and bound by unrighteousness.”
24 But Shim’on answering, said, “Plead with the Master for me, so that none of what you had said shall come upon me.”
25 Then after they had earnestly witnessed and spoken the Word of Ḥa Shibān, they returned to Yerushalayim, bringing the Good News in many villages of the Shomeronites.
26 But a messenger of Ḥa Shibān spoke to Philip, saying, “Arise and go toward the south along the way which goes down from Yerushalayim to Azzah.” This is desert.
27 And he arose and went, and saw, a man of Kush, a eunuch of great authority under Kandake the sovereigness of the Kushites, who was in charge of all her treasury, and had come to Yerushalayim to worship, 28 and was returning. And sitting in his chariot, he was reading the prophet Yeshayahu.
29 And the Spirit said to Philip, “Go near and join him in that chariot.”
30 And running up, Philip heard him reading the prophet Yeshayahu, and said, “Do you know what you are reading?”
31 And he said, “How am I able, unless someone guides me?” And he called Philip near, to come up and sit with him.
32 And the passage of the Scripture which he was reading was this, “He was led as a sheep to slaughter, and like a lamb silent before its shearer, so He opened not His mouth.
33 “In His humiliation He was deprived of right-ruling. And who shall declare His generation? Because His life was taken from the earth.”
34 And the eunuch, answering Philip, said, “I ask you, about whom does the prophet say this, about himself or about some other?”
35 And Philip opening his mouth, and beginning at this Scripture, brought to him the Good News: Ḥa Shibān!
36 And as they were going on the way, they came to some water. And the eunuch said, “Look, water! What hinders me from being immersed?”
37 And Philip said, “If you believe with all your heart, it is permitted.” And he answering, said, “I believe that Messiah is the Son of Elohim.”<sup>w</sup>

38 And he commanded the chariot to stand still. And both Philip and the eunuch went down into the water, and he immersed him. 39 And when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of caught Philip away, and the eunuch saw him no more, for he went his way, rejoicing. 40 Philip, however, was found at Ashdod. And passing through, he brought the Good News in all the cities until he came to Caesarea.

9 But Sha’ul, still breathing threats and murder against the taught ones of the Master, having come to the high priest,

2 asked from him letters to the congregations of Damascus, so that if he found any who were of the Way, whether men or women, to bring them bound to Yerushalayim.

3 And it came to be, that as he journeyed, he came near Damascus, and suddenly a light flashed around him from the heaven. 4 And he fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to him, “Sha’ul, Sha’ul, why do you persecute Me?” 5 And he said, “Who are You, Master?” And the Master said, “I am , whom you persecute. It is hard for you to kick against the prods.”

6 Both trembling, and being astonished, he said, “Master, what do You wish me to do?” And the Master said to him, “Arise and go into the city, and you shall be told what you have to do.”

7 And the men journeying with him stood speechless, hearing indeed the voice but seeing no one.

8 And Sha’ul arose from the ground, but when his eyes were opened he saw no one. And leading him by the hand they brought him into Damascus.

9 And he was three days without sight, and did not eat nor drink.

10 And there was at Damascus a certain taught one, by name Hananyah. 11 And the Master said unto him in a vision, “Hananyah!” And he said, “Here I am, Master.”

11 And the Master said to him, “Arise and go to the street called Straight, and seek in the house of Yehuḏa for one called Sha’ul of Tarsos, for look, he is praying.

12 and has seen in a vision a man named Hananyah coming in and laying his hand on him, so as to see again.”

13 And Hananyah answered, “Master, I have heard from many about this man, how many evils he did to Your set-apart ones in Yerushalayim, 14 and here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all those calling on Your Name.”

15 But the Master said to him, “Go, for he is a chosen vessel of Mine to bear My Name before nations, sovereigns, and the children of Yisra’el.

16 “For I shall show him how much he has to suffer for My Name.”

17 And Hananyah went away and went into the house. And laying his hands on him he said, “Brother Sha’ul, the Master , who appeared to you on the way as you came, has sent me, so that you might see again and be filled with the Set-apart Spirit.”

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes, as it were scales, and he received his sight. And rising up, he was immersed.

19 And having received food, he was strengthened. And Sha’ul was with the taught ones at Damascus some days.

20 And immediately he proclaimed the Messiah in the congregations, that He is the Son of Elohim.

21 And all who heard were amazed, and said, “Is this not he who destroyed those calling on this Name in Yerushalayim, and has come here for this, to take them bound to the chief priests?”

22 But Sha’ul kept increasing in strength, and was confounding the Yehuḏim who dwelt in Damascus, proving that this is the Messiah.

23 And after many days had elapsed, the Yehuḏim plotted to kill him.

24 But their plot became known to Sha’ul. And they were watching the gates day and night, to kill him.
25 But taking him by night, the taught ones let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket.
26 And having arrived at Yerushalayim, Sha’ul tried to join the taught ones, but they were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a taught one.
27 But BarnaÑah took him and brought him to the emissaries, and told them how he had seen the Master on the way, and that He had spoken to him, and how he was speaking boldly at Damascus in the Name of יהושע.
28 And he was with them at Yerushalayim, coming in and going out,
29 and speaking boldly in the Name of יהושע and disputed with the Hellenists, but they undertook to kill him.
30 And when the brothers learned of this, they brought him down to Caesarea and sent him out to Tarsos.
31 Then indeed the assemblies throughout all YehuÅah, and Galil, and Shomeron had peace and were built up, and walking in the fear of יהוה and in the encouragement of the Set-apart Spirit, they were being increased.
32 And it came to be, as Kêpha was passing through all places, that he also came down to the set-apart ones who were dwelling at Lod.
33 And there he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden for eight years, being paralytic.
34 And Kêpha said to him, “Aeneas, יהושע the Messiah heals you! Rise up and make your bed.” And immediately he rose up.
35 And all those dwelling at Lod and Sharon saw him and did turn to the Master.
36 And in Yapho there was a certain taught one named Tabitha, which means Dorkas. This woman was filled with good works and kind deeds which she did.
37 And it came to be in those days that she became sick and died. And having washed her, they laid her in an upper room.
38 And Lod being near to Yapho, and the taught ones having heard that Kêpha was there, they sent two men to him, urging him not to delay in coming to them.
39 And having risen up, Kêpha went with them. And when he arrived, they brought him to the upper room. And all the widows stood beside him weeping, showing the inner garments and outer garments which Dorkas had made while she was with them.
40 But Kêpha sent them all out, and knelt down and prayed. And turning to the body he said, “Tabitha, arise.” And she opened her eyes, and seeing Kêpha, she sat up.
41 And giving her his hand, he lifted her up. And calling the set-apart ones and widows, he presented her alive.
42 And it became known throughout all Yapho, and many believed on the Master.
43 And it came to be that he stayed for many days in Yapho with Shim’on, a leather-tanner.

10 Now there was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius, a captain of what was called the Italian Regiment,
2 dedicated, and fearing Elohim with all his household, doing many kind deeds to the people, and praying to Elohim always.
3 He clearly saw in a vision, about the ninth hour of the day, a messenger of Elohim coming to him, and saying to him, “Cornelius!”
4 And looking intently at him, and becoming afraid, he said, “What is it, master?” And he said to him, “Your prayers and your kind deeds have come up for a remembrance before Elohim.
5 “And now send men to Yapho, and send for Shim’on who is also called Kêpha.
6 “He is staying with Shim’on, a leather-tanner, whose house is by the sea.”
7 And when the messenger who spoke to him went away, Cornelius called two of his household servants, and a dedicated soldier from among those who waited on him continually.
8 And having explained to them all, he sent them to Yapho.
9 And on the next day, as they were on their way and approaching the city, Kêpha went up on the house-top to pray, about the sixth hour.

10 And he became hungry and wished to eat. But while they were preparing, he fell into a trance,

11 and he saw the heaven opened and a certain vessel like a great sheet bound at the four corners, descending to him and let down to the earth,

12 in which were all kinds of four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping creatures, and the birds of the heaven.

13 And a voice came to him, “Rise up, Kêpha, slay and eat.”

14 But Kêpha said, “Not at all, Master! Because I have never eaten whatever is common or unclean.”

15 And a voice came to him again the second time, “What Elohim has cleansed you do not consider common.”

16 And this took place three times, and the vessel was taken back to the heaven.

17 And while Kêpha was doubting within himself about what the vision might mean, look, the men who had been sent from Cornelius, having asked for the house of Shimôn, stood at the gate,

18 and calling out, they enquired whether Shimôn, also known as Kêpha, was staying there.

19 And as Kêpha was thinking about the vision, the Spirit said to him, “See, three men seek you.

20 “But rise up, go down and go with them, not doubting at all, for I have sent them.”

21 So Kêpha went down to the men who had been sent to him from Cornelius, and said, “Look, I am the one you seek. Why have you come?”

22 And they said, “Cornelius the captain, a righteous man and one who fears Elohim and well spoken of by the entire nation of the Yehudim, was instructed by a set-apart messenger to send for you to his house, and to hear words from you.”

23 So inviting them in, he housed them. And on the next day Kêpha went away with them, and some brothers from Yapho went with him.

24 And the following day they entered into Caesarea. And Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his relatives and close friends.

25 And it came to be, that when Kêpha entered, Cornelius met him and fell down at his feet and bowed before him.

26 But Kêpha raised him up, saying, “Stand up, I myself am also a man.”

27 And talking with him, he went in and found many who had come together.

28 And he said to them, “You know that a Yehudite man is not allowed to associate with, or go to one of another race. But Elohim has shown me that I should not call any man common or unclean.”

29 “That is why I came without hesitation when I was sent for. So I ask, why have you sent for me?”

30 And Cornelius said, “Four days ago I was fasting until this hour. And at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and see, a man stood before me in shining garments, 31 and said, ‘Cornelius, your prayer has been heard, and your kind deeds were remembered before Elohim.

32 ‘Now send to Yapho and call Shimôn here, who is also called Kêpha. He is staying in the house of Shimôn, a leather-tanner, by the sea. When he comes, he shall speak to you.’

33 “So I sent to you immediately, and you have done well to come. And now, we are all present before Elohim, to hear all that you have been commanded by Elohim.”

34 And opening his mouth, Kêpha said, “Truly I see that Elohim shows no partiality, 35 but in every nation, he who fears Him and works righteousness is accepted by Him.

36 “He sent the word to the children of Yisra’ël, bringing the Good News: peace through יְשׁוֹעַ Messiah! He is Master of all.

Kêpha clearly states what the vision meant: No man, no gentile (not speaking about animals at all) should be called unclean. See also v. 35.
37 “You know what word came to be throughout all Yehuḏah, beginning from Galil after the immersion which Yoḥanan proclaimed:
38 how Elohim did anoint Ἰούδας of Natsareth with the Set-apart Spirit and with power, who went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for Elohim was with Him.
39 “And we are witnesses of all He did, both in the country of the Yehuḏim and in Yerushalayim, whom they even killed by hanging on a timber.
40 “Elohim raised up this One on the third day, and let Him be seen, 41 not to all the people, but to witnesses, those having been chosen before by Elohim – to us who ate and drank with Him after He arose from the dead.
42 “And He commanded us to proclaim to the people, and to witness that it is He who was appointed by Elohim to be Judge of the living and the dead.
43 “To this One all the prophets bear witness, that through His Name, everyone believing in Him does receive forgiveness of sins.”

While Kêpha was still speaking these words, the Set-apart Spirit fell upon all those hearing the word.
45 And those of the circumcision who believed were astonished, as many as came with Kêpha, because the gift of the Set-apart Spirit had been poured out on the gentiles also,
46 for they were hearing them speaking with tongues and extolling Elohim. Then Kêpha answered, 47 “Is anyone able to forbid water, that these should not be immersed who have received the Set-apart Spirit – even as also we?”
48 And he commanded them to be immersed in the Name of Messiah. Then they asked him to remain a few days.

And when Kêpha went up to Yerushalayim, those of the circumcision were contending with him,
4 saying, “You went in to uncircumcised men and ate with them!”
4 But Kêpha began and set it forth in order, saying:
5 “I was in the city of Yapho praying. And in a trance I saw a vision, a certain vessel descending like a great sheet, let down from the heaven by four corners, and it came to me.
6 “Having looked into it, I perceived and I saw four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping creatures, and the birds of heaven.
7 “And I heard a voice saying to me, ‘Rise up, Kêpha, slay and eat.’
8 “But I said, ‘Not at all, Master! Because whatever is common or unclean has never entered into my mouth.’
9 “And the voice answered me again from the heaven, ‘What Elohim has cleansed you do not consider common.’
10 “And this took place three times, and all were drawn up again into the heaven.
11 “And see, immediately three men stood before the house where I was, having been sent to me from Caesarea.
12 “And the Spirit said to me to go with them, not doubting at all. And these six brothers also went with me, and we went into the man’s house.
13 “And he told us how he had seen a messenger standing in his house, who said to him, ‘Send men to Yapho, and call for Shim’on who is also called Kêpha,
14 who shall speak to you words, by which you shall be saved, you and all your house.’
15 “And as I began to speak, the Set-apart Spirit fell upon them, as upon us at the beginning.
16 “And I remembered the word of the Master, how He said, ‘Yoḥanan indeed immersed in water, but you shall be immersed in the Set-apart Spirit.’
17 “So if Elohim gave them the same gift as He gave us when we believed on the Master שׁוֹשַׁנְיָהוֹ, Messiah, how was I able to withstand Elohim?"

18 And having heard this, they were silent, and praised Elohim, saying, “Then Elohim has indeed also given to the gentiles repentance to life.”

19 Then, indeed, they who were scattered because of the pressure that arose over Stephanos passed through to Phoenicia, and Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except the Yehuḏim only.

20 But some of them were men from Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Hellenists, bringing the Good News: the Master שׁוֹשַׁנְיָהוֹ!

21 And the hand of the Master was with them, and a great number having believed turned to the Master.

22 And word of it came to the ears of the assembly in Yerushalayim, and they sent out Barnaḇah to go as far as Antioch, 23 who, having come, and seeing the favour of Elohim, was glad, and encouraged them all with purpose of heart to cleave to the Master.

24 Because he was a good man, and filled with the Set-apart Spirit and with belief. And large numbers were added to the Master.

25 Then Barnaḇah went to Tarsos to seek Sha’ul,

26 and having found him, he brought him to Antioch. And it came to be that for an entire year they came together in the assembly and taught large numbers. And the taught ones were called ‘Messianites’ first in Antioch.

27 And in those days prophets came from Yerushalayim to Antioch.

28 And one of them, named Haḡab, stood up and indicated by the Spirit that there was going to be a great scarcity of food over all the world – which also took place under Claudius Caesar.

29 So the taught ones, each according to his ability, decided to send relief to the brothers dwelling in Yehuḏah.

30 This they also did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnaḇah and Sha’ul.

12 And about that time Herodes the sovereign put forth his hands to do evil to some from the assembly.

2 And he killed Ya’aqoḇ the brother of Yoḥanan with the sword.

3 And seeing that it was pleasing to the Yehuḏim, he proceeded further to arrest Kêpha as well – and they were the Days of Unleavened Bread.

4 So when he had seized him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four squads of soldiers to watch over him, intending to bring him before the people after Passover.

5 So Kêpha was indeed kept in prison, but prayer was earnestly made to Elohim on his behalf by the assembly.

6 And when Herodes was about to bring him out, that night Kêpha was sleeping, bound with two chains between two soldiers. And the guards before the door were keeping the prison.

7 And see, a messenger of יהוה stood by, and a light shone in the building. And smiting the side of Kêpha he raised him up, saying, “Get up quickly!” And his chains fell off his hands.

8 And the messenger said to him, “Gird yourself and bind on your sandals,” and he did so. And he said to him, “Put on your garment and follow me.”

9 And coming out he followed him, and knew not that what was done by the messenger was true, but thought he was seeing a vision.

10 And when they had passed the first and the second guard posts, they came to the iron gate that leads to the city, which opened to them by itself. And they went out and went down one street, and the messenger instantly withdrew from him.

11 And when Kêpha had come to himself, he said, “Now I truly know that יהוה has sent His messenger, and delivered me from the hand of Herodes and from all the Yehuḏite people were anticipating.”

12 And having realised this, he went to the \[\text{See 10:35.}\]

house of Miryam, the mother of Yoḥanan who was also called Mark, where many had gathered to pray.

13 And when Kēpha knocked at the door of the gate, a girl named Rhode came to answer.

14 And when she recognised Kēpha’s voice, she did not open the gate because of her joy, but ran in and reported that Kēpha stood before the gate.

15 And they said to her, “You are mad!” But she kept insisting that it was so, and they said, “It is his messenger.”

16 And Kēpha continued knocking, and having opened they saw him and were amazed.

17 And motioning to them with his hand to be silent, he told them how the Master brought him out of the prison. And he said, “Report this to Ya’aqōb and to the brothers.” And he left and went to another place.

18 Now when day came, there was no small stir among the soldiers about what had become of Kēpha.

19 And when Herodes had searched for him and did not find him, he examined the guards and ordered them to be led away. And he went down from Yehuḏah to Caesarea, and stayed there.

20 Now Herodes had been highly displeased with the people of Tsor and Tsiḏon, but with one mind they came to him, and having made Blastos the sovereign’s eunuch their friend, they were asking for peace, because their country was supplied with food by the sovereign’s country.

21 And on an appointed day Herodes, having put on his royal clothes, sat on his throne and gave an address to them.

22 And the people kept shouting, “The voice of a mighty one and not of a man!”

23 And instantly a messenger of Elohim smote him, because he did not give the esteem to Elohim. And becoming worm-eaten, he died.

24 And the word of Elohim went on growing and spreading.

25 And Barnabah and Sha’ul returned from Yerushalayim, having completed the service, and having taken with them Yoḥanan who was also called Mark.

13 And in the assembly that was at Antioch there were certain prophets and teachers: both Barnabah and Shim’on who was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaḥēm who had been brought up with Herodes the district ruler, and Sha’ul.

2 And as they were doing service to the Master and fasted, the Set-apart Spirit said, “Separate unto Me Barnabah and Sha’ul for the work to which I have called them.”

3 Then having fasted and prayed, and having laid hands on them, they sent them away.

4 So they, having been sent out by the Set-apart Spirit, went down to Seleukeia, and from there they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And having come into Salamis, they proclaimed the word of Elohim in the congregations of the Yehuḏim. And they also had Yoḥanan as an attendant.

6 And having passed through all the island to Paphos, they found a certain magician, a false prophet, a Yehuḏite whose name was Bar-Yehoshua,

7 who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of understanding. This man, having called for Barnabah and Sha’ul, earnestly sought to hear the word of Elohim.

8 But Elumas the magician – for so his name is translated – withheld them, seeking to turn the proconsul away from the belief.

9 Then Sha’ul, filled with the Set-apart Spirit, looked intently at him,

10 and said, “O son of the devil, filled with all deceit and all recklessness, you enemy of all righteousness, shall you not cease perverting the straight ways of Elohim?

11 “And now, see, the hand of Elohim is upon you, and you shall be blind, not seeing the sun for a time.” And instantly a dark mist fell on him, and he went around seeking someone to lead him by the hand.

12 And having seen what took place, the proconsul believed, being astonished at the teaching of the Master.

13 And having put out from Paphos,
Sha’ul and those with him came to Perge in Pamphulia. And Yoḥanan, having left them, returned to Yerushalayim.

14 But passing through from Perge, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the congregation on the Sabbath day and sat down.

15 And after the reading of the Torah and the Prophets, the rulers of the congregation sent to them, saying, “Men, brothers, if you have any word of encouragement for the people, speak.”

16 And Sha’ul, standing up and motioning with his hand said, “Men, Yisra’elites, and those fearing Elohim, listen:

17 “The Elohim of this people Yisra’el did choose our fathers, and exalted the people in their sojourning in the land of Mitsrayim, and with a high arm He brought them out of it.

18 “Now for a time of about forty years He sustained them in the wilderness.

19 “And having destroyed seven nations in the land of Kena’an, He gave their land to them as an inheritance.

20 “And after that He gave judges for about four hundred and fifty years, until Shemu’el the prophet.

21 “But then they asked for a sovereign, and Elohim gave them Sha’ul the son of Qish, a man of the tribe of Binyamin, for forty years.

22 “And having removed him, He raised up for them Dawiḏ as sovereign, to whom also He gave witness and said, ‘I have found Dawiḏ the son of Yishai, a man after My own heart, who shall do all My desires.’

23 “From this one’s seed, according to the promise, Elohim raised up for Yisra’el a Saviour, Yeshua, son of Dawiḏ, son of Yishai, son of Abraham, and those among you fearing Elohim, to you the word of this deliverance has been sent,

27 for those dwelling in Yerushalayim, and their rulers, because they did not know Him, nor even the voices of the Prophets which are read every Sabbath, have filled them in having judged Him.

28 “And having found not one cause for death, they asked Pilate that He should be put to death.

29 “And when they had accomplished all that was written concerning Him, taking Him down from the timber, they laid Him in a tomb.

30 “But Elohim raised Him from the dead, and He was seen for many days by those who came up with Him from Galil to Yerushalayim, who are His witnesses to the people.

32 “And we bring you the Good News, the promise made to the fathers,

33 that Elohim has filled this for us, their children, having raised up Yeshua, as it has also been written in the second Psalm, ‘You are My Son, today I have brought You forth.’

34 “And that He raised Him out of the dead, no more to return to corruption, He has said thus, ‘I shall give you the trustworthy kindnesses of Dawiḏ.’

35 “For this reason He also says in another Psalm, ‘You shall not give Your Kind One to see corruption.’

36 “For Dawiḏ, indeed, having served his own generation by the counsel of Elohim, fell asleep, was buried with his fathers, and saw corruption, 37 but He whom Elohim raised up saw no corruption.

38 “Let it therefore be known to you, brothers, that through this One forgiveness of sins is proclaimed to you,

39 and by Him everyone who believes is declared right from all sins from which you were not able to be declared right by the Torah of Mosheh.

40 “Watch then that what was said in the prophets does not come upon you:

41 “See, you despisers, marvel and perish, for I work a work in your days, a work which you would in no way believe if someone were to declare it to you.’”

42 And when the Yehuḏim went out of the congregation, the gentiles begged to have these words spoken to them the next Sabbath.

43 And when the meeting of the congregation had broken up, many of the Yehuḏim and of the worshipping converts followed Shaʻul and Barnaḇah, who, speaking to them, were urging them to continue in the favour of Elohim.

44 And on the next Sabbath almost all the city came together to hear the Word of Elohim.

45 But when the Yehuḏim saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy. And contradicting and speaking evil, they opposed what Shaʻul was saying.

46 But speaking boldly, Shaʻul and Barnaḇah said, “It was necessary that the word of Elohim should be spoken to you first, but since you thrust it away, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, see, we turn to the gentiles.

47 “For so the Master has commanded us, ‘I have set you to be a light to the gentiles, that you should be for deliverance to the ends of the earth.’”

48 And when the gentiles heard this, they were glad and praised the Word of YHWH. And as many as had been appointed to everlasting life believed.

49 And the Word of YHWH was being spread throughout the entire country.

50 But the Yehuḏim stirred up the worshipping and noble women and the chief men of the city, and raised up persecution against Shaʻul and Barnaḇah, and threw them out of their borders.

51 And shaking off the dust from their feet against them, they came to Ikonion.

52 And the taught ones were filled with joy and the Set-apart Spirit.

And it came to be in Ikonion that they went together into the congregation of the Yehuḏim, and spoke in such a way that a great number of both Yehuḏim and Greeks believed.

2 But the Yehuḏim who would not obey stirred up the gentiles and evilly influenced their beings against the brothers.

3 So they remained a long time, speaking boldly in the Master, who was bearing witness to the word of His favour, giving signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

4 And the crowd of the city was divided, and some sided with the Yehuḏim, and some with the emissaries.

5 But when a move took place by both the gentiles and Yehuḏim, with their rulers, to mistreat and stone them,

6 they became aware of it and fled to Lustra and Derbe, cities of Lukaonia, and the country round about.

7 And they were bringing the Good News there.

8 And in Lustra there was sitting a certain man, disabled in his feet, a cripple from his mother’s womb, who had never walked.

9 This one heard Shaʻul speaking, who, looking intently at him and seeing that he had belief to be healed,

10 said with a loud voice, “Stand upright on your feet!” And he sprang up and began to walk.

11 And when the crowds saw what Shaʻul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in Lukaonian, “The mighty ones have become like men and come down to us!”

12 And they called Barnaḇah Zeus, and Shaʻul Hermes, since he was the chief speaker.

13 And the priest of Zeus, being in front of their city, brought oxen and wreaths to the gates, and wished to offer with the crowds.

14 And when the emissaries Barnaḇah and Shaʻul heard this, they tore their garments and ran in among the crowd, crying out

15 and saying, “Men, why are you doing this? We also are men with the same nature as you, bringing to you the Good News: to turn from these worthless matters to the living Elohim, who made the heaven, and the earth, and the sea, and all that is in them,

16 who in past generations allowed all the nations to walk in their own ways, b though, indeed, He did not leave Himself without witness, doing good — giving us rain from heaven and fruit-bearing seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.”

Even with these words they still had difficulty in stopping the crowds from offering to them.

But Yehùḏim arrived from Antioch and Ikonion, and having won over the crowds, they stoned Sha’ul, dragged him out of the city, thinking he was dead.

But while the taught ones gathered around him, he rose up and went into the city. And on the next day he went away with Barnabah to Derbe.

And having brought the Good News to that city, and having made many taught ones, they returned to Lustra, and Ikonion, and Antioch, strengthening the beings of the taught ones, encouraging them to continue in the belief, and that through many pressures we have to enter the reign of Elohim.

And having appointed elders in every assembly, having prayed with fasting, they committed them to the Master in whom they had believed.

And having passed through Pisidia, they came to Pamphulia.

And having spoken the word in Perge, they went down to Attaleia, and from there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been committed to the favour of Elohim for the work which they had completed.

And having arrived, and having gathered together the assembly, they related all that Elohim had done with them, and that He had opened the door of belief to the gentiles.

And they remained there a long time with the taught ones.

And certain men came down from Yehuḏah and were teaching the brothers, “Unless you are circumcised, according to the practice of Mosheh, you are unable to be saved.”

So when Sha’ul and Barnabah had no small dissension and dispute with them, they arranged for Sha’ul and Barnabah and certain others of them to go up to Yerushalayim, to the emissaries and elders, about this question.

So, being sent on their way by the assembly, they passed through Phoenicia and Shomeron, relating the conversion of the gentiles. And they were causing great joy to all the brothers.

And having arrived in Yerushalayim, they were received by the assembly and the emissaries and the elders. And they reported all that Elohim had done with them.

And some of the believers who belonged to the sect of the Pharisees, rose up, saying, “It is necessary to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the Torah of Mosheh.”

And the emissaries and elders came together to look into this matter.

And when there had been much dispute, Kêpha rose up and said to them, “Men, brothers, you know that a good while ago Elohim chose among us, that by my mouth the gentiles should hear the word of the Good News and believe.

And Elohim, who knows the heart, bore witness to them, by giving them the Set-apart Spirit, as also to us, and made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by belief.

“Now then, why do you try Elohim by putting a yoke on the neck of the taught ones which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?

“But through the favour of the Master Messiah we trust to be saved, in the same way as they.”

And all the crowd was silent and were listening to Barnabah and Sha’ul declaring how many miracles and wonders Elohim did among the gentiles, through them.

And after they were silent, Ya’aqoḇ answered, saying, “Men, brothers, listen to me:

“Shim’on has declared how Elohim first visited the gentiles to take out of them a people for His Name.

15 "And the words of the prophets agree with this, as it has been written:
16 'After this I shall return and rebuild the Booth of Dawiḏ which has fallen down. And I shall rebuild its ruins, and I shall set it up,
17 so that the remnant of mankind shall seek יהוה, even all the gentiles on whom My Name has been called, says יהוה who is doing all this,'
18 who has made this known from of old.
19 "Therefore I judge that we should not trouble those from among the gentiles who are turning to Elohim,
20 but that we write to them to abstain from the defilements of idols, and from whoring, and from what is strangled, and from blood. d
21 “For from ancient generations Mosheh has, in every city, those proclaiming him – being read in the congregations every Sabbath.”

22 Then it seemed good to the emissaries and elders, with all the assembly, to send chosen men from among them to Antioch with Sha’ul and Barnaḇah: Yehuḏah being called Barsabba, and Sila, leading men among the brothers,
23 having written by their hand this: The emissaries and the elders and the brothers, To the brothers who are of the gentiles in every city, greetings.
24 Since we have heard that some who went out from us have troubled you with words, unsettling your lives, to whom we gave no command –
25 it seemed good to us, having become of one mind, to send chosen men to you with our beloved Barnaḇah and Sha’ul, 26 men who have given up their lives for the Name of our Master יהושע Messiah.
27 We have therefore sent Yehuḏah and Sila, who are also confirming this by word of mouth.
28 For it seemed good to the Set-apart Spirit, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessities:
29 that you abstain from what is offered to idols, and blood, and what is strangled, and whoring. e If you keep yourselves from these, you shall do well. Be strong!
30 They, therefore, being sent off, went to Antioch. And having gathered the crowd together, they delivered the letter.
31 And having read it, they rejoiced over its encouragement.
32 And Yehuḏah and Sila, being themselves also prophets, encouraged the brothers with many words and strengthened them.
33 And having spent some time, they were sent back in peace from the brothers to the emissaries.
34 But it seemed good to Sila to remain.
35 And Sha’ul and Barnaḇah continued in Antioch, teaching and bringing, with many others also, the Good News: the Word of יהוה!
36 And after some days Sha’ul said to Barnaḇah, “Let us now go back and visit our brothers in every city where we proclaimed the Word of יהוה, and see how they are.”
37 And Barnaḇah purposed to take with them Yohanan called Mark.
38 But Sha’ul thought it not fit to take with them the one who withdrew from them in Pamphulia, and had not gone with them to the work.
39 A sharp feeling therefore came to be, so that they parted from one another. And so Barnaḇah took Mark and sailed to Cyprus.
40 And Sha’ul chose Sila and went off, being committed by the brothers to the favour of Elohim.
41 And he went through Syria and Kilikia, strengthening the assemblies.

16 And he came to Derbe and Lustra. And see, a certain taught one was there, named Timothy, the son of a certain Yehuḏite woman who believed – but his father was Greek –
2 who was well spoken of by the brothers

d It seems that these common habits of the gentiles were so repulsive to the Messianic Yehuḏim, that these four habits of the gentiles had to be repented of from the start, therefore called necessities in v. 28.

e See v. 20.
who were at Lustra and Ikonion.

3 Sha’ul wished to have this one go with him. And he took him and circumcised him because of the Yehuḏim who were in those places, for they all knew that his father was Greek.

4 And as they went through the cities, they delivered to them the regulations to keep, which were decided by the emissaries and elders at Yerushalayim.

5 Then, indeed, the assemblies were strengthened in the belief, and increased in number every day.

6 And having passed through Phrygia and the Galatian country, they were forbidden by the Set-apart Spirit to speak the word in Asia.

7 When they came to Musia, they tried to go into Bithunia, but the Spirit did not allow them.

8 And having passed by Musia, they came down to Troas.

9 And in the night a vision appeared to Sha’ul: A man of Makedonia was standing, begging him and saying, “Come over to Makedonia and help us.”

10 And when he saw the vision, immediately we sought to go to Makedonia, concluding that the Master had called us to bring the Good News to them.

11 Therefore, sailing from Troas, we ran a straight course to Samothrake, and the next day came to Neapolis, 12 and from there to Philippi, which is the principal city of that part of Makedonia, a colony. And we were staying in that city for some days.

13 And on the Sabbath day we went outside the city by a river, where there used to be prayer. And having sat down we were speaking to the women who met there.

14 And a certain woman named Ludia, a seller of purple from the city of Thyatira, worshipping Elohim, was hearing, whose heart the Master did open to pay attention to what Sha’ul said.

15 And when she was immersed, and her household, she begged us, saying, “If you have judged me to be believing in the Master, come to my house and stay.” And she urged us.

16 And it came to be, as we went to prayer, that a certain slave girl possessed with a spirit of Puthon, did meet us, who brought her masters much profit by foretelling.

17 Having followed Sha’ul and us, she cried out, saying, “These men are the servants of the Most High Elohim, who proclaim to us the way of deliverance.”

18 And she was doing this for many days. But Sha’ul, greatly annoyed, turned and said to the spirit, “I command you in the Name of Ḥaḇǝḇ Messiah to come out of her.” And it came out that same hour.

19 But when her masters saw that their anticipation of money-making was gone, they seized Sha’ul and Sila and dragged them into the market-place to the rulers.

20 And having brought them to the captains, they said, “These men, being Yehuḏim, greatly disturb our city, 21 and they proclaim practices which are not right for us to receive nor to do, being Romans.”

22 And the crowd rose up together against them. And the captains tore off their garments and commanded them to be beaten with rods.

23 And having laid many blows upon them, they threw them into prison, commanding the jailer to keep them safely, 24 who, having received such a command, put them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks.

25 And at midnight Sha’ul and Sila were praying and singing songs to Elohim, and the prisoners were listening to them.

26 And suddenly a great earthquake took place, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken, and immediately all the doors were opened and all the chains came loose.

27 And the jailer, awaking from sleep and seeing the prison doors open, thinking the prisoners had fled, drew his sword and was about to kill himself.

28 But Sha’ul called with a loud voice, saying, “Do no harm to yourself, for we are all here.”

29 And asking for a light, he ran in, and fell down trembling before Sha’ul and Sila.

30 And having led them outside he said, “Masters, what do I have to do to be saved?”

31 And they said, “Believe on the Master מESSIAH, and you shall be saved, you and your household.”

32 And they spoke the Word of מESSIAH to him and to all who were in his house.

33 And taking them in that hour of the night, he washed their wounds, and immediately he was immersed, he and all that were his.

34 And having brought them into his house, he set food before them. And he rejoiced with all his household, having believed in Elohim.

35 And when day came, the authorities sent the officers, saying, “Let these men go.”

36 And the jailer reported these words to Sha’ul, saying, “The captains have sent to let you go. Now then, come out and go in peace.”

37 But Sha’ul said to them, “They have beaten us publicly, uncondemned, being Romans. They have thrown us into prison, and now, do they throw us out secretly? No indeed! Let them come themselves and bring us out.”

38 And the jailer reported these words to the authorities, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Romans.

39 And having come, they pleaded with them and brought them out, and asked them to leave the city.

40 So coming out of the prison they went to Ludia, and seeing the brothers, they encouraged them, and went forth.

17 And having passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonike, where there was a congregation of the Yehudim.

2 And according to his practice, Sha’ul went in unto them, and for three Sabbaths was reasoning with them from the Scriptures,

3 explaining and pointing out that the Messiah had to suffer and rise again from the dead, and saying, “This is the Messiah, מESSIAH, whom I proclaim to you.”

4 And some of them did believe, and a large number of the worshipping Greeks, and not a few of the leading women, joined Sha’ul and Sila.

5 But the Yehudim who did not believe, having become envious, took some of the wicked men from the market-place, and gathering a mob, set all the city in an uproar and came upon the house of Jason, and were seeking to bring them out to the people.

6 But not finding them, they dragged Jason and some of the brothers to the city rulers, crying out, “They who have turned the world upside down have come here too,

7 whom Jason has received. And all of them are acting contrary to the dogmas of Caesar, saying there is another sovereign, מESSIAH.”

8 And they troubled the crowd and the city rulers when they heard this.

9 And when they had received a pledge from Jason and the rest, they let them go.

10 And the brothers immediately sent Sha’ul away, to go to the sea, but both Sila and Timothy stayed there.

11 Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonike, who received the word with great eagerness, and searched the Scriptures daily, if these words were so.

12 Then many of them truly believed, and also not a few of the Greeks, decent women as well as men.

13 And when the Yehudim from Thessalonike came to know that the word of Elohim was proclaimed by Sha’ul at Beroia, they came there also and stirred up the crowds.

14 And then immediately the brothers sent Sha’ul away, to go to the sea, but both Sila and Timothy stayed there.

15 And those who arranged for Sha’ul brought him to Athens. And receiving a command for Sila and Timothy to join him as soon as possible, they departed.

16 But while Sha’ul was waiting for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred up within him when he saw that the city was utterly idolatrous.

17 Therefore, indeed, he was reasoning in the congregation with the Yehuḏim and with the gentile worshippers, and in the market-place daily with those who met there.

18 And some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers encountered him. And some were saying, “What does this babbler wish to say?” Others said, “He seems to be a proclaimer of strange mighty ones” – because to them he brought the Good News: Yehovah and the resurrection!

19 So they laid hold of him and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, “Are we able to know what this fresh teaching is of which you speak?

20 “For you are bringing some strange matters to our ears. We wish, then, to know what these mean.”

21 For all the Athenians and the strangers living there spent their leisure time in doing naught but to speak or to hear what is fresh.

22 And having stood in the midst of the Areopagus Sha’ul said, “Men of Athens, I see that you are very religious in every matter.

23 “For passing through and observing the objects of your worship, I even found an altar with this inscription: TO THE UNKNOWN MIGHTY ONE. Not knowing then whom you worship, I make Him known to you:

24 Yehovah, who made the world and all that is in it, this One being Master of heaven and earth, does not dwell in dwellings made with hands. g

25 “Nor is He served with men’s hands – as if needing any – Himself giving to all life, and breath, and all else.

26 “And He has made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, having ordained beforehand the times and the boundaries of their dwelling, 27 to seek the Master, if at least they would reach out for Him and find Him, though He is not far from each one of us.

28 “For in Him we live and move and are, as also some of your own poets have said, ‘For we are also His offspring.’

29 “Now then, since we are the offspring of Elohim, we should not think that the Elohim is like gold or silver or stone, an image made by the skill and thought of man.

30 “Truly, then, having overlooked these times of ignorance, Elohim now commands all men everywhere to repent, 31 because He has set a day on which He is going to judge the world in righteousness by a Man whom He has appointed, h having given proof of this to all by raising Him from the dead.”

32 And hearing of the resurrection of the dead, some indeed mocked, while others said, “We shall hear you again concerning this.”

33 And so Sha’ul went out from among them.

34 But some men joined him and believed, among them Dionusios the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

18 And after this Sha’ul left Athens and went to Corinth.

2 And he found a certain Yehuḏite named Aqulas, born in Pontos, who had recently come from Italy with his wife Priscilla – because Claudius had commanded all the Yehuḏim to leave Rome – and he came to them.

3 And because he was of the same trade, he stayed with them and was working, for they were tentmakers by trade.

4 And he was reasoning in the congregation every Sabbath, and won over both Yehuḏim and Greeks.

5 And when Sila and Timothy came down from Makedonia, Sha’ul was pressed by the Spirit, and earnestly witnessed to the Yehuḏim that Yehovah is the

However, when they resisted and blasphemed, he shook his garments and said to them, “Your blood is upon your head, I am clean. From now on I shall go to the gentiles.”

And having left there he came to the house of a certain man named Justus, who worshipped Elohim, whose house was next to the congregation.

And Crispus, the ruler of the congregation, did believe in the Master with all his household. And many of the Corinthians, hearing, believed and were immersed.

And the Master spoke to Sha’ul in the night by a vision, “Do not be afraid, but speak, and do not be silent, because I am with you, and no one shall attack you to do you evil, because I have much people in this city.”

And he remained a year and six months, teaching the Word of Elohim among them.

And when Gallion was proconsul of Achaia, the YehuÅim with one mind rose up against Sha’ul and brought him to the judgment seat, saying, “This one does seduce men to worship Elohim contrary to the Torah.”

And as Sha’ul was about to open his mouth, Gallion said to the YehuÅim, “If it were a matter of wrongdoing or wicked recklessness, O YehuÅim, there would be reason why I should bear with you.

“But if it is a question of words and names and a law which is among you, see to it yourselves, for I do not wish to be a judge of these matters.”

And he drove them away from the judgment seat.

And all the Greeks took Sosthenes, the ruler of the congregation, and beat him before the judgment seat. But Gallion showed no concern whatever.

And Sha’ul, having stayed several days more, having taken leave of the brothers, was sailing for Syria, and Priscilla and Aquas were with him, having shaved his hair at Kenhrea, for he had taken a vow.

And he came to Ephesos, and left them there, but he himself went into the congregation and reasoned with the YehuÅim.

And when they asked him to stay a longer time with them, he declined, but took leave of them, saying, “I have to keep this coming festival in Yerushalayim by all means, but I shall come back to you, Elohim desiring so.” And he sailed from Ephesos.

And having come to Caesarea, going up and greeting the assembly, he went down to Antioch.

And having spent some time there, he went forth, passing through the country of Galatia and on through Phrygia, strengthening all the taught ones.

And a certain YehuÅite named Apollos, born at Alexandria, a learned man and mighty in the Scriptures, came to Ephesos.

This one had been instructed in the way of the Master. And being fervent in spirit, he was speaking and teaching the matters about the Master exactly, though he knew only the immersion of YoÁanan.

And he began to speak boldly in the congregation. And when Aqulas and Priscilla heard him, they took him aside and explained to him the way of Elohim more exactly.

And when he intended to pass through to Achaia, the brothers, having encouraged him, wrote to the taught ones to receive him, who, having arrived, greatly helped those who believed through favour.

For with power he refuted the YehuÅim publicly, showing from the Scriptures that Yeshúa is the Messiah.

And it came to be, while Apollos was at Corinth, that Sha’ul, having passed through the upper parts, came to Ephesos. And having found some taught ones, he said to them, “Did you receive the Set-apart Spirit when you believed?” And they said to him, “No, we have not even heard that there is a Set-apart Spirit.”

And he said to them, “Into what then were you immersed?” And they said, “Into YoÁanan’s immersion.”

And Sha’ul said, “YoÁanan indeed immersed with an immersion of repenactance, saying to the people that they should believe in the One who is coming after him, that is, in Messiah יהושעוֹן.

5 And when they heard this, they were immersed in the Name of the Master יהושעוֹן.

6 And when Sha’ul had laid hands on them, the Set-apart Spirit came upon them, and they were speaking in tongues and prophesying.

7 And all the men were about twelve.

8 And having gone into the congregation he spoke boldly for three months, reasoning and persuading concerning the reign of Elohim.

9 But when some were hardened and did not believe, speaking evil of the Way before the crowd, he withdrew from them and separated the taught ones, reasoning daily in the school of Turannos.

10 And this took place for two years, so that all who dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Master יהושעוֹן, both Yehuḏim and Greeks.

11 And Elohim worked unusual miracles through the hands of Sha’ul, 12 so that even handkerchiefs or aprons were brought from his body to the sick, and the diseases left them and the wicked spirits went out of them.

13 But certain roving Yehuḏite exorcists took it upon themselves to call the Name of the Master יהושעוֹן over those who had wicked spirits, saying, “We exorcise you by יהושעוֹן whom Sha’ul proclaims.”

14 And there were seven sons of a certain Skeua, a Yehuḏite chief priest, who were doing this.

15 And the wicked spirit answering, said, “ יהושעוֹן I know, and Sha’ul I know, but who are you?”

16 And the man in whom the wicked spirit was leaped on them, overpowered them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

17 And this became known to all, both Yehuḏim and Greeks dwelling in Ephesos. And fear fell on them all, and the Name of the Master יהושעוֹן was made great.

18 And many who had believed came confessing and declaring their deeds.

19 And many of those who had practised magic brought their books together, burning them before all. And they reckoned up the value of them, and found it to be fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 So the word of the Master was growing mightily and prevailing.

21 Now when these matters had been completed, Sha’ul purposed in the Spirit, when he had passed through Makedonia and Achaia, to go to Yerushalayim, saying, “After I have been there, I have to see Rome too.”

22 And having sent into Makedonia two of those assisting him, Timothy and Érastos, he himself remained in Asia for a time.

23 And about that time there came to be a great commotion about the Way.

24 For a certain man named Demetrios, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of Artemis, provided no little business to the craftsmen, 25 who, having called them together, with the workers of similar trade, said, “Men, you know that our wealth is from this business.

26 “And you see and hear that not only at Ephesos, but throughout almost all Asia, this Sha’ul has persuaded and turned away a large number, saying that they are not mighty ones which are made with hands.

27 “And not only is this trade of ours in danger of coming to rejection, but also that the temple of the great female mighty one Artemis whom all Asia and the world worship, shall be regarded as worthless and her greatness diminished.”

28 And having heard this, they were filled with rage and cried out, saying, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

29 And the entire city was filled with confusion, and they rushed with one mind into the theatre, having seized Gaios and Aristarchos, Makedonians, Sha’ul’s fellow travellers.

30 And Sha’ul, intending to go in among the mob, the taught ones did not allow him.

31 And some of the officials of Asia, being his friends, sent to him begging him not to risk himself into the theatre.

32 Then others indeed shouted this and others that, for the assembly was confused, and most of them did not know why they had come together.

33 And some of the crowd instructed Alexander — the Yehudim putting him forward. And Alexander motioned with his hand, and wished to make his defence to the people.

34 But having recognised that he was a Yehudite, all with one voice cried out for about two hours, “Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!”

35 And the city clerk, having calmed the crowd, said, “Men of Ephesos, what man is there who does not know that the city of the Ephesians is the guardian of the temple of the great female mighty one Artemis, and of that which fell down from Zeus?

36 “Therefore, if these matters are undeniable, you need to be calm, and do not act rashly.

37 “For you have brought these men here who are neither temple-robbers nor speaking evil of your female mighty one.

38 “If truly then Demetrios and his fellow craftsmen have a case against anyone, the courts are open and there are proconsuls. Let them accuse one another.

39 “And if you have any further complaint, it shall be settled in the regular assembly.

40 “For we are in danger of being accused of riot concerning today, there being no reason which we could give to account for this disorderly gathering.”

41 And having said this, he dismissed the assembly.

20 After the uproar had ceased, Sha’ul called the taught ones to him, and having embraced them, went away to go to Makedonia.

2 And having gone through those parts, and having encouraged them with many words, he came to Greece,

3 where he spent three months. When he was about to sail to Syria, he decided to return through Makedonia, as a plot was made against him by the Yehudim.

4 And he was accompanied by Sopater of Beroia, and Aristarchos and Sekundos of the Thessalonians, and Gaios of Derbe, and Timothy, and Tuchikos and Trophimos of Asia.

5 And these, going ahead, waited for us at Troas.

6 And we sailed away from Philippi after the Days of Unleavened Bread, and came to them at Troas in five days, where we stayed seven days.

7 And on the first day of the week, the taught ones having gathered together to break bread, Sha’ul, intending to depart the next day, was reasoning with them and was extending the word till midnight.

8 And there were many lamps in the upper room where they were assembled.

9 And a certain young man, by name Eutuchos, was sitting in a window, being overpowered by a deep sleep. As Sha’ul kept on reasoning, he was overcome by sleep and fell down from the third storey, and was picked up dead.

10 And Sha’ul, having gone down, fell on him, and embracing him said, “Do not be upset, for his life is in him.”

11 Then going up again, and having broken bread and eaten, he talked a long while, even till daybreak, and so went forth.

12 And they brought the young man in alive, and were encouraged, not a little.

13 And we, going ahead to the ship, sailed to Assos, intending to take Sha’ul on board there, for so he had arranged, intending himself to go on foot.

14 And when he met us at Assos, we took him on board and came to Mitulene.

15 And from there we sailed, and the next day came opposite Chios. And the next day we arrived at Samos and remained at Trogullion. And the following day we came to Miletos.

16 For Sha’ul had decided to sail past Ephesos, so that he might lose no time in Asia, for he was hurrying to be at i Counted from the day on which the sheaf of the first-fruits is waved during the Feast of Unleavened Bread - See Way. 23:10-21. (The morrow after the sabbath.)

17 And from Miletos he sent to Ephesos and called for the elders of the assembly.
18 And when they had come to him, he said to them, “You know, from the first day that I came to Asia, how I was with you all the time, serving the Master with all humility, with many tears and trials which befell me by the plotting of the Yehudim, as I kept back no matter that was profitable, but proclaimed it to you, and taught you publicly and from house to house, witnessing to Yehudim, and also to Greeks: repentance toward Elohim and belief in our Master Messiah.
19“And now see, I go bound in the spirit to Yerushalayim, not knowing what is going to meet me there, 20except that the Set-apart Spirit witnesses in every city, saying that chains and pressures await me.
21“But I do not count my life of any value to me, so that I might accomplish my mission with joy, and the service which I received from the Master, to bear witness to the Good News of the favour of Elohim.
22“And now see, I know that you all, among whom I went about proclaiming the reign of Elohim, shall see my face no more.
23Therefore I witness to you this day that I am clear from the blood of all.
24“For I kept not back from declaring to you all the counsel of Elohim.
25Therefore take heed to yourselves and to all the flock, among which the Set-apart Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the assembly of Elohim which He has purchased with His own blood.
26“For I know this, that after my departure savage wolves shall come in among you, not sparing the flock.
27Also from among yourselves men shall arise, speaking distorted teachings, to draw away the taught ones after themselves.
28“Therefore watch, remembering that for three years, night and day, I did not cease to warn each one with tears.
29“And now, brothers, I commit you to Elohim and to the word of His favour, which is able to build you up and give you an inheritance among all those having been set apart.
30“I have coveted no one’s silver or gold or garments.
31“And you yourselves know that these hands supplied my needs, and for those who were with me.
32“All this I did show you, by labouring like this, that you ought to help the weak. And remember the words of the Master, that He said, ‘It is more blessed to give than to receive.’ ”
33“And having said this, he knelt down and prayed with them all.
34And there was much weeping among them all, and falling on Sha’ul’s neck, they kissed him, distressed most of all because of the word which he had said, that they would see his face no more. And they went with him to the ship.

And it came to be, when we had torn ourselves away from them, and had set sail, we ran a straight course and came to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara.
2And having found a ship passing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard and set sail.
3And having sighted Cyprus, and having passed it on the left, we sailed to Syria, and landed at Tsor, for the ship was to unload her cargo there.
4And having found taught ones, we remained there seven days. And they told Sha’ul through the Spirit not to go up to Yerushalayim.
5And when it came to be that our days there were ended, we left and went on, all of them accompanying us, with wives and children, till we were out of the city. And kneeling down on the beach, we prayed.

6 And having embraced one another, we boarded the ship, and they returned to their homes.

7 And when we had completed our voyage from Tsor, we came to Ptolemais. And having greeted the brothers we stayed with them one day.

8 And on the next day we left and came to Caesarea, and went into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with him.

9 Now this one had four maiden daughters who prophesied.

10 And as we were staying many days, a certain prophet named Ḥaḡaḇ came down from Yehuḏah,

11 and having come to us, he took the girdle of Sha’ul, bound his own hands and feet, and said, “Thus says the Set-apart Spirit, ‘Thus shall the Yehuḏim at Yerušalayim bind the man who owns this girdle, and deliver him into the hands of the gentiles.’ ”

12 And when we heard this, both we and those from that place begged him not to go up to Yerušalayim.

13 And Sha’ul answered, “What do you mean by weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Yerušalayim for the Name of the Master.”

14 And as he could not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, “Let the desire of the Master be done.”

15 And after those days, having made ready, we went up to Yerušalayim.

16 And also some of the taught ones from Caesarea went with us and brought with them one, Mnason of Cyprus, an early taught one, with whom we were to lodge.

17 And when we had arrived in Yerušalayim, the brothers received us gladly.

18 And on the following day Sha’ul went in with us to Ya’aqoḇ, and all the elders came.

19 And having greeted them, he was relating one by one what Elohim had done among the gentiles through his service.

20 And when they heard it, they praised the Master. And they said to him, “You see, brother, how many thousands of Yehuḏim there are who have believed, and all are ardent for the Torah.

21 “And they have been informed about you that you teach all the Yehuḏim who are among the gentiles to forsake Mosheh, saying not to circumcise the children nor to walk according to the practices.

22 “What then is it? They shall certainly hear that you have come.

23 “So do this, what we say to you: We have four men who have taken a vow.

24 “Take them and be cleansed with them, and pay their expenses so that they shave their heads. And all shall know that what they have been informed about you is not so, but that you yourself also walk orderly, keeping the Torah.

25 “But concerning the gentiles who believe, we have written and decided that they should keep themselves from what is offered to idols, and blood, and what is strangled, and whoring.”

26 Then Sha’ul took the men on the next day, and having been cleansed with them, went into the Set-apart Place to announce the completion of the days of separation—until the offering should be presented for each one of them.

27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Yehuḏim from Asia, seeing him in the Set-apart Place, were stirring up all the crowd, and they laid hands on him,

28 crying out, “Men of Yisra’ēl, help! This is the man who is teaching all men everywhere against the people, and the Torah, and this place. And besides, he also brought Greeks into the Set-apart Place and has profaned this Set-apart Place.”

29 Because they had previously seen Trophimos the Ephesian with him in the city, whom they thought that Sha’ul had brought into the Set-apart Place.

30 And the entire city was moved, and the people rushed together, seized Sha’ul, and dragged him out of the Set-apart Place. And immediately the doors were shut.

k See 15:20.
31 And while they were seeking to kill him, a report came to the commander of the company of soldiers that all Yerushalayim was in confusion.
32 At once he took soldiers and captains, and ran down to them. And they, having seen the commander and the soldiers, stopped beating Sha’ul.
33 Then the commander came near and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains, and was asking who he was and what he had done.
34 And in the crowd some were shouting this and others that. And not being able to ascertain the truth because of the uproar, he commanded him to be taken into the barracks.
35 And when he came to the stairs, he had to be carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd.
36 For a large number of the people followed after, crying out, “Away with him!”
37 And as Sha’ul was about to be led into the barracks, he said to the commander, “Am I allowed to say somewhat to you?” And he said, “Do you know Greek?”
38 “Are you not the Mitsrite who some time ago stirred up a revolt and led the four thousand assassins out into the wilderness?”
39 But Sha’ul replied, “I am a Yehudite from Tarsos, in Kilikia, a citizen of no mean city. And I beg you, allow me to speak to the people.”
40 And having given him permission, Sha’ul, standing on the stairs motioned with his hand to the people. And when there was a great silence, he spoke in the Hebrew language, l saying,

22 “Men, brothers, and fathers, hear my defence before you now.”
2 And when they heard that he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, m they kept greater silence. And he said:
3 “I am indeed a Yehudite, having been born in Tarsos of Kilikia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamli’el, having been instructed according to the exactness of the Torah of our fathers, being ardent for Elohim, as you all are today,
4 who persecuted this Way to the death, binding and delivering up into prisons both men and women,
5 as also the high priest bears me witness, and all the eldership, from whom I also received letters to the brothers, and went to Damascus to bring in chains even those who were there to Yerushalayim to be punished.
6 “And it came to be, as I was journeying and coming near Damascus, about noon, suddenly a great light shone around me out of the heaven,
7 and I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Sha’ul, Sha’ul, why do you persecute Me?’
8 “And I answered, ‘Who are You, Master?’ And He said to me, ‘I am יְהוָה of Natsareth, whom you persecute.’
9 “And those who were with me indeed saw the light and were afraid, but they did not hear His voice speaking to me.
10 “And I said, ‘What shall I do, Master?’ And the Master said to me, ‘Rise up, go into Damascus, and there you shall be told all that you have been appointed to do.’
11 “And as I could not see because of the esteem of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came into Damascus.
12 “And a certain Àananyah, n a dedicated man according to the Torah, being well spoken of by all the Yehuḏim dwelling there,
13 came to me, and stood by and said to me, ‘Brother Sha’ul, look up.’ And at that same hour I looked up at him.
14 “And he said, ‘The Elohim of our fathers has appointed you to know His desire, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear the voice from His mouth.
15 “Because you shall be His witness to all men of what you have seen and heard.
16 “And now, why do you delay? Rise up, be immersed, and wash away your sins, calling on the Name of יהוה.’
17 “And it came to be, when I returned to l See 22:2, 26:14. m See 21:40, 26:14. n See 9:10 & 17. So this Spirit-filled taught one kept the law!

Yerushalayim, and while I was praying in the Set-apart Place, I came to be in a trance,
18 and I saw Him saying to me, ‘Hurry and get out of Yerushalayim, speedily, because they shall not accept your witness concerning Me.’
19 “And I said, ‘Master, they know that in every congregation I was imprisoning and beating those who believe on You.
20 ‘And when the blood of Your witness Stephanos was shed, I also was standing by giving my approval to his death, and keeping the garments of those who were killing him.’
21 “And He said to me, ‘Go, because I shall send you far from here to the gentiles.’ ”
22 And they were listening to him until this word, and then they lifted up their voice, saying, “Away with such a one from the earth, for it is not fit that he should live!”
23 As they were shouting and tearing their garments, and throwing dust into the air,
24 the commander ordered him to be brought into the barracks, and said that he should be examined by flogging, in order to find out why they were shouting so against him.
25 And as they were stretching him out with straps, Sha’ul said to the captain who was standing by, “Is it permitted for you to whip a man who is a Roman, and uncondemned?”
26 And when the captain heard, he went and reported to the commander, saying, “Watch what you are about to do, for this man is a Roman.”
27 And having come, the commander said to him, “Say to me, are you a Roman?” And he said, “Yes.”
28 And the commander answered, “With a large sum I obtained this citizenship.” And Sha’ul said, “But I was even born so.”
29 Then at once those who were about to examine him withdrew from him. And the commander was also afraid after he found out that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.
30 And on the next day, intending to know for certain why he was accused by the Yehudim, he released him, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to come, and brought Sha’ul down and set him before them.

23 And Sha’ul, looking intently at the council, said, “Men, brothers, I have lived in all good conscience before Elohim until this day.”
2 And the high priest Ḥananyah commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth.
3 Then Sha’ul said to him, “Elohim is going to strike you, whitewashed wall! And do you sit judging me according to the Torah, and do you command me to be struck contrary to the Torah?”
4 And those who stood by said, “Do you revile the high priest of Elohim?”
5 And Sha’ul said, “I did not know, brothers, that he was the high priest, for it has been written, ‘You shall not speak evil of the ruler of your people.’ ”
6 Now Sha’ul, perceiving that one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, cried out in the council, “Men, brothers, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee, I am being judged concerning the expectation and resurrection of the dead!”
7 And when he had said this, there came a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees. And the crowd was divided.
8 For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, nor messenger nor spirit, but the Pharisees confess both.
9 And there was a great uproar. And certain of the scribes of the party of Pharisees were earnestly contending, saying, “We find no evil in this man. And if a spirit or a messenger has spoken to him, let us not fight against Elohim.”
10 And a great dissension having come, the commander, fearing lest Sha’ul would be pulled to pieces by them, commanded the body of soldiers to go down and seize him from their midst, and bring him into the barracks.
11 And on the following night the Master stood by him and said, “Take courage, Sha’ul, for as you have witnessed for Me in Yerushalayim, so you have to bear witness at Rome too.”

12 And when it became day, some of the Yehuḏim made a conspiracy and bound themselves under an oath, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Sha’ul.

13 And those making this conspiracy were more than forty,

14 who, having come to the chief priests and elders, said, “We have bound ourselves under a great oath not to eat at all until we have killed Sha’ul.

15 “Now, then, you, with the council, inform the commander to have him brought down to you tomorrow, as intending to examine more exactly all about him. And we are ready to kill him before he comes near.”

16 And when Sha’ul’s sister’s son heard of their ambush, he went and entered into the barracks and reported to Sha’ul.

17 And Sha’ul, having called one of the captains to him, said, “Take this young man to the commander, for he has something to report to him.”

18 He indeed then took him and led him to the commander and said, “The prisoner Sha’ul called me to him and asked me to bring this young man to you, having something to report to him.”

19 And the commander, having taken him by the hand, went aside by themselves and asked, “What is it that you have to report to me?”

20 And he said, “The Yehuḏim have agreed to ask that you bring Sha’ul down to the council tomorrow, as intending to inquire more exactly about him.

21 “Therefore, do not let them persuade you, for more than forty of them lie in wait for him, men who have bound themselves by an oath neither to eat nor to drink until they have killed him. And now they are ready, waiting for the promise from you.”

22 Then the commander dismissed the young man, having commanded him, “Inform no one that you reported this to me.”

23 And having called near a certain two captains, he said, “Get two hundred soldiers ready to go to Caesarea, and seventy horsemen, and two hundred spearmen, after the third hour of the night,

24 and provide beasts, on which to place Sha’ul, and bring him safely to Felix the governor.”

25 having written a letter in this form:

26 Claudius Lysias, to the most excellent governor Felix: Greetings.

27 This man, having been seized by the Yehuḏim, and being about to be killed by them, I rescued, having come with the body of soldiers, having learned that he was a Roman.

28 And, desiring to know the reason they accused him, I brought him before their council.

29 I found out that he was accused concerning questions of their Torah, but there was no charge against him deserving death or chains.

30 And when I was informed that there was to be a plot against the man by the Yehuḏim, I sent him immediately to you, having also commanded his accusers to state before you the charges against him. Be strong!

31 So the soldiers, as they were commanded, took Sha’ul and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 And on the next day they left the horsemen to go on with him, and returned to the barracks,

33 who, having come to Caesarea, and delivered the letter to the governor, they also presented Sha’ul to him.

34 And the governor, having read it, and having asked of what province he was, and being informed that he was from Kilikia, 35 said, “I shall hear you when your accusers arrive also.” And he commanded him to be kept in Herodes’ palace.

24 And after five days the high priest Ḥananyah came down, with the elders, and a certain speaker – Tertullus. And they brought charges against Sha’ul before the governor.

2 And when he was called upon, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, “Having obtained great peace through you, and reforms being brought to this nation by your forethought,
3 we accept it always and in all places, most excellent Felix, with all thanks.
4 “But in order not to hinder you any further, I beg you to hear us briefly in your gentleness.
5 “For having found this man a plague, who stirs up dissension among all the Yehudim throughout the world, and a ring-leader of the sect of the Natsarenes,
6 who also tried to profane the Set-apart Place, and whom we seized, and wished to judge him according to our law,
7 but the commander Lysias came along and with much violence took him out of our hands,
8 commanding his accusers to come to you. And by examining him yourself you shall be able to know all these matters of which we accuse him.”
9 And the Yehudim also agreed, maintaining that these matters were so.
10 And when the governor had motioned him to speak, Sha’ul answered, “Knowing that for many years you have been a judge of this nation, I gladly defend myself,
11 seeing you are able to know that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to Yerushalayim to worship.
12 “And they neither found me in the Set-apart Place disputing with anyone nor stirring up the crowd, either in the congregations or in the city.
13 “Nor are they able to prove the charges of which they now accuse me.
14 “And this I confess to you, that according to the Way which they call a sect, so I worship the Elohim of my fathers, believing all that has been written in the Torah and in the Prophets,
15 having an expectation in Elohim, which they themselves also wait for, that there is to be a resurrection of the dead, both of the righteous and the unrighteous.
16 “And in this I exercise myself to have a clear conscience toward Elohim and men always.
17 “And after many years I came to bring kind deeds to my nation and offerings, 18 at which time certain Yehudim from Asia found me cleansed in the Set-apart Place, neither with a crowd nor with disturbance,
19 who ought to be present before you to bring charges if they have any matter against me.
20 “Or else let these themselves say if they found any wrongdoing in me while I stood before the council,
21 other than for this one declaration which I cried out, standing among them, ‘Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am being judged by you today.’ ”
22 And having heard this, having known more exactly about the Way, Felix put them off, saying, “When Lysias the commander comes down, I shall decide your case.”
23 And he ordered the captain to keep Sha’ul and to have ease, and not to forbid any of his friends to attend to him.
24 And after some days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was a female Yehuḏite, he sent for Sha’ul and heard him concerning the belief in Messiah.
25 And as he reasoned about righteousness, and self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix became frightened and said, “For the present, go. And when I find time I shall send for you.”
26 At the same time too he was anticipating that silver would be given him by Sha’ul, that he might release him. Therefore he sent for him more often and conversed with him.
27 But after two years had passed Porcius Festus succeeded Felix. And wishing to do the Yehuḏim a favour, Felix left Sha’ul bound.

25 Festus therefore, having come to the province, three days later went up from Caesarea to Yerushalayim.
2 And the high priest and the chief men of the Yehudim informed him against Sha’ul, and they begged him,
3 asking a favour against him, that he would send him to Yerushalayim – making a plot along the way to kill him.
4 Then, indeed, Festus answered that Sha’ul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself was about to set out shortly.
Therefore,” he said, “let those who have authority among you go down with me and accuse this man, to see if there is any fault in him.”

And having spent more than ten days among them, he went down to Caesarea. And on the next day, sitting on the judgment seat, he commanded Sha‘ul to be brought.

And when he had come, the Yehuḏim who had come down from Yerushalayim stood about, bringing many and heavy charges against Sha‘ul, which they were unable to prove, while Sha‘ul said in his own defence, “Neither against the Torah of the Yehuḏim, nor against the Set-apart Place, nor against Caesar did I commit any sin.”

But Festus, wishing to do the Yehuḏim a favour, answering Sha‘ul, said, “Do you wish to go up to Yerushalayim and be judged before me there concerning these matters?”

And Sha‘ul said, “I am standing at Caesar’s judgment seat, where I should be judged. To the Yehuḏim I have done no wrong, as you know well enough.

“For if indeed I do wrong, or have committed whatever deserving death, I do not refuse to die. But if there is none at all in these matters of which these men accuse me, no one is able to give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar.”

Then Festus, having talked with the council, answered, “You have appealed to Caesar? To Caesar you shall go!”

And certain days having passed, Sovereign Agrippa and Bernike came to Caesarea to greet Festus.

And when they had spent many days there, Festus laid Sha‘ul’s case before the sovereign, saying, “There is a man here whom Felix left as a prisoner, about whom the chief priests and the elders of the Yehuḏim informed me, when I was in Yerushalayim, asking for a judgment against him.

“‘To them I answered, ‘It is not the Roman practice to give up any man to destruction before the accused meets the accusers face to face, and has a chance to answer for himself concerning the charge against him.’

“They, therefore, having come together, without any delay, I sat on the judgment seat the next day and commanded the man to be brought in.

“When the accusers stood up, they brought no charge against him such as I expected, but had some questions against him about their own worship and about a certain Ḥashem, who had died, whom Sha‘ul was claiming to be alive.

“And being uncertain how to investigate these matters, I asked whether he wished to go to Yerushalayim and there be judged concerning these matters.

“But when Sha‘ul appealed to be kept for the decision of Augustus, I ordered him to be kept until I send him to Caesar.”

And Agrippa said to Festus, “I was wishing also to hear the man myself.” And he said, “Tomorrow, you shall hear him.”

Therefore, on the next day, Agrippa and Bernike having come with great show, and having entered the place of hearing with the commanders and the eminent men of the city, Sha‘ul was brought in at the order of Festus.

And Festus said, “Sovereign Agrippa and all the men present here with us, you see this one about whom all the community of the Yehuḏim pleaded with me, both at Yerushalayim and here, shouting that he ought not to be living any longer.

“But I, having found that he had committed none at all deserving death, and that he himself had appealed to Augustus, I decided to send him.

“I have no definite matter to write to my master concerning him. Therefore I have brought him out before you, and most of all before you, Sovereign Agrippa, so that after the examination has taken place I might have somewhat to write.

“For it seems to me unreasonable to send a prisoner and not to signify the charges against him.”

And Agrippa said to Sha‘ul, “You are allowed to speak for yourself.”
Then Sha’ul stretched out his hand and made his defence:

2 “I think myself blessed, Sovereign Agrippa, because today I shall make my defence before you concerning all of which I am accused by the Yehu’dim,

3 you being most of all an expert, knowing of all practices and questions which have to do with the Yehu’dim. So, please hear me patiently.

4 “Truly, then, all the Yehu’dim know my way of life from youth, which I led from the beginning among my own nation at Yerushalayim,

5 since they have known me from the first, if they wish to witness, that I lived as a Pharisee according to the strictest sect of our observance.

6 “And now I stand and am judged for the expectation of the promise made by Elohim to our fathers,

7 to which our twelve tribes, earnestly serving Elohim night and day, expect to attain. Concerning this expectation, O Sovereign Agrippa, I am accused by the Yehu’dim.

8 “Why is it considered ‘unbelievable’ among you if Elohim raises the dead?

9 “Therefore, indeed, I thought within myself that I ought to do much against the Name of of Natsareth,

10 which also I did in Yerushalayim, and I shut up many of the set-apart ones in prison, having received authority from the chief priests. And when they were put to death, I gave my vote against them.

11 “And punishing them often in all the congregations, I compelled them to blaspheme. And being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.

12 “While thus engaged, as I was journeying to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, 13 at midday along the highway, O sovereign, I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those who journeyed with me.

14 “And when we had all fallen to the ground, I heard a voice speaking to me, and saying in the Hebrew language, γ See footnote Mt. 16:27.}

‘Sha’ul, Sha’ul, why do you persecute Me? It is hard for you to kick against the prods.’

15 “And I said, ‘Who are You, Master?’ And He said, ‘I am יהושע, whom you persecute.

16 “But rise up, and stand on your feet, for I have appeared to you for this purpose, to appoint you a servant and a witness both of what you saw and of those which I shall reveal to you,

17 delivering you from the people, and the gentiles, to whom I now send you,

18 to open their eyes, to turn them from darkness to light, and the authority of Satan to Elohim, in order for them to receive forgiveness of sins and an inheritance among those who are set-apart by belief in Me.’

19 “Therefore, Sovereign Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, 20 but declared first to those in Damascus and in Yerushalayim, and in all the country of Yehu’dah, and to the gentiles, that they should repent, and turn to Elohim, and do works worthy of repentance.

21 “That is why the Yehu’dim seized me in the Set-apart Place and tried to kill me.

22 “Therefore, having obtained help from Elohim, to this day I stand, witnessing both to small and great, saying nil else than what the prophets and Mosheh said would come –

23 that the Messiah would suffer, would be the first to rise from the dead, He would proclaim light to the people and to the gentiles.”

24 And while saying this in his defence, Festus said with a loud voice, “Sha’ul, you are mad! Much learning is turning you to madness!”

25 But Sha’ul said, “I am not mad, most excellent Festus, but I speak words of truth and sense.

26 “For the sovereign, before whom I also speak boldly, knows these matters. For I am persuaded that none of these are hidden from him, for this has not been done in a corner.
27 “Sovereign Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you do believe.”
28 And Agrippa said to Sha’ul, “With a little you might persuade me to become a Messianite!”
29 And Sha’ul said, “Much or little, I pray to Elohim that not only you, but also all who hear me today, might become such as I also am, except for these chains.”
30 And having said this, the sovereign stood up, as well as the governor and Bernike and those sitting with them,
31 and having withdrawn, they spoke to each other, saying, “This man is doing none at all deserving death or chains.”
32 And Agrippa said to Festus, “This man could have been released if he had not appealed to Caesar.”

And when it was decided that we should sail to Italy, they delivered Sha’ul and some other prisoners to one named Julius, a captain of the Augustan regiment.
2 And having embarked in a ship from Adramyttium, about to sail along the coasts of Asia, did set sail. Aristarchos, a Makedonian of Thessalonike, was with us.
3 And on the next day we landed at TsiÅon. And Julius treated Sha’ul kindly and allowed him to go to his friends to receive attention.
4 And from there we put out to sea and sailed close to Cyprus, because the winds were against us.
5 And having sailed over the sea along Kilikia and Pamphulia, we came to Mura, of Lukia.
6 And there the captain, having found an Alexandrian ship sailing to Italy, did put us on board.
7 And having sailed slowly many days, and arriving with difficulty off Knidos, the wind not allowing us to proceed, we sailed close to Crete, off Salmone.
8 And passing it with difficulty, we came to a place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.
9 And much time having passed, and the sailing now being dangerous, because the Fast was already over, Sha’ul advised them,
10 saying, “Men, I see that this voyage is going to end with damage and great loss, not only of the cargo and ship, but also our lives.”
11 But the captain was persuaded by the pilot and the owner of the ship, rather than what Sha’ul said.
12 And because the harbour was unsuitable to winter in, the greater part advised to set sail from there too, if somehow they were able to reach Phoenix, a harbour of Crete facing southwest and northwest, to pass the winter.
13 And a south wind blowing softly, thinking they had obtained their purpose, having lifted anchor, they sailed along Crete, close inshore.
14 And not long after, a stormy head wind rushed down from it, called Northeaster.
15 And when the ship was caught in it, and unable to head against the wind, we let her go and were driven.
16 And having run under a small island called Klauda, we were hardly able to control the small boat.
17 And having hoisted it, they used helps to undergird the ship. And fearing lest they should run aground on Surtis, they lowered the tackle and so were driven.
18 And because we were exceedingly storm-tossed, the next day they began to throw overboard.
19 And on the third day we threw out the ship’s tackle with our own hands.
20 When, now, neither sun nor stars appeared for many days, and no small storm beat on us, all expectancy that we would be saved was taken away.
21 And when there had been a long abstinence from food, then Sha’ul, standing in the midst of them, said, “Truly, men, you should have listened to me not to have sailed from Crete and sustained this damage and loss.
22 “And now I urge you to take courage, for there shall be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship.
23 “For tonight a messenger of the Elohim to whom I belong and whom I serve, stood by me, saying, ‘Do not be afraid, Sha’ul, you have to be brought before Caesar. And look, Elohim has favourably given you all those who sail with you.’

25“Therefore take courage, men, for I believe Elohim that it shall be according to the way it was spoken to me.

26“However, we need to run aground on some island.”

27And when the fourteenth night came, as we were driven up and down in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors suspected that they were drawing near some land.

28So, taking soundings, they found it to be twenty fathoms. And a little farther on they took soundings again and found it to be fifteen fathoms.

29And, fearing lest we should run aground on the rocks, they dropped four anchors from the stern, and were praying for day to come.

30But when the sailors were seeking to escape from the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under pretence of going to cast out anchors from the prow, Sha’ul said to the captain and the soldiers, “If these do not remain in the ship, it is impossible for you to be saved.”

31Then the soldiers did cut the ropes of the boat and let it fall off.

32And when day was about to come, Sha’ul urged them all to take food, saying, “Today is the fourteenth day you have continued without food, and eaten none at all.

34“So I urge you to take food, for this concerns your safety, since not a hair shall fall from the head of any of you.”

35And having said this, he took bread and gave thanks to Elohim in the presence of them all. And when he had broken it he began to eat.

36And they were all encouraged, and also took food themselves.

37And all of us were two hundred and seventy-six beings in the ship.

38And being satisfied with food, they were lightening the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea.

39And when day came, they did not recognise the land, but they noted a certain bay with a beach, onto which they planned to run the ship if possible.

40And having cast off the anchors, they left them in the sea, meanwhile untying the rudder ropes. And they hoisted the foresail to the wind and made for the beach.

41But coming upon a place where two seas met, they grounded the ship, and the prow stuck fast and remained immovable, but the stern was broken by the pounding of the surf.

42And the soldiers intended to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim away and escape.

43But the captain, intending to save Sha’ul, kept them from their intention, and commanded those able to swim to jump first and get to land, 44and the rest, some indeed on boards, and some on items of the ship. And so it came to be that all reached the land in safety.

28And having come to safety, they then learned that the island was called Melite.

2And the foreigners showed us extraordinary kindness, for they kindled a fire and received us all, because of the rain that was falling and because of the cold.

3But Sha’ul, having gathered a bundle of sticks, and having laid them on the fire, an adder came out because of the heat, and fastened itself on his hand.

4And when the foreigners saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said to each other, “This man is certainly a murderer, whom, though saved from the sea, still right-ruling does not allow to live.”

5Then, indeed, he shook off the creature into the fire and suffered no evil.

6And expecting that he would swell up or suddenly fall down dead, they waited for a long time and saw no harm come to him, changing their minds they said that he was a mighty one.

7And in the neighbourhood of that place there were lands of the chief of the island, whose name was Poplius, who received us and housed us in a friendly way for three days.
8 And it came to be that the father of Poplius lay sick with inflammation and dysentery. Sha’ul went in to him, and having prayed he laid his hands on him and healed him.

9 And when this took place, the rest of those on the island who had diseases also came and were healed, who also respected us in many ways. And when we were setting sail, they provided us with our needs.

10 And after three months we set sail in an Alexandrian ship which had wintered at the island, and whose figurehead was “Twin Brothers.”

12 And having landed at Syracuse, we stayed three days,

13 from which place we went round and arrived at Rhegium. And after one day the south wind blew, and the second day we came to Puteoli, 14 where we found brothers, and were invited to stay with them seven days. And so we went toward Rome.

15 And when the brothers there heard about us, they came to meet us as far as Forum of Appius and Three Taverns. When Sha’ul saw them, he thanked Elohim and took courage.

16 And when we came to Rome, the captain delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard, but Sha’ul was allowed to stay by himself with the soldier guarding him.

17 And it came to be after three days that Sha’ul called the leaders of the Yehuḏim together. And when they had come together, he said to them, “Men, brothers, though I have done none at all against our people or the practices of our fathers, I was delivered as a prisoner from Yerushalayim into the hands of the Romans, 18 who, when they had examined me, intended to let me go, because there was no cause for putting me to death.

19 “But the Yehuḏim spoke against it, and I was compelled to appeal to Caesar, not that I had any accusation against my nation.

20 “This therefore is the reason I called for you, to see you and speak with you. It is because of the expectation of Yisra’ēl that I am bound with this chain.”

21 And they said to him, “We neither received letters from Yehuḏah concerning you, nor have any of the brothers who came reported or spoken whatever wicked about you.

22 “And we think it right to hear from you what you think, for indeed, concerning this sect, we know that it is spoken against everywhere.”

23 And having appointed him a day, many came to him where he was staying, to whom he was explaining, earnestly witnessing about the reign of Elohim, and persuading them concerning Yeshayahu from both the Torah of Mosheh and the Prophets, from morning until evening.

24 And some indeed were persuaded by what was said, but some believed not.

25 And disagreeing with one another, they began to leave, after Sha’ul had spoken one word, “The Set-apart Spirit rightly spoke through Yeshayahu the prophet to our fathers, 26 saying, ‘Go to this people and say, “Hearing you shall hear but by no means understand, and seeing you shall see but by no means perceive,

27 for the heart of this people has become thickened, and with their ears they heard heavily, and they have closed their eyes, lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and turn back, and I should heal them.” ’

28 “Therefore let it be known to you that the deliverance of Elohim has been sent to the gentiles, and they shall hear!”

29 And when he had said these words, the Yehuḏim went away and had a great dispute among themselves.

30 And Sha’ul stayed two entire years in his own rented house, and was receiving all who came to him, 31 proclaiming the reign of Elohim and teaching about the Master Yeshua Messiah with all boldness, unhindered.

r Or Sons of Zeus, or Castor and Pollux. s See footnote Mt. 13:15.
1 Sha’ul, a servant of the Messiah, a called emissary, separated to the Good News of Elohim,

2 which He promised before through His prophets in the Set-apart Scriptures,

3 concerning His Son, who came of the seed of Dawid according to the flesh,

4 who was designated Son of Elohim with power, according to the Set-apart Spirit, by the resurrection from the dead:

5 through whom we have received favour and office of the emissary for belief-obedience among all the nations on behalf of His Name,

6 among whom you also are the called ones of the Messiah.

7 To all who are in Rome, beloved of Elohim, called, set-apart ones: Favour to you and peace from Elohim our Father and the Master Messiah.

8 First, I truly thank my Elohim through the Messiah for you all, that your belief is spoken of in all the world.

9 For Elohim is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the Good News of His Son, how unceasingly I make mention of you,

10 always asking in my prayers, if at all possible, I shall be blessed by the desire of Elohim, to come to you.

11 For I long to see you, so as to impart some spiritual gift to you, for you to be established, 12 and that is, to be encouraged together among you, each by the other’s belief – both yours and mine.

13 And I do not wish you to be unaware, brothers, that I often purposed to come to you, but was hindered until now, in order to have some fruit among you, as also among the other gentiles.

14 I am a debtor both to Greeks and to foreigners, both to wise and to foolish.

15 That is why I am so eager to bring the Good News also to you who are in Rome.

16 For I am not ashamed of the Good News of Messiah, for it is the power of Elohim for deliverance to everyone who believes, to the YehuÅite first and also to the Greek.

17 For in it the righteousness of Elohim is revealed from belief to belief, as it has been written, “But the righteous shall live by belief.”

18 For the wrath of Elohim is revealed from heaven against all wickedness and unrighteousness of men, who suppress the truth in unrighteousness, 19 because that which is known of Elohim is manifest among them, for Elohim has manifested it to them.

20 For since the creation of the world His invisible qualities have been clearly seen, being understood from what has been made, both His everlasting power and Mightiness, for them to be without excuse, 21 because, although they knew Elohim, they did not esteem Him as Elohim, nor gave thanks, but became vain in their reasonings, and their undiscerning heart was darkened.

22 Claiming to be wise, they became fools,

23 and changed the esteem of the incorruptible Elohim into the likeness of a corruptible man, and of birds and of four-footed beasts and of reptiles.

24 Therefore Elohim gave them up to uncleanness in the lust of their hearts, to disrespect their bodies among themselves, 25 who changed the truth of Elohim into the falsehood, and worshipped and served what was created rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. AmÈn.

26 Because of this Elohim gave them over to degrading passions. For even their women exchanged natural relations for a Hab. 2:4.

what is against nature,

27 and likewise, the men also, having left natural relations with woman, burned in their lust for one another, men with men committing indecency, and receiving back the reward which was due for their straying.

28 And even as they did not think it worthwhile to possess the knowledge of Elohim, Elohim gave them over to a worthless mind, to do what is improper,

29 having been filled with all unrighteousness, whoring, wickedness, greed, evil; filled with envy, murder, fighting, deceit,
evil habits; whisperers,

30 slanderers, haters of Elohim, insolent, proud, boasters, devisers of evils, disobedi-tent to parents,

31 without discernment, covenant breakers, unloving, unforgiving, ruthless;

32 who, though they know the righteousness of Elohim, that those who practise such deserve death, not only do the same but also approve of those who practise
them.

2 Therefore, O man, you are without excuse, everyone who judges, for in which you judge another you condemn yourself, since you who judge practise the same wrongs.

2 And we know that the judgment of Elohim is according to truth against those who practise such wrongs.

3 And do you think, O man, you who judge those practising such wrongs, and doing the same, that you shall escape the judgment of Elohim?

4 Or do you despise the riches of His kindness, and tolerance, and patience, b not knowing that the kindness of Elohim leads you to repentance?

5 But according to your hardness and your unrepentant heart you are treasuring up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of Elohim,

6 who “shall render to each one according to his works”: c

7 everlasting life to those who by persistence in good work seek for esteem, and respect, and incorruptibility;

8 but wrath and displeasure to those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth,
but obey unrighteousness;

9 affliction and distress on every human being working what is evil, of the Yehuḏite first, and also of the Greek;

10 but esteem, respect, and peace to everyone working what is good, to the Yehuḏite first and also to the Greek.

11 For there is no partiality with Elohim.

12 For as many as sinned without Torah shall also perish without Torah, and as many as sinned in the Torah shall be judged by the Torah.

13 For not the hearers of the Torah are righteous in the sight of Elohim, but the doers of the law d shall be declared right.

14 For when gentiles, who do not have the Torah, by nature do what is in the Torah, although not having the Torah, they are a Torah to themselves,

15 who show the work of the Torah written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and between themselves their thoughts accusing or even excusing,

16 in the day when Elohim shall judge the secrets of men through יְשֵׁרָה ָו Messiah, according to my Good News.

17 See, you are called a Yehuḏite, and rest on the Torah, and make your boast in Elohim,

18 and know the desire of Elohim, and approve what is superior, being instructed out of the Torah,

19 and are trusting that you yourself are a guide to the blind, a light to those who are in darkness,

20 an instructor of foolish ones, a teacher of babes, having the form of knowledge and of the truth in the Torah. e

21 You, then, who teach another, do you not teach yourself? You who proclaim that a man should not steal, do you steal?

22 You who say, “Do not commit adultery,” do you commit adultery? You who abominate idols, do you rob temples?

23 You who make your boast in the Torah, through the transgression of the Torah do you disrespect Elohim?
24 For “The Name of Elohim is blasphemed among the gentiles because of you,” as it has been written.
25 For circumcision indeed profits if you practise the Torah, but if you are a transgressor of the Torah, your circumcision has become uncircumcision.
26 So, if an uncircumcised one watches over the rightousnesses of the Torah, shall not his uncircumcision be reckoned as circumcision?
27 And the uncircumcised by nature, who perfects the Torah, shall judge you who notwithstanding letter and circumcision are a transgressor of the Torah!
28 For he is not a YehuÅite who is so outwardly, neither is circumcision that which is outward in the flesh.
29 But a YehuÅite is he who is so inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in Spirit, not literally, whose praise is not from men but from Elohim.

3 What then is the advantage of the YehuÅite, or what is the value of the circumcision?
2 Much in every way! Because firstly indeed, that they were entrusted with the Words of Elohim.
3 For what if some did not believe? Shall their unbelief nullify the trustworthiness of Elohim?
4 Let it not be! But let Elohim be true, and every man a liar, as it has been written, “That You should be declared right in Your words, and prevail in Your judging.”
5 But if our unrighteousness establishes the righteousness of Elohim, what shall we say? Is Elohim unrighteous who is inflicting wrath? I speak as a man.
6 Let it not be! Otherwise how shall Elohim judge the world?
7 For if the truth of Elohim has increased through my lie, to His esteem, why am I also still judged as a sinner?

8 And why not say, “Let us do evil so that the good might come”? – as we are wrongly accused and as some claim that we say.
Their judgment is in the right.
9 What then? Are we better than they? Not at all, for we have previously accused both Yehuḏim and Greeks that they are all under sin.
10 As it has been written, “There is none righteous, no, not one!”
11 “There is no one who is understanding, there is none who is seeking Elohim.
12 “They all have turned aside, they have together become worthless. There is none who does good, no, not one.”
13 “Their throat is an open tomb, with their tongues they have deceived,” “The poison of adders is under their lips,” 14 “Whose mouth is filled with cursing and bitterness.”
15 “Their feet are swift to shed blood, ruin and wretchedness are in their ways, 16 and the way of peace they have not known.”
17 “There is no fear of Elohim before their eyes.”
18 And we know that whatever the Torah says, it says to those who are in the Torah, so that every mouth might be stopped, and all the world come under judgment before Elohim.

Therefore by works of Torah no flesh shall be declared right before Him, for by the Torah is the knowledge of sin.
21 But now, apart from the Torah, a righteousness of Elohim has been revealed, being witnessed by the Torah and the Prophets,
22 and the righteousness of Elohim is through belief in Messiah to all and on all who believe. For there is no difference,
23 for all have sinned and fall short of the esteem of Elohim,
24 being declared right, without paying, by His favour through the redemption which is in Messiah Y Мосיאש שורא(aSWHY),

The true YehuÅite is he whose heart is circumcised, who guards the law – 1 Cor. 7:19, Shem. 19:5, Deḇ. 10:12-16, Deḇ. 30:6-8. See 2:20. Shem. 20:20, Rom. 4:15, Rom. 7:7.
25 whom Elohim set forth as an atonement, through belief in His blood, to demonstrate His righteousness, because in His tolerance Elohim had passed over the sins that had taken place before,

26 to demonstrate at the present time His righteousness, that He is righteous and declares righteous the one who has belief in הוהי.

27 Where, then, is the boasting? It is shut out. By what Torah? Of works? No, but by the Torah of belief.

28 For we reckon that a man is declared right by belief without works of Torah.

29 Or is He the Elohim of the Yehudiym only, and not also of the gentiles? Yea, of the gentiles also,

30 since it is one Elohim who shall declare right the circumcised by belief and the uncircumcised through belief.

31 Do we then nullify the Torah through the belief? Let it not be! On the contrary, we establish the Torah.

4 What, then, shall we say Abraham our father, to have found, according to the flesh?

2 For if Abraham was declared right by works, he has ground for boasting, but not before Elohim.

3 For what does the Scripture say? “Abraham believed Elohim, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness.”

4 And to him who is working, the reward is not reckoned as a favour but as a debt.

5 And to him who is not working but believes on Him who is declaring righteous the wicked, his belief is reckoned for righteousness,

6 even as Dawiḏ also says of the blessedness of the man to whom Elohim reckons righteousness without works:

7 “Blessed are those whose lawlessnesses are forgiven, and whose sins are covered, blessed is the man to whom יְהֹוָה יָתֵר shall by no means reckon sin.”

8 Is this blessing then upon the circumcised only, or also upon the uncircumcised? For we affirm: Belief was reckoned unto Abraham for righteousness.

9 How then was it reckoned? Being in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.

10 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the belief while in uncircumcision, for him to be a father of all those believing through uncircumcision, for righteousness to be reckoned to them also,

11 and the father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of the belief which our father Abraham had in uncircumcision.

12 For the promise that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham or to his seed through the Torah, but through a righteousness of belief.

13 For if those who are of the Torah are heirs, belief has been made useless, and the promise has been nullified, 14 for the Torah works out wrath, for where there is no Torah there is no transgression.

15 On account of this it is of belief, that it be according to favour, for the promise to be made certain to all the seed, not only to those who are of the Torah, but also to those who are of the belief of Abraham, who is father of us all –

16 as it has been written, “I have made you a father of many nations” – in the presence of Him whom he believed, even Elohim, who gives life to the dead and calls that which does not exist as existing,

17 who against all expectation did believe, in expectation, so that he should become father of many nations, according to what was said, “So shall your seed be.”

18 And not having grown weak in belief, he did not consider his own body, already dead, being about a hundred years old, and the deadness of Sarah’s womb,

19 And not having grown weak in belief, he did not consider his own body, already dead, being about a hundred years old, and the deadness of Sarah’s womb,

20 he did not hesitate about the promise of Elohim through unbelief, but was strengthened in belief, giving esteem to Elohim,

21 and being completely persuaded that what He had promised He was also able to

\[\text{See 7:12.} \quad /\text{That was the first step, as we read in Ber. 15:6, but continue, and read Ber. 17:1 and 26:5!}\]
Therefore also “it was reckoned to him for righteousness.”

And not because of him alone was it written that it was reckoned to him, but also because of us, to whom it shall be reckoned, to us who believe in Him who raised up our Master from the dead, who was delivered up because of our trespasses, and was raised for us to be declared right.

Therefore, having been declared right by belief, we have peace with Elohim through our Master Messiah, through whom also we have access by belief into this favour in which we stand, and we exult in the expectation of the esteem of Elohim.

And not only this, but we also exult in pressures, knowing that pressure works endurance; and endurance, approvedness; and approvedness, expectation.

And expectation does not disappoint, because the love of Elohim has been poured out in our hearts by the Set-apart Spirit which was given to us.

For when we were still weak, Messiah in due time died for the wicked.

For one shall hardly die for a righteous one, though possibly for a good one someone would even have the courage to die.

But Elohim proves His own love for us, in that while we were still sinners, Messiah died for us.

Much more then, having now been declared right by His blood, we shall be saved from wrath through Him.

For if, being enemies, we were restored to favour with Elohim through the death of His Son, much more, having been restored to favour, we shall be saved by His life.

And not only this, but we also exult in Elohim through our Master Messiah, through whom we have now received the restoration to favour.

For this reason, even as through one man sin did enter into the world, and death through sin, and thus death spread to all men, because all sinned – for until the Torah, sin was in the world, but sin is not reckoned when there is no Torah.

But death reigned from AAdam until Mosheh, even over those who had not sinned according to the likeness of the transgression of AAdam, who is a type of Him who was to come.

But the favourable gift is not like the trespass. For if by the one man’s trespass many died, much more the favour of Elohim, and the gift in favour of the one Man, Messiah, overflowed to many.

And the favourable gift is not as by one having sinned. For indeed the judgment was of one to condemnation, but the favourable gift is of many trespasses unto righteousness.

For if by the trespass of the one, death did reign through the one, much more those who receive the overflowing favour and the gift of righteousness shall reign in life through the One, Messiah.

So then, as through one trespass there resulted condemnation to all men, so also through one righteous act there resulted righteous-declaring of life to all men.

For as through the disobedience of one man many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of the One many shall be made righteous.

And the Torah came in beside, so that the trespass would increase. But where sin increased, favour increased still more, so that as sin did reign in death, even so favour might reign through righteousness to everlasting life through Messiah our Master.

What, then, shall we say? Shall we continue in sin, to let favour increase?

Let it not be! How shall we who died to sin still live in it?

Or do you not know that as many of us

k The message in ch. 6 is so clear: Having died to sin, live unto righteousness! See also Rom. 8:13, Col. 3:3, 1 Kêpha 2:24.
We were therefore buried with Him through immersion into death, that as Messiah was raised from the dead by the esteem of the Father, so also we should walk in newness of life.

For if we have come to be grown together in the likeness of His death, we shall be also of the resurrection, knowing this, that our old man was impaled with Him, so that the body of sin might be rendered powerless, to serve sin no longer.

For he who has died has been made right from sin.

And if we died with Messiah, we believe that we shall also live with Him, knowing that Messiah, having been raised from the dead, dies no more – death no longer rules over Him.

For in that He died, He died to sin once for all; but in that He lives, He lives to Elohim.

So you also, reckon yourselves to be dead indeed to sin, but alive to Elohim in Messiah our Master.

Therefore do not let sin reign in your mortal body, to obey it in its desires, neither present your members as instruments of unrighteousness to sin, but present yourselves to Elohim as being alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to Elohim.

For sin shall not rule over you, for you are not under the law but under favour.

What then? Shall we sin because we are not under Torah but under favour? Let it not be!

Do you not know that to whom you present yourselves servants for obedience, you are servants of the one whom you obey, whether of sin to death, or of obedience to righteousness?

But thanks to Elohim that you were servants of sin, yet you obeyed from the heart that form of teaching to which you were entrusted.

And having been set free from sin, you became servants of righteousness.

I speak as a man, because of the weakness of your flesh. For even as you did present your members as servants of uncleanness, and of lawlessness resulting in lawlessness, so now present your members as servants of righteousness resulting in set-apartness.

For when you were servants of sin, you were free from righteousness.

What fruit, therefore, were you having then, over which you are now ashamed? For the end thereof is death.

But now, having been set free from sin, and having become servants of Elohim, you have your fruit resulting in set-apartness, and the end, everlasting life.

For the wages of sin is death, but the favourable gift of Elohim is everlasting life in Messiah our Master.

Or do you not know, brothers – for I speak to those knowing the Torah – that the Torah rules over a man as long as he lives?

For the married woman has been bound by Torah to the living husband, but if the husband dies, she is released from the Torah concerning her husband.

So then, while her husband lives, she shall be called an adulteress if she becomes another man’s. But if her husband dies, she is free from that part of the Torah, so that she is not an adulteress, having become another man’s.

So my brothers, you also were put to death to the Torah through the body of Messiah, for you to become another’s, the One who was raised from the dead, that we should bear fruit to Elohim.

For when we were in the flesh, the

1 This means one of two: (1) under the condemnation of the law, or (2) that this law refers to the law of sin, of which we read in 7:23, 7:25, 8:2, which means the principle of sin-doing, the A’damic carnal nature.

m Down to v. 23: We were formerly servants of sin, but now we have become servants of righteousness, unto set-apartness.

n See 8:13.

o Down to Rom. 8:17, Sha’ul now uses the analogy of marriage: We were formerly married to sin, the law of sin, the principle of sin-doing, but now we are married to Messiah, having been set free from sin-doing by the law of the Spirit, for the law of Elohim is Spiritual (7:14)!
passions of sins, through the Torah, were working in our members to bear fruit to death.

6 But now we have been released from the Torah, having died to what we were held by, so that we should serve in newness of Spirit and not in oldness of letter.

7 What, then, shall we say? Is the Torah sin? Let it not be! However, I did not know sin except through the Torah. For also the covetousness I knew not if the Torah had not said, “You shall not covet.”

8 But sin, having taken the occasion through the command, did work in me all sorts of covetousness. For apart from Torah sin is dead.

9 And I was alive apart from the Torah once, but when the command came, the sin revived, and I died.

10 And the command which was to result in life, this I found to result in death.

11 For sin, having taken the occasion through the command, deceived me, and through it killed me.

12 So that the Torah truly is set-apart, and the command set-apart, and righteous, and good.

13 Therefore, has that which is good become death to me? Let it not be! But the sin, that sin might be manifest, was working death in me through what is good, so that sin through the command might become an exceedingly great Sinner.

14 For we know that the Torah is Spiritual, but I am fleshly, sold under sin.

15 For what I work, I know not. For what I wish, that I do not practise, but what I hate, that I do.

16 But if I do what I do not wish, I agree with the Torah that it is good.

17 And now, it is no longer I that work it, but the sin dwelling in me.

18 For I know that in me, that is in my flesh, dwells no good. For to wish is present with me, but to work the good I do not find.

19 For the good that I wish to do, I do not do; but the evil I do not wish to do, this I practise.

20 And if I do that which I do not wish, it is no longer I who work it, but the sin dwelling in me.

21 I find therefore this law, that when I wish to do the good, that the evil is present with me.

22 For I delight in the Torah of Elohim according to the inward man, 23 but I see another law in my members, battling against the Torah of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.

24 Wretched man that I am! Who shall deliver me from this body of death?

25 Thanks to Elohim, through Messiah our Master! So then, with the mind I myself truly serve the Torah of Elohim, but with the flesh the law of sin.

8 There is, then, now no condemnation to those who are in Messiah, who do not walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.

2 For the Torah of the Spirit of the life in Messiah has set me free from the law of sin and of death.

3 For the Torah being powerless, in that it was weak through the flesh, Elohim, having His own Son in the likeness of flesh of sin, and concerning sin, condemned sin in the flesh,

4 so that the righteousness of the Torah should be completed in us who do not walk according to the flesh but according to the Spirit.

5 For those who live according to the flesh set their minds on the matters of the flesh, but those who live according to the Spirit, the matters of the Spirit.

6 For the mind of the flesh is death, but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace.

7 Because the mind of the flesh is p Sha’ul uses the personal “I” to illustrate the battle that rages before conversion, and at conversion, when finally performs the miracle of transforming a sinner (the old man) into one who is set-apart (the new man).

q See footnote Teh. 119:16. r This chapter continues from the previous two chapters, and clearly emphasises what takes place at rebirth: Those who have only been born of the flesh are fleshly, while those who have been born of the Spirit are new creatures (2 Cor. 5:17), Messiah now lives in them (Gal. 2:20), they no longer sin, wish to sin (1 Yn. 3:4-10), they delight in the law of Elohim which is Spiritual (Rom. 7:22 & 14).
enmity towards Elohim, for it does not subject itself to the Torah of Elohim, neither indeed is it able, and those who are in the flesh are unable to please Elohim.

But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of Elohim dwells in you. And if anyone does not have the Spirit of Messiah, this one is not His.

And if Messiah is in you, the body is truly dead on account of sin, but the Spirit is life on account of righteousness.

And if the Spirit of Him who raised Messiah from the dead dwells in you, He who raised Messiah from the dead shall also give life to your mortal bodies through His Spirit dwelling in you.

So then, brothers, we are not debtors to the flesh, to live according to the flesh. For if you live according to the flesh, you are going to die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you shall live.

For as many as are led by the Spirit of Elohim, these are sons of Elohim. For you did not receive the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you received the Spirit of adoption by whom we cry out, "Abba, Father."

The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of Elohim, and if children, also heirs – truly heirs of Elohim, and co-heirs with Messiah, if indeed we suffer with Him, in order that we also be exalted together.

For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worth comparing with the esteem that is to be revealed in us.

For the intense longing of the creation eagerly waits for the revealing of the sons of Elohim.

For the creation was subjected to futility, not from choice, but because of Him who subjected it, in anticipation, that the creation itself also shall be delivered from the bondage to corruption into the esteemed freedom of the children of Elohim.

For we know that all the creation groans together, and suffers the pains of childbirth together until now. And not only so, but even we ourselves who have the first-fruits of the Spirit, we ourselves also groan within ourselves, eagerly waiting for the adoption, the redemption of our body.

For in this expectation we were saved, but expectation that is seen is not expectation, for when anyone sees, does he expect it?

And if we expect what we do not see, we eagerly wait for it with endurance.

And in the same way the Spirit does help in our weaknesses. For we do not know what we should pray, but the Spirit Himself pleads our case for us with groanings unutterable.

And He who searches the hearts knows what the mind of the Spirit is, because He makes intercession for the set-apart ones according to Elohim.

And we know that all matters work together for good to those who love Elohim, to those who are called according to His purpose.

Because those whom He knew beforehand, He also ordained beforehand to be conformed to the likeness of His Son, for Him to be the first-born among many brothers.

And whom He ordained beforehand, these He also called, and whom He called, these He also declared right. And whom He declared right, these He also esteemed.

What then shall we say to this? If Elohim is for us, who is against us?

Truly, He who did not spare His own Son, but delivered Him up on behalf of us all – how shall He not, along with Him, freely give us all else?

Who shall bring any charge against Elohim’s chosen ones? It is Elohim who is declaring right.

Who is he who is condemning? It is Messiah who died, and furthermore is also raised up, who is also at the right hand

Or does not obey. Carnal man is unable! But he who is born again is able – see Yn. 15:5, 1 Yn. 4:4, 1 Yn. 3:9, 1 Yn. 5:18. Lit. anxiously looking with outstretched head.
of Elohim, who also makes intercession for us.
35 Who shall separate us from the love of the Messiah? Shall pressure, or distress, or persecution, or scarcity of food, or nakedness, or danger, or sword?
36 As it has been written, “For Your sake we are killed all day long, we are reckoned as sheep of slaughter.”
37 But in all this we are more than overcomers through Him who loved us.
38 For I am persuaded that neither death nor life, nor messengers nor principalities nor powers, neither the present nor the future,
39 nor height nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of Elohim which is in Messiah the Lord our Master.

9 I speak the truth in Messiah, I do not lie, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Set-apart Spirit,
2 that I have great sadness and continual grief in my heart.
3 For I myself could have wished to be banished from Messiah for the sake of my brothers, my relatives according to the flesh,
4 who are Yisra’ëmites, whose is the adoption, and the esteem, and the covenants, and the giving of the Torah, and the worship, and the promises,
5 whose are the fathers, and from whom is the Messiah according to the flesh, who is over all, Elohim-blessed forever. Amën.
6 However, it is not as though the word of Elohim has failed. For they are not all Yisra’ëmites who are of Yisra’ël,
7 neither are they all children because they are the seed of Abraham, but, “In YitsÁaq your seed shall be called.”
8 That is, those who are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of Elohim, but the children of the promise are reckoned as the seed.
9 For this is the word of promise, “At this time I shall come and Sarah shall have a son.”
10 And not only so, but Ribqah having conceived by one, our father YitsÁaq.
11 Yet, before they were born or had done any good or evil – in order that the purpose of Elohim, according to choice, might stand, not of works but of Him who calls –
12 it was said to her, “The greater shall serve the lesser,”
13 as it has been written, “Ya’aqoḇ I have loved, but Ésaw I have hated.”
14 What, then, shall we say? Is there unrighteousness with Elohim? Let it not be!
15 For He says to Mosheh, “I shall favour whomever I favour, and I shall have compassion on whomever I have compassion.”
16 So, then, it is not of him who is wishing, nor of him who is running, but of Elohim who shows favour.
17 For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, “For this same purpose I have raised you up, to show My power in you, and that My Name be declared in all the earth.”
18 So, then, He favours whom He wishes, and He hardens whom He wishes.
19 Then you shall say to me, “Why does He still find fault? For who has resisted His counsel?”
20 But who are you, O man, to talk back to Elohim? Shall that which is formed say to him who formed it, “Why have you made me like this?”
21 Does not the potter have authority over the clay, from the same lump to make one vessel for value and another not for value?
22 And if Elohim, desiring to show wrath, and to make His power known, with much patience tolerated the vessels of wrath prepared for destruction,
23 and that He might make known the riches of His esteem on vessels of compassion, which He had prepared beforehand for esteem,
24 even whom He called, not only us of the YehuÅim, but also of the gentiles?
25 As He says in HoshÁa too, “I shall call them My people, who were not My people, v v Scholars explain it: There is a true Yisra’ël, a Yisra’ël that is Spiritual within the greater Yisra’ël after the flesh. This true Yisra’ël is probably the same as the term often used in Scripture: the remnant.

and her beloved, who was not beloved.”

26 “And it shall be in the place where it was said to them, ‘You are not My people,’ there they shall be called sons of the living Elohim.”

27 And Yeshayahu cries out on behalf of Yisra’el, “Though the number of the children of Yisra’el be as the sand of the sea, the remnant shall be saved.

28 For He is bringing a matter to an end, and is cutting it short in righteousness, because הוהי shall cut short a matter on the earth.”

29 And as Yeshayahu said before, “If יהוה of hosts had not left us a seed, we would have become like Seḏom, and we would have been made like Amorah.”

30 What shall we say then? That gentiles not following after righteousness, have obtained righteousness, even the righteousness of belief, 31 but Yisra’el following after the Torah of righteousness, has not arrived at the Torah of righteousness.

32 Why? Because it was not of belief, but as by works of righteousness. For they stumbled at the Stone of stumbling.

33 As it has been written, “See, I lay in Tsiyon a Stone of stumbling and a Rock that makes for falling, and everyone who is believing on Him shall not be put to shame.”

10 Truly brothers, my heart’s desire and prayer to Elohim for Yisra’el is for deliverance.

2 For I bear them witness that they have an ardour for Elohim, but not according to knowledge.

3 For not knowing the righteousness of Elohim, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they did not subject themselves to the righteousness of Elohim.

4 For Messiah is the goal of the ‘Torah unto righteousness’ to everyone who believes.

5 For Mosheh writes about the righteousness which is of the Torah, “The man who does these shall live by them.”

6 But the righteousness of belief speaks in this way, “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who shall ascend into the heavens?’ ” – that is, to bring Messiah down; or,

7 “Who shall descend into the abyss?” – that is, to bring Messiah up from the dead.

8 But what does it say? “The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart” – that is, the word of belief which we are proclaiming:

9 That if you confess with your mouth the Master יהוה and believe in your heart that Elohim has raised Him from the dead, you shall be saved.

10 For with the heart one believes unto righteousness, and one confesses with the mouth, and so is saved.

11 Because the Scripture says, “Whoever puts his trust in Him shall not be put to shame.”

12 Because there is no distinction between Yehuḏite and Greek, for the same Master of all is rich to all those calling upon Him.

13 For “everyone who calls on the Name of יהוה shall be saved.”

14 How then shall they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without one proclaiming?

15 And how shall they proclaim if they are not sent? As it has been written, “How pleasant are the feet of those who bring the Good News of peace, who bring the Good News of the good!”

16 However, not all obeyed the Good News. For Yeshayahu says, “יהוה, who has believed our report?”

17 So then belief comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of Elohim.

18 But I ask, Did they not hear? Yea indeed, “Their voice went out to all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world.”

19 But I ask, Did Yisra’el not know? First Mosheh says, “I shall provoke you to jealousy by those who are not a nation, I shall enrage you by an unwise nation.”

w Or did not obey.  1 Or end purpose; not termination.
20 And Yeshayahu boldly says, “I was found by those not seeking Me, I was made manifest to those not asking for Me.”
21 And to Yisra’el He says, “All day long I have stretched out My hands to a disobedient and back-talking people.”

11 I say then, has Elohim rejected His people? Let it not be! For I also am a Yisra’elite, of the seed of AÄraham, of the tribe of Binyamin.

2 Elohim has not rejected His people whom He knew beforehand. Or do you not know what the Scripture says of Eliyahu, how he pleads with Elohim against Yisra’el, saying,
3 “HWHY, they have killed Your prophets and overthrown Your altars, and I alone am left, and they seek my life”?
4 But what does the answer of Elohim say to him? “I have left for Myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to BaÈal.”
5 So therefore also, at this present time a remnant according to the choice of favour has come to be.

6 And if by favour, it is no longer of works, otherwise favour is no longer favour. And if it is of works, it is no longer favour, otherwise work is no longer work.

7 What then? Yisra’el has not obtained what it seeks, but the chosen did obtain it, and the rest were hardened.

8 As it has been written, “HWHY has given them a spirit of deep sleep, eyes not to see and ears not to hear, unto this day.”
9 DawiÅ also says, “Let their table become for a snare, and for a trap, and for a stumbling-block and a recompense to them, 10 let their eyes be darkened, not to see, and bow down their back always.”

11 I say then, have they stumbled that they should fall? Let it not be! But by their fall deliverance has come to the gentiles, to provoke them to jealousy.

12 And if their fall is riches for the world, and their failure riches for the gentiles, how much more their completeness!

13 For I speak to you, the gentiles, inasmuch as I am an emissary to the gentiles, I esteem my service, 14 if somehow I might provoke to jealousy those who are my flesh and save some of them.

15 For if their casting away is the restoration to favour of the world, what is their acceptance but life from the dead?

16 Now if the first-fruit is set-apart, the lump is also. And if the root is set-apart, so are the branches.

17 And if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive tree, have been grafted in among them, and came to share the root and fatness of the olive tree, 18 do not boast against the branches. And if you boast, remember: you do not bear the root, but the root bears you!

19 You shall say then, “The branches were broken off that I might be grafted in.”

20 Good! By unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by belief. Do not be arrogant, but fear.

21 For if Elohim did not spare the natural branches, He might not spare you either.

22 See then the kindness and sharpness of Elohim: on those who fell sharpness, but toward you kindness, if you continue in His kindness, otherwise you also shall be cut off.

23 And they also, if they do not continue in unbelief, shall be grafted in, for Elohim is able to graft them in again.

24 For if you were cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and were grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree, how much more shall these who are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?

25 For I do not wish you to be ignorant of this secret, brothers, lest you should be wise in your own estimation, that hardening in part has come over Yisra’el, until the completeness of the gentiles has come in.

26 And so all Yisra’el shall be saved, as it

\textsuperscript{y} Teh. 94:14. \textsuperscript{z} Down to v.24: The true believers (also being obedient) from among the gentiles, are grafted in among the true Yisra’elites after the flesh – those who are true because they believe and obey. \textsuperscript{7} Ber. 48:19.
has been written, “The Deliverer shall come out of Tsiyon, and He shall turn away wickedness from Ya’aqob, 27and this is My covenant with them, when I take away their sins.” a 28Truly, as regards the Good News they are enemies for your sake, but concerning the choice they are beloved for the sake of the fathers. 29For the gifts and the calling of Elohim are not to be repented of. 30For as you also at one time disobeyed b Elohim, but now have obtained compassion through their disobedience, 31so also these have now disobeyed, that through the compassion shown you they also might obtain compassion. 32For Elohim has shut them all up to disobedience, in order to have compassion on all.

33Oh, the depth of riches, and wisdom and knowledge of Elohim! How unsearchable His judgments and untraceable His ways!

34“For who has known the mind of יהוה? Or who has become His counsellor?” 35“Or who first gave to Him, and it shall be given back to him?” 36Because of Him, and through Him, and to Him, are all, to whom be esteem forever. Amën.

12 I call upon you, therefore, brothers, through the compassion of Elohim, to present your bodies a living offering – set-apart, well-pleasing to Elohim – your reasonable worship. 2And do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you prove what is that good and well-pleasing and perfect desire of Elohim. 3For I say, through the favour which has been given to me, to everyone who is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he should think, but to think soberly, as Elohim has given to each a measure of belief. 4For as we have many members in one body, but all members do not have the same function, 5so we, the many, are one body in Messiah, and members each one of one another.

6Now having different gifts, according to the favour which was given to us, let us use them accordingly: if prophecy, according to the proportion of belief; 7if serving, in the serving; or he who is teaching, in the teaching; 8or he who encourages, in the encouragement; or he who is sharing, in sincerity; he who is leading, in diligence; he who shows compassion, joyously.

9Let love be without hypocrisy. Shrink from what is wicked, cling to what is good. 10In brotherly love, tenderly loving towards one another, in appreciation, giving preference to each other; 11not idle in duty, ardent in spirit, serving the Master; 12rejoicing in the expectancy, enduring under pressure, continuing steadfastly in prayer; 13imparting to the needs of the set-apart ones, pursuing kindness towards strangers. 14Bless those who persecute you – bless and do not curse. 15Rejoice with those who rejoice, and weep with those who weep. 16Be of the same mind toward one another. Do not be proud in mind, but go along with the lowly. Do not be wise in your own estimation.

17Repay no one evil for evil. Respect what is right in the sight of all men. 18If possible, on your part, be at peace with all men. 19Beloved, do not revenge yourselves, but give place to the wrath, for it has been written, “Vengeance is Mine, I shall repay,” says יהוה. 20“Instead, if your enemy hungers, feed him; if he thirsts, give him a drink, for in so doing you shall heap coals of fire on his head.” 21Do not be overcome by evil, but over- come evil with good.

a Yesh. 59:20-21.  b Note the repeated use of the word “disobedience” in these three verses.
Let every being be in subjection to the governing authorities. For there is no authority except from Elohim, and the authorities that exist are appointed by Elohim.

So he who opposes the authority withstands the institution of Elohim, and those who withstand shall bring judgment on themselves.

For those ruling are an object of fear, not to good works, but to evil. Do you wish to be not afraid of the authority? Do the good, and you shall have praise from it, for it is a servant of Elohim to you for good. But if you do evil, be afraid, for it does not bear the sword in vain. For it is a servant of Elohim, a revenger to execute wrath on him who practises evil.

Therefore, it is necessary to be subject, not only because of wrath but also because of the conscience.

For because of this you also pay taxes, for they are servants of Elohim attending continually to these duties.

Render therefore to all what is due to them: tax to whom tax is due, toll to whom toll, fear to whom fear, respect to whom respect.

Owe no one any matter except to love one another, for he who loves another has filled the Torah.

For this, “You shall not commit adultery,” “You shall not murder,” “You shall not steal,” “You shall not bear false witness,” “You shall not covet,” and if there is any other command, is summed up in this word, “You shall love your neighbour as yourself.”

Love does no evil to a neighbour. Therefore, love is completion of the Torah.

And do this, knowing the time, that it is already the hour for us to wake up from sleep, for now our deliverance is nearer than when we did believe.

The night is far advanced, the day has come near. So let us put off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.

Let us walk becomingly, as in the day, not in wild parties and drunkenness, not in living together and indecencies, not in fighting and envy, but put on the Master Messiah, and make no provision for the lusts of the flesh.

And receive him who is weak in the belief, not criticising his thoughts.

One indeed believes to eat all food, but he who is weak eats only vegetables.

He that eats, let him not despise him who does not eat, and he that does not eat, let him not judge him who eats, for Elohim received him.

Who are you that judges another’s servant? To his own master he stands or falls. But he shall be made to stand, for Elohim is able to make him stand.

One indeed judges one day above another, another judges every day alike. Let each one be completely persuaded in his own mind.

He who minds the day, minds it to Elohim. And he who does not mind the day, to Elohim he does not mind it. He who eats, eats to Elohim, for he gives Elohim thanks. And he who does not eat, to Elohim he does not eat, and gives Elohim thanks.

For not one of us lives to himself, and not one dies to himself.

For both, if we live, we live unto the Master, and if we die, we die unto the Master. Therefore, whether we live or die, we are the Master’s.

For unto this Messiah died and rose and lived again, to rule over both the dead and the living.

But why do you judge your brother? Or why do you despise your brother? For we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Messiah.

For it has been written, “As I live, says Elohim, every knee shall bow to Me, and every tongue shall confess to Elohim.”

Each one of us, therefore, shall give account of himself to Elohim.

Therefore let us not judge one another any longer, but rather judge this, not to put an obstacle or a stumbling-block in our brother’s way.

I know and am persuaded in the Master that none at all is common of itself. But to him who regards whatever to be common, to him it is common.

And if your brother is grieved because of your food, you are no longer walking in love. Do not by your food ruin the one for whom Messiah died.

Do not then allow your good to be spoken of as evil.

For the reign of Elohim is not eating and drinking, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Set-apart Spirit.

For he who is serving Messiah in these matters is well-pleasing to Elohim and approved by men.

So, then, let us pursue the matters of peace and the matters for building up one another.

Do not destroy the work of Elohim for the sake of food. All indeed are clean, but evil to that man who eats so as to cause stumbling.

It is good not to eat meat or drink wine, nor to do whatever by which your brother stumbles.

Do you have belief? Have it to yourself before Elohim. Blessed is he who does not condemn himself in what he approves.

But he who doubts, if he eats, is condemned, because it is not of belief, and all that is not of belief is sin.

But we who are strong ought to bear with the failings of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

Let each one of us please his neighbour for his good, to build him up.

For even the Messiah did not please Himself, but, as it has been written, “The reproaches of those who reproached You fell upon Me.”

For whatever was written before was written for our instruction, that through endurance and encouragement of the Scriptures we might have the expectation.

And the Elohim of endurance and encouragement give you to be of the same mind toward one another, according to Messiah יושע, 6that with one mind and one mouth, you might praise the Elohim and Father of our Master יושע Messiah.

So accept one another, as Messiah also did accept us, to the esteem of Elohim.

And I say that יושע Messiah has become a servant of the circumcised for the truth of Elohim, to confirm the promises made to the fathers, and for the gentiles to praise Elohim for His compassion, as it has been written, “Because of this I shall confess to You among the gentiles, and I shall sing to Your Name.”

And again it says, “Rejoice, O gentiles, with His people!”

And again, “Praise יוהי, all you gentiles! Praise Him, all you peoples!”

And again, Yeshayahu says, “There shall be a root of Yishai, and He who shall rise to reign over the gentiles, on Him the gentiles shall set their expectation.”

And the Elohim of expectation fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you overflow with expectation by the power of the Set-apart Spirit.

Now I myself am persuaded concerning you, my brothers, that you too are filled with goodness, complete in all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

But I have written more boldly to you, in part, as reminding you, because of the favour given to me by Elohim, to be a servant of יושע Messiah to the gentiles, with the priestly duty of bringing the Good News of Elohim, so that the offering of the gentiles becomes acceptable, set apart by the Set-apart Spirit.

Therefore I have cause for boasting in Messiah יושע in the matters pertaining to Elohim.

For I shall not presume to speak of any matter except what Messiah has worked out through me, in word and deed, to make the gentiles obedient, in power of signs and wonders, in power of the Spirit of Elohim, so that from Yerushalayim and round about to Illurikon I have completed the preaching of the Good News of Messiah.

20 And so I was ambitious to bring the Good News where Messiah had not been named, lest I should build on another man’s foundation,

21 but as it has been written, “To whom it was not announced concerning Him, they shall see, and those that have not heard shall understand.”

22 This is why I was often hindered from coming to you.

23 But now, no longer having a place in these parts, and having a longing to come to you for many years,

24 I shall come to you when I go to Spain. For I expect to see you on my journey, and to be helped on my way there by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company.

25 But now I am going to Yerushalayim to serve the set-apart ones.

26 For it pleased those from Makedonia and Achaia to make some contribution for the poor among the set-apart ones who are in Yerushalayim.

27 For they were pleased, and they are their debtors. For if the gentiles have shared in their spiritual matters, their duty is also to serve them in material matters.

28 Having completed this, then, and having put my seal on this fruit of theirs, I shall return through you to Spain.

29 And I know that when I come to you, I shall come in the completeness of the blessing of the Good News of Messiah.

30 But I urge you, brothers, through our Master Messiah, and through the love of the Spirit, to strive together with me in prayers for me, unto Elohim,

31 that I might be delivered from those in Yehudah who do not believe, and that my service for Yerushalayim be well received by the set-apart ones, 32 that I might come to you with joy, through the desire of Elohim, and be refreshed together with you.

33 And the Elohim of peace be with you all. Amén.

16 And I commend to you Phoebe our sister, who is a servant of the assembly in Kenhrea, that you receive her in אָלֻם, worthy of the set-apart ones, and assist her in whatever matter she has need of you. For she has been a great help to many, including me.

3 Greet Priscilla and Aquas, my fellow workers in Messiah אָלֻם,

4 who risked their own necks for my life, to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the assemblies of the gentiles,

5 and the assembly that is in their house. Greet my beloved Epainetos, who is the first-fruits of Achaia to Messiah.

6 Greet Miryam, who worked very hard for us.

7 Greet Andronikos and Junias, my relatives and my fellow prisoners, who are eminent among the emissaries, who also were in Messiah before me.

8 Greet Amplias, my beloved in אָלֻם.

9 Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Messiah, and Stachus, my beloved.

10 Greet Apelles, the approved in Messiah.

11 Greet those who are of Aristobulos.

12 Greet Truphaina and Truphosa, who work in אָלֻם. Greet the beloved Persis, who worked very hard in אָלֻם.

13 Greet Rufus, chosen in אָלֻם and his mother and mine.

14 Greet Asugritos, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brothers who are with them.

15 Greet Philologos and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olumpas, and all the set-apart ones who are with them.

16 Greet one another with a set-apart kiss. The assemblies of Messiah greet you.

17 Now I call upon you, brothers, watch out for those who cause divisions and stumbling, contrary to the teaching which you learned, and turn away from them.

18 For such ones do not serve our Master אָלֻם Messiah, but their own stomach, and by smooth words and flattering speech they deceive the hearts of the innocent.

19 Your obedience, indeed, is reported to all. Therefore I rejoice concerning you, but I wish you to be wise indeed as to the good, and simple toward the evil.

20 And the Elohim of peace shall crush Satan under your feet shortly. The favour of our Master יהושוע Messiah be with you. Amên.

21 Timothy, my fellow worker, and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater, my relatives, greet you.

22 I, Tertius, who wrote this letter, greet you in יהוה.

23 Gaios, the host of all the assembly and me, greets you. Ἐραστος, the treasurer of the city, greets you, and Quartus, a brother.

24 The favour of our Master יהושוע Messiah be with you all. Amên.

25 And to Him who is able to establish you according to my Good News and the preaching of יהושוע Messiah, according to the revelation of the secret which was kept silent since times of old,

26 but now has been made manifest, and by the prophetic Scriptures has been made known to all nations, according to the command of the everlasting Elohim, for belief-obedience.

27 To Elohim, wise alone, be the esteem, through יהושוע Messiah forever. Amên.
Sha’ul, a called emissary of Messiah by the desire of Elohim, and brother Sosthenes, to the assembly of Elohim which is at Corinth, to those who are set-apart in Messiah, set-apart ones, with all those calling on the Name of Messiah our Master in every place, theirs and ours:

Favour to you and peace from Elohim our Father and the Master Messiah.

I thank my Elohim always concerning you for the favour of Elohim which was given to you by Messiah, that in Him you were enriched in all — in every word and all knowledge — as the witness of Messiah was confirmed in you, so that you are not lacking in any gift, eagerly waiting for the revelation of our Master, who shall also confirm you to the end, unreprovable in the day of our Master.

Elohim is trustworthy, by whom you were called into the fellowship of His Son,

And I appeal to you, brothers, by the Name of our Master Messiah, that you all agree, and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be knit together in the same mind and in the same opinion.

For I have been informed concerning you, my brothers, by those of the house of Chloe, that there are strifes among you.

What I mean is this, that each one of you says, “I am of Sha’ul,” or “I am of Apollos,” or “I am of Keph,” or “I am of Messiah.”

Has the Messiah been divided? Was Sha’ul impaled for you? Or were you immersed in the name of Sha’ul?

I thank Elohim that I immersed not one of you except Crispus and Gaios, that no one should say that I immersed into my own name.

Now I did also immerse the household of Stephanas. For the rest, I do not know whether I immersed anyone else.

For Messiah did not send me to immerse, but to bring the Good News, not with wisdom of words, that the stake of Messiah should not be nullified.

For the word of the stake is indeed foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of Elohim.

For it has been written, “I shall destroy the wisdom of the wise, and set aside the learning of the learned ones.”

Where is the wise? Where is the scholar? Where is the debater of this age? Has not Elohim made foolish the wisdom of this world?

For since, in the wisdom of Elohim, the world through wisdom did not know Elohim, it pleased Elohim through the foolishness of preaching to save those who believe.

And since YehuÅim ask a sign, and Greeks seek wisdom, yet we proclaim Messiah impaled, to the YehuÅim a stumbling-block and to the Greeks foolishness, but to those who are called — both YehuÅim and Greeks — Messiah the power of Elohim and the wisdom of Elohim.

For the foolishness of Elohim is wiser than men, and the weakness of Elohim is stronger than men.

For look at your calling, brothers, that there were not many wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble.

But Elohim has chosen the foolish matters of the world to put to shame the wise, and Elohim has chosen the weak of the world to put to shame the strong.

a Yesh. 29:14, Mt. 11:25, Rom. 1:22.
28 And Elohim has chosen the low-born of the world and the despised, and the ones that are not, that He might bring to naught the ones that are,
29 so that no flesh should boast in His presence.
30 And of Him you are in Messiah יהושע, who became for us wisdom from Elohim, righteousness also, and set-apartness and redemption, \(b\)
31 that, as it has been written, “He who boasts, let him boast in יהוה.”

2 And, when I came to you, brothers, I did not come with excellence of speech or wisdom, proclaiming to you the witness of Elohim.
2 For I resolved not to know any matter among you except יהושע Messiah and Him impaled.
3 And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.
4 And my word and my preaching were not with persuasive words of man’s wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power,
5 in order that your belief should not be in the wisdom of men but in the power of Elohim.
6 Yet we speak wisdom among those who are perfect, and not the wisdom of this age, nor of the rulers of this age that are being brought to naught.
7 But we speak the wisdom of Elohim, which was hidden in a secret, and which Elohim ordained before the ages for our esteem,
8 which no one of the rulers of this age knew, for if they had known, they would not have impaled the Master of esteem.
9 But as it has been written, “Eye has not seen, and ear has not heard, nor have entered into the heart of man what Elohim has prepared for those who love Him.” \(c\)
10 But Elohim has revealed them to us through His Spirit. For the Spirit searches all matters, even the depths of Elohim.
11 For who among men knows the thoughts of a man except the spirit of the \(b\) He is ever ready to save and set apart and redeem entirely!

\(c\) Yesh. 64:4.
you are the field of Elohim, the building of Elohim.

10 According to the favour of Elohim which was given to me, as a wise master builder I have laid the foundation, and another builds on it. But each one should look how he builds on it.

11 For no one is able to lay any other foundation except that which is laid, which is יהושע Messiah.

12 And if anyone builds on this foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw, 13 each one’s work shall be revealed, for the day shall show it up, because it is revealed by fire. And the fire shall prove the work of each one, what sort it is.

14 If anyone’s work remains, which he has built on, he shall receive a reward.

15 If anyone’s work is burned, he shall suffer loss, but he himself shall be saved, but so as through fire.

16 Do you not know that you are a Dwelling Place of Elohim and that the Spirit of Elohim dwells in you?

17 If anyone destroys the Dwelling Place of Elohim, Elohim shall destroy him. For the Dwelling Place of Elohim is set-apart, which you are.

18 Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you seems to be wise in this age, let him become foolish, so that he might become wise.

19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with Elohim. For it has been written, “He catches the wise in their craftiness,”

20 and again, “יהוה knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are worthless.”

21 So then, let no one boast in men, for all belongs to you,

22 whether Sha’ul or Apollos or Kêpha, or the world, or life, or death, or the present or the future – all belongs to you.

23 And you belong to Messiah, and Messiah belongs to Elohim.

4 Let a man regard us as servants of Messiah and trustees of the secrets of Elohim.

2 For the rest, it is sought in trustees, that those should be found trustworthy.

3 But with me it is a small matter that I should be judged by you or by a man’s court. But not even myself I judge.

4 For I am not conscious of any matter against myself, yet I am not declared right by this, but He who judges me is יהוה.

5 So do not judge any at all before the time, until the Master comes, who shall bring to light what is hidden in darkness and reveal the thoughts of the hearts. And then each one’s praise shall come from Elohim.

6 And these matters, brothers, I have applied in a figure to myself and Apollos for your sakes, so that in us you might learn not to think beyond what is written, d so that none of you be puffed up on behalf of one against the other.

7 For who makes you to differ? And what do you have that you did not receive? And if you did indeed receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it?

8 You are already satisfied! You are already enriched! You have reigned as sovereigns, apart from us! And I wish, indeed, you did reign, that we also might reign with you!

9 For I think that Elohim has exhibited us, the emissaries, last, as appointed to death, because we became a spectacle to the world, both to messengers and to men.

10 We are fools for the sake of Messiah, but you are wise in Messiah! We are weak, but you are strong! You are in esteem, but we are not appreciated!

11 Until the present hour we both hunger and thirst, and we are scantily clad, and beaten, and homeless,

12 and labour, working with our own hands. Being cursed, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer;

13 being insulted, we help. We have been made as the filth of the world – dirt wiped off by all until now.

14 I do not write this to shame you, but to warn you as my beloved children.

15 For if you should have ten thousand instructors in Messiah, yet not many fathers, for in Messiah I have brought you forth through the Good News.

Therefore I appeal to you, to become imitators of me.

For this reason I have sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved and trustworthy son in the Master, who shall remind you of my ways in Messiah, as I teach everywhere in every assembly.

Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you.

But I shall come to you shortly, if the Master desires, and I shall know, not the word of those who are puffed up, but the power.

For the reign of Elohim is not in speech, but in power.

What do you wish? Shall I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of meekness?

It is commonly reported that there is whoring among you, and such whoring as is not even named among the gentiles, so as one to have his father’s wife!

And you have been puffed up, and did not rather mourn, so that he who has done this deed, be removed from among you!

For I indeed, as absent in body but present in spirit, have already judged the one who did this, as though I were present.

In the Name of our Master Messiah, when you are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Master Messiah, deliver such a one to Satan for destruction of the flesh, in order that his spirit be saved in the day of the Master.

Your boasting is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the entire lump?

Therefore cleanse out the old leaven, so that you are a new lump, as you are unleavened. For also Messiah our Passover was offered for us.

So then let us observe the festival, not with old leaven, nor with the leaven of evil and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.

I wrote to you in my letter not to keep company with those who whore.

And I certainly did not mean with those of this world who whore, or with the greedy of gain, or swindlers, or idolaters, since then you would need to go out of the world.

But now I have written to you not to keep company with anyone called “a brother,” if he is one who whore, or greedy of gain, or an idolater, or a reviler, or a drunkard, or a swindler – not even to eat with such a one.

For what have I to do with judging outsiders? Do you not judge those who are inside?

But Elohim judges those who are outside. And put away the wicked one from among you!

Should any of you, holding a matter against another, go to be judged before the unrighteous, and not before the set-apart ones?

Do you not know that the set-apart ones shall judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

Do you not know that we shall judge messengers? How much more, matters of this life?

If then you truly have judgments of this life, do you appoint them as judges who are least esteemed by the assembly?

I say this to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise one among you, not even one, who shall be able to judge between his brothers?

But brother against brother goes to be judged and that before unbelievers!

Already, then, there is a failure with you, that you have lawsuits among you. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be cheated?

But you yourselves do wrong and cheat, and that to your brothers!

Do you not know that the unrighteous shall not inherit the reign of Elohim? Do not be deceived. Neither those who whore, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor homosexuals, nor thieves, nor greedy of gain, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor swindlers shall inherit the reign of Elohim. e 11 And such were some of you. But you were washed, but you were set apart, but you were declared right in the Name of the Master יושע and by the Spirit of our Elohim.

12 All is permitted me, but not all do profit. All is permitted me, but I shall not be under authority of any.
13 Foods for the stomach and the stomach for foods – but Elohim shall destroy both it and them. And the body is not for whoring but for the Master, and the Master for the body.
14 And Elohim, who raised up the Master, shall also raise us up through His power.
15 Do you not know that your bodies are members of Messiah? Shall I then take the members of Messiah and make them members of a whore? Let it not be!
16 Or do you not know that he who is joined to a whore is one body? For He says, “The two shall become one flesh.”
17 And he who is joined to the Master is one spirit.
18 Flee whoring. Every sin that a man does is outside the body, but he who commits whoring sins against his own body.
19 Or do you not know that your body is the Dwelling Place of the Set-apart Spirit who is in you, which you have from Elohim, and you are not your own?
20 For you were bought with a price, therefore esteem Elohim in your body and in your spirit, f which are of Elohim.
7 And concerning the matters you wrote to me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.
2 But because of whoring, let each one have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband.
3 Let the husband render to his wife what is her due, and likewise also the wife to her husband.
4 The wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does. And likewise the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does.
5 Do not deprive one another except with agreement for a time, to give yourselves to fasting and prayer. And come together again so that Satan does not try you because of your lack of self-control.
6 And I say this as a concession, not as a command.
7 For I wish that all men were even as I myself. But each one has his own gift from Elohim, one in this way and another in that.
8 And I say to the unmarried and to the widows: It is good for them if they remain even as I am,
9 but if they do not have self-control, let them marry, for it is better to marry than to burn.
10 And to the married I command, not I, but the Master: A wife should not separate from a husband.
11 But if she is indeed separated, let her remain unmarried or be restored to favour with her husband, and let a husband not send away a wife.
12 And to the rest I say, not the Master: If any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she thinks well to live with him, let him not send her away.
13 And a woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he thinks well to live with her, let her not send him away.
14 For the unbelieving husband has been set-apart in the wife, and the unbelieving wife has been set-apart in the husband.
Otherwise your children would be unclean,
but now they are set-apart.
15 And, if the unbelieving one separates, let him separate himself. A brother or a sister has not been enslaved in such matters.
But Elohim has called us to peace.
16 For how do you know, O wife, whether you shall save your husband? Or how do you know, O husband, whether you shall save your wife?
17 Only, as Elohim has distributed to each one, as the Master has called each one, so let him walk. And so I order in all the assemblies.

e This declaration is repeated in Gal. 5:19-21, Eph. 5:3-5.  f See 7:23, 1 Kêpha 1:18-19.
18 Was anyone called while circumcised? Let him not become uncircumcised. Was anyone called while uncircumcised? Let him not be circumcised.
19 The circumcision is naught, and the uncircumcision is naught, but the guarding of the commands of Elohim does matter!
20 Let each one remain in the same calling in which he was called.
21 Were you called while a slave? It matters not to you, but if you are able to become free too, rather use it.
22 For he who is called in the Master while a slave is the Master’s freed man. Likewise he who is called while free is a slave of Messiah.
23 You were bought with a price, do not become slaves of men.
24 Brothers, let each one remain with Elohim in that calling in which he was called.
25 And concerning maidens: I have no command from the Master, but I give judgment as one whom the Master in His compassion has made trustworthy.
26 I think then that this is good because of the present necessity, that it is good for a man to remain as he is.
27 Are you bound to a wife? Do not seek to be loosed. Are you loosed from a wife? Do not seek a wife.
28 But even if you should marry, you have not sinned. And if a maiden should marry, she has not sinned. But such shall have pressure in the flesh, but I would spare you.
29 And this I say, brothers, the time is short, so that from now on even those who have wives should be as though they had none,
30 and those who weep as though they did not weep, and those who rejoice as though they did not rejoice, and those who buy as though they did not possess,
31 and those who use this world as not misusing it. For the scene of this world is passing away.
32 And I wish you to be without concern. He who is unmarried is concerned about the matters of the Master – how to please the Master.
33 But he who is married is concerned about the matters of the world – how to please his wife.
34 There is a difference between a wife and a maiden. The unmarried woman is concerned about the matters of the Master, that she might be set-apart both in body and in spirit. But she who is married is concerned about the matters of the world – how to please her husband.
35 And this I say for your own good, not to put a restraint on you, but for what is proper, and to attend to the Master without distraction.
36 And if anyone thinks he is behaving improperly toward his maiden, if she is past the flower of her youth, and so it should be, let him do what he desires, he does not sin – let them marry.
37 But he who stands steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, and has authority over his own desire, and has so decided in his heart to guard his own maiden, does well.
38 So then he who gives her in marriage does well, but he who does not give her in marriage does better.
39 A wife is bound by Torah as long as her husband lives, and if her husband dies, she is free to be married to whom she desires, only in the Master.
40 But she is better off if she remains as she is, according to my opinion. And I think I also have the Spirit of Elohim.

8 And concerning food offered to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.
2 If anyone thinks that he knows somewhat, he does not yet know as he should know.
3 But if anyone loves Elohim, this one is known by Him.
4 So then, concerning the eating of food offered to idols, we know that an idol is no matter at all in the world, and that there is no other Elohim but one.

\textit{g} See Rom. 2:26-29. \textit{h} Eph. 6:6, 1 Képha 2:16.
5 For even if there are so-called mighty ones, whether in heaven or on earth — as there are many mighty ones and many masters —
6 for us there is one Elohim, the Father, from whom all came and for whom we live, and one Master Messiah, through whom all came and through whom we live.
7 However, not all have this knowledge. But some, being aware of the idol, until now eat it as having been offered to an idol, so their conscience, being weak, is defiled.
8 But food does not commend us to Elohim, for we are none the better if we eat, nor any worse for not eating.
9 But look to it, lest somehow this right of yours become a stumbling-block to those who are weak.
10 For if anyone sees you who have knowledge eating in an idol’s place, shall not his conscience, if he is weak, be built up to eat food offered to idols?
11 So this weak brother, for whom Messiah died, shall perish through your knowledge!
12 Now sinning in this way against the brothers, and wounding their weak conscience, you sin against Messiah.
13 Therefore, if food makes my brother stumble, I am never again going to eat meat, lest I make my brother stumble.

9 Am I not an emissary? Am I not free? Have I not seen Messiah our Master? Are you not my work in the Master?
2 If to others I am not an emissary, I certainly am to you. For you are the seal of my office of the emissary in the Master.
3 My defence to those who examine me is this:
4 Do we not have a right to eat and drink?
5 Do we not have a right to take along a sister — a wife — as do also the other emissaries, and the brothers of the Master, and Kêpha?
6 Or do only Barnabah and I have no right to refrain from working?
7 Who serves as a soldier at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard and does not eat of its fruit? Or who shepherds a flock and does not feed on the milk of the flock?
8 Do I say this as a man? Or does not the Torah say the same too?
9 For it has been written in the Torah of Mosheh, “You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain.” Is it about oxen Elohim is concerned?
10 Or does He say it because of us all? For this was written because of us, that he who ploughs should plough in expectation, and the thresher in expectation of sharing.
11 If we have sown spiritual seed among you, is it too much if we reap material goods from you?
12 If others share authority over you, should not rather we? But we have not used this authority, but we put up with all, lest we hinder the Good News of Messiah.
13 Do you not know that those serving the Set-apart Place eat from the Set-apart Place, and those attending at the altar have their share of the offerings of the altar?
14 So also the Master instituted that those announcing the Good News should live from the Good News.
15 But I have used none of these, nor have I written this that it should be done so to me. For it would be better for me to die than that anyone should make my boasting empty.
16 For if I bring the Good News, it is no boasting for me, for necessity is laid on me, and it is woe to me if I do not bring the Good News!
17 For if I do this voluntarily I have a reward, but if not voluntarily, I am entrusted with a management.
18 What then is my reward? That in bringing the Good News, I should offer the Good News of Messiah without cost, so as not to abuse my authority in the Good News.
19 For though I am free from all, I made myself a servant to all, in order to win

1 Eph. 4:6, 1 Tim. 2:5, Mk. 12:32,34.
more,

20 and to the Yehuḏim I became as a Yehuḏite, that I might win Yehuḏim; to those who are under Torah, as under Torah, so as to win those who are under Torah;

21 to those without Torah, as without Torah – not being without Torah toward Elohim, but under Torah of Messiah – so as to win those who are without Torah.

22 To the weak I became as weak, so as to win the weak. To all men I have become all, so as to save some, by all means.

23 And I do this because of the Good News, so as to become a fellow-partaker with it.

24 Do you not know that those who run in a race indeed all run, but one receives the prize? Run in such a way as to obtain it.

25 And everyone who competes controls himself in every way. Now they do it to receive a corruptible crown, but we for an incorruptible crown.

26 Therefore I run accordingly, not with uncertainty. Thus I fight, not as one who beats the air.

27 But I treat my body severely and make it my slave, so that when I have proclaimed to others, I myself might be rejected.

10 For I do not wish you to be ignorant, brothers, that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea,

2 and all were immersed into Mosheh in the cloud and in the sea,

3 and all ate the same spiritual food,

4 and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed, and the Rock was Messiah.

5 However, with most of them Elohim was not well pleased, for they were laid low in the wilderness.

6 And these became examples for us, so that we should not lust after evil, as those indeed lusted.

7 And do not become idolaters as some of them, as it has been written, “The people sat down to eat and to drink, and stood up to play.”

8 Neither should we commit whoring, as some of them did, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell,

9 neither let us try Messiah, as some of them also tried, and were destroyed by serpents,

10 neither grumble, as some of them also grumbled, and were destroyed by the destroyer.

11 And all these came upon them as examples, and they were written as a warning to us, on whom the ends of the ages have come,

12 so that he who thinks he stands, let him take heed lest he fall.

13 No trial has overtaken you except such as is common to man, and Elohim is trustworthy, who shall not allow you to be tried beyond what you are able, but with the trial shall also make the way of escape, enabling you to bear it.

14 Therefore, my beloved ones, flee from idolatry.

15 I speak as to wise men, judge for yourselves what I say.

16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not a sharing in the blood of Messiah? The bread that we break, is it not a sharing in the body of Messiah?

17 Because there is one bread, we, who are many, are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.

18 Look at Yisra’ël after the flesh: Are not those who eat of the offerings sharers in the altar?

19 What then do I say? That an idol is of any value? Or that which is offered to idols is of any value?

20 No, but what the gentiles offer they offer to demons and not to Elohim, and I do not wish you to become sharers with demons.

21 You are not able to drink the cup of the Master and the cup of demons, you are not able to partake of the table of the Master and of the table of demons.

22 Do we provoke the Master to jealousy? Are we stronger than He?

1 See Way. 17:7
23 All is permitted me, but not all do profit it. All is permitted me, but not all build up.
24 Let no one seek his own, but each one that of the other.
25 You eat whatever is sold in the meat market, asking no questions because of conscience,
26 for “The earth belongs to יהוה, and all that fills it.”
27 And if any of the unbelievers invite you, and you wish to go, you eat whatever is set before you, asking no question on account of the conscience.
28 And if anyone says to you, “This was offered to idols,” do not eat it because of the one pointing it out to you, and on account of the conscience, for “The earth belongs to יהוה, and all that fills it.”
29 Now I say conscience, not your own, but that of the other. For why is my freedom judged by another’s conscience?
30 But if I partake with thanks, why am I evil spoken of for what I give thanks?
31 Therefore, whether you eat or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the esteem of יהוה.
32 Cause no stumbling, either to the יהודים or to the Greeks or to the assembly of יהוה, 33 as I also please all men in all matters, not seeking my own advantage, but that of the many, that they might be saved.

11 Become imitators of me, as I also am of Messiah.
2 And I praise you, brothers, that you remember me in every way and keep the traditions as I delivered them to you.
3 And I wish you to know that the head of every man is the Messiah, and the head of woman is the man, and the head of Messiah is יהוה.
4 Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, brings shame to his Head.
5 And every woman praying or prophesying with her head uncovered brings shame to her head, for that is one and the same as if her head were shaved.
6 For if a woman is not covered, let her also be shorn. But if it is a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaved, let her be covered.
7 For a man indeed should not cover his head, since he is the likeness and esteem of יהוה, but woman is the esteem of man.
8 For man is not from woman, but woman from man.
9 For man also was not created for the woman, but woman for the man.
10 Because of this the woman ought to have a symbol of authority on her head, because of the messengers.
11 However, man is not independent of woman, nor woman independent of man, in the Master.
12 For as the woman was from the man, even so the man also is through the woman. But all are from יהוה.
13 Judge for yourselves: is it proper for a woman to pray to יהוה with her head uncovered?
14 Does not nature itself teach you that if a man indeed has long hair, it is a disrespect to him?
15 And if a woman has long hair, it is an esteem to her, because the long hair has been given to her over against a veil.
16 If, however, anyone seems to be contentious, we do not have such a habit, nor do the assemblies of יהוה.
17 And in declaring this I do not praise you, since you come together not for the better but for the worse.
18 For in the first place, I hear that when you come together as an assembly, there are divisions among you, and to some extent I believe it.
19 For there have to be factions even among you, so that the approved ones might be revealed among you.
20 So when you come together in one place, it is not to eat the Master’s supper.
21 For, when you eat, each one takes his own supper first, and one is hungry and another is drunk.
22 Have you not houses to eat and drink in? Or do you despise the assembly of יהוה and shame those who have not? What shall I say to you? Shall I praise you in this? I do not praise!
23 For I received from the Master that which I also delivered to you: that the Master ἐξέδωκεν in the night in which He was delivered up took bread,

24 and having given thanks, He broke it and said, “Take, eat, this is My body which is broken for you; do this in remembrance of Me.”

25 In the same way also the cup, after supper, saying, “This cup is the renewed covenant in My blood. As often as you drink it, do this in remembrance of Me.”

26 For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the death of the Master until He comes.

27 So that whoever should eat this bread or drink this cup of the Master unworthily shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Master.

28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread and drink of that cup.

29 For the one who is eating and drinking unworthily, eats and drinks judgment to himself, not discerning the body of the Master.

30 Because of this many are weak and sick among you, and many sleep.

31 For if we were to examine ourselves, we would not be judged.

32 But when we are judged, we are disciplined by the Master, that we should not be condemned with the world.

33 So then, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait for one another.

34 And if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, lest you come together for judgment. And the rest I shall set in order when I come.

12 And concerning spiritual gifts, brothers, I do not wish you to be ignorant.

2 You know that you were gentiles, j led away to the dumb idols, even as you might be led.

3 Therefore I make known to you that no one speaking by the Spirit of Elohim says ἄρνεται is a curse, and no one is able to say that רוח הוא is Master except by the Set-apart Spirit.

4 And there are different kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit.

5 There are different kinds of services, but the same Master.

6 And there are different kinds of workings, but it is the same Elohim who is working all in all.

7 And to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for profiting,

8 for to one is given a word of wisdom through the Spirit, and to another a word of knowledge according to the same Spirit,

9 and to another belief by the same Spirit, and to another gifts of healing by the same Spirit,

10 and to another operations of powers, and to another prophecy, and to another discerning of spirits, and to another kinds of tongues, and to another interpretation of tongues.

11 But one and the same Spirit works all these, distributing to each one individually as He intends.

12 For as the body is one and has many members, but all the members of that one body, being many, are one body, so also is the Messiah.

13 For indeed by one Spirit we were all immersed into one body, whether Yehudi or Greeks, whether slaves or free, and we were all made to drink into one Spirit.

14 For indeed the body is not one member but many.

15 If the foot says, “Because I am not a hand, I do not belong to the body,” does it therefore not belong to the body?

16 And if the ear says, “Because I am not an eye, I do not belong to the body,” does it therefore not belong to the body?

17 If all the body was an eye, where would be the hearing? If all hearing, where would be the smelling?

18 But now Elohim has set the members, each one of them, in the body, even as He pleased.

19 And if they all had been one member, where would the body be?

20 And now, there are indeed many j Notice the past tense: “were” – see also Eph. 2:11, Eph. 4:17, 1 Kêpha 4:3, 1 Thess. 4:5.

members, but one body.

21 And an eye is unable to say to the hand, “I have no need of you,” or again the head to the feet, “I have no need of you.”

22 But much rather, those members of the body which are thought to be weaker are necessary.

23 And to those of the body which we think to be less respected, these we present greater respect. And our unseemly members have greater seemliness,

24 whereas our seemly members have no need. But Elohim blended together the body, having given greater respect to that member which lacks it,

25 that there should be no division in the body, but that the members should have the same concern one for another.

26 And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; or if one member is esteemed, all the members rejoice with it.

27 And you are a body of Messiah, and members individually.

28 And Elohim has appointed these in the assembly: firstly emissaries, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, ministries, kinds of tongues.

29 Are all emissaries? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all workers of miracles?

30 Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with tongues? Do all interpret?

31 But earnestly seek the better gifts. And yet I show you a more excellent way.

13 If I speak with the tongues of men and of messengers, but do not have love, I have become as sounding brass or a clanging cymbal.

2 And if I have prophecy, and know all secrets and all knowledge, and if I have all belief, so as to remove mountains, but do not have love, I am none at all.

3 And if I give out all my possessions to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but do not have love, I am not profited at all.

4 Love is patient, is kind, love does not envy, love does not boast, is not puffed up, does not behave indecently, does not seek its own, is not provoked, reckons not the evil,

5 does not rejoice over the unrighteousness, but rejoices in the truth,

6 it covers all, believes all, expects all, endures all.

7 Love never fails. And whether there be prophecies, they shall be inactive; or tongues, they shall cease; or knowledge, it shall be inactive.

8 For we know in part and we prophesy in part.

9 But when that which is perfect has come, then that which is in part shall be inactive.

10 When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I thought as a child, I reasoned as a child. But when I became a man, I did away with childish matters.

11 For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I shall know, as I also have been known.

12 And now belief, expectation, and love remain – these three. But the greatest of these is love.

14 Pursue love, and earnestly seek the spiritual gifts, but rather that you prophesy.

2 For he who is speaking in a tongue does not speak to men but to Elohim, for no one understands, but in the Spirit he speaks secrets.

3 But he who is prophesying speaks upbuilding and encouragement and comfort to men.

4 He who is speaking in a tongue builds up himself, but he who is prophesying builds up the assembly.

5 Now I wish you all spoke with tongues, but rather that you might prophesy, for he who is prophesying is greater than he who is speaking with tongues, unless he interprets, so that the assembly might receive upbuilding.

6 But now, brothers, if I come to you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you unless I speak to you, either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by teaching?

7 Nevertheless, lifeless instruments making a sound, whether flute or harp, if they do not make a distinction in the sound, how shall it be known what is played on the flute or on the harp?

8 For indeed, if the trumpet makes an indistinct sound, who shall prepare himself for battle?

9 So also you, if you do not give speech by the tongue that is clear, how shall it be known what is spoken? For you shall be speaking into the air.

10 There are, undoubtedly, so many kinds of sounds in the world, and none of them is without distinct sound.

11 If then I do not know the power of the voice, I shall be a foreigner to him who speaks, and he who speaks be a foreigner to me.

12 So also you, since you are ardent for spiritual gifts, seek to excel in the upbuilding of the assembly.

13 Therefore, he who is speaking in a tongue, let him pray that he might interpret.

14 For if I am praying in a tongue, my spirit is praying, but my understanding is without fruit.

15 What then is it? I shall pray with the spirit, and I shall also pray with the understanding. I shall sing with the spirit, and I shall also sing with the understanding.

16 Otherwise, if you bless with the spirit, how shall he who fills up the place of the unlearned say “Amén” at your giving of thanks, since he does not know what you say?

17 For you truly give thanks well, but the other is not built up.

18 I thank my Elohim I speak with tongues more than you all,

19 but in an assembly I wish to speak five words with my understanding that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in a tongue.

20 Brothers, do not be children in your thinking, but in evil be babes, and in your thinking be perfect.

21 In the Torah it has been written, “With men of other tongues and other lips I shall speak to this people. And even so, they shall not hear Me, says הוהי.”

22 So then tongues are for a sign, not to those who believe but to unbelievers, and prophesying is not for unbelievers but for those who believe.

23 If then all the assembly comes together in one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those who are unlearned or unbelievers, shall they not say that you are mad?

24 But if all prophesy, and an unbeliever or an unlearned one comes in, he is reproved by all, he is discerned by all.

25 And so the secrets of his heart are revealed. And so, falling down on his face, he shall worship Elohim, declaring that Elohim is truly among you.

26 What then is it, brothers? Whenever you come together, each one has a psalm, has a teaching, has a tongue, has a revelation, has an interpretation. Let all be done for upbuilding.

27 If anyone speaks in a tongue, let there be two or at the most three, each in turn, and let one interpret.

28 And if there is no interpreter, let him be silent in an assembly, and let him speak to himself and to Elohim.

29 And let two or three prophets speak, and let the others discern.

30 And if there should be a revelation to another who sits by, let the first be silent.

31 For you are all able to prophesy one by one, so that all learn and all be encouraged.

32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For Elohim is not Elohim of disorder but of peace, as in all the assemblies of the set-apart ones.

34 Let your women be silent in the assemblies, for they are not allowed to speak, but let them subject themselves, as the Torah also says.

35 And if they wish to learn whatever, let them ask their own husbands at home, for it is improper for women to speak in an assembly.

36 Or did the word of Elohim go out from you? Or did it reach only to you?

37 If anyone thinks himself to be a prophet or spiritual, let him acknowledge what I write to you, that they are a command of the Master.

38 And if anyone is ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 So, then, brothers, earnestly seek to prophesy, and do not forbid speaking in tongues.

40 Let all be done decently and in order.

15 But brothers, I make known to you the Good News, which I brought as Good News to you, which you also did receive, and in which you stand, through which also you are being saved, if you hold fast that word I brought as Good News to you. Otherwise, you have believed in vain.

3For I delivered to you at the first that which I also received: that Messiah died for our sins according to the Scriptures,

4and that He was buried, and that He was raised the third day, according to the Scriptures, 5and that He was seen by Kèpha, then by the twelve.

6After that He was seen by over five hundred brothers at one time, of whom the greater part remain till now, but some have fallen asleep.

7After that He was seen by Ya’aqoḇ, then by all the emissaries.

8And last of all He was seen by me also, as if to one born prematurely.

9For I am the least of the emissaries, who am not worthy to be called an emissary, because I persecuted the assembly of Elohim.

10But by the favour of Elohim I am what I am, and His favour toward me was not in vain, but I laboured much more than they all, yet not I, but the favour of Elohim with me.

11Whether, then, it was I or they, so we proclaimed and so you believed.

12And if Messiah is proclaimed that He has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?

13And if there is no resurrection of the dead, then Messiah has not been raised.

14And if Messiah has not been raised, then our proclaiming is empty, and your belief also empty, 15and we are also found false witnesses of Elohim, because we have witnessed of Elohim that He raised up Messiah, whom He did not raise up, if then the dead are not raised.

16For if the dead are not raised, then neither Messiah has been raised.

17And if Messiah has not been raised, your belief is to no purpose, you are still in your sins!

18Then also those who have fallen asleep in Messiah have perished.

19If in this life only we have expectation in Messiah, we are of all men the most wretched.

20But now Messiah has been raised from the dead, and has become the first-fruit of those having fallen asleep.

21For since death is through a man, resurrection of the dead is also through a Man.

22For as all die in AÅam, so also all shall be made alive in Messiah.

23And each in his own order: Messiah the first-fruits, then those who are of Messiah at His coming, 24then the end, when He delivers up the reign to Elohim the Father, when He has brought to naught all rule and all authority and power.

25For He has to reign until He has put all enemies under His feet.

26The last enemy to be brought to naught is death.

27For “He has put all under His feet.” But when He says “all are put under Him,” it is clear that He who put all under Him is excepted.

28And when all are made subject to Him, then the Son Himself shall also be subject to Him who put all under Him, in order that Elohim be all in all.

29Otherwise, what shall they do who are immersed for the dead, if the dead are not raised at all? Why indeed are they immersed for the dead?

30And why do we stand in danger every hour?

31I affirm, by the boasting in you which I have in Messiah our Master, I die day by day.

32 If, as men do, I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, of what good is it to me? If the dead are not raised, “Let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die.”

33 Do not be led astray, “Evil company corrupts good habits.”

34 Wake up to soberness, righteously, and do not sin, for some do not have the knowledge of Elohim. I speak this to your shame.

35 But someone might say, “How are the dead raised up? And with what body do they come?”

36 Senseless one! What you sow is not made alive unless it dies.

37 And as to what you sow: you do not sow the body which is to be, but a bare grain, it might be wheat or some other grain.

38 But Elohim gives it a body as He wishes, and to each seed a body of its own.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, and another flesh of beasts, and another of fishes, and another of birds.

40 And there are heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the esteem of the heavenly is truly one, and the esteem of the earthly is another;

41 one esteem of the sun, and another esteem of the moon, and another esteem of the stars – for star differs from star in esteem.

42 So also is the resurrection of the dead: it is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption;

43 it is sown in disrespect, it is raised in esteem; it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power;

44 it is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body; there is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.

45 And so it has been written, “The first man Adam became a living being,” the last Adam a life-giving Spirit.

46 The spiritual, however, was not first, but the natural, and afterward the spiritual.

47 The first man was of the earth, earthy; the second Man is the Master from heaven.

48 As is the earthy, so also are those who are earthy; and as is the heavenly, so also are those who are heavenly.

49 And as we have borne the likeness of the earthly, we shall also bear the likeness of the heavenly.

50 And this I say, brothers, that flesh and blood is unable to inherit the reign of Elohim, neither does corruption inherit incorruption.

51 See, I speak a secret to you: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, 52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.

53 For this corruptible has to put on incorruption, and this mortal to put on immortality.

54 And when this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall come to be the word that has been written, “Death is swallowed up in overcoming.”

55 “O Death, where is your sting? O grave, where is your overcoming?”

56 And the sting of death is the sin, and the power of the sin is the Torah.

57 But thanks to Elohim who gives us the overcoming through our Master Messiah.

58 Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the work of the Master, knowing that your labour is not in vain in the Master.

16 And concerning the collections for the set-apart ones, you are to do as I gave orders to the assemblies of Galatia:

2 On the first day of the week let each one of you set aside, storing up whatever he is prospered, so that there are no collections when I come.

3 And when I come, whomever you approve by your letters, I shall send to bear your gift to Yerushalayim.

4 And if it is fitting for me to go, they shall go with me.

5 And I shall come to you when I pass through Makedonia, for I am passing through Makedonia.
And possibly I shall stay with you, or even spend the winter, so that you send me forward, wherever I go.

For I do not wish to see you now on the way, but I expect to stay a while with you, if the Master permits.

And I shall remain in Ephesos until the Festival of Weeks.

For a great and effective door has opened to me, and many are opposing.

And if Timothy comes, see that he is with you without fear, for he does the work of the Master, even as I.

Therefore let no one despise him. And send him forward in peace, so that he comes to me, for I am waiting for him with the brothers.

And concerning our brother Apollos, I strongly urged him to come to you with the brothers, but he had no desire at all to come at this time; however, he shall come when it is convenient.

Watch, stand fast in the belief, be men, be strong.

Let all that you do be done in love.

And I urge you, brothers, you know the household of Stephanas, that it is the first-fruit of Achaia, and that they have assigned themselves for service to the set-apart ones, that you also be subject to such, and to everyone who works and labours with us.

And I rejoice about the coming of Stephanas, and Fortunatos, and Achaikos, for what was lacking on your part they supplied.

For they refreshed my spirit and yours, therefore give recognition to such ones.

The assemblies of Asia greet you. Aquas and Priscilla greet you heartily in the Master, with the assembly that is in their house.

All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a set-apart kiss.

The greeting with my own hand – Sha’ul.

If anyone does not love the Master Messiah, let him be a curse. Maranatha!

The favour of our Master Messiah be with you.

My love be with you all in Messiah. Amēn.
Sha’ul, an emissary of Messiah, by the desire of Elohim, and Timothy the brother, to the assembly of Elohim that is at Corinth, with all the set-apart ones who are in all Achaia:

1 Favour to you and peace from Elohim our Father and the Master Messiah.

2 Blessed be the Elohim and Father of our Master Messiah, the Father of compassion and Elohim of all comfort,

3 who is comforting us in all our pressure, enabling us to comfort those who are in every pressure, through the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by Elohim.

4 Because, as the sufferings of Messiah overflow in us, so our comfort also overflows through Messiah.

5 And if we suffer pressure, it is for your comfort and deliverance, being worked out in enduring the same sufferings which we also suffer. If we are comforted, it is for your comfort and deliverance.

6 And our expectation for you is steadfast, because we know that as you are sharing in the sufferings – so also in the comfort.

7 For we do not wish you to be ignorant, brothers, of our pressure which came to us in Asia, that we were weighed down, exceedingly, a beyond ability, so that we despaired even of life.

8 Indeed, we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves but in Elohim who raises the dead,

9 who rescued us from so great a death, and does rescue, in whom we trust that He shall still rescue us,

10 you also helping together in prayer for us, that thanks shall be given by many on our behalf for the favour bestowed upon us through many.

11 For our boasting is this: the witness of our conscience that we behaved ourselves in the world in simplicity and sincerity of Elohim, not in fleshly wisdom but in the favour of Elohim, and much more toward you.

12 For we are not writing any other matters to you than what you read or understand. Now I trust you shall understand, even to the end, 13 as also you have understood us in part, that we are your boast as you also are ours, in the day of the Master Messiah.

14 And relying on this I intended to come to you before, that you might twice receive a favour,

15 and to pass your way into Makedonia, and again from Makedonia come to you, and to be sent by you on my way to Yehuḏah.

16 Since I intended this, did I do it lightly? Or what I plan, do I plan according to the flesh, that with me there should be Yea, Yea, and No, No?

17 But Elohim is trustworthy, that our word to you was not Yea and No.

18 For the Son of Elohim, Messiah, who was proclaimed among you by us – by me, Sila, and Timothy – was not Yea and No, but in Him was Yea.

19 For as many promises as are of Elohim, in Him they are Yea, and in Him Amên, to the esteem of Elohim through us.

20 But He who establishes us with you in Messiah and has anointed us is Elohim, 21 who also sealed us, and gave the Spirit in our hearts as a pledge.

22 And I call Elohim as witness against my being, that to spare you I came no more to Corinth.

23 Not that we rule over your belief, but we are fellow workers for your joy, for you stand by belief.

2 And I decided this within myself, not to come to you again in sadness.

a See 4:8-9 & 17.
For if I make you sad, then who is he who makes me glad but the one who is made sad by me?

And I wrote to you as I did, so that having come, I might not have sadness over those from whom I should have joy, trusting in you all that my joy is that of you all.

For out of much pressure and distress of heart I wrote to you, with many tears, not that you should be sad, but that you might know the love which I so richly have for you.

But if anyone has caused sadness, he has not made me sad, but in some degree you all – not to be too harsh.

For such a one this punishment, by the many, is sufficient, so that, on the contrary, you should rather forgive and comfort, lest somehow such a one be swallowed up with too much sadness.

So I appeal to you to confirm your love to him.

Besides, I wrote for this purpose also, that I might know the proof of you, if you are obedient in all matters.

And whom you forgive any matter, I do also. For indeed, if I have forgiven any matter, I have forgiven that one for your sakes in the sight of Messiah, lest Satan should take advantage of us, for we are not ignorant of his thoughts.

And when I came to Troas for the Good News of Messiah, and a door was opened to me by the Master,

I had no rest in my spirit, because I did not find Titus my brother. But taking my leave of them, I went on to Makedonia.

But thanks be to Elohim who always leads us on, to overcome in Messiah, and manifests through us the fragrance of His knowledge in every place.

Because we are to Elohim the fragrance of Messiah among those who are being saved and among those who are perishing.

To the one we are the smell of death to death, and to the other the fragrance of life to life. And who is competent for these?

For we are not, as so many, adulterating the Word of Elohim for gain – but as of sincerity, but as from Elohim, in the sight of Elohim, we speak in Messiah.

Are we to begin to recommend ourselves again? Or do we need, as some, letters of recommendation to you, or from you?

You are our letter, having been written in our hearts, known and read by all men, making it obvious that you are a letter of Messiah, served by us, written not with ink but by the Spirit of the living Elohim, not on tablets of stone but on fleshly tablets of the heart.

And such trust we have toward Elohim, through the Messiah.

Not that we are competent in ourselves to reckon any matter as from ourselves, but our competence is from Elohim, who also made us competent as servants of a renewed covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit, for the letter kills but the Spirit gives life.

But if the administering of death in letters, engraved on stones, was esteemed, so that the children of Yisra’âl were unable to look steadily at the face of Mosheh because of the esteem of his face, which was passing away, how much more esteemed shall the administering of the Spirit not be?

For if the administering of condemnation had esteem, the administering of righteousness exceeds much more in esteem.

For indeed what was made esteemed had no esteem in this respect, in view of the esteem that excels.

But their minds were hardened, for to this day, when the old covenant is being read, that same veil remains, not lifted, because in Messiah it is taken away.

But to this day, when Mosheh is being read, a veil lies on their heart.
And when one turns to the Master, the veil is taken away.

Now הוהי is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of הוהי is, there is freedom.

And we all, as with unveiled face we see as in a mirror the esteem of הוהי, are being transformed into the same likeness from esteem to esteem, as from הוהי, the Spirit.

Therefore, having this service, even as we received compassion, we do not lose heart, but have renounced the secret ways of shame, not walking in craftiness nor falsifying the Word of יוהי, but by the manifestation of the truth recommending ourselves to every human conscience, in the sight of יוהי.

And indeed, if our Good News has been veiled, it has been veiled in those who are perishing, in whom the mighty one of this age has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, so that the enlightening of the Good News of the esteem of יeshua, who is the likeness of יוהי, does not shine on them.

For we do not proclaim ourselves, but יeshua the Master, and ourselves your servants for the sake of יeshua.

For Elohim, who said, “Let light shine out of darkness,” is the One who has shone in our hearts for the enlightening of the knowledge of the esteem of יוהי in the face of יeshua Messiah.

And we have this treasure in earthen vessels, so that the excellence of the power might be of יוהי, and not of us – being hard pressed on every side, but not crushed; being perplexed, but not in despair; being persecuted, but not forsaken; being thrown down, but not destroyed;

always bearing about in the body the dying of the Master יeshua, that the life of יeshua might also be manifested in our body.

For we, the living, are always delivered to death for the sake of יeshua, that the life of יeshua might also be manifested in our mortal flesh, so that death indeed is working in us, but the life in you.

But having the same spirit of belief, according to what has been written, “I believed, therefore I spoke,” we also believe, therefore we also speak, knowing that He who raised up the Master יeshua shall also raise us up through יeshua, and shall present us with you.

For all this is for your sake, so that favour, having spread through the many, would cause thanksgiving to overflow, unto the esteem of יוהי.

Therefore do we not lose heart, but even if our outward man is perishing, the inward man is being renewed day by day.

For this slight momentary pressure, is working for us a far more exceeding and everlasting weight of esteem.

We are not looking on what is seen, but on what is not seen. For what is seen passes away, but what is not seen is everlasting.

For we know that if the tent of our earthly house, is destroyed, we have a building from יוהי, a house not made with hands, everlasting in the heavens.

For indeed in this we groan, longing to put on our dwelling which is from heaven, so that, having put it on, we shall not be found naked.

For indeed, we who are in this tent groan, being burdened, not because we wish to put it off, but to put on the other, so that what is to die might be swallowed up by life.

Now He who has prepared us for this same purpose is יוהי, who has given us the Spirit as a pledge of what is to come.

Therefore, being always of good courage, and knowing that while we are at home in the body we are absent from the Master –

Verses 17 and 18 make it clear: הוהי is the Spirit!

See footnote Lk. 4:6.

See 1:8.

7 for we walk by belief, not by sight—
8 we are of good courage, and are well pleased rather to be absent from the body and to be present with the Master.

9 So we also make it our aim to be well-pleasing to Him, whether being at home, or being away from home.

10 For we all have to appear before the judgment seat of Messiah, in order for each one to receive according to what he has done in the body, whether good or evil.

11 Knowing, therefore, the fear of יהוה, we persuade men, but we have been made manifest to Elohim, and I also trust in your consciences to have been manifested.

12 For we do not again commend ourselves to you, but give you an occasion to boast on our behalf, in order that you have an answer for those who take pride in appearance and not in heart.

13 For whether we are beside ourselves, it was for Elohim, or whether we are of sound mind, it is for you.

14 For the love of Messiah compels us, having judged this: that if One died for all, then all died;

15 and He died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves, but for Him who died for them, and was raised.

16 So from now onwards we know no one according to the flesh. And if we have known Messiah according to the flesh, yet now we no longer know Him thus.

17 Therefore, if anyone is in Messiah, he is a renewed creature – the old matters have passed away, see, all matters have become renewed!

18 And all matters are from Elohim, who has restored us to favour with Himself through יושבMessiah, and has given us the service of restoration to favour,

19 that is, that Elohim was in Messiah restoring the world to favour unto Himself, not reckoning their trespasses to them, and has committed to us the word of restoration to favour.

20 Therefore we are envoys on behalf of Messiah, as though Elohim were pleading through us. We beg, on behalf of Messiah: Be restored to favour with Elohim.

21 For He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, so that in Him we might become the righteousness of Elohim.

6 And working together, we also call upon you not to receive the favour of Elohim in vain –

2 For He says, “In an acceptable time I have heard you, and in a day of deliverance I have helped you.” See, now is the well-accepted time, see, now is a day of deliverance –

3 giving no cause of stumbling in whatever, so that the service is not blamed.

4 Rather, we commend ourselves as servants of Elohim in every way: in much endurance, in pressures, in hardships, in distresses,

5 in stripes, in imprisonments, in disturbances, in toils, in watchings, in fastings,

6 in cleanness, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Set-apart Spirit, in love unfeigned,

7 in the word of truth, in the power of Elohim, through the weapons of righteousness, on the right and on the left,

8 through esteem and disrespect, through evil report and good report; regarded as deceivers, and yet true;

9 as unknown, and yet well-known; as dying, and see, we live; as disciplined, and yet not killed;

10 as sad, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet enriching many; as having none, and yet possessing all.

11 Our mouth has spoken openly to you, O Corinthians, our heart is wide open.

12 You are not restrained by us, but you are restrained by your own affections.

13 But for the same reward – I speak as to children – open wide your hearts too.

14 Do not become unevenly yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership have righteousness and lawlessness? And what fellowship has light with darkness?
15 And what agreement has Messiah with Beliyan’al? Or what part does a believer have with an unbeliever?
16 And what union has the Dwelling Place of Elohim with idols? For you are a Dwelling Place of the living Elohim, as Elohim has said, “I shall dwell in them and walk among them, and I shall be their Elohim, and they shall be My people.”
17 Therefore, “Come out from among them and be separate, says HWHY, and do not touch what is unclean, and I shall receive you.
18 “And I shall be a Father to you, and you shall be sons and daughters to Me, says HWHY the Almighty.”

7 Having, then, these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of the flesh and spirit, perfecting set-apartness in the fear of Elohim.

2 Make room for us, we wronged no one, we corrupted no one, we exploited no one.
3 I do not say this to condemn, for I previously said that you are in our hearts, to die together and to live together.
4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my boasting on your behalf. I have been filled with encouragement, I overflow with joy in all our pressure.
5 For, indeed, when we came into Makedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were hard pressed on every side – conflicts without, fears within.
6 But Elohim, who encourages the downcast, encouraged us by the coming of Titus,
7 and not only by his coming, but also by the encouragement with which he was encouraged over you, when he reported to us your longing, your mourning, your ardour for me, so that I greatly rejoiced.
8 For even if I made you sad with my letter, I do not regret it, though I did regret it. For I perceive that the same letter made you sad, even if for an hour.
9 I now rejoice, not that you were made sad, but that you were saddened into repenting. For you were made sad according to Elohim, so that you suffered no loss from us.
10 For sadness according to Elohim works repentance to deliverance, not to be regretted, but the sadness of the world works death.
11 For see how you have been saddened according to Elohim – how much it worked out in you eagerness; indeed, clearing of yourselves; indeed, displeasure; indeed, fear; indeed, longing; indeed, ardour; indeed, righting of wrong! In every way you proved yourselves to be clear in the matter.
12 So although I wrote to you, it was not for the sake of him who had done the wrong, nor for the sake of him who suffered wrong, but for the sake of revealing our diligence for you, before Elohim.
13 For this reason we have been encouraged in your encouragement. And we rejoiced exceedingly more for the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by all of you.
14 Because if I have boasted somewhat about you to him, I am not ashamed. But as we spoke to you in all truth, even so our boasting to Titus was found true.
15 And his tender feelings are greater for you as he remembers the obedience of all of you, as you received him with fear and trembling.
16 I rejoice that in every way I am of good courage by reason of you.

8 Now brothers, we make known to you the favor of Elohim which has been given in the assemblies of Makedonia:
2 that in much trial of pressure the overflowing of their joy and their deep poverty overflowed into the riches of their generosity.
3 Because I bear witness that according to their ability, and beyond their ability, they gave voluntarily, 4 begging us with much urgency for the favour of taking part in this service to the set-apart ones.
5 And, not as we had expected, they gave themselves first to the Master, and then to us by the desire of Elohim,
6 that we should urge Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also complete this kind gift in you as well.
7 But as you excel in every way – in belief, and speech, and knowledge, and all diligence, and in your love for us – that you should excel in this kind gift as well.
8 I speak not by command, but I am proving the genuineness of your love by the eagerness of others.
9 For you know the favour of our Master Messiah, that being rich, He became poor for your sake, so that you might become rich through His poverty.
10 And in this I give an opinion: It is to your advantage not only to be doing what you began and were desiring to do a year ago, 11 and now also complete the work, that as there was a readiness in desiring it, so there also should be a completion out of what you have.
12 For if the readiness is present, it is well received according to what one has, not according to what he does not have –
13 not, however, that others should be eased and you hard pressed, 14 but by fair sharing, that now at this time your plenty for their need, so that their plenty might also be for your need – that there might be fair sharing.
15 As it has been written, “He who gathered much did not have too much, and he who gathered little had not less.”
16 But thanks be to Elohim who puts the same eagerness for you into the heart of Titus.
17 Because he received the appeal, indeed, but being more eager, he went to you of his own accord.
18 And we sent with him the brother whose praise is in the Good News through all the assemblies, overflow toward you, that you, always having all you need in every way, have plenty for every good work.

9 As it has been written, “He scattered abroad, He gave to the poor, His righteousness remains forever.”

10 And He who supplies seed to the sower, and bread for food, shall supply and increase the seed you have sown and increase the fruit of your righteousness, being enriched in every way for all simplicity, which works out thanksgiving to Elohim through us.

12 Because the rendering of this service not only supplies the needs of the set-apart ones, but also is overflowing through many thanksgivings to Elohim.

13 Through the proof of this service, they esteem Elohim on the submission of your confession to the Good News of Messiah, and generosity in sharing with them and all men, 14 and by their prayer for you, who long for you because of the exceeding favour of Elohim in you.

15 Thanks also to Elohim for His unspeakable gift!

And I, Sha’ul, myself appeal to you, through the meekness and gentleness of Messiah – I who am indeed lowly when face to face with you, but bold toward you when absent!

2 But I pray, that when I am present, I might not be bold with that bravery by which I think to be bold against some who reckon us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not fight according to the flesh.

4 For the weapons we fight with are not fleshly but mighty in Elohim for overthrowing strongholds,

5 overthrowing reasonings and every high matter that exalts itself against the knowledge of Elohim, taking captive every thought to make it obedient to the Messiah,

6 and being ready to punish all disobedience, when your obedience is complete.

7 Take a look at what you are facing. If anyone seems to trust in himself that he is of Messiah, let him reckon again for himself, that as he is of Messiah, so also are we.

8 For even if I should boast somewhat more about our authority, which the Master gave us for building up, and not for overthrowing you, I shall not be put to shame,

9 lest I seem to frighten you away by letters.

10 Because they say, “His letters are truly weighty and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech amounts to naught.”

11 Let such a one take this into account, that what we are in word by letters when absent, such we are also in deed when we are present.

12 For we do not presume to count ourselves or compare ourselves with those who commend themselves. But they, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.

13 But we shall not boast beyond measure, but within the measure of the limits Elohim assigned unto us, to reach even to you.

14 For we are not overextending ourselves, as if we did not reach to you, for we also came to you with the Good News of the Messiah,

15 not boasting beyond measure in the labours of others, but having an expectation, that as your belief grows, we shall be greatly enlarged by you, according to our limits,

16 to bring the Good News in the parts beyond you – not to boast in another’s limits in what has been accomplished.

17 But “He who boasts, let him boast in Elohim.”

18 For not he who commends himself is approved, but he whom the Master commends.

I wish that you would bear with me in a little folly. But indeed, you are

In these two verses the vital necessity for obedience to יְשֵׁעַ is again stressed – see Yn. 3:36. Yirm. 9:24.
2 For I am jealous for you with a jealousy according to Elohim. For I gave you in marriage to one husband, to present you as an innocent maiden to Messiah.

3 But I am afraid, lest, as the serpent deceived Hawwah by his trickery, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Messiah.

4 For, indeed, if he who is coming proclaims another ﻋﺪةٌ, whom we have not proclaimed, or if you receive a different spirit which you have not received, or a different Good News which you have not accepted, you put up with it well enough!

5 For I reckon that I am not inferior to the most eminent emissaries.

6 But even if I am unskilled in word, yet not in knowledge. Indeed, in every way we have been manifested among you in all matters.

7 Or did I commit sin in humbling myself in order to exalt you, because I brought good news, the Good News of Elohim to you without being paid?

8 Other assemblies I robbed, by receiving wages from them to serve you.

9 And when I was present with you, and in need, I was not a burden to anyone, for what was lacking to me the brothers who came from Makedonia supplied. And in every way I kept myself – and shall keep – from being a burden to you.

10 It is a truth of Messiah in me, that this boasting in me shall not be stopped in the districts of Achaia.

11 Why? Is it that I do not love you? Elohim knows!

12 And I shall go on doing as I do, in order to cut off the occasion from those desiring an occasion, so that in that which they boast, they might be found also as we are.

13 For such are false emissaries, deceptive workers, masquerading as emissaries of Messiah.

14 And no wonder! For Satan himself masquerades as a messenger of light!

15 It is not surprising, then, if his servants also masquerade as servants of righteousness, whose end shall be according to their works!

16 Again I say, let no one think me to be a fool. And if otherwise, at least receive me as a fool, for me to also boast a little.

17 What I speak, I speak not according to the Master, but as in foolishness, in this boldness of boasting.

18 Since many boast according to the flesh, I too shall boast.

19 For you, being wise, put up with fools gladly!

20 For you put up with it if anyone enslaves you, if anyone devours you, if anyone takes from you, if anyone exalts himself, if one hits you in the face.

21 To my shame, I say that we were too weak for that! But in whatever anyone is bold – I say it in foolishness – I am bold also.

22 Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Yisra’elites? So am I. Are they the seed of Araham? So am I.

23 Are they servants of Messiah? – I speak as beside myself – I am more, in labours much more, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequently, in deaths many times.

24 Five times I received from the YehuÅim forty stripes less one.

25 Three times I was beaten with rods, once I was stoned, three times I was shipwrecked, a night and a day I have been in the deep,

26 in many travels, in dangers of waters, in dangers of robbers, in dangers from my own race, in dangers from the gentiles, in dangers in the city, in dangers in the desert, in dangers in the sea, in dangers among false brothers;

27 in toil and hardship, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness,

28 besides the matters from outside, what comes upon me daily: the anxiety for all the assemblies.

29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is made to stumble, and I do not burn inwardly?

30 If I have to boast, I shall boast of matters that show up my weakness.

31 The Elohim and Father of our Master Messiah, who is blessed forever, knows that I am not lying.

32 In Damascus the governor, under Aretas the sovereign, was guarding the city of the Damascenes, wishing to seize me, 33 but through a window I was let down in a basket by the wall, and escaped from his hands.

12 To boast, indeed, is useless for me, for I shall go on to visions and revelations of Elohim.

2 I know a man in Messiah who fourteen years ago – whether in the body I do not know, or whether out of the body I do not know, Elohim knows – such a one was caught up to the third heaven.

3 And I know such a man – whether in the body or out of the body I do not know, Elohim knows –

4 that he was caught up into Paradise and heard unspeakable words, which it is not right for a man to speak.

5 Of such a one I shall boast, but of myself I shall not boast, except in my weaknesses.

6 For if I shall wish to boast, I shall not be a fool, for I shall speak the truth. But I refrain, lest anyone should think more of me than what he sees in me, or hears of me.

7 And to keep me from exalting myself because of the exceeding greatness of the revelations, a thorn in the flesh was given to me, a messenger of Satan to hit me, to keep me from exalting myself.

8 Concerning this I pleaded with the Master three times to take it away from me.

9 And He said to me, “My favour is sufficient for you, for My power is perfected in weakness.” Most gladly, then, I shall rather boast in my weaknesses, so that the power of Messiah rests on me.

10 Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in insults, in needs, in persecutions, in distresses, for the sake of Messiah. For when I am weak, then I am strong.

11 I have become a fool – you have compelled me. For I should have been commanded by you, for in no respect was I behind the most eminent emissaries, though I am a nobody.

12 Indeed, the signs of an emissary were wrought among you with all endurance, in signs and wonders and powers.

13 For what is there in which you were inferior to other assemblies, except that I myself was not a burden to you? Forgive me this wrong!

14 See, I am ready to come to you for the third time. And I shall not be a burden to you, for I do not seek yours, but you. For the children should not lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.

15 And I shall most gladly spend and be spent for your lives. If I love you more and more, am I to be loved less?

16 But be it so, I did not burden you. But being crafty, did I catch you with guile?

17 Did I take advantage of you by any of those whom I sent to you?

18 I urged Titus, and sent our brother with him. Did Titus take advantage of you? Did we not walk in the same spirit – not in the same steps?

19 Again, do you think that we defend ourselves to you? We speak before Elohim in Messiah. But all this, beloved, is for your upbuilding.

20 For I fear lest, when I come, I do not find you such as I wish, and I be found by you such as you do not wish – lest there be strife, jealousies, outbursts of wrath, selfish ambitions, slander, gossip, puffings up, unrests, 21 and lest, when I come again, my Elohim should humble me among you, and I shall mourn for many who have sinned before and have not repented of the uncleanness, and whoring, and indecency which they have practised.

13 This is the third time I am coming to you. “By the mouth of two or three witnesses every word shall be established.”

2 I have previously said, and I say beforehand, as being present the second time, and now being absent I write to those who have sinned before, and to all the rest, that if I come again I shall not spare,

3 since you are seeking for proof of Messiah speaking in me, who is not weak toward you, but mighty in you.

4 For though He was impaled in weakness, yet He lives by the power of Elohim. For we also are weak in Him, but we shall live with Him by the power of Elohim toward you.

5 Examine yourselves whether you are in the belief – prove yourselves. Or do you not know yourselves, that Messiah is in you, unless you are disapproved.

6 And I trust that you shall know that we are not disapproved.

7 And we pray to Elohim that you do no evil at all – not that we should appear approved, but that you should do what is right, even though we should appear unapproved.

8 For we have no power at all against the truth, but for the truth.

9 For we rejoice when we are weak and you are strong. And this also we pray for: your perfection.

10 For this reason I write this in my absence, so that, being present I should not use sharpness, according to the authority which the Master has given me for upbuilding and not for overthrowing.

11 For the rest, brothers, rejoice. Be made perfect, be encouraged, be of one mind, live in peace. And the Elohim of love and peace shall be with you.

12 Greet one another with a set-apart kiss.

13 All the set-apart ones greet you.

14 The favour of the Master Messiah, and the love of Elohim, and the fellowship of the Set-apart Spirit be with all of you. Amên.

i See v. 9, Mt. 5:48.
Sha‘ul, an emissary – not from men, nor by a man, but by aSWHY Messiah and Elohim the Father who raised Him from the dead – and all the brothers who are with me, to the assemblies of Galatia:

Favour to you and peace from Elohim the Father and our Master aSWHY Messiah, who gave Himself for our sins, to deliver us out of this present wicked age, according to the desire of our Elohim and Father, to whom be the praise forever and ever. Amên.

I marvel that you are so readily turning away from Him who called you in the favour of Messiah, to a different ‘Good News,’ which is not another, only there are some who are troubling you and wishing to pervert the Good News of Messiah.

However, even if we, or a messenger out of heaven, bring a ‘Good News’ to you beside what we announced to you, let him be accursed.

As we have said before, and now I say again, if anyone brings a ‘Good News’ to you beside what you have received, let him be accursed.

For do I now persuade men, or Elohim? Or do I seek to please men? For if I still pleased men, I should not be a servant of Messiah.

And I make known to you, brothers, that the Good News announced by me is not according to man.

For I did not receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but through a revelation of aSWHY Messiah.

For you have heard of my former way of life in YehuÅaism, how intensely I persecuted the assembly of Elohim, and ravaged it.

And I progressed in YehuÅaism beyond many of my age in my race, being more exceedingly ardent for the traditions of my fathers.

But when it pleased Elohim, who separated me from my mother’s womb and called me by His favour, to reveal His Son in me, that I might bring Him, the Good News, to the gentiles, I did not immediately consult with flesh and blood, neither did I go up to Yerushalayim, to those who were emissaries before me. But I went to Arabia, and returned again to Damascus.

Then after three years I went up to Yerushalayim to learn from KÃpha, and remained with him for fifteen days.

And I saw no other of the emissaries except Ya‘aqob, the brother of the Master.

And what I write to you, see, before Elohim, I do not lie.

Then I went into the districts of Syria and of Kilikia.

And I was still not known by sight to the assemblies of YehuÅah which were in Messiah, but they were hearing only that, “The one who once persecuted us now brings as Good News the belief which he once ravaged.”

So they were esteeming Elohim in me.

Then after fourteen years I again went up to Yerushalayim, with Barnabah, taking Titus along too.

And I went up by revelation, and laid before them that Good News which I proclaim among the gentiles, but separately to those who were esteemed, lest somehow I run, or had run, in vain.

But not even Titus who was with me, though a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised.

But as for the false brothers, sneakingly... brought in, who sneaked in to spy out our freedom which we have in Messiah in order to enslave us,

5 to these we did not yield in subjection, not even for an hour, so that the truth of the Good News remains with you.

6 But from those who were esteemed to be whatever – what they were, it makes no difference to me, Elohim shows no partiality – for those who were esteemed contributed naught to me.

7 But on the contrary, when they saw that the Good News to the uncircumcised had been entrusted to me, even as Kêpha to the circumcised –

8 for He who worked in Kêpha to make him an emissary to the circumcised also worked in me for the gentiles.

9 So when Ya’aqôb, Kêpha, and Yoḥannée, who seemed to be supports, came to know the favour that had been given to me, they gave me and Barnâhah the right hand of fellowship, in order that we go to the gentiles and they to the circumcised,

10 only that we might remember the poor, which I myself was eager to do.

11 And when Kêpha had come to Antioch, I withstood him to his face, because he was at fault.

12 For before some came from Ya’aqôb, he was eating with the gentiles, but when they came, he began to withdraw and separate himself, in fear of those of the circumcision.

13 And the rest of the Yehûdîm joined him in hypocrisy, so that even Barnâhah was led away by their hypocrisy.

14 But when I saw that they are not walking straight according to the truth of the Good News, I said to Kêpha before them all, “If you, being a Yehûdite, live as a gentle and not as the Yehûdîm, why do you compel gentiles to live as Yehûdîm?

15“We, Yehûdîm by nature, and not of the gentiles, sinners,

16 knowing that a man is not declared right by works of Torah, but through belief in Messiah, even we have believed in Messiah, in order to be declared right by belief in Messiah and not by works of Torah, because by works of Torah no flesh shall be declared right.

17“And if, while seeking to be declared right by Messiah, we ourselves also are found sinners, is Messiah then a servant of sin? Let it not be!

18“For if I rebuild what I once overthrew, I establish myself a transgressor.

19“For through Torah I died to Torah, in order to live to Elohim.

20“I have been impaled with Messiah, and I no longer live, but Messiah lives in me. And that which I now live in the flesh I live by belief in the Son of Elohim, who loved me and gave Himself for me.

21“I do not set aside the favour of Elohim, for if righteousness is through Torah, then Messiah died for naught.”

3 O senseless Galatians! Who has put you under a spell, not to obey the truth – before whose eyes Messiah was clearly portrayed among you as impaled?

2 This only I wish to learn from you: Did you receive the Spirit by works of Torah, or by the hearing of belief?

3 Are you so senseless? Having begun in the Spirit, do you now end in the flesh?

4 Have you suffered so much in vain – if indeed in vain?

5 Is He, then, who is supplying the Spirit to you and working miracles among you, doing it by works of Torah, or by hearing of belief?

6 Even so Abraham “did believe Elohim, and it was reckoned unto him as righteousness.”

7 Know, then, that those who are of belief are sons of Abraham.

8 And the Scripture, having foreseen that Elohim would declare right the nations by belief, announced the Good News to Abraham beforehand, saying, “All the nations shall be blessed in you,”

9 so that those who are of belief are blessed with Abraham, the believer.

10 For as many as are of works of Torah are under the curse, for it has been written,

1 See Rom. 7. b Rom. 8:10, 2 Cor. 6:16, 2 Cor. 13:5, Eph. 3:17, Col. 1:27, 1 Yn. 4:4.
“Cursed is everyone who does not continue in all that has been written in the book of the Torah, to do them.”

11 And that no one is declared right by Torah before Elohim is clear, for “The righteous shall live by belief.”

12 And the Torah is not of belief, but “The man who does them shall live by them.”

13 Messiah redeemed us from the curse of the Torah, having become a curse for us—for it has been written, “Cursed is everyone who hangs upon a tree.”

14 in order that the blessing of Abraham might come upon the nations in Messiah, to receive the promise of the Spirit through belief.

15 Brothers, as a man I say it: a covenant, even though it is man’s, yet if it is confirmed, no one sets it aside, or adds to it.

16 But the promises were spoken to Abraham, and to his Seed. He does not say, “And to seeds,” as of many, but as of one, “And to your Seed,” who is Messiah.

17 Now this I say, Torah, that came four hundred and thirty years later, does not annul a covenant previously confirmed by Elohim in Messiah, so as to do away with the promise.

18 For if the inheritance is by Torah, it is no longer by promise, but Elohim gave it to Abraham through a promise.

19 Why, then, the Torah? It was added because of transgressions, until the Seed should come to whom the promise was made. And it was ordained through messengers in the hand of a mediator.

20 The Mediator, however, is not of one, but Elohim is one.

21 Is the Torah then against the promises of Elohim? Let it not be! For if a law had been given that was able to make alive, truly righteousness would have been by Torah.

22 But the Scripture has shut up all mankind under sin, that the promise by belief in Messiah might be given to those who believe.

23 But before belief came, we were being guarded under Torah, having been shut up for the belief being about to be revealed.

24 Therefore the Torah became our trainer unto Messiah, in order to be declared right by belief.

25 And after belief has come, we are no longer under a trainer.

26 For you are all sons of Elohim through belief in Messiah.

27 For as many of you as were immersed into Messiah have put on Messiah.

28 There is not Yehudite nor Greek, there is not slave nor free, there is not male and female, for you are all one in Messiah.

29 And if you are of Messiah, then you are seed of Abraham, and heirs according to promise.

And I say, for as long as the heir is a child, he is no different from a slave, though he is master of all, but is under guardians and trustees till the time prearranged by the father.

So we also, when we were children, were under the elementary matters of the world, being enslaved.

But when the completion of the time came, Elohim sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under Torah, to redeem those who were under Torah, in order to receive the adoption as sons.

And because you are sons, Elohim has sent forth the Spirit of His Son into your hearts, crying, “Abba, Father!”

So you are no longer a slave but a son, and if a son, also an heir of Elohim through Messiah.

But then, indeed, not knowing Elohim, you served those which by nature are not mighty ones.

But now after you have known Elohim, or rather are known by Elohim, how do you turn again to the weak and poor elementary matters, to which you wish to be enslaved again?

You observe days and months and seasons and years.

1 DeÑ.21:23.  c See v.3, Col. 2:8 & 20 – Sha’ul was speaking to ex-gentiles, who previously served other mighty ones and were in bondage to the sins and weak and poor elementary matters of the gentiles.  d Gentile practices.
I fear for you, lest by any means I have laboured for you in vain.

Brothers, I beg you to become as I am, because I am as you are. You did not wrong me at all.

But you know that through weakness of the flesh I brought the Good News to you before.

And my trial which was in my flesh you did not despise or reject, but you received me as a messenger of Elohim, as Messiah הוהי.

What then was your blessedness? For I bear you witness, that if possible, you would have plucked out your own eyes and given them to me.

So then, have I become your enemy, speaking truth to you?

They are ardent towards you, for no good, but they wish to shut you out, that you might be ardent towards them.

And it is good always to be ardent in what is good, and not only when I am present with you.

My little children, for whom I am again in birth pains until Messiah is formed in you, even now I wish to be present with you now and to change my voice, for I have doubts about you.

Say to me, you who wish to be under Torah, do you not hear the Torah?

For it has been written that Abraam had two sons, one by a female servant, the other by a free woman.

But he who was of the female servant was born according to the flesh, and he of the free woman through promise.

This is allegorical, for these are the two covenants: one indeed from Mount Sinai which brings forth slavery, which is Hagar, for this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and corresponds to Yerushalayim which now is, and is in slavery with her children.

But the Yerushalayim above is free, which is the mother of us all.

For it has been written, “Rejoice, O barren, you who do not bear! Break forth and shout, you who do not have birth pains! For the deserted one has many more children than she who has a husband.”

And we, brothers, as Yitsaq was, are children of promise.

But, as he who was born according to the flesh then persecuted him born according to the Spirit, so also now.

But what does the Scripture say? “Cast out the female servant and her son, for the son of the female servant shall by no means be heir with the son of the free woman.”

Therefore, brothers, we are not children of the female servant but of the free woman.

In the freedom with which Messiah has made us free, stand firm, then, and do not again be held with a yoke of slavery.

See, I, Sha’ul, say to you that if you become circumcised, Messiah shall be of no use to you.

And I witness again to every man being circumcised that he is a debtor to do the entire Torah.

You who are declared right by Torah have severed yourselves from Messiah, you have fallen from favour.

For we, in Spirit, by belief, eagerly wait for the expectation of righteousness.

For in Messiah הוהי neither circumcision nor uncircumcision has any strength, but belief working through love.

That persuasion does not come from Him who calls you.

A little leaven leavens all the lump.

I trust in you, in the Master, that you shall have no other mind. And he who is troubling you shall bear his judgment, whoever he is.

And I, brothers, if I still proclaim circumcision, why am I still persecuted? Then the stumbling-block of the stake has been set aside.

O that those who disturb you would even cut themselves off!

For you, brothers, have been called to freedom, only do not use freedom as an occasion for the flesh, but through love serve one another.
For the entire Torah is completed in one word, in this, “You shall love your neighbour as yourself.”

And if you bite and devour one another, beware lest you be consumed by one another!

And I say: Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not accomplish the lust of the flesh.

For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh. And these are opposed to each other, so that you do not do what you desire to do.

But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under Torah.

And the works of the flesh are well-known, which are these: adultery, whoring, uncleanness, indecency, idolatry, drug sorcery, hatred, quarrels, jealousies, fits of rage, selfish ambitions, dissensions, factions, envy, murders, drunkenness, wild parties, and the like – of which I forewarn you, even as I also said before, that those who practise such as these shall not inherit the reign of Elohim.

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, trustworthiness, gentleness, self-control. Against such there is no Torah.

And those who are of Messiah have impaled the flesh with its passions and the desires.

If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.

Let us not become conceited, provoking one another, envying one another.

Brothers, if a man is overtaken in some trespass, you the spiritual ones, set such a one straight in a spirit of meekness, looking at yourself lest you be tried too.

Bear one another’s burdens, and so complete the Torah of Messiah.

For if anyone thinks himself to be somebody, when he is not, he deceives himself.

But let each one examine his own work, and then he shall have boasting in himself alone, and not in another.

For each one shall bear his own burden.

And let him who is instructed in the Word share in all that is good, with him who is instructing.

Do not be led astray: Elohim is not mocked, for whatever a man sows, that he shall also reap.

Because he who sows to his own flesh shall reap corruption from the flesh, but he who sows to the Spirit shall reap everlasting life from the Spirit.

And let us not lose heart in doing good, for in due season we shall reap if we do not grow weary.

So then, as we have occasion, let us do good to all, especially to those who are of the household of the belief.

See with what big letters I have written to you with my own hand!

As many as wish to make a good show in the flesh, these compel you to be circumcised, only so that they should not be persecuted for the stake of Messiah.

For those who are circumcised do not even watch over the Torah, but they wish to have you circumcised so that they might boast in your flesh.

And for me, let it not be that I should boast except in the stake of our Master Messiah, through whom the world has been impaled to me, and I to the world.

For in Messiah neither circumcision nor uncircumcision has any strength, but a renewed creature.

And as many as walk according to this rule, peace and compassion be upon them, and upon the Yisra’êl of Elohim.

From now on let no one trouble me, for I bear in my body the scars of the Master Messiah.

The favour of our Master Messiah be with your spirit, brothers. Amên.
Sha’ul, an emissary of Messiah by the desire of Elohim, to the set-apart ones who are in Ephesos, and true to Messiah:

1 Favour to you and peace from Elohim our Father and the Master Messiah.

2 Blessed be the Elohim and Father of our Master Messiah, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenlies in Messiah,

3 even as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be set-apart and blameless before Him in love,

4 having previously ordained us to adoption as sons through Messiah to Himself, according to the good pleasure of His desire,

5 to the praise of the esteem of His favour with which He favoured us in the Beloved,

6 in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of trespasses, according to the riches of His favour,

7 which He has lavished on us in all wisdom and insight,

8 having made known to us the secret of His desire, according to His good pleasure which He purposed in Him,

9 to administer at the completion of time, to gather together in one all in Messiah, both which are in the heavens and which are on earth, in Him,

10 in whom also we did obtain an inheritance, being previously ordained according to the purpose of Him working all matters according to the counsel of His desire,

11 for us to be the praise of His esteem – those having first trusted in Messiah,

12 in whom you also, having heard the word of the truth, the Good News of your deliverance, in whom also, having believed, you were sealed with the Set-apart Spirit of promise, 13 who is the pledge of our inheritance, until the redemption of the purchased possession, to the praise of His esteem.

14 For this reason I too, having heard of your belief in the Master Messiah and your love for all the set-apart ones,

15 do not cease giving thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers,

16 that the Elohim of our Master Messiah, the Father of esteem, would give you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him,

17 the eyes of your understanding being enlightened, so that you know what is the expectation of His calling, and what are the riches of the esteem of His inheritance in the set-apart ones,

18 and what is the exceeding greatness of His power toward us who are believing, according to the working of His mighty strength,

19 which He wrought in the Messiah when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenlies, 20 far above all rule and authority and power and mastery, and every name that is named, not only in this age but also in that which is to come.

21 And He put all under His feet, and gave Him to be head over all, to the assembly, 22 which is His body, the completeness of Him who fills all in all.

And you were dead in trespasses and sins,

2 in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to the ruler of the authority of the air, of the spirit that is now working in the sons of disobedience, a He chose us in Messiah “that we should be set-apart and blameless before Him in love” – which is the purpose of His election! See also 2 Thess. 2:13.

b This term is used synonymously with “the Good News.” Lk. 24:45.

c Eph. 5:6, Col. 3:6.

If someone still sins, he is Spiritually “dead” – see also v.5 and 5:14, as well as Mt. 8:22, Rom. 8:6, Col. 2:13, 1 Tim. 5:6, 1 Yn. 3:14, Rev. 3:1.
3 among whom also we all once lived in the lusts of our flesh, doing the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, as also the rest.

4 But Elohim, who is rich in compassion, because of His great love with which He loved us,

5 even when we were dead in trespasses, made us alive together with Messiah – by favour you have been saved –

6 and raised us up together, and made us sit together in the heavenlies in Messiah יישוֹ�וּ,

7 in order to show in the coming ages the exceeding riches of His favour in kindness toward us in Messiah יישוֹ�וּ.

8 For by favour you have been saved, through belief, and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of Elohim, 9 it is not by works, so that no one should boast.

10 For we are His workmanship, created in Messiah יישוֹ�וּ unto good works, which Elohim prepared beforehand that we should walk in them.

11 Therefore remember that you, once gentiles ג in the flesh, who are called ‘the uncircumcision’ by what is called ‘the circumcision’ made in the flesh by hands, 12 that at that time you were without Messiah, excluded from the citizenship of Yisra’el and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no expectation and without Elohim in the world.

13 But now in Messiah יישוֹ�וּ you who once were far off have been brought near by the blood of the Messiah.

14 For He is our peace, who has made both one, and having broken down the partition of the barrier,

15 having abolished in His flesh the enmity – the Torah of the commands in dogma – so as to create in Himself one renewed man from the two, thus making peace,

16 and to completely restore to favour both of them unto Elohim in one body through the stake, having destroyed the enmity by it.

17 And having come, He brought as Good News peace to you who were far off, and peace to those near.

18 Because through Him we both have access to the Father by one Spirit.

19 So then you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the set-apart ones and members of the household of Elohim, י

20 having been built upon the foundation of the emissaries and prophets, יישוֹ�וּ Messiah Himself being chief corner-stone,

21 in whom all the building, being joined together, grows into a set-apart Dwelling Place in יישוֹ�וּ, 22 in whom you also are being built together into a dwelling of Elohim in the Spirit.

Because of this I, Sha’ul, am the prisoner of יישוֹ�וּ Messiah on behalf of you gentiles –

2 if indeed you have heard of the administration of the favour of Elohim that was given to me for you,

3 that by revelation was made known to me the secret, as I wrote before briefly.

4 In reading this, then, you are able to understand my insight into the secret of Messiah,

5 which was not made known to the sons of men in other generations, as it has now been revealed by the Spirit to His set-apart emissaries and prophets:

6 The gentiles to be co-heirs, united in the same body, and partakers together י in the promise in Messiah through the Good News,

7 of which I became a servant according to the gift of the favour of Elohim given to me, according to the working of His power.

8 To me, the very least of all the set-apart ones, this favour was given, to bring the Good News of the unsearchable riches of Messiah among the gentiles,

 pudo

We are saved by favour, through belief, unto good works – to bear the fruits worthy of repentance, the fruit of righteousness!

g See 1 Cor. 12:2 and its footnote.

h The enmity has been done away with – not the commands of יישוֹ�וּ!

9 and to make all see how this secret is administered, which for ages past has been hidden in Elohim who created all through מESSIAH, k
10 so that now, through the assembly, the many-sided wisdom of Elohim might be known to the principalities and authorities in the heavens, according to the everlasting purpose which He made in Messiah our Master, 11 in whom we have boldness and access, with reliance, through belief in Him.
12 I pray therefore, that you do not lose heart at my pressures on your behalf, which is your esteem.
13 For this reason I bow my knees to the Father of our Master מESSIAH, l
14 from whom all fatherhood m in the heavens and earth is named, m
15 in order that He might give you, according to the riches of His esteem by power, to be strengthened in the inner man, through His Spirit,
16 that the Messiah might dwell in your hearts n through belief – having become rooted and grounded in love,
17 in order that you might be strengthened to firmly grasp, with all the set-apart ones, what is the width and length and depth and height,
18 to know the love of Messiah which surpasses knowledge, in order that you might be filled to all the completeness of Elohim.
19 And to Him who is able to do exceedingly above what we ask or think, according to the power that is working in us,
20 to Him be esteem in the assembly by Messiah מESSIAH unto all generations, for ever and ever. Amèn.

4 I call upon you therefore, I the prisoner of the Master, to walk worthily of the calling with which you were called,
2 with all humility and meekness, with patience, bearing with one another in love,
3 being eager to guard the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace –
4 one body and one Spirit, as you also were called in one expectation of your calling,
5 one Master, one belief, one immersion,
6 one Elohim and Father of all, who is above all, o and through all, and in you all.
7 But to each one of us favour was given according to the measure of the gift of Messiah.
8 That is why it says, “When He went up on high, He led captivity captive, and gave gifts to men.”
9 But what does “He went up” mean, except that He also first went down into the lower parts of the earth?
10 He who went down is also the One who went up far above all the heavens, to fill all.
11 And He Himself gave some as emissaries, and some as prophets, and some as evangelists, and some as shepherds and teachers
12 for the perfecting of the set-apart ones, to the work of service to a building up of the body of the Messiah,
13 until we all come to the unity of the belief and of the knowledge of the Son of Elohim, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the completeness of Messiah,
14 so that we should no longer be children, tossed and borne about by every wind of teaching, by the trickery of men, in cleverness, unto the craftiness of leading astray, p
15 but, maintaining the truth in love, we grow up in all respects into Him who is the head, Messiah, 16 from whom the entire body, joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, according to the working by which each part does its share, causes growth of the body for the building up of itself in love.
17 So this I say, and witness in the Master, that you should no longer walk as the gentiles walk, q in the futility of their mind, 18 having been darkened in their understanding, having been estranged from the life of Elohim, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardness of their heart, 19 who, having become callous, have given themselves up to indecency, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 But you have not so learned Messiah,

21 if indeed you have heard Him and were taught by Him, as truth is in:

22 that you put off – with regard to your former way of life – the old man, being corrupted according to the desires of the deceit,

23 and to be renewed in the spirit of your mind,

24 and that you put on the renewed man r which was created according to Elohim, in righteousness and set-apartness of the truth.

25 Therefore, having put off the false, speak truth, each one with his neighbour, for we are members of one another.

26 “Be wroth, but do not sin.” Do not let the sun go down on your rage, 27 nor give place to the devil.

28 Let him who stole steal no more, but rather let him labour, working with his hands what is good, so that he has somewhat to share with those in need.

29 Let no corrupt word come out of your mouth, but only such as is good for the use of building up, so as to impart what is pleasant to the hearers.

30 And do not grieve the Set-apart Spirit of Elohim, by whom you were sealed for the day of redemption.

31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and displeasure, and uproar, and slander be put away from you, along with all evil.

32 And be kind towards one another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, as Elohim also forgave you in Messiah.

5 Become, then, imitators of Elohim as beloved children.

2 And walk in love, as Messiah also has loved us, and gave Himself for us, a gift and an offering to Elohim for a sweet-smelling fragrance.

3 But whoring and all uncleanness, or greed of gain, let it not even be named among you, as is proper among set-apart ones –

4 neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor coarse jesting, which are not fitting, but rather thanksgiving.

5 For this you know, that no one who whores, nor unclean one, nor one greedy of gain, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the reign of Messiah and Elohim.

6 Let no one deceive you with empty words, s for because of these the wrath of Elohim comes upon the sons of disobedience.

7 Therefore do not become partakers with them.

8 For you were once darkness, t but now you are light in the Master. Walk as children of light –

9 for the fruit of the Spirit u is in all goodness, and righteousness, and truth –

10 proving what is well-pleasing to the Master.

11 And have no fellowship with the fruitless works of darkness, but rather reprove v them.

12 For it is a shame even to speak of what is done by them in secret.

13 But all matters being reproved w are manifested by the light, for whatever is manifested is light.

14 That is why He says, “Wake up, you who sleep, and arise from the dead, and Messiah shall shine on you.”

15 See then that you walk exactly, not as unwise, but as wise,

16 redeeming the time, because the days are wicked.

17 So then do not be foolish, but understand what the desire of HWHY is.

18 And do not be drunk with wine, in which is loose behaviour, but be filled with the Spirit,

19 speaking to each other in psalms and songs of praise and spiritual songs, singing and striking the strings in your heart to the Master, giving thanks always for all to Elohim the Father, in the Name of our Master Messiah, subjecting yourselves to each other in the fear of Elohim.

Wives, subject yourselves to your own husbands, as to the Master.

Because the husband is head of the wife, as also the Messiah is head of the assembly, and He is Saviour of the body.

But as the assembly is subject to Messiah, so also let the wives be to their own husbands in every respect.

Husbands, love your wives, as Messiah also did love the assembly and gave Himself for it, in order to set it apart and cleanse it with the washing of water by the Word, in order to present it to Himself a splendid assembly, not having spot or wrinkle or any of this sort, but that it might be set-apart and blameless.

In this way husbands ought to love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his wife loves himself.

For no one ever hated his own flesh, but feeds and cherishes it, as also the Master does the assembly.

Because we are members of His body, of His flesh and of His bones.

“For this cause a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh.”

This secret is great, but I speak concerning Messiah and the assembly.

However, you too, everyone, let each one love his own wife as himself, and let the wife see that she fears her husband.

Children, obey your parents in the Master, for this is right.

“Respect your father and mother,” which is the first command with promise, in order that it might be well with you, and you might live long on the earth.”

And you, fathers, do not provoke your children, but bring them up in the instruction and admonition of the Master.

Servants, obey your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in sincerity of heart, as to Messiah;

not with eye-service as men-pleasers, but as servants of Messiah, doing the desire of Elohim from the inner self, rendering service with pleasure, as to the Master, and not to men, knowing that whatever good anyone does, he shall receive the same from the Master, whether he is slave or free.

And, masters, do the same to them, refrain from threatening, knowing that your own Master also is in the heavens, and there is no partiality with Him.

For the rest, my brothers, be strong in the Master and in the mightiness of His strength.

Put on the complete armour of Elohim, for you to have power to stand against the schemes of the devil.

Because we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against authorities, against the world-rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual matters of wickedness in the heavenlies.

Because of this, take up the complete armour of Elohim, so that you have power to withstand in the wicked day, and having done all, to stand.

Stand, then, having girded your waist with truth, and having put on the breast-plate of righteousness, and having fitted your feet with the preparation of the Good News of peace;

above all, having taken up the shield of belief with which you shall have power to quench all the burning arrows of the wicked one.

Take also the helmet of deliverance, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of Elohim, praying at all times, with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, watching in all perseverance and supplication for all the set-apart ones;

See Shem. 20:20.  Rev. 19:8-9.  This is what the purpose of our calling is, why we have been chosen!

also for me, that a word might be given to me in the opening of my mouth, to be bold in making known the secret of the Good News, for which I am an envoy in chains, that in it I might speak boldly, as I should speak.

Now, in order that you also might know about me, how I am doing, Tuchikos, a beloved brother and trustworthy servant in the Master, shall make all matters known to you, whom I did send to you for this same purpose, so that you know about us, and might encourage your hearts.

Peace to the brothers, and love, with belief, from Elohim the Father and the Master Yeshua Messiah.

Favour be with all those who love our Master Yeshua Messiah, undecayingly! Amèn.
Sha’ul and Timothy, servants of Messiah, to all the set-apart ones in Messiah who are in Philippi, with the overseers and attendants:

Favour to you and peace from Elohim our Father and the Master Messiah.

I thank my Elohim in all my remembrance of you.

In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy, for your fellowship in the Good News from the first day until now, being persuaded of this, that He who has begun a good work in you shall perfect it until the day of Messiah.

It is right for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart, all of you being sharers of the favour with me, both in my chains and in the defence and confirmation of the Good News.

For Elohim is my witness, how I long for you all with the affection of Messiah.

And this I pray, that your love might extend more and more in knowledge and all discernment, for you to examine the matters that differ, in order to be sincere, and not stumbling, until the day of Messiah, being filled with the fruit of righteousness, through Messiah, to the esteem and praise of Elohim.

And I wish you to know, brothers, that what has befallen me has turned out for the advancement of the Good News, so that it has become known to all the palace guard, and to all the rest, that my chains are in Messiah;

and most of the brothers, trusting in the Master because of my chains, are much more bold to fearlessly speak the word.

Some indeed proclaim Messiah even from envy and strife, but some also out of pleasure—the former announce Messiah from selfish ambition, not sincerely, thinking to add distress to my chains, but the latter out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defence of the Good News.

What then? Only that in every way, whether in pretence or in truth, Messiah is announced. And in this I rejoice, in fact, I shall rejoice.

For I know that this shall turn out for my deliverance through your prayer and the supply of the Spirit of Messiah, according to my intense longing and anticipation that I shall not be ashamed at all, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Messiah shall be made great in my body, whether by life or by death.

For to me, to live is Messiah, and to die is gain.

And if to live in the flesh is to me a fruit of work, then what shall I choose? I do not know.

For I am pressed down by the two, having a desire to depart and be with Messiah, which is much better, but to remain in the flesh is more necessary for your sake.

And being persuaded of this, I know that I shall stay and continue with you all, for your progress and joy of belief, so that your boasting might overflow in Messiah on account of me, through my coming to you again.

Only, behave yourselves worthily of the Good News of Messiah, in order that whether I come and see you or am absent, I hear about you, that you stand fast in one spirit, with one being, striving together for the belief of the Good News, without being frightened in any way by those who oppose, which to them truly is a proof of destruction, but to you of deliverance, and that from Elohim.

29 Because to you it has been given as a favour, on behalf of Messiah, not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer for His sake, 30 having the same struggle which you saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

2 If, then, there is any encouragement in Messiah, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of Spirit, if any affection and compassion,

2 make my joy complete by being of the same mind, having the same love, one in being and of purpose,

3 doing none at all through selfishness or self-conceit, but in humility consider others better than yourselves.

4 Each one should look out not only for his own interests, but also for the interests of others.

5 For, let this mind be in you which was also in Messiah יהושע, who, being in the form of Elohim, did not regard equality with Elohim a matter to be grasped,

7 but emptied Himself, taking the form of a servant, and came to be in the likeness of men.

8 And having been found in fashion as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient unto death, death even of a stake.

9 Elohim, therefore, has highly exalted Him and given Him the Name יהושע which is above every name,

10 that at the Name of יהושע every knee should bow, of those in heaven, and of those on earth, and of those under the earth,

11 and every tongue should confess that יהושע Messiah is Master, to the esteem of Elohim the Father.

12 So that, my beloved, as you always obeyed – not only in my presence, but now much rather in my absence – work out your own deliverance with fear and trembling,

13 for it is Elohim who is working in you both to desire and to work for His good pleasure.

14 Do all matters without grumblings and disputings,

15 in order that you be blameless and faultless, children of Elohim without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you shine as lights in the world,

16 holding on to the Word of life, for a boast to me in the day of Messiah, that I have not run in vain or laboured in vain.

17 In fact, even if I am being poured out as a drink offering on the offering and service of your belief, I am glad and rejoice with you all.

18 So you too should be glad and rejoice with me.

19 But I trust in the Master יהושע to send Timothy to you shortly, so that I too am encouraged by news from you.

20 For I have no one else of the same mind, who takes a genuine interest in your welfare.

21 For all seek their own interests, not those of Messiah יהושע.

22 But you know he has proven himself, that as a son with his father he served with me for the Good News.

23 So I expect to send him as soon as I see how it goes with me, 24 and I trust in the Master that I myself shall also come shortly.

25 But I thought it necessary to send to you Epaphroditos, my brother, fellow worker, and fellow soldier, and your emissary and servant to my need,

26 since he was longing for you all, and being troubled because you had heard that he was sick.

27 For indeed he was sick, near to death, but Elohim had compassion on him, and not only on him but on me as well, lest I should have sadness upon sadness.

28 Therefore I sent him more eagerly, so that on seeing him again you might rejoice, and I be less sad.

29 Receive him therefore in the Master with all joy, and hold such as he in esteem,

\[c\] Note the definite article: the Name, not a Name.  \[d\] See Messiah in you in Explanatory Notes at the back.
because for the work of Messiah he was near death, risking his life, to fill up what was lacking in your service toward me.

For the rest, my brothers, rejoice in HWHY. To write the same matters to you is truly no trouble to me, and for you it is safe.

Look out for dogs, look out for the evil workers, look out for the mutilation!

For we are the circumcision, who are serving Elohim in the Spirit, and boasting in Messiah יהושע, and do not trust in the flesh, though I too might have trust in the flesh. If anyone else thinks to trust in the flesh, I more – circumcised the eighth day, of the race of Yisra’ël, of the tribe of Binyamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews, according to Torah a Pharisee, according to ardour, persecuting the assembly; according to righteousness that is in the law, having become blameless.

But what might have been a gain to me, I have counted as loss, because of Messiah.

What is more, I even count all to be loss because of the excellence of the knowledge of Messiah יהושע my Master, for whom I have suffered the loss of all, and count them as refuse, in order to gain Messiah, and be found in Him, not having my own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through belief in Messiah, the righteousness which is from Elohim on the basis of belief, to know Him, and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death, if somehow I might attain to the resurrection from the dead.

Not that I have already received, or already been perfected, but I press on, to lay hold of that for which Messiah יהושע has also laid hold of me.

Brothers, I do not count myself to have laid hold of it yet, but only this: forgetting what is behind and reaching out for what lies ahead,

I press on toward the goal for the prize of the high calling of Elohim in Messiah יהושע.

As many, then, as are perfect, should have this mind. And if you think differently in any respect, Elohim shall also reveal this to you.

But to what we have already attained – walk by the same rule, be of the same mind.

Become joint imitators of me, brothers, and observe those who so walk, as you have us for a pattern.

For many – of whom I have often told you, and now say to you even weeping – walk as enemies of the stake of Messiah.

Their end is destruction, their mighty one is their stomach, and their esteem is in their shame – they mind the earthly.

For our citizenship is in the heavens, from which we also eagerly wait for the Saviour, the Master יהושע Messiah, who shall change our lowly body, to be conformed to His esteemed body, according to the working by which He is able even to bring all under His control.

So then, my brothers, beloved and longed-for, my joy and crown, stand firm in the Master, beloved.

I appeal to Euodia and I appeal to Suntuche to be of the same mind in the Master.

And I also ask you, true companion, help these women who laboured with me in the Good News, with Qlemes also, and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the Book of Life.

Rejoice in יהושע always, again I say, rejoice!

Let your gentleness be known to all men. The Master is near.

Do not worry at all, but in every matter, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to Elohim.

And the peace of Elohim, which surpasses all understanding, shall guard your hearts and minds through Messiah יהושע.

For the rest, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is righteous, whatever is clean, whatever is lovely, whatever is of good report, if there is any uprightness and if there is any praise – think on these.

9 And what you have learned and received and heard and saw in me, practise these, and the Elohim of peace shall be with you.

10 And I rejoiced greatly that now at last your concern for me has revived again – though you were concerned, but had no chance.

11 Not that I speak concerning need, for I have learned to be content in whatever state I am.

12 I know what it is to be humbled, and I know what it is to have in excess. In any and every situation I have learned both to be filled, and to be hungry, both to have in excess, and to be in need.

13 I have strength to do all, through Messiah who empowers me.

14 Yet you did well in sharing in my pressure.

15 And you know too, Philippians, that in the beginning of the Good News, when I went out from Makedonia, no assembly shared with me concerning giving and receiving, except you only,

16 because, even in Thessalonike you sent to my need, once and twice.

17 Not that I seek the gift, but I seek the fruit that is multiplying to your account.

18 Indeed I have all and more than enough. I have been filled, having received from Epaphroditos what you sent, a sweet-smelling fragrance, an acceptable offering, well-pleasing to Elohim.

19 And my Elohim shall fill all your need according to His riches in esteem by Messiah.

20 And to our Elohim and Father be esteem forever and ever. Amén.

21 Greet every set-apart one in Messiah
The brothers with me greet you.

22 All the set-apart ones greet you, but most of all those of Caesar’s household.

23 The favour of our Master Messiah be with you all. Amén.

Sha’ul, an emissary of Messiah by the desire of Elohim, and Timothy our brother, to the set-apart ones in Colosse, and true brothers in Messiah: Favour to you and peace from Elohim our Father and the Master Messiah.
We give thanks to the Elohim and Father of our Master Messiah, praying always for you, folowing heard of your belief in Messiah and of your love for all the set-apart ones, because of the expectation that is laid up for you in the heavens, of which you heard before in the word of the truth of the Good News, which has come to you, as also in all the world it is bearing fruit and growing, as also among you, since the day you heard and knew the favour of Elohim in truth, as you also learned from Epaphras, our beloved fellow servant, who is a true servant of Messiah on your behalf, who also declared to us your love in the Spirit.
That is also why we, from the day we heard, have not ceased praying for you, and asking that you be filled with the knowledge of His desire in all wisdom and spiritual understanding, to walk worthily of the Master, pleasing all, bearing fruit in every good work and increasing in the knowledge of Elohim, being empowered with all power, according to the might of His esteem, for all endurance and patience with joy, giving thanks to the Father who has made us fit to share in the inheritance of the set-apart ones in the light, who has delivered us from the authority of darkness and transferred us into the reign of the Son of His love, in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, who is the likeness of the invisible Elohim, the first-born of all creation.
Because in Him were created all that are in the heavens and that are on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or rulerships or principalities or authorities — all have been created through Him and for Him.
And He is before all, and in Him all hold together.
And He is the Head of the body, the assembly, who is the beginning, the first-born from the dead, that He might become the One who is first in all.
Because in Him all the completeness was well pleased to dwell, and through Him to completely restore to favour all unto Himself, whether on earth or in the heavens, having made peace through the blood of His stake.
And you, who once were estranged and enemies in the mind by wicked works, but now He has completely restored to favour in the body of His flesh through death, to present you set-apart, and blameless, and unreprovable before Him, if indeed you continue in the belief, founded and steadfast, and are not moved away from the expectation of the Good News which you heard, which was proclaimed to every creature under the heaven, of which I, Sha’ul, became a servant, who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up in my flesh what is lacking in Messiah’s afflictions, for the sake of His Body, which is the assembly, of which I became a servant according to the administration of Elohim which was given to me for you, to fill the word of Elohim, the secret which has been hidden from ages and from generations, but now has been revealed to His set-apart ones, to whom Elohim desired to make known what are the riches of the esteem of this secret among the gentiles: which is Messiah in you, \(^d\) the expectancy of esteem, whom we announce, warning every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, in order to present every man perfect in Messiah, \(^d\) for which I also labour, striving according to the working of Him who works in me in power.

For I wish you to know what a great struggle I have for you and those in Laodikeia, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh, in order that their hearts might be encouraged, being knit together in love, and to all riches of the entire confirmation of understanding, to a true knowledge of the secret of Elohim, and of the Father, and of the Messiah, in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. \(^e\)

And this I say, so that no one deceives you with enticing words.

For though I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see your good order and the steadfastness of your belief in Messiah.

Therefore, as you accepted Messiah the Master, walk in Him, having been rooted and built up in Him, and established in the belief, as you were taught, overflowing in it with thanksgiving.

See to it that no one makes a prey of you through philosophy and empty deceit, according to the tradition of men, according to the elementary matters of the world, \(^f\) and not according to Messiah.

Because in Him dwells all the completeness of the Mightiness bodily, and you have been made complete in Him, who is the Head of all principality and authority.

In Him you were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of the body of the sins of the flesh, by the circumcision of Messiah, having been buried with Him in immersion, in which you also were raised with Him through the belief in the working of Elohim, who raised Him from the dead.

And you, being dead in your trespasses \(^g\) and the uncircumcision of your flesh, He has made alive together with Him, having forgiven you all trespasses, having blotted out the certificate of debt \(^h\) against us – by the dogmas – which stood against us. And He has taken it out of the way, having nailed it to the stake.

Having stripped the principalities and the authorities, He made a public display of them, having prevailed over them in it.

Let no one therefore judge you in eating or in drinking, or in respect of a festival or a new moon or Sabbaths – which are a shadow of what is to come – but the Body of the Messiah. \(^i\)

Let no one deprive you of the prize, one who takes delight in false humility and worship of messengers, taking his stand on what he has not seen, puffed up by his fleshly mind, and not holding fast to the Head, from whom all the Body – nourished and knit together by joints and ligaments – grows with the growth of Elohim.

If, then, you died with Messiah from the elementary matters \(^j\) of the world, why, as though living in the world, do you subject yourselves to regulations:

“Do not touch, do not taste, do not handle” – which are all to perish with use – according to the commands and teachings of men? \(^k\)

These indeed have an appearance of wisdom in self-imposed worship, humiliation and harsh treatment of the body – of no value at all, only for satisfaction of the flesh.

\(^d\) See Messiah in you in Explanatory Notes at the back.

\(^g\) Eph. 2:1. \(^h\) The record of all the sins we did. \(^i\) The matters, not the outsiders! \(^j\) See v. 8, and Gal. 4:3 & 9.

\(^e\) Yesh. 11:2, Col. 2:9. \(^f\) See v. 20, and Gal. 4:3 & 9.

\(^k\) Note: commands and teachings of men, not of Elohim.
If, then, you were raised with Messiah, seek the matters which are above, where Messiah is, seated at the right hand of Elohim.

Mind the matters above, not those on the earth.

For you have died, and your life has been hidden with Messiah in Elohim.

When the Messiah, who is our life, is manifested, then you also shall be manifested with Him in esteem.

Therefore put to death your members which are on the earth: whoring, uncleanness, passion, evil desire and greed of gain, which is idolatry.

Because of these the wrath of Elohim is coming upon the sons of disobedience, in which you also once walked when you lived in them.

But now, also put off all these: displeasure, wrath, evil, blasphemy, filthy talk from your mouth.

Do not lie to each other, since you have put off the old man with his practices, and have put on the new one who is renewed in knowledge according to the likeness of Him who created him, where there is not Greek and Yehuḏite, circumcised and uncircumcised, foreigner, Scythian, slave, free, but Messiah is all, and in all.

Therefore, as chosen ones of Elohim, set-apart and beloved, put on compassion, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, patience, bearing with one another, and forgiving each other if anyone has a complaint against another, indeed, as Messiah forgave you so also should you.

But above all these put on love, which is a bond of the perfection.

And let the peace of Elohim rule in your hearts, to which indeed you were called in one Body, and be filled with thanks.

Let the Word of Messiah dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing with pleasure in your hearts to the Master in psalms and songs of praise and spiritual songs.

And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the Name of the Master, giving thanks to Elohim the Father through Him.

Wives, subject yourselves to your own husbands, as is proper in the Master.

Husbands, love your wives and do not be bitter toward them.

Children, obey your parents in all, for this is well-pleasing to the Master.

Fathers, do not provoke your children, lest they become discouraged.

Servants, obey your masters according to the flesh in all respects, not with eyeservice, as men-pleasers, but in sincerity of heart, fearing Elohim.

And whatever you do, do it heartily, as to the Master and not to men, knowing that from the Master you shall receive the reward of the inheritance. It is the Master, Messiah, you serve.

But he who does wrong shall be repaid for the wrong which he has done, and there is no partiality.

Masters, give your servants what is righteous and fair, knowing that you also have a Master in the heavens.

Continue in prayer, watching therein, with thanksgiving, praying at the same time also for us, that Elohim would open to us a door for the word, to speak the secret of Messiah, for which I am also in chains, so that I make it clear, as I should speak.

Walk in wisdom toward those who are outside, redeeming the time.

Let your word always be with favour, seasoned with salt, so that you know how you ought to answer each one.

Tuchikos, who is a beloved brother, a true servant, and a fellow servant in the Master, shall give you all the news about me.

I am sending him to you for this pur-

1 Sha’ul, and Sila, and Timothy, to the assembly of the Thessalonians in Elohim the Father and the Master Messiah: Favour to you and peace from Elohim our Father and the Master Messiah.

2 We give thanks to Elohim always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers,

3 remembering without ceasing your work of the belief, and the labour of love, and the endurance of the expectation in our Master Messiah in the presence of our Elohim and Father,

4 knowing, brothers beloved by Elohim, that you were chosen.

5 Because our Good News did not come to you in word only, but also in power, and in the Set-apart Spirit and in entire confirmation, as you know what kind of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And you became imitators of us and of the Master, having received the word in much pressure, with joy of the Set-apart Spirit,

7 so that you became an example to all who believe in Makedonia and Achaia.

8 For from you the word of the Master has sounded forth, not only in Makedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your belief toward Elohim has gone out, so that it is unnecessary for us to say what-ever.

9 For they themselves report what kind of reception we had with you, and how you turned to Elohim from idols, to serve the living and true Elohim,

10 and to wait for His Son from the heavens, whom He raised from the dead, <YHWH>, who is delivering us from the wrath to come.

2 For you yourselves know, brothers, that our coming to you was not in vain.

2 But having suffered before and having been mistreated at Philippi, as you know, we were bold in our Elohim to speak to you the Good News of Elohim in much struggle.

3 For the appeal we make does not come from delusion, nor from uncleanness, nor from deceit.

4 But as we have been approved by Elohim to be entrusted with the Good News, so we speak, not as pleasing men, but Elohim who proves our hearts.

5 For we never came with a word of flattery, as you know, nor with a cloak for greed – Elohim is witness –

6 nor were we looking for praise from men, not from you nor from others, though we could have been a burden to you, as emissaries of Messiah.

7 But we were gentle in your midst, like a nursing mother warmly loving her own children.

8 So, having a tender affection for you, we were well pleased to share with you not only the Good News of Elohim, but also our own lives, because you have become beloved to us.

9 For you remember, brothers, our toil and hardship, for labouring night and day, in order not to burden any of you, we proclaimed to you the Good News of Elohim.

10 You are witnesses, Elohim also, how set-apart and righteously and blamelessly we behaved ourselves among you who believe,

11 even as you know how each one of you, as a father to his children, encouraging and comforting and bearing witness to you,

12 that you would walk worthily of Elohim who is calling you into His own reign and esteem.

13 And because of this we thank Elohim without ceasing, that when you received the Word of Elohim which you heard from us, you welcomed it not as the word of men, but as it is truly, the Word of Elohim, which also works in you who believe.

14 For you, brothers, became imitators of the assemblies of Elohim which are in Yehuḏah in Messiah יושֵׁר, because you also suffered the same treatment from your own countrymen as they also from the Yehuḏim,

15 who killed both the Master יושֵׁר and their own prophets, and have persecuted us, and who displease Elohim and are hostile to all men, 16 forbidding us to speak to the gentiles that they might be saved, so as to fill up their sins always. But the wrath has come upon them to the utmost.

17 But we, brothers, having been taken away from you for a short while – in presence, not in heart – were much more eagerly trying to see your face, with much longing.

18 We would therefore have come to you, I indeed, Sha‘ul, more than once, but Satan hindered us.

19 For what is our expectation, or joy, or crown of boasting? Is it not even you, before our Master יושֵׁר Messiah at His coming?

20 For you are our esteem and joy.

3 So, when we could no longer stand it, we thought it good to be left in Athens alone,

2 and sent Timothy, our brother and servant of Elohim, and our fellow worker in the Good News of Messiah, to establish you and encourage you concerning your belief,

3 that no one should be unsettled by these pressures, for you yourselves know that we are appointed to this.

4 For indeed, we did inform you beforehand, when we were with you, that we would suffer pressure, and so it came to be, as you know.

5 Because of this, when I could no longer stand it, I sent to find out about your belief, lest the trying one might have tried you, and our labour should be in vain.

6 But now that Timothy has come to us from you, and having brought us good news of your belief and love, and that you always have good remembrance of us, longing to see us, as we also to see you,

7 therefore, brothers, in all our pressure and distress we were encouraged concerning you by your belief.

8 Because we now live, if you stand fast in the Master.

9 For what thanks are we able to return to Elohim for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sake in the presence of our Elohim,

10 night and day praying exceedingly, to see your face and make complete what is lacking in your belief?

11 And our Elohim and Father Himself, and our Master יושֵׁר Messiah, direct our way to you!

12 And the Master make you increase and overflow in love to each other and to all, as we also do to you,

13 to establish your hearts blameless in set-apartness before our Elohim and Father at the coming of our Master יושֵׁר Messiah with all His set-apart ones!

4 For the rest then, brothers, we beg you and call upon you in the Master יושֵׁר, that as you received from us how you should walk and to please Elohim, you should excel still more,

2 for you know what commands we gave you through the Master יושֵׁר.

3 For this is the desire of Elohim: your set-apartness! – that you should abstain from whoring,

4 that each one of you should know how to possess his own vessel in set-apartness and respect,

5 not in passion of lust, like the gentiles who do not know Elohim,

6 not to overstep and take advantage of his brother in this matter, because the Master is the revenger of all such, as we indeed said to you before and earnestly warned.

7 For Elohim did not call us to uncleanness, but in set-apartness.

8 Therefore he who rejects this does not reject man, but Elohim, who also gives us His Set-apart Spirit.

9 And it is not necessary to write to you about brotherly love, for you yourselves are taught by Elohim to love one another,

10 for, in fact, you do so toward all the brothers who are in all Makedonia. But we call upon you, brothers, that you do so more and more,

11 and to make it your ambition to live peaceably, and to attend to your own, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you,

12 so that you behave decently toward those who are outside, and not be in any need.

13 Now, brothers, we do not wish you to be ignorant concerning those who have fallen asleep, lest you be sad as others who have no expectation.

14 For if we believe that died and rose again, so also Elohim shall bring with Him those who sleep in.

15 For this we say to you by the word of the Master, that we, the living who are left over at the coming of the Master shall in no way go before those who are asleep.

16 Because the Master Himself shall come down from heaven with a shout, with the voice of a chief messenger, and with the trumpet of Elohim, and the dead in Messiah shall rise first.

17 Then we, the living who are left over, shall be caught away together with them in the clouds to meet the Master in the air – and so we shall always be with the Master.

18 So, then, encourage one another with these words.

5 Now, brothers, as to the times and the seasons, you do not need to be written to.

2 For you yourselves know very well that the day of ושה comes as a thief in the night.

3 For when they say, “Peace and safety!” then suddenly destruction comes upon them, as labour pains upon a pregnant woman, and they shall not escape.

4 But you, brothers, are not in darkness, so that this Day should overtake you as a thief.

5 For you are all sons of light and sons of the day. We are not of the night nor of darkness.

6 So, then, we should not sleep, as others do, but we should watch and be sober.

7 For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk are drunk at night.

8 But we who are of the day should be sober, putting on the breastplate of belief and love, and as a helmet the expectation of deliverance.

9 Because Elohim did not appoint us to wrath, but to obtain deliverance through our Master ושה Messiah,

10 who died for us, so that we, whether awake or asleep, should live together with Him.

11 Therefore encourage one another, and build up one another, as indeed you do.

12 But brothers, we beg you to know those who labour among you, and are over you in the Master and admonish you,

13 and to hold them in the highest regard in love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves.

14 And we appeal to you, brothers, warn those who are disorderly, encourage the faint-hearted, uphold the weak, be patient with all.

15 See that no one renders evil for evil to anyone, but always pursue what is good both for yourselves and for all.

16 Rejoice always,

17 pray without ceasing,

18 in all circumstances give thanks, for this is the desire of Elohim in Messiah ושה for you.

19 Do not quench the Spirit.

20 Do not despise prophecies,

21 prove them all. Hold fast what is good.

22 Keep back from every form of wicked-
23 And the Elohim of peace Himself set you completely apart, and your entire spirit, and being, and body - be preserved blameless at the coming of our Master יושע Messiah!
24 He who calls you is trustworthy, who also shall do it.

25 Brothers, pray for us.
26 Greet all the brothers with a set-apart kiss.
27 I charge you by the Master that this letter be read to all the set-apart brothers.
28 The favour of our Master יושע Messiah be with you. Amën.
1 Sha’ul, and Sila, and Timothy, to the assembly of the Thessalonians in Elohim our Father and the Master יושע Messiah:

2 Favour to you and peace from Elohim our Father and the Master יושע Messiah.

3 We ought to give thanks to Elohim always for you, brothers, as it is proper, because your belief grows exceedingly, and the love every one of you has for each other is increasing,

4 so that we ourselves boast of you among the assemblies of Elohim for your endurance and belief in all your persecutions and afflictions which you are bearing,

5 clear evidence of the righteous judgment of Elohim, in order for you to be counted worthy of the reign of Elohim, for which you also suffer,

6 since Elohim shall rightly repay with affliction those who afflict you,

7 and to give you who are afflicted rest with us when the Master יושע is revealed from heaven with His mighty messengers,

8 in flaming fire taking vengeance on those who do not know Elohim, and on those who do not obey the Good News of our Master יושע,

9 who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Master and from the esteem of His strength,

10 when He comes to be esteemed in His set-apart ones and to be admired among all those who believe in that Day, because our witness to you was believed.

11 To this end we always pray for you that our Elohim would count you worthy of this calling, and complete all the good pleasure of goodness, and the work of belief with power, 12 so that the Name of our Master יושע Messiah is esteemed in you, and you in Him, according to the favour of our Elohim and the Master יושע Messiah.

2 As to the coming of our Master יושע Messiah and our gathering together to Him, we ask you, brothers,

2 not to become easily unsettled in mind or troubled, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as if from us, as if the day of יהוה has come.

3 Let no one deceive you in any way, because the falling away is to come first, and the man of lawlessness is to be revealed, the son of destruction,

4 who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called Elohim or that is worshipped, so that he sits as Elohim in the Dwelling Place of Elohim, showing himself that he is Elohim.

5 Do you not remember that I told you this while I was still with you?

6 And now you know what restrains, for him to be revealed in his time.

7 For the secret of lawlessness is already at work – only until he who now restrains comes out of the midst.

8 And then the lawless one shall be revealed, whom the Master shall consume with the Spirit of His mouth and bring to naught with the manifestation of His coming.

9 The coming of the lawless one is according to the working of Satan, with all power and signs and wonders of falsehood,

10 and with all deceit of unrighteousness in those perishing, because they did not receive the love of the truth, in order for them to be saved.

a Some texts read sin instead of lawlessness. This man might be the same one we read of in the prophecy in Yesh. 14:12 – Hëlêl (“Heileil”), meaning “the shining one,” the sovereign of Bâbel. Note that the counterfeit one, and the counterfeit worship exposed in this chapter, centres around “lawlessness”! Most probably this is the same one “set up” in the Set-apart Place, of which Messiah prophesied in Mt. 24:15. This prophetic passage clearly says that “lawlessness” – the darnel which the devil sowed in the Messianic Belief (Mt. 13:39-42) – would take over, and has taken over! b Truth is contrasted with lawlessness, sin, falsehood, deceit, delusion, unrighteousness.
11 And for this reason Elohim sends them a working of delusion, for them to believe the falsehood, c 12 in order that all should be judged who did not believe the truth, but have delighted in the unrighteousness.
13 But we ought to give thanks to Elohim always for you, brothers, beloved by the Master, because Elohim from the beginning chose you to be saved – in set-apartness of Spirit, and belief in the truth d –
14 unto which He called you by our Good News, for the obtaining of the esteem of our Master מessiah.
15 So, then, brothers, stand fast and hold the traditions which you were taught, whether by word or by our letter.
16 And our Master מessiah Himself, and our Elohim and Father, who has loved us and given us everlasting encouragement and good expectation, through favour,
17 encourage your hearts and establish you in every good word and work.

3 For the rest, brothers, pray for us, so that the Word of יהוה spreads rapidly and be praised, as also with you,
2 and that we might be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men, for not all have belief.
3 But the Master is trustworthy, who shall establish you and guard you from the wicked one.
4 And we trust in the Master as to you, both that you do and shall do what we command you.
5 And the Master direct your hearts into the love of Elohim and into the endurance for Messiah.
6 But we command you, brothers, in the Name of our Master מessiah, that you withdraw from every brother who walks disorderly and not according to the tradition which you received from us.
7 For you yourselves know how you ought to imitate us, for we were not disorderly among you,
8 nor did we eat anyone’s bread without paying for it, but worked with labour and toil night and day, in order not to burden any of you,
9 not because we do not have authority, but to make ourselves an example, for you to imitate us.
10 For even when we were with you, we commanded you this: If anyone does not wish to work, neither let him eat.
11 For we hear of some among you walking disorderly, not working at all, but are busybodies.
12 But we command and urge such, through our Master מessiah, to settle down, work and eat their own bread.
13 And you, brothers, do not grow weary in doing good.
14 And if anyone does not obey our word in this letter, note that one, and do not keep company with him, so that he is put to shame.
15 However, do not regard him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.
16 And the Master of peace Himself give you peace always in every way. The Master be with you all.
17 The greeting of Sha’ul with my own hand, which is a sign in every letter, thus I write.
18 The favour of our Master מessiah be with you all. Amën.

d See footnote Eph. 1:4.
Sha’ul, an emissary of Elohim Messiah, according to a command of Elohim our Saviour, and of the Master יהושועו Messiah, our expectation, to Timothy, a genuine child in the belief: Favour, compassion, peace from Elohim our Father and יהושועו Messiah our Master.

As I appealed to you when I went into Makedonia, to remain in Ephesos, in order to command some not to teach differently, nor to pay attention to fables and endless genealogies, which cause disputes rather than an administration of Elohim which is in belief.

Now the goal of this command is love from a clean heart, from a good conscience and a sincere belief, which some, having missed the goal, turned aside to senseless talk, wanting to be teachers of Torah, understanding neither what they say nor concerning what they strongly affirm.

And we know that the Torah is good if one uses it legitimately, knowing this: that Torah is not laid down for a righteous being, but for the lawless and unruly, for the wicked and for sinners, for the wrong-doers and profane, for those who kill their fathers or mothers, for murderers, for those who whore, for sodomites, for kidnappers, for liars, for perjurers, and for whatever else that is contrary to sound teaching, according to the esteemed Good News of the blessed Elohim which was entrusted to me.

And I thank Messiah יהושועו our Master who empowered me, because He counted me trustworthy, putting me into service, me, although I was formerly a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and an insulter. But compassion was shown me because being ignorant I did it in unbelief.

And the favour of our Master was exceedingly increased, with belief and love which are in Messiah יהושועו.

Trustworthy is the word and worthy of all acceptance, that Messiah יהושועו came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am foremost.

But because of this I received compassion, so that in me first, יהושועו Messiah might display all patience, as an example to those who are going to believe on Him for everlasting life.

Now to the Sovereign of the ages, incorruptible, invisible, to Elohim who alone is wise, be respect and esteem forever and ever. Amën.

This charge I entrust to you, son Timothy, according to the prophecies previously made concerning you, that by them you might wage the good campaign, having belief and a good conscience, which some have thrust aside and suffered shipwreck concerning their belief.

Among these are Humenaios and Alexander, whom I delivered to Satan, in order to be taught not to blaspheme.

First of all, then, I urge that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgiving be made for all men, for sovereigns and all those who are in authority, in order that we lead a calm and peaceable life in all reverence and seriousness.

For this is good and acceptable before Elohim our Saviour, who desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.
For there is one Elohim, a and one Mediator between Elohim and men, the Man Messiah יהושועו, who gave Himself a ransom for all, to be witnessed in its own seasons, a 1 Cor. 8:6, Eph. 4:6, Mk. 12:29-34.

---

for which I was appointed a proclaimer and an emissary – I am speaking the truth in Messiah and not lying – a teacher of the gentiles in belief and truth.

So I resolve that the men pray everywhere, lifting up hands that are set-apart, without wrath and disputing.

Likewise, that the women dress themselves becomingly, with decency and sensibleness, not with braided hair or gold or pearls or costly garments, but with good works, which is becoming for women undertaking worship of Elohim.

Let a woman learn in silence, in all subjection.

But I do not permit a woman to teach or to have authority over a man, rather, to be in silence.

Because Aadam was formed first, then Hawah.

And Aadam was not deceived, but the woman, having been deceived, fell into transgression.

But she shall be saved in childbearing if they continue in belief, and love, and set-apartness, with sensibleness.

Trustworthy is the word: If a man longs for the position of an overseer, he desires a good work.

An overseer, then, should be blameless, the husband of one wife, sober, sensible, orderly, kind to strangers, able to teach, not given to wine, no brawler, but gentle, not quarrelsome, no lover of money, one who rules his own house well, having his children in subjection with all reverence, for if a man does not know how to rule his own house, how shall he look after the assembly of Elohim?

Not a new convert, lest he become puffed up with pride and fall into the judgment of the devil.

And he should even have a good witness from those who are outside, lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

Likewise attendants are to be reverent, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy for filthy gain, holding to the secret of the belief with a clean conscience.

And let these also be proved first, then let them serve, if they are unreprovable.

Wives in the same way: reverent, not false accusers, sober, trustworthy in every way.

Let attendants be the husbands of only one wife, ruling children and their own houses well.

For those who have served well as attendants gain good standing for themselves, and much boldness in the belief that is in Messiah יְהֹוָהִי.

I am writing you this, expecting to come to you shortly, but if I delay, that you might know how you should behave in the House of Elohim, which is the assembly of the living Elohim – a strong support and foundation of the truth.

And, beyond all question, the secret of reverence is great – who was revealed in the flesh, declared right in Spirit, was seen by messengers, was proclaimed among nations, was believed on in the world, was taken up in esteem.

But the Spirit distinctly says that in latter times some shall fall away from the belief, paying attention to misleading spirits, and teachings of demons, speaking lies in hypocrisy, having been branded on their own conscience, forbidding to marry, saying to abstain from foods which Elohim created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth.

Because every creature of Elohim is good, and none is to be rejected if it is received with thanksgiving, for it is set apart by the Word of Elohim and prayer.

If you present these matters to the brothers, you shall be a good servant of יהוה Messiah, being nourished in the words of belief and of the good teaching which you have followed closely.

7 But refuse profane and old wives’ fables, and exercise yourself rather to reverence.

8 For bodily exercise is profitable for a little, but reverence is profitable for all, having promise of the present life, and of that which is to come.

9 Trustworthy is the word, and worthy of all acceptance.

10 It is for this that we labour and struggle, because we trust in the living Elohim, who is the Saviour of all men, particularly of those who believe.

11 Command and teach these matters.

12 Let no one look down on your youth, but be an example to the believers in word, in behaviour, in love, in spirit, in belief, in cleanliness.

13 Until I come, give attention to reading of Scripture, to encouragement, to teaching.

14 Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy with the laying on of the hands of the eldershood.

15 Practise these matters, be in them, so that your progress might be plain to all.

16 Pay attention to yourself and to the teaching. Continue in them, for in doing this you shall save both yourself and those who hear you.

5 Do not rebuke an older man, but appeal to him as a father, younger ones as brothers,

2 elderly women as mothers, younger ones as sisters, in all cleanliness.

3 Respect widows who are truly widows.

4 But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them first learn to treat their own house reverently, and to repay their parents. For this is good and acceptable before Elohim.

5 And she who is truly a widow, and left alone, trusts in Elohim and continues in petitions and prayers night and day.

6 But she who is living in luxury is dead while she lives.

7 And command these matters, in order for them to be blameless.

8 And if anyone does not provide for his own, and especially for those of his household, he has denied the belief and is worse than an unbeliever.

9 Do not enrol a widow unless she is over sixty years of age, having been the wife of one man,

10 well reported for good works, if she has brought up children, if she has lodged strangers, if she has washed the feet of the set-apart ones, if she has assisted the afflicted, if she has closely followed every good work.

11 But refuse the younger widows, for when they become headstrong against the Messiah, they desire to marry, 12 having guilt because they set aside their first belief.

13 Moreover, they learn to be idle, going about from house to house, and not only idle but also gossips and busybodies, speaking what is improper.

14 So I resolve that the younger widows marry, bear children, manage the house, giving no occasion to the adversary for reviling.

15 For already some have turned aside after Satan.

16 If any believing man or woman has widows, let such assist them, and do not let the assembly be burdened, in order to assist those who are truly widows.

17 Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double respect, especially those who labour in the word and teaching.

18 For the Scripture says, “You shall not muzzle an ox while it treads out the grain,” and, “The labourer is worthy of his wages.”

19 Do not receive an accusation against an elder except from two or three witnesses.

20 Reprove those who are sinning, in the presence of all, so that the rest also might fear.

21 I earnestly witness before Elohim and the Master Messiah, and the chosen messengers, that you watch over these matters without prejudice, doing none at all with partiality.

22 Do not lay hands on anyone hastily, nor
Let those who are servants under a yoke regard their own masters worthy of all respect, lest the Name of Elohim and His teaching be blasphemed.

And those who have believing masters, let them not disregard them because they are brothers, but rather serve them because they are believing and beloved ones, those receiving of the good service in return. Teach and urge these matters.

If anyone teaches differently and does not agree to the sound words, those of our Master aSWHY Messiah, and to the teaching which is according to reverence, he is puffed up, understanding none at all, but is sick about questionings and verbal battles from which come envy, strife, slander, wicked suspicions, worthless disputes of men of corrupt minds and deprived of the truth, who think that reverence is a means of gain – withdraw from such.

But reverence with contentment is great gain.

For we brought naught into the world, and it is impossible to take any out.

When we have food and covering, we shall be satisfied with these.

But those wishing to be rich fall into trial and a snare, and into many foolish and injurious lusts which plunge men in ruin and destruction.

For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, for which some, by longing for it, have strayed from the belief, and pierced themselves through with many pains.

But you, O man of Elohim, flee from all this, and pursue righteousness, reverence, belief, love, endurance, meekness.

Fight the good fight of the belief, lay hold on everlasting life, to which you were also called and have confessed the good confession before many witnesses.

In the sight of Elohim who gives life to all, and of Messiah יושע who witnessed the good confession before Pontius Pilate, I charge you:

that you guard the command e spotlessly, blamelessly, until the appearing of our Master יושע Messiah, which in His own seasons He shall reveal – the blessed and only Ruler, the Sovereign of sovereignties and Master of masters, who alone has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light, whom no one has seen or is able to see, to whom be respect and everlasting might. Amën.

Charge those who are rich in this present age not to be high-minded, nor to trust in the uncertainty of riches, but in the living Elohim, who gives us richly all for enjoyment, to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous, ready to share, storing up for themselves a good foundation for the time to come, so that they lay hold on everlasting life.

O Timothy! Watch over that which has been entrusted to you, turning aside from the profane and empty babblings and contradictions of the falsely called ‘knowledge,’ which some, having professed it, have missed the goal concerning the belief. Favour be with you. Amën.

d Any teaching which does not agree with the words, the teachings, of יושע, is false! e Command (singular) often means commands, e.g. DeÄ. 17:20, Teh. 19:8. So, Sha’ul commands us to keep the Commands spotlessly, blamelessly! יושע did the same, as His Father הוהי had commanded it, forever! f See Mt. 16:27.
1 Sha’ul, an emissary of Messiah by the desire of Elohim, according to the promise of life which is in Messiah.

2 to Timothy, my beloved son: Favour, compassion, peace from Elohim the Father, and Messiah our Master.

3 I thank Elohim, whom I serve with a clear conscience, as my forefathers did, as I unceasingly remember you in my prayers night and day,

4 longing to see you, as I remember your tears, so that I might be filled with joy.

5 For I recollect the sincere belief which is in you, which dwelt first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunike, and I am persuaded is in you too.

6 For this reason I remind you to stir up the gift of Elohim which is in you through the laying on of my hands.

7 For Elohim has not given us a spirit of cowardice, but of power and of love and of self-control.

8 So do not be ashamed of the witness of our Master, nor of me His prisoner, but suffer hardship with me for the Good News according to the power of Elohim,

9 who has saved us and called us with a set-apart calling, not according to our works, but according to His own purpose and favour which was given to us in Messiah before times of old,

10 but now revealed by the appearing of our Saviour Messiah, who indeed abolished death and brought life and incorruptibility to light through the Good News,

11 for which I was appointed a proclaimer, and an emissary, and a teacher of the gentiles.

12 For this reason I also suffer these matters, but I am not ashamed, for I know whom I have believed and am persuaded that He is able to watch over that which I have entrusted to Him until that Day.

13 Hold the pattern of sound words which you have heard from me, in belief and love which are in Messiah.

14 Watch over the good deposit that was entrusted to you, by the Set-apart Spirit dwelling in us.

15 You know this, that all those in Asia have turned away from me, among whom are Phugellos and Hermogenes.

16 The Master grant compassion unto the household of Onesiphoros, for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain, 17 but when he was in Rome, he eagerly searched for me and found me.

18 The Master grant to him to find compassion from the Master in that Day. And you know very well how many ways he attended to me at Ephesos.

2 You then, my son, be strong in the favour that is in Messiah.

2 And what you have heard from me among many witnesses, entrust these to trustworthy men who shall be competent to teach others as well.

3 Suffer hardship with us as a good soldier of Messiah.

4 No one serving as a soldier gets involved in the affairs of this life, in order to please only him who enlisted him as a soldier.

5 And if anyone competes in a game, he is not crowned unless he competes according to the rules.

6 The hard-working farmer ought to be first to receive his share of the crops.

7 Think over what I say, for the Master shall give you understanding into all this.

8 Remember that Messiah, of the seed of Dawiḏ, was raised from the dead according to my Good News, 9 for which I suffer hardship, as a criminal, unto chains, but the Word of Elohim is not chained.

10 So I endure through it all for the sake of the chosen, so that they too obtain deliverance which is in Messiah.
11 Trustworthy is the word: For if we died with Him, we shall also live with Him.
12 If we endure, we shall also reign with Him. If we deny Him, He also shall deny us.
13 If we are not trustworthy, He remains trustworthy, it is impossible for Him to deny Himself.
14 Remind them of this, earnestly witnessing before the Master, not to wage verbal battles – which is useless – to the overthrowing of the hearers.
15 Do your utmost to present yourself approved to Elohim, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly handling the Word of Truth.
16 But keep away from profane, empty babblings, for they go on to more wickedness,
17 and their word shall eat its way like gangrene. Humenaio and Philetos are of this sort,
18 who have missed the goal concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection has already taken place, and overthrow the belief of some.
19 However, the solid foundation of Elohim stands firm, having this seal, “יהוה knows those who are His,” and, “Let everyone who names the Name of Messiah turn away from unrighteousness.”
20 But in a large house there are not only vessels of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay, some unto value and some unto no value.
21 If, then, anyone cleanses himself from these matters, he shall be a vessel unto value, having been set apart, of good use to the Master, having been prepared for every good work.
22 And flee from the lusts of youth, but pursue righteousness, belief, love, peace with those calling on the Master out of a clean heart.
23 But refuse foolish and stupid questions, knowing that they breed quarrels.
24 And a servant of the Master should not quarrel but be gentle towards all, able to teach, patient when wronged,
25 in meekness instructing those who are in opposition, lest somehow Elohim gives them repentance unto a thorough knowledge of the truth,
26 and they come to their senses, out of the snare of the devil, having been taken captive by him to do his desire.

3 But know this, that in the last days hard times shall come.
2 For men shall be lovers of self, lovers of money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, thankless, wrongdoers,
3 unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, fierce, haters of good,
4 betrayers, reckless, puffed up, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of Elohim,
5 having a form of reverence but denying its power.
6 And turn away from these!
7 For among them are those who creep into households and captivate silly women loaded down with sins, led away by various lusts,
8 always learning and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.
9 And as YoÁane and Mamrà opposed Mosheh, so do these also oppose the truth – men of corrupt minds, found worthless concerning the belief;
10 but they shall not go on further, for their folly shall be obvious to all, as also that of those men became.
11 But you did closely follow my teaching, the way of life, the purpose, the belief, the patience, the love, the endurance, 12 the persecutions, the sufferings, which came to me at Antioch, at Ikonion, and at Lustra – what persecutions I bore. Yet out of them all the Master delivered me.
13 But evil men and impostors shall go on to the worse, leading astray and being led astray.

14 But you, stay in what you have learned and trusted, having known from whom you have learned,

15 and that from a babe you have known the Set-apart Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for deliverance through belief in Messiah יְהוָה.

16 All Scripture is breathed by Elohim and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for setting straight, for instruction in rightousness, 17 that the man of Elohim might be fitted, equipped for every good work.

4 In the sight of Elohim and the Master יְהוָה Messiah, who shall judge the living and the dead at His appearing and His reign, I earnestly charge you:

2 Proclaim the Word! Be urgent in season, out of season. Reprove, warn, appeal, with all patience and teaching.

3 For there shall be a time when they shall not bear sound teaching, but according to their own desires, they shall heap up for themselves teachers tickling the ear,

4 and they shall indeed turn their ears away from the truth, and be turned aside to myths.

5 But you be sober in all matters, suffer hardships, do the work of an evangelist, accomplish your service completely.

6 For I am already being poured out, and the time of my departure has arrived.

7 I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have guarded the belief.

8 For the rest, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Master, the righteous Judge, shall give to me on that Day, and not to me only but also to all those loving His appearing.

9 Do your best to come to me soon,

10 for Demas, having loved this present world, has deserted me and went to Thessalonike, Crescens to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia.

11 Luke alone is with me. Take Mark and bring him with you, for he is of good use to me for service.

12 And Tuchikos I have sent to Ephesos.

13 Bring the cloak that I left with Karpos at Troas when you come, and the books, especially the parchments.

14 Alexander the coppersmith did many evils to me. The Master shall repay him according to his works.

15 You, too, beware of him, for he strongly opposed our words.

16 At my first defence no one stood with me, but all forsook me. Let it not be held against them.

17 But the Master stood with me and did strengthen me, so that through me the preaching might be completely accomplished, and that all the gentiles should hear. And I was rescued out of the lion’s mouth.

18 And the Master shall rescue me from every wicked work and save me for His heavenly reign. To Him be esteem forever and ever. Amën!

19 Greet Prisca and Aqulas, and the house of Onesiphoros.

20 Ėrastrō stayed in Corinth, but I left Trophimos sick in Miletos.

21 Do your best to come before winter. Eubulos greets you, and Pudes, and Linos, and Klaudia, and all the brothers.

22 The Master יְהוָה Messiah be with your spirit. Favour be with you. Amën.

Sha’ul, a servant of Elohim and an emissary of Messiah, according to the belief of Elohim’s chosen ones and knowledge of the truth according to reverence,

2in expectation of everlasting life which Elohim, who does not lie, promised before times of old,

3but in its own times has manifested His word through preaching, with which I was entrusted according to the command of Elohim our Saviour, 4to Titus, a genuine child according to our common belief: Favour, compassion, peace from Elohim the Father and the Master Messiah our Saviour.

5The reason I left you in Crete was that you should straighten out what was left undone, and appoint elders in every city as I commanded you:

6if anyone is unreprovable, the husband of one wife, having believing children not accused of loose behaviour, or unruly.

7For an overseer has to be unreprovable, as a managing one of Elohim, not self-pleasing, not wroth, not given to wine, no brawler, not greedy for filthy gain,

8but kind to strangers, a lover of what is good, sensible, righteous, set-apart, self-controlled, 9clinging to the trustworthy word, according to the teaching, in order to be able both to encourage by sound teaching, and to reprove a those who oppose it.

10For there are many unruly men, senseless talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision, 11whose mouths have to be stopped, who upset entire households, teaching what they should not teach, for the sake of filthy gain.

12One of them, a prophet of their own, said, “Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, lazy gluttons.”

13This witness is true. Therefore rebuke them sharply, in order for them to be sound in the belief, 14not paying attention to Yehuḏite fables, and commands of men who turn from the truth.

15Indeed, all matters are clean to the clean, but to those who are defiled and unbelieving no matter is clean, but both their mind and conscience are defiled.

16They profess to know Elohim, but in works they deny Him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unfit for any good work. b

2But you, speak what is fitting for sound teaching:

2the older men are to be sober, serious, sensible, sound in belief, in love, in endurance,

3the older women likewise are to be set-apart in behaviour, not slanderers, not given to much wine, teachers of what is good,

4in order for them to train the young women to love their husbands, to love their children, 5to be sensible, blameless, workers at home, good, subject to their own husbands, in order that the word of Elohim is not evil spoken of.

6Likewise urge the young men to be sensible.

7Show yourself to them an example of good works c in all matters. In teaching show uncorruptness, seriousness, 8soundness of speech beyond reproach, in order that the opponent is put to shame, having no evil word to say about you.

9Servants should be subject to their own masters, to be well-pleasing in every way, not back-talking,

10not stealing, but showing all good trustworthiness, so that they adorn the teaching of Elohim our Saviour in every way.

11 For the saving Gift of Elohim has appeared to all men,

12 instructing us to renounce wickedness and worldly lusts, and to live sensibly, righteously, and reverently in the present age,

13 looking for the blessed expectation and esteemed appearance of the great Elohim and our Saviour יֵ稣‬ וָאֶלֹהִים Messiah, 14 who gave Himself for us, to redeem us from all lawlessness  and to cleanse for Himself a people, His own possession, ardent for good works.

15 Speak these matters, urge, and reprove with all authority. Let no one despise you.

3 Remind them to be subject to rulers and authorities, to obey, to be ready for every good work,

2 not to slander anyone, not to be quarrelsome, to be gentle, showing all meekness to all men.

3 For we ourselves were also once foolish, disobedient, led astray, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in evil and envy, being hated and hating one another.

4 But when the kindness and the love of Elohim our Saviour toward man appeared,

5 He saved us, not by works of righteousness which we have done but according to His compassion, through the washing of rebirth, and renewal by the Set-apart Spirit,

6 which He poured out on us richly through יֵ稣‬ וָאֶלֹהִים Messiah our Saviour,

7 that having been declared right by His favour we should become heirs according to the expectation of everlasting life.

8 Trustworthy is the word, and in this regard I wish you to strongly affirm, that those who have believed in Elohim should keep their minds on maintaining good works. This is good and profitable to men.

9 But keep away from foolish questions, and genealogies, and strife and quarrels about the Torah, for they are unprofitable and useless.

10 Reject a divisive man after the first and second warning,

11 knowing that such a one has been perverted, and sins, being self-condemned.

12 When I shall send Artemas to you, or Tuchikos, do your best to come to me at Nikopolis, for I have decided to spend the winter there.

13 Do your best to send Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey, so that they lack none at all.

14 And our brothers should also learn to maintain good works, to meet urgent needs, so that they shall not be without fruit.

15 All those with me greet you. Greet those who love us in the belief. Favour be with you all. Amën.

d Lawlessness is a synonym for sin (1 Yn. 3:4). This is the main reason why יֵ稣‬ וָאֶלֹהִים came to earth: to save sinners from sin – see also Mt. 1:21, Acts 3:19 & 26, Acts 26:18, Rom. 6:1-22, Eph. 2:1-10, 1 Yn. 3:8. See also Titus 3:5.

e Mt. 16:27.  f Or confute.
Sha’ul, a prisoner of Messiah יהושע, and Timothy the brother, to Philemon our beloved one and fellow worker, and Apphia our sister, and Archippos our fellow soldier, and the assembly at your house:
Favour to you and peace from Elohim our Father and the Master יהושע Messiah.
I always thank my Elohim when I mention you in my prayers, hearing of your love and the belief which you have toward the Master יהושע and toward all the set-apart ones, so that the sharing of your belief might become working in the knowledge of all the good which is in you toward Messiah יהושע.
For we have much joy and encouragement in your love, because the tender affections of the set-apart ones have been refreshed by you, brother.
Therefore, although I have much boldness in Messiah to command you what is fitting, because of love, I rather appeal – being such a one as Sha’ul, the aged, and now also a prisoner of Messiah יהושע –
I appeal to you for my child Onesimos, whom I brought forth while in my chains, who formerly was of no use to you, but now is of good use to you and to me, whom I sent back to you, and receive him, that is, my own tender affections, whom I wished to keep with me, that on your behalf he might serve me in my chains for the Good News.
But without your opinion I wished to do none at all, so that your good deed should not be by way of necessity, but voluntary.
For he parted from you for a while, possibly because of this, so that you might have him back forever, no longer as a slave but more than a slave, as a beloved brother, especially to me, and how much more to you, both in the flesh and in the Master.
So, if you regard me as your partner, receive him as you would me.
But if he has wronged you or owes you whatever, put that on my account.
I, Sha’ul, wrote with my own hand. I shall repay – not to mention to you that you indeed owe yourself to me also.
Yea, brother, let me derive pleasure from you in the Master, refresh my tender affections in the Master.
Trusting in your obedience, I wrote to you, knowing that you shall do even more than I say.
And at the same time also prepare a place for me to stay, for I trust that through your prayers I shall be given to you.
Epaphras, fellow prisoner of me in Messiah יהושע, greets you,
The favour of our Master יהושע Messiah be with your spirit. Amën.
1 Elohim, having of old spoken in many portions and many ways to the fathers
by the prophets,

2 has in these last days spoken to us by the Son, whom He has appointed heir of all, through whom also He made the ages, a

3 who being the brightness of the esteem and the exact representation of His substance, and sustaining all by the word of His power, having made a cleansing of our sins through Himself, sat down at the right hand of the Greatness on high,

4 having become so much better than the messengers, as He has inherited a more excellent Name than them.

5 For to which of the messengers did He ever say, “You are My Son, today I have brought You forth”? b And again, “I shall be to Him a Father, and He shall be to Me a Son”? c

6 And when He again brings the first-born into the world, He says, “Let all the messengers of Elohim do reverence to Him.”

7 And of the messengers indeed He says,
“... who is making His messengers spirits and His servants a flame of fire.”

8 But to the Son He says, “Your throne, O Elohim, is forever and ever, a sceptre of straightness is the sceptre of Your reign.

9 “You have loved righteousness and hated lawlessness. d Because of this,
Elohim, Your Elohim, e has anointed You with the oil of gladness more than Your companions.”

10 And, “You, Master, did found the earth in the beginning, and the heavens are the work of Your hands.

11 “They shall perish, but You remain.
And they shall all grow old like a garment,

12 and like a mantle You shall fold them up, and they shall be changed. But You are the same, and Your years shall not fail.”

13 And to which of the messengers did He ever say, “Sit at My right hand, until I make Your enemies a footstool for Your feet”?

14 Are they not all serving spirits sent out to attend those who are about to inherit deliverance?

2 Because of this we have to pay more attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away.

2 For if the word spoken through messengers proved to be firm, and every transgression and disobedience received a right reward,

3 how shall we escape if we neglect so great a deliverance, which first began to be spoken by the Master, and was confirmed to us by those that heard,

4 Elohim also bearing witness both with signs and wonders, with various miracles, and gifts of the Set-apart Spirit, distributed according to His own desire?

5 For it is not to messengers that He has subjected the world to come, concerning which we speak.

6 But somewhere one has witnessed, saying, “What is man that You remember him, or the son of man that You look after him?
7 “You have made him a little lower than the messengers. f You have crowned him with esteem and respect, and set him over the works of Your hands.

8 “You have put all in subjection under his feet.” For in that He put all in subjection under him, He left none that is not subjected to him. But now we do not yet a See footnote Yn. 1:3.  b Teh. 2:7.  c 2 Shem. 7:14.  d יושב lives in the true believer, secondly, we are commanded to have the mind of Messiah. Should we then not also love righteousness and hate lawlessness? Note: we should hate sin, and not the sinner!  e Note: both Father and Son are called “Elohim.”  f According to the Greek text. However, this is quoted from Teh. 8:5 which reads Elohim, which makes more sense.

see all subjected to him.

9 But we do see Him who was made for a little while lower than the messengers, because of the suffering of death crowned with esteem and respect, that by the favour of Elohim He should taste death for everyone.

10 For it was fitting for Him, because of whom all are and through whom all are, in bringing many sons to esteem, to make the Princely Leader of their deliverance perfect through sufferings.

11 For both He who sets apart and those who are being set apart are all of One, for which reason He is not ashamed to call them brothers,

12 saying, “I shall announce Your Name to My brothers, in the midst of the congregation I shall sing praise to You.”

13 And again, “I shall put My trust in Him.” And again, “See, I and the children whom Elohim gave Me.”

14 Therefore, since the children share in flesh and blood, He Himself similarly shared in the same, so that by means of His death He might destroy him having the power of death, that is, the devil, 15 and deliver those who throughout life were held in slavery by fear of death.

16 For, doubtless, He does not take hold of messengers, but He does take hold of the seed of Aḇraham.

17 So in every way He had to be made like His brothers, in order to become a compassionate and trustworthy High Priest in matters related to Elohim, to make atonement for the sins of the people.

18 For in what He had suffered, Himself being tried, He is able to help those who are tried.

3 Therefore, set-apart brothers, partakers of the heavenly calling, closely consider the Emissary and High Priest of our confession, Messiah ḇaḇrīm.

2 who was trustworthy to Him who appointed Him, as also Mosheh in all His house.

3 For this One has been deemed worthy of more esteem than Mosheh, as much as He who built the house enjoys more respect than the house.

4 For every house is built by someone, but He who built all is Elohim.

5 And Mosheh indeed was trustworthy in all His house as a servant, for a witness of what would be spoken later,

6 but Messiah as a Son over His own house, whose house we are if we hold fast the boldness and the boasting of the expectation firm to the end.

7 Therefore, as the Set-apart Spirit says, “Today, if you hear His voice,

8 do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion, in the day of trial in the wilderness,

9 where your fathers tried Me, proved Me, and saw My works forty years.

10 “Therefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, ‘They always go astray in their heart, and they have not known My ways.’

11 “As I swore in My wrath, ‘If they shall enter into My rest ...’ ”

12 Look out, brothers, lest there be in any of you a wicked heart of unbelief in falling away from the living Elohim, 13 but encourage one another daily, while it is called “Today,” lest any of you be hardened by the deceivableness of sin.

14 For we have become partakers of Messiah if we hold fast the beginning of our trust firm to the end,

15 while it is said, “Today, if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion.”

16 For who, having heard, rebelled? Was it not all who came out of Mitsrayim, led by Mosheh?

17 And with whom was He grieved forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose corpses fell in the wilderness?

18 And to whom did He swear that they would not enter into His rest, but to those who did not obey?

19 So we see that they were unable to

\textit{g} Teh. 22:22, Teh. 45:17, Yn. 17:6 & 26. \textit{h} Teh. 95:7-11. \textit{i} Obedience is the fruit of belief, and disobedience proves that such an one does not truly believe.
Therefore, since a promise remains of entering into His rest, let us fear lest any of you seem to have come short of it.

For indeed the Good News was brought to us as well as to them, but the word which they heard did not profit them, not having been mixed with belief in those who heard it.

For we who have believed do enter into that rest, as He has said, “As I swore in My wrath, if they shall enter into My rest...” And yet His works have come into being from the foundation of the world.

For somewhere He has said thus about the seventh day, “And Elohim rested on the seventh day from all His works,” and in this again, “If they shall enter into My rest...”

Since then it remains for some to enter into it, and those who formerly received the Good News did not enter in because of disobedience,

He again defines a certain day, “Today,” saying through Dawid so much later, as it has been said, “Today, if you hear His voice, do not harden your hearts.”

For if Yehoshua had given them rest, He would not have spoken of another day after that.

So there remains a Sabbath-keeping for the people of Elohim.

For the one, having entered into His rest, has himself also rested from his works, as Elohim rested from His own.

Let us therefore do our utmost to enter into that rest, lest anyone fall after the same example of disobedience.

For the Word of Elohim is living, and working, and sharper than any two-edged sword, cutting through even to the dividing of being and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and able to judge the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

And there is no creature hidden from the eyes of Him with whom is our account.

Therefore, since we have a great High Priest who has passed through the heavens, the Son of Elohim, let us hold fast our confession.

For we do not have a High Priest unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but One who was tried in all respects as we are, apart from sin.

Therefore, let us come boldly to the throne of favour, in order to receive compassion, and find favour for timely help.

For every priest taken from among men is appointed on behalf of men in matters relating to Elohim, to offer both gifts and offerings for sins, being able to have a measure of feeling for those not knowing and being led astray, since he himself is also surrounded by weakness.

And on account of this he has to offer for sins – as for the people, so also for himself.

And no one obtains this esteem for himself, but he who is called by Elohim, even as Aharon also was.

So also the Messiah did not extol Himself to become High Priest, but it was He who said to Him, “You are My Son, today I have brought You forth.”

As He also says in another place, “You are a priest forever according to the order of Malkitsedeq,” who, in the days of His flesh, when He had offered up prayers and petitions with strong crying and tears to Him who was able to save Him from death, and was heard because of His reverent fear, though being a Son, He learned obedience by what He suffered.

And having been perfected, He became the Causer of everlasting deliverance to all those obeying Him, having been designated by Elohim a High Priest “according to the order of \[\text{See footnote 3:18.} \]

Malkitsedeq,”
11 concerning whom we have much to say, and hard to explain, since you have become dull of hearing.
12 For indeed, although by this time you ought to be teachers, you need someone to teach you again the first elements of the Words of Elohim. And you have become such as need milk and not solid food.
13 For everyone partaking of milk is inexperienced in the word of righteousness, for he is a babe.
14 But solid food is for the mature whose senses have been trained by practice to discern both good and evil.

6 Therefore, having left the word of the beginning of the Messiah, let us go on to perfection, p not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of belief toward Elohim,
2 of the teaching of immersions, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of everlasting judgment.
3 And this we shall do, if Elohim indeed permits.
4 For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted the heavenly gift, and have become partakers of the Set-apart Spirit,
5 and have tasted the good Word of Elohim and the powers of the age to come,
6 and fall away, to renew them again to repentance – having impaled for themselves the Son of Elohim again, and put Him to open shame. q
7 For ground that is drinking the rain often falling on it, and is bearing plants fit for those by whom it is tilled, receives blessing from Elohim,
8 but if it brings forth thorns and thistles, it is rejected and near to being cursed, and ends up by being burned.
9 But although we speak in this way, beloved, we are persuaded, concerning you, of better matters which possess delivery.
10 For Elohim is not unrighteous to forget your work and labour of love which you have shown toward His Name, in that you have attended to the set-apart ones, and still attend.
11 And we desire that each one of you show the same eagerness, to the entire confirmation of expectation until the end,
12 in order that you do not become sluggish, but imitate those who through belief and patience inherit the promises.
13 For Elohim, having promised Abraham, since He could swear by no one greater, swore by Himself,
14 saying, “Truly, blessing I shall bless you, and increasing I shall increase you.”
15 And so, after being patient, he obtained the promise.
16 For men do indeed swear by the one greater, and an oath for confirmation is for them an end of all dispute.
17 In this way Elohim, resolving to show even more clearly to the heirs of promise the unchangeableness of His purpose, confirmed it by an oath,
18 so that by two unchangeable matters in which it is impossible for Elohim to lie, we might have strong encouragement, we who have fled for refuge to lay hold of the expectation set before us,
19 which we have as an anchor of the life, both safe and firm, and entering into that within the veil,
20 where יְהֹוָה has entered as a forerunner for us, having become High Priest forever according to the order of Malkitsedeq.

7 For this Malkitsedeq, sovereign of Shalêm, priest of the Most High Elohim, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the sovereigns and blessed him,
2 to whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all, his name being translated, indeed, first, ‘sovereign of righteousness,’ and then also sovereign of Shalêm, that is, ‘sovereign of peace,’
3 without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but having been made like the Son of Elohim, remains a priest for p Mt. 5:48.  q Heb. 10:26-31.

all time.

4 Now see how great this one was, to whom even the ancestor Abraham gave a tenth of the choicest booty.

5 And truly, those who are of the sons of Levi, who receive the priesthood, have a command to receive tithes from the people according to the Torah, that is, from their brothers, though they have come from the loins of Abraham,

6 however, the one whose genealogy is not derived from them received tithes from Abraham, and blessed the one who held the promises.

7 And it is beyond all dispute that the lesser is blessed by the better.

8 And here it is men who die that receive tithes, but there it is someone of whom it is witnessed that he lives.

9 And one might say that through Abraham even Levi, who received tithes, gave tithes,

10 for he was still in the loins of his father when Malkiiteseq met him.

11 Truly, then, if perfection were through the Leviitical priesthood – for under it the people were given the Torah – why was there still need for another priest to arise according to the order of Malkiiteseq, and not be called according to the order of Aharon?

12 For the priesthood being changed, of necessity there takes place a change of law.

13 For He of whom this is said belongs to another tribe, from which no one had attended at the altar.

14 For it is perfectly clear that our Master arose from Yehovah, a tribe about which Mosheh never spoke of concerning priesthood,

15 and this is clearer still, if another priest arises in the likeness of Malkiiteseq,

16 who has become, not according to the Torah of fleshly command, but according to the power of an endless life,

17 for He does witness, “You are a priest forever according to the order of Malkiiteseq.”

18 For there is indeed a setting aside of the former command because of its weakness and unprofitableness, 19 for the Torah perfected naught, but the bringing in of a better expectation, through which we draw near to Elohim.

20 And it was not without an oath!

21 For they indeed became priests without an oath, but He became Priest with an oath by Him who said to Him, “IÉRIM hath sworn and shall not regret, ‘You are a priest forever according to the order of Malkiiteseq.’”

22 By as much as this יְשֹׁמֵר has become a guarantor of a better covenant.

23 And indeed, those that became priests were many, because they were prevented by death from continuing,

24 but He, because He remains forever, has an unchangeable priesthood.

25 Therefore He is also able to save completely those who draw near to Elohim through Him, ever living to make intercession for them.

26 For it was fitting that we should have such a High Priest – kind, innocent, undefiled, having been separated from sinners, and exalted above the heavens,

27 who does not need, as those high priests, to offer up slaughter offerings day by day, first for His own sins and then for those of the people, for this He did once for all when He offered up Himself.

28 For the Torah appoints as high priests men who have weakness, but the word of the oath which came after the Torah, appoints the Son having been perfected forever.

8 Now the summary of what we are saying is: We have such a High Priest, who is seated at the right hand of the throne of the Greatness in the heavens,

2 and who serves in the set-apart place and of the true Tent, which יֹהֵנֵם set up, and not man.

3 For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and slaughters. So it was also necessary for this One to have something to offer.

4 For if indeed He were on earth, He would not be a priest, since there are priests who offer the gifts according to the Torah,

5 who serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly, as Moshe was warned when he was about to make the Tent. For He said, “See that you make all according to the pattern shown you on the mountain.”

6 But now He has obtained a more excellent service, inasmuch as He is also Mediator of a better covenant, which was constituted on better promises.

7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for a second.

8 For finding fault with them, He says, “See, the days are coming,” says יהוה, “when I shall conclude with the house of Yisra’el and with the house of Yehudah a renewed covenant, 9 not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Mitsrayim, because they did not continue in My covenant, and I disregarded them,” says יהוה.

10 “Because this is the covenant that I shall make with the house of Yisra’el after those days, says יהוה, giving My laws in their mind, and I shall write them on their hearts, and I shall be their Elohim, and they shall be My people.

11 “And they shall by no means teach each one his neighbour, and each one his brother, saying, ‘Know יהוה,’ because they all shall know Me, from the least of them to the greatest of them.

12 “Because I shall forgive their unrighteousness, and their sins and their lawlessnesses I shall no longer remember.”

13 By saying, ‘renewed,’ He has made the first. Now what becomes old and growing aged is near disappearing.

9 Now the first covenant indeed had regulations of worship and the earthly set-apart place.

2 For a Tent was prepared: the first part, in which was the lampstand, and the table, and the showbread, which is called the Set-apart Place.

3 And after the second veil, the part of the Tent which is called Most Set-apart,

4 to which belonged the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid on all sides with gold, in which were the golden pot that held the manna, and the rod of Aharon that budded, and the tablets of the covenant,

5 and above it the keruim of esteem were overshadowing the place of atonement – about which we do not now speak in detail.

6 And these having been prepared like this, the priests always went into the first part of the Tent, accomplishing the services.

7 But into the second part the high priest went alone once a year, not without blood, which he offered for himself and for sins of ignorance of the people,

8 the Set-apart Spirit signifying this, that the way into the Most Set-apart Place was not yet made manifest while the first Tent has a standing,

9 which was a parable for the present time in which both gifts and slaughters are offered which are unable to perfect the one serving, as to his conscience,

10 only as to foods and drinks, and different washings, and fleshly regulations imposed until a time of setting matters straight.

11 But Messiah, having become a High Priest of the coming good matters, through the greater and more perfect Tent not made with hands, that is, not of this creation,

12 entered into the Most Set-apart Place once for all, not with the blood of goats and calves, but with His own blood, having

\( ^{s} \) Messiah is called the Mediator of the New (Renewed) Covenant in Hebrews, in three places: 8:6, 9:15, 12:24.

\( ^{t} \) Yirm. 31:31-34, Heb. 10:16-17. \( ^{u} \) Bem. 15:15-28.
obtained everlasting redemption.
13 For if the blood of bulls and goats and the ashes of a heifer, sprinkling the defiled, sets apart for the cleansing of the flesh,
14 how much more shall the blood of the Messiah, who through the everlasting Spirit offered Himself unblemished to Elohim, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living Elohim?
15 And because of this He is the Mediator of a renewed covenant, so that, death having taken place for redemption of the transgressions under the first covenant, those who are called might receive the promise of the everlasting inheritance.
16 For where a covenant is, it is necessary for the death of the covenanted one to be established.
17 For a covenant over those dead is firm, since it is never valid while the covenanted one is living.
18 Therefore not even the first covenant was instituted without blood.
19 For when, according to Torah, every command had been spoken by Mosheh to all the people, he took the blood of calves and goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people,
20 saying, “This is the blood of the covenant which Elohim commanded you.”
21 And in the same way he sprinkled with blood both the Tent and all the vessels of the service.
22 And, according to the Torah, almost all is cleansed with blood, and without shedding of blood there is no forgiveness.
23 It was necessary, then, that the copies of the heavenly ones should be cleansed with these, but the heavenly ones themselves with better slaughter offerings than these.
24 For Messiah has not entered into a Set-apart Place made by hand – figures of the true – but into the heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of Elohim on our behalf;
25 not that He should offer Himself often, as the high priest enters into the Set-apart Place year by year with blood not his own.
26 For if so, He would have had to suffer often, since the foundation of the world. But now He has appeared once for all at the end of the ages to put away sin by the offering of Himself.
27 And as it awaits men to die once, and after this the judgment,
28 so also the Messiah, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, shall appear a second time, apart from sin, to those waiting for Him, unto deliverance.

10 For the Torah, having a shadow of the good matters to come, and not the image itself of the matters, was never able to make perfect those who draw near with the same slaughter offerings which they offer continually year by year.
2 Otherwise, would they not have ceased to be offered? Because those who served, once cleansed, would have had no more consciousness of sins.
3 But in those offerings is a reminder of sins year by year.
4 For it is impossible for blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.
5 Therefore, coming into the world, He says, “Slaughtering and meal offering You did not desire, but a body You have prepared for Me.
6 “In burnt offerings and offerings for sin You did not delight.
7 “Then I said, ‘See, I come – in the roll of the book it has been written concerning Me – to do Your desire, O Elohim.’ ”
8 Saying above, “Slaughtering and meal offering, and burnt offerings, and offerings for sin You did not desire, nor delighted in,” which are offered according to the Torah, 9 then He said, “See, I come to do Your desire, O Elohim.” He takes away the first to establish the second.
10 By that desire we have been set apart through the offering of the body of Messiah once for all.
11 And indeed every priest stands day by day doing service, and repeatedly offering

1 Verses 5 and 6 - refer Teh. 40:6,7.
the same slaughter offerings which are never able to take away sins.

12 But He, having offered one slaughter offering for sins for all time, sat down at the right hand of Elohim, 13 waiting from that time onward until His enemies are made a footstool for His feet.
14 For by one offering He has perfected for all time those who are being set apart.
15 And the Set-apart Spirit also witnesses to us, for after having said before,
16 “This is the covenant that I shall make with them after those days, says יהוה, giving My laws into their hearts, and in their minds I shall write them,” v
17 and, “Their sins and their lawlessnesses I shall remember no more.”
18 Now where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer a slaughter offering for sin.
19 So, brothers, having boldness to enter into the Set-apart Place by the blood of יהוה,
20 by a new and living way which He instituted for us, through the veil, that is, His flesh,
21 and having a High Priest over the House of Elohim,
22 let us draw near with a true heart in completeness of belief, having our hearts sprinkled from a wicked conscience and our bodies washed with clean water.
23 Let us hold fast the confession of our expectation without yielding, for He who promised is trustworthy.
24 And let us be concerned for one another in order to stir up love and good works, w
25 not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging, and so much more as you see the Day coming near.
26 For if we sin purposefully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there no longer remains a slaughter offering for sins, x
27 but some fearsome anticipation of judgment, and a fierce fire which is about to consume the opponents.

28 Anyone who has disregarded the Torah of Mosheh dies without compassion on the witness of two or three witnesses.
29 How much worse punishment do you think shall he deserve who has trampled the Son of Elohim underfoot, counted the blood of the covenant by which he was set apart as common, and insulted the Spirit of favour?
30 For we know Him who has said, “Vengeance is Mine, I shall repay, says יהוה.” And again, “יהוה shall judge His people.”
31 It is fearsome to fall into the hands of the living Elohim.
32 But remember the former days, when, after you were enlightened, you endured a great struggle with sufferings.
33 On the one hand you were exposed to reproaches and pressures, and on the other hand you became sharers with those who were so treated,
34 for you sympathised with me in my chains, and you accepted with joy the seizure of your possessions, knowing that you have a better and a lasting possession for yourselves in the heavens.
35 Do not, then, lose your boldness, which has great reward.
36 For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the desire of Elohim, you receive the promise:
37 “For yet a little while – He who is coming shall come and shall not delay.”
38 “But the righteous shall live by belief, but if anyone draws back, my being has no pleasure in him.”
39 But we are not of those who draw back to destruction, but of belief to the preservation of life.

11 And belief is the substance of what is expected, the proof of what is not seen.
2 For by this the elders obtained witness.
3 By belief, we understand that the ages were prepared by the word of Elohim, so that what is seen was not made of what is

v Yirm. 31:33, Heb. 8:8-12.  w Mt. 16:27.  x See also 6:6. This type of sinning is in contrast with sinning ignorantly – Heb. 9:7, Bem. 15:15-28.
4 By belief, Hebel offered to Elohim a greater slaughter offering than Qayin, through which he obtained witness that he was righteous, Elohim witnessing of his gifts. And through it, having died, he still speaks.

5 By belief, Ḥanoḵ was translated so as not to see death, “and was not found because Elohim had translated him.” For before his translation he obtained witness, that he pleased Elohim.

6 But without belief it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to Elohim has to believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who earnestly seek Him.

7 By belief, Noah, having been warned of what was yet unseen, having feared, prepared an ark to save his house, through which he condemned the world and became heir of the righteousness which is according to belief.

8 By belief, Abraham obeyed when he was called to go out to the place which he was about to receive as an inheritance. And he went out, not knowing where he was going.

9 By belief, he sojourned in the land of promise as a stranger, dwelling in tents with Yitsḥaq and Yaκqōb, the heirs with him of the same promise,

10 for he was looking for the city having foundations, whose builder and maker is Elohim.

11 By belief also, Sarah herself was enabled to conceive seed, and she bore a child when she was past the normal age, because she deemed Him trustworthy who had promised.

12 And so from one, and him as good as dead, were born as numerous as the stars of the heaven, as countless as the sand which is by the seashore.

13 In belief all these died, not having received the promises, *but seeing them from a distance, welcomed and embraced them, and confessed that they were aliens and strangers on the earth.

14 For those who speak this way make it clear that they seek a fatherland.

15 And yet, if they had indeed kept remembering that place from which they had come out, they would have had the chance to return.

16 But now they long for a better place, that is, a heavenly. Therefore Elohim is not ashamed to be called their Elohim, for He has prepared a city for them.

17 By belief, Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Yitsḥaq, and he who had received the promises offered up his only brought-forth son,

18 of whom it was said, “In Yitsḥaq your seed shall be called,”

19 reckoning that Elohim was able to raise, even from the dead, from which he received him back, as a type.

20 By belief, Yitsḥaq blessed Yaκqōb and Ésaw concerning that which was to come.

21 By belief, Yaκqōb, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Yosēph, and did reverence on the top of his staff.

22 By belief, Yosēph, when he was dying, made mention of the outgoing of the children of Yisra’āl, and gave orders concerning his bones.

23 By belief, Mosheh, having been born, was hidden three months by his parents, because they saw he was a comely child, and were not afraid of the sovereign’s command.

24 By belief, Mosheh, having become great, refused to be called the son of the daughter of Pharaoh,

25 choosing rather to be afflicted with the people of Elohim than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a time,

26 deeming the reproach of Messiah greater riches than the treasures in Mitsrayim, for he was looking to the reward.

27 By belief, he left Mitsrayim, not fearing the wrath of the sovereign, for he was steadfast, as seeing Him who is invisible.

28 By belief, he performed the Passover and the sprinkling of blood, lest he who destroyed the first-born should touch them.

29 By belief, they passed through the Red Sea as by dry land, and when the Mitsrites tried it, they were drowned.

30 By belief, the walls of Yeriho fell, having been surrounded for seven days.

31 By belief, Raḥaḇ the whore did not perish with those who did not believe, having received the spies with peace.

32 And what more shall I say? For the time would fail me to relate of GidÈôn and Baraq and Shimshon and Yiphtaḥ, also of Dawid and Shemu'ēl and the prophets,

33 who through belief, overcame reigns, worked righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,

34 quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, became mighty in battle, put foreign armies to flight.

35 Women received back their dead by resurrection. And others were tortured, not accepting release, to obtain a better resurrection.

36 And others had trial of mockings and floggings and more, of chains and imprisonment.

37 They were stoned, they were tried, they were sawn in two, they were slain with the sword. They went about in sheepskins, in goatskins, being in need, afflicted, mistreated, 38 of whom the world was not worthy – wandering in deserts and mountains and caves and holes of the earth.

39 And having obtained witness through the belief, all these did not receive the promise, 40 Elohim having provided what is better for us, that they should not be made perfect apart from us.

12 We too, then, having so great a cloud of witnesses all around us, let us lay aside every weight and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let us run with endurance the race set before us,

2 looking to the Princely Leader and Perfecter of our belief, Ḫôshèp, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the stake, having despised the shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of Elohim.

3 For consider Him who endured such opposition from sinners against Himself, lest you become weary and faint in your lives.

4 You have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.

5 And you have forgotten the appeal which speaks to you as to sons, “My son, do not despise the discipline of Elohim, nor faint when you are reproved by Him,

6 for whom Ḫôshèp loves, He disciplines, and flogs every son whom He receives.”

7 If you endure discipline, Elohim is treating you as sons. For what son is there whom a father does not discipline?

8 But if you are without discipline, of which all have become sharers, then you are illegitimate and not sons.

9 Moreover, we indeed had fathers of our flesh disciplining us, and we paid them respect. Shall we not much rather be subject to the Father of spirits, and live?

10 For they indeed disciplined us for a few days as seemed best to them, but He does it for our profit, so that we might share His apartness.

11 And indeed, no discipline seems pleasant at the time, but grievous, but afterward it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness to those who have been trained by it.

12 So, strengthen the hands which hang down and the weak knees,

13 and make straight paths for your feet, lest the lame be turned aside, but instead, to be healed.

14 Pursue peace with all, and pursue apartness without which no one shall see the Master.

15 See to it that no one falls short of the favour of Elohim, that no root of bitterness springing up causes trouble, by which many become defiled, z See v. 13.  a Mish. 3:11-12.  b This is the purpose of Him disciplining us, “flogging” us: to set us apart, so that we bear the fruit of righteousness. He did the same to Yisra’ēl – see De批发. 8:2.  c If we do not allow Ḫôshèp in us to bring us to set-apartness, so that we bear the fruit of righteousness, it would prove to have been all in vain – we shall not see Him!

16 lest there be anyone who whores, or profane one, like Šaw, who for a single meal sold his birthright.

17 For you know that afterward, when he wished to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no place for repentance, though he sought it with tears.

18 For you have not drawn near to a mountain touched and scorched with fire, and to blackness, and darkness and storm,

19 and a sound of a trumpet, and a voice of words, so that those who heard it begged that no further Word should be spoken to them, d

20 for they could not bear what was commanded, “If even a beast touches the mountain, it shall be stoned or shot through with an arrow.”

21 And so fearsome was the sight that Mosheh said, “I exceedingly fear and tremble.”

22 But you have drawn near to Mount Tsiyon and to the city of the living Elohim, to the heavenly Yerushalayim, to myriads of messengers,

23 to the entire gathering and assembly of the first-born having been enrolled in heaven, and to Elohim the Judge of all, and to the spirits of righteous men made perfect, 24 and to יְהֹוָה the Mediator e of a new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling which speaks better than the blood of HeÄel.

25 Take heed not to refuse the One speaking. For if those did not escape who refused the warning on earth, much less we who turn away from Him from heaven,

26 whose voice shook the earth then, but now He has promised, saying, “Yet once more I shake not only the earth, but also the heaven.”

27 And this, “Yet once more,” makes clear the removal of what is shaken – as having been made – so that the unshaken matters might remain.

28 Therefore, receiving an unshakeable reign, let us hold the favour, through which we serve Elohim pleasingly with reverence and awe, 29 for indeed, our Elohim is a consuming fire.

13 Let the brotherly love continue. 2 Do not forget to receive strangers, for by so doing some have unwittingly entertained messengers.

3 Remember the prisoners as if chained with them, and those being mistreated, since you yourselves also are in the body.

4 Let marriage be respected by all, and the bed be undefiled. But Elohim shall judge those who whore, and adulterers.

5 Let your way of life be without the love of money, and be satisfied with what you have. For He Himself has said, “I shall never leave you nor forsake you,”

6 so that we boldly say, “יהוה is my helper, I shall not fear what man shall do to me.”

7 Remember those leading you, who spoke the Word of Elohim to you. Consider the outcome of their way of life and imitate their belief.

8 יְשׁוֹבֵב Messiah is the same yesterday, and today, and forever.

9 Do not be borne about by various and strange teachings. f For it is good for the heart to be established by favour, not with foods which have not profited those who have been occupied with them.

10 We have an altar from which those serving the Tent have no authority to eat.

11 For the bodies of those beasts whose blood is brought into the Set-apart Place by the high priest for sin, are burned outside the camp.

12 And so יְשׁוֹבֵב also suffered outside the gate, to set apart the people with His own blood.

13 Let us, then, go to Him outside the camp, bearing His reproach.

14 For we have no lasting city here, but we seek the one coming.

15 Through Him then, let us continually offer up a slaughter offering of praise to Elohim, that is, the fruit \(^{1}\) of our lips, giving thanks to His Name.

16 And do not forget to do good and to share, for with such slaughter offerings Elohim is well pleased.

17 Obey those leading you, and be subject to them, for they watch for your lives, as having to give account. Let them do so with joy and not groaning, for that would be of no advantage to you.

18 Pray for us, for we trust that we have a good conscience, desiring to behave well in every way.

19 But I particularly encourage you to do this, that I might be restored to you the sooner.

20 And the Elohim of peace who brought up our Master from the dead, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, 21 make you perfect \(^{g}\) in every good work to do His desire, working in you \(^{h}\) what is pleasing in His sight, through Messiah, to whom be esteem forever and ever. Amên.

22 And I call upon you, brothers, bear with the word of encouragement for I have written to you in few words.

23 Know that brother Timothy has been released, with whom I shall see you if he comes shortly.

24 Greet all those leading you, and all the set-apart ones. Those from Italy greet you.

25 Favour be with you all. Amên.

1 Ya’aqob, a servant of Elohim and of the Master Messiah, to the twelve tribes who are in the dispersion: Greetings.

2 My brothers, count it all joy when you fall into various trials,

3 knowing that the proving of your belief works endurance.

4 And let endurance have a perfect work, so that you be perfect and complete, lacking in naught.

5 If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of Elohim, who gives to all generously and without reproach, and it shall be given to him.

6 But he should ask in belief, not doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea driven and tossed by the wind.

7 For that man should not think that he shall receive whatever from the Master –

8 he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

9 And let the lowly brother boast in his exaltation,

10 but the rich in his humiliation, because as a flower of the field he shall pass away.

11 For the sun rose with burning heat, and withered the grass, and its flower fell, and its pretty appearance perished. So also the rich man shall fade away in his ways.

12 Blessed is the man who does endure trial, for when he has been proved, he shall receive the crown of life which the Master has promised to those who love Him.

13 Let no one say when he is enticed, “I am enticed by Elohim,” for Elohim is not enticed by evil matters, and He entices no one.

14 But each one is enticed when he is drawn away by his own desires and trapped.

15 Then, when desire has conceived, it gives birth to sin. And sin, when it has been accomplished, brings forth death.

16 Do not go astray, my beloved brothers.

17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no change, nor shadow of turning. a

18 Having purposed it, He brought us forth by the Word of truth, for us to be a kind of first-fruits of His creatures.

19 So then, my beloved brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath, 20 for the wrath of man does not work the righteousness of Elohim.

21 Therefore put away all filthiness and overflow of evil, and receive with meekness the implanted Word, b which is able to save your lives.

22 And become doers of the Word, and not hearers only, c deceiving yourselves.

23 Because if anyone is a hearer of the Word and not a doer, he is like a man who looks at his natural face in a mirror, 24 for he looks at himself, and goes away, and immediately forgets what he was like.

25 But he that looked into the perfect Torah, that of freedom, d and continues in it, not becoming a hearer that forgets, but a doer of work, this one shall be blessed in his doing of the Torah.

26 If anyone among you thinks he is religious, and does not bridle his tongue but deceives his own heart, this one’s religion is worthless.

27 Clean and undefiled religion before the Elohim and Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained from the world.

d See 2:12.
2 My brothers, do not hold the belief of our Master Messiah, the Master of esteem, with partiality.
3 For if there should come into your meeting a man with gold rings, in a splendid robe, and there should also come in a poor one dressed in rags,
4 and you pay attention to the one wearing the splendid robe and say to him, “You sit here in a good place,” and say to the poor one, “You stand there,” or, “Sit here by my feet,”
5 have you not discriminated among yourselves, and become judges with wicked thoughts?
6 Listen, my beloved brothers: Has Elohim not chosen the poor of this world, rich in belief and heirs of the reign which He promised to those who love Him?
7 But you have shown disrespect towards the poor man. Do not the rich oppress you and drag you into the courts?
8 Do they not blaspheme that good Name by which you are called?
9 If you truly accomplish the sovereign law according to the Scripture, “You shall love your neighbour as yourself,” you do well,
10 but if you show partiality, you commit sin, being found guilty by the Torah as transgressors.
11 For whoever shall guard all the Torah, and yet stumble in one point, he is guilty of all.
12 For He who said, “Do not commit adultery,” also said, “Do not murder.” Now if you do not commit adultery, but you do murder, you have become a transgressor of Torah.
13 So speak and so do as those who are to be judged by a Torah of freedom.
14 My brothers, what use is it for anyone to say he has belief but does not have works? This belief is unable to save him.
15 And if a brother or sister is naked and in need of daily food,
16 but one of you says to them, “Go in peace, be warmed and be filled,” but you do not give them the bodily needs, what use is it?
17 So also belief, if it does not have works, is in itself dead.
18 But someone might say, “You have belief, and I have works.” Show me your belief without your works, and I shall show you my belief by my works.
19 You believe that Elohim is one. You do well. The demons also believe — and shudder!
20 But do you wish to know, O foolish man, that the belief without the works is dead?
21 Was not Aḇraham our father declared right by works when he offered Yitsāq his son on the altar?
22 Do you see that the belief was working with his works, and by the works the belief was perfected?
23 And the Scripture was filled which says, “Aḇraham believed Elohim, and it was reckoned to him for righteousness.” And he was called, “Elohim’s friend.”
24 You see, then, that a man is declared right by works, and not by belief alone.
25 In the same way, was not Raḥab the whore also declared right by works when she received the messengers and sent them out another way?
26 For as the body without the spirit is dead, so also the belief is dead without the works.

3 Not many of you should become teachers, my brothers, knowing that we shall receive greater judgment.
2 For we all stumble in many matters. If anyone does not stumble in word, he is a perfect man, able also to bridle the entire body.
3 Look, we put bits in the mouths of horses, for them to obey us, and we turn their body.

=e By reading this in context one clearly sees that this “law” refers to the Ten Words (the Ten Commands). This verse warns us once again to keep all Ten Words.
=See 1:25, and Yn. 8:32-36.
4 Look at the ships too: although they are so big and are driven by strong winds, they are turned by a very small rudder wherever the pilot intends.

5 So too the tongue is a little member, yet boasts greatly. See how a little fire kindles a great forest!

6 And the tongue is a fire, the world of unrighteousness. Among our members the tongue is set, the one defiling the entire body, and setting on fire the wheel of life, and it is set on fire by Gehenna.

7 For every kind of beast and bird, of reptile and creature of the sea, is tamed and has been tamed by mankind.

8 But no man is able to tame the tongue. It is unruly, evil, filled with deadly poison.

9 With it we bless our Elohim and Father, and with it we curse men, who have been made in the likeness of Elohim.

10 Out of the same mouth proceed blessing and cursing. My brothers, this should not be so.

11 Does the fountain send forth the sweet and the bitter from the same opening?

12 My brothers, is a fig tree able to bear olives, or a grapevine figs? So neither is a fountain able to make salt and sweet water.

13 Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show by his good behaviour his works in meekness of wisdom.

14 But if you have bitter jealousy and self-seeking in your hearts, do not boast against and lie against the truth.

15 This is not the wisdom coming down from above, but it is earthly, unspiritual, demonic.

16 For where jealousy and self-seeking are, there is confusion and every foul deed.

17 But the wisdom from above is first clean, then peaceable, gentle, ready to obey, filled with compassion and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy.

18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

4 Where do fightings and strivings come from among you? Do they not come from your pleasures that battle in your members?

2 You desire, and do not have. You murder, and are jealous, and are unable to obtain. You strive and fight, and you do not possess, because you do not ask.

3 You ask and do not receive, because you ask evilly, in order to spend it on your pleasures.

4 Adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with Elohim? Whoever therefore intends to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of Elohim.

5 Or do you think that the Scripture speaks to no purpose? Does the Spirit which dwells in us intensely crave unto envy?

6 But He gives greater favour. Because of this He says, “Elohim resists the proud, but gives favour to the humble.”

7 So then subject yourselves to Elohim. Resist the devil and he shall flee from you.

8 Draw near to Elohim and He shall draw near to you. Cleanse hands, sinners. And cleanse the hearts, you double-minded!

9 Lament and mourn and weep! Let your laughter be turned to mourning and your joy to dejection.

10 Humble yourselves in the sight of the Master, and He shall lift you up.

11 Brothers, do not speak against one another. He that speaks against a brother and judges his brother, speaks against Torah and judges Torah. And if you judge Torah, you are not a doer of Torah but a judge.

12 There is one Lawgiver and Judge, who is able to save and to destroy. Who are you to judge another?

13 Come now, you who say, “Today or tomorrow, let us go to such and such a city, spend a year there, and trade, and make a profit,”

14 when you do not know of tomorrow. For what is your life? For it is a vapour that appears for a little, and then disappears – instead of your saying, “If the Master

\(^{h}\) See Philip. 1:11 and footnote. \(^{i}\) Mt. 13:22, Lk. 4:5-6, Lk. 14:33, Rom. 12:2, 1 Yn. 2:15-17. \(^{j}\) Or adversary.
desires, we shall live and do this or that.”

16 But now you boast in your proud speeches. All such boasting is wicked.

17 To him, then, who knows to do good and does not do it, to him it is sin.

5 Come now, rich ones, weep, crying aloud over the hardships coming upon you!

2 Your riches have rotted, and your garments have become moth-eaten.

3 Your gold and silver have become rusty, and their rust shall be a witness against you and shall eat your flesh like fire. You have laid up treasure in the last days.

4 See, the wages of the workmen who mowed your fields, which you kept back, cry out. And the cries of the reapers have reached the ears of יְהֹוָה of hosts.

5 You have lived on the earth in pleasure and luxury, you have fattened your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.

6 You have condemned, you have murdered the righteous – he does not resist you.

7 So, brothers, be patient until the coming of the Master. See, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, waiting patiently for it until it receives the early and latter rain.

8 You too, be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Master has drawn near.

9 Do not grumble against each other, brothers, lest you be judged. See, the Judge is standing at the door!

10 My brothers, as an example of suffering and patience, take the prophets, who spoke in the Name of יְהֹוָה.

11 See, we call those blessed who endure. You have heard of the endurance of יִוְרָע and saw the purpose of יְהֹוָה, that He is very sympathetic and compassionate.

12 But above all, my brothers, do not swear, either by the heaven or by the earth or with any other oath. But let your Yea be Yea, and your No, No, lest you fall into judgment.

14 Is anyone among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the assembly, and let them pray over him, having anointed him with oil in the Name of the Master.

15 And the prayer of the belief shall save the sick, and the Master shall raise him up. And if he has committed sins, he shall be forgiven.

16 Confess your trespasses to one another, and pray for one another, so that you are healed. The earnest prayer of a righteous one accomplishes much.

17 אֱלָיוֹ ה צָאֵן was a man with feelings like us, and he prayed earnestly that it would not rain. And it did not rain on the land for three years and six months.

18 And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the land brought forth its fruit.

19 Brothers, if anyone among you goes astray from the truth, and someone turns him back, 20 let him know that he who turns a sinner from the straying of his way shall save a life from death and cover a great number of sins.

1 Kēpha, an emissary of יהושו’a Messiah, to the chosen, strangers of the dispersion in Pontos, Galatia, Kappadokia, Asia, and Bithunia, 2chosen according to the foreknowledge of Elohim the Father, set apart by the Spirit unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of יהושו’a Messiah: Favour and peace be increased to you.

3Blessed be the Elohim and Father of our Master יהושו’a Messiah, who according to His great compassion has caused us to be born again to a living expectation through the resurrection of יהושו’a Messiah from the dead, 4to an inheritance incorruptible and undefiled and unfading, having been kept in the heavens for you,

5who are protected by the power of Elohim through belief, for a deliverance ready to be revealed in the last time,

6in which you exult, even though for a little while, if need be, you have been grieved by manifold trials,

7in order that the proving of your belief – much more precious than gold that perishes, and proven by fire – might be found to result in praise and respect and esteem at the revelation of יהושו’a Messiah,

8whom having not seen, you love; in whom you exult with unspeakable and esteemed joy, yet not seeing, but believing, 9obtaining the goal of your belief: a deliverance of lives.

10Concerning this deliverance the prophets have sought out and searched out, prophesying concerning the favour for you,

11searching to know what, or what sort of time, the Spirit which was in them was pointing out concerning Messiah, when it was bearing witness beforehand the sufferings of Messiah, and the esteems that would follow, 12to whom it was revealed that they were serving, not themselves, but you, in these matters which now have been announced to you through those who brought the Good News to you by the Set-apart Spirit sent from heaven – into which messengers long to look into.

13Therefore, having girded up the loins of your mind, being sober, set your expectation perfectly upon the favour that is to be brought to you at the revelation of יהושו’a Messiah, 14as obedient children, not conforming yourselves to the former lusts in your ignorance,

15instead, as the One who called you is set-apart, so you also should become set-apart in all behaviour,

16because it has been written, “Be set-apart, for I am set-apart.”

17And if you call on the Father, who without partiality judges according to each one’s work, pass the time of your sojourning in fear,

18knowing that you were redeemed from your futile way of life inherited from your fathers, not with what is corruptible, silver or gold,

19but with the precious blood of Messiah, as of a lamb unblemished and spotless, 20foreknown, indeed, before the foundation of the world, but manifested in these last times for your sakes, 21who through Him believe in Elohim who raised Him from the dead and gave Him esteem, so that your belief and expectation are in Elohim.

22Now that you have cleansed your lives in obeying the truth through the Spirit to unfeigned brotherly love, love one another fervently with a clean heart,

23having been born again – not of cor-

\a Obedience is also stressed in vv. 14 & 22.
ruptible seed, but incorruptible – through the living Word of Elohim, which remains forever, 24 because “All flesh is as grass, and all the esteem of man as the flower of the grass. The grass withers, and its flower falls away, 25 but the Word of Elohim remains forever.” b And this is the Word, announced as Good News to you.

2 Having put aside, then, all evil, and all deceit, and hypocrisies, and envyings, and all evil words,
2 as newborn babes, desire the unadulterated milk of the Word, in order that you grow by it,
3 if indeed you have tasted that the Master is good.
4 Drawing near to Him, a living Stone – rejected indeed by men, but chosen by Elohim and precious –
5 you also, as living stones, are being built up, a spiritual house, a set-apart priesthood, to offer up spiritual slaughter offerings acceptable to Elohim through Messiah.

6 Because it is contained in the Scripture, “See, I lay in Tsiyon a chief corner-stone, chosen, precious, and he who believes on Him shall by no means be put to shame.” c
7 This preciousness, then, is for you who believe; but to those who are disobedient, “The stone which the builders rejected has become the chief corner-stone;” d
8 and “A stone of stumbling and a rock that makes for falling,” e who stumble because they are disobedient / to the Word, to which they also were appointed.

9 But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a set-apart nation, a people for a possession, that you should proclaim the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvellous light,
10 who once were not a people, but now the people of Elohim; who had not obtained compassion, but now obtained compassion.

11 Beloved ones, I appeal to you as sojourners and pilgrims, to abstain from fleshly lusts which battle against the life,
12 having your behaviour among the gentiles good so that when they speak against you as evil-doers, let them, by observing your good works, g esteem Elohim in a day of visitation.
13 Be subject to every institution of man because of the Master, whether to the sovereign as supreme,
14 or to governors, as to those who are sent by him for the punishment of doers of evil, and a praise for those who do good.
15 Because such is the desire of Elohim, that by doing good you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish men, 16 as free, yet not using your freedom as a cloak for evil, but as servants of Elohim.
17 Respect all, love the brotherhood, fear Elohim, respect the sovereign.
18 Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear, not only to the good and gentle, but also to the crooked ones.
19 For this is favour, if because of conscience toward Elohim anyone bears up under grief, suffering unrighteously.
20 For what credit is there in enduring a beating when you sin? But if you suffer for doing good and you endure, this finds favour with Elohim.
21 For to this you were called, because Messiah also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps, h
22 “who committed no sin, i nor was deceit found in His mouth,” j
23 who, being reviled, did not revile in return; suffering, did not threaten, but committed Himself to Him who judges righteously;
24 who Himself bore our sins in His body on the timber, so that we, having died to sins, might live unto righteousness k – by whose stripes you were healed.
25 For you were like sheep going astray, but have now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your lives.

3 In the same way, wives, be subject to your own husbands, so that if any are disobedient to the Word, they, without a word, might be won by the behaviour of their wives,

2 having seen your blameless behaviour in fear.

3 Your adornment should not be outward – arranging the hair, wearing gold, or putting on dresses –

4 but the hidden Man of the heart, with the incorruptible ornament of a meek and peaceable spirit, which is of great value before Elohim.

5 For in this way, in former times, the set-apart women who trusted in Elohim also adorned themselves, being subject to their own husbands,

6 as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him master, of whom you became children, doing good, and not frightened by any fear.

7 In the same way, husbands, live understandingly together, giving respect to the wife, as to the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the favour of life, so that your prayers are not hindered.

8 To sum up, let all of you be like-minded, sympathetic, loving as brothers, tenderhearted, humble-minded,

9 not returning evil for evil or reviling for reviling, but on the contrary blessing, knowing that you were called to this, in order to inherit a blessing.

10 For “He who wishes to love life and see good days, let him keep his tongue from evil, and his lips from speaking deceit, 11 let him turn away from evil and do good, let him seek peace and pursue it.

12 “Because the eyes of Elohim are on the righteous, and his ears are open to their prayers, but the face of Elohim is against those who do evil.”

13 And who is the one doing evil to you, if you become imitators of the good?

14 But even if you suffer for righteousness’ sake, you are blessed. m “And do not fear their threats, neither be troubled.”

15 But set apart Elohim in your hearts, and always be ready to give an answer to everyone asking you a reason concerning the expectation that is in you, with meekness and fear, 16 having a good conscience, so that when they speak against you as doers of evil, those who falsely accuse your good behaviour in Messiah, shall be ashamed.

17 For it is better, if it is the desire of Elohim, to suffer for doing good than for doing evil.

18 Because even Messiah once suffered for sins, the righteous for the unrighteous, to bring you to Elohim, n having been put to death indeed in flesh but made alive in the Spirit,

19 in which also He went and proclaimed unto the spirits in prison,

20 who were disobedient at one time when the patience of Elohim waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight beings, were saved through water,

21 which figure now also saves us: immersion – not a putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward Elohim – through the resurrection of the Messiah,

22 who, having gone into heaven, is at the right hand of Elohim, messengers and authorities and powers having been subjected to Him.

4 Therefore, since Messiah suffered in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same mind, because he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin, o

2 so that he no longer lives the rest of his time in the flesh for the lusts of men, but according to the desire of Elohim.

3 For we have spent enough of our past lifetime in doing the desire of the gentiles, having walked in indecencies, lusts, drunkenness, orgies, wild parties, and abominable idolatries,

4 in which they are surprised that you do not run with them in the same flood of loose behaviour, blaspheming,

1 Teh. 34:12-16. m Mt. 5:10. n Rom. 5:18. o Rom. 6:2-22, 1 Kêpha 2:25. who shall give an account to Him who is ready to judge the living and the dead.

For this reason the Good News was also brought to those who are dead, so that, whereas they are judged according to men in the flesh, they might live according to Elohim in the spirit.

But the end of all has drawn near. Therefore be sober-minded, and be attentive in the prayers.

And above all have fervent love for one another, because love covers a great number of sins.

Welcome one another without grumbling.

As each one has received a gift, serve one another, as good trustees of the manifold favour of Elohim.

If anyone speaks, let it be as the Words of Elohim. If anyone serves, let it be as with the strength which Elohim provides, so that Elohim might be praised in it all through Messiah, to whom belong the esteem and the rule forever and ever. Amén.

Beloved ones, do not be surprised at the fiery trial that is coming upon you, to try you, as though some unusual matter has befallen you, but as you share Messiah’s sufferings, rejoice, in order that you might rejoice exultingly at the revelation of His esteem.

If you are reproached for the Name of Messiah, you are blessed, because the Spirit of esteem and of Elohim rests upon you. On their part He is blasphemed, but on your part He is praised.

For do not let any of you suffer as a murderer, or thief, or doer of evil, or as a meddler.

But if one suffers being Messianic, let him not be ashamed, but let him esteem Elohim in this matter.

Because it is time for judgment to begin from the House of Elohim. And if firstly from us, what is the end of those who do not obey the Good News of Elohim?

And if the righteous one is scarcely saved, where shall the wicked and the sinner appear?

So then, those who suffer according to the desire of Elohim should commit their lives to a trustworthy Creator, in doing good.

Therefore, as a fellow elder and a witness of the sufferings of Messiah, and also a sharer of the esteem that is to be revealed, I appeal to the elders among you:

Shepherd the flock of Elohim which is among you, serving as overseers, not by compulsion but voluntarily, not out of greed for filthy gain, but eagerly, neither as being masters over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock.

And when the Chief Shepherd appears, you shall receive the never-fading crown of esteem.

In the same way, you younger ones, be subject to elders. And gird yourselves with humility toward one another, for “Elohim resists the proud, but gives favour to the humble.”

Humble yourselves, then, under the mighty hand of Elohim, so that He exalts you in due time, casting all your worry upon Him, for He is concerned about you.

Be sober, watch, because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking someone to devour.

Resist him, firm in the belief, knowing that the same hardships are experienced by your brotherhood in the world.

And the Elohim of all favour, who called you to His everlasting esteem by Messiah, after you have suffered a while, Himself perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you.

To Him be the esteem and the might forever and ever. Amén.

Through Sila the trustworthy brother, as I reckon, I have written to you briefly, encouraging and witnessing that this is the true favour of Elohim. In this stand fast.

She who is in Babel, chosen together with you, greets you, also my son, Mark.

Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace to all of you who are in Messiah. Amén.
1 Shim'on Kêpha, a servant and emissary of Ἰς Μεσσίας, to those who have obtained a belief as precious as ours by the righteousness of our Elohim and Saviour Ἰς Μεσσίας:

2 Favour and peace be increased to you in the knowledge of Elohim and of Ἰς Μεσσίας our Master,

3 as His Mighty-like power has given to us all we need for life and reverence, through the knowledge of Him who called us to esteem and uprightness.

4 Through these there have been given to us exceedingly great and precious promises, so that through these you might be partakers of the Mighty-like nature, having escaped from the corruption in the world, caused by lust.

5 And for this reason do your utmost to add to your belief uprightness, to uprightness knowledge,

6 to knowledge self-control, to self-control endurance, to endurance reverence,

7 to reverence brotherly affection, and to brotherly affection love.

8 For if these are in you and increase, they cause you to be neither inactive nor without fruit in the knowledge of our Master Ἰς Μεσσίας.

9 For he in whom these are not present is blind, being shortsighted, and has forgotten that he has been cleansed from his old sins.

10 For this reason, brothers, all the more do your utmost to make firm your calling and choosing a, for if you are doing these matters you shall never stumble at all,

11 for in this way an entrance into the everlasting reign of our Master and Saviour Ἰς Μεσσίας shall be richly supplied to you.

12 And so I intend to remind you of these matters again and again, though you know them and have been established in the present truth.

13 But I think it is right, as long as I am in this tent, to stir you up by a reminder, 14 knowing that the putting off of my tent is soon, even as our Master Ἰς Μεσσίας made clear to me.

15 And I shall do my utmost also, to see to it that you always have a reminder of these matters after my departure.

16 For we did not follow cleverly devised stories when we made known to you the power and coming of our Master Ἰς Μεσσίας, but were eye-witnesses of His superbness.

17 For when He received respect and esteem from Elohim the Father, such a voice came to Him from the Excellent Esteem, “This is My Son, the Beloved in whom I did delight.”

18 And we heard this voice which came from heaven when we were with Him on the set-apart mountain.

19 And we have the prophetic word made more certain, which you do well to heed as a light that shines in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts,

20 knowing this first, that no prophecy of Scripture came to be of one’s own interpretation,

21 for prophecy never came by the desire of man, but men of Elohim spoke, being moved by the Set-apart Spirit.

2 But there also came to be false prophets b among the people, as also among you there shall be false teachers, who shall secretly bring in destructive a Mt. 20:16, Mt. 22:14, Rev. 17:14.  b Ἰς Μεσσίας reveals unto us that the false prophets are those who work lawlessness (Mt. 7:15-23) and Kêpha does the same in this chapter, in v. 7-8, and again in v. 21: those who turn away from the Set-apart Command.

heresies, and deny the Master who bought them, bringing swift destruction on themselves.

2 And many shall follow their destructive ways, because of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of,

3 and in greed, with fabricated words, they shall use you for gain. From of old their judgment does not linger, and their destruction does not slumber.

4 For if Elohim did not spare the messengers who sinned, but sent them to Tartaros, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be kept for judgment,

5 and did not spare the world of old, but preserved NoaÁ, a proclaimer of righteousness, and seven others, bringing in the flood on the world of the wicked,

6 and having reduced to ashes the cities of SeÅom and Amorah condemned them to destruction – having made them an example to those who afterward would live wickedly,

7 and rescued righteous Lot, who was oppressed with the indecent behaviour of the lawless c

8 (for day after day that righteous man, dwelling among them, tortured his righteous being by seeing and hearing their lawless works),

9 then the knows how to rescue the reverent ones from trial and to keep the unrighteous unto the day of judgment, to be punished,

10 and most of all those walking after the flesh in filthy lust and despising authority – bold, headstrong, speaking evil of esteemed ones,

11 whereas messengers who are greater in strength and power do not bring a slanderous accusation against them before the Master.

12 But these, like natural unreasoning beasts, having been born to be caught and destroyed, blaspheme that which they do not know, shall be destroyed in their destruction,

13 being about to receive the wages of unrighteousness, deeming indulgence in the day a pleasure, spots and blemishes, revelling in their own deceptions while they feast with you,

14 having eyes filled with an adulteress, and unable to cease from sin, enticing unstable beings, having a heart trained in greed, children of a curse,

15 having left the right way they went astray, having followed the way of Bil’am the son of Be’or, who loved the wages of unrighteousness, 16 but he was rebuked for his transgression: a dumb donkey speaking with the voice of a man restrained the madness of the prophet.

17 These are fountains without water, clouds driven by a storm, to whom the blackest darkness is kept forever.

18 For speaking arrogant nonsense, they entice – through the lusts of the flesh, through indecencies – the ones who have indeed escaped from those living in delusion,

19 promising them freedom, though themselves being slaves of corruption – for one is a slave to whatever overcomes him.

20 For if, after they have escaped the defilements of the world through the knowledge of the Master and Saviour Messiah, they are again entangled in them and overcome, the latter end is worse for them than the first.

21 For it would have been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than having known it, to turn from the set-apart command d delivered unto them.

22 For them the proverb has proved true, “A dog returns to his own vomit,” and, “A washed sow returns to her rolling in the mud.”

3 This is now, beloved ones, the second letter I write to you, in which I stir up your sincere mind, to remember

2 the words previously spoken by the set-apart prophets, and of the command of

c The Greek word here, and in 3:17, is athesmos (not the usual one, anomos) but it also means “lawless.”

d The singular “command” often means “commands” – see 1 Tim. 6:14, Deß. 17:20, Teh. 19:8.
the Master and Saviour, spoken by your emissaries,

3 knowing this first: that mockers shall come in the last days with mocking, walking according to their own lusts,

4 and saying, “Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all continues as from the beginning of creation.”

5 For they choose to have this hidden from them: that the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of water and in the water, by the Word of Elohim,6 6 through which the world at that time was destroyed, being flooded with water.

7 And the present heavens and the earth are treasured up by the same Word, being kept for fire, to a day of judgment and destruction of wicked men.

8 But, beloved ones, let not this one matter be hidden from you: that with יָהָוֶה one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

9 יָהָוֶה is not slow in regard to the promise, as some count slowness, but is patient toward us, not wishing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance.7

10 But the day of יָהָוֶה shall come as a thief in the night, in which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with intense heat, and the earth and the works that are in it shall be burned up.

11 Seeing all these are to be destroyed in this way, what kind of people ought you to be in set-apart behaviour and reverence, 12 looking for and hastening the coming of the day of Elohim, through which the heavens shall be destroyed, being set on fire, and the elements melt with intense heat!

13 But according to His promise we wait for a renewed heavens and a renewed earth in which righteousness dwells.

14 So then, beloved ones, looking forward to this, do your utmost to be found by Him in peace, spotless and blameless,

15 and reckon the patience of our Master as deliverance, as also our beloved brother Sha’ul wrote to you, according to the wisdom given to him,

16 as also in all his letters, speaking in them concerning these matters, in which some are hard to understand,8 which those who are untaught and unstable twist to their own destruction, as they do also the other Scriptures.

17 You, then, beloved ones, being forewarned, watch, lest you also fall from your own steadfastness, being led away with the delusion of the lawless,

18 but grow in the favour and knowledge of our Master and Saviour יְשׁוּעַ ה’, Messiah.

To Him be the esteem both now and to a day that abides. Aměn.

h The lawless ones (untaught and unstable ones of v. 16) are the ones who twist the letters of Sha’ul to try to defend their disobedience. They ignore the plain teaching of יְשׁוּעַ ה’, who repeatedly upheld His Father’s commands.
1 What was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, concerning the Word of life:
2 And the life was manifested, and we have seen, and bear witness, and announce to you that everlasting life which was with the Father and was manifested to us.
3 We announce to you what we have seen and heard, so that you too might have fellowship with us. And truly our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son, Messiah.
4 And we write this to you in order that your joy might be complete.
5 And this is the message which we have heard from Him and announce to you, that Elohim is light and in Him is no darkness at all.
6 If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie and are not doing the truth.
7 But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Messiah His Son cleanses us from all sin.
8 If we say that we have not sin, we are misleading ourselves, and the truth is not in us.
9 If we confess our sins, He is trustworthy and righteous to forgive us the sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.
10 If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His Word is not in us.

2 My little children, I write this to you, so that you do not sin. And if anyone sins, we have an Intercessor with the Father, Messiah, a righteous One.
2 And He Himself is an atoning offering for our sins, and not for ours only but also for all the world.

3 And by this we know that we know Him, if we guard His commands. a
4 The one who says, “I know Him,” and does not guard His commands, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.
5 But whoever guards His Word, truly the love of Elohim has been perfected b in him. By this we know that we are in Him. c
6 The one who says he stays in Him ought himself also to walk, even as He walked.
7 Beloved, I write no fresh command to you, but an old command which you have had from the beginning. The old command is the Word which you heard from the beginning. d
8 Again I write you a fresh command, which is true in Him and in you, because the darkness is passing away, and the true light now shines.
9 The one who says he is in the light, and hates his brother, is in the darkness until now.
10 The one who loves his brother stays in the light, and there is no stumbling-block in him.
11 But the one who hates his brother is in the darkness and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.
12 I write to you, little children, because your sins have been forgiven on account of His Name.
13 I write to you, fathers, because you have known Him from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the wicked one. I write to you, little children, because you have known the Father.
14 I wrote to you, fathers, because you have known Him from the beginning. I wrote to you, young men, because you are strong, and the Word of Elohim stays in you, and you have overcome the wicked one.

15 Do not love the world nor that which is in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. e

16 Because all that is in the world – the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life – is not of the Father but is of the world.

17 And the world passes away, and the lust of it, but the one doing the desire of Elohim remains forever.

18 Little children, it is the last hour. And as you have heard that the anti-messiah is coming, even now many anti-messiahs have come. This is how we know that it is the last hour.

19 They went out from us, but they were not of us, for if they had been of us, they would have stayed with us – but in order that it might be made manifest that none of them were of us.

20 And you have an anointing from the Set-apart One, and you know all.

21 I did not write to you because you do not know the truth, but because you know it, and because no falsehood is of the truth.

22 Who is the liar, except the one denying that He is the Messiah? This is the anti-messiah, the one denying the Father and the Son.

23 No one denying the Son has the Father. The one confessing the Son has the Father as well.

24 As for you, let that stay in you which you heard from the beginning. If what you heard from the beginning stays in you, you also shall stay in the Son and in the Father.

25 And this is the promise that He has promised us: everlasting life.

26 I have written this to you concerning those who lead you astray.

27 But the anointing which you have received from Him stays in you, and you have no need that anyone should teach you. But as the same anointing does teach you concerning all, and is true, and is no falsehood, and even as it has taught you, you stay in Him.

28 And now, little children, stay in Him, so that when He appears, we might have boldness and not be ashamed before Him at His coming.

29 If you know that He is righteous, you know that everyone doing righteousness has been born of Him. f

3 See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of Elohim! For this reason the world does not know us, because it did not know Him.

2 Beloved ones, now we are children of Elohim. And it has not yet been revealed what we shall be, but we know that when He is revealed, we shall be like Him, for we shall see Him as He is.

3 And everyone having this expectation in Him cleanses himself, as He is clean.

4 Everyone doing sin also does lawlessness, and sin is lawlessness. g

5 And you know that He was manifested to take away our sins, and in Him there is no sin.

6 Everyone staying in Him does not sin. Everyone sinning has neither seen Him nor known Him. h

7 Little children, let no one lead you astray. The one doing righteousness is righteous, even as He is righteous. i

8 The one doing sin is of the devil, because the devil has sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of Elohim was manifested: to destroy the works of the devil. j

9 Everyone having been born of Elohim does not sin, because His seed stays in him, and he is powerless to sin, because he has been born of Elohim.

10 In this the children of Elohim and the children of the devil are manifest: Everyone not doing righteousness is not of Elohim, k neither the one not loving his brother.

11 Because this is the message that you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another,

e Ya’aqob 4:4.  f See 3:7-10, 5:4, 5:18.  g It is unbelievable to see how people are ignorant of this simple truth.  h See 2:4 & 3 Yn. v. 11.  i See 2:29.  j See Titus 2:14.  k See 3 Yn. v. 11.
12 not as Qayin who was of the wicked one and killed his brother. And why did he kill him? Because his works were wicked but those of his brother were righteous.

13 Do not marvel, my brothers, if the world hates you.
14 We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. The one not loving his brother stays in death.

15 Everyone hating his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has everlasting life staying in him.

16 By this we have known love, because He laid down His life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for the brothers.

17 But whoever has this world’s goods, and sees his brother in need, and shuts up his tender affections from him, how does the love of Elohim stay in him?

18 My little children, let us not love in word or in tongue, but in deed and in truth.

19 And by this we know that we are of the truth, and shall set our hearts at rest before Him, 20 that if our heart condemns us, Elohim is greater than our heart, and knows all.

21 Beloved ones, if our heart does not condemn us, we have boldness toward Elohim.

22 And whatever we ask we receive from Him, because we guard His commands and do what is pleasing in His sight.
23 And this is His command, that we should believe in the Name of His Son  ישו Messiah and love one another, as He gave us command.

24 And the one guarding His commands stays in Him, and He in him. And by this we know that He stays in us, by the Spirit which He gave us.

4 Beloved ones, do not believe every spirit, but prove the spirits, whether they are of Elohim, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.

2 By this you know the Spirit of Elohim: Every spirit that confesses that ישו Messiah has come in the flesh is of Elohim,

3 and every spirit that does not confess that ישו Messiah has come in the flesh is not of Elohim. And this is the spirit of the anti-messiah which you heard is coming, and now is already in the world.

4 You are of Elohim, little children, and have overcome them, because He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world.
5 They are of the world, therefore they speak as of the world, and the world hears them.

6 We are of Elohim – the one knowing Elohim hears us. He who is not of Elohim does not hear us. By this we know the Spirit of the Truth and the spirit of the delusion.

7 Beloved ones, let us love one another, because love is of Elohim, and everyone who loves has been born of Elohim, and knows Elohim.

8 The one who does not love does not know Elohim, for Elohim is love.

9 By this the love of Elohim was manifested in us, that Elohim has sent His only brought-forth Son into the world, in order that we might live through Him.

10 In this is love, not that we loved Elohim, but that He loved us and sent His Son to be an atoning offering for our sins.

11 Beloved ones, if Elohim so loved us, we also ought to love one another.

12 No one has seen Elohim at any time. If we love one another, Elohim does stay in us, and His love has been perfected in us.

13 By this we know that we stay in Him, and He in us, because He has given us of His Spirit.

14 And we have seen and bear witness that the Father has sent the Son, Saviour of the world.

15 Whoever confesses that ישו is the Son of Elohim, Elohim stays in him, and he in Elohim.

16 And we have known and believed the love that Elohim has for us. Elohim is love, and he who stays in love stays in Elohim, and Elohim in him.

17 By this love has been perfected with us, in order that we might have boldness in the day of judgment, because as He is so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear, because fear holds punishment, and he who fears has not been made perfect in love.

19 We love Him because He first loved us.

20 If someone says, “I love Elohim,” and hates his brother, he is a liar. For the one not loving his brother whom he has seen, how is he able to love Elohim whom he has not seen?

21 And we have this command from Him, that the one loving Elohim should love his brother too.

5 Everyone who believes that יהושע is the Messiah has been born of Elohim, and everyone who loves the One bringing forth also loves the one having been born of Him.

2 By this we know that we love the children of Elohim, when we love Elohim and guard His commands.

3 For this is the love for Elohim, that we guard His commands, and His commands are not heavy,

4 because everyone having been born of Elohim overcomes the world. And this is the overcoming that has overcome the world: our belief.

5 Who is the one who overcomes the world but he who believes that יהושע is the Son of Elohim?

6 This is the One that came by water and blood: יהושע Messiah, not only by water, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit who bears witness, because the Spirit is the Truth.

7 Because there are three who bear witness:

8 the Spirit, and the water, and the blood. And the three are in agreement.

9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of Elohim is greater, because this is the witness of Elohim which He has witnessed concerning His Son.

10 The one who believes in the Son of Elohim has the witness in himself, the one who does not believe Elohim has made Him a liar, because he has not believed the witness that Elohim has given concerning His Son.

11 And this is the witness: that Elohim has given us everlasting life, and this life is in His Son.

12 He who possesses the Son possesses life, he who does not possess the Son of Elohim does not possess life.

13 I have written this to you who believe in the Name of the Son of Elohim, so that you know that you possess everlasting life, and so that you believe in the Name of the Son of Elohim.

14 And this is the boldness that we have in Him, that if we ask whatever according to His desire, He hears us.

15 And if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we have asked of Him.

16 If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin, not unto death, he shall ask, and He shall give him life for those not sinning unto death. There is a sin unto death. I do not say that he should pray about that.

17 All unrighteousness is sin, and there is a sin not unto death.

18 We know that everyone having been born of Elohim does not sin, but the one having been born of Elohim guards himself, and the wicked one does not touch him.

19 We know that we are of Elohim, and all the world lies in the wicked one.

20 And we know that the Son of Elohim has come and has given us an understanding, so that we might know the true One. And we are in the true One, in His Son יהושע Messiah. This is the true Elohim and everlasting life.

21 Little children, keep yourselves from idols. נון.
1 The elder, to a chosen Kuria and her children, whom I love in truth, and not only I, but also all those who have known the truth,
2 because of the truth which stays in us and shall be with us forever:
3 Favour, compassion, peace be with you from Elohim the Father, and from the Master יושוע Messiah, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.
4 I rejoiced greatly because I found some of your children walking in truth, as we received a command from the Father.
5 And now I ask you, Kuria, not as though I wrote a fresh command to you, but that which we have had from the beginning: that we love one another.
6 And this is the love, that we walk according to His commands. a This is the command, that as you have heard from the beginning, you should walk in it.
7 Because many who are leading astray went out into the world who do not confess יהושע Messiah as coming in the flesh. This one is he who is leading astray and the anti-messiah.
8 See to yourselves, that we do not lose what we worked for, but that we might receive a complete reward.
9 Everyone who is transgressing and not staying in the teaching of Messiah does not possess Elohim. b The one who stays in the teaching of Messiah possesses both the Father and the Son. c
10 If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house nor greet him, 11 for he who greets him shares in his wicked works.
12 Having much to write to you, I did not wish to do so with paper and ink, but I expect to come to you and speak face to face, so that our joy might be complete.
13 The children of your chosen sister greet you. Amén.

The elder, to the beloved Gaios, whom I love in truth:

Beloved ones, I pray for you to do well in every way, and be in health, as your life is doing well.

For I rejoiced greatly when brothers came and witnessed of the truth in you, as you walk in the truth.

I have no greater joy than to hear of my children walking in truth.

Beloved ones, you are acting trustworthy in whatever you do for the brothers and for strangers, who have borne witness of your love before the assembly. If you send them forward worthily of Elohim, you shall do well, because they went out for the sake of the Name, receiving a nought from the gentiles.

Therefore we ought to receive such, so that we become fellow workers for the truth.

I wrote to the assembly, but Diotrephes, who loves to be the first among them, does not receive us.

So if I come, I shall call to mind his works which he does, babbling against us with wicked words. And not satisfied with that, he himself does not receive the brothers, and forbids those who wish to, putting them out of the assembly.

Beloved ones, do not imitate the evil, but the good. The one who is doing good is of Elohim, but he who is doing evil has not seen Elohim. b

Demetrios has a good witness from all, and from the truth itself. And we also bear witness, and you know that our witness is true.

I had much to write, but I do not wish to write to you with pen and ink, but I expect to see you shortly, and we shall speak face to face. Peace to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.

a Was he speaking of material matters, or was he speaking of gentile customs and worship?
b See 1 Yn. 3:6-10.
1 Yehudah, a servant of aSHWHY Messiah, and brother of Ya’aqoð, to those who are called, set-apart by Elohim the Father, and preserved in aSHWHY Messiah:

2 Compassion, and peace, and love be increased to you.

3 Beloved ones, making all haste to write to you concerning our common deliverance, I felt the necessity to write to you urging you to earnestly contend for the belief which was once for all delivered to the set-apart ones.

4 For certain men have slipped in, whose judgment was written about long ago, wicked ones a perverting the favour of our Elohim for indecency, and denying the only Master HWHY and our Master aSHWHY Messiah.

5 But I intend to remind you, though you once knew this, that HWHY, having saved a people out of the land of Mitsrayim, afterward destroyed those who did not believe.

6 And the messengers who did not keep their own principality, but left their own dwelling, He has kept in everlasting shackles under darkness for the judgment of the great day.

7 Even as Seḏom and Amorah and the cities around them in a similar way to these, having given themselves over to whoring and gone after strange flesh, are set forth as an example, undergoing judicial punishment of everlasting fire.

8 In the same way, indeed, these dreamers defile the flesh, and reject authority, and speak evil of esteemed ones.

9 But Miḵa’el the chief messenger, in contending with the devil, when he disputed about the body of Mosheh, presumed not to bring against him a blasphemous accusation, but said, “HWHY rebuke you!”

10 But these blaspheme that which they do not know. And that which they know naturally, like unreasoning beasts, in these they corrupt themselves.

11 Woe to them! Because they have gone in the way of Qayin, and gave themselves to the delusion of Bil’am for a reward, and perished in the rebellion of Qoraḥ.

12 These are rocky reefs in your love feasts, feasting with you, feeding themselves without fear, waterless clouds borne about by the winds, late autumn trees without fruit, twice dead, pulled up by the roots,

13 wild waves of the sea foaming up their own shame, straying stars for whom blackness of darkness is kept forever.

14 And Ḥanoḵ, the seventh from Adam, also prophesied of these, saying, “See, HWHY comes with His myriads of set-apart ones, 15 to execute judgment on all, to punish all who are wicked among them concerning all their wicked works which they have committed in a wicked way, and concerning all the harsh words which wicked sinners have spoken against Him.”

16 These are grumblers, complainers, who walk according to their own lusts, and their mouth speaks proudly, admiring faces of others for the sake of gain.

17 But you, beloved ones, remember the words spoken before by the emissaries of our Master aSHWHY Messiah, 18 because they told you that there would be mockers in the last time who would walk according to their own wicked lusts.

19 These are the ones who cause divisions, not having the Spirit.

20 But you, beloved ones, building yourselves up on your most set-apart belief, praying in the Set-apart Spirit,

21 keep yourselves in the love of Elohim, looking for the compassion of our Master Мяйш Мяйш Messiah unto everlasting life.

22 And show compassion toward some who are doubting,

23 but others save with fear, snatching them out of the fire, hating, even the garment defiled by the flesh.\(^b\)

24 And to Him who is able to keep you from stumbling, and to present you blameless before the presence of His esteem with exceeding joy,

25 to the only wise Elohim, our Saviour, be esteem and greatness and might and authority, both now and forever. Amên.

\(^b\) Used here as a synonym for sin, carnality, the unregenerate nature, as also in Gal. 5:19-21 & Rom. 8:5-10.
Revelation of Messiah, which Elohim gave Him to show His servants what has to take place with speed. And He signified it by sending His messenger to His servant Yoĥanan,

2 who bore witness to the Word of Elohim, and the witness of Messiah – to all he saw.

3 Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of this prophecy, and guard what is written in it, for the time is near.

4 Yoĥanan, to the seven assemblies that are in Asia: Favour to you and peace from Him who is and who was and who is coming, and from the seven Spirits that are before His throne,

5 and from Messiah, the trustworthy witness, the first-born from the dead, and the ruler of the sovereigns of the earth. To Him who loved us and washed us from our sins in His own blood,

6 and has made us sovereigns and priests to His Elohim and Father, to Him be esteem and rule forever and ever. Amēn.

7 See, He is coming with the clouds, and every eye shall see Him, even they who pierced Him. And all the tribes of the earth shall mourn because of Him. Yea, Amēn.

8 “I am the ‘Aleph’ and the ‘Taw’, Beginning and End,” says Ḥaḇaʼ “who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.”

9 I, Yoĥanan, both your brother and co-sharer in pressure, and in the reign and endurance of Messiah, came to be on the island that is called Patmos for the Word of Elohim and for the witness of Messiah.

10 I came to be in the Spirit on the Day of Elohim, a and I heard behind me a loud voice, as of a trumpet,

11 saying, “I am the ‘Aleph’ and the ‘Taw’, the First and the Last,” and, “Write in a book what you see and send it to the seven assemblies of Asia – to Ephesos, and to Smurna, and to Pergamos, and to Thyatira, and to Sardis, and to Philadelphia, and to Laodikeia.”

12 And I turned to see the voice which spoke with me. And having turned, I saw seven golden lampstands, 13 and in the midst of the seven lampstands One like the Son of Adam, dressed in a robe down to the feet and girded about the chest with a golden band.

14 And His head and hair were white as white wool, as snow, and His eyes as a flame of fire,

15 and His feet like burnished brass, as if refined in a furnace, and His voice as the sound of many waters.

16 And in His right hand He held seven stars, and out of His mouth went a sharp two-edged sword, b and His face was as the sun shining in its strength.

17 And when I saw Him, I fell at His feet as dead, and He placed His right hand on me, saying, “Do not be afraid, I am the First and the Last,

18 and the living One. And I became dead, and see, I am living forever and ever. Amēn. And I possess the keys of the grave and of death.

19 “Write therefore what you have seen, both what is now and what shall take place after these:

20 “The secret of the seven stars which you saw in My right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: The seven stars are messengers of the seven assemblies, and the seven lampstands which you saw are seven assemblies.

a The prophetic Day, so called in at least 30 places, and referred to in 300 similar terms.

b See 2:16, Yesh.49:2, Heb. 4:12.
walking in the midst of the seven golden lampstands, says this:

2 I know your works, and your labour, and your endurance, and that you are not able to bear evil ones, and have tried those who say they are emissaries and are not, and have found them false;

3 and you have been bearing up and have endurance, and have laboured for My Name’s sake and have not become weary.

4 “But I hold this against you, that you have left your first love.

5 “So remember from where you have fallen, and repent and do the first works, or else I shall come to you speedily and remove your lampstand from its place, unless you repent.

6 “Yet this you have, that you hate the works of the Nikolaites, which I also hate.

7 “He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. To him who overcomes c I shall give to eat from the tree of life, which is in the midst of the Paradise of Elohim.” d

8 “And to the messenger of the assembly in Smurna write, ‘This says the First and the Last, who became dead, and came to life:

9 “I know your works, and pressure, and poverty – yet you are rich – and the blasphemy of those who say they are Yehuḏim and are not, but are a congregation of Satan.

10 “Do not be afraid of what you are about to suffer. See, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, in order to try you, and you shall have pressure ten days. Be trustworthy until death, and I shall give you the crown of life.

11 “He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. He who overcomes shall by no means be harmed by the second death.” e

12 “And to the messenger of the assembly in Pergamos write, ‘He who has the sharp two-edged sword, says this:

13 “I know your works, and where you dwell, where the throne of Satan is. And you hold fast to My Name, and did not deny the belief in Me, even in the days in which Antipas was My trustworthy witness, who was killed near you, where Satan dwells.

14 “But I hold a few matters against you, because you have there those who adhere to the teaching of Bil’am, who taught Balaq to put a stumbling-block before the children of Yisra’el, to eat food offered to idols, and to commit whoring.

15 “So you also have those who adhere to the teaching of the Nikolaites, which teaching I hate.

16 “Repent, or else I shall come to you speedily and fight against them with the sword of My mouth.

17 “He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. To him who overcomes I shall give some of the hidden manna to eat. And I shall give him a white stone, and on the stone a renewed Name written which no one knows except him who receives it.”

18 “And to the messenger of the assembly in Thyatira write, ‘This says the Son of Elohim, who has eyes like a flame of fire, and His feet like burnished brass:

19 “I know your works, and love, and service, and belief, and your endurance. And as for your works, the last are more than the first.

20 “But I hold against you that you allow that woman IzeĀel, who calls herself a prophetess, to teach and lead My servants astray to commit whoring and to eat food offered to idols.

21 “And I gave her time to repent of her whoring, and she did not repent.

22 “See, I am throwing her into a sickbed, and those who commit adultery with her into great affliction, unless they repent of their works.

23 “And I shall slay her children with death. And all the assemblies shall know that I am the One searching the kidneys and hearts. And I shall give to each one of you according to your works.

24“And to you I say, and to the rest in Thyatira, as many as do not possess this teaching, and who have not known the depths of Satan, as they call them, I am not putting on you another burden.
25“And hold fast what you have until I come.
26“And he who overcomes, and guards My works until the end, to him I shall give authority over the nations,
27 and he shall shepherd them with a rod of iron, as the potter’s vessels shall be broken to pieces, as I also have received from My Father.
28“And I shall give him the morning star.
29“He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.”

3

3“And to the messenger of the assembly in Sardis write, ‘He who has the seven Spirits of Elohim and the seven stars, says this, “I know your works, that you have a name that you are alive, but you are dead.
2“Wake up, and strengthen what remains and is about to die, for I have not found your works complete before Elohim.
3“Remember, then, how you have received, and heard. And watch and repent. If, then, you do not wake up, I shall come upon you as a thief, and you shall not know at all what hour I come upon you.
4“Nevertheless, you have a few names in Sardis who have not defiled their garments. And they shall walk with Me in white, because they are worthy.
5“He who overcomes shall be dressed in white robes, and I shall by no means blot out his name from the Book of Life, but I shall confess his name before My Father and before His messengers.
6“He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.”’

4

4“And to the messenger of the assembly in Philadelphia write, ‘The Amén, the Trustworthy and True Witness, the Beginning of the creation of Elohim, says this:
5“I know your works – see, I have set before you an open door, and no one is able to shut it – that you have little power, yet have guarded My Word, and have not denied My Name.
6“See, I am giving up those of the congregation of Satan, who say they are Yehuḏim and are not, but lie. See, I am making them come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you.
7“Because you have guarded My Word of endurance, I also shall guard you from the hour of trial which shall come upon all the world, to try those who dwell on the earth.
8“And I am coming speedily! Hold what you have that no one take your crown.
9“He who overcomes, I shall make him a supporting post in the Dwelling Place of My Elohim, and he shall by no means go out. And I shall write on him the Name of My Elohim and the name of the city of My Elohim, the renewed Yerushalayim, which comes down out of the heaven from My Elohim, and My renewed Name.
10“What you have, guard, that no one take your crown. And I shall write on him the name of My Elohim and the renewed Name.

5“And to the messenger of the assembly in Laodikeia write, ‘The Amén, the Trustworthy and True Witness, the Beginning of the creation of Elohim, says this:
6“I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I would that you were cold or hot.
7“So, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I am going to vomit you out of My mouth.
8“Because you say, ‘Rich I am, and I am made rich, and need none at all,’ and do not know that you are wretched, and pitiable, and poor, and blind, and naked.
9“I advise you to buy from Me gold refined in the fire, so that you become rich; and white garments, so that you become dressed, and shut your nakedness that it might not be shown; and anoint your eyes with ointment, so that you see.
10“As many as I love, I reprove and discipline. So be ardent and repent.

20 “See, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I shall come in to him and dine with him, and he with Me.

21 “To him who overcomes I shall give to sit with Me on My throne, as I also overcame and sat down with My Father on His throne.

22 “He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.” ’ ”

4 After this I looked and saw a door having been opened in the heaven. And the first voice which I heard was like a trumpet speaking with me, saying, “Come up here and I shall show you what has to take place after this.”

2 And immediately I came to be in the Spirit and saw a throne set in the heaven, and One sat on the throne.

3 And He who sat there was like a jasper and a ruby stone in appearance. And there was a rainbow around the throne, like an emerald in appearance.

4 And around the throne were twenty-four thrones, and on the thrones I saw twenty-four elders sitting, dressed in white robes. And they had crowns of gold on their heads.

5 And out of the throne came lightnings, and thunders, and voices. And seven lamps of fire were burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of Elohim.

6 And before the throne there was a sea of glass, like crystal. And in the midst of the throne, and around the throne, were four living creatures, covered with eyes in front and in back.

7 And the first living creature was like a lion, and the second living creature like a calf, and the third living creature had a face like a man, and the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle.

8 And the four living creatures, each having six wings, were covered with eyes around and within. And they do not cease, day or night, saying, “Set-apart, set-apart, set-apart, יְהוָה Él Shaddai, who was, and who is, and who is coming!”

9 And when the living creatures give esteem and respect and thanks to Him who sits on the throne, who lives forever and ever,

10 the twenty-four elders fall down before Him who sits on the throne and bow before Him who lives forever and ever, and they cast their crowns before the throne, saying,

11 “You are worthy, O יהוה, to receive esteem and respect and power, for You have created all, and because of Your desire they are, and were created.”

5 And I saw in the right hand of Him who sat on the throne a scroll written inside and on the back, having been sealed with seven seals.

2 And I saw a strong messenger proclaiming with a loud voice, “Who is worthy to open the scroll and to loosen its seals?”

3 And no one in the heaven or on the earth or under the earth was able to open the scroll, or to look at it.

4 And I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open and read the scroll, or to look at it.

5 And one of the elders said to me, “Do not weep. See, the Lion of the tribe of Yehuḏah, ה the Root of Dawiḏ, overcame to open the scroll and to loosen its seven seals.”

6 And I looked and saw in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders a Lamb standing, as having been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of Elohim sent out into all the earth.

7 And He came and took the scroll out of the right hand of Him sitting on the throne.

8 And when He took the scroll, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each holding a harp, and golden bowls filled with incense, which are the prayers of the set-apart ones.

9 And they sang a renewed song, saying, “You are worthy to take the scroll, and to open its seals, because You were slain, and have redeemed us to Elohim by Your blood out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation, \( ^m \)

10 and made us sovereigns and priests to our Elohim, and we shall reign upon the earth." \( ^n \)

11 And I looked, and I heard the voice of many messengers around the throne, and the living creatures, and the elders. And the number of them was myriads of myriads, and thousands of thousands,

12 saying with a loud voice, “Worthy is the Lamb having been slain to receive power and riches and wisdom, and strength and respect and esteem and blessing!”

13 And every creature which is in the heaven and on the earth and under the earth and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, I heard saying, “To Him sitting on the throne, and to the Lamb, be the blessing and the respect and the esteem and the might, forever and ever!”

14 And the four living creatures said, “Amen!” And the twenty-four elders fell down and bowed before Him who lives forever and ever.

6 And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying, like a sound of thunder, “Come and see.”

2 And I looked and saw a white horse, and he who sat on it holding a bow. And a crown was given to him, and he went out overcoming and to overcome.

3 And when He opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, “Come and see.”

4 And another horse, fiery red, went out. And it was given to the one who sat on it to take peace from the earth, and that they should slay one another. And a great sword was given to him.

5 And when He opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature say, “Come and see.” And I looked and saw a black horse, and he who sat on it holding a pair of scales in his hand.

6 And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, “A quart of wheat for a day’s wage, and three quarts of barley for a day’s wage. And do not harm the oil and the wine.”

7 And when He opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, “Come and see.”

8 And I looked and saw a pale horse. And he who sat on it had the name Death, and the grave followed with him. And authority was given to them over a fourth of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and by the beasts of the earth.

9 And when He opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the beings of those having been slain for the Word of Elohim and for the witness which they held,

10 and they cried with a loud voice, saying, “How long, O Master, set-apart and true, until You judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?”

11 And there was given to each one a white robe, and they were told that they should rest a little while longer, until both the number of their fellow servants and their brothers, who would be killed as they were, was completed.

12 And I looked when He opened the sixth seal and saw a great earthquake came to be. And the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood.

13 And the stars of the heaven fell to the earth, as a fig tree drops its unripe figs, being shaken by a strong wind.

14 And heaven departed like a scroll being rolled up, and every mountain and island was moved out of its place.

15 And the sovereigns of the earth, and the great ones, and the rich ones, and the commanders, and the mighty, and every slave and every free one, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains,

16 and said to the mountains and rocks, “Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him sitting on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb,

17 because the great day of His wrath has

\( ^m \) This fact is given in 6 other texts in the Book of Revelation – a total of 7 times! \( ^n \) Dan. 7:18-27.
And after this I saw four messengers standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

And I saw another messenger coming up from the rising of the sun, holding the seal of the living Elohim. And he cried with a loud voice to the four messengers to whom it was given to harm the earth and the sea, saying, “Do not harm the earth, nor the sea, nor the trees until we have sealed the servants of our Elohim upon their foreheads.”

And I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred and forty-four thousand, sealed out of all the tribes of the children of Yisra’Èl:

of the tribe of YehuÅah twelve thousand were sealed, of the tribe of Re’uÅhèn twelve thousand were sealed, of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand were sealed, of the tribe of AshÈr twelve thousand were sealed, of the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand were sealed, of the tribe of Menashsheh twelve thousand were sealed, of the tribe of ShimÈon twelve thousand were sealed, of the tribe of LÈwi twelve thousand were sealed, of the tribe of Yissas¿ar twelve thousand were sealed, of the tribe of ZeÈulun twelve thousand were sealed, of the tribe of YosÈeph twelve thousand were sealed, of the tribe of Binyamin twelve thousand were sealed.

After this I looked and saw a great crowd which no one was able to count, out of all nations and tribes and peoples and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, dressed in white robes, and palm branches in their hands, and crying out with a loud voice, saying, “Deliverance belongs to our Elohim who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!”

And all the messengers stood around the throne and the elders and the four living creatures, and fell on their faces before the throne and worshipped Elohim, saying, “AmÈn! The blessing, and the esteem, and the wisdom, and the thanksgiving, and the respect, and the power, and the might, to our Elohim forever and ever. AmÈn.”

And one of the elders responded, saying to me, “Who are these dressed in white robes, and where did they come from?”

And I said to him, “Master, you know.” And he said to me, “These are those coming out of the great distress, having washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

“Because of this they are before the throne of Elohim, and serve Him day and night in His Dwelling Place. And He who sits on the throne shall spread His Tent over them.

“They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more, neither shall the sun strike them, nor any heat, because the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne shall shepherd them and lead them to fountains of waters of life. And Elohim shall wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

And when He opened the seventh seal, there came to be silence in the heaven for about half an hour.

And I saw the seven messengers who stand before Elohim, and to them were given seven trumpets.

And another messenger came and stood at the altar, holding a golden censer, and much incense was given to him, that he should offer it with the prayers of all the set-apart ones upon the golden altar which was before the throne.

And the smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the set-apart ones, went up before Elohim from the hand of the messenger.

And the messenger took the censer, and filled it with fire from the altar, and threw it to the earth. And there were noises, and thunders, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

6 And the seven messengers who held the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.

7 And the first messenger sounded, and there came to be hail and fire mixed with blood, and they were thrown to the earth. And a third of the trees were burned up, and all green grass was burned up.

8 And the second messenger sounded, and what looked like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea, and a third of the sea became blood,

9 and a third of the living creatures in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

10 And the third messenger sounded, and a great star fell from the heaven, burning like a torch, and it fell on a third of the rivers and on the fountains of water,

11 and the name of the star is called Wormwood. And a third of the waters became wormwood, and many men died from the waters, because they were made bitter.

12 And the fourth messenger sounded, and a third of the sun was struck, and a third of the moon, and a third of the stars, so that a third of them were darkened. And a third of the day did not shine, and likewise the night.

13 And I looked, and I heard an eagle flying in mid-heaven, crying with a loud voice, “Woe, woe, woe to those dwelling upon the earth, because of the remaining blasts of the trumpet of the three messengers who are about to sound!”

And the fifth messenger sounded, and I saw a star from the heaven which had fallen to the earth. And the key to the pit of the deep was given to it.

2 And he opened the pit of the deep, and smoke went up out of the pit like the smoke of a great furnace. And the sun was darkened, also the air, because of the smoke of the pit.

3 And out of the smoke locusts came upon the earth, and authority was given to them as the scorpions of the earth possess authority.

4 And it was said to them that they shall not harm the grass of the earth, or any green matter, or any tree, but only those men who do not have the seal of Elohim upon their foreheads.

5 And it was given to them that they should not kill them, but to torture them for five months. And their torture was like the torture of a scorpion when it stings a man.

6 And in those days men shall seek death and shall not find it. And they shall long to die, but death shall flee from them.

7 And the locusts looked like horses prepared for battle, and on their heads were crowns like gold, and their faces were like the faces of men.

8 And they had hair like women’s hair, and their teeth were like lions’ teeth.

9 And they had breastplates like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots of many horses running into battle.

10 And they have tails like scorpions, and stings. And in their tails is their authority to harm men five months.

11 And they have over them a sovereign, the messenger of the pit of the deep, whose name in Hebrew is Abaddon, but in Greek he has the name Apolluon.

12 The first woe is past. See, two woes are still coming after this.

13 And the sixth messenger sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before Elohim, saying to the sixth messenger who had the trumpet, “Release the four messengers, those having been bound at the great river Euphrates.”

14 And the four messengers, those having been prepared for the hour and day and month and year, were released to kill a third of mankind.

15 And the number of the armies of the horsemen was two hundred million, and I heard the number of them.

17 And this is how I saw the horses in the vision and those who sat on them, having breastplates of fiery red, and hyacinth blue, and sulphur yellow. And the heads of the horses were like the heads of lions, and out of their mouths came fire, and smoke, and sulphur.

18 A third of mankind was killed by these three plagues, by the fire and the smoke and the sulphur which came out of their mouths.

19 For the authority of the horses is in their mouth and in their tails, for their tails are like serpents, having heads. And with them they do harm.

20 And the rest of mankind, who were not killed by these plagues, did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship the demons, and idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood, which are neither able to see, nor to hear, nor to walk.

21 And they did not repent of their murders, nor of their drug sorceries, nor of their whoring, nor of their thefts.

10 And I saw another strong messenger coming down from the heaven, robed in a cloud, and a rainbow on his head, and his face was like the sun, and his feet like columns of fire.

2 and having in his hand a little book opened. And he placed his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land,

3 and cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roars. And when he cried out, seven thunders spoke their sounds.

4 And when the seven thunders spoke their sounds, I was about to write, but I heard a voice from the heaven saying to me, “Seal up what the seven thunders spoke, and do not write them.”

5 And the messenger whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land lifted up his right hand to the heaven,

6 and swore by Him who lives forever and ever, who created the heaven and what is in it, the earth and what is in it, and the sea and what is in it, that there shall be no further delay,

7 but in the days of the sounding of the seventh messenger, when he is about to sound, the secret of Elohim shall also be ended, as He declared to His servants the prophets.

8 And the voice which I heard out of the heaven spoke to me again and said, “Go, take the little book which is opened in the hand of the messenger standing on the sea and on the earth.”

9 And I went to the messenger and said to him, “Give me the little book.” And he said to me, “Take and eat it, and it shall make your stomach bitter, but it shall be as sweet as honey in your mouth.”

10 And I took the little book out of the messenger’s hand and ate it, and it was as sweet as honey in my mouth, but when I had eaten it, my stomach was made bitter.

11 And he said to me, “You have to prophesy again concerning many peoples and nations and tongues and sovereigns.”

11 And a reed like a measuring rod was given to me, and the messenger stood, saying, “Rise and measure the Dwelling Place of Elohim, and the altar, and those worshipping in it.

2 “But cast out the court which is outside the Dwelling Place, and do not measure it, for it has been given to the gentiles, and they shall trample the set-apart city under foot for forty-two months.

3 “And I shall give unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy one thousand two hundred and sixty days, clad in sackcloth.”

4 These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that are standing before the Elohim of the earth.

5 And if anyone wishes to harm them, fire comes out from their mouth and consumes their enemies. And if anyone wishes to harm them, he has to be killed in that way.

6 These possess authority to shut the heaven, so that no rain falls in the days of their prophecy. And they possess authority over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as Yezech. chs. 2 & 3. This is a Hebraism which means to receive knowledge.

they wish.

7 And when they have ended their witness, the beast coming up out of the pit of the deep shall fight against them, and overcome them, and kill them,

8 and their dead bodies lie in the street of the great city which spiritually is called Sodom and Mitsrayim, where also our Master was impaled,

9 and some of the peoples and tribes and tongues and nations see their dead bodies for three and a half days, and not allow their dead bodies to be placed into tombs,

10 and those dwelling on the earth rejoice over them and exult. And they shall send gifts to each other, because these two prophets tortured those dwelling on the earth.

11 And after the three and a half days a spirit of life from Elohim entered into them, and they stood upon their feet, and great fear fell on those who saw them.

12 And they heard a loud voice from the heaven saying to them, “Come up here.” And they went up into the heaven in a cloud, and their enemies saw them.

13 And in that hour there came to be a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell. And in the earthquake seven thousand men were killed, and the rest became afraid and gave esteem to the Elohim of the heaven.

14 The second woe is past, and see, the third woe is coming speedily.

15 And the seventh messenger sounded, and there came to be loud voices in the heaven, saying, “The reign of this world has become the reign of our Master, and of His Messiah, and He shall reign forever and ever!”

16 And the twenty-four elders sitting before Elohim on their thrones fell on their faces and worshipped Elohim, 17 saying, “We give You thanks, O יהוה El Shaddai, the One who is and who was and who is coming, because You have taken Your great power and reigned.

18 “And the nations were enraged, and Your wrath has come, and the time of the dead to be judged, and to give the reward to Your servants the prophets and to the set-apart ones, and to those who fear Your Name, small and great, and to destroy those who destroy the earth.”

19 And the Dwelling Place of Elohim was opened in the heaven, and the ark of His covenant was seen in His Dwelling Place. And there came to be lightnings, and voices, and thunders, and an earthquake, and great hail.

20 And a great sign was seen in the heaven: a woman clad with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars.

21 And being pregnant, she cried out in labour and in pain to give birth.

22 And another sign was seen in the heaven: and see, a great, fiery red dragon having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns on his heads.

23 And his tail draws a third of the stars of the heaven and throws them to the earth. And the dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, to devour her child as soon as it was born.

24 And she bore a male child who was to shepherd all nations with a rod of iron. And her child was caught away to Elohim and to His throne.

25 And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by Elohim, to be nourished there one thousand two hundred and sixty days.

26 And there came to be fighting in the heaven: Mi¿a’Ãl and his messengers fought against the dragon. And the dragon and his messengers fought, 27 but they were not strong enough, nor was a place found for them in the heaven any longer.

28 And the great dragon was thrown out, that serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan, who leads all the world astray. He s Rev. 12 is not easy to explain. We read of this male child in Yesh. 66:7. Some explain this as having a double reference – the first was when Messiah was born, and second, when His Body is to be brought forth.

was thrown to the earth, and his messengers were thrown out with him.

10 And I heard a loud voice saying in the heaven, “Now have come the deliverance and the power and the reign of our Elohim, and the authority of His Messiah, for the accuser of our brothers, who accused them before our Elohim day and night, has been thrown down.

11 “And they overcame him because of the Blood of the Lamb, and because of the Word of their witness, and they did not love their lives to the death.

12 “Because of this rejoice, O heavens, and you who dwell in them! Woe to the earth and the sea, because the devil has come down to you, having great wrath, knowing that he has little time.”

13 And when the dragon saw that he had been thrown to the earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the male child.

14 And the woman was given two wings of a great eagle, to fly into the wilderness to her place, where she is nourished for a time and times and half a time, from the presence of the serpent.

15 And out of his mouth the serpent spewed water like a river after the woman, to cause her to be swept away by the river.

16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river which the dragon had spewed out of his mouth.

17 And the dragon was enraged with the woman, and he went to fight with the remnant of her seed, those guarding the commands of Elohim and possessing the witness of Messiah.

13 And I stood on the sand of the sea. And I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his horns ten crowns, and on his heads names of blasphemy.

2 And the beast I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were like the feet of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. And the dragon gave him his power, and his throne, and great authority.

3 And I saw one of his heads, as having been slain to death, and his deadly wound was healed. And all the earth marvelled after the beast.

4 And they worshipped the dragon who gave authority to the beast. And they worshipped the beast, saying, “Who is like the beast? Who is able to fight with him?”

5 And he was given a mouth speaking great matters and blasphemies, and he was given authority to do so forty-two months.

6 And he opened his mouth in blasphemies against Elohim, to blaspheme His Name, and His Tent, and those dwelling in the heaven.

7 And it was given to him to fight with the set-apart ones and to overcome them. And authority was given to him over every tribe and tongue and nation.

8 And all those dwelling on the earth, whose names have not been written in the Book of Life of the slain Lamb, from the foundation of the world shall worship him.

9 If anyone has an ear, let him hear.

10 He who brings into captivity shall go into captivity, he who kills with the sword has to be killed with the sword. Here is the endurance and the belief of the set-apart ones.

11 And I saw another beast coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb and spoke like a dragon.

12 And he exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence, and causes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.

13 And he does great signs, so that he even makes fire come down from the heaven on the earth before men.

14 And he leads astray those dwelling on the earth because of those signs which he was given to do before the beast, saying to those dwelling on the earth to make an image to the beast who was wounded by the sword, yet lived.

15 And there was given to him to give spirit to the image of the beast, that the \textsuperscript{7} See 11:15.

image of the beast should both speak and cause to be killed as many as would not worship the image of the beast.

16 And he causes all, both small and great, and rich and poor, and free and slave, to be given a mark upon their right hand or upon their foreheads,

17 and that no one should be able to buy or sell except he that has the mark or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

18 Here is the wisdom! He who has understanding, let him calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man, and his number is 666. "

14 And I looked and saw a Lamb standing on Mount Tsiyon, and with Him one hundred and forty-four thousand, having His Father’s Name written upon their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice out of the heaven, like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of loud thunder, and I heard the sound of harpists playing their harps.

3 And they sang a renewed song before the throne, and before the four living creatures, and the elders. And no one was able to learn that song except the hundred and forty-four thousand who were redeemed from the earth.

4 They are those who were not defiled with women, for they are maidens. " They are those following the Lamb wherever He leads them on. They were redeemed from among men, being first-fruits to Elohim and to the Lamb.

5 And in their mouth was found no falsehood, for they are blameless before the throne of Elohim.

6 And I saw another messenger flying in mid-heaven, holding the everlasting Good News to announce to those dwelling on the earth, even to every nation and tribe and tongue and people,

7 saying with a loud voice, “Fear Elohim and give esteem to Him, because the hour of His judgment has come. And worship Him who made the heaven and the earth, and sea, and fountains of water.”

8 And another messenger followed, saying, “Babel is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she has made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her whoring.”

9 And a third messenger followed them, saying with a loud voice, “If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives his mark upon his forehead or upon his hand,

10 he also shall drink of the wine of the wrath of Elohim, which is poured out undiluted into the cup of His wrath. And he shall be tortured with fire and sulphur before the set-apart messengers and before the Lamb.

11 “And the smoke of their torture goes up forever and ever. And they have no rest day or night, those worshipping the beast and his image, also if anyone receives the mark of his name.”

12 Here is the endurance of the set-apart ones, here are those guarding the commands of Elohim and the belief of יהוה. "

13 And I heard a voice out of the heaven saying to me, “Write, ‘Blessed are the dead who die in the Master from now on.’ ” “Yea,” says the Spirit, “in order that they rest from their labours, and their works follow with them.”

14 And I looked and saw a white cloud, and sitting on the cloud was One like the Son of Adam, having on His head a golden crown, and in His hand a sharp sickle.

15 And another messenger came out of the Dwelling Place, crying with a loud voice to the One sitting on the cloud, “Send Your sickle and reap, because the hour has come for You to reap, because the harvest of the earth is ripe.”

16 And the One sitting on the cloud thrust in His sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.

17 And another messenger came out of the 18 And another messenger came out from the altar, having authority over the fire, and he cried with a loud cry to him having the sharp sickle, saying, “Send your sharp sickle and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, because her grapes are ripe.”

19 And the messenger thrust his sickle into the earth and gathered the vine of the earth, and threw it into the great winepress of the wrath of Elohim.
20 And the winepress was trodden outside the city, and blood came out of the winepress, up to the bridles of the horses, for about three hundred kilometres.

15 And I saw another sign in the heaven, great and marvellous:
seven messengers having the seven last plagues, for the wrath of Elohim was ended in them.
2 And I saw like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and those overcoming the beast and his image and his mark and the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, holding harps of Elohim.
3 And they sing the song of Mosheh the servant of Elohim, and the song of the Lamb, saying, “Great and marvellous are Your works, El Shaddai! Righteous and true are Your ways, O Sovereign of the set-apart ones!”
4 “Who shall not fear You, O
Elohim, and esteem Your Name? Because You alone are kind. Because all nations shall come and worship before You, for Your rightenesses have been made manifest.”
5 And after this I looked and saw the Dwelling Place of the Tent of Witness in the heaven was opened.
6 And out of the Dwelling Place came the seven messengers having the seven plagues, dressed in clean bright linen, and having their chests girded with golden bands.
7 And one of the four living creatures gave to the seven messengers seven golden bowls filled with the wrath of Elohim who lives forever and ever.
8 And the Dwelling Place was filled with smoke from the esteem of Elohim and from His power, and no one was able to enter the Dwelling Place until the seven plagues of the seven messengers were ended.

16 And I heard a loud voice from the Dwelling Place saying to the seven messengers, “Go and pour out the bowls of the wrath of Elohim on the earth.”
2 And the first went and poured out his bowl upon the earth, and an evil and wicked sore came upon the men, those worshiping the beast and those worshiping his image.
3 And the second messenger poured out his bowl on the sea, and it became blood, as of a dead one, and every living creature
in the sea died.
4 And the third messenger poured out his bowl on the rivers and fountains of water, and they became blood.
5 And I heard the messenger of the waters saying, “You are righteous, O Elohim, the One who is and who was and who shall be, because You have judged these.
6 “Because they have shed the blood of set-apart ones and prophets, and You have given them blood to drink. For they deserve it.”
7 And I heard another out of the altar saying, “Yea, El Shaddai, true and righteous are Your judgments.”
8 And the fourth messenger poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was given to him to burn men with fire.
9 And men were burned with great heat, and they blasphemed the Name of Elohim who possesses authority over these plagues. And they did not repent, to give Him esteem.
10 And the fifth messenger poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his reign became darkened. And they gnawed their tongues from pain.
11 And they blasphemed the Elohim of the heaven for their pains and their sores, and z See 21:9.

did not repent of their works.

12 And the sixth messenger poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates, and its water was dried up, in order to prepare the way of the sovereigns from the east.

13 And I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, as frogs, 14 for they are spirits of demons, doing signs, which go out to the sovereigns of the entire world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of the Almighty.

15 “See, I am coming as a thief. Blessed is he who is staying awake and guarding his garments, lest he walk naked and they see his shame.”

16 And they gathered them together to the place called in Hebrew, Har Megiddo.

17 And the seventh messenger poured out his bowl into the air, and a loud voice came out of the Dwelling Place of the heaven, from the throne, saying, “It is done!”

18 And there came to be noises and thunders and lightnings. And there came to be a great earthquake, such a mighty and great earthquake as had not came to be since men were on the earth.

19 And the great city became divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. And great Baël was remembered before Elohim, to give her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of His wrath.

20 And every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.

21 And great hail from the heaven fell upon men, every hailstone about the weight of a talent. And men blasphemed Elohim for the plague of the hail, because that plague was exceedingly great.

17 And one of the seven messengers who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying to me, “Come, I shall show you the judgment of the great whore sitting on many waters, with whom the sovereigns of the earth committed whoring, and the inhabitants of the earth were made drunk with the wine of her whoring.”

3 And he carried me away in the Spirit into the wilderness. And I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast covered with names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.

4 And the woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, holding in her hand a golden cup filled with abominations and the filthiness of her whoring, b

5 and upon her forehead a name written, a secret: BABEL THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE WHORES AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw the woman, drunk with the blood of the set-apart ones, and with the blood of the witnesses of SWHY. And having seen her, I marvelled – greatly marvelled!

7 And the messenger said to me, “Why did you marvel? Let me explain to you the secret of the woman and of the beast she rides, which has the seven heads and the ten horns.

8 “The beast that you saw was, and is not, and is about to come up out of the pit of the deep and goes to destruction. And those dwelling on the earth, whose names are not written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world, shall marvel when they see the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 “Here is the mind having wisdom: The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits.

10 “And there are seven sovereigns: five have fallen, and one is, and the other has not yet come. And when he comes, he has to remain a little while.

11 “And the beast that was, and is not, is himself also the eighth, and is of the seven, and goes to destruction.

12 “And the ten horns which you saw are ten sovereigns who have not yet received a reign, but receive authority as sovereigns with the beast for one hour.

13 “They have one mind, and they shall give their power and authority to the beast.

a See v. 15. b Yirm. 51:7.
14“They shall fight with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them, for He is Master of masters and Sovereign of sovereigns. And those with Him are called, and chosen, and trustworthy.”

15And he said to me, “The waters which you saw, where the whore sits, are peoples, and crowds, and nations, and tongues.

16“And the ten horns which you saw on the beast, these shall hate the whore, and lay her waste and naked, and eat her flesh and burn her with fire.

17“For Elohim did give it into their hearts to do His mind, to be of one mind, and to give their reign to the beast, until the words of Elohim shall be accomplished.

18“And the woman whom you saw is that great city having sovereignty over the sovereigns of the earth.”

18 And after this I saw another messenger coming down from the heaven, having great authority, and the earth was lightened from his esteem.

2And he cried with a mighty voice, saying, “Baël the great is fallen, is fallen, and has become a dwelling place of demons, a haunt for every unclean spirit, and a haunt for every unclean and hated bird, 3because all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her whoring, and the sovereigns of the earth have committed whoring with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the power of her riotous living.”

4And I heard another voice from the heaven saying, “Come out of her, my people, lest you share in her sins, and lest you receive of her plagues. d

5“Because her sins have piled up to reach the heaven, and Elohim has remembered her unrighteousnesses.

6“Render to her as she indeed did render, and repay her double according to her works. In the cup which she has mixed, mix for her double.

7“As much as she esteemed herself and lived riotously, so much torture and grief give to her, because in her heart she says, ‘I sit as sovereignty, and I am not a widow, and I do not see mourning at all.’

8“Because of this her plagues shall come in one day: death and mourning and scarcity of food. And she shall be burned up with fire, because Elohim who judges her is mighty.

9“And the sovereigns of the earth who committed whoring and lived riotously with her shall weep and mourn over her, when they see the smoke of her burning,

10standing at a distance for fear of her torture, saying, ‘Woe! Woe, the great city Babel, the mighty city, because your judgment has come in one hour!’

11“And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, because no one buys their merchandise any more –

12merchandise of gold and silver, and precious stone and pearls, and fine linen and purple, and silk and scarlet, and all citron wood, and every object of ivory, and every object of most precious wood and bronze and iron and marble,

13and cinnamon and incense, and fragrant oil and frankincense, and wine and oil, and fine flour and wheat, and cattle and sheep, and horses and carriages, and bodies and lives of men.

14“And the fruit that your being longed for has gone from you. And all your riches and splendour are lost to you, and you shall find them no more, not at all.

15“The merchants of these, those who became rich by her, shall stand at a distance for fear of her torture, weeping and mourning, 16and saying, ‘Woe! Woe, the great city that was dressed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls!

17“For in one hour such great riches was laid waste.’ And every shipmaster, and every passenger, and sailors, and as many as work the sea for their living, stood at a distance,

18and cried out when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, ‘What is like this great city?’

d Yirm. 51:6 & 45.
19 “And they threw dust on their heads and cried out, weeping and mourning, and saying, ‘Woe! Woe, the great city, in which all who had ships on the sea became rich by her wealth! For in one hour she was laid waste.’

20 “Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you set-apart emissaries and prophets, for Elohim has completely avenged you on her!”

21 And one mighty messenger picked up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying, “With such a rush the great city Babel shall be thrown down, and shall not be found any more at all.

22 “And the sound of harpists, and musicians, and flutists, and trumpeters shall not be heard in you any more at all. And no craftsman of any trade shall be found in you any more at all. And the sound of a millstone shall not be heard in you any more at all.

23 “And the light of a lamp shall not shine in you any more at all. And the voice of bridegroom and bride shall not be heard in you any more at all. For your merchants were the great ones of the earth, for by your drug sorcery all the nations were led astray.

24 “And in her was found the blood of prophets and set-apart ones, and of all who were slain on the earth.”

And after this I heard a loud voice of a great crowd in the heaven, saying, “Halleluyah! Deliverance and esteem and respect and power to Elohim our Elohim!

2 “Because true and righteous are His judgments, because He has judged the great whore who corrupted the earth with her whoring. And He has avenged on her the blood of His servants shed by her.”

3 And a second time they said, “Halleluyah! And her smoke rises up forever and ever!”

4 And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshipped Elohim who sat on the throne, saying, “Amên! Halleluyah!”

5 And a voice came from the throne, saying, “Praise our Elohim, all you His servants and those who fear Him, both small and great!”

6 And I heard as the voice of a great crowd, as the sound of many waters and as the sound of mighty thunders, saying, “Halleluyah, for יהוה El Shaddai reigns!

7 “Let us be glad and rejoice and give Him praise, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and His wife prepared herself.”

8 And to her it was given to be dressed in fine linen, clean and bright, for the fine linen is the righteousnesses of the set-apart ones.

9 And he said to me, “Write, ‘Blessed are those who have been called to the marriage supper of the Lamb!’ ” And he said to me, “These are the true words of Elohim.”

10 And I fell at his feet to worship him, but he said to me, “See, do not do it! I am your fellow servant, and of your brothers who possess the witness of יהוה. Worship Elohim! For the witness of יהוה is the spirit of prophecy.”

11 And I saw the heaven opened, and there was a white horse. And He who sat on him was called Trustworthy and True, and in righteousness He judges and fights.

12 And His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on His head were many crowns, having a Name that had been written, which no one had perceived except Himself – and having been dressed in a robe dipped in blood – and His Name is called: The Word of יהוה.

13 And the armies in the heaven, dressed in fine linen, white and clean, followed Him on white horses.

14 And out of His mouth goes a sharp sword, that with it He should smite the nations. And He shall shepherd them with a rod of iron. And He treads the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of El Shaddai.

15 And the armies in the heaven, dressed in fine linen, white and clean, followed Him on white horses.

16 And on His robe and on His thigh 1 He has a name written: SOVEREIGN OF SOVEREIGNS AND MASTER OF MAS-

And I saw one messenger standing in the sun, and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in mid-heaven, “Come and gather together for the supper of the great Elohim, to eat the flesh of sovereigns, and the flesh of commanders, and the flesh of strong ones, and the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all people, free and slave, both small and great.”

And I saw the beast, and the sovereigns of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to fight Him who sat on the horse and His army.

And the beast was seized, and with him the false prophet who worked signs in his presence, by which he led astray those who received the mark of the beast and those who worshipped his image. The two were thrown alive into the lake of fire burning with sulphur.

And the rest were killed with the sword which came from the mouth of Him who sat on the horse, and all the birds were filled with their flesh.

And I saw a messenger coming down from the heaven, having the key to the pit of the deep and a great chain in his hand.

And he seized the dragon, the serpent of old, who is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years, and he threw him into the pit of the deep, and shut him up, and set a seal on him, so that he should lead the nations no more astray until the thousand years were ended. And after that he has to be released for a little while.

And I saw thrones – and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them – and the lives of those who had been beheaded because of the witness they bore to Ḥašĕ́r and because of the Word of Elohim, and who did not worship the beast, nor his image, and did not receive his mark upon their foreheads or upon their hands. And they lived and reigned with Messiah for a thousand years (and the rest of the dead did not come to life until the thousand years were ended) – this is the first resurrection.

Blessed and set-apart is the one having part in the first resurrection. The second death possesses no authority over these, but they shall be priests of Elohim and of Messiah, and shall reign with Him a thousand years.

And when the thousand years have ended, Satan shall be released from his prison, and he shall go out to lead the nations astray which are in the four corners of the earth, Goğ and Mağog, to gather them together for battle, whose number is as the sand of the sea.

And they came up over the breadth of the earth and surrounded the camp of the set-apart ones and the beloved city. And fire came down from Elohim out of the heaven and consumed them.

And the devil, who led them astray, was thrown into the lake of fire and sulphur where the beast and the false prophet are. And they shall be tortured day and night forever and ever.

And I saw a great white throne and Him who was sitting on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away, and no place was found for them.

And I saw the dead, small and great, standing before the throne, and books were opened. And another book was opened, which is the Book of Life. And the dead were judged from what was written in the books, according to their works.

And the sea gave up the dead who were in it, and death and the grave gave up the dead who were in them. And they were judged, each one according to his works.

And the death and the grave were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death.

And if anyone was not found written in the Book of Life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

1 “thigh”, but possibly flag. See Explanatory notes under Thigh.
And I saw a renewed heaven and a renewed earth, for the former heaven and the former earth had passed away, and the sea is no more.

And I, YoÁanan, saw the set-apart city, renewed Yerushalayim, coming down out of the heaven from Elohim, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

And I heard a loud voice from the heaven saying, “See, the Booth of Elohim is with men, and He shall dwell with them, and they shall be His people, and Elohim Himself shall be with them and be their Elohim.

And Elohim shall wipe away every tear from their eyes, and there shall be no more death, nor mourning, nor crying. And there shall be no more pain, for the former matters have passed away.”

And He who was sitting on the throne said, “See, I make all matters new.” And He said to me, “Write, for these words are true and trustworthy.”

And He said to me, “It is done! I am the ‘Aleph’ and the ‘Taw’, the Beginning and the End. To the one who thirsts I shall give of the fountain of the water of life without payment.

The one who overcomes shall inherit all this, and I shall be his Elohim and he shall be My son.

But as for the cowardly, and untrustworthy, and abominable, and murderers, and those who whore, and drug sorcerers, and idolaters, and all the false, their part is in the lake which burns with fire and sulphur, which is the second death.”

And one of the seven messengers who held the seven bowls filled with the seven last plagues came to me and spoke with me, saying, “Come, I shall show you the bride, the Lamb’s wife.”

And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the great city, the set-apart Yerushalayim, descending out of the heaven from Elohim, having the esteem of Elohim, and her light was like a most precious stone, like a jasper stone, clear as crystal, and having a great and high wall, having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve messengers, and names written on them, which are those of the twelve tribes of the children of Yisra’Ãl:

three gates on the east, three gates on the north, three gates on the south, and three gates on the west.

And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the names of the twelve emissaries of the Lamb.

And he who spoke with me had a golden measuring rod, to measure the city, and its gates, and its wall.

And the city lies four-cornered, and its length is as great as its breadth. And he measured the city with the rod: two thousand two hundred kilometres – the length, and the breadth, and height of it are equal.

And he measured its wall: sixty-five metres, according to the measure of a man, that is, of a messenger.

And the structure of its wall was jasper. And the city was clean gold, like clear glass.

And the foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with all kinds of precious stones: the first foundation jasper, the second sapphire, the third agate, the fourth emerald, the fifth sardonyx, the sixth ruby, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, and the twelfth amethyst.

And the twelve gates were twelve pearls – each one of the gates was a single pearl. And the street of the city was clean gold, like transparent glass.

And I saw no Dwelling Place in it, for HWHY Elohim is its Dwelling Place, and the Lamb.

And the city had no need of the sun, nor of the moon, to shine in it, for the esteem of Elohim lightened it, and the Lamb is its lamp.

And the gentiles, of those who are saved, shall walk in its light, and the sovereigns of the earth bring their esteem into

See 2:11, 20:6, 21:8. i See YeÁez. 47:22-23, YeÁez. 48:31-34. j See Yesh. 60:3
And its gates shall not be shut at all by day, for night shall not be there.

And they shall bring the esteem and the appreciation of the gentiles into it.

And there shall by no means enter into it whatever is unclean, neither anyone doing abomination and falsehood, but only those who are written in the Lamb’s Book of Life.

And he showed me a river of water of life, clear as crystal, coming from the throne of Elohim and of the Lamb. In the middle of its street, and on either side of the river, was the tree of life, which bore twelve fruits, each tree yielding its fruit every month. And the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

And no longer shall there be any curse, and the throne of Elohim and of the Lamb shall be in it, and His servants shall serve Him.

And they shall see His face, and His Name shall be upon their foreheads.

And night shall be no more, and they shall have no need of a lamp or the light of the sun, because Elohim shall give them light. And they shall reign forever and ever.

And he said to me, “These words are trustworthy and true. And Elohim of the set-apart prophets has sent His messenger to show His servants what has to take place with speed.

See, I am coming speedily! Blessed is he who guards the words of the prophecy of this book.”

And I, YoÁanan, saw and heard these matters. And when I heard and saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the messenger who showed me these matters.

And he said to me, “See, do not! For I am your fellow servant, and of your brothers the prophets, and of those who are guarding the words of this book. Worship Elohim.”

And he said to me, “Do not seal the words of the prophecy of this book, because the time is near.

“He who does wrong, let him do more wrong; he who is filthy, let him be more filthy; he who is righteous, let him be more righteous; he who is set-apart, let him be more set-apart.

“And see, I am coming speedily, and My reward is with Me, to give to each according to his work.

“I am the ‘Aleph’ and the ‘Taw’, the Beginning and the End, the First and the Last.

“Blessed are those doing His commands, so that the authority shall be theirs unto the tree of life, and to enter through the gates into the city.

“But outside are the dogs and those who enchant with drugs, and those who whore, and the murderers, and the idolaters, and all who love and do falsehood.

“I, have sent My messenger to witness to you these matters in the assemblies. I am the Root and the Offspring of Dawïd, the Bright and Morning Star.”

And the Spirit and the bride say, “Come!” And he who hears, let him say, “Come!” And he who thirsts, come! And he who desires it, take the water of life without paying!

For I witness to everyone hearing the words of the prophecy of this book: If anyone adds to them, Elohim shall add to him the plagues that are written in this book, and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, Elohim shall take away his part from the Book of Life, and out of the set-apart city, which are written in this Book.

He that bears witness of these matters says, “Yea, I am coming speedily.” Amën. Yea, come, Master Elohim! The favour of our Master Messiah be with the set-apart ones. Amën.
The purpose of this is to give some information on subjects which are not readily available to all, and to help those who seek to “worship the Father in Spirit and Truth” (Jn. 4:23). The Great Physician, יeshuא, said that the healthy have no need of a physician. Similarly, those teachings or beliefs that are sound among believers, do not need the Great Physician’s attention. יeshuא is presently doing a much needed healing, through the Spirit of the Truth, confuting (proving wrong) the world concerning sin, and concerning righteousness, and concerning judgment (Jn. 16:8). O יeshuא, please heal us completely!

The following notes are supplementary to what has already been explained in the Preface, and in the footnotes at the bottom of the pages of the main text:

Abomination That Lays Waste: We find this term in Dan. 9:27, Dan. 11:31 and Dan. 12:11. Then the Messiah, prophesying about the end-time in Mt. 24:15, reveals to us that we shall perceive the “Abomination that lays waste ... set up in the set-apart place,” quoting from the Book of Dani’el. This prophecy by Dani’el was filled the first time during the time of Antiochus Epiphanes, but the Messiah was here prophesying about the end-time. Who is the “Abomination that lays waste”? In 2 Macc. 6:2 (we do not regard Maccabees as part of Scripture, but it is an interesting historical record) we find this to be Zeus, or BaÈal Shamen as the Syriac version of 2 Macc. 6:2 renders it – the great sky-deity or sun-deity! Note well: it is in itself an abomination, but it also lays waste. What is laid waste? The True Worship! We read many passages in Scripture about the laying waste of the True Worship – see footnote Teh. 79:1, for instance.

Afflict Your Beings: A term which means to fast, to deny yourself.

Alleged Sabbath-breaking by Messiah: In Dictionary of New Testament Theology (Editor: Colin Brown), vol. 3, p. 410, after the author had critically examined all the alleged Sabbath-breaking texts, he says in conclusion, “We may conclude then, that though Jesus broke through rabbinic traditions about the sabbath, there was no annulling of the observance of the day.” In the Mishnah, Shabbath 7, 2, we find a list of 39 additional laws on Sabbath-keeping which the Pharisees added, thereby making a burden of the Sabbath. In fact, the addition of these extra laws is against Scripture (DeÄ. 4:2 etc.). יeshuא was indeed opposing the Pharisees who had made the Word of Elohim of no effect with their burdensome oral tradition. They had sought to make the observance of the Sabbath much more rigorous than הוהי had ever commanded. The New Bible Dictionary, 1st Edition, p. 1111, explicitly refutes the allegation that the Messiah broke the Sabbath, and referring to what Messiah and His taught ones did, says as follows, “It was not wrong to eat on the sabbath, even if the food must be obtained by plucking corn from the ears. Nor was it wrong to do good on the sabbath day.”

Altar: Hebrew: Mizäheal; literally “Place of Slaughter” (from zabah, ‘he slaughtered.’) The Law of Mosheh allowed altars to be made from earth or unhewn stone (Shem. 20:24, 25). Altars were built for slaughter- ing of offerings (Ber. 8:20; Shem. 20:24), burning of incense (Shem. 37), or as memorials (Ber. 12:7, 13:18, 26:25, 35:1; Shem. 17:15).

Altar for Burnt Offering - Bronze Altar (Shem. 27, 30).

Altar for Incense - Golden Altar (Shem. 37).

Anti-Messiah: There are many Anti-Messiahs (1 Yn. 2:18), yet there is an important one, and many theories have been presented throughout the centuries. Most of them identify this Anti-Messiah with the one(s) we read about in Yesh. 14:12-14, Dan. 7, Dan. 8, Dan. 9, Dan. 11,
Mt. 24:15, 2 Thess. 2:1-12, Rev. 13. In Rev. 13 we read of two beasts, the one seemingly a political power, and the other a religious one. This latter seems to be more closely linked to the one we read of in 2 Thess. 2, and also the “Abomination that lays waste,” of which we read in Dani‘el in three places, and which quotes in Mt. 24:15. If we study the Greek word anti we discover that it more frequently means “in place of” or “instead of” in the Messianic Scriptures than its other meaning of “against.” Is this then not what the Messiah prophesied about when He spoke of “another” one, in Yn. 5:43? Further, is it not the same “another” one Sha‘ul spoke about in 2 Cor. 11:4? Whoever or whatever the anti-Messiahs are, they are all used by Satan, for he is behind them all. He even masquerades as a messenger of light! (2 Cor. 11:14).

Ba‘al: This word, it seems, gradually became a proper name. A similar Semitic word derives from the Aryan root Bhal, which means “to shine,” according to some. According to W. H. Roscher’s well-known lexicon of mythology, Ba‘al (Bel, Belos) was the ancestral and national deity of the Semites, and says that Ba‘al was the founder of Babel (Babylon), according to secular history. He is identified with Zeus, Jupiter, Ammon, Assur, Assur, Kronos, and Bel-Marduk. Morris Jastrow, Max Müller, and W. H. Roscher all three agree: Ba‘al is the Babylonian sun-deity. The Ba‘als of the nations were sun-deities, and Ba‘al worship means sun worship.

Birth Pains: See Great Distress.

Beliya‘al: Often found as a compound expression, “Sons of Beliya‘al” in the Scriptures. It is derived from two Hebrew words meaning “not” and “be of use,” thus meaning “worthlessness.” It could have been a proper name, originally. In 2 Cor. 6:15 it is used as a synonym for Satan.

Between the Evenings: Hebrew idiom which according to the Pharisees means: between the decline of the sun immediately after midday and sunset, that is approximately 3 pm. in the afternoon - but according to the Sadducees means between sunset and dark, i.e. twilight.

Bondage: To “be in bondage to,” or to “be a slave of,” or to “be a servant of,” are three different ways of translating the same He纐ew word and its Greek equivalent. The decision to use any one of these three terms has always rested with the translator. The reader of The Scriptures might change them to suit himself. The bondage that we should be beware of, and be set free from, is of course “bondage to sin” – as we read in Yn. 8:34 and Rom. 6:6-23.

Choose, Choice: The main word used in the Hebrew is the verb bahar, which means to try, or by implication, to choose. One authority says it means “to choose after testing.” As a nation, Yisra‘el was, and still is, the chosen nation. Further, their Sovereign, ‘̂oshah, is the Chosen Servant! Elohim chooses His chosen ones for a certain task, for a High Calling, to comply with His conditions He laid down for them, namely to be “His treasured possession.” We find it in the following texts: Shem. 19:5-6, Deḇ. 7:6-7, Deḇ. 10:15, Deḇ. 14:2, Deḇ. 26:18, Teh. 135:4, Yesh. 41:8, Yesh. 44:1-2. However, we find it even more clearly given to us in the Messianic Scriptures, namely in Eph. 1:4 but then found too many other words that had to be rendered as “trust,” and decided to rather use the word “believe.” So, when reading The Scriptures, bear in mind that it means much more than uncommitted believing. It means to trust, to rely on, and even to prove your belief by obedience. A great believer once said, “He who believes shall obey, for by his obedience he proves that he believes.”
(also confirmed in 2 Thess. 2:13), which says that He has chosen us in Messiah “to be set-apart and blameless.” It is as clear and simple as that! Because of this High Calling we understand why “many are called, but few are chosen” (Mt. 20:16, Mt. 22:14). That is why there are few who find it (Mt. 7:14, confirmed also in Lk. 13:23-30). Yisra’èl was “chosen in the furnace of affliction” (Yesh. 48:10), and it is no different for the Messianic believer (Mt. 7:14). That is why few are chosen!

Chosen Servant: The Spirit, inspiring all Scripture, has coupled these two words (“Chosen,” and “Servant”) in seven places (the perfect number), as a descriptive term for His people, and this term also refers to our Messiah! Why the Messiah as well? Because the Messiah is the embodiment of Yisra’èl. We find these seven texts in the Book of Yeshayahu, in 41:8 & 9, 42:1, 43:10, 44:1 & 2, 45:4.

Commands (Commandments): The term “Ten Commandments, Ten Commands” is not found in Scripture at all! It is “Ten Words.” The word “command(s)” and the word “word(s)” are often used as synonyms in Scripture, and often used interchangeably. See Word below.

Covenant: The Interpreter’s Dictionary of the Bible, vol. 4, p. 575, says, “There can be no doubt that the fundamental meaning of ‘covenant’ in the NT is derived from, and is a highly creative reinterpretation, of the OT berith, a two-party arrangement in which one is bound by oath.” Dr. Bullinger in The Companion Bible, Appx. 95, wrote, “The word ‘Testament,’ as a translation of the Greek word diatheke (which means ‘covenant’), has been nothing less than a great calamity; for, by its use, truth has been effectively veiled all through the centuries; causing a wrong turning to be taken ... errors of tradition have usurped the place of important truth. The word ‘Testament’ as a name for a collection of books is unknown to Scripture. It comes to us through the Latin Vulgate.” Testamentum was a Roman “omen of death.” Closely related to this word we find Testomonium as the name of a Roman deity, as well as Test, found in many European languages.

Darnel: In Mt. 13, Mk. 4, and Lk. 8 we read of the parable of the Sower (נודו) sowing the wheat, and then (as we read in Mt. 13) comes the devil sowing the darnel (tares), which then grows among the wheat. It is generally agreed that the Greek zizania denotes “bearded darnel.” This is a noxious plant, practically indistinguishable from wheat until the ear has developed. Messiah Himself reveals unto us in Mt. 13:41 that this darnel (the false wheat), represents teachings of “lawlessness,” sown by the devil, which shoots up among the true believers, right in the midst of the Messianic reign, the Messianic Belief! This lawlessness takes on form and is manifested in people, co-existing with the true believers in the Messiah’s reign! All these teachings of “lawlessness” are the stumbling-blocks, causing believers to sin. At the end of this age the Messiah is going to send out His messengers to gather all these stumbling-blocks, as well as all “those doing lawlessness,” and throw them into the furnace of fire!

Day of יהוה This expression appears some 30 times in the Scriptures, and this particular day is also referred to by means of equivalent phrases, about 300 times. It speaks of the visitation, the punishment, when יהוה actively intervenes to punish sin, especially at the end of the ages.

Deceit, Deception: The opposite of truth is “lie” or “falsehood,” but so is “deceit” and “deception.” Satan, the devil, is the father of all lies (Yn. 8:44). He is also the great deceiver (Rev. 12:9), deceiving the whole world. He started his work of deceiving in the garden of Eden, and he has been doing it ever since, even coming as a messenger of light, even through his ministers who present themselves as ministers of righteousness (2 Cor. 11:13-15). In Mt. 24, speaking about the days prior to His return, יהוה warns us no less than four times against the deception (or leading astray) during the last days (vv. 4, 5, 11, 24). Sha’ul reveals this to us as well in 2 Thess. 2, and explicitly warns us about “lawlessness” taking over in the Worship! This lawlessness is associated with “deceit”, “falsehood” and “delusion” (2...
Thess. 2:9-11).

El, Eloah, Elohim, Elahn, Elyon:

El: Mighty One, Strength

Eloah: Singular form of Elohim, has same meaning as El.

Elohim: Plural of Eloah, Rulers, Messengers.

Elyon, El Elyon: The Most High El.

Hebrew
Aramaic

Eloah
Elah

Elyon
Illaya

Elohim
Elahin

The word “El” is a very ancient Semitic term. Among Semitic languages it is one of the most used terms for greatness, strength or deity. In Hebrew religious usage it does not denote a proper name but is used as a title. Used for the Creator’s superiority over all other as a generic term in Daniel 11:36 “...the El of elahin...”

El, Eloah, Elohim is used to refer to the Creator, but also applied to rulers, messengers and persons. (Referring to Mosheh in Shemoth 4:16, “And it shall be that he shall be a mouth for you, and you shall be an elohim for him.”) Also Teh. 82:1.

Elyon is translated as Most High. Used in Tehillim 7:17 “And praise the Name of יהוה (Elyon) Most High.”

The term “Eli” (my El) used by Messiah in the Messianic Writings in Mark 15:34 “Eli, Eli lamah shebaqtani.”

First Day of the Week: The underlying Greek text is “mia ton sabbaton”, which when literally translated means “one of the sabbath/s”, but is traditionally rendered as “first day of the week.” The term “first day of the week” is literally translated as “proté hemera tis hebdomata” in Greek, but nowhere appears as such in the N.T. There is a strong argument that “mia ton sabbaton” should be rendered according to Semitic idiom as “day one of the week”, and we have decided to retain the traditional rendering as “first day of the week”, in Scripture passages such as Mt. 28:1, Lk. 24:1, Yn. 20:1 etc., unless further light to the contrary is forthcoming.

Gad: Apart from Gad, the son of Ya’aqob, there was another “Gad.” The astrologers of Baḇel called Jupiter (Zeus) by the name “Gad.” He was also well known among the Canaanites (the Kena’anites) where his name was often coupled with Ba’al, Ba’al Gad, which according to the Masoretic vowel pointing in the Book of Yehoshua is pronounced: Ba’al God. This same name is discovered in the ancient Germanic languages as Gott, Goda, Gode, God, Gud, Gade. And searching further back into its Indo-Germanic (Indo-European) roots, we find that it traces back to the word GHODH, which means “union,” even “sexual union.” No wonder this meaning is still evident in the Dutch and German gade. It is also not difficult to see it in the English “gadfly” and “gadding about.”

God: See Gad.

Great Distress: Messiah prophesied that prior to His return, there shall be a time of Great Distress, or Great Pressure. He said so in Mt. 24:21 & 29, Mk. 13:24, and in Rev. 7:14. This was also prophesied in Deḇ. 4:30, and in Yirm. 30:6-7. This time is also known as the time of “birth pains,” which is often found in the same passage, as a parallel term, describing the Great Distress. We read of this time of “birth pains” in Teh. 22:31, Teh. 102:18, Yesh. 66:7-9, Yirm. 30:6-7, Miḵ. 5:3, Mt. 24:8, Rev. 12:5. What is to be born at this time? Yisra’el, repenting Yisra’el, namely Yisra’el who has turned back from apostasy, unbelief and disobedience – with the born again gentiles grafted in among them!

Gentiles: In Hebrew, and in Greek, the word literally means “nations.” In Scripture it has the meaning of non-Yisra’elites or non-Yehuḏim, in most cases. In a few instances it means “many, or all nations, including Yisra’el.” The true believer is repeatedly admonished not to learn the way of the gentiles (Way. 18:3, Deḇ. 12:30, Deḇ. 18:9, Yirm. 10:2, Yeḥez. 11:12, Yeḥez. 18:9, Miḵ. 4:5). And those who were gentiles before they came to conversion are admonished to “no longer walk as the gentiles walk” (1 Cor. 12:2, Eph. 4:17, 1 Kēpha 4:3). Therefore, those who were gentiles, but came to belief, who are grafted in among the true Yisra’elites (Rom. 11:17-24), simply have to unlearn their old gentile ways, and “come to the light” of Tsiyon (Yesh. 60:3), and “walk in the light” of the Renewed Yerushalayim (Rev. 21:24). They shall serve הוהי, they shall love the Name of הוהי, they shall no longer defile the Sabbath, and they shall hold fast the covenant of הוהי (Yesh. 56:6). They shall come to the House of the Elohim of Ya’aqoḇ, to Tsiyon, to Yerushalayim, and be taught the ways of Elohim, the teaching, the Word of הוהי (Yesh. 2:2-3, Miḵ. 4:2). What is the future of this unrepentant gentile world in which we live, who are outside the covenant of הוהי? None at all! Read this in Yesh. 34:2, Yirm. 25:26-33, Yirm. 30:11, Yirm. 46:28, Dan. 2:44, Dan. 7:27, Amos 9:8, Oḇaḏ. vv. 15-21, Ḥagg. 2:22, Rev. 11:15. Only Yisra’el, the true Yisra’el, shall be saved, everlastingly saved (Yesh. 45:17), in the end-time judgment!

Heart: In Scripture this word is used figuratively in most instances, being one of the richest terms for the totality of man’s inner nature. Whereas to the Greek (and also to the English speaker) heart refers to the emotions - to the Hebrew it refers rather to the centre of man, especially the centre of volition and the centre of moral behaviour. The Word enters us through the ‘eye gate,’ or through the ‘ear gate.’ The next organ it then encounters is the heart. The heart of unregenerate man, however, presents a problem. We read in Yirm. 17:9 that “The heart is crooked above all, and very sick (or, desperately wicked).” Further, our Messiah teaches us that the heart is the source from which come all forms of sin (Mt. 15:19, Mk. 7:21-22). Those who still live according to the flesh have uncircumcised hearts, they have callous hearts, hardened hearts, hearts of stone. Those who do not yield “all their heart” unto Elohim, through His Son, are those who keep their hearts far away from Him (Yesh. 29:13, Mt. 15:8, Mk. 7:6). But those who have surrendered “all their heart,” those whose “hearts are steadfast with Him,” are living a life of overcoming, for they “are true to His covenant” (Teh. 78:37), their “eyes watch My ways” (Mish. 23:26), they no longer live according to the “teachings” which are but the “commands of men” (Yesh. 29:13, Mt. 15:8, Mk. 7:6). Those who overcome are the true Yisra’elites, the true Yehudiim. Their hearts are circumcised, they keep the law as proof of their love towards Elohim (Rom. 2:26-29, 1 Yn. 5:2-3, 2 Yn. v. 6). Our Elohim is not satisfied with a divided heart, or part of your heart. He demands “all your heart” (DeÄ. 4:29-30, Yirm. 29:13, Yo’el 2:12, Mt. 22:37). Those who seek Him shall only find Him if they come to Him with all their heart.

Jesus: Consider Iesous, rendered as “Jesus” in English versions up to now. For example the authoritative Greek-English Lexicon of Liddell & Scott, under Iaso: the Greek goddess of healing reveals that the name Iaso is Ieso in the Ionic dialect of the Greeks, Iesous being the contracted genitive form! In David Kravitz, Dictionary of Greek and Roman Mythology, we found a similar form, namely Iasus. There were four different Greek deities with the name of Iasus, one of them being the Son of Rhea. Further, it is well known that Ies is the abbreviated form of the name Iesous, and Dr. Bullinger, in The Apocalypse, p. 396, says Ies was part of the name of Bacchus! Also see Come out of her, My people, by C.J. Koster.

Kush: Usually taken as Ethiopia, the territory south of Mitsrayim (Egypt). In Ber. 2:13 it could have been that which was later known as Midyan, or else it could have been the Accadian Kas.

Law: In the Tanak (pre-Messianic Scriptures):
(1) We have rendered Torah as “Torah,” rather than translating it by an English word, thereby retaining the force and flavour of the original, as it appears in its various contexts. While the closest English word is the traditional “law” (and that is the rendering given in the Greek text of the Messianic Scriptures, from the Greek word nomos), the word Torah is far wider in meaning. It derives from the word yarah which carries the meanings “to cast,” “to lay foundations,” “to sprinkle,” “to water,” “to send out the hand,” “to show,” “to indicate,” “to teach,” “to instruct” (Gesenius). The word Torah is used in reference to precepts, commands, statutes, judgments, rules, whether in the singular or in groups. Understandably then, it carries the additional meanings of “body of law,” “body of instruction,” etc., and is used to refer also to the entire content of the Humash, the first five books of the Tanak (see Preface). Indeed, when context indicates that the “law of ¶¶” is being referred to, the primary reference is to the Humash.

(2) We have rendered hag and its feminine form haggah in most places as “law” instead of the traditional “statutes and ordinances.”

(3) We have rendered mishpat as “judgment” or as “right-ruling,” and its verb shaphat as “judge” or “rightly rule.”

(4) Expressions such as “command,” “law,” “teaching,” “Torah,” “word,” etc. are often used in an inclusive way, whether in the singular or in the plural.

(5) Much of the Torah involves commands, laws, right-rulings, statutes, etc., which relate to a properly constituted society, such as that which prevailed under Mosheh or under the sovereigns of Yisra’el. As such, laws which clearly apply within a civil or national context are not to be misapplied by individuals living in a society that is not totally subject to the Torah as its constitution and legal code. Thus for example, you may not decide to stone someone to death for desecrating the sabbath. The decision would have to be made by a judge within the framework of such a Torah-based nation. Clearly then, although these laws are still applicable, since the context in which they are to be applied is lacking at present, they can only be applied when such a Torah-true nation comes into existence (for example, when Messiah returns to set up his Kingdom).

Law - In the Messianic Scriptures:
The word “law” occurs throughout the Messianic Scriptures, usually in reference to the Torah, in whole or in part. In this respect, our comments above (Law - In the Tanak) should be considered as a background to the correct understanding of the usage of those who wrote the Messianic Scriptures (New Testament).
However, a number of other points should also be borne in mind, viz.:

1. Firstly, the text underlying all translations made today is Greek, not Hebrew, although the original Semitic structures and thought-patterns underlying the Greek text are frequently still discernible in the Greek text. This means that Greek words like nomos (law) may also represent expressions or ideas other than Torah from time to time in the Messianic Scriptures. Thus, in Romans 7,8, the word “law” sometimes refers to the “Torah”, the Law of הנהנה, the first five books of the Tanak (Old Testament), as in Romans 7:14,16,22; 8:3,4,7, but other times it refers to something else such as a body of rules or a fixed system or pattern of behaviour, as in Romans 7:21,23; 8:2. Both usages appear together in Romans 7:25, where the “law” of sin, i.e. the “fixed behaviour pattern” of sin (sin is “Law-breaking”- 1 YoÁanan 3:4) is contrasted with the “Torah” of Elohim. The expression “the law of sin and death” in Romans 8:2 is not a reference to the Torah as such, but to the system of sin and death in those who are walking in the flesh and not in the Spirit ( Romans 8:1,2,6,7).

2. There are times when nomos (law) is used to refer to a portion of the Torah such as that which applies to the Léwitical Priesthood, or to the Set-apart Place ( K.J.V. “Sanctuary”), and a failure or refusal to see this could lead to the erroneous conclusion that the Torah / Law given at Sinai has been annulled, abolished, done away, or at least been changed, when in fact this is not the case at all! ( Mattithyahu / Matthew 5:17-20). An example of this is in Ibrim / Hebrews 7:12. The King Version puts it this way: “For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.”

Since the “change” referred to is in reference to the “scaling down” from the heavenly original to the earthly shadow-copy ( see Ibrim / Hebrews 8:1,2,5), from a system in which the High Priest is eternal to one in which the human high priest keeps dying and having to be replaced by another, it would be wrong to see this verse as a proof-text for the position that the Torah / Law given at Sinai has been changed. A careful look at the context makes abundantly clear the fact that the order of Malkitseåeq preceded that of Lëwi, even as the heavenly Set-apart Place preceded that of the earthly one. The fact that יְשׁוֹבֵן began his High Priestly duties in the heavenly Set-apart Place after his death on Golgotha does not mean that the heavenly system only came into being at that time. The point made in Ibrim / Hebrews 7:12 is that the present earthly / shadow-copy / “scale model” cannot produce perfection. Perfection requires nothing less than the ministry of “such a Kohên ha Gadol (High Priest), who is seated at the right hand of the throne of the Greatness in the heavens, and who serves in the set-apart place and of the true Tent, which הנהנה set up, and not man” ( 8:1,2 ).

Lord: Substituting the Name of יהוה with “LORD” or “Lord,” as has been done in most translations, is against all Scripture:

1. It is transgression of the Third Command(ment) which prohibits us from bringing His Name to naught, or falsifying it.

2. It is transgression of the command in DeÄ. 4:2, “Do not add to the Word which I command you, and do not take away from it.” This is repeated in DeÄ. 12:32, Mish. 30:6, Rev. 22:18-19.

3. יהוה reproves the prophets in Yirm. 23:36, “You have changed the Words of the living Elohim...”

4. “Lord” is not an innocent title. We trace it back to the Roman house-deity, and further back to the name of an Etruscan sovereign, Larth, not forgetting that in those days the sovereigns were deities! So this is transgression of the clear command of Shem. 23:13.

Messiah In You: The Messianic Scriptures contain two important messages:

1. To come to יְשׁוֹבֵן, to believe in Him and accept Him, and also acknowledge and accept the tremendous price He paid on Golgotha for your sins. For He is the only perfect offering for your sins, for the forgiveness of your sins.

2. Secondly and subsequently, the message of the blessing, the privilege, of having Messiah in you, also called the Word in you, and in other places called the Set-apart Spirit or Spirit of Truth in you. Remember: the Spirit represents the Father and the Son (Yn. 14:23). This fact appears in no less than 32 texts in the Messianic Scriptures! This all-important teaching has been sadly neglected in most denominations. Why is it so important? Simply because it is the only way to overcome the wicked one, that one who is the ruler of this present age (world). 1 Yn 4:4 greatly encourages us and says, “He who is in you is greater than he who is in the world.” יְהֹוָה says in Yn. 15:5, “Because without Me you are able to do naught”! However, there is a condition Messiah laid down for Him (or the Spirit) to live in us: We have to guard (keep) His Words (Commands), which are the same as the Words (Commands) of His Father (7 texts in Yoḥanan prove this to us). He, or the Spirit, only lives in us if we guard His Words (Commands) – Yn. 14:23, 1 Yn. 3:24. This fact is repeated for us in Acts 5:32: the Set-apart Spirit is given “to those who obey Him.” This second message of “Messiah in you,” which we find in the Messianic Scriptures, is nothing else but the life of obedience, to be set apart, as we sit at the feet of יָשׁוּעַ and learn from Him, feeding on the manna (the Word), in order to grow to maturity and bear the fruit of righteousness! This obedience to יְהֹוָה is not optional, no, it is imperative, for without this life of set-apartness (set apart from the sins of this world), NO ONE SHALL SEE HIM (Heb. 12:14). If we truly love Him, we shall indeed obey Him (Shem. 20:6, Yn. 14:15, 1 Yn. 5:2-3, 2 Yn. v. 6). This obedience to יְהֹוָה is sadly neglected, yet a vital prerequisite (Yn. 3:36, Acts 3:22-23, 2 Cor. 10:5, Heb. 5:9). Obeying יְהֹוָה results in, and is the same as obedience to the Commands of יְהֹנָן, and is an essential condition for everlasting life – Mt. 19:17, Lk. 10:28, Yn. 12:50, Rev. 22:14. Those who hear the Words (Commands) of יְהֹוָה, but do not do them, shall fall, greatly (Mt. 7:24-27, Lk. 6:46-49). We are listing these texts of “Messiah in us” (or the Spirit in us) for your convenience:

Yn. 6:56; Yn. 14:17; Yn. 15:4, 5, 7; Rom. 8:8, 9, 10, 11, 11; 1 Cor. 3:16; 1 Cor. 6:19; 2 Cor. 6:16; 2 Cor. 13:5; Gal. 2:20; Gal. 4:19; Eph. 3:17; Eph. 4:6; Philip. 2:13; Col. 1:27; 1 Thess. 2:13; 2 Tim. 1:14; Heb. 13:21; Ya’aqob 4:5; 1 Yn. 3:9, 24, 24; 1 Yn. 4:4, 12, 13, 15, 16; and last but not least, Yn. 14:23. This revealed secret (mystery) of “Messiah in us” is the only expectation (“hope”) for the believers, for them to truly overcome (Col. 1:27). It is the secret we all need, it is the key to a life of overcoming, to be truly set-apart.

Mitsrayim: Egypt.

Name: The Hebrew word is שֵׁם, which means much more than “name” in English. It is not a mere label of identification, it is an expression of the essential nature of the bearer of that name. In Hebrew, in the Scriptures, it speaks foremost of His authority. The Name of יהוה reveals Him, His character, the remembrance of Him, and His authority. However, an unseen heavenly Being can only be identified by His Name and by the Word that He has given us – how else?

Obey My Voice!: Although Ya’aqob was the first to be called by the name “Yisra’el,” we often read of Abraham being the father of Yisra’el. Elohim reveals to us how and why Abraham qualified to be the father of Yisra’el, for we read in Ber. 26:5, “Because Abraham obeyed My voice and guarded My charge: My commands, My laws, and My teachings.” Again, when Yisra’el was saved out of Mitsrayim, the land of sin, He laid down His condition for Yisra’el to be His people, as we read in Shem. 19:5-6, “If you diligently obey My voice, and shall guard My covenant, then you shall be My treasured possession above all the peoples – for all the earth is Mine – and you yourselves become to Me a reign of priests and a set-apart nation.” And for us it is no different, for יְהֹוָה is the embodiment of that same Word, that same Voice, which we need to hear, and obey. Read about this vital necessity of obeying יְהֹוָה – in Mt. 7:24-27, Mt. 17:5, Lk. 6:46-49, Yn. 3:36, Yn. 14:15, Yn. 15:10, Acts 3:22-23, 1 Yn. 2:3-6, Rev. 3:8-10, Rev. 12:17, Rev. 14:12.

Overcome, Overcomers: Ya’aqob’s name was changed to Yisra’el because Ya’aqob “overcame (prevailed) with El.” The prophetic Books repeatedly speak of this one nation that shall be overcomers when Messiah returns: Yisra’el! The Book of Revelation uses the word “overcome” (and “overcomers”) no less than 17 times. Who else overcomes with El but Yisra’el, the true Yisra’el!

Parable of the Sower: We referred to this briefly under the heading Darnel. יָדוֹן sows the Word of His Father. What becomes of the Word He sows? The outcome can be one of four – according to Mt. 13:4-8, and similar passages in Mk. 4:4-8, and Lk. 8:11-15. Messiah further gives the explanation of this parable in Mt. 13:18-23, and the corresponding passages in Mark and in Luke. The Word is either snatched away by an evil bird, or it sprouts but only for a while, or it grows but becomes choked, or else it grows and bears fruit. The last of the four groups is the only one to be acceptable, ultimately, for those belonging to this group are the only ones bearing fruit, the fruit of righteousness.

Parallelism in Scripture: In studying Scripture the reader is delighted by the amazing parallelism he encounters, throughout Scripture – parallel expressions, parallel words, often used in a parenthetical way, and even synonymously. For instance, in Teh. 119:172 three parallel words are used, being analogues, even synonyms: word, commands, righteousness. As we keep on studying the Scriptures we become aware of the oneness, the unity of all Scripture!

Paul: Who changed the name of Sha’ul to Paul (Paulus)? We find no evidence in Scripture as to why, when, and by whom this change of his name was instigated. All we could find was this: The ancient Romans had a national hero named Paulus. Was this change from “Sha’ul” to “Paulus” done in order to appease the Roman people? See Acts 26:14, also in other translations where Messiah called him Sha’ul (Saul). There is of course the possibility that Paulus was used to represent the Hebrew name Pallu (Ber. 46:9; Shem. 6:14; Bem. 26:5,8; 1 Dibre. 5:3.) meaning separated and that this was used by the believers in reference to his being especially set apart. To avoid taking sides we have used the form “Sha’ul” as per Messiah in Acts 26:14.

Post-exilic Apostasy: Some (estimated to be 25%) of Yehudah and of the other tribes returned from exile in Babyl and Assyria. After their return we find that apostasy had set in, or else started. Some proofs of this apostasy are:

1. Babylonian month names were adopted which were clearly associated with Babylonian mythology: Nisan, Siwan etc., and we find them in the post-exilic books of Ezra, Nehemyah, Estêr, Zeêaryah. In post-Scriptural times we find that they even adopted the name of the Babylonian sun-deity, Tammuz, by which to name one of their months.

2. Estêr’s original name was Hadassah (myrtle). The name Estêr derives from Ištar (the Babylonian female deity), or else from the Persian stara (star), according to our Bible dictionaries.

3. The apostasy went on, and sometime later on in the Greek period the political party of the Pharisees, the “lay scribes,” started taking over from the Léwitical priesthood, ousting them, which was un-Scriptural. Man-made laws and traditions took over – totally un-Scriptural.

4. The Name of יהוה began to be suppressed. At least by the 3rd century BCE the Name came to be avoided, and Αδόναι substituted in its place. Later on they substituted HaShem, according to the custom of the Samaritans. In the Talmud we find instructions that the Name was “to be hidden,” and in another place we read, “to be kept secret,” and again, “disguising it.” (Detailed references about this are obtainable from us). They did exactly as was prophesied in Yirm. 23:26-27 (see also under Lord, above).

5. Possibly for the same reason Yeho-, the abbreviated form of the Name of יהוה, became eliminated from the name of the successor to Mosheh, Yehoshua, who now became known as Yeshua (see Neh. 8:17). Deleting the Yeho- from Yehoshua’s name, was probably the reason our Messiah became known as Yeshua in the Hebrew Shem-Toḇ text of Mattithyahu. According to Yn. 17:11-12, and Philip. 2:9, the Name of יהוה, or at least part of it, ought to be in the Name of יהושע!

(6) This apostasy became worse and worse, and by the time יהושע began His ministry He repeatedly reproved the Pharisees (and others) for their lawlessness (Mt. 23:28, Yn. 7:19), and for keeping their own man-made commands, whilst rejecting the commands of יהוה (Mt. 15:3-9, Mk. 7:7-13).

Prophets: In times past “prophets” were often regarded as mystical or supernatural. Scholars of Scripture nowadays prefer to say that a prophet, according to Scripture, simply means a spokesman – a spokesman for Elohim, if he is a true prophet, of course. All the true prophets were persecuted (Acts 7:52), and many of them were killed. Messiah said that the false prophets were well spoken of (Lk. 6:26), and He reveals to us that the false prophets are those who work lawlessness (Mt. 7:15-23).

Renewed: Two Greek words, neos and kainos, have been rendered as “new” in almost all translations. The latter’s meaning differs from the former, and is derived from the verb kainoo, which means “to make new.” The Hebrew equivalent of this verb is הָדַשׁ, which means “to renew.” For this reason we have rendered kainos as “fresh” or as “renewed.”

Righteousness: In Scripture this word means to do what is right in the eyes of the Father, or as most scholars of Scripture agree: “Righteousness is conformity to law, especially to the law, mind and will of [the Almighty], which is the norm of righteousness.” In Deb. 6:25 we read that righteousness requires of us “to guard to do all these commands before יהוה Elohim, as He commanded us.” In Teh. 119:172 the Psalmist says, “For all Your commands are righteousness.” In Yesh. 51:7 we read, “Listen to Me, you who know righteousness, you people in whose heart is My Torah (law).” However before we start doing righteousness (the commands) we first need to be “declared right,” by belief. We first need to have our sins forgiven, we first need to come to belief, to come into a covenant relation-ship with the Most High through His Son יהושע. On this point Sha‘ul repeatedly spoke in Romans chs. 3, 4 and 5. In his day many Yehudim thought that because they were the descendants of Abraham, and were trying to keep the law their way, that they were right or righteous. No! They were putting the cart before the horse. We first need to believe and accept יהושע and His forgiveness, and then only does it become our privilege, and duty, to obey יהוה, as He commands us: Go and sin no more.

Right-ruling, Rightly rule: This noun and verb might at first appear to be unconventional, or rather unknown in the English language. They render the Hebrew noun mishpat and its verb shaphat often more precisely than the well-known “judgment” and “judge.” Traditionally they have been rendered as “justice” and “justify” in some instances. We have avoided these latter two words because they derive from the name of a gentile deity.

Sabbath (Seventh Day of the Week): This day was blessed and set apart by Elohim at creation (Ber. 2:2-3). Later on it was instituted as the sign of the everlasting covenant between Elohim and His people, a sign that He sets them apart, an everlasting sign (Shem. 31:13-17, YeÁez. 20:12-20). Sabbath-keeping is one of the Ten Words of the Covenant, standing forever, settled forever in heaven, founded forever (Teh. 89:34, Teh. 111:8-9, Teh. 119:89). We would like to point out the following:

(1) יהושע kept the Sabbath (Lk. 4:16, Yn. 15:10), and the women who were taught by Him still kept it at the time of Messiah’s burial (Lk. 23:56).
(3) Ludia and the women kept it (Acts 16:13).
(4) In Heb. 4:9 we are again reminded of the necessity of keeping the Sabbath!
(5) Finally: After the end-time judgment has come upon this earth (Yesh. 66), and a new heavens and a new earth is established, we read in Yesh. 66:23 that the Sabbath shall still be kept!
(6) Who then changed it to Sunday, in effect nullifying it? In Dan. 7:25 we read of a horn, a sovereign (remember: in those days the gentiles regarded their sovereigns as deities). This one is often interpreted as being the Anti-Messiah, the enemy of the Chosen People. In Dan. 7:25 we read that he would “intend to change appointed times (or, festivals) and law.” The RCC openly boast that they changed the Sabbath to Sunday. This change was preceded by Emperor Constantine legislating, in the year 321, that “the venerable day of the Sun” was to be kept as a day of rest.
Remember: Constantine was a worshipper of Sol Invictus, the sun-deity. The “Church” soon followed suit, and in the year 336 (some give the date as 364), at the Council of Laodicea, Canon 29, the Christians were commanded to observe the Sunday as well. Bishop Eusebius (270-338 CE), who worked with Constantine, admits to the Church’s decision to change from Sabbath to Sunday.

Save: According to Scripture, “to be saved” in a Spiritual sense means, to be saved from sin (Mt. 1:21). In this translation of the Scriptures we have used the word “deliverance” instead of the word “salvation” which is derived from Salus, an ancient Roman deity. The indwelling of יְשֵׁשֶׁן gives us the power to overcome sin. That is the secret of overcoming, to endure to the end, for only those who endure to the end shall be saved in the day of judgment.

Secret: In the Greek text of the Messianic Scriptures we often find the Greek word musterion. This word is best translated as “secret,” because the English “mystery” could impart thoughts of mysticism. No, the secrets of the Messianic Scriptures are highly significant secrets which were revealed by Messiah, and to a lesser extent by His emissaries. Among them we read of the secret of the Messiah having offici-cated on behalf of His Father, long before He “became flesh.” Another secret is the secret of “Messiah in you” which we have already discussed. Another one is the Good News going out among the gentile nations, in order to seek sincere converts, “branches” from the wild olive tree to be grafted into the olive tree, true Yisra’el.
Then there are the 7 parables which Messiah spoke of in Mt. 13:3-52, secrets
He revealed, as to what would become of the Messianic Worship after His ascension to heaven. Also, the shocking revelations of the end-time, of which we read in Mt.
24 and in the Book of Revelation, among them the “Abomination that lays waste” and the secret of “Babel” and her whoring daughters. All these were revelations which had already been revealed to Dani’el. However, Dani’el was commanded to keep them secret until the time of the end. And יְשֵׁשֶׁן has revealed them to us in Mt. 24 and in Revelation!

Set-apart Place: This could have been rendered or alternately read as “that which is set-apart,” in most places. This would then give it an abstract meaning, e.g. in Teh.
74:3, Dan. 8:13, Dan. 11:31, Mt. 24:15.

Seven-fold Message of Revelation:
Although the Book of Revelation contains much of what is still to come, certain funddamental teachings are found in it. One revelation that comes through very clearly is the definition of the True Worship, which is given in 7 places – the number of perfection. The True Worship rests on two fundamental principles, and the True Worshipper has to comply with these two requirements: To guard the commands of יְשֵׁשֶׁן, and to believe in יְשֵׁשֶׁן! We read this in Rev. 12:17 and in Rev. 14:12, and also in Rev. 15:2-3 where the overcomers are described as those who sing the song of Mosheh (the Law) and the song of the Lamb (יְשֵׁשֶׁן). Now for the other four witnesses: “Word,” “Command” and “Teaching” are very often used as parallel words, or synonyms, or interchangeably.
See this for yourselves in Teh. 119:142,
151, 160. Compare also Teh. 119:105 with Mish. 6:23, and read Mish. 13:13 as well.
So let us look at these other four witnesses, in the light of what we have discussed.
We find these other four witnesses in Rev.
1:2, Rev. 1:9, Rev. 6:9 and Rev. 20:4 – a total of seven perfect witnesses in the Book of Revelation!

Shomeron: Samaria.

Sin: The Greek word has the meaning of “missing the mark.” The equivalent word in Hebrew means “to commit an offense,” and in Scripture this means primarily to commit an offense against Elohim. Previously the Hebrew word’s meaning was sought according to the equivalent word in Greek, but according to modern scholars of Hebrew it means “to commit an offense.” Nevertheless, we find a clear and simple revelation in the Messianic Scriptures what this word means: In 1 Yn. 3:4 we read, “sin is lawlessness,” and again in 1 Yn. 5:17, “All unrighteousness is sin.” It is as simple as that! There are two types of sin. The one is to sin by mistake, or unknowingly or unintentionally. For this we receive forgiveness from יהוה. The other sin is to sin defiantly (with a high hand), or else knowingly, both of these being serious. We read in Shem. 34:7, and two other places, that יהוה by no means leaves sin unpunished! Dawiš repented of his sin of adultery and murder, and received forgiveness. However, he was punished afterwards, five-fold! At times Elohim executed punishment for defiant sinning immediately, e.g. in Bem. 15:30-36.

Slaughter, slaughters, slaughterings: The Hebrew word is “za’āḥ” or “ze’āḥ” which means to slaughter an animal, usually an offering. This word is sometimes translated as offer, offering or offerings.

Son of Adam: We used this term, rather than “Son of Man,” as a designation for our Messiah, because “Man” comes from the German Mann (Mannus), which was the great ancestor, progenitor, the ancestral deity of the Germanic race. The designation “Ben Adam” for our Messiah, is found in the Hebrew text of Teh. 80:17, as well as in the Hebrew of the Shem-Toḇ text of Mattithyahu, and in Delitzsch’s Hebrew New Testament.

Stay: In the Messianic Scriptures we have translated the Greek word meno as “stay,” and mone as “place to stay” or “a stay.” By doing this we meant to convey the semi-permanence of the Greek word. We could have used the word “remain” instead of “stay,” of course.

Testament: See Covenant, above.

Terms traditionally used to substitute the Name יהוה: יהוה, LORD, Adonai, Powers of Heaven Shemoth 20:7 “You do not bring the Name of יהוה your Elohim to naught, for יהוה does not leave the one unpunished who brings His Name to naught.”

In their extreme and mistaken attempt to observe the Third Commandment, a “Fence to the Scriptures” was built called the Massorah. In 134 passages the Sopherim altered יהוה to “Adonai” to prevent the pronunciation of the Name. It is alleged by some that the Massoretes did not give the true vocalisation for יהוה, but used the vowel signs for the alternative title “Adonai” for the same reason. In the traditional translations, this practice continues with the Name being translated with “LORD”, “HERE” and other titles.

Today we find that this practice is still observed, and that the words “HaShem” and “Adonai” are used as substitutions for the Name יהוה. HaShem literally means “The Name.” Adonai means “Master.”

In the Greek Manuscripts of the Messianic Scriptures we find the same practice where the Name is substituted by titles such as “Powers of Heavens” in order to abstain from using the proper Name and angering the religious institutions of the day. Even up to this day, we find that the religious institution object to the use of the proper Name in favour of titles such as “Lord,” “God,” “Here,” “Pan Bog,” “Modimo,” “Utixo” and many other.

Torah: Plural Torot - Hebrew for teachings or law. See Law.

Thigh: Here we have a strong indication of Revelation originally being written in Hebrew. If this word was written in Hebrew, it would have been ṭeḡel. It’s possible though, that the copiers of Revelation could have overlooked the small extension on the ḏalet ( ד ), which would have made it a resh ( ר ). If the word was dagel, it would have meant “banner”, which makes much more sense than “thigh”, because in the latter case two rules are broken:

(1) In Way. 19:28 we are forbidden to make tattoo’s on our bodies.
(2) A person whose thigh was exposed was considered naked. See Mk. 14:51, Shem. 28:42, Way. 16:4. When Revelation was copied it would have been easy to see the Hebrew “ד” (ד) as a “ר” (ר), if the former was not carefully written down. As the Hebrew script developed, the dalet and the resh, especially from around 700 BCE and onwards looked almost identical. It is also contrary to His dress in Rev. 1:13. It also seems that Messiah, when he appeared to his followers He spoke Hebrew, even though they could understand Greek very well (Acts 26:14).

Turn Back Your Captivity: This term for the return of His people from captivity (or sometimes called exile), in the latter days, is given as a prophecy – a prophecy which is for certain – in practically every one of the prophetic books, as well as in Deã. and in Tehillim. This “turning back from captivity” has a Spiritual meaning, first and foremost, and means the same as the call to “come out of Babĕl, My people.” (Yesh. 14:2-26, Dan. 2:28-45, Rev. chs. 17, 18 and 19).

Turn of the Year: This is known to us as equinox. It is not the end of the year as previously interpreted (e.g. Shem. 34:22).

The Two Reigns: יהוה is supreme and in complete control. However, mankind chose to obey Satan rather than the Most High, back in the Garden of Eden. Since then “all are under sin,” and again, “all have sinned” (Rom. 3:9 & 23), and according to Gal. 3:22 all mankind has been shut up (imprisoned) by sin. Satan says in Lk. 4:5-6 that all the reigns of the world have been delivered to him, Satan! In 1 Yn. 5:19 we read that “all the world lies in the wicked one,” meaning: all the world lies under the control of the wicked one! יהוה first started calling out people from this world of sin, out from under this sinful reign (Amos 9:8), calling them out to become His people, to come under His rule. He did this in a special way when He sent His Son יהוה to establish the reign of יהוה here on earth. We all know how almost all of His people rejected Him, and the reign of Elohim was held in abeyance – until יהוה comes again and physically sets up His Father’s reign here on earth (Teh. 2, Teh. 22:28, Yesh. 9:7, Yesh. 24:23, Dan. 2:44, Oبعد. v. 21, Ḥagg. 2:22, Zek. 8:3, Zek. 14:9, Rev. 11:15). In the meantime? יהוה is the embodiment of the reign of Elohim (Lk. 17:21), and He lives in the hearts and lives of those who have been born again. Therefore His reign is here now in a Spiritual way. It is only going to be physically set up when He returns!

Tzitit: - Plural Tzitziyot. Found in both the Torah and Messianic Scriptures. The tzitit is worn as a remembrance of the Torah. Bem. 15:37-41; Deḇ. 22:12. יהוה also wore the tzitit as found in the Messianic Scriptures. Mt. 9:20; 14:36.

Wadi: We have used this English word which is of Arabic origin, to translate the Hebrew נָהַל. It is the only English word that aptly describes a wide river bed that only flows in times of rain, and occasionally very strongly, as a flood.

Wilderness: In Scripture this has the figurative meaning of the gentile world in which we live, almost all of us. See Teh. 78, Teh. 106, Yesh. 14, Yirm. 50 & 51, Yeḥez. 20, 34, Hosh. 2, Rev. 12, Rev. 17, and remember Yisra’ĕl’s 40 years in the wilderness.

Word: As we pointed out in some of the footnotes, “word” and “command” and “teaching” are often used synonymously. יהוה is the Word, the embodiment of the Word, for the Word became flesh. He also said that the Words that He spoke are Spirit and they are Life (Yn. 6:63). Further, He says in 7 texts in the Book of Yoḥanan that His Words (or Commands, or Teachings) are exactly the same as His Father’s. He said this in 3:34, 7:16, 8:28, 8:40, 12:49, 14:24, 17:8 – seven texts in all, the perfect number! This fact of Him speaking the same Words (Commands, Teachings) as His Father, clearly identifies יהוה as being the True Prophet His Father had sent (Deḇ. 18:15-20).

Yehudah, Yehudim: We have used this name (in the singular and plural form), rather than the word “Jew,” because the latter has a negative connotation, and is much maligned amongst many, if not most, gentiles. Secondly, we also refrained from using the word “Juda,” because this word derives from the Greek Ἰουδαῖος (Judaioi) which was none other than a Greek deity (see W. H. Roscher’s lexicon of mythology). Thirdly, we hold the name “Yehuḏah” in high esteem for it contains the Name of הוהי, or rather, the first three letters of it, (the so-called Tri-grammaton) the abbreviated form of His Name! Since learning this we stand in awe, and therefore no longer use any other “gentilised” form of this name! The Massoretes vowel-pointed this name to read “Yehuḏah.” However, in old Assyrian texts we find that they called them Iaudaia (probably pronounced: Ya-u-da-ia)! So, which one is right – “Yehuḏah” or “Yahuḏah”? Is it possible that the Massoretes tried to disguise or mask or hide the Name here too? It might well be, or it may be a simple matter of differing stress-points in the different languages. Nevertheless, we know for certain that the Name of הוהי is contained in the name of the fourth son of Ya’aqoḇ because Ber. 29:35 says so! Read it for yourself. The name Yehuḏah means: “Let הוהי be praised,” or as Keil & Delitzsch’s Commentary puts it: “The one for whom YHWH is praised.” The fact of Yehuḏah’s name being “theophoric,” i.e. containing the Name of הוהי, is acknowledged by Keil & Delitzsch, as well as other scholars of the Hebrew Scriptures, such as Procksch, Lewy, Albright, Millard and Zorell. For many years we wondered about those many texts wherein הוהי (or His Son יהוה) says that His Name “shall be put on the children of Yisra’ël,” or “that the Name of יהוה is called upon you.” We read of this in many places: Bem. 6:27, Deęb. 28:10, 2 Dibre 7:14, Yesh. 43:7, Yesh. 63:19, Yirm. 14:9, Amos 9:12, Acts 15:17, Ya’aqoḇ 2:7, Rev. 3:12, Rev. 14:1, Rev. 22:4, etc. And then a few years ago we learnt that some Messianic Yehuḏim were led to believe that the Name of יהוה is indeed called upon His people, the Yehuḏim. True Yehuḏim are those whose hearts are circumcised together with the born again gentiles who are grafted in among them (see Rom. 2:26-29, Rom. 11:17-24, Rev. 21:12, Yehez. 47:22-23).

Yisra’ël: The name means to strive, to overcome, then rule with Ėl, given to Ya’aqoḇ as a new name, when he strove, overcame with Ėl (Ber. 32:28). See Overcome. Only the overcomers are going to survive in the Great Distress of the end-time, and according to Scripture, Yisra’ël, though they are to be tried and refined as silver and gold is refined, will yet be chosen – again! See Yesh. 14:1, Yesh. 45:17, Yirm. 30:11, Yirm. 46:28, Yo’el 2:32, Yo’el 3:1, Amos 9:8, Miḵ. 5:3-4, Zek. 1:16-17, Zek. 2:8-12, Zek. 8:3-8, Zek. 8:23, Zek. 9:9, all of Zek. 13, all of Zek. 14, Rev. 3:8-12, Rev. 14:1-5, etc. Whenever Elohim refers to Yisra’ël in a positive way, it means true Yisra’ël. In Rom. 9:6 we read, “For they are not all Yisra’ël who are of Yisra’ël.” Theologians speak of an Yisra’ël within an Yisra’ël, also called the “remnant.” These are the Yisra’ëlitës who believe and obey. These Yisra’ëlitës are those who are Spiritual, saved, living righteous lives. There are many Yisra’ëlites who are carnal, who are not true Yisra’ëlites. For instance, in Yirm. 9:26 Yisra’ël is strongly reproved because their hearts are not circumcised. Yet Scripture repeatedly speaks of “the remnant of Yisra’ël” that shall return (turn back), “the remnant of Yisra’ël” that shall be saved. True Yisra’ël (the true Yehuḏim) are those whose hearts are circumcised, who keep the Law! (Rom. 2:25-29, Deęb. 10:12-16, Deęb. 30:6-8). And the truly born again gentiles are grafted in among these Yisra’ëlites who are Spiritual – those who no longer wish to sin, who no longer live according to the flesh (Rom. chs. 6-8).

INTRODUCTION

In the past few centuries the Spirit of Elohim has moved scholars, calling and equipping them, to search and to do research in the Scriptures: Hebrew, Greek and related subjects. This research has led to the increase of knowledge, as was indeed prophesied (Daniĕl / Dan. 12:4).

This great move of the Spirit among these scholars has greatly blessed millions of sincere believers. They were indeed bringing to light (out of the treasure) hidden truths, renewed truths and old truths (Mattithyahu / Mt. 13:52). All this treasured knowledge was given through these scholars to all of us, and we are greatly indebted to all of them.

This present work of translating the Scriptures had its origin in the year 1971 when a few of us began to search and to do research, after having been called - explicitly called. Soon after this work started “called out” believers from all over the world joined in to help.

THE PURPOSE OF THIS TRANSLATION

While there have been many fine translations which have been a source of blessing to so many, we have felt the need for a translation of the Scriptures which:

i. restores the Name of the Almighty to its rightful place in the text (see THE RESTORATION OF THE NAME, below).

ii. is recognisably Messianic in that it affirms the Hebraic roots of the Messianic belief by its appearance, by the use of Hebraic forms of certain words and titles, and by its usage of the same division of the pre-Messianic books of Scripture (the Tanak or “Old Testament”) that was current at the time of our Messiah.

iii. restores the meaning to so many words which have become popular to use, but do not accurately reflect the meaning of the original - for example, church, glory, holy, sacrifice, soul, etc.

iv. seeks to be as far as possible a “literal” translation, wherever possible rendering key words uniformly (exceptions being noted in footnotes or the Explanatory Notes).

THE RESTORATION OF THE NAME

“The Scriptures” differs radically from most other translations in that it does not continue in the tradition of substituting the Name of the Father and of the Son with names ascribed to gentile (pagan) deities. All the names of deities which in the past have been ascribed to the Father, the Son, and even used when engaged in worship, have been avoided.

One of the post-exilic-apostasies of Orthodox Judaism was the avoidance of the Name of the Almighty, the so-called Tetragrammaton, (the four lettered Name, ה'ה'). Because of this and a similar and continued suppression and substitution of the Name by the Church, much harm was done to the True Worship. When anyone enquires about this he is told: “The Name has been translated into English as LORD, as was similarly done in other languages.” This argument does not hold water. Guiseppe in Italian corresponds to Joseph in English; however, Guiseppe Verdi cannot be translated as Joseph Green in English, even if that is what it means in English! The proper name of any individual is not translated; it is always transliterated or transcribed in order to approximate its original pronunciation. We repeat: the proper name of any individual is simply not translated, more especially when we are dealing with the most important Beings in all the universe: the Most High (יהוה) and His Son (ישו)!

We thought of rendering the Father's Name (יהוה) as Yahuweh (pronounced with the accent on the “u”). On the other hand, John H. Skilton, The Law and the Prophets, pp. 223, 224, prefers “Yahoweh”. The Assyrians transcribed the Name as “Ya-u-a”, so Mowinckle and other scholars prefer “Yahowah”. Some scholars prefer “Yehowah”, because that is the way the Massoretes vowel-pointed it. (Whether this vowel-pointing of the Name was done in truth, or whether it was done to “disguise” the Name, in accordance with the instruction given in the Mishnaic text of Tamid vii.2 (=Sota vii.6), we do not know for certain. There is also the Rabbinical interpretation of the Massoretic text saying that the vowels e,o and a were added to the Name as a Qerɛ perpetuum which means that the reading of Adonai or Elohim is to be used instead. However, there is no definite proof that the Massoretes originally did it for this reason). Then again, many scholars favour the rendering “Yahweh”. In any event, we decided to avoid controversy over the precise pronunciation and to render it in Hebrew characters as יהוה.

Such a rendering has solid historical precedent in the earliest copies of the Septuagint (LXX), and has the merit of being true to the text, neither adding nor subtracting by means of substitutions (however well-intended). It has also the additional merit of allowing the individual reader to progress in his own quest for accuracy of pronunciation, as he seeks to obey the scriptural injunctions to call on the Name (Shemoth / Ex. 3:15; Yeshayahu / Is.12:4; Yirmeyahu / Jer. 10:25; Tehillim / Ps. 105:1,3); to make it known (Shemoth / Ex. 9:16; Yeshayahu / Is. 64:1,2; Ye-ezqël / Ez. 39:7); and to not obliterate or forget it (DeÄarim / Dt. 12:3,4; Yeshayahu / Is. 65:11; Yirmeyahu / Jer. 23:27; Tehillim / Ps. 44:20)! In the same way the Messiah's Name in Hebrew, ישו, was chosen in order to avoid controversy. All the available authoritative sources and references are in agreement and clearly admit that our Messiah's Name was ישו (see for instance even Kittel's Theological Dictionary of the New Testament, under Iesous). However, while some believe that this spelling should be pronounced in the traditional way, i.e. “Yehoshua” others influenced by the Murashu Text suggest the pronunciation “Yahushua”. So we decided to print the Name of the Messiah (ישו) in Hebrew characters as we have done with the Name יהוה.

While the short post-exilic form “Yeshua” (ישוע) is popular with many (indeed the Shem Tob Hebrew text of Mattithyahu renders it as such, as also the Hebrew translation of the “New Testament” by F. Delitzch), Dr. Solomon Zeitlin refutes this form as the Name of our Messiah, favouring instead the form ישו (see The Jewish Quarterly Review, Jan.1970, p.195). Also see Post-exilic Apostasy in the

At this stage we need to explain the word “Elohim” used in this translation. English translations have traditionally rendered it as “God” or as “god(s)” in most instances. However, the Hebrew word “elohim” is the plural form of “eloah”, which has the basic meaning of “mighty one”. This word is not only used for deity, but is used in Scripture for judges, angels and idols (Shemoth / Ex. 7:1; 9:28; 12:12; 22:8,9; Tehillim / Ps. 8:5; 82:1,6) besides being used frequently for the Almighty. The shorter forms, “el” and “elim” have the same basic meaning and similar usage. (Needless to say, the same applies to the Aramaic equivalents, such as “elah” and “elahin”). By transliterating these expressions instead of translating them as “Mighty One” we discovered a richness in them, and therefore retained them, with the exception of a few instances (noted in footnotes), where the translation of “mighty one” or “mighty ones” seemed more appropriate.

THE ORDER AND TITLES OF THE BOOKS

In accordance with our aim to affirm the Hebraic roots of our Belief we have:

i. transliterated the names of the books of the Tanaḵ (Old Testament), and where appropriate have done the same in the Messianic Scriptures (New Testament). For your convenience the traditional English names of the books, together with the transliterated forms are to be found in the Table of Contents. Also, in the Table of Contents alongside of the English forms of Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers, and Deuteronomy, we have used the forms 1 Mosheh, 2 Mosheh, etc. as per the usage of some German translations, which thereby display the unity of the five books, and their common Mosaic authorship.

ii. followed the traditional Hebraic order of the Tanaḵ, (Torah, Neḇiʾim, Kethuḇim) viz.

First, The Torah - Law

We have rendered it by the Hebrew word itself, Torah, i.e. the five books of Mosheh (Moses), also known as the Ḥumash, or (The Pentateuch), Law or Teaching. They consist of the following 5 books:

Berēshith (Genesis, 1 Mosheh)
Shemoth (Exodus, 2 Mosheh)
Wayyiqra (Leviticus, 3 Mosheh)
Bemiḏbar (Numbers, 4 Mosheh)
Deḇarim (Deuteronomy, 5 Mosheh)

Then, The Neḇiʾim - Prophets

These books are known as The Prophets, not because of the element of prediction (a considerable amount of their content is historical rather than predictive!), but because of being written by prophets. They are divided into two categories, the Former Prophets, and the Latter Prophets, referring to their time of writing. The Latter Prophets were further divided into Major Prophets, and Minor Prophets (known as The Twelve). Please note that we have restored the book of Dani’el to its rightful place among the Prophets*, as also did Josephus. We have placed it between Yehezqel / Ezekiel (the third of the Latter Prophets), and Shnem Asar / The Twelve (the fourth of the Latter Prophets), instead of including it among The Kethuim (Writings), as is usually done. They consist of the following 9 books, i.e. 8 books, plus* Dani’el:

*Dani’el (Daniel)

Shnem Asar is one book, containing the works of twelve prophets.

- Hoshēa (Hosea)
- Yo’el (Joel)
- Amos (Amos)
- Obaḏyah (Obadiah)
- Yonah (Jonah)
- Miḵah (Micah)
- Naḥum (Nahum)
- Ḥabaqquq (Habakkuk)
- Tsephanyah (Zephaniah)
- Ḥaggai
- Zeḵaryah (Zechariah)
- Mal’aki (Malachi)

Then, The Kethuim - Writings

They are the remaining books of the Tanaḵ (Old Testament). These consist of the following: (10 books, i.e. 11 less Dani’el)

- Tehillim (Psalms)
- Mishlē (Proverbs)
- Iyoḇ (Job)
- Shir haShirim (Song of Songs)
- Ruth
- Ţeḵah (Lamentations)
- Qoheleth (Ecclesiastes, Convener)
- Estēr (Esther)
- Ezra - Neḥemyah (Nehemiah)
- Diḇre haYamim (1 & 2) (Chronicles, Annals)
Thus, the Torah, Neḇi’im, and Kethuḇim go to make up the TaNaK, which is commonly known as the “Old Testament”. There are 24 books in all, according to the Hebraic reckoning (as given above), although the same books are reckoned by others to add up to 39, by counting the individual segments (such as 1 Shemu’ēl, 2 Shemu’ēl, Ezra, Neḇemyah, etc.)

THE TEXT

THE TANAK (Pre-Messianic Scriptures, commonly called The Old Testament)

The Tanaḵ in this translation is based on the Massoretic Hebrew and Aramaic text of the Scriptures, printed in the 1937 edition of Rudolph Kittel's Biblia Hebraica. This is based on the ben Asher text of Leningrad, B 19a. Generally speaking, there are few problems with the Massoretic text, because the Massoretes copied the Scriptures in great fear of making mistakes and altering the text. They used the device of the Kethiḥ and Qerê by means of which they indicated in the margins their preferred readings.

However, they did make a few changes in the text itself which have been recorded for us, but unfortunately not all in one manuscript. In 134 places the Sopherim (Scribes) removed the Name ָּ ַָּ and substituted the term Adonai. In a further 8 places the Name ָּ ַָּ was substituted by the term Elohim. These have been collected by Dr. C.D. Ginsberg in his Introduction to the Massoretico-Critical Edition of the Hebrew Bible, (Ktav Publishing House Inc. New York), and are also recorded in Appendix 30-34 of Dr. E.W. Bullinger's The Companion Bible (Zondervan).

We have accordingly restored the text to its original readings in these 142 places, and have also restored the text in accordance with the “Eighteen emendations of the Sopherim”, which are also recorded for us by Dr. C.D. Ginsberg. A list of these 160 places is provided in the Explanatory Notes for your convenience.

THE MESSIANIC SCRIPTURES (commonly called The New Testament)

An increasing number of scholars have, especially lately, taken a stand against the popular belief that the “New Testament was inspired in the Greek language”. With this we heartily agree. There are close to 28 000 Greek manuscripts or fragments containing all or part of the Messianic Scriptures. The alarming fact is that “every one of these handwritten copies differs from every other one”! This being the case then, which one was the Greek manuscript breathed-out by the Almighty? For example, in the text of Ephesians 1:18, one Greek manuscript reads, “the eyes of your heart being enlightened”, whereas a different Greek manuscript reads, “the eyes of your understanding being enlightened”. Now which word represents the actual word which the “Almighty inspired to be written - “heart” or “understanding”? Believing as we do, that the very words of Scripture themselves are inspired (in the original manuscripts, of course), presents the problem of deciding between the two readings. But, if the original text was not Greek, but Hebrew or Aramaic, the different Greek readings are easily explained as being translations. In Hebrew idiom the heart is the seat of the mind or thoughts, whereas in Greek idiom (as with English) the heart is the seat of the emotions. Thus one translator rendered the Hebrew word for “heart” by the Greek word for “heart”, while the other rendered it by the Greek word for “understanding”. Both renderings then are valid; one as a “literal” translation of the Hebrew word (carrying also the danger of being misunderstood as “emotions” by the Greek or English reader); the other as a translation of the Hebrew concept. Thus variant Greek manuscripts may not necessarily be in conflict with one another if we consider them to be translations of an inspired Hebrew or Aramaic original.

So, there is a good case to be made for the view that the originals were inspired in a Semitic language and not in Greek, as is commonly supposed. This means of course, that we are attempting to faithfully put before the reader an English text that accurately reflects the inspired Semitic originals, when in fact the oldest and vast majority of texts we have available are Greek! To the extent that we have succeeded in this, we can only give praise to the Most High. However we are well aware of our shortcomings, and the possibility, even the probability that we have fallen far short of our goal. In this respect, let it be said that we do not view our work as in any way final or definitive. Rather, we hope that it will encourage others to re-examine what they may have always taken for granted, and to research these matters for themselves. (We extend an ongoing invitation to any who can give input that will improve future editions of The Scriptures, especially in regard to the matter of Semitic originals).

In addition to the above, there is the matter of substituting the Name of the Father and the Son with other terms, especially in light of the scriptural prohibition against adding to or diminishing from the words of the Most High (Deḇarim / Dt. 4:2;12:32; Mishlē / Pr.30:4-6). And if it be further admitted (see for example, Explanatory Notes, under Jesus) that the Greek text uses terms that come direct from pagan deities for both the Father and the Son, then it becomes abundantly clear from Scripture itself (Deḇarim / Dt. 23:13; Yehoshua / Jos. 23:7; etc.) that such texts could not possibly be the inspired originals, but rather they are translations, ultimately descending from the Semitic originals.

What text then were we to use? Since the originals are no longer extant, there was no alternative but to make use of the existing Greek manuscripts, carefully considering the additional testimony of Semitic texts such as the Peshitta (Aramaic), the Shem Tōḇ (Hebrew), etc. Even here, however there are problems, in that for each of the main streams of textual types (e.g. Byzantine / Textus Receptus vs. Alexandrinus, Sinaiticus, and Vaticanus) there are those who contend that a particular type and that one alone represents the true original. We cannot therefore claim that our text represents a translation of any particular underlying text.

As a modus operandi then, we have started out using the Textus Receptus, modifying our rendering as seemed appropriate in light of those other texts which we consulted, such as the Nestle-Aland text and the Shem Tōḇ text, noting certain differences in the footnotes, where necessary.

In harmony therefore with the above principles, we restored the Names of the Father and of the Son, and the names of all the Hebrew individuals, in accordance with the Hebrew, especially as found in the Tanak / Old Testament. We also restored the names of the places in Yisra’êl, for after all, we are dealing with a Jewish worship; we are dealing with the Elohim of Yisra’êl; we are dealing with יהוה, the Sovereign of the Yehudim - as He is called in no less than 23 places in the Messianic Scriptures (New Testament).

TRANSLITERATION

In rendering Hebrew names we tried to be as exact as possible. However, with a few names there was a problem, e.g. the name Dani’êl is spelt in three different ways, but all three of these spellings result in the same pronunciation. Therefore it was decided to strive for consistency and render such names according to a single spelling, in order to retain the original pronunciation as best we could. We departed from this, however, in two cases, viz. in that of the ‘theophoric’ names (those containing part of the Name יהוה), where we felt compelled to add the suffix -yah or -yahu, exactly as it appears in the Hebrew text, and in the case of certain terms such as Elohim, where we opted to use an Anglicised form, Elohim, instead.

Also, where it proved impossible for us to trace an original Semitic form of certain names, we have retained the Anglicised form that has become traditional, such as Mark, Luke, etc.

For your guidance we have inserted a Table of Pronunciation immediately after the Preface.

PROPHECIES

A vertical hairline has been drawn alongside certain prophecies. These prophecies are those which appear to have not yet come to consummation as at the time of this edition (1998) being prepared for printing. Some of these prophecies may have already been partially fulfilled, or even had an earlier (or first) fulfillment, for instance Yo’êl 2:28-32. But this passage in Yo’êl shall only come to consummation in the end-times, the latter days, the time of the latter rain. Some scholars speak of these prophecies as having a double reference. These prophecies have been marked by us with a vertical hairline to underscore the relevance of the Scriptures in our own times!

FINAL WORD

We stand in awe and fear before the Most High, knowing that every word rendered in this version, The Scriptures, shall be accounted for. Much is going to be required from those to whom much has been given (Luke12:48). As previously stated, we do not offer our labours to the public as the “last word” on these matters, and welcome feedback and useful input from any who have insight or information relevant to the improvement of this translation.

With this new translation, The Scriptures, we wish to reach out a hand of love toward all believers of all backgrounds, pleading that we join hands and turn back to יהוה Who will then turn back to us (Ze’karyah 1:3 and Hoshêa 6:1-3). Let us do so by turning to יהושוע Who came to save us from our sins, thereby reconciling us with His Father. Let us heed Messiah’s call in Revelation 18:4 to come out of Babel and stop sharing her sins. This call is Messiah’s call to “Come out of her”, to come out of this world of sin in which we live, and be set apart by יהוה, and unto יהוה. It is an invitation to people of all nations, tribes, kindred and tongues: to repent of sin, to accept יהושוע as Saviour, Master and Sovereign. Let יהוה rule us, let יהושוע be our Sovereign, let יהושוע graft us into the Olive Tree, the true Yisra’el who truly believe and truly obey יהוה!

Please note that the ‘ within a Hebrew name represents an aleph, a smooth breathing, and for practical purposes may be considered a ‘silent’ letter.

Similarly, the ‘ represents the letter ayin, a rough breathing, and it too, may for practical purposes be considered a ‘silent’ letter. So ‘Amorah (Gomorrah) may be read as Amorah, and in fact we have rendered it as such. Thus aleph and ayin take on the sound of the vowel that they ‘carry’.
